

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 763 - The War of Public Relations

C763 The War of Public Relations

Although Wu Tian was mentally prepared for this situation, he didn't expect it to happen so suddenly.

Chang Zairong didn't give him time to prepare and directly went up to confront him.

"Loong Yun, go and contact Baili Zhenlin. Tell him that I have something to discuss with him."

As things stood, Wu Tian knew that it wouldn't be that easy for him to defeat Chang Zairong with just his own strength.

The main problem was that Chang Zairong was not easy to deal with, but he did not believe that someone would be willing to be obedient and not do business with Wu Group.

If it was before, Wu Group Company had many production-type enterprises, then if the General Chamber of Commerce requested that other enterprises not be allowed to cooperate with them, then it would be very deadly.

Without raw materials, there is no way to produce products.

However, Wu Tian wasn't that afraid right now, because this kind of business had long ago been stripped off Wu Tian, and now it belonged to the Moka Company.

And now, Wu Group Company only focused on entertainment and hotels, so it didn't really care about this prohibition.

However, this kind of ban was equivalent to slapping Wu Group's face. It was clear that they were going to cause trouble for them, which made Wu Tian very unhappy.

"President Wu, there's another bad news ..." Loong Yun's face looked nervous, but it wasn't for no reason. This time, the enemies were well-prepared.

They had come in full fury, and had basically targeted every single area of the Wu Group company to carry out their attacks.

"There's more?"

Wu Tian grinned and took a deep breath. They truly did have the strength. They didn't care about trifling matters. The moment they attacked, they dealt a huge blow.

Loong Yun handed over the tablet she had always been using in front of Wu Tian. The one on top of it was a website that was broadcast live on Seafood TV and Odd Fish.

Wu Tian had wasted a lot of effort to create these two projects, and now, they had become one of the top video websites in China.

However, within these two websites, there were quite a few posts and comments that criticized and insulted him.

Even on some websites, these two websites had been maliciously given low marks.

"They did this?" Wu Tian was a bit surprised. He never thought that he would be drowned by the troll army.

In addition, their attacks were very decisive. They directly combined their fists together.

"This is only a small part of it. We now find that there are a lot of public relations companies that are tarnishing us. They have posted a lot of articles that are defaming us."

Loong Yun was extremely anxious. If this were to continue, the live broadcast of her Seafood TV and Odd Fish would be destroyed.

"F * ck, Chang Zairong!" Wu Tie waved his fist and ruthlessly smashed into the wall beside him. The huge force even faintly created a small pit in the wall.

"President Wu, what should we do? Should we buy some public relations too?"

After calming down a little, Wu Tian started to think carefully about whether there was any reliable solution.

However, looking at the current situation, it was clearly unfavorable for Wu Tian to engage in a tug of war with them.

"No, we don't need to do public relations. Seafood TV and Odd Fish live broadcast are just like before. Don't bother about the comments that slander us. "

Wu Tian suddenly felt that this was a pretty good opportunity.

Their way of doing this was clearly done on purpose. If they used it well, it might become Wu Tian's advantage.

"What do you mean?" Loong Yun hesitated, she couldn't figure out what Wu Tian was planning.

"Of course I'm trying to think of a way. But there's no need to be anxious. I can definitely solve this problem."

Wu Tian first let Loong Yun busy herself. He sat alone in his office, deep in thought.

Initially, he thought he was strong enough. However, he didn't expect that in front of Chang Zairong, Wu Tian was just a fat sheep with a full of holes.

When he was at the Korea, Wu Tian had used Wu Zaiyao's media company several times to channel public opinion through them.

After thinking for a while, Wu Tian called Wu Zaiyao and told her something.

In the afternoon of the same day, some articles started appearing on China network, implicitly pointing out that China boss Commerce Chamber Chairman and Chang Zairong had misappropriated the merchant guild's funds.

And this money was to help the Shuangxing Company Group.

This article was like a catch. Although he didn't bring out any substantial evidence, it began to spread like a virus.

At the same time, Wu Tian brought Loong Yun to the tax bureau and voluntarily reported the payment of individual income tax.

As for his low-key trip, it was also accidentally caught by someone.

For a time, the internet was abuzz with excitement.

Many of them were brainwashed by the public relations department, and felt that Wu Tian's seafood TV and Odd Fish broadcast would definitely not work, it was extremely stinky.

However, there were also a lot of people who felt that Wu Tian was deliberately being suppressed. It was clear that he was being framed.

For a time, Wu Tian used these two steps to successfully salvage the situation. At least, he was on the same level as Chang Zairong.

In the evening, Baili Zhenlin finally showed up rarely in front of Wu Tian. Previously, they had walked together due to the pressure of Shuangxing Company company.

Currently, Shuangxing Company had already withdrawn all of its capital, but Chang Zairong had already started to purchase a large amount of Mecca Company, as if he wanted to take over from Shuangxing Company and become the head of the country.

Not only was the situation not relieved, but it had become even more complicated.

"Brother Baili, now that I've been banned, you must help me out."

Wu Tian raised his own red wine cup, and gave Baili Zhenlin a toast. He then took a sip from his glass.

Baili Zhenlin knew about these things very well. He was very well-informed.

"This is precisely the reason why I came here. To be honest, I am also very conflicted right now. This Chang Zairong has a lot of business dealings with our Baili family. This matter is not easy to deal with."

Unlike the Shuangxing Company company, Chang Zairong's advantage lay in his status as a merchant of China. Any case of purchase would not incite criticism from the citizens of the country.

After all, this kind of operation was reasonable and legal.

"You can't do this. No matter what, we are still friends. Now that I'm in trouble, you must help me out."

Wu Tian looked at Baili Zhenlin with his pitiful eyes, making Baili Zhenlin laugh all of a sudden.

"Haha, that's enough. If you have anything to say, just say it. The reason you called me here definitely isn't just to eat."
