

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 752 - Red Face White Face

C752 Red Face White Face

Although she was surprised, Loong Yun had already accepted Wu Tian's request.

This was not the first time he had proposed such an idea. It was always a whimsical thought, but just as it was about to materialize, they would know that his decision was quite correct.

"I'll go and contact them in the next two days regarding the purchase of the island." Loong Yun had already agreed to this matter, but her gaze was still on Wu Tian, looking at him up and down.

Wu Tian was a bit scared by her look, "What's wrong? "Staring at me like that."

"You were sent back by a girl just now, right?" Loong Yun's gaze carried some ill intentions.

"Yeah, don't misunderstand. There's nothing going on between her and me. She is Minister of Finance's daughter. It was all thanks to her that I was able to find that crucial piece of evidence."

Loong Yun snorted softly. "I didn't misunderstand anything. I just wanted to tell you that if you have any private matters of your own, you should take care of them before leaving."

With that, Loong Yun turned and left. Wu Tian was at a loss of what to do. What was this guy talking about?

Guan Ruonan's health had improved a lot in the past few days. She seemed to be in good spirits.

She couldn't get out of bed yet, but she could already sit on her bed and work.

Wu Tian's visit surprised Guan Ruonan. She did not expect Wu Tian to come see her.

"President Wu ..."

Guan Ruonan wanted to get off the bed, but she could only bow slightly in the bed as a form of greeting.

"Guild Leader Guan, as long as you have a good rest, you'll be fine. It seems like you've had a good rest."

Wu Tian even brought a lot of nutritional supplements as a way to raise Guan Ruonan.

"You are too polite ..." Guan Ruonan said as she winked at her secretary.

They quickly left the ward, closed the door, and waited at the door.

"What are you doing here today?" Wu Tian didn't come here for no reason. How could he not have anything else to say?

Wu Tian smiled. He looked at the door vigilantly and whispered, "I'm going back home."

"Eh?" Guan Ruonan was shocked by the news and it came as a surprise to her.

"This is my decision from the past two days. I didn't have the time to inform you."

Looking at the injured Guan Ruonan on the bed, Wu Tian actually felt quite uncomfortable.

She was attacked because someone wanted to attack Wu Tian. So she was accidentally hurt.

Therefore, Wu Tian always felt that he owed her.

"Is that so? It's good for you to return to your home country as soon as possible. Actually, when I'm back home after recovering from my injuries, you haven't forgotten about the matter that I promised you, right?"

Although Guan Ruonan looked weak right now, the ambition in her eyes didn't decrease at all.

Thinking about this matter, Wu Tian felt that he was still blindly worrying about Guan Ruonan and felt foolish.

"Of course I won't forget, I promise you that I will do it. Moreover, this time Shuangxing Company company seems to have raised some funds from the China, I can't ignore this matter. I just wanted to see who would stab me in the back. "

Guan Ruonan smiled brightly at Wu Tian's expression.

"Then we'll discuss it. Wait for me at China. I'll definitely return."

He had expected to be sad, but the atmosphere of the conversation turned out to be like this.

When he came out of the ward, Wu Tian started counting on his fingers. What else did he have that he couldn't handle?

He calculated that there seemed to be only the red light district.

To be honest, Wu Tian hasn't been to that place even once since he bought it.

He did not have much time, so he handed over the management of the place to Tang Yanrou.

If he were to leave, it would be a little inexcusable not to go and take a look at that place.

Looking through his memories, Wu Tian found that this place had changed greatly.

In the past, it used to be red light, red light, and green light, but now it gave people a clean and refreshing feeling.

It was as if they had always been in a dark corner. Now that they finally saw the sunlight, it made them feel incomparably refreshed.

It seemed like this Tang Yanrou did have something up her sleeve. She was indeed the daughter of the former Chamber of Commerce.

Shangguan Junyi's previous shop had now become the management office of this street.

Tang Yanrou was the manager of this place, so she had to decide everything. With Soong Minji's help, she didn't need to worry about these Korea people disobeying orders.

The location of this street was not bad. The center of the city was right next to it. People came and went like ants.

The rent of the surrounding shops was a sky-high number. However, because of this characteristic, the red light district was much cheaper, but the turnover was not less than the other shops.

As no one who went in or out knew Wu Tian, no one came to greet him after he went in.

"You are all scammers!"

"Who is the swindler? We are clearly marked on the price list!"

From afar, a man and a woman were quarrelling with each other, and were walking over to him.

From the looks of it, he was here to make a complaint. Not only was the administration office here to manage the order of the entire street, they were also here to mediate over such matters.

"What's wrong? What's wrong?" Soong Minji heard the sound and quickly ran out.

Wu Tian purposely hid to the side to prevent Soong Minji from seeing his shadow.

"What's going on?" Soong Minji did not have a good attitude, he had a stern expression on his face.

However, the effect of his actions seemed to be quite good. The unfortunate customer who was arguing just now immediately became terrified upon seeing him.

"After he's done, he said there's a problem with our fees!" The girl received the backer and pointed at the man as she spoke.

Soong Minji immediately turned his gaze towards the customer, making him nervous.

"That's not it, that's not what I meant. Yesterday was not the same price, why did it rise so much in a single day ..." The customer also felt wronged, but there was nothing he could do about it.

This was because the Korea and currency were constantly weakening. If the price was still unchanged, then the red light district would not even have any hope of making money.

"Don't you know what's going on outside? Now that the money is becoming less and less valuable, we have no choice but to raise the price. " Before Soong Minji could say anything, Tang Yanrou's voice came from behind.

Her gentle voice immediately made the customer lose his temper and obediently handed over the money.

In the end, he even said that he would definitely come back next time.
