

Chapter 0028

Izaak's Pov

I had been in my study since we finished the preparations, I was so preoccupied with other pack matters, and issues of rogues invading smaller packs and kidnapping kids below ten years.

Tiana has been with me all through, I saw her talking with Fiona as soon as we were done with the meeting and could not help but wonder what they were discussing. I didn't see Fiona's face, just her back, but Tiana had her mischievous smile on and I knew she was up to no good.

"What's going on outside?" I asked, the noise from outside was distracting me and I had to suspend the work I had left. I was already exhausted and just used it as an excuse to stretch my legs.

As I stepped out of my study alongside Tiana to know what's causing all the commotion I saw several omega's carrying various items which ranged from crates of fruits to flowers and they were also moving around some furniture.

"What's going on?" I stopped one of the servants, who was in a hurry and didn't even notice Tiana and I passing.

"Forgive me your highness, I didn't see you there," the omega apologized. "Luna Fiona instructed the omega's to take all this to her quarters and be snappy about it."

"Fiona?" I mumbled, with my brows arched.

"Please excuse me Alpha," the omega said, bowing her head.

I nodded in response, and she walked away briskly.

Tiana chuckled lightly. "Please don't tell me these are preparations for the full moon festival," She giggled.

I simply ignored her and headed towards Fiona's chambers. I could feel Tiana stare drilling a hole through my head as I walked away and she followed behind me grumbling.

On reaching Fiona's chambers everywhere was bustling with activities, as everyone was busy with either decorations or setting up a small rounded table with food, and a huge cake was placed in the middle.

I leaned against the doorway closely observing Fiona as she dished out orders. I've never seen her so serious about something.

What could she be up to?

"Alright, everyone," she called out, clapping her hands to gather their attention. "Let's make sure everything's in place like I instructed earlier. We want it to look perfect," she said with her hands on her waist as she glanced around oblivious to me leaning by the door.

"Lily, did you get the blue flowers from your grandma's garden?"

"Yes Luna" Lily replied, handing her a flower.

"Thanks sugar" She replied with a smile pinching Lily's cheeks playfully.

As soon as she noticed my presence the smile on her face disappeared.

"Ahem! Alpha Izaak," she greeted, with a bow. "I didn't see you there."

"What's going on?" I asked, and everyone froze in their spot, as their eyes went to Fiona to bail them out.

"Greetings Alpha," they said in unison.

"I told you guys to be careful and not create a scene," she scolded, and turned her back to put the flowers in a vase.

"I asked a question, Fiona!" I lashed out.

"Making preparations for something" she answered absentmindedly.

"Oh my goddess, do not tell me these things are preparations for the Moon Festivals?" Tiana asked. "Honey if you don't know what to do, you sit still, don't drain the energy of these maids and..." she sighed, and looked at me, but my expression was just blank. "My point is don't add to our stress we already have enough to deal with already."

"Who said I was making preparations for the full moon festival?" Fiona asked coldly.

"W- what?" Tiana stammered, as she looked up to me to defend her. I still kept my expression blank.

"It's Cora's twentieth birthday I just wanted to do something simple for her," Fiona said. "And these maids are not just maids they have names, just as you deserve respect so do they and FYI they are working on my orders if you don't mind I have other things to attend to" Fiona said harshly, and resumed what she was doing.

"I'm I invited?" I asked. Everyone froze in shock at my request. I guess no one really expected their alpha to get involved in petty things such as a decoration.

 +20 BONUS

"What?!" Tiana half yelled, stomped her feet on the floor and walked out angrily.

Fiona smiled. "Sure, how can I say no" She replied. " It's not like I have a choice," she mumbled, but I could hear her.

LIMITED OFFER:50 BONUS FREE FOR YOU!

Click to get it

 Comments

 Vote (1.2K)