

My Hidden Wife is Sweet

- Chapter 1658 - Understanding Chapter 1658: Understanding

At dinner time, Fu Hanzheng did not return, but called her and asked her to take the medicine.

So only Gu Weiwei and Yuan Meng were eating at the table.

Seeing the good spread of food, Yuan Meng went to open a bottle of Fu Shiqin's wine.

"I won't give you any because you have a cold, and I don't want Fu Hanzheng to give me trouble," Yuan Meng said as she poured herself a glass, took a sip and squinted in satisfaction.

Gu Weiwei picked up some light dishes and said indifferently, "Yuan Meng, do you think that there is something wrong with the kidnappers from today?"

"Do you mean to ask why they would kidnap you?"

Yuan Meng swirled the red wine and smelled the wine in the glass. Fu Shiqin was indeed the second most famous foodie of the Fu Family. Not only did he know how to eat, but he also knew how to select good wine.

She had not tasted this kind of red wine for years.

She drank it down in one gulp. Apart from the wine, she also tasted money.

"I mean that they were not thorough enough." Gu Weiwei told her what she was thinking.

Yuan Meng choked on the wine and threw a look at the woman who was speaking.

Fu Hanzheng had said the same thing a couple of hours ago; they truly did have a great understanding of each other.

"What a coincidence, Fu Hanzheng said the same thing a couple of hours ago."

"He said the same thing too?" Gu Weiwei threw a look at Yuan Meng and asked, "What else did he say?"

"He asked me and Lei Ning to keep an eye out for you." Yuan Meng wiped off the wine stain on her lips with the napkin and said calmly, "But Gu Siting is not going to give up so easily. You must be careful too."

She reminded her to be careful, but she did not tell her about Fu Hanzheng suspecting Kuroda Keiko.

After all, it was just a speculation without any evidence. She would not believe it even if she told her now, and she might even blame Fu Hanzheng for being too suspicious.

Gu Weiwei lowered her head and stared at the food; she stayed silent for a long while before saying suddenly, "I remember that you used to have a ring that contained a highly-pure poison. The poisonous spur could kill someone just by piercing their skin."

Hearing her words, Yuan Meng said hesitantly, "Do you want one?"

"Give me one, just in case," Gu Weiwei said seriously.

Guns and knives were not easy to carry around, but she had seen that kind of ring before. It was shaped like a skull, small and convenient.

Yuan Meng thought for a while and asked, "Can I ask who you are going to deal with?"

"Maybe it is my kidnapper, maybe it is Gu Siting. Let's see who will suffer," Gu Weiwei said calmly.

Yuan Meng fiddled with the glass and said, "Someone asked me to destroy it years ago, and it is gone now."

"You have none left?" Gu Weiwei frowned.

"I only had two, how many do you think there are left?" Yuan Meng thought for a while and said, "There is one more ring, but it is not a poison, it's a highly-pure neurotoxin that can only cause paralysis."

She still had the highly poisonous drug, but if Weiwei ended up dealing with Gu Siting, she would not dare to give it to her.

Because Gu Siting's life was tied to hers too.

"Then give it to me," Gu Weiwei said instantly. Anything was better than nothing.

"I will see if I can give it to you after I ask your Boss Fu," Yuan Meng said.

Gu Weiwei glanced at her speechlessly. "Are you my friend or loyal to him over me? Why are you obeying him now?"

“He pays me, so of course I listen to him.” Yuan Meng smiled with squinted eyes and mumbled, “Also, you two are not separate from one another, so you must pay me back for this friendship somehow.”

She would obey her as a friend, but when it came to her safety, she would obey Fu Hanzheng.

After all, he would think about her future.

Chapter 1659: Does Fu Hanzheng Know Everything About You?

After dinner, Fu Hanzheng was still nowhere to be seen.

Gu Weiwei took the medicine and went back to the room to lie down.

She did not notice it when he came home at midnight, but when she woke up, she found him lying next to her.

Hearing the alarm ringing, Fu Hanzheng opened his eyes and asked her lazily, “When did you wake up?”

“A few minutes ago,” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Fu Hanzheng got up, poured her a cup of hot water, washed himself up and got changed.

When he was getting changed, Gu Weiwei washed her face, brushed her teeth and ate with him in casual clothes.

Fu Hanzheng finished the food and was about to leave after checking the time.

“I have some important meetings at noon, so I will pick you up after the meeting.”

“Ok.”

Gu Weiwei nodded, got up and saw him off with a hug.

The two children were at the old mansion and Fu Hanzheng was now at work. Even Yuan Meng was nowhere to be seen.

Since she had nothing to do, she decided to continue with the filming plan.

It was not until lunchtime when Yuan Meng came home.

"Where have you been? You were gone for ages," Gu Weiwei asked casually.

"I had a fight with Lei Ning and was practicing my skills," Yuan Meng said and went to pour some water.

Since Fu Hanzheng said that he was coming home soon, Gu Weiwei asked the servant to postpone the lunch time and wait for him.

Fu Hanzheng then accompanied her to the hospital after lunch.

Lei Ning became the driver, whilst Yuan Meng fiddled with the cigarette box in the passenger's seat.

She was addicted to smoking, but she did not dare to smoke in the car when Fu Hanzheng was inside.

When they came to the parking lot, Lei Ning stopped the car and did not follow them out. However, Yuan Meng got out of the car with them and found a place to smoke.

With the chicken soup she brought from home, Gu Weiwei went upstairs with Fu Hanzheng to the ward where Kuroda Keiko was staying.

"This is the chicken soup that was made at lunch, have some."

"I just had lunch, so I'll drink it later," Kuroda Keiko said as she sized up Fu Hanzheng who came in with Gu Weiwei.

Gu Weiwei put down the thermos and introduced her to Fu Hanzheng.

"Keiko, this is my husband, the twin's father, Fu Hanzheng."

Fu Hanzheng nodded as a greeting. "Hello."

Kuroda Keiko replied politely, "Hello, Mr. Fu."

Gu Weiwei sat down by the bedside and asked, "How is your leg?"

"I am not allowed to move for the next few days, but I should be fine in a couple of days." Kuroda Keiko smiled and whispered, "I never expected that you would be with him!"

Gu Weiwei smiled and threw a very sweet look at Fu Hanzheng who was sitting on the sofa.

“There are always unexpected things in life.”

Before she met Fu Hanzheng and when she was still living at the Gu Family, she had never expected that she would one day have such a deep relationship with this man.

Kuroda Keiko looked at the man in front of her and asked with a small voice, because she just could not believe how happy she sounded, “Weiwei, does he know everything about you?”

Gu Weiwei nodded. “Yes, he knows everything.”

Before she confessed to Fu Hanzheng, she had been feeling a bit uneasy about their relationship.

But when the truth was revealed, she felt so relieved that she was no longer worried that anything would affect their relationship.

Kuroda Keiko looked calm, but she was inwardly full of astonishment.

Although she had been away from the Gu Family for years, she knew about the grudge between the Fu Family and the Gu Family.

Fu Hanzheng knew that she was raised by the Gu Family, but he was still with her and he did not care about that.

He was a calm and intelligent man in business, but he was so reckless in the face of love.

: Love

Gu Weiwei could tell that Kuroda Keiko was in disbelief.

Even she herself had found it hard to believe how Fu Hanzheng reacted after knowing everything, let alone her and anyone else.

Instead of getting angry at her or hiding things from her in return, he took her to get their marriage certificate.

Actually, when she thought about it carefully, this man had never made her sad in all the time she had been with him.

As for her uneasiness and confusion, she had brought such emotions unnecessarily upon herself.

Seeing her gentle smile and the noble-looking man sitting on the sofa, Kuroda Keiko said sincerely, "Maybe this is the love you dreamt about."

Gu Siting had treated her well back then, but she had never been so happy before.

Gu Weiwei nodded with a smile and confessed.

"Yes."

"Then... you are never going to go back to the Gu Family, right?" Kuroda Keiko asked with a low voice.

Fu Hanzheng seemed to have heard the word Gu, so he threw a cold look at them but did not interrupt their conversation.

Gu Weiwei shook her head resolutely. "Never."

If it had not been for the Gu Family and the Dorrans Family's deal, she might have owed them for raising her.

But in fact, they raised her for a price.

Compared to the cost of raising her, Cayman Dorrans had given them more benefits in exchange.

She was reborn because of Gu Siting, but she had died because of him too.

Therefore, they did not owe each other anything and she had no lingering feelings towards that place.

If Gu Siting kept picking on her and her two children, she would eventually want him dead.

"Then... I can only wish you the best," Kuroda Keiko said with a smile.

She loved Fu Hanzheng deeply and firmly.

Gu Siting had thought that he could change everything, but he had lost everything.

He had caused her death, he was engaged to Ling Yan and he even got Ling Yan pregnant. All of these things had cut off their relationship.

But Fu Hanzheng gave her the most complete and warmest love.

Anyone would have chosen Fu Hanzheng, let alone Weiwei.

“Thanks.” Gu Weiwei chuckled and asked, “How have you been doing in Japan?”

“I...” Kuroda Keiko smiled and then whispered, “I was married but now I’m divorced. I have a three-and-a-half year-old daughter.”

Gu Weiwei chuckled. “Really?”

Kuroda Keiko brought out her phone and showed her the picture of her daughter.

“This is my daughter, Salga.”

Gu Weiwei praised her with a smile as she saw the little girl with a slice of watermelon in the picture.

“She’s so cute.”

“But where are your two children? I tried to take a look at them from outside the car yesterday but failed to catch a glimpse of them,” Kuroda Keiko said.

Hearing her words, Gu Weiwei also brought out her phone and showed her the pictures of her two children.

“This is Youyou and this is Tiantian. I have had a cold these past two days and so I can’t take care of them, so I sent them to stay with their grandpa and grandma.”

Kuroda Keiko chuckled.

“Your son is really... like his father.”

He looked exactly like Fu Hanzheng and the little girl was also definitely his daughter.

Gu Weiwei chuckled. “When you recover, I will introduce them to you.”

Chapter 1661: Human Being

Since they had not seen each other for years, they talked for over an hour.

Fu Hanzheng accompanied her in the ward and did not disturb their conversation until Kuroda Keiko said, “Alright, let’s talk again when I recover. Mr. Fu has been waiting for a long time.”

“Okay, then stay at the hospital and get well. You can turn to Doctor He if anything happens.” Gu Weiwei stressed.

Yuan Meng had told He Chi about her arrival, so she had the best ward and medical staff, and even the meals were delivered regularly.

“Got it.” Kuroda Keiko nodded.

Gu Weiwei pointed at the chicken soup on the bedside table. “Remember to drink it later.”

“Got it, go home now.”

Kuroda Keiko waved at the two of them and watched them leave the ward.

Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng had just come out of the ward when they ran into He Chi, who had just returned back to the office.

So she asked, “He Chi, is the wound on Keiko’s leg serious?”

“It is not serious, but it is not light either. She lost a great deal of blood because of the wound, but her nerves and bones were not injured, so she will not be disabled after she recovers.” He Chi gave his professional opinion calmly.

“You must take care of her these next few days,” Gu Weiwei said.

“Got it.”

Having said these words, He Chi was about to take a rest in his office.

But he had just taken one step forward when Fu Hanzheng stopped him.

“Hang on, Weiwei’s hand is injured and she needs an X-ray. She also needs new medicine because she has a cold.”

The wound on her hand did not look serious, but after sleeping the night before, her hand was now much more swollen.

He Chi got so annoyed that he had his hands on his hips. But facing Fu Hanzheng’s lethal expression, he had to say with a flattering smile, “Okay, I will take you there now.”

He had just finished a six-hour-long operation and now he was taking her to get cold medicine and an X-ray? Was he even human?

Didn’t he know how to navigate the hospital and find the relevant person to ask?

He could have asked someone else, but now he had to lead the way.

Also, he needed his help to get the new medicine because she had a cold, but he was not the doctor who should be helping her with the treatment.

Although he was very annoyed, He Chi still brought the two to take a look at her hand via X-ray and said, "None of your bones are injured, and the swelling will go away after three or four days."

"I told you that I am fine," Gu Weiwei said.

He Chi brought them to the outpatient surgery, got the medicine for her cold and did not go back to the office until he had finished all the tasks.

Gu Weiwei went into the car and said amusedly, "What is the point of torturing your brother and He Chi?"

It was just a small matter and they could go there themselves. Why was he bothering He Chi?

Fu Hanzheng said seriously, "It's interesting."

Lei Ning had been waiting for them in the car. Seeing them getting into the car, she called Yuan Meng who had just gone out.

Fu Hanzheng grabbed the second thermos they had left in the car, opened it and said, "You and Kuroda Keiko are very close."

They had such a good conversation and it was rare to see her like this.

Gu Weiwei took a sip of the drink to ease her throat and said with a smile, "It's because we have known each other since we were little. We were as close as sisters back then."

At that time, she and Keiko were really close.

So after she left, she had no other close friends, which is why she got to know Ling Yan.

But Ling Yan ended up killing her.

"Okay," Fu Hanzheng answered briefly.

Hopefully, Kuroda Keiko was not what he had imagined, otherwise she would be very sad.

Chapter 1662: Leaving the Fu Family

Maybe because of the medicine she got from the hospital, Gu Weiwei got better after two or three days.

So she decided she could take care of the twins now.

Fu Hanzheng agreed and left work early in the afternoon so that he could pick up the two children from the old mansion.

When they arrived, the two children were having fun in the children's playground specially built for them by Fu Shengying.

Mrs. Fu brought them there, and Fu Shengying got up and came out when he saw them coming.

When Gu Weiwei and Mrs. Fu went into the room to take pictures of the twins having fun, Fu Shengying threw a look at Fu Hanzheng and whispered, "Come to the study with me."

Fu Hanzheng threw a look at Gu Weiwei who was still playing with the children and followed Fu Shengying into the study of the old mansion.

It was a classical Chinese-style villa and the study was classically designed too.

Fu Shengying entered the study and said seriously, "You know about the kidnapping."

Fu Hanzheng looked cold. "What do you want to say?"

He could tell what his father was going to say from his expression and attitude.

"Something happened at the film festival years ago, and now something happened here again. There will be no end to it in the future, and you still want this woman to stay by your side?" Fu Shengying looked serious and his words were full of anger.

"I am the one who wants her to stay. No matter what happens, I will take responsibility. You don't have to worry." Fu Hanzheng sounded cold.

If he were not his real father, he would not have had the patience to listen to such words.

"He went for her this time, but what if he goes for Youyou and Tiantian next time? How many times can you defend yourself against him?" Fu Shengying sounded furious as he said word by word, "She can return to the Gu Family or the Dorrans Family, but she can't stay at the Fu Family."

He had not been in such a mood for a while, but after what happened the day before, he had been very worried.

If she had not been in another car but with the two children, he could not imagine what would have happened to the two children the day before.

Fu Hanzheng looked directly at his father, Fu Shengying, with a pair of cold eyes. "She is the woman I love, my wife and the mother of Youyou and Tiantian. That will not change for anyone or anything."

"Are you going to watch your two children being in danger because of her?" Fu Shengying bellowed.

If it had not been because of Gu Siting, he would not have cared what he did with her.

But he just could not stand that the two children were in danger because of her grudge with the Gu Family.

"They are mine and Weiwei's children, and you don't have to worry about them." Fu Hanzheng did not want to continue the conversation and said resolutely, "Since you object to it so much, you don't have to see the two children any more. We are not married, and you also have no right to take away the children from her."

"Fu Hanzheng, you..." Fu Shengying got so annoyed that his blood pressure rose.

Having said these words, Fu Hanzheng walked out of the study with a cold expression. When he saw Gu Weiwei and Mrs. Fu coming towards him with the children in their arms, he withdrew the coldness on his face.

Mrs. Fu said gently as she carried the children into the living room, "Dinner is ready; you should leave after dinner."

Gu Weiwei was about to say yes when Fu Hanzheng said, "No thank you, we are going home."

Having said these words, he took over Tiantian from Mrs. Fu's arms and urged the nursery teacher to get into the car with the two children's luggage.

When Fu Shengying came downstairs from the study, Fu Hanzheng had already left with the two children.

Chapter 1663: Grandpa

Fu Hanzheng insisted on leaving no matter what Mrs. Fu said.

When Fu Shengying came downstairs, she threw a fierce look at her husband.

“What did you say to him?”

Although Hanzheng did not say anything, she could tell from his attitude that he was angry.

It was not difficult for her to think of a topic that could irritate Hanzheng. “Who... do you think you are? I told you not to say anything, but you just can’t keep your mouth shut?!”

“I did not say anything wrong. I was just trying to persuade him to let go of that woman so that Youyou and Tiantian would not be in danger too.” Fu Shengying sat down in the living room, looking furious. He got even angrier when he thought of how Fu Hanzheng forbade them from seeing their grandchildren.

“You...” Mrs. Fu got so annoyed that she sat down opposite Fu Shengying. “You said that you don’t want to help when something happens to her, but yet you still try to ruin everything! When Youyou and Tiantian grow up, they will never recognize you as their grandpa!”

He thought that it would be much easier if Weiwei was gone.

Gu Siting would not constantly try to bring her back, and the two children would be safe too.

But if Hanzheng lost Weiwei and the two children lost their mother, they would be much worse off.

This man was so hard-hearted that he could utter such horrible words.

“What did I say wrong? He doesn’t allow us to see our grandchildren, he is such a horrible son...” Fu Shengying got very annoyed.

“You deserve it!” Old Lady came over to them and said when she heard the conversation, “I don’t have such a horrible son like you!”

“Mom!” Fu Shengying called her with a low voice.

“Don’t call me mom, I don’t have an unfilial son like you,” Old Lady said to him and then said to Mrs. Fu, “Go and pack up, we are moving out. We are moving to Pear River so he can stay here alone.”

Hearing her words, Mrs. Fu asked the servant to pack their things without hesitation.

“He said that we are not allowed to see the two children, and yet you are still going over there?” Fu Shengying said.

“He doesn’t want you to meet them; don’t count us in.” Old Lady snorted.

“Mom!”

Fu Shengying got even more annoyed after being isolated by his mother and wife.

“What kind of father are you if you don’t know how to solve the problem? What kind of grandpa do you think you are?”

Old Lady looked fierce and imposing.

With a gloomy expression Fu Shengying stayed silent on the sofa.

He had thought that they were just trying to scare him, but within two hours, Mrs. Fu and the servants came downstairs with several boxes.

And she even asked the driver to drive the car out.

“Are you... really moving out?”

“What else would I be doing?” Mrs. Fu said and asked the servant to move the luggage into the car.

Old Lady got up too, ready to leave in the car with Mrs. Fu.

“Just stay at home and reflect upon yourself. We will be back when you are done.”

“Mom, you can’t be so unreasonable!” Fu Shengying said with a low voice.

He was just talking with Hanzheng about Gu Weiwei from a practical and objective point of view, but these two women did not support him at all and even tried to counter him.

“We can’t reason with an unreasonable person like you. Let’s go,” Old Lady said as she walked out with the walking stick and went into the car parked outside.

“Aunt Gui, let’s go.” Mrs. Fu urged.

“Madam, but dinner...”

“We can go there for dinner. As for what he wants to eat, he can sort it out himself,” Mrs. Fu said as she snuck into the car and took away their chef.

Chapter 1664: Running Away?

At villa number seven.

Fu Hanzheng and Gu Weiwei had just brought the children home and were about to eat when they heard the sound of a car pulling up.

They were the only residents in this villa area, and they were all at home. So when they heard the noise, they all went to look at the courtyard from the balcony.

With Youyou and Tiantian in their arms, Fu Shiqin and Fu Shiyi saw their mother and grandma coming out of the car.

Then several servants came out and carried dozens of boxes from the trunk of the car.

“Mom, grandma, what are you doing?”

What were they doing here so late at night with so much luggage? They looked as if they had run away from home.

“We quarreled with your father, so we ran away from home and moved here.” Mrs. Fu looked around and pointed at the sixth villa next to villa seven. “Move everything in and call us when you are done.”

“Mom, you two are an old couple, what are you arguing for? You even ran away from home!”

With Tiantian in his arms, Fu Shiyi looked at his own mother in disbelief.

“So what? Do you have a problem with us moving in?” Old Lady glanced at them coldly.

Fu Shiyi shook his head and so did Fu Shiqin.

“As long as you are happy.”

Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng exchanged a look and she whispered to him, “What should we do?”

It was not that she did not like them moving in, but if that was the case, Fu Shengying would be left alone in the old mansion and that would be a very sad thing.

“Let them be.” Fu Hanzheng looked calm.

He knew pretty well that his mother and grandma must have moved here out of anger when they heard about the argument between him and his father.

But that was good too. His father could calm himself down.

In the past, he always used the excuse of visiting the children or bringing the two children back to the old mansion.

Now the Old Lady and his mother were here and he was alone in the old mansion, they were definitely not going there.

He would not be able to bring himself to meet his two grandchildren after what he had said either.

“But your father...” Gu Weiwei said.

“Leave him alone, the servants are taking care of him, and he won’t starve to death,” Fu Hanzheng said with a cold expression.

He did not tell her about his argument with his father, so that’s why she thought that it was just a quarrel between his parents.

Gu Weiwei felt helpless. “That is not something a son should say!”

Fu Hanzheng changed the subject. “Let’s go in, the food is getting cold.”

Gu Weiwei helped Old Lady inside. “Have you eaten dinner? We are just about to eat.”

“No, I was packing,” Old Lady said.

Gu Weiwei’s lips twitched. She remembered that when they were leaving, Mrs. Fu said that dinner was ready.

So she packed up and left home halfway through the dinner.

So when they left, that’s when they started to argue.

“Then let’s eat together,” Gu Weiwei said as she helped them into the room and asked the servant to get two more sets of tableware.

The dining room was full of people.

After the meal, Mrs. Fu went to villa number six next door to help with the unpacking, and Gu Weiwei and Fu Shiyi went to help too.

Finally, they finished putting away their stuff.

Gu Weiwei looked around and said,

“Almost done. However there are no appliances or tableware in the kitchen, but you can eat over at ours, so there’s no need to worry.”

“We can just eat here, there’s no need to trouble yourself,” Mrs. Fu said.

Since they were living next to them, they didn't have to always be eating at their place. They were just taking a rest here.

They had just finished packing when Fu Shiqin saw his phone ringing.

"Mom, Dad is on the phone."

Mrs. Fu's expression sank. "Just ignore him."

Chapter 1665: Something to Discuss?

Due to the arrival of Mrs. Fu and Old Lady, villa number seven became even more lively.

It was not until the children went to sleep that Mrs. Fu and the Old Lady went back to the room next door.

Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng saw them off and did not return inside until they saw them going in.

"Aunt and Grandma Fu have moved out. It seems that there is a huge conflict. You and Second Master and Third Master should try to talk to them about it."

Mrs. Fu and Fu Shengying often quarreled, but as far as she knew, neither had ever left home.

Mrs. Fu had run away from home and so had Grandma Fu.

"Don't worry, he needs to think about it alone," Fu Hanzheng said as he entered the room with her in his arms. "We will just be causing trouble if we interfere."

He had told his mother and the old lady not to mention anything about their fight in front of her, in case she got upset.

Gu Weiwei sighed helplessly. What else could she say when Mrs. Fu said that she did not want to care about him?

"I have a video meeting, take a shower first," Fu Hanzheng said gently.

Due to the time difference between home and abroad, the video meeting could only take place during the early hours of the day and at night here.

Gu Weiwei nodded, washed herself up in the master bedroom, changed into her pajamas and started to read in bed.

Fu Hanzheng's video meeting lasted for over an hour, and when he returned to the room, he saw his wife reading the book with a pillow in her arms.

Instead of disturbing her, he grabbed his pajamas and went to take a shower. When he came out of the bathroom, he found her fast asleep with the book in one hand and the pillow in the other.

He went to pull away the book, tossed the pillow aside, took her into his arms and covered her with the blanket.

Early in the morning, Gu Weiwei woke up earlier than Hanzheng. She was lying next to the sleeping man, waiting for him to wake up.

Fu Hanzheng did not open his eyes until the alarm rang. He turned around and met the gentle eyes of his wife.

"When did you wake up?"

"A while ago," Gu Weiwei said as she took hold of his waist. "Honey, I need to talk with you about something."

"Oh?"

Fu Hanzheng raised his eyebrows and waited for her to continue speaking.

"When the kidnapping happened, I realized that it is not safe for me if I do not have anything to defend myself with. So I asked Yuan Meng for a ring that contains a neurotoxin, which can paralyze people when it pierces their skin." Gu Weiwei looked at him with a flattering smile. "You don't object to that, do you?"

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while. "Are you sure it is not fatal?"

She could have something for self-defense, but it would be best if it was not fatal.

Otherwise she would get herself injured.

"No, it isn't. And I won't wear it at home. I can bring it with me when I go out." Gu Weiwei promised.

It was definitely not safe to wear it when she had constant contact with the two children at home.

But if she kept it with her, she would be able to protect herself in case she was kidnapped again.

"Give it to Lei Ning for testing," Fu Hanzheng said, meaning that he agreed.

Hearing that he agreed, Gu Weiwei continued speaking.

“Youyou and Tiantian will probably be occupied by their grandma and great-grandma today, so can I go to the hospital to visit Keiko?”

It had been days since she visited Kuroda Keiko in the hospital.

Chapter 1666: Kuroda Keiko Discharged

Fu Hanzheng hesitated. “I will go with you when I am free.”

“But Keiko is being discharged today and she is not familiar with this place. It would not be right if I don’t visit her,” Gu Weiwei said.

After all, she got injured because she was trying to save her, and she only visited her once every few days.

If she was with her when she was discharged now, she could give her a place to stay.

“Discharged out of the hospital?” Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and said, “Is she going back home?”

“She’s only just leaving the hospital; how can she go back?” Gu Weiwei said.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and said, “I will get someone to take her back to Japan.”

Gu Weiwei found it funny. “Why do you want her to leave so badly? I told her that I will pick her up from the hospital today.”

“Where do you plan to put her?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

Kuroda Keiko was not going home, which meant she would remain close to her in Hua Land. When she was discharged, she was definitely going to arrange her accommodation.

“Can she stay here, that way we can take care of each other?” Gu Weiwei looked at him and asked for his opinion.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a moment and nodded with a smile.

“I will go with what you decide.”

If Keiko did not stay here with them, she would still visit them even if she stayed somewhere else.

But he could not possibly have time to keep her company all the time.

What if she had to bring out the two children to meet Kuroda Keiko when he was not at home.

If what Kuroda Keiko said was true, then even if Lei Ning and Yuan Meng were by her side, they would not be able to keep the three of them safe.

Therefore, it would be safer if she asked her to stay at this place.

Firstly, the security of this villa area was very high and her every move was under their watch, so she could not do anything.

Also, if he stayed close to her, he might be able to see the suspiciousness of her words and actions, so as to confirm the real purpose of her coming to Hua Land.

Gu Weiwei smiled in satisfaction, kissed him on the lips and released her arms from around his waist.

“Let’s get up, the children will be waking up soon.”

However, Fu Hanzheng took hold of her waist and whispered, “Wife, I have something to discuss too.”

“What is it?” Gu Weiwei blinked in astonishment.

Fu Hanzheng took hold of her hand and placed it against his lips.

“About that.”

Gu Weiwei flushed instantly and whispered.

“Can’t you just stand it? The children are getting up.”

“They have people to take care of them, and right now your husband needs you even more,” Fu Hanzheng said as he flipped her over and trapped her under him.

It was so early in the morning and she was calling him husband in such a lazy and flirty way. He would not be a man if he did not respond.

When they left the room, the two children had already been taken care of by the nurse.

And they were each holding a milk bottle and eating happily.

Mrs. Fu, Old Lady, Fu Shiqin and Fu Shiyi, as well as He Chi, were all here for food and the dining room was full.

“Aunt, Grandma Fu, we are going out soon, please take care of the children,” Gu Weiwei sat down and said.

Old Lady felt a bit scared when she thought of what had happened before.

“Just let someone else do the work, you are safer here.”

“I am picking someone up from the hospital. Yuan Meng and Lei Ning are going with me, so I will be back soon.” Gu Weiwei smiled.

“Picking up someone from the hospital?” Mrs. Fu and Old Lady exchanged a look. They did not remember seeing anyone staying at the hospital.

Gu Weiwei looked at them and explained, “Kuroda Keiko, the injured female motorcyclist from on the way home the other day. She is being discharged today and I would like to bring her here so that she can be taken care of.”

“Of course, she saved your life, so we should take good care of her,” Mrs. Fu nodded and said.

Chapter 1667: Kuroda Keiko Discharged 2

After breakfast, Fu Hanzheng and his brothers went to work and left.

He Chi happened to already be at the hospital by the time Gu Weiwei left with Yuan Meng and Lei Ning.

Kuroda Keiko did not have much luggage, and He Chi had already gone to the hospital and got the discharge certificate. Soon, the procedure was done.

But due to the wound on her leg, Kuroda Keiko had to walk with a cane or sit in a wheelchair.

Gu Weiwei pushed the girl into the parking lot and helped her into the car with Yuan Meng. She then took a seat in the car.

“Where are we going?” Kuroda Keiko asked as she sat down.

Gu Weiwei smiled. “Where I live now. You want to meet my two children, right? You will soon.”

Hearing these words, Kuroda Keiko asked embarrassedly.

“Will I be too much of a disturbance? You better get someone to arrange for me to go back home.”

“How are you going to go home when you can’t even walk properly?” Gu Weiwei said.

She was injured because of her, and yet she wanted her to send her away when she could not even walk. How could she do such a thing?

“But...”

“No more buts. When your leg recovers, I will not stop you from leaving,” Gu Weiwei said.

Kuroda Keiko smiled helplessly. “Alright, I will stay until my leg gets better.”

Yuan Meng asked as she was driving, “Then who should she live with, me or Lei Ning?”

Gu Weiwei thought for a while. “She can stay at Lei Ning’s place and she can live in the bedroom on the first floor. Her legs are injured, so she can’t go upstairs or downstairs.”

“Well, at least you won’t have to witness them showing off their love at Lei Ning’s.” Yuan Meng complained.

When she was living with Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng, she had to accept their love all the time.

The three of them returned to Pearl River. But instead of driving Kuroda Keiko to Lei Ning’s house, they went to villa number seven.

Hearing the noise at the door, Youyou and Tiantian came crawling towards them.

They took off their shoes and entered the room. The two children were already waiting for them at the entryway.

“What are you two doing here?” Weiwei said as she picked up her daughter.

With one hand on the walking stick, Kuroda Keiko gripped Tiantian’s chubby hands.

“Kawaii.”

After living in Japan for so long, she had become fluent in Japanese and her Chinese sounded a bit like Japanese.

Yuan Meng picked up Youyou who was still sitting on the floor and placed him on the mat in the living room.

With her daughter in her arms, Gu Weiwei led Kuroda Keiko in.

“Sorry, it is a bit messy with two children around.”

The living room of the villa, which had been designed in a classical Chinese style, had cartoon-patterned cushions on the floor due to the two children’s presence. All kinds of toys were scattered over the sofa, and the door of the dining room and staircase had children prevention gates across the entryways.

Kuroda Keiko sat down on the sofa and smiled deeply.

“It’s not messy, but lovely.”

Old Lady was sitting in the living room and said when she saw Kuroda Keiko sitting down, “Ms. Keiko, thank you so much for helping the other day.”

If it had not been for her help, Weiwei might not have been out of danger so quickly and something even more dangerous might have happened.

Luckily, she stopped those people and Yuan Meng arrived in time, so Weiwei was safe and sound.

Otherwise if anything happened to her, Fu Hanzheng would have gone crazy.

Kuroda Keiko shook her head and said with a smile, “Weiwei is my friend, and I am glad that I was able to help her.”

Actually, her help had only really bought extra time.

Maybe even without her help, Yuan Meng and the Fu Family could still catch up with her.

Chapter 1668: Happiness

Mrs. Fu and Old Lady were very glad to see Kuroda Keiko.

In the afternoon, the two children took a nap and Gu Weiwei pushed Kuroda Keiko around the park in the villa area.

Since the entire villa area was full of surveillance cameras and the Fu Family’s bodyguards, Yuan Meng and Lei Ning did not follow them.

Seeing Gu Weiwei pushing Kuroda Keiko away, Lei Ning snapped at Yuan Meng. "Boss says that we must keep an eye out for her."

"Please, this villa is so guarded that no flies can fly in, what is there to keep an eye out for?"

Sitting in the yard, Yuan Meng was smoking leisurely.

Since the children were at home, she was not allowed to smoke indoors.

"But what if she wants to do something bad to Mrs. Fu," Lei Ning said and glanced at Gu Weiwei and Kuroda Keiko.

With one hand holding the ashtray, Yuan Meng flicked the cigarette and said, "First of all, those are just unfounded guesses. Secondly, even if she has really been arranged by Gu Siting, she must be stupid to actually do anything here. Thirdly, don't you find it tiring to keep an eye out for her all the time?"

If Keiko was really sent by Gu Siting so that she could approach Weiwei and gain her trust, then would she dare to do anything to Weiwei here? There were way too many people watching her and they were all the Fu Family's eyes and ears. If she made a move, she might not even be able to leave the villa.

Also, no matter who Gu Siting sent, he was going to bring her back safe and sound. So even if he could capture Weiwei, he would not be able to bring her out.

So they did not need to keep an eye out for her and Keiko in this place.

Lei Ning looked at her for a few seconds and found her words reasonable.

"Also, He Chi said that she is too injured to walk," Yuan Meng said.

What else could a clumsy woman like her do when she was surrounded.

Lei Ning nodded thoughtfully. It seemed that there was no need to follow her here.

Gu Weiwei had no idea of what Lei Ning and Yuan Meng were thinking, so she pushed Kuroda Keiko to the boulevard alone.

"Weiwei, I can tell that the Fu Family treats you very well."

Apart from Fu Hanzheng, everyone else in the Fu Family was very close to her too.

"That is because he treats me well, that is why his family truly accepts me." Gu Weiwei chuckled.

If Fu Hanzheng had not been determined enough, the Fu Family would not have accepted her.

Everything depended on Fu Hanzheng's feelings and attitude.

Kuroda Keiko turned around and said, "Look at you, you always smile when Fu Hanzheng is mentioned."

"Because he makes me happy from the bottom of my heart." Gu Weiwei did not conceal her love towards Fu Hanzheng.

"But what about the grudge between the Fu Family and the Gu Family?" Kuroda Keiko looked at the lake in front of her and said slowly, "If the Fu Family wants the Gu Family dead, will you help them to deal with Gu Siting?"

Gu Weiwei stayed silent for a few seconds. "Fu Hanzheng never asks me to get involved in anything, but if he really needs me for anything, I can do it."

What she meant was that if he really needed her help, she would not turn him down.

"The Gu Family is a place where you lived for more than twenty years, have you really... hardened your heart?" Kuroda Keiko asked.

Chapter 1669: Selfish Man

Gu Weiwei sneered, pushed Kuroda Keiko over to the bench and sat down herself.

"I told you, I don't miss that place."

Silent, Kuroda Keiko just could not believe the coldness in her eyes.

"You had a very happy time at the Gu Family and Aunt Gu loved us very much.

"Even if you can't return to the past, must you become the enemy?"

....

"Keiko, it is not me who wants to be the enemy of the Gu Family, but Gu Siting who forces me to be the enemy of the Gu Family," Gu Weiwei sighed deeply and said.

Kuroda Keiko looked at her steadily. "I heard from my brother that Gu Siting has been regretting what happened back then and is trying his best to get you back. He may have used the wrong method, but... he truly loves you."

“Loves me?” Gu Weiwei sneered and looked directly into Kuroda Keiko’s eyes with pursed lips. “Gu Siting only loves himself. He was the one who wanted me dead and now he wants me back. He wants everything to go according to his wishes so he can become whatever he wants.”

Before she met Fu Hanzheng, she had thought that they were in love.

But when she had real love, she realized what that was, was not love

He was just a selfish man who wanted everything to be what he wanted, yet he claimed to be her lover.

Kuroda Keiko pursed her lips, wanting to say something, but seeing her expression, she swallowed her words.

“Keiko, how much do you know about me and the Gu Family?” Gu Weiwei smiled bitterly and said as she looked at the lake in the distance, “The Gu Family raised me because of the deal with Cayman Dorrans, who is my father. Gu Siting wanted my life and now he has given me one more, so we are even.”

“Cayman Dorrans? Your father?” Kuroda Keiko was so shocked that she thought she had misheard.

Cayman Dorrans of the huge Dorrans Family in Italy was her real father?!

Also, Cayman had a deal with the Gu Family.

Gu Weiwei nodded. “Cayman Dorrans has too many enemies, so he concealed my identity and gave me to the Gu Family to raise. He also helped the Gu Family in business, so the deal started when I came to the Gu Family.”

The Gu Family’s business had been pushed to the bottom by the Fu Family, but they were brought back to life by the Dorrans Family.

All of these things happened because they helped Cayman Dorrans to raise her, the daughter he could not officially recognize.

After knowing everything, she no longer had any lingering feelings towards the Gu Family.

“When did you know about this?” Kuroda Keiko asked.

Gu Weiwei smiled. “I learned about it from Fu Hanzheng by accident, but Gu Siting has always known who my real father is. And yet he has never revealed a single word to me.”

Seeing the coldness and calmness in her expression, Kuroda Keiko acted as if whatever she said had nothing to do with her.

She had been living in the main family of Japan for so long that she barely heard anything about the Gu Family.

What she knew now was what she had learnt from her brother.

She had no idea that after she left the Gu Family, so many more things had happened.

“Keiko, if you are here to try and persuade me, or are asking me to return to the Gu Family, then just forget about it,” Gu Weiwei said resolutely as she looked at this old friend whom she had not seen for years. “I will never return. Even if Gu Siting can bring me back, I will still do whatever it takes to return to Hua Land. If I fail to return, then we will both die together.” .com

Chapter 1670: Never Give Up

Kuroda Keiko had not expected that she was so resolute in her stance towards the Gu Family.

“I have no intention of persuading you, and I have no right to decide your life.”

But she did think that if she and Fu Hanzheng became the enemies of Gu Siting then the Kuroda Family, who were loyal to the Gu Family, would be affected too.

She could ignore Gu Siting, but she could not ignore the Kuroda Family.

Gu Weiwei sighed deeply and said sincerely, “Keiko, I know what you are worried about.”

Startled, Kuroda Keiko forced a smile.

“Why should I be worried about anything?”

“I promise you that no matter what grudge the Fu Family has with Gu Siting, we will not do anything to the Kuroda Family,” Gu Weiwei said sincerely, but after a moment of silence, she added. “But the first condition is that the Kuroda Family must not become the Fu Family’s enemy.”

Keiko had said so much because she was worried that the grudge between the Fu Family and the Gu Family would affect her own family.

That was why she had tried to persuade her not to become the worst enemy of the Gu Family.

If Gu Siting had no intention of bringing her back, the two children would not be threatened.

She was not in a good relationship with the Gu Family, but they were never enemies.

But Gu Siting was not going to forgive her that easily.

"I get it, thanks." Kuroda Keiko did not argue any more.

"But I don't think we will have the chance to meet again after this meeting. Your family would not want you to have anything to do with me, Mrs. Fu," Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Kuroda Keiko sighed helplessly. "I think so too."

Her brother was easily persuaded by Gu Siting, but she had gone to the Fu Family instead. Before she returned to the main family, she knew the elders of the family were already preparing to lecture her.

"So, don't think about these things when you are recuperating here. I don't want to talk about them either," Gu Weiwei said.

She did not want to talk with anyone about the Gu Family or Gu Siting any more.

Kuroda Keiko nodded and said, "But according to what my brother said, I feel that as long as you don't return to the Gu Family, Gu Siting will never give up. If one time doesn't work, he will do it a second time or even ten more times."

Was the Gu Family going to be so cautious all the time?

"He can come, I am not afraid of him!"

Gu Weiwei chuckled, checked the time, got up and pushed the wheelchair, ready to return home.

"I know that you are not scared, but can Fu Hanzheng and the Fu Family keep persisting?" Kuroda Keiko said.

If they had to face the sneak attack and kidnapping attempts of the Gu Family again and again, the Fu Family would not be able to hold on for long.

"Probably." Gu Weiwei smiled easily, showing no sign of worry.

Kuroda Keiko turned to her and mumbled, "You two have been together for years, but you were just a student a few years ago. How could Fu Hanzheng do that to you?"

Compared to before, she looked even more beautiful now.

But he had done that to her when she was still a student, that was just... so horrible.

"What is wrong with me being a student at the time? I was mentally advanced," Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

"I had thought that a tycoon like Fu Hanzheng would marry a lady from a wealthy family, but it turned out to be you." Kuroda Keiko sneered.

But Fu Hanzheng not only married her, but also had two children with her and they spent every single day in love.

Chapter 1671: Gu Siting's Plan

At Gu's Enterprise in A Land.

After the meeting, Gu Siting asked Kuroda Shio about the progress of the experiment.

Kuroda Shio placed the lab report he had just received on his desk. "Professor Li's experiment has failed. Here is the data."

Gu Siting glanced at the report and looked lethal.

"Another failure! How much longer before they give me a 100% success report?"

"President Gu, scientific research always fails, you can't rush it," Kuroda Shio said discreetly.

It was especially so when no one had ever done any research on this project; the results he wanted would not come out so soon.

Leaning against the chair, Gu Siting sighed tiredly.

"For this project, I have given them the best funding and the best research team. They are not going to waste my time day after day."

"We almost succeeded before, but something seems to have gone wrong this time. They are already making preparations for the next experiment," Kuroda Shio said helplessly.

Gu Siting pinched his eyebrows and said with a low voice, "Ask them to speed up."

"I will follow up," Kuroda Shio said quickly.

This project had been going on in secret for three years, and compared to other scientific projects, it had made great progress.

But apparently, President Gu was not very satisfied with the result.

"Any news about Gu Yun Che?" Gu Siting asked.

Kuroda Shio said as he brought out a picture from the phone and showed it to him, "This is the girl he is with from Hua Land, a songwriter."

Gu Siting sized up the picture. "Gu Yun Che stayed in Hua Land because of her?"

"Yes, Gu Yun Che did not leave Hua Land because of her accident, and..." Kuroda Shio looked at him and hesitated.

"Anything else?" Gu Siting looked up and asked.

"This girl from Hua Land knows Weiwei, she is her classmate," Kuroda Shio said.

It seemed that Gu Yun Che cared a great deal about this girl from Hua Land.

After all, as far as they knew, he was never one who would break his own principles for anyone else.

But he cared more about this girl from Hua Land than anyone else in the world.

Gu Siting's eyes looked to the side in thought. "Is she very close to Weiwei?"

"Yes. She is one of the close friends of Weiwei from Hua Land." Kuroda Shio confessed.

This girl from Hua Land knew Weiwei well, and Gu Yun Che cared a great deal about this girl from Hua Land. In this way, Gu Yun Che might now choose to stand by Fu Hanzheng's side because of her.

Gu Siting felt his forehead. If Gu Yun Che and Fu Hanzheng were tied together because of Weiwei and that woman...

Gu Yun Che might not help the Fu Family, but he would not help the Gu Family either.

But in his plan, Gu Yun Che was indispensable.

“When the Fu Family were on vacation at Nanhua, Gu Yun Che and the girl from Hua Land were invited to join them. Weiwei was in his car when she was attacked,” Kuroda Shio said.

The culprit had no idea that Gu Yun Che and the girl had just gotten out of the car, otherwise he would not have been able to take her away.

Gu Siting stayed silent for a moment. “Did he help?”

“No,” Kuroda Shio said.

“Maybe the situation is not that bad,” Gu Siting mumbled.

Gu Yun Che did not interfere and it seemed that he did not want to help the Fu Family either.

This man was never willing to be controlled by anyone.

But how to get Gu Yun Che to help him was still a problem.

Chapter 1672: Weiwei

Kuroda Shio did not utter a word.

He and Gu Ziting’s mother had tried numerous times to persuade Gu Siting to stop trying to make Weiwei return to the Gu Family, and they had become numb to it.

Therefore, no matter what he wanted to do, he did not want to say anything more. He just wanted to finish what he was supposed to do.

Gu Siting thought for a long while and asked suddenly, “Where is Keiko? She is not home yet?”

“Keiko is injured, she is in Hua Land,” Kuroda Shio said.

The purpose of the attack was to test how many men Fu Hanzheng had arranged around Weiwei.

But unexpectedly, Keiko overheard their conversation, snuck into Hua Land and stopped their men.

Although they would have failed this time even without her help, yet her participation was totally unexpected.

“She is with Weiwei, right?” Gu Siting said.

When she was little, she was the only girl in the Kuroda Family, and Weiwei did not have any other friends of the same gender. When they grew up together, they became just like sisters.

But when Keiko returned to Japan, they did not have much contact with each other.

If she stayed in Hua Land and did not return, she would definitely be with Weiwei.

Kuroda Shio was silent for a moment and answered truthfully, “She stayed at the hospital for a few days and Miss Weiwei took her to the Fu Family.”

Gu Siting massaged his eyebrows and thought for a long while.

“Shio, can you ask Keiko to do something for us?”

“I don’t think she will agree,” Kuroda Shio said.

The Kuroda Family was loyal to the Gu Family, but his sister was not that loyal to the Gu Family.

President Gu asked him to ask for Keiko’s help because he wanted to bring Weiwei home. But Keiko would never agree to that.

“How can you be sure that she won’t agree without asking her first?” Gu Siting said.

Kuroda Shio looked embarrassed. “You know that I am her brother, but Keiko never listens to us.”

If it had been for something else, it would have been fine. But if she had to do something against Weiwei, Keiko would not agree to it.

“I am not asking her to do anything to Weiwei, it’s not that difficult,” Gu Siting said.

Kuroda Shio was surprised. “It is not about Miss Weiwei?”

“Of course not,” Gu Siting said and smiled. “I just want her to bring something home.”

“Oh, that should be fine.” Kuroda Shio let out a sigh of relief.

If it was really about Weiwei, he would not only be giving her trouble, but also him trouble.

“As for what to bring, I will think about it. You don’t have to call her back now.” Gu Siting looked profound and unpredictable.

“Yes.” Kuroda Shio did not ask anything more, but put down the files and said, “President Gu, these are the files you need to go through.”

“Got it.” Gu Siting took over a file and leafed through it as he said indifferently, “Keep an eye out for the men Cayman has arranged. I don’t want them to ruin anything in the future.”

The moment Weiwei was kidnapped in Hua Land, Cayman sent his men here, fearing that he would bring Weiwei back from Hua Land.

But he had waited for three years just to bring her home, and he was not going to give up so easily.

He did not care about Cayman Dorrans or Fu Hanzheng.

No matter what it took, he had to bring her back to him.

Chapter 1673: The Rest of Her Life

In the capital of Hua Land.

Gu Weiwei had not left the villa after she picked up Kuroda Keiko and Mrs. Fu and Old Lady had practically moved in.

When it came to daily necessities, there were servants who went out to buy it, and there were also renovated clubhouses, gym, KTV, swimming pool and small cinemas in the villa area.

After Mrs. Fu and the Old Lady moved in, they took over the responsibility of taking care of the two children during the daytime. They asked her, Keiko and Yuan Meng to spend more time together rather than hovering around the two children.

So in the following days, they went through all the facilities of the villa area.

Yuan Meng swam twice in the indoor swimming pool and said to Gu Weiwei who was talking with Kuroda Keiko, “I don’t care to return back, I will depend on you for the rest of my life.”

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips. “Have you ever considered Master’s feelings?”

What did she mean by depending on her for the rest of her life?

What did she owe her to set her up in this way?

Yuan Meng wiped off the water on her face and smiled sinisterly.

“I will depend on you for the rest of my life.”

She was living a very happy life as a tycoon’s wife.

In the compound, there were all kinds of entertainment facilities that already made her dumbfounded.

It was almost ridiculous to have built a club when they were the only family living in such a large villa area.

Her backyard was the most expensive one in the capital city of Hua Land, and she could do whatever she wanted with it.

“I really can’t afford your style.” Gu Weiwei turned her down with a smile.

“Don’t even, the pocket money Mr. Fu gives you, is enough to use to look after me, just take care of my food and accommodation,” Yuan Meng said unwillingly.

Also, she had more than pocket money. Even if she took all of Fu Hanzheng’s properties, Fu Hanzheng would still give them to her without fuss.

“Be satisfied, now you are living here for free and getting paid.” Gu Weiwei snorted.

Fu Hanzheng had asked her to return from Italy, but he still gave her the same salary as Lei Ning.

Also, her benefits were even higher than Lei Ning’s.

“If I don’t get paid, I will have nothing to eat if I keep watching over you all the time,” Yuan Meng said.

But it was very difficult to find a job that was so profitable.

“You make it sound as if 200 million yuan in a Swiss bank is nothing.” Gu Weiwei countered with a smile.

Yuan Meng pursed her lips. “It is nothing compared to what you have.”

Weiwei herself was very good at making money. Fu Hanzheng had a large family business and Cayman Dorrans had a large family business that was going to be passed down to her. She was the richest woman in the world.

They were just talking happily when Lei Ning came in and said, “Madam, someone wants to see you.”

“Who?” Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows.

Only a few people knew that she was here. Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian said that they did not have time to meet her these days.

No one else would be able to meet her when everyone else was living here.

Lei Ning looked serious and said, “Gu Yun Che.”

She had not expected that Gu Yun Che would come here alone and ask to see her.

Startled, Gu Weiwei exchanged a look with Yuan Meng.

“Where is he?”

“Outside the villa, should we let him in?” Lei Ning asked.

Gu Weiwei stood up and said, “Take him to the tea room, I will get changed.”

Since she was here swimming with Yuan Meng and she was wearing a swimsuit, she was definitely not going out to meet anyone looking like this.

Chapter 1674: Monster

“Yes,” Lei Ning answered and went out to let him in.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Kuroda Keiko and said, “Stay here, I will be back soon.”

Gu Yun Che was here to talk about himself and Qianqian.

As far as they were concerned, the two elders of the Luo Family were very displeased with him as a boyfriend.

“Okay, go ahead.” Kuroda Keiko nodded.

Yuan Meng thought for a while and followed her.

“I will go with you.”

“No need, stay here with Keiko.” Gu Weiwei put on her robe and walked out.

However, Yuan Meng still followed her.

“She is an adult now and she doesn’t need my company. Also, I can’t just take the salary and do nothing, right?”

They two went into the fitting room and got changed before heading to the tea room they had agreed upon with Lei Ning.

Gu Yun Che was already seated and making a pot of Kung Fu Tea with a tea set on the table.

Elegant and skilled, the tea was made in a Chinese style, looking very pleasing to the eyes.

Gu Weiwei sat down, sniffed the tea and took a sip.

“I didn’t expect that you are so good at making tea.”

Yuan Meng took a sip and mumbled with a frown, “The tea still tastes the same.”

It tasted the same to her after all.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at her, suggesting that she should stay silent. Then she turned to Gu Yun Che.

“What can I do for you?”

“You are planning to tell Qianqian about yourself, right?” Gu Yun Che asked.

Gu Weiwei nodded. “She has been busy these days, so I haven’t told her yet.”

She had never mentioned a thing to her or Ji Cheng because she did not want to scare them.

But Luo Qianqian was Gu Yun Che’s girlfriend, so she had to tell her something so that she could figure it out herself.

Gu Yun Che looked serious and gazed at her deeply.

“You don’t have to tell her.”

Startled, Gu Weiwei said, “But... I told you that I will tell her when I have the chance.”

But they had not had the chance to meet these days, so they did not tell Luo Qianqian and Ji Cheng about it.

“I hope that you will not tell her anything.” Gu Yun stressed seriously.

“That is her business, why do you care?” Yuan Meng snorted.

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, “Are you afraid that... when Qianqian and her family know about it, they will ask about your background and even fear you?”

If she told Luo Qianqian that she had died and was reborn into Mu Weiwei, then she might mention Gu Yun Che too.

Then Luo Qianqian would ask about Gu Yun Che, and the more she knew, the more scared she would be of him.

“I will tell her about me when the time is right, but... don’t let her know about it from you.” Gu Yun Che rolled the teacup in his hand and said, “I don’t want her to think that I am a monster.”

“Are you...” Yuan Meng wanted to say, “Are you not a monster?”

But she swallowed down the words when Gu Weiwei threw a look at her.

But he was a man of unknown origin, and he had the Nine-Eyed Heavenly Pearl as well as an unpredictable martial strength. He was a monster!

Luo Qianqian was indeed bold enough to want such a man.

Chapter 1675: Help Again

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, “But I have promised to tell her.”

“I don’t care what you want to tell her, but don’t mention a word about me,” Gu Yun Che said with a low voice.

He had turned her down before mostly because he was not an ordinary person.

“But you have to tell us if you are a human or a monster before we can decide if we should tell her or not,” Yuan Meng asked.

Until now, they had still not figured out what kind of monster he was.

Gu Yun Che squinted at Yuan Meng and said to Gu Weiwei, “I think that you can understand how I feel.”

Gu Weiwei stayed silent. Of course she understood.

She did not dare to tell Fu Hanzheng that she was Gu Weiwei, probably because of how Gu Yun Che felt at this moment.

She was afraid that her real self would not be accepted by the person she loved.

So she did not dare say a thing.

"I will think over what you said, but I will not tell her anything about you before I get your permission."

She had intended to tell Qianqian how dangerous the man she loved was.

But she just could not utter a word when Gu Yun Che was begging her.

If he had not come to see her today and said those words, she might not have believed that Gu Yun Che truly liked Qianqian.

But after what he said, she was willing to believe that he truly cared about Qianqian.

Because he cared too much about her, he was afraid that his secret would ruin this delicate relationship.

She hated that Gu Siting appeared at her wedding and revealed all of her secrets.

But if she told Luo Qianqian what Gu Yun Che had done, she would end up doing the same thing as Gu Siting.

"Then I hope that you can keep your promise." Gu Yun Che nodded slightly, got up and left.

Seeing him leaving, Yuan Meng still asked, "Hey, tell me clearly, what kind of monster are you?"

However, Gu Yun Che left without looking back.

Yuan Meng pursed her lips and turned to Gu Weiwei.

"Are you really going to do what he says?"

"What else am I going to do?" Gu Weiwei took another sip of the tea and said, "If I don't shut up on my own accord, he will have a way to shut me up forever."

Yuan Meng sighed. "You are right."

If Gu Yun Che really wanted to do something to her, she, Lei Ning and all the bodyguards would not be able to stop him.

“Also, he cares a great deal about Qianqian now that he is here.” Gu Weiwei felt slightly gratified.

He might be a dangerous person with an unknown background, but at least he was sincere to Qianqian.

“Why does he care? The two elders of the Luo Family are objecting to them, and I am afraid that sooner or later, he will give up,” Yuan Meng mumbled worriedly.

They had worked so hard to help them, and if the two elders of the Luo Family turned Qianqian and Gu Yun Che’s relationship down, everything would have been in vain.

“That is what I am worried about too. But Gu Yun Che is not a man who would flatter his elders,” Gu Weiwei said helplessly.

Qianqian was about to have a mental breakdown because of this matter too. Gu Yun Che was a cold person who did not like interacting with others.

That made the two elders of the Luo Family very displeased, and they had even ordered her to stay away from such a person.

Yuan Meng took out a cigarette and put it between her lips. She felt around for the lighter but failed to find it. So she just had to hold the cigarette between her fingers.

“For the sake of Luo Qianqian and you, we need to do something about it.”

As long as Gu Yun Che and Luo Qianqian were in a good relationship, he would not leave and be won over by Gu Siting.

Chapter 1676: Not At All

Gu Weiwei thought for a while and said, “I better wait until I meet Qianqian and ask for her opinion.”

If she really didn’t think that they could help her, then they should stay out of it.

After all, it was their relationship and the Luo Family’s family matter.

“Needless to say.” Yuan Meng found it funny and said, “She won’t object even if we help them to get married.”

“Get married? That is way too fast.” Gu Weiwei shook her head.

How long has it been since Luo Qianqian and Gu Yun Che met in Nice?

She thought that they should learn more about each other before making the decision.

They finished the tea and returned to the indoor swimming pool, where they completed in two laps.

But she did not win a single time.

She used to focus on doing sports, so she was always on par with Yuan Meng.

But she was a bit weak now and after she gave birth to the children, she had become even weaker.

Yuan Meng won again and teased her by the poolside.

“You are so weak now, no wonder you can’t get out of bed after a night with Hanzheng.”

Annoyed, Gu Weiwei reached out for the water and splashed it over her.

Kuroda Keiko felt a bit sad as she watched the two of them fighting in the pool.

Although she and Weiwei grew up together, yet after so many years apart, they had gone through so much separately.

Even when they were facing each other in this way, they were no longer in a pure and wonderful mood.

But Yuan Meng was very close to her now.

Although they kept countering each other verbally, yet they cared deeply about each other, something that was impossible between her and Weiwei.

Even if she still regarded her as a friend, she would not trust the Kuroda Family and the Gu Family completely.

Gu Weiwei was not convinced by Yuan Meng and insisted on having another round with her. But after one more round she still lost.

They had just finished one round when Fu Hanzheng came looking for her when he saw her still in the water.

“Come out.”

Seeing the girl standing by the pool, Gu Weiwei swam to the side and wiped off the water on her face.

Fu Hanzheng put the towel over her and said, "You have just recovered from the cold and yet you can play with Yuan Meng for the entire afternoon? Do you want to get another cold?"

"Look at you, I am not that delicate!" Gu Weiwei said with a smile as she was drying her hair.

It was too cold underwater at Nanhu, and the wind blew when they were on land, but on the other hand the swimming pool was not that cold indoors.

She wiped her hair and said to Kuroda Keiko and Yuan Meng, "Let's go."

"You two can leave without us, we don't want to be the third wheel," Yuan Meng said as she swam to the opposite side alone.

Gu Weiwei asked Kuroda Keiko but she said she would also leave with Yuan Meng, so she left alone with Fu Hanzheng.

She went to the fitting room and got changed. "Let's go."

Fu Hanzheng pointed at the stool in front of the mirror. "Sit down."

Gu Weiwei sat down obediently as Fu Hanzheng dried her hair with the hair dryer.

He not only dried her hair but also combed it for her.

"Gu Yun Che came to see you today?"

"Yes, he asked me not to tell Qianqian about him." Gu Weiwei confessed.

Fu Hanzheng put down the comb and asked with a low voice, "Did you agree with his request?"

"Of course, of course I did!" Gu Weiwei smiled naughtily and turned around. "After all, I can't afford to offend him."

Chapter 1677: A Long Life

Fu Hanzheng dried her hair and left the swimming pool with her.

Although there was still a long way to go to villa number seven, they still chose to walk instead of driving back there.

The evening light was gentle.

Fu Hanzheng was strolling on the boulevard with his beautiful wife, and the light of the setting sun was shining upon them through the tree trunks. Occasionally, a gust of wind blew over and the yellow leaves of the trees fell.

Gu Weiwei caught one of the leaves and turned it in her hands.

“At this time next year, we can take a walk here with Youyou and Tiantian.”

By this time next year, the two children would be able to walk. She could not help but smile when she thought of the fun scene of them walking together.

“They already cause you trouble and they have only recently started crawling. Walking is far away for them.” Fu Hanzheng reminded her amusedly.

The two children only knew how to crawl, but they were already very troublesome at home. When they could run away next year, it would be very problematic.

If she was watching only one of them, she might not be able to catch the other one.

Also, he wished that time could slow down so they could spend more time together.

A person’s life was only a few decades long, and he had met her so late. How much time did he have left to spend with her?

“Far away from them? They can crawl now, but they will definitely be able to walk around in a couple of months,” Gu Weiwei said.

Also, they might be able to call them properly by that time.

They ran into Mrs. Fu and Old Lady who were pushing the two children along the boulevard.

Seeing her mother whom she had not seen for hours, Tiantian patted the bar at the front of the pram excitedly.

Gu Weiwei unbuckled her seat belt, picked her up and kissed her right on the cheek.

“Are you happy that grandma and great-grandma are taking you out?”

The girl did not understand what she was talking about, but she smiled happily when her mother was holding her.

Seeing his son looking at them, Fu Hanzheng carried him up from the pram too.

Mrs. Fu was pushing the empty pram and seemed to have something to say. She said after some hesitation, “Hanzheng, in a few days time, it will be the 70th birthday of the Old Master of the Qin Family. He has invited our entire family to attend the celebration, what do you think...”

Due to the argument she had with Fu Shengying last time, she had ignored Fu Shengying who was at the old mansion.

But she did not want the father and the son to be in a deadlock.

Also, no matter if it was the birthday of the Old Master of the Qin Family or the Old Lady of the Fu Family, it was always the whole family who went to congratulate them.

Grandpa Qin knew that they had a pair of twin grandsons, so he made a call to them in person and asked them to bring them over. He said that the Fu Family and the Qin Family had been friends, so they should share in each other’s happiness too.

He had called Fu Shengying at the old mansion and Fu Shengying had called her.

After all, the children were with Gu Weiwei and she and Hanzheng would have to approve of the plan.

Gu Weiwei had no idea about the argument between Fu Shengying and Fu Hanzheng about her, so she did not object but said, “That depends on Hanzheng.”

They had some conflicts because of Qin Lv, but the two families had been friends for decades. The Qin Family had come over for the old lady’s birthday last year, but she and Fu Hanzheng were in Dubai at that time.

Logically speaking, they should attend the 70th birthday celebration.

But it was not up to her to decide if the Fu Family was going or not.

After all, strictly speaking, she was not an official member of the Fu Family.

Chapter 1678: Anything Your Son Can’t Hear?

Fu Hanzheng looked at her and said after a moment of consideration.

“You all can go without us.”

Since Qin Lv kept pestering her, he was not that willing to let her attend the banquet of the Qin Family.

Also, Meng Ruya was very close to Qin Lang, and it would be very troublesome if she went there.

"You have not been over there for two years. You were abroad before, but now you are at home!" Old Lady scolded with a low voice.

Fu Hanzheng said without hesitation, "Then I will take Weiwei on a business trip, you guys go ahead."

"The Fu Family and the Qin Family are going to help each other in the future, and yet you are not showing any respect to them." Mrs. Fu said seriously.

The Qin Family were planning to pass down the family business to Qin Lv, so that was why they stressed to push the three brothers together this year. They were trying to establish a good relationship with the younger generation, hoping that they could help Qin Lv in the future.

"As long as the Qin Family doesn't do anything bad, we will support them for the sake of our friendship," Fu Hanzheng said calmly.

Old Lady glanced at the couple holding the children and said seriously, "Everyone must go, not one less person. We must bring Youyou and Tiantian too."

"Grandma Fu, I... am not going." Gu Weiwei expressed.

Fu Shengying did not say anything about the attack, but he was obviously displeased.

So she would not join them on this occasion.

"Why not?" Mrs. Fu snapped.

Fu Shengying did not recognize her as his daughter-in-law, but she and the Old Lady did, and everyone else did too.

After all, Old Master Qin was not going to hire any media for his birthday, and everyone was from a prestigious family.

Also, she and Hanzheng had met many people at the banquet held by the Zhou Family and many people in the industry knew that she was Mrs. Fu.

Instead of answering her directly, Gu Weiwei threw a look at Fu Hanzheng and asked for his opinion.

Fu Hanzheng nodded. "Then let's go together, but it is not safe with so many people around. We will show up with the children but we will not stay long."

"Sure, just show up there," Mrs. Fu said.

After all, the Qin Family's birthday banquet was held at their place and it was not a very safe time.

"Then it is a deal," Old Lady said.

The four of them went home with the children and Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin had arrived home too.

Fu Shiqin could not wait for dinner. He had already found some snacks to fill his stomach, but Fu Shiyi was video-chatting with Ding Dongdong on the phone. His voice sounded so sweet that Fu Shiqin wanted to stuff his mouth with stinky socks.

It was not until Youyou and Tian Tian returned home did they manage to avoid a fierce fight between themselves.

"Tiantian, let me hold you."

Seeing his niece and nephew coming home, Fu Shiqin forgot about the snacks and took Youyou, greeting the two little cute buns.

"Come here, you are so cute I could die!" Fu Shiyi followed and took Tiantian from Gu Weiwei.

But when Tiantian saw the cookies in Fu Shiqin's mouth, she struggled to reach out for the cookies in his mouth.

Seeing his little niece's foodie nature, Fu Shiyi got both annoyed and amused. He carried her to get her her own cookies.

Only now did the little girl obediently allow him to hold her because she no longer insisted on going to Fu Shiqin.

Fu Hanzheng said to Fu Shiqin, "Put down Youyou and come to the study with me."

"No, I just got him." Fu Shiqin did not want to release him and snorted. "What can't your son hear?"

Fu Hanzheng glared at him and walked towards the study upstairs.

"Come here."

Fu Shiqin pursed his lips and followed Fu Hanzheng with his nephew, whispering to him as they walked, "Youyou, you must not be as annoying as your father when you grow up."

Gu Weiwei passed by the stairs and looked up.

"Fu Shiqin, I heard that!"

Fu Shiqin laughed dryly and carried Youyou upstairs to the study. Then he placed his nephew on Fu Hanzheng's desk so that he could play with him.

"What is it? Couldn't you wait until after dinner?"

With the little bun in his arms and dinner waiting for him, he was not in the mood to talk about work.

"Do you know about Old Master Qin's birthday?" Fu Hanzheng said coldly.

Fu Shiqin said distractedly as he was holding his nephew, "Oh my gosh, every birthday of the elders is always like this. Our family hosts ours here and their family does the hosting there."

"Weiwei and the children are going there this year, please tell them that we need their cooperation." Fu Hanzheng stressed.

If they had not been friends for so many years, he would not have wanted her and the children to attend such an occasion.

"Well..." Fu Shiqin came back to himself and looked at his brother's serious expression. "This is their birthday banquet after all, it is not very nice of us to interfere."

"I don't want to put Weiwei and the two children at risk. It is a complicated place and I can't bring them there without my own men joining security," Fu Hanzheng said seriously.

Fu Shiqin thought for a while and understood what his brother was worried about, so he said, "I heard that Lil' Lv is in charge of this year's event. I will talk with him and Qin Man tomorrow and arrange for some of our men to be there. We will also check the invited staff."

After all, it was for the safety of sister-in-law and the two babies.

He had not thought much about it, but after what his brother said, he decided to be careful.

He did not want either of them to get hurt.

“Qin Lv is in charge?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

He just could not trust Qin Lv completely.

“Yes, his father is not in good health. Qin Lang and Qin Jianjia are busy with the military conflict between Hua Land and the neighboring countries, so only Qin Lv is here,” Fu Shiqin said.

Fu Hanzheng’s expression sank. “Then Lei Meng can go there in person.”

Fu Shiqin said amusedly, “Really? Brother, are you still bothered by the fact that Lv once courted Sister-in-law?”

After they returned to the country, they learned that they were still together and had children together. Qin Lv did not do anything out of line, but his brother was still guarding against him as if he were a thief.

Fu Hanzheng squinted at him and carried away his son.

“Just do what I asked you to do.”

“Hey, I was the one who carried Youyou up first!” Fu Shiqin was displeased.

With one hand holding his son, Fu Hanzheng opened the door with the other.

“He is my son, why can’t I hold him?”

Having said these words, he went downstairs with his son in arms.

Fu Shiqin followed him downstairs angrily. When he failed to get the boy, he went to grab Tiantian who was playing with Fu Shiyi.

“Tiantian, come to me, I have delicious food here,” he said as he tried to tempt Tiantian with cookies.

As expected, when Tiantian saw the cookies in his hands, she crawled over to him at a very fast speed.

“Come back, Tiantian! Come back!”

Fu Shiyi went after her, but the girl had already reached Fu Shiqin and the cookies that were with him.

She broke down and cried when she saw the cookies being held further and further away from her.

Fu Shiqin gave her the cookies. "Here, these are all yours."

The girl took hold of the cookies and stuffed them into her mouth with tears in the corner of her eyes. She smiled in satisfaction after one bite.

Chapter 1680: Not Smart Enough

A few days after Gu Yun Che came to visit her, Luo Qianqian and Ji Cheng finally finished their work and had time to meet her.

But because of what happened before, Fu Hanzheng asked her not to go out without company, so she gave up on the idea of going out with so many people.

So she asked Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian to come to her place and they were in the same tea room where she had met with Gu Yun Che.

Gu Weiwei asked someone to deliver some snacks to them, and the three of them started to chat happily.

Of course, most of the time, it was Ji Cheng who was talking with assurance. She and Luo Qianqian would occasionally get asked questions by Ji Cheng.

After Ji Cheng finished her current monologue, Luo Qianqian asked Gu Weiwei, "Oh yes, didn't you say that you have something to tell me and Ji Cheng today?"

Gu Weiwei smiled and nodded.

"What secret are you telling us now?" Ji Cheng asked curiously.

Actually, she had been curious about it, but if she did not tell her, she could not ask her directly.

She had thought that she would never tell her and Qianqian, but now she did.

Gu Weiwei poured each of them a cup of tea, thought for a while and told them her real identity.

Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian were both startled. They had not understood what she was talking about.

Ji Cheng gazed at her for a few seconds and searched for pictures on the phone.

"You mean, you are not the Mu Weiwei we know, but this Gu Weiwei?" she said as she showed her the pictures taken by the journalists when she was at the Gu Family.

Gu Weiwei nodded. "Yes."

"But you are Mu Weiwei, you don't look like Gu Weiwei at all." Ji Cheng just could not figure it out as she looked at her and the pictures.

Luo Qianqian sighed and said, "Gu Weiwei is dead, and her soul is now attached to someone else. Her body is Mu Weiwei, but her soul is Gu Weiwei's, understand?"

"Rebirth of the soul?" Ji Cheng found today's topic a bit weird. She looked at Gu Weiwei and said, "Can a dead person really have a soul?"

"Yes," Gu Weiwei said with a small smile, otherwise she would not have become what she is now.

Ji Cheng struck her own head. "No, I am not smart enough."

"You make it sound as if you always have enough money but never enough brains." Luo Qianqian snorted.

Ji Cheng had her elbows against the table and the two of them sighed.

"No, it is too much gossip for me to process."

Compared to Ji Cheng's disbelief, Luo Qianqian was not that surprised.

Because she had seen through everything about her.

The answer she gave now gave a reasonable explanation for everything that was not normal.

"Does Fu Hanzheng know about this?"

Everyone knew about the grudge between the Fu Family and the Gu Family.

Fu Hanzheng and the Fu Family would not be able to accept her relationship with the Gu Family.

Gu Weiwei nodded with a smile. "He and the Fu Family know about it."

Luo Qianqian frowned and thought for a moment. "Was it on your wedding day?"

On the day when Gu Siting from the Gu Family appeared at the wedding, all the guests went upstairs except for Weiwei and the Fu Family. Then came the news that Old Lady was hospitalized and the wedding was canceled.

Chapter 1681: Not Smart Enough 2

Gu Weiwei nodded calmly. "Yes, it was on that day."

When she saw Gu Siting at the wedding, she truly thought that her life would collapse.

However, Fu Hanzheng stood by her side and did not leave her alone.

At that time, she was thinking that she would never be able to love this man enough.

Luo Qianqian smiled sincerely. "It seems that it has not been easy for you to get to where you are today."

And Fu Hanzheng was very sincere too, otherwise they would have not remained together after all these years.

Gu Weiwei smiled without saying a word.

"So it was the Gu Family who attacked your car on the way home?" Luo Qianqian asked.

"Yes." Gu Weiwei nodded and admitted.

Luo Qianqian hesitated for a moment and asked, "What about Gu Yun Che, is he from the Gu Family too?"

If they said that he was a threat to her life, would he dare to be Gu Siting's man?

"No." Gu Weiwei shook her head and said, "He has been contacted by Gu Siting and he wants his help."

She did not mention anything about Gu Yun Che giving Gu Siting the Nine Eyed Pearl so that she was reborn as Mu Weiwei.

Gu Yun Che should tell her these secrets himself, not her.

Luo Qianqian looked dubious. "That is all?"

"At that time, the Gu Family kept in touch with him, so we had this concern. But he seems to have turned it down now." Gu Weiwei chuckled.

Luo Qianqian nodded. "Yes, he promised that he would not hurt you."

They were chatting but Ji Cheng was pulling her hair out in anxiety.

“Stop changing the topic so quickly, can’t you just give me some time?”

Before she could figure out what happened between Gu Weiwei and Mu Weiwei, they started to talk about Gu Yun Che and the Gu Family.

“Forget it, just think of it as gossip,” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

“No, if I do that, I will not be able to eat or sleep today,” Ji Cheng said.

Gu Weiwei and Luo Qianqian exchanged a look, feeling helpless and speechless.

After a long while, Ji Cheng finally calmed herself down and sighed.

“Should I call you Weiwei or Weiwei?”

“It is the same, you can do whatever you want,” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

After all, the two names sounded exactly the same.

“Then let’s do it according to how we originally have.” Ji Cheng had one hand against her cheek as she stared at her pretty friend opposite her and mumbled, “But why did you pass away at such a young age and why are you like this now?”

“I was betrayed and stabbed, and my heart was taken away by Ling Yan. A person whose heart is removed, of course she has to die.” Gu Weiwei sounded relaxed as if she were talking about something unimportant.

“Ling Yan?!” Ji Cheng was both startled and furious as she asked further, “The fiancée of Gu Siting from A Land, the rumored Movie Queen Ling Yan?!”

Damn, that woman had been pretending to be pure and kind, but she turned out to be so evil behind her back.

But fortunately, she was dead now, otherwise she would have cursed her to death on Weibo and the official website.

“It is all in the past, just listen to it and forget about it.” Gu Weiwei smiled calmly, not bothered by the past.

“Yes, everyone is dead anyway.” Ji Cheng nodded.

Although she had been through many unfair things, yet she had become Mu Weiwei and met Fu Hanzheng, the love of her life. She had not been reborn in vain.

Chapter 1682: Out of Love?

Gu Weiwei smiled, sipped the tea and said, "Alright, enough of my gossip, let's talk about yours."

"Please, I have no gossip, I am living a peaceful life."

Ji Cheng sighed. Compared to her magnificent life, she was living a very ordinary life.

"Then all is sweet?" Gu Weiwei asked with her eyebrows raised.

Ji Cheng might have lost her parents when she was little, but she was still adored by the Ji Family after she was adopted. Also, she had a cousin who had had a crush on her for years who had been waiting for her to grow up. She was indeed a lucky girl.

Ji Cheng smiled, agreeing with what she said.

But she then got up, opened the door and glanced outside. After making sure that there was no one else outside, she locked the door and sat down.

"Actually, something has happened between me and my cousin."

"What is it?" Luo Qianqian blinked and asked, "Have you fallen for someone else?"

"No." Ji Cheng's face slowly turned red as she whispered, "He kisses me and hugs me, but he never asks for anything more."

Luo Qianqian pretended not to understand.

"What more would he ask for?"

Ji Cheng said as she held her hands over her flushing cheeks, "He... he doesn't do that to me."

"Do what?" Gu Weiwei pretended not to know anything.

Ji Cheng bit her lips and whispered, "I mean... s*x!"

"Oh..." Gu Weiwei and Luo Qianqian laughed as if they had understood something.

Ji Cheng came back to herself and pointed at the two girls who were teasing her.

"You two are making fun of me on purpose, but you two are actually the ones being so sweet to your own men!"

"She is the one being sweet, don't count me in!" Luo Qianqian said instantly.

She and Gu Yun Che were now in a relationship and they had gone on a date, but they barely held hands or kissed, and she had kissed him of her own accord.

Hearing her words, Ji Cheng leaned herself against the table and said to Gu Weiwei, "Weiwei, you must be experienced enough to tell me how to seduce my cousin."

Gu Weiwei felt her forehead, cleared her throat and said, "Well... I am the one who has been seduced, you better turn to Yuan Meng for advice."

What was going on at this gathering?

"Ha." Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian rolled their eyes at her.

Gu Weiwei smiled helplessly and said kindly, "If you really want some advice, I can call Yuan Meng in."

Ji Cheng thought for a while and nodded seriously.

Luo Qianqian's lips twitched, Yuan Meng was indeed a good teacher.

But she would really lead her astray.

Gu Weiwei called Yuan Meng and a few minutes later, Yuan Meng came in with a cigarette in one hand.

Ji Cheng looked at Yuan Meng who was dressed in a leather coat and had a cigarette in her hand. She was dressed in a very neutral way.

"Are you sure she knows these things?"

Luo Qianqian whispered, "No one is better than her."

She had experienced her advice before.

Yuan Meng took a puff of the cigarette and sat down next to Gu Weiwei.

"What am I here for?"

Ji Cheng stared at her for a few seconds and whispered, "I want to ask you how to make the man I like interested in me. They say that you are the one who knows best."

Hearing these words, Yuan Meng smiled deeply. She changed her posture and reclined sexily.

"Of course, you can ask an experienced driver like me."

Gu Weiwei and Luo Qianqian felt their forehead – was that something to be proud of?

Chapter 1683: A Failed Woman

Due to Ji Cheng's curiosity, Yuan Meng's mouth spilled secrets throughout the entire afternoon, making the three girls blush.

Yuan Meng took a sip of the tea and complained to Luo Qianqian.

"You have not improved, but you are still only holding hands with Gu Yun Che. You are such a failure as a woman."

"Not everyone is as daring as you," Gu Weiwei said.

Yuan Meng had lived within a Western culture at the Anderson Family, so she was quite open about the matters of a relationship between two people.

But Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian, who grew up in Hua Land, were quite conservative about relationships between men and women.

Even when facing the man she truly liked, she still could not take the initiative like what Yuan Meng said.

"I am not asking you to do that directly, I am just asking you to show off your charm so that men will do that to you," Yuan Meng said.

Gu Weiwei touched her nose and could not stand it any more.

"I am going out now, you all can talk about it."

"Don't leave, Weiwei, let's all hear it..." Ji Cheng panicked when she saw her leaving.

"No need, she doesn't need it," Yuan Meng said.

She did not need to learn how to seduce men!

Even if she did not seduce him, Fu Hanzheng would keep her in bed anyways.

Gu Weiwei walked out of the tea room, feeling too lazy to join in on the dirty topic, so she turned to look for Kuroda Keiko instead.

When she arrived, Kuroda Keiko was sitting alone on the bench, looking far into the distance, looking worried.

“What is it?”

Kuroda Keiko came back to herself and looked at the woman next to her.

“Aren’t you meant to be meeting a friend? What are you doing here?”

“They are discussing something with Yuan Meng, so I am here visiting you.” Gu Weiwei sized up Kuroda Keiko and asked, “Something on your mind?”

Kuroda Keiko smiled sadly. “I just feel that we, who used to be so close, have changed a great deal over the years.”

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips, of course she knew what Kuroda Keiko meant.

“Keiko, there are many things in the world that we can’t resist.”

She and Kuroda Keiko were childhood friends, but they were no longer as close as sisters.

They were separated by the Kuroda Family and the Gu Family, and they could not trust each other completely.

“Yes, we can’t resist the changes brought about by time.” Kuroda Keiko sighed.

No matter how much she wanted to return to the time when they were young, there was no turning back.

“But I am very grateful to have had you as a friend when I was younger,” Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

Kuroda Keiko also smiled deeply. “In a few more days, my wound will be healed. I should go home as soon as possible, otherwise... your Mr. Fu will not be assured.”

Although Fu Hanzheng did not say anything, yet she could tell that Fu Hanzheng was guarding against her, fearing that she was arranged to be here by Gu Siting.

“Sorry, he isn’t being too... discreet,” Gu Weiwei said.

Kuroda Keiko shook her head. “I am very glad that he is wary of me. That means that he cares a great deal about your safety.”

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips. She felt a bit guilty facing what Kuroda Keiko said.

“Weiwei, I don’t have much time to visit the Gu Family, but...” Kuroda Keiko looked at her deeply and said, “But I feel that Gu Siting is planning something bigger. He wants to bring you back and... he is not just going to force you to stay at the Gu Family.”

Chapter 1684: President Fu Will Teach You Well

Startled, Gu Weiwei smiled brightly.

“He will catch me again, that is expected, but he will only ever keep me at the Gu Family or kill me, what else can he do?”

As long as she was alive, she would definitely find a way to return to Hua Land and to Fu Hanzheng.

Kuroda Keiko stayed silent for a while, looking very serious.

“Gu Siting is doing a secret experiment.”

“Experiment?” Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows and asked, “The Gu Family has a pharmaceutical company and a scientific research facility, it is very normal.”

“That is not normal. He is very nervous about this project, and the staff are totally isolated from the outside world. It has been going on for almost three years.” Kuroda Keiko looked at her and said, “I suspect that it has something to do with you.”

After knowing that she was still alive, whatever Gu Siting was concerned about must have something to do with her.

Her brother was also very secretive about this project and no outsiders were able to get in touch with anyone from the research team. No one knew what experiment they were doing.

“He is trying to figure out how to change my face or hypnotize me with drugs or something.” Gu Weiwei snorted.

She did not take much medicine back then, but it still caused some side effects to her body.

But if a project that had been going on for three years was aimed at her, it would be even more horrible than before.

“I only know that there is a secret project going on, but I have no idea what it is about, not even Mrs. Gu knows,” Kuroda Keiko said.

Due to Gu Siting’s stubbornness, Mrs. Gu and Grandpa Gu had no way out.

He knew that there was no turning back, but he still refused to give up.

Gu Weiwei stayed silent. No matter what Gu Siting was planning, as long as she was not at the Gu Family, he would not be able to get what he wanted.

“Gu Siting is crazy!” Kuroda Keiko said.

He was a businessman who valued profits, but now he was trying his best to get her back from Fu Hanzheng.

Even if he knew that he would not get any benefits by doing it and would be blamed instead, he still insisted.

Instead of saying anything more, Gu Weiwei looked at the lake far away, looking calm and profound.

A long while later, Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian came out of the tea room and said to her and Kuroda Keiko, “Weiwei, it is getting late, we are leaving now.”

“I will get someone to drive you home,” Gu Weiwei said.

Judging from their flushed faces, it was not hard to imagine how scary Yuan Meng’s teaching was in front of them two.

She asked Lei Ning to get the driver to drive Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian before turning to Yuan Meng.

“Honestly, can’t you control yourself when facing these two girls?”

She could not stand it when she was talking about such things, let alone the inexperienced Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian.

“They are very diligent, of course I have taught them everything I know, but they may not be able to digest everything within a short time.” Yuan Meng proudly took out a cigarette, lit it up and took a puff.

Gu Weiwei sighed as she felt her forehead. She had made a bad friend.

“As for you, I don’t need to teach you anything. I believe that President Fu will train you well.” Yuan Meng blinked at her meaningfully.

Gu Weiwei gritted her teeth. If it had not been for this bastard, Fu Hanzheng would not have ordered those embarrassing uniforms.

Chapter 1685: Qin Man and Qin Lv

After confessing to Ji Cheng and Luo Qianqian, they seemed to be busy dealing with their own relationship problems.

They only kept in touch with her through WeChat or phone calls and rarely visited her.

But Kuroda Keiko was getting better and she no longer needed the walking stick.

Grandpa Qin's 70th birthday was around the corner, and Qin Man and Qin Lv came to visit them personally.

Also, they arrived when Fu Hanzheng and his brothers were off work.

The moment they entered the room, Qin Man confronted Fu Hanzheng.

"Fu Hanzheng, can't you be more reasonable?"

Fu Hanzheng focused upon feeding his son and was not disturbed by the uninvited guests.

"We paid a visit to the Old Lady's birthday party with the entire family last year. You were not at home last year, but now you are saying that the Fu Family should be responsible for the safety of the children. I agreed to that and so did my family. What do you mean by saying that you are not going?" Qin Man was obviously very angry.

Gu Weiwei looked at Fu Hanzheng in astonishment. Didn't he promise that he would go?

When did he change his mind? She had no idea.

"I am busy. I don't want to go any more. The others will bring the present," Fu Hanzheng said calmly.

"I don't need your present! The Old Master wants to see you and your two children as well as your wife. How am I supposed to answer for your family of four if you don't want to go?" Qin Man interrogated.

Gu Weiwei got increasingly confused. She threw a look at Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin who both shook their heads, showing that they had no idea what was going on.

Mrs. Fu and Old Lady exchanged a look. They knew that it was Fu Shengying who had objected to bringing Weiwei to Old Master Qin's birthday banquet.

That was why Hanzheng decided not to go there in a fit of anger, and he did not allow the two children to go there either.

But when Old Master Qin knew that Hanzheng was married and had children, he really wanted to meet Weiwei and the two children.

"I will visit you and the children some other day," Fu Hanzheng said calmly.

Qin Lv tried hard not to notice the pretty girl sitting next to Fu Hanzheng and said sincerely, "Uncle Fu, Grandpa really wants to meet you. When you were not here last year, he kept talking about you. Please, for Grandpa's sake..."

Seeing that Fu Hanzheng was unmoved, Qin Man turned to Gu Weiwei instead.

"You will be there, right?"

As long as she was there, Fu Hanzheng would definitely be there.

"I..." Gu Weiwei threw a look at Fu Hanzheng, feeling confused. So she did not answer her directly.

"She is not going either," Fu Hanzheng answered for her.

Qin Man glanced at Gu Weiwei and then at Fu Hanzheng.

"There must be a reason."

"It's not safe," Fu Hanzheng said.

For one thing, Fu Shengying did not allow Weiwei to attend the banquet, and for another, he did not think that the birthday banquet was safe.

He had not been that willing to bring her and the children there, but now someone was stopping him from doing it anyways.

Qin Man was losing her mind. "You have already asked me to allow your people to be there, should we get another squad just to be safe?"

Seeing the scene, Mrs. Fu said, "Qin Man, we will talk with him about it. We will definitely be there on his birthday."

They promised not to tell Weiwei about it in front of her, in case she knew about the conflict between father and son.

But she had already promised Old Master Qin and it would not be right if she did not show up.

Also, it was not as if Fu Hanzheng hadn't shown up for only one year. If he did not show up this year, he would not have shown up for three years in a row.

Chapter 1686: He Will Listen to You

Qin Man thought for a while and gave in when she thought about the 70th birthday.

“Alright, let’s go home today. If I don’t get an answer tomorrow, I will come again tomorrow night. If you are not coming, I will move the birthday banquet to be at your place.”

Having said these words, she left with Qin Lv.

Seeing her leaving, Gu Weiwei threw a curious look at Fu Hanzheng.

“Didn’t you promise them before? What made you change your mind?”

“It’s not safe,” Fu Hanzheng said.

Fu Shiqin added. “Oh man, there are always a few days a month when he is not in a good mood.”

Having said the words, he felt a chill and he shrank his neck.

Fu Hanzheng looked up coldly. “Get ready for the collaboration with Mohsen. Give it to me tomorrow morning.”

“You said next month,” Fu Shiqin said bitterly.

“The business world is full of changes, it is better to settle it as soon as possible,” Fu Hanzheng said in a very reasonable way.

Fu Shiqin felt helpless. “Can you give me a few more days? The information is at the company and I won’t be able to work overtime here.”

“You can work overtime at the company,” Fu Hanzheng said.

“You...” Fu Shiqin looked at his parents helplessly, but none of them showed him any sympathy.

Then he turned to Gu Weiwei, who said instead of defending him, “Pack some supper in case you get hungry.”

“You brought this upon yourself,” Fu Shiyi said.

Fu Shiqin finished the chicken feet he was eating, packed up his midnight snacks and left for the company, feeling very lonely.

After dinner, the Old Lady said to Gu Weiwei when Fu Hanzheng was on the phone, “Weiwei, try to talk him out of it. You have to show up no matter what, otherwise you are not giving the Qin Family any face.”

As the head of the Fu Family, if he did not attend the birthday banquet of the Old Master of the Qin Family for three years in a row, people would suspect that something bad had happened between the Fu Family and the Qin Family.

Gu Weiwei threw a look at Fu Hanzheng who was answering the phone in the courtyard outside the balcony. “Why did he change his mind?”

Since he had arranged the bodyguards of the Fu Family and checked the guest list, he must have agreed.

Mrs. Fu and Old Lady exchanged a look and said, “Anyway, try to persuade him. He listens to you the most and he won’t listen to us.”

“He has not shown up at the birthday banquet of the Qin Family for two years. If he doesn’t show up this year, people would think that something has happened to the two families.”

....

Gu Weiwei nodded. “I will talk with him.”

Although she did not like this kind of event, yet Old Master Qin had already called to ask them to come and Qin Man and her nephew had come here too. It would be too much if they did not show up.

“Good,” Mrs. Fu said with a smile.

As for the conflict between them, they did not mention anything to her.

Hanzheng told them not to say a thing, so he should tell her the reason why himself.

After the call, Fu Hanzheng came back and picked up his son who was playing with Fu Shiya on the mat.

“Alright, time to take shower.”

With her daughter in her arms, Gu Weiwei followed them into the bathroom and said as she was bathing the two children, “The Qin Family has invited us repeatedly, it is not very proper for us to not attend, right?”

The Qin Family and the Fu Family had many business dealings together, so he should go.

Fu Hanzheng stayed silent for a moment. "Fine, we'll go for half an hour at most."

It was not safe to stay in such a crowded place.

"Okay."

Gu Weiwei nodded. He was giving face to the Qin Family by showing up there.

Chapter 1687: The Qin Family's Birthday Banquet

She helped to persuade Fu Hanzheng whilst Mrs. Fu made a call to Fu Shengying so that he did not have any objections.

Fu Shengying compromised, probably because he did not want to make a scene in front of the Qin Family.

It was the 70th birthday of the Old Master of the Qin Family and apart from the famous figures of the business world, there were also many people from the political field who came to wish him well.

Since they were going to the Qin Family together, Mrs. Fu and Old Lady returned to the old mansion early in the morning and went there with Fu Shengying in the afternoon.

The birthday banquet was set to take place at night, and when the two children woke up from the afternoon nap, Gu Weiwei helped them to get changed into twin outfits and put the same kind of hat on them.

After she finished packing for the two children and asked Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin to take care of them, she went back to the room to get changed and put on some simple makeup.

It was already autumn, so she picked a mid-length dress with red sleeves. The hemline reached her calves and she put on a camel-colored windbreaker, looking simple yet wealthy.

However, Fu Hanzheng was not dressed in a very formal way today. Instead, he was dressed in a casual knitted shirt and a black coat just like hers.

With the two little buns in their arms, Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin pursed their lips as they saw the couple coming out of the master bedroom.

"Are you afraid that people will not know that you are a couple?"

Having said these words, they carried the little buns and were about to get into the car.

Yuan Meng and Lei Ning were waiting by the car and complained at the sight of these people.

“Are you dressed up for the birthday banquet or trying to steal the show?”

The two boys were dressed in cute twin outfits, and Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin, who were holding them in their arms, chose the same suit and tie. Fu Hanzheng and Gu Weiwei, who came out last, were dressed in matching outfits too. The man looked handsome and the woman looked pretty.

Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng took the two children and put them into the seat, buckled them up and got into the car.

“Let’s go.”

Fu Shiqin drove Fu Shiyi’s new sports car and left for the Qin Family.

The moment Fu Hanzheng got into the car, he asked Lei Ning, who was sitting in the passenger’s seat, “Is Everything ready?”

“Yes, all the exits are being guarded by us.” Lei Ning confessed.

They had arranged their men at the exits just in case.

“Any strange guests?” Fu Hanzheng asked.

“I have checked several times and they are all businessmen and politicians who have dealings with the Qin Family. There is no one suspicious,” Lei Ning said.

If everything had not been confirmed, she would not have dared to bring them there.

Gu Weiwei was playing with the two children and did not join their conversation.

Fu Hanzheng thought for a while and asked, “Have you checked all the waiters at the banquet?”

“The Qin Family arranged the kitchen staff, and everything is fine. As for the service staff, they were transferred here from Second Master’s restaurant.” Lei Ning confessed.

Relieved, Fu Hanzheng took hold of Gu Weiwei’s hands and said, “Let’s go and say hello. We won’t stay long. The children will fall asleep if we stay late.”

“Okay.” Gu Weiwei nodded and did not object.

After what happened just now, they were still worried about bringing their children to this crowded place.

They were just talking when they came to the villa of the Qin Family, where the lights were shining brightly.

Qin Man, Qin Lv, Qin Lang and Meng Ruya were welcoming the guests at the gate.

As their car pulled over, the waiter came to open the door.

Gu Weiwei helped the children out of the car seats and then carried her son out of the car.

"I'll carry Tiantian for a while."

Fu Hanzheng got his daughter out of the car seat and followed her out of the car.

The two of them were good-looking and they each had a cute baby in their arms, so they attracted everyone's attention.

Chapter 1688: Birthday Banquet 2

Meng Ruya was attending the banquet as Qin Lang's girlfriend, and when she saw Gu Weiwei and Fu Hanzheng coming out of the car, she looked a bit jealous.

If it had not been for this b*tch who interfered, she would have become Mrs. Fu.

Seeing them here, Qin Man came over to them.

"President Fu, you are finally here."

"Sorry, the two children slept in the afternoon, which is why we left a bit late," Gu Weiwei said with a smile.

"It's good that you are here. Grandpa was just talking with your grandma about you two, come in," Qin Man said.

Fu Hanzheng glanced at Gu Weiwei and said gently, "It is cold outside, let's go in."

They had just entered the apartment when Fu Shiyi and Fu Shiqin came out of the car.

"Wow, you are so thoughtful this year, you are actually here welcoming the guests in person."

"Sister Qin Man, it is so rare to see you in a dress, but your waist seems a bit thick," Fu Shiqin said sinisterly.

Qin Man smiled coldly. "Don't mess with me today, or I will toss you into the pond to feed the fish."

Because her second brother took care of Meng Ruya and treated her as the wife of the Qin Family, she got so annoyed that her stomach ached throughout the entire night.

Fu Shiqin shrank back and went in with Fu Shiyi.

Fu Hanzheng and Gu Weiwei, who were walking in front of them, became the focus of attention the moment they entered the room.

"Fu Hanzheng is really married?!"

"No wonder Mu Weiwei has been so amazing since she debuted. She has the support of President Fu!"

"This woman must be very capable to have Fu Hanzheng marry her."

....

Fu Hanzheng and Gu Weiwei did not listen to the discussions, but walked directly to Mrs. Fu who was talking with the Qin Family.

Fu Shengying had not seen his two grandchildren for days, and when he saw them bringing the children here, he got so excited that he almost wanted to rush over to them.

But because of Fu Hanzheng, he had to control himself.

Mrs. Fu took hold of Tiantian and gave her to him when she saw his pitiful expression.

Then she took the boy from Gu Weiwei's arms.

Grandpa Qin said to Old Lady as he saw Fu Hanzheng and his wife, as well as the lovely child in Fu Shengying and Mrs. Fu's arms, "You are so lucky to have such a pretty granddaughter-in-law and a great-granddaughter."

Instead of being modest, Old Lady said with a smile, "My grandson has good taste."

With his arm around Gu Weiwei, Fu Hanzheng introduced her to Grandpa Qin and said some auspicious words.

Fu Shengying had been very annoyed by Fu Hanzheng, but when he saw his two grandchildren whom he had not seen for a long time, he totally forgot about it.

Qin Lv's parents also came and looked at the two children being held by Fu Shengying and Mrs. Fu enviously.

“You are trying to make us jealous!”

“Look at them, they look so much like Hanzheng.”

....

Gu Weiwei smiled helplessly. The two children looked more like Fu Hanzheng than her.

Fu Hanzheng removed his coat, took the coat that she had removed and gave it to the servant of the Qin Family to be put in the cloakroom.

Then he took hold of her hand and announced her identity to everyone who was guessing who she was, without caring about the crowd.

The woman he was holding hands with was his Mrs. Fu.

Chapter 1689: Troublesome Kid

They had planned to stay at the Qin Family for only half an hour, but because of Old Master Qin's request, Fu Hanzheng did not want to embarrass him in front of the guests.

So he had to stay with Gu Weiwei and the children, even though they were ready to leave when the banquet started.

Before the birthday banquet officially started, it was time for dinner.

Seeing Fu Hanzheng talking with the elders of the Qin Family, Gu Weiwei whispered, “The children must be hungry, I will make the milk for them.”

Fu Hanzheng nodded. “Go ahead.”

Gu Weiwei made a call and asked Yuan Meng to bring her baby bag into the car. Then she carried the bag to the dining room of the Qin Family and brought out the milk powder and bottles.

Then she boiled the water and waited for it to cool down.

She was just pouring the water into the bottle when a five-year-old boy rushed over and bumped into her legs.

Since she was wearing high-heels today, she lost her balance and the water poured over her hands.

Her hand hurt, and the milk bottle she had not managed to hold onto spilled over the boy's head and face.

The boy was in so much pain that he burst into tears. Gu Weiwei put down the water and looked at the boy, ignoring the burn on her hands.

"Tell me, where does it hurt?"

The boy wailed and hit her in pain and anger.

"Damn you, damn you!"

Nervous, Gu Weiwei brushed away the child's hands.

But because the boy could not hit her, he threw himself to the ground and cried loudly.

"Grandpa, grandma, someone is hitting me, someone is hitting me..."

The children's grandparents were looking for their grandson when they heard the crying. Seeing their grandson crying on the floor, they picked him up anxiously.

"What is it, Haohao?"

"Where does it hurt? Tell grandma."

....

Seeing the grandparents approaching, Gu Weiwei explained, "I am sorry, I was making milk for my children and he suddenly bumped into me. The hot water spilt over him, so I had better call the family doctor of the Qin Family to take a look at him..."

The grandpa asked the servant of the Qin Family to fetch the doctor, but the boy looked up from grandma's arms and pointed at Gu Weiwei.

"Grandma, that bad woman scalded me with water and hit me..."

Gu Weiwei raised her eyebrows in disbelief; five years old and he was already lying?

"Little boy, you are not being a good boy when you lie. I just spilled the hot water."

Her hands were seriously burned, but she was a mother too, so she went to check on his wounds first. But this boy turned against her!

“Grandpa, grandma, it was her! I hate her so much...”

The child’s skin was soft and tender, and his face had turned totally red.

“I say, how can you be so cruel to a five-year-old child?” The grandma bellowed at Gu Weiwei.

“I didn’t mean to burn him, but he bumped into me and got splashed,” Gu Weiwei said with a serious face.

“The child is only five years old, how can a child lie and frame you?” The grandpa accused her.

Gu Weiwei pursed her lips. “He is in the wrong. He bumped into me first and the hot water splashed over him. Also... I did not hit him.”

“You did, you hit Haohao!” The boy wailed.

They were just arguing when a voice arose.

“Mu Weiwei, you are a mother yourself, how can you be so cruel to someone else’s child?”
