

HTC 4511

Chapter 4511

“Kill!” in the city.

The Polar Bear Legion has lost nearly two-thirds of its troops. In other words, only 10,000 people have been beaten out of 30,000 people.

And once they lost their absolute advantage in numbers and had to face two columns of nearly ten thousand attacks, the result would be very predictable.

Before long, they will be completely overwhelmed.

Now, to put it harshly, it’s just the last lingering breath.

It’s just a matter of time before it dies.

At the entrance of the underground dragon city, it is almost facing the same dilemma at this time.

The advantage of the terrain is indeed an advantage, but the advantage of the number of people and the cultivation base is also an advantage.

There are only a few dozen people in the area, but in fact, being able to persist for so long is already considered a limit operation in itself.

Even if they are tenacious, it should only be a matter of ten minutes before they are broken here.

Sombra listened to the reports of the various ministries with satisfaction.

In other words, as long as ten minutes later, the pariahs of the Polar Bear Legion can be slaughtered cleanly, and the underground dragon city can be destroyed.

At that time, all the situation will be under his control again.

While some of the process was frustrating, some were frustrating.

But in any case, the ending was satisfying to him.

“Elder, will the third and fourth columns continue to pursue Han Sanqian?” a subordinate asked.

Hei Ying smiled lightly: “Of course, the Reservoir Dog will be beaten. Now we have almost chopped off Han Sanqian’s left arm and right arm, so why don’t we kill this idiot?”

” The elder is right, Han Sanqian has really caused us a lot of trouble, and if we catch him and torture him well, we will be able to relieve our hatred.”

“That’s right, and this guy takes that trash as a guilt . All his treasures are collected for his own, now it is simply a moving treasure house, we just need to kill him, hum!” A group of people talked eloquently, and Sombra didn’t have any dissatisfaction.

In fact, compared to what his subordinates said, he had a more important reason to kill Han Sanqian.

Take credit!

This is Han Sanqian, and he once used the Heavenly Demon Castle for his own use.

Therefore, once Han Sanqian was caught by himself, he could easily imagine how much credit he deserved.

Taking back the city and killing a big traitor, anyone who sees it has to give a thumbs up to his credit.

The subordinate led the order slightly, but before leaving, he lowered his head slightly and said, "However, elder, if the third and fourth columns continue to pursue their pursuit, their range may... expand."

This means that , the third and fourth columns will be pulled farther away, after all, the place of Tianmo Castle is so big, once the third and fourth are chased out, it is not possible to retreat in a short time.

"What are you afraid of? The elders said just now that Han Sanqian is just a dog under water. It's too late for him to escape now. Do you still think he can counterattack?"

"Yes, if he counterattacks, what are his gang? The bullshit bear legion should counterattack when there are still many people, and now... heh, it's just a group of dying people, what's the use of shit?!",

"You should go honestly."

Hearing this, then Ming's subordinates did not attack immediately, but looked at the elders.

Obviously, his final decision counts as a decision.

Hei Ying sneered softly. In fact, the words of his subordinates basically represented what he meant. The reason why he didn't answer immediately was because of his trust in the subordinate in front of him.

What he said was not entirely unreasonable.

The two columns were drawn out, and once Han Sanqian came back, he would indeed see fewer people on his side.

However, in that case, he also has three columns, a full 10,000 people.

boom!

But just when the shadow was thinking about it, in the distance, a violent explosion suddenly sounded at the north gate.

The huge explosion made the black shadow group feel the ground shaking slightly.

"It's over there..." Someone frowned.

"There is a lot of movement in the north of the city, it seems... as if something happened."

"This power can be compared to very people..."

"Could it be..."

Suddenly, everyone's eyes suddenly opened.

“Han Sanqian!”

“It’s Han Sanqian, it must be Han Sanqian, this guy wants to escape from the North Gate!”

“That’s right, there is no one else except him who can make such a big noise, and, in the north of the city... ..”

Hearing the urgent voices of his subordinates, at this time, the shadow also suddenly looked over there tightly...

Chapter 4512

Yes.

It should be Han Sanqian without a doubt.

It’s really hard for anyone other than him to do it.

Moreover, the direction and location did indeed seem to be signs of escaping.

Thinking of this, Hei Ying sneered: “Sure enough, it’s you, Han Sanqian.”

“Elder, let’s go to support immediately.”

“Yeah, the opportunity cannot be missed, it won’t come again, just now we were worried about whether this kid will What a sleight of hand, now it seems that he is just what we said before, a person who is greedy for life and fear of death. He wants to escape, dreaming!”

“Elder, do you want to send the first column to support?”

“Rely on the third and fourth columns alone ? , I’m afraid there are indeed some difficulties.”

“Yes, elder, that guy actually resisted us for a long time, and his strength does not need to be said.”

“For the sake of safety, elder, let’s send another team. After all , if Han Sanqian breaks the city on the north side of the city, it will be difficult to catch him outside.”

Hei Ying nodded.

There is some truth to this.

Once Han Sanqian Han Sanqian was allowed to escape from the Demon Castle, it would be tantamount to returning the tiger to the mountain.

At that time, wanting to catch him again is almost equivalent to a dream.

So, now I really have to take advantage of the situation of wrapping his dumplings to completely obliterate him!

Thanks to his own credit, the duck to the mouth can’t fly anymore.

Thinking of this, Sombra nodded: “Okay, listen to my order, immediately send the third and fourth columns to the north of the city for me, and at the same time, order the first army to evacuate from the battlefield and rush to reinforcements.”

“Yes!”

With Sombra’s order.

Soon, the entire large force was mobilized again.

Boom!

Several firelights attacked the city wall frantically. Rao is that the city wall is very strong, but it can’t stand such a fire attack.

In the constant trembling of the city wall, the stone bricks began to shatter, and the wall began to slide down.

“Kill!”

Many people from the third and fourth vertical and horizontal also arrived in time. From a distance, they saw a huge black shadow attacking the wall.

“Roar!”

Then, the huge monster roared, and the next second, the huge body slammed towards the city gate.

boom!

A loud bang sounded again.

Immediately afterwards, I saw that the huge body was directly on the city wall.

For a time, the incomparably generous city wall was swaying under the collision.

The power of this monster is real.

“fu, isn’t that Han Sanqian’s helper?” “Damn, why did this guy get so big all of a sudden?”

“Yeah, the size of his mother has at least tripled or quadrupled.”

“fu, is this monster a ball? How long did it take to get so big?”

Of course, a group of people recognized at a glance that this monster was the guy who fought side by side with Han Sanqian before. It was enough to show that Han Sanqian was nearby, but it also surprised them very much.

Yes, after eating and looking at the gold, the body of the evil glutton has recovered a lot, and his body size has naturally increased exponentially.

Moreover, to put it horribly, it was a whole hill of gold, even if it didn’t depend on his size.

With such a weight and volume, hitting the city wall would naturally have an extremely terrifying and shocking effect.

“No matter how much, no matter what he is, we still want to kill, order the troops, and immediately launch an attack formation!”

“Yes!”

Under the command of the captain, the third column immediately launched an offensive stance.

The fourth column followed closely and formed an encirclement with the third column.

“Kill!”

“Kill!” The

two teams almost shouted in unison.

In the next second, the two troops, tens of thousands, attacked us directly towards the gluttonous gluttons.

Although they didn’t see Han Sanqian, they also knew very well that their top priority was to deal with this huge beast, otherwise once this guy was allowed to attack at will, the city wall would soon be unable to hold on.

At that time, it would have given Han Sanqian a greater chance to escape.

Whoa!

Black shadows are like tides, all kinds of attacks are like rain, and they are almost deadly bombed towards the gluttonous gluttony of evil.

The gluttonous glutton of evil is not afraid at all, he just relies on the thick armor of his body to be unstoppable, and he still slams into the city wall on his own...

Chapter 4513

With the explosion of various fire techniques on Evil Taotie’s body, his incomparably powerful body suddenly came into intimate contact with the wall.

His body was shaking because of the explosion, and the entire city wall was shaking because of his impact.

The most hateful thing is that a lot of fire techniques were also brought to the city wall by it, so that when it bombed him, it was also bombing the city wall.

“Damn, I’ll just say why this guy doesn’t move at all in the face of our attack. It turns out that it’s right that we are treating us as a powder keg.”

“Yeah, to actually use us to help him blow up the wall, this guy is really hateful. .”

However, the black shadows that had been arranged by the people in black also suddenly chased after the evil glutton.

The two sides immediately launched a bloody fight.

“This guy doesn’t resist our spells, and it can be understood that he wants to use our hands to bomb the city wall, but why is this guy still indifferent now.

” , so any attack in this case, there will be a self-counterattack.

Even if this monster is rough-skinned and thick-skinned, it can't be completely unguarded like this, right?

This is simply an act of self-destruction.

"It seems that Han Sanqian really seems to have escaped." The captain of the fourth column shook his head.

Obviously, this monster is Han Sanqian's alien beast.

In the Bafang world, the value of alien beasts is not lower than that of divine weapons at all. They are often important helpers of each other. Therefore, in many cases, alien beasts are extremely rare.

And especially, such a big beast in front of him.

Not to mention its other abilities, this huge and hard body alone can make many alien beasts dwarfed.

They believed that Han Sanqian also recognized this point.

However, the problem is precisely here.

Such a precious beast has always been a strange beast, but now Han Sanqian directly took it out and broke the city wall, and he still hit it in this completely fatal way.

This is enough to see how much Han Sanqian wants to escape from here.

The captain of the third column agreed.

"That's right, I don't even care about such a good beast. He really smeared oil on the soles of his feet and wanted to get away. Has the support of the first column come?"

"It's coming." The subordinate replied.

The captain of the third column sneered: "It's just right. When they arrive, our three teams will form a triangle, and then completely surround this guy."

"That's right, this grandson Han Sanqian didn't want to. Don't care about the life and death of this strange beast, then, let's push the boat along the way and make it happen." After the words were finished, the two sneered.

At almost the same time, with the sound of footsteps, the captain of the first column led the men and horses of the first column to rush over.

The speed of their assembly is not unpleasant.

The two captains hurriedly bowed to the captain of the first column.

"This monster is quite big."

The captain of the first column couldn't help but sighed after glancing at Evil Taotie.

"Captain Zhang, our brothers are waiting for you."

"Yeah, this monster should have been ordered to die by Han Sanqian. He doesn't care about any attack at all. He only cares about attacking the city. He should simply want to help Han Sanqian escape from the Demon Castle." The first captain nodded.

Although they are all captains, it is obvious that the higher the order, the higher the status.

"Since Han Sanqian wants to go out so much, we really should give a big gift." The first captain finished his words and smiled softly: "Two brothers, how about we make dumplings for him?" The third and fourth captains looked at each other. , with a happy face on his face: "Dissatisfied with Captain Zhang, our two brothers have this intention. As long as our three troops attack at the same time, we will certainly be able to attack them in a triangle."

"At that time, this monster wants to Continue to hit the wall? Hehe, the faster you hit, the faster you die." The first captain smiled with satisfaction: "Since we have all reached a consensus, why are we polite to him?!" After he finished speaking, he stepped forward.

"Three armies obey orders!"

"Wow!" The

three columns immediately clung to their weapons in unison!

"In a triangular posture, prepare to attack!"

"Yes!" As soon as the words fell, the army immediately took a stance.

Like three black carriages ready to go, just waiting for the doctor's order!

"Kill!"

Boom! ! ! !

Chapter 4514

three sides, like three long arrows, suddenly slammed into the gluttonous gluttony.

The glutton of evil roared, and the one eye suddenly opened.

The next second, it suddenly changed its angle directly, and in a frenzy, it rushed towards the fourth column.

"Damn it!"

Seeing this scene, the fourth captain was so shocked that he almost missed the spot.

This guy who has been passively beaten all the time, suddenly counterattacks.

The point is that if you're a fuing counter-attack, you'll be counter-attacking, why should you follow your own team?

Damn, the fourth column is their own brother.

Roar!

Sure enough, in the desperate and depressed eyes of the fourth captain, the evil glutton rushed directly into the crowd, relying on his huge body and absolute strength, rampaging like a bull.

Although the people in black were extremely agile, in this situation, it was almost impossible to move, and many people died tragically on the spot.

"Attack!" The first and third columns did not suffer such losses, so they ordered the entire unit to turn their guns and attacked the gluttonous eaters again.

Evil Knowing Taotie was also unequivocal, he turned around and took a big mouth, and several men in black were instantly swallowed into their mouths on the spot.

"Kill!" The

bloody fight between the two sides officially began.

And almost at the same time, on the other side of the underground pass.

With the collapse of the last line of defense at the pass, Ah Zuo has understood.

The gate is unstoppable.

"Captain, what should we do?"

Behind him, a brother asked him nervously.

He glanced back, and there was only one brother left behind him.

But even if this brother is still alive, he is almost the same as himself, covered in blood, and his eyes are extremely tired.

This bloody battle can be described as tragic.

They are just dozens of brothers, but they have resisted the attack of thousands of elite troops.

The terrain is important, but the determination of the brothers is actually more important.

None of them said they were afraid, and none of them stepped back even half a step.

They only have one thought, the one at the front wants to hold on for a while, while the one at the back wants to replace the fallen brother as soon as possible!

In this way, their group is like mushrooms after a rain, you finally kill the guards of the pass, and soon, one or several people who are also not afraid of death will stand in front of you.

Repeatedly, until now, people are completely defeated.

A Zuo looked at the enemy who was about to rush in from the entrance, and patted his brother on the shoulder: "Go back and tell Madam that we have completed the task she gave us."

"No, the task was given to you by Madam. Naturally, you should be the one who will report back to this task. Zuo, although you are my current captain, you have to call me big brother when it comes to age in private.

" There is also a younger brother, you help me take good care of him, the elder brother has lived a few years longer than you, and now, he will go on the road first." After the words were finished, the man directly pushed A Zuo behind him, and then clenched his teeth. Go directly to the enemies who rushed in.

In fact, both of them knew very well that only one of them would survive.

Zuo wanted to give him the opportunity, but he also wanted to give the opportunity to Zuo.

Looking at him who was instantly stabbed into a hornet's nest by the enemy who rushed in because of the blocking, Ah Zuo held back his tears and patted his chest heavily, he had already sworn to himself.

From now on, your brother's life is mine, and I will do everything to protect him.

Turning around, Ah Zuo wiped away the tears from the corners of his eyes, and he desperately rushed to the Underground Dragon City regardless of anything else.

"Kill!"

Behind him, as the pass was captured, a large number of men in black rushed in like a spring.

They roared excitedly, as if venting their depression after being blocked for so long.

"Ma'am, it seems that the entrance to the pass should be lost." Scar said sadly.

Amelia Su looked at the top of her head quietly, as if she was praying for her dead brother.

Immediately afterwards, she suddenly opened her eyes, her eyes full of killing intent: "Come on...!"

Chapter 4515

Amelia Su's eyes are not the slightest fear, nor the slightest fear, on the contrary, her eyes are even permeated with death* ***.

She knew very well that this battle could not be avoided at all.

So, she was already prepared.

There is nothing to be afraid of, on the contrary, it should be embraced with enthusiasm.

If you have no choice, you have to do the most beautiful thing when you have no choice.

Thinking of this, Amelia Su shouted softly: "Everyone, take your place!"

"Yes!"

Although there were not many people left, at this meeting, the fighting atmosphere of Ah You's gang was still exceptionally high.

"If we lose, all our efforts will be in vain. Those women we rescued will fall back into even greater despair."

"So, for ourselves or for them, I want to ask, are you willing to lose like this?"

After speaking, the remaining brothers shook their heads.

Of course not!

No one would give the fruit to the enemy so obediently.

"Madam, tell me what to do, we will fight with them."

"That's right, Madam, just do whatever you tell me."

Amelia Su was very satisfied seeing everyone's determination.

They were at a disadvantage, so pre-war mobilization was very important.

In terms of psychology and morale, it is the only thing they can take, or have an absolute advantage.

Amelia Su nodded: "Okay, then we will fight with them to the end."

"For every minute we persist, the group of women behind us will be able to live another minute, and he will be able to breathe for another minute. "

Yes!" Everyone responded in unison.

As soon as the words fell, Ah Zuo had already rushed over.

Before he could speak, Amelia Su had already gently pulled him behind her.

"Needless to say, we have all seen what happened."

"It's hard work for you."

A Zuo shook his head: "It's not hard work, it's just a pity, I didn't have to sleep these bastards any more time."

Amelia Su There was no time to answer, because at this time, the troops of the second column had already been killed.

A group of people quickly occupied the city entrance.

The captain of the second column couldn't help sneering for a while when he saw Amelia Su and others on the road.

"You bastards, all of you are bold enough to even dare to move here."

“Someone, take down all these bastards for me.”

A group of men in black immediately started to act.

Amelia Su sneered, and the next second, she raised her hand.

“Boom!”

Suddenly, fires were blazing everywhere around the captain of the second team.

Many shadows didn’t even react , and were immediately surrounded by the fire. When they wanted to break out again, they were surprised to find that their surroundings were already surrounded by the sky.

“This.....”

In an instant, the entire second column was clearly panicked.

“You guys!” The second captain pointed at Amelia Su, obviously anxious and angry.

Damn, they are all surrounded here, these idiots don’t know how to surrender, how dare they be so presumptuous here?

This is simply unbearable!

Amelia Su sneered, not afraid at all.

In fact, when Ah Zuo and the others went to the pass to defend against them, she had already executed the second plan with Scar and others.

The so-called second plan is actually very simple, that is, what should George Han do if they don’t get out in time.

Amelia Su saw the fire attack at that time, so she quickly thought of the current plan.

Fire trapped!

She ordered people to make a general ambush for the surrounding houses of the entire underground dragon city.

Once the enemy army rushed into the city from the pass, she would immediately set fire to these places. When the fire started, Amelia Su believed that this could definitely effectively stop the enemy’s attack.

Although this is only a temporary solution, Amelia Su believes that this is their only solution at the moment.

“Scar, get ready to act.”

“Yes!”

Although Scar is still seriously injured, after a short recovery, this bull-like guy can already walk or run by himself.

“Prepare to split up.”

“Madam, be careful.” Scar urged nervously.

In fact, this time it was obviously more difficult for them, but Scar cared more about not himself, but Amelia Su.

Amelia Su nodded.

Then, she took the lead...

Chapter 4516

Amelia Su, like a fairy, flew directly behind the gang from mid-air. After that, she held the jade sword and waited quietly.

Scar also waved his hand, and all the remaining disciples took action.

They climbed up the beams collectively, and then aimed at the man in black on the fire and pulled the bow and arrow directly!

And some powerful people directly lifted some boulders.

“Release!”

With the loud shout of Scar, dozens of arrows shot at the man in black at the same time.

Even though these arrows were ordinary arrows, those who couldn’t stand to shoot these arrows were sent by the powerful people like Tianmobao. The strength and piercing power on the arrows were naturally not something that ordinary people could think about.

Coupled with the pile of boulders rolling in, even if the men in black are really powerful, they can’t stand such a chaotic fist on them.

The entire team was in chaos.

But at this critical moment of chaos, the attack never stopped.

With a method blasting out in their crowd, a white figure has already been killed.

Although Amelia Su’s ability was no better than George Han, he was definitely a top-notch expert when he singled it out.

As soon as he entered the shadows, Amelia Su slaughtered indiscriminately, turning the man in black even more upside down.

“Ayou, Azuo, if we can survive, we are still good brothers. On the contrary, if we can’t survive, we will continue our fate in the next life.” Scar shouted.

A Zuo A looked back and nodded firmly.

“Kill!”

The next second, under the leadership of Knife Scar, they found the wooden cart that had been hidden in advance, borrowed the cover of the wooden cart, rushed into the fire, and shot directly! Suddenly, although the entire second column had an absolute advantage in numbers, it was completely in chaos under the charge of Amelia Su on the inside and Flame and Scar on the outside. Before even resisting, many soldiers fell to the ground. "Steady, hold me steady!" The captain of the second column hurriedly shouted, trying to get his subordinates to recover. And in his loud shouts, the entire second column really began to slowly stabilize the formation. Amelia Su knew very well that this was a matter of time. But she really has no other better way. At least, with such a shock and the fact that they had readjusted their formation, they had enough for ten minutes. The rest can only be left to God's will. "Pfft!" "Pfft!" After the shadow man reacted, it was actually a nightmare for the people on Amelia Su's side. The ability of the other party is too high, and the number of people is too large. Scar and his group quickly turned from attackers to lambs to be slaughtered. Many brothers died tragically on the spot. Although Scar was able to persevere better than others by relying on his golden armor, his severe injuries still made him look like a rhino that was dying of old age. Not only did he not have the slightest offensiveness, but his clumsy actions made him unable to move an inch. Azuo Ayou is not much better, although they chose to fight back to back when they rushed into the enemy camp.

But as more and more surrounding brothers fell, they also began to struggle alone.

Several consecutive knives slashed at them, turning them into bloody people almost in a blink of an eye.

"Ma'am, we can't hold on anymore."

Knife Scar struggled to use his last strength to resist the attack in front of him, baring his teeth in pain and shouting towards Amelia Su. ;

Amelia Su's cultivation base is very high, even in the crowd, he just smashed out a circle.

Within one meter of the circle, there is nothing but the corpse.

But obviously, even George Han couldn't stand the siege, how could Amelia Su be possible?

With a little carelessness, a sword cut her arm, and when she recovered, she was stabbed in the shoulder again.

Obviously, Amelia Su at this time has also entered a period of weakness, otherwise, it is impossible for these men in black to get close.

Amelia Su is not afraid of pain, let alone life and death.

She just hated herself for not sticking to it longer.

"A bunch of rubbish, you are really daring, just run to my underground dragon city to make trouble, and you dare to attack us insanely, you really think your life is too long."

"Kill them, not one!"

“Yes!”

The man in black took the order, and was about to attack the few remaining people.

But at this moment, a gust of breeze suddenly hit...

Chapter 4517

This breeze is so light that many people don't even notice its difference.

But the next second, they suddenly felt a little uncomfortable on their faces. Just when they wanted to reach out and touch them, they clearly felt a burning pain on their faces.

The severe pain was almost heart-wrenching, so that all those who were blown by this wind couldn't help losing the weapons in their hands and covered their faces in pain.

The second captain also clearly felt discomfort on his face, and under the protection of the breath in his body, he returned to his original state.

He looked around, frowning for a while.

Amelia Su, Knife Scar, Azuo Ayou, and three other members of the Polar Bear Legion, a total of seven people, all disappeared in an instant.

He stretched out his hand slightly again, and there were gusts of breeze blowing through the palm of his hand, and then, a few things in the palm of his hand that looked like dust, but shone with this red light fell.

As soon as this thing touched your hand, it burned immediately, making people feel extremely painful.

Come to think of it, the breeze just now caused all their brothers to suffer a dark loss because of these oddities in the wind.

He immediately looked around, and it was obvious that someone who could use the wind could hurt people like that. Except for a super expert, there was no other possibility.

“Who is blocking it, why don't you show up quickly?”

The captain of the second column shouted loudly, holding a long sword in his hand, and looked coldly.

“Appeared? What can you do when you appear?” With a sneer, everyone looked around, only to realize that not far away in the darkness, a black figure was standing there.

After he laughed, he suddenly turned around.

For a time, even the second column of thousands of people couldn't help but retreat in fear.

“Han... George Han?”

“How is that possible?”

Did escape? I heard that the battle in the north of the city was fierce. He... how could he be... on our side. ?”

“Yeah, it’s just... just outrageous.”

They panicked and puzzled, and some even couldn’t help but take a step back.

These men in black are indeed well-trained and have extraordinary abilities, so it is obviously impossible for George Han to rely on his own deterrent power to shake the battlefield.

But this doesn’t mean that these men in black are completely fearless.

They have already played against George Han, and naturally they know how powerful he is. Naturally, the thousands of people in the underground dragon city suddenly become extremely unconfident.

“Humph!” George Han laughed coldly.

The so-called soldier’s surprise move, what he wants is this kind of effect that the enemy can’t think of.

There is the madness of the gluttonous eater, and he told the gluttonous eater of evil before he left , not to undo the attack on the city wall until the most critical moment.

As a result, the other party was even more deadened by George Han’s judgment that he wanted to escape from the Demon Castle.

And once this is the case, they will inevitably send a large number of troops to encircle and suppress themselves, so the underground dragon city will appear extremely empty.

At this time, George Han’s sudden attack with a carbine will inevitably catch the other party by surprise.

The other party would never have thought that George Han would appear here at this time.

“There are so many things you can’t think of.”

“Isn’t it cool to kill just now? Now, I will make you pay for it!”

When the words fell, George Han suddenly burst into full force!

“Amelia Su, help me guard the pass. Since all of them have come in, there is one, if one counts, all of them will have to die here for me.”

Amelia Su looked at George Han with emotion, and nodded heavily: “Bao in On me.”

She knew that George Han would definitely come here to help them, and she also knew that George Han must have the ability to rush here to help them.

This is the tacit understanding between husband and wife, and it is also Amelia Su’s absolute trust in George Han.

Azuo Ayou also lay weakly on the ground in the distance, leaning on the knife scar and waiting for the other four to pant hard.

But no matter what, there was a smile in their eyes.

Because their backbone has clearly come.

“fu, what did these grandchildren do to us just now, now, it’s their turn.” The brothers looked at each other, and then smiled at each other.

And sure enough, as Amelia Su flew to the pass and took his place, George Han also showed a chilling sneer.

“Today, new hatred and old hatred, I will count on you.” When the words fell, George Han flew directly into the shadow man
