POV

After we finish our discussion about moving forward to make Belinda, Esmerelda, and the witch pay we ready ourselves to go to the Scarlett Howl pack. Both packs will have increased guard patrols and warriors around the pack house. Gabriella insists that Tabitha the witch from her pack will be returning with us tonight to perform some protection spells until we move the packs together. Atticus and Elder Bradford will remain here and I will return this evening with Gabriella to have a meeting with my pack about our future and announce that I have found my mate. Alpha Blane left after our discussion and despite everything that's happened, he again told me how proud he is of me and the man I've become. His words mean far more than my own fathers ever did. "Lake are you ready" Gabriella says, taking my hand. "Absolutely love, we will take my SUV." We head outside and Archer is waiting by the SUV they arrived in. Once Gabriella lets him know we will be driving, she slides into the passenger seat of my car. As I drive, I hold Gabriella's hand enjoying the feelings of the tingles between us. "Gabriella, do you feel the tingles of my hand touching yours?" She smiles "honestly Lake I was worried that I wouldn't be given a mate by the goddess. being human." "I know how rare it is." "If I was lucky enough to be given one, I was worried that when I found him I wouldn't be able to tell." "My mother felt something for my father but it wasn't exactly what wolves feel based on the way my mother describes it." "I don't know if because I grew up with wolves and knew what it should feel like or if the goddess just blessed me, I knew who you were the moment I laid eyes on you." "So to answer your question I feel the tingles and I will never want another man in my life." Her words make warmth spread through my chest. I raise her hand to my mouth, laying a kiss on the back of it. She is more than special. I can't wait to make her mine. "You mean ours" Razor says. "Of course, I mean ours." "I can't wait to introduce you to my family and our pack." I squeeze her hand "I'm excited too." "Lake I was thinking about something." "What's that love?" "We will need to speak to my family but since we will be combining the pack, I think we should change the pack's name." I'm shocked at what she is saying. I can't imagine that Archer is going to want his pack name changed.

"Gabriella I'm not sure your father is going to like that and honestly, I don't need you to do that to be happy." "Lake, it isn't just for you." "Your whole pack is being uprooted and having major changes even if you feel they are for the better I want them to know that they are not an afterthought." "We will no longer be the Blood Rose or the Scarlett Howl." "I want both packs to feel that we are together not separated by pack names." I smile "what do you think we should call this new pack." "I was hoping you could do the honors of suggesting our new pack name." I smile she really is amazing. I think for a few minutes before the perfect name comes into my mind. "I would love to name our new pack the Scarlett Rose Pack." "That is perfect, Lake." We start to pull into the pack road and I couldn't be more in love with this woman. "I have a few other things I would like to discuss but we can talk about them later." We stop at the gate and I lean over and kiss her lips softly. "Thank you, Gabriella." The guard comes to my window. The minute he sees Gabriella, he opens the gate. Archer is pulling in right behind us and we all park. We start toward the pack house. "Are you ready to meet the Lyons clan Lake" Archer asks with a big smile on his face. "I am, I just hope they don't hold my father's a**holeness against me" I chuckle. "I think your safe" Gabriella says. Once we are inside, Archer leads us upstairs. He opens a door that leads into a living room. A woman that is definitely my mate's mother is sitting on the couch with four other women. She is beautiful and I can see where Gabriella gets her beauty from." She stands and the other four women do the same. Gabriella POV

When we walk into the room, I have Lake's hand in mine. I am still in shock that I found my mate. That boy I met two years ago has grown into this gorgeous man the goddess made for me. My mother, Grandma Fern, Aunt Willow, Aunt Tracey, and Tabitha are waiting for us. I'm glad my uncles and grandfather aren't here because that might be too much. I introduce him to them one by one and they hug him. "You are a hot young man" Grandma Fern says and Lake's face turns red. "Mom could you please" my father says. "What I'm complimenting him." "Gabriella is very lucky girl to get such a hot mate." I laugh because I would expect nothing less from my grandmother. "This is my mother Sabrina, Lake." "It's a pleasure to meet you" Lake says. "Where is Serina?" "She is at training with Uncle Levi and Nicholas" my mother says. "I'm going to take Lake out to the training field and I would like to introduce him to the pack." "After we have the pack meeting, I would like to sit with you and mom to discuss some things before I go to Lake's pack tonight" I say to my father and mother. "Of course, we can meet with the pack in the dining room and have a celebration meal" my mother says. "Thank you, mom" I say before I lead Lake downstairs and out of the pack house. We reach the training field and stand on the side to not interrupt my uncle. Ten minutes later he ends training and heads in our direction. He looks at Lake trying to make him squirm. I chuckle "Uncle Levi stop trying to give my mate the death stare." Serina screams and rushes over wrapping me in a hug. "You found your mate, oh my goddess." "I did and he is amazing" I whisper. I notice that Bret is watching us from across the field. Monica is heading in our direction. "Serina this is my mate, Lake." "Lake this is my sister, Serina, I was telling you about." She hugs him and Monica reaches us. "Congratulations Alpha on finding your mate" she says with a smile. "Thank you, Monica." I look over and Uncle Levi and Nicholas are sizing him up. "Lake this is my father's best friend Levi and the Beta of the Scarlett Howl Pack." He shakes Lake's hand "if you hurt our Gabby, they will not find your body Alpha or not." "You have nothing to worry about Levi, I would never hurt her." "Really Uncle Levi, you threaten him the first time you meet him." "I want to make sure there is an understanding." I roll my eyes and turn to Nicholas. "This is Nicholas the future Beta and Levi's son." Lake reaches out his hand and shakes Nicholas's." I take Lake's hand so we can head back to the pack house. I look over to see Bret is still standing there staring in our direction. "Don't worry about him Gabby he is just pissed his plan didn't work and he can't shift" she whispers to me but of course Lake hears her. He waits till we are out of ear shot before he brings it up.

"Gabriella, what was Monica talking about" he says to me as we reach the pack house. I tell my family we will be a moment and they head in without us. I lead him over to a bench in the pack garden. I won't keep secrets from him. "Why do I have a feeling I'm not going to like what you're about to tell me?" "You're not but I've already dealt with him so I need you to stay calm." I take his hand in mine. "Bret tried to trick me into believing that I was his mate." He growls and I can see that Razor is at the surface. "Razor, I knew he wasn't immediately and nothing happened." He blinks and Lake's beautiful eyes are staring back at me. "The worst part is that his mate is Monica." "He denied his true mate so he could be Alpha of this pack." "He is pathetic." "Yes, he did but he's been punished and Monica rejected him." "Good he doesn't deserve her after what he did." I lean in and kiss him before we head inside.

Bret POV

I watch as Gabriella heads toward the field with a f**king man I've never seen before. She is holding his hand. I can tell he is an Alpha. What kind of Alpha would accept a human. I can feel Thor at the surface but of course I can't shift with all the pack members around. The pack members will hardly speak to me after they found out what I did. I thought for sure she would believe me instead of acting like a bad a**. She is a human for goddess's sake. Now I can't f**king shift and Monica rejected me. "That's because you're an i***t", Thor says. "Don't start, you were on board with being Alpha until we got rejected." "You could have gotten rid of the stupid f**king human and then made our mate Luna but you f**ked it up." "I'm not done yet don't you worry about that" I say to Thor. I watch them walk toward the pack house and I vow that she will never have her happy ever after. I will kill her mate and that b**ch that rejected me. This whole pack is going to be sorry that they accepted a human Alpha.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 22

Belinda

POV

I'm in my aunt's house and we are waiting for Megan to get back and tell us that the human b**ch is dead. I really thought I wasn't going to make it out of that pack alive after my father left me in the cells to die. I still can't believe he cares more about werewolf law than his own daughter. Megan appeared in my cell after those ba**ards left and teleported me here. My aunt couldn't stop hugging me and I was just as happy to see her. Megan was so pissed that her spells didn't work she wanted to make Lake suffer by killing the human which was fine with me. I just wish I could be the one to snap her neck. I want to see her a** dead more than anyone but I guess I'll have to let Megan have the pleasure. I still can't believe he would pick a pathetic human over a she-wolf that is an Alpha's daughter. What the f**k was the goddess thinking giving her an Alpha like Lake? She shouldn't even be amongst our kind let alone mated to one. I hope that Megan is able to end her and Lake suffers after he so easily cast me aside. "Get your things together because as soon as Megan arrives, we need to leave" my aunt says as she walks in the room. "Where are we going?" "Some place safe." "Your father will be looking for me and we cannot stay here." "My father, I have no father." She pulls me into a hug. "I know baby girl and I promise you he will pay for not protecting you but right now we need to get to some place safe." She pulls back and I nod heading to the room that has my clothes in it. I throw as much as I can in the bag before I head back downstairs. I can hear my aunt and Megan talking as I reach the bottom of the stairs. "So he was too much of a coward to watch what he was allowing to happen to his own daughter." "He definitely wasn't there Esmerelda." "Were you able to kill that f**king b**ch?" "There is no way she survived the energy ball I hit her with before I teleported here." "Good they are all going to pay for what they have done including my ba**ard of a brother." Gabriella POV

We walk into the dining room hand in hand. I see pack members staring as we walk to the Alpha table that is full of my family. Uncle Harris and Grandpa River stand coming around the table. I smile and they both hug me before they turn to Lake. "Lake this is my Grandfather River and my Uncle Harris." Harris sticks out his hand shaking Lake's. "Levi told me he already warned you but that goes for all of us." I roll my eyes at the men in my family. "Lake isn't going to hurt me so all of you need to stop threatening him." Lake wraps his arm around me. "I promise you River and Harris that I would die before I hurt Gabriella." "That's good to hear son, welcome to our family" my grandfather says. They both smile and we head to the table. Jonathon and James are sitting at the table but continue to stuff their faces like the teenage boys they are. "Lake those are my twin brothers Johnathon and James." They look up from their plates for a minute "nice to meet you" they say in unison before they start to eat again. My mother rolls her eyes and I chuckle.

My father stands and ushers us to the head of the dining room. I hold Lake's hand and look out at the pack. I watch Bret come in to the dining room and take a seat at the far table. He is just staring between myself and Lake. I look at the table my friends are sitting at and smile. Monica, Leslie, Macie, and Cynthia are smiling and waving at us. Cynthia is raising her eyebrows at me pointing at Lake. I can feel the blush on my cheeks. It's hard to believe it wasn't that long ago that Cynthia was my only friend. My father clears his throat and the room quiets immediately. "I would like to announce that my daughter Gabriella Lyons the future Alpha of the Scarlett Howl pack has found her fated mate." There are hoots and growls heard throughout the dining room. "Please welcome Alpha Lake Solace of the Blood Rose pack my new son-in-law." "Now this mating will result in some changes to the pack but I assure you that these changes will all be for the better." "After we discuss everything, the pack will be kept informed of any changes before they happen." Again, the room erupts into growls and most of the pack bares their necks to us. I of course notice that Bret does not and I know in my heart he is going to be a problem. I look over at our table and I notice a look on my sister's face that I can't decipher. After the pack congratulates us, we go back to sit at the table and I sit down next to Serina. "What's going on in that head of yours sissy" I lean in and whisper. "Nothing I'm just so happy that you found your mate." I know she isn't being honest but I let it go for now. She and I are going to talk before I leave tonight. We finish dinner and we say good night to our family before we head to my father's office. My mother, father, sister, and Uncle Levi are in the office with Lake and I. "So, we wanted to talk about how we can move forward since Lake is an Alpha and has his own pack" When I look at Serina I realize the look is fear. She must think that everything we decided on years ago is going to change because Lake is an Alpha. "Lake feels that moving his pack here and joining the two packs together is how we should proceed." My father has a look of concern but I know he was there when we had this discussion at Lake's pack. A smile breaks out on Serina's face confirming what I thought she was worried about. "Lake, are you sure about this" my father asks. "The Blood Rose pack is your birthright and honestly that is a huge sacrifice on your part." "Make no mistake I'm thrilled for you and your pack to come here but this needs to be what you really want."

Lake POV

I knew that Archer was going to question my decision as most Alphas would. An Alpha's pack is everything to them. Mine is no different but the place we live and the name we hold does not make the pack. I will be a better Alpha with my fated mate by my side. "I know that Gabriella wanted you to hear her when we were in your office discussing her staying Alpha but this needs to be a compromise" Archer says. Gabriella smiles at me and I take her hand in mine. "After discussing everything with Gabriella I believe my pack needs to have a fresh start to get off under what pack life was like under my father's rule." "I want to be the best Alpha and honestly after what my father allowed to happen in our pack its name is tainted for me and my pack members." Archer nods "I respect that decision and you putting what's best for your pack above tradition." "I know this is a lot to ask Dad but I was hoping since we are joining two packs into one, we could change the pack's name" Gabby's says. I expect Archer to be angry and say f**k no but he doesn't. He smiles "what will this new packs name be?" Gabby turns to me and nods "The Scarlet Rose Pack."

"I think that is a wonderful idea and I support you both" Archer says. "Serina, can you come here for a moment" Archer says and she comes to stand next to her father. Despite not being bonded I can tell that Gabriella is nervous. She squeezes my hand a little tighter but doesn't seem to notice she is even doing it. "Go ahead Serina." "Gabby and I always planned to take the title at the same time but given that she has found you

I would like for you both to take the title now." Gabriella is about to start talking but Serina stops her. She comes and stands in front of us. "Gabby nothing has changed about our plan to rule this pack with our mates." "When I turn eighteen, I will have a ceremony joining you and Lake as Alphas of the Scarlett Rose Pack." "I do not want you to wait, please." I see tears flowing down Gabriella's cheeks. "I agree with your sister Gabby" Sabrina speaks first. She looks to her father and he nods. "It's time sweetheart you have an Alpha mate and you have become the Alpha in every way but title." She looks to me and I smile. "Ok, I'm ready to take my place and title but you better be ready the minute you turn eighteen to join us, Serina." The girls scream and hug her and then me. Archer stands hugging Gabriella and then me. I've gone from having no family to all these people who have accepted me as one of their own. "We are very lucky Lake." "Yes, we are Razor."

Gabriella POV

After we talk for a little while longer, we get ready to leave. We will be having our Alpha ceremony in two days. Elder Bradford was very happy to perform the ceremony and to announce the new pack. We head out to the SUV. Tabitha and her mate Johnathon are waiting for us by their SUV. She is smiling "Johnathon insisted on coming I hope that won't be a problem." "Lake this is Johnathon a pack warrior and Tabitha's mate." He smiles "that is no problem at all." "I appreciate you doing this until we get the pack moved" Lake says. "You're welcome, believe me when I find the witch that attacked my Gabby she is going to wish for death." I smile because I love this woman. "Gabby, can I speak to you for a moment before we leave" Tabitha says. The men get into the cars and she pulls something out of her pocket. She hands me a vial "drink this before you mate and mark tonight." She tells me exactly what to do and I almost forgot to ask her knowing she did this for my mother and Aunt Tracey. We both get into the vehicles and head back to the pack. I can't say that I'm not nervous about what is going to happen tonight. I want to be his in every way but I have no idea what the hell I'm supposed to do.

We pull into the pack and Lake links the pack warriors to inform them of Tabitha's presence. "Do you need us to go with you while you do the spells?" She winks at me "I'm sure you have better things to be doing Gabby." Again, I feel my cheeks blush. Lake takes my hand but thankfully he doesn't say anything about me blushing. "There has been a guest room prepared for you two when you're done performing the protection spells" Lake says. "Thank you, Lake" they both say and he leads me inside. We climb the stairs to the Alpha floor and he leads me down a long hallway. I expect that his room will be the one with the double doors but he opens the door on the right. He must notice me looking at the double doors. "I refused to take the room my father shared with that b**ch that helped kill him." I nod and he leads me inside. The room is still large and beautiful. "Gabriella are you sure you are ready for this." "I promise you that I can wait if you're not ready." "I don't want you to feel pressured or rushed because this is what you know of wolves." I place my finger on his lips.

"I promise you that I am ready I'm just nervous because I have no experience." He growls pulling me flush with his body. "You're a virgin love." He lifts my face so I'm looking in his eyes. "I am the only man that will ever touch you just as you are the only woman that will ever touch me." I smile wanting this man even more knowing he saved himself for me. I reach up pulling his mouth down to mine. We have kissed but nothing like this. He brushes his tongue along the seam of my lips and I open to him. Our tongues intertwine and I start to feel weak just from this kiss. Before I know what's happening, I'm lifted in two strong arms but he doesn't break the kiss. He lays me down in the middle of his bed. He starts to pull his shirt over his head and I swear to the goddess I can feel it in my core just looking at him. His chest has a smattering of hair and his sculpted all the way down to the v of his hips. I look back up to his eyes and he smiles. I reach into my pocket pulling out the vile and drink it. "What was that love?" I smile "you'll see." I start to pull the shirt over my head but he stops me. He pulls the shirt over my head and unclasps my bra baring my breasts to him. His eyes darken for a moment and I smile knowing that Razor pushed to the surface. He pulls my pants and panties down my legs until I'm completely naked before him. I thought I would be embarrassed being naked in front of him the first time but I'm just turned on. He pulls his own pants off freeing his huge erection. The nerves that were gone are back. How the hell is that going to fit inside me. He must notice my concern he bends down and kisses me. "I promise you love you are made for me it will be ok." "You're so big." He chuckles "I promise I'll fit we are like a lock and a key." "Made only for each other." He gets up on the bed and puts his mouth above my n**ple. He looks into my eyes before he swirls his tongue around my left n**ple. "Oh, my goddess" I say in breathy voice. He continues until I'm arching my back off the bed and pulling his head to my breast. I feel the o****m building in my core just from him sucking on my breasts. Lake POV

When she is bared completely to me I have to keep myself under control. I don't want to embarrass myself. I start to work my tongue down her body until I reach her core. "Lake" she breaths out before I take a long lick into her core. She lifts her head and I look into her eyes again before I start to work her cl*t with my tongue. She grabs a fist full of my hair and bucks against my tongue. She is moaning my name and I can't wait to be inside her. I bite down on her cl*t and she screams out her o****m. I lap up all her juices before I slide up her body. I kiss her allowing her to taste herself on my lips. I place my member at her core. "Are you ready love?" "Goddess yes, Lake make me yours." She doesn't have to say it again. I start to press forward giving her time to adjust to my size. I feel her barrier and I know this part will cause her pain which I hate. "Gabriella I want you to take a deep breath and I'm going to push forward." "I'm going to mark you at the same time." "I'm ready Lake please" she says as she pulls me into her. I push forward and she screams. I elongate my canines and bite down into her marking spot. I feel her body adjust and she starts to move under me. I start to move faster and she screams out her second o****m. It's all I can do to stop myself from emptying myself inside her. I pull my canines out and lick my fresh mark on her neck.

Gabriella POV

I never thought anything would feel like that. There was pain but there was so much more pleasure and connection. When he bit down, I felt the bond and it made the o****m tremendous. He is mine and I want him to feel what I feel. I roll us and he laughs. I can feel him still hard inside me and I start to move. The laughter dies and he begins to moan with my movements. I place my hand on his marking spot and I notice the blue glow and his eyes get big when he realizes what's happening. He pistons his hips inside of me and I can feel the spurt of his c*m coating my insides. They trigger another o****m and I cry out. When we both come down, he lifts me carrying me into the bathroom. He sets me on my feet in front of the mirror and kisses me. "You are mine Gabriella Solace in this life and the next." "You are mine Lake Solace in this life and the next." We turn both looking at our marks before he carries me into the shower. I know that no matter what happens I am whole with this man. ## Fated Human Alpha Chapter 23

Jessica

POV

"Do you have any special skills that would make me want to hire you" the man behind the bar asks me with all the innuendo he can muster. He is a wolf but I can tell he has no pack by his smell. "I can serve food and drinks, like a waitress." "Feisty I like that in my girls." If I could I kill this ba**ard right now for talking to a former Luna this way I would but I can't. I wouldn't even be speaking to this disgusting wolf if I didn't absolutely have to. I used the money Brian gave me to get an apartment until I figure out my next move to make Lake pay, so I'm going to have to work to live for now. I saved some of the money to get the help I need to make him pay. I have no real skills because my job as a Luna was to be arm candy for Raymond. "Until you f**ked that up" Blossom says and I block her out. "So do I have the job or not." "For now, but if you don't play nice you might not have it for long." I roll my eyes but thank him. "You can start tonight" he says throwing a skimpy dress at me. I take it heading back to the apartment since I my shift doesn't start for a few more hours. I only picked this disgusting bar because both humans and wolves frequent it. I can't make them pay by myself so I need to try to get the help of the kind of wolves that would hang out in a filthy place like that damn bar.

Monica POV

We just finished up our last class and I'm waiting for Macey and Leslie so we can walk back to the pack house. I notice that Serina is standing near her locker probably waiting for Nicholas. I'm just about to walk toward her when I see a girl that looks to be about her age walk up to her. With my hearing now that I have my wolf, I can hear that she is being a b**ch to Serina about Gabriella being human. It makes me think about how I was and how wrong it was to be that way. I start toward the two of them. "Hey Serina everything ok here" I say and the girl whips her head toward me. "Sure, Serina and I were just talking" she says smiling at me. "What's your name?" "My name is Lisa and I'm a warrior's daughter." I don't know if she thinks I'll be impressed by that but I'm not. "Well, this is what's going happen Lisa." "Gabiella and Serina are good friends of mine so if I find out that you are bothering her or talking sh*t about my friend you and I are going to have a problem." I'm sure she realizes that I'm a warrior with a wolf because I see the fear flash on her face. Marigold chuckles in my head. "So, are we going to have a problem Lisa?" "No" she says and rushes away practically tripping over her own feet.

"Thank you, Monica." "I'm not afraid of her but I'm trying to ignore her and be the bigger person." "She is making that very difficult but hopefully she will just stop talking sh*t against Gabby now." "I know you are trying to handle it like the future Alpha you are but I'm here if she didn't get the message." "That's my job as a warrior to protect my Alphas." She smiles and I see Macey and Leslie coming toward us. We wait a few minutes until Nicholas comes and we walk toward the pack house together. We are halfway up the path when I notice that Bret is standing at the top of the hill. I haven't spoken to him since the rejection and I really don't want to. We keep walking ignoring his presence. As we start to pass him, he says my name. I turn with a look of disdain. "What" I say with all the venom I can muster. "Can you please just talk to me for a minute alone?" "She has nothing to say to you" Serina says and I smile. "What she said" I say and turn to start walking again. There really is nothing for us to talk about.

Once we head inside Macey, Leslie, and I head toward our rooms. I'm inside my room getting dressed when there is knock on the door. "Hold on girls I'm coming" I say heading toward the door. When it swings open it's not the girls standing there. "I think I was pretty clear earlier Bret I'm not interested in talking to you now or ever." His eyes flash black and before I know what's happening I'm pushed inside. He slams his hand over my mouth and everything goes black. Lake POV

I wake up with Gabiella in my arms. I can't believe I have her and she is mine. The bond is complete and I feel stronger than I ever have with her by my side I can't believe my father thought because she was human, she was weak. She is anything but weak. She is stronger than any she-wolf I have ever met. When she laid her hand on my marking spot, I couldn't believe the feeling that passed through me. I really expected that we wouldn't be fully bonded and I was fine with that but the fact is she marked me. "That was like nothing I could have imagined" Razor says. "I agree, I know we hear stories growing up about the mate bond but until you experience it they are just that stories." She stirs in my arms and I brush the hair from her face. Her eyes flutter open and she smiles. "Are you being creepy watching me sleep?" I chuckle "absolutely and I won't apologize." She lifts her head kissing my lips. I start to deepen the kiss but I stop myself. I know she won't heal as quickly and she is probably sore from last night. We made love for hours. I pull back and she looks disappointed.

"Believe me love I would take you all day but I want to announce you to the pack and let them know what will be happening." She crosses her arms and I look at her confused.

"It's not nice to lie to your mate" she links me. I forgot that with the bond we can hear each other's thoughts. "I wasn't lying I just didn't want to make you feel bad or self-conscious." She smiles and uncrosses her arms. "I truly appreciate that you are worried about sparing my feelings but I don't need you to protect me from you." "I want you to be open and tell me what you're feeling or thinking." "I want us to be able to talk about anything." "I appreciate your worried that I'm probably sore." "Are you sore?" "I would be lying if I said no." I kiss her lips one more time before we get up to get dressed. She grabs the bag she brought with her and heads into the bathroom. I head into the closet pulling on a pair of jeans and a black t-shirt.

Once I'm dressed in my slacks and red blouse, I pull my hair into a high ponytail and slide on my heels. I come out of the bathroom and stop dead when I see Lake. He is so hot but beyond that he is dressed much different than I am. As he looks me up and down his eyes darken "mate you are the sexiest woman on the planet." He pulls me to him before Lake's beautiful blue eyes are staring back at me. "He's absolutely right and your ours." "Yes I am." "Am I over dressed to meet with the pack" I ask. "Absolutely not" he says and kisses me. We head to his office and Atticus is waiting for us. "Good morning, Alpha and Alpha." I smile "good morning, Atticus, please call me Gabby unless we are with the pack." He smiles "good morning, Gabby." "Atticus, can we speak to you for a moment before we meet with the pack" Lake says. "Of course," he says and we walk into the office.

"Atticus we will be combining the packs." "We will be moving our pack to the Scarlett Howl but we will be calling the new pack the Scarlett Rose." He smiles and I'm glad he isn't upset. He turns to me "I'm glad to be a pack warrior and support you both in our new pack." Before Lake can answer I do "Atticus you will be keeping your rank as Beta." "Our new pack will have almost seven hundred members and four Alphas." "It only makes sense to have four Beta's." "Thank you, Gabby and Lake, I'm honored." "I will protect you both with my life." We all stand heading downstairs to address the pack. The members are waiting in the training field. Lake leads me to the front and Atticus stands next to us.

Lake POV

Once the pack sees me, they bare their necks. "I have gathered you here today because I have found my mate." "Alpha Gabriella Lyons is my mate and we will be sharing the Alpha position." I can hear chatter start hearing that my mate is an Alpha. I growl low to quiet them. "I'm sure you are all concerned what this means but I promise you this is good for our pack after all the recent tragedy." "After much discussion we will be moving our pack to join Scarlett Howl and the new pack will be called Scarlett Rose." "This will be a fresh start for all of us." "If you have questions now is the time to ask." No one speaks and I can see concern on many faces. Gabriella squeezes my hand before she speaks. "Alpha Lake and I will be in his office today." "If you have concerns and you would like to discuss them privately, please come to speak to us." "We realize this is a lot to take in but I promise you that both packs will be considered equal and no special treatment will be given to Scarlett Howl pack members because of the territory change." I notice that some of the concerned faces seem to relax at Gabriella's words. "You all need to ready yourself for the move in two days." "Atticus will be providing you all your living arrangements in the Scarlett Rose pack." "I want all pack members at our Alpha ceremony no exceptions." "There will be a pack run following the ceremony for all shifting members." "Yes Alpha" they say in unison. "You are dismissed but if you would like to meet with myself and Alpha Gabriella, please link me." I lead her back toward the pack house and upstairs to the office. Tabitha and Johnathon are waiting for us in the office.

Unknown POV

"This is ridiculous at least with that ba**ard Raymond we knew where we stood." "Now this little sh*t is going to move us to the human b**ches pack and we will be what obedient little pack members with no status." "You heard what they said we won't lose our warrior status." "I believe Lake, he is nothing like Raymond." "Then you're a f**king fool because we are moving to their territory we will be nothing in this new pack." "You better watch what you're saying because I want no part of this." "We have been friends for a long time but I am not onboard with going against the Alphas." "I am loyal to Alpha Lake and his mate." "Fine be another mindless sheep and you will end up washing dishes in the kitchen like a common omega." He walks away but I don't need him or anyone else. I will not follow some worthless human and a pathetic Alpha who couldn't see his friend was a traitor."

Gabriella POV

"The pack should be protected Gabby until the move and I would like to perform the same protection spell on Lake that I did on you" Tabitha says. "Of course, thank you Tabby." "You never have to thank me for protecting my family." Lake is part of our family." I smile and I feel my phone ring in my pocket. I take it out and my sister's name flashes across the screen. "What's up sissy?" "He hurt Monica, Gabby." "Who hurt Monica?" Tabby stands looking at me with concern. "Bret hurt her." "I'm on my way" I say before I cut the call. "Let's go" Tabby says and I stand. "You guys will have to drive if you want to meet us there." Before they answer she teleports us to the hospital. My parents and Serina are waiting. They lead me back to the room and she is hooked up to monitors and unconscious. As soon as I see her I know what happened and I swear to the goddess that ba**ard will die for what he has done to her.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 24

Gabriella POV

I walk over to Monica's bedside and she looks like she is sleeping peacefully, which couldn't be farther from the truth. I may not be a wolf by birth, but I feel sick thinking about him marking her against her will. Marking is supposed to be the moment in our lives when we are one, with our goddess's given mate and he took that from her. He took it when he deceived her before and now again when he gave her no choice. "Where is he now" I say turning to my family. "Every warrior in the pack is looking for him Gabby, he won't get away with what he has done to her" my father says. "What did the doctor say?" Before they can answer the door opens and Dr. Barrett walks in. He bares his neck to me before he walks over to the machine that Monica is hooked up to. He turns to us with sympathy in his eyes and the pit in my stomach feels even bigger. "Alpha the forced marking has put Monica into a coma." "Did he force himself on her, mating her without her consent?" "No Alpha, we performed an examination and she wasn't s*xually violated." "Thank goddess for that at least." "What happens now?" "When will she wake up?" "Unfortunately, there is no way for us to know that." "Forced marking is very traumatic on a wolf." It's really up to Monica and her wolf now to heal and come back to us." "We will keep monitoring her but the good thing is that all of her vital signs are all stable." "Thank you, Dr. Barrett."

He leaves and I have never felt anger like this in my whole life. I was upset and disappointed when he tried to trick me into mating him, but that pales in comparison to this. The door flies open and Lake comes rushing inside wrapping me in his arms. I didn't know how much I needed him in this moment and I bury my head in his chest. I breathe deep taking a few minutes to compose myself. After a few minutes, I pull back and he brushes the hair from my face. "He marked her against her will Lake." He growls "he will pay with his life for such a disgusting act, I promise you that love." Lake comes to stand next to me pulling me into his side and my parents and sister look at us with affection in their eyes. "What is our next move to find this disgusting wolf" Lake asks. "I'm sure by now he has left the territory knowing what the punishment will be for such a crime." "We need to send trackers out looking for him so he can be dealt with before she wakes up." "I want her to know that he is no longer a threat." "Serina, can you stay with Monica while we go make the arrangements." "A warrior will be stationed outside her door to protect you both in case he is stupid enough to return." "Of course, I hate to think what might have happened Gabby if I hadn't gone to her room to get her for training." "Serina you were the one that found her?" "Yes, she had helped me at school today and I went back to thank her again for being a good friend to us both." "When I reached the door, I caught Bret's scent." "I tried to open the door but he had it locked." "I started to bang and scream hoping that if he was inside, he would get scared that he was caught." "Serina that was dangerous, you have no wolf to defend yourself." "What if he had come out after you?" "Gabby, would you have done nothing because you don't have a wolf?" "I couldn't just let something happen to her without trying to help her." I pull her into my arms. She pulls back "one of the warriors heard me and came running." "He broke the door open and she was lying on the floor and I couldn't wake her." "He must have went out of the window." "He is a coward." I look Serina in her eyes "I'm so proud of you, you saved her." "I wish I could have gotten there before he marked her." "I know but goddess only knows what else would have happened if you hadn't gotten there when you did." She smiles and Serina takes the chair by Monica's bed. She takes Monica's hand in hers. We head toward the pack house to meet with the trackers.

As Razor runs, I can feel Gabriella's emotions and we push harder to reach her. Johnathon is running beside me and the pack patrol doesn't stop us as we enter the territory. As soon as we reach the trees near the pack hospital, we both shift and Johnathon throws me shorts. I rush inside and the nurse shows me to the room even though I could have found it just by Gabriella's scent. Once I have her in my arms, I'm overwhelmed by her sadness and anger. Razor and I are ready to kill who ever made our mate feel this way. I can't believe he marked Monica against her will. "What kind of monster does that Razor?" "The kind that will atone for his actions when he meets the goddess, I promise you that Lake." We head to the pack house to meet with the trackers. As soon as we're inside, Johnathon and Tabitha are waiting. Tabitha wraps her arms around Gabriella. "Congratulations Gabby Bell" she whispers and it makes me smile. We all take a seat and discuss the plans for each tracker. Once the five trackers have their orders, they rush from the conference room.

"Gabriella, I would like Johnathon to return to the Blood Rose territory to meet with the men and Atticus." "It makes sense that he is going to head toward neutral territory, which means he will pass near the pack." "I want to stop him from getting near any rogue packs especially after, that a**hole Kenneth is still out there." "Besides if he makes it to neutral territory, it will be more difficult to find him." "I think that makes perfect sense" Gabriella says. "Before we leave, I need to do the protection spell on you Lake" Tabitha says. "I'm sure I will be fine until we catch the a**hat, we don't have time to waste right now." Gabriella shoots me a look and Tabitha laughs. "I think your mate has spoken." She stands in front of me and begins to move her hands in front of me and chanting. It feels strange like she's touching me even though she hasn't laid her hands on me once. The minute she stops, both Razor and I feel the effects of the spell. It's hard to describe and we don't feel invincible but we know we are protected. "Thank you, Tabby", Gabriella says and hugs her. She steps next to me and Tabitha smiles before she wraps her arms around Johnathon. Without a word, they are gone. It's going to take some time to get used to people just appearing and disappearing. Gabriella chuckles and I know she heard my thought.

Bret POV

Thor runs through the woods as fast as his legs will carry us. Why couldn't she just listen? I'm her mate and she should have given me a chance to make things right instead of rejecting me. She had no right to reject me. Then that ba**ard Alpha made me accept it even though I didn't want to. They left me no choice but to claim what is mine by force. She is mine and now she bares my mark. If that little b**ch hadn't come to her door looking for her, I would have taken Monica with me. We could have been far from the pack before any of them even realized we were gone. I didn't expect her to pass out from me marking her. Now I'm going to have to find a way to get my mate and make the Scarlett Howl pack suffer for all they have done. I feel like we have run for at least an hour before we finally stop. Thor shifts and I pull the clothes on I brought with me. "Don't worry Bret, when she wakes up, we will be able to feel it since she bares our mark now." I smile "good until then we can try to reach the neutral territory." There are four packs between Scarlett Howl and where we need to go." "None of the surrounding packs are going to help us because of that ba**ard Archer so we will need to stay out of the borders or we will risk dealing with pack wolves." We rest for about twenty minutes before I strip and shift. We take off and I think about Monica baring my mark.

Flashback

Bret POV

I push her into her room. "What the hell do you think you're doing, Bret?" Thor is at the surface and I need her to listen, so I push him down. "Monica, I need you to take back your rejection." "You are my mate." She laughs and crosses her arms over her chest. "You don't understand, I was pretending that having a human Alpha was ok with me but I promise you that I don't agree with a pathetic human being Alpha or Luna." "Gabby is not worthy to be an Alpha of our pack." She says nothing so I keep going. "I had a plan the whole time and had you just let me follow through on it, you and I could have taken over this pack together." "We can still make that happen Monica if you just take back the rejection." "Are you insane?" "First of all, Archer Lyons would snap your neck if you ever hurt his daughter or family." "Second of all, Gabriella Lyons is the best Alpha this pack could ever ask for." "Not because she is wolf or a human but because she is kind, strong, and loves this pack and all its members." "I was wrong and angry at you for betraying me and that is the only reason I was so angry at Gabriella even though none of it was her fault." "I will never take back my rejection." "You are not worthy to be my mate and I can only pray the goddess gives me a second chance." I feel Thor and this time I don't stop him. I pull her to me elongating my canines and I don't give her a chance to shift when I bite down into her marking spot. The feeling of marking her makes me want to take her right here, but that I will save for when we are far from this place. I pull my canines from her neck and lick my mark. She goes limp and I lower her to the floor. I try to wake her but she isn't waking up. "Thor, why is she unconscious, what the hell?" Before he can answer, banging starts on the door and I can hear Serina screaming. What the f**k? I hear footsteps and I know if they find me here, they will kill me. I lean down kissing her lips. "I'll be back for you mate, I promise you that." I head for the window and we jump shifting in midair. We run for the border because I'm sure once the Alpha finds out what I have done every warrior will be after me.

Flashback Ends

As I think about my lips touching hers, I feel Thor slow down. "What the hell is happening?" "Why are you slowing down?" Then I realize we can smell wolves. Sh*t we were almost past the packs. This can't be Scarlett Howl wolves this far from the pack land. Thor starts to move through the trees trying move up wind to avoid the wolves smelling our scent. As the sound of paws pounding starts to get closer, he takes off at full speed. We are just about to come out of the trees when a wolf rams into our side, knocking us off our feet. Thor manages to regain his footing and we stand face to face with a large silver wolf with green eyes. He starts to circle around us and in this moment, Thor and I both realize that he isn't alone. We hear movement in the trees on the left and the wolf is standing still just staring at us. "What the hell is happening Thor"

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 25

Bret POV

The wolf shifts in front of me before two other wolves come out of the trees standing behind him. They are nowhere as big as he is. I shift hoping that I can talk my way out of this. He is older than me, probably in his late twenties. I can tell he is a pack member and a ranked wolf. He isn't Alpha but maybe Beta or Gamma. "What is your business near our pack lands?" "I'm purely trying to get to neutral territory sir", I say baring my neck to him to show respect. "I mean your pack no harm I promise you." He takes in a deep breath and I watch his eyes flicker to black. "You're a pack wolf." "Why are you trying to reach neutral territory?" "My mate rejected me so I can no longer stay in my home pack." "Wow you are a piece of work" I hear a female voice that is familiar. I whip my head in that direction to find the witch from Scarlett Howl pack coming off behind the trees with Johnathon her mate. "F**k" I say low as she walks toward me. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"You worthless piece of sh*." "You marked her against her will and now you stand here like a coward lying to Atticus the Beta of the Blood Rose pack." I hear the growl and his eyes are black when I look at him. "You forced your mark on a she-wolf, I should snap your pathetic neck right here." "You're lucky my Alphas want to deal with your a** or I would take care of you myself." I'm just about to shift and take my chances when I feel like Thor is gone. I look into the witch's eyes. "What have you done to me?" "What's the matter, Bret, can't reach your wolf?" I turn to Johnathon hoping that I can reason with him, as a wolf and a person who I once called a friend. "Johnathon, what would you do if your mate rejected you, would you simply walk away" I plead with him pointing at the witch. She laughs and Johnathon growls "do you really think there is any justification for all that you have done," the witch says. "Why is it that she rejected you in the first place, Bret?" I stay quiet. "Exactly, you are going to get everything you deserve, and Monica is going to go on to be happy with a new mate." Before I can even respond I'm consumed by darkness.

Atticus POV

"Thank you for your help, Beta" Tabitha says. "You don't need to call me Beta right now, Tabitha, and you never have to thank me for helping you take care of a piece of trash like him," I say pointing to the ba**ard unconscious on the ground. I can't believe any wolf would force his mark on a woman. He doesn't deserve to breathe the same air that she does. I turn to my men, who are the best trackers the Blood Rose pack has and they bare their necks to me in respect. "You did well, thank you", I say before they take off toward the pack house. I bend down, picking Bret up off the ground and throw him over my shoulder. Phoenix begins to growl in my mind. "What the hell is wrong with you?" "He is no threat to us now." He doesn't answer, just begins to pace back and forth more agitated than I have ever seen him before. "Atticus, are you alright" Johnathon asks. "I'm fine Phoenix is just acting strangely." "Strangely like what" Tabitha asks. "I think he is just aggravated by what this wolf did to that girl." She smiles "sounds like Phoenix is an amazing wolf just like his human." "Thank you, Tabitha." We head back toward the pack house.

"Lake, we were able to stop Bret from reaching neutral territory", I link him. "That's amazing, where is he now?" We are in the pack yard and Tabitha has him unconscious." "Place him in the cells and we will be there in the morning to deal with him." "Of course, Lake" I say before we cut the link. I pick him up, throwing him over my shoulder, and again Phoenix is acting erratic. I ignore him this time and head for the cells. Jonathon and Tabitha follow me down the stairs. Once I reach the cell, I drop him on the cot before I walk out, locking it behind me. Tabitha smiles and waves her hand in front of the cell. I watch the little sh*t stir before he sits up in a panic. "Better get comfortable a**hole, you won't be going anywhere." There is a guard posted outside the cell. I lead Tabitha and Johnathon back upstairs. "We will see you soon Atticus", Tabitha says, and they disappear. That is strange but very cool. ; visit us for more free novels.

Gabriella POV

We are in the office meeting with our trackers when Lake gets the link from Atticus. I'm so relieved that he will not get away with what he did. We dismiss the trackers and my phone rings in my pocket. As soon as I see it's Serina, I hurry up to answer her. "What's wrong Serina, is Monica, ok?" "Yes, she's awake and asking for you." I smile, I had hoped he would be dealt with before she woke up but I'm just glad she is alright. "We are on our way" I say before I hang up. Lake and I head to the pack hospital. We walk into the room and Monica is sitting up. I rush over and hug her. "I'm so happy you're alright." I pull back and I see sadness on her face. "Monica, what is it?" "Are you in pain?" "He marked me" she says and the tears run down her cheeks. I turn back to Serina and Lake. "Can I have a moment with Monica alone?" They head out the door and I sit down on the bed next to her. "I'm sorry that he did that to you, but I promise you that he is going to pay with his life for it." "What if he ruined my opportunity to ever have a second chance mate, Gabby?" "You can't really believe that." "Soon all of this will just be a memory and you will be happy with your new mate." She smiles "thank you for forgiving me and being such a good friend." I wipe the tears from her face. "From what I hear from Serina I should be thanking you for your friendship to both of us." She smiles and hugs me again.

"Where is he now Gabby?" "Lake's Beta Atticus with Tabitha and Johnathon's help were able to stop him from going into neutral territory." "He is in the Blood Rose pack cells for now." "We will be dealing with him tomorrow." I see an expression flash across her face "what is it Monica." "I need to see him and say my peace before he is dealt with." "I don't know if that's a good idea after what he did?" She takes my hand "please Gabby I need to have this so I can move past this." "Alright but only if the doctor says you are cleared to leave the pack." "Thank you, Gabby." "Alright, I'm going to check with the doctor and you get some more rest." I head out and meet Lake in the hallway. Serina heads back inside to sit with Monica and I tell Lake about Monica coming with us tomorrow. Monica POV

I wake up and I'm disoriented until I remember I'm in the hospital. I look over and Serina is asleep on the couch in my room. I smile at how sweet she has been to stay with me. The door opens and the doctor comes in. "Monica, I spoke with Gabriella and as long as you feel up to it I can release you this morning." "Thank you, I appreciate that." "I feel fine and I'm ready to get out of here." Serina sits up and stretches. The doctor leaves and she gives me jeans and a t-shirt to put on. Once I'm dressed, we head to the pack house. She leads me to the Alpha's office. We walk in and everyone smiles at me. "Monica, I'm glad to see you up and around" Alpha Archer says. "Thank you, Alpha." "Are you ready to go Monica," Gabby asks me. I nod and we head down to the cars. The drive to the pack feels like forever and when we finally arrive I'm ready for this to be over. "You can do this Monica your strong", Marigold says to me. "We are strong and he doesn't get to win."

They lead me downstairs and I stop when I see him sitting in the cell. I take a deep breath and walk until I'm standing in front of the cell. He rushes over "Monica, please forgive me." "Forgive you for what exactly Bret." "For denying me, for trying to trick Gabby to mate you, for marking me without my permission, or for just being a piece of sh*t." "I know your angry at me but you wanted me once and I want you." "We can end all this and just accept each other." I laugh at this man's audacity. "That time is long gone and what you did to me is unforgiveable." "I pray that the goddess has mercy on your soul because I know the Alphas won't." I turn to head for the stairs having said all I need to say. I need fresh air, so I rush out of the pack house to the pack yard. I take in deep breaths filling my lungs with the fresh air. The scent of citrus invades my nose. Marigold is going crazy in my mind and I look around but I'm alone. I feel a hand on my shoulder and I whip around expecting to see the wolf the scent belongs to but its Tabitha. "Are you alright?" "Yes, I'm fine, just needed some fresh air." "I'm proud of you, Monica for having the strength to face him." "Thank you, Tabitha." The door opens and I hear a growl. I turn slowly and I feel heat in my belly. "Mate" I hear and I can't believe this is happening. Marigold is repeating mate over and over in my head. I guess Gabby was right.

Jessica POV

This is my second shift in this whole and I haven't been able to get any of the male wolves to even notice me. What the hell is wrong with these a**holes. I bring two beers to the booth across the room. I scent they are both wolves. "Gentlemen, here are your beers." "Can I get you anything else?" The blonde man smiles at me. "Not right now but maybe in a little while, sweet thing." I smile heading back to the bar and I notice he is watching me move around the room. Finally, one of these rogues has some taste. Hopefully, I can convince him and his friend to help me. I head to another table to deliver a beer and the human man grabs my a**. I push his hand off my a** "don't be a b**ch I'm just having a little fun." Before I can tell him to f**k off, he rushes from the table. When I turn around, the blonde man is standing behind me. I smile "thank you, for your help." "No problem sweet thing," he says before he sits back down with his friend. Oh, he is definitely on the hook and he isn't even bad to look at if I have to f**k him to get what I need. When I get back from the bathroom, I notice the table the blonde man was sitting at is empty. Sh*t, I didn't even get his name. I finish up my shift and get ready to head home. When I walk out the door, I look up and he is standing against the telephone poll waiting for me. I am going to get everything I want, I think to myself as I walk toward him.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 26

Atticus

POV

I meet with Lake, Gabby, Tabitha, and Jonathon before I head downstairs. We briefly discuss the move that will be happening tomorrow of the pack. I completely agree with Lake that this new pack is what's best for our pack. "Thank you again, Atticus, for helping to stop Bret from getting away", Gabby says to me. "I will always do what's right for our pack and its members." I bare my neck before I head out of the office. Conrad and Nathan will be bringing that piece of sh*t to the pack yard to be dealt with. They were the ones that helped me track him last night. I open the back door and the scent of strawberry invades my nose. Phoenix is losing his sh*t. "Mate" he growls. A beautiful woman that I've never seen before is standing in the grass breathing fast. When our eyes meet, she smiles and it takes my breath away. I have waited for this woman for ten years. I feel like this can't be real. "It's real, go to our mate and claim her now" Phoenix growls in my head. I start to walk toward her and I stop dead when I notice the mark on her neck. She must realize what I'm looking at because the smile she had on her gorgeous face is gone. She touches her hand to the mark. Before I can say anything, I hear my name. "Atticus, where do you want this ba**ard until the Alphas arrive?" I turn to see the two men holding Bret by his arms, practically dragging him. "Monica, please I am your mate." "Don't let them do this to me" he says and I whip my head back in her direction. S~earch the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

I can't stop myself. I walk over to him and grab him by the throat. "You marked my mate against her will." Nathan and Conrad grab at my arms, trying to free Bret. His eyes get big and I'm about to snap his neck when Lake stops me. "Atticus drop him now and explain what the hell is happening" he says with Alpha command. Phoenix has no choice but to listen. Phoenix steps back in my mind and I drop his pathetic a** to the ground, turning to Lake. "He marked my mate against her f**king will." Gabby and Tabitha have the most brilliant smiles on their faces at my words. I feel a hand on my shoulder and turn to see Monica's beautiful face staring up at me with love in her eyes.

"You accept me even though he marked me." I don't even answer her. I pull her to me, slamming my lips down on hers. I kiss her like she is the air I need to breathe because she is. I will never let this woman go. I hear someone clear their throat and we pull a part. I turn to face my Alphas but I never take my hands off her.

"Well, I think congratulations are in order" Lake says. "It seems Monica has found her true mate." "I am her true mate", Bret screams and I have had enough. "I respectfully ask to be the one to end this pathetic wolf for what he did to my mate." Gabby and Lake look like they are linking. Lake turns back to me, "it is your right to carry out Bret's punishment as his actions were against your mate." I smile "thank you." I kiss Monica once more and the tingles are amazing. She steps away from me and goes to stand near Gabby and Tabitha before I start to pull my clothes off. "This isn't right that b**ch is blocking my wolf", Bret says pointing at Tabitha. "What kind of wolf fights a human?" I growl at his disrespect. Tabitha steps forward. "Don't worry do*chebag, unlike you, I will make the fight fair. She waves her hands over him and he smiles. I don't wait for his little celebration at getting his wolf back and I shift into Phoenix. He shifts into his smaller brown wolf. I have no desire to drag this on. I want to claim my mate.

We start to circle each other and he starts snapping at me. He lunges for our front leg but we dodge and he rolls. He jumps up and we stalk toward him. Phoenix lunges this time clamping down on his shoulder. The wolf whimpers but Phoenix doesn't let go. I can hear bones breaking in our jaws. He finally releases him only to bite down on the wolf's throat. He starts to try to shake us off, but Phoenix is having no part of it. We pin him down and this time Phoenix bites down, crushing his windpipe. He stops moving and we release our bite, walking back toward our mate and the Alphas. Phoenix bares his neck before we shift. I walk forward, throwing Monica over my shoulder and heading for the pack house without a word to anyone else. Monica POV

As I watch Atticus take his clothes off," the butterflies in my stomach turn into something far different. "Our mate is f**king hot", Marigold says. "Yes he is." He shifts and his wolf is amazing too. His fur is silver and looks like Satin. His eyes are the same beautiful green as Atticus. Marigold is freaking out in my mind when she sees our wolf mate. "He wants us and he doesn't care that ba**ard marked us." I smile that the goddess has given us such a perfect second chance. I never feared he wouldn't handle Bret. His wolf is huge compared to Bret's average-sized wolf. When he clamps down on Bret's neck and he stops moving, I feel a burn where he marked me. I put my hand on the mark, praying that means that Bret's death will erase the mark from my skin. His wolf stalks toward us and bares his neck to Gabby and Lake. He shifts and he wastes no time coming to me. I expect him to wrap me in his arms again but he shocks me when he throws me over his shoulder. I laugh and Marigold growls. "I can walk, Atticus." "I'm sure you can, but right now I can walk faster." He takes the steps two at a time.

We reach the door to his room and once we are inside, he stands me on my feet. "Monica, I have waited for you for ten years and I'm never letting you go." He looks at my shoulder and the smile on his face is brilliant. "It's gone" he says before he bends kissing my marking spot. "Monica what is your full name?" "My full name is Monica Lee Conklin." "I, Atticus Thomas Jones, accept you Monica Lee Conklin as my mate and Beta Female." "I, Monica Lee Conklin, accept you Atticus Thomas Jones as my mate and Beta." He slams his lips down on mine and I can feel the bond. He pulls back and pulls my shirt over my head. I unclasp my bra, dropping it to the floor and releasing my breasts. His eyes darken and I know his wolf is at the surface. I slide my pants down my body and he is watching my every move. Once I'm bared to him, he lifts me laying me on the bed.

I can't believe this is about to happen. After everything that happened, I never expected to find my mate so quickly. Atticus is perfect and Marigold and I are blessed to have found him. He starts to kiss down my body until he comes to rest at my core. He kisses both of my inner thighs before he takes a long lick into my core. It feels so good I almost c*m just from the feeling of his tongue touching me. He places his hands on my hips to hold me in place as he tortures me with his tongue. I grip the bed sheets as he is relentlessly working his tongue on my cl*t. I scream out my o****m and he climbs up my body. I can feel his member against my thigh and I'm ready for him to take me. "Atticus, I'm a virgin." He smiles and leans down, kissing my lips. When he pulls back, he looks me in the eyes, "we will be each other's everything." He can't be telling the truth. He can't mean that he is a virgin. He waited ten years and kept himself for only me. "Monica, look at me, you are the only woman I will ever touch." I reach up pulling his lips to mine. Atticus POV

As I kiss her, I line myself up with her core. I wipe my c*ck through her folds before I push forward. She is so tight and perfect. I push until I feel her barrier. I push forward and she screams. I stay still allowing her to adjust to the feeling of me buried deep inside her. "Oh, my goddess Atticus, please move." She doesn't have to ask me twice. I start to move and I couldn't stop if I wanted to and believe me I don't. I feel Phoenix at the surface and my canines elongate. She turns her head as she moans, giving me better access to her marking spot. I sink my teeth in and she screams out her o****m. Her walls squeezing my c**k push me over the edge. I feel her canines break my skin and I see stars. Our bodies and souls are bonded together in this life and the next. We both catch our breath before we collapse. I pull her back to my front. "Monica, I love you and I will never let anyone hurt you." "Thank you for accepting me and dealing with he who shall not be named." I chuckle at her humor. "I love you too, Atticus." Jessica POV

I wake up and Kenneth is slipping his pants on next to my bed. "Where are you going?" "I'm not sure what you thought this was Jess but it was s*x nothing more." "I didn't think it was love a**hole but I at least thought we could speak before you rushed out of here like your a** was on fire." He growls "don't call me an a**hole." "Whatever leave I'll just find another wolf to help me." He stands buttoning his jeans. "Alright I'm curious, what help are you looking for Jess?" I slip out of bed pulling my t-shirt and shorts on. "I was a Luna and the little sh*t that took over the pack after my mate died banished me." He looks at me and I can't read his expression. "That little sh*t's name wouldn't happen to be Lake Solace would it." I'm sure there is shock on my face. "How the hell could you possibly know that?" "Let's have a seat Jess and talk about how we can help each other."

We take a seat at the table in the kitchen. "How do you know about Lake and the Blood Rose Pack?" "Before your mate met his untimely demise, he and I were working on making Archer Lyons suffer." "His son refused to help me and I've been gathering men to make Archer Lyons suffer for killing my brother for months." I smile "it seems that we have some common enemies, Kenneth." "Yes, it does Jess, I think we can work together after all."

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 27

Gabriella

POV

I can't wipe the smile off my face. "Love, you haven't stopped smiling since Atticus threw Monica over his shoulder", Lake says. "I know because I'm happy", I chuckle. "The goddess is amazing and I'm glad she didn't make Monica wait after what that ba**ard did to her." He takes my hand and we drive back to the pack. "Atticus has waited ten years for his mate and I'm so happy that he has finally found her." As we drive I think about becoming our ceremony. We will be having dinner with my family tonight to discuss last-minute preparations for our ceremony tomorrow. When we pull through the gate, we drive up to the carport. The pack is alive with activity. It isn't just the upcoming ceremony that everyone is preparing for. My father has ordered for housing to be arranged for our new pack members. We are in the process of building a second pack house which will house our Alpha floor and additional cottages for the wolves with families. My father is truly amazing for all he has done. He spared no expense to make sure that the joining of the packs would be as seamless as possible. I look at Lake, who is looking around in amazement. "This is insane." "I never expected your father to have all this done so quickly." He turns to me "this is truly amazing love." He bends down kissing me and I wrap my arms around his neck.

I hear kissing noises and I pull back to see my sister and Nicholas mocking us. "One day you two will have mates you want to kiss too." They both laugh and hug me. "I can't wait to meet my mate" Serina says as she pulls back. "Where's Monica" Serina asks with concern in her voice. I smile "she found her mate." Serina starts to jump up and down like the teenage girl she is. "Who is it, someone in Lake's pack?" "Actually, he is Lake's Beta Atticus." "Monica is going to be Beta Female of the Scarlett Rose Pack." "That is amazing, I'm glad that Bret was dealt with and she can be happy with a mate that knows how lucky he is." We head inside to find my parents and to get ready for dinner. Alpha Blane

I'm at my desk going through pack finances when Bernard knocks and walks into my office with one of the warriors. "What is going on, Bernard?" "We need to talk Blane." I look at him confused. In all the years that Bernard has been my Beta, he has never called me out of my title in front of pack members. I will speak to him after the warrior leaves. "What exactly do we need to talk about?" "We have had no luck locating the witch, your sister, or Belinda despite all our efforts." "We have scoured all the surrounding neutral territories but no one has any information about where they are hiding." "I had truly hoped that we would find them before the Alpha ceremony for the Scarlett Rose Pack." "I've never even heard of the Scarlett Rose" Bernard says. I smile "that's because it won't exist until tomorrow." "Alpha Lake and Alpha Gabriella will be joining packs now that they have mated and marked." "They have invited me to attend and I'm honored to be there." "I can't believe you agree with a human being an Alpha of a wolf pack." "I believe in the moon goddess and her decisions." "Besides after the time I've spent with Lake and Gabriella I believe that they will do great things for their pack." "You shouldn't judge the power and capabilities of someone based on what you think should be Bernard." "Are you f**king kidding me?" "You sound pathetic." "Excuse me" I ask shocked before I growl at Bernard. I look to the warrior and he smiles. "What Blane, you've never heard Bernard curse, brother?" My sister and who I assume is the witch, are standing in my office having shimmered to their true forms. I should have known Bernard would never act in such a way. I link Bernard but I can't reach him. "What did you do to my Beta?" "Don't worry Blane, we didn't kill him, but you won't be so lucky." I send a link to the warriors before I shift. I go to lunge at the two b**ches but I can't move. Esmerelda walks over to my wolf, running her hand down his snout. "Blane, I love you, brother, but you have left me no choice." "You were willing to let those ba**ards kill my niece, your own daughter." Trevor, my wolf growls and before I know what's happening, I'm forced to shift back to human form. I still can't move and Esmerelda circles me until she comes to stand in front of me. "Don't worry brother, we won't miss the Alpha ceremony." "We will send your regards to the pathetic human b**ch and Lake Solace." She turns around to my desk and pulls out the pack dagger. "If you think I will beg you for my life you are sadly mistaken." "I have no problem going to the goddess to be with Judith." "You will face the goddess for all you have done and pay for every crime." She rolls her eyes before she places the blade to my neck. The witch comes to stand next to her and she drags the blade across my throat. I close my eyes and true darkness consumes me. Lake POV

We are discussing the Alpha ceremony when Archer gets a phone call. I watch his face morph into one of rage. "When" he asks and I can tell his wolf is at the surface. "We are on our way, Elder Bradford." He hangs up and takes a deep breath before he speaks. "Alpha Blane has been killed." "What, I just talked him yesterday?" "What the hell happened?" Gabriella takes my hand and I try to stay calm. "Elder Bradford is there trying to figure that out and he asked that we come to discuss something he found." I nod standing and so does Gabriella. Archer kisses Sabrina before we head for the SUV. Once we are inside, I wrap my arm around Gabriella, breathing in her scent to keep myself calm. We pull into the pack and Elder Bradford is waiting for us on the pack house stairs with an older man. "Alphas, thank you for coming so quickly" Elder Bradford says. "This is Beta Bernard." We shake hands and Bernard looks destroyed, having lost his Alpha. Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"Let's go to Alpha Blane's office." We follow Elder Bradford and once we are inside a pile of linens cover the floor where someone was cleaning up the blood. "Elder Bradford, what happened to Alpha Blane?" He looks to Bernard. "I was called to the pack border by a patrol guard." "When I arrived the patrol guard was unconscious on the ground." "I walked toward him to see what was going on and Esmerelda and another woman came off behind the trees." "That is the last thing I remember before everything went dark." I can feel Razor at the surface. "That b**ch killed her own brother, is that what you're saying." "From what I can gather speaking to other pack members they disguised themselves as Beta Bernard and the unconscious warrior to gain access to Alpha Blane's office" Elder Bradford says. I look over again to the floor where Alpha Blane must have fallen and then to the desk where the pack dagger lays covered in blood. "The warriors that made it here after Alpha Blane linked said they opened the door and Esmerelda cut his throat before they both disappeared." I roar and Razor is begging to be let out.

I link Gabriella "I need shift and run before we finish this conversation, love." "I'm coming with you." "We need a moment to process everything you just said Elder", Gabriella says. We head downstairs and out of the pack house. I strip and shift bending down so Gabriella can get on Razor's back. "Hold on tight love" I link before he takes off. As we run I think about Alpha Blane and his kindness to me. He showed me more kindness in our few meetings than my father ever did. We run for twenty minutes before we return to the pack yard. Razor lays down so Gabriella can slide down. She comes around laying her head against Razor's. She kisses his forehead before she steps back and I shift. I slip my clothes back on and pull Gabriella to me. "Thank you, for running with me." "Having you close is just what Razor and I needed in this moment." "You two are stuck with me." She kisses me before we head back up to the office. "Why would he do this Elder" I hear Archer ask him. They look in our direction when we walk in. "Are you ok Lake" Archer asks. "Yes, I am, what are you two talking about." "Elder Bradford was just showing me Alpha Blane's wishes for his pack." I look at him confused. "What wishes" I ask. "It looks like after everything happened with Belinda Alpha Blane drew up a document ensuring she would never gain control of his pack." "That's good, that evil b**ch should never be in charge of wolves." "Lake, he left the pack to you." "Me, why would he leave the pack to me." I turn to Bernard "he has a Beta." "Bernard should become Alpha it's his right." Bernard laughs "I'm a little to old to take over the pack and I have no children of my own." "Blane spoke to me about this and honestly even with the short time he spent with you he knew you would carry on his legacy." "I don't know what to say." Archer stands coming over until he is in front of me and Gabriella. "We will figure all of this out." "I'm sure that Beta Bernard can over-see the pack until we figure out how to move forward." Bernard nods at me. "I will have Tabby come to place some protection spells on the pack until these women are caught and dealt with." "Lake, are you alright" Gabriella links me. "I'm just in shock but I will be" I say and kiss her forehead. Belinda POV

I'm sitting on the couch in this apartment we have been staying in since we left my aunt's cottage. I've gone from living in places that look like mansion to this sh*t hole because of Lake and that f**king human. My aunt and Megan appear just inside the door. "What happened?" "Your father paid for his sins" my aunt says. I expected to feel bad that he's dead but I don't. He was willing to let them kill me for some stupid laws and he got what he deserved as far as I'm concerned. "We did find out something interesting during our visit with your father." I smile "what would that be?" "It seems that Lake and the human will be joining their packs into one." "They are having their Alpha ceremony tomorrow." I growl "that b**ch took what should have been mine." "I want her dead." My aunt takes my face in her hands. "Baby girl she is going to pay and I promise you that you will get to end her pathetic human life." "Esmerelda I'm still confused how the human is still alive after the energy ball I threw at her" Megan says. I turn toward her. "Maybe you thought you hit her but you missed." "I'm not an amateur little girl, I don't miss" she says and I can tell I pissed her off. My aunt steps between us facing Megan. "We will figure out what happened, Meg." "The important thing is to make sure that whatever luck she had to survive your power runs out the next time we see her."

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 28

Gabriella

Lake is quiet on the drive back to the pack. I can feel his emotions through our bond. His sadness, confusion, and fear are overwhelming. My heart breaks for my mate in this moment. Even though he only knew Blane for a short period of time he had great respect for him. He acted more fatherly than Raymond ever did. He is grieving his loss. I can't believe he appointed Lake as his successor. Lake wraps his arm around me pulling me closer. "When we reach the pack, I would like to take you on a run if you're up to it" Lake says. "I would love that." "Lake today was a lot and I'm proud of how you have handled yourself" my father says. "You have time to think about what to do with Blane's pack." "Bernard is very capable of overseeing everything until you decide how to proceed." "Thank you, Archer." Once we park the car, we walk down the path till we come to the clearing. He strips and I'll never tire of looking at his beautiful body. He smiles catching me checking him out. He walks toward me and takes my face into his hands. "Gabriella, I'm so grateful to have you as my mate."

He kisses presses his lips to mine. I feel his love for me in this kiss. He pulls back pressing his forehead to mine. "I know you felt my emotions today and I would have never gotten through all this craziness without you." "You never have to worry about going through anything alone." He pecks my lips before he steps back. He shifts and Razor is standing tall in front of me. His beautiful silver fur looks like silk. He lowers his head and I rub my hand down his muzzle. He lays down allowing me to climb up on his back. The tingles with Razor are just as amazing as they are Lake. I lay my body against his back and he takes off. The feeling of the wind rushing past us as he runs through the woods is freeing. Brutus has taken me on many runs but this is different. Knowing this wolf is my other half when I worried, I wouldn't have one. Lake's emotions seem to calm as we run. We run for another twenty minutes before he lays down on the bank near the lake.

I slide down landing on my feet. He shifts back but it's still Razor eyes. "Hello my beautiful mate." "Hello Razor" I say as he pulls me to him kissing me like he is consuming me. When he pulls back Lake's piercing blue eyes are staring back at me. He grabs a pair of shorts from a nearby tree. I chuckle, all packs must hide clothes behind trees for him to know they would be there. He takes my hand and leads me over to a large rock. He sits pulling me onto his lap. "Lake, let's talk about what happened today." Lake POV

Running in wolf form helped me clear my mind. Having Gabriella with me made it even better. I'm glad she wants to talk because I need to figure this out with everything happening tomorrow. "I am humbled that Alpha Blane thought enough of me to want me to lead his pack." "But" she says smiling at me. "Yes, there is a but coming love." "Tomorrow we will join our packs together and I know in my heart that it's what's best for my pack members." "It isn't fair to expect this pack to lose a beloved Alpha and then have to uproot their lives because of these disgusting women." "I agree Lake but the pack needs an Alpha and Bernard has made it clear he is not interested in assuming the role permanently." "I understand that too because of his age and having no children." "We could easily take on this new pack but that would be good for us not them." She smiles "you're amazing and so much like my father as a leader." "You care more about people than you do power and that's what makes you a great Alpha." "So, you're alright if we don't take over this pack." "Lake, this is your decision and I support whatever you decide to do." I bury my head in her neck. "The goddess has truly blessed me and I can't wait to make you mine in front of our new pack." I pick up my head looking into her eyes. "I feel like you already have an idea" Gabriella says. I smile "I do but I want you to agree before I present it to your father and Elder Bradford." After I tell Gabriella my idea, I can see she is torn. "Gabriella be honest with me, we are partners in this." "I think it's brilliant and even though I'll be losing something it is absolutely the right thing to do." "Let's go talk to your dad and see if he agrees." I slip the shorts off and shift. Once Gabriella has climbed on Razor's back he takes off. "You know she is right Lake" Razor says. "You doing what's right for the pack members instead of being a power hungry Alpha like your father is why you are a great Alpha." "I am proud to be your wolf." "Thank you, Razor." We shift back and I slip my clothes back on so we can head to the office. Gabriella POV

I wake up in our bed alone for the first time since I found Lake. I can't believe that our Alpha ceremony is today. Between the two packs most of the moving has been done. I'm glad that Lake's pack members seem happy and I know that with time we will all be one pack even if there are bumps along the way. The door opens and Lake comes in. "I thought I wouldn't see you until the ceremony." "I have kissed you every morning since we found each other and today is no different." He kisses me "after you get ready, I have arranged to meet in our new office before the ceremony to discuss what will be happening with the Silver Moon Pack." I smile, he insisted last night that we will share an office as we will both be performing Alpha duties. The door flies open and my mother is standing there with her hands on her hips. "Lake Solace get your b**t out of here so I can get my daughter dressed for your ceremony." He laughs and kisses me once more before he jumps up rushing from the room. Serina and Monica come in behind her both smiling

Once I'm showered, I slip into a beautiful sapphire A-line gown. It's hard to believe that it's me when I look into the mirror. I love myself and I wouldn't change my body but sometimes I can't wear what the other girls can with my curves. Today though I love everything about this dress and how I look in it. I pulled my hair into a messy bun and I have light make-up on. I turn to my family and my mother is in tears. Once they all hug me, they give me a minute alone. A few minutes later a knock sounds on the door and it opens to my father standing there. I can see the unshed tears in his eyes as he looks at me. "Dad" I say but he raises his hand to stop me. "I am so proud of the woman you have become." "I am in awe of your beauty and strength." "You will always be my little girl and first born but today you are the Alpha of the Scarlett Rose Pack." He wraps me in his arms and I fight back the tears threatening to fall. He pulls back "now don't cry or your mother will kill me." I chuckle and he smiles. "Gabiella, I worried when you found your mate, he would try to make you feel beneath him as some wolves do but I am proud to call Lake my son-in-law and successor with you." He leads me to our new office and everyone is waiting inside.

Lake POV

We are all talking as we wait for Archer and Gabriella to join us. "Lake are you sure this is what you really want to do" Elder Bradford asks me quietly. "I am more than sure." The door opens and Archer walks in first with my stunning mate behind him. I am on my feet and she is in my arms before the door can shut. "You look amazing my love." I place my face in the crook of her neck breathing in her scent. Archer clears his throat and the others in the room laugh. We take our seat and Archer nods to me. I stand facing Atticus, Monica, and Elder Bradford. I explain everything that happened yesterday and I can see anger on both of their faces. "We will avenge him Alpha" Atticus and I smile. "That we will but I called you both here with Archer and Elder Bradford as witnesses for another reason." Now Atticus and Monica look at me confused. I take Gabriella's hand and she comes to stand next to me.

"Alpha Blane made me Alpha of his pack." "After a lot of discussion with my mate, Archer, and Elder Bradford we have decided that it isn't fair to make Blane's pack join ours." "They have just lost their Alpha and we will not make them change their homes." "I'm confused what will happen to the pack then" Atticus says with concern in his voice. "We will be appointing a worthy Alpha and Luna to take over." "Atticus and Monica Jones, we would like you to become the Alpha and Luna of the Silver Moon Pack." The shock on their faces is comical. "Alpha" Atticus starts to say. "Atticus you were made for this position." "I have seen your wolf, someone in your family line was an Alpha." "You are loyal and you will protect that pack with your life." "Besides our packs will be tied together forever now." "They will be sister packs." He smiles and looks to his mate. I see them link before he turns back to me. "We accept and we both appreciate your confidence in our ability to rule this pack." He stands and we shake. The girls wrap each other in a hug. "You will always be my Alpha, Gabby" I hear Monica whisper to my mate and I smile. "Well now that that's settled, we better get to the ceremony before I get in trouble with Sabrina for making you late for the ceremony" Archer says. Gabriella POV

Lake heads out to the ceremony and I wait to walk in with my parents. I take a deep breath. Serina comes to stand in front of me. "Are you ready sissy?" I smile and hug her. "I'm ready and next time it will be your turn." She lets me go and leaves to take her seat. "I'm proud of you Gabby" my mother says and both my parents loop their arms in mine. The doors open and we walk through into the garden. The pack and all our guests look in my direction but all I can see is Lake standing at the bottom of the stage. Once we reach him my parents both hug him before they walk up the stairs and onto the stage. Lake smiles and pulls a box out of his pocket. "I'm going to take a page out of dad's play book." He opens the box and there is the most gorgeous ring set I've ever seen. He slips them on my finger and kisses me before we walk up on stage together. As I look out at this new pack, I'm humbled by the smiles I see on their faces.

"We have gathered today to transfer power to the new Alphas of the Scarlet Rose Pack" Elder Bradford says. "These two Alphas have come together and by doing so have created a new pack with equal members." The Elder hands the dagger and chalice to my father. He cuts his hand allowing his blood to flow into the chalice before he hands it to me. "Gabriella Solace make your vow to the pack" Elder Bradford says. "I, Gabriella Solace, accept my duties as Alpha." "I vow to put the needs of the pack above my own and rule the pack as a partner with my mate." "I vow to rule fairly and with kindness." I drink from the chalice and immediately feel a connection to the pack. I hand the chalice to Lake. "Lake Solace make your vow to the pack" Elder Bradford says. "I, Lake Solace, accept my duties as Alpha." "I vow to put the needs of the pack above my own and rule the pack as a partner with my mate." "I vow to rule fairly and with kindness." He drinks from the chalice before handing it back to Elder Bradford. "Scarlett Rose Pack your new Alphas, Alpha Lake Solace and Alpha Gabriella Solace." The pack breaks into howls and bares their necks at us. I can't even describe the feeling flowing through me. Lake wraps his arm around me. "Are you ready to run with our new pack love?" "Yes, I am love." Belinda POV

We reach just outside the border of the Scarlett Howl Pack. A wolf approaches standing inside the border "what is your business here." "We came to attend the Alpha ceremony of course" my aunt says. Another patrol guard approaches and comes to stand in front of us. "I think you ladies need to leave as you were not invited." "That's funny because I think a Megan has our invitation" Esmerelda says. We turn to Megan and she smiles before she waves her hands in the wolves direction.

Tabitha POV

As I watch Gabriella take her place in our pack as Alpha, I think about how strong she is. I know many would think being a human makes her weak in our world but that couldn't be farther from the truth. She had to work harder to prove herself than any wolf would ever have to do. Strength is not powers or how big your wolf is. I've watched this little girl turn into a capable determined woman who has been accepted by the wolves of this pack. She is so much like her mother and her father. I may have helped with my protection spell to keep her safe but her abilities are all her own. She has gotten wolves to follow her and treat her as a leader. That makes her amazing in my eyes. I hope this pack knows how fortunate they are to have her and Lake as their Alphas. My coven never felt like home but this pack has always felt that way. I never fit in there even as a child I felt out of place. My parents despite being born a black magic witch and warlock chose a different path after I was born. I wish we would have left then maybe I would still have them. They never truly became light magic but somewhat gray. They are the only reason I am not a black magic witch right now. Johnathon takes my hand I'm sure feeling my emotions through our bond. I will never let anyone hurt my pack or family again. When they finally announce that Lake and Gabby are the Alpha's of the Scarlett Rose pack I smile. I had this nagging feeling that one of those a**holes would try to ruin today. I'm glad I was wrong. "Tabby I'm going to go on the pack run." "Of course," I say and he kisses me before he undresses and shifts. I love my beloved more every day and I thank the goddess that I was rejected by that a**hole wolf. Johnathon and this pack were always meant to be part of my life.

Megan POV

I still feel like we are missing something about this whole situation. I know I hit that human b**ch with that energy ball and she shouldn't have survived it. Esme said about it being luck that she survived, but nothing happens in our world by chance. As we approach the border, I feel a magical signature that is familiar but definitely light magic. Why would a light witch be at an Alpha ceremony for wolves? Most wolves don't like our kind because of the power we wield. Alpha wolves want to hold all the power even though they are often pathetic. Just like Blane was more worried about laws instead of those, he should have had loyalty too. When Belinda and Esme turn toward me with smiles on their faces, I wave my hands starting to chant. I can see the wolf is linking with others, so we won't have much time to take care of them before other wolves arrive. I throw the first energy ball and it dissipates right in front of the wolf. What the f**k just happened? I throw three more energy balls but none of them reach the wolves. "Esme we need to leave I told you something wasn't right." "What the hell just happened" she asks me. "The pack is under a protection spell of a light witch." "The witch must be powerful for her to protect a pack this size." "Why would a witch help these wolves" she asks me like I have any idea what the hell is happening. "We can figure that out but not here." I hear a roar and look just in time to see Lake's wolf and the human coming toward us.

Gabriella POV

We go behind the stage so I can slip my dress off and pull-on shorts and a t-shirt for the pack run. Lake shifts and I climb on Razor's back. He comes off around the stage and the pack members that are of shifting age are ready to run. They bare their necks and Razor takes off. As we run despite the fact that I'm not a wolf, I feel the intense connection to my pack. I bury my hands in Razor's fur as I feel like we are flying. We are halfway through the run when Lake and I get a link from the patrol guard that we have three uninvited guests near the eastern border. We lead the pack back to the festivities before we head toward the eastern border ourselves. As we approach I see that b**ch Belinda. I don't even wait for Razor to lay down and I jump off, landing on my feet. Lake shifts and we rush to stand next to our warriors. Before I know what's happening, Tabby appears behind the three b**ches with her arms crossed. "Well at least you waited till the ceremony was over" she says and they all turn. I see a look of hurt and anger flash across Tabby's face when her eyes land on the witch. She disappears without a word to these two disgusting she-wolves she was helping. "Looks like your friend abandoned you two." They turn back to face me and Lake. If looks could kill, I would be dead. "I don't need a witch to kill you human." Lake growls and she looks in his direction.

Lake's eyes are black and he is staring at Esmerelda. Tabby comes to stand beside us. Lake partially shifts and starts to walk toward Esmerelda. She shifts before takes off and I focus my attention on the b**ch that tried to take my mate. "Tabby block Belinda's wolf please" I say and she waves her hand in Belinda's direction. "What did you do to me you b**ch" Belinda yells at me. "I'm about to teach you why the goddess chose me for Lake." We start to circle each other. "You think that just because I can't shift you can actually beat me you pathetic human." I laugh "I guess we are about to see." She tries to take me off guard and throws a punch at my face. I dodge punching her in the ribs. She steps back in shock but I am far from done. I throw a punch, hitting her in the jaw and knocking her on her a**. She screams jumping back up on to her feet and runs toward me. She puts her shoulder into my stomach, knocking me to the ground. I can see a smile on her face because she thinks she has the upper hand. I jump to my feet and this time I roundhouse kick her in the face. She flips completely in the air landing on her back. She starts to sit up and I wrap my arm around her neck. She starts to grab at my arm and fight my grip. Before she can pull away, I snap her neck, dropping her to the ground. I look back to see where Lake is but he's gone. "Tabby, what way did Lake go?" "He is handling that b**ch's aunt" she says pointing to a wooded area about a hundred yards from us. "Be careful Gabby."

Lake POV

I start to walk toward that b**ch who killed her own brother and my friend. She shifts taking off and I'll be damned before she gets away from me. She is going to pay with her life for what she did to Blane. I shift and Razor takes off. She ducks into nearby trees and we follow her inside. Razor sniffs but her smell is all around us. I move carefully, not knowing if that witch is still around or hiding. I turn my head to the left and I feel claws swipe my right side. Razor whips his head in that direction but all she managed to do was to give up her position and piss us off. She starts to back up and we stalk forward. She immediately shifts into human form. I'm sure she thinks that this will protect her from my wolf. I partially shift so my claws remain extended and I can speak. "Lake, you have to understand she is my niece, I had to help her." I laugh "are you really trying to plead with me that this was about family after you killed Alpha Blane, your brother." I see fear flash across her face. "She is like a daughter to me Lake." "I had to protect her." I'm right in front of her now. "He was a friend to me and you are a pathetic she-wolf who is about to meet the moon goddess for all you have done" I say before I slam my claw into her chest wrapping it around her heart. Her eyes are big and I pull my claw back out dropping her heart to the ground.

I catch my mate's scent and Esmerelda's body falls in front of me. I turn praying that I won't see fear and disgust on Gabriella's face after what she just witnessed. She is smiling and reaches out her hand to mine. When I reach her she wraps me in her arms. "You could never do anything that would make me see you differently." "Besides, who do you think just ended Belinda." I slam my lips down on hers. We head back toward Tabby and she looks deep in thought. She smiles when she sees us but it doesn't reach her eyes. "Let's get back to your celebration", Tabby says. She takes our hands and we appear back by the stage. Before we can ask her any questions about the witch she rushes over to Johnathon. I link the warriors to take care of Belinda and Esmerelda's bodies. I turn to Gabriella, "we need to talk to Tabby after dinner." "You're right but let's enjoy what's left of our night." "I'm sure my mother is wondering where we are." We both dress before we head inside and take our seats with Archer and Sabrina. "Do you want to tell us where you've been" Archer asks. Gabriella smiles and tells them exactly what happened. "You didn't think to let anyone know that they were here" Archer says. "Archer, they are the Alphas and I'm sure had they needed the pack or you they would have alerted us", Sabrina says. I smile seeing my mate's strength in Sabrina. Megan POV

I feel like I've seen a ghost when I teleport back to my room. I had no choice but to leave or I would be as dead as Belinda and Esme probably are right now. How can she be alive and have a light magic signature? She was to be a powerful black magic witch in our coven until her parents went all noble. Her power was choking me even for those few seconds I was in her presence. My father is going to be livid when I tell him that she is still alive. I take a deep breath and head to my father's office. I knock and he calls out for me to come in. "Megan what do you need I'm busy." "I'm sorry to bother you father, but this is important." He looks up at me and he puts his pen down. I take a seat in the chair in front of his desk. "What do you need Megan?" I tell about what happened tonight at the Scarlett Howl pack. "I have told you that getting involved with wolves is not a good idea." "They are weak and pathetic." "That girl only uses you for your powers." "I was only helping her to gain access to weak wolves for the coven." He smiles and nods at me. "Why do I have a feeling there is more to this story?" "The witch that was helping the wolf pack is Tabitha Crane." He slams his fist down on the table. "Don't be f**king ridiculous, she died along with her traitorous parents." "I know what you think happened father but I saw her." He comes around the desk and grabs me by the throat. "Are you saying I don't know what I saw?" I grab at his hand and he finally drops me to the floor. I take deep breaths trying to fill my lungs with air. "Father, I swear to you she is alive and she has been marked by a wolf." He reaches down, placing his hand on my head. After a few seconds, his face contorts into a look of anger. "How is this f**king possible?"

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 30

Tabitha

POV

I rush over to Johnathon and he pulls me into his arms. "What's wrong Tabby," he says, sounding concerned. I hate making him worry, but I don't keep secrets from him. This isn't the time so I'll explain everything to him later. "I don't want to talk about it now." "Let's just celebrate Lake and Gabby becoming Alphas." "We can talk about it later." He looks like he wants to protest but he honors my request. We head inside and sit down at our table. River, Fern, Willow, and Harris are already seated. Willow leans in "where were you guys?" I chuckle because nobody misses anything around here. "Let's just say that Belinda and her b**ch of an aunt will no longer be a problem." She smiles and nods at me. As we start to eat, my mind goes back to Megan. I never thought I would see her again and I wish I hadn't. I had hoped that part of my life would stay in the past. I think about the last day I spent in the coven with my parents.

Flashback

I got back from the wolf pack an hour ago and I stayed with Megan because I hate to have to tell my parents what happened with Derrick. "I can't believe you were mated to a wolf." "They are not good enough to be mated to our kind, so I'm glad he rejected you", Megan says, and I hide my hurt at her words. I may have accepted his rejection, but it doesn't mean that it doesn't hurt me. I wanted my fated mate and I don't care that he was wolf. "Tabby, now maybe you can take a warlock for a chosen mate" she says, winking at me like she has a secret. I don't even entertain it because it will never happen. "I'm hoping the goddess will grant me a second chance." "Tabby you're not seriously going to wait around for some beloved, that might turn out to be another mutt." I love Megan she is my best friend but her ideas are as warped as her father about our kind being superior to other super naturals. "I'm not ready to have a mate right now so there is no reason to really discuss it." I can tell she isn't happy with my response but honestly, it's none of her business if I decide to accept a wolf mate. "I have to head back to see my parents." "I'm sure my mother will want to know what happened."

I reach our cottage and my mother is the only one home. She calls me over to sit on the couch and I can tell something is bothering her before she even speaks. "Tabby, I think it's time for us to leave the coven", my mother says. At first, I think she is kidding, but then I realize she isn't. "Mom how can we leave?" "Where will we go?" "What is wrong that you want to leave?" She takes my hand and pulls me into the bedroom of our cottage. "Tabby that wolf was never worthy of you and I'm glad he rejected you." I can't believe what I'm hearing. How does she already know? The rejection still fresh in my mind. I'm hurt by her words, especially after my conversation with Megan. My face must reflect my hurt. She takes my face in hers. "Tabby, if he couldn't see what an amazing woman and, witch you are then he wasn't worthy of you." "You deserve a fated mate that sees all of that not your differences." I realize she isn't talking about him being a wolf. She just means because he was stupid for rejecting me. "That still doesn't explain why we need to leave the coven." "Some people think that we only belong with our kind and want power that don't belong to them." "I have spoken with your father and he agrees that it's best we leave tonight." "Tabby do not say anything to Megan about us leaving." I hate the thought of leaving without at least saying goodbye to Megan but I know my mother wouldn't tell me not to unless it was important.

A few hours later, my father returns and I can tell he is pissed. "Patrick, what happened" my mother asks my father. "He insists that Tabby take Terrance as a chosen mate despite my refusal." "What the hell, who insists?" I ask before I can stop the words. My father whips his head in my direction. "Tabby no one is going to force you to do anything as long as I'm alive." "We made choices the moment you were born to be better people and nothing is going to change that." "I'm so confused what the hell is happening?" "Brice was furious that the goddess paired you with the wolf." "You know how he feels about us being with other super naturals." My father takes my hand "Tabby you are very powerful and your magic is light despite being born to us." "If you take Terrance as a beloved your children will have mixed magic and will be even more powerful." "He will try to use you and your children like a weapon." "I will never take a chosen mate or allow someone to use my children." "I know sweetheart that is why we need to leave." "We are powerful but we will not be able to face the warriors of the coven with just the three of us." "Janice get whatever you must and we need to leave." My mother drags me to the room and we grab just a few things before we head back to the living room. I feel sick to my stomach when we walk in and I see Brice and Terrance sitting on the couch. My father is lying on the floor not moving. "What have you done," I say with all the anger I feel in this moment. My mother is gripping my arm as I try to go to my father. "Now Tabitha, why does it look like you and your family are planning to leave the coven", Brice asks. I don't even answer his question. "Why are you here and what did you do to my father?" "Be careful how you talk, little girl." "He isn't dead yet, but it's up to you if it stays that way." I can feel the anger flowing through my body. I'm sure there are warriors outside because he is too much of a coward to come here alone. He stands "now I'm sure your father told you that you will be Terrance's chosen mate." My eyes shift to his son and he grins like he won a prize. "Now say your goodbyes to your parents, you will be coming back to the mansion with us until you have completed the bond with Terrance. My father finally moves and he manages to get to his feet. He stumbles toward us and I wrap my arm around him.

I look at both my parents and they nod at me. I conjure all the energy I can in my body and I cast toward both these ba**ards. They both fly across the room and we try to teleport out but we are being blocked by some type of magical spell. I turn and Brice is laughing as he gets to his feet. "Did you really think it would be that easy?" "F**k you" I say before I start to pull my energy through my body again. I smell something and I realize that smoke is coming from the back of the cottage. "What have you done?" "All of this could have been avoided if you were a good girl and listened like a woman should." I raise my hand to cast again but this time warriors break through the door protecting these two a**hats. Before I can stop it the warriors cast toward the three of us. The force of the six warriors is more than I can stop. We are all sent flying and I can hear Brice screaming. "You better pray she is still alive or all of you will die today." "She was trying to kill you sir." I see a flash and assume that the warrior that just spoke perished. I hear my mother's voice. "Pretend you're dead Tabitha, and know we love you." "Do not stay here and fight them, leave, promise me." "I promise but we will leave together once they are gone" I say. I assume my parents are going to pretend the same, so I cast a spell to appear like I was killed by the blast. I feel them hovering over me to check if I'm alive. Familiar arms wrap around me. "You killed her, you weren't supposed to kill her, just them." I hear the warriors pleading for their lives before there is silence." I'm laid back down by Megan before I hear Brice speak again "let the cottage burn to the ground and we will blame the wolf pack for the attack and death of our beloved coven members." Once they have all left I crawl to my mother feeling the flames moving toward the living room. I shake her "Mom, they are gone, please wake up." She never budes and I place my head on her chest, but there is no beating. I wave my hand casting a healing spell, but it's too late. She is gone and I feel like I can't breathe. I do the same and my father is gone too. How can I have lost them both? I feel an anger in my belly and my hands start to glow. My mother's words replaying in my ears. How can I not try to kill these ba**ards? I take a moment before I teleport myself out of the coven. I turn back for one last look, wishing I could make them suffer the way I am right now. I won't disregard my mother's dying wish. I will live and remember my parents always.

Flashback Over

I met Harris not long after and the rest is history. I found a coven that was neither light nor dark. It was more of the misfits of our kind. I stayed there until I came to our pack. This time they will all pay for what they did to my parents. "Tabby, you're worrying me" Johnathon says through our link, bringing out my thoughts. "I promise you love I'm going to be fine, we all are."

Lake POV

"Atticus, Elder Bradford will be coming to the Silver Moon tomorrow to perform your Alpha and Luna ceremony." "Thank you, Elder Bradford." "I hope your planning to attend" he says to the entire table. "Of course, we wouldn't miss it." "You will need to think about who you're going to pick as your Beta because I believe Bernard is ready for retirement." We all laugh and he thinks for a moment. "I think it's between Conrad and Nathan." "They are the best trackers and are equal in their abilities as warriors." "I agree, I believe that Nathan would make a better Beta." He looks at me confused. "I agree that Conrad is a great tracker and a good warrior." "Conrad and Jason were very similar in the way they carried themselves." "Alphas and Betas should not feel like they are better than the pack members they lead." He nods and we continue to finish our dinner. When we are almost done eating, I link Tabitha and Johnathon to meet myself and Gabriella in our office to discuss what happened earlier. We say our goodbyes to our guests before we head up to the office.

About twenty minutes later, there is a knock on the door and Tabitha walks in with Johnathon on her heels. I see a sadness on her face I've not seen since I met her. Johnathon looks worried for his mate. I have a feeling that Gabriella and I are not going to like what we are about to hear. They both take a seat in front of our desk. Tabitha takes a deep breath before she starts. "I know the witch that was helping those two b**ches." Johnathon takes her hand and she begins to tell us about the past. I can feel my anger grow for this woman who has done nothing but help Gabriella and I. She is kind and strong. Gabriella takes my hand. "Well, it seems we will have more than just the rogues to deal with" Gabriella says with a smile. "Your right love, Tabitha, the pack is here and we will fight with you should they be stupid enough to come here." She smiles and nods. "I'm not that young girl I was then and my powers are even stronger now." "They will not walk away this time." "I appreciate your help but I need you to promise me that you will not put yourselves and the pack at risk to save me." Johnathon growls. "I will make no such promise." "Your parents protected you because that is what parents do." "Packs protect their own and we will do the same." She nods and hugs us before they head back to their room.

Jessica POV

We wait on the roadside waiting for the car to approach. Kenneth has brought ten men with us just in case. I knew he would attend that ba**ards ceremony. As soon as I see the car, we ready ourselves for the attack. Three men jump out in wolf form and the car screeches to a halt. Brian steps out and shifts. Four more wolves jump out and he is having trouble holding his own with this many wolves fighting against him. I follow Kenneth out onto the road until we are standing near the car. Leslie and the two girls are screaming as they watch Brian being overtaken by the wolves. I reach in and pull one of the girls out of Leslie's grasp. She looks to be about ten. Kenneth grabs the other girl who looks a little older. I can see Leslie is thinking about shifting. I place my claw against the little girl's neck "I wouldn't, Leslie." She settles back down at my words, but if looks could kill, I would be dead. Good thing they can't. "Enough", I yell and the wolves stop fighting Brian. They start backing away from Brian lying on the road. He is barely conscious, but I know better than to get close. I turn to Leslie, "when my brother is ready to discuss how to get your girls back, he can call this number." "I would hate for anything to happen to your pups, so don't do anything stupid." She clasps the paper in her hand before we head into the forest with the girls. I look back to see her rush to my brother and her sobs get softer as we head farther away.
