

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 744 - Key Evidence

C744 Key Evidence

Minister of Finance's room was just across from Yan'er's bedroom.

That was why the two of them came upstairs.

"Mom, I have some matters to attend to up there. Don't come up here casually." Yan'er yelled downstairs and then quietly went into Minister of Finance's room.

This room was not a bedroom, but a study. Sometimes Minister of Finance would work here.

He even met some people here.

So this was a secret office.

"Don't open that door, there are sensors and fingerprints on it. If anyone else touches it, my father will be the first to receive the news."

Wu Tian was reaching out his hand to open the door. Luckily, it was Yan'er who warned them otherwise, their operation would have failed.

"Then how do we get in?"

Yan'er waved at Wu Tian and pulled him into her bedroom.

The girl's room was filled with fragrance, and there were also many very pink decorations.

It was obvious that Yan'er had a pretty girlish heart.

However, the two of them did not have the time to carefully look at each other. Yan'er brought Wu Tian to the window.

"Get out from here and jump to the window at the side. You can get in."

Yan'er showed Wu Tian the way familiarly. From the looks of it, it was not the first time.

"Really? "I can see that it's quite tall outside ..." Wu Tian looked out of the window. It wasn't because he was afraid, it was mainly because there was nothing he could do to help, so it would be difficult to climb over.

"Watch me." Yan'er easily flipped over the window and pulled out a metal rope. Holding onto the rope, she carefully and quickly moved her body over.

Her speed was very fast, and the whole process did not even take a minute as she had already flipped to the room next door.

Wu Tian naturally did not want to be outdone, so he quickly went over.

The furnishings and furnishings inside the study seemed to be very standard and standard. There didn't seem to be anything superfluous.

"See if there's anything that's useful to you." There were a lot of documents here, but Yan'er didn't really understand them herself. She could only let Wu Tian look for them himself.

Against the wall was a row of bookcases filled with folders.

Wu Tian didn't say anything and quickly went over to check. There were quite a lot of bank transfer lists, even contracts and the like.

Although most of them were useful, Wu Tian felt that they were useless to him.

The small amounts of bribes and stuff were nothing to him.

What he wanted was a contract between Minister of Finance and Shuangxing Company company.

However, even after looking for a lot of places, Wu Tian still couldn't find what he was looking for.

When the two of them were preparing to continue, they heard the sound of a car coming from downstairs. The two of them ran to the window and looked outside. Minister of Finance just came back at this moment.

Yan'er's mother had already gone out to greet him.

"What should we do? My dad is back!" Yan'er was a little worried. The two of them were still in the study room. The moment Minister of Finance returned, the first thing he did was to check out this room.

"Hide first." Wu Tian couldn't care so much anymore. He saw that there were a few big cabinets in the study, so he pulled Yan'er and hid inside.

Soon, after a short period of time, Minister of Finance opened the door of the room and walked in.

"Tell me, what happened?" Minister of Finance seemed to be talking to someone else.

Since Wu Tian and the rest couldn't see outside, they could only use their own ears to listen.

"It was Yan'er and I who quarreled, and then she picked up someone near the police station and said it was her boyfriend. I thought it was fake, but she wouldn't admit it. "Later on, I was prepared to teach that brat a lesson, but I didn't expect him to have some power ..."

Gao Fu Dong's voice sounded. This time, the one that was shocked wasn't Wu Tian, but Yan'er.

"How could he know my father ..." Yan'er felt that she had never let the two of them meet before, but now that they were outside chatting, it seemed like they had known each other for a long time.

"Have you investigated that person's identity?" Minister of Finance frowned, but this wasn't a big deal.

Fortunately, nothing had happened to Yan'er, so this was the best outcome.

"Yes, it seems to be China's Wu Tian."

"Wu Tian?" Minister of Finance was quite familiar with this name. Previously, he seemed to have had some conflicts with Shuangxing Company Corporation, but nothing seemed to have appeared afterwards.

He was entrusted by Shuangxing Company Corporation and he even specifically sent the police to arrest him.

"You mean, this Wu Tian and Cui Yongji are rather close?"

This was what troubled Minister of Finance.

The two people he wanted to deal with actually knew each other and were most likely in the same group. Wouldn't that increase the pressure on him?

"It can't be wrong ..." Gao Fudong and Minister of Finance continued talking, but after finishing what they wanted to say, he was quickly sent away by Minister of Finance.

Wu Tian and Yan'er felt terrible inside the cabinet. The cabinet was small and cramped, it was already difficult for both of them to fit inside.

Yan'er and Wu Tian were also very close to each other. They could almost hear each other's breathing from the close proximity of their bodies.

Finally, it was quiet outside. The two of them intended to move a little, but Minister of Finance started to move again.

He sounded like he was rummaging for something.

Wu Tian opened a small crack and looked outside.

Minister of Finance opened a small hidden compartment under his desk and took out a document. He looked at it carefully and then carefully put it back.

Needless to say, what Wu Tian wanted was probably in that place.

When Minister of Finance went out, Wu Tian and the other two waited for the car to go far away before they came out of the cabinet. He immediately ran over to open the secret compartment.

The documents inside were indeed the contracts with the Shuangxing Company Group. Not only did it mention that they wanted to divert the National Fund over, they also required the Shuangxing Company Group to provide them with interest every month.

This was absolutely an invincible piece of evidence. Just this alone would definitely be enough to cause a huge uproar in the entire Korea Country.

Wu Tian took a picture of these documents and then put them back.
