Chapter 371: Real Mom 2!

smooch Zhao Tian gently sucked on her red lips relishing the smoothness of her soft skin against his lips.

The woman lifted her hand and tenderly clasped his neck, her fingers caressing Zhao Tian's flowing locks as she returned the kiss with equal passion and tenderness.

'I am... kissing my son, his cute lips...'

After savoring the softness of her lips, Zhao Tian gently withdrew from the kiss and gazed upon the woman's flushed cheeks, admiring the rosy hue that adorned her face.

The woman's eyes quivered in embarrassment and she moved her hand; her fingers caressing her lips.

"Vester..." she mumbled as she glanced into Zhao Tian's eyes.

Looking at the woman's deep red face made her look even more attractive in Zhao Tian's eyes and he couldn't hold it back anymore.

"Haah..." He let out a deep breath before plunging in for another kiss, this time he bit her lower lip gently pulling it.

num He delicately sucked her lips and seeing the right opportunity, he inserted his tongue.

Huh? The woman was taken aback by his sudden aggressiveness 'His tongue...'

She also instinctively extended her tongue and the taste of her son's sweet saliva muddled her senses.

"Hmm..." She softly sucked on his tongue and Zhao Tian too, madly sucked on her tongue tasting their shared saliva.

'My dear...'

After a deep passionate kiss, Zhao Tian pulled back the kiss forming a thin strand of saliva connecting their lips and the woman closed her lips swallowing down the saliva.

Zhao Tian's heart clenched in various emotions looking at the naked woman 'She is..so ravishing...'

He extended his hand and gently caressed her cheek; feeling the warmth of her skin on his fingertips.

The woman's lips curled into a soft smile as she placed her hand above his hand "Vester..."

Zhao Tian felt his heart race as he struggled to control his desire upon seeing the warm, motherly smile on her face and every fiber of his body screamed to ravish this woman.

With a hot sigh escaping his lips, he grabbed the hem of his t-shirt and pulled it up to remove it.

Huh? The woman was dumbfounded, however, as she gazed upon her son's sculpted physique, a sense of joy and pride washed over her, causing a radiant smile to spread across her face.

She reached out and gently touched his chest, her fingers traveling down, exploring the navel and crevice of his chest.

'My son has grown very well...'

Zhao Tian threw the t-shirt to the white floor and leaned down, burying his face on her breasts.

The woman let out a soft, playful laugh, causing her eyes to sparkle with warmth and affection.

She gently reached out her hand, tenderly patting his head in a gesture of love and tenderness

"You want me to pamper you?"

Hearing her giggle, Zhao Tian nuzzled his face on her cleavage.

He raised his hand grabbing both of her supple boobs in his palms and now all he wants is to be pampered by her.

These emotions... he has never felt this way before even for Zhao Siuyin, but now... all he wants is to be spoiled by this woman.

"Mother..."

gasp The woman's eyes trembled in shock as she looked at Zhao Tian snuggling his face on her boobs.

A tender smile graced her lips as she grabbed his neck pressing his face onto her boobs "You can have more..."

Shu hugged him tightly and her eyes crescented in happiness 'I will spoil you rotten...'

As Zhao Tian squeezed her boob, something fell on his face and he opened his eyes to look at her right boob.

He again gave a squeeze and saw creamy white milk flurrying out from her pink nipple as it splashed onto his face.

Even the woman was shocked and hurriedly hid her nipple with her hand 'When did I... begin to lactate?'

"No... Don't look, Vester."

Zhao Tian looked into his mother's eyes and a mutter slipped past his lips "Mother.."

H-Huh? The woman's heart trembled seeing her son's pleading eyes and her motherly heart just couldn't refuse his desires.

As she timidly pulled back her hand, revealing her lactating nipple, a wave of embarrassment washed over her, causing her face to flush a deep shade of red.

Zhao Tian turned his gaze to her nipple and tenderly squeezed it in his palm.

"Haah.." Looking at the way her milk was oozing out from her pink nipple made Zhao Tian even more aroused and he licked his lips, the desire to drink her milk surging in his heart.

He gave a tight squeeze and even more milk oozed from her nipple, gushing down his fingers like a spring.

The woman bit her lip in shame 'H-He is looking at it so intently...'

Zhao Tian moved his face to her nipple and let out his tongue licking her nipple.

"Hhnh..." The woman's eyelashes fluttered feeling his moist tongue licking her nipple and only then she realized.

'A mother has to feed her children... her milk...'

num Zhao Tian opened his lips and began to suck on her nipples as her milk surged through his tongue.

'So sweet...' Zhao Tian was surprised by the heavenly taste and munched on her boob, sucking in her milk.

"Anghh~" The woman moaned and her back arched up as she hugged Zhao Tian in her arms, feeling his wet tongue rolling on her nipple.

She nervously gulped her saliva as she looked down at Zhao Tian sucking her nipple madly
'Haangh~~ Dear... Vester...'

This turned her on and her pussy moistened as love juices began to dribble down her honey hole.

She turned her eyes to her left breast which was also oozing with her milk. Gently grabbing it in her hand, she called him "Vester..."

"Drink from here too... see, it is going to waste," she muttered as she gripped it making even more milk seek out from her nipple.

Hm? Zhao Tian looked at her other boob and grasped it gently.

He pressed both of her boobs together and gave a tight squeeze letting the milk burst out from her nipples.

"Haanghhhh~!" A loud moan escaped the woman's throat and Zhao Tian munched both of her nipples at the same time.

"Yes... dear..."

"Suck them... Drink your mother's milk... Haanghh~"

She wrapped her legs around his waist and clutched his head, her mind spiraling into the depth of pleasure.

'The way his tongue licks my nipple... Haangh~'

'Anghhh~'

"Oofhhh~"

Chapter 372: Real Mom 3!

Zhao Tian caressed and molded her breasts to his wish squeezing out milk from her jugs.

gulp He quickly gulped her milk down his throat enjoying the heavenly taste of his mother's milk.

"Hmnnghhh~" The woman's eyes grew tender and she patted his head, a loving smile tugging at her lips.

"Do you like your Mother's milk?"

Zhao Tian didn't reply to her and continued sucking her nipples like a crazy beast.

pop After a long while, Zhao Tian retracted his lips and saw the nipples are now red because of his constant sucking.

He looked down at her body and saw the milk had spilled down her body.

Not wanting to waste a drop of her milk, Zhao Tian moved his face down kissing her belly button.

"Vester..." The woman felt quite ticklish feeling his kiss on her belly button.

Zhao Tian inserted his tongue in her belly button and licked every nook to taste her milk.

"Hmm..." The woman's body flinched and Zhao Tian pulled back his tongue leaving a bridge of saliva connecting his lips and the belly button.

He then looked at the remaining milk staining her body and began to lick her smooth skin.

His tongue trailed from her belly button as he licked every part of her abdomen and the woman delicately grabbed his head, letting him do his thing.

"Mmngh~"

His tongue reached her cleavage and he nuzzled his face on her fleshy boobs feeling her soft buns.

smooch He placed sweet kisses on her nipples making her body shiver and moved his face up licking her collarbone.

'I will lick every inch of your body and then... I shall ravish you to boot, completely marking you as mine.'

He dipped his tongue into her collarbone tasting the sweet flavor of her skin and the woman mumbled "Dear... there is no milk left on my body."

However, Zhao Tian didn't stop and continued licking her neck.

Never ever in his life has he ever felt this raging desire in his heart to completely make a woman his to her very core.

He grabbed her arm and raised her hand as he placed a small kiss on her smooth armpit.

"Kyanghh..." The woman mewled and Zhao Tian let out his tongue giving a long lick to her armpit.

'Every part of your body... I don't care whether you are my mother or what, I want you to be mine...'

He peppered kisses on her hand and began to lick it savoring the taste of her rich skin.

At this time, the woman noticed something and her eyebrows frowned "Dear... wait..."

Hm? Zhao Tian pulled back his hand and looked at the concern in the woman's eyes.

With a gentle smile on her lips, the woman caressed his cheek "Dear... know one thing. Mother loves you..."

Huh? Zhao Tian looked at her hand fading away and was startled "What is happening?"

swish Zhao Tian blinked his eyes and saw Zhao Suyin's face, her face flushed deep crimson.

"Ah, Tian'er you woke up..."

Zhao Tian turned his eyes and looked at the nipple he was sucking and pulled back his lips.

Letting out a chuckle, Zhao Suyin gently patted his head "You began to fondle my breasts in sleep, so I removed my robes..."

"And you began to suck my breasts... like a child Haha..."

Zhao Tian frowned and got up from her lap, a deep frown etching his face.

'So she really is my mother. But... she is in my head and I was....'

Remembering her beautiful face, Zhao Tian's eyes trembled 'She was so fucking beautiful... I was not in my right mind there... and I can't ask the questions I wanted.'

"Oh my... what wet dream were you having?"

Hm? Zhao Tian turned to Zhao Suyin and she pointed at his boner "You are so hard.."

Zhao Tian smiled dryly looking at his dick bricked up and Zhao Suyin got up sitting on his lap "Take me to the room... Tian'er."

"Yeah..."

...

Meanwhile, in some white space...

"What happened... why has your body gone transparent?"

"This is..."

"Your soul energy?"

"En, I was spending time with Vester and it sucked my remnant soul energy dry."

"You warned us not to interact with his soul, but you have done it?"

"What can I do? he is just so cute and couldn't resist..."

"Haah..."

"Did you tell him everything?"

"No... he is not yet ready to know about the truth of this tenfold world."

"When he reaches the pinnacle... I will tell him everything."

"When he is ready to carry on these responsibilities..."

"But... the desire to see his Mother would surely boost up him and he can progress quickly."

"I see..."

"Now rest..."

...

Zhao Tian looked at Zhao Suyin who was using his left arm as a pillow and gently caressed her long silver hair.

He is still hesitant to tell her that Zhao Ning is not his real mother.

She is in belief that she is his real aunty and he hesitates to break it down to her.

Letting out a sigh, he mumbled "Mom, I have something to say to you."

Zhao Suyin opened her eyes and looked at Zhao Tian's face "What is it dear? tell me."

With a nod, Zhao Tian spoke "The thing is... Zhao Ning is not my real mother."

Huh? Zhao Suyin was confused and squinted her eyes "Tian'er? She is not your mother?"

Zhao Tian continued "Do you remember I talked about a woman... who was inside me who is an angel and she might be my mother"

Zhao Suyin gave a nod "I remember Tian'er, she is the one who kissed you and you got a strange power-up."

"Yeah... I just had some moments with her and she is actually my mother."

H-HUH? Zhao Suyin's pupils dilated in shock and Zhao Tian hugged her in his arms tightly "Mom..."

Zhao Suyin buried her face on his neck, tears moistening her eyes "Then I am not even your real Aunt? I am just an outsider?"

"No, Mom... as I said already, she might be my real mother, but you are the one who took care of me..."

"You are my Mom."

Chapter 373: Astral beast wave!

"I see, so my Sister must be somehow related to your real parents."

Zhao Tian nodded his head and gently patted Zhao Suyin's head, his fingers running through her hair as she nestled her face on his neck.

A slight frown etched his face as he remembered his time with his mother inside that space 'That was not my subconscious... I think it was my soul at that time that interacted with her.'

'And I really couldn't resist her beauty... I even called her Mother out of instinct.'

'But the most important thing is she called me Vester... hmm.'

'I wonder if that women blue hair, red hair, and black hair.. were they also connected to my Mother?'

He glanced down at Zhao Suyin's breasts and reached out, gently pinching her nipple 'And she was lactating so much... even her milk was so delicious.'

He unconsciously gulped down his saliva remembering the heavenly taste and caressed her areola with his fingers "Mom..."

Zhao Suyin's eyes softened and gently grasped his neck pulling his face closer to her nipple "Taste it, Tian'er."

Zhao Tian squeezed her breasts tightly; his fingers sinking into the soft cushions "Mom... I want you to lactate milk."

E-Eh? Zhao Suyin was taken aback and a deep blush tinted her cheeks.

She grasped his hand and placed his palm above her abdomen "For that you have to make Mom pregnant, dear."

Zhao Tian's eyes crescented and a sigh escaped his lips "No... not now, when the right time comes I shall make you pregnant."

"Hmm..." Zhao Suyin mumbled under her lips and pulled his face, burying it in her soft breasts.

"Tian'er, can you promise me something?"

Zhao Tian raised his head looking into her silver eyes, "Promise?"

Zhao Suyin tenderly caressed his cheek, her gaze overflowing with affection "I want to bear your first child."

Upon hearing this, Zhao Tian's expression turned gentle and he nodded his head "Sure..."

knock "Tian'er, is Mom with you?"

Zhao Tian turned to look at the door and muttered "Ying'er, come in."

Pushing the door, Zhao Ying came in and looked at Zhao Suyin "Hehe, Mom... here, your mobile."

She tossed the mobile toward her and Zhao Suyin caught the mobile in her hand "Hmph, they stole all of my secret collection."

Zhao Tian moved and sat on the bed as he tapped his thigh "Big sister..."

Zhao Ying giggled and sat on his lap, an amused smile stretching on her lips "What happened, my brother? You are suddenly calling me Big sister."

Zhao Tian hugged her tightly, caressing his cheek with hers as his mind spiraled in thought 'There is a possibility that Ying'er is not my real sister...'

'But she also has the Maverick name which is making me confused.'

Kissing her ear, Zhao Tian let out his tongue delicately licking her ear.

"Hnngh~ Haha... little brother." Zhao Ying mewed in his arms and Zhao Tian parted his lips gently nibbling her ear.

"Ying'er, where is Xue'er? I can't sense her presence within the artifact?"

Zhao Ying closed her eyes enjoying his soft touches and nodded her head "She just went to the Zhenzhu palace to talk with Sister Zhilian... thinking that she must be worried because we are all inside the artifact since yesterday."

"I see..."

"TIAN!"

At this time, Zhao Tian heard Ning Xue's scream and was startled "Xue'er? She came back..."

Zhao Ying hurriedly got down from his lap and he quickly wore his shorts walking out of the room.

He went downstairs and looked at Ning Xue who was panicking.

Walking closer to her, she gently took her waist in his arms "Xue'er... what happened?"

Ning Xue took a deep breath to control her chaotic emotions and muttered "Tian, there is a dangerous situation going on outside."

Zhao Tian frowned in confusion and patted her head, comforting her "Xue'er calm down and tell me what happened."

"En... Tian, the barriers around Zhenzhu... they were broken."

Yu Hua, who just come to the main hall after hearing Ning Xue was left speechless "The barriers were broken? Doesn't that mean the astral beasts can wander around freely now?"

Ning Xue hastily nodded her head "Yeah... Big Sister has already issued warnings to the nearby countries to be on guard and evacuate their people."

"The cultivators belong to the ACL of all the neighboring nations are also stationed on the borders."

"But... there is also a chance that the astral beasts might attack Zhenzhu too."

Zhao Tian narrowed his eyes after hearing Ning Xue's explanation and nodded his head "Then, let's leave."

...

Wearing a white shirt and black pants, Zhao Tian walked through the corridor of the Royal palace quickly reaching the Hall of the Palace.

As he walked closer, he could already hear the discussions happening inside the Hall.

Zhao Tian stepped into the hall and everyone quickly went silent. The ministers and Sect master stood up from their seats and bowed their heads.

"Your Highness!"

Zhao Tian gave a nod acknowledging them and they all sat back in their seats.

Ning Zhilian who was sitting on the throne stood up and gestured for Zhao Tian to sit on it.

However, Zhao Tian refused it by shaking his head and strolling toward the throne.

He gently grasped Ning Zhilian's shoulder and made her sit on the throne as he sat on the armrest.

"So what's the situation now."

The Sect master of Golden Flame Sect stood up and bowed his head "Your Highness..."

Zhao Tian gave a nod "Speak...."

"Your Highness, we have sent our special units to the border of Zhenzhu and what they reported is that they couldn't sense a single astral beast around Zhenzhu."

Zhao Tian raised an eyebrow "So they didn't attack Zhenzhu and directly went to the human world?"

"Yes, Your Highness... the Zhenzhu is not in danger but the normal people are.."

Zhao Tian gave a nod and his gaze squinted 'I heard from Shenyi that astral beasts after reaching Monarch Astral Stage possess intelligence.'

'Seems like a powerful beast is controlling all other beasts and guiding them to the human world.'

Chapter 374: Astral beast wave 2!

swish A woman with long silver hair appeared in mid-air and her mesmerizing golden eyes glanced down at the well-developed cities and running cars.

Her red lips curved into a beautiful smile as she mumbled "So this is the middle star my darling stays in."

She turned her eyes to the illusory image of Zhao Tian which was floating beside her.

"I came to see you, my darling."

Qian Shi's eyes swirled with lust as she gazed into the image of Zhao Tian and she unconsciously raised her hand groping her boob.

However, she suddenly realized and shook her head "I have been masturbating to you for thousands of years... that it became a habit."

She sat in mid-air and a grand throne embellished with intricate gold and silver accents materialized right behind her, exuding an aura of regal splendor.

She placed her leg over another as she rested her hand on the armrest "This star's fate lies in the hands of my darling..."

"And a rare phenomenon is going to happen to this middle star and I can not miss that out."

"Not when the Heavens itself is going to intervene this time..."

As she muttered, she used her astral sense and saw a pink-haired fox woman who was standing above a burning building "Ah... there she is..."

"Causing all this chaos."

In her golden eyes, intricate star-like patterns began to emerge, causing her to clench her teeth in frustration as her heart burned with anger while she gazed at the fox-haired woman.

"I am so envious..."

...

As the discussions continued, Ning Zhilian who was sitting on the throne turned her gaze to Zhao Tian and mumbled "Tian, I need to talk with you later, privately."

Zhao Tian looked into her purple eyes and nodded his head "Okay."

Ning Zhilian turned to look at the ministers and spoke "For now, stay in guard around Zhenzhu but also send some reinforcements to the neighboring nations to fight the beast tide."

"The cultivators within the government are weak, so we need to aid them."

Everyone nodded their heads in agreement.

ring At this time, Zhao Tian's phone rang and he retracted it from his pocket.

Seeing the name, Zhao Tian frowned slightly and attended the call bringing it close to his ear "Old man?"

Li Jie who was on the opposite end spoke "Tian, there is an emergency... Yueli, she is been missing since yesterday."

Hearing this, Zhao Tian let out a faint chuckle and muttered "Don't worry Old man, she is safe with me."

H-Huh? Li Jie was dumbfounded to hear this and let out a sigh of relief "Yueli.. is with you? Then... it's good. She should be safe with you there."

"Tian, the situation here is chaotic. People are already getting evacuated."

"And I heard from one of my friends in the military that the astral beasts around Zhenzhu were heading towards the Human world."

"And all the nation leaders are going to gather for an emergency meeting."

Zhao Tian's eyes squinted "I see. How is your wife, old man?"

Li Jie could only sigh deeply "She is alright, I just arranged for her to move to a hospital in another country which is far away from Zhenzhu."

"That's good and you also be careful Oldman."

Li Jie nodded his head "En, take care of Zuiye and Yueli."

"Sure."

click

Zhao Tian got down from the armrest and after him, Ning Zhilian also stood up "Everyone do what I just said."

"Yes, Your Majesty."

...

Zhao Tian and Ning Zhilian walked out of the hall "Tian, let's go to Xue'er' room."

Both of them quickly reached Ning Xue's room and Ning Zhilian hurriedly closed the door.

With a sigh escaping his lips, Zhao Tian sat on the couch and asked "So, what do you want to talk privately?"

Ning Zhilian sat beside him on the couch and removed the veil from her face "Tian, it's about the barriers."

Zhao Tian raised an eyebrow "What about them?"

Ning Zhilian was quite hesitant but she still spoke "This is actually a royal secret within our Royal family."

"Not even Xue'er knows about this but it was told to me by my Father because I was in line for the next Queen."

Zhao Tian's curiosity picked "Royal secret?"

Ning Zhilian gave a nod "The barriers which were placed by our Ancestors, they are not just to trap astral beasts within the Astral forest."

"Those are not just barriers, they are energy absorbers."

Energy absorbers?

"Tian, have you ever wondered why Zhenzhu is rich in astral energy compared to all other places in the world?"

Upon hearing this, Zhao Tian had a guess and replied "These barriers absorb the astral energy all around the world and condense them inside Zhenzhu?"

Ning Zhilian gave a nod "Yeah, no one knows about this. They all think that it is just a barrier... but it was actually more than that."

Zhao Tian was quite confused "But why would they do this? To assert dominance? And a barrier which absorbs the astral energy from all around the world... that's quite absurd."

Ning Zhilian let out a sigh "The ancestors wanted Zhenzhu to reign supreme so they did this thing to monopolize the astral energy."

"Tian, the storage ring... we royal family has most of them and do you know why? Because one of our ancestors had connections with people from High stars."

"And that person from High Star can refine artifacts. He is the one who refined all the storage rings that are currently circulating around the world."

"I even heard... that he left his inheritance somewhere in this world."

Zhao Tian rolled his eyes 'So it was actually him. I also learned to refine storage rings from his inheritance left in that tomb.'

"Now that the barrier is broken, this will disrupt the astral flow energy in this world.. this is going to change this planet Earth."

tak tak At this time, Zhao Tian heard some noises and he raised his gaze "Helicopters?"

"Seems like the people from the human world have arrived in Zhenzhu."

Chapter 375: Astral beast wave 3!

"Now that the barrier is broken, this will disrupt the astral energy flow in this world. This is going to change this planet Earth."

Leaning on the couch leisurely, Zhao Tian raised an eyebrow "Going to change this planet earth?"

Ning Zhilian gave a nod "En, the person from the High Stars who taught our ancestors about the barrier said that... If the barrier loses its energy or gets destroyed..."

"There is a slight chance for a rare phenomenon to occur on this planet that will change the course of this planet."

Zhao Tian got even more curious and asked "A rare phenomenon?"

Nodding her head, Ning Zhilian replied, "It was never said what kind of rare phenomenon is that... but when it occurs, Zhenzhu will no longer reign supreme on this planet."

"Interesting..." Zhao Tian muttered under his lips.

tak tak At this time, hearing some noises, Zhao Tian frowned slightly "Helicopters?"

"It seems like people from the human world have arrived in Zhenzhu."

Ning Zhilian's gaze squinted in thought as she wore the veil on her face "It must be the people from the military."

"Let's go and greet them."

"En."

As they stepped out of the room, they saw Ning Xue walking through the corridor towards them.
"Xue'er."

Ning Xue hurriedly grasped Zhao Tian's hand "Tian, come with me, the military of China is here."

Ning Zhilian smiled gently looking at Zhao Tian getting pulled by Ning Xue "That girl was always dependable and is ready to face any troubles."

"But now, after getting a man, she is totally relying on him. How cute..."

As she muttered under her breath, she remembered her talk with Ning Xue yesterday night "And this girl wants me to... be his... uhhh."

"Let's not think about this for now."

A crimson blush can be seen on her cheeks as she quickly followed Zhao Tian and Ning Xue.

...

The guards who were placed outside the palace were startled by the sudden strange flying objects and took their weapons, walking closer to them.

At this time, the ministers within the palace also came outside and looked at the helicopters that were landing in the palace's large courtyard.

"On guard."

The soldiers nodded their heads and one of the ministers frowned "They are people from the normal world."

The helicopters safely landed on the ground and three people got down from one of the helicopters with their arms raised, indicating submission.

Zhao Tian, Ning Xue, and Ning Zhilian also came there, and Ning Xue raised her voice "Soldiers..."

Everyone turned their heads and looked at the trio walking towards them.

Zhang Yuan looked at one of the old men and smiled "Ombudsman is also here..."

The Ombudsman nodded his head and Zhao Tian spoke "You can put your arms down."

The pilot, the Ombudsman, and the other man lowered their arms, and the third man bowed his head "I am Wang Hui, the president of China."

"It's a pleasure to meet you, the Emperor and Empress of Zhenzhu."

Upon hearing this, Zhao Tian smiled faintly "As I thought, you had your spies inside Zhenzhu."

The whole thing of the anniversary of the Royal Family happened yesterday and if Wang Hui knows about this... there must be spies inside Zhenzhu who instantly carried the information to him.

Wang Hui panicked upon hearing Zhao Tian's words "U-Uh that's..."

The Ombudsman let out a sigh "We have to be careful... you are all powerful after all, right, Your Highness?"

Zhao Tian nodded his head "Understandable."

While Wang Hui is panicking to speak with Zhao Tian, the Ombudsman is calm because he has encountered Zhao Tian in the past.

With a nod, the Ombudsman spoke "Well, I will come straight to the point."

"Your Highness must be aware of the beast tide currently happening outside Zhenzhu."

"We have already taken measures to evacuate people from the areas that are prone to the attack of these astral beasts."

"For now, we have issued a Level 5 danger level and just informed people there is a virus spreading around, so they should evacuate quickly."

The Ombudsman continued "But there are already some videos of the astral beasts spiraling on the internet and the government is also trying hard to delete them."

He let out a sigh "Why am I rambling about this?"

He raised his eyes, looking at Zhao Tian "All the world leaders of the powerful nations and the cultivator factions who were allied with them have decided to gather in Germany in the next 12 hours."

"So we came here to invite you to represent Zhenzhu."

Zhao Tian frowned slightly and nodded his head "Give me the coordinates and I will come there later."

Wang Hui hurriedly nodded and glanced at the pilot "Write it down and bring it here."

"Yes sir."

The pilot quickly came back with a piece of paper and handed it to Wang Hui.

"Here, Your Highness!"

With a nod, Zhao Tian took the paper and Wang Hui bowed his head "Then we shall take our leave."

"Hm."

Zhao Tian's hair fluttered in the air as he glanced at the helicopters flying away from there.

"Meeting of the world leaders, hmm...."

...

Zhao Tian, Ning Xue, and Ning Zhilian were walking back to Ning Xue's room.

Zhao Tian turned to look at Ning Xue and asked "You want to come along with me?"

Ning Xue shook her head "No, Tian... I don't want to come to the Human world and talk with those world leaders."

Ning Zhilian could only sigh "I am sure all the world leaders are going to blame Zhenzhu for not maintaining the barrier probably."

"And they will try to push all the casualties and responsibilities on Zhenzhu's head."

Zhao Tian narrowed his eyes upon hearing this and Ning Zhilian moved close to Ning Xue "Little Xue, I want to talk with you."

...

Sitting on the couch in her room Ning Xue was startled "Energy absorbers? Then the astral energy concentration is not natural?"

"No, it was all done by our ancestors."

As they were speaking, Zhao Tian was still curious about this rare phenomenon that might appear on this planet.

Chapter 376: Astral beast wave 4!

"The 13 wards are almost destroyed!"

"The number of astral beasts released from the Astral beasts forest exceeds 50,000?"

"China, Russia, Mongolia, Korea and Japan are the first in line to get destroyed before the astral beasts move onto the neighboring countries!"

"The evacuation plan for more than 10 million residents has been implemented."

"T-The casualties are already piling up..."

"We can't warn and evacuate every single person in an instant and there are fewer transport services."

"The Jing Hei airport has also been destroyed by the Astral beasts..."

"Every resident is trying to flee from the place and the Chinese government is also trying to help the residents."

"The cultivators were also helping people to evacuate but this population is already high and it is hard to evacuate everyone."

"The world leaders are all furious about this."

"During a power vacuum at this scale, Foreign military intervention is a possibility."

"The military is also trying their best to help people."

"This is the time for all of us to unite."

"We can only hope the neighboring countries will help us."

"But there is also a possibility that they might close their borders and use our population as a meat shield to stall the astral beasts to get enough time."

"Stop talking shit."

"N-No way... They are all spreading... everywhere."

"The casualties are spontaneously increasing in China, Mongolia, and Korea."

"The factions that have cultivators are also trying their hardest to stop these astral beasts but the astral beasts are outnumbering them."

"It can't be helped, there is a low number of cultivators out of Zhenzhu.."

"What shall we do? We can't just hide this as a virus anymore..."

"W-We have no other choice."

"We can only disclose information about the existence of cultivators in this world..."

"And about these astral beasts too."

"Huh? Are you nuts?"

"People are dying like this and you want to lie to them? The only choice is to alert them..."

"So they will take the situation even more seriously."

"They are going to know about it anyway... so, this is the only way."

...

Wang Hui who was sitting inside the private jet, glanced at the laptop in front of him where he is on video call with other world leaders.

He raged in anger "Can't you see? My people are dying there and you want me to lie to them?"

"Are you out of your minds?"

Brenden Smith who is the president of USA sighed "Cal down, Mr. Hui... we know about the situation there."

"How about we say that this astral beasts appear only in China."

"You are going to blame my country?"

Yoshikage Kira, who is the president of Japan uttered "It is all because of Zhenzhu.."

"If only they had maintained the barriers properly, such a thing would not have happened."

"And Mr.Hui, Zhenzhu is related to your country, so we can only blame you."

Brenden Smith spoke "How about we disclose to the public that these beasts only appear in Asia?"

"So not everyone around the world would panic."

India's president Anurag Mukherjee "It won't be long before the astral beasts reach here too as we are close to China."

Holee Phuk of South Korea spoke, "Why don't we just nuke them all?"

"But do you know what the aftermath of such a big nuclear explosion will be?"

Wang Hui raged and yelled "I don't care about others... I am going to disclose the truth to the public so they will quickly evacuate."

"Mr.Hui.. wait.."

"No."

"Listen to us for a moment..."

"Yeah, do that..."

Getting increasingly frustrated by the world leaders, Wang Hui canceled the video call and turned to his assistant.

"I will confess about everything, about this world, astral energy, cultivators, and astral beasts."

"I want you to upload the video of that on all social media platforms in my official ID and also send the video to Media and reporters."

The assistant was taken aback upon hearing this and hurriedly nodded his head "Yes, President."

...

The video of Wang Hui confessing the truth of the world blew the internet up and instantly went viral.

Some world leaders were frustrated by his behavior but the truth is going to be known by the normal public anyway...

So they didn't take any action against him.

On that day, on everyone's digital screens, Wang Hui's face was the only thing appearing.

"The videos of mysterious beasts spreading around the internet are not fake. They are all true."

"Since we were kids, we have all dreamed of using superpowers and being superheroes."

"There are actually people on this planet who can use supernatural powers and manipulate the astral energy to their will."

"We call them as cultivators."

"And the astral beasts are all formed from this astral energy."

...

The netizens also blew up the comments.

"Damn bro, this shit is so cool!!!"

"Fuck, I wonder I also have this power."

"Haha, now everyone will value life... no matter how rich or poor you are, when you are getting attacked by Astral beasts you are dead!"

"Turn to God; he is the only one who can save you!"

"This must be done by the Gods after watching the sins done by these humans."

"This is our divine punishment?"

"We must atone for our sins."

"Erm, what the sigma."

"Fuck off with your brain rot!"

"I also want to be a cultivator."

"Can we apply for one?"

"I wonder how cultivators will look and what powers can they use."

...

The news media's helicopters also sneaked into the astral beast-prone areas to provide with their viewers, some exclusive videos.

"From here, we can clearly see there are thousands of these mysterious beasts which are called astral beasts rampaging here and there."

"We are all safe because we are high in the air."

"But do you wonder if there will be a flying beast that can attack us?"

"W-Wait! WAIT!!!"

"Turn the camera! Fucker! turn the camera..."

"There is someone... someone among this group of beasts."

"A man... zoom in. zoom in..."

"He has white hair..."

Chapter 377: Astral Beast Wave 5!

swish gasp Qian Shi's who just appeared there was left speechless, his presence causing her breath to catch in her throat as she beheld the divinely handsome man standing amidst the swirling waves of astral beasts.

His hair, as pure and white as freshly fallen snow, danced in the breeze while his eyes, as captivating as the deep blue ocean, sparkling in the sunlight.

"Haaaaahhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhhh! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN!

TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN!

TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN!

TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN!

TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN!

TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN!

TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN! TIAN!"

"TIANNNNNN!!!!!"

She screamed at the top of her lungs, her cheeks flustered deep pink as her golden eyes fixated on the man.

Her eyes scanned him from top to bottom noticing every aspect of his body and her lips trembled with a longing that pulsed through her entire being.

"H-He is beautiful, handsome, pretty, elegant, breathtaking, gorgeous, attractive, charming, heavenly, stunning, exquisite, cute, magnificent, divine, alluring, pleasing, lovely, delightful, appealing, engaging, winsome, ravishing, gorgeous, glamorous, irresistible, bewitching, beguiling, graceful, elegant, exquisite, aesthetic, magnificent, hot, sexy, divine, pulchritudinous, dazzling, fascinating, fine, good looking, graceful, grand, splendid, superb, wonderful, sublime, statuesque, radiant, ideal, nice, excellent, enticing, classy, admirable, fancy, angelic, beauteous, luscious, fetching, adoring, adorable, embellishing, flawless, perfect, personable, desirable, seductive, snazzy, striking, showstopping, glossy, eye-catching, fabulous, prime, top-notch, sensational, premium, tempting, magnetic, captivating, prepossessing, bright, tantalizing, enchanting, pleasant, flamboyant, glorious, spectacular, fantastic!"

"Ahhnnngggg~~" As she yelled, she felt her lower part getting wet and squirt she orgasmed sitting on the throne.

She bit her lower lip, as her delicate teeth bared into her luscious lips and it tore her skin; blood oozing from her lips.

"I-I want to hug and squeeze him... Push him down there and ravage his body... offering my virginity to him as a gift of our first meeting."

However, she suddenly shook her head "NO! I want him to ravage me day and night... tie me down and rape the fuck out of me... Haangh~ TIANNNN!!!"

She gulped hard as she thought of Zhao Tian's divine rod "I have already seen his cock, that gigantic thing... I want him inside me so bad."

As her mind spiraled out to lust, she suddenly organized herself and shook her head "I-I am haah..."

"But what can I do? I am just so happy that I met him after all these thousands of years."

Letting out a deep sigh, she reclined back on her throne and closed her eyes "I have to calm myself down. If he saw me like this, he would definitely think I am weird."

She again gazed at Zhao Tian's dashing in the air, slaying those astral beasts and as a dark glint passed through Zhao Tian's eyes, Qian Shi shivered.

"Darkness elemental granted him by the Honoured One's physique." She muttered under her lips and her gaze squinted.

A wide smile appeared on her lips and her eyes crescented in fondness "Don't worry, darling. Even if you got in some commotion because of this darkness elemental... I will be there for you, to protect you.."

"This Qian Shi will be with you..."

...

tak tak The news helicopter which was surveying the astral beast-prone areas came there for some exclusive shots for their news company.

"W-Wait.. there is someone... among the beasts."

The viewers who were watching the live broadcast on TV and mobile were all excited that they were going to see a cultivator for the first time.

"Oi, Oi... is this for real..."

"A cultivator, maybe?"

"Nah, some fucker must have thought that he is a superhero and went up there."

"Shut yo bitch ass up please."

"No one gives a fuck to your opinions."

"Why are they not turning the camera angle..."

"Show him"

"SHOW HIM!!!"

The news reporter who was on the helicopter squinted his gaze to get a clear picture of Zhao Tian amongst the astral beasts and mumbled "He has... white hair."

"White hair?"

"HE HAS WHITE HAIR?"

"Haha, Gojo Satoru?"

"WELCOME BACK GOJO SATORU!!!"

"THE HONOURED ONE!"

"What are these guys commenting? who is Gojo?"

"Kill yourself for not knowing Gojo."

"GOATJO!"

"THROUGHOUT THE HEAVEN AND EARTH, I ALONE AM THE HONOURED ONE!!
RAHHHH!!"

"Stop spamming about Gojo..."

"Kids telling Gojo, it's actually Kakashi Sensei."

"No, he looks more like Sephiroth to me!"

Meanwhile, the owner of the News Agency laughed happily "My Channel's TRP rate is going high...."

"The viewer watch count is also increasing."

"Taking the risk to get exclusive shots is worth it after all."

...

sleesh Zhao Tian's sword cleaved through a spider's neck and in the next instant, the body of the spider burn in crimson flames.

He turned his gaze to the helicopters that were flying close to him and narrowed his eyes
"Annoying..."

He just thought of killing some beasts on his way to Germany to attend the world leaders' conference.

The cameraman, who is on the helicopter, zoomed onto Zhao Tian and his face appeared in all digital screens around the world.

The cameraman was dumbfounded looking at the handsome man wearing a White shirt and black pants with a long blade in his hand.

"D-Damn, he looks so handsome."

The internet blew up again after seeing the first cultivator and people took screenshots, photos, and videos of Zhao Tian... going viral on all social media platforms.

"Woah, Woah... I never expected such hot guys would be cultivators."

"Honestly I thought, it would be some old geezer."

"Ahhhhh, so fictional men do exist in real life?"

"I am gay for him."

"See, he even has blue eyes, Gojo Satoru!!!"

"Cultivator Gojo?"

"It hasn't been 5 minutes since his face was revealed and there are already edits of him on the internet."

"Shit is crazy...."

"WAIT!! isn't that Zhao Tian?"

"Eh? Who is Zhao Tian?"

"My senior crush in Wei University... he rarely comes there, but he is famous there too."

"Now that you say it, he does look like Senior Tian."

"So, it is actually Zhao Tian?"

The internet blew up again with the name of Zhao Tian and hashtags like #honouredone #welcomebackgojo #zhaotian #firstcultivator went viral because of the Netizans.

Chapter 378: Astral Beast Wave 6!

Zhao Tian waved his hand and crimson flames burst out of his body incinerating the nearby astral beasts into ash in mere seconds.

He again turned his gaze and this time he saw two more helicopters coming his way.

"These people on the internet should be trying to gain my information from all sources. If people in my university were watching this live, then my name would have already gone viral."

He turned his gaze and looked at the huge building, which was filled with these astral beasts.

thrissh An enormous, sharp ice sword appeared above the building and as Zhao Tian gestured his hand down, it descended down, crashing into the building.

BOOOOMMM The ground shook because of the impact, sending ripples of reverberation into the air.

The astral beasts in the vicinity were obliterated and chilled to death by the cold ice.

thrissh The loud sound of thrashing echoed through the air as dust and debris were violently stirred up, resulting in widespread devastation to the surrounding area.

The helicopters trembled, feeling the vibrations, and the news reporter was bewildered "A-Awesome... so this is the power of a cultivator?"

The people who were watching the live broadcast were shocked to the core and their jaws dropped "W-What the hell.."

"H-He is so cool...."

"As if he is a God..."

"Insane powers... damn."

"He used flames and he then used ice... they have the power of elements?"

"They have been hiding in our world with these powers?"

"Ahhhhh Senior Tian has always been cool and now he is even cooler."

"ZHAO TIAN!!!"

...

Wang Hui looked at the live telecast and was dumbfounded. His viral video was quickly overshadowed by the live broadcast of Zhao Tian.

"He is revealing about the powers of the cultivators to the entire world."

The Ombudsman who was beside him shook his head helplessly. "No, he is showing off HIS power to the entire world..."

Wang Hui was confused and turned to the Ombudsman "What do you mean?"

The Ombudsman spoke "I am kind of sure, he is in the 9th level of Monarch Astral stage and there are people in this world I can count with fingers who are on the same level as him..."

"But even they cannot be this powerful and have many elemental powers."

Wang Hui was quite confused and squinted his eyes "Hm?"

The Ombudsman spoke "After this, the news media will surely telecast the fights of other cultivators and the viewers who had high expectations will be severely disappointed by the power of other cultivators."

"Most of our cultivators can barely hold against these astral beasts and seeing them getting crushed... only one thought will appear in the people's minds."

"Only Zhao Tian can kill all the astral beasts and save this world."

Huh? Wang Hui was startled upon hearing this and Ombudsman continued "Everyone will place their hopes on Zhao Tian and Zhenzhu."

"In today's meeting, after seeing Zhao Tian's strength, no world leader would dare provoke him and blame Zhezhu for the astral beast tide."

"Because if they provoked Zhao Tian and if he refused to help, they knew they would be doomed."

The Ombudsman smirked "What a sly brat..."

"People are going to see him as a God."

Hang Wui got a notification on his mobile and was bewildered "Huh? The Exchange rate of Chinese Yuan is decreasing.."

Seeing this, the Ombudsman clicked his tongue 'Power Hungry bastards...'

He turned to look at the sky through the private jet's window 'What will be the future of this world?'

...

"Woah! Brother Tian is on live..." Ning Yueli got down from her bed and opened the door, exiting her room.

"Sister Ying!! see this, Brother Tian is on live."

Zhao Ying and Zhao Suyin who were sitting on the couch, were surprised to hear her scream and turned to look at Ning Yueli.

"Yueli?"

"Aunty Suyin, Sister Ying... I told you that the existence of cultivators is exposed to the whole world by the president of China, right?"

"Now, see... even Brother Tian is on live."

"What?"

"Let me see."

Zhao Suyin and Zhao Ying hurriedly peeked into the mobile screen and saw the live telecast of Zhao Tian severing and burning the astral beasts.

"See how a flick of his finger is destroying buildings and killing all the astral beasts."

Looking at the comments, Zhao Ying was surprised. "They already got Tian'er's name."

"Eh? Gojo?"

"Then my son is going to be world popular?"

Ning Yueli nodded her head "He is already world popular haha... half of the population of Earth must be seeing his face right now."

"Call the others to show this to them."

...

Zhao Tian glanced at the destruction surrounding him, with broken and burning buildings along with the corpses of the dead astral beasts.

"For now, this place is cleared."

He then turned his eyes to the helicopters which were flying near him and rolled his eyes 'Well, I don't mind being a world popular guy, as I am going to leave this planet soon anyway.'

'So I don't have to stay here to hear their bullshits.'

tak tak One of the helicopters flew near him and the reporter and cameraman bravely landed on the ground.

They were quite disgusted by the astral beasts' corpses and the reporter spoke "Cover everything..."

"I am doing..."

The cameraman spun 360 showing all the destroyed areas and the dead bodies of the astral beasts.

The viewers were also looking at it keenly, as they were also so curious about these astral beasts and cultivators.

"Are they walking close to that hot guy?"

"Show his face... closer."

"This shit is crazy, there are already some of his photos captured during his University days are going viral."

"Can someone ask for his Insta ID?"

"Yeah, I am surprised by his long hair.. he used to have short hair."

"Just show his damn face."

The cameraman and the reporter quickly came close to Zhao Tian and the cameraman zoomed the camera on Zhao Tian's face.

"M-Mister, you are a cultivator, right?"

Zhao Tian retracted the sword into his storage ring and uttered "You should leave quickly, this area is dangerous."

swish With that, he disappeared from there, dashing into the air.

"Woah, he is flying..."

Chapter 379: Astral Beast Wave 7!

The video of Zhao Tian killing the astral beasts and the video of the Chinese president Wang Hui revealing about the cultivator stuff and the astral beast, quickly became a global sensation across the world.

Every channel, news, famous people, and influencer began to talk about it and within 2 hours, this was the thing the whole world was talking about.

There are many people curious about cultivators, scared of cultivators, while some even began to create a cult for them.

The modern-day cultivators of various factions also took the opportunity to be popular and began to post clips showing off their powers.

Almost 80 percent of the earth's population came to know about the existence of cultivators.

Following the Chinese president, the presidents of various nations began to talk about the cultivations and some factions that are related to them.

"Yo, is there any way we can become cultivators too?"

"Who knows?"

"Maybe it has something to do with... this astral energy they were talking about."

"I heard that we need to be born with some elemental affinity and some shit."

"Eh? Didn't the Indian president Anurag Mukherjee say that... it has something to do with the meridians of a human."

"Meridians? As if in the Chinese... medicine thingy? Pressure points?"

"Don't know... something like that."

"Heh, this is getting so interesting."

"I want to see the powers of many other cultivators."

"The Korean president talked about the power level of the cultivators from the Mystic Astral stage to the Monarch Astral Stage was it?"

"Yes, I have the pdf of those power levels."

"Yo, wait... one of the cultivators in Japan, Yui Sato of Celestial Dawn Society is live streaming on Ycube, killing the astral spirit beasts."

"He is in the Emperor Astral Stage."

"Then just below... Monarch Astral Stage?"

"Share the link..."

"Quick..."

"Ycube handle?"

"Just search Yui Sato cultivator."

...

Yui Sato who was slaying the astral beasts with his katana, turned his head and glanced at Ren Ito who was recording his fight, telecasting it live.

"How many people?"

Ren Ito smiled and said "Master, it has already crossed 350k live watchers in just 20 minutes... it's 355 now. What the hell?"

Yui Sato smirked in his mind upon hearing this 'Haha, now I don't have to keep it a secret anymore... I will get so popular with this.'

'And what's more from Ycube, I can even earn money by just live streaming like this.'

'I will be a millionaire soon, haha...'

As he laughed in his mind, he saw a 20-foot-tall purplish wolf among the hoard of astral beasts and smiled "Ito, shoot this properly. This one is big."

"Yes, master."

The comments also blew up seeing the large wolf "Yeah... this looks so big."

"Can he defeat it?"

"Haha, If that first cultivator is here. he would have killed it instantly."

"What was his name again, Zhao Tian?"

"Yeah, Lord Tian."

"Eh? Lord?"

"When did he become Lord?"

"Idk everyone is calling him Lord, so I also said it like that."

"It must be those brain rots."

"sighs"

swish Wind elemental concentrated on Yui Sato's legs and he leaped up in the air dashing towards the wolf.

He raised the katana up his hand and green energy condensed around the blade.

sleesh As he was about to release his technique, the wolf raised its right hand, casually swinging its hand and a huge purple slash materialized out of thin air.

fleesh The slash instantly cut through Yui Sato's body and cleaved his body into two.

Looking at the body parts flying up in the air, ren Ito was horrified and blood splashed like rain.

"H-Huh?"

The viewers were also terrified to see such a gruesome scene live and some even puked watching the ghastly blood.

"W-What the fuck bro?"

"Is he alright?"

"He is dead obviously."

"Heh, it is his fault for charging like that to the astral beasts."

"He is not even close to Lord Tian."

"Mf someone just died and you are comparing people... fuck."

"Scary.."

Ren Ito's eyes shrank in terror as he saw the sliced-up body of Yui Sato "M-Master?"

But before he could do anything, another purple slash fell on him, instantly taking his life.

His phone is also soon crushed under the wave of astral beasts and Ycube also quickly removed that video from their platform.

But the netizens who were screen recording have already cropped that particular time and made edits to it, making it viral again.

tak tak The news helicopters were flying in the sky, looking down at the military and the cultivators trying to kill the astral beasts.

"From here, we can see the astral beasts are getting killed by the powerful and mighty cultivator-"

"Wait... aaahh they are getting... killed."

"T-This... why do these beasts seem so angry and ferocious?"

The whole world came to know of the looming crisis they are facing right now.

Not all cultivators are strong like Zhao Tian, the first cultivator, and these astral beasts are actually terrifying.

The dread reality began to sink into people's minds and they were actually scared of the future.

"Where is Zhao Tian?"

"Ask him to kill the beasts...."

"He must be in the Monarch Astral Stage.. he could kill them very easily."

"I also saw a video of a Monarch Astral Stage cultivator killing the astral beasts easily... but this Zhao Tian seems even more powerful than them."

"Yeah, Zhao Tian easily killed these beasts, while the others were quite struggling with these beasts."

"BRING ZHAO TIAN!!!"

"BRING ZHAO TIAN!!!"

"It must be these girls who are crazy over that good-looking guy, making him so popular."

"Do you hear another thing?"

"What?"

"Cultivators normally can't have more than one elemental attribute...."

"Eh, but I saw Zhao Tian using fire and ice... then, that?"

"He is so talented and skilled... duh."

"Oh ma gawddddddd!!!"

...

"Wha-" Looking at the online protests, Wang Hui was dumbfounded "Bring Zhao Tian?"

The Ombudsman who was beside him chuckled "See? That brat really did it."

"Hui, you also talk to the news reporter like he is the strongest cultivator in existence if you want to save your country. Because he is the only one who can actually kill all those astral beasts."

"I would have placed my bets on Lycan Syndicate too... but since they are destroyed by someone... it can't be helped."

"The whole world can only rely on Zhao Tian and Zhenzhu."

Wang Hui blinked his eyes "You seem to know a lot about him, Ombudsman."

The Ombudsman smiled wryly "To be honest, he beat me when he was a whole stage below me..."

"Wha- Ombudsman, he beat you?"

The pilot who was in the front spoke "President, Ombudsman... soon we will reach our destination."

Chapter 380: Astral beast Wave 8!

swoosh Zhao Tian was dashing through the air, the fading light of the evening sun painting him in a warm orange glow as dusk began to settle in.

A slight frown etched his face as he used his astral sense to detect if there was anyone near him
'Huh? Why do I feel like someone is staring at me?'

Qian Shi was flying just inches above him, her eyes softening in lust as she rubbed the drool from her lips with the back of her palm.

"WAHAHAHWAHWA, TIAN, TIAN...."

"You are just an arm away from me... I want to hug you so damn much... but it is not yet time for you to meet me."

A gentle smile curled on her lips "Even now, I came to see you against destiny.. haah..."

"But I shall wait... wait for you to fall in love with me."

"My Honoured One."

But at this time, an idea popped into her mind and she smirked "Ah... I know how I can hug you, my darling..."

...

At this time, everyone heard that a summit of all the world leaders of the powerful nations was also going to happen in Germany.

Along with them, there will also be members from various cultivation factions around the world who are allied with the world government.

Many news media and people in Germany also rushed to the spot to get even more pictures of these cultivators.

People and news reporters were flooding the place and they were all kept at bay by the military and police.

One after another, the presidents of various countries came there for the summit.

Some people were confused looking at the presidents "Why are they wasting time by coming all the way here and even calling the leaders of cultivators."

"Yeah, they should have done all of this online... so by the meantime, the cultivators would do their work."

"Idiots, this is a major world issue and the whole planet is panicking... but you are here just complaining."

"Things like this should not be talked about over the phone. They should talk face to face and think of future measures."

"Yeah, whatever..."

"Do you think Zhao Tian would have been invited to this summit?"

"Surely..."

At this time, a car pulled up there and Hang Wui and the Ombudsman came out of the car.

Seeing Hang Wui, the reporters rushed to him to ask questions.

"President, since Zhao Tian is from your country. What do you think of him?"

"Why did you keep the existence of cultivators hidden for so long?"

"Are there any ideas to kill these beasts?"

Hang Wui raised his hand stopping them and looked at the reporters "Zhao Tian is the most powerful cultivator on this planet and he is exceptionally talented."

"I don't have to tell... you must have seen the videos on the internet."

"Even we are relying on him to kill the astral beasts and work with our combined strength to clear this threat."

"He is the pride of our country."

The Ombudsman smiled in his mind, 'This guy is acting better than I thought.'

'Now everyone's hopes will be set on Zhao Tian and Zhenzhu. I can only hope, Zhao Tian won't refuse to help the people and back off...'

'If he didn't help, everyone around the world would begin to hate him...'

...

Zhao Tian who was flying in the air frowned slightly looking at the live on his mobile "This guy... really set me up."

"Well, I am the one who laid the foundation for it by showing myself on TV."

"I shall just kill all the beasts. It would have been good if I could also absorb the astral beasts' souls, but I can only absorb human souls."

...

After all the presidents and the factions of cultivators had arrived there, the people and the reporters were confused. "That's it? Zhao Tian is not coming?"

tap At this time, someone landed on the floor and everyone's eyes turned to the handsome man in an elegant white shirt and black pants.

click click flash Everyone raised their cameras and took photos and videos of Zhao Tian.

The reporters also rushed to his side to ask him things.

"Do you think you can kill all the astral beasts?"

"Are you the strongest because you're Zhao Tian? Or are you Zhao Tian because you're the strongest?"

"How are you so powerful?"

The cops, who were already waiting for Zhao Tian quickly covered him and pushed away the reporters and normal people from getting in his way.

"Sir, please this way..."

Zhao Tian gave a faint nod and followed the cops to enter the building.

"Mr.Zhao Tian."

"Mr.Zhao Tian!"

Walking through the grand corridor, Zhao Tian let out a faint sigh 'Being popular is tough. I also kind of like this though...'

Since his school days, he never thought of hiding his inhuman physical strength or his good looks.

He was born with them, so why does he need to hide them and act low-key?

He will proudly show them off.

...

There are numerous desks in the enormous hall and many important figures on this planet are sitting there.

The cultivators of various factions belonging to different countries were also there for this emergency meeting.

murmur Many of them are murmuring with each other and talking about the future of the world.

tap tap At this time, hearing faint footsteps among the noises, everyone went silent as they knew there was only one person left to come.

The Ombudsman smiled dryly 'He is the main guy and coming to the meeting this late.. haha...'

'He is here.' the cultivators also felt his cultivation pressure and shrieked in their seats.

Walking inside the room, Zhao Tian took a good glance at all the people sitting there.

'What the fuck is this aura?' The cultivators and the presidents of various nations trembled in dread, looking at Zhao Tian who was casually strolling to the center of the room.

Zhao Tian is intentionally leaking a bit of his aura to intimidate them.

Amidst the silent, Ombudsman raised his voice "Your Highness, you can come and sit beside me."

With a faint nod, Zhao Tian went near him and sat beside the Ombudsman.

The Ombudsman and Wang Hui stood up from their seats, bowing their heads "It is nice to meet you again."

Zhao Tian nodded his head and at this time, he felt an intense gaze on him.

Hm? Zhao Tian turned his head and looked at the man sitting opposite to him 'Brenden Smith, right?'
