

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 751 - It Has Been Decided to Leave

C751 It Has Been Decided to Leave

In less than an hour, both Scarface and Superintendent Liu had their police uniforms taken off.

Even the items on their desks were thrown out.

Things happened too suddenly, to the point that the two of them were standing at the doorway of Police Station, not knowing where they should go.

Scarface and Superintendent Liu looked at each other. They looked at each other, but couldn't say anything for a long time.

However, when Wu Tian walked out of the Police Station, he happened to see the two of them in such dire straits.

"What's wrong?" Yan'er looked at Wu Tian and suddenly stopped walking. She did not know what had happened to him.

"Go over there and wait for me." Wu Tian told Yan'er to go to the car first while he walked quickly towards Superintendent Liu and the other two.

"What happened to you two? Were you expelled?"

Actually, he didn't need to ask this question. He knew it the moment he saw it.

"Are you here to laugh at us?" Scarface's face was gloomy. He never thought that he would be mocked by others at this time.

Wu Tian didn't mock him. Instead, he patted Scarface's shoulder in a friendly manner.

"You misunderstand. I also feel very sad that you were fired. This way, if you have any problems later on, you can contact me."

As he said this, he handed over his name card and left the scarred man and Superintendent Liu with a meaningful smile.

Looking at Wu Tian's leaving figure, Superintendent Liu stood there blankly as if she was lost in thought.

"Let's go, since we have already been expelled, there's no point in staying here any longer." Scarface was already very disappointed with this place.

Clearly, the two of them had done nothing wrong.

But they were forced to take all the responsibility.

How are you going to justify this kind of thing?

Moreover, this matter, they were obviously taking the blame for the police chief.

Back then, he had clearly said that he was responsible for everything.

In the end, when something really happened, this guy ran away faster than anyone else.

"Where are you going?" Having lost her position as a police officer, Superintendent Liu momentarily felt at a loss.

She had worked hard to become a police officer when she was in school. Until now, she had never left the police system.

"I'll go back to my hometown and have a look. It's been a long time since I've been back." The Knifescar fellow looked off into the distance. Recalling all the things that had happened in his hometown, he couldn't help but feel some anticipation in his heart.

"Where did you go?" Yan'er was curious as to why Wu Tian would talk to these policemen. Wasn't it because of them that Wu Tian was locked up?

Wu Tian just smiled, "It's fine. Go and establish a good relationship with my two future employees. Oh yeah, send me back to the company. Has your father been doing well recently?"

Yan'er started her sportscar. She didn't have much to say on this matter.

"Originally, I thought he would be very angry or sad. But now, it seems that his mood has become a lot more relaxed and more cheerful than before."

It seemed that this incident, from a certain point of view, was not necessarily a bad thing.

After returning to the company, Wu Tian quickly went upstairs. Wu Zaibin only nodded when he saw him coming back.

"I knew you would come back, there's nothing they can do about you."

"Let's not talk about me, what's the situation in the trading market?"

Wu Tian was more concerned about the market right now. He didn't want anything abnormal to happen on the day he was locked up.

"The situation is still the same. The government's foreign exchange reserves have been used up and prices have been plunging."

Wu Zaibin was rarely excited about this, so he didn't feel that new after watching it for a while.

"Perfect, then let's throw out all the money we have in our hands." Wu Tian felt that this matter had already been delayed here for a long time. If this goes on, he still didn't know if Korea's people would cause any problems.

It was obvious that the other side was starting to notice his movements. Judging from the current situation, they probably wanted to catch Wu Tian.

It's just that they don't have enough evidence to show them.

However, if a person does not have enough worries, there will be a mistake. Wu Tian did not wish for himself to be imprisoned in Korea.

"Alright, I'll listen to you." Of course, Wu Zaibin did not waste his breath. He immediately started to handle this matter.

Seeing the price of the Korea currency falling all the way, Wu Tian's mood improved a lot.

The things over here were about to end soon. Wu Tian quickly pulled Loong Yun along to complete the mission.

"Are we going back in a few days?" Loong Yun was a little surprised because Wu Tian told her that he was going back to his home.

Wu Tian looked at the time. It had been almost a month since he came, and there was already quite a bit of time left.

"Otherwise, the things we do are too sensitive. It would be better for us to slip away as soon as possible."

Since Wu Tian had already spoken, Loong Yun didn't deny anything.

"It's fine if we leave, but you left a huge mess behind." Loong Yun handed over the documents one by one as she spoke.

"This is the space company's plan, this is the brainwave device development plan, this is the virtual currency research and development plan, do you know how many things you've done here during this period of time, and that red light district, you're just going to leave like that, who's going to handle the rest?"

All of a sudden, Wu Tian was stunned by Loong Yun's question. He didn't expect himself to have inserted his hand in so many places.

But it seemed like every single one of them was a very useful industry. Honestly speaking, he wasn't too willing to give up on them all.

Speaking of this, Wu Tian suddenly remembered that Hong Xiangtai had previously mentioned to him that there was a small island in the ocean between the Korea and the China, which was very suitable for them to build spaceflight facilities.

Didn't he always worry that these companies didn't have anywhere to put them?

It just so happened to be the best time to buy the island, since Korea's currency had fallen by a huge margin.

"Loong Yun, go and investigate if we can buy this island." Wu Tian pointed at the small island on the map excitedly. Suddenly, an even bigger plan appeared in his mind.

"What, buy the island?" Loong Yun looked at Wu Tian with a weird expression. She wanted to touch his forehead to see if he had a fever.
