C787 Excessive Mood Swings

The editor did not show any fear or any other emotions when he heard Su Cancan's words.

Su Cancan couldn't help but want to teach him a lesson, but Wu Tian stopped her.

"Don't move ..." Wu Tian shook his head at Su Cancan. This kind of thing was highly undesirable.

"Did you hear that? Hurry up and leave."

This time, the editor was even more cocky and wanted to chase Wu Tian and the others away. Now, he was going to use his own hands to push them away.

Just as he said this, his expression suddenly took a 180 degree turn.

If she was cold before, now she wants to hug your leg and shout oppa.

Su Cancan had a strange expression on her face. What had made him change his expression so quickly?

Wu Tian didn't know what he was willing to do, but he felt that perhaps it was due to his strong charisma. It moved this guy and made him realize his true identity.

"Like I said, I am ..." Before Wu Tian could finish, he was about to accept the editor's apology, but he was pushed away.

Wu Tian and Su Cancan almost crashed into the wall on the side.

"It's very rude of you, don't you know?" Wu Tian was very angry. His eyes followed the direction of the editor. He saw that the editor was heading towards a tall woman in high heels.

Behind her were a few other people who seemed to be her subordinates.

He didn't know who this woman was nor did he know her identity. He couldn't tell who she was with her sunglasses on.

Wu Tian and Su Cancan were both very unhappy. They had never been treated like this before. It was too embarrassing.

If it wasn't for Wu Tian, Su Cancan would have probably beaten this editor into a pig's head by now.

"President Wu is really unwelcome to visit us." The editor flattered her by following her side, looking like a dog face.

"Yes."

"Do you have some business for us this time?" Every time this woman came here, there would always be important revelations. This was a key factor in increasing their sales volume.

"We've been looking forward to the moon and stars these past few days. We've been waiting for you to come. You're the reincarnated parent of our city's business newspaper, creating new parents ..."

"Enough, why are you spouting so much nonsense. I have a mission to give you after I enter."

At this moment, the woman was already coming to Wu Tian and the others' side. However, from her angle, she still couldn't see Wu Tian and the others' faces, so she didn't know who these people were.

Just looking at the figures of these few people made her feel a sense of familiarity.

"Who are these people?"

The editor looked at the girl and said snappily, "I don't know where they are from. I was just about to kick them out."

Just as they were talking, Wu Tian and the others turned their heads and saw that they couldn't get in here and couldn't get in touch with Cheng Gui, so they simply didn't want to stay any longer.

However, they didn't expect to run into this woman as soon as they turned around.

The woman was immediately stunned and quickly stopped Wu Tian.

"President Wu!" The woman exclaimed, causing the editor beside her to be dumbfounded.

"What President Wu? He's a swindler."

The woman yelled at the editor in chief in a bad mood before quickly taking off her sunglasses.

"President Wu, it's me, it's Wu Zaiyao."

It turned out that this woman was Wu Tian's capable Minister of Propaganda, which was also Wu Zaibin's sister.

Previously, she was the one who controlled all the rumors in the Korea and guided the public opinion.

The matter regarding Chang Zairong was also under Wu Zaiyao's control.

"Why are you here?" Wu Tian was also surprised, he didn't expect to meet his own people here.

"I'm here to give the order, why are you here?" Wu Zaiyao was also very excited. Although she had interacted quite a bit with Wu Tian, she had basically never met him personally.

The two of them chatted quite animatedly here. However, the editor beside them felt as if he had fallen into a hole in his heart.

"That... Are you really President Wu? "

The editor asked cautiously. That arrogance from before was gone.

His hands were shaking. He was already a big deal just to see Wu Zaiyao, and this time, he actually offended Wu Tian.

Without this voice, he was afraid that he wouldn't be able to protect his city newspaper.

With their Wu Family, defeating this newspaper was simply an easy feat.

As long as Wu Zaiyao spoke, most likely everyone in the S City would dare to cooperate with them again.

"I don't change my name, nor do I change my family name. You wouldn't believe me if I told you that I'm Wu Tian." Wu Tian shrugged his shoulders. At this moment, Wu Zaiyao's expression had already turned ugly.

"What did you just do? "He actually doesn't recognize us, President Wu?" Earlier on, Wu Zaiyao asked this editor, and the editor even said that Wu Tian was a swindler.

"I'm sorry, I'm really sorry. I didn't recognize you ..."

The editor immediately knelt down in fear, hugging Wu Tian's leg and crying.

But at this time, who would be willing to bother with this guy? They were really snobbish people without any principles.

"This is the end of our cooperation." Wu Zaiyao did not hesitate to make her decision.

If it was something else, they might have a chance to discuss it. But now, this editor had really offended Wu Tian. Wu Zaiyao couldn't let this editor take on this responsibility.

"Please don't, President Wu. This is an important business that we have to maintain. Without your order, our newspaper will close immediately." The editor regretted it so much. If he had known this earlier, he wouldn't have wasted his time talking.

Now that he had offended Wu Tian, it was probably impossible for him to get any more business from Wu Zaiyao.

Wu Tian originally planned to ignore this editor. After all, this guy was clearly not a good person. From the looks of it, this newspaper was most likely directly related to him.

There was not much difference whether the newspaper was closed or not. There was no longer any meaning for it to exist.

However, Wu Tian looked at Cheng Gui in the blink of an eye and suddenly smiled. An idea came to his mind.

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 788 - Dig the Foot of Wall

C788 Dig the Foot of Wall

He smiled mischievously at the editor and put his arm around his shoulder.

This action frightened the editor quite a bit. Sweat trickled down his forehead.

"This way, I can get Wu Zaiyao and you guys to resume business. But one thing is, that Cheng Gui, you have to fire him for me."

The editor let out a long breath upon hearing Wu Tian's words.

"I thought you were talking about something, that's all. It's too easy to say. I've always disliked him before. Since you said so, I definitely have no problems with that!"

The editor said affirmatively, patting his chest and making a promise. Although it was a bit immoral to do so, since Cheng Gui was rather serious at work, it wasn't good to fire him just like that.

However, at this time, in order to receive business, the editor could not be bothered with that much.

He strode into the newspaper office and walked directly in front of Cheng Gui.

"You, don't write anymore." As he spoke, the editor threw down a document.

Cheng Gui thought this was a script that needed him to finish as soon as possible, so he accepted it without reading much.

However, when he opened it, there was a letter of resignation inside.

"Editor, what's going on?"

Cheng Gui was surprised. Didn't he just say that he would read the newspaper sales tomorrow?

Why was he being expelled now?

"What do you mean 'what happened?' Are you unable to understand the words on it? Do you want me to read it out loud for you?"

The editor's expression was merciless. Cheng Gui stared at him and shook his head.

"Never mind, I got it."

It was useless to say so much. Cheng Gui never liked arguing with others.

He had always chosen to believe in order, because there were rules, and then everyone could follow them.

But most of the time, the world wasn't like this.

For example, Cheng Gui was expelled this time.

However, he was already used to it. When other colleagues encountered such things, they would choose to have a big fight with their superiors. Even the worst case scenario would be to ask for more pay.

However, Cheng Gui had never done this before. He was not good at talking, nor was he good at arguing with others.

Thus, he was very clear that even if he did that, he would only become cannon fodder in other people's words.

All of this was because the system was not being implemented.

Cheng Gui felt that if he went back to the root cause, it would be that the capital didn't follow the rules, which was why so many kinds of things happened.

But with such a thing, if all the laws were exposed to the sun and there were no more black boxes, wouldn't that be the perfect world?

Cheng Gui packed his stuff, but in reality, he didn't have anything else, he was just a bag.

Before he left, he looked at the unwritten press release on the table, hesitated for a moment, then picked it up and put it in his bag.

Walking out of the newspaper office, Cheng Gui sighed. He didn't know where to go next or what kind of job he was going to find.

"Cheng Gui."

A voice sounded from behind him. Cheng Gui had heard this voice before, and not long ago, he had spoken to this person.

"President Wu?" Cheng Gui turned his head and looked at Wu Tian who was behind him with a surprised expression on his face.

"It seems like you have something on your mind."

Wu Tian looked as if he had seen through Cheng Gui. Of course he knew what was going on, because this matter was something Wu Tian had requested on purpose.

"It's fine. I'm already used to it. This world doesn't follow any rules. If you want to live here, you have to get used to it."

"Then, if you don't live in this place, are you interested?"

Cheng Gui laughed out loud when he heard Wu Tian's words. Even someone as idealistic as him knew that this was just an unrealistic dream.

"How could that be? We all need to earn money and support our families. People will starve to death if they don't eat, and people will freeze to death if they don't have clothes on."

His voice suddenly stopped, because he looked at Wu Tian and pointed at his head.

"I'm talking about this. It's this place. Do you want to live here?"

If anyone else didn't understand what Wu Tian said, then it would be understandable. However, Cheng Gui understood it in a split-second.

He looked at Wu Tian in disbelief and said in shock: "Are you the one who bought a large number of FTC that day?"

Wu Tian clapped his hands. This guy was really smart.

"That's right, that's me. That was the first time I came into contact with virtual currency, and I knew that this thing was an invention from a completely different era. Only, I didn't expect you to actually know about this FTC as well. I had thought that no one in the entire China would know about it earlier than me. "

Cheng Gui smiled. He wasn't too emotional because of this.

"This is nothing, because this FTC was developed by me. You are indeed the first one in China to know about this thing."

Now it was Wu Tian's turn to be shocked. Initially, he only wanted to poach Cheng Gui and work in his company to manage the FTC.

Who would have thought that this fellow was actually the one who developed the FTC?

"But that's not from the Korea?" You have to know, Wu Tian met the FTC in the brainwave device developed by Korea of Korea of Korea of Korea of Korea.

"That was released in Korea, because I coincidentally have this fanhua and I understand some of the algorithms."

Cheng Gui had always been very calm, as if he had let go of everything long ago.

"Oh my god, I really didn't expect it." Wu Tian calmed his mood and straightened his expression.

"Would you like to come to my company? I can guarantee that you will live in a world of rules. " Wu Tian was referring to the brainwave world.

It was a huge, unexplored continent.

Cheng Gui suddenly felt that his world had started to turn bright from gray.

Wasn't that something he had always dreamed of? If he could give up his physical body, it would be even better.

He nodded subconsciously. Other than that, he had no other choice. Even if Wu Tian didn't offer such conditions, he would still accept such a new job to support himself.

"This is great!" I won't let you down. The new world will come soon. " Wu Tian wasn't joking. He had already seen the rudiments of a new world.

C789 Hua Dao Project

Wu Tian also did not expect that his luck was quite good.

He had actually obtained such a great unexpected harvest.

This Cheng Gui was not an ordinary person, he was the creator of the FTC.

Initially, Wu Tian was worried that if he really used the FTC and did not have complete control, it would affect his financial security.

"Can't you just cover up your expression a little? You look like a fool." Su Cancan couldn't help but complain when she saw Wu Tian's appearance, as if she despised him.

Just as they walked into the company, Wu Tian had already arranged for Cheng Gui to move first.

After all, as a top secret character, it was more appropriate for him to keep a tight grip on himself.

It just so happened that Cheng Gui's current residence wasn't very good and he was also very happy to move.

"President Wu, you came." Loong Yun was already waiting in the main hall. It was rare to see her beaming with joy.

"What's wrong with you? Is there any good news for me? "

Wu Tian had a smile on his face as he assumed a very proud posture, looking forward to Loong Yun's praise.

"Our press conference worked. A lot of companies have already sent us emails and they want to cooperate with us."

Loong Yun was very excited, this was the same as the blockade order Chang Zairong issued before. At this moment, it was like a piece of scrap paper.

After all, Wu Group had practically only relied on one morning's worth of time to spread this news throughout the entire nation.

Not just the S City, but even the entire nation was discussing this matter. This practically became the first big piece of news on the China.

Chang Zairong was obviously unhappy at this time, but he had no way to directly contend against Wu Group.

This was because Wu Group had already raised their company's level to a level that ordinary companies would not be able to reach.

Wu Tian's press conference had a very big meaning. It represented the China. These were the representatives of the private companies in the high-tech field.

But at this point, it would be tantamount to becoming a benchmark.

At this moment, countless youngsters felt that Wu Tian was like an idol.

If there really was any result, then Wu Tian would definitely become a famous celebrity in the country.

"I had already guessed that. I would like to see what tricks this Chang Zairong has up his sleeve." Wu Tian couldn't help but laugh. He really wasn't joking around.

"It's just that Baili Zhenlin is waiting for you at this time. He doesn't look too happy."

Loong Yun had an evil smile on her face. When Wu Tian was at his happiest, Wu Tian was suddenly very surprised.

"What?" Wu Tian was stunned. He really didn't expect that.

He hurried into the living room and walked over with a smile. However, Baili Zhenlin didn't even give him a good look.

"What happened?"

"You still have the nerve to say that? Why didn't you inform me in advance when you held the press conference? "

Baili Zhenlin was infuriated. His chest rose and fell as he panted heavily.

"Um, I really didn't think about it. The main thing is that I was too anxious and I couldn't do anything about it. I almost died in Chang Zairong's hands in two days. If I didn't do anything, I wouldn't be able to keep my life."

Wu Tian also felt wronged, there was nothing he could do. He didn't want to do it either, but reality wasn't like that.

Baili Zhenlin never thought that Wu Tian would also have so much trouble. He thought it was just Chang Zairong targeting him.

"Sorry, I was a bit agitated just now ..." Baili Zhenlin hurriedly apologized. At least he was being honest, that was right.

"Then come here today ..." This matter wasn't very important. Wu Tian felt that Baili Zhenlin couldn't come to him just to denounce him.

Baili Zhenlin quickly straightened himself as he remembered the purpose of his visit.

"It's like this. The moment this news of yours came out, our Baili Family has already been decided. We will officially form an alliance with you."

Wu Tian opened his mouth in disbelief.

One must know that a month ago, when Wu Tian went to the Baili family for negotiations, they were still worried and scared.

"It can't be? Is that really your decision? "

Baili Zhenlin nodded his head with certainty, "Yes, the Patriarch has already made his decision. Right now, their Shangguan Family has been reduced by a large amount, and it is said that their investments in Korea Nation have all gone to waste. Right now, they have already started selling off their assets, so they are of no threat to us."

To put it bluntly, because this Shangguan Family was in the wrong group, they had already sunk together on this ship of Korea Nation, so right now, Baili Family was already preparing to invest in the right direction.

"It's rather easy for me here." Wu Tian nodded. Because he was now the Patriarch of Wu Family, there were not many people in the clan now.

However, what would the Ouyang Family think ... Wu Tian was a bit unsure.

Previously, when the Wu Family were split, the Ouyang Family did not express their attitude nor did they pass any news to Wu Tian.

Since Wu Tian was busy at that time, he didn't care about it.

But now, if Baili Family were to come and join hands, they would have to consider the attitude of the Ouyang Family in that long period of time.

"How about this, I'll go and find out what attitude the Ouyang Family has towards us." Wu Tian agreed at first, but really decided that it would depend on the situation later on.

Baili Zhenlin understood the situation a little. After all, the matter of the family was no small matter.

"Alright, I'll be waiting for your good news. Also, you wanted to buy the island before, so I have a project on hand right now. I don't know if you want it or not." Baili Zhenlin took out a folder with a thick stack of documents.

"What is this thing? Why is it so sneaky?"

Wu Tian said curiously. Then, he took it and opened it.

There were a few large words written on it, "Plan for the construction of S City Project".

"This is?" Wu Tian was confused.

Baili Zhenlin's smile became even more brilliant.

"Have you ever heard of filling the sea and building land?"

Hidden Billionaire Chapter 790 - A Guarantee of Entry for the Baili Family

C790 A Guarantee of Entry for the Baili Family

Wu Tian opened the document inside and read it carefully. Finally, he couldn't help but let out a sigh of relief.

This Baili Zhenlin was really bold. He dared to do such a large-scale project.

"What do you think?"

Baili Zhenlin looked at Wu Tian expectantly, wanting to see what his reaction would be.

"You, are truly a scheming person. I really admire you. Aren't you a financier? Why did you start building this real estate?"

Wu Tian had already seen this project clearly. It could be said to be a very strong one.

It solved one of Wu Tian's problem, which was that he wanted to buy the island.

The plan was to build a medium-sized island by the coast of S City. The island's name is Flower Island.

The island would then be the home of Wu Tian's new business.

The reason he chose to stay in this kind of place was for the benefit of the advertisement. This way, his Wu Group would have more room for exposure.

Another reason was that it could guarantee safety.

If the company was the route for development with high Technology Company, then there would naturally be many secrets in the future.

On the land, no matter what, it was very easy for people to invade Wu Group Companies.

This was unavoidable, but if it was Flower Island, then the possibility of this happening would be greatly reduced.

"What do you think?" What do you think? Baili Zhenlin's smile was like this island, like a flower.

"How can I not be interested when you've already made a plan like this, and every feature here is something I want very much."

Wu Tian sighed. This would be another huge expense.

"How much do you want me to invest in this project?"

That was probably the main purpose of Baili Zhenlin's visit.

"Not much, about 150 billion."

Baili Zhenlin stretched out his hand with a smile. Wu Tian almost spat out the water he was drinking.

"Oh my god, are you trying to beat a tycoon? This amount is too much, I can't afford to spend that much money." Wu Tian immediately expressed his opposition.

"You can't afford it? You don't have to worry about this, our Baili Family has already been decided." Baili Zhenlin handed over another document very actively.

This project was already set in stone. No matter what, he would take it.

"What other items do you all have prepared? Why don't you all take them out at once? I really didn't expect that your Baili family would spend so much money the moment they started." Wu Tian sighed with emotion. He reckoned that this could be considered as a guarantee for the Baili family to join.

"We, the Baili family, are willing to pay in advance for this project. However, the prerequisite is that your Wu Group company must purchase this project."

Baili Zhenlin wasn't joking this time; he was serious.

Wu Tian looked into his eyes and fell into deep thought.

Originally, this project was more advantageous to them. It should be said that it was indispensable. Of course, if it wasn't for this project, Wu Tian would have to place all these institutions and future centers of gravity on the island in Korea Country.

That was a good choice, or perhaps even a safer one. However, in the end, they were still in someone else's country. If something were to happen, it would be troublesome.

Moreover, if he was unable to buy sovereignty, then he might be despised by the China people for being a traitor or something. At that time, wouldn't he fall into Chang Zairong's trap?

"Of course it's good that you are paying, but what money does your Baili family earn? "Could it be these fees?" Even if the entire project was contracted by the Baili family, it was still not very profitable.

With a hundred and fifty billion dollars, doing anything is more profitable than doing this project.

"Haha, you don't know about this. Our Baili family is currently preparing to build a real estate. Once this island is built, our family will have already bought all of the land near your Flower Island. "When the time comes for us to develop the residential district, we will be able to sell off who knows how much just by selling the buildings."

Baili Zhenlin obviously knew that Wu Tian wasn't a fool, so his words were straightforward. It was better for them to be open and transparent when discussing things.

It's good for both sides.

If it was in the past, Wu Tian would definitely want to be involved in this. But now, he felt that although it was very profitable to do these things, it wasn't very meaningful.

In the end, he could only become a house builder.

"Alright, I'll sign this contract!" Just the cost of filling up the sea and building the land on this Flower Island was already over a hundred billion, so if he were to build any other facilities on it in the future, the cost would definitely not be low.

Fortunately, it didn't need Wu Tian to pay for it, so he didn't care too much about it.

After the contract was signed, Wu Tian sent Baili Zhenlin away with a smile on his face. It was hard to tell if he was laughing or crying.

He had tied himself to such a big project all of a sudden. During this period of time, he needed to properly improve the company's profits.

Seeing Wu Tian walk out, Loong Yun quickly walked up to him.

"How is it? What did you talk about? "

Wu Tian shook his head and pressed his temple with his finger.

"Nothing, I just feel like I've been sold, like I've signed a contract to sell myself."

However, he had already signed the contract, so it was too late for him to go back on his words. He had to think of a way to get his two Technology Company to work.

"Oh right, how is the discussion with Korea regarding buying the island?"

Loong Yun cleared her throat, "Basically, the final price has been set. 100 billion."

Wu Tian nodded in satisfaction. Although there was a certain distance between the island and the shore, it was still relatively big and the price was cheap.

"Alright, the moment the documents are out, we'll immediately go up and do the construction. I'm guessing that Hong Xiangtai and the others have been waiting impatiently for a while now."

While Wu Tian and Loong Yun were talking, a few people suddenly appeared at the corner.

They were all chirping around. They were all dressed sexy and had beautiful bodies. Each one of them was full of charm.

Wu Tian was shocked when he saw their faces.

"Haha, look at him. He definitely didn't expect us to come here, right?"

Liu Yueyao covered her mouth with her hand and Huang Lan beside her, smiling at Wu Tian.

"Why are you guys here?" Wu Tian didn't think that they didn't give him any notice at all.

"You always don't return to the Luzhou. We felt that you already had no plans to come back, so we just came over to see you."

Huang Lan walked up naturally and put her arm around Wu Tian's.

Liu Yueyao saw that, of course, she was also unwilling to fall behind, so she took his other arm.
