Chapter 151: A monster?

"Hm?" Zhao Tian was confused as he saw the intricate designs in the box continue to glow in its purple shade.

"How to open this box?" He muttered under his lips as he swam around the box, checking if there are any buttons or shit there to open it.

"Maybe is it something that should not be opened?" He contemplated with a slight frown etched on his face.

threik But at this time, the box suddenly began to tremble and the ground shook a little, and the aquatic fishes that had once peacefully resided there hastily scattered in all directions in a state of panic.

thud In the next moment the black box split open into four separate pieces and Zhao Tian saw a pitch-red hand coming out of the box placing it on the edge of the box.

Huh? Zhao Tian was taken aback by the gigantichand popping out of the box. Ah, fuck my luck!

thud* *thud The box pieces also slowly fell off and Zhao Tian saw the abomination that he just unleashed into this world.

Standing before him was a demonic creature, its skin a deep shade of crimson and its form eerily humanoid. The grotesque contortions of its face and skin were enough to send chills down anyone's spine, instilling a sense of terror in all who laid eyes upon it.

Its piercing red eyes glanced around the surroundings and it was at a height of 160 meters. (Pic here) clank At this time, the creature took a large red axe from the ground which was sealed along with it in the box.

"GRRRRRRRAHHHHH!" With an earth-shattering roar that reverberated across the vast expanse of the ocean for several kilometers, causing ripples and tremors, the creature unleashed its fury, leaving the aquatic fishes in a state of terror.

Zhao Tian had a deep frown on his face, 'What is this creature? Surely not an Astral Beast.'

'And it is not an ancient ruin, seems like I accidentally opened up a seal and unleashed this. Well, then I'll just have to kill it then.'

'I have to ask Shenyi what it is...'

woosh Noticing that its movements are slow inside the water, the creature jumped from the ocean floor launching itself towards the surface.

Zhao Tian also followed it along. splash Pushing away the water, the creature appeared on the surface standing above the surface of the water.

"GRRRRRRGGHHHHH!" It again let out a spine-chilling scream and Zhao Ying and Chi Miya who were standing on the shore were also horrified.

"W-What is that?" Zhao Ying exclaimed in fear, her eyes dilating in shock. Chi Miya also looked at the gigantic creature standing above the ocean surface.

Both of them can see it from the shores because that thing is fucking 160 meters high.

"Look, Tian is also there."

Within the resort, Zhao Suyin's gaze fell upon the mysterious creature, causing her eyes to narrow in worry as she uttered "Tian'er" with a tinge of concern.

Hovering in front of the creature, swish With a tear in space, a beautiful woman appeared there and Zhao Tian spoke "Shenyi, information."

Xia Shenyi glanced at the creature in front of her and her eyes shook in terror "E-Eldrichfiend? What is it doing here?"

Feeling the power swirling within the creature, Xia Shenyi quickly turned to Zhao Tian "Tian, it is still weak, seems like it just got unsealed... kill it before it regains its full power."

"If you failed to do that... run." And as she was about to use her flame attack to weaken the creature swoosh grrrrr The creature emitted a low, guttural growl of pain, feeling as though every inch of its body had been relentlessly pummeled and bruised during the countless millennia it had spent trapped and confined within that ancient, dusty box.

thrish Zhao Tian began his attack quickly and conjured flames in his palms. He clasped his hands and did an arrow and bow gesture as the fire played in his hand forming a fire arrow.

swooooossh He released the arrow from his grip and it pierced through the air striking the creature. "GRRRAAAHHHHH!" The creature let out a horrifying and agonizing screech feeling its whole body being burned by the red flames.

Under the orange sky, its body continued to burn brightly, its gut-wrenching screams shaking the air. Zhao Tian didn't stop and continued his barrage of attacks.

thriish The surrounding temperature went below zero and with a snap of his finger, a large glacier made of sturdy ice formed in the air floating above the creature's head.

Its size is gigantic just like the creature and Zhao Tian gestured his hand in a downward motion.

swiish BOOM splassshhh The large glacier of ice struck the creature's body slamming it back into the ocean causing the previously calm waters to transform into a frozen landscape, as ice rapidly spread in all directions.

The ice particles scattered around the air and at this time, Zhao Tian raised his hand and a gorgeous silver spear with intricate blue patterns appeared in his hand, but in the next second it disappeared.

Chi Miya smiled happily seeing Zhao Tian completely taking control of the fight and thrashing the creature. As she turned her eyes to Zhao Ying to see her reaction, she saw her taking a video on her mobile.

"Tian'er is so cool!" Zhao Ying jumped in excitement.

eh?

Zhao Suyin chuckled to herself seeing Zhao Tian "What a bad Mom I am... I should never think he'll lose. How can my son lose?"

The creature felt its whole body being numb as it was relentlessly beaten with waves of scorching fire and bone-chilling cold one after another. swish Suddenly, in the blink of an eye, the creature materialized in mid-air, brandishing its slashing at Zhao Tian.

'Fucking fast!' Zhao Tian muttered in shock as he narrowly dodged the slash of the axe 'Even Shenyi was scared, so this shit must be from the High stars, and if it regained its full power... fuck.'

The creature also knew that Zhao Tian was the problem and swung the axe at him again. But Zhao Tian just dodged the attack once again and used his movement technique space ripple steps for short instantaneous teleportation appearing in front of the creature's face.

He pulled back his fist as he flowed his astral energy in his palm and punched right at the damn face of the demon. thoom His powerful punch snapped the creature's neck and it took three steps back before falling back into the ocean staggering.

thrasshh The creature's whole body got drenched by the seawater. A smile appeared on Zhao Tian's lips and crack suddenly, bolts of purple lightning crackled and danced across his entire body.

And as the fire flowed through the bolts of lightning, the color of the lightning changed to red and its intensity increased swirling around him in a mesmerizing glow.

Saltwater is a better conductor of electricity than normal water. thrash The bolt of red lightning was shot toward the creature as it tore through the air reaching the creature that just stood up.

And as the creature raised its axe in an attempt to cleave the lightning, the bolts of lightning split itself into two and struck the creature from both sides.

"GAAAAARRRGHHHH!" The creature let out a guttural scream as it experienced the searing pain of fire and lightning energy coursing through its body, causing its flesh to tear apart from within as its body trembled standing above the ocean water.

As the bolts of lightning continued to damage the creature, Zhao Tian was not idle. With a swift dash, he kicked the creature's face with his foot blasting it away in the ocean.

He continued to throw hands not letting the creature have any rest to regain its power back. 'How much time left?' he mused in his mind again delivering a powerful punch.

'Ah here it is...' Zhao Tian quickly backed away from the creature and maintained a good distance from the creature.

cough As the relentless beatings stopped, the creature also slowly got up trying to regain its strength. swoosh a distinct sound pierced through the silence, resonating with an electrifying crackle.

The creature raised its head and saw a silver spear falling down from the sky at breakneck speed, its speed almost tearing the space itself.

Before the creature could react and dodge the strike, BOOOOOOOOOOM

Chapter 152: Eldritchfiends?

BOOOOMMMMM An ear-piercing explosion echoed through the surroundings as the spear struck the creature and the water in that area exploded blasting away.

The impact was so powerful that it momentarily cleared the area, the ground under the sea was visible for a few seconds.

Zhao Ying and Chi Miya also backed away from the shores as the waves became ferocious because of the water blasting around the area causing turbulence.

Zhao Tian gazed at the pieces of the creature floating around in the ocean which is slowly melting away like a goo.

swish He then retracted the silver spear and it appeared in his hand. Feeling the sheer weight of the spear, Zhao Tian muttered, his hand trembling "It's still heavy."

A Divine tier spear, it is so heavy that he couldn't swing it or use it efficiently. That's why during his fight with the creature, he hurled it toward the sky using his astral energy.

And as it reached a certain height, it began to fall down and the rest is in the hands of gravity. He knew that he needed a powerful strike to one-shot the creature before it regained its power.

So with the weight of the spear and the the gravity, a divine tier spear gained enough momentum to inflict a devastating one-kill move.

He turned his head and sensed Zhao Suyin, Zhao Ying, Chi Miya, and Fei Ziyu were safe in the resort. So he thought of going back and seeing Xia Shenyi first.

Shi Yixian who was sitting in the hall, looked at Xia Shenyi walking around the hall being so anxious and worried about something.

"What happened? What happened?" Xia Shenyi kept muttering, her heart palpating in nervousness, worried about Zhao Tian.

swish At this time, Zhao Tian appeared in the hall, and seeing him, Xia Shenyi quickly hurried toward him hugging him in her arms "Tian..." she muttered in relief.

Seeing that she was worried, Zhao Tian hugged her back gently patting her head. Shi Yixian also stood up from her seat "My Liege."

Zhao Tian gestured his hand telling her to sit down and Shi Yixian sat back on her seat. A little later, Xia Shenyi slowly withdrew her face from his neck, letting out a gentle sigh from her lips.

Zhao Tian was kinda surprised as this was the first time Xia Shenyi worried this much, even when he came back after fighting Shi Yixian, it was Zhao Ying who was mostly worried but not Xia Shenyi.

Xia Shenyi is a woman from High Stars and she knows how the cultivation world works so she was not worried when she saw him in the blood bath. But today she is actually scared of him fighting that creature.

Zhao Tian moved and sat on the couch placing Xia Shenyi on his lap. "Shenyi, what is that creature?"

Xia Shenyi leaned on his shoulder and muttered "They are called, Eldritchfiend."

Shi Yixian narrowed her eyes upon hearing the name and Xia Shenyi continued "They are a type of species that causes chaos in the High Stars. If those creatures entered a high star they are doomed."

"The one you fought is one of them from the low group of Eldritchfiends. They are atrocious and powerful beings. Even people in High Stars struggle to fight that thing... so how could you?"

Zhao Tian spoke "You never told me about these creatures."

"I didn't expect I would see one in the Middle star... so I thought you don't need to know about it now." Xia Shenyi replied.

Zhao Tian turned to Shi Yixian and saw her pondering something with frowned eyebrows "Yixian, what happened?"

Shi Yixian spoke "I remember killing many of these Eldritchfiends in the past with my sword and they are the toughest enemies I have fought in my life."

Zhao Tian asked, "Are they really that powerful?"

Shi Yixian spoke "Yea, My Liege. They are so powerful that 65% of Astral Realm belongs to Eldritchfiends and only 35% belongs to cultivators."

Wha- Zhao Tian was shocked to hear this, even the cultivators from Astral Realm couldn't fight these Eldritchfiends?

This left him quite confused "How can they be that powerful?"

Shi Yixian spoke clearing his doubts "My Liege, physically they are more powerful than cultivators and they have a unique elemental energy only for them- Darkness."

Hm? "A Darkness elemental that only they could harness?" Zhao Tian muttered under his lips.

"There are Evil cultivators who can use Evil and Dark energy, is it the same as them?" Zhao Tian asked.

Shi Yixian shook her head "No Liege, they are not the same... this one is completely different."

"The energy the evil and dark cultivators use is from negative emotions and malicious intent. It embodies corruption and twisted intentions."

"But this darkness element is different, they are a form of chaos and the elemental opposite of light. My Liege, If you want to fight against the Eldritchfirnds efficiently, it is better to use light elemental."

"The light energy burns them and inflicts more damage than other elemental attacks and cultivation technique attacks."

Zhao Tian gave a nod understanding a bit about these Eldritchfiends and at this time, Zhao Tian noticed that Xia Shenyi's been silent for a while and was just hugging his neck while burying her face in his neck.

"Shenyi?" He called her softly but Xia Shenyi didn't move from her position and stayed silently. At this time, he felt droplets of water near his neck.

He turned to Shi Yixian "Yixian, you can leave." Shi Yixian ever respectful and obedient stood up "Yes, My Liege." with a bow she left the hall.

After she left, Zhao Tian gently grabbed Xia Shenyi's chin and raised her face up "What happened Shenyi?" he asked in concern looking at the tears streaming down her face.

Zhao Tian raised his hand gently wiping away the tears and Xia Shenyi spoke "I lost my Mom because of the Eldritchfiend attack and as I remembered her, I couldn't...I-I.. and you were also attacked by Eldritchfiend...sob sob I was sacred I would lose you too."

Only then Zhao Tian did realize that he never asked Xia Shenyi about her past. Xia Shenyi again buried her face on his neck and Zhao Tian softly patted her head "Now I am here, right? Don't worry."

"En."

smooch He gently pressed his lips against her forehead, leaving a tender and affectionate mark.

Chapter 153: A confrontation!

In a room-

"Hm..." A sweet mutter left a woman's lips as she placed the teacup on the table, a hint of amusement dancing in her cold blonde eyes as she gazed at the old man sitting opposite him on the table.

The Ombudsman sighed heavily, "He is really powerful despite his age and cultivation, Lady Hua. He beat me like that not even seeing that I am an old man."

Yu Hua chuckled in her heart and spoke in a calm tone "The last time, I saw him... I was sure he was in the 6th level of Emperor Astral Stage, how did he beat you?"

"Has your bones gone so old that cultivators a whole stage below you are beating you now?"

The Ombudsman could only smile dryly "He has terrific combat prowess and has affinity over two powerful elements, fire, and ice."

Yu Hua slightly frowned her eyebrows 'That guy never told me about these things. I went to him to warn about the Stormweaver Sect's revenge.'

'But he has beaten Ombudsman provoking the government and has beaten Orlando Williams provoking Lycan Syndicate. He was also about to kill a minister, almost creating a world war.'

She again took a sip of the tea 'And he also had a black sword which is above Heaven grade. I am sure it's not Epic or Mythic grade... Is that Ethereal grade?'

'Sister Freya had an Ethereal-grade weapon. His weapon must be from the Ancient Ruins, there is no way he has a connection with people from the High Stars.'

Her lips twitched in frustration 'And because of this guy, Now I am here without my disguise and I have to confront those bastards later.' she muttered in her mind glancing at the ring on her finger.

The Ombudsman who was sitting spoke in an apologetic tone "I am sorry, Lady Hua. I know I can't speak alone with those guys... so I called you."

"I am very grateful that you came for me and this Government's aid." he stood up from his chair, bowing his head.

Yu Hua just took another sip of her tea "It's not your fault in the first place. It's because of Tian and I only came because his name was added to this problem. I don't really care about you or this government."

The Ombudsman smiled wryly looking at the woman in her armor. knock knock At this time, a knock was heard on the room's door.

"What happened?" The Ombudsman asked.

"The representatives from the West Nation and minister of Williams Royal family have arrived, Lord Ombudsman."

"I will be there." The ombudsman replied and glanced at Yu Hua. Yu Hua gave a nod and stood up from her seat.

tap tap As Yu Hua made her way down the hallway, the Ombudsman walked behind her like her servant. The sight caused quite a stir among the higher government officials who happened to be passing by, their jaws dropping in disbelief seeing their Lord Ombudsman humbly walking behind a woman.

They soon arrived in front of a door, and a government official wearing a black suit opened the door for her.

As she entered her eyes glanced at the five people who were on ones side of the conference table. One of them is the Minister from the Williams Royal family and the others are representatives from West Nations.

There are even more people on the other side, the nation's President, the other higher officials in the government, and the military officials.

As Yu Hua and the Ombudsman entered, the officials from this nation's government stood up while the people from West Nations had a frown on their faces.

The president smiled and bowed his head respectfully.

Yu Hua gave a nod and took her seat. The Ombudsman also took his seat beside the President as they all settled down.

Jack Daniel who was the minister of the Williams Royal Family spoke first "So, Mr.President, what are you gonna say to this?"

"Our Prince, Orlando Williams came to your Nation for vacation. Our Young Lord didn't cause any commotion and was simply enjoying his time in the resort he bought."

"But this guy..." Jack Daniel spoke as he took a picture of a handsome white-haired young man with blue eyes.

Hm? Yu Hua squinted her eyes, how did they get his picture? Wait, it's not a picture. It's a drawing. Seems like they drew Zhao Tian with the help of Orlando Williams describing the facial features.

"He barged into the resort disturbing our Young Lord's peaceful moment. He killed some of our guards."

"He injured our Young Lord and almost killed our Minister. So, Mr. President... are you provoking us for a war?"

Huh? The President and the other officials were startled to hear this. The President spoke "War? We never intended to have war with the Western nations in the first place."

"Waging a war just because a citizen of ours provoked your Prince is not fair at all." Another one voiced.

Jack Daniel spoke, "He did not just provoke, he killed our people."

At this time, the Ombudsman spoke, "Don't forget you are the one who created the mess first by transporting your serum through our Nation. And because of that, a lot of destruction happened and the existence of cultivators was almost discovered by normal people."

(A/n: I almost wrote serum as semen here, lmao)

Jack Daniel smirked "It is true that we are the ones who transported the serum via this nation, but the one who stole it and created chaos is from your country. So we can't do anything about it."

The Ombudsman's heart fumed with anger "But you deliberately didn't put any protection around your vehicle and baited Hun Chen to steal them."

Jack Daniel replied keeping his smirk "We deliberately didn't put any protection because we thought putting high protection would attract attention and we simply transported it through semi-truck."

"But this Hun Chen from your nation somehow found that and stole it."

The Ombudsman narrowed his eyes in anger but he couldn't do anything here. Meanwhile, Yu Hua just sat there silently with a stoic face listening to the yappings.

Looking at all the officials being silent, Jack Daniel spoke "So here we bring our proposition. How about this?"

"You hand over that cultivator from your country to us and we won't wage war on this nation."

Chapter 154: War is inevitable!

"You hand over that cultivator from your country to us and we won't wage war on this nation."

Huh? The president's eyes widened in surprise as he processed the proposition, causing a ripple of astonishment to sweep through the room.

The other officials present glanced at each other, their expressions betraying a mix of curiosity and contemplation.

How can they sacrifice a cultivator from their country like that?

But again thinking about it, they felt like it was a good deal. Because if only that cultivator is sacrificed the other people in the nation can survive. In the event of a war, regardless of the outcome, there would surely be casualties and they wanted to avoid that at any cost.

"We can't hand over him." At this time, Yu Hua, who had been silent the entire time, spoke.

Huh? Confused by the sudden interruption, all eyes in the room shifted towards Yu Hua and Jack Daniel frowned his brows "Woman, I don't know who you are. You better stay silent here."

The old man stood up from his seat and shouted angrily "You, do you know who she is? She is here as the representative of Zhenzhu, the Battle Maiden Lady Yu Hua herself."

Wha- The people from the Western nations were shocked to the core hearing this name and their bodies shuddered.

Who doesn't know about Yu Hua, the ruthless Battle Maiden and one of the strongest cultivators on the planet? Even in the past, she has killed many people from their Lycan Syndicate.

Jack Daniel's heart palpated in fear as he didn't expect the Battle Maide would be here "W-What do you mean by you can't hand over him?" he stammered, his voice trembling.

"Is it okay for you? We would wage war on this country and this country is doomed to fall under the attack of the Western nations."

Yu Hua spoke keeping her calm voice "I don't care about the president or the country, but you can't have that cultivator."

The government officials were taken aback by her bold declaration because she was prioritizing that cultivator over them and the country.

Jack Daniel narrowed his eyes as he gazed at Yu Hua "So you are really calling for a war, huh?"

Yu Hua spoke "If you think so, then so be it. Just try to wage war against this country and you will know what will happen."

Jake Daniel gritted his teeth in frustration, he knew very well what she was trying to say. If she is here, it indirectly means that the Zhenhzu will be with this nation's government if they wage war.

And when the strongest organization is with the government, how can they wage war confidentially? "If he is that important to you, we know many ways we can get our job done by killing him."

swiisshh A surge of astral energy erupted from Yu Hua's body and the whole room shook for a second "A scratch on him, I'll have your head." she uttered coldly, her eyes narrowing.

Eh? But suddenly she realized 'Why am I getting so angry on his behalf?'

The government officials sitting in their seats were forcefully pushed back because of the intense aura and felt fear creeping into their hearts under coercion.

Jack Daniel stood up from his seat, his heart boiling in anger "Threatening us in this conference room? Are you indirectly calling us for war?"

Maintaining her cold voice, Yu Hua spoke "You dumbass, That's what I am saying from the start, if you dare... you can wage war."

baam Jack Daniel slammed his hand on the desk and cracks appeared on the desk. He took a brief glance at the President and again glanced at Yu Hua "You are gonna lose your country just because of that one guy."

Jack Daniel spoke and left the room. As he left, the others also stood up to leave the room.

What the? The President was shocked and quickly stood up trying to call him back "Mr. Jack Daniel."

"Mr. President." The Ombudsman called him and the President turned his head towards him. "Lord Ombudsman?"

The old man spoke "You don't have to go and beg him. Our country is not that weak in front of the Western nations for us to beg like this."

"Since they are playing this game, we have no other choice but to join."

One of the military officials spoke "But war is not a simple game. It will decline our Nation's economy, many people will die and many families will be destroyed because of this mindless war."

tap Yu Hua left the room and one of them spoke "All because of that single guy. If only we had handed him over, there would be no war."

"Yeah, now we all gotta suffer because of him."

"First, who is this guy? We gotta investid-"

"No!" The Ombudsman raised his voice stopping them from further discussing. Everyone turned their gaze towards him "Lord Ombudsman?"

The old man's eyes darkened as he spoke "Don't try to investigate about him. I am speaking from personal experience."

Huh? The officials were confused hearing this "What do you mean by personal experience, Lord Ombudsman? Have you met him?"

Huh? Met him? Almost killed by him. But how can he say as the esteemed Lord Ombudsman, that he got beaten by a young man?

He lightly coughed, "ahem" He is the one who actually cleared the Emperor level threat, Hun Chen."

"And since Lady Yu Hua is prioritizing him this much... maybe we should just stay silent without prying information about him."

At night-

In the luxurious resort, Zhao Tian is sitting alone in his room with a large book in front of him on the table. He had a frown on his face, as he inscribed another rune on the blank paper near him.

creek At this time, Zhao Suyin came inside his room and saw him reading rune scriptures. Zhao Tian turned his eyes at her and smiled "Mom..."

She walked and sat beside him on another chair. With a gentle smile, she raised her hand ruffling his soft white hair "Tian'er it is past midnight, you are still awake? It is bad for your health."

Hearing this, Zhao Tian couldn't help but chuckle "Mom, sometimes you are forgetting that I am a cultivator."

Zhao Suyin sulked her lips "Cultivator or not, I am worried about my son's health."

She then glanced at the large book and the rune inscribed on the white paper beside that book. "It's been years since I saw you studying like this."

Zhao Tian just chuckled and continued doing his research. Zhao Suyin stood up from the chair and moved, lying on the bed "I'll wait here until you finish your work."

A few more minutes passed, and Zhao Tian tossed the crumpled paper ball in his hand toward the paper on the table. As the ball inched near the paper, the rune engraved in it suddenly glowed and swish swish Zhao Tian turned to look at another piece of paper, and the rune engraved on it glowed. swish The paper ball came out of it.

Seeing this, a smile appeared on Zhao Tian's face 'It's finally done.' he muttered in his mind leaning back on the chair, stretching his muscles.

'Now all I gotta do is create the rings and I also have to go to Zhenzhu.'

As he turned his head, he saw his Mother looking at him with a soft smile "Is it finished, Tian'er?" she didn't know what he was doing, she just knew he was researching something.

Zhao Tian stood up from the chair and lay beside her on the bed "Yeah, it's done."

Zhao Suyin snuggled close to him and kissed his lips, "Very well..."

Zhao Tian also reciprocated the kiss enjoying the soft texture of her lips over his lips. A little later, she retracted the kiss and cuddled, placing her head on his chest and Zhao Tian hugged her tightly.

After a few more minutes, Zhao Ying who was still quite sleepy walked towards Zhao Tian's room "Has Tian'er finished his work? yawm"

Upon opening the door, she was met with the sight of Zhao Tian embracing Zhao Suyin tenderly in his arms as they lay peacefully asleep.

Seeing this, a smile bloomed on Zhao Ying's face and she also climbed up on the bed lying on other side of the bed.

She moved, hugging him from the back "Tian'er..."

Chapter 155: Storage rings?

"Haah.." Feeling the warm touch of the hot water on his body, Zhao Tian let out a soft sigh, Xia Shenyi who was sitting between his legs in the Hot springs had a frown on her face looking at the paper in her hand.

Looking at the intricate runes, Xia Shenyi muttered "Tian, this is so complicated. I can't even understand anything. I am really surprised that you did this after you learned runes just for some days."

Zhao Tian smiled and glanced at another woman who was sitting beside them in the Hot Springs. Feeling his gaze, a faint blush adorned Shi Yixian's cheek and she could feel his burning gaze on her breasts.

"My Liege..." a soft mutter escaped her lips as she timidly raised her hands covering the boobs filled with red scars.

Zhao Tian just chuckled and Xia Shenyi asked curiously "What else have you added to this rune along with the storage ring, Tian."

Zhao Tian hugged her from behind softly groping her boobs "After creating the ring, you will see it yourself."

"Hmm." Xia Shenyi mused and moved the paper near Zhao Tian's hand and he stored it in his storage ring.

"Hnngh~!" Softly fondling her boobs, Zhao Tian gazed at Shi Yixian who couldn't help but sneak glances at them from the corner of her eyes.

"Yixian." Shi Yixian was startled and the blush on her face deepened. "My Liege?" she replied lowering her head in embarrassment.

"Yixian, I want you to cut some Divine Astral Stones I have." Zhao Tian spoke and Shi Yixian gave a nod "Will be done, My Liege."

Xia Shenyi in his arms turned around a little confused "You are cutting the stones to create the rings?"

Zhao Tian nodded his head "Yeah, it is costlier than a diamond and it will look good on my women's finger."

"Certainly." Xia Shenyi nodded her head in understanding and Zhao Tian leaned in biting her ear. "Hahaha!" Xia Shenyi chuckled feeling his small bites on her ear and raised her hand caressing his cheek. "Mngh~ Tian..."

Meanwhile, Shi Yixian watching Zhao Tian playing with Xia Shenyi's boobs she turned her head. As she looked at her boobs marred with red scars, a pang of discomfort washed over her.

After getting these scars, she was not concerned as she didn't care much about her appearance in the first place. But now she couldn't deny the strange emotions stirring in her heart.

She doesn't know why, but she doesn't like the scars on her body. She feels ashamed to show this body in front of Her Liege.

As she glimpsed at the fair skin of Xia Shenyi, her eyes trembled a twinge of envy crept into her heart. She also wants that kind of skin...

As her mind processed to remember how she got those scars, a series of screams and blood splashing echoed in her mind.

The haunting memories played out like a movie in her head, each scene more vivid and terrifying than the last. The sounds of anguish and the sight of crimson blood pooling around her feet seemed to be etched permanently in her mind.

She closed her eyes trying hard to remember her memories of the past and at that time, the silhouette of a man floating in the sky appeared in her mind, his body surrounded by blue flames.

As she remembered the figure, anger seeped through her body as she gritted her teeth and finally, a name left her lips "Jiu Yang."

slash Shi Yixian skillfully sliced the divine astral stone into four separate pieces with a swift slash and Zhao Tian raised his hand as the four pieces floated near him.

"These are fine for now." Zhao Tian muttered and glanced at Xia Shenyi "Shenyi bring the artifact-creating tools with you."

"En."

Two more days passed, as Zhao Tian enjoyed his time creating the rings and spending time with his women in the resort.

After two days, the private jet arrived and they again flew back to their home.

Sitting on the lap of Zhao Tian, Zhao Ying snuggled on him while Chi Miya was leaning on his shoulder relishing in his presence and comfort.

Zhao Ying planted a soft kiss on his neck, while Zhao Tian lovingly stroked her head "I have a present for both of you."

"Present?" x2 Zhao Ying and Chi Miya raised their heads looking at Zhao Tian eagerly and quite excited in their hearts.

With a chuckle, "Give me your hands." Zhao Tian said showing his palms.

Zhao Ying and Chi Miya, each placed their hand on his palms. Tenderly, he gently lifted their hands towards his lips, caressing the back of their palms with a delicate kiss. smooch

Chi Miya was embarrassed by the romantic gesture while Zhao Ying chuckled teasingly "Suddenly you got so romantic, Little brother?" she remarked playfully, her eyes gleaming with laughter.

Zhao Tian just smiled, swish a pair of rings appeared in Zhao Tian's hand and he wore it in their left hand's ring finger.

Huh? Both Zhao Ying and Chi Miya were completely surprised when they saw the stunning, sparkling ring on their fingers. "Tian'er, this ring is absolutely gorgeous," they exclaimed in awe.

Chi Miya's eyes quivered in intense emotions as she saw the ring. is this a... proposal?

"Move..." Chi Miya pushed Zhao Ying who was on Zhao Tian's lap causing her to fall down from the sofa thud "S-Sister Miya?"

Chi Miya sat on Zhao Tian's lap, her arms wrapping around his neck as she nodded with tender eyes "Of course, I will marry you, Tian." As her words lingered in the air, she leaned in towards him, delicately planting a kiss on his lips.

Eh? Marry? Zhao Tian chuckled in his heart and kissed her back. At this time, Zhao Ying stood up from the ground and smiled "I will also marry, Tian'er."

A while later, Chi Miya gently pulled back her lips, her eyes brimming overflowing with affection. Zhao Ying also sat beside Zhao Tian on the couch.

Chi Miya again took a glance at the ring and wondered in awe "The ring looks so beautiful."

Zhao Tian spoke, "The ring I just gave you is a storage ring and..."

"Storage ring? Like the one you have, Tian'er?" Zhao Ying exclaimed in surprise and Zhao Tian gave a nod "Yeah."

Chi Miya was astonished to hear this "T-Then, Tian... like you, we can also add things in this ring?"

Zhao Tian smiled faintly "Yeah, you can."

Zhao Ying giggled "Then I can store all my clothes in this ring and wear them."

Zhao Tian couldn't help but chuckle "En, you can use it as a wardrobe."

"And there is another important usage. Try flowing your astral energy into the ring." Zhao Tian said.

Zhao Ying and Chi Miya looked at each other before flowing their astral energy through the ring on their finger and swoosh

As Zhao Ying and Chi Miya blinked their eyes they were in a grass field surrounded by beautiful scenery and they instantly recognized the place.

"We are inside the artifact?" Zhao Ying muttered in disbelief and Chi Miya looked down at the complicated runes drawn on the floor below them.

swish At this time, Zhao Tian appeared behind them, casually draping his hands over their shoulders "So, how is it?"

Zhao Ying turned her head with a big smile on her face "This is great, Tian'er. How?" she exclaimed in shock. Now they don't need Zhao Tian every time to enter and exit the artifact.

Even if Zhao Tian is somewhere else, they can still enter the artifact and talk with Zhao Tian. They can also cultivate whenever they want.

At this time, Xia Shenyi also came there with a smile on her face "Seems like Tian has already given you the ring..." she muttered a ring glowing on her finger.

Chi Miya nodded her head "Yes, Sister Shenyi... but where did you get these rings suddenly?"

Xia Shenyi shook her head with a giggle "Get these? No, No... Zhao Tian studied these runes for several days and finally formulated the runes. And the rings are handmade by Tian; you can even see your name on the back."

"T-Tian'er, you created this?"

"I'll treasure this with my life."

"E-Eh?" Standing in the kitchen, Zhao Suyin was dumbfounded looking at the exquisite ring on her finger.

"You are gonna marry me, Tian'er? Well, I don't mind... I will give lots of kids to you..."

Eh?

Chapter 156: Going back to Zhenzhu!

smooch Zhao Tian pulled away from the kiss, a warm smile playing on his lips as he gazed affectionately at the brown haired woman who stood before him.

Mei Xiu raised her hand gently caressing his cheek "Come back soon..."

Zhao Tian smiled teasingly and reached out grabbing her boob "Of course I will come back soon for these."

"Hmph, Bad guy." Mei Xiu snorted and Zhao Tian gave a gentle squeeze on her boob eliciting a sweet moan from her lips "Hangh~~"

Her expression softened as she placed her hand over his and squeezed her boob "Just like you said, make sure to come back soon from your trip so you can give this a squeeze because I'll definitely miss you."

Zhao Tian chuckled softly and Mei Xiu tip-toed gently placing a kiss on his forehead.

As she retracted her lips, Zhao Tian spoke "Spend some time with Grandma and take good care of her."

"En."

thud Closing the door of the apartment, Zhao Tian stepped outside and at this time he felt a presence looming over in the sky.

"Hm? Why is she here?" Zhao Tian muttered under his lips before dashing into the air.

After flying in the air for a while, he arrived in front of the policewoman floating in front of him.

"Miss Cai..." Zhao Tian uttered and Cai Luo had a slight frown on her face "Let me get straight to the thing, why didn't you inform me of the commotion you have caused?"

Hearing this, Zhao Tian squinted his eyes and Cai Luo continued "You killed those people from Lycan Syndicate, has beaten Orlando Williams provoking the Royal Family, Lycan Syndicate and West Nations all at once."

"Not only that, you even beat the Ombudsman of this nation."

Zhao Tian replied "Well, I didn't find the need to say all of this to a random policewoman."

H-Huh? Cai Luo was startled hearing this. Random Policewoman? Her eyes darkened and she felt a pang of pain in her heart, hearing him calling her a stranger after all their interactions.

"A random policewoman, huh... Well, then I guess, it's my fault for speaking against the Minister of the Williams Royal family for your sake," she said turning around.

"I am leaving then." But before she could move, Zhao Tian appeared behind her gently clasping her wrist "Minister of the Royal Family? When did you talk with him?"

Cai Luo tried to break free from his grasp "Let me go, you don't have to talk to a random woman."

But Zhao Tian didn't let his grip go and Cai Luo also didn't use much force. It's as if she didn't want him to let her go.

Without knowing herself, she is slowly getting attached to him emotionally and she is yet to be aware of that.

She discreetly turned her head looking at him and a sigh escaped her lips "Let's find a place to talk."

Zhao Tian spoke "It's already evening. How about coffee?"

Cai Luo shook her head "No, I don't like coffee... I will come with you if it's tea."

"Ok, tea for you."

Sitting in a private room in a cafe, Zhao Tian raised an eyebrow "So they let a normal police into the secretive high-ranking meeting between two government people."

Cai Luo nodded "I told you, this identity is fake. The Ombudsman approached me and do you think they won't allow a Monarch Stage cultivator?"

Zhao Tian nodded his head again taking a sip of his coffee "So, they demanded me in return for peace, huh..."

Cai Luo nodded her head "Well, I rejected that proposition and they vowed to kill you. So be careful, Tian."

"This is also the reason I came to see you today. Give me your Home address and your mobile number. In case of emergency, I can call you and if I have time, I'll come and look over you sometimes, protecting you."

"Those guys from the Lycan Syndicate are really bastards they would do anything to achieve their goal. So it's better to be cautious."

Zhao Tian shook his head with a smile "I don't need your protection, as I can handle that and I'll be out of this city for a while."

Hm? "You won't be here...? Tian, you have to be careful so it's better to stay in this city so you will be under my eyes. Change the plans for leaving the city."

Zhao Tian spoke "Sorry but the plans have already been set and I am saying again. Don't worry about me."

Cai Luo raised an eyebrow seeing him being persistent "At least give me your number. I'll call you or you can call me."

After exchanging the contacts they left the cafe finishing their talk.

swoosh Zhao Tian flew through the air and he could feel the astral energy in the air getting denser and denser.

After a lengthy journey, he finally reached the edge of the forest and entered the territory of Zhenhzu. And he dashed towards the heart of Zhenhzu, the Royal Capital.

Reaching the Lunar Blossom Pavilion, he landed down. Seeing him, a surprise swept through the female disciples seeing the man in their Sect after a month.

Zhao Tian also didn't hide his presence and swoosh a beautiful woman with long pink hair landed in front of him "Ling Xin."

Ling Xin bowed her head a little with a smile on her face "Welcome back, Mr.Tian."

"Little Brother!" At this time, Ling Huang came flying in the air and directly leaped towards Zhao Tian hugging him "It's been a while, Little brother."

Ling Xin was surprised to see Ling Huang acting so intimate with him. However, Zhao Tian just had a faint smile playing on his lips as he hugged her back.

tap At this time, Ling Chen and Ling Meiyang also came there. As Zhao Tian and Ling Huang retracted the hug, "Welcome back, Senior Tian." they muttered a tinge of admiration in their voices.

"Let's go." Ling Xin gestured and they walked toward the Sectbuilding.

Ling Huang giggled "Little Brother, have you noticed? I have gotten stronger than the last time you came to visit."

Zhao Tian gently nodded "Yeah, you took any pills?"

Ling Huang hit his hand playfully "It is the pill you created Little Brother. You created two pills so I gave one to Chao'er and I took another."

"But my cultivation increased much that thought."

Chapter 157: Meeting the Queen!

In the softly illuminated chamber, Freya Arianwen Everglade still as ever continued floating in mid-air doing her cultivation.

Ning Xue had a worried expression on her face as she asked, "Sister Freya, is one flower really enough for you?"

Freya Everglade gave a reassuring nod "It is okay, Xue'er... and if we wanted we can just create a new one." she spoke playfully winking her eyes.

"So anything for me to tell?" Freya Everglade asked curiously.

Ning Xue gave a soft nod "The competition that is held every 20 years between the Sects is about to start."

"Oh, I see..." Freya Everglade mused under her lips and asked "Where is Hua'er? I haven't seen her in a long time."

Ning Xue shook her head wryly "She is in the Human world right now, searching for any clue to find the Ember Essence Lotus. And also watching over some Organizations if they are having any alliance with Evil sects or Dark Sects."

Ning Xue continued with a sigh "She is also wearing the ring you gave her which can alter the face and body shape. So she must be doing well there..."

Freya Everglade, upon hearing the mention of the Evil Sect spoke "She has always been sensitive when it comes to Evil cultivators and has vowed to eradicate all of them."

Nin Xue shrugged her shoulders "Can't blame her, she lost her sister because of these Evil Cultivators in the past."

"Yeah..."

...

In the Sect's building-

"Yeah, those pills are really amazing, Little Brother. Chao'er also leveled up exponentially. and now she is sure that we can get a good place in the tournament and can keep our status as the top five sects in Zhenhzhu."

Zhao Tian nodded with a soft smile and asked "When is the tournament beginning?"

"In four days, Senior Tian." Ling Meiying answered his question.

"Still four days? Seems like I am quite early." Zhao Tian muttered.

Ling Xin smiled "No, Mr. Tian, it is perfect. There will be some celebration festivals before the tournament, so you came at the right time."

"And there will be also a Sects Meeting today conducted in the Royal Hall we must need to attend."

Zhao Tian got curious "A Sects meeting?"

Ling Xin nodded her head "En, before the start of the tournament, any new rules additions, and many other important things would be discussed during that time."

"I see, can I also join this Sects Meeting." he is just so curious to meet Queen Ning Xue.

Ling Xue tilted her head "Yeah, you can join, Mr.Tian. You can come with me to the Royal Palace and join the Sects meeting."

"Then, let's go when it's time."

tap Ling Xin and Zhao Tian entered the Royal Palace and walked through the Royal hallways. Ling Xin leaned near him muttering "Mr.Tian, there won't be a seat available for you to sit inside the Royal hall."

"So it is better if you stood beside me or you can stand along with the cultivators from other sects."

Zhao Tian raised an eyebrow "Why is that?"

Ling Xin spoke clearing his doubts "Only the Sect Masters and the Royal Ministers are allowed to sit in front of Her Majesty, the Queen's presence."

Zhao Tian smiled faintly "This is making me more and more curious to meet the Queen, Ning Xue."

Ling Xin giggled upon hearing this "Oh my, she's absolutely stunning! You will definitely be surprised when you see her." Zhao Tian gave a faint nod and both of them gracefully made their way into the grand and lavish Royal hall.

As they came early, there were not many people here. Some of them recognized Ling Xin and bowed, showing their respect to one of the top Sects.

Zhao Tian raised his gaze looking at the Grand throne at the front. Ling Xin made her way over and took a seat on one of the smaller thrones positioned below the platform of the Grand Throne.

Zhao Tian moved to the sides joining the other cultivators. The other cultivators also looked at him in disbelief seeing his strikingly handsome appearance, impeccable attire, and the aura of elegance that seemed to radiate from him.

They exchanged glances of astonishment, clearly impressed by the newcomer's presence among them.

Even among the crowd of cultivators, he stood out leaving the people to take subtle glances at his handsome face.

Hm? At this time, Zhao Tian felt a powerful presence approaching the Grand Royal Hall. Soon enough, a group of cultivators wearing black robes entered the Hall and they were none other than the Stormweaver Sect.

His frown deepened looking at the Old man sitting on the small throne with a cold look on his face 'He sure is strong. Almost 8th level of Monarch Astral Stage,'

One after another, many people came to the Royal Hall and the top Five sects were already there.

Soon, the thrones are also filled with Royal Ministers, and the side space is filled with cultivators from Smaller sects.

tap At this time, some noises were heard and anticipation filled the air as the cultivators know they rarely get to see the Queen, and it's during events like this.

After some time had passed, an absolutely stunning lady graced the scene, her shimmering blonde hair cascading down her delicate shoulder. Her eyes, a captivating shade of gold, possessed a piercing intensity akin to that of a sharp-edged sword.

Adorned in royal attire, she concealed her face under a veil, while her entire body was covered in splendid, shimmering golden robes.

With poise and elegance, she settled herself onto her magnificent throne, her golden eyes glancing across the gathered crowd in the grandiose Royal hall.

'Urgh, it's really annoying to look at all these faces when I can just rest in my room.' she sighed in her heart.

Huh? Zhao Tian was taken aback as he laid his eyes upon the blonde-haired woman. Despite her face being partially concealed by the veil, he could still discern some features.

'She is...'

Feeling a piercing stare on her, Ning Xue turned her eyes towards the direction. There she saw a strikingly handsome young man and seeing, his snow-white hair and piercing azure eyes captivating her attention.

'He is...'

Her eyes widened in shock as they locked eyes.

How?

Chapter 158: In the bedroom!

Ning Xue and Zhao Tian locked eyes, her golden eyes gazed into his blue eyes and they could feel that both of them were visibly shocked to meet each other.

Ning Xue swiftly turned her head, unable to meet Zhao Tian's gaze as her body trembled with a flood of turbulent emotions. Similarly, Zhao Tian shifted his gaze elsewhere, his eyes narrowing in thought.

Ning Xue slowly turned her eyes to him and Zhao Tian also moved his eyes, their eyes meeting once more in an intense, unspoken connection.

Ning Xue's eyelids trembled and a soft exhale left her lips, a faint blush creeping on her cheeks.

tap Huh? Ling Xin was startled to see Zhao Tian leaving the Grand Hall. What happened? Why did he leave?

The others were also confused seeing the handsome young man walking out of the Royal Hall. The ministers frowned at his behavior as he dared to leave the Hall without the permission of the Queen.

All eyes were on Ning Xue, waiting for her to take action against the young man who had just left but she was just looking at the back of the young man who just left.

This left them quite perplexed seeing NingXue not taking any action.

Ning Xue's body twitched cough and she coughed a little. One of the ministers spoke, his voice laced with concern "Your Majesty, are you alright?"

Ning Xue raised her hand and muttered "I am alright."

She then glanced over at Ling Xin and spoke "Today, the discussions about the Tournament will be done with Ling Xin as the leader."

H-Huh? The Ministers and the Sect people were startled hearing her statement. Lang Jian, who is the Sect leader of the Stormweaver Sect asked "What happened, Your Majesty?"

Ning Xue stood up from her throne and seeing this everyone stood up in respect to her. "I just remembered an important thing I need to do, I'll be leaving. Ling Xin continues the discussions."

Ling Xin bowed her head "As you say, Your Majesty."

Looking at the retreating figure of Ning Xue, Ling Xin's eyes crescented in worry. Is it that disease again?

Meanwhile, Lang Jian has a faint smirk on his face. 'So it is true that the Queen is suffering from a disease huh.'

Ning Xue hurried back to her private chambers and entered her room. thud She fell on the bed, her cheeks flushed pink and her chest heaving up and down in response to her heightened emotions.

"W-Who is he?" a gentle mutter left her lips. The image of the handsome young man flashed across her face causing her cheeks to flush even more deeply with a rosy hue.

"Just his gaze is enough to... make my body hot like this. Haah..." she rolled on the bed rubbing her face on the quilt.

fwish Hm? But at this time, she felt a presence approaching her private quarters and she snapped out of her reverie, her eyes narrowing.

As the presence got closer, she sat on the bed, her eyes glancing at the balcony in the distance "Who is that? Dared to come here?" she spoke her voice dripping with coldness.

thud Someone sneaked in through the balcony landing inside on their knees. And as Zhao Tian raised his gaze, the coldness in Ning Xue's face instantly disappeared.

Her expression softened, turning from a cold Majesty Queen to a bashful young woman caught off guard by the presence of her crush. "W-Why are you here?" she stammered softly, her voice betraying a mix of surprise and shyness.

tap tap Zhao Tian walked near her and with his every footstep, Ning Xue's heart palpated in anxiety and she could hear her own heartbeat as it was about to explode from her chest.

Moving close to her, "Don't you know why I am here?". Zhao Tian spoke in a soft tone, placing his hand on her shoulder gently pushing her onto the bed.

puff As he climbed on top of her, Ning Xue's breathing quickened and her entire body ignited with a fervent passion at the mere touch of his hand grazing her shoulder.

"Haah!" Each touch from him seemed to stoke the flames of desire within her, sending her senses into a fever of longing and yearning.

Zhao Tian gently ran his fingers across her cheek, causing Ning Xue to surrender to the sensation of his warm touch, and overwhelmed by his touch, she closed her eyes in bliss.

Zhao Tian leaned in towards her neck, inhaling the delightful fragrance that surrounded her before gently placing a soft kiss on her skin. smooch His kiss sent shivers down her spine as she felt his warm breath against her neck.

"Hngh~~"Ning Xue opened her pink lips letting out a soft moan and raised her hand grabbing his shoulders. "N-No, don't....."

Zhao Tian just hugged her waist, whispering in her ear "Just listen to your body for now..." Ning Xue opened her eyes and saw the lust and desire dancing in Zhao Tian's eyes.

"N-No..." Ning Xue uttered, the blush on her face turning deep red as a tomato and Zhao Tian grabbed her waist. Haah haah

Seeing his soft eyes, Ning Xue's heart raced and Zhao Tian raised her thighs and Ning Xue as if she was under the devil's charm obediently raised her legs wrapping them around his waist who was on top of him.

Haah Looking at the breathtaking woman taking deep breaths with flushed cheeks, Zhao Tian couldn't help but want to taste her so bad.

The irresistible allure of her sight seemed to envelop him completely, urging him to bridge the distance between them and experience the intoxicating taste of her lips.

But as he brought his lips closer to hers, he stopped and felt her warm breath hitting his face. Ning Xue, catching a glimpse of his face up close, quickly turned away.

However, Zhao Tian spoke "Look at me..." as he gently grasped her chin making her look at him, their lips centimeters away close to kissing each other.

Ning Xue's body trembled as he again touched and confusion filed her mind 'W-Why is my body reacting to his touch and why couldn't I just reject him... His blue eyes, his long white eyelashes, his soft lips, devilish handsome face ... Ahhhh~ Why is everything about him turning me on so much.'

Every little thing about him seemed to awaken a desire within her that she had never experienced before.

Zhao Tian leaned his face even more and their lips slightly brushed each other as a shiver of anticipation ran down her spine.

Haah Zhao Tian took a deep breath trying to control his emotions "Sorry, but... I can't anymore..." he muttered before kissing her lips.

gasp Ning Xue gasped in shock and her fingers clutched his shoulders tightly intending to push him but Zhao Tian grabbed her waist tightly, devouring her lips as he continued sucking on her lips fervently.

"Hnngh~!" Feeling his aggressiveness, Ning Xue found herself unable to resist and succumbed to the fiery sensation his lips were igniting on her body. Her grip on his shoulder loosened and she gently closed her eyes finally surrendering to her desires.

Chapter 159: A connection?!

smooch Zhao Tian kept pressing his lips against hers, gently nibbling on her lower lip and Ning Xue was clearly dominated by his experienced lips leaving her breathless.

A little later, they pulled back the kiss haah haah and both of them were taking deep breaths, their eyes looking into each other, a mix of desire and affection reflected in their eyes.

Ning Xue who was intoxicated by the sweet feeling of his kiss couldn't help but lick her lips.

Unable to resist, Zhao Tian again plunged in for a deep kiss and this time he directly inserted his tongue, intertwining his tongue with hers.

Startled by his wet tongue, she tried to retaliate but alas, under his dominance, she couldn't do much and it's not like she doesn't like it.

After a while, they retracted their lips and Ning Xue pushed him onto the bed sitting on top of his chest with a seductive smile dancing on her lips.

Her eyes crescented as she licked her lips tasting his lingering saliva "It's your fault for turning me on..."

She leaned down kissing his lips and Zhao Tian also welcomed her, instantly pushing his tongue and turning it into a passionate kiss as his hands went up grasping her waist.

As they withdrew the kiss again, thud He playfully pushed her again, and with a giggle, Ning Xue wrapped her legs around his waist.

Zhao Tian fell on top of her nuzzling his face on her neck and Ning Xue hugged him tightly. At this time, Zhao Tian did a bold move, and gasp Ning Xue was surprised as he suddenly grabbed her boob.

"W-What are you..." Ning Xue placed her hand over his hand stopping him. Zhao Tian raised his face and spoke in a soft tone looking at her quivering eyes "You know very well how much my body craves for you..."

"And for you as well, I can see your lust in your eyes. So don't hold back... let out your lust on me and I will take responsibility for you and your lust."

Ning Xue was quite hesitant but Zhao Tian just couldn't help himself and forcefully fondled her boobs over her dress causing Ning Xue to let out a sweet moan "Haangh~~"

It's not only Ning Xue feeling intoxicated by him, Zhao Tian is also feeling overwhelming emotions because of her. His mind is screaming 'Fuck her, Fuck her...' as he doesn't know why but it's as if her body is pulling him.

They again kissed as Zhao Tian's hands continued roaming on her body fondling and teasing her boobs. In between her gasps of moans, Ning Xue managed to speak "Haah... maybe w-we should control ourselves a bit."

"I-I feel like... it's getting out of hand."

Zhao Tian softly bit her neck and spoke "Yeah... I also want to hold back, but my damn body is not listening to me. It wants to taste you even more." With that, he leaned in to plant another kiss on her delicate skin.

Ning Xue ran her fingers through his hair as he continued sucking on her neck "I-I know... it's the same for me as well. My body is also longing for your touch... but we gotta control, if not I might just lose myself."

Hearing this, Zhao Tian also tried to control himself and took a deep breath. Ning Xue patted his head trying to encourage him "Yeah, like that... like that. Take a deep breath."

Eh? "Haha..." Zhao Tian couldn't help but chuckle hearing this and after a whole minute, both of their breathing returned to normal as Zhao Tian lay on top of her.

They just stayed silent without saying anything as Ning Xue continued patting his head. Finally, after a while, Ning Xue spoke "Boy, what is your name?"

"Boy?" Zhao Tian raised an eyebrow and Ning Xue let out a giggle. "Then what do you want me to call you? You are literally a boy."

A smirk appeared on Zhao Tian's lips "Hoh? You wanna see what this boy can do?" he asked again groping her boob and giving a gentle squeeze.

Ning Xue hastily spoke "Sorry, sorry... I was at fault, but don't provoke my body... I have just calmed it down."

"So, what's your name?" Ning Xue asked curiously.

"Zhao Tian."

"Zhao Tian, Zhao Tian..." Ning Xue muttered two times under her breath.

She again glimpsed at Zhao Tian in her arms and asked "Do you know just what happened to us now? Since I time I saw you in the Hall, my body has been burning hot..."

"Suddenly I feel an insatiable desire for you and I couldn't help but think about you."

Zhao Tian also shook his head "I also don't know but since the moment I saw you only one thought is consuming my mind. To ravish you and fuck your brains out."

Huh? Ning Xue was quite dumbfounded sharing his usage of words and at this time Zhao Tian asked "By the way what's with this insane amount of Yin energy in your body?"

"What?" Ning Xue was shocked to the core and her eyes trembled in shock "H-How did you know that?"

Zhao Tian frowned "I mean, it is oozing out of your body... so I can sense it."

"Hah!" a deep sigh escaped Ning Xue's lips "No one has found out about this except you."

She looked at Zhao Tian, contemplating whether to say this or not because even though many things happened just now, it was all because of some strange attraction between them.

She doesn't know him personally enough to reveal such things.

Zhao Tian raised his gaze and saw her pondering about something. He doesn't blame her as he would also do the same and won't reveal any secrets to any newcomer.

With a soft sigh, Zhao Tian moved sitting on the bed and his mind began to process why his lust just kicked in when he saw Ning Xue.

It's as if there is a strange energy connecting both of them.

Ning Xue also moved sitting beside him and as he turned to look at her, she just smiled.

The atmosphere in the room turned quite awkward as both of them stayed silent not knowing what to talk about.

Ning Xue looked at him in the corner of her eyes, taking glimpses at his handsome face and she has to admit that he is the most handsome man she has ever seen.

A little later, Ning Xue asked in a low voice "Will you... take responsibility for me?"

Huh? Zhao Tian was confused hearing this "What do you mean by taking responsibility?..."

Eh? Ning Xue was startled, Didn't he say that he will take responsibility? He was l-lying? Ning Xue felt betrayed in her heart hearing his answer, she thought he was serious about him.

She knew it was just a strange attraction, but still... she didn't expect he would bluntly say that.

"Aren't you already my woman?"

HUH?! Ning Xue blinked her eyes in shock. I am already his woman? When?

Seeing her shocked face, Zhao Tian spoke "Since I touched your body and said that I would take responsibility. You are my woman."

"Remember this, from now on you belong to me and I won't allow any man to ever lay a finger on you."

Seeing his dark possessive eyes, Ning Xue felt a shiver in her body. She didn't expect him to be so possessive. But she kinda likes it.

A smile appeared on her face "I appreciate your guts for boldly declaring me, the Queen of Zhenzhu as your woman right in front of me."

Zhao Tian shrugged "I just said a fact."

"Haha! I like you..." Ning Xue couldn't help but giggle seeing his boldness and playfulness.

Zhao Tian smiled teasingly "Well, I am honoured to be liked by the Queen of Zhenzhu I guess."

Ning Xue again laughed and softly hit his shoulder "Brat..."

Her eyes softened and she spoke, "Let me tell you the answer to your previous question."

Hm? Zhao Tian raised an eyebrow and got curious to know about the overwhelming Yin energy.

"Recently there's been a rumor going around the Royal Capital that Queen is infected with some disease and that's why she is not coming out much."

"The truth is, I am not infected with any disease..."

Chapter 160: A lil talk with Xue!

Somewhere in the universe-

A beautiful woman with long black hair and black eyes is walking through the quant wooden bridge crossing the river as she made her way into the village.

Seeing her long black robes, some people were surprised while some were not as this is not the first time she has entered here.

She quickly walked to a small restaurant in the peaceful village. But she didn't enter through the front door and went behind the restaurant where the cabin of the restaurant owner is in.

As she turned the handle and pushed the door open, her gaze immediately fell upon a captivating sight. There she saw a blonde woman sitting on the table with a gentle smile on her face showing warmth and serenity.

The blonde-haired woman turned her head to the newly entered woman "Rong'er."

Mu Rong's eyes softened as she came and bowed in front of the blonde-haired woman "Lady Ning."

Zhao Ning shook her head helplessly and and gestured for Mu Rong to take a seat "Sit here." Mu Rong moved and sat opposite Zhao Ning on the table.

"Did you bring the thing I asked you for?" Zhao Ning asked and Mu Rong nodded as she raised her hand.

A silver bracelet adorned with blue gems appeared in her hand and Zhao Ning took the bracelet in her hand.

"This should be more than enough for this Low Star." Mu Rong spoke and Zhao Ning nodded her head. "En."

Mu Rong spoke in an apologetic tone "Sorry, Lady Ning, because of us you are suffering here in this Low Star."

Zhao Ning just giggled shaking her head "No, it's actually peaceful here and I am enjoying my life. I hope Vester is doing fine back there with my Sister."

Mu Rong's eyes trembled in admiration "Even though Young Lord Vester is not your own son, you are caring this much for him. I am sure Lady-"

"Rong'er." Zhao Ning cut her abruptly and a sigh escaped her lips "Let's not talk about the past."

Mu Rong gave a slight nod "Please forgive me, Lady Ning."

Zhao Ning just smiled gently "Well, since your job is completed. Leave now... I don't want them to find my hiding place."

"As you say, Lady Ning..."

After Mu Rong left, Zhao Ning raised her hand and a picture of her and another silver-haired woman appeared in her hand.

"I hope Yin'er is doing well..."

...

Back in Zhenzhu-

Sitting on the bed, Ning Xue spoke "Actually I am not affected by any diseases."

"I have a rare type of physique constitution. Pure Yin physique."

Zhao Tian raised an eyebrow "Pure Yin, physique? Is that the reason why you have such an excess amount of Yin?"

Ning Xue nodded her head "En and these excess Yin energies are hard to control and cause strain on my meridians which causes intense pain all over my body. So I use a special flower to suppress the Yin energy from flowing into my meridians."

Hearing this, Zhao Tian frowned, a small guess appearing in his mind 'Then the strange connection we felt just now must be because of our physiques.'

'I have Honoured One's physique which oozes out Yang energy and she has a Pure Yin physique which also gives excess Yin energy.'

'As both energies are complementary, they attract each other. So, no wonder we are attracted to each other.'

'And I burn out my excess Yang energy through sex but she has no way to burn out the excess Yin energy in her body.'

'And the flower she is talking about must be that Phoenix blood Astragalus flower. So she uses it to burn out the excess Yin energy in her body.'

Seeing Zhao Tian thinking about something, Ning Xue got curious "What happened?"

Zhao Tian shook his head with a smile "Nothing, I think I know the reason for the attraction of our bodies."

Hearing this, Ning Xue was surprised "What's that?"

Zhao Tian spoke "I also have a rare physique which gives too much Yang energy for me. So I guess, because of My Yang energy attraction to your Yin energy, our bodies felt a strange connection."

Hm? Ning Xue frowned hearing his reasons and it made sense to her "So this is an attraction between physiques huh..."

"I have studied about some physiques having a mutual pair and seems like we are one of them."

Zhao Tian just chuckled and Ning Xue moved, leaning on his shoulder "So we are destined together?"

Zhao Tian raised his hand wrapping around her shoulder "Maybe we are..."

At this time, a doubt arose in Ning Xue's mind "If you also have a physique that gives you a large amount of Yang energy, what did you do to stabilize that?"

"Will it also strain your meridians just like me?"

A smile appeared on Zhao Tian's face and he softly pinched her cheek "I balance my Yang energy with Yin energy from my women by having sex with them."

Huh? Ning Xue completely ignored the first and final part "You have other women?" she asked with a slight frown.

Zhao Tian didn't hide it and nodded his head "Yeah, I do..." this might be a surprise for modern women, but he was sure that women from the cultivation world wouldn't mind.

"Hmmm." Ning Xue mused in her heart. That really came as a shock as she didn't expect him to have many other women.

She muttered under he breath "I know that powerful men tend to have many women and are capable of that... but you are just a young man now. Don't you think it's soon to have many women?"

"I am more than enough for you," she said with a smile.

Zhao Tian quite understood her part, as the Queen of Zhenzhu why does she need to share her man with other women? Why can't she just monopolize him?

Zhao Tian kept his smile "Are you doubting my capabilities?"

Ning Xue shook her head "No, it's not like that... it's just that you are too young and your cultivation is- huh?" just now she saw through his true cultivation.

HUHHHHH?! Her jaw dropped as she saw through his cultivation and she couldn't believe her eyes as she rubbed her eyes. Am I dreaming? N-No way!

"7th level of Emperor Astral Stage?" she mumbled in shock.

"B-B-But how? You look so young like 50 years and... huh?" Ning Xue shook her head in confusion as this was simply not possible. It will take decades of cultivation to reach this stage.

"What is your bone age?" Ning Xue pondered and gently took hold of his wrist.

gik She jolted down from her bed in utter shock and her eyes trembled "21? you are 21? What? What? What?"

"You are 21 and you are at the 7th level of Emperor Astral Stage?" She clutched her forehead in pain her mind struggling to process the reality in front of her.

How come she doesn't know that there is a young genius inside him in Zhenhzu til now?

Watching her reactions, Zhao Tian found it adorable and chuckled in his heart. 'I wonder how her reaction would be if I said that I started cultivation just 2 months ago. It must be hilarious. Haha'
