

CLAIMING HIS RESISTING MATE

Chapter 41 – His Confession

REESE'S POV

“Sigh, finally the culprits have been punished” Savannah sighed. “This love fact is really dangerous. On one side it gives everything and on the other side it takes everything”

“I have witnessed many” Adriana sipped her tea as she said, “journey with Cassius was not easy, especially when our relationship started from hate. I have encountered so many love sick woman who could go to any extent to get what they want, and Zaniyah’s case was not an exception”

“Now I feel like I am the third wheel,” I said and both of them looked at me.

“What nonsense are you saying Reese?” Adriana asked. “Are you taking Zaniyah’s words so seriously?”

I looked at her, “though she was wrong but whatever she said is not” I shook my head, “no matter how much I try, I really couldn’t wash my past. It will go everywhere with me. I know what Zaniyah did was wrong yet I could see myself at her place because I was once in her position” my gaze moved towards Savannah “and you know it well enough”

“Yes, you were in her position” Savannah agreed.

“Savannah?” Adriana gasped as she looked at her.

Savannah shook her head “but you are not her. You are different from her. Yes, I couldn’t disagree with the fact that you were once like her, but that you and her are not the same. Zaniyah became insane, she wanted to get Azrael no matter what. And for that she was even ready to kill you. But you weren’t like her. You knew that Avan never loved me. You just used the situation. Yet you never harmed me using deadly tricks like Zaniyah even though you thought of it. You need to get yourself out of the past Reese, don’t forget you have a future with your mate now. Before you blame yourself or think anything foolish, just spare a second and think about him”

I rubbed my neck and sighed “I know, that’s why I couldn’t help myself ”

“Reese, there are things we couldn’t change and we all know it. John has accepted you because he loves you and wants you by his side. Don’t take tests for his sacrifices. Men are too proud yet he lowered himself only for you. You can’t neglect it. Can you?” Adriana asked.

“That’s the reason I am still here. I have promised myself and him that I will make our relationship work. I don’t want to see him in pain, specially when I can help it”

“Great” Adriana grinned, “that’s what I am thinking. You have always proven how strong you are. I know it’s not easy not to think of the past and try to move on when you know the past will always hunt like a nightmare. But you are trying to overcome and help John to live his life normally. Oh Reese, you don’t understand yourself, how strong you are”

“Yes, she is right, ” Savannah nodded. “You have sacrificed your own family to take the side of truth Reese. If you weren’t there, maybe I wouldn’t be here today” she sighed. “Hardwick still talks about your contribution, the way you stand out against your family even when you know what will be the result of it”

“Okay, you two don’t get me too emotional. I feel like crying now” I chuckled.

“We can just let it out silently,” Adriana said. “But if those stone faced men see us like this, they would think we are planning something” at the end she joked which made us laugh.

“Hardwick will tense, he would think I am planning to stay away from him” Savannah chuckled.

“That” Adriana paused then suddenly something crossed her face. This girl is really thinking something bad again. - Content owner.

“Don’t tell me you are thinking anything funny” I shook my head.

She grinned, “look it will be quite fun. I mean come on. Those men are always demanding. We really need to teach them a good lesson”

“Good lesson?” Savannah frowned, “tell me what are you thinking?”

Adriana gave a wicked smile “I think we could just enjoy a little space for a day. What do you say?”

“Wait, wait are you thinking about hiding?” Savannah’s eyes widened. “Oh god, they will go crazy you know”

“That’s what I want darling. Don’t lie, you guys love the possessive and passionate side of your mates. Evoking a little fear in them it’s not wrong. I am telling you the result will be too satisfying”

“Okay you’re on but leave me from this evil plan of yours” I shook my head.

“Why is that?” Adriana frowned, “Reese come on you can’t be that boring. Add little spice in your life darling”

I smiled, “your spice will elicit lava from the volcano in my life. You know how insecure my mate is. Maybe it will be for fun but I am not ready to give him any fear of me leaving him” I shook my head, “after that poison incident he had become more fearful. I am not gonna plan anything at this moment. You two can plan but I am not gonna involve myself”

I had enough of the fear in his eyes. I couldn't see him hurt anymore. It's better to give him the assurance he needed.

"Ay, so sweet. It's fine but only two of us won't make it exciting" Adriana frowned.

"Let's drag Tanea too," Savannah suggested. "I am telling you, that girl won't leave a single chance to irritate my brother. She will jump into the plan as soon as she hears about it"

"Great" Adriana grinned. "That's the spirit I want"

I shook my head as I looked at them. They are behaving like they have been friends for years. No one could tell they just met recently. At the end, they called Tanea and informed about the plan which the other lady agreed to immediately. Their planning was fixed on the pack meeting day. Though I am not engaging myself in this matter, I was curious to hear their planning.

In the evening I was reading a book in my room while Azrael decided to show up. He removed his shirt and threw it on the bed as he walked towards me. He sat beside me before lying down placing his head on my lap. His hand captured mine as he placed with my fingers.

"What happened? You look tired today" I said, stroking his hair with my other hand.

"Hmmm... the pack meeting time was fixed today. It will be in two days"

"It's great, I really loved the girl's company" I grinned.

"You are thinking about having fun now?"

"I can't help it" I giggled and leaned down pecking his lips. "Why do you sound so serious? Anything happened in the meeting?"

"Jaxson looked bad. Since was sent to the Training Prison, it looked like he couldn't digest the information about this matter"

I sighed, "Jaxson? Zaniyah's brother?"

"Hmmm"

"I knew Zaniyah didn't like me when I first met her. She was always glaring at me with those sharp eyes. It was like she would kill me if there's chance. She was always hostile towards me. I thought it would go away with time or maybe there's something she didn't like about me. But I was not expecting her to be this angry and even plan to take my life. Her love has become her poison and against it, she couldn't see anything let alone distinguishing between good and bad"

"Why didn't you tell me before?" Azrael frowned.

"I thought it would go away with time but who would have known she would be this crazy? Besides at that time we were fighting with each other"

He let out a groan " I have never taken her as a woman, which a man could fantasize about. She was always that little girl and a sister of Jaxson. I don't know how she expected that there could be something between us"

"A desired heart never thinks for the result. To be honest, I was just like Zaniyah. Desiring about something which was not mine. I have never thought about the consequences yet went along with what I wanted. I refused to see what's right and wrong. All I know is what I want" I sighed. "And now that dark fantasy has put me into abyss ruining my whole being"

Azrael stopped playing with my hand and got up. I looked at him as he frowned. "Why do you always compare yourself with others?"

"I was not comparing " I shook my head. "I was just judging myself and my deeds of the past. Now that I look back I want to laugh at myself. I was such a fool to believe hurting others would give me pleasure. And now this Zaniyah's matter, it reminds me of my past self"

He held my hand and squeezed it lightly. “You are not going to think that way. I know some situations will remind you of the past but it won’t change the fact how much I love you. I can forget the past and live in the present and dream about the future. Can’t you just take my hand and dream with me?”

My heart immediately jumped when I heard him. How can I be so lucky to have him? I never dreamt of having him as my mate. But now it seemed like no one could be better than him. I am glad I am forced to accept this chance. I am glad he didn’t give up through my resistance.

“I love you Azrael” I cried out hugging him tightly. I don’t know what I will do without you” I sobbed.

“I love you my love. To the point I can’t explain with words” he whispered as he embraced me.

Chapter 42 – The Pack Meeting

JOHN’S POV

“What do you want to plan?” Hardwick asked. “I have investigated the matter of Demon, I must say he is the real Satan in the whole wolf clan” - Content owner.

“It’s nothing new” Cassius replied, “there are things I couldn’t explain in words. His deeds are numerous and unexplainable. He loves power and despises the weak. For him, if he wants then it should be in his hands and if couldn’t get it then the thing shouldn’t exist anymore”

“This is crazy. He is the psychopath who needs good treatment to make him understand how nature works. Though we got power and we belong to the supernatural family lineage, still there are things we couldn't change. I guess Demon won't listen to anything but himself" Devak added. "How come the pack under him is running well? I hardly believe anyone of them could have a heart"

"Demon don't like weakness. He thinks having a family is a weakness. Women and children are the definition of weak for him. There's also saying he even killed his mate to stop her from giving him pain" Cassius shrugged.

"What?" Devak yelled, "killed his own mate?" He frowned. He looked so shocked.

Hardwick tapped the table with his fingers "though I knew he was disgusting but I was not expecting him to be this loathing" he shook his head "mates are the better half, the other part of our being yet he killed her? Just thinking about Savannah leaving for an hour makes me restless"

"He doesn't have a heart. The only blood family he had was his younger brother" Cassius replied, "who died in my hands. His main target was me, he wanted to destroy Silver Shine for years already. But because of the stronghold of power, he couldn't attack us directly"

"But this time he is not targeting you alone" Hardwick shook his head again, "this time he is provoking everyone. He thinks his members could give him the advantage to win this situation. I can see it clearly, he started to make plans against us. He won't make it rush because he has already seen the results"

"I am eagerly waiting for that bastard" Devak rolled his sleeves up. "A fucking bastard like him has the heart to disturb everyone's leave. He shouldn't live in this world. His breathing will only ensure troubles for others"

"I am waiting for it" Cassius nodded, "I couldn't wait to face him and show him where he actually belongs. But what Hardwick said is right. He must be planning something big after what happened in the Dark Forest. Kole escaped which mean he has got few information about us”

“Let him do whatever he wants” Hardwick voiced, “but his enjoyment would not stay for long. Since he had started this war, of course he will get something he won’t forget even he takes the journey of after life”

Cassius nodded, “they know the underground attack technique which I must add is very effective on the opponents. The first thing we need to take down is this style”

“There must be some way,” I said, “since they are using the underground attack style, then there must be some disadvantage in it. Everything has its pros and cons”

“I guess John is right” Hardwick nodded, “if they could use the ground, then we can use the sky”

“What? Are you sure?” Devak frowned.

Hardwick smirked “there’s always a way. It’s just needed a little thinking”

“Will it work?” I frowned.

“Are you thinking about attacking them when they are planning to attack us?” Cassius asked.

Hardwick nodded, “definitely. They took the advantage of hiding under the ground and it caught the opponents off guard. But what if their attack plan reverses on them? They won’t be able to think of a way too fast which will provide us more advantages”

“I like the idea, they would never think of this strategy” I nodded.

“Since it is as such, let’s do it with your plan” Cassius nodded with agreement.

The meeting went for another hour. We had the perfect plan to beat the underground attack technique. Hardwick really has the advantage to deal with Demon. Once that bastard is out of this world I can finally take a relief breath. When I walked out of the study room, I saw through the window Jaxson was sitting on the bench near the training field. I looked at his figure for sometime before deciding to talk to him.

“You are not training today?” I asked once I was near him.

Jaxson looked up “I will train later” then he fixed his gaze on the training field again where the members were training hard.

I sat beside him, “I know you are thinking about Zaniyah. But you also know whatever happened was her own deeds”

I heard him sigh, “I know. She was always pampered and spoiled. She always gets what she wants, I thought she would understand when she grew up but now I understand that was the biggest mistake” he shook his head.

“Cassius is merciful, he only sent her in the Training Prison”

“I know and I am glad. But what she did was more serious and sending her in the training prison is a small punishment” Jaxson squeezed his eyes shut “I am sorry John, because of her you mate had to suffer pain”

“Zaniyah is too obsessed with me. She needs to be cured fully. Her obsession has reached the extreme point where she started to plan for killing others. Even if her life is spared because of you and your parents, Emely won’t get this advantage. She is bound to die”

Jaxson looked at me, “I know. I am sorry again. I should have restrained her more. It’s all my fault”

I sighed. Jaxson and his parents were always loyal to the pack. They had given their efforts to fight for the pack and also sacrificed themselves several times. Even if the deeds of Emely and Zaniyah make me angry, I couldn't neglect their loyal hearts, so does Cassius. As for Zaniya and Emely, they are not going to return to the pack anymore. Once they stepped in the Training Prison it was their last time to see the outside world.

"There's something we couldn't charge. I know you don't like Reese too, and I am not forcing you to like her though. But don't forget she is my mate. And before you judge her character, you should remember how she is related to me" I said to him but it was more like a warning.

"I understand," he nodded, "it's true, I never liked your mate because I thought she was the reason you suffered so much. I didn't want to see you hurt all the time"

I pursed my lips "I was hurt but I am happy now. What do you think? I forgot everything? No.... It's not because I forgot my past, it's because I don't want to live in that hurt anymore. I want to be happy and I know she is the only source of that. I could be careless about the past if it means I can be with her. I couldn't cure the burning heart of my past because it will burn till the end. But that doesn't mean I will give up my present and future. The important thing is that she realized herself and understood reality. She has already sacrificed everything to rectify her deeds. What more do you want? To die?"

"I am sorry, " Jaxson uttered, looking at me. I could see the emotion running in his eyes.

"You need to think clearly, Jaxson. I have lost her once and I am not letting it happen again" I said and turned around before leaving him there. I couldn't forget my past and her rejection but my present is more valuable than the past. Because I could only remember the past, while I have to live in the present. And now I have her with me, in my arms and that's what mattered the most.

When I walked into the room I saw my mate was looking at the two dresses spread on the bed. She was tapping her chin as she looked confused.

“What are you doing?” I frowned walking towards her.

Reese looked at me surprised before flashing a smile, “ah you are here, come on help me choose a dress”

“A dress?” I glanced at the dresses then focused my gaze on her face “you are planning to go somewhere?”

She nodded, “the girls are planning to enjoy bar night”

“Bar night? Alone?” I couldn’t help but feel irritated. “You are not well, refuse it”

She rolled her eyes, “Azrael you can’t ruin our planning. It has been days since I enjoyed some good time with friends like this”

“You can do that in the pack too” I argued back.

“Of course, but it’s different outside. Besides Adriana made sure it’s not too far”

I shook my head, “you are not going there. Forget about it sweetheart. Besides, you have just awakened from the poison effect. You need to care about your body. Drinking is not good for you, at least for now”

She smiled and walked to me, “you don’t have to worry, I am not going there to drink. I just want to enjoy their drama and also I am curious to see how their plan works”

I frowned, “plan? What the hell are you all planning?”

She grinned, “nah, nah, I am not going to tell. It’s a secret. And you are not going to refuse”

“You are not understanding, why are you so-” she paused me, placing her finger on my lips.

“I am not going there only with them. You are also going with me”

“What?” I couldn’t understand.

“Tomorrow night is going to be fun. Wanna join?” She asked, tilting her head.

I smirked “I could do more fun”

She rolled her eyes, “don’t think anything funny. Now help me choose a dress”

“Are you really interested in that?”

“I am curious,” she winked, making me laugh.

Chapter 43 – They Are Here

REESE’S POV

“Are you sure about the plan? I mean don’t you think your mates will be angry at the end?” I asked as I looked at Adriana. We are currently in the nightclub away from the pack. Well, it was Adriana’s plan as we sneaked out of the pack without informing the ‘men’ in question.

“Come on Reese, even if they don’t know where we are, they will find us in no time. Don’t underestimate them” Adriana chuckled.

“Till then let’s enjoy the party guys” Tanea cheered “we women need this break, away from everything, from all those responsibilities and those grumpy looking mates”

“Right, I feel like I am loving this normal life,” Savannah chuckled. I was shocked to see her look like this. I mean, yes I know she has changed after her transformation but now she is bold and too daring.

“Wow, you all are too spirited huh” I said as I drank my shots.

“We deserve this. Let me tell you, I am tired of being in the same place, all the time. To spend a few hours outside the boundary is like a fantasy now” Tanea replied.

“Girls, come on. I say let’s enjoy the dance floor. I would like to see how it felt to be an ordinary woman” Adriana dragged Tanea and Savannah towards the dance floor. Today is a Friday night so the crowd is busier than usual. I roamed my eyes around to those Alaskan people enjoying their time in the club. I watched the girls dancing their ass off. They look like those ordinary humans who came to enjoy the night. I shook my head and focused on my drink. I liked the taste of the liquor. We have more liquor capacity than humans.

“Another one please” I ordered.

The bartender frowned, “you are still up for more?” He looked like he couldn’t believe it.

“I can drink more,” I smiled.

“Well, here you go then” he pushed another two glasses towards me.

“Alone? Beautiful Lady?”

I turned my head to see a red headed man. He smiled at me and slid down the seat next to me. He is human, I can smell his cologne, which somehow irritates me. I chose to ignore him and focused on my drink. The bartender looked at the man beside me and asked.

“Do you want something?”

“Get me vodka,” the man replied. I can feel his gaze on me again. “Hey beautiful, why are you ignoring me? I can see your friends left you here alone. Don’t you want to join them on the dance floor?”

He knows I am here with my friends? So he was watching me for a while now. I didn’t reply to him but heard him speak again.

“Oh come on, this ignorance is just as sexy as you look. I know you are feeling alone. But you don’t have to worry, I can accompany you”

I put the glass on the table and looked at him “mind your own business mister. Can’t you see? I am not interested” I turned my gaze back at him.

“Is that so?” I felt him moving closer to me. “Do you know I like hard women? It’s fucking turn on. Lets go somewhere else where we can just fuck each other out” he placed his hand in my thigh whispering.

My wolf growled angrily as I grabbed his hand and twisted it roughly. He yelled suddenly with a painful look “when I said, I am not interested, it meant no. Don’t try to find unnecessary double meaning when the hint is clear”

“What the hell let my hand go” he almost shouted. I pressured in his hand and could see the sweat beads on his forehead.

“And I don’t like others touching me without my consent. You better know it yourself when you try to hit on other women. Don’t think you can get your ways because you want it” I hissed and released his hand. - Content owner.

“You are a witch” he yelled and immediately ran off disappearing in the crowd. When I turned I saw the bartender looking at me with wide eyes.

“Another glass please” I smiled at him.

JOHN’S POV

“WHAT THE FUCK?” Cassius growled “where the hell is she?” He looked pissed. Too pissed.

“She is not alone, the girls are not in the pack” Hardwick frowned.

“What the-” Devak shook his head “don’t tell me they conspired to do something crazy? I know my mate would jump in as soon as she hears about wild plan”

“We need to find them” Cassius said, “the fuck I will let her go out so easily. That evil woman, always getting on my nerves. This time, I will make sure she understands the real punishment”

I rolled my eyes. He would say it everytime. But whenever he gets his mate I know he would change his way. Even when Adriana didn’t accepted him, he punished her but at the end he would be the one to tend her wound. This man is crazy after his mate..

“Once I get my hands on her, I will show her the result of her escape” Hardwick’s tone hardened.

“Let’s not waste anymore time. I couldn’t hold back anymore. I need my mate, right now” Devak growled.

“John, do you know something?” Cassius asked.

“Not much” I shrugged, “I just heard they are going to enjoy night club”

“WHAT?” the three men shouted altogether.

“Night club? There will be fucking men watching them. Fuck that woman knows how to target my sanity” Devak curled his fist. “I never thought that woman would do something like this”

“I have an evil woman who knows thousands of tricks to torture me. And I also get this plan from her. Adriana...you know how to anger me, peaches” Cassius gritted his teeth.

“Let’s go then, we need to bring them back in an hour. I can’t tolerate my mate being in front of another man, ” Hardwick said as he walked towards the door.

I watched them walking out and I followed them. I pulled out my phone and texted Reese. In a matter of a few seconds she replied back. I looked at the screen and walked out of the mansion.

REESE'S POV

"Oh god, this is so satisfying" Adriana grinned, "I felt like I have enjoyed I was trapped somewhere"

"I danced after so many years" Tanea huffed, "my body is exhausted already. But I must say Adriana, your moves are so good. I feel envious"

Adriana smiled, "I just let myself free. I was careless about any moves"

"I felt like going home now. You know though I appreciate this planning and also enjoyed it enough. I guess we should leave now. Hardwick will be so angry" Savannah groaned.

"I am already too angry darling" a familiar man's tone echoed behind us. We turned to look at the guys standing there with an angry expression.

"Ah, I told you they will be here. Didn't I?" Adriana whispered to Tanea, making her giggle.

"Hardwick?" Savannah gasped. "You are here?"

Alpha Hardwick walked to her and pulled her towards him, "since you left without a word I had to find you. You look like you have enjoyed enough darling. Now let's go home, we need to talk"

"But-" before Savannah could protest, Alpha Hardwick already dragged her with him.

"Party is over sweetheart, now it's a lesson time" Alpha Devak walked towards Tanea.

“I didn’t do anything. How come I couldn’t even enjoy a little space in my life?” Tanea rolled her eyes.

“Oh, I will give you the space you need once we are home sweetheart. For now bear with it. Shall we go?” Alpha Devak asked.

Tanea pursed her lips. We all know what’s going to happen once they leave. Alpha Devak grabbed her wrist impatiently.

“Still thinking too much? Looks like I need to remind you of a few things. Let’s go” he didn’t let her speak a word and took her with him.

I sighed looking at them. My gaze fell on Alpha Cassius who was looking calmly at Adriana. What’s with these two, they are silent. I felt Azrael behind me.

“You really planned it well, Peaches. Did you do it to anger me?” Finally Alpha Cassius decided to speak.

Adriana folded her arms, “what do you think Alpha?” There was a challenging look on her face.

Alpha Cassius smirked, “well, you know I always prefer the tough thing don’t you? Since you put in such a great effort, how can I ruin it?”

I frowned, “what’s happening with these two?” I whispered. “They sounds weird”

“Hmm... they are always like this. Whatever happened was not even close to what happened when Adriana came to the pack. You would be surprised to know that” Azrael replied.

“Well, I am curious then” I said looking at them.

“What are you planning to do then dear Alpha?” Adriana asked.

“Let me show you Peaches” before I could predict anything Alpha Cassius picked Adriana and threw her on his shoulder before walking out of the club. My jaw almost hit the floor.

“What the?”

Azrael chuckled, “don’t worry darling. They will be fine”

“Girls really did expect this result” I mumbled then sighed.

“They went crazy when they found none of the girls were in the pack. I guess you were also planning on pulling such a stunt?”

I shook my head, “though I would appreciate the result but I didn’t find the heart to make you feel insecure again. I have seen you scared about me, and I didn’t want to put you in such a situation again. Adriana tried to pull me to her side, but I refused”

He smiled, “since you are doing everything for me, then I will have agree to whatever you say”

I raised an eyebrow “really?”

He nodded, “you can try it darling”

Suddenly an idea popped in my mind, “well then let’s go” I grabbed his arm.

He frowned “where?”

“On the dance floor” I winked at him.

Chapter 44 – A Wild Night

REESE’S POV

“You want to dance?”

“Why not? They all enjoyed dancing here excluding me. Since I am here, why shouldn't I enjoy it too?” I asked him.

“Oh, you are in such a mood?” He raised an eyebrow.

I smiled, “I have been waiting for you to come. So that I can enjoy some dancing here” I pulled him on the dance floor. There are many people dancing around crazily. I placed my hands on his shoulder and moved my hips. He gripped my waist as he looked at me.

“Dance with me mate” I whispered leaning on him.

“You are such a tease” he chuckled and joined my rhythm. We moved our bodies with the music. His manly scent filled my nostrils which aroused me suddenly. I couldn't help but feel my body tingle. God, this man is really charming. I couldn't control my body's desire whenever I was with him. I turned around leaning my back on him grinding my ass on his cock and fuck I felt it getting hard instantly.

“Fuck baby, are you trying to seduce me?” He whispered huskily in my ear. His arms circled around my waist pulling me closer to him. I gasped when his hardness poked my butt. “See what you have done to me. You want this don't you?”

I pushed my ass more into his hardness, “you know it”

He let out a low growl, “let me remind you darling, you asked for this” he turned me around swiftly before kissing me hard. He pulled me closer to him, pressing me harshly, not letting any air pass.

“Mmm...” I moaned when he sucked my lips nipping it. His tongue thrust inside mouth, claiming me. I couldn't help but shiver when I felt how forceful he was. It's like he has become crazy.

“Azrael...” I moaned loudly when he left my lips and nipped my neck. My body was pressed on him so tightly that I couldn’t even move. His one hand was keeping me on hold while his other one was squeezing my butt harshly.

“You aroused me so much, darling. You have no fucking idea about it. You have to take the responsibility for waking the beast” he said against my skin. I hold his shoulder to support myself.

“I am willing to take anything you have to give” I whispered. He moved a little to look at me. His eyes were covered in lust.

“Really?” He tilted his head.

I gave him a seductive smile tracing my fingers on his face “but today I have something special for you. Would you like to see?”

“As long as it means to be with you everything is fine with me”

“Let’s go”

“Where?” He frowned.

“To make it special” I said and wiggled out of his arm and tugged him with me. We walked towards the stair and I led him to the side door. There were some private rooms and I booked one for us tonight.

“We have a room here?” Azrael looked around.

“I told you, I have something special for you. Didn’t I?” I smirked and pulled him to the room. The room was bathed in red light as scented candles were lit at the corner. The whole room smells sweet and alluring. The bed was decorated with flower petals.

“You arranged this all?” He looked surprised.

I chuckled, "I thought to change the background a little. " I walked towards the table where the fine wine bottle was kept in ice. "I hope this arrangements will not disappoint you"

Before I could open the cap he was already by my side stopping me "no, you are not gonna drink anymore. I have seen you drank enough. You said you won't touch alcohol"

I rolled my eyes, "of course I didn't drink"

"Oh what about the shot glasses you finished at the bar counter?" He raised an eyebrow.

I grinned at him, "that was lemon water" I shook my head. "I just wanted to make myself feel I am drinking so I asked the bartender to fill the glasses with lemon water instead of any liquor"

He sighed, "I almost thought that you..." He then shook his head.

"I thought I could get some drink but .." I eyed the bottle in my hand and placed it back. "Drinking always add spice in fantasy you know"

He smirked, "with you I don't need a fucking alcohol to spice up anything. It comes naturally when we take action my love"

I eyed his body up and down and bit my lips, "since that's the case, then let me take the lead" I pulled him with me and pushed him in the bed. He looked at me with wide eyes as I lowered my zip and removed the dress I was wearing.

"Fuck" he groaned when I stood there in front of him in a black lingerie. It was transparent yet covering the main parts of the body. The strings attached from the bra to the panty. This lingerie was too sexy to resist and I know he will definitely like it.

"You really planned it well darling. You look so fucking sexy" he groaned.

“It’s only for you dear Beta. Since you have treated me so well, I had to give you something” I replied huskily and got on the bed straddling him. “Do you like it?” I asked.

He grabbed hold of my hips and smirked, “even if you cover yourself you will still look sexy my love. But now that you are wearing this, it’s blowing my mind”

His reply made me laugh.

“Oh you.... ahhhhh.....” I squealed when he suddenly changed our position and pressed me on bed.

“Fuck darling, I couldn’t wait anymore” he growled and kissed me hard. I couldn’t help but surrender myself to him.

Soon our clothes were scattered on the floor. Azrael grabbed my breast, squeezing it harshly as he thrust inside me. My legs were wide spread, as he kept on hold to keep me in place. His hips rolled as it moved fiercely, shoving his hard dick inside me at a fast pace. I moaned rolling my eyes as my body jerked with his each thrust. I felt the pressure building inside me which was unexplainable.

“You are so fucking good, my love. No matter how much I fuck you, you only arouse my thrust for you and all I want is to have you each fucking time” Azrael growled, “only you can make me this happy”

“Oh.... God Azrael..” I moaned loudly. “You are going too deep. I felt like you are reaching to my throat”

He chuckled “I want you to feel how crazy I am darling. I want you to know who owns you, your body, your heart and your mind”

“It’s..... YOU ...” I moaned out. I want him to know, it’s only him. My heart, my body and my whole being, it all belongs to him now.

His eyes darkened at my confession, “say it again darling”

“Only YOU” I stared at him deeply, wanting him to see the sincerity in my eyes.

“Fuck” he growled and thrust harder. I felt my pussy clenched around his thick size. I bit my lips trying to squeeze him more. Azrael let out another groan as he pushed more, throwing his head back.

“Azrael” I screamed as I cum hard.

“Fuck baby, this is so hot” he growled and cummed inside me. I can feel his hot seeds spilling inside me. He didn’t pull out but stayed in there as he leaned and joined our foreheads. We panted together after the wild climax.

“This was amazing,” I said.

“It’s always amazing with you my love” he replied with a smile.

I felt him pulling out slowly. I winced at the loss of his size in me which stretched me out wide for him. If my body was normal, the way he had sex with me, I guess I would have been pregnant by now. But I was forbidden to taste that fruit because of my past deeds. I know I deserve this punishment. I sighed in my heart. It’s still painful to think about the baby matter. I wish I was sensible enough to understand the reality sooner then I wouldn’t be in such a position. I really regret it but there was a saying ‘regrets have no medicine to cure’ and I understand the meaning today.

“Is it painful?” He asked.

“No” I shook my head.

“Then why these tears?” He brushed his fingers lightly over my eyes.

I sighed and flashed him a smile, “I was just too happy. Moon Goddess blessed me with you, even though I did so many sins. She is too merciful and caring. I didn’t know how she could be this merciful towards a sinner like me”

“Reese, why do you always bring up your past?” He sighed.

“Because no matter how much I try to push it away I just couldn’t. I tried hard to let it go but every time I tried, it would come again and again in different forms. It just don’t let me go”

“It’s not the past, but you”

“What?” I frowned.

He kissed my cheek, “you are still comparing yourself with the past self which is why it’s coming forward now and then. You need to gather the courage to let it go and not think about it anymore. I know it will be hard because it’s not easy to endure the pain but you can’t go on with it in your heart”

“Azrael I-”

“Can you promise me something?” He asked me to stop talking.

“What promise?”

“You will only live with me, in our present to build our future where the word ‘past’ doesn’t exist anymore” I stared at him with wide eyes.

“Can I do that?” My voice trembled.

He nodded flashing a smile which immediately assured my heart “yes, you can because now it’s not you but US”

Chapter 45 – Planning For The Battle

REESE’S POV

“Where were you last night? I thought you had returned after us” Savannah asked.

“I spent the night there,” I smiled.

“Wait, you say, you spent the night there with your mate?” Tanea asked.

I nodded again, “yeah, well I planned something for him. I thought to give him a special treatment since he has been so loving towards me”

“Wow, I appreciate your efforts Reese, I mean yes, though those men look dark and dangerous but they are too loving” Savannah giggled.

“Of course, I can see the love on your body” Tanea laughed and Savannah covered her neck with a blush. I shook my head. It’s good I wore a halter neck dress or the love bites would have been exposed. And Tanea would not leave a chance to tease.

“As if you are free from it” Savannah rolled her eyes. “My brother is kind of wild isn’t he? He even didn’t spared your arms and legs”

Tanea groaned “do you have to bring up this matter when I am in a good mood. Come on that man only knows how to use teeth, I guess he never learned to be a gentle”

“Are you cursing your own mate?” Savannah raised an eyebrow.

“Well.... I am doing it openly” Tanea shrugged while Savannah and I laughed.

“What are you laughing at?” A yawning Adriana walked in. Currently we are in the dining room. Adriana looked exhausted and she was still wearing her night suit and her hair was messy.

“Aw... what happened to you, you look really.... umm...” Tanea frowned.

Adriana sat down on the chair and yawned again “what?”

“You looked weird today” I told her, “tell me is it your mate’s doing?”

“Hmm...” Adriana nodded, “that man, he took revenge on me. He said I was the mastermind behind those plans and I needed to be punished” she rolled her eyes, “I mean come on can’t we girls have some good moments and enjoy life a little? He used his animalistic ways on me”

“He is already an animal. Remember he is the Alpha here” Tanea knocked on the table.

“I think we need to enjoy the morning coffee first then talk about it” I said as the maid brought hot coffee for us.

“I was craving it. I really needed to build my energy and think of a way to take revenge on him” Adriana glared at her cup.

“Are you getting revenge?” Savannah asked.

“Why not?” Adriana shrugged, “though he was powerful last night but I am not letting him to manhandle me like that. Arrggghhh... What does he think of himself? I will definitely kill him” she said angrily and grabbed her cup and drank the coffee but suddenly puked, sticking her tongue out, “so hot...” She fanned her tongue with her hand.

I rolled my eyes, “you can think of that later, I told you let’s enjoy the coffee time instead of thinking about them”

“That man is still torturing me” Adriana groaned as we looked at each other and rolled our eyes. She says she will take revenge while she can’t stop talking about her mate.

Adriana is the biggest weirdo.

JOHN’S POV

“Here, can you see this? These snaps were taken when he was lurking around. I first thought it was a rogue but his face was revealed later” Jordan placed the pictures on the table.

I looked at the picture and clenched my fist, “were you able to catch him?”

“Not possible, he was clever to stay outside the boundary. He knows how to play cards John and the way he was sneaking around, I guess he was trying to find something or trying to checking the area” he pointed to another picture, “here see this picture, look at how he was looking around”

I pursed my lips as I looked at those pictures. I grabbed it and told him, “I need to talk to Alpha about it. In the meantime make sure to watch the border area closely. Any slight movement should be noticed”

“Okay , I will take care of it,” he nodded.

“Good, double the security at the border and around the pack. I will go and meet the Alpha” with those words I walked out of the room. I walked directly towards the study room while I heard a laughing sound. I stopped and tilted my head to look only to find my mate laughing with other girls. They were sitting in the dining room while talking about something. Seeing her smiling and laughing made me smile. No matter what, I will never let her away from me. This time I will make sure of it. With that I walked towards the study again.

Hardwick, Devak were already there, they were talking about something else. When I walked inside they looked at me.

“We were about to call you. Where have you been?” Cassius asked.

“Jordan captured a few snaps yesterday and he brought them in the morning. I went to see it” I said as I walked towards them then threw the pictures on the table.

“Fuck, isn’t he the man who attacked in my pack?” Hardwick glared at the picture.

“Hmm... he is Kole, the beta of Hell Hound,” Cassius replied and looked at me, “he was sneaking around the territory?”

“He was searching I guess. Trying to find a place or something” I replied.

“Wait” Devak grabbed one picture and looked seriously “I guess he was here to look for the right place to execute their plan”

“What?” Cassius frowned.

“I mean, he must be looking for the right place from where they can start the underground attack technique. It must be” Devak shook his head.

“Looks like they are getting ready to attack” Hardwick frowned.

“We need to speed up our plan too. We need to make a web to reverse their underground attack. Demon is ambitious and impatient now. We need to prepare ahead or it will lead us to disadvantage” Cassius said and we nodded in agreement. The tension of war is going on and it won’t stop until Demon dies. This Hell Hound is creating troubles all the time and I hate to say I couldn’t kill him.

Soon we are standing in the training field. Our men gathered in raw while Cassius stood at front and Hardwick, Devak and I stood at side.

“Today we are here to discuss something important. It has been long since Silver Shine has engaged in any battle. But I guess this time we needed to fight to save the pack again. The Hell Hound Pack is lurking around calling for danger. If we aren’t prepared enough then it will only lead the whole pack into destruction. The main problem is that Hell Hound has secret fighting techniques which we don’t know. This technique is called underground attack, we hadn’t had any defense against it but now I think we can beat it for sure.

So we are here today to train how to defend ourselves against this attack. I want to know what my pack had to say. Are you ready?" Cassius shouted.

"Ready.... We are willing to do anything to defend the pack" the crowd cheered back.

Cassius nodded, "this is what I expected from my pack. Silver Shine will never bow to their enemies, we will fight till we have the last drop of blood in our body"

"Yes" the crowd raised their hands as they shouted back.

"Good, Alpha Hardwick and Devak will guide you to learn the defense technique, and I want you all to cooperate with them. Is that clear?"

"Yes" the crowd cheered again.

Cassius turned to look at Hardwick and Devak "it's your turn now"

Devak walked forward, "let's do this. And defeat those morons once for all" he yelled, raising his fist in the air while The crowd did the same.

"You look tired," Reese said as soon as I stepped into the room.

"The training was hard today. A new technique was proposed and we tried the whole day to make it work" I sat on bed and unbuttoned my shirt.

"A new technique?" She frowned.

I nodded, "Kole was seen on the border again which raised the question of the battle against them"

She gasped, "you mean the war is finally happening?"

I nodded, "Hell Hound is strong with their attack style so Hardwick and Devak also proposed a defense technique. We have been training in the field to see how effective it could be"

She walked to me and sat beside me, "so what happened? Did it work?"

“Though it was not bad, we will know it after a few days of training. Hardwick and Devak decided to stay here because of the danger around. I guess the battle could happen anytime which is why we need to prepare in advance and stay close to each other to be strong”

She sighed, “though I was expecting it but I never thought it would happen this fast. Sigh, this battle and everything I am seriously tired of it” she frowned.

I chuckled, “are you scared darling?”

She turned her head throwing a glare “what nonsense are you asking? Why should I be scared?”

“You just said it”

She rolled her eyes, “let me remind you, I said tired, and you got the wrong point. I have been training myself in the woods when I wandered around to improve my wolf’s skills and abilities. If this battle is bound to happen and I am bound to join this fight and kill those bastards”

“I like that spirit” I smirked and leaned closer to her.

“Ewww.... you stink, go and have a shower first” she pushed me away while I laughed.

“Your man is hard working darling” I got up from bed and forwarded my hand “wanna join me?”

She glanced my hand and tilted her head before smiling, “ay, with a pleasure”

She laughed when I threw her over my shoulder and walked towards the bathroom.

Chapter 46 – A Little Picnic Under The Shadow

REESE'S POV

A week later...

We girls gathered in the hall and about the men, they were out of our sights. Adriana was holding Josue while Savannah was with Aldric. It was only Tanea who didn't have her son. She left him in the pack, never that little guy loves his grandparents more than his parents. Tanea sipped her juice and said.

"The battle is finally happening?"

"I know it would " Adriana shrugged, "it was actually bound to happen. The Hell Hound in question is evil reincarnation and would do anything to get whatever they wanted"

"This battle is going to be fierce. Though I have seen many but I have the feeling it will be different" Savannah frowned. Aldric in her arms jumped suddenly making a sound.

"Looks like your son is ready to fight" Adriana chuckled, "and this man...." She looked at her arms where Josue yawned. Adriana rolled her eyes, "just like his father, showing the careless"

"Please, they don't even know what you are talking about" Tanea rolled her eyes, "sometimes I am jealous of my own in-laws because my son loves them more than his parents. That guy never cries when he is with them. How couldn't a mother feel lonely that way?" She sighed.

"You are lucky, at least you have someone out there to look after your son and you can feel free. But in my case, I only saw my in-laws in the picture" Adriana shook her head. "Sometimes I really think it would be better if they were alive. I really wish for that"

I frowned, “wait, when I was poisoned, I was saved by the crystal. Why didn’t Late Alpha use the same method to cure himself? I mean it would have worked”

Adriana nodded, “well I think of it now but I never knew that the crystal has such ability. And Cassius was also unaware about it. I don’t know why Alpha Zach didn’t bring up the matter or master beta when they knew about it”

“Maybe, there are more in the story which was not revealed” Savannah replied.

“Or was it Late Alpha’s own choice?” Tanea added.

“Whatever happened has happened, why it happened, let it rest in the past. I think it’s better this way. Digging over the past matter won’t help us and we have another thing coming for us. The battle” Adriana said as her expression turned stony-faced.

“Yeah, never underestimate the enemies. As long as you remember this you are cautious” Tanea replied.

“This is hard, harder than the human world,” Savannah shook her head. She looked at her son again, “I don’t know when he will grow up”

“He will grow up sooner than you expect,” Adriana smiled. “I will put Josue to sleep” she nodded and got up from the couch before walking away.

“Reese, have you checked the pack doctor?” Savannah asked.

“About what?” I frowned.

“I mean about your pregnancy”

I threw her a small smile, “I can’t get pregnant. The last miscarriage was the biggest hit on me. The doctor said I lost the ability to carry the baby. Though it was painful, I am glad at the same time. Because that incident made me look at the truth. It made me realize how wrong I was. That little baby has given me the path to live and start anew. I will miss him or her all the time. He or she become the root of my change”

“Every incident has its own cause, Reese. Sometimes it’s painful and unbearable but it will give us the biggest lesson we could ever learn” Tanea smiled and I nodded at her. Copyright © 2024

“Just like me” Suddenly Savannah said and we frowned at her.

“What do you mean?” I asked.

“I got to understand things after I ran away and why I ran away from the pack, you know it well” Savannah said nonchalantly. “That day was painful but I also found my own reality. Only hard situations could teach the best lessons. Because if you are not hurt enough you won’t understand the worth at the end. But you played a great role in that Reese. Don’t take my words wrongly but I want to say you are root of my transformation”

I chuckled, “I am glad then. At least you found your destined one and could build a new future with him”

Savannah shook her head, “it’s not only that, you made me realize I was not weak and you helped me to find myself. Thank you for that Reese”

“Aw... you two are making me emotional now” Tanea wiped her imaginary tears which made us roll our eyes. Adriana was back after sometime.

“I was thinking how about we make food for the men who are training so hard in the field?” Adriana suggested.

“I guess it’s a good idea,” Savannah nodded immediately. “They have been trying to work their new fighting style for which they don’t get much time with us and with the excuse of meal, at least we can get some time with them”

“I am on but... I can’t cook” Tanea laughed, “Devak will puke out and will rest in bed for days”

“What an answer, we are really inspired by you” Adriana replied dramatically while Savannah and I laughed.

“Come on, since we are planning it. Let’s make something good. Let’s put the recipes first. Tell me the favorite dishes of your mates” I smiled at them. It will be exciting.

“Swiss steak”

“Chicken Florentine Pasta”

“Cajun Butter Chicken”

Savannah, Adriana and Tanea said at the same time. I chuckled at their action. Wow, they hurried to reply so fast. Looks like they are excited about the plan.

“Well, all the recipes are in place. I am going with Chicken Caprese Salad” I said as I wrote down the names.

“I am so excited,” Savannah grinned.

“Oh god, lunch time will be soon . Let’s go to the kitchen so that we can finish making the dishes now” Adriana replied.

“Yeah let’s leave” Savannah said and handed Aldric to Tanea “since you are not going to cook, help me watch Aldric”

“See your mother’s high expectations Aldric?” Tanea teased.

“Dramatic” Savannah mumbled and we walked towards the kitchen.

It almost took 2 hours to finish the whole manu. I wiped my hand and checked the dishes again. “I guess everything is fine. I am going to take a shower then we will go to the field?”

“Sure, I am drenched in sweat too,” Adriana nodded.

As we agreed we walked to our room and took a shower then changed our clothes. When I walked down the stairs I saw Jaxson was in the hall. He was holding a stick in his hand and was walking outside. He stopped when he saw me. I didn't back away and looked at him once I was in the hall he walked to me. He must be holding grudges because his sister was sent away. But it's not my fault and I don't feel any pity for her either.

"Reese" he pursed his lips.

"Do you want to say something?" I asked.

He looked troubled, like he couldn't say anything. After a few seconds he finally opened his mouth to speak. "I want to apologize for the action Zaniyah did. It's just that she was too jealous and couldn't see things clearly. I hope you can forgive her"

I was surprised. Well, I was not expecting him to say this. Whenever he saw me he would always glare. I didn't know the reason at first but it was clear that he was aware of the intention her sister had in mind.

"I know, I couldn't blame her because I know her feelings. But the choice is not ours. It was fated and already decided which you and I both knew couldn't charge. I know your sister never liked me, but I never harbored any evil intentions towards her. I tried to make her understand but she just doesn't want to. I never wanted anything bad for her yet I was not expecting she will conspire with Emely and would do such thing"

He nodded, "to be honest, I never liked you because of Azrael. I thought he suffered because of you. He was in pain" he sighed. "But I also don't want to hurt you because Azrael will be hurt. I tried to talk to Zaniyah and make her understand but I guess I failed in my work"

"I know you love your sister. And I am sorry she was sent away"

He shook his head, "let it be. She was there because it's her choice. I just wanted to say sorry to you. I have to go. Take care" he said and turned around leaving.

"Jaxson" I called him and he stopped. He turned his head to look at me.

"Thank you" I said and he nodded before leaving.

"Isn't he Jaxson?" Adriana walked towards me. "What did he said?"

"He apologized for the deeds of his sister"

"Hmm.... at least he knows what's wrong and right"

"Is everyone ready?" I asked.

"Yeah, they are packing food"

"Come on you two, what are you doing there?" Savannah and Tanea walked out of the kitchen with bags.

"Let's go, it's time. We need to execute our plan" Adriana grinned.

We walked towards the field and saw the trainers were using some moves which I have never seen before. Adriana walked forward and clapped.

"Okay..... Everyone it's break time" she shouted making the males look at us.

"Peaches?" Alpha Cassius walked to her. "What are you doing here?"

"I came to give you a little break dear Alpha. Let's go" she tugged her hand.

Alpha Hardwick and Devak also joined their mate. Azrael frowned as he waved his hand to the trainer who immediately went to the side and sat down huffing.

"What are you all planning?" He walked towards me.

"We thought of having a little picnic" I grinned at him.

He raised an eyebrow "picnic? At this moment?"

“Why not?”

“John, Reese, Come on. What are you doing there standing?” Adriana yelled as they sat under the shadow of the tree.

“Come on. Let’s have a picnic” I squealed and dragged him with me towards the picnic area.

Chapter 47 – Demon Is A Bastard

DEMON’S POV

“Fuck” I closed my eyes when I felt how fucking good it is. My body shook with excitement as I pound into the warm pussy. The woman beneath me was screaming. I hold her hands over her head and continued to fuck her hard. The sound of slapping skin was the pleasing tone I could hear. Fucking woman is great, specially when I fuck the woman of my enemies mate.

“Let me go...” The brunette screamed. Her body was bouncing everytime I thrust into her with force. Her scream only made me smirk.

“Oh yeah?” I looked up at the man who was sitting on the chair bruised. He was being tied while sitting in the chair as his eyes were wide watching us.

“Can you see what your mate is saying? Looks like you couldn’t satisfy her with good fucking, which is why she couldn’t take the rough treatment” I shook my head “tsk, tsk, such a shame. You couldn’t even give your mate a rough fucking”

“You bastard, if it was not because of the mistake you wouldn’t have gotten your hand on her” he screamed while I laughed.

“You are funny. See how beautiful your mate looks with a curvy body, all naked for me. Can you see how hard her nipples are? It’s like they wanted my attention” I smirked as I reached up grabbing her breasts. I twirled the hard nipples between my thumb and index finger and pinched it hard making her hiss loudly. “See she likes it and she want it this way”

He tried to break the shackles as he growled at me. But I smirked at his useless efforts. The shackles are not ordinary ones. It was a cage that no wolf could break, even if he has the Alpha blood in his body.

“Don’t try, it’s useless. You can’t break through that bound. The only thing you can do is watch me how satisfying sex I could have with your mate” I smirked.

“You fucker, get away from her” he yelled.

“Oh?” I looked down at the woman who was now glaring at me. I must say she is curvy but has a delicious body which makes my cock hard and feel the pre-cum. “Looks like your mate wants to see something good darling,” I said and pulled out of her. But before she could feel herself free I grabbed her thighs and parted her wet folds before dropping down my head and sucking her wet pussy. She screamed and grabbed my hair trying to pull but I bit her inner lips and she screamed again. Her pink pussy tastes good. I rubbed her clit as I push my tongue inside her hole and fuck her. Her scream became louder and her mate was growling at the side. I rubbed her clit vigorously as she moved her hips trying to push her pussy more into my mouth. My tongue invaded her hole reaching inside and I felt her walls gripping my tongue. Before she could cum I pulled and smirked at her.

“You like it don’t you?” I hovered over her and grabbed her thighs pressing her legs on her chest, “I am gonna fuck you so hard that you will forget about your mate and only remember my cock”

“Hell with you” she snapped at me. I laughed at her. I glanced at the man sitting on a chair and thrust inside her, making her scream.

“Fuck, your mate is so good Noah” I groaned, “I never thought you will be enjoying this good pussy all the time. It grips my cock so hard trying to squeeze it. Fuck, I feel like I could cum any minute” I fucked her hard as I closed my eyes. Her walls clenched around my cock. I squeezed my eyes and opened it. Looking down at her I slapped her breasts until it was red. Her nipples were so hard that I couldn’t help but lean down and suck on it. I thrust harder and felt muse cuming.

“Fuck, this pussy” I cummed inside her spilling my seeds in her. Her pussy was still clenching but she didn’t cum yet. I pulled out making her hiss. “You have such a great pussy. I guess I could use it again. Such a flavored pussy, I really couldn’t give up” I smirked and got down from bed but not before slapping her pussy again. I wore my robe and gestured to my man.

“Give her to Andorra, she will know what to do” my man nodded and picked the naked woman up who tried to fight and scream. Once they were out of sight I turned to look at the tied man.

“So how do you feel?” I smirked, “did you feel satisfied? Your mate seems to want it more. Her pussy always clenched around my cock whenever I pushed into her. She is such a good piece, I feel she is quite handy”

“You fucker, if you think you can blackmail me like this then you are fucking wrong. A bastard like you could only use such a method. Do you know why? Because you don’t know what to do. There will be a day when your sins will be counted and you can’t get away from it. You will beg for your life, but the only thing you will get is silence, silence of death” he snapped glaring at me.

My blood boiled and I pulled out the dagger and stabbed on his chest making him hiss in pain, “you speak too much. You are not in such a position to curse.

Think about me later, what about you now? Can you get away from this situation? Can you save yourself and your mate?" I laughed "I have already fucked her in front of you. The only thing you could do was sit here and watch her scream in pleasure. Her pussy likes my cock and you..." I traced the dagger up and pierced it on his jaw "couldn't do anything. Can you see yourself how helpless you are? Don't compare yourself with another thing. You can't even save your mate, how could you save your pack?" I laughed.

"You bastard" he snapped, "you will fucking pay for all your sin"

"Oh? Who will do that? You?" I laughed harder. "What a nice joke, but it's not funny. Since you are so unwilling to give me what I want, then you are nothing but trash" I moved back and used my hand to gesture to my man. "Throw him in the dark cell, make sure he couldn't see the ray of light after today"

I cleaned my hand once he was out of the room. I walked towards the table and poured myself a glass of wine. Kole walked in with a serious look.

"You got the news?" I asked as I sipped on my drink.

"They have become more alert. They almost caught me last time, I guess which was the reason they have tightened the security around the border. I tried to find a good place to execute our plan"

"I don't want a story about them and you know it. Why are you feeding me with those useless remarks? Just come to the point directly"

"It's not easy to execute the plan on the border. Since the security is tightened, I could only find a place near the border. If I went further, they would have caught me directly"

"Since you have found it, then prepare the plan" I sipped my wine.

"Alpha, they all gathered in Silver Shine. Shall we attack the other packs?"

I frowned “how could you be this foolish Kole? Just because the Alpha’s are not in the pack doesn’t mean the pack is weak. You don’t have to border yourself with the attack. Since they had gathered together, it was better. Go and prepare whatever I ask you and refrain yourself from getting involved in unnecessary matters. You need to control your emotions or you will lose your life in their hands”

Kole was silent for a few moments before replying, “yes, I understand. I will prepare the plan” then he walked out of the room. I placed the glass on the table before looking at his back.

Cassius this time I will make sure you pay for everything. I won’t let you get away from my clutch. There will be time where you will be tied and I will be fucking your mate. I will make you bleed without using any weapon. That’s for sure.

REESE’S POV

“You all planned for us?” Alpha Cassius asked as he looked at the basket we brought for the picnic.

“You all were so busy with the training. We thought we could give you some free time to enjoy the meal” Adriana replied.

“Yes, and you need to know having a meal at the right time is also the reason for good health. We understand you all are working hard but you couldn’t skip food for that” Savannah shook her head.

“We just wanted to make sure there’s no loopholes, darling. Demon is a bastard, his ways of handling things are too dangerous. They are trying to plan some dangerous moves and we need to make sure we have all the backup in time” Alpha Hardwick said as he pulled Savannah towards him.

“This matter is going serious, I felt like it wouldn’t stop until I see blood everywhere” Tanea frowned as she hugged herself.

Alpha Devak sat beside her “you don’t have to worry about it darling. If he is powerful then we are not less than him. Since he want this battle, we are also preparing to give him the memorable one”

I sighed, since the matter of war has started no one could live without worry. I feel like this war will be a big one but I really don’t want anyone to get hurt. War means blood and suddenly I felt my heart jump in fear. I don’t want to lose my last hope. That Demon is the Alpha. And if anyhow Azrael faces him, will he be able to get away without any harm?

“What are you thinking?” Azrael whispered in my ear.

I was startled but shook my head immediately “nothing”.

“You know you are not good liar”

I sighed, “I am just worried about the war”

He pulled me in his arms, “everything is settled my sweet, no matter what no one can snatch you away from me”

I looked up “you promise?”

He smiled, “promise”

Chapter 48 – Adriana’s Spicy Action

REESE’S POV

“They’re all gone again,” Tanea rolled her eyes. “I don’t understand when this matter going to end”

“As long as we have this Demon around us, don’t even think about it” Savannah shook her head, “of course once this man is burned alive, it will save us from the torture”

“You all say your men are this and that... too possessive, too demanding, too dark... and now you are missing them like you want to cling on them like orangutans” I said looking at them. Their mouths were wide open as they looked at me. I pursed my lips trying not to laugh.

“Did she just call us orangutans?” Tanea whispered to Savannah.

Savannah frowned, “I heard the same, did you too?”

I rolled my eyes, “okay now you two really look like newborn orangutans”

“Oh my god, how dare you” Tanea got up yelling. “You think it’s only us,” she placed her hands on her waist, “don’t forget you are in the list too. Don’t tell me you don’t miss your mate. He is one of them, training outside not giving a damn about you. And you are calling us orangutans now? Reese Clarke, do you think you are spared from the torture?”

“Why do you have to shout for that?” Savannah asked, “Tanea, you could have just said it peacefully”

“I was giving some reaction, is it that bad?” Tanea frowned at her.

“I am really out of here” I shook my head, “Where is Adriana?”

“I don’t know, I haven’t seen her since I woke up,” Savannah replied.

“Okay, I am going to look for her” I got up and walked out of the dining room. This is the first time Adriana is not here or in usual days she was the first one blasting the bubbles. I walked towards her room but stopped in the middle when I heard noises coming from the garden. The garden is scheduled and without permission no one could enter. My heart jumped when the noise was continuous. I moved towards the garden frowning. Possible sceneries flashing in my mind. Some enemies hiding behind the bushes trying to sneak attack. But my steps halted when a moan filled my ear.

What the fuck? Moan? Who's moaning?

I moved closer to get the clear sound. My frown hardened when a womanly tone reached me.

"Ahhh.... I can't hold back...."

Wait, this voice is familiar.

"Oh god..... Please let me cum..." My eyes widened when I recognised who's voice is this. Oh my god, Adriana? I covered my mouth with my hand trying not to make any sound.

"You wanted this Peaches" I heard Alpha Cassius's gruff voice. It was raw and dark. I heard the slapping sound of skin. "You aroused me and you think you can get away with it. You need to think clearly with whom you are dealing with. I don't take no for an answer. You are mine, and I have all the right to do anything I want"

"Oh.... God..." Adriana moaned again. Her moaning was more like pain. "I am sorry, Alpha," she cried out.

"That won't do darling, you need to give me what I want. Maybe then you will get your fill" Alpha Cassius sounds darker than he usually is. I never thought he would be this dark behind the closed door of his privacy. I heard the sound of the bushes. They must be doing something more than sex.

"Ahh..." Suddenly Adriana cried out. "It's painful"

"You need to take it. Fuck, it has been long since I have taken this pussy of yours. I am fucking craving for it" I heard him say again.

"Ahh.... Alpha.... I" Adriana moaned, "please let me cum, please" her begging was louder.

I shook my head. God, what the fuck I am doing here, listening to their words. I turned around and ran away from there, I needed to get away from them. I couldn't endure their dark fantasy. But before I could finally get out of that area I heard Adriana scream. I closed my ears and ran towards the dining area again.

"Hmm.... What happened? You looked kind of weird" Tanea frowned at me.

"It's nothing" I sat down on a chair, avoiding their gaze.

"Nah, nah, something really happened. What is it? Tell me, tell me" Tanea leaned towards me.

I was about to reply when she said again, "oh girl, let me tell you. If you are thinking of feeding me with lies then think about it again. Your blushing face is giving another indication so I can guess something in my mind yet I still need the clarification. So blurt out everything without leaving a single piece" she warned.

I sighed, "are you that curious?"

"You have witnessed something dirty don't you?" She laughed, "why shouldn't we enjoy a little peace too?"

"Tanea you are really too much" Savannah frowned.

"Sometimes we need a little enjoyment darling" Tanea smirked before turning towards me, "and you, come on now spill everything"

"Fine, since you are this curious then let me tell you. I was looking for Adriana and I found her in the garden"

"That only?" Tanea frowned, "that couldn't be the reason of of your blush"

"Will you let me complete?" I frowned, "okay so, I found Adriana there but she wasn't alone. She was with Alpha Cassius and they were having sex"

“Oh my god” Tanea covered her mouth, “really in the garden? so openly?”

I shrugged, I am not gonna tell her anything else. Fuck, it was too overwhelming. Adriana always teases me and today I have got something to get revenge on her. Well, though I was not expecting to witness such a thing, it also gave me an advantage.

“I can’t believe,” Savannah gasped, “seriously in the garden?”

“I have no reason to lie to my dear friends” I told them, “besides it’s not my doing. You can ask it to the subject in question herself”

“Ay, I never thought such a poised girl would be this dirty,” Tanea smirked.

“Hell, I feel like teasing her to death”

“Hmmm.... I want to enjoy my drink” Savannah closed her eyes.

“You are no fun. Why are you so indifferent? Can’t you hear the excitement within this matter?” Tanea frowned.

“Ay, the main character is here” I said and both of them looked towards the door. Adriana walked inside with slow steps. Her face was still blushing with pink stains.

“Looks like someone is delighted” Tanea started, “Adriana where were you? We have been waiting for your arrival”

“I was a little busy,” Adriana replied as she sat on the chair.

“Busy huh? With what?” I asked, leaning towards her. She frowned at me then glanced around.

“What happened? Why do you all have such a weird look on your face?”

Adriana frowned.

“Well, the weird one is you, early in the morning you are blushing like a red tomato. Why is that?” Tanea smirked, “don’t tell you had encountered some action which made you all hot and crazy”

Adriana’s face blushed again “what are you trying to say?”

“We are saying what you have experienced. Dare to say it’s a lie?” Tanea teased more. Savannah cleared her throat while I smirked at her.

Adriana bit her lips, “I don’t know what you are saying. You guys are too much”

I laughed, “it’s not us to enjoy the weather with a hot action in the garden”

Adriana’s eyes widened as she looked at me, “you..... you..... what did.... you.... say?”

“You heard me darling, want me to repeat?” I smirked. Hell, I am fucking enjoying teasing Adriana. This girl is always taking the advantage of other’s weak moment and she would use it to torture others. But today, I would like to see how she endure our torture. Tanea and I gave a silent nod before focusing our gaze on poor Adriana again.

“Fuck” Adriana cursed, “you saw it didn’t you?”

“I can’t help it. It was not my fault though. I was intending to find you, yet I bumped into something hot and spicy. I was not expecting you to have your mate so openly” I shrugged.

“Adriana, did you really?” Savannah asked with a frown.

Adriana sighed but her face was still pink. She slightly nodded her head “well, Cassius is always adventurous and I don’t have any way to stop him. Even if I refuse, he is not someone who will agree once he set his mind”

“But Alpha Cassius won’t do it if you hadn’t provoked him” I raised an eyebrow, “come on Adriana spill the beans now” I groaned out. “I know you have done something first which resulted your action in the garden”

“I never knew you were that interested in my privacy” Adriana narrowed her eyes at me.

“Let me tell you darling, your privacy had become public already” Tanea laughed, “what left is your explanation”

Adriana rolled her eyes, “okay, stop your teasing. Yes, I did something to provoke him. We had little argument yesterday and I said something to him which angered him”

“That’s all?” Tanea and I frowned.

“What? What do you want me to say then? It’s already hard to match his pace. That man is utterly demanding. And now you guys are following his lead” Adriana gave an accusing look.

“If we were following his lead then oh my god, would you be able to adjust so many dicks?”

Savannah spilled her drink when she heard Tanea’s word. I laughed while Adriana gasped.

“Oh my god, Tanea you are too dirty” Savannah shook her head.

“Hey that’s what she said. It’s not my fault at all” Tanea pouted her lips.

“Okay, let’s drop this matter. I have been thinking about something. How about we spend tomorrow in the lake house?” Adriana suggested.

“Lake House? You have such a house in the pack?” Savannah asked.

“Yes, it was actually made by the late Alpha for his mate. I must say it’s a beautiful place. You will like it” Adriana smiled.

“Wait, will Alpha Cassius agree?” I frowned.

Adriana smiled “don’t worry everything is perfect” she winked at me.

I don’t know why I feel weird about it. Like something bad is about to happen. But what?

Chapter 49 – Kole’s Sudden Attack

REESE’S POV

“Wow, this place looks amazing” Tanea looked around. “Adriana, what you said is true, this place is worthy for any fight”

“I told you didn’t I?” Adriana laughed. “at first, I thought the same, well no, I still think the same. When Cassius first brought me here, I was amazed. Let me tell you, though our relationship was not strong at that time, I was glad he took the initiative to bring me here. We had a huge argument before and then he brought me here. Once my eyes landed on this place, all my anger flew away like smoke”

“Who could stay angry looking at this beautiful place?” Savannah grinned, “Ay, I am happy those men are busy with training. At least we got some free time for ourselves to enjoy. And see this...” She pointed towards the lake house, “is truth worth the wait”

“True, true. These days I really think they should engage themselves with some special training most of the time so that we can get our girls time without any interruption” Tanea nodded.

I looked at the familiar place and suddenly my heart fluttered. This place has a great memory in my mind. This is where I found myself and accepted my fate.

This is where I found the true meaning of my mate and our bond. I could never forget the words he said. It's still ringing in my mind, still refreshed like an evergreen scene.

"Oh, someone is looking dazed," someone whispered in my ear, making me jump in shock. I patted my heart glaring at Tanea.

"What are you? Don't scare me like that" I sighed.

"Oh, come on. Tell me what you were thinking?" She threw her arm over my shoulder and wiggled her eyebrows.

"Shut it" I frowned and shook off her arms.

"Well, John brought her here too" Adriana said with a grin, "Or shall I say they had the hottest night in this lake house"

"Really?" Tanea smirked. Her face was full of teasing as she showed her teeth suddenly, "ay, that's why you were annoyed with my question. Huh! Girl, tell me is your mate that good in bed?"

"Tanea?" Savannah, Adriana yelled at the same time. I rolled my eyes.

"What?" Tanea gave a naive look, "I was just stating the truth. Look at her, the pink stain on her cheeks are the proof of my words. Can you deny this?"

"Are you done? Are you going to stand here all day or going to enjoy the beauty of this place?" I asked. "It won't take time for the sun to set and then even if we want to stay, I don't think we will be able to do that"

They sighed. We all knows when our mates returns from the training, they will look for us and if they don't find us in the pack house, they will go crazy.

"I guess it's better to enjoy it than regret it later" Adriana walked by and set the furry rug on the grass and pulled out the stuff we brought in the basket. We all settled on the rug and had a cup of coffee in our hand.

“Last time the picnic was gloomy. All the time went with the topic of war. What we originally planned was not executed at the end” Savannah started.

“We thought we would have a little space with them. But hell it turned out more like a pack meeting” Adriana rolled her eyes. “I couldn’t wait for this Demon to rot in hell. This bastard is not letting anyone to live peacefully”

“His action reminds me of Avan,” Tanea said. She sipped her coffee. “That man was a crazy bastard. Even though he is dead, his deeds are too huge to forget. Demon is like just like him – cruel, weasel, whoreson and the list is fucking on going”

“He is a total SOB,” Savannah added. “No matter how much you curse him, it will never end”

“True, This Hell Hound has been trying to trick us all these years. But this time, I guess it will be over for once and all. I couldn’t stand this pack anymore” Adriana shook her head, “this Demon is raising scoundrels in his pack. All the members of Hell Hound Pack are blood thirsty. They are no werewolves but blood sucking beats. That Demon even killed his own mate to get himself free from any bond”

“What the hell? He killed his own mate?” Tanea frowned with confusion.

“I can’t believe my ears? So it’s true? He killed his own mate?” Savannah looked shocked.

“There are people who don’t like to have weakness and I guess Demon is one of them” I said and Adriana nodded in agreement.

“I can understand his love for power yet I couldn’t expect him to kill his mate to remove his weak point?” Savannah rolled her eyes.

“Having a mate is not having a weak point” Tanea shook her head. “mates are meant for power, strength and courage. How could he treat it like nothing?”

“As I said, he is a bastard,” Adriana replied.

“Nah, he is an asshole” Tanea gritted her teeth.

No matter what name we use to call him, it will always be less in front of him. Demon though I never saw him before nor I ever knew of his existence, but hearing about him now, I feel, a kind of person like him doesn't even deserve the life he is living.

“Don't waste your breath on him. He is a rotten bug, if you go near him it will sting you with the cursed smell” I said as I took the last sip of my coffee.

“Right I really don't want to ruin my moon with his thoughts” Adriana took a deep breath then heaved a sigh trying to relax herself.

“Okay, forget about him and let's enjoy our time. We also need to train ourselves now. This war isn't about our mates only” Savannah said and we nodded in agreement. She is right, it's not about them only. We have the same contribution and we will always be ready for it.

For the rest of the day we talked about other matters and enjoyed our meal which we prepared earlier. We laughed and teased each other. When the sun set, we prepared to leave. We set all the stuff in the basket again.

“Finally, it's time to leave now” Tanea said and she shoved the water bottles in the basket.

“It will be dark after sometime. I guess it will be better if we leave now. It's not safe to stay outside the mansion at night” Adriana looked at the sky and suggested.

“Yeah, I am done. Let's go” Tanea said and she picked the basket she arranged.

I folded the rug and we were about to move when we heard rustling around us. We stopped on our track and looked at each other.

“What’s that? Did you hear?” Adriana whispered. We stayed close to each other as we looked around. I sniffed in the air.

“There’s an unfamiliar scent in the air,” Savannah whispered.

“Are we trapped?” Tanea asked.

“Maybe or maybe not. But one thing is clear, we need to fight” Adriana whispered to us. The rustle sound grew wider and out of nowhere few black clothed men jumped out of the bushes making us startled.

“Their numbers are huge” Savannah whispered, “looks like they are fully prepared. We have to be cautious”

“They are tricky, don’t fight without looking closely. Keep your eyes and ears open. Anything could happen” Adriana warned.

“They are not taking the initiative to attack,” Tanea said.

“Let me try first” Adriana moved, “what do you want?” She yelled at them.

One of the black clothed men raised his hand and pointed towards me. I was shocked. What the hell? They wanted me?

“What the hell?” Tanea yelled. “What do you think of yourself? You think you can come and take whoever you want?”

“Tsk, tsk, woman you talk too much” a man answered. He moved in front and looked at us.

“Kole” Adriana whispered with gasp.

Kole? Isn’t he the beta of the pack? I looked at him, that man has long shoulder length hair. He looked thin and didn’t have a perfectly shaped body like others. But Azrael always said not to underestimate the members of Hell Hound. They aren’t what they look on the surface.

“What are you doing here Kole?” Adriana asked.

“You don’t need to know Luna Adriana,” Kole smirked. His eyes traveled towards me, “I will get what I am here for”

“You really have a huge gut to step in my territory, Kole. Do you think you can return safely?” Adriana gritted her teeth.

“Whether I return safely or not, you don’t have to worry about it. At this moment, I really don’t think you have the upper hand to show your dominance” Kole laughed, “do you think just because you are Luna, I will be scared of it?”

“If you think you can do whatever you want and I will stand at the side to watch it, then you need to double check. You will never understand the power of mates. If you had one, then maybe but since you are mateless, you will stay oblivious to it” Adriana said while Kole’s expression changed instantly.

“Shut up, who gave you the guts to say that?” Kole shouted, almost growling in anger.

“I am the Luna of this territory, do you think I need your permission to tell the truth? Do you know why you are like this now? Because your Alpha is cruel. He wants his members to be the puppet of his hand and surprisingly you all become like that. A clown jumping around whenever its master wants” Adriana’s voice was hard and stoic.

Kole seemed too angry. Her words really ignited the fire and angered him to the point of losing his sanity.

“Careful, he is going to take charge” as soon as I said, Kole roared out.

“Fuck it. Attack”

The peaceful environment shifted into the battlefield in a blink of an eye.

Chapter 50 – Call For The Fight

REESE'S POV

The fight was severe. Most of the Hell Hound members shifted into their black wolf form and attacked us. We were standing in the middle where the enemies surrounded us with those piercing glares. Those black wolves jumped on us with an open mouth. Adriana kicked the one in front of her and quickly shifted in her wolf form. She is beautiful with her lavender shade, it looks majestic, royal and unique. Tanea and Savannah did the same. They shifted quickly to block the attack.

“You girls think you can fight back?” Kole laughed suddenly. His expression was the epitome of insanity as he glared at us. We kept fighting, kicking all those bastards attacking us. I kicked the wolf and jumped on him. He tried to bite me but I punched its face.

Adriana growled at Kole, like she was talking with him. Kole could understand what she said and his expression changed again.

“No matter how much you try to put yourself in the strong list, you can't change today's destiny Luna” Kole yelled. “You Silver Shine is doomed to become the destroyed pack. And once that happens, the whole wolf clan will know who has the real power” Kole snapped and jumped on Adriana attacking her.

“I need to help Adriana” I yelled. Savannah turned to me and nodded. She used herself to block the attack of the enemies and started to fight with them. I took the chance and ran towards Adriana who was tackled on the ground by Kole. Though Adriana is Luna, Beta and Alpha are stronger. It's not like he could kill Adriana, but dealing with him was hard for her. And she is also our Luna, it's my duty to protect her.

Kole grabbed Adriana's neck with a smirk. She tried to free herself but couldn't, which made him laugh, "what happened? Is this what you got as a Luna? Too bad, your Alpha doesn't even know you are being pulled into this position. Poor Alpha must be waiting for you. Tell me shall I wring your pretty neck and give it to your mate for him to be surprised? Or shall I take you to Demon so that he can enjoy this body as he pleased"

My blood boiled at his word. I lifted myself and jumped on him "you bastard, let her go". My action was so sudden that Kole was startled and left Adriana before we rolled on the ground. Adriana quickly got up and shook her body.

"How dare you utter such nonsense with your filthy mouth?" I snapped and kicked him away. Kole rolled on the ground and groaned. I took the chance of his weakness and kicked his balls hard. "you jerk think you got the upper hand because you are the beta? Just like Demon, you are nothing but a dastard, a born rotter who only knows how to use dicks and mouth" I kicked him again making him groan in pain. He clutched his manhood as he growled. Of course after two kicks in his weak zone, no matter how strong he is he wouldn't be able to endure it.

"We need to leave," Adriana growled. We nodded and shoved the other wolves and took our run out of the area.

"We need to reach the pack house as fast as possible. Their numbers are huge, we couldn't defeat them all" Savannah said as we ran.

"Hurry, hurry" Tanea growled. I turned to look back and found they were chasing us. The pack house was a little further from the lake house, and if they kept chasing us like this, I don't think we would be able to make it.

"Run, I will distract them" I said and they turned to look at me.

"Don't be stupid Reese" Adriana snapped. She growled and glared at me.

“You can’t do that. We need to run together” Tanea said. Though they are in wolf form I can understand their thoughts.

“We can’t make it like this, we need to distract them. They must be returning back, and if they are here those Hell Hound won’t be able to do anything. We need to take this chance. Just return fast to save me” I said with a nod. I turned around but Adriana jumped in front of me.

“Don’t be stupid Reese. We all know what will happen if you get captured in their den. They are beasts, they will eat you alive. And it’s not only about you, it’s also about John. Can you afford to hurt him again?”

My heart jumped as I thought of him. If anything happens, I don’t want to imagine what he would do. I closed my eyes and heaved a sigh. Moon Goddess, this is so hard. Opening my eyes I nodded.

“Let’s go” Adriana gave a nod and we turned around running towards the pack house. But before I could go further I felt something sting on my back. The pain shoots in my nerves and my legs become weak. I fell on the ground unable to move.

“Reese” Savannah turned to look at me.

“Oh no, they are here” Tanea looked forward.

“My, my, what a sight!” I heard Kole’s annoying laugh. I can feel his presence near me.

Adriana tried to walk forward but I felt Kole pulling me up. He held my neck with a laugh.

“Just step forward and I will wring her neck” he squeezed my neck making me close my eyes in pain. Kole laughed again, “what happened Luna? Are you scared?”

“Let her go Kole or you will face wrath” Adriana said.

“Oh, I am so scared” Kole faked his tone. “Humph, I will take revenge for my brother. If you want to save her then send that bastard John to me. Ask him to rescue his mate on his own. If he can’t then tell him to think he never had a mate”

“You bastard,” Tanea growled.

“Keep your curses to yourself. I have gotten what I came for. I will see just how much power your beta has” Kole laughed and dragged me with him. Savannah, Tanea and Adriana looked helpless as they gazed at me. Before their sight disappeared fully I uttered ‘I am sorry’ to them. I felt my mind was foggy and heavy. Suddenly I heard a loud howl before everything started to spin and black space consumed me wholly.

JOHN’S POV

“Okay, it’s done” Cassius said and the training finally stopped. “Thank you everyone for this hard training. Today is the final conclusion and I trust your ability. Now no matter how powerful and strong our enemies are, they are doomed to die in our hands” he raised his fist in the air which made the whole trainers do the same.

“In the name of Silver Shine” Cassius shouted.

“In the name of Silver Shine” the pack members shouted along with him.

“Take a rest, heal your body and prepare yourselves” Cassius ordered and turned around to face us. The crown started to disappear and it’s already dark.

“We are late today” Hardwick looked at the sky.

“Today is the last day, of course it will be late. After such hard training, finally we could achieve what we were looking for” Cassius replied.

“Fuck, I am so tired” Devak stretched his arm. “I need a good shower then good meal”

“Everyone is tired, since our training is done, I guess we could proceed for the next level”

I looked at Cassius, “are you pointing to the battle?”

He nodded, “we couldn’t wait for them to attack. We need to take the first steps and kill them all. The more Demon lives, he will make others’ lives hell. This time I need to finish him once and for all. I couldn’t wait to lay my hands on him and strangle him till I snap his head off his shoulder”

“You will get the chance, Cassius. And I believe that day won’t be far anymore” Hardwick patted his shoulder.

“Let’s go back, I can’t wait to meet my mate, ” Devak said and we nodded. It has been days since I could peacefully spend some time with Reese. Now that the training is over, I can finally have her fully. As we were about to walk we heard a loud howl.

Cassius jumped in shock “ADRIANA?” he almost yelled.

“What’s happening?” Hardwick frowned.

“Adriana” Cassius called out anxiously and ran towards the forest where the sound was coming.

“Let’s follow him,” Devak said and we all ran after him. The howl sounded again and it felt like crying for help. Cassius increased his speed moving towards the sound. As we ran we saw three silhouettes running towards our direction. Coming closer, we saw Adriana with Tanea and Savannah.

“Peaches” Cassius pulled her in his arms, “fuck, I thought something happened to you my love. Thanks Moon Goddess, you are fine”

Hardwick and Devak did the same while I raked my eyes over the area but couldn't find her. She always stays with them so why is she not here today? I heard Cassius ask.

"Peaches what happened? Why are you crying?"

"Cassius, I couldn't save Reese from them," Adriana cried.

My heart jumped in shock as I heard her "what do you mean by you can't save her Luna?"

"We were in the lake house, when suddenly Kole attacked us. We escaped from the fight because they were huge in numbers. But before we could reach the pack house, Kole tricked Reese and took her with him. He said if we want Reese to be safe, then send John to him" Adriana explained.

My fist clenched as I gritted my teeth in anger. That bastard. Does he think he can get my mate like that? How dare he touch her? I let out a loud growl. My chest was feeling like it was burning in fire. Kael was trying to take over in anger.

"That bastard" I growled, "He had crossed all the limits. I will fucking kill him for touching my mate. Kole you are calling your death now. I will see how you escape this time when we met for once and all"
