

I AM VARDY

Chapter 19 - Buy a car as soon as possible

Under the leadership of Moyes, Valdy came to the locker room of the training ground. On the way, Valdy could not help but sigh. Everton was really a small ball club. The training ground was so broken that even Manchester United's youth training venue could not catch up.

Although the history is longer than Liverpool, the enemy of the same city, it still can't change the fact that it is weak. This is probably the everlasting pain of Everton fans.

Vardi doesn't care about these things. It is important to play with the ball. It doesn't matter where you play and who you play with.

"Guys, I brought you a good guy, Jamie Vardy, which we rented from Manchester United. David, I will hand it to you next!" After that, Moyes dumped the pot to the team. After the old captain Will, Shi Shiran turned and left.

Perhaps Manchester United's name made Everton's players a bit disappointed, and everyone didn't react for the first time.

After a few seconds, Will came over and reached out to Valdy.

"I am the team captain David Will, welcome you to join Everton!"

Vardi unconsciously reached out and held the captain's hand together, but he was a little puzzled by the captain's old face. This should be regarded as a middle-aged uncle!

Isn't it right? Will, born in 70 years, is 34 years old and is exactly twice the age of Valdy.

If you let Will know that Valdy is defamating his age, it is estimated that he will not have a good face for Valdy.

Next, under Will's leadership, Valdi and his teammates greeted each other. Some people were enthusiastic and some talked coldly. This is expected by Valdy. He is not a pound and does not require everyone to like himself.

But to his surprise, he didn't see the Chinese player Li Gang, so he pretended to ask curiously: "I heard that there is a Chinese player in the club, whose physical strength is not so strong, why didn't I see him?"

Did not wait for Will to reply, Baldhead Gravesen sulked and muttered: "My old man is very unlucky, he broke his bones in the national team game, I am afraid it will be difficult to return to the court this season!"

In the half of Li Gang as Everton's main season, he was partnering with Graveson in the midfield, so the two have a good relationship, and Graveson also regrets Li Gang.

Vardi showed an expression like this, and felt sorry for him. If he had the opportunity to fight alongside him, it would be interesting to think about it.

"You are really only 17 years old? Isn't that younger than Rooney?" Martin, the team's main goalkeeper, asked curiously.

Vardy knew why he asked that. Judging from his appearance, he was older than Captain Will. He felt that his long beard was about to turn white. It must be no problem to pretend to be Santa Claus in a few years.

Vardi felt that he should not hit the elderly at this time, so this was a nod and no opening.

But Martin still feels sour. He was born in 66 years and even his son is so big. Now such a kid has actually become a teammate with himself. It seems that his era is really going to pass.

The other teammates laughed unscrupulously, and the locker room atmosphere was very harmonious. Even McFadden and Chadwick looked at Vardy with a lot of friendliness. In their ideas, Valdy was only 17 years old. , Certainly cannot threaten their playing time.

But then on the training ground, Valdi's performance surprised everyone.

"Are you kicking the stimulant this morning?" Gravesen's pirate face was a little greenish.

The other teammates also looked like hell, especially the two young speed forwards, not to mention how ugly their faces are.

As for Moyes on the sidelines, he was a smug look. This is a player he introduced himself, how could he not know!

Vardy shrugged, "You know, I haven't tried my best!"

The stinky look made everyone want to press him down on the ground a hundred times.

At the end of training, it was like being in the Manchester United youth training camp. Several defenders in the team looked at Vardy with grievances in their eyes, and they felt like a mistress abandoned by the chaos.

Perhaps from now on, no one will dare to underestimate the newcomer Valdi.

Everyone knows that the main tactical system of Moyes is defensive counterattack, and how much a super fast forward can play a counterattack is unknown to everyone. I am afraid that it won't take long for Vardi to integrate into Everton. In the tactical system, he will become Moyes's darling!

McFadden and Chadwick are full of a sense of crisis. If Valdy is really favored, then they will have no future in Everton.

The first day of training allowed Vardi to quickly integrate into the team, but he also knew that he still had a long way to go to play.

Because he hasn't gotten to his teammates yet, Valdy still rides his bike home. UU reads the book www.uukanshu.com, which makes his unscrupulous teammates laugh at him.

Each time Vardi was drove by his teammate, the teammate would open the window and greet him with that extremely annoying joking expression, making Vardy's face black again and again.

He swears that as long as the money is in place, the first thing is to buy a car.

In fact, more than a month after signing with Manchester United, the salary paid to them also exceeded 5,000 pounds. However, if you want to use this 5,000 pounds to buy a car, you can only buy the lowest grade car. I am afraid that it will still be laughed at by teammates, so Valdy decided to save some time and buy a high-end car instead!

Back home, Valdi ordered a pizza delivery and lay on the sofa to watch TV. The life of young players is actually very boring. He has no way to go to the nightclubs before the age of 18, and the rich nightlife in England is also Missed with him, only two points and one line in the training ground and home.

The night was long, and Valdy still felt that he should find something for himself to pass the time, so he decided to buy a PS on the weekend.

Otaku is an otaku, and all you can think of is games!

The next day Valdy still rode his bicycle to Sandford Road where the training base is located. If you don't take a closer look, Valdy may go wrong because, strangely, Everton's training base is actually sandwiched between two residential houses. Between 94 and 96.

Yesterday, a teammate said to himself that Everton Club had bought land near Liverpool Airport and was preparing to build a training ground of 10-12 turf, which could be put into use by this time next year.

is not spawned at that time, Valdi is not necessarily where it was at that time, he is likely to not enjoy the new training ground.
