Fated Human Alpha Chapter 61

Alpha Jayden POV

The patrol guard links me that Alpha Lake and Alpha Gabriella have arrived. I take a seat behind my d I realize they are not alone. I recognize her immediately, even though it's been two years. I rush over to scent of apples and cinnamon. I'm waiting for an answer when my father barges in. Storm growls just we weren't exactly truthful about the reason for our visit" Lake says. I turn looking at him with concern "Alpha Jayden, Brooke is dead because of you" Joecyln says, and all of the air leaves my lungs. I feel li before I speak again. "I'm not sure what you know about your sister leaving but I had nothing to do with it was ready to make her my Luna." She laughs and stands as she begins to pace. She turns back to me with anger in her eyes. "You are a liar. You gave us to that ba**ard because you were embarrassed to be mated to an omega. My sister is dead because you d to get rid of the unworthy wolf that the goddess gave you." I stand slamming my fists on the desk. Lake is immediately on his feet. I understand he doesn't know me, but I would never hurt Jocelyn or my love. "I did no such thing. I loved your sister. I looked for her for months." Jocelyn stares me down, I'm sure looking for insincerity in my eyes. She must not find any because her anger seems to fade. "Please sit down and tell me what happened?" She looks to Gabriella, who nods at her. I'm glad she found ndness in this pack. She takes a seat before she takes a deep breath. "We were taken by vampires." I squeeze my fist until my knuckles turn white. I stay quiet and let her continue. "The night we were taken, we woke up in the cells in the coven. When Brooke told him that he needed to let us go because she was your mate, he just laughed. Then he told us that you gave us to him." This time I can't hold Storm back and he growls. "I would never do that to Brooke or you. She is my fated mate and I love her." I breathe pus torm back down. "Who was this vampire?" "His name is Drayce and he is the leader of the Black Blood Coven." "I know exactly who that f**king prick is and I promise you he will die for what he has done. Jocelyn, I know you said that Brooke is dead." The words taste like acid on my tongue. She nods and I can see that she has unshed tears in her eyes. "Could you be wrong?" She starts to shake her head and cry. "Jocelyn, two pack warriors were attacked and killed the other night by a vampire. Some of the pack members who witnessed the attacks said it was Brooke." "Its not possible. He killed her." "Did you see him kill her?" "No, but she was barely alive when he took her from the cell. She fought him every time he came for us."

d a few minutes later a knock sounds on the door. The guard leads them in and I stand to greet them. I'm just about to reach out my hand to greet Lake when pick her up. Hope blooms in my chest. As I look past her hoping against hope that Brooke is with them. I know it can't be true because I didn't smell her sweet ous to find out where Brooke is. Once I send my father away, I invite them to have a seat. I can't stop smiling at Jocelyn. "I'm sure you have figured out that feel sick to my stomach at the thought that Brooke is hurt or worse. "Where is she" I say harsher than I mean too.

n't breathe. She can't be dead. I never had a chance to love her. Then the words she said sink in. She thinks it's my fault her sister left me. I compose myself ould only have done with me. He will wish for death when I kill him. Everything that Jocelyn said about the Alpha being involved keeps playing over and over but right now I don't. If I find out he had anything to do with what happened to my mate and her sister, he will die along side that f**king leech. "Alpha are my sister-in-law. I am Jayden to you." She smiles and stands coming around my desk. I stand wrapping her in a hug. "I promise Jocelyn that we will figure you doing?" I growl releasing Jocelyn. "How dare you touch my mate, omega?" I step toward her. "I am not a little girl anymore Rian so I would be careful ard to come to my office.

The rage I feel at what she just said is unimaginable. He touched my mate. He forced her to do things again in my mind. "Jayden, he is your father. He wouldn't do that", Storm says. I wish I had such faith in him Jayden" Joceyln saying my name brings me out of my thoughts. "Jocelyn, you do not call me by my title out where Brooke is and bring her home." My office door flies open and Rian rushes inside. "Jayden wi how you speak about my sister's mate." The pride I feel with her words tampers down my anger. I link A few minutes later, he arrives. "Can you tell me why she is out of the cells?" He looks worried and he I be. "I'm sorry, Alpha, your father came down and demanded the keys." "Get her out of my sight. I will deal with my father shortly." "Jayden, you can't mate an omega. She is gone and she is never coming back." She slams her hand over her mouth. "You were involved in what happened to Brooke." "No, I swear I don't know anything." "You are a liar and I swear you will pay for whatever you have done." Nicholas POV

I knock on the door to Liz's room. A few seconds later, she opens the door smiling. "Are you ready to go to your new home?" "Of course, I just hope your family doesn't mind your mated to a warrior." "My family won't care what your rank is. They are amazing and they will love you. I called my father last night to tell him we would be coming. My mother is really excited to meet you. I hope you don't mind my aunts and uncles will be there too." "I won't say I'm not a little intimidated to meet your whole family at once, but as long as you're with me I'll be fine" she says. She goes up on her toes and presses her lips to mine. We head downstairs and John and James are waiting. I hug them both. "Give our sisters a kiss for us" they say. I smile and nod. I wait for Liz to growl but she never does. We head out to a car that Liz brought to make the drive back to the pack. The drive feels like it takes forever. "Are you alright Nick, you are really quiet?" "Yes, I am fine, just excited to see my family and have you meet them." She smiles and I take her hand in mine for the rest of the trip.

When we pull into the gait the guard leans down. "Nicholas, welcome home" he says before he turns back to open the gate. We drive up and my parents are waiting on the steps of the pack house. I get out and walk around the car to open Liz's door. Once she is out, we walk over to my parents. My mother pulls me into a hug. "I'm so glad your home. I missed you so much." "I missed you too mom." I pull back and my father hugs me. "Mom and dad, this is Liz, my mate." The words sound wrong but I need to play the part until I figure out what's going on. My mother wraps her in a hug first. "Liz, this is my mother Tracey and my father Levi. Mom, you need to let her go" I say with a chuckle. My father shakes her hand. "Everyone is waiting for us in the Alpha dining room" my father says. I take Liz's hand and we follow my parents through the pack house. I love being back home. We reach the dining room and everyone rushes over to greet us. I look around but Serina isn't here. "Everyone this is my mate Liz." I introduce Liz to everyone. Archer, Sabrina, Tabby, and Jonathon are all here. "Where is Gabby, Lake, and Serina?" "Gabby and Lake will be back later. They had to go speak with an Alpha about pack business" Sabrina says. "Tabby will fill you in shortly." Goddess, I love my family. That is a brilliant way for me to speak to Tabby without Liz present. "What about Serina," I ask and I feel Liz squeeze my hand. I look down and she looks concerned.

"Serina is babysitting right now but she will be down later." "Whose pups is she watching?" "That's a long story that we can talk about later" my mother says. "We want to hear all about Liz." "Liz is also a warrior and a Beta" I say and smile at her. They start to ask her a million questions. After a few minutes I can't wait anymore to talk to Tabby. "If you would excuse me for a moment, I need to speak with Tabby about the meeting." "Maybe I should come since I will be Beta Female." Before I can say anything Archer speaks up. "Unfortunately until you have your ceremony and become pack you won't be able to be involved in pack business. You understand, don't you" he asks. She nods with a smile. I bend down and kiss her forehead before I head out the door followed by Tabby. We head into an office that is down the hall. "Tell me everything Nicholas", Tabby says as soon as we are inside. I tell her everything that happened and everything I feel for Liz. "I don't understand why Ezra can't feel her wolf or why I feel drawn to her, but I'm still thinking about someone else." She smiles but thankfully doesn't push me about who it is right now. "I promise you Nicholas we will find out what she is hiding." "Thank you, Tabby" I say and hug her before we get ready to head back and join the others. I'm just about to open the door when I'm struck by the most delicious scent and it's not Liz's. ## Serina POV

"Serina, Nicholas is back. When Jo gets back, come and say hello." "Why is he back, is everything alright" I ask my mother. "He found his mate and wanted to introduce her to the family." Ruby whimpers in my mind and I'm overtaken by sadness. "Serina are you still there." "Yes, I'll be down to meet her as soon as I can." I cut the link and sit down on the bed. Why am I upset about this? I should be happy that he found his mate. "You wanted him to be our mate", Ruby says. "What I never" I start to say and stop myself. She's right I did. "It's alright to be sad but just remember we will find our mate too." I really don't want to think about that right now even though I know she's right. I stand grabbing Brooklyn and Wesley, placing them in the stroller. I push it down toward the dining room. I'm almost to the door when the smell of strawberries invades my nose. I stop looking around when a door opens and Nicholas steps out. His eyes are black and he is staring at me. "Mate" he says, and my knees go weak. How can this be happening? We can't both be his mate. Before I can stop her, Ruby pushes to the surface "mate" she says. Tabby takes the stroller and I'm engulfed in strong arms. Tingles are erupting everywhere our skin touches. "Nick" I hear a harsh female voice and it's like a bucket of cold water, bringing me back to reality. He brought a woman here that he said is his mate. I pull out of his arms, stepping out of his reach. "Serina" he says, with a pain looked on his face. I grab the stroller from Tabby and head back to Jo's room. I don't understand what just happened but I need to figure it out.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 62

Serina POV

When I reach the room, I lock the door behind me. The pups are asleep in the stroller. I pick them up one at a time and lay them in their bassinets. "Serina, you have to talk to him, he is our mate." "Did you forget that he came here with a woman that he called his mate." "Of course not, but you know Nicholas. He would never hurt you." I know she's right but I am hurt. He is our mate and he claimed some other woman. "He had no mark, Serina" Ruby says. Before I can respond, a knock sounds on the door. "Serina, please let me in", Nicholas pleads through the door. I walk over and press my hand to the door. "Nicholas, I can't do this right now." "Please, Serina, let me explain everything." What can he possibly explain? He brought a woman that he called his mate to the pack. "Serina, you owe him a chance to explain. If you don't like what he has to say, then I'll support whatever decision you make", Ruby says. "Serina, I'm not leaving until you talk to me" he says a little more sternly. I smile at his attempt to be assertive with me. Ruby is right, I need to at least listen before I make any decisions.

I take a deep breath and open the door. Nicholas steps inside and his scent overwhelms me. I see his eyes flash to black before they return to his beautiful hazel eyes. I step back and try not to cross my arms over my chest. I'm angry but I need to hear him out first. "Serina, you are my mate. I always hoped you would be and you are." I feel warmth spread through my chest at his words but I keep my expression impassive. "Nicholas, you came here with a woman you called your mate. We cannot both be your mate." "You are absolutely right, you both can't. I knew from the beginning that she wasn't my true mate. I just needed to find out why I felt the pull toward her." I can't help myself. I cross my arms over my chest. He said he feels the mate pull to her. I will not share my mate with that woman. Before I can speak, I'm wrapped in strong arms. His scent and the tingles are clouding my thoughts. "You're not listening to me Serina. You are my only mate. She is an imposter. I knew it the moment I saw her wolf." I relax but I still step out of his arms. "I want to know everything, Nicholas. I mean every detail since you left the pack." He takes a seat in a chair across from me. Brooklyn starts to cry and I pick her up. I walk to the changing table. "Go ahead Nicholas." As I change Brooklyn he tells me. "I met her a few days after we arrived at the pack. I felt nothing toward her, but neither of us had our wolves at that point. I shifted for the first time and Ezra is amazing. She shifted a few days later." I smile hearing him talk about his wolf that came early too. Ruby is making a rumbling noise in my head as she hears about her mate. I chuckle and Nicholas stops talking. I pick up Brooklyn and sit in the rocking chair with a bottle. I look up and he smiles at me. "She is beautiful. Whose pups are these, Serina?" "I'll tell you that story after you finish yours."

Nicholas POV

She is even more beautiful than when I left and I didn't think that was possible. As I watch her with the pup, I smile. We have a long time before we have pups but I know she will be an amazing mother. "Hopefully, if she believes us", Ezra says. "I have no doubt that she will believe and accept us, Ezra. I know Serina's heart. The first time I saw Liz's wolf I felt drawn to her but it didn't feel right." "What do you mean" Serina asks. "When I caught your scent there was no doubt that you were my mate. When I scented Liz, it wasn't even close." She smiles before she looks down at the pup in her arms. "I felt tingles when our skin touched but it was nothing like I just felt like with you." She snaps her eyes up to mine with a look of disgust. "Did you mate her?" "Of course not, I knew she wasn't my mate. She kissed me and held my hand but nothing more." I can tell she isn't happy about any of it but the anger that was on her face, fades away. "Serina, you are the only woman I will ever touch as a mate. I promise you that. You are mine and I am yours." "The whole reason I brought her here is so Tabby can figure out exactly what is going on. James is actually the one that suggested it." "Do you think she is doing what Belinda did to Lake" Serina asks. "She hasn't given me anything like the watch, but honestly, I'm not sure what she has done. Ezra and I just know she isn't our mate, you are." This time she doesn't try to hide her smile. She stands and lays the pup back in her bassinet before she comes to stand in front of me. I stand up and wrap her in my arms. She doesn't pull away and I bury my face in her neck, breathing in her scent. "Mate" I say again with my whole heart. "Mate" she says back and I feel my body relax. After a few minutes, I pull back and she takes me by surprise when she pulls me down pressing her lips to mine. I'm not ashamed to say the kiss makes me weak in my knees. It sends warmth through my body. When she pulls back, it takes everything in me not to mark her as mine. I put my head against her forehead. "I prayed to the goddess that you would be my mate and she answered that pray. Thank you for believing me." "Nicholas, I hoped that you would be my mate and I was hurt when my mother said you had brought your mate to the pack. I am so grateful that the goddess blessed me with you." I pull back and the look of determination on her face makes me chuckle. "Where is she now? I'm sure she isn't happy you came after me. I don't want her around our family until we figure out what her game is." "I agree Tabby is with her right now. I'm sure she is going to have fun figuring out what she has done."

Tabby POV

Nicholas looks torn but I know it's not about who his mate is. "Nicholas, what is going on?" "Liz, I have to go talk to Serina. Tabby will stay with you" he says before he takes off in the direction Serina just went. Liz starts toward him and I stop her. "He'll be back, just give them a minute." "He called her his mate. I'm his mate." "We will figure everything out, Liz. Let's take a walk and you can tell me about yourself." I swear I see a smirk cross her face but it's gone as quickly as it came. I laugh to myself. If she is something other than a wolf, she is going to be very sorry for messing with my family. We head downstairs out of the pack house. We walk until we reach the garden and take a seat on the bench. "So, you're having a pup" she asks and I smile. I lay my hand on my bump rubbing in circles. "Yes, a little girl." "Congratulations, when are you due?" "I have a couple of months left before we get to meet her." "Where's your mate, I assume he's a wolf, since you're living in a wolf pack" Liz asks me. This is definitely weird, besides her little fit in the hallway about Nicholas, she hasn't said one thing about him being with Serina. "My mate is a wolf. He is a pack warrior." "I'm surprised a wolf pack allowed you to join, given you're not a wolf." "This is a very special pack. They are my family and I will do anything to protect them." She seems to understand my meaning.

"Liz, Nicholas told me how beautiful your wolf is. I would love to meet her." She drops her head "she isn't ready for that. She wants us to mate Nicholas before we shift in front of people." "Excuse me for saying it but that is strange. Wolves are social creatures. I've never heard of a shy wolf." She looks at me before she finally answers. "I guess that makes Morganna special." As soon as she says the name Morganna, I get a feeling of unease. "Are you alright Tabby? Is something wrong?" I look into her eyes and before I can raise my hand, she grabs my wrist. "Hello Tabby, I've missed you" she says before darkness takes me under. She is going to pay as soon as I push my way through this sleep spell. She has no idea the rage she has just ignited. Megan is about to join her f**king disgusting father and brother.

Adrian POV

I lead Brooke down the long road that leads to the Scarlett Rose pack. I can tell she is nervous as she holds Henry to her chest. "Brooke, you are safe. I won't let anyone hurt you." She smiles and I turn back toward the gate. A guard steps out of the building. "State your business now" he says. "I am here to see Harris." "Have you been invited here vampire?" "Can you just let Harris know that Adrian is here." I can see he is aggravated but he links someone before he looks back to us. "You wait here, he will be down." I roll my eyes but we wait for him to arrive. As he approaches the gate, he smiles. "Adrian, my gosh you have grown." He looks at Brooke and stops walking. "She is not a threat to your pack. I promise you Harris." He turns to the guard "open the gate now." I can see the guard wants to protest but he follows Harris's orders. He notices I'm holding Anna. "Your pups are beautiful" he says, putting Brooke at ease. "Come on let's go up to the pack house." We follow Harris and he leads us inside and upstairs. When we walk in, it's like an apartment.

A beautiful woman walks out to meet us. "Adrian, this is my mate, Willow. Willow, this is my cousin Adrian." She reaches out, shaking my hand. "It's so nice to meet you. After everything that Harris told me about the coven, I didn't think he had any family left." I smile "Harris was smart. He left the hell of our coven. My brother has taken over where my father left off." She looks past me at Brooke. The look of shock on her face makes me nervous. She walks around me "Brooke" she says. Now I'm really confused. "Please sit and you'll understand how she knows who Brooke is", Harris says. We take a seat and I wait for the explanation. "I hate to even ask this, but based on you bringing Brooke here, I have no choice. Adrian, I assume Drayce did this to Brooke and Jocelyn?" I can't believe what just came out of his mouth. How could he know that? "How do you know about my sister?" "Your sister is here with her pups." I can't believe what he just said. What are the chances she would make it to this pack? "Where is she? Please, I need to see her", Brooke pleads. "She will be back soon and you can see her then." "Where did she go?" "She went to confront the Alpha of your pack." Brooke gasps and I wrap my free arm around her. Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 63

Brooke POV

I can't believe this is happening. I never thought I would see Jocelyn again and now I find out she went to confront that ba**ard. If he hurts my sister again, I will do far worse than drain him like I did those other two ba**ards. Anna starts to cry and Adrian lays her hand on my arm. "May I", Willow asks, pointing at Henry. I smile and she takes him from my arms so I can feed Anna. "Brooke, I promise you that Lake and Gabby will not let anything happen to your sister. She has become a part of our pack and family. Serina is very protective of her." I look at her confused. "Gabby and Lake are the Alphas of the pack. Serina, who is Gabby's sister, is soon to be Alpha too. They are my nieces." "I've never heard of a pack having more than one Alpha, let alone three. There is no Luna" I say like a question. "No, there is no Luna. Gabby was always meant to be the Alpha. This pack is very special and honestly unlike any other pack you will find. It may have been made by wolves, but as you can see, we have more than just wolves here" she says as she smiles at Harris. I'm so glad that Jocelyn made it to this pack. I can tell how much they care for her when I hear Willow speak. The door opens and a young girl and boy walk in. The girl smiles when she sees Willow holding Henry. "There is still time to give me the brother I always wanted, mom" she says to Willow. This must be her and Harris's pup.

"Liza, this is Brooke and Adrian. Adrian is dad's cousin. This is our daughter Liza and my brother Jacob", Willow says. He looks to be only about fifteen and the same age as her daughter. She must see my curious look. "They are the same age. It was actually quite fun being pregnant at the same time as my mother. Jacob is staying with us while my parents travel." "My mother and father love to travel but I would rather stay in the pack and train", Jacob says. "I didn't know my dad had any family", Liza says and comes to sit next to Adrian. Adrian smiles and I'm happy she has family besides that monster who cares only about himself. "Liza, Brooke is my sister and these pups are my niece and nephew. That means they are your cousins too." She starts to bounce up and down like she just heard the best news. "I have cousins that are like me." She stands and comes over to hug me. I love that she feels that way about my pups. When we were taken, I never thought I would know joy and love again, but I was so wrong. Adrian saved me and here I am surrounded by all these kind people. As I look at Liza I think about Anna and Henry. Harris and Willow give me hope for their happiness. My mate may not have wanted me, but hopefully theirs will see them as the gift they are. "You guys must be tired. How about I show you to guest rooms and as soon as Jocelyn is back we will let you know" Harris says. They lead us down a hall to a bedroom. It's beautiful and bright. It has a huge bed and a large window. Willow walks over to a door that leads to the adjoining room for Adrian. "This is amazing, thank you so much for opening your home to us" I say and lay Anna down on the bed. She lays Henry down next to his sister. "You are family. You don't need to thank us. We are going to let Archer and Sabrina know that you have arrived and I'm sure everyone will want to meet you after you both rest", Harris says, and I smile. "Is Archer another Alpha?" Willow smiles "he used to be. Archer is my brother and the girl's father. Sabrina, his mate, is the former Luna and my sister-in-law." I nod and a few seconds later Jacob and Liza walk in with two pack and plays. "Oh my goddess, you didn't have to do that." "We want you to be comfortable. I'm sure once everyone returns they will want you to have a more permanent living arrangement in the pack." Is she saying that they would want me to become part of this pack? I never thought I would be part of a pack again after what Jayden did. I won't be separated from Adrian either. She is my family and I can't stay here without her. I would rather remain a rogue with her. They leave and Adrian takes my hand. "Are you alright, I know this is a lot?" I wrap her in a hug. "It is but because of you I'm going to get to see Jocelyn again and she is going to get to see the pups. You are the only reason I am here and this is happening. I will never be able to thank you enough for all you have done for me and the pups." "I hope you know I meant what I said, you are my sister. You and the pups are my family and I will protect you until my last breath." Alpha Jayden POV

Once Rian is gone, I take some deep breaths to calm myself. Storm is pacing in my mind. "Calm down Storm, we will make all this right." He sits on his haunches and I lead Jocelyn back to her seat before I take mine. I link Andrew before I speak again. "I know the alliance is not the real reason you came but I would like to enter one with your pack. I know that my pack is strong but I want all the help I can get to have Brooke back at my side and end Drayce." "Of course, now that we know you had nothing to do with the girls being taken, we want to help make him pay for what he has done" Gabby says. She is strong and acts more like an Alpha than some of the male wolves I know. A knock sounds on the door and I smile. "Come in" I say. The door opens and Andrew walks in, followed by Jocelyn's parents. I hear a gasp before Jennifer falls to her knees. Jocelyn screams, jumping up from her seat and runs to her mother. Wesley bends down holding his family in his arms. They were destroyed when the girls went missing. They are my family now and I have treated them as such since the girls have been gone, much to my father's displeasure. He said until I mated with Brooke they could not have a change of rank or be considered my in-laws. It's a good thing he no longer makes those decisions. As I watch them hug their daughter, I pray that Brooke will have a chance at this reunion. Wesley turns and walks to me. He pulls me into a hug. "Thank you Jayden for calling us. I just wish Brooke could be here to see the man you have become. You are our son and I couldn't be prouder of you." I stay silent because he has no idea the real reason Brooke isn't here. Jocelyn POV

When the door opens and my parents walk in, I can't control myself. I run to my mother and kneel down, wrapping my arms around her. My father engulfs us both. "Oh my sweet girl, you're home" my mother sobs as she holds me tight. I never thought I would see them again when that ba**ard held us in the cells and here they are. I feel fresh tears running down my cheeks. We manage to stand and I watch my father hug Jayden. He really is a great man. I'm sorry we ever believed that ba**ard. I just hope that Brooke is truly alive and she has the chance that she deserves to be with her mate. He made it perfectly clear he wants her to be his Luna and mate despite everything that happened. We all take a seat and my parents sit on each side of me. After I make introductions, my mother looks at me with pleading eyes. "Jocelyn, where have you been", my mother asks, and I hate that I have to tell them what the vampires did to us. "Why would you run away from the pack and from us" my father asks and I can't help but to feel affronted. "We never left of our own free will you have to know that." I don't even give them a chance to ask anymore questions before I tell them everything we endured at the vampire's hands. I can see the anger and pain on both my parents' faces. "I'm so sorry Jocelyn. We should have protected you. We should have known you wouldn't leave if you had a choice." I take both my parents' hands in mine. "This is not your fault. The only people to blame is Drayce and his men." "Where is your sister?" My heart sinks a little but the hope she is alive spurs me on. "I'm not sure right now but we are going to find her." I explain all that happened and the sadness on their faces kills me. "I promise you we will find her and bring her home safely" Jayden assures my parents. "Thank you Jayden, we are so grateful you were chosen for Brooke." He nods and my mother turns back to me. I want to tell them about my pups, but what if they won't accept them because of who their father is? Before she can say anything, I just blurt it out. "I have two pups." My mother's eyes get big and my father just looks confused. "I'm a grandma", my mother says as a smile breaks out on her face. "Yes and they are beautiful and perfect." My father still hasn't said anything and I just wish he would. "Dad say something please." His look softens "what are the pups" he asks. I feel my body relax. "I have a boy and a girl." "What are their names, sweet girl" my mother asks, calling me by the name she has called me all my life. "My daughter's name is Brooklyn Jennifer Curtis and my son's name is Wesley James Curtis." My father smile is brilliant and a sole tear runs down his cheek. My mother pulls me into a hug. "Those are beautiful names, thank you sweet girl" she whispers into my ear. She pulls back "where are the pups now?" "They are with Serina in the Scarlett Rose pack." I explain who Serina is and my parent's look to Gabby and Lake. "Thank you for taking care of our sweet girl. We can never thank you enough" my mother says. "Can we come back with you to get the pups" my father asks, and for the first time I'm overtaken with sadness. I never even thought about returning to the pack. "We can't, this isn't our pack anymore" Candace says. She's right, but I hate that this is going to hurt my parents all over again. I take a deep breath. "Mom and dad, I love you both, but I won't be returning to the pack. My home is the Scarlett Rose now. I hope you will both understand and I will visit, but I can't live here." "Why, this is your home and you belong with your family" my mother says with hurt on her face. "You will always be my family, but Serina, Gabby, and Lake are my family now too. My wolf feels strongly about us staying in Scarlett Rose and I agree with her." My mother manages to smile and places her hand on my face. "It's your mate love, the wolf knows." I stay quiet because I know she is wrong. I gave up on having a mate the first time Drayce took me. She turns to Lake and Gabby. "Alpha and Luna, may we return with you for a visit and to meet our grandpups?" Gabby smiles "of course you may. With the new alliance between our packs, you may visit anytime you like." I'm excited for my parents to meet the pups. "Jayden, we would like for you to come to the pack and meet with our ranked members. The sooner we deal with the coven the better" Lake says, and I couldn't agree more. "I can be at the pack tomorrow around lunch time if that works for the two of you." "It absolutely does." "Then we can return with you tomorrow after we meet our grandpups" my father says. "I believe that is an excellent plan" Jayden says. He leads us downstairs to the foyer. "Andrew will show you to your car." "What the hell is going on here," I hear Joseph's angry voice again. "Father, I will meet you in my office, we need to speak" Jayden says, leaving no room for debate. I can see he isn't happy with Jayden but he turns heading up the stairs. Jayden hugs me and Andrew leads us out of the pack house toward the car. "It is good to see you well, Jocelyn." "Thank you Andrew." He was always kind to me and Brooke when others were not. Once we are in the car and headed back to the pack the butterflies in my stomach are crazy with the thought of my parents seeing the twins and meeting everyone.

Tabitha POV

I manage to finally open my eyes. I try to link Jonathon but I can't. I can't even feel him right now. I know it isn't real and I tamper down the panic at not being able to connect to my beloved. I look around and notice the room I'm in has no windows and no doors. Where the f**k am I? After a few minutes, Megan appears with a woman. I manage to focus on her face. "Morganna" I say her name with disgust in my tone. "Now cousin, aren't you happy to see your family?" "You are no family of mine." "That's right Megan told me you have taken up with mutts." I shoot daggers in Megan's direction. "I suggest you release me now and maybe I'll make your deaths quick" I say looking between them. She laughs like a cartoon character and I would love to knock her teeth down her throat. "I'm sure you know what the shackles are made of Tabby. You won't be doing anything." I look down at the shackles on my wrists. They are made of black rock. "So you see, dear cousin, you are defenseless right now." I smile "I am never defenseless, so try me."

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 64

Alpha Jayden POV

I take a deep breath before I head up the stairs to meet with my father. I reach my office door and push it open. My father is on his feet pacing back and forth with furrowed brows. The minute he realizes I've entered the office he stops in his tracks. "Do you want to explain what the f**k exactly that was about?" "Sit down father, we need to talk." He gives me a glare but takes a seat. I sit behind my desk. He starts to speak but I stop him with a raised hand. "Did you have anything to do with Brooke being taken by those f**king vampires?" He looks like I just slapped him. "I can't believe you would even ask me that question Jayden." "That's not an answer. Tell me the truth, father. Did you take my mate from me because she was an omega?" I see something flash in his eyes and a pit forms in my stomach. "I can't believe you think I would hurt those innocent girls. I never knew you thought I was a monster." I stand coming around the desk and my father stands so we are eye to eye. "I will be bringing my mate home and she will be Luna of this pack. If I ever find out that you had something to do with what happened to Brooke and Jocelyn, I will not hesitate to take the pound of flesh my mate deserves for what she has been through. As far as that b**ch in the cells, she will be dealt with by me. I know she had something to do with it." "Jayden, you can't," my father says. "This is not up for discussion. I suggest you think long and hard about your loyalties, father, because Rian and the coven will be dealt with. If you don't want to be added to that list, I suggest you act like my father and help me make them pay for their crimes against my Luna. "Of course, I will. I am your father and you are my son. I will help you make them pay for what they have done." He pulls me into a hug and I wish I could say I felt he was sincere, but I don't. I can tell Storm feels it too. He pulls back "what is the plan to get your mate back and deal with the coven?" "When I have the details I will let you know. I will be making a trip to the Scarlett Rose Pack to sign an alliance tomorrow. Andrew will be in charge while I am gone. He nods and heads for the office door. "Dad, I expect that Rian will be in the cells when I return, am I clear?" "Of course, if I thought she was involved I would never have let her out Jayden. You have to know that." I nod and he leaves the office. I link Andrew to come to the office so I can fill him in on everything. I take a seat at my desk thinking about everything Jocelyn said. A few minutes later, he arrives and I tell him everything that Jocelyn told me. I tell him about my father and Rian. "That is completely f**ked up. I know your dad's an a**hole but do you really think he would give Brooke and Jocelyn to those disgusting leeches?" "I really wish the answer was no, but I'm not sure. I have to go to the Scarlett Rose tomorrow and I need you to keep an eye on him." "You can count on me, you know that. I am your ride or die." I smile because he has always been a goof. "Yes you are, that's why you're my Beta." Jocelyn POV

As we pull into the pack, I have a sense of peace knowing that Jayden had nothing to do with what happened to me and Brooke. "He may not have but I think his father did", Emery growls. I hope she is wrong, but I had thought the same thing during our meeting. I couldn't say that to Jayden about his own father. As soon as we reach the pack house, I turn to Gabby, Lake, and my parents. "Jo, you can show your parents to the guest room on the second floor. They can settle in while you go get your pups." I wrap Gabby in a hug. "Thank you both" I say to Gabby and Lake. I lead my parents to a room down from mine. "I'm going to talk to Serina for a moment and grab the pups. I won't be long." My parents both hug me before I head down the hall. When I reach my room I can hear voices. Of course, I know one is Serina but the other I don't know. I don't know whether to knock or just walk in. "It's our room", Emery says with her normal level of sass. "Calm down Emery, I'm not going to be rude", I say before I knock on the door. The door opens and a smiling Serina wraps me in a hug. She takes my hand, pulling me inside. "How did it go?" I look at the man who is standing near the chairs. "Oh, I'm sorry, Jo, this is Nicholas. He is Levi and Tracey's son." I feel like she isn't telling me something and by the look on his face, he is waiting for her to say more. He clears his throat, looking in Serina's direction. She smirks well aware of what she is doing. "He is also my mate." I can't help myself but to scream, forgetting my pups are asleep. Wesley starts to cry and I quiet myself. "Oh my goddess, congratulations to both of you" I say as I hug Serina. I head over to pick Wesley up and walk back toward Nicholas. "It's very nice to meet you. I'm Jocelyn but everyone calls me Jo." "It's very nice to see you again Jo" he says, and I look at him confused. "Before we left for training you were in the hospital and Serina was watching over you." I smile, Serina and Ruby are so special and I would have been lost without them. Without all of them, I meant what I said to my parents. Emery and I belong here. I thank the goddess every day that she and Ruby found me. "Your pups are beautiful." "Thank you" I say before I take a seat to feed Henry. "So tell me about the meeting," Serina says. "There is so much to tell you. Jayden had nothing to do with us being taken but Emery and I think his father did." Serina growls and I smile. "My parents are here, can you believe that they are going to meet my pups?" I try not to cry but I can't help the tears of happiness that flow from my eyes. Serina comes over and bends down in front of me. "That's amazing and I'm so glad that you have them again."

"I am too. They are excited about seeing my pups." "Of course they are. I know you were worried but anyone who raised you would not care that your pups came from that ba**ard." I smile because she is absolutely right. "There is one more thing. Jayden said that Brooke is alive." The shock on Serina's face is exactly how I felt when he told me. "That's wonderful but how," she asks. "I'm not sure but Jayden said that pack members saw her a week ago." She wraps me in a hug. "We will find her, I promise you Jo." "Thank you" I say and she pulls back. She is smiling but I can see a sadness in her eyes. "What's wrong, Serina?" "I'm going to miss you." I smile "am I going somewhere?" She looks at me with confusion. "I just thought with Jayden not being involved and your parents. living in the other pack." I stop her "this is my home now. I will visit my parents, but I won't be returning to the pack." Her smile is brilliant. I stand from the rocking chair and hug her once more before I lay Wesley in the stroller. "I better take the pups to see my parents. I'm sure they are wondering what's taking me so long." I lay Brooklyn down behind her brother. I shake Nicholas's hand and hug Serina before I head down the hall. The door opens before I even reach it and my parents are smiling at my pups. "Oh my goddess, they are beautiful" my mother says with tears in her eyes as she reaches for Wesley. My father wraps his arm around me "thank you sweet girl for being so strong and bringing these beautiful pups into our world." I reach down picking up Brooklyn, handing her to my father before we head inside. Gabriella POV

We head upstairs and I won't lie I'm exhausted. Growing three pups is exhausting. As we walk down the hall, Lake scoops me up without warning. I screech before I wrap my arms around his neck. "Lake, I can walk." "I can feel how tired you are and I need to take care of you and my pups, so let me." Goddess I love this man. I rest my head against his chest. I swear I'm almost asleep when we reach our room. He stops when we are just inside because he must be getting a link. Once he is finished he smiles and sets me on my feet. "What was that about?" "Your uncle wants to meet with us." I start to walk toward the door and he grabs my arm. "I told him after you rest for a couple hours." "Lake" I start to protest but he shoots me a look. "You and the pups need to rest and then we will meet with him in a couple hours after you rest. It is nothing emergent. I asked, he said it's important but it can wait while you rest." If I wasn't so tired right now I would be walking right out that door. "Two hours, Lake, then we meet with my uncle." He smiles like he won. "Don't think you won. I am only doing this for the pups." He chuckles and I would like to slap that smug look off his face. He leans down, kissing me before he lifts me, setting me on the bed. He starts for the door "where do you think you're going?" "I was going to head to the office while you're resting." "Oh no, if I have to nap, then so do you." He walks back toward the bed and pulls his shirt over his head. I will never tire of looking at his gorgeous body. "Sleep Gabriella", he says with a smirk. I roll my eyes and he gets in bed behind me, pulling my back to his front. He lays his hand on my growing bump. After a few seconds, I feel something and he sits up. "Was that" he asks with wonder on his face. "Yes, one of the pups kicked me." He kisses my forehead and we both lay back down. I still can't believe we are going to have three pups soon. It doesn't take me long to fall into a peaceful sleep. Morganna POV

"So you have a mutt growing in your belly, cousin. I am very disappointed you would allow such a disgusting thing to even touch you, let alone impregnate you." She shoots daggers in my direction. "You don't speak of my pup or my beloved, you evil b**ch. You think that you two weak excuses for witches are going to hold me here. You are sadly mistaken." Megan has shimmered back into her true form. When she came to me with this plan, I was more than happy to help her. Tabitha always thought she was something special. She could have been the strongest black magic witch our kind has ever seen, but instead she chose the light. Her parents were weak and allowed her to make this stupid choice. "I would be careful how you speak considering you're bound by, enchanted black rock right now Tabitha." "What do you get out of this Morganna. I understand her warped ideas" she says, pointing at Megan. "Power, of course. You will take your rightful place with us in my coven or you and your mutt can die the same way your parents did." "Tabby, it can be like old times. Morganna will return your pup to the mutt if you just agree to our terms. You were always meant to be with me, not some stupid wolf", Megan pleads with her. She laughs and I knew this wouldn't be easy, but everyone has their weakness. I turn to Megan, "go find the mutt she is mated to and bring him back here." "You stay away from my beloved", she screams. I watch as her hands start to glow, but it isn't possible with her bindings. I wave my hand casting a sleep spell. "What the hell was that, Morganna? She shouldn't be able to cast at all with the shackles in place." "Shut up Megan. Unless you have something to actually contribute, let me think. Get back to the pack and act like you know nothing when they discover she is missing." She shimmers and is gone. I hate the thought of asking that b**ch Prudence for help, but I guess I have no choice. Megan is useless and only cares about having her. I knew Tabitha was strong, but I never expected she would be able to fight the enchanted black stone.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 65

Morganna

POV

Prudence will be here in a few hours and as long as Tabitha is under that sleep spell I shouldn't have any issues with her. I still don't understand how she could conjure with the shackles in place. I teleport back into the room and she is lying in the same position I left her. She looks like she is sleeping peacefully. She hasn't changed much since I saw her last, besides the bump of her belly. Time has been kind to her, I'm sure a gift from the goddess for all her goodness and light. She makes me sick with all she has sacrificed for love and good. Love is such a pathetic notion. I reach out my hand to see if I can feel the power of the hybrid growing inside her. I know what Megan said about giving the pup to its mutt father, but I have other plans. I lay my hand against her belly and I'm flooded with pain. I try to pull away, but before I can, Tabitha's hand is wrapped around my wrist. I look at her face and her eyes are wide open. "It's not possible" I grunt out. "I warned you that you and that b**ch were going to pay for what you have done. No one messes with me, my pup, my beloved, or my family." I feel pain consume me like I've never known. The heat rushes through my body making me feel like I'm on fire. An image of me burning at the stake is projected into my mind from Tabitha. "Tabitha" I scream before she finally releases me. I manage to get away from her and to my feet. I attempt to teleport out of the room but I can't. Tabitha POV

She thinks she can hold me with her weak a** sleep spell. I smile to myself and stay still until she returns. I feel her get close to me even though my eyes are shut. The minute she touches my belly, every bit of anger flows through me. I push my will into her mind, making her feel like she is on fire. A preview of her future. I finally release her because I am far from done. She thought these shackles would hold me. She is very wrong. I block her ability to teleport and focus my energy on the black rock shackles. After a few seconds, they melt like butter and pool on the floor near my feet. "This isn't possible" she screams. "What's wrong cousin, you thought this would be easy?" "Tabitha, think about the fact that you're a light witch. Killing me doesn't seem like something a light witch would do." I laugh "did you really think that pathetic ploy would make me rethink killing you? Light witches don't do evil for the sake of evil. That doesn't mean we don't defend ourselves or make evil pay for what they've done." I see fear flash across her face. "Pain" I say and she falls to the floor writhing. I place my hand on her head, allowing her thoughts to flow to me so I know exactly what she has planned. Once I'm done, I stand. "Stop" I say and she is breathing like she ran a marathon. She tries to get to her feet but she can't.

"You thought you could use my pup for power." "Tabitha, I'm sorry" she starts to plead, but her pathetic attempt to save herself falls on deaf ears. "You are going to be." I raise my hand and power like I have never felt flows through me. I place my other hand on my bump knowing that my pup is safe and with me right now. I look into the eyes of this evil b**ch. I start to chant and white energy flows from my fingers. The minute it touches her arm she is engulfed in white flame. I expect her to turn to ash immediately but she doesn't. It's almost as if my light energy is purging her black soul. A few minutes later, all that's left is a pile of ashes. That is what Prudence will find and I have no problem doing the same to her, but first it's Megan's turn. I shimmer before I teleport to the pack. Megan has shimmered back into Liz and is seated on the bench in the garden. I watch as Serina and Nicholas approach her. Something stops me from going to end her. "Let them", I hear a whisper in my ear. I stand stalk still watching the scene unfold. Serina

"I think it's time to go find out exactly what game Liz is playing. If I know Tabby she probably already knows." Nicholas smiles and kisses me one more time before we head downstairs. I know Tabby, she will lead her away from the pack to figure out exactly what she wants. We head up the path toward the garden. Liz is sitting on a bench but Tabby is nowhere around her. I get an uneasy feeling in my stomach. Ruby feels it too. I wish in this moment we could link Nicholas. Before I can stop him, he gets Liz's attention. "Where is Tabby, Liz?" She stands turning around looking between the two of us with tears running down her cheeks. If this was actually real, part of me would feel bad for the pain that is evident on her face, but I reassure myself it isn't real. "Why did you bring me here Nick, just to hurt me? You could have rejected me and saved me this pain. I never wanted a mate but I thought you would be different." I can feel Nicholas's guilt even though we aren't bonded. It's hard to stay focused, but I need him to. I take his hand in mine, so he remembers that she is not his mate and this is all a trick.

He grips my hand tighter and looks into my eyes before he turns back to her. I speak before he gets a chance this time. "Liz, we know you aren't Nicholas's mate because I am. So you need to tell us what is going on. Tell us the truth." The look of hurt morphs into one of anger. "You b**ch, you stand there holding my mate's hand and call me a liar." Nicholas growls at her words and I squeeze his hand this time. "Serina, we need shift. Make her show the wolf she has been hiding", Ruby says. I don't question her. I release Nicholas's hand and step back from him. "Serina, what are you doing", Nicholas asks with concern on his face. "It's time for Liz to show her wolf." I turn and for the first time I see fear on her face. I shift into Ruby and she growls in Liz's direction. We start to stalk forward and she starts to retreat. A woman appears standing next to Liz and Ruby stops in her tracks. She sits on her haunches. "Ruby, she's a witch. What are you doing?" Nicholas shifts into Ezra and comes to stand next to us. I wish I had time to take in how beautiful his wolf is but right now we need to deal with Liz and this witch. I know that Gabby is probably not going to like that I don't link her, but I will not put her pups at risk. I am an Alpha and my mate is strong.

Liz/Megan POV

What the f**k is happening? I didn't expect them to call me out like this. That little b**ch thinks she is so special. She will learn in life we don't get what we want even when we have powers. I start to chant under my breath the spell Morganna gave me to make him believe I'm his mate. I can see sadness on his face and for a moment, I'm hopeful that he will back down. When Morganna appears next to me I'm so confused. "What's wrong, show them your wolf?" "What the f**k are you doing, Morganna? Why are you here?" "I'm here to make things right Megan." Now I'm really confused. She shimmers and Tabitha stands before me glowing with white light. "It's not possible, how?" I say and she smiles. "You wanted something in life that didn't belong to you so much that you made other people suffer for your jealousy. That stops today." "So you're going to kill me, just get it over with then. Save your lecture for someone else. Everything I did was to be with you and none of that matters to you." She laughs and a cold chill runs down my spine. I don't give her a chance to cast first. I start to chant gathering energy balls in both hands. I throw them in her direction and both fall short in front of her like she is being protected. Tabitha POV

As soon as the energy balls fall at my feet, I'm consumed by the white light again. This time the power is not just coming from my hands but all over my body. "For the crimes you committed against people that I love and myself, you are sentenced to death." For a moment, memories of a girl I once thought of as my best friend flash through my mind. I shake the memories away because that girl is long since gone. She doesn't even attempt to throw another energy ball but falls to her knees. The white light that is flowing from my body consumes us both. After a few minutes, I'm no longer in the pack garden. Serina, Nicholas, and Megan are gone. I'm standing in the most beautiful meadow I have ever seen. I look around confused by what has just happened. I expected her to fall to ash just as Morganna did. "Tabby" I hear my name and turn to see the most beautiful woman with red flowing hair walking toward me. She has a child next to her holding her hand and I immediately think of my pup. I place my hand on my stomach and smile at the pretty little girl.

"Tabby, you have done well. Do you know who this is?" "Is it my pup?" She smiles "no she is safe in your belly waiting to meet her mother. This little girl is the only pure part that was left of Megan. The moment you thought of her when she was kind and a friend to you, your light separated her goodness from the bad." "What does this mean, goddess?" "It means you have given her another chance to do the right thing and become the witch she was always meant to be." I bend down and the little girl walks toward me. She wraps me in a hug. "Thank you, Tabby", she whispers in my ear and kisses my cheek. "You're welcome, you become the Megan I know you can be. Be kind and when your blessed with a mate be grateful." She nods and I step back. "It's time to go home, Tabitha. Know I am here and I will watch over you and your family." I nod and I'm again surrounded by white light. The light dissipates and I float down until my feet touch the ground. Arms wrap around me and I wrap Serina in a hug. "Let's go let everyone know the good news." Nicholas walks over and takes her hand. "Absolutely."

Gabriella POV

As soon as I wake up we head to my aunt and uncle's floor. I knock and my Aunt Willow opens the door with a smile that could light up the room. "What's going on?" "Come inside and we'll show you." Lake and I walk in and I stop dead in my tracks. A woman who looks like Jo is sitting on the couch with Harris. "Uncle Harris who" I start to say. The woman stands and walks toward me. She sticks out her hand. "Hi Alpha, I'm Brooke, Jocelyn's sister." I feel weak in the knees and I feel Lake's strong arm steady me. "Oh my goddess, are you alright" she asks and her eyes drop to my belly. I smile "I'm better than alright." I pull her into a hug. "I can't believe you're here." "Is my sister coming too?" "We will take you to her. Your parents are here too." Tears start to run down her cheeks. "My parents are here." I nod with excitement like a child. "Brooke, that's amazing your parents are here" I hear a woman's voice and I look in her direction. "Gabby and Lake, this is my cousin Adrian" my uncle says. "Adrian saved my life" Brooke says and I smile. "Welcome to the Scarlett Rose, both of you."

"Come on, I can't wait for Jo to see you" I say. "Hold on, we will be right back." Brooke and Adrian head down the hallway and a few minutes later appear with two pups. I slap my hand over my mouth. "Oh my goddess you have twin pups." "I do, this is Henry and this is Anna." What are the chances they both would have twins? "Gabby, I think it's time we reunite this family", Lake says and he winks at me. I nod and we lead them up to the second floor. Once we reach the guest room, the butterflies in my stomach are out of control. I knock and the door swings open. Jo is smiling from ear to ear. Lake and I step aside so Brooke and Adrian can step forward. Jo is looking at Brooke like she's a ghost but after a few seconds she steps forward and wraps Brooke in her arms, being careful of a sleeping Anna. Jo picks up her head and looks into my eyes. "Thank you, so much." I nod, Lake and I step back to allow them time to catch up. I get a link from Serina to meet her, Tabby, and Nicholas in the dining room and we head there to find out what's going on.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 66

Jocelyn POV

As I watch my parents hold my pups, I almost feel whole. The minute we find Brooke, I will feel completely whole. When Jayden said she was alive, all that grieving I did for her loss was gone and replaced by hope. Hope that I will have my sister back and that she will have the happiness she deserves. We spend an hour just talking about the past and the pups. I'm grateful they haven't asked me about what happened in the coven, but I'm not stupid. I know they must have questions, but right now I just want to focus on the happiness of our reunion. The pups have both fallen asleep and my mother is staring at me with a smile that I never thought I would see again. "Jocelyn, how on earth did you ever make it to this pack?" I smile "I'm not sure, something drew me here. If Serina hadn't found me when she did, I hate to think what would have happened to me and the pups." "Are you really sure about staying here instead of living in our pack" my father asks. "Nothing against this pack or the people that have helped you, but we are your family." "I know you are dad but that pack doesn't feel like home anymore. You will always be my family and I promise you I will visit you a lot with Wesley and Brooklyn." My parents both smile but I know they hoped I would change my mind.

If I believed Brooke was still dead I would ask them to move to this pack. I know that Gabby and Lake would welcome them with open arms. I can't be selfish, Brooke is going to need them close more than I do. There is a knock on the door and I get up to answer it. I can already scent Gabby and I smile. I open the door but new scents invade my nose. Gabby and Lake step aside and I feel like I'm dreaming. My sister is standing there with a pup in her arms. I'm in shock when I see my sister is here. I'm finally able to move my feet. I wrap my arms around her, being careful of the pup she is holding. The tears flow freely. I have never been so happy in my life. She is alive and here. I notice the woman standing with a second pup in her arms. I know immediately he is my sister's pup. She had twins just like me. I scent and that's when I realize that Brooke's scent is different. She isn't just a wolf anymore. I pull back, looking into her eyes. I see fear and sadness. She has to know that nothing would change that she is my sister.

I notice that Gabby and Lake have left. Please come in, I say to Brooke and the woman. The minute we walk in I hear my mother's gasp. I rush over, taking my pup from her arms. She walks toward my sister like she might disappear. When she reaches her, she wraps Brooke in a hug just like I did. I can hear her whispering to my sister and I can only imagine what she is saying. I'm just glad she is getting the chance to say it. I looked at the woman holding my sister's pup. I stick out my hand "I'm Jo but I'm sure you already know that." "I'm Adrian" she says, and I feel panic flow through my body. She must see the panic on my face. "I'm not him, I promise you. I would never hurt you or Brooke." My mother pulls back and my father growls. Brooke POV

I can't even believe that my mother is hugging me right now. I never thought I would see my parents again. I'm enjoying just being in her arms when I hear my sister introducing herself to Adrian. The minute I hear my father growl, I pull back, stepping in front of Adrian. "She is not Drayce. She is the only reason I survived what he did to me." I see my sister's pain from my words. That is not my intention, but I need them to understand that Adrian is important to me. She is my hero and my family now too. My mother walks over and pulls Adrian into a hug. "Thank you for saving our sassy girl." I chuckle at my mother's nickname for me. Jocelyn was sweet girl and I was sassy girl. I hated that name as a kid but hearing it right now, I love it. For the first time, I notice that Jocelyn is holding a pup. Oh my goddess, she has a pup. I walk over, looking down at the sweet little boy in her arms. "Brooke, this is Wesley your nephew and that is Brooklyn your niece" she says, pointing to our father with her head. He is holding a sweet little girl. I look back into my sister's eyes. "We both have pups." "Yes, we do. What are their names?" "This is Anna and Adrian is holding Henry." My sister smiles and I know why.

When we were kids we would pretend to have pups and name our dolls. I always called mine Anna and Henry. It made sense when I had my pups that I would give them those names. I loved those names as a kid and he hadn't changed. "They are beautiful Brooke." "So are my niece and nephew." My father clears his throat and he lays Brooklyn in the stroller. He heads toward me and when my father wraps me in his arms, I swear I'm ten again. My father, despite being a manly wolf, was always gentle when it came to me and Jocelyn. He would tell us every day how much he loved us and hug us all the time. I prayed that my mate would be as good a father as mine. I push thoughts of Jayden from my mind. He is the reason all this happened. He is not my mate. My dad pulls back and takes Anna from my arms. "I can't believe yesterday we had no idea if you and your sister were alive and today you're both here with our grandpups", my father says. He looks at Adrian who is standing next to my mother. "Thank you for saving our daughter." Adrian is fighting back tears. "You don't have to thank me. I consider Brooke and all of you my family. I will always protect my family." I smile knowing she means every word. I think back to the day she saved me when I was hanging on by a thread.

Flashback Brooke POV

"Brooke, please just don't fight him." "Jocelyn, I can't just let him hurt you and not fight." I don't even care about myself anymore. I just want to protect Jocelyn from that ba**ard. Up till now, he and that ba**ard West have been focused on me. "Hello ladies" I hear from behind me and a chill runs down my spine. We both stand and I push Jocelyn behind me. "So sweet, the big sister protecting the little sister." "F**k you Drayce." "Oh, just because you got your wolf don't let it cloud your judgment, mutt. You can't shift in here." Candance is growling in my mind. I can't shift because they were smart enough to put us in a cell with silver bars. He starts toward us and tries to reach around me to grab my sister. I may not be able to shift completely, but I can partially shift. My claws grow and I s***h him across the chest before he can even put his hands on her. His eyes turn blood red. He grabs me by the throat and drags me out of the cell, squeezing so I can't breathe. The last thing I hear is my sister's screams before I can't hear her anymore. I wake up and I'm in a beautiful bedroom. Am I dead? It's not my room in the pack, so where could I be? I slide out of bed and honestly, I have no pain. I look down and my skin isn't pale. I head to a door that I assume is the bathroom. I look in the mirror and that's when I notice my neck. "No, no, no, it can't be." "He f**king made me one of them." The fang marks are deep but not in a marking spot. I start to feel my teeth but they don't feel any different. "Brooke" I hear Candance and for the first time in a long time I smile. "Oh my goddess, I'm so glad to hear your voice. Is this the afterlife?"

Candance chuckles, "I don't think we're dead." I hear a door open and I stiffen. Please goddess, don't let that be him. I walk out the door, back into the bedroom and a very pretty woman is waiting. "It's good to see you awake" she says, and I relax at her words. "I'm Adrian," she says. The minute I hear her name the fear comes rushing back. I remember hearing Drayce say his sister was named Adrian when he was talking to one of the men. "I will not hurt you. I promise you I am nothing like him." I look into her eyes and I can only see sincerity. "Come, I have food ready for you. You need to eat to build your strength." She turns walking out of the room and I follow her. We reach the kitchen and the smell of the food invades my nose.

I sit down and start to eat. It's amazing how much you can eat after you haven't been given real food in a long time. I remember the bite and I place my hand where the fang marks are. "I'm sorry, it was the only way to save your life after what he did." My eyes shoot up to hers. "You did this to me, not him." Her face falls "I'm sorry, I just couldn't let you die." I reach my hand across the table "thank you, for saving my life." She picks up her head and smiles. "You will be safe here. No one knows about this place. I will move you as soon as I can." We finish eating and for the first time, I have hope. "Can you help me free my sister?" She smiles, "I will absolutely try."

End Flashback Gabriella POV

After we leave Jo and Brooke with their parents, we head to my parent's wing. I knock and my mother opens the door smiling. She immediately places her hand on my bump. "How are my grand pups?" "They are perfect mom." We head inside and take a seat on the couch. My father joins us a few minutes later. "How did the meeting go today?" "Very interesting actually", Lake says. My father waits for us to explain. "We don't believe Jayden had anything to do with the girls being taken." "Well that's good news, right" my mother says. "Yes but we think his father might have." My father growls "that ba**ard." "Jayden will be coming tomorrow to sign an alliance with our pack and has asked for our help to deal with the coven." My father smiles, "I think that's an excellent idea." "I had no doubt you would agree dad." "We have some other big news too. Jo's parents came back with us to meet her pups." My mother squeals. "That is amazing. She must be so happy." I explain about Brooke and Adrian being here and I swear she squeals even louder. "Oh my goddess, that's amazing. I can't wait to meet them", my mother says. My father is smiling from ear to ear. "The goddess is truly amazing." A few minutes later, I get a link from Serina. "Please bring everyone to the dining room." "What's wrong" a sense of worry consuming me. "We are fine now, please just meet us there." I cut the link and my father is already on his feet. "What's wrong" he asks. "Serina wants all of us in the dining room." Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

No one says another word and I'm sure my father is linking my uncle. We head to the dining room and when we arrive, Nicholas, Serina, Tabby, and Johnathon are already waiting. Johnathon is holding Tabby and I have a feeling something big has happened. That's when I notice that Serina and Nicholas are holding hands. I can't help the hope that blooms in my chest that this is what they called us for. Once Uncle Levi and Aunt Tracey arrive everyone takes a seat except Serina and Nicholas. "So we have something to tell you. Nicholas and I are mates." "Oh my goddess, that's amazing" I say, but everyone else looks very confused. This time Nicholas speaks and now I understand the confusion. "Liz was not my mate. She was a witch that tried to trick me to get to Tabby." As soon as the words leave his mouth I can't help but say her name "Megan." Tabby smiles, "yes Gabby it was Megan." "Where is she," I say with all the anger I feel. She tried to hurt my sister, Nicholas, and Tabby. She will not get away with it this time. "She has been dealt with, I promise you" Tabby says. I look between the three of them and they are all nodding. I go over hugging Tabby first. I hug Nicholas next. "I'm so glad the goddess chose you for my sister." "I am too, Gabby." I pull back and wrap Serina in my arms. "Congratulations sissy", I say. Everyone congratulates the new mates. My Aunt Tracey walks over to Serina. "You are the best mate he could have ever gotten."

Our mothers couldn't be happier as they talk about the new mates. "Well, since you have your mate now, Serina, it's definitely time for you two to have your ceremony." I see a look on Nicholas's face but I can't tell what he is thinking. "Are you alright Nicholas?" "I will be, I just expected to be Beta. I never thought I would be an Alpha." "You will be a wonderful Alpha." He smiles and nods. "We have a meeting tomorrow afternoon with the Alpha of the Onyx Moon Pack about an alliance." Serina smiles and I'm reminded about what Jo is doing right now. "We will be there," Serina says. I won't say anything to her yet about Brooke. I want it to be a surprise when they join us.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 67

Brooke

Just seeing my parents hold my pups is something I never thought would happen. I knew I would do anything to find Jocelyn but returning to that ba**ard's pack was never going to happen. I'm so grateful that she brought them here. I'm not sure where Adrian and I will end up staying but at least my parents know we are safe and they have the opportunity to see my pups. "Brooke, Gabby would like us to come to the dining room. She said it is important." "Why don't you two go and we will stay here with the pups" my mother says. I look at Adrian "go ahead, then your parents can tell me all the embarrassing stories from when you were a kid." I chuckle and hug her and my parents before we head for the door. "Jayden is going to be so happy when he knows that Brooke is safe" I hear my mother say to my father. I feel bile rise in my throat. They have no idea what that man did to us. I turn before we reach the door. "I do not want that monster to know anything about me or my pups." My mother looks like I just slapped her. "Brooke" my father says sternly like he did when I was a child. "This isn't up for discussion dad. I respect you and mom but there are things you don't know." I turn back and head out of the door without another word. I love my parents and I don't want to argue. Jayden can be very charming goddess knows that I know that better than anyone. I believed him when he told me he accepted our bond.

"Brooke, please wait" Jocelyn says from behind me in the hallway. "Jocelyn, let's just go to meet with your pack please." "Fine, but we are going to talk about this. You don't know everything you think you do." She walks ahead, leading me to the dining room. A million thoughts are racing through my mind. What the hell could she possibly mean? She was there with me in that cell being tortured every day. We reach the door and Jocelyn knocks before we walk in. I hear a gasp and before I know what's happening, I'm wrapped in strong arms. I expect to see a man but instead a petite young woman is hugging me. I smile "Serina I assume." She looks up with happiness in her eyes. "Yes, I'm Serina. It's so good to meet you Brooke." We all take a seat and everyone is smiling at us. "Brooke, I can't believe you're here. How did you know that Jocelyn was here", Serina asks. I retell the story and she smiles. "The goddess led you both here." She is definitely right. There is nothing else that makes sense about us both coming to this pack. I'm so grateful for the goddess's plans. Jocelyn POV

My heart hurts for Brooke for the pain I still see in her eyes when she talks about Jayden. She is hiding her hurt with anger but she needs to know that it is misdirected. He loves her and I can't let her throw that opportunity away based on what that ba**ard said. I turn to my parents before I leave to follow Brooke. "She was lied to, but I promise we will make her see the truth." My parents nod and I catch up to Brooke. When we reach the dining room Lake, Gabby, Serina, and Nicholas are sitting at the table. Serina gasps and jumps up from her chair, heading in our direction. When she hugs Brooke, I smile. We all take a seat and once everyone has told Brooke how happy they are that she is here, Serina asks the same questions I did. Hearing Brooke retell the story makes me understand why she is so protective of Adrian. Just as Serina was my Saviour, Adrian was hers. I'm so glad she was there for Brooke when I couldn't be. "Brooke, you're welcome to join us for the meeting with Alpha Jayden tomorrow", Gabby says, and Brooke stiffens. "I would rather not but thank you for the offer Alpha" she says. "She may change her mind after I can explain all we learned today" I link Gabby.

"Jo will show you and Adrian to the guest rooms near your parents." "Thank you Alphas for all you have done for my sister and for your kindness to me." "We are here not only for Jo but for you and Adrian. If you decide that you will not be returning to your pack, we would like you to join ours", Gabby says. I can see the shock on Brooke's face. Nothing about Gabby and Lake surprises me after all that they have done while I have been here. "I understand that Harris is mated to your aunt but you would extend an invitation to Adrian." "Of course, I'm sure you realize by now that this pack cares about a person's character not who they are as a supernatural." My sister smiles and she holds back tears. "Thank you" she manages to get out before we start back toward my floor. I stop her before we go back into the room. "Brooke, I know you are hurt and angry, but promise me you will listen before you make any decision." She nods and we head back into the room where my parents and Adrian have the pups on the floor. It makes me smile to see Anna and Henry motoring around. I know soon enough my pups will join them.

I take Brooke's hand and lead her to two chairs in the corner. "I met with Jayden today along with the Alphas." "I know, Willow told us." "Brooke, I truly believe he had nothing to do with us being taken by Drayce after I spoke with him today." "Jocelyn, you are a good person and you want to believe the best of other people." "Brooke I am not a child anymore please don't treat me like one. I was there with you. I endured the same disgusting treatment, but I still choose to trust people. Everyone is not Drayce. What proof do you have that Jayden helped him besides his words?" "What did he have to gain by lying to us, Jocelyn?" "I don't believe he was lying, I just don't believe it was Jayden." "You're making no sense right now." "Did he ever use Jayden's name when he said the Alpha?" I can see her confusion as she is trying to think back to what happened in the past. "What are you trying to get at Jocelyn?" "I believe the Alpha that Drayce talked about was Joseph." I watch as the color drains from her face. "Alpha Joseph did this to us." "I don't know for sure but after our meeting today I know it wasn't Jayden." I can see how torn she is after believing for all this time that Jayden betrayed her. Brooke POV

"Brooke just meet with him", Jocelyn says, but I can't. Even if he didn't give us to that ba**ard there is nothing left for me and Jayden. Jocelyn wants to believe that we will live happily ever after like in a fairytale, but this isn't a fairytale. This is real life and I'm not the virgin waiting for her mate to swear his undying love. I have pups and I haven't been untouched whether it wasn't by my choice or not. I'm glad that I can at least let go of the anger I've had about his betrayal. "I'm glad to know that he didn't help Drayce, but it doesn't change that I'm no longer his mate." "But you are," Jocelyn starts to say. "Jocelyn I listened and I believe you but I can't see him." I stand before she can say anymore and scoop Henry up in my arms. I need to hold my pup. I sit in a chair and begin to feed Henry. Adrian is looking at me and I can see sympathy on her face. "Are you alright" she mouths to me. I smile and nod. After a little while longer, Jo leads us to two rooms down the hall from my parents. I chuckle when I walk in and the pack and plays are already set up. I hug Jo and kiss my niece and nephew before she leaves for her room.

Adrian helps me get the little ones to sleep. She leads me over to the bed and we both sit. "I'm not going to tell you what you should do but I just want you to listen for a minute." I take a deep breath and nod. "I understand you are afraid of what may happen if you see Jayden. I understand that you think your chance for happiness with your mate is over. I just want you to think about this. What if you're wrong?" "I know what you're saying, Adrian, but" she stops me. "You don't have to answer me. You don't owe anyone an explanation for how you feel. You need to think about it for yourself and find the answer for you." She stands and hugs me before she heads to her room. Candance has been quiet since our conversation with my sister but I can feel her pain and wanting for her mate. "Candance, I know you want to see him." "I do, but I am with you no matter what you decide, Brooke. I think you should listen to Adrian and decide if wondering is better than knowing." I head into the shower before I slide into bed. The bed is so comfortable but I know it will do nothing to help me sleep tonight.

The Next Day

Alpha Jayden

I don't know why I'm anxious about our meeting at the Scarlett Rose today, but I am. Storm has been on edge too. "Andrew, please make sure you keep an eye on my father. I know he isn't innocent in all this but I need to figure out exactly what he has done." "Of course, I will call you if I see anything suspicious." I go to my office to grab some paperwork before I head downstairs. "Jayden" I turn and my father is walking toward me. "Are you sure it is a good idea to enter an alliance with this pack? What do you really know about them?" I laugh "father, have faith in me as an Alpha. I will always do my research and find out the truth." I hope he catches my meaning but his face never changes if he does. I turn heading out the pack door and down to my SUV. I drive for an hour before I pull down a twisty road. When I approach the gate, a guard approaches my window. "Alpha Jayden" he says. "Yes I am." "The Alphas are expecting you. Follow the driveway and it will lead you to the pack house. They will be waiting for you." "Thank you", I say, and the gate opens. When I reach the pack house, Lake is waiting for me. He sticks out his hand and we shake. "Welcome to the Scarlett Rose pack Alpha Jayden." "Jayden will do just fine." "Gabby, Serina, and Nicholas are waiting for us in the office." I don't question who the others are thinking that they are probably the pack Betas. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Once we reach the office, I shake everyone's hand. Storm is pacing in my mind, making it difficult to focus. "Are you alright Jayden", Gabby asks me. I try to push Storm down so I can focus. "Yes, sorry about that." "Jayden, this is Serina and Nicholas. They are also Alphas of the pack." "That's amazing, four Alphas in one pack." "Yes, please take a seat and we will discuss our pack and the alliance." I do and we start to talk about how we can attack the coven once the alliance papers are signed. As we talk, the scent of vanilla invades my nose. "Jayden, I smell our mate." "Storm, that is not possible. Brooke is our mate and she is not here." "I understand but I know it's our mate." Before I can say anything, a knock sounds on the door. The door opens and Jocelyn is standing there with a smile. She steps inside and I feel like all the air is gone from my lungs. She is standing there. Brooke is standing ten feet from me. I feel like I'm dreaming. "Go to our mate" Storm growls in my head. I rise and start to walk toward her but she raises her hand. "Brooke, please, I have missed you." "We need to talk" she says and all the hope I just felt is fading. Goddess, please don't let her be here to reject me.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 68

Brooke

POV

I got very little sleep last night and it had nothing to do with Anna and Henry. After I changed my mind many times, I've decided to meet with Jayden today. I haven't told Jocelyn yet but she was right. I'm afraid of a lot of things. I'm afraid she is wrong and Jayden was involved in us being taken. I'm afraid that he will finally say his words of rejection out loud to me. I'm afraid that even if he wanted me before, when he sees I have pups he won't now. What I'm most afraid of is not knowing the answers to all the thoughts racing through my mind. Candace was right, I need answers and closure. "What if he wants you and our pups" Candace says. "Candace, I can't think about that right now." I pick Henry up, getting him changed and fed. As I rock him, I let myself think about what it would be like if he did accept us. A knock startles me and I push those thoughts away. "Come in", I say, and Adrian walks in smiling. "Good morning my little ones." I roll my eyes "good morning to you too, Adrian." She leans down kissing my forehead before she steals Henry. I get up, taking Anna over to the bed to get her changed. "How did you sleep?" "Good, how about you" she asks. "Fine, the bed was comfortable." "Wow, you're a terrible liar." "Fine, I didn't sleep. I was thinking about what I should do about meeting with Jayden." I sit in the chair and start to feed Anna. "So what did you decide to do?" "I'm going to meet with him." She smiles "I'm glad, you deserve to be happy Brooke."

"Adrian, that doesn't mean anything. I will give him a chance to tell me if he was involved and to know the truth." "Brooke, I hope that he accepts you and the pups. You deserve to be happy after everything that happened. You can go back to the pack and become the Luna you were meant to be." "I doubt that will happen, besides, I'm not going anywhere without you." She looks at me like I have ten heads. "Brooke" she starts to say and I cut her off. "That is not up for debate. If you can't be there, then I won't be there either. I don't know why we are even talking about this. He is never going to accept me and my pups. We can stay here with my sister and raise the pups." Before she can say anymore, the door opens and Jocelyn sticks her head in. She smiles when she sees us. "I was hoping you would be awake." She walks in, setting clothes down on the bed for me and Adrian. "Thank you", Adrian says. "Do you want to get something for breakfast before I head to the meeting?" I take a deep breath "I would like to go with you so I can speak with Jayden." A smile spreads across her face. "Jocelyn, this is just a conversation, nothing more." "I understand," she says but the smile never leaves her face.

She walks out of the room without a word and returns with my parents, who are holding my niece and nephew. "Mom, dad, and Adrian can stay with pups so I can take you to speak with Jayden." "Alright, I will take a quick shower and once I'm dressed we can go." I grab the clothes and take a quick shower. Once I'm out, I run the brush through my hair and pull it into a ponytail. I'm so nervous but I can do this. "Yes you can. You are strong and I am with you" Candace says. I love my wolf. I head out and Jocelyn is waiting. She hugs me and I follow her downstairs. We reach a hallway and I can already scent Jayden. The most delicious scent of chocolate and raspberries invades my nostrils. I have to keep my focus. I can't let wanting my mate cloud my judgment. Jocelyn knocks and I swear I think about running. When she steps aside and I see Jayden for the first time since we were taken, I couldn't move if I wanted to. He truly is the most handsome man I have ever seen. He stands coming toward me but I stop him. I see hurt flash across his face but he stops. "Jo, why don't you take Jayden and Brooke to one of the empty offices to talk", Gabby says. "Of course" she says, and I back out of the room, keeping distance between me and Jayden. She opens an office door that is thankfully away from the Alpha's office. Once we are inside, Jocelyn closes the door, leaving us alone. He starts to step toward me. "Jayden please, I need space." He steps back and looks into my eyes. "Brooke, it's so good to see you. I thought I had lost you." "Honestly, Jayden, I don't even know where to start right now." "You can say anything to me. You are my mate." I don't correct him. "Jayden, when we were taken by that ba**ard he said that he was given us by the Alpha." He growls low but I continue. "Jayden, did you give us to Drayce because you didn't want to be mated to me an omega?" "Brooke, I swear to you that I never would betray you. You are my mate and when I find out who is responsible for what happened to you and Jocelyn, those responsible will pay with their lives." Everything in me wants to believe this man but I have to think about my pups. He steps toward me but doesn't touch me. "What can I do to prove to you that my love for you is real and I would never hurt you?" I remember conversations that Adrian and I had about the powers vampires have. "Give me your hand." He smiles but looks at me confused. "I can read your blood now that I am a hybrid." Jayden POV

When she says she can read my blood to see the truth, I don't hesitate. I offer her my hand and she takes it in hers. I won't lie, the tingles I feel make me want to pull her into my arms and show her that she is mine, but I know I can't. She brings my wrist to her mouth and when I feel her fangs bite down, I expect to feel pain, but it is far from that. If anything, it makes the longing for her worse. After a few seconds, she pulls back and wipes the blood from her lips. A tear rolls down her cheek and I can't imagine what she saw that would make her cry. "Brooke what" is all I get out before she wraps her arms around me. I hold her breathing in her scent and kissing the top of her head. She stiffens and steps back. "I'm sorry I shouldn't have done that." "What do you mean? Of course you should. You are mine and I am yours, Brooke." "You have no idea how much I wish that were true, but the fact that you had nothing to do with us being taken isn't the only thing we need to discuss." "Brooke, Jocelyn told me what that ba**ard did to the two of you. None of that matters to me. I love you." "Jocelyn didn't tell you everything and honestly it will be easier to just show you." She heads to the door and I follow her. We reach a room and I can hear voices coming from inside. She knocks and opens the door. I follow her in and when I look around I smile. Jennifer, Wesley, and a woman I have never seen are playing with four pups. I can tell by the woman's scent she is a vampire. "Jayden, we are so happy to see you" Jennifer says. "It's good to see you too. This must be Jocelyn's pups." "This is Wesley and this is Brooklyn" she says, pointing to the beautiful boy and girl. I'm so glad they got to meet Jocelyn's pups. I look at the two other pups, "they are beautiful too." The woman smiles "thank you", Brooke says. I turn looking at this woman, my mate. This woman, who is the other half of my soul. "Brooke, are these our pups?"

Brooke POV

I can't have heard him right. Did he really just say our pups? I look into his eyes and I swear I see unshed tears. I walk over, taking Anna and Henry out of Adrian's arms. I walk back toward him. "This is Anna and Henry." He reaches out without a word, taking Anna out of my arms. "Hello sweet girl, I'm your daddy." I can't stop the tears from flowing. He just claimed my pups as his own. He leans and kisses Henry. "I'm your daddy too, big guy." "Jayden", I start to say and this time he presses his lips to mine. I hear the door click and when he pulls back we're alone. "You are my mate and Luna. These are our pups. Do you understand me, Brooke?" "I can't believe this is happening. I prayed so many nights when we were in that cell that what he said wasn't true and one day you would find me. I'm so happy that you did. I love you, Jayden." "I love you Brooke. I, Jayden Marcus Black, accept you, Brooke Isabelle Curtis, as my mate and Luna." I place my free hand on his face. "I, Brooke Isabelle Curtis, accept you, Jayden Marcus Black, as my mate and Alpha." I feel the bond start to form and I still can't believe this is happening.

"Jayden, I should have said this before you accepted me, but I want Adrian to be part of our pack. She is the only reason I'm alive and our pups are safe." "Of course, you are my Luna and for what she has done she is important to both of us. She will be your personal security if she agrees." "Thank you, Jayden. I guess you should go back to your meeting with the Alphas." "No, we should go to the meeting. Do you think your parents will keep the pups a little bit longer so you can attend the meeting?" "I'm sure we won't have to twist their arms." He chuckles "I'm sure you're right. I can't wait to spend time with all of you." "Jayden, how do you think your father is going to feel about all of this?" "Honestly, Brooke, he can accept it or he can leave." "Jayden, you don't think that he had anything to do with us being taken do you?" "I wish I knew Brooke. All I can say is that if he did he will pay with his life." "Jayden" I start to say and he stops me. "He is no father of mine if he did that to you and your sister. Now let's go find your parents and get to that meeting." I know he says that but it's still his father. I lead him to my parent's room and when we get inside, my parents are smiling from ear to ear. Adrian has a look like I told you so on her face. I roll my eyes. Jayden lays Anna down and heads for Adrian. She stands and he wraps her in a hug. "Thank you for saving Brooke and my pups." "You don't have to thank me, she is my sister and now you are my family too." He pulls back "we would like you to become a part of the Onyx Moon pack and I would like you to be my Luna's protector." "I accept and I will protect you all with my life."

We kiss the pups and head back to the Alpha's office. We knock and walk in hand and hand. Jocelyn jumps up as soon as she sees us. She wraps me in a hug. "I'm so happy for you Brooke." "Thank you, Jocelyn, for convincing me to speak to Jayden." She pulls back and smiles. She hugs Jayden before we take a seat. Gabby smiles at us and Lake nods. "I think it's time we figure out a plan to deal with the coven." Drayce POV

The phone on my desk rings. I expect it to be Joseph but it's not. "Drayce, it's Prudence." I smile "Prudence I didn't expect to hear from you so soon. I hope you have good news for me." "I'm afraid not. I will not be involved with any plan against the Scarlett Rose pack and Tabitha." She doesn't even give me a chance to ask why and the line goes dead. What the f**k I scream? I will have what is owed to me. The phone rings again and this time it is Joseph. "What is happening Joseph?" He tells me about Jocelyn coming to the pack. "Was she still pregnant?" "No, she wasn't and she was with the Alphas of the Scarlett Rose pack." "I want what belongs to me Joseph. You had better find a way to get her back to me or the attack that happened to those two guards will be the least of your worries." I slam the phone down and sit in my chair. If Prudence won't help me, I will find a witch that will. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

Fated Human Alpha Chapter 69

Alpha Jayden POV

I still can't believe that I'm sitting here with my mate, my Luna. I thought I had lost her. I will never let anything hurt her again. I will protect her and our pups until my last breath. "We need to mark her" Storm growls in my mind. "I will not rush her after all she has been through Storm." He whimpers at the thought of what she has been through. He recedes to the back of my mind. I want to solidify our bond as much as he does, but Brooke's well being is what is most important right now. I bring my thoughts back to focusing on the meeting. My phone vibrates in my pocket and the only one that would dare call me right now is Andrew. "Could you all excuse me for a moment", I interrupt Gabby. "Of course" she says, and I step out into the hallway. "Andrew, what's wrong?" "I know that you are busy but this couldn't wait. Your father has been acting very suspicious since you left. One of the guards told me he was downstairs talking to Rian. He couldn't hear the conversation, but why would he be talking to her? This afternoon I followed him to one of the offices after I was done with training." A pit forms in my stomach. "I, of course, could only hear his side of the conversation but he was telling whoever he was talking to about Jocelyn coming here." I ball my fist at my side feeling anger like I've never known. "Tell me exactly what he said." "He told them that Jocelyn came to the pack and that she was with the Alphas of the Scarlett Rose pack."

"Andrew, I believe that he played a part in Brooke and Jocelyn being taken. How could my father do su ing?" "I don't know Jayden. Your father has always been an a**hole but this is next level shit." "Keep watching him. I will be back soon to deal with it. I will not let him hurt my mate again." "Your mate, did you find Brooke?" I smile for the first time since we started this conversation. "Yes, I did and she is more beautiful than I even remembered." "So the pack will have its rightful, Luna?" "Yes it will and I have two pups." There is silence for a moment because I'm sure what I said is sinking in. "That's amazing, what are the Jayden?" This is why he is my best friend and Beta. "My son is Henry and my daughter is Anna." "Congratulations, who will be the next Alpha of our pack?" "You know I forgot to ask Brooke who was born first. We still have a lot to discuss." "Alright, I'm going to let so you can get back to the meeting." I hang up and take a deep breath. I really had hoped I was wrong about my father, but obviously I wasn't. I turn and Brooke is smiling at me. "How long have you been standing there", I ask, smiling back at her. Brooke

"I came out right after you did." His face falls and I know that he is thinking about his father. I step forward, wrapping my arms around him. He pulls me as close as he can and I breathe in his delicious scent. The tingles are overwhelming and if I didn't know that Candace was a wolf I would think she was a cat purring. "I'm so sorry Brooke. I can't believe he did this can hear the pain in his voice. At the end of the day, he is still Jayden's father. I can't imagine how hard this must be for him. "You have nothing to be sorry for Jayden." I pull back, looking into his eyes. "Brooke, the day you came to the pack and killed the two gu id they attack you?" "No, I had no intention of killing them when I came that day. I was angry at you for betraying me. I hadn't been back near the pack since we were taken. Those two men approached me and told me that they helped the vampires take us. I lost control and drained them." He stiffens at my words. "They were a part of you being taken, my guards?" "Yes they were and they mentioned the Alpha. I thought they were talking about you. I'm sorry I ever doubted you, Jayden." He leans down and kisses my forehead. You have nothing to be sorry for. You were fed lies and endured unthinkable things. I'm glad you took care of them. Now let's get back to the meeting. I want them all dealt with as quickly as possible for what they have done." We head back inside and we take our seats, but I don't let go of his hand. We start to talk about the battle. I'm sure that Jayden isn't going to like it but I will be there to end that ba**ard. I'm sure that Jocelyn feels the same way. We aren't little girls anymore and I need to see the light leave that ba eyes.

"Alphas, would it be alright if Adrian joined us as she knows Drayce better than any of us do?" Lake looks at Gabby. "That is an excellent idea," Lake says. "I'll go get her and be right back." I head upstairs and a few minutes later I return with Adrian. She bares her neck in respect and takes a seat near me. "Adrian, what can you tell us about Drayce", Gabby asks. "I can tell you that my brother is an unfeeling monster. He doesn't care about anyone but himself. He is exactly like my father and he will stop at nothing to get what he wants." A knock sounds on the door and it opens. Harris and Willow walk in, followed by a man and woman I haven't met yet. "Harris will be joining the battle", Lake says. I smile glad to have my cousin there with us. "Normally, Tabby would be front and center, but as you can see, she is in no condition to be in battle", Gabby says. The woman who is a witch is very pregnant. "I promised Jonathon that I would remain with the pups and Gabby this time, but if you need me I can be there in seconds. Lake knows to link me if you run into trouble. I have no doubt that you can handle these pathetic vampires." The thought of Prudence's visit before I left comes rushing back. "The vampires shouldn't be a problem, but my brother had called upon a witch named Prudence to locate Jocelyn. She is an evil b**ch." The woman smiles like she knows a secret. "Prudence will not be an issue." I look at her confused. "Prudence may be a power-hungry b**ch but she will never put her life on the line for your brother and she knows my power. I left her a message when I killed Morganna. She will stay as far from me and my pack as possible." I feel relief wash over me. Our coven is strong, but based on what I've seen, this pack is stronger.

"Adrian, are you going to have any trouble fighting against your brother," Gabby asks. "No" I say abruptly. "I mean no disrespect, Alpha, but he isn't my family. Brooke, the pups, and Harris are my family. My loyalty is to all of you." She nods and I continue. "Drayce has always been cruel and we never had a brother-sister relationship. If I had known what he was doing to Brooke and Jocelyn before I found her I would have tried to get them out of there sooner." Brooke reaches over, taking my hand and squeezes it. "We will have our warriors ready for attack in a weeks' time. Will you be ready to attack Jayden", Lake asks. "Absolutely, I will have my men ready."

Alpha Jayden POV

I want that ba**ard dead today, but I want to be prepared so I can wait a week. I know Brooke is not going to like what I'm about to ask, but I have to think about the safety of both her and our pups. Being away from her will kill me, but I can't trust my father around my family. "Alphas, would it be alright for Brooke and our pups to remain here until after the battle?" "No way" she says and stands. "Jayden I would like to speak to you alone now." I look to the Alphas and I see sympathy on their faces. Gabby and Lake nod and she leads me up to her room. Once we are inside and the door closes, she turns on me. "You have no right to make decisions for me." "Brooke", I start to say and she stops me. "Am I your equal?" "Of course, you're my equal but" I start to say and she shoots a glare at me. "I will not stay here and wait to hear what happens. I have Adrian with me and in case you forgot I'm a hybrid. I can protect myself and our pups. I will be in that battle and so will my sister. We will bring the pups here before the attack but I intend to return with you today." "I have no doubt of your strength, Brooke." "Then prove it and trust me. I would never put our pups at risk. I am your Luna and should be by your side. Do you not plan to mark and mate me?" Her words take me off guard. "Absolutely, when you're ready. I want to claim you as mine and I want you to claim me more than I want my next breath." "I know you're afraid that what he did broke me." "That is not what I am afraid of. I know you are not broken. No man could break you, in spirit or body." She smiles and before I can say another word she reaches down, grasping her shirt hem. She pulls it over her head. I am hanging on by a thread to my resolve. "Brooke" I say like a whisper. She unhooks her bra, dropping it on the floor, and my resolve is gone. I pull my shirt over my head and pull her against my chest. Feeling her skin against mine is amazing. I have never been with any other woman and I'm so glad that she will be my one and only. I bend down, pressing my lips to hers. I take her breast in my hand, kneading it as I deepen the kiss. She moans into my mouth and I growl. I pull back and scoop her in my arms, carrying her over to the bed. I lay her down. I place my hands on each side of her pants and pull them down her body. A flash of anger at the visible scars must cross my face. "Jayden, look at me. They don't matter, we are the only thing that matters." I bend down and kiss each scar on her legs and belly.

I press my lips to hers one more time before I stand up and pull off my own pants. Her gasp when she looks at my c**k for the first time makes me smile. The blush that crosses her cheeks when she looks at my face makes me harder, which I didn't think was possible. I climb up on the bed and kiss down her body until my face is at her core. "Jayden" she says, but it dies on her lips when I take a long lick of her core. She moans and her noises spur me on. I swirl my tongue around her cl*t and she begins to buck against my tongue. I press my finger to her entrance, sliding inside. Her heat is warm and wet as I begin to pump in rhythm with my tongue. She grabs my hair as she starts to scream out her o****m. Her juices flood my mouth and I drink every last drop. She is so sweet and I plan to taste her every day for the rest of our lives. I kiss back up her body as she comes down from her o****m. I place myself at her entrance. I look into her eyes to make sure that she is ready and she shocks me when she places her hands on my a** pulling me into her.

I have never felt anything like this in my life. Her core is hugging my c**k. If I didn't know better, I would think she was a virgin. She is so tight and wet. I start to move and I know I won't last long with how good she feels. I want her to c*m again before I embarrass myself. I start to pump into her and she is moaning. I place my face on her marking spot. I speed up, pressing myself deep in her core. I extend my canines and pierce her skin. She screams out her o****m. I pull back and lick the mark I just made. She pulls me down and sinks her canines into my neck and I see stars. The o****m is earth shattering. I feel the bond and when I look into her eyes I know our souls are connected in this life and the next. "I love you Brooke." "I love you, Jayden. I'm ready to go home."

I roll to the side and pull her to me, her back to my front. I just want to hold her for a few minutes before we go back downstairs. I smile because I want nothing more than to announce my Luna. I will keep her and the pups safe. I know she is strong and we will fight side by side. "I know you are strong and we will defeat the coven together." She turns in my arms, laying her head on my chest. "Thank you, for believing in me and wanting to be my mate." I lift her chin so she can look into my eyes. "You are the only woman I will ever want or touch in this lifetime." I see the confusion before the realization hits. "You waited for me?" I lean down and kiss her lips. I pull back "I wouldn't have waited my lifetime for you."

Serina POV Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

We waited for about twenty minutes before we decided to end the meeting. I am happy that Brooke and Jayden have accepted each other. I hope that Jo finds her mate and happiness too. I know she thinks it won't happen for her, but I have faith in the goddess. "Gabby and Lake, I was wondering if we could have our ceremony on our birthday." Nicholas and I share our birthdays and we will both turn eighteen. She smiles "it's your ceremony, so if you want to wait till your birthday that's fine." "It's only a few weeks away. We can deal with Drayce and use it as a celebration for the pack finally having some peace." "I think that's an excellent idea, Serina" Lake says. Nicholas threads his fingers through mine and the tingles are amazing. "We are going to go for a walk. Can you let us know when it's time to finish the meeting?" "Hopefully they will be busy for a while", Jo says with a chuckle. We head downstairs and outside the pack house. I knew Nicholas wouldn't care about waiting to have our ceremony for our birthday but I want to talk to him about something else. "Are you sure about this, Serina", Ruby asks. Our kind doesn't usually wait when we find our mates, but I truly believe this is what the goddess had planned. "Yes, but that doesn't mean that you can't." I can feel her happiness at my words. Once we reach the lake, we take a seat on the shore. He wraps his arm around me and, even though we aren't bonded, I feel whole. "What are you thinking about Serina?" I'm nervous but I know I don't need to be. "I would like to mark and mate the night of our ceremony. It is like a wedding for our kind and I truly believe that despite getting our wolves early, this is what was meant to be." He turns so we are face to face. "I think that is a perfect idea. You are mine whether you wear my mark today or not, just as I am yours." I smile and lean in, pressing a kiss on his lips. If a kiss feels like this, I can't imagine what being with him completely will feel like. I know he means what he says, but it is different for our wolves. I can feel Ruby's longing for Ezra was causing her heart to ache. I can't make her wait. I pull back, "Ruby would like to spend time with Ezra." I can see the smile turn to panic on his face. "Serina, as much as I would love to let Ezra out to have time with Ruby, I don't think that's a good idea right now." I take his hand in mine. "You're worried they will mate and mark." A slight blush marks his cheeks and it makes me smile. Nicholas POV

When she talks about letting our wolves out together, Ezra growls in my mind. I know he has no desire to wait to have our mate, but we need to respect what Serina wants. I understand what she means about waiting. I want to make her mine, but I want her to know that how she feels is important to us. I would wait a lifetime for her. "Our wolves will not have the same control that we have." She smiles "Ruby has no desire to wait to mate and mark. I don't think our decision needs to affect their bonding. Besides, if they are bonded we will still be able to link for the battle." This woman is amazing and I am so happy that the goddess blessed me with her. She stands backing up and I expect her to strip. I turn because seeing her body right now will not be good for my control. "You don't need to turn, Nicholas." "Yes I do, because I have willpower, but I'm not that strong." She chuckles "turn around Nicholas." I say a silent prayer before I turn expecting to see her bared to me. She is still fully dressed and now I'm really confused. She shifts into Ruby. She is magnificent. Her fur is a red color I have never seen on a wolf. Ezra is losing control and pushes forward.

Ruby takes off before we have completely shifted. "Come here little mate" he says like the big bad wolf. "Seriously", I say, and he snickers. He is running as fast as he can and we still haven't caught up with Ruby. "Looks like the big bad wolf can't find his little mate." He growls and stalks forward. Before he realizes what's happening, Ruby is running toward us. She turns just before she reaches us and, honestly, I have never seen a wolf move this fast. "Our mate is amazing" I say to him. "Yes she is and she is ours." She finally seems to slow down enough for him to catch her. They spend the next hour mating and playing. I lose count after the third time. My wolf is a horn dog. I'm a little jealous that he gets to mate and mark, but I know it will be even more special when it finally happens. They lay next to each other on the bank. Ruby has her head leaning against Ezra's shoulder. I feel the pain and then pleasure as she sinks her canines into his marking spot. Holy sh*t she marked us first. Our mate is feisty. Ezra wastes no time making his mark on our mate. The moment he releases her, I can feel the bond with Serina. It will be even stronger when we mate and mark. She will have our scent and we will have hers, so no males will even look at her. Ezra growls low at my thoughts. Ruby stands and stretches before she shifts. My beautiful mate is standing before us fully dressed. I don't understand how this is possible. I shift and her face turns bright red. She turns around and I chuckle. I run behind the tree and grab basketball shorts. I rush back out and wrap her in my arms. "How are you still dressed?" She explains why her fur is red and what it means to be blessed. I lean down and press my lips to hers. I deepen the kiss but I pull back before it goes any further. "You and Ruby are amazing. Thank you for allowing me to explain everything and accepting us." "I told you Nicholas, I always wanted you to be my mate. We are just as lucky the goddess chose you and Ezra for us" she links me. "Oh my goddess we can link, that's amazing." "We should probably head back. I didn't even think about it, but I need to call your brothers and let them know what happened. They knew Tabby would help me figure out what was happening with Megan." She takes my hand "let's go call them together."

I grab the phone off my nightstand. I threw my stuff in here when I got back with Megan. I didn't want to be alone in this room with her. As soon as I open the phone, I have a hundred missed messages from John and James. "I'm surprised they didn't come back after I didn't answer them", I laugh. I dial James and the screen lights up with his face. "What the f**k man? You leave with Liz, who you think is tricking you, and then you don't answer us." "I'm sorry a lot has been happening." "Well, spit it out. We are dying here", John says from behind him. Serina laughs and pushes her way onto the screen. "Let's just say that he found his real mate." "That's awesome, you guys are mates", James says. "Yes, Liz was Megan trying to get close to Tabby." "Holy f**k, I hope she is finally dead." "Yes, Tabby has dealt with her." "That's great, now you can stop pouting about Serina" John says. I throw him the bird and she laughs. We tell them everything that is going on with the coven, Jo, Brooke, Jayden, and our ceremony." "We are coming home. Honestly, we will learn more from Uncle Levi than we will here. We want to be there to help with the coven and for your ceremony." Serina smiles and I want them here for our ceremony. They don't have their wolves so I'm not sure about the battle, but we can deal with that when they get home. "Serina and I will drive up to get you guys after we talk to Gabby and Lake." We hang up and head back to the office.

Brooke POV

We head back downstairs toward the Alpha's office. I am so happy I can't even be embarrassed that we have kept them waiting. We just mated and marked in their pack house. Jayden stops me and pulls me into him. "I promise that they would have done the same if the situation was reversed." I forgot he can hear my thoughts now. "It's not nice to listen to your Luna's thoughts." "I love to hear you call yourself my Luna." He presses his lips to mine. I hear someone clear their throat and I turn to see a smiling Adrian. She eyes my mark "I see congratulations are in order." "Thank you, Adrian," I say as I hug her. "Thank you, Adrian", Jayden says. She releases me and goes over to hug Jayden. I expect Candace to growl but she never does. She trusts Adrian and Jayden. We head back to the office and knock on the door. "Come in," Lake says. Once we get inside, they are both smiling. I notice that Nicholas and Serina are gone. "I'm sorry we were gone so long." "Based on that mark I doubt that highly", Gabby says with a smile. "Congratulations Luna and Alpha. Your sister went back to help your parents with the pups." "Thank you, for your friendship and your willingness to align yourself with our pack. We will return home today with our pups and Adrian. We will bring the pups back the day before the attack." "Please stay safe Brooke", Gabby says with concern in her voice, looking into my eyes. "Gabby, I promise you that my father will be dealt with for his involvement in what happened to my Luna and Jocelyn", Jayden says. I can see the relief on her face at his words. "No one will hurt Brooke or the pups, I promise you that", Adrian says.

I'm glad this will all be over soon. We head back upstairs. This is the hardest part of today, saying goodbye to my sister. We reach the room and the pups are asleep. They look so peaceful lying next to each other on the bed. Jocelyn comes over to me and without a word wraps me in a hug. She whispers "you deserve all the happiness he can give you." I can feel the tears as they roll down my cheek. "I'm going to miss you Jocelyn. I know we haven't been together for a long time, but now that we found each other I can't imagine not seeing you every day." She pulls back "I promise you that we will see each other all the time. You will come here and I will come back to the pack to see you all" she says as she looks at Jayden, Adrian, and our parents. I know she's right and this is what's meant to be. I hug her one more time before I go over and kiss my niece and nephew on their foreheads. Jayden picks up Henry and Adrian picks up Anna. I chuckle at my parents' faces realizing they missed the opportunity to pick up the pups. We head out to the SUV. Jayden helps me into the passenger seat. My parents and Adrian sit in the back with the pups. I know I said I'm ready but I'm still nervous about going back to the Onyx Moon. I'm not the same girl that was taken. I'm a hybrid and I have our pups now. I can't imagine what it is going to be like to face Joseph for the first time. Jayden takes my hand and squeezes it. "This is our pack. You are the fated Luna and no one has anything to say against it", he links me. I look in his direction and smile. "Thank you." We reach the pack house and Jayden comes around to open my door. I take a deep breath and slide out. He kisses me quickly. My parents get out and hug us both before my mother hands me Anna. "We will see you a little later, sassy girl", my mother says, and they head toward our cottage. Jayden takes Henry from Adrian and leads us inside. Many pack members are in the dining room and common area. They all look in our direction and bare their necks at Jayden. As they look back, I can see many different expressions on their faces. Some look confused and others look angry. I know how some wolves feel about vampires. They are in for a big shock when they find out who I am to the pack. Jayden POV

I don't like how some of my pack members are looking at Brooke and Adrian. "I have an announcement to make", I say using my Alpha command. The room falls quiet and all eyes are on me. We are standing between the dining room and living area so both rooms can hear me. I pull Brooke to my side using my free hand. "I would like to announce that our Luna has come home. This is my mate, Luna Brooke Black. These are our pups, Henry and Anna Black. I expect that you will give my mate and Luna the same respect you give me. Anyone who does not will be dealt with harshly." "Jayden, I need to speak with you," I hear my father's voice. I turn and I can see the disdain dripping off him as he looks at Brooke and Adrian. "What do you need, father?" "I need to speak to you privately, now." I start to lead Brooke and Adrian toward the stairs that lead to my office. "Did you hear me, Jayden, that means alone?" "I heard you perfectly well father but I'm not a child. I'm the Alpha and I don't take orders from you. If you would like to speak to me, you can do so in front of my Luna and her protector. Otherwise we won't be speaking." "How dare you speak to me like this?" I hand Henry to Adrian and stand toe to toe with my father. I drop my voice so only he can hear me. "How dare you betray your own son?"
