C939 Sudden Competition

After signing the contract, Nangong Ying quickly left Wu Group company and went back to report the good news.

They didn't have a lot of money with them. Although they didn't get Wu Tian's support, they still managed to free up a portion of the shares. The rest was to find ways to buy and collect the remaining 20%.

Baili Zhenlin was extremely busy. However, the enemy was also very quick and didn't give them any time to react, especially in the trading market. As long as they slowed down their attacks, there would be no chance for them.

The Pulitzer consortium's funds were extremely huge, and they did not care about the price at all. As long as there was something on the market, they would basically take it all.

Baili Zhenlin's hair had turned white overnight. Although he was slightly relieved to see the contract Nangong Ying had brought back, the current situation was still very uncertain.

"Chairman, we have already contacted all the people that we can contact. As for the shareholders, I have already made an agreement with them. "Look ..."

Nangong Ying looked at Baili Zhenlin. The rest would depend on whether his conversation would be effective or not.

"Got it, they're already here right? I'll go over right now." Baili Zhenlin quickly stood up. He had never felt such difficulty before.

His confidence began to dissipate in this moment of life and death. Perhaps it was because of his responsibility that he didn't dare to reveal his true self.

Inside the meeting room, there were already a few shareholders who had different expressions. They were all big investors and old partners who had held shares in Nanhe Securities Corporation for many years.

"How have you been? We haven't seen each other for a long time, and I didn't greet you before either."

Baili Zhenlin forced out a smile as a form of introduction.

"Chairman, you don't have to say these words. Everyone knows the current situation of the company. Don't worry, we will do our part."

A middle-aged man from bald head man spoke with confidence and looked very sly. This guy said that he also had a lot of shares. If he could get everyone's shares back, Baili Zhenlin wouldn't have to worry about that.

"With your words, I am relieved. I called everyone here this time because I want to discuss something with you. Based on the current situation, we should gather our shares and not wait for the enemies to destroy us one by one!"

Baili Zhenlin wasn't going to hide it anymore. After all, he didn't have a better way to deal with this. If they didn't want the company to be acquired, then they had to do it.

However, such an approach would clearly cause these former shareholders to feel very uneasy.

"You mean, we should hand over the shares for free?!"

All of a sudden, the shareholders were unhappy. After all, no matter who they were dealing with, they would definitely be unhappy.

"Of course it won't be for nothing. We have to make an agreement, so we will only temporarily take back the shares. Later, when Pritz no longer threatens us, I will return the shares to you."

Baili Zhenlin said in a sincere tone. He also knew that it was difficult, but at this moment, he could only hope that they could understand his difficulties.

However, the shareholders all began to look at each other, feeling troubled. No one was willing to respond to this matter.

If the shares were in their hands, that would be safe.

"This, even if you say so, this is not good. How about we make a price. Chairman, you should pay for it. That way, we won't have to worry about anything."

bald head man Nan noticed that the atmosphere wasn't right and quickly suggested a plan.

Actually, this could be considered as a common practice and there was no other way. If he didn't have a share, then he had to have money.

The stocks in these people's hands, added together, were almost worth billions of dollars. If Baili Zhenlin could pull out that much cash at once, he wouldn't have to worry about this anymore.

"This, our company's funds are all invested into the stock market and real estate. For now, we don't have that much money at all."

Baili Zhenlin also revealed a troubled expression. He had no other choice for this matter.

"Then don't blame us. Baili Zhenlin, I'm afraid we have nothing else to talk about next."

As he spoke, more than half the people in the room left furiously.

Baili Zhenlin was stunned as he looked at the fruitless discussion.

Nangong Ying saw everyone leaving and quickly ran over.

"Chairman, why didn't you say that we exchanged shares with Wu Tian? If they knew about this, they would definitely be willing to support us."

With Wu Tian's endorsement, even their stocks would rise a lot.

"We can't do that. The agreement between Wu Tian and us is a private one, so we can't casually reveal it. Also, this is our trump card. Unless it's a crucial step, don't be anxious."

While the two of them were talking, their secretary barged in with a terrible look on her face.

"Chairman, someone has barged into our company and is waiting for you at the door of the company. Quite a number of people have arrived!"

Baili Zhenlin and Nangong Ying looked at each other speechlessly. They didn't know what was going on and quickly walked out.

Arriving at the corridor, this was indeed the case. A group of black clothed people were surrounding a very gentle, bespectacled man.

Baili Zhenlin quickly walked over and stood in front of them. He said seriously: "What are you guys doing? This is the chairman's office. No one is allowed to enter! "

Zhang Zerui pushed his glasses, smiled at Baili Zhenlin and slowly walked out.

"You must be Brother Baili, right? Even now, you still do not know what happened. What I want to say is, I'm sorry, your chairman position has already been stripped away." Right now, I'm your company's first major shareholder! Moreover, I have more than fifty percent of the shares under my control. "

Zhang Zerui's voice was like a clap of thunder, directly making Baili Zhenlin paralyze and fall to the ground.

"Impossible!" "I still have so many shares in my possession, as well as those shareholders. How could you possibly ..." Baili Zhenlin was in disbelief. He just had a meeting, even if they didn't cooperate with him, they wouldn't have handed over the shares so quickly, right?

C940 Unexpected Cruelty

Zhang Zerui thought it was funny. He waved his hand and the female secretary beside him quickly walked over to let Baili Zhenlin see the structure of the shares.

It was clearly stated that Zhang Zerui had become the largest shareholder with more than 50% of the shares, while Baili Zhenlin had fallen to the second place with only 40% of the shares in his hands.

Of which, 30% was secretly owned by Wu Tian.

When the truth really came out in front of him, Baili Zhenlin actually didn't have that much to say.

He swept away the previous dispirited look and stood up straightforwardly.

"Alright, since that's the case, then I won't say anything else. I will pack my things now and make room for Chairman Zhang!"

Baili Zhenlin's face was straightforward, as if this matter did not put too much pressure on him.

Zhang Zerui, of course, did not say anything. He was definitely happy to see it happen.

"Very well. With what you've said, I am more at ease. However, Brother Baili doesn't have to leave the company." My business is very busy, so I'll leave the matters of the company to you to manage. "

Saying that, Zhang Zerui turned around and left the Nanhe Securities Corporation with his men, as if they had never come here before and disappeared without a trace like the wind.

Only Baili Zhenlin and Nangong Ying looked at each other.

Everyone knew that the situation had changed very quickly, but no one had expected it to happen so quickly. It was so fast that almost no one was able to react. He had already handed over the authority of the company.

"What should we do?" Nangong Ying said with a mournful face. They had struggled for such a long time for Nanhe Securities Corporation, yet it had actually become a gift for another.

Baili Zhenlin's eyes were filled with anger, but he didn't say anything in the end.

"We won't let this matter go just like that!"

The news quickly reached Wu Tian's ears. He couldn't believe it, so he specially went to Baili Zhenlin to verify to make sure that Baili Zhenlin's shares were still there.

This guy had the shares of Wu Group Corporation in his hands, so no matter what, this thing couldn't fall into Zhang Zerui's hands.

However, seeing that the Nanhe Securities Corporation had fallen just like that, Wu Tian also felt that there was a problem. There must be something wrong behind this.

Thinking about it, Wu Tian felt that he couldn't just let it go like this. He quickly called Wei Jiaming over.

"Quickly investigate what exactly happened with the shareholders of Nanhe Securities Corporation and why they suddenly sold all their shares!"

There was definitely something fishy going on here, Wu Tian was very sure about this.

"Don't worry, President Wu. I'll do it right away!" Wei Jiaming didn't ask too much. He went out immediately upon receiving the order.

With Wei Jiaming's guarantee, Wu Tian felt a lot more at ease.

It was only a day or two later, but the news from Wei Jiaming did not satisfy Wu Tian.

"President Wu, I followed a few people and communicated with them. They said that some of these shareholders sold their shares for money while the other part was threatened."

Wei Jiaming's reply confirmed Wu Tian's conjecture.

Wu Tian immediately frowned and paced around the room in annoyance.

"You said that you can contact them. That way, if we can get some evidence, we can sue this Pulitzer consortium and say that they are forcing us to transfer shares."

Wei Jiaming thought about it, as if doing so was fine.

"I'll go and communicate with them. If possible, I'll arrange everything as soon as possible."

This kind of thing usually doesn't leave evidence, so a witness is the biggest piece of evidence.

Seeing Wei Jiaming leave, Wu Tian's heart also started to tighten. This was probably the only chance they had to make a comeback. They must seize it well.

Wei Jiaming's actions were very efficient, and before long, he had already brought a few people to the Flower Island.

They had snuck in, so they didn't attract much attention.

Wu Tian hurriedly went into the meeting room to see these few people, they were all shareholders in Nanhe Securities Corporation.

"Hello everyone. Jiaming has already told me the specific situation. We will think about one thing now, and that is how to expose this problem."

Wu Tian didn't waste any time with them and directly went straight to the point.

"President Wu, we know how important this is, but it's not that easy to deal with."

One of the shareholders said with a helpless expression. His expression seemed to show a trace of fear.

"What do you mean?"

"They're threatening us. We did say at the beginning that we would never sell shares, but what can we do if they use the lives of our families as collateral?"

As they spoke, tears began to roll down the faces of the shareholders.

Not everyone wanted to betray Baili Zhenlin, but under this kind of oppression, how could they resist? How could they resist?

There was no way they would abandon their families because of this.

Wu Tian gritted his teeth and immediately became angry.

He did not expect that the Pulitzer consortium would do such a thing. This was simply too shameless.

"How about this, your family will be sent to me, I'll protect them! As for the other matters, you don't have to worry about them. You can go and be my witnesses! "

Wu Tian had already made up his mind that he would deal with this matter until the end. Since he was going to do this, he would definitely remove the worries of these shareholders.

"Thank you so much!"

The shareholders expressed their gratitude to Wu Tian one by one. Their eyes also started to flicker with excitement.

They truly felt at ease with Wu Tian around.

He had just sent these people away, and not even one or two hours later, news of a sudden incident started to spread on the news.

They said that several murder cases had occurred at S City.

Wu Tian didn't pay much attention to it at first and thought that it was just some murders.

However, when he found out who it was, Wu Tian's face turned green.

Because these dead people were precisely the shareholders that he had just met.

Wu Tian was too naive and underestimated the degree of the other party's viciousness.

He had even started to prepare to call the police and contact organizations like the Banking Regulatory Commission to investigate the acquisition. However, he did not expect such a situation to occur.

Then the witness he relied on would naturally be useless. And those who remained would surely be frightened by the murder. They would never come out and say anything.

C941 Suspect Target

He originally had hope, but now he was strangled in the cradle.

The somewhat unwilling Wu Tian followed Sunn Hongsheng to the scene of the murder.

According to the police, the murder scene did not leave any trace of the murderer, footprints, DNA or anything else.

The only thing he could see was the victim's battered body. Wu Tian's heart really hurt.

"It's really too cruel! "What kind of hatred is this!?"

Sunn Hongsheng's face was also full of anger. This headless case was very difficult to deal with, but the higher ups took it very seriously.

Therefore, he would rather deal with some dangerous matters than accept this kind of case.

"They are truly courting death. Those people actually managed to accomplish such a feat. In that case, don't blame me ..."

Wu Tian clenched his fist. Although this had nothing to do with him, he couldn't stand to see justice being humiliated so recklessly.

Those shareholders were only willing to come out and testify because of him, but because of this matter, they lost their lives.

Wu Tian felt very guilty. Maybe if he didn't ask them for help, they would still be alive and well.

"Do you know something about it? "If you have any evidence or clues, you must give them to us!"

Sunn Hongsheng looked at Wu Tian muttering and quickly went over to say it.

"Don't worry, I want to catch the killer even more than you guys!"

Wu Tian's face was filled with determination. He looked at the corpses carefully and found that there were streaks of red blood on their bodies. However, they were not cut by sharp blades. It looked more like they were being whipped.

Seeing this, Wu Tian suddenly thought of the first time he met 11 Devils. One of the people fighting with him was a person with a whip.

Could it be this person? Was it 11 Devils?

Thinking about this, Wu Tian immediately understood why these policemen couldn't find any trace of the killer.

With their abilities, it was too easy for them to kill a few ordinary people without leaving any traces behind.

Wu Tian quickly told Sunn Hongsheng his conjecture. Although there was no actual evidence to prove that they were the ones who did the deed, but no matter what, 11 Devils was still the biggest suspect.

Sunn Hongsheng had also been investigating the 11 Devils recently. Hearing Wu Tian's words, he began to suspect something in his heart.

"But why did they come here to kill the people from Nanhe Securities Corporation?"

Sunn Hongsheng couldn't understand why. There was a grudge between 11 Devils and Wu Tian, there was no doubt about it.

But they had never had any enmity with Nanhe Securities Corporation before.

"Have you ever thought about who would benefit the most from the deaths of these people?"

Sunn Hongsheng shook his head. He didn't know much about Wu Tian's problem.

Wu Tian sighed and slowly said, "Since you know that they are from Nanhe Securities Corporation, then you should also know that their Nanhe Securities Corporation are being purchased right now. And these people are the shareholders in Nanhe Securities Corporation. Previously, they gave all of their shares to Zhang Zerui. "

When Wu Tian said this, Sunn Hongsheng's eyes lit up.

"You mean they killed them for silence?"

Sunn Hongsheng was quite excited. No matter what, this was a good start, having direction was better than nothing.

"I can only say that the biggest beneficiary is Zhang Zerui. As for the others, I can't give any advice."

Wu Tian did not dare to be sure. They did not have any direct evidence to point these things at Zhang Zerui.

But Sunn Hongsheng still decided to open a police investigation to Zhang Zerui.

For a moment, the entire S City was in chaos, and many people began to speculate about what was going on.

The turmoil in the business world during this period was especially huge. It was like a stormy sea, first it was the Pulitzer consortium, then it was Mecca Company, and now it was Nanhe Securities Corporation.

These were all large companies with a reputation outside the city. Once something went wrong with them, the small businesses attached to them would naturally not be doing well.

Right now, S City was worrying about this problem, and how to solve these problems was their first goal.

Looking at the development of the situation, Wu Tian couldn't help but feel lucky.

If he had not stripped away all those low-end businesses, then even his Wu Group company would not be able to get away with it right now.

At this point, Wu Tian had already made up his mind that he wouldn't choose to list the company on the market again.

Privatized companies are better managed and do not have to worry about equity issues.

In order to comfort his old friend, Wu Tian even invited Baili Zhenlin over for a chat and tea.

This guy was usually very busy, and now that the chairman wasn't him, he naturally had a lot of free time.

"You don't seem to be in a very bad mood. Don't you think that this is a good thing for you?"

Wu Tian looked at Baili Zhenlin's relaxed expression and found it strange.

"Since what happened has already happened, no matter how anxious I am, what's the use? "Right now, I don't have any suitable methods, so I can only take a look."

Baili Zhenlin knew that even if he was anxious, it would be useless, so he just gave up on the option. Instead, he calmed down. Things had only just begun, and he definitely would not believe that it would end just like that.

Therefore, slowly taking a step at a time was the most suitable choice.

"If I want to have a good attitude like yours, I will be fine. "Look at my company, it's running a budget deficit every day and worries about money every day. If one day I lose sales, my company might close down too ..."

Wu Tian also started to complain, but no matter what, Wu Tian's company was already very successful.

Wu Group were extremely well-known throughout the country. In addition, their various industries were also the leaders of this industry.

With this advantage alone, they could guarantee that they would not fail.

"Alright, let's not talk about this and have some tea."

Baili Zhenlin seemed to be tired of these things. He waved his hand and poured a cup for Wu Tian as well.

"Oh right, what other tricks do you have up your sleeve?"

Wu Tian suddenly said. He never thought that Baili Zhenlin would let it go like this. Baili Zhenlin definitely had other tricks up his sleeves.

Baili Zhenlin was also stunned by Wu Tian's question, then burst out laughing.
