

My Fated Human Luna

Chapter 21

Sabrina

POV

"Why can't you just tell me what the hell she was doing here?" "Sabrina, we need to talk about more than why that woman was here." Willow walks over to me. "Sabrina its important you talk to Archer, please." What the hell could this be about, the divorce? "Fine but I still want an answer to my question." He nods and I follow him. When we walk in to what can only be described as a mansion there are people everywhere. I'm not judging but this is strange all these people living together. It's not my business so I don't say anything to Archer. When we reach what I assume is his home office I take a seat in front of the desk. Archer closes the door and sits behind the desk. I watch Archer take a deep breath before he starts to speak to me. What could have him this nervous?

"First about Melissa showing up here." I don't even like her name coming out of his mouth. What the hell is wrong with me? "She must have followed Willow here looking for you." "Honestly I didn't think I was going to be able to keep my sister from beating her a" he laughs.

I love my friends for having my back. "She was going on about how you, Willow, and Tracey got her fired and made everyone hate her." I stand up and start to pace. "After what she did, she blames me" I yell. "Sabrina she isn't important and honestly her visit is going to seem insignificant after we discuss the real reason, I asked you to come to the office to talk."

I look at him like he has ten heads. "Are you kidding me, this woman fked the man that I'm married to and blames me because it's making her life difficult." He growls and this time I'm sure it came from Archer. "Did you just growl at me?" "I'm sorry, I hate that you just called him the man your married to." "You know what I meant Archer." "I still hate hearing you say it." "I'm confused why your so invested in my relationship and divorce."

"Please sit back down so I can explain what makes me so invested." I head for the chair and take a seat. "Can I ask you a favor before I begin?" "Of course, what is it." "Please keep an open mind and don't leave." "Now you're freaking me out a little bit." Archer

"I'm not trying to freak you out I promise." She nods "you can do this Archer." "She is made for us and she will accept us." "I pray to the goddess your right Brutus." "Do you believe that there are supernatural beings in this world Sabrina?" She chuckles "is that really what you wanted to talk about?"

"Please humor me and answer the question." "Can you give me some examples of what you mean?" "Vampires, werewolves, dragons, and werebears." "If you're going to make jokes Archer I'm just going to go back to the cottage." "This is not a joke, do you believe in those things." "Of course not, I'm not a child that believes in fairytale creatures."

"What if I told you all those things are real and I could prove it to you?" "I would say as nice of a guy as you are, I think you need medication for some hallucination and delusions you're having." I stand from my chair coming around to stand in front of her. "I promise you I'm not crazy." "Come with me and I'll show you." I put my hand in front of her and pray she takes it.

After a few moments she finally does and I lead her downstairs and outside. I take her up the path passing her cottage until we come to a clearing. "Please stay here but don't run." I walk about twenty-five feet from her and start to take my clothes off. "What the hell are you doing" she says putting her hands over her eyes. "Sabrina you're a nurse I'm sure I am not the first naked man you have seen." The words taste bitter on my tongue as I say them but I know she loves being a nurse.

She uncovers her eyes and I remove my pants. I watch her eyes dip down and get big before they shoot back up to my face. I smile but I don't say anything about her peek. "Ok Brutus you're on." I watch her eyes as I shift into my huge black wolf. She seems like a statue stuck in place. "Well at least she didn't run" Brutus says. Before I can comment I watch her fall to the ground.

"She didn't run because she was in shock and now, she passed out." I shift back throwing on my pants before I go to her scooping her up. I carry her back inside the packhouse and up to my office. I lay her on the couch. I grab a washcloth from my ensuite bathroom and place it on her forehead.

I sit down on the edge of the couch waiting for her to wake up. Her eyes flutter open and I can see fear on her face. I hate that she is afraid. "Sabrina, you don't have to be afraid I would never hurt you and neither would Brutus." "We would protect you with our life." "It's hard to not be afraid or freak out that you just turned into a big wolf." "Who the hell is Brutus?" "Brutus is my wolf's name." She pushes back sitting up. "How can this be real, I don't understand?"

"All those creatures live amongst humans and they never know it." "We don't make ourselves known because humans couldn't handle knowing we exist." "I get that" she says nodding her head. I chuckle "I know this is a lot to take in." "Yes, it is but why did you tell me about being a werewolf." "I'm a human and we've only known each other for a short time."

"You asked me why I'm so invested in what's happening with you and Gabby." She stays quiet. "The Moon Goddess creates werewolves and she is essential our mother." "We have our mother who gives birth to us but she is also like our mother."

"The goddess makes a mate for every werewolf, their other half." "That person is our fated mate, but we never know when we will find them." "Once we find them typically werewolves mark and mate for life." "We know our mate by their scent and the tingles we feel when we touch."

Sabrina POV

This is like something out of a romance novel. How can this be real? When Archer tells me about mates, I wish humans were like that. Maybe then my husband would have stayed faithful. When Archer says about tingles, I recall the feelings I had the few times we innocently touched. I'm not a werewolf so it can't mean anything but I bet it's amazing that someone can make you feel that way. "So have you found your mate?" He smiles "actually I have."

I don't know why I feel disappointment when he says he has. I'm a human and he's a werewolf, besides I'm not even divorced yet. "I would love to meet her." He reaches out and takes my hand. That warmth spreads from my fingertips all the way up my arm and my core clenches. "Sabrina you are my mate."

I know I just didn't hear him correctly. He smiles at my confused look. "Sabrina did you hear me?" "I heard you but I don't understand, I'm a human." "I'm not a special being." He growls low "you are the most special woman I will ever meet."

"I'm not a wolf is what I mean." "The goddess picks who is our other half and she makes no mistakes." "So, you want me to be your mate for the rest of your life." "I want that more than I have ever wanted anything in my life."

"I guess you were right." "Right about what?" "That the bches visit was not important compared this." "Archer what about Gabby?" He smiles "Gabby is my pup, Brutus has already accepted her." "The only decision left to be made is whether or not you're going to accept me?" "What is your full name Sabrina?" "Sabrina Marie Piper for now." He smiles "I, Archer William Lyons, accept you Sabrina Marie Piper, as my mate and Luna."

I can't believe what I'm about to do but I want to believe that everything I have been through was leading me here. I pray to God I don't live to regret this decision. "I, Sabrina Marie Piper, accept you Archer William Lyons as my mate and Luna." He laughs "I'm not a Luna, I'm Alpha and you're my Luna." I roll my eyes. "I, Sabrina Marie Piper, accept you Archer William Lyons as my mate and Alpha." The smile on his face is brilliant.

"What happens now Archer?" "We will take the process as slowly as you want." "There is no rush." "Is that normally how it works?" "No werewolves mark and mate when they find each other because the pull is so strong." "Do you feel that pull with me?" "Yes, I do but I know you don't feel it yet."

"I feel the feelings you describe as tingles but it's like a warmth when you touch me."
"That's the bond and those feelings will get stronger as we spend time together."

"Once we complete the bond you will feel the same way I do." "We can do that whenever you're ready." "I would like to move you and Gabby into the pack house as soon as possible." "I'm going to miss the cottage, I love everything about it." He smiles "I have a feeling you're going to like the pack house just as much."

I stand because I need to go get Gabby from daycare. "Where are you going?" "I have to go get Gabby from daycare". "Do you mind if I go with you, I would like to spend time with you both." I smile and he takes my hand leading me outside. We walk down the path toward the daycare.

"Archer, I assume Willow is a wolf too." "Everyone that lives here is a wolf, this is our pack." I stop walking. "What do you mean our pack?" "We are the leaders of the pack, the Alpha and Luna." He must sense my panic. "Don't panic you will be a great Luna." We start to walk again but I have a million thoughts in my head. "Archer what about Tracey being here, are you afraid she will find out?" "She is your best friend, I assume you will want to tell her what we are as long as you think she will keep it to herself." "I would love too as long as it is ok with you." SEARCH THE WEBSITE TO ACCESS CHAPTERS OF NOVELS EARLY AND IN THE HIGHEST QUALITY.

"She won't tell a soul." When we reach the daycare Gabby comes running out and runs right to Archer. "Are you kidding me little one?" "I just saw you this morning mama." Archer laughs and he carries her back up the path to the cottage. When we get inside Tracey and Willow are sitting on the couch.

They both look in our direction and when they see our hands, they both smile like the cat that swallowed the canary.

Melissa POV

As I drive away from that crazy place, I take my phone out of my purse. I press the contact and put the phone to my ear. "What the hell do you want?" "Don't talk to me like that Greg." "I'm calling to help you and your being an ahole." "Well forgive me since you opened your fking mouth to my wife about us screwing I'm a little irritated."

"Whatever do you want information about Sabrina or not?" "Why are you so eager to give me this information?" "Your wife and her friends got me fired and made everyone hate me." "I'm more than happy to help you get back at her." "Fine come to the house now." I hang up the phone and drive straight to Greg's house.

Greg POV

Honestly when I picked up the phone and it was Melissa my first instinct was to hang up. She couldn't just keep her fking mouth shut. If I had any chance of getting Sabrina to forgive me, she put the nail in that coffin.

The only reason I'm even entertaining her right now is she might have information that can help me stop all of this craziness. A half an hour later a knock sounds on the door and I open it to a smiling Melissa. I turn and head inside without a word. "Good to see you too Greg" she says sarcastically. "Just get to what you came here to tell me Melissa." sit on the couch and she takes a seat on the chair across from me.

"If you're going to be an ahole I can just leave and you can figure out how to make Sabrina sorry on your own." I take a deep breath. "I'm sorry just tell me what you're talking about."

Melissa POV

"Do you know where Sabrina is right now?" He rolls his eyes at my question. "Of course not, or I would be there trying to speak to her." I roll my eyes this time. "I still don't understand why you want to stay with her, you yourself said what a bch she is and how you weren't satisfied." "I'm not going to explain my decisions to you so either tell me what you came to say or leave Melissa."

"Fine, I followed Willow to a secluded property so I could tell Sabrina how she fked my life up." "It is a gated property with guards everywhere." He looks confused "I have never heard of a place like that around here." "Its two towns over on a back country road." "I know she has your daughter with her and I believe the place is like a cult." "What the fk are you talking about, a cult?" I explain what happened when I was in the office with Willow and the two men. I see a smile grace his face for the first time since I arrived. "This is very helpful information Melissa but I'm going to need you to come to court and say the same thing to the judge during our divorce proceedings." "If she thinks she will lose custody of Gabby she will come to her senses."

"If it's going to make Sabrina suffer like she did to me then absolutely." "How can I show you how much I appreciate your help" Greg asks. He is a real piece of work because I know exactly what he is suggesting. "If Sabrina gets what she deserves that is all I need." "We won't be having s*x again." I stand heading for the door. "I will call you tomorrow and show you exactly where she is too." I don't wait for a response before I walk through the door. I get back into my car and head to my apartment.

As I drive it makes me happy that I'm not the only one whose life is going to be turned upside down. I may have to find a new job but her life is about to be fked up and that's what she deserves for being such an evil bch to me. I was a victim to Greg's lies as much as she was. Willow POV

When Archer and Sabrina walk into the cottage, they are holding hands. I pray to the goddess that means that he told her everything. I link Archer "does she know?" "Yes, she does and she accepted me." I squeal without thinking and both Sabrina and Tracey whip their heads in my direction.

"What the hell is wrong with you" Tracey asks. "Sorry I was thinking about something and I just got excited." Willow, I hope you won't be too upset but I'm going to take a rain check on dinner tonight."

"I won't be upset at all as long as you're spending the time with Archer." She gives me a look with big eyes and I laugh. "Yes, I will be having dinner with Archer tonight." I'm so happy that despite Sabrina being a human she accepted Archer. A part of me thought she would be afraid and run when she found out what we are.

"Sabrina I'm going to head back to the office and finish some paper work but I'll be back in an hour to take you and Gabby to the main house." Archer is still holding Gabby and he looks so natural as a father. "Can I come to dinner Archer" Gabby says in her sweet little voice. "Of course, little one we will all have dinner together." I love my brother, Sabrina and Gabby are very lucky. Gabby wraps her arms around his neck and he hugs her before he sets her on her feet. He turns to Sabrina and he kisses her forehead before walking out of the cottage

Tracey POV

As soon as Archer is gone Sabrina sets Gabby up at the table with a snack and comes back to sit down with us. "You better spill all the details of what happened." She laughs "it's hard to explain Tracey but let's just say that Archer was very convincing why I should go out with him." "Have you seen him it shouldn't have taken too much convincing." "Hello I'm sitting here" Willow says and we both laugh. I'm glad that the ahat will not take Sabrina's happiness away for too long. "Sabrina I'm glad you're giving Archer a chance and not holding Greg's mistakes against him."

She smiles "Tracey after I lay Gabby down for her nap, I need to tell you something else with Willow's help." "You know you can tell me anything." She heads to take Gabby for her nap and returns about fifteen minutes later. "Let's go outside to the back of the cottage." "I have the monitor so I can hear Gabby." I follow her and Willow. "Tracey, I know what I'm about to say is going to sound crazy but you trust me right?"

"You're talking crazy, we have been best friends since we were in high school." "Of course, I trust you." "You can never talk about what you're about to see." I make the cross my heart motion "I promise whatever you tell me I will take to the grave." "Willow and Archer are werewolves." I start to laugh "alright enough of the jokes tell me what the secret is." Willow starts to undress. "What the hell are you doing Willow?" "I don't want to rip my clothes." "Guys do I really look that gullible." The next thing that happens is something out of the movies. Willow turns into a large silver wolf. I start to back up "what the f?"

Sabrina POV

"Tracey it's ok, it's still Willow." "She won't hurt you." Willow changes back and starts to get dressed. "Tracey look at me" Willow says as she walks toward her. "Tracey are you alright?" "Am I alright you just turned into a huge wolf." "Tracey she is still the same Willow." "Hell no, she is not, she is much cooler." "We can't turn into a wolf." I let go of the breath I was holding waiting for her reaction. Willow laughs and wraps Tracey in a hug. We head back inside the cottage. I peek my head in and check on Gabby before we all sit at the table to finish our discussion.

"I have so many questions" Tracey says. "Well, I can answer what happened with Archer but you'll have to ask Willow the werewolf specifics." She nods and I tell her about being Archer's mate.

"That is the fking coolest thing I have ever heard." "The goddess picks a mate for every wolf." "I wish human relationships worked like that, no more sh*tty dates." I laugh "honestly I'm already starting to feel the bond with Archer and it's amazing." "So, what happens next?"

"We are going to get to know each other and spend time before we take the next step." "You're crazy I would be up in his bed right now" Tracey says. "Again, I'm sitting right here Tracey, that's gross" Willow says.

We both laugh and I love that I have these women in my life to support me. My phone rings and I look down at the screen to see my mother's name flash across it. I let it go to voicemail because she isn't going to ruin my mood with her bullsh*t today. The phone dings that I have a voicemail. I put the phone to my ear to listen to the message. "Sabrina, I need you to call me back immediately, it's about your father." My heart sinks and I dial the phone as fast as I can. As soon as she picks up "what's wrong with daddy?"

"He's gone and he won't answer me because of you." I slow my breathing. "What the hell is wrong with you calling and leaving that kind of message." "If dad left you, it's because of your choices mother."

"How could you be so selfish to ruin everyone's lives Sabrina?" I laugh "I guess I learned it from my mother." I hang up and immediately dial my father's number. He picks up on the second ring.

"Hello sweetheart" he says. "Hi dad, where are you?" "I take it your mother called you." "She did, are you alright." "I'm more than alright, I'm at peace." "Where are you dad?" "I'm at a hotel in town until I can figure out what to do next." "I'm coming to get you and I'm not taking no for an answer."

"Ok sweetheart, I'm at the Hilton." As soon as I hang up, Tracey and Willow are waiting for answers. I tell them about both calls. "I should have asked Archer first, do you think he will be ok if I bring my dad here till we can make a plan for him." "Sabrina you are the future Luna of the pack."

"Archer would never say no to your father coming here." "I will link him so he knows we are leaving the territory." I nod and head toward Gabby's room. "Let her sleep Sabrina, my moms on her way." I smile "thank you." Archer POV

I'm in my office finishing up the paperwork. "She accepted us, Archer." "I know Brutus, it's amazing." "How long do you think we will have to wait to mark and mate her." "As long as it takes Brutus, we will not rush her." "She accepted us and I want her to be comfortable."

"The more time we spend with her the stronger the bond will become." "I know your right, I just want her to wear our mark." "I do too but we need to show her we are nothing like that ahat." Willow links me about going to get Sabrina's father. "Maybe I should take her Willow." "Archer we are going to pick him up and coming right back." "Fine but if you're not back in an hour I will be coming to find you both." She laughs and cuts the link.

My office door opens and Levi comes walking in. "How was the run?" "It didn't help, but I'll survive." "I really am sorry that she ended up being your mate." "Me too but hopefully the goddess has a bigger plan." "I would never choose her after what she did to my future Luna."

"I and this pack are lucky to have you Levi and I believe the goddess does have a plan for you." "So, what happened after I left." I feel bad telling him about my happiness when he is so miserable right now. "Archer, we have been best friends since we were kids." "Your happiness makes me happy, do don't feel bad telling me something good that happened." I smile at this man that is my best friend and Beta. I tell him everything that happened with Sabrina. "Oh, my goddess that's amazing." "I'm so happy for you Archer."

Sabrina POV

Willow, Tracey, and I pull up to the Hilton in town to pick my father up. "I'll be right back down, we're looking for Harold Ascot's room." She types a few things into the computer before she looks back up at a "He is in room 315." "Thank you, miss." I head for the elevator pushing the button for the third floor. Willow to head inside. "Dad, can I ask you something?" "Of course, you can?" "Did you leave mom because of me?" I feel like "We both sit down at the bottom of the bed. "My decision to leave your mother is in no way your fault much pressure on you." He takes my face in his hands.

"You are an amazing woman, mother, daughter, and nurse." He pulls me into a hug. He pulls back "the time before we head down and get into the car. "Hi Mr. Ascot" Tracey says. "Tracey you're a grown woman When we reach the gate, the guard opens it and we park the car. "What is this place, it's very secure" n "I think I'm going to like him" my dad says. We walk up the path till we reach the cottage. I open the door good, Fern is reading me a story."

"Dad this is Fern, Archer and Willow's, mom." "Fern, this is my dad, Harold." My father sticks out his hand making the cake I started." "Mama, can I help Fern make a cake." I smile "that's up to Fern."

She sticks her hand out and Gabby takes it as they leave the cottage. A few moments later a knock sounds on the door and I open it to a smiling Archer who scoops me up putting his head in my neck. I hear someone clear their throat and I'm sure my face is as red as a beet when I remember my father is sitting on the couch behind us. Archer POV

I finish up the paperwork after Levi leaves my office. I place the documents in the folder and lock my office door. I head back to the cottage to see about getting Sabrina and Gabby moved to the pack house. I wonder if she will want a separate room until we complete the marking and mating. Brutus growls in my head. "I already told you we will not rush her."

"So, you don't want to hold her while we sleep." "Of course, I do but she needs to want to because she comfortable with it." Once I reach the cottage I knock and she swings the door open. I can't help myself and I scoop her up into my arms placing my head in the crook of her neck where my mark will be. I hear someone clear her throat and I pull my head back to see a blush on her face.

I set her on her feet and she turns. I look to the couch and see an older gentleman I'm sure is her father. "Dad this is Archer." "Archer this is my dad, Harry." He doesn't move or say anything for several seconds. I've dealt with Alpha's and never was this nervous. After a few seconds he stands walking toward me. He sticks out his hand and I shake it. "It's nice to meet you. Archer." "It's nice to meet you too Harry."

Sabrina POV

I'm sure he is going to have questions about what's happening with Archer. "So, are you dating my daughter, Archer?" Archer laughs and I feel like a teenage girl again who brought her boyfriend home for the first time. "Dad I'm not sixteen." "I know that but it doesn't mean I can't ask him what his intentions are." "My intentions are to love your daughter Harry."

His statement shocks us both. I know what he said about mates but this is all new for me. "I think that's an excellent answer Archer." "Now where should I put my things, Sabrina?" "Sabrina will be moving into the larger house so this cottage is all yours Harry." "I'll show you to your room dad." I get up and my father follows me. He puts his bag down on the bed.

"Sabrina, I like Archer but please don't rush into anything without making sure he is not another Greg." I hug my dad. "I promise you he is nothing like Greg and I won't rush." We head back out and Archer is sitting on a chair that looks far too small for him. "Are you ready?" I turn to my dad "are you going to be ok if I head to check out my new room." "I will be fine, you go enjoy yourself." We walk out the door and Archer takes my hand leading me inside the house.

As we walk everyone is looking at us. Before we head up the stairs Archer turns to everyone around us. "I want to remind everyone that there will be no shifting around the pack house or cottages until I give the order." "Yes Alpha" they say in unison. We head upstairs till we reach the third floor. "This is our floor." He turns to me "do you want a room of your own until you feel comfortable sharing our room?" I wasn't expecting him to ask me this question.

I don't want to disappoint him but I've never been with any man but Greg. "How about for a little while so we can get to know each other better I'll stay in a separate room." "Sabrina you never have to worry about telling me what you want." I smile and go up on my toes to press my lips to his. That was a mistake, the heat I feel goes from my lips to my core. He wraps his arms around me and deepens the kiss. He pulls away once I'm breathless. I touch my lips "oh my god." "I hope that was a good oh my god, it was my first kiss." I snap my eyes up to his.

"Your first kiss with me or your first kiss ever?" He laughs "my first kiss ever." "Are you telling me that you're a" I can't bring myself to finish the question. He pulls me flush with his body. "You are the only woman I will ever touch or be inside." If my panties weren't already wet they would be with that statement. He kisses me one more time before he walks me down the hallway.

There is a large set of double doors at the end of the hall. "That is the room we will share when your ready." He opens the door right next to the room and it's beautiful. Almost exactly like my room in the cottage. "I guess you were right I love it." After I check the whole room out, he shows me the room next door that will be Gabby's. Again, it looks just like her room at the cottage. "Thank you for doing this for us." "You will never know how much it means to me." "I would do anything to make you happy Sabrina." Greg POV

I head over to the lawyer's office. My dad gave me his name after I told him that Sabrina left me and took Gabby. I need him to believe this is all her doing because he loves Sabrina like his own daughter.

When I get inside the receptionist shows me back. "Greg your dad told me you would be stopping by." "Thanks for seeing me, Charles." "So, what can I do for you?" "My wife has filed for divorce and I'm concerned she has my daughter in an unsafe situation." I tell him everything that Melissa told me. "I will absolutely help you get your daughter back." "Did you receive your court date yet?" "No sir, I was served about her filing but I haven't heard anything since." "I'm going to file for an emergency hearing regarding your daughter's well-being." "Thank you, Charles, I just want my little girl to be safe."

Unknown POV

"I can't be hearing you right." "You heard me perfectly fine, so just do what I asked of you." "We are talking about your son, your own flesh and blood." "He stopped being my flesh and blood when he chose a human over me and made me a rogue from my own pack."

"There is no going back once you do this Thomas." "Just sh*t the fk up and take the money."

"Did you even think about your mate?" He growls "I have no mate, she rejected me and the first chance I get I'm going to snap her pathetic neck." "I've always known you were a cold-hearted prick when you called on my services before but you are worse than I thought." He slams the money down on the table.

"I could give a sh*t less about your opinion, just let me know when you have the answers and a plan." "Nobody kills the human but me" Thomas says. "I want Archer to know this is all his doing when he watches his pathetic human mate die by my hands before we kill him." He gets up leaving the bar and I finish the beer I have in front of me.

I take the phone out of my pocket and press it to my ear. "Are you free tonight I have a new job and I'm going to need your help?" "Yes, he already gave me the money." "I'll be there in a half an hour." I hang up and settle my tab with the bartender.

I head outside and jump in my car to start the drive to the coven. I have no problem working for Thomas, I just hope this doesn't come back to bite me in the a*ss. Archer is no weak Alpha and if any part of this goes badly, we will all be dead. I value my life so Thomas better not grow a conscious. Sabrina POV

Once I grab our stuff from the cottage, I head to Gabby's new room first to put her things away. When I open her closet, I almost fall on the floor. It is filled with clothes and shoes in Gabby's size. I walk out of the closet and notice a bookshelf full of books. I walk across the room opening a toy chest that is filled with dolls and toys for my daughter. I'm fighting back tears at what this man has done.

I leave Gabby's room heading for my room and when I walk into the closet, I'm in shock. The closet is full of beautiful dresses, casual clothes, and scrubs. I can feel the tears rolling down my face as I look at the clothes.

Arms wrap around me from behind and I jump. "I'm sorry love I didn't mean to scare you." I turn in his arms pulling him down and pressing my lips to his. I'm sure he can taste my tears on my lips. He deepens the k!ss and honestly, I have never been more turned on and happy in my life. He pulls back "I take it you like the clothes." I slap his arm "it has nothing to do with the clothes although I do love them."

"Thank you for doing all of this for Gabby and me." He brushes the hair back from my face. "I will spend the rest of my life making sure that both of you know how loved you are." Did he really just use the word love? Can he really love me already because of the bond? I shake the thoughts away not wanting to let doubt creep in. I wrap my arms around his waist and he just holds me for a few minutes before we head down to check on Gabby. Archer POV

When we walk into the kitchen Gabby is sitting at the counter helping my mother frost a cake. She has frosting on her face and clothes. I laugh when I see her and they both turn in our direction. "Mama look at the cake we made." "It's beautiful little one." "What kind of cake is it sweet girl?" She looks to my mother "chocolate overload cake." She turns back to me "what Fern said."

We all laugh and they finish the cake. "We can have this after dinner tonight." She bounces on the chair like I gave her a million dollars. "Ok Gabby let's get you dressed up for our dinner date." Sabrina scoops her up and we walk upstairs together. She heads into her bedroom with Gabby while I head into my room to shower and dress for our date.

Once I'm showered, I come out of the bathroom with a towel wrapped around my waist and head into my closet. I put on a pair of black dress pants and a royal blue button-down shirt open at the collar. I throw some product into my hair before I throw my watch back on.

I head to Sabrina's room and knock. We will be having dinner in our private dining room on this floor. I don't want any interruptions during dinner. A few seconds later the door opens and I swear she takes my breath away. She is wearing a casual fuchsia dress that stops mid-thigh. Brutus pushes to the surfaces "you look hot mate." I push him back down and she smiles. "Sorry sometimes he wants to say his peace." She leans in and whispers in my ear "I don't mind at all."

Her breath on my ear sends a jolt down my body. Before I can say anymore Gabby bounces over. "Do you like my dress Archer?" I bend down "you are so pretty in your purple dress." "Do you like your new dress?" "Yes, it's my favorite color." I scoop her up and take Sabrina's hand, leading them both to the dining room.

"Oh my god" Sabrina says. The table is set and I take Gabby over putting her in the booster seat. Sabrina hasn't moved and I chuckle. I walk over leading her to her chair. I pull it out and she takes seat. I sit across from her with Gabby between us. When she looks down at Gabby's plate she starts to laugh. I smile, Gabby has spaghetti.

"I love that you have her favorite food but you know she is going to ruin that dress." "I'm not worried about it and neither should you." She smiles and I take the lid off our food.

She looks up at me "my favorite too, Tracey must have been busy spilling all my secrets." Sabrina POV

My plate has salmon, green beans, and mashed potatoes that look delicious. He laughs, "it's not her fault I bribed her for the secrets." "Bribed her with what exactly." "I offered her one of the cottages." I almost choke on the wine I'm drinking. "Are you kidding me right now?" "Not at all, she is going to be staying in the pack."

I can't believe this man. I get out of my chair going around to hug him before I take my seat again. "If I keep telling you good things, do I keep getting hugs?" I laugh "I don't know what else you could tell me." "I spoke to Willow and we would like for you and Tracey to work at the pack hospital." "Are you kidding me?" "Not at all, I will tell you Brutus isn't happy about it but I know how much you love being a nurse." I laugh, "why would Brutus be unhappy about me being a nurse." "We can talk about that later when little ears are not listening." I look over at Gabby who is really enjoying the spaghetti.

We finish up dinner and a woman I've never seen brings in the chocolate cake that Fern and Gabby made earlier. She cuts us each a piece. She sets mine down in front of me "enjoy Luna" she smiles. She sets one down in front of Gabby and then Archer. "Enjoy Alpha" she says before she leaves. I must look confused and Archer smiles. "Everyone in the pack has duties that are important to how the pack runs."

"No job is insignificant and I treat all my pack with the respect they deserve no matter their job." "Lisa is an omega and works in the kitchen." I nod and I put a bite of cake in my mouth. I moan with how good it tastes. I look at Archer and his eyes are black before they return to their beautiful chocolate brown color. "Are you alright?" "Yes, just try not to moan" he smirks and I know I'm blushing. Tracey POV

"Well so much for hanging out with Sabrina." "That's alright we can occupy ourselves." "What are we going to do?" "We have a game room in the main house that we can hang out in for a while." "Alright let's go check it out." We walk into the main house and down a hallway. When we go inside what Willow describes as a game room it looks like an arcade.

"Are you kidding me right now?" She laughs "we need to have things that can occupy the pack members since they spend their time in the territory." There is a pool table, multiple arcade machines, a fuss ball table, and skeet ball machines.

"Do you want to shoot pool?" "I've not really done it before but I'm willing to learn." Willow laughs "I'll do my best to teach you." She shows me how to hit the ball with the stick and of course I miss the ball on my first try.

The door opens and four guys walk in that look like models. I lean into Willow. "Are all male wolves hot or what?" She laughs and takes her shot. The guys head in our direction and Willow introduces me to James, Kyle, Troy, and William. Besides being hot as hell they all seem like very nice guys. I start to get in position to take my next shot and I hear James starts to laugh. "Tracey you've never played pool before have you." I shoot daggers in his direction.

"Let me show you what to do, your embarrassing yourself." He comes around wrapping his arm around my shoulder and lining the ball up. "Now pull back and hit it." I do what he says and I sink my first ball.

I start jumping around like a teenage girl and jump into his arms hugging him for helping me. "Thank you, that was awesome." I hear a growl that scares the st out of me and James sets me on my feet stepping back. What the fk is happening? I turn around to see the se.xiest man I've ever seen staring at me and he looks pissed.

Levi POV

I really am happy for Archer. I hate that he was worried about telling me after what happened with Melissa. Now that the bond is completely broken, I feel even better about my decision. She would never have been a good mate after all she did. I will keep faith that the goddess has something planned for me and Damien. I finish training and head upstairs to take a shower.

Some of the warriors are heading to the game room and convinced me to join them. I thought about going to the club but honestly I'm not in the mood for the loud music and women.

I step out of the shower and once I'm dried I head into my closet. I throw on grey sweats and a black t-shirt. I run my fingers through my w*et hair and leave it messy. It's not like I'm trying to impress someone tonight. I head down the stairs and when I reach the bottom Leslie is sitting on the couch. I am not in the mood to deal with her a*ss tonight. I try to walk down the hall toward the game room but I'm not lucky enough to make it without her noticing me.

"Levi where are you going?" I turn around, despite her not being able to take a hint as the Beta I try to remain kind even when I want to tell her to fk off. "I have plans with some of the warriors tonight." "I have something that you would enjoy more than hanging out with the boys." I roll my eyes. "I have explained this to you many times Leslie, I do not date members of this pack."

"I'm not asking to date, just think of it as friends with benefits until we find our mates." She starts to walk toward me and I put my hands up. "The answer is no and this will be the last time I tell you." She looks like I slapped her but I'm done trying to be diplomatic with my answer. I turn walking down the hallway. When I'm almost to the game room door the most intoxicating smell of chocolate and raspberry invades my nose. "Our mate is here, find her" Damien growls.

I follow her scent and open the door to the game room. My eyes land on James with my mate in his arms. Damien pushes to the surface and I let out a growl. I watch him set her on her feet and take a step back. He bares his neck and she turns toward me with a look of shock on her face.

She is a goddess and I say a prayer of thanks to the moon goddess for bringing me this second chance. Now what, I can't just claim her she's human. "Like hell you can't, she is ours." "I want my mate." "Shut up Damien, I want her too but she probably doesn't even know we exist." "She knows what we are Levi" I snap my eyes to Willow who has a smile on her face. My mate still looks confused by what's happening. Search The website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

I walk over to her and I hate that I can smell another male's scent on her. "Tracey this is Levi the Beta of the pack." "Levi this is Tracey, Sabrina's and my best friend." Tracey smiles at Willow. "We're going to leave you two alone so you can get to know each other" Willow says before she heads for the door. "Where are you going" Tracey says a little panicked and I pray that she accepts me. Tracey POV

When the sexiest man I've ever seen comes to stand in front of me I don't know what to think. I want to kill Willow when she introduces us and leaves. Why would he want to talk to me alone? "Tracey since you know about Sabrina and Archer you know what mates are correct?" Even his voice is sexy. "Yes, she explained that the moon goddess gives each of you a mate."

"Yes, she does." "I was given a mate but I had to reject her because of how she had hurt Sabrina." "That bch Melissa was your mate." He chuckles "she was but as I said I had to reject her." "Well thank God you did because she isn't a good person." He smiles "the goddess often gives us a second chance if our mate turns out to be like Melissa."

I stay silent because I'm not sure why he is telling me all of this. "Tracey you are my second chance mate." "No fking way." He bursts out in laughter. "Yes fking way." This man that is gorgeous, loyal to his friends, and is kind wants me forever. I must be having a dream. There is no way this is really happening to me. "What is your full name Tracey?"

"Tracey Jane Torn is my full name." "I, Levi James Crown, accept you Tracey Jane Torn as my mate." "That's awesome I accept you too." He smiles at me "you have to say it just like I did love." "Oh sorry, I, Tracey Jane Torn accept you Levie James Crown as my mate." He lifts me into his arms and I can feel warmth everywhere our skin touches. I don't even ask where he is taking me as he carries me out of the room and down the hall. As he starts up the stairs, I hear a woman call his name.

Levi POV

She speaks her mind and I love that. When she says she accepts me I can feel the bond starting to form. She is perfect and I'm so happy she is mine. I scoop her up and carry her down the hallway. I can't wait to mate and mark her. As we start up the steps, I hear Leslie say my name.

Son of bch, if this woman fks this moment up I will kill her. "Levi that woman called you" Tracey says to me. I turn and she is standing with her hands on her hips eyeballing Tracey. "What do you need Leslie" I say with a tone that leaves no doubt I'm pissed. "Who is your new friend?" "This is my mate, Tracey." She doesn't hide the disdain nor does she keep her mouth shut. "Your mate is a pathetic human."

Tracey wiggles out of my arms and I set her on her feet. "Why do you care who his mate is" Tracey asks. "He should be with a strong she-wolf like me and not a weak human like you." I'm just about to lose my sh*t on her when Tracey turns to me. "Have you ever been with this girl?"

"Never" I say. She turns back to Leslie "the only one who sounds pathetic here is a bch who wants something that doesn't belong to her." "Levi is my mate and you will do well to remember that." "I may be a human but I won't fight fair." I toss her over my shoulder and head toward my bedroom. Once we are inside I set her down and I try to calm myself before I scare her.

"Tracey I in no way want you to feel rushed and we can wait till you're ready" she cuts me off wrapping her arms around my neck. "I am yours and I want to be in every way, Levi."

I slam my mouth down on hers. I have never had a kiss like this in my life. I kiss her until we are both breathless. I pull back and pull the t-shirt over my head. I watch her eyes roam down my ch*est and back up to my face.

She pulls her own shirt over her head and her breasts are spilling out of the top of the b*ra. She reaches back and unclasps her b*ra dropping it to the floor. Her ns are a light pink and just like the rest of her they are perfect. I lift her up laying her down in the bed we will share. I kiss her again before I take her pants and panties off.

When she is bare before me, I am ready to lose it. I take my pants off and her eyes get big. "Holy sh*t your ck is huge." I laugh "is that going to be a problem."

"Not as long as you fit." "Your body was made for mine just as mine was made for you, I'll fit." She smiles and I crawl up her body. I kiss her lips again before I start to move down her body. I take her nple into my mouth swirling my tongue. She arches her back and I move my hand down her belly until I feel her w*et folds. I pay the same attention to her other nple before I move down until my face is at her core.

She lifts her head looking down at me and watches as I take a long !ck. "Oh my God Levi it feels so good." I smile and continue my work swirling my tongue around her cl*t while I push two fingers inside her pumping them in and out. "Levi I'm going to c*m." I bite down on her cl*t and push her over the edge. I !ck up all her juices before I climb back up her body.

"I would love to return to the favor" she says seductively. "I promise that I would love that but right now I need to be inside you." She grabs my a cheeks pulling me to her core. I line myself up and enter her slowly so she can adjust to my size. I can tell she isn't a virgin but neither am I. I don't care one bit, she is perfect. No other man will ever touch her again.

Once I'm seated to the root I start to move. As I pump in and out of her body, I can feel the bond getting stronger. It's amazing, I can feel Damien pushing to the surface wanting to mark her. "Tracey, can I mark you?" I touch where my mark will go. "I will bite you here marking you as mine." She doesn't even ask if it will hurt. "Yes, mark me and make me yours." I lick the spot before I extend my canines and bite down where her shoulder meets her neck.

She screams out but after a few seconds her screams of pain turn to screams of pleasure as she finds her cl!max. Her walls squeezing my ck pushes me over the edge and I empty my seed deep in her body." After a few minutes while we catch our breath, I roll off and pull her into my side.

"I hope you know you will be living here with me now and I'm never letting you go."
"That's good because I wasn't planning on leaving." I kiss her !ps one more time before we both drift off into a peaceful sleep.

Chapter 26

Sabrina POV

Dinner was wonderful and being with Archer feels so natural. When we finish, Gabby is covered in spaghetti sauce and she is ready for bed. I wipe her up the best I can and Archer picks her up from the chair. "Are you tired little one?" "No" she says as she lays her head on his shoulder. "No sleeping yet you need a bath, your covered in spaghetti."

Archer carries her to her room and I take her in my arms. "Can I help you put her to bed?" "Absolutely" I say and turn to head toward the bathroom.

"Can you grab me a pair of her pajamas from the drawer while I get the water started." I take her into the bathroom turning the water on. I set Gabby down on her feet, taking off her dress. Archer hands me her pajamas and heads back out to get her bed ready. Once the tub is full, I give her a quick bath and dress her for bed.

I carry her out and Archer is sitting on the floor by her bed with a book in his hand. This man is too good to be true. He doesn't just want me, he wants Gabby too. I lay her in the bed and pull the covers up over her. "Gabby, can I read you a story tonight" Archer asks her.

"Yes, please" she says, with the biggest smile on her face and sleepy eyes. It doesn't take long for her to pass out while Archer is reading. "Archer, she's asleep" I whisper. He stands up and kisses her forehead before I turn on her nightlight.

He walks me to my door a few feet away from Gabby's. "Thank you for a wonderful first date." He leans down kissing me like I'm the air he needs. "Love that's not a date that's our life from now on."

"Before I head to bed I was wondering if you're ok with me announcing you and Gabby tomorrow to the pack" "You will have a formal ceremony but I want everyone to know I've found you." "Do you think that's a good idea with me being human and not even divorced yet?"

He growls "that piece of paper means nothing to the pack and you are my Luna." "Anyone that has an issue with that can leave." I'm nervous but I've accepted him and all that comes with being his mate. "If you think it's a good idea then yes you can." He pecks my lips one more time before he heads to his bedroom.

Once I'm in my room, I head for the bathroom. I take off my dress after I adjust the water. I step into the shower and all I can think about is Archer. I hope that he is not making a mistake announcing me as his mate. I don't want to cause any problems with his pack. I know how crazy it sounds, but every minute I'm with him the quicker I'm falling for Archer Lyons.

Levi POV

I wake up and I'm alone. I look around and start to panic a little that I imagined last night until I hear the toilet flush. I smile, the door opens and a very naked Tracey comes walking toward the bed. "So, what are our plans for today mate?" I'm sure my eyes are black with lust and I pull her back into bed. After we make love two more times, we both head into the showers

As I wash her hair, I think about the difference a day makes. "So seriously, what are we doing today?" Her question brings me out of my thoughts. "I meant what I said last night about not spending another moment without you." "I can take you to your house and you can get whatever you need." She turns around looking up into my eyes. "I think that is an excellent idea. "What will you do with the house?"

"I was thinking about renting it out but I'm really not sure yet." "I had already planned on staying in the pack before we found out we were mates." I kiss her and we get back to showering.

We finish in the shower and I throw on jeans with a gray t-shirt. I head to the room that Tracey was going to use in the pack house and grab her bag. When I'm coming back out of the room, Willow is standing in the hallway with a huge grin on her face. "So, based on the fact that Tracey didn't come back to her room, I take it you got your mate." I can't help the smile. "We will be heading down to breakfast in a few minutes." "We will see you there Willow." I walk back to our room and hand Tracey her bag. She drops the towel she is wearing and Damien growls in my mind. "What the hell was that" she asks. I forgot I can link her and she can hear my thoughts if I don't have the block up. I chuckle "that is Damien, my wolf." She finishes putting her clothes on and comes to stand in front of me. "When do I get to meet him?"

"Did you hear that our mate wants to meet me?" "I heard, I'm right here." "After breakfast we can make introductions as long as he behaves." "Who are you telling to behave, I'm not a dog." She giggles "that must be a riot to have those kinds of conversations all the time." "I don't know about a riot but it can be interesting."

We head downstairs and Archer is already sitting at the table. Gabby is sitting between him and Sabrina. As I see Archer with his family, all I can think is I can't wait to have a pup with Tracey. I'm holding Tracey's hand when we walk into the dining room and Sabrina is the first to notice us.

The smile on her face puts me at ease. I didn't know how she would feel about me being mated to her best friend. Archer notices and when he sees Tracey's neck, he's out of his seat wrapping me in a bro-hug. "Congratulations Levi, I knew the goddess had a plan." "Thank you, I'm just glad you were right."

Sabrina POV

"Can someone fill me in on what's happening?" "Levi is my mate" Tracey says as she pulls her shirt down, exposing a mark on her neck. Willow comes rushing in. "Damnit, did I miss everything?" Tracey turns toward her, showing her the mark. Willow wraps her up in a hug. I'm on my feet and pull her into my arms when Willow lets her go. "I'm so happy for you, Levi is a really good guy."

"I know, I can't believe this is happening." "He is sweet, hot, and mine." I laugh, I love Tracey she is strong and honest. We all take a seat and start to eat breakfast. As I eat, I notice a girl two tables over that keeps staring at Tracey. I lean into Archer, "what's up with that girl that's mad mugging Tracey." He looks over and I can see he is pissed. "I'm going to announce you both now."

"Hopefully that will make it clear who Levi and I belong too." I love the way he says that he belongs to me. Archer stands and walks to the front of the room. It's amazing how the whole room quiets just from his presence. Archer POV Search the FindNOvel.net website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"Good morning, I have an announcement to make to the entire pack." All eyes are on me and I turn to Sabrina. "Sabrina, can you join me up here with Gabby please?" She picks Gabby up from her chair and joins me. I wrap my arm around her and I see my mother come in standing in the doorway with a smile on her face. "I'm happy to announce that I have found my mate and future Luna of the Scarlett Howl Pack." "This is my mate Sabrina Piper and my pup Gabby"

Most of the pack members start to hoot and show respect by baring their necks to us. I make note of those that do not look happy about my mate. They will be given the option to leave or accept Sabrina. Nothing else will be tolerated. "Levi and Tracey can you join us also."

Levi comes to stand next to me and pulls Tracey to his side. I can see the evil look on Leslie's face. That bch is going to be a problem I am more than happy to solve. "Levi has also found his mate and the pack's future Beta female."

"We will be having our formal ceremony very soon and I expect to see all pack members in attendance." "Yes, Alpha" is said in unison but again I take note of those that do not respond. "Thank you, enjoy the rest of your day."

We all take our seats and my mother joins us sitting next to Sabrina and Gabby. "Welcome to our family Sabrina" she says and hugs her. "Would it be ok if Gabby called me grandma unless you think it is too soon?" I love that my mother is getting a chance at her own happiness.

"That would be lovely" Sabrina says. "Gabby, do you want to call Fern grandma?" Gabby starts to bounce in her seat. "Yes mama, grandma Fern." "Then I get to be aunty Willow" my sister pipes up and the whole table bursts out in laughter. I know drama still needs to be dealt with, but in this moment my life is perfect.

Chapter 27

Archer POV

"Mom, do you think that you could keep Gabby so Brutus can spend sometime with Sabrina?" "Of course take Sabrina's hand. "Are you nervous because last time you met Brutus you passed out?"

She slaps my arm. "In my defense I had no idea that werewolves existed so I think I'll be fine this time might not be able to stay a gentleman." She laughs and once I have my clothes off, I shift into Brutus. Sabrina POV can find something to keep us occupied." "Do you want to hang out with Grandma Fern, Gabby" my mother asks. "Yes let's go." My mom takes Gabby and I reach the clearing and I start to take off my clothes. This time she doesn't hide that she is looking at my body. "Love, if you keep looking at me like that I lks toward her and lays at her feet.

It's still a shock to watch this beautiful man turn into a beautiful huge black wolf. He walks toward me sitting at my feet. I reach out my hand running it down his snout. I start to walk around him and run my hand down his soft fur on his side. He growls low and I know he's enjoying my touch. This is so surreal and I can't believe that someone thought I was special enough for this man and wolf. When I come to stand in front of him again, he shifts and a very naked Archer is standing in front of me. "Do you feel comfortable with Brutus taking you on a run?"

"He won't run full speed but he would like to take you." I nod and he turns back to Brutus. I climb on Brutus back and when he takes off, I grab handfuls of fur so I don't fall off. It doesn't seem to faze him and I lay my body against his back. It is the same feeling of warmth that I have when Archer touches me. I can't imagine how this feeling will get better, but Archer assures me it will. After he runs for a while, we return to the area where Archer's clothes are on the ground. He shifts get pressing and I want us to spend time together." "Can I ask you a question?" "Of course, you can, anything "Do you want to mark me?" He stops walking "I would love nothing more than to mark you as mine but we mark you as ours, we can't ever let you go." "Do we have to mate if you mark me?"

"Are you afraid to mate with me?" I put my hand on his face. "I can't wait to be with you and I know how for us."

"The answer is no we don't have to mate but it will be more painful if we do it without the mating." I t because Gabby is exhausted.

y this is going to sound, but I want the divorce to be final." "I don't want to have some sick guilt that I was still married ruining what will be a special moment hand again and we head inside to find Gabby. We spend the afternoon in the game room and watching a movie in the theater room. We have a quick dinner and end up in my room. Gabby isn't the only one that's exhausted, but when I finally make it into bed, all I can think about is my conversation with Archer about showing me over and over how much he cares about me and Gabby.

We get her ready for bed and Archer reads her a story. Archer walks me to my door and kisses me before marking. Why can't I just take this leap of faith? Tracey accepted Levi without even knowing him. Archer. I've said the words to accept him but I've not shown Archer how serious I am because of everything that has happened. I need to change that the first chance I get. Sleep finally takes me under and I dream of a future with my new family that is happy. Thomas POV

My desk phone rings and I'm hoping that Harris has some good news for me. When I pick up, I roll my eyes at the voice. "What do you want?" "Hello to you too, Thomas." "There had better be an actual reason you're calling me because I'm busy and I don't have time for games today." "Fine I won't tell you about your son's little announcement to the pack today."

I grit my teeth. "What announcement would that be?" "He introduced the pack to our future Luna and Beta Female who are both humans." "He also is claiming the human's pup." I start to squeeze the phone almost to the point that it snaps in my hand. I take a few deep breaths before I speak again, "Is she marked?"

"Levi's mate is, but I didn't see a mark on Archer's" I cut her off. "Don't refer to that weak pathetic human as a Luna or mate when you're talking to me." "I feel the same way Thomas, so what are we going to do to take care of the two of them?" I smile "I will call you when I have more details of the plan." "I know you so what do you want from me for your help?" "We can discuss that later, let's just say I'm not helping as a favor to you."

"I have something to gain if they are out of the picture." I hang up and sit back in my chair. Something is finally going right since my bastard of a son banished me and I will have my pack back very soon. Now I just need Harris to call me so I can make them pay for casting me aside. Archer POV

When I wake in the morning, I throw on a pair of jeans and a t-shirt after I take my shower. I never sleep in, so it's only seven in the morning. I walk past Sabrina's room and take in a deep breath, loving her scent. I want her to sleep so I stop and check on Gabby who is already playing with her toys. "Hey little one, do you want to help me make breakfast for mama?" She jumps up, leaving her dolls behind as she runs to me. I scoop her up, heading down the hall to our private kitchen.

"What should we make Gabby?" She puts her finger to her chin like she is deep in thought and I chuckle. "Pancakes, that's our favorite" she says in her tiny little voice. "Pancakes it is." I let her help me stir and add ingredients before I put her in the booster seat while I cook. I grab her milk and some fruit for her to munch on.

When the pancakes are almost done, I hear Sabrina calling Gabby's name in a panic. "Sabrina, we're in the kitchen." She walks in and goes over to kiss Gabby's forehead. "I'm sorry if it scared you, we we're making your favorite, pancakes for breakfast." She looks over at Gabby with a smile before she comes over and kisses me. She goes still forgetting that Gabby is in the room with us. When Gabby doesn't bring it up, she goes to take a seat next to her. I set her plate of pancakes down in front of her and bring her a cup of coffee before I join them. Sabrina POV

He is so good with Gabby although she has him wrapped around her finger. He is going to give her whatever she wants and I'm going to have to be the bad guy I have a feeling. "I'm sure you have work to do today since we spent the whole day hanging out yesterday." Before he can object, I put my hand up "Gabby is going to daycare and I'm going to check out the pack so you can do your work." Before he can say anymore his phone rings. He pulls it out of his pocket looking at the screen.

"This is my secretary, give me one minute." He puts the phone to his ear and based on the look on his face it is not good. I wonder what could have pissed him off so quickly.

"Send the email to my personal computer, thank you" he says and hangs up. "Is everything alright" I ask. I can see apprehension on his face. "Archer tell me what is wrong?" He looks down at Gabby. I grab her taking her into her room to play while we discuss his phone call.

I go to sit down but he takes my hand pulling me onto his lap. I'm just about to protest but it feels so natural. He takes a deep breath.

"Greg has been busy." "He has petitioned the court for full custody of Gabby because she isn't safe with you." I go to stand up and he holds me in place. "I will not lose my daughter to that man and his lies." He takes my chin in his fingers. "We will not lose Gabby, I promise you." I lay my head against his chest wishing that Greg would just go away.

Chapter 28

Archer POV

I love that she feels safe with me. We stay with her in my arms and her head against my chest for a long while. I just hold her, wishing that I could take her worry away. He will never have custody of Gabby. If I had that baard in front of me I would kill him right now. "You need to mark her in case we have to." "Enough Brutus, when she is ready I will mark her but I'm not going to make it a decision she has to make to protect us." "Fine but I'm sure she would want to protect you as much as you are trying to protect her." "I will think about it but right now I just need to comfort her and make sure that baard fails at whatever he is trying to do." "I know damn well this is not about him wanting Gabby."

I can feel the tears through my t-shirt and I pick her head up to look in her eyes. I wipe the tears from her cheeks with my thumb. "I promise you that we will never lose Gabby." "Do you trust me?" "I trust you completely." She leans in, pressing her lips against mine. I can taste her salty tears and all the feelings she has for me in that kiss. When she pulls away, she gets up from my lap and this time I let her.

"I'm going to get Gabby ready for daycare and head to the pack hospital with Tracey." "I am not going to let him ruin my day." I stand up and kiss her one more time. "When you're done come to my office and I'll have some answers about the email." She nods leaving the room and I head to my office to see exactly what the petition says.

Sabrina POV

Once I have Gabby dressed, I walk her down to the daycare. As soon as she sees her teacher, she lets go of my hand. I love how comfortable she is here. "Hello Ms. Kate" I say as she picks Gabby up. "Hello Luna" she says back. "You don't have to call me that I'm not Luna yet." She whispers "you are the Alpha's mate that makes you Luna in my book." I smile "thank you, Kate."

"I will see you at two Luna." I nod and head back up the path to the pack house. I feel like I'm being watched, but with everything that happened this morning I'm sure it is just me being paranoid. I look around and I don't see anyone so I push the thought out of my head. I head inside the pack house to find Willow and Tracey. As I start up the stairs and a few of the female pack members are staring at me. I'm sure they are wondering how a human became their Alpha's mate. I have wondered it myself. How did a simple human get blessed with this man. "Excuse me" I hear one of them say. I turn to a pretty brunette who smiles at me. "Hi what's up" I say casually.

"We just wanted to introduce ourselves and welcome you to the pack Luna." I smile "I'm the only one thinking I'm not good enough because I'm human apparently." "Thank you, what are your names?" "I'm Belinda, this is Jenny and Veronica." "It's very nice to meet you."

I hear someone clear their throat and I turn to see Fern. "Bye Luna" the girls rush off. "Hi Fern" I say before she hugs me. "Hello Sabrina, were those girls bothering you?" "Actually, they were just introducing themselves to me." "Good because I'm not above kicking some young a" I laugh "where are you off to?" "I was just going to find Willow and Tracey so we can go see the hospital."

"I'll take you to Willow's room since I need to talk to her anyway." We walk together and knock when we reach the door. The door swings open and Willow looks like she is ready to go in her scrubs. "Willow, before you head to the hospital, I would like to speak to you." She turns to me "Sabrina, will you give us a moment." "Of course" I say and stay in the hallway.

Willow POV

I'm excited to show Tracey and Sabrina the hospital today. I'm so happy they will be working with me in the pack. I throw on a pair of scrubs in case I'm needed while we are there. A knock sounds on the door and when I open it Sabrina and my mom are standing there.

"Good morning" I say. When my mother wants to talk to me alone, I have flashbacks to when my father was around. She closes the door and asks me to sit down. She takes a deep breath before she speaks. "Willow, I haven't had the chance but I wanted to apologize for pushing you to take a chosen mate."

"I realize that I should have stood up to your father for both you and Archer." I take her hand "I appreciate that you understand that I want my fated mate and I'm not upset about you going along with what dad wanted." "I'm just glad you realized that your happiness matters." She hugs me and we join Sabrina in the hallway.

Mom heads back downstairs and we head to the Beta floor. "Let's go see if we can pry our friend out of Levi's hands." Sabrina laughs and when we reach the door, I pound like we are the police. The door flies open to a half-naked Levi. "What the fk Willow?" "We are here for your mate." I look around Levi at a smiling Tracey who is covered in a sheet. "Get your a dressed we are heading to the hospital." Levi growls at me and Tracey jumps up with the sheet wrapped around her heading for the bathroom. "That was not cool Willow." I stick my tongue out at him before we take a seat to wait. "Sorry Levi" Sabrina says. "Don't be sorry, if it was up to him she would never leave this room."

"Will see how you feel when you find your mate." "I'll be pounding on your door then." I laugh "my mate will kick your a" Tracey comes out in a pair of jeans and a t-shirt. She rushes over to Levi, kissing him and I take her arm pulling her away. "Save it for later lovebirds."

We head to the hospital and once we are inside, I give the girls the full tour. "I can't believe the equipment you have" Tracey says. "We didn't even have some of this stuff in the hospital" Sabrina says. "Archer spares no expense when it comes to the well-being of his pack." "So, I know this sounds stupid but I'm going to ask anyway." "What should we know about treating werewolves since they didn't teach us that in nursing school."

"There is nothing stupid about that question Sabrina but honestly there is very little that is different." "Besides are terrible reaction to silver the treatments we do in the regular hospital apply here." "The only other difference is we heal incredibly quick." "How quick"

Tracey asks. "We are typically healed within minutes unless something like silver is involved." Archer POV

As I sit behind my desk and read the petition, I want to break something. The petition basically states that Sabrina has Gabby living in an unsafe environment that is detrimental to her safety and well-being. It also states that there are two witnesses willing to testify to the statements made by Gregory Piper.

I know for sure one of them is that bch Melissa who kept using the word cult before we kicked her a out of the territory. Who the fk could the other witness be? My phone rings and I pick it up on the second ring. "Archer Lyons, may I help you?" "Archer its Brian, I was wondering if tomorrow was still good for me to come sign the papers." "Absolutely, what time did you want to come?" "Around noon if that's ok and I was wondering if I can bring my sister."

"She is looking for her mate and she is driving me crazy." I laugh "that would be fine, we will see you at noon." "We, did you find your Luna?" "Actually, I did, you can meet her tomorrow." "Congratulations, I can't wait to meet her." I hang up and make some calls about the petition. Greg is going to be very sorry he pulled this sh*t.

After we finish the tour, we head to the hospital cafeteria and grab lunch. This isn't regular hospital food, its actually good. "So, how's it going with Levi not that I need to ask based on the scene this morning." "It's amazing I have never felt anything like this in my life." "I'm so in love with everything about this man." "I'm happy for you Tracey."

"You deserve this so enjoy it." "You deserve Archer too you know." "She is right Sabrina, my brother is very lucky to have gotten you as a mate." I smile because I love these two women like sisters. "I do have to talk to Levi though about the s*x" she whispers. "What about it?" "Let's just say that he hasn't used protection once."

"I'm on birth control but you know that I could still get pregnant." "I just want to make sure he isn't going to freak out if it happens." Willow laughs "if you get pregnant Levi will dance through the pack singing that he is having a pup."

"You should still talk to him but I've known him all my life he wouldn't freak out." Talking about pregnancy a thought pops in my head. When was my last period? With everything going on I haven't really thought about it. I take the phone out of my pocket and go to my menstrual cycle app I use. When I look down at the screen I want to throw up. This cannot be happening right now.

"Hey what's up with you, you look like you just saw a ghost." I snap my head up and they both are staring at me. "I'm fine" I say putting my phone away. "Like hell you are, don't lie to me Brina." "What was on the phone?" I take a deep breath "I'm a week late for my period."

Harris POV

I'm on my way to the bar to meet with Thomas. He wants to know what I found out about the human. I pull in and park my bike before I head inside. Thomas is sitting in a booth in the corner, out of the way of prying ears. I don't have Thomas' sense of smell since I'm not a wolf, but I'm sure he has checked the room before we talk. I take a seat across from him. The waitress appears and bats her eyelashes at me. The curse of what I am is that women throw themselves at me.

Most men would love that, but honestly it gets old fast. "Can I get a beer?" "You can get anything you would like, handsome" she says walking away. I roll my eyes and turn back to Thomas. "So what did you find out" he says like he is a kid and I have candy. He really is a pr*ck. Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"She is a twenty-four human nurse." "It better be more than that for what I paid you." "Calm down there's more." "She is married to Gregory Piper who is a police officer and they share a three-year old daughter named Gabby." "She is fking married and she is at the pack with my son." "She has already filed for divorce because apparently our friend Greg like the ladies."

"Besides the marriage and divorce your telling me things I already know" he bites out. "Careful Thomas I'm not one of your weak wolves to be barked at." "I am telling you the information I have gathered as you asked whether you know it or not." He settles back and I continue. "I spoke to one of the women I know at the courthouse and Greg has petitioned for full custody of their daughter because he feels she is unsafe living with Sabrina."

"It said that two witnesses will testify that Sabrina is putting the child in harm's way." "Do you know who the witnesses are?" I smile "isn't that why you paid me all that money?" "Just spit it out Harris, I don't have time for your bulls*t today." "One is a nurse she worked with at the hospital named, Melissa Granger."

"The second one made me think of you actually." He looks at me confused. "I believe its her mother, Lith Ascot." He smiles like he won the lottery.

"That's helpful Harris, now what do you have for me from your witch friend." "The jobs between us have always been about supernaturals and the more I thought about it I won't give you anything to kill an innocent human." He rolls his eyes at me.

"All the sudden you have a moral compass." I show him the vile that Tabitha made for me. Tabitha doesn't care she just gives me what I ask for as long as the money is good. "What the hell is it?" "It is a potion of compliance." "Once she drinks it, you will be able to get her away from the pack easily with just a command."

"There are two doses in this vial in case you screw up." "I know what your plan was but now that I know what she is and that she has a child I will not help you kill her." "Are you kidding me, you of all people have a soft spot for humans and children?"

"I thought your kind didn't have hearts." I don't even give him the satisfaction of a response. "You can make your son suffer just by taking his mate away, there is no need to kill her." "If he believes she left him he will be weak and vulnerable." He goes to take the vial from my hand. "I promise I won't kill her." I pull my hand back.

"Thomas, what do you take me for?" "I have known you long enough to know you are not trustworthy." "We will sign a blood oath, or I will not give you the potion." "With your reputation in the supernatural community, you will be hard pressed to get a witch to help you." I can see he wants to rip my head off but I could care less. "Your choice, so make it before I walk out of here with the potion."

"Oh, and by the way don't call on me again, I don't like doing business with you." "Fine I'll sign the damn oath." After we seal the oath with blood, I hand him the vial. "I have a feeling you're going to regret these decisions and honestly bad things couldn't happen to a more deserving ahole" I say before I walk out of the bar. Unknown POV

My phone rings and I put it to my ear. "Hello Thomas" I say seductively into the phone. He growls "you know better than to use my name." "I let it go once but I won't again." "Fine, hello Alpha." "I need you to meet me outside the pack, I have something for you." "I'm not interested in fking you again Thomas." He growls "I don't mean s*x you bch." "Do you not want the humans gone or not."

"Fine, where do you want to meet." "Meet me at the diner in town at five and don't bring your stupid little friends." "You didn't mind the last time I brought my friends to one of our meetings." He hangs up without a response. Thomas was fun in the beginning, but I have a different Lyons in mind now. No pathetic human will be my Luna.

Sabrina POV

I feel sick to my stomach as the words leave my mouth. Tracey takes my hand and squeezes it. "It doesn't mean you're, you could just be late for some other reason." "Look how much stress you have been under." "What if it's not, what if I'm pregnant?" Willow takes my other hand "then we will welcome another pack member and I will have a new niece or nephew."

"Do you really think your brother is going to be happy about me having another baby by Greg?" "If you haven't already realized it my brother loves you and would love anything that is a part of you." "I know this sounds horrible but I pray I'm not pregnant." "That doesn't sound horrible at all."

"Let's find out if there is really anything to worry about before you make your self sick" Willow says. "Do you want to do a dipstick or just go right to a blood test?" "I would rather do the blood test so I know for sure." "That one will take longer but its the most accurate as you know."

We head to the lab and Willow takes my blood. "It will be at least an hour before we find out." "I have to go to meet with Archer about Greg's petition." They both hug me "he will never get her Brina" Tracey says as she pulls away. I walk out of the hospital with a million thoughts running through my mind about court and a possible pregnancy.

I feel like my life is one sh*t storm after another right now. The only thing keeping me sane is my family and friends. I reach the pack house and head up to Archer's office. Before I reach the office, I can hear him yelling. I didn't even think he yelled. Suddenly, the office goes quiet and the door opens.

Archer POV

I've made phone call after phone call to get that ahole's petition thrown out without success. "John, this is fking ridiculous he has no solid proof to stand on." "Archer, you know how bad it looks when one of the witness's is Sabrina's mother." "She is no kind of mother and this is bulls*t and you know it." "Archer, I'm with you and we will just have to prove its wrong it court."

When he says about proving it in court I'm hit with Sabrina's scent. "I have to go John, I'll call you later." I pray she didn't hear all that. I plan on telling her everything, but I don't want her to hear it that way. I walk over to the door and open it. Based on her face I know she heard me.

"What's going on Archer?" I lead her inside and pull her onto my lap. Again, she doesn't fight me which I'm glad because I need her close right now. I take in her scent before I start. "I tried to get the petition thrown out but because of one of the witness's they want to hear the case." "Who are the witnesses Archer?" "Melissa and your mother" I feel her freeze in my arms.

"My mother is trying to have Gabby taken away from me?" "What kind of mother does that to her own child?" I take her face in my hands. "She is no kind of mother and she is exactly like my father, selfish." "I will never allow it to happen I promise." She bursts into tears "I can't take anymore Archer, I really can't." "Everything is going to work out."

"You might feel differently after my pregnancy test results come back." "Sabrina, what are you talking about?" "I'm a week later for my period."

"I pray that I'm not pregnant by that monster but I might be." I pull her to my chest. "Why didn't you tell me when you first came in?" I didn't want to tell you at all but I don't want secrets between us." I take her chin in my hands. "No secrets Sabrina only truths." "No matter what the test shows you are mine."

"The pup will be mine." She looks in my eyes "Archer, I want you to mark me." "Don't make this decision because of all these things that are happening." "Look at me Archer, this decision has nothing to do with Greg, the possibility of a pup, or my mother's betrayal." "You are my mate and I'm never letting you go." I slam my mouth down on hers.

A knock sounds on the door and I release the kiss. Willow rushes in with Tracey on her heels. "You're supposed to wait until your told to enter Willow." "Shut up Archer I need Sabrina and it can't wait." "Sabrina, we need to talk to you right now in private." "Whatever you need to say can be said in front of me Willow." "That is not your decision Archer."

"Willow its ok, I have no secrets from Archer." "He knows about the test and the possibility of me being pregnant." "No you're not." "Say it again" I say praying I heard her right. "Your test is negative, you are not pregnant." The relief I feel can't be imagined and I start to cry again. I have never cried this much in my life. Willow and Tracey hug me before they leave..

Archer scoops me up and carries me over to the couch. "Now, before we were interrupted with the good news, we were discussing something." "You mean how I want you to mark me as yours." He growls and I can see Brutus is at the surface.

"Finally" he says before his black eyes turn back to the chocolate brown ones I love. Love, that's what this is, love. I thought once I knew what it was with Greg but it was never like this. "I love you Archer and I want you to mark me." "I love you, Sabrina." He kisses me and I can feel the love in our kiss. "Let's go pick up Gabby and tonight you will stay in our room." I'm just about to protest.

"If you really want me to mark you I will need you close." "I promise I will not do anything until everything is final and you are ready." "How did I get this lucky?" "This is what you always deserved, I'm just happy I'm the one who gets to give it to you." He kisses me one more time before we head to get Gabby.

Chapter 30

Archer POV

I take Sabrina's hand as we walk on the path to the daycare. I know that we have a lot going on in our lives right now, but the fact that I will mark her tonight is the only thing I'm focusing on. "Archer, how does the marking work?" "Brutus will come to the surface and my canines elongate for me to pierce your skin right here." I touch her marking spot with my index finger and I see her shiver at my touch. I see the concern on her face, I'm sure about the amount of pain my bite will cause. "Sabrina, if your scared of the pain, we can wait till we mate." "It's not that, I know your marking me, so that other males know that I am yours but I can't mark you." I stop and turn her toward me. "Marks to our kind are like wedding bands to yours." "Once we take this step we will be married in the eyes of my kind." I wait to see panic at my words but I see peace in her eyes. "I promise you that we will put your mark on me in a different way."

"Archer, do you ever wish that you just got a girl wolf for a mate so you could have all these things like marking and a wolf for Brutus." Brutus growls in my mind and this time I let him come to the surface. She needs to hear from him as much as me. Brutus POV

Amazingly enough, Archer doesn't stop me when I push forward after I hear Sabrina talk about what w hissing out on with her. I pull her into me holding her tight and breathing in her scent. "Mate I don't think you understand how much Archer and I love you already." "Brutus" she whispers with a smile on her face and if we weren't outside, I would show her its me. Yes Sabrina, I know Archer could say it better than I can but I'm going to say it anyway."

"You are the only mate we want." "I don't need a wolf I have you." "Archer doesn't care that you can't b because you have marked him already." She looks at me confused. "Marks are not just about the things you can see." "They are about the feelings and love that we share with our mates." "We both love you and don't need a mark on our skin to prove that." "We will never touch, love, or even think about another woman the way we think about you." I see a single tear slide down her cheek. Sh*t I should have let Archer tell her he's better with words. She reaches up, pulling my mouth down to hers When she pulls back, she is smiling. "Archer could not have said that better." I puff out my chest and kiss her one more time before I let Archer come forward. Archer POV

I will never hear the end of what she said to Brutus. Once I come forward, I kiss her again before we finish the walk to the daycare. Gabby is waiting outside for us with Kate. "Good afternoon, Alpha and Luna" she says. I love the way that sounds coming from one of my pack members.

"Good afternoon, Kate." Gabby reaches for me and I pick her up. "Archer, her name is Ms. Kate." I laugh I'm sorry little one, Ms. Kate." Sabrina covers her mouth with her hand. I'm sure to hide her smile for me being corrected by my daughter. We say our goodbyes and start back up the path. have nothing else this afternoon." "That reminds me, Alpha Brian Davis will be coming with his sister tomorrow to sign papers."

"Archer I would like to stop and see my dad to talk about my mother." "Do you have time to stop with "His sister is coming to see if her mate is in our pack." "I was hoping you could meet him with me." "Archer, Jam to be your Luna." "I'm sure there is more to being Luna than just being your mate." I chuckle, "you are going to be an amazing Luna." I kiss her forehead. "I want a kiss too" Gabby says. We both kiss her forehead. I'm so in love with this pup.

Sabrina POV

We reach the cottage and knock on the door. The door opens and my father is standing there smiling. I love to see him happy. I never realized how unhappy he was. "Hey dad, are you busy?" "No, actually Fern and I were just having some tea." I look past my dad to Fern sitting at the table.

Archer stiffens next to me. We walk in and Gabby kisses my dad and Fern before she runs to the bedroom with books. "Mother, what are you doing" Archer asks. "I was telling Harry about our kind since he is my new mate." I'm sure I look like a cartoon character and Archer looks like he is about to lose it.

"Calm down Archer that was a joke." I burst out laughing but Archer doesn't think it's funny. "That is not funny mother, that would make Sabrina and I step siblings." "I know that's why it's funny." I go over and hug Fern. "What would possess you to tell Harry about us without talking to me first?" "Sit down Archer, you may be Alpha but I'm still your mother." Archer comes over and sits down next to me.

I rub circles on his back. "Dad, are you ok with everything Fern told you." "I'm more than ok with it." "I'm glad you finally found a partner that loves you the way you should be loved no matter what he may be."

"Harry, we would like you to stay in this cottage permanently." "I have some people that are going to come by to make any changes to the decor you would like." "Honestly, I like it just the way it is and I would love to stay to be close to my girls." "Thank you, Archer" my dad says.

This is amazing my dad is going to be here. "Archer, I would like you to file the papers for a divorce from Lilth as soon as possible." "She is actually the reason I came to see you dad." I can see my dad's smile fade.

"What has she done?" "Greg has petitioned for full custody of Gabby because she isn't safe with me." My father slams his hands down on the table. He turns to Archer "can you just eat him and do the world a favor?" Archer smiles and laughs. "Dad, no one is eating Greg." Search the website to access chapters of novels early and in the highest quality.

"He has two witnesses listed in the petition." "Don't even tell me your mother would stoop that low." "I'm sorry dad, I wish I didn't have to." "She is no longer my mother as far as I'm concerned." "I'm so sorry Sabrina" my dad says. I get up and go around the table to hug him. "Don't you ever say you're sorry for anything she does." "I am grateful every day to have you as my father." We spend more time with my dad and Fern before we head to the pack house. "Thank you for offering for my dad to stay and the cottage." "He is my family now too and you never have to thank me." Harris POV

"Just go talk to him Harris." "I have never seen you give a sh*t about any of your jobs before, so if this one bothers you just go and make it right" Tabitha yells at me. "Fine, I'll go but if he kicks my a it's on your head Tabby." "I'm sure you can handle yourself with the wolf."

I head out of Tabby's cottage and get on my bike. As I head toward the pack, I think about all the ways this could go and I must be crazy for getting involved. I don't understand why this one is bothering me so much. I reach the pack gate and park my bike. I stay back about fifty feet as the wolf guard comes to the gate.

"What business do you have here?" "I am here to see your Alpha." I watch him link before he looks back to me. "I'm to take you to his office but if you try anything I'm to kill you." "I'm not here for trouble wolf." He opens the gate and I hop on my bike to follow him up to the pack house. I park my bike again before I get off and follow him inside.

As I walk through the house, I can feel the stares of the wolves. It doesn't bother me. I know they don't trust my kind. When I reach the office, the wolf knocks and opens the door. I've never met Archer in person because he is nothing like his father. He must look like his mother because he looks nothing like his baard father. "Take a seat Harris." His use of my name throws me off.

"Yes, I know who you are and I'm confused why you would want to speak with me." "I am not my father." "I do not need your services." "Actually, I'm here to warn you about your father." He growls "what has he done?"

I tell him everything, including the potion I provided his father. "Harris, what made you come to me today?" "I know that you are not a man of honor so why was this different."

"Honestly, Archer, I think it was about the little girl." "My soul is stained by my past but I've never hurt children and the fact that he was willing to take your mate away from her child didn't sit right with me." Archer stands and comes around the desk. He reaches out his hand to shake mine and I stand taking his.

"Thank you, Harris for doing the right thing no matter the reason." I nod and he turns for the office door. "I'll walk you out." I follow behind Archer until we reach the bottom of the stairs. As we head for the door a group of women walk toward us and I stop when one looks in my eyes. I hear her whisper "mate" as I say "beloved." No fking way.
