

Her Fated Human Mate

Her Fated Human Mate Chapter 56

Maddox

POV

We arrived two days ago, but with the coronation ceremony we haven't been able to sit and discuss the witch that approached Archer's mate. Now that it's over, I'm eager to figure out exactly what witch is threatening the future queen and the unborn pup. I head to the pack house to meet with Ruby and Maverick. I have the royal warriors placed around the pack borders. We will be here until the witch is dealt with. I can feel the protection spell around the pack and I know that they have nothing to fear. I would have trouble disrupting this spell. A young girl notices me step into the pack house and leads me to the Alpha's office. I didn't have the heart to tell her I knew where I was going. She bows and heads back down the stairs. I knock and a few moments later the door opens. "Good morning, Maddox", Ruby says. She heads back to her mate, who pulls her onto his lap. I chuckle "should I come back later" "No, of course not. Maverick and Gaylen are really possessive now that I'm pregnant. I should say more possessive", Ruby says. "Congratulations, that is wonderful news." "Please don't say anything to my aunt yet. They are coming to the pack tomorrow for a visit and we want to tell them about the pups." "I'm sure they will be thrilled. I can tell they miss all of you but they are settling in. Loreli loves Serina and Ella." "I'm glad, we miss them too, but I would do the same to keep our pups safe." "Do Ella and your nephew know they are fated mates?" I smile "no everyone agreed that it should happen naturally. They will spend a lot of time together, so they may realize it before they turn eighteen. Especially if Ella gets her wolf early." The door opens and Danica walks in, followed by Tabby. I'm glad that Tabby is on the light side of magic because she is one of the strongest witches I have ever seen next to the Queen. They both bow to me. "I promise you that isn't necessary. We are essentially family and I expect you to treat me as such." "How old are you Maddox," Tabby asks. "Tabby, what the hell are you asking him that for," Ruby says and I can't help the laugh that escapes me. "It's fine, I know most people are curious since my brother is the King of Werewolves. I'm actually twenty-four. Micah is obviously the oldest and he is thirty. I have an older sister who is twenty-seven and a younger sister who is twenty-two.

Cordilla is older and Calista is the baby. If you ever meet her though, just call her Cali. She hates being called by her full name." "So you haven't found your mate yet" Tabby says and Ruby shakes her head. "Not yet, but I'm hopeful I will find her soon. I have waited for her and I will continue to wait until I find her. Our mother sat both me and Micah down and threatened us both if we didn't wait for our mates." "Maybe we should talk about the witch before Tabby asks you your shoe size", Ruby says, and Tabby rolls her eyes.

"Danica, what I would like to do is look into your memories. I may not know the witch, but I have a friend that probably will." She nods and I move closer to her. I place my forehead against hers and begin to flip through her memories. I find the day in the mall and watch as the witch approaches her. I'm just about to break the connection when a loud growl shakes the room. I look up to see a very pissed-looking Archer. I step back and Danica wraps him in her arms. "Archer, calm down. Maddox is helping us with the witch, you know that." "Sorry Maddox, I just wasn't expecting to see you touching my mate", Archer says. "I get it. I'm sure I will be the same way when I find my mate." He smiles and we all take a seat. "I will be going to meet with someone who should be able to tell me how to find the witch that approached you in the mall. Depending on her abilities, I may be able to eliminate the threat today." "I'm going with you. I know your strong but it never hurts to have back up" Tabby says. I link Jiselle to make sure that she won't mind Tabby tagging along. She gives me the OK and I open the portal.

As soon as we step through the portal, I hear Tabby gasp behind me. "Maddox, where are we right now?" I look around the throne room and back at Tabby. "The castle of the Queen of Witches." "This is your witch friend. Are you kidding me?" "No, I have known Maddox since we were children" Jiselle says as she makes her entrance. She loves to be dramatic. "Tabitha Crane, it is a pleasure to meet you", Jiselle says, and Tabby seems speechless. I hold back the laugh that she isn't asking her a million questions. She finally finds her voice. "It's a pleasure to meet you, your majesty." "That is completely unnecessary. This is not a formal meeting. Please call me Jiselle. I have heard many wonderful things about you and your magic. The Scarlett Rose pack is lucky to have such a wonderful light witch as family." "Thank you, Jiselle" Tabby says before Jiselle turns to me. She walks over and I give her my hand. She closes her eyes and after a minute her eyes fly open. I see a mixture of anger and sadness in them. "I want you both to be out of sight when I call her." I'm confused but Tabby and I do as she asks. Raya POV

"Raya, they haven't left the pack lands and none of the warlocks have been able to break through the protection spell", Phillip says. "It's a fking wolf pack. How the fk could they get a witch to put a protection spell on them? I don't care how long I have to wait. That pack is going to suffer. I can't get to that little bch or her parents while they are in the werewolf castle, but hurting their family will make them suffer until I can. My sister doesn't get to have a future and if it's the last thing I do neither will that little red wolf." I'm about to say more when I feel Jiselle reaching out to me. Jiselle is older than me and truly she has been my mentor. I wouldn't be as strong as I am without her help. "Jiselle is summoning me. We will talk about this more when I get back. We may be able to draw them out by using their precious werewolf law against them. If I ask to speak to the Alpha, they will have no choice and I can use him as leverage." I don't wait for Phillip's response before I open the portal and step through. Jiselle is standing in front of her throne. She looks upset and I rush forward. She raises her hand before I reach her. I stop and look at her with confusion.

"Show me your magic, Raya." "What's going on, Jiselle?" "We have been friends for a very long time, Raya. I know that losing your sister hurt you, but we talked about her misdeeds. The werewolves were well within their rights to defend their pack and pups." "She was barely eighteen. They should have held her and let us deal with her. She was misled by her blood-sucking mate." "Raya, show me your magic. Do not make me command you", Jiselle says, and I know I don't have a choice. I place my hand palm up and magic begins to swirl in the air. The energy ball that was once pure white is now black as night. I can see disappointment in her eyes. "They killed my sister. I don't care the reason. She was my sister and they took her from me. They will all suffer for what they have done. I don't care if she is meant to be queen, she doesn't deserve to live when my sister is dead." A growl shakes the room and my head whips in its direction. The most gorgeous man I've ever seen walks toward me. I notice a witch standing behind him. As soon as our eyes meet, my heart squeezes in my chest. "Beloved" I whisper. He shakes his head and I wish I could see more than anger in his beautiful blue eyes.

"What is your name" he asks. I drop my gaze and I refuse to answer him. "Raya Melanie Passa", Jiselle says, and I can't believe she would betray me like this. I try to call on my magic to leave this place before he can say another word, but I can't. "I, Maddox Michael Thorn, reject you, Raya Melanie Passa, as my mate and Royal Beta Female." The pain in my chest is like nothing I have ever felt. I fall to my knees. "You didn't even give me a chance" I say to him as tears run down my cheeks. I can tell the rejection is affecting him, but he is trying to remain impassive. "You have allowed your thirst for revenge to change the woman you once were. The moment your magic turned black I could never accept you. That little girl is part of my family. You threatened to hurt my family and no matter what your reason, I will never allow that. Accept my rejection because I want a chance at a mate that is worthy of me. A mate that knows the difference between right and wrong." His words are like a knife and I didn't think anything could hurt worse than losing my sister, but this does. Jiselle comes to stand next to him.

"Accept his rejection, that is an order" she says. I fight against it but I can't stop the words from spilling from my mouth. "I, Raya Melanie Passa, accept your rejection." After a few seconds the pain stops but my heart is broken. "How could you" I say to Jiselle. "Raya Melanie Passa, for your threats against the future Queen of the Werewolf Kingdom and threats against the Scarlett Rose Pack you will be sentenced to life imprisonment." She hugs the man that should be my beloved and the witch before they both disappear. She waves her hand and we are no longer in the castle. I look around and I have no idea where we are. It looks like a tropical island with a compound in the middle. She waves again and this time I'm inside a cell. I can already tell that the cell and building are enchanted. "I have spared your life because of our past, Raya, but make no mistake, you will never leave this cell again. I'm disappointed that you would let yourself be corrupted in such a way. I will check on you from time to time. The guards will provide for your basic needs." "Don't bother, you chose your side Jiselle. You are a traitor to our kind and a pathetic queen" I say before I turn away from her. I don't care how long it takes or what I have to do, but I will not die in this cell. When I get out they will all pay, including Jiselle.
