Chapter 201 Yu Hua's battle!

Antony Evans flew through the air at high speed and as he looked back, he saw Yu Hua still chasing him. "Tch, they wanted me to know about her, but I didn't even sense her presence." *woosh*

Yu Hua maintained a distance from him, as she didn't want to engage in a fight right at the top of the city, as she knew her fight would cause chaos.

Antony Evans muttered, "If the information is right, she must be around the 8th level of the Monarch Astral Stage... I am also at the 7th level.. ugh! This sucks.."

Most of them in the Lycan Syndicate fear Yu Hua because, in the past, she has obliterated one of their bases in this nation, killing all of their people.

Yu Hua narrowed her eyes as she saw him leaving the city, flying above the small mountain range. "Now is the time."

*woosh* In a blur of motion, Yu Hua appeared in front of him and pulled back her left hand, punching him.

*gik* Antony reacted instinctively, raising his arms to deflect the blow.

Yu Hua's fist collided with his crossed forearm, *crack* and a bone-cracking sound was heard *woosh* as he was blasted away by the impact.

*boom* He violently crashed on the river as the water splashed and burst away, his forearms broken.

"Urgh!" Antony Evans gritted his teeth in pain as he felt the stinging pain in his arm 'W-What is this pain? It's like being cut by small swords.'

As he staggered to his feet, he raised his gaze and looked at the woman floating in the air with a cold gaze, a long red blade in her hand.

Yu Hua was relentless, her blade gleaming with a deadly aura as she closed in for the kill.

*swoosh* She disappeared from his sight and instantly appeared in front of him slashing her sword vertically. *sleesh*

The blade cut through the air but Anthony Evans again dodged her attack *boom* and the water in the river cleaved in half and even the ground was split.

Anthony Evans stood up and squinted his eyes looking at the woman 'What is this terrifying sharp aura around her?'

Yu Hua turned her cold gaze and Anthony Evans clicked his tongue 'I was warned by them to not encounter this woman. My shit luck.'

"GWARRGHHH!" Anthony Evans's body contorted as his body began to enlarge, fangs and claws appearing on his mouth and hands.

"RARRRGHHH!" He let out a loud growl transforming into a wolf creature covered with silver fur.

His gaze pierced through Yu Hua "Let's see why they are scared of you... "

Yu Hua uttered calmly "My blade has devoured the blood of many dogs like you from Lycan Syndicate."

"So, what did that Orlando order you to do to Tian? Just kill him?"

Anthony Evans chuckled wickedly "Never expected you to be a chatting type. Talking with enemies.. shishi."

Yu Hua was disgusted by the wicked eerie chuckle "Tch." *woosh* she again dashed at him and with a growl, Anthony Evan stretched his arms intercepting her blade.

*clank* His claws clashed with her blade stopping her blade for a second and a smirk appeared on Anthony Evans's face "So it's all just talk-

Yu Hua thrust her sword even further *sleesh* the sharp red blade cleaving through his claws and forearm.

"Argh." Anthony Evans withered in pain again feeling the stinging pain and raised his left hand hurling his claws towards her face.

Yu Hua turned her eyes looking at the menacing claws inching toward her face. *siish* She retracted her sword and maneuvered it slicing through his wrist as his hand flew away.

*woosh* Using the slight time delay, Anthony Evans backed off *shishi* Sizzling smokes came from his wounded hands and it quickly regenerated.

Yu Hua again glanced at Anthony Evans "That day Tian, even thrashed a level 5 Monarch Astral Stage cultivator from Lycan Syndicate."

"Then they only send a level 7 Monarch Astral Stage cultivator?"

Anthony Evans smirked "Who knows..."

Yu Hua felt a little suspicious about it 'Well, I will just kill him first.'

*swoosh* She again dashed at him, hurling her sword into his chest *creek* But Antony Williams again tried to block with his claws.

*crack* His claws broke and he sidestepped dodging her slash but Yu Hua rotated her sword again slashing at him horizontally making him retreat a step.

*clank* *boom* As their battle raged on, the very earth trembled beneath their feet, the forest around them bearing witness to the ferocity of their conflict. But in the midst of the chaos, Yu Hua remained composed.

Antony's transformation granted him strength, but Yu Hua's skill was unmatched, her blade dancing effortlessly through the air as she pressed her advantage.

*gik* But suddenly Anthony Evans felt his nerves screaming in death and quickly crouched down.
*sleeecchh* A red slash materialized from her blade and as Anthony Evans dodged...

*BOOM* The slash fell on the forest behind them and a wave of destructive energy tore through the forest with terrifying force.

The ground trembled beneath them as trees were reduced to splinters, swallowed by the fiery aftermath of her strike. Anthony Evans gulped his saliva and turned his head to look at the woman and saw her standing in a cold stance with the sword in her hand.

Yu Hua, a woman with no elemental affinity called trash in her family which served the Royal family for years, poured all her effort into the sword.

With suitable sword technique, she has reached the 8th stage of the Monarch Astral Stage and is now eligible to stand with one of the top powerhouses on the planet Earth.

During the coup, her Yu family who were loyal to the Royal family was the one who first stepped up to fight the rebels and was almost wiped out by the enemies.

And Yu Hua who was rushing to the palace was one of the two people who were able to witness the miracle and stay alive that day.

*sleesh* Yu Hua again slashed her sword and this time a large slash materialized in the air. Anthony Evans's eyes trembled in horror looking at the huge slash hurling toward him.

He hastily jumped aside dodging the slash and Yu Hua who already predicted this quickly closed the distance between them.

*swoosh* Before Anthony Evans could fully process what was happening, Yu Hua's sword pierced through his heart. *sleesh*

She has dealt with a lot of regenerative dogs like this, so she knows the easiest way to kill them.

*sleesh* With a firm grip on her sword, she raised her arm as the sword cleaved from his heart to his face splitting the skull.

Antony's world spun as her sword cleaved through bone and sinew, rending his skull in two with a sickening crunch.

"Arghhhh-" His cry echoed through the air as Yu Hua's relentless barrage continued, each slash tearing through his flesh with merciless efficiency.

*sleesh* *sleesh* Limb by limb, she severed his body until there was nothing left but a mangled heap on the ground. *gasp* But just as victory seemed assured, a flicker of movement caught Yu Hua's eyes. Nestled within Antony's torn form, a black object pulsed with ominous energy...

*B000000000000000000000000MMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMMM*

Chapter 202: You name is what?

"Haha.."

Sitting on a throne, a middle-aged man wearing royal robes laughed heartily as he glanced at his ministers, who were on small thrones below him.

"The plan to trap her must have worked, right?" Miles Williams asked with a smirk.

Jack Daniel, who was sitting there, gave a nod. "Of course, Your Majesty... she acted arrogantly that day in front of me and vowed she would protect him."

"So just as we predicted, she would have sensed Anthony's presence and engage in a fight with him."

"During the battle with Anthony, she must have let her guard down and got stuck in the explosion."

Miles Williams frowned and raised his eyebrows upon hearing this: "But is it lethal enough to kill a level 8 Monarch stage cultivator?"

"We have lost a level 7 Monarch Stage cultivator for this."

Hearing the question another Minister spoke, "Yes, Your Majesty... it is very lethal for anyone, as the radiation created in a split second is enough to demolish multiple cities to shreds."

"All that radiation is concentrated, reverberates for a second and then disappears. And who was in that vicinity during that one second would die inevitably."

"Be it a 8th level Monarch Astral Stage or a human."

Miles Williams was quite surprised hearing this: "I didn't expect nuclear weapons created from the beast stones of Astral beasts would be this powerful."

The minister nodded his head "And if anyone got injured after hit by this radiation, it cannot be healed."

Huh? At this time, another Minister asked, bewildered "Even high tier healing pills from Zhenzhu can't heal them?"

The Minister shook his head "No high level of healing pills can't heal this injury as the explosive minerals from the beast stones acts on a molecular level hindering the effect of the healing pills."

Miles Williams was amazed hearing this "After many years we have finally managed to create this nuclear weapon, haha."

"With this, even if we go against the cultivators in Zhenzhu, we can win."

The minister spoke "Your Majesty, this weapon has still not reached its perfect state, as it is not stable sometimes and what we used for that woman is a small one."

"There is still a lot we can improve in this nuclear weapon and when it reaches perfection..."

A smirk appeared on the minister's face "A revolution, a nuclear weapon created by mankind with the help of technology and cultivation that could shake the whole world...."

With a gentle bow he spoke, "And Majesty... that power will be in your hands."

"Hahaha... " Miles Williams laughed loudly upon hearing this and the other ministers also smiled in arrogance.

"Soon, the whole world will be under the Lycan Empire."

-- Orlando Williams who was sitting beside him on the throne, cringed upon hearing his father's cliché line, "Father, I don't know you had separate plans like this for Anthony."

Miles Williams turned his head to his son "What happened, Orlando? Did you not like the plan?"

Orlando Williams let out a sigh. "I was planning to bring that Zhao Tian guy and bang his girlfriend in front of him."

"Well, leave that guy for now... his girlfriend is hot so.."

Miles Williams laughed "We can just send someone to snatch her."

"Well, that works too."

"Haha!"

....

*swish* Zhao Tian and Ning Xue flew through the air hand in hand after spending their time in mall.

Ning Xue pouted her lips "It should have been me who should have won the last game, I just lack experience."

"Hmph, see, the next time we play... I am beating you."

Zhao Tian just chuckled seeing her cute pout and they soon reached Li Jie's mansion.

"Xue, you can remove your disguise here."

"Oh." Ning Xue gave a nod and she removed her disguise as both of them landed on the floor.

Ning Yueli was sitting on a couch in the hall, her heart beating anxiously as she glanced to the clock again and again "It is already noon... they should be here, right now."

"Haa.." She took a deep breath, calming down her heart, which was racing inside her chest.

*creek* At this time, the door opened and Zhao Tian and Ning Xue entered in.

Ning Zuiye gasped in surprise, looking at the breathtaking woman standing beside Zhao Tian.

She quickly stood up from her couch and hurriedly walked near Zhao Tian "T-Tian, welcome back." she spoke as she hugged him, her gaze lingering on Ning Xue.

A frown creased Ning Xue's eyebrows, looking at Ning Zuiye. 'She is beautiful, is she also one of his woman? It seems like she is not.'

Ning Zuiye moved and hugged Ning Xue. Huh? Ning Xue was startled, as she didn't expect the woman to suddenly hug her.

Uh? The frown on Ning Xue's face deepened and she didn't hug her back while Ning Zuiye hugged her tightly, a sigh of relief leaving her lips.

Retracting the hug, Ning Zuiye smiled warmly, looking at Ning Xue "Welcome."

Ning Xue spoke in a cold tone "You are audacious enough to hug me like that, huh..."

Zhao Tian face palmed himself seeing her act like a Queen and Ning Zuiye smiled wryly, quite impressed by her arrogant behavior.

Even though she was so young, she remembers Ning Xue being so kind and gentle... but now she looks the entire opposite of that.

Ning Zuiye gave a bow "Forgive me for that; please enter." she said as she moved to the hall gesturing them to come in.

Zhao Tian moved his hand to her back again grabbing Ning Zuiye's ass.

H-Huh? "Tian?" Ning Xue looked at him surprised.

"Why are you acting cold towards everyone?" he asked, squeezing her plump ass.

"That's because she hugged me very tightly without my consent, hmph."

Zhao Tian's grip on her ass got tighter and he muttered "Its because she welcomed you warmly. Remember, you are not Queen here... and behave well, okay?"

"If not, I would slap your ass next time instead of grabbing."

A faint blush adorned Ning Xue's cheeks, still feeling his fingers on her ass "You are mean."

A little later, Li Jie came downstairs and saw Ning Xue with Zhao Tian.

"The Queen? Fuck, I am out..." he went upstairs to his room.

...

"So we are having our lunch here..." Ning Xue mumbled, sitting beside Zhao Tian on the dinner table.

With a warm smile on her face, Ning Zuiye began to server for both Zhao Tian and Ning Xue.

Ning Xue was the first one to start eating, quite excited to eat the food from the human world.

'Hmm...' Munching down the food, Ning Xue was amazed as the taste of the food is very good and she definitely likes it.

'Hm... maybe I can ask her to come and make food for me in my Royal Palace.'

With this thought, Ning Xue turned to look at Ning Zuiye "What is your name?"

With a soft smile on her face, Ning Zuiye spoke "Ning Zuiye!"

...

Chapter 203: A reunion!

"Ning Zuiye..." Ning Zuiye uttered it with a soft smile.

A flash of surprise crossed Ning Xue's eyes, but then her eyes narrowed. "Ning... Zuiye?" Hearing the name after many years, the memories of the past flooded her mind.

Suppressing the rush of emotions threatening to overwhelm her, Ning Xue shook her head gently, trying to compose herself. 'No, is this a coincidence? This woman....'

Ning Xue raised her head, again noticing the woman's facial features 'Black hair... and purple eyes... h-huh.'

Her thoughts trailed off as she observed, a flicker of recognition dancing in her eyes.

Ning Zuiye's lips curled up in a warm smile "It's been so long, Sister Xue," her words breaking the haze of uncertainty

H-Huh? Ning Xue's eyes trembled to hear the name, her grip faltering as the spoon slipped from her fingers, clattering to the floor.

"Z-Zui'er? No way... how?" Ning Xue stuttered, her voice barely escaping her lips, as a rush of happiness filled her heart and she quickly stood up.

Ning Xue hastily grabbed her shoulders, her lips quivering in happiness. "Are you the Zui'er?" she uttered, her heart hoping she was the one.

With a soft chuckle, Ning Zuiye nodded her head. "Yeah, I a-*puff*

Ning Xue quickly hugged her, her arms tightly wrapping around her as she closed her eyes, her eyes moistening with happy tears.

Feeling the tight hold of Ning Xue, Ning Zuiye's eyes softened, and she closed her eyes, reciprocating the hug.

Zhao Tian smiled, looking at the reunion of the two sisters after many years, and continued to eat his meal.

They stayed like that for a while and Ning Zuiye sighed in her heart, feeling Ning Xue's arms desperately clutching onto her.

A little later, Ning Xue retracted the hug, her eyes moistened with tears.

Ning Zuiye chuckled faintly, gazing at the eyes that had been looking at her coldly till now are overflowing with warmth and affection right now.

Ning Xue muttered, still reeling in shock, her body trembling in disbelief. "I still couldn't believe this... Zui'er, you are alive."

Ning Zuiye nodded her head with a smile, "Yes, Sister Xue."

Ning Xue let out a deep breath, trying to control her emotions but she was just too happy that she didn't know what to do.

Her eyes glanced at Ning Zuiye "But... how are you here? Zui'er? In the human world? And you have no cultivation."

Ning Zuiye gently took hold of her hand "Come, Sister Xue, let's sit and talk."

With a slight nod, Ning Xue and Ning Zuiye moved to the couch while Zhao Tian continued his meal leaving the sisters to talk.

...

Hearing the story from Ning Zuiye, Ning Xue let out a soft sigh and Ning Zuiye spoke, "After that, when I woke up, I was in military custody and later I was adopted into this family."

"I see..." Ning Xue lowered her gaze, again recalling the things she had just heard.

Ning Zuiye asked in a faint voice. "Sister Xue, I heard... that everyone in our family..."

With a nod, Ning Xue spoke, "Yeah, everyone other than us was killed that night. But I am glad... that you are still alive." she said a faint smile appeared on her lips.

At this time, Zhao Tian came and sat beside Ning Xue on the couch "So? Do you like my surprise?"

Looking at him, Ning Xue sighed softly "You could have told me sooner, but.... I also like this surprise..."

A hint of curiosity sparked in Ning Zuiye's eyes seeing them. "But Sister Xue, I am actually surprised that you are Tian's lover."

Ning Xue chuckled leaning back on his chest "Well, everything happened so quickly..."

"And Zhu'er... why haven't you started cultivating? You were acting like a spoiled brat back in Zhenzhu. You could have started cultivating after coming to the human world."

"See, you are getting older because you are not cultivating."

Ning Zuiye could only smile wryly "After that day, I was scared of this cultivation and I-

*BOOOOM*

At this time, suddenly they heard a explosive noise from the distance and because of the aftermath, the air trembled for a moment, sending shockwaves rippling in the atmosphere.

Huh? Zhao Tian and Ning Xue exchanged puzzled glances, their eyes narrowing.

Ning Zuiye was startled by the noise and jumped in surprise. "W-What happened? An explosion?"

Ning Xue spoke "Even though its quite faint... I can sense the concentration of astral energy on that direction."

The frown on Zhao Tian's face deepened and he stood up. "I will go and check what it is..." quite curious to know what is that explosion.

Ning Xue nodded her head "I will come with you.."

Zhao Tian shook his head "You stay here and talk with Aunt Zuiye... I am sure you must have a lot to talk."

Ning Xue squinted her eyes and gave a nod "Ok be careful there..."

As Zhao Tian left the hall, Ning Zuiye got curious "Sister Xue, how strong is Tian? I haven't asked about it to him."

...

*BOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOOMMMMMMMM*

A ground-breaking explosion reverberated through the entire forest and surrounding area, decimating everything in its path and reducing it to nothing but rubble.

The mountain range and the river are no more, as there is only devastation for a few kilometers.

Dust and smoke mixed with radiation settled in the air and the soil is already black with wisps of smoke emanating from this.

"Urghhh that fucking bastard. *cough*" Among this hot barren land, a pained groan was heard.

"Arghhhhh" Yu Hua cried in pain as she lay on the ground, her armor already shredded to pieces revealing the skin tight outfit beneath it which has also torn, exposing her smooth, flawless skin.

But now her flawless skin and her face is marred with gruesome red burn scars and she has lost her right hand.

Blood is gushing out of her body, painting the barren soil and she gritted her teeth, feeling the terrible pain sweeping across her whole body.

'Who knows that dog has stuck a bomb in his ass. Fuck!'

"Arghhhhhhh!" With pain that seemed to rip apart her body, she slowly lifted her left arm.

'Good thing I protected my left arm behind my back.' *swoosh* A high grade pill bottle and potion appeared from the storage ring in her finger.

*crunch* "Arghhhhhhhhh!" But as she moved she again felt her bones shatter.

Her eyes quivered as tears welled up, the pain coursing through her body causing her to tremble.

After a brief struggle, she somehow managed to open the pill bottle's lid and take two high grade pills, tossing them into her mouth.

As she gulped down the pills, a sigh escaped her lips as she lay down there waiting for the pill to take effect.

But a few seconds passed, and the pill still didn't take any effect. Puzzled, she double-checked the pill bottle to confirm that she had indeed taken the correct medication.

"W-What happened? *cough*" she coughed a mouthful of blood and her heart clenched in pain.

'What about the potion?' She took the potion bottle and opened the lid with her numb fingers *gulp* *hulp* She gulped the green potion down her dried throat.

But even then, there are no signs of recovering. Yu Hua panicked seeing this 'W-What?'

She tossed in some more healing pills and gulped down another three bottle of high grade potions, desperately trying to heal herself.

And there is still not a single effect of healing on her. Her blonde eyes trembled with even more tears streaming down her cheeks as a wave of fear and dread washed over her.

'W-Why the healing pills are not working? Urghhhhhhhh'

Chapter 204: Treating Yu Hua!

*cough* Yu Hua, who was writhing on the ground in pain, felt the weight of exhaustion pulling at her eyelids as she stared up at the vast expanse of the clear blue sky above her.

The pain coursing through her body seemed to intensify with each passing moment, making her struggle to maintain consciousness amidst the overwhelming sensations.

But amidst the excruciating pain, she tried to compose herself and tried to sit on the floor. *crunch* But as she moved again, she heard the sickening noises of her bone shattering.

"Argh!" She let out a cry of pain and at this time, she felt a presence coming towards her at incredible speed.

As she used her astral sense to the fullest extent, a small smile appeared on her lips 'Tian...' relieved that he was here and the other ring on her finger glowed faintly.

*swoosh* Zhao Tian dashed through the air and as he glanced down at the barren wasteland, his eyes caught sight of a black-haired woman lying on the ground her whole was filled with burns and she was missing an arm.

"M-Miss Cai?" His eyes widened in shock and in the next second, he appeared on the ground.

"Miss Cai?" He hurriedly crouched down to lift her body, anxious in his heart. But Cai Luo stopped him "W-Wait.. Tian... don't move my body- *cough*"

"And... healing pills are *cough* not working."

But Zhao Tian didn't listen to her and gently raised her body in his arms. "Argghhhhhh! I-I told you not to move my b-body."

H-Huh? But in the next instant, a flicker of surprise flashed in her eyes as she felt a rejuvenating energy flow through her body.

A hint of life appeared in her teary eyes and she looked at Zhao Tian's hand which was glowing in yellow color 'L-Light element?'

Zhao Tian didn't waste his time and used his light element at its full potential, desperately attempting to heal her.

Cai Luo took a glance at his face and saw the concern etched on his face and with a sigh, she stayed silent, feeling the energy flowing through her.

Huh? Zhao Tian saw the burns and her right arm was healing very slowly. He knows the output while healing others is 50 percent but this is too slow.

He remembered Cai Luo muttering that healing pills don't work. Is there something in her body that is interfering with the healing process.?

Zhao Tian took a deep breath and continued using his light energy at full efficiency. He has great reserves of astral energy in his body because of his physique.

But he never knew what the limit of his reserves was, as there were no chances for him to use much energy in prolonged battles because he finished the battle quickly.

However, today he can feel the astral energy depleting in his body rapidly and as he tried to delve deeper into his energy source, it is... endless.

Zhao Tian had a few doubts in his mind before but now it is confirmed, his body will never run out of astral energy.

So, he continued flowing his light energy into her and saw the muscles, tendons, and bone slowly healing in her right arm.

Yu Hua was shocked to see Zhao Tian using this much light energy as she knew a person who had this light element in the past.

'I remember Lady Zhilian saying that light energy while healing depletes a lot of astral energy... but he has been doing it for minutes now.'

After a short while, the final finger on her arm had regenerated and the burn marks on her face had disappeared completely.

Zhao Tian glanced at the beautiful woman again, shining with her clear skin. As the skin-tight dress was torn in some places, he could see her abs and the shape of her plump thighs and chest.

A sigh escaped Cai Luo's lips "I didn't expect you to have three elements- urgh." As she tried to get up she again felt a seeping pain through her body, causing her to collapse back into their arms once more.

"What happened?" Zhao Tian asked in worry. He was sure that he healed her body and his light energy should have rejuvenated her.

"Haa, I-I don't know... My whole body is aching." As she muttered in pain, she felt many presences coming in their direction.

Zhao Tian turned his gaze "It seems like, alerted by the sound, the cultivators in the city are rushing here."

Cradling her in his arms, Zhao Tian stood up "We have to leave first."

Cai Luo stayed silent in his arms as she still couldn't move her body and leaving this place was the best choice now.

*swoosh*

...

Soon many cultivators reached the place and looked around the devastation in shock. They were puzzled as to what caused this explosion.

A bomb?

But suddenly the cultivators dispersed and fled away from there feeling a strong presence appearing above the barren ground.

The Ombudsman, who was levitating on the sky looked down at the black soil which was still hot that used to be a green forest before.

Since the last incident in the city, he has been on high alert, particularly in this city and he came as soon as he could.

"What happened here?" he muttered but he couldn't sense any peculiar astral energy of any individual. But he can surely sense the astral energy concentrated here.

*swish* At this time another man appeared beside him and gave a bow "Lord Ombudsman, we have already stopped common people and reporters from coming here."

The Ombudsman gave a nod "Don't let anyone near this and bring in some people who are experts in explosives to check the place and know what transpired here."

...

Flying through the air, Zhao Tian again looked at the woman in his arms "Want me to take you to my home?"

With a slight shake of her head, Cai Luo spoke "No, I will tell you the way to my apartment room."

Zhao Tian gave a slight nod and asked "What happened there?"

Cai Luo spoke "I was fighting with a guy from Lycan Syndicate but as I killed him, he denoted himself causing that huge explosion."

...

Chapter 205: Yu Hua's body state!

Huh? Zhao Tian who was flying in the air with Cai Luo in his arms, frowned and raised his eyebrows upon hearing this: "You fought with a guy from Lycan Syndicate?"

Cai Luo gave a slight nod. "That guy was following you during your date with your... lover."

Following me? Zhao Tian raised an eyebrow. Is that the powerful presence Xue mentioned?

Her eyes narrowed and a sigh escaped her lips "As you are already on the wanted list of Lycan Syndicate, I am sure he came to kill you."

"So I confronted him and fought with him in the forest. Well, the fight was one-sided, as I easily overpowered him."

"And I even killed him, shredding his body into pieces but suddenly a strange black object appeared in his body and it detonated into a big explosion and i was caught within it."

Zhao Tian squinted his eyes "You are a cultivator at 8th level of the Monarch Astral Stage and I am sure an explosion can't make your state this bad."

As he again remembered the barren land, he muttered, "Well, that explosion looked deadly... but still, to make you get injured like this..."

*cough* Cai Luo coughed, clenching her chest "That explosion was different. It is not a normal one, as I felt the concentration of astral energy."

Zhao Tian narrowed his eyes hearing this and thought for a moment before speaking: "In my guess, they have baited you."

Huh? Cai Luo blinked her eyes in confusion "Baited... me?"

Zhao Tian gave a nod. "They already know that you are protecting me inside the city but still, they sent a weaker cultivator than you to kill me."

"If they really wanted to kill me, they should have sent someone at least on the same level as you."

Cai Luo narrowed her eyes upon hearing this: "Yeah, there are some old dogs within the ministers who should be at the 8th and 9th levels of the Monarch Astral Stage."

"So that Miles Williams did this to kill me...?"

Zhao Tian said, "And seems like they have created a new explosive which would even damage a powerful cultivator like you."

A sigh escaped Cai Luo's lips. "I was caught at point blank range and what's shocking is that even high-tier healing pills and potions are not working."

"With your light energy, I am healed, but I am still feeling pain all over my body and I don't know why."

With a soft sigh, Zhao Tian uttered, "Don't worry, I will refine a body-strengthening pill for you after we reach your apartment."

Cai Luo gave a faint nod, leaning on his shoulder for support.

...

-_- Floating above the apartment, Zhao Tian smiled wryly, "No wonder you always caught me near Xiu's apartment; your apartment is just beside hers."

Cai Luo in his arms chuckled upon hearing this: "Hah, *cough* *cough* But suddenly she coughed, her heart thumping in pain.

"Don't push yourself..." Zhao Tian uttered this as he landed outside the door. A key appeared from Cai Luo's storage ring and she slowly moved her arm, opening the door.

*thud* Entering in, he directly went to her bedroom and softly placed her on the bed.

"Wait a little; I will concatenate a body-strengthening pill for you."

A small smile appeared on Cai Luo's face and she nodded her head. Zhao Tian moved to sit on the couch and Cai Luo, who is the bed, tried to move her body.

"Urgh!" But suddenly her eyes widened, and she raised her painful hand to close the mouth "T-Tiann..." she cried for help.

Zhao Tian who was just about to refine the pills, was startled and quickly came near her bed. "What happened?"

"Tian... b-bathroom." Cai Luo muttered with a heavy breath and Zhao Tian quickly took her in his arms and hurried to the bathroom.

Cai Luo pointed her finger at the wash basin and he brought her near it. She got down from his arms and clutched the wash basin tightly.

She vomited and Zhao Tian was startled as she vomited in black. *cough* *cou* *bwarghhh* Zhao Tian gently patted her back, easing her discomfort.

She vomited a few times and Zhao Tian opened the tap. He took the water into his palm and washed her face and mouth.

After feeling quite refreshed by the water, Zhao Tian took her back to the bed.

*cough* Cai Luo coughed lightly and spoke, "Sorry, Tian, I am troubling you."

Zhao Tian shook his head "This all happened because you wanted to protect me. So I should be the one responsible," he uttered, softly placing her on the bed.

...

Meanwhile, Ning Zuiye and Ning Xue were still conversing with each other: "Tian won the competition?" Ning Zuiye asked with a chuckle.

"Yeah, he did. He even crippled a guy from the Chen clan too." Ning Xue said with a giggle.

Seeing Ning Xue laughing, Ning Zuiye's eyes softened and she gently took hold of her hand. "Sister Xue, it must be have been tough for you to maintain the Zhenzhu as the Queen."

Ning Xue smiled. "Well, at first it was hard... but with Hua'er, it was easy, and now most of the time I just slack off."

Ning Zuiye nodded her head. "I remember Sister Hua."

"Mom!" At this time, Ning Yueli came out of her room and was surprised to see the beautiful woman sitting on the couch.

"Mom, who is that?" Ning Yueli asked curiously, walking near the couch.

Ning Zuiye smiled gently. "She is my friend."

Ning Yueli was dumbfounded. "Mom, you have a friend?" she asked in surprise, as she knew about her mom's condition and as she doesn't even leave the house.

Even her dresses are bought by the maid or ordered online.

Ning Zuiye smiled wryly "She is my friend... from my school when I was little."

"You and your friend both of them are so beautiful. I am not jealous at all. Hmph." Ning Yueli snorted playfully.

She then glanced at Ning Xue and smiled "Hi aunty, I am Ning Yueli...her daughter."

A slight frown appeared on Ning Xue's face and she gave a slight nod.

Um? Ning Yueli smiled awkwardly and turned to her mom. "Mom, is lunch ready?"

"Yeah, go and ask Xi'er; she will help you."

Ning Yueli rushed to the kitchen. "Maid, auntyyyy, lunch!"

Ning Xue glanced at Ning Zuiye "Zui'er, you married someone and had a daughter. You passed down our royal blood with a normal human."

Chapter 206: In the Medicinal garden!

Ling Huang and Ling Meiying kept looking around the artifact with Zhao Ying. Ling Meiying was amazed at the beautiful place "Husband has his own world inside the artifact..."

"The waterfall, Hot springs... the lake, everything looks so beautiful."

At this time, Chi Miya walked towards them and Zhao Ying turned her eyes at her "Sister Miya, you completed the level?"

Chi Miya gave a nod "Yeah, I completed the level and got a movement technique as a reward... but I am scared to go to the next level so I came out." she said smiling wryly.

Zhao Ying chuckled hearing this "Come with us, we are showing Sister Meiying around the place."

As they continued their stroll, Ling Meiying saw a white-haired woman lying on the grass field, looking at the sky "Who is she?" Ling Meiying asked curiously.

"Just ignore her..." Zhao Ying spoke as they walked towards the medicinal garden.

Shi Yixian took a glance at the four women and again looked at the sky, her eyes narrowing in determination "I will take my revenge on that two-faced bastard, Jiu Yang."

Walking near the medicinal garden, Ling Huang spoke with a grin "This is my favorite place in the artifact."

Ling Meiying smiled "As an alchemist, of course, it would be your favorite place." she muttered glancing at the medicinal garden.

As they entered the medicinal garden, the rich aroma of the medicines fluttered in the air and Ling Huang took a deep breath "See, this is what I am talking about. Haah"

The others giggled at her facial expression and at this time, Fei Ziyu who was taking care of the plants walked near them.

With a smile on her face, she gave a slight bow "Welcome..."

Ling Meiying glanced at Fei Ziyu "Who is she?" she muttered under her breath,

Zhao Ying spoke "Don't mind her, Sister Meiying... she is just a slave." Hearing this, Fei Ziyu lowered her head.

"Slave?" Ling Meiying was surprised but Zhao Ying pulled her gently "Come, Sister Meiying let's go."

"Eh.." Because of the sudden pull, Ling Meiying's feet stumbled and she unintentionally stomped on some small herbs near the walking path.

As she realized, she hurriedly retracted her leg "Ah, sorry."

*gasp* Fei Ziyu's eyes widened in shock and she yelled "What are you doing?!!"

The others were startled by her sudden scream and Fei Ziyu hurriedly crouched near the herb.

She turned her head, her eyes brimming with anger "Do you know anything about this herb?"

Ling Meiyang spoke with a sigh "I already said sorry. It was not intentional."

Ling Huang narrowed her eyes as she reassured "It is not a rare herb, it is a common herb... so you don't have to worry much about it."

Huh? Normal herb?! Fei Ziyu's heart seeped with anger but she stayed silent as she glanced at the stomped herb on the soil, her eyes betraying the intense emotions swirling within her.

She is just slave here, she can't go against them.

Zhao Ying spoke "Come, let's go..." and they walked away.

But Chi Miya stayed and crouched beside Fei Ziyu "What happened, Ziyu... she said it's a normal herb. So, it's okay. See there are many herbs like this."

With trembling hands, Fei Ziyu took the herb in her arms "N-No, Lady Miya... this is..."

Chi Miya was surprised to see Fei Ziyu's eyes moistening with tears "Ziyu?"

Tears streamed down Fei Ziyu's face as she muttered, "H-He smiled at me, Lady Miya... After all these years of running behind him like a dog, he finally showed a genuine smile at me only because of this medicinal garden."

*weep* "S-So, I took utmost care of this medicinal garden and maintained it daily. I even studied many books about these herbs so that I could grow them efficiently."

"I only want him to smile at me like that again... One smile..."

"B-But she wasted all my effort and my precious herbs... I-I..."

Chi Miya's heart trembled in pain to see Fei Ziyu like this. At one time, she was also just like her desperate for his love... and tried to force herself onto him.

She gave a soft pat on her friend Ziyu's shoulder. "Ziyu, the herb is not dead... we can plant it again and Tian will surely smile at you..."

Fei Ziyu wiped away the tears and gave a nod as she hurriedly dug a small hole with her hand. Chi Miya was surprised "Ziyu, you have earth elemental."

"A-Ah..." Fei Ziyu remembered and raised her hand, as the soil moved itself. Because she is desperate, she even forgot her power.

Seeing her, Chi Miya's eyes softened. 'I should talk with Tian about this. She is suffering like this...'

As Fei Ziyu was about to plant the herb on the soil, a hand appeared, taking the herb from her hands.

Huh? Both Chi Miya and Fei Ziyu turned their gazes and saw Zhao Tian crouching beside them. "M-Master?"

Zhao Tian stood up with a slight frown "Why are you crying?"

Fei Ziyu again wiped the tears and smiled "Nothing, Master."

Chi Miya also stood up and hugged him "Tian..."

With a smile, Chi Miya hugged him back and a little later, pulled back from the hug.

At this time, Fei Ziyu bowed her head, her eyes quivering in sadness "Sorry, Master... I plucked that herb without your permission. I-I will take good care of it and this mistake will never happen again."

Zhao Tian chuckled softly "No, I actually needed this herb right now. I wanted to refine a pill and I saw this herb missing in my storage ring. So, I came to get it."

Fei Ziyu raised her head and saw him chuckling at her, In an instant, all her sadness washed away happiness surged within her heart and a smile bloomed on her face.

Chi Miya glimpsed at Fei Ziyu and was happy for her.

"Ah." But Zhao Tian pulled Chi Miya's waist and placed a kiss on her lips. Chi Miya too wrapped her arms around his neck and kissed him back

A little later they reattached the kiss and Zhao Tian spoke "I am busy right now, So I am leaving."

He leaned in closer, gently brushing his lips against her ear "Remember to be ready, I'll be having you tonight."

A faint blush appeared on Chi Miya's cheeks and she nodded her head "Okay."

And with that, Zhao Tian disappeared from there *swoosh*

Chapter 207: Cleaning Yu Hua!

*swoosh* Zhao Tian appeared in the bathroom and, with a soft sigh, walked to Cai Luo's bedroom.

Cai Luo turned her eyes at him and saw him sitting on the couch. "Are you going to refine a body-strengthening pill?"

Zhao Tian shook his head "Not only that, I will also refine a body cleansing pill, so it will remove those impurities in your body."

"While healing, something inside your body was hindering the light energy. This impurities must be the reason for that."

"So before strengthening your body, we need to remove the impurities."

Cai Luo grunted in pain "I don't know how these impurities entered my body; it must have been during that explosion."

Zhao Tian took the required herbs and comfortably leaned back on the couch. As he raised his arm, the herbs floated above his palm.

Cai Luo was puzzled to see his action 'Aren't pills refined in cauldrons, sitting cross-legged on the floor?'

*thirssh* Suddenly, a bright flame illuminated the herbs that were floating in his palm.

Eh? Cai Luo was startled to see this. What's he doing? Why is he burning them in his hand?

With a pained voice, she asked, "Why are you burning them?"

"Just stay silent and don't push yourself." Zhao Tian muttered as he concentrated on controlling the flames in his hand.

'Is he burning them like Incense sticks to calm my mind or something? But I couldn't smell any aroma right now.'

But after a short while, a medicinal fragrance hit her nose and she turned her head to look at Zhao Tian.

H-Huh? There, she saw the medicinal ingredients dissolving and blending into one as the flames swirled within his palm.

'W-What the? Am I watching how pills are made in 4K?' She blinked her eyes in utter shock, seeing the process.

Even though she is not an alchemist, she has lived long enough to know something about it.

She watched in wonder as ingredients dissolving and concentrating in one center were pushed by his flames.

Finally, they got concocted into a beautiful brown pill.

"That's really... great. I never knew alchemy could be done like that. How did you do that?" Cai Luo asked in wonder.

With a chuckle, Zhao Tian said, "You just need to have good control over your flames and you don't even need a cauldron."

Hearing this, Cai Luo looked at him in admiration. He is so young and yet so powerful. He has control over three elements, and one of them is light, which is the rarest of them all.

And how he is refining pills without a cauldron, which is impossible.

He just never ceases to amaze her.

Zhao Tian stood up from the couch and walked near her on the bed. "You know about Body cleansing pill, right?"

Cai Luo gave a slight nod. "Yeah, I used that once to clean my body."

With the body-cleansing pill, the impurities will be swept away from her body, making it quite easier for the astral energy to flow through her body.

And she knew she couldn't do it in bed, as it would dirty the whole bed.

And on top of all of that, she is wearing skin-tight clothes right now so she has to remove them as the impurities are removed through the pores of her body.

Zhao Tian gently pulled her body and delicately moved her, making her sit on the bed.

He took her in his arms and went towards the bathroom "You can do the body cleansing in the bathroom."

"En." Cai Luo gave a nod, lying in his arms.

As he stepped into the bathroom, he carefully lowered her down onto the tiled floor

"Shhhh." Cai Luo shivered as she felt a chill run down her spine when her feet touched the cold floor but she endured the slight pain.

"I will remove the clothes." Zhao Tian spoke and she nodded her head, a faint blush painting her cheeks. "En."

Zhao Tian moved to her back and began to remove the skin-tight dress. As he pulled down the small zipper, the fabric gradually slid down her body, her smooth, unblemished skin instantly greeted his eyes.

Cai Luo's heart raced as he slowly stripped her and she knew he was going to see her body like no one else had.

But she does not hate this and feels, this is okay if it's Tian.

"Raise your arms a little." Cai Luo did as he told her, and Zhao Tian easily peeled down the top part, leaving her only in her underwear.

"Cute bra." Zhao Tian teased, glancing at the innocent-looking white bra and hearing this, the blush on Cai Luo's face deepened.

With that, he lowered the hem of her dress, exposing her white panties, and he couldn't help but be captivated by the perfect curve of her ass cheeks.

"Your legs." Zhao Tian muttered and she raised her legs one after another as Zhao Tian completely removed her dress.

Zhao Tian tossed the torn dress to the side and Cai Luo gently turned her body. Zhao Tian's gaze instantly fell on her chest and saw the enticing cleavage.

As he lowered his gaze, he glanced at the abs on her body and was again amazed by her physique. Cai Luo suddenly realized this and instantly turned around, showing her back to him once again.

"This is because of training." She spoke and she felt kind of insecure that she might not look womanly in his eyes.

Hm? Zhao Tian squinted his eyes, looking at the skin on her back and gently grabbed her shoulders.

Cai Luo was taken aback by the unexpected sensation of Zhao Tian's touch and quickly turned her head to face him "Um, Tian?"

Zhao Tian noticed the minute black particles above her skin and he grazed it with his fingers. "Some particles are blocking the pores on your skin." he muttered.

Cai Luo frowned upon hearing this: "It looks like there is something within the explosive."

Zhao Tian spoke "Well, they will be removed after taking the pill, so don't worry."

Cai Luo gave a faint nod, "Yeah."

Zhao Tian smiled playfully, a glint of ice energy appearing on his fingertip and Cai Luo's body shivered, feeling the sudden chill on her spine. "Y-You... bastard."

With a chuckle, Zhao Tian gave the pill to her. "Here." Cai Luo took the pill, and he left the bathroom, leaving her alone.

Cai Luo moved to the showering spot and slowly sat on the floor, gritting her teeth in pain. As she sat, she tossed the pill in her mouth.

...

Meanwhile, Zhao Tian, who just came outside, decided to visit the explosion area once again to see if he could find anything.

*swoosh* He flew through the air, quickly reaching the spot and saw that the cultivators of the government's ACL were already investigating there.

He glimpsed at the Ombudsman and as he was about to go near him, he was blocked by two men in the air.

"No one other than cultivators from ACL is allowed here." One of them spoke, looking at Zhao Tian.

"Are you in Heaven Astral Stage... You look so young." Another one spoke in wonder.

Zhao Tian narrowed his gaze, looking at them.

And one of them quickly recognized his blue eyes and gasped in shock. "Aren't you the one... who cleared that Emperor-level threat inside the city?"

The other one also realized and quickly moved away: "S-Sorry, we interrupted you."

The two men glanced at Zhao Tian, who just crossed them and murmured in amazement "He is the one who cleared that guy from Lycan Syndicate inside the city."

"He was so powerful... and I expected him to be some middle aged man... but he."

"*sigh* And here we are, still in Heaven Astral stage urghhh!"

Chapter 208: Beast stone?

*swoosh* Zhao Tian appeared beside the Ombudsman, startling him, and he turned his head toward him. "Zhao... Tian?"

Zhao Tian glanced at people wearing heavy suits walking on the scorched land and taking samples of the soil.

"Did they find anything?" Zhao Tian asked and with a sigh, the Ombudsman spoke "We found some things."

"The explosion is not a normal explosion like in grenades or bombs with explosive powder. It was a nuclear explosion."

Zhao Tian squinted his eyes, "A nuclear explosion combined with astral energy?"

The Ombudsman shook his head helplessly. "Yeah, if this nuke is made on a larger scale, one of them is enough to obliterate cities to shreds."

"But I am still wondering why astral energy is exploding from this nuke. Who created this nuke?"

...

On the barren ground, there is a large van and inside the van, there is a woman wearing a white coat. who is examining a fragment of the black object under the microscope.

*gasp* Suddenly, she noticed something and gasped in shock. She quickly stood up from her seat and rushed to take a small suitcase from the drawer.

Placing the suitcase on the table, *click*, she opened the top and there were some astral stones and beast stones inside it.

She took the beast stone, which looked like a black diamond, and frowned her eyebrows. *swish* A sword appeared in her hand. *sleesh* She slashed the beast stone into a tiny fragment.

Then she took the tiny fragment to examine it under the telescope.

...

*thud* Opening the van's door, the woman rushed outside and raised her head, "Lord Ombudsman."

The Ombudsman and Zhao Tian glanced down at the woman. Zhao Tian frowned slightly and the Ombudsman said, "Her team was the one examining the residues of this explosion."

*swoosh* Zhao Tian and the Ombudsman appeared on the ground and the woman was taken aback by the appearance of Zhao Tian.

She blinked her eyes, captivated by his handsome face, and seeing this, the Ombudsman coughed a little *cough*. "Miss Zhin, did you find anything?"

"A-Ah." The woman came out of her daze and hurriedly nodded, embarrassed by her behavior. "Lord Ombudsman, I found what the black particles were in the explosion."

"Um..." She stopped and took a quick glance at Zhao Tian. Understanding her question, the Ombudsman said, "You can tell, he is with us."

The woman nodded her head "Those are actually the fragments of the beast stone of astral beasts."

"Beast stones?" The Ombudsman narrowed his eyes and Zhao Tian also remembered his talk with Li Jie two months ago when he explained about the astral stones and beast stones.

The woman hesitated a little before speaking. "Actually, every powerful nation in the world knows about the explosive power of this beast stone and were trying to make nuclear weapons with it."

"Even our country is in this. I have worked a little with that research team; that's why I could find the presence of the beast stone fragments very easily."

The Ombudsman narrowed his eyes "So, a powerful nation has already created the nuke? This is... dangerous. as it could create world wars."

"I have to inform the president about this matter first."

The woman continued, "This is more dangerous than you think, Lord Ombudsman. This will not only create world wars; the important thing is that no one can defend this."

Hm? The Ombudsman was confused "No one could defend this? Even cultivators?"

The woman nodded her head "I am afraid even cultivators at the Monarch Astral Stage would die if this nuke was made in a larger caliber."

Huh? The Ombudsman's eyes shook in horror upon hearing this: "Killing a Monarch Astral Stage Cultivator?"

The woman gave a nod and the Ombudsman took a deep breath, processing the information. "Are there any other things you find out?"

"No, Lord Ombudsman, we are still continuing our research."

The Ombudsman gave a nod and spoke "You can leave."

The woman gave a slight bow and took a quick glimpse at Zhao Tian before continuing her research.

Zhao Tian had a slight frown on his face, he doesn't care much about this nation or the world wars, he just came to know what are those black fragments Cai Luo.

'So it's beast stone hmm...'

The Ombudsman who was near him clutched his forehead in pain thinking about these nukes.

Seeing this, Zhao Tian spoke "It's the Western nation's Lycan syndicate."

Huh? The Ombudsman turned to look at him "How... do you know that?"

"Don't ask about that, so just keep an eye on that organization if you can." Zhao Tian muttered.

The Ombudsman let out a sigh "This organization is really a headache for our nation. And you are also on their wanted list."

Zhao Tian gave a slight nod, "I will deal with that later" he spoke and disappeared from there.
*swoosh*

The frown on Ombudsman's eyebrows deepened "Miles... Williams."

...

At the same time, among the cultivators from the ACL, one of them moved to the sides leaving the group.

That guy took a mobile phone from his pocket and dialed someone. *ring* A little later, someone attended the call.

"My Lord!"

A minister from Lycan Syndicate spoke from the other side "Why did you call me."

The guy spoke "My Lord, I saw that Zhao Tian guy with the Ombudsman."

Hearing this, The minister laughed light-heartedly "Haha, Is he crying pathetically that his protector got killed?"

The cultivator frowned "No, My Lord, he doesn't seem like he's sad. He was just chatting with the Ombudsman. Looks as he came because of the explosion"

The minister continued laughing "Maybe he doesn't even know she is dead because she was already blasted to pieces because of the Explosion."

"When he realizes it, he will cry."

...

*woosh* Zhao Tian flew back to the apartment and peeked inside the bathroom a little. There he saw Cai Luo sitting in a cross-legged position, black impurities coming out of her body.

He came back to the couch and began to refine a body-strengthening pill.

Chapter 209: Not real Mom?!

Ning Xue glanced at Ning Zuiye "Zui'er, you married someone and had a daughter. You passed down our royal blood with a normal human."

Huh? With a wry smile, Ning Zuiye shook her head. "No, sister Xue, she is not my real daughter."

"Not your real daughter? You adopted her?" Ning Xue arched her eyes.

"Uh, yeah," Ning Zuiye said, scratching her neck.

"Why did you take an adoptive child, Zui'er? You are still so young."

Ning Zuiye spoke with a dry smile "Actually, after the incident in the palace, I got scared of talking to anyone, especially men, so I distanced myself and stayed in the home all day long."

H-Huh? Ning Xue was startled to hear this. Did she get traumatized?

"My parents here also were not much concerned because I was young and thought I would gradually recover from it."

With a sigh, she continued, "But after 24 years, I was still shut at home and knew no one from the outside world; I only know my father, mother, and the maid here."

"So, my parents are worried... and thought it would be better to find a man for me and slowly get out of the phobia and marry him."

Ning Xue squinted her eyes "You are just 24; it is still too young to get married."

Ning Zuiye shook her head "No, Sister Xue, by human standards it is the right age to get married."

"Oh, I see..." Ning Zue was amused hearing this.

Ning Zuiye continued to speak "So they set up a date with a man from the military my father knows and my father said he was a good guy."

"But... when he came home to pick me up for the date, I was too scared and hurriedly ran to my room, shutting myself in again."

"So my father and mother are worried about my condition. They also wished to see me get married and want to see their grandchildren."

"But I can't just marry any random man... " and as cultivators, their chastity is more important to them.

Ning Xue frowned. "So you responded to their desire and adopted a girl?"

Ning Zuiye gave a slight nod "Yeah..."

Ning Xue clicked her tongue and said, "They should already be grateful that they got a daughter when they couldn't conceive a child. Now they even want grandchildren? How selfish."

Ning Zuiye shook her head "No, sister Xue... they took care of me all these years, and I don't want to get married to a man, so this is the least I could do."

Ning Xue let out a sigh "Whatever... well, um... I am also grateful that they took you in and raised you."

Ning Zuiye chuckled upon hearing this and Ning Xue asked curiously "Is she aware that she is adopted?"

Ning Zuiye nodded her head "Well, after being quite mature, she asked me herself if I am her real mother as I have never shown her a Dad or even talked about him."

"Hmm..." Ning Xue mused under her breath but then her eyes narrowed as she remembered something.

"You said you hate men... but you were close with Tian, you even hugged him."

Upon hearing this, Ning quite smiled gently "Well, he saved me from some guys and he looked so cool and beautiful at that time."

"So I don't know why but I can't hate him. He is also so cute and nice to me... he even praises me making me blush....."

Ning Xue narrowed her gaze seeing Ning Zuiye chanting about Zhao Tian "You do not have any weird ideas about Zhao Tian, right?"

Ming Zuiye stopped and tilted her head "Weird ideas?"

Ning Xue nodded her head "Yeah like loving him or marrying him?"

E-Eh? Ning Zuiye was dumbfounded by the question and an instant blush appeared on her cheeks "U-Uhh... No Sister Xue... we are just good friends." she stammered.

Ning Xue scoffed "You better, because Tian is my man..."

"Y-Yeah..."

...

Cai Luo's eyes fluttered open and she saw the black thing splattered all around her body. With a deep breath, she flowed her astral energy through her meridians for a check.

"Haah, I feel great...." She let out a sigh and clenched her fist as a sudden frown appeared on her face.

"My muscles still feel a bit stiff," she muttered and stood up stretching her arms.

As she glanced around, she smiled wryly "I gotta clean all of this and bath."

...

After a while, Cai Luo stepped out of the bathroom, a white towel wrapped around her body. She has already done cleaning and bathing.

As she came into the bedroom, she saw Zhao Tian sleeping on the couch. With a soft smile on her face, she walked to the Closet.

She quickly took some comfortable t-shirt and pants and wore them. She walked near Zhao Tian, gathering her hair up into a neat bun.

"Tian..." She gently shook his body with a soft call, stirring him up from his sleep.

Zhao Tian blinked his eyes open feeling someone shaking his body and moved his body, sitting on the couch "Sorry, I slept..."

Cai Luo's eyes softened, seeing that he waited for her, and shook her head "No problem..."

Zhao Tian raised his gaze and asked, "How is your body?"

Cai Luo nodded her head "It's all good now..."

Zhao Tian stood up from the couch and a yellow pill bottle appeared in his hand "Here are some body strengthening pills."

Cai Luo nodded gratefully and accepted the pill bottle. Zhao Tian quickly took his mobile from his pocket and looked at the time "It's already evening, so I am leaving..." he also has to meet Ning Xue.

But Cai Luo gently grabbed his wrist "It's already evening, so let's have some coffee and then you can leave. Some tea or coffee?"

Zhao Tian slightly frowned but then he sighed "Coffee."

Cai Luo let go of his hand and smiled "Go and wash your face... I will prepare coffee."

...

After Zhao Tian finished washing his face, he made his way to the hall and then proceeded to walk into the kitchen. Cai Luo took a quick glimpse at his face and again concentrated on the milk.

Zhao Tian walked to the refrigerator "Is there anything sweet?" he asked opening the door.

"Hm? There are candies and chocolates, ah, there is a cake I bought yesterday..."

With a smile, Zhao Tian took the cake in his hand and took a spoon as he made his way to the living room.

-_- Eh? Cai Luo was bewildered "You are going to have Coffee. Who would eat cake before that?"

"I do."

Chapter 210: A little talk with Cai Luo!

"Wahhh! I can really hear you, Tian." Ning Xue was excited and exclaimed in wonder, holding the mobile near her ear and hearing Zhao Tian's voice.

With a chuckle, Zhao Tian took another scoop of cake, eating it "See, human tech is good."

Ning Xue hurriedly nodded. "Yeah, this artifact is good. What tier is this?"

Ning Zuiye, who was near her, was dumbfounded. "Sister Xue, this is not an artifact; it's called Mobile. Humans use it to talk to each other."

"What's that name? Very lame..."

Zhao Tian sighed in his heart and said, "Pass the phone to Aunt Zuiye."

Ning Xue gave the phone to Ning Zuiye. "Zui'er, here."

Ning Zuiye giggled and brought the mobile near her ear. "Tian, today Sister Xue will be staying with me. tonight."

"Staying with you?"

Ning Zuiye nodded her head. "Yeah, its been years, so we still have to talk a lot and catch up on things."

Ning Zuiye again took a quick glimpse at Ning Xue and whispered softly, "And it is fun to see Sister Xue's reaction, amazed by the TV and other things. Haha..."

Zhao Tian chuckled faintly and nodded. "Then take care of her for tonight."

"Yeah... " With that, Ning Zuiye cut the call.

"Come on, Sister Xue, let's drink some tea. Ahhhhh, don't break it!!!"

...

Chuckling, Zhao Tian lowered the phone from his ear and also placed the spoon on the table.

At this time, Cai Luo came with two cups of steaming coffee in her hand. "Here..." she extended a cup to Zhao Tian

Zhao Tian took a cup from her hand and Cai Luo sat beside him on the couch.

She discreetly glanced at him in the corner of her eyes. "Is that your lover on the call just now?"

Taking a sip of his coffee, Zhao Tian nodded his head. "She is new to this human world and is learning about things."

"I... see." Cai Luo muttered under her breath, taking small sips of coffee.

At this time, Zhao Tian said, "After you began to cleanse your body, I again went to the explosion area to take a look and found the Ombudsman there."

"And some researchers there have found out what that black particle is."

Cai Luo was surprised and asked hastily, "What is that?"

"Beast stone fragments. They have somehow integrated that with the nuke, making it even more deadly." Zhao Tian muttered, drinking his coffee.

Cai Luo squinted her eyes upon hearing this: "Beast stone, I see..."

Zhao Tian asked, "Is it possible for anyone to get the beast stones from Zhenzhu?"

Astral beasts born only in the places where astral energy is concentrated and the only place in Earth is Zhenzhu.

Understanding the question, Cai Luo nodded her head "Many big sects in Zhenzhu hunt the astral beasts and sell the beast stones to other factions in the world."

"So as long as the other faction has money, they can buy..."

Zhao Tian rolled his eyes "I was just thinking that the Lycan Syndicate may have allied with some big sects in Zhenzhu."

Cai Luo frowned. "Yeah, that's also possible."

Zhao Tian nodded his head and took another sip "So you want to take revenge on that Organization? They almost killed you."

Cai Luo gave a nod "Of course I want to clear that organization, but I can't just enter their empire and kill them. Even though I am powerful, I know my limits."

"If I am surrounded by the 9th and 8th stages of the Monarch Astral Stages, it will be really hard, especially since those dogs can regenerate."

"Hmm..." Zhao Tian mused and they continued to talk for a while.

Standing at the doorstep, Cai Luo had a smile on her face as she saw the disappearing figure of Zhao Tian in the air.

A soft sigh left her lips and she came into the room. Her eyes glanced at the half-eaten cake and she sat on the couch, taking the spoon in her hand.

She took a spoonful of the cake and ate it. As she munched down the cake, savoring each bite as she chewed, she couldn't stop smiling looking at the spoon.

'What a lovely bastard...' she mused in her heart.

...

At night-

On the balcony of the mansion, Ning Xue was sitting on the wooden bench and Ning Zuiye was lying beside her, placing her head on Ning Xue's lap.

Looking at the bright full moon, Ning Xue sighed gently "It was a full moon that day too."

The moon's radiant glow served as a bittersweet reminder of days gone by, stirring up a whirlwind of emotions within her.

Ning Zuiye spoke "Let's stop talking about the past, Sister Xue. Now pat me."

"Haha!" Ning Xue giggled before patting her head.

...

Meanwhile, *pakh* *pakh* Being pushed by Zhao Tian on the wall, Chi Miya moaned as Zhao Tian rammed his cock in her pussy. "Angh~~ Angh~~"

"Miya..." Zhao Tian grunted in pleasure before leaning to kiss her lips. Chi Miya also reciprocated the kiss and sucked his tongue fervently.

Zhao Tian gently raised her thigh and adjusted his cock before pounding it in again. *gasp* Chi Miya gasped in shock as, in the position, his cock was hitting her G spot.

Zhao Tian smirked seeing this and continued to fuck her, feeling the heavenly pleasure of her wet squishy walls tightening his dick.

"Haangh~ Haangh~~ Tian, Tian.... Nnghh~" Chi Miya also continued to moan under the intense pleasure of his cock, stretching her pussy.

She repeated his name, over and over in a breathless whisper, her voice filled with desire and ecstasy.

"Annnghhhh~!" *squirt* Finally, she reached her peak and came but Zhao Tian was relentless as he continued to fuck her sensitive pussy, not giving her any rest.

Chi Miya's moans of pleasure continued to fill the room as she was overcome with intense sensations from his cock, causing her body to tingle and go numb.

After a little while, with a deep thrust the head of his dick touching her womb, he unloaded his cum *splurt* painting her inside with his white cum.

Chi Miya's eyes trembled as she collapsed into Zhao Tian's embrace, her breathing ragged. Zhao Tian pulled back his dick from her pussy and took her in his arms.

*thud* he threw her on the bed and Chi Miya watched Zhao Tian crawl towards her. "T-Tian?"

Zhao Tian spread open her legs widely and smiled before sliding his dick in her pussy.

*gasp* "Hanghh~ Haangh~~!! Tiannnnnn...."
