

My Hidden Wife is Sweet

- Chapter 1626 - Bad Back

Chapter 1626: Bad Back

Yuan Meng volunteered to be the driver. She rubbed her waist when she got out of the car and said happily, "You are so young and yet your back is already injured?"

Gu Weiwei glared back at her with her teeth clenched. "Stop talking about me, or I will kill you!"

"You sound as if you can beat me." Yuan Meng chuckled proudly.

But Fu Hanzheng was way too cruel. Look at what his wife had become.

Gu Weiwei ignored her and went straight to Luo Qianqian's ward.

Luo Qianqian's father had gone out to buy lunch, leaving Luo Qianqian's mother alone in the ward, whilst Gu Yun Che was still in the corridor.

"Aunt Luo, can Qianqian eat now?" Gu Weiwei asked.

"The doctor says that she needs to fast for two days in total," Luo Qianqian's mother answered.

"Then she can eat tomorrow. Maybe you can ask Doctor He if there is anything she can't eat, so that you can get the right food ready for her tomorrow. She must be very hungry." Gu Weiwei suggested with a smile.

Luo Qianqian's mother said without hesitation, "Alright, you guys stay here, I will ask the doctor. We can go get the groceries in the evening."

Luo Qianqian understood that she was creating an excuse for her mother to leave the room. When her mother was gone, she smiled gratefully.

"You are finally here to save me."

Her parents had been guarding against Gu Yun Che, who had been standing outside since yesterday.

She could only see him when she was helped out in the corridor to exercise, and she could barely speak to him in front of her parents.

Gu Weiwei turned to Yuan Meng and said, "Ask Gu Yun Che to come in and discuss what to do next."

Yuan Meng got up and walked out of the room. She whistled at the door and pointed to the room.

Gu Yun Che knew that the two elders of the Luo Family were currently not around, so that's why they asked him to come in. He walked into the room quickly.

Gu Weiwei looked at the man and then at Luo Qianqian.

"What are your plans now? Is Mr. Gu going to stay in the capital or do you have other plans?"

Instead of saying anything more, Luo Qianqian turned to Gu Yun Che. "You decide."

She did hope that he could stay, but she did not want to restrict him too much.

"For the time being," Gu Yun Che said truthfully.

At least before she got better, he would not be able to leave her alone.

Luo Qianqian pursed her lips and turned to Gu Weiwei.

"I am at the hospital and my parents are watching him, so I can't find him a place to stay."

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and glanced at Gu Yun Che.

"If you don't mind, we can arrange a place for you to stay?"

Gu Yun Che did not speak but nodded in agreement.

"I used to live in Jinxiu Compound, which is not far from the hospital and Luo Qianqian's home. Yuan Meng and I will bring him there," Gu Weiwei said.

She had stayed at Jinxiu Compound for a period of time, but after she moved in with Fu Hanzheng and moved back to Landscape Villa, the place was empty.

Fu Shiqin worked overtime every now and then, so he took a rest there when he could not make it back home in time.

"Thanks, that place will do," Luo Qianqian said gratefully.

Gu Weiwei smiled. "You better get well soon, that is all you can do now."

“I understand.”

Luo Qianqian nodded with a smile and smiled sweetly as she threw a look at Gu Yun Che.

Yuan Meng was standing outside the ward and warned them when she saw Luo Qianqian’s mother and He Chi approaching.

“Alright, time to go, your mother is back.”

Gu Yun Che knew that he should not irritate the two elders of the Luo Family, so he left the ward after Yuan Meng warned him.

Chapter 1627: His Own Property

Yuan Meng’s warning came just in time and He Chi also covered for him, successfully fooling Luo Qianqian’s mother.

Gu Weiwei and Yuan Meng sat in the ward for a while before they waved goodbye.

“Aunt, thanks for taking such good care of her, we are leaving now, we will come back another day.”

“Thank you so much.” Luo Qianqian’s mother saw them off and they left the ward.

Gu Weiwei and Yuan Meng walked along the corridor for a while before they saw her entering the room. Yuan Meng looked at Gu Yun Che and signaled for him to come with them.

The three of them went into the elevator and went downstairs together.

Gu Weiwei made a call to Fu Hanzheng, and Xu Qian answered the call.

“Madam, Boss is in the middle of a meeting, is it very urgent?”

“There’s no hurry, ask him to call me back after the meeting,” Gu Weiwei said before the three of them got in the car.

Yuan Meng drove, while Gu Weiwei took the passenger’s seat and Gu Yun Che took the back seat.

The three of them had just arrived at Jinxiu Compound when Fu Hanzheng called back after the meeting.

“Xu Qian said that you called.”

“Well, Gu Yun Che is going to stay in the capital for the time being, and Qianqian has asked me to arrange a place for him to stay. I would like him to stay at Jinxiu Compound for the time being, but I just wanted to discuss it with you,” Gu Weiwei said.

Although Fu Hanzheng had always told her that she could do whatever she wanted with his properties, normally, she would still discuss with him what to do and he would not object.

Jinxiu Compound was the real estate of the Fu Family, and if she wanted to lend it to someone else for the time being, she had to ask for the owner’s opinion.

“You decide,” Fu Hanzheng said happily.

They had fun the night before, and he would not object to her giving the apartment to someone else, let alone Gu Yun Che.

“Then I will let him stay there for the time being and you can tell Second Master about it, otherwise there will be some misunderstanding if he stops at Jinxiu.” Gu Weiwei stressed.

“Okay, go home when you are done,” Fu Hanzheng said gently.

Gu Weiwei agreed, hung up the call and went upstairs with Yuan Meng and Gu Yun Che.

Then she told Gu Yun Che the password.

“The room is regularly cleaned and the bed sheets have been changed. There are some new men’s clothes in the walk-in closet.

“There is probably nothing in the fridge, so I will ask the servant to buy some food for you.

“Is there anything else you need?”

....

Gu Yun Che glanced at the room and shook his head.

“No, thanks.”

“Oh yes.” Gu Weiwei took out the phone Luo Qianqian gave to her from the bag and said, “Qianqian asked me to give it to you. Her parents are at the hospital and it is not a good time for you two to meet. So make sure to keep in touch with her this way.”

Gu Yun Che accepted the phone and thanked her.

“Uncle and Aunt Luo are not yet able to accept your relationship with Qianqian, but you can try to persuade them.” Gu Weiwei went to the study and grabbed a car key and said, “There is a car for transportation in the parking lot on the first floor. Here is the key.”

Gu Yun Che took the key and asked, “When can I visit her?”

“Probably not right now, but she will be discharged within ten days, so it will be easier for you two to meet then.” Gu Weiwei smiled.

Gu Yun Che asked with a frown, “Can’t we meet during this period?”

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, “I will think of a way so you can know when you can go meet her.”

“Okay.” Gu Yun Che agreed.

“A servant will come and bring you some daily necessities and ingredients. If you want to give something to Qianqian, ask the servant to take it to the hospital and say that it is from me and Yuan Meng. Uncle Luo and his family will not mind.” Gu Weiwei reminded him with a smile.

Gu Yun Che nodded and said gratefully, “Thank you for arranging everything.”

Chapter 1628: Why Not?

“Don’t just say thank you. Didn’t Gu Siting come to you before? Why?” Yuan Meng took the opportunity to ask questions.

“Yuan Meng!” Gu Weiwei glanced at her and said with a low voice.

Gu Yun Che looked at them and did not get angry because of Yuan Meng’s question.

He put down the phone and keys, poured himself a cup of water and said, “You don’t have to ask me what he wants to do, you already know.”

No matter what Gu Siting did, his ultimate goal was to bring her away from the Fu Family so she could return to the Gu Family and to his side.

That was his purpose, and he was only looking for his help.

Seeing that they were talking openly, Gu Weiwei said, “Then... will you help him?”

Gu Yun Che must have been very thirsty today because he finished the cup of water and poured himself another.

“I have promised Qianqian that I will not do anything to you, but if the Gu Family does something to you, I will not be able to do anything about it.”

Gu Weiwei and Yuan Meng exchanged a look. If he did not help Gu Siting, they would have a much easier time.

Gu Yun Che looked at her sideways and said calmly, “But after all, he gave you his life, so it is reasonable that he is not convinced.”

“If it had not been for him, she would not have died,” Yuan Meng said angrily.

He could kill her if he wanted to, and he could let her live if he wanted to, but he still needed her to be moved to tears. What was he thinking?

“That is your grudge, I am not going to interfere.” Gu Yun Che turned the cup in his hand and said, “But none of you have the right to decide when Gu Siting dies.”

Hearing these words, Yuan Meng blinked in astonishment.

“It is none of your business whether he is dead or not. Are you telling me that even you have taken a fancy to him?”

“Yuan Meng, can’t you just stop your imagination running wild?” Gu Weiwei felt helpless.

“My deal with him is that I will end his life.” Gu Yun Che looked at the two of them and said, “He has 35 years left. Before the deadline, none of you will be able to control when he dies, including himself.”

Gu Weiwei sighed inwardly. If Gu Siting could not die, then she would be stuck with him for 35 years.

Yuan Meng frowned and did some calculations. Gu Siting should be 35 years old now, right? So he was going to live to 70?

“May I ask who you are?”

“That... has nothing to do with you.” Gu Yun Che turned to Gu Weiwei and said, “Thank you very much for your help. I have promised that I will keep my promise, and everything else... has nothing to do with you.”

Gu Weiwei nodded. “Then we are leaving now, just tell the servants if you need anything.”

They said goodbye to Gu Yun Che politely and left Jinxiu Compound.

On the way home, Yuan Meng said as she was driving, “He promised not to do anything to you, hopefully he can keep his promise.”

“Probably, he needs to take care of Qianqian,” Gu Weiwei mumbled.

“He better not break it, otherwise it would be very troublesome,” Yuan Meng said.

She knew pretty well how scary Gu Yun Che could be.

If he really agreed to help Gu Siting bring her back, then even a large number of them might not be able to stop him.

This man was very capable, but he was not a human being.

“But even without his help, Gu Siting will not give up.” Gu Weiwei sighed.

Gu Siting never gave up until he reached his goal.

Chapter 1629: Bringing the Boy to the Company

Thanks to Fu Hanzheng and Yuan Meng’s help, Gu Yun Che and Luo Qianqian were finally in a relationship.

Although the elders of the Luo Family still did not approve of him as her boyfriend because they thought he was weird.

Luo Qianqian was recovering well in the hospital.

But in order to meet Gu Yun Che, He Chi had to suffer every day.

He had to come up with all kinds of excuses to bring Luo Qianqian to the examination room and then to let her meet Gu Yun Che.

But because of this, he earned a great deal of money from Fu Hanzheng.

Luo Qianqian was discharged after eleven days and Fu Shiyi’s new album was released at the same time.

The main song, ‘This Heart is Clear’, received a great deal of praise and both the song and MV were exquisite and perfectly created.

His interaction with Ding Dongdong in the MV had also made many fans willing to let them show off their love.

The moment the new album was released, Fu Shiyi was so busy with the promotion and concert that he barely saw everyone.

Yuan Meng kept complaining about being bored every single day, so Fu Hanzheng asked her and Lei Ning to keep Gu Weiwei and the children company.

But Gu Weiwei barely brought the children out. Apart from taking a walk in the villa area, she spent most of her time with the two children at home. So she and Lei Ning had to stay at Pearl River too.

As time went by, Yuan Meng got so bored.

“Can we go out for a walk?” lying on the sofa, Yuan Meng said to the woman and two children who were playing on the mat.

“Isn’t it dangerous out there? Let’s not go out.” Gu Weiwei turned her down without hesitation.

Gu Siting’s men were still watching them, and the MV she made because of Fu Shiyi’s new album attracted the attention of fans and journalists.

If she brought the children out, the paparazzi would take pictures of them. What was more, she had nothing to do outside.

She and Ji Cheng had already visited Luo Qianqian when she was discharged.

She would probably be able to leave home in a couple of days.

She had just turned down Yuan Meng’s request when Fu Hanzheng called within five minutes.

“Bring the children to the company.”

“Are you sure?” Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows and looked at the two naughty children who were tossing the toys around.

“Yes, bring them here. Mom is picking them up later, so we can go out for dinner,” Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei nodded. “Alright, I will get ready and be there soon.”

“Where are you going?” Yuan Meng asked when she saw her hanging up the phone.

“Fu Hanzheng asked me to bring the children to the company and their grandma will pick them up and take them to the old mansion,” Gu Weiwei said with a dry smile.

Yuan Meng looked heartbroken. “I beg you to go outside, but you won’t go out with me, yet Fu Hanzheng calls and you go out with the children. That is so unfair.”

“Is he you?”

Having said these words, Gu Weiwei asked the nursery teacher to take care of the two children, while she went to pack up their things.

Ever since they had two children, it had been a huge project to get them ready and it would take them a long time to pack up everything they needed.

She packed up the things for the two children, got changed and put on some light makeup before heading out.

As bodyguards, Yuan Meng and Lei Ning saw the three of them off at Fu’s Enterprise. But they turned down the invitation to go upstairs and Yuan Meng went to smoke after they saw them off into the elevator.

Gu Weiwei pushed the twins onto Fu Hanzheng’s floor and was surrounded the moment she walked out of the elevator.

Of course, she was not the focus, but the two cute-looking babies in the pram.

Chapter 1630: The Cute Boss

Hearing that his niece and nephew were here, Fu Shiqin rushed to the elevator to greet them.

“Baby Youyou, Baby Tiantian, Second Uncle misses you so much.”

Then he stopped the pram and got down on one knee in front of it, wishing that he could hold the two little ones in his arms.

Gu Weiwei was speechless. They had just met this morning!

Xu Qian followed behind him and saw Fu Shiqin picking up Tiantian, he then reached down and picked up Youyou.

“Ah, he looks so much like Boss!”

“She looks more like Boss but a cuter version.”

....

Apart from Fu Shiqin who was the Deputy President, the rest of the staff and the secretaries were present.

Fu's Enterprise was involved with all different kinds of industries, so different tasks would be solved according to what the employees were good at.

Therefore, there were as many as twenty people on this floor.

And they were all experienced employees of the Fu Family who had met Gu Weiwei before.

They had heard that Boss had children, but they had never seen the children before. However, what they heard from Fu Shiqin was that the twins were cute and lovely.

Today, they finally saw the children for the first time. They all forgot about their own work and came to watch the two little ones.

Seeing the scene, Gu Weiwei asked Fu Shiqin, "Where is your brother?"

"In the office. Youyou and Tiantian can stay here, you can go to my brother," Fu Shiqin said and left with his niece.

Gu Weiwei put the pram into the corner and went to Fu Hanzheng's office.

Fu Hanzheng was on the phone, when he saw her he pointed at the sofa, asking her to take a seat.

A few minutes later, the call finally ended.

"Where are Youyou and Tiantian?"

"Second Master and Xu Qian are carrying them around outside. You asked me to bring them here during working hours but they are just causing a distraction!" Gu Weiwei said.

At this moment, no one was working outside, and everyone was playing with the two children.

"Shiqin has opened a new restaurant, let's go and try it," Fu Hanzheng said.

Since the Gu Family were always watching her and she did not want to be photographed by the paparazzi, she barely went out after she had two children.

They barely went out on dates, and they had to celebrate today.

“Another restaurant?” Gu Weiwei chuckled and said, “Second Master is indeed passionate about food manufacturing and the food industry.”

Apart from the original properties of Fu’s Enterprise, Third Master was interested in performing and cultivating good-looking artists.

Fu Shiqin loved food, so he opened many restaurants and food manufacturing companies.

Fu Hanzheng sat down next to her and said gently, “Mom and her friends are drinking tea outside, so she and Shiqin will take the children home.”

Gu Weiwei nodded. “Alright, you can finish doing what you need to do.”

Fu Hanzheng asked Xu Qian to bring in some water and returned to the desk to finish his work.

Gu Weiwei took a few sips of tea and walked around the office. Then she pulled out a book from the shelf and smiled at the sight of the sketch on the wall.

It was a bit like a comic illustration, and it did not look right in this luxurious office.

She had not been to his company since she was pregnant, which meant she had not been here for more than two years.

“Aren’t you embarrassed by it?”

“I think it’s very good, and it has a unique style.” Fu Hanzheng took a look at it and smiled.

Although there were always people who came into his office and laughed when they saw the drawing, he still hung it up.

Chapter 1631: Gu Weiwei’s Birthday

With the two children outside, the couple were left alone.

But when Fu Hanzheng dialed the internal line and asked Xu Qian to deliver something, no one answered the call.

He walked out of the office with a frown and saw a group of people gathered around the desk where Youyou and Tiantian were playing cutely.

“Have you finished your work?”

The crowd dispersed as Fu Shiqin and Xu Qian placed the children into the pram.

Gu Weiwei pushed the pram into Fu Hanzheng's office and said as she saw the employees going back to their desks, "Hey, those who have taken pictures of the little buns, please send them to me."

"I will send you the pictures. I just took some super cute ones."

....

Soon, everyone started to post the cute pictures they had just taken.

Gu Weiwei brought the children into the office and gave each of them a slice of an apple.

The little boy who had just grown teeth no longer made a fuss as he held the apple tightly and tasted the sweetness.

Sitting on the sofa, Weiwei was reading a book and glancing at the two little ones who were immersed in the delicious apple.

Two hours later, Mrs. Fu and Fu Shengying arrived at the office.

"Oh my, my lovely grandchildren, what are you eating? It smells so good." Fu Shengying lifted Tiantian up and the little girl gave the apple to Fu Shengying as if she were trying to feed it to her grandfather.

Fu Shengying was so pleased by Tiantian's move that he pretended to take a bite.

Tian Tian giggled and continued to nibble on it herself.

Mrs. Fu picked up Youyou and said to Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng, "We are taking the children home now, will you pick them up tomorrow?"

"Yes." Fu Hanzheng nodded.

"Lei Ning and Yuan Meng should be downstairs, let them drive you home." Gu Weiwei stressed.

Mrs. Fu carried Youyou for a while, put him back into the pram and then left with Fu Shengying and the two children. Fu Shiqin also got the chance to leave work early with them.

...

“Weiwei, just wait for half an hour, and then we can leave when these files are done,” Fu Hanzheng said.

Fu Hanzheng finished the documents that needed to be approved today and left for Fu Shiqin’s new restaurant with her.

But they were stuck in a traffic jam for almost two hours, as it was rush hour.

Since Fu Hanzheng had already planned it, the restaurant did not accept any other bookings but received only them instead.

The restaurant was on the top floor of the building, and one could see the bustling night scene of the capital city below. A pianist dressed in a tuxedo was playing a gentle classical song.

Gu Weiwei entered the room and saw the grand welcome decorations.

“It is just a dinner, there’s no need to make it so grand.”

It was almost like they were at a national banquet.

“We should celebrate today,” Fu Hanzheng said and walked in with her.

Gu Weiwei walked for a while and became startled when she saw the flower petals on the floor as well as the colorful sign saying ‘Happy Birthday’.

“Whose birthday is it today?”

She remembered clearly that his birthday was next month.

Fu Hanzheng pulled out the chair for her and said gently after she took her seat, “It’s your other birthday, remember?”

Gu Weiwei felt her forehead and suddenly remembered something.

It had been Mu Weiwei’s birthday that was celebrated with everyone else.

Today was her birthday, Gu Weiwei’s birthday.

Chapter 1632: Her In the Eyes, the Heart and the Scenery

Outside the floor-to-ceiling window, the night was shining brightly.

The sound of the piano was elegant and the atmosphere was tranquil.

Fu Hanzheng opened the cake box on the table, put in the candle and lit it.

“Make a wish.”

Gu Weiwei chuckled, closed her eyes and made a sincere wish.

The first wish was that they could grow old together and love each other for the rest of their lives.

The second wish was for the children to be healthy and happy and love each other.

Having made her wishes, she blew out the candle.

“You celebrate two birthdays for me every year, aren’t you tired?”

“I have missed many of your birthdays, but from now on, I will keep you company on all of your birthdays, including mine,” Fu Hanzheng said as he cut the cake for her.

Although it had been years since she appeared in his life, he would not let the years go to waste. Right now she was by his side and right in front of his eyes.

The cake was small and exquisite, only the size of a bowl, just enough for the two of them.

They had just taken a few bites of the cake when the head chef and the waiter came to serve the dishes and gave a brief introduction of the meal.

Gu Weiwei said with a smile after tasting two dishes, “Second Master is really gifted in cuisine.”

She had eaten at several restaurants under Fu Shiqin’s name and the food was all very tasty.

But her own daughter had become a foodie just like Fu Shiqin, which gave her a headache.

Fu Hanzheng smiled. “Are you sure you want to talk about Shiqin on our date?”

Gu Weiwei chuckled. “I just think that this restaurant is doing well. But... we have not been out on a date for a long time.”

“You spoil the two children too much,” Fu Hanzheng said.

The two little ones kept pestering her because they were young, depriving them of time alone.

But they were blood-related, and he could do nothing about it.

“You sound as if you are not happy to be their father.” Gu Weiwei laughed.

Although they had sweet moments of love when they didn’t have children, yet when they had children, they would also be happy as parents.

The two of them kept chatting and after a few dishes, Fu Hanzheng suddenly stood up and reached out his hand to her with a smile.

“Mrs. Fu, can I have one dance with you?”

“Of course.” Gu Weiwei chuckled and placed her hand into his.

The music was elegant and gentle. Fu Hanzheng had one hand holding her hand and the other over her waist, and she had one hand in his and the other over his shoulder.

The two of them started to dance to the piano melody happily.

Fu Hanzheng smiled as he looked at the pretty wife in his arms, looking very gentle.

Gu Weiwei looked up and smiled sweetly as she gazed at this man who was so close to her.

“Mr. Fu, there is something in your eyes.”

Fu Hanzheng chuckled. “I know, it is you.”

Gu Weiwei sighed pitifully. “Can’t you just let me finish the flirting?”

However, Fu Hanzheng lowered his head and whispered in her ear, “Not only in my eyes, but also in my heart.”

From the day he fell in love with her, she was in his eyes, his heart and everywhere else.

Gu Weiwei smiled; he was now flirting with her instead.

“You don’t have to tell me.”

He did not need to say a thing about what he was thinking. Every move he made and every decision he made was evident of his love for her.

“But I still want to tell you,” Fu Hanzheng whispered.

Gu Weiwei smiled brightly and said naughtily, “But what I want to say is that if we don’t sit down now, the food will get cold.”

The head chef had been watching them from the side. The dishes were ready, but they were still dancing.

Chapter 1633: Her Birthday

In the meanwhile, at the Gu Family’s mansion in A Land.

At some point, this luxurious and spacious mansion was no longer as bustling as it was before.

Gu Siting returned to the Gu Family’s mansion early in the afternoon and for the first time, he was in the kitchen.

The three head chefs and the servants were all standing outside the dining room, watching him work for the entire afternoon.

Then he made some dishes and a chiffon cake, and turned down everyone’s help.

Only the elderly staff members, who had worked at the Gu Family’s mansion for years, remembered that those dishes were all Miss. Weiwei’s favorites.

Gu Siting carried one dish after another to the long table and removed the apron when all the dishes were on the table.

Kuroda Shio hurried back with a pile of documents. “President Gu, there are some urgent documents for you to sign.”

“Let’s not talk about work right now,” Gu Siting said as he put candles into the cake.

“But...”

Kuroda Shio was anxious, but he did not force him. Instead, he took the documents and waited in the living room.

President Gu had been like this every year after Weiwei left.

He would not listen to anything he said about work.

He checked the time and decided to wait until after midnight.

Gu Siting lit the candles, poured two glasses of red wine and watched the candles burning out.

He could not remember how many years it had been since he celebrated her birthday with her.

When he finally thought of her, she had already left him.

He had prepared all of her favorite dishes and cakes, but she never took a bite.

He knew that she was not coming, and everything he had done would be in vain. But every year, he still could not help but do those things.

The candles on the birthday cake were burnt out and the dishes on the table were no longer hot. He drank the red wine in the cup and mumbled, "You won't be home this year, but you will be home next year."

She was definitely going to celebrate her birthday with him here next year.

He finished the red wine in the glass, got up and walked to the white piano that had been idle for a long time, and sat down in front of it alone.

He reached out for the black and white keys as if he were touching the warmth left by the previous piano player.

After a long time, his slender fingers moved and played the piano that had not been played for a long time.

Kuroda Shio glanced at the piano when he heard the sound. He remembered that it was a song by Franz Liszt called Dream of Love.

Weiwei often played this song when she was at the Gu Family's mansion.

Also, it was a song President Gu had been very fond of all these years.

But the person who played the song was long gone.

The music did not stop until the clock in the living room rang.

Kuroda Shio knew that Weiwei's birthday had passed, so he went to him with the files.

"President Gu, these are all the documents that need your signature."

Gu Siting went upstairs and did not take the files until he came to the study.

"How is the experiment going?"

“The second experiment was successful, but the data is not very stable, so several more tests are needed,” Kuroda Shio said.

Gu Siting nodded with a profound look. “Ask them to hurry up, and make sure that it is a success.”

“I will ask them tomorrow,” Kuroda Shio replied.

Chapter 1634: Gu Yun Che

Gu Siting asked as he leafed through the files, “Where is Keiko? Didn’t you say that she is here? Where is she?”

“Not sure, I only met her once, and I can’t reach her these days,” Kuroda Shio said.

Keiko was his sister, Kuroda Keiko.

She used to live at the Gu Family and was the same age as Weiwei. But she went back to her Japanese Family and had not been home for years.

“Is she still angry about Weiwei?” Gu Siting asked coldly.

Kuroda Shio stayed silent for a while and nodded helplessly.

“She will be fine in a few days.”

Keiko spent a great deal of time with Weiwei when she was little, and even when she returned to her own home in Japan, they still kept in touch.

She just could not accept the death of Weiwei, and she even had a conflict with Ling Yan at the Gu Family mansion.

At that time, President Gu had no idea that Miss Ling Yan and someone else were out to kill Miss Weiwei. But when Ling Yan had a heart attack because of Keiko, he scolded her and asked her to return to the main family in Japan.

Instead of asking anything more, Gu Siting read all the files, signed the paper and asked, “Have you arranged the men?”

“All is well,” Kuroda Shio said as he threw a discreet look at Gu Siting, “But you have to deal with Cayman as well as the Fu Family.”

Yes, he wanted to bring Weiwei back.

Even if she did not love him any more, even if she already had two children with Fu Hanzheng.

But now it was different. Fu Hanzheng would not release her and neither would Cayman.

Cayman had threatened them with the life of Mrs. Gu and the Old Master. If they really sent their men to Hua Land, he had no doubt that Cayman would send his men to deal with them.

They could not do anything to President Gu, but they would not show any mercy to Mrs. Gu and Grandpa Gu.

Could it be that in order to bring Weiwei back, he did not care about the life and death of Madam and the Old Master?

"I won't do anything until they are settled down," Gu Siting said.

"It's good that you have arranged everything." Kuroda Shio sighed.

He and Mrs. Gu had tried to persuade him about Miss Weiwei, but President Gu just could not get her out of his mind, so they had no way out.

He did not want the girl he had waited so long for to return and become Fu Hanzheng's wife.

But he had to watch them loving each other.

Weiwei died because of President Gu, but he paid the price for her return.

He wanted to let go of the past and start a new life with her, but she had stopped giving him the chance to do so.

"Where is Gu Yun Che... or is he unwilling to meet us?" Gu Siting asked.

Kuroda Shio hesitated for a while and confessed.

"He has been to Hua Land."

"Hua Land?" Gu Siting suddenly looked up and asked as if he had thought of something, "Fu Hanzheng found him?"

"No, it seems to be because of a woman from Hua Land." Kuroda Shio looked serious and continued speaking, "But he never liked being followed, so... we don't know much."

Gu Siting looked lethal. "Fu Hanzheng might come to him."

Yuan Meng and her family had been asking about him, but Gu Yun Che ignored them.

Now when he was in Hua Land, Fu Hanzheng would definitely try to persuade him.

“But Mr. Gu is a weird man, I don’t think he will be convinced by the Fu Family.” Kuroda Shio guessed.

Gu Yun Che was a man who would not be swayed by wealth or power. He only did what he wanted to do and he would not be controlled.

That was something they had experienced over the years.

So Fu Hanzheng would not be able to control him either.

Chapter 1635: Getting Cheeky

“That is true, but... still try to figure out who that woman from Hua Land is.” Gu Siting stressed.

If Gu Yun Che cared too much about this woman from Hua Land, Fu Hanzheng would use this woman to threaten Gu Yun Che.

“I am investigating.” Kuroda Shio took a look at his expression and asked, “Are you worried that the Fu Family will use that woman from Hua Land to threaten Mr. Gu?”

“It’s very possible.” Gu Siting’s expression sank.

If Gu Yun Che could not help him, then he would lose a great deal of help and the chance of winning against Fu Hanzheng and Cayman would be less.

“But I am afraid that no one can threaten Mr. Gu,” Kuroda Shio said.

Although he did not know much about this mysterious Mr. Gu, he did know something about him.

That man was so powerful that no one could threaten or control him.

“I know, but... Fu Hanzheng is not going to give up so easily. He is definitely going to do something.” Gu Siting’s expression was grim and he started to feel a bit uneasy.

Kuroda Shio said quickly, “I will get someone to find out who that woman is as soon as possible, but if Mr. Gu is there, I am afraid that our men will not be able to get close to her.”

“Just find out who she is, don’t do anything rash.” Gu Siting stressed.

Even if he could not get Gu Yun Che’s help, he must not become his enemy either.

He already had two powerful enemies, and if the mysterious Gu Yun Che became an enemy, he had made way too many enemies.

“Got it,” Kuroda Shio answered and said, “President Gu, if there is nothing else, I will leave now.”

Gu Siting nodded tiredly, allowing him to leave now.

Kuroda Shio left and Gu Siting sat down on the sofa, looking at the moonlight shining in through the window.

His empty eyes showed how he seemed to have become a puppet whose soul had been emptied.

....

In the capital of Hua Land, Fu Shiqin’s new restaurant had given Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng a wonderful dining experience in both the environment and the dishes.

And the two children were at the Fu Family’s old mansion, so they ate the food leisurely.

After the meal, she drank red wine by the window and enjoyed the night view of the capital leisurely.

However, worried about the two children, Gu Weiwei made a call to Mrs. Fu.

“How are the twins? Did I disturb you?”

“My good girl, they are sleeping now, don’t worry about them and just focus on the date,” Mrs. Fu whispered, fearing that she would disturb the children.

Gu Weiwei smiled. “Then you should sleep early too, I will pick them up tomorrow.”

She took a sip of wine happily when she heard that the children were already asleep.

“It is good that you are not taking care of the children right now.”

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and took hold of her shoulders.

“They have grown up, so you don’t have to think about them all the time.”

“Eight months is considered to be grown up?” Gu Weiwei asked with a smile.

Did he mean that they were already eight months old, old enough for him to do whatever he wanted without them?

“We agreed not to talk about children or work tonight.” Fu Hanzheng reminded her.

Gu Weiwei took a sip of the wine. “Then what is there to talk about?”

“Love matters.” Fu Hanzheng chuckled.

“You are getting so mushy.” Gu Weiwei felt helpless.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and kissed her on the face.

“You don’t like it?”

Gu Weiwei smiled brightly. “Of course I do.”

Every woman liked to hear sweet words, especially those spoken by the man she loved.

Chapter 1636: My Husband

They did not leave the restaurant until midnight, probably because of the fact that it was rare for them to go on a date.

Since the restaurant was opened by Fu Shiqin, the staff members of the restaurant did not dare to urge the eldest son of the Fu Family to leave. They waited for them to leave without grumbling, before closing the door.

Gu Weiwei drank too much on this happy birthday.

She was not a very good drinker, and she had not touched alcohol for years, so she got a bit drunk when she left the restaurant.

Fu Hanzheng had drunk some wine too, and for the sake of safety, he asked the driver to come to them.

It was not until midnight when the birthday celebration was over did he help her downstairs and into the car.

Gu Weiwei looked at the man next to her with her head tilted. She became a bit fascinated by the man’s handsome face which was highlighted by the light outside the car.

So she reached out for his face and looked at him.

“How did I manage to trap such a good-looking man?”

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and looked down at his blushing wife.

“You are mine, right?” Gu Weiwei asked as she looked at his face.

“Yes, I am yours.”

Fu Hanzheng knew that she was drunk, so he answered anyway.

Gu Weiwei smiled in satisfaction. “Seal it, seal it!”

Fu Hanzheng frowned. He was just wondering about what her seal was, when her lips that were full of the taste of wine approached his lips.

After the kiss, he said, “Then you are also mine.”

The driver could not help but smile bitterly as he looked straight ahead.

He had fallen asleep, but one call made him go pick up his Boss to drive him home so that he could show off his love with his wife.

Feeling a bit dizzy, Gu Weiwei leaned herself against Fu Hanzheng and said as she saw the driver, “Driver, driver...”

The driver did not dare to say yes at the beginning, but after being called several times, he took a look at the rear-mirror and said, “Yes, Madam?”

However, Gu Weiwei patted Fu Hanzheng and introduced him proudly.

“This is my man, my husband, I spent a long time searching for him...”

“...” The driver shivered with laughter.

They all knew that he was her husband.

Gu Weiwei squinted and continued speaking, “I want to marry him, have many children with him and spend the rest of my life with him...”

The driver did not know whether to laugh or cry. Aren't you already married to him? The two children are already eight months old!

Fu Hanzheng felt her head and said to the driver, “Focus on driving.”

It seemed that she was really drunk.

Gu Weiwei looked up at him, blinked and said seriously, “We are going to have so many children...”

“No need,” Fu Hanzheng whispered.

Two was enough, and he did not want any more children.

However, his drunk wife started to cry unreasonably.

“No need, why not? You don’t love me, you don’t want to have children with me...”

Fu Hanzheng felt a headache coming on, so he said patiently, “Yes, lots of children...”

Well, from today on, she was never allowed to touch any wine.

Hearing his agreement, Gu Weiwei smiled in satisfaction and said as she tugged at his tie, “Make one now...”

She threw herself at him.

The driver got so startled that he almost lost control of the steering wheel. But fortunately, the steering wheel was quickly stabilized.

“Sorry, Boss.”

Fu Hanzheng reached out for the hands that were groping him and took her into his arms so that she would not cause any more trouble.

This drunk girl did not care about where they were.

Chapter 1637: Flirty Wife

When they came home, Gu Weiwei took the opportunity when Fu Hanzheng was closing the door and kissed him right on the lips.

With one hand supporting her, Fu Hanzheng responded to the kiss that was full of wine.

But they were just in the middle of lingering when they heard someone coming downstairs.

With a cigarette in her mouth, Yuan Meng went downstairs and was about to find the lighter in the living room when she saw the couple kissing passionately at the doorstep.

Also, it was Gu Weiwei who took the initiative.

Suddenly, she got so startled that she dropped the cigarette.

With one hand hugging his wife, Fu Hanzheng looked up at her coldly.

Yuan Meng surrendered instantly, turned around and went upstairs.

“I saw nothing, please continue...”

Having said these words, she dashed upstairs without picking up the cigarette.

It seemed that the battle was going to be very fierce tonight.

Fu Hanzheng brought Weiwei back to the room, brought her to the walk-in closet and was about to get her changed into pajamas, when Gu Weiwei pointed at the maid uniform Yuan Meng gave to her before.

“Honey, I want to wear this.”

Fu Hanzheng raised his eyebrows in disbelief. “Are you sure?”

Last time, she did not put it on until he continuously coaxed her.

But now, she had become so bold as to ask to wear it instead of pajamas.

It seemed that it was good to drink some wine every now and then.

Gu Weiwei smiled charmingly, grabbed the clothes and went into the bathroom. A few minutes later, she was dressed.

When he changed into his pajamas and came out of the walk-in closet, he saw his wife kneeling on the bed and smiling cutely.

“Master, I am done.”

“...”

Fu Hanzheng’s lips twitched. He hoped that when she woke up tomorrow, she would not regret it so much that she would want to bang her head against the wall.

She not only got changed, but also got herself into the role.

He had always controlled his s*x drive well, considering that she took care of the two children every day.

But tonight, his little wife was so flirty that he lost control in bed...

But it was undeniable that it was fun and satisfying.

....

Early in the morning, Gu Weiwei woke up with a headache. She rolled over and felt as if her whole body was falling apart. She groaned in pain.

“You are awake?” Fu Hanzheng chuckled.

Gu Weiwei nodded and opened her eyes lazily. Then she saw the maid’s costume tossed under the bed.

“Fu Hanzheng, you have a terrible hobby.”

Fu Hanzheng looked innocent. “I did not put it on for you, you put it on for me last night.”

“I must...”

She was about to counter him when memories of the night before flooded into her mind.

She suddenly remembered that she had put on the maid costume herself.

When she was distracted, Fu Hanzheng kissed her on the face and chuckled.

“Mrs. Fu, did I starve you because I don’t work hard enough?”

Was that why she was so bold last night?

Gu Weiwei buried herself in the blanket. “Go away.”

Why did she drink so much? When she got drunk, she not only kissed Fu Hanzheng behind the door but also dressed up as a maid and called him Master.

Fu Hanzheng got up, got dressed and said, “The children like to play at grandma and grandpa’s place, what about practicing yoga?”

“No way!” Gu Weiwei turned him down under the blanket.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and said, “You like being on top so much, if you don’t practice more, your back will ache.”

Gu Weiwei reached out for the pillow and threw it at him.

“You don’t say.”

Oh my gosh, what on earth had she done last night?

Chapter 1638: Cute

Fu Hanzheng caught the pillow and laughed happily. Then he put down the pillow and said, "The children are not at home today, take a good rest. I will pick them up after work."

After all, she must have used up a great deal of energy last night.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent and swore that she would never drink wine again.

What on earth had Fu Shiqin created in his restaurant so that she got so drunk?

Fu Hanzheng put on his clothes slowly and neatly. He was dressed in a suit and the cufflinks were the same as the ones she gave to him before.

Seeing the girl staying silent, he came over to her side of the bed and said, "I am going to the company, so you can sleep some more."

"Okay," Gu Weiwei answered perfunctorily under the blanket.

"I asked the kitchen to brew some porridge for your stomach. You drank some wine last night, remember to drink it when you get up." Fu Hanzheng stressed.

"I know, leave now." Gu Weiwei urged impatiently.

Fu Hanzheng chuckled. He knew that she would end up being annoyed at him.

He pulled away the blanket, pulled her head out and kissed her.

"Mrs. Fu, you looked very lovely last night... Also, maid outfits are very suitable."

....

Gu Weiwei would have punched him if she had been physically up to it.

Fu Hanzheng stopped teasing her and rubbed her head as he said, "I am leaving now."

Hearing the bedroom door close, Gu Weiwei popped out of the blanket and let out a long sigh of relief.

But she got so annoyed when she thought of what she had done last night.

After she calmed herself down, she went back to sleep and did not get up until one in the afternoon.

Yuan Meng was watching TV in the living room and showed a meaningful smile when she saw her coming down.

“Still able to get up? Good stamina.”

Gu Weiwei squinted at her but ignored her.

Yuan Meng smiled sinisterly. “Sailor or maid? Or was it a bunny girl? What a fun time!”

“Any more of this stuff, and I will stop being friends with you!” Gu Weiwei said with her teeth clenched.

Yuan Meng chuckled. “Don’t worry, I won’t.”

Hearing these words, Gu Weiwei felt slightly relieved.

But what she said next almost made her explode.

“I am not buying it because Fu Hanzheng will do it himself. He asked me for the designer’s contact details this morning,” Yuan Meng said with a smile.

Gu Weiwei grabbed the sofa pillow and threw it at her. “Are you trying to set me up or not?”

“No, but it is good to be a little mischievous.”

Yuan Meng dodged the pillow and burst into laughter at the sight of her angry face.

Gu Weiwei took a few deep breaths and told herself not to get angry.

However, Yuan Meng said in amusement, “I mean, Fu Hanzheng never starved you, but look at how brave you were last night, pushing him behind the door an-...”

Gu Weiwei glared back at her, looking as if she were about to chop her up in the kitchen.

But how much did this woman know?

She remembered that the sound-proofing of the apartment was very good, so she would not hear anything from upstairs.

But apparently, she knew too much about what happened last night.

Yuan Meng surrendered. “Alright, alright, alright, he left some food for you. Go and eat, you need to replenish your energy...”

Instead of staying to be teased, Gu Weiwei went straight to the dining room.

But when she thought of how Yuan Meng told her about Fu Hanzheng ordering those clothes, she became so annoyed.

Men were indeed dumb.

Chapter 1639: The Initiative

After the meal, the first thing Gu Weiwei did was to go back to the room and cut up the maid costume as well as the unworn bunny girl costume in the walk-in closet.

Since the children were not at home, she got so bored that she went back to the study to work on the storyboard.

She was so devoted to work that she lost track of time so that she didn't even know that Fu Hanzheng had picked up the two children after work.

Yuan Meng was playing with her phone in the living room, when she saw Fu Hanzheng and Fu Shiqin coming in with a child each.

Seeing no one in the living room, Fu Hanzheng carried his son to the master bedroom but found no one there either.

Yuan Meng pointed upstairs. "She is doing something."

Hearing her words, Fu Hanzheng carried his son upstairs and found his wife who was drawing the storyboard in the study.

Before he could utter a sound, his son was already babbling.

Hearing the voice, Gu Weiwei looked up and saw the father and the son. She put down the pen and paper and took hold of her son.

But she ignored the father the entire time.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her waist and asked with a smile, "Still angry about what happened last night?"

"No." Gu Weiwei denied it, but she sounded very angry.

But Fu Hanzheng looked innocent. "You can't blame me for everything. After all, it was you who took the initiative last night and I refused you."

Gu Weiwei glared at him. "Stop it!"

Of course he did not turn her down. He became even fiercer.

Fu Hanzheng knew that she was shy, so he changed the topic instantly.

"Let's go, dinner is ready."

Having said these words, he reached out for his son.

"I can do it myself," Gu Weiwei said.

"Isn't he too heavy?" Fu Hanzheng asked as he took over his son, fearing that carrying him would tire her out.

They went downstairs with their son, and Fu Shiqin was already sitting in the dining room with Tiantian. He gave the girl a cookie and she was eating happily.

Fu Hanzheng put his son into the chair, gave him a cookie and sat down to eat.

Fu Shiqin glanced at Gu Weiwei who looked a bit tired and mumbled, "Sister-in-law, are you sick? You look terrible."

"Really?" Gu Weiwei asked with a forced smile.

Yuan Meng got her some food and said with a smile, "Eat more, it is nutritious."

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth and glared back at her.

Fu Hanzheng scooped up some soup for her and diverted the topic.

"Old Lady said that the resort at Nanhu is not bad, and she is asking you to stay there with her for a couple of days."

"Yes, the food there is excellent too." Fu Shiqin added.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and asked, "You are not going?"

"I have an important signing abroad the next day. Our brother and I are going there together and we may not make it," Fu Shiqin said.

Fu Hanzheng reached out for another cookie for his daughter and said with a gentle voice, "The children barely go out, maybe you can show them around?"

“Grandma has talked with the people at the resort. They are not accepting any other guests that day, so we will be the only family there. You can have fun without worry,” Fu Shiqin said.

She did not want to go to crowded places, because firstly, she did not want the media to follow her, and secondly, she did not want the Gu Family to get involved.

Therefore, they were the only ones who saw her and the children together.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and realized that the two children must see more than the park in this villa area.

Also, the two liked going out very much.

“Alright, I will bring them there.”

“Stay there with them, and I will pick you up when I am done,” Fu Hanzheng said.

Chapter 1640: Holiday at Nanhu

Half a month later, Fu Hanzheng and Fu Shiqin were out on a business trip, whilst Gu Weiwei went to Nanhu Resort with the two children and Mrs. Fu.

Since Ji Cheng was on leave and Luo Qianqian was free at home, she invited them to join them.

Ji Cheng was here for the two little ones, and Luo Qianqian was here with them because she was under strict watch.

Together with the bodyguards of the Fu Family, they formed a long convoy.

In front of them and behind them were the bodyguards, while Gu Weiwei and the two children shared the same car with Lei Ning and Yuan Meng.

Ji Cheng sat in Luo Qianqian and Gu Yun Che’s car, and the long motorcade left the capital and went to Nanhu in the suburbs.

When they arrived at the resort in the afternoon, they ate first.

Luo Qianqian and Gu Yun Che went out together and they met up with the others.

Ji Cheng was with Yuan Meng pushing the two children ahead of Weiwei, who was taking a walk with Mrs. Fu.

Youyou and Tiantian rarely went out to play, so they looked around curiously in the pram, looking very excited.

Old Lady was pleased too. "Look at how happy they are!"

Mrs. Fu nodded and said to Gu Weiwei, "You should bring them out to play more often in the future. Children of this age love to go out."

"Yes, we should, but it is not that easy to get them out of the capital," Gu Weiwei said helplessly.

Mrs. Fu understood that she was worried about Gu Siting, so she could not bring the children out to have fun.

"That will be easy. We can go to the hot spring villa in the south when the weather gets cooler. It is warm and quiet there," Old Lady said.

Mrs. Fu said with a smile, "It's so far away, and so do you think Hanzheng will want to release her?"

Since the Old Lady and Fu Shengying had not been in good health these years, they bought a hot spring villa in a small town in the south so that they could take a rest there.

Normally, when it was winter, the elders would stay at the hot spring villa.

But that place was a bit far away from the capital, and if Weiwei and the two children stayed there for a couple of months, someone would not approve of it.

Gu Weiwei smiled without saying a word. The hot spring villa was a nice place, but Fu Hanzheng would not allow them to go there.

"As long as they want to, they can do whatever they want. Do you think that they don't do whatever they want at home?" Fu Shengying said seriously as he walked with his hands behind his back.

If he could get his two grandchildren there, he would be able to watch over them every single day.

Mrs. Fu teased him. "As if you were not like that when you were young."

Embarrassed, Fu Shengying looked around, trying to conceal his embarrassment.

Ji Cheng saw some flowers by the roadside and gave two of them to the two children.

Youyou was just looking at the flowers curiously when the little foodie stuffed the flowers into her mouth. Startled, Ji Cheng rushed to grab the flowers.

“Ah, Tiantian, this is not food!”

Gu Weiwei felt helpless and wiped off her daughter’s hands.

“Don’t let her play with anything she can’t eat before she grows up.”

Otherwise, whatever this girl received, she would shove it in her mouth first.

Old Lady and Mrs. Fu also found it funny. The little girl could eat well and grow strong, but because of food, she always made a fuss.

When the two children were at the old mansion, she put her and her brother together in the same cot.

But in the morning Tiantian woke up first and started to nibble on her brother’s hand.

Chapter 1641: Hobby

They were walking along the lakeside when Yuan Meng went up to look in the lake, standing on the dock next to a boat.

Gu Yun Che came and stood next to her and said as they stood on the dock, “I heard that there is an ancient site under the lake, not going down to take a look?”

Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows in astonishment. It seemed that the sign outside the resort wasn’t fake and there truly were underwater historical sites.

She had seen coral reefs when she was at the bottom of the sea, but she had never been to the bottom of a lake before.

“Alright, we are too old to play. You two young people can go and take a rest with the children,” Mrs. Fu said.

Gu Weiwei, Ji Cheng and Yuan Meng boarded the ship together with Luo Qianqian and Gu Yun Che.

Standing on the boat, Ji Cheng looked at the clear lake water. “How deep is it?”

“Less than ten meters, very shallow.” Yuan Meng had already changed into the diving gear and had come out of the boat’s cabin.

“Isn’t it too deep?” Ji Cheng shrank back into the middle of the boat and refused. “You can have fun, I can stay on the boat.”

She could barely swim, let alone going into the water.

Gu Weiwei turned to Luo Qianqian. "What about you?"

"Please, going underwater is not for me." Luo Qianqian shook her head too.

Gu Weiwei got changed into the diving suit and oxygen tank, went to the bow of the boat and checked the diving equipment with Yuan Meng. Then she grabbed the underwater camera.

"Just forget about it, I will film it for you."

"Yay!" Ji Cheng said joyfully.

Of course Ji Cheng was curious about the underwater historical site, but she did not dare to take a look at it herself.

Gu Weiwei and Yuan Meng put on the diving goggles and oxygen mouthpiece, and flipped backwards off the ship.

Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian leaned against the side of the ship and watched the two of them sinking into the water before they soon disappeared.

Gu Weiwei and Yuan Meng went into the water together. The ancient site underwater was much more beautiful than she had expected. There were stone bridges, houses and ancient trees everywhere.

She was in charge of making the video whilst Yuan Meng picked some places for the filming.

They were having fun underwater and forgot about the time, but Luo Qianqian and Ji Cheng got increasingly worried.

"She has been down there for so long, what are they still doing down there? Are they alright?"

Apart from them two, Mrs. Fu and the others were also worried when they saw no one coming out of the water for a while.

"What are they doing down there? Did something happen?" Mrs. Fu stood up and looked at the lake nervously.

Old Lady was also worried. "Call the people at the resort and ask them to take a look in the water."

But just when the resort's divers arrived, Gu Weiwei and Yuan Meng had already come out of the deep water.

They came to the surface, wiped off the water on their faces and said to the others on the ship.

"It is so pretty down there, aren't you coming down to take a look?"

"No." Ji Cheng shook her head and turned him down.

Gu Weiwei and Yuan Meng climbed onto the boat, took the towels from them and wiped their hair.

"We have taken some videos and pictures, we will show them to you at the hotel."

"I say, you two are really something else." Ji Cheng looked at them two of them in disbelief.

Yuan Meng said as she was drying her hair.

"It is just a few meters deep, and she got her AOW certificate abroad and swam 30 meters under the sea. It is much more exciting to play with sharks than to dive in a lake."

Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian exchanged a look and asked curiously, "What else do you do apart from diving?"

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, "Things like skiing and paragliding."

She received western-style education in A Land and she loved sports.

Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian truly did not share her hobby or love of going deep into the sea.

Chapter 1642: My Fault

Gu Weiwei and Yuan Meng went into the boat's cabin to get changed and by the time they were changed the boat was almost at the dock.

Seeing them coming off the ship wrapped in towels, Mrs. Fu let out a sigh of relief.

"You are finally out, we were so scared."

“It was so beautiful underwater that I lost track of time.” Gu Weiwei smiled and said, “We made a video and we will show it to you inside the resort.”

Seeing their wet hair, Mrs. Fu urged.

“It is getting cold, go and take a hot shower, don’t catch a cold.”

Gu Weiwei did feel a bit cold, so she said goodbye to them and returned to the room with Yuan Meng.

They went to get changed, and before dinner time, they borrowed the small meeting room of the resort and showed off the underwater historical site to them.

Under the blue water, there was a stone bridge that led to an old mansion, and the scene was presented through the video.

“Oh my gosh, it is so pretty!” Ji Cheng exclaimed.

Luo Qianqian nodded too. They were so astounded by the video that Yuan Meng and Mu Weiwei must have been very excited to see it with their own eyes.

Mrs. Fu looked at Gu Weiwei in astonishment. “What is this place doing underwater?”

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, “It must be the old town from many, many years ago. Due to the changes of the surrounding mountains and terrain, the town sank and the water flow gathered here, so the town became underwater.”

“It is even more amazing than what you have seen in the video.”

“What a pity that we are too old to go look at it ourselves.” Old Lady sighed.

After watching the video and looking through the pictures, they went to eat dinner together.

Gu Weiwei had fun diving into the underwater ruins, but she got a cold the following day.

In order not to pass the virus to the two children, she had to leave Youyou and Tiantian with Mrs. Fu.

Fu Hanzheng called her when he was out on business.

“How was your vacation?”

“Pretty good,” Gu Weiwei replied with a hoarse voice.

Fu Hanzheng could tell that something was wrong with her voice. “What is wrong with your throat?”

“I went to take a look at the underwater ruins yesterday afternoon and caught a cold,” Gu Weiwei said and added. “I saw the doctor and already have my medicine.”

“It is autumn and you are going into the water?” Fu Hanzheng said with a low voice.

She had given birth to two children and she was not as immune to illnesses as she was before.

It would be strange if she did not catch a cold when she was diving on such a cold day and the water temperature was even lower than in summer.

“I am sorry, I am sorry.” Gu Weiwei admitted her mistake obediently.

She did not feel that cold when she was in the diving suit.

Also, she had not gone diving for a long time, so she did not expect that she had become so weak.

Fu Hanzheng had nothing to say when she admitted her mistake so quickly.

“Where are the children?”

“Their grandparents are taking care of them for me; I don’t want to pass it on to them,” Gu Weiwei sniffed and said with a muffled voice.

If she had known that this would happen, she would not have gone in with Yuan Meng.

“Take a good rest, I will pick you up the day after tomorrow,” Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, “Forget it, we can go home by ourselves. You must be tired.”

He had been on the plane for more than ten hours and when he landed, he would have to drive hours to pick them up. She might not be the one that is tired, but her heart ached for him.

“Be good,” Fu Hanzheng said with a low voice.

Gu Weiwei could not object to him any more, because it was up to him to decide if they should leave together or not.

Chapter 1643: Mr. Gu

She had been enjoying a very comfortable vacation, but it was now ruined by the cold.

Gu Weiwei had to watch the rest of the others have fun as she either took the medicine or rested in the room.

Luckily, the two children were obedient enough to stay away from their mother.

During the days at the resort, everyone had a great time apart from her.

On the day they were returning to the capital, Fu Hanzheng made a call and told her he would come to pick them up when he returned.

But after some discussion with Mrs. Fu, they decided to go home without him.

Fu Hanzheng was still on the plane and he would arrive in the afternoon. If he came to pick them up after returning to the capital, the sky would have already turned dark.

So they ate breakfast, packed up and were about to go back to the capital.

But she had not yet recovered from the cold, so she did not dare to sit in the car with the two children. Instead, she asked Mrs. Fu to share the same car with the children.

Then she went to sit in Luo Qianqian and Ji Cheng's car, which was driven by Gu Yun Che.

The moment she got into the car, Ji Cheng said happily, "With you by my side, I am no longer a third wheel."

Gu Weiwei chuckled. She leaned herself against the backrest and soon fell asleep.

The trip went smoothly until they came to a service area two hours later.

Luo Qianqian felt a bit dizzy and vomited just outside the door of the car.

Worried, Gu Yun Che followed her out of the car and went over to her with water and paper.

Yuan Meng got out of the car and found a tree far away to smoke next to, and Mrs. Fu and the others also got out of the car.

Gu Weiwei and Ji Cheng were just in the middle of sleeping when danger approached them.

A large car drove past, cutting off the car she was in from the others. Two people rushed out of an off-road car and pulled open the two doors.

One of them took the driver's seat and the other took the passenger's seat. They stepped on the accelerator and drove out of the service area.

Startled awake by the speed of the car, Gu Weiwei opened her eyes and found that Gu Yun Che and Luo Qianqian were no longer there.

But facing the man with a gun in the passenger's seat, she and Ji Cheng did not dare to do anything.

The man in the passenger's seat pointed the gun at them and said, "Miss. Weiwei, Mr. Gu has asked us to bring you home."

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips and looked cold. Then she pinched the decorative bracelet on her wrist.

The bracelet was a specially-made alarm locator. As long as she pinched it, she would alert Yuan Meng and Lei Ning and they would start to locate her.

It was made by Fu Hanzheng and she never wore it at home, but he always asked her to put it on whenever she went out.

Yuan Meng was just smoking when the alarm rang. She immediately started to track the location.

Startled, she rushed back to the cars and found that the car was long gone.

She turned around and saw Lei Ning and the bodyguards of the Fu Family arriving at the same time.

"What about the car that was here?"

Yuan Meng gritted her teeth – Gu Siting was here trying to steal her away!

"Lei Ning, take half of the men and leave the rest with me."

Having said these words, she dashed into one of the off-road cars and sped up.

It was such a humiliation when Gu Weiwei's car was taken away right in front of their eyes.

Fu Hanzheng was going home today, and if he knew that they had lost his wife, he would definitely take revenge on them.

Chapter 1644: Wife's Car Was Robbed

Seeing Yuan Meng leaving in a hurry, Mrs. Fu and the Old Lady hurried over to Lei Ning's side.

"What happened?"

Lei Ning confessed as she lowered her head. "That truck blocked our view, so Mrs. Ji and Ji Cheng's car were taken away."

"Taken away?!" Mrs. Fu's voice turned hoarse.

"They are well-prepared, we were careless," Lei Ning said.

Boss was returning home soon, and if he knew what was going on here, he would be furious.

But there had been no movement from the other side these days, and they had not been followed on the way, so they did not pay much attention to them when they came to the service station.

The truck turned around and stayed where it was for two minutes, blocking their sight.

Unexpectedly, that man had struck.

Luo Qianqian also heard the words and said to Gu Yun Che nervously, "What should we do? Weiwei and Ji Cheng are both in the car.

"It is my fault, I should not have gotten out of the car. If we had not, they would not have had the chance."

....

"It will be fine." Gu Yun Che consoled with a low voice.

Mrs. Fu and Old Lady were so frightened that they paced back and forth next to the car.

"What should we do? Will Yuan Meng catch up to them?"

"What if she fails to catch up to them?"

....

Compared to their worries, Fu Shengying looked a bit annoyed.

It was obvious that the Gu Family had sent someone to kidnap her.

That was why he had never agreed to let Fu Hanzheng remarry her. If Gu Siting was still alive, something like this would keep happening and the Fu Family would never have a peaceful day.

“Madam, please get into the car.” Lei Ning reminded her with a low voice.

Although she also wanted to go after the girl, the Old Lady and the two children were all here. If she went after the girl with Yuan Meng, the enemy might have something else up their sleeves and they would be totally defenseless.

The old lady was experienced and soon calmed herself down.

“Go back into the car and watch over the two children. We will wait for Yuan Meng here.”

Lei Ning looked at the locator device in her hand and made a call. She arranged a roadblock on the road in front of the car Gu Weiwei was in so that she could be rescued.

When all the work was done, she stared at the position on the phone and prayed that Yuan Meng could bring her back safely.

Otherwise they would not be able to answer to their boss.

After all, they knew how worried their boss was about his wife.

Before the trip, they had been told repeatedly to keep her and the two children safe.

....

In the fast-moving car, Gu Weiwei glared at the man with the gun.

“Are you trying to bring my dead body back with you?”

“Don’t worry, Miss Weiwei, we are not going to hurt you, but...” The man pointed the gun at Ji Cheng and said, “But your friend is another story, so please cooperate with us, Miss Weiwei.”

Gu Weiwei took hold of the shaking Ji Cheng and whispered, “Don’t be scared, everything will be fine.”

She was waiting for Yuan Meng and her men to catch up with her.

There were only two people in the car, but there were several other cars behind them. Even if she took the risk of getting the gun, she would not be able to leave safely without help.

They did not dare to shoot at her, but she did not dare to take the risk with Ji Cheng in the car.

She consoled Ji Cheng as she sized up the outside of the car, waiting for the right moment to grab the gun and save herself.

Chapter 1645: Kuroda Keiko

Yuan Meng drove the off-road vehicle and sped up to catch up with the car on the tracker.

She cursed Gu Siting numerous times as she turned the steering wheel.

Although she had already stepped on the accelerator to catch up with them, the enemy must have expected that they were chasing them, so they too were driving very fast.

In this way, she would not be able to catch up with her.

But soon, Gu Weiwei slowed down on the map.

But she just could not relax.

Because if they had not run into any trouble, it meant that they would have changed their destination or got into other transportation.

At this moment, Gu Weiwei and Ji Cheng's car was being blocked by a moving motorbike, so they could not drive at full speed.

At the beginning, Gu Weiwei had thought that it was one of their kidnappers colleagues, but gradually, she found that the motorbike kept passing through the convoy, so that the cars had to slow down.

Also, she seemed to have dropped something that caused the tire of the car behind them to burst.

The moment the car had a flat tire, it lost control and stopped the cars behind it.

The cars behind could not catch up with them.

So apart from Gu Weiwei's car, only the Land Rover in front was left.

The motorcyclist rode past her car and caught up with the car in front of them. However, the window of the car was opened and several men were shooting at the motorcyclist through the window.

The man with the gun got a bit nervous as he watched the scene outside.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Ji Cheng, suggesting that she should hide behind the passenger's seat so that she would not be shot easily.

They were here to bring her away, so they would not shoot at her.

So as long as Ji Cheng was safe, she could get the gun.

However, she did not make a move right away. Instead, she paid attention to the motorcyclist who was very agile and dodged the bullets in front of them.

When the men in the two cars were busy dealing with the motorcyclist, they did not notice that Yuan Meng's car had already caught up with them.

Gu Weiwei took a look at the road around her and pushed Ji Cheng into the corner. Then she took the opportunity to grab the gun of the man in the passenger's seat and shot him in a vital area.

Then she turned the gun and pointed at the driver.

The driver was not convinced with her threat. He turned the steering wheel and drove towards the plain flat of land outside the lane.

Gu Weiwei shot his left shoulder and took the opportunity to grab the steering wheel after the man felt pain. Ji Cheng screamed out of fright as the car made sharp turns on the plain of land.

After several fights, the car rolled over and finally stopped.

Yuan Meng drove over, opened the door and pulled her and Ji Cheng out.

"How are you? Are you injured?"

She looked at the road and found that Yuan Meng's men had subdued everyone else.

She and Ji Cheng went into Yuan Meng's car and she asked, "Where is the biker?"

If it had not been for the help of the motorcyclist, she would not have escaped so quickly.

Yuan Meng smiled. "Let's go and take a look, it's your old friend."

Having said these words, she drove her over to the road.

Gu Weiwei saw the motorcyclist who had his hands over his left leg the moment she got out of the car. She did not recognize him until she approached him.

"Keiko?"

Keiko, the younger sister of Kuroda Shio.

Before she met Ling Yan, Kuroda Keiko grew up with her at the Gu Family, but when she turned 16, she returned to the main family in Japan and they never met again.

But she had never expected that it would be her who came to help her today.

Chapter 1646: Kuroda Keiko 2

Kuroda Keiko looked up and threw a look at Yuan Meng and then at Gu Weiwei next to Yuan Meng.

Then she waved her blood-stained hand.

"Konnichiwa."

But the way she looked at her was full of curiosity, as if she were not sure if she was an old friend.

Gu Weiwei approached her and asked as she saw her holding her left leg, "You were hit?"

"No, just some scratches from the bullets." Kuroda Keiko kept looking at her as she spoke, trying to find a familiar shadow in her.

Gu Weiwei turned to Yuan Meng and asked, "Do you have any medicine or bandages in the car?"

"Yes," Yuan Meng shouted and she soon came back over with a small medicine box.

Gu Weiwei cut off the pants near the wound and wrapped it up with medicine.

“That is all I have here, I will take you to the hospital when we arrive at the capital.”

Apart from the bullet wounds on her legs and other contusions on her body, she could tell that she must have spent a great deal of effort to stop another car, while she herself was trying to get the gun and save herself.

Fortunately, Yuan Meng caught up with them in time, otherwise she and Ji Cheng would not have been able to get away safely, even with Kuroda Keiko’s help.

“Are you really Weiwei?”

Squatting in front of her, Gu Weiwei wrapped up the wound on her leg and asked in amusement, “Why are you here?”

Sitting by the roadside, Kuroda Keiko turned to the robbers who were subdued by Yuan Meng and said, “I overheard Gu Siting and my brother talking about catching you, so I followed them here.

“But I am not sure which car you were in, so I had to stop them first.”

....

Gu Weiwei said gratefully, “Thank you, Keiko.”

Kuroda Keiko sized her up from head to toe and asked, “How are you? Are you injured?”

Gu Weiwei shook her head. “Just some scratches, nothing serious.”

Gu Siting was probably planning to bring her home safe and sound, so even if they caught her, they would not dare to hurt her.

That gave her more opportunities to fight back. After all, they might not dare to do anything to her, but she could do something to them.

It was probably the first time for Ji Cheng to experience something like this, so she was totally frightened.

She had just come out of the car and her legs had turned weak; she was still sitting in Yuan Meng’s car.

Hearing her words, Kuroda Keiko reached out for her.

“I thought that I would never see you again.”

They had not met face to face after she left the Gu Family for Japan at the age of 16, although they did talk on the phone.

When she passed away at the Gu Family, she went there to meet her for the last time.

Gu Weiwei patted her back. "Aren't you seeing me now?"

"Why didn't you come to visit me after you returned alive, not even a call or a letter?" Kuroda Keiko asked between sobs.

"I am sorry." Gu Weiwei apologized but did not explain anything.

Why did she not contact Kuroda Keiko? Because she was Kuroda Shio's sister.

If she had contacted her, then the Kuroda Family would have known that she was still alive.

She knew pretty well how loyal the Kuroda Family were to the Gu Family.

Therefore, she went to Yuan Meng and Yuan Shuo instead of contacting Kuroda Keiko.

Instead of asking anything more, Kuroda Keiko sighed.

"I am already satisfied that you are alive and that I can see you again."

Chapter 1647: Mrs. Fu

As Gu Weiwei was talking with Kuroda Keiko, Yuan Meng made a call to Lei Ning and her men.

"She is safe, we are waiting for you up ahead, come and join us."

One car was wrecked and several people were injured. There were dozens of the enemy with them too, so it was not wise to go back and meet the others.

Lei Ning could not help but shiver when she heard the news.

"Is she really saved?"

"She was saved, but it's thanks to someone's cooperation that everything went well," Yuan Meng said.

Lei Ning let out a sigh of relief on the other side of the phone. "Is she injured?"

Yuan Meng threw a look at Gu Weiwei who was talking with Kuroda Keiko and said, "No, just some scratches, and Ji Cheng is with her too. They are safe now."

Luckily, she was saved in time and was not injured, otherwise she would have gone crazy.

Lei Ning was not the only one who felt relieved.

Fu Hanzheng arranged so many people to follow her and asked her to come back from Italy just to prevent the Gu Family from doing anything to her.

If they lost the love of his heart, he would definitely fight with them.

In the service area, Old Lady and her men were still waiting for the news of rescue.

Looking at her two grandchildren, Mrs. Fu sighed anxiously.

"How should we tell Hanzheng about this?"

They were the ones who suggested that they should take a vacation here, but what happened after they came here?

Hanzheng had wanted them to wait for him to pick them up, but they insisted on going home alone. How much would he hate them if they failed to save her?

Also, judging from the time, he would be off the plane in two hours at most.

By that time, he would definitely call her and ask about it.

After the call with Yuan Meng, Lei Ning hurried to Mrs. Fu's SUV, pulled open the door and said, "Madam, Old Lady, they are safe. Madam is not injured and they are waiting for us up ahead."

The Old Lady patted her chest and mumbled, "Thank God, they are safe now."

Mrs. Fu let out a sigh of relief and urged.

"Hurry up, get everyone into the car and let's go join them."

It was good that she was safe and sound.

But Fu Shengying, who was in the same car with them, looked displeased.

"If she is in the Fu Family, something like this will happen again and again. We may be able to stop it once, but we can't stop it again and again!"

The Old Lady turned serious when she heard his words.

“What are you talking about? If something happens to her, the two children will have no mother. Can you bear to do that?”

It had been them, the elders, who had suggested that they should come to Nanhu for the vacation. If something happened to them, Fu Hanzheng would definitely resent them.

She had also blamed Weiwei for the grudge between the Fu Family and the Gu Family.

But it had never been she who went against the Fu Family, but they blamed everything on her. She had been living in vain.

“If that is the case, don’t even think of speaking to the little ones even if you want to.” Mrs. Fu warned.

The Gu Family came to cause trouble, not because Weiwei asked them to, but because Gu Siting was shameless.

Fu Shengying looked at the two sleeping children in the seats and did not utter a sound.

The two children were totally unaware of what was happening outside and were sleeping soundly.

Lei Ning informed everyone and asked her men to drive away to join Gu Weiwei and the others.

Chapter 1648: Frightened

As they were waiting for Mrs. Fu and her men to join them, Gu Weiwei and Kuroda Keiko talked about what had happened since they last saw one another.

She learned that Kuroda Keiko only came to A Land last month and overheard the conversation between Gu Siting and Kuroda Shio.

She had not believed that she was still alive. She did not believe it until Gu Weiwei had called her name.

Yuan Meng arranged everything and came over with two bottles of water.

“I have informed Lei Ning and her men. They will arrive soon.”

Gu Weiwei took the water, opened it and took a sip. Then she threw a look at the off-road car parked not far away.

“How is Ji Cheng?”

“Very frightened,” Yuan Meng said helplessly.

They were used to seeing such a scene, but Ji Cheng was a girl that had never seen such a situation before. She must have been traumatized by the gun which was pointed at her and the accident.

Gu Weiwei sighed helplessly. “I have caused her trouble.”

If she had not been in the car, something like this would not have happened to her.

Yuan Meng took out a cigarette and lit it up. Her heart was still pounding when she thought of the thrilling scene.

“It was a good thing that you were sitting in that car. If you were sitting in the car with the children, all three of you would have been taken. You alone being taken scared me!”

Ji Cheng was in the same car as her, and now she was terribly frightened.

But if the two children were in the same car as her, what would have happened if one of them was injured?

Also, if it had been the two children in the car, she would not have been able to take the gun so calmly.

Although she felt sorry for the Ji Family’s girl, fortunately Gu Weiwei was suffering from a cold and did not share the same car with the children. That was why they were not in danger today.

“Anyway, I am fine now.” Gu Weiwei smiled.

Yuan Meng took a puff and complained speechlessly.

“You should have been safer in that car because that Gu guy was driving. Damn it!”

Gu Yun Che was undoubtedly the best fighter among them all.

She thought that she would be totally safe in his car.

But it turned out to be the most unsafe thing.

“I think Qianqian got carsick, so he accompanied her out. But none of us had expected that these people would do something,” Gu Weiwei said.

She had heard Luo Qianqian talking about feeling carsick, so she fell asleep in the car with Ji Cheng when the car pulled over.

There were so many people in the motorcade, so Gu Yun Che did not lock the door or pull out the key.

But what they had not expected was that this gave these people an opportunity.

Luckily, Kuroda Keiko helped and Yuan Meng caught up with them in time, so she and Ji Cheng were not injured.

Yuan Meng brushed off the ashes and said to Kuroda Keiko, “Will Gu Siting let you go if you keep helping us?”

Kuroda Keiko looked indifferent. “Who cares? I can always return to the main family in Japan. I don’t believe that he would dare to kill me for this matter. If he dares to do that, it means that he is forcing the Kuroda Family to betray him.”

Gu Weiwei smiled. “That is true.”

Among all the men born of the Kuroda Family, Keiko was the only girl and she was adored by the family.

Therefore, if Gu Siting wanted to cause her trouble, he would ruin the relationship between the Gu Family and the Kuroda Family.

“So don’t worry about me, I am not afraid of him,” Kuroda Keiko said with a smile.

Seeing her wounds, Gu Weiwei said, “Go home after you recover.”

After all, she was injured because she was trying to help her, and she could not possibly let her go home injured.

Chapter 1649: Fu Hanzheng’s Call

The three of them sat by the roadside and waited for almost an hour before Lei Ning came with the remaining men.

Several cars pulled over by the roadside, and Mrs. Fu and the Old Lady came to the scene in a hurry. When they saw the overturned cars on the road and the cars that hit the trees, they shivered.

Seeing them coming, Gu Weiwei stood up and went over to them.

“Aunt, Grandma Fu.”

Seeing the blood stain on her forehead, Mrs. Fu asked worriedly, “Why are you injured? Where else are you injured?”

Gu Weiwei felt her forehead and found that it was bleeding because of the accident.

But the blood had already dried up.

“I am fine, it’s just some minor injuries.”

“Did your car roll over?!” Old Lady shivered.

“I am really not injured, don’t worry.” Gu Weiwei smiled and asked them not to worry. “Where are Youyou and Tiantian?”

“In the car, sleeping,” Mrs. Fu said as she sized her up from head to toe, wondering what wound she had missed.

Gu Weiwei looked at the car behind them and said, “I will go and check on them.”

Having said these words, she walked towards the car and looked at the two children who were still sleeping soundly. Then she touched their heads.

She had not thought much about it before, but at this moment, she was glad that the two children were not in the same car with her.

Otherwise she would not be able to calm herself down.

After all, she was totally helpless when the two children were around.

And if she could defend one, she would not be able to defend the other. No matter who was injured, she would be heartbroken.

Although she kissed and gently hugged the two children, when she thought of her cold, she still got out of the car.

She had just got out of the car when Yuan Meng came over to her with her phone and said helplessly, “Fu Hanzheng is on the phone.”

He had just called her and Lei Ning, but they did not dare to answer the call.

After all, they had no idea how to tell Fu Hanzheng what had just happened.

So she had to get Weiwei's phone so that she could answer the call instead of them.

No matter how fierce he was, he should not be fierce to his own wife.

Gu Weiwei took the phone and glanced at her.

"You haven't told him, have you?"

"We dare to only let you tell him now," Yuan Meng said helplessly.

It was good that she was not injured, otherwise she would have to go home and apologize.

"I get it." Gu Weiwei took a few steps away from her and answered the call after clearing her throat. "Have you got off the plane?"

"Why are you not answering my calls?" Fu Hanzheng asked with a low voice.

He called Yuan Meng and Lei Ning but neither of them answered.

That had never happened before.

And he had called her three times before the call went through.

"They are driving, and couldn't answer the phone," Gu Weiwei said with a relaxed tone.

Fu Hanzheng's voice sank. "Didn't we agree that I would pick you up?"

"I wanted to see you as soon as possible. We are on our way and will arrive in two hours," Gu Weiwei said with a smile, trying not to make him suspicious, "I just fell asleep and did not hear my phone ringing."

Hearing her voice, Fu Hanzheng did not suspect anything.

"Tell them to drive carefully, I will wait for you at home."

It would take him almost one hour to get home from the airport, and they would be home soon after him.

Chapter 1650: Explanation to Fu Hanzheng

She finished the conversation with Fu Hanzheng, checked the time and said, "It is late, let's get ready to go and continue on our journey."

“What about Fu Hanzheng?” Yuan Meng asked worriedly.

Normally, she was not scared of Fu Hanzheng, but when something happened, she was indeed scared of the furious Fu Hanzheng.

He looked so cold and sharp as if he wanted to chop her up.

“I told him, alright?” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Relieved, Yuan Meng said instantly, “That is what I have been waiting to hear.”

Having said the words, she turned to Lei Ning and was about to leave in the car.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Kuroda Keiko who was still sitting by the roadside and said, “I will explain to Fu Hanzheng. Please take Keiko to the hospital, I will go there later.”

She had planned to drive her to the hospital, but if she was going there, Fu Hanzheng would think that she was seriously injured.

So she had better go home and tell him everything, in case he took it out on Lei Ning.

“Got it, I will.” Yuan Meng nodded.

On the way back to the car, she did not feel sleepy at all, although she still had a headache because of the cold.

Gu Siting’s men might have failed the mission today, but he was definitely going to send more men.

She was not afraid of him, but she was worried that the two children would be hurt.

He might not do anything to her, but he would never show mercy to her and Fu Hanzheng’s children.

Two hours later, the motorcade entered the capital city and stopped by the roadside.

She threw an apologetic look at Ji Cheng who had been shaking all the way.

“Ji Cheng, I am sorry that you got involved.”

If she had known that this would happen, she would not have invited them.

Ji Cheng came back to herself and shook her head.

“I am fine, but... why are those people hunting you? Where were they taking you?”

In the car, she heard those people saying that Mr. Gu asked them to bring her home.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips. "It is a long story. I will tell you and Qianqian when I have settled down at home."

Ji Cheng nodded. The Fu Family must be very busy after what happened.

"Then you can go home first, me and Qianqian can leave together."

Gu Weiwei waved at them, turned to Yuan Meng's car and looked at Kuroda Keiko sitting in the car.

"Keiko, Yuan Meng will take you to the hospital first. I will visit you tomorrow at noon."

She had to go home now. If she did not stand in front of Fu Hanzheng in one piece, he would think that something had happened to her and take it out on others.

"Okay." Kuroda Keiko stuck her head out of the window and asked with a smile, "But when will you let me meet your current boyfriend?"

She had turned down the idea of returning to the Gu Family and insisted on staying in Hua Land. She even gave birth to two children for that man.

She was very curious as to what kind of person he was that made her so devoted to him.

"When you get better, I will definitely bring you to meet him." Gu Weiwei nodded with a smile.

Then she went into another car driven by the bodyguards of the Fu Family.

After she got into the car, she suddenly thought of something. She took out the mirror from her bag and checked her face, only to find that there was a patch of blood on her forehead.

In order to prevent Fu Hanzheng from making a fuss when she entered the car, she wiped herself clean with a wet napkin and brushed down her fringe.

Chapter 1651: Mrs. Fu

After parting with Yuan Meng and her family, they arrived at the number seven.

Gu Weiwei got out of the car and went to find Lei Ning; she asked her to take care of the kidnappers first and deal with them after she spoke with Fu Hanzheng.

“Yes, Madam.” Lei Ning nodded and brought the men out of the car.

Seeing her leaving with her men and the kidnapers, Gu Weiwei and Mrs. Fu brought the two children into the house.

Fu Hanzheng had been in the study on the second floor when he heard the noise.

“Didn’t you say...” He approached and before he finished the words, he lifted the fringe that was resting on her forehead and his expression sank when he saw the wound.

“How did it happen?”

Gu Weiwei slapped away his hands and brushed her fringe.

She had concealed it so well and yet he saw it the moment he came over. Was it that obvious?

Fu Hanzheng reached out for her hand and showed it to her. “Did you get this at the same time too?”

Gu Weiwei touched her ears guiltily. Her voice sounded hoarse because of the cold.

“Get someone to make some food for the two children, they are hungry.”

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at the kitchen. “Is lunch ready?”

A servant came out and answered, “It’s almost done, making food for the children.”

Knowing that they were almost home, he had asked the servants to get lunch ready.

Fu Hanzheng looked thoughtful. “There is still some time before lunch, is that enough time for you to tell me the truth?”

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Mrs. Fu and the two energetic children who had just woken up.

It was not a good time to talk here, so she said, “You’re right, a small problem occurred, so let’s talk in the study.”

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at the nervous elders in the living room and led her upstairs.

When they went into the study, he poured her a cup of water and asked, “A small problem? What problem?”

Gu Weiwei took a sip of water to moisten her throat and said in a relaxed tone, "I ran into Gu Siting's men on the way back, but everyone is fine. They have been caught and Lei Ning has taken them into interrogation."

Hearing her words, Fu Hanzheng looked cold.

So that's why Lei Ning and Yuan Meng did not pick up the phone and it took her a long time before the call went through.

That must have been after the accident.

"Why didn't you tell me over the phone?"

"Thanks to you arranging Lei Ning and Yuan Meng to protect me, those men did not get what they wanted and we were able to return safe and sound." Gu Weiwei ignored the incident of her being taken away and focused upon the results, praising his foresight.

Fu Hanzheng stared at the woman who was speaking and made a call to Lei Ning.

"Come to the study within ten minutes."

He did not quite believe what she said.

So he needed an honest person to tell him what had happened.

"I told you everything, why did you call Lei Ning?" Gu Weiwei said unhappily.

"Did you tell me how you got the wound?" Fu Hanzheng asked.

He knew that she was hiding something important from him.

Since she was not telling the truth, he had to ask Lei Ning to come and report the situation.

"I did," Gu Weiwei said.

But she did not say that it was because of the accident.

What was done was done and they were all here in one piece, what was the point of getting to the bottom of it?

Chapter 1652: Unreasonable 2

Seven minutes later, the door of the study was knocked on twice and Lei Ning walked in.

“Boss.”

Fu Hanzheng looked at his wife who was sitting opposite him and asked Lei Ning, “What happened on the way here? How did her forehead get injured?”

Lei Ning threw a look at Gu Weiwei. Mrs. Fu said that if the boss asked about it, she should not make it sound too serious. She should just say that she ran into Gu Siting’s men and that the problem was solved quickly.

But she still decided to tell him the truth.

After all, with Boss’s temper, if he could not get the real answer from her, he would ask everyone one by one.

Then the consequence of lying would be very serious.

“We were on the way back when we were attacked by the Gu Family. Madam’s car was taken away.”

Fu Hanzheng looked cold and continued to ask Lei Ning, looking at Weiwei who had ignored the key point.

“What else?”

“Fortunately, Yuan Meng and her men caught up with her, and with the help of a Japanese biker, Mrs. Fu and Miss Cheng were both rescued. But the car rolled over and Mrs. Fu was injured.” Lei Ning confessed everything she knew.

Furious, Fu Hanzheng stared at his wife who did not dare to look at him because of guilt.

“So this is the small problem you talked about?”

“It was just a small problem, if it had been a big problem, you would not have seen me at all,” Gu Weiwei mumbled.

She did not want him to worry, that’s why she did not want to tell him in detail because she didn’t think that it was too serious.

But he had instead asked Lei Ning to come here.

Beforehand Lei Ning had agreed to tell Fu Hanzheng the abridged version that Weiwei wanted.

But the moment she entered the room, she confessed everything.

Having heard her words, Fu Hanzheng asked coldly, "Where is Yuan Meng?"

"The Japanese biker was injured, so Yuan Meng took her to the hospital." Lei Ning confessed everything.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a moment. "What is the background of that Japanese biker?"

Lei Ning threw a look at Gu Weiwei and continued to tell the truth.

"She is from the Kuroda Family, the sister of Kuroda Shio, but she should know Mrs. Fu."

Gu Weiwei added instantly. "Keiko knew that Gu Siting's men were coming, so she followed them here. Luckily, she helped and Yuan Meng arrived in time, so the problem was solved very quickly."

"You know her?" Fu Hanzheng asked.

Gu Weiwei understood that there was nothing more to hide at this point.

"Keiko grew up with me in the Gu Family, but she returned to the main family in Japan at the age of 16. I have not seen her since."

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and asked, "She is from the Kuroda Family, are you sure she is trustworthy?"

The Kuroda Family had been loyal to the Gu Family for years and Kuroda Shio was Gu Siting's right-hand man. He just could not trust this Kuroda Keiko.

"We haven't seen each other for years, but Keiko must be trustworthy. If she really wanted to do something, she would not have helped me and she herself was seriously injured," Gu Weiwei explained.

She was worried that her contact with Keiko would be discovered by the Kuroda Family.

But she still trusted Keiko.

"She returned to Japan when she was 16 and you two have not met for so many years." Fu Hanzheng reminded her. "Weiwei, people change."

"Then make an exception for me?" Gu Weiwei asked with a smile.

Helpless, Fu Hanzheng frowned.

“Weiwei, I am talking about something serious.”

“I am talking about serious business too,” Gu Weiwei said confidently.

Keiko had saved her, but he was suspecting her because she was Kuroda Shio’s sister. That was not something she could accept.

Chapter 1653: Not Gu Siting’s Style

They two looked at each other and stuck to their own convictions.

Finally, Fu Hanzheng compromised and said to Lei Ning, “You can leave now. When you meet her, find out everything you can.”

“Yes,” Lei Ning answered and asked, “What should we do with the others?”

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while. “Same rules.”

“Yes,” Lei Ning answered without hesitation.

“Also, you must stay alert from now on and don’t let this happen again. You will be punished for your neglect.” Fu Hanzheng warned with a cold voice.

She did only come home with some superficial wounds, but if there was a next time, she would not be so lucky.

“I will strengthen the security network,” Lei Ning replied and left the study.

“It is not Lei Ning’s fault, don’t punish them.” Gu Weiwei could tell that he was still angry, so she tried to persuade him with a gentle voice.

Fu Hanzheng took over her injured hand, removed the bandage and checked the wound to make sure that it was not serious.

“I arranged for them to follow you, just in case something like this happens. They have failed in their duty, and they need to remember that.”

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips. Could it be that apart from him, everyone else should stay away from her?

“Oh yes, I want to visit Keiko at the hospital tomorrow.”

“I will go with you tomorrow afternoon,” Fu Hanzheng said.

Gu Weiwei felt her forehead; this man was getting too overprotective.

“The men they sent failed, so they won’t do anything for the time being. Yuan Meng can go with me.”

Fu Hanzheng looked at her regretfully.

“I should not have agreed to let you and the children tag along.”

Now, she has come home sick and injured.

“If you are still worried, I can ask Yuan Meng and Lei Ning to keep me company,” Gu Weiwei asked.

She understood what he was worried about, but Keiko was injured because she helped her, and she could not just leave her in the hospital.

Fu Hanzheng looked at her seriously. “No.”

“Okay, okay, I will wait for you.” Gu Weiwei surrendered.

After all, she was going to introduce him to Keiko at some point, and it would be a good idea if he showed up tomorrow instead of waiting for other opportunities for them to meet.

Fu Hanzheng felt her forehead and sighed in relief when he felt that she was not having a fever.

“What happened today was way too simple.”

“Simple?” Gu Weiwei frowned.

When she and Ji Cheng were taken away, they were held at gunpoint. How could that be simple?

“I mean, it doesn’t look like Gu Siting’s work,” Fu Hanzheng said.

After all, when she was taken away from him at the film festival last time, the strategy and execution were so detailed and well done.

The men sent to kidnap her today were not as well-arranged as that time.

Gu Siting waited for so long just to send such a group?

“Really?” Gu Weiwei mumbled.

When it happened, she did not think too much.

But after what he said, it did seem a bit weird.

They created a terror attack and faked her death last time. If He Chi had not discovered something, they would have been fooled.

But this time, only a group of men were sent to kidnap her, and they failed within such a short time.

Fu Hanzheng's profound eyes turned cold and sharp as he said to her, "It is either a test or something else. Anyway... you and the children must be extra careful when you are out."

Chapter 1654: Happiness

Hearing his analysis, Gu Weiwei felt her heart sinking.

If this was just a test, then there must be a bigger conspiracy.

Gu Siting never gave up on his goals easily.

Seeing her serious expression, Fu Hanzheng reached out for her head and said gently, "Alright, lunch should be ready, go and eat something and take a good rest."

Gu Weiwei nodded. She felt very sleepy, probably because of the relaxing atmosphere at home.

As they went downstairs to the dining room, the dishes were already on the table.

Mrs. Fu and Fu Shengying were feeding the two children with a small bowl of noodles each.

Gu Weiwei had just sat down when she sneezed again. She took over the napkin Fu Hanzheng gave to her and wiped her nose.

Seeing her like this, the Old Lady said gently, "Weiwei, you are still suffering from a cold, how about we take care of the two children at the old mansion and you pick them up when you are better?"

She had not recovered from the cold, and because she did not want to pass it on to the children and because she did not have the energy to take care of them she was tempted to agree.

Instead of answering directly, Gu Weiwei threw a look at Fu Hanzheng.

Fu Hanzheng nodded. "Lei Meng and his men will escort you home later, but don't take them out of the mansion before we come and pick them up. I don't want what happened today to happen to them two."

When Weiwei ran into those people, she could at least try to defend herself, as Gu Siting did not want her to be hurt.

But if it was their children, he would not spare their children so easily.

"Got it, got it," Mrs. Fu replied.

She had been so frightened by what happened today that she was not at all planning to bring the two children outside after returning home.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at Gu Weiwei and said, "Eat, you can drink your medicine later."

He had just been away for a few days and so much had happened without him noticing.

She got herself a cold on vacation and also got kidnapped on the way home. It was very worrying.

Gu Weiwei nodded and continued with eating her lunch.

After the meal, Gu Weiwei asked the nursery teacher to pack up the clothes and daily necessities for the two children, whilst Mrs. Fu and the other two elders were taking a rest.

Then she told Mrs. Fu what to pay attention to, and then she and Fu Hanzheng saw them off into the car.

Since something happened previously, Fu Hanzheng asked Lei Ning and Lei Meng to escort them to the old mansion.

After seeing off the two children, Fu Hanzheng saw Weiwei off into the master bedroom and ordered her to take a rest in bed.

Gu Weiwei got changed and lay in bed obediently, taking hold of the man's hands next to the bed.

"...I am sorry."

Fu Hanzheng glanced at her. "What are you apologizing for?"

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips. "I always bring you trouble."

If Gu Siting did not give up, something like this would happen again.

Also, Fu Shengying had a terrible expression on his face during the journey home.

She thought that this must be the reason why he did not want her to remarry Fu Hanzheng.

Fu Hanzheng brushed away the hair on her forehead and said with a gentle voice, "But you always bring me happiness, endless happiness."

From the day he learnt of her real identity, he had been prepared to face whatever was going to happen in the future.

Gu Siting was totally within his expectations.

And he was not afraid of trouble, but he was worried that his arrangement was not thorough enough so that she and the two children would be put into danger.

That one sentence calmed her down instantly and turned into endless sweetness.

Gu Weiwei looked at the man sitting by the bedside with a smile. He was the man who always brought her happiness.

Seeing her expression, Fu Hanzheng leaned forward with one hand against the bed.

Gu Weiwei covered her face. "I have a cold, it is contagious."

Fu Hanzheng chuckled and kissed her right on the forehead.

"Take a good rest, I need to deal with some work in the study."

Gu Weiwei nodded, yawned and closed her eyes, ready to sleep.

Fu Hanzheng had just left the master bedroom when he saw Yuan Meng coming home.

Probably because she was not sure how much Fu Hanzheng knew about what happened on the way here, Yuan Meng threw a look at his face as she entered the room and asked with a relaxed tone, "Where are Weiwei and the children?"

“The children are at the old mansion, and Weiwei has taken some medicine and gone to bed,” Fu Hanzheng said.

“Oh, then I will take a rest upstairs too,” Yuan Meng said and was about to go upstairs.

However, before she reached the stairs, Fu Hanzheng said, “Hang on.”

Yuan Meng returned helplessly and sat down on the sofa opposite Fu Hanzheng.

“What do you want to say now?”

“Why did you send so few men to pursue after her? You are not that capable.” Fu Hanzheng looked furious.

He might conceal his emotions in front of Weiwei, but not in front of others.

His serious expression made Yuan Meng nervous too.

“We were careless today, we will be more careful in the future.”

It was useless to argue with Fu Hanzheng, so she decided to admit her mistake.

Also, they did relax a bit today, so they did not notice that her car had disappeared until it was too late.

“I don’t want a verbal promise.” Fu Hanzheng warned with a low voice.

“I have told Yuan Shuo and Cayman will send his men to A Land just in case,” Yuan Meng said.

If Gu Siting was able to bring her away, then Cayman’s men would be able to bring her back from A Land.

“If anything happens, you must inform me no matter what Weiwei says to you,” Fu Hanzheng said with a low voice.

They did not tell him the truth until he called them.

If he had not noticed the wound on her forehead, they would have fooled him.

“...Okay,” Yuan Meng said.

But she could not reach him on the plane.

When he called, everything had been solved. Weiwei did not want him to worry, so she said that she would explain when she was back.

Seeing her sincere attitude, Fu Hanzheng did not pursue the matter any more. After all, she was the first person to rescue her.

“Do you think that Kuroda Keiko is trustworthy?”

Yuan Meng sized him up. “Do you trust anyone from the Kuroda Family?”

In his eyes, no one was trustworthy except for his wife.

“Of course not,” Fu Hanzheng said.

But since they grew up together and Kuroda Keiko came to her rescue this time, Weiwei did not seem to suspect her.

But he was not totally assured by anyone who was suddenly next to her, especially not someone from the Kuroda Family who was loyal to the Gu Family.

“Well... I am not sure about her. I only met this Kuroda Keiko in A Land, and then she soon went back to her own home in Japan. However, Weiwei always talks about her.” Yuan Meng confessed everything she knew.

Chapter 1656: Unreliable Kuroda Keiko

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and looked lethal.

“Anyway, I don’t trust her.”

Yuan Meng asked with raised eyebrows, “Then what should we do? Send someone to spy on her or capture her for an interrogation?”

Fu Hanzheng glanced at her coldly and said with a low voice, “Weiwei is forbidden to meet her alone before she leaves Hua Land.”

After all, she had come to save Weiwei and they were old friends. He was just suspecting something and if he did it without any evidence, Weiwei would get very annoyed.

“Keiko is different from her brother Kuroda Shio. She is not that loyal to Gu Siting. When Weiwei was in trouble, she even attacked Ling Yan who was then hospitalized. That was why Gu Siting stopped her from entering A Land,” Yuan Meng glanced at Fu Hanzheng’s face and said.

She was not sure if Kuroda Keiko was trustworthy, but judging from the current situation, there was nothing suspicious about her.

“That doesn’t prove that she is trustworthy,” Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

Seeing Yuan Meng’s perfunctory words, Fu Hanzheng said seriously, “The men sent this time are way too simple. The men sent by the Gu Family last time were much more thorough.”

Yuan Meng frowned and turned serious.

Actually, when she thought about it carefully, the men he sent here today were indeed a bit... terrible.

“These people failed, but Kuroda Keiko saved her!”

“You suspect that Gu Siting sent Keiko here?” Yuan Meng asked. This man was way too far-sighted.

“It is just a suspicion, but what if what they did today was just to create an opportunity for Kuroda Keiko and Weiwei to meet, so that she can be trusted and act when the perfect opportunity arises to strike from close quarters?” Fu Hanzheng confessed what he was thinking.

Although it seemed that there was nothing suspicious about Kuroda Keiko, he did not trust the Kuroda Family.

What if the kidnapers were sent here, just to help Kuroda Keiko gain Weiwei’s trust?

Kuroda Keiko was staying in Hua Land because of her injury, and it was possible that she was waiting for the right moment to strike.

After all, Gu Siting had waited for such a long time before making this move. He would not fail so easily by sending these weak men.

Yuan Meng felt her forehead. If that was the case, it was indeed a bit scary.

Weiwei and Keiko had been together for ten years when they were little, and when Keiko heard that Gu Siting wanted to catch her she came to Hua Land to save her; Weiwei would never suspect her.

Even she, Yuan Meng, would not suspect a thing, let alone Weiwei.

Only a cunning fox like Fu Hanzheng could see the danger.

It was just a suspicion, but it was better to be safe than sorry.

Yes, much better to be safe than sorry.

“Of course, this is just speculation without evidence.” Fu Hanzheng threw a look at Yuan Meng and said, “But when Weiwei meets Kuroda Keiko, none of you should be careless.”

It did not matter if he was being paranoid or making wild guesses. But for the sake of her and the children, he had to put an end to all possible dangers.

Yuan Meng nodded constantly. “I get it, I will keep an eye out for you.”

“I will accompany her to the hospital tomorrow to meet this Kuroda Keiko, but when I am not around, you and Lei Ning must be present when they meet.” Fu Hanzheng stressed once again that they must not meet alone, that way he would feel slightly relieved.

“Yes, I will make sure it is so,” Yuan Meng answered seriously.

Chapter 1657: Everything

Gu Weiwei took the medicine and did not get up until it was dark outside.

The moment she came out of the master bedroom, she saw Fu Shiqin coming home from work happily. The moment he entered the apartment, he was yelling, “Youyou, Tiantian, Second Uncle is here!”

He tossed away his briefcase but seeing none of the children in the living room, he went straight to the nursery.

But the two cots in the nursery were empty too.

“Sister-in-law, where are Youyou and Tiantian? Didn’t they come home with you?”

Gu Weiwei poured a cup of water to ease her dry throat.

“I caught a cold and I was afraid that I would pass it on to them, so they followed their Grandpa and Grandma to the old mansion.”

Fu Shiqin’s expression sank when he heard her words.

“I thought that I would see them when I came home. You should have told me earlier, I would have returned to the old mansion instead.”

His brother was in a hurry to meet his wife and children the moment he got off the plane, so he had to work overtime at the company the moment he stepped off the plane.

He had thought that his niece and nephew would cure his tiredness, but neither of them were here.

Yuan Meng had just finished smoking in the courtyard when she pushed the door open and saw Gu Weiwei who was still under the weather.

“We only went into the water together and yet you are sick, you are much too weak now.”

She had been suffering from the cold for days and it was not getting better.

“You went into the water?” Fu Shiqin glanced at Gu Weiwei who had a cold and asked with a smile, “Sister-in-law, did you go down to the bottom of Nanhu?”

He had been to Nanhu Resort three times, but he had never dared to visit the underwater town.

“I went to play in the water with Yuan Meng and that’s how I got the cold.” Gu Weiwei sighed helplessly.

Fu Shiqin pursed his lips. “Sister-in-law, you do have unusual hobbies.”

When Third Brother was punished by their brother with bungee jumping, she took his elder brother out for some fun and even asked him to let her go paragliding.

When he was away with work and not paying attention, she jumped into the water to play around. It was totally imaginable.

Gu Weiwei finished the cup of water and asked Yuan Meng, when she did not see Fu Hanzheng in the room, “Where is Hanzheng?”

“Oh, Lei Ning said that she got some useful information from the men who were captured, so he went there in person.” Yuan Meng confessed.

Fu Shiqin was about to go to the kitchen for food when he heard her words.

“Useful information? From who?”

Gu Weiwei was too tired to speak, so she threw a look at Yuan Meng, suggesting that she should answer the question.

“On the way back, we encountered a sneak attack from the Gu Family and they caught Weiwei. Lei Ning and her men have been interrogating them,” Yuan Meng said briefly.

“Sneak attack?” Fu Shiqin threw a look at Gu Weiwei and asked, “Sister-in-law, how are you? How are Youyou and Tiantian? Are they injured or frightened?”

“What do you think? Would she still be sitting in front of you if they were?” Yuan Meng snorted.

Gu Weiwei coughed and said, “They are fine.”

Fu Shiqin let out a long sigh of relief. “It’s good that they are alright, otherwise I would have died.”

The two little ones were so cute and obedient. If they got injured, he would be extremely worried.

But after mumbling and mulling over it for a while, he got so worried that he stopped eating.

“No, I better go and check on Youyou and Tiantian, otherwise I won’t be able to sleep tonight.”

Having said those words, he grabbed the car keys and rushed off to the old mansion to visit his nephew and niece.

Yuan Meng sighed as she saw the closed door.

“He is only their uncle, and not even their father is like this!”

Gu Weiwei smiled. Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin did have a deep love and hate relationship with their brother, but they still lavishly spoiled Youyou and Tiantian deeply.
