

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 754 - Private Conversation

C754 Private Conversation

What were they doing? The more Wu Tian looked at it, the more he felt that something big must have happened here.

However, just when he wanted to try harder, he suddenly heard a sound coming from behind him.

Wu Tian quickly turned around and saw that Tang Yanrou also wanted to come up.

However, she wasn't prepared enough and she didn't have enough strength, so she didn't step on the chair and accidentally fell down.

Wu Tian wanted to see what was going on, but since he was on the ceiling, he couldn't just casually move around.

Unfortunately, it was not only Wu Tian who heard the voice, but also Chang Zairong and the others.

They were in the middle of a discussion when they suddenly heard a sound coming from the other side of the room, causing them to jump in fright.

The few of them rushed out and prepared to check next door.

He abruptly pushed the door open and saw a man and woman inside the room, laughing and joking.

Soong Minji was annoyed when he saw the door suddenly open.

"What are you doing? What's going on? How can you barge into someone's room so casually?"

The thugs looked at each other and confirmed that there was nothing wrong with the room. Then, they apologized and hurried back.

"These people are really going too far ..."

Watching them leave, Soong Minji mumbled as he lightly knocked on the ceiling.

Wu Tian immediately knew what was going on and finally felt relieved.

It was really dangerous just now. If they rushed in to search, or found the abnormality in the ceiling, Wu Tian would have had nowhere to run.

However, luckily, they were alerted by the incident, so Chang Zairong and the others quickly left separately.

After being freed from the ceiling, Wu Tian quickly took a few deep breaths.

"How is it? Any news?" Tang Yanrou leaned over anxiously and passed Wu Tian a glass of water.

The ceiling was small and hot, and he was suffering.

"I don't know a lot of things, but there seems to be something wrong here." Earlier, Wu Tian had always thought that this so-called Mr. Liang was something that he cared a lot about. However, he couldn't remember who this Mr. Liang was.

It was probably because he had never seen it before. Otherwise, Wu Tian would definitely remember it.

"A few people rushed over just now. I've seen them before. They are the local underground powers."

Soong Minji had been hanging around this place all year round, so he had heard of a lot of things.

"Local underground power?" Wu Tian smacked his lips. He didn't know anything about this, but he didn't have time to care about it.

"They seem to be making some movement at S City, I have to return home. Tang Yanrou, are you going back? "

Wu Tian's speech was too sudden, and Tang Yanrou didn't know how to react.

"Hey, are we going back?" Tang Yanrou thought Wu Tian would develop in Korea for a while.

Wu Tian nodded, but looking at the time, it was already getting late. He decided to leave as soon as possible.

"Hurry up and think about it. This cannot be delayed."

Tang Yanrou was flustered for a moment. She had just managed the red light district, so if she left, it would be a waste of her efforts.

However, wasn't her real mission helping her father take revenge? What was the use of staying in this place?

Tang Yanrou clearly knew who her real enemy was. He must have had a direct relationship with Chang Zairong.

"Okay, I will return, but I will have to wait for a few days. After my brother is discharged from the hospital, I will go to S City."

After receiving Tang Yanrou's affirmation, Wu Tian was very satisfied. However, in the future, the red light district would have to be entrusted to Soong Minji.

After leaving the red light district, Wu Tian did not waste too much time and quickly returned to the company.

On the way here, Wu Tian had thought of a possibility.

There was a conflict between Tang Yanrou's father, Tang Liansheng, and Chang Zairong. And in the secret meeting just now, there was actually an underground power of the local Korea. This meant that Chang Zairong was connected to them.

In the past, Tang Yanrou's brother Tang Jun had said that the murderer was an underground force. Now, everything could be linked.

Behind all these things, it was not without Chang Zairong's help. Moreover, he was the president of the entire China's Chamber of Commerce, with a high position and authority. Furthermore, he also had money.

Didn't the people who attacked Wu Tian previously say that they were ordered to do so by the people from China?

Then the question would arise. Was it Chang Zairong who wanted Wu Tian dead?

Wu Tian felt that this matter was probably just as he had guessed.

He did not have that many powers in the Korea, so staying would be too risky.

When they arrived at the company, the first thing Wu Tian did when he saw Loong Yun was to ask her if her plane ticket was booked.

Loong Yun knew he was worried, but she didn't expect it to be this urgent. She immediately went to book a plane ticket.

If the work wasn't done, it didn't matter now.

Taking advantage of that night, Wu Tian hurriedly returned to the S City.

When he got off the plane, the air was still so familiar and the feeling was also very familiar.

Wu Tian instantly felt his whole body relax.

In fact, it had only been two or three hours since he had flown from S City to Korea, and it was very fast. As long as Wu Tian was willing, he could fly over every day.

"Let's go home first. You still haven't told them that I'm back yet, right?"

At this moment, Wu Tian felt something was wrong, it was because he didn't bring any specialties.

Going out and coming back without presents would definitely lead to a fierce beating by the family members.

"No, not really. What are you looking at?"

After her return, Loong Yun had returned to her previous serious look. She was no longer amiable at all.

"A gift, we forgot to buy one!"

Wu Tian looked around for the airport duty-free shop, hoping to find some Korean style.

He bought some from the store and should be able to deal with it.

"There's no need for you to worry about that. I've already settled this matter. The gifts will be delivered soon, but they're not on this plane."

Hearing Loong Yun's words, Wu Tian finally felt relieved. She was the one who considered everything.

"Let's go home first. It wasn't easy to get back, so I think we should rest for a while."

Wu Tian was already looking forward to his big bed.

Only when he arrived at the Wu Castle, did he remember that it was still in ruins. In the night wind, it looked like a haunted house.

Previously, when Zheng Taiwen led his men to attack, he set a fire. If it wasn't for Wu Zhi saving Wu Tian, they would have already died in this fire.

Since then, the Wu family castle had always been like this. No one would dare to have any thoughts about the castle without Wu Tian.

"President Wu, let's go to the company first. We'll stay there for a while."

Loong Yun handed Wu Tian a tissue at the right time and called the car to take Wu Tian away from this place that made him sad.
