

URBAN EXTRAORDINARY IMMORTAL DOCTOR

Chapter 2792: Sinister Intentions

The Scorpion Clan Ancestor saw Ziyun Starlord was about to inquire Zishi and realized trouble was imminent.

Without hesitation, he suddenly launched a giant palm towards Fang Bai, wanting to capture him and quickly leave the scene.

"Old bandit, you'll never succeed!"

Fang Bai had been on guard against the Scorpion Clan Ancestor, and seeing him attack, shouted loudly, slashing with both divine artifacts in his hands.

Ziyun Starlord intended to stop the Scorpion Clan Ancestor, but upon seeing Fang Bai strike back, his eyes flickered, raising his brows and revealing a look of surprise.

He did not expect that a minor deity with only mid-level True God realm cultivation would display such formidable combat power, thinking that perhaps the Scorpion Clan Ancestor's attack might not succeed.

Indeed, although Fang Bai was once again knocked several thousand zhang away, with blood oozing from the corner of his mouth, the light from the ax and blade of his two divine artifacts successfully thwarted the giant palm coming from the Scorpion Clan Ancestor.

It can be said that Fang Bai's fight against the Scorpion Clan Ancestor, though ending in defeat, was still honorable, winning the admiration of the many experts present.

After all, looking at the entire Divine Realm, who else could survive multiple attacks from a Divine Venerable realm expert with just mid-level True God realm cultivation?

"Scorpion Clan Ancestor, stand down!"

Ziyun Starlord saw the Scorpion Clan Ancestor's unwillingness and intention to continue attacking Fang Bai, and finally stepped in, standing in front of Fang Bai with his sleeves swinging, adopting a battle-ready stance.

"Ziyun Starlord, for the sake of a mere minor deity, you would oppose my entire Scorpion Clan?"

The Scorpion Clan Ancestor stared at Ziyun Starlord with cold, sinister eyes and asked coldly.

This question was full of threat, but Ziyun Starlord was unmoved.

"Entering the territory of Purple Cloud Star means being our guest, how can I let a guest suffer humiliation? Heh, opposing the entire Scorpion Clan... Scorpion Clan Ancestor, you speak too heavily!"

Ziyun Starlord spoke dismissively, indicating by his expression that he did not regard the Scorpion Clan seriously.

"Fine! Fine! Fine!"

The Scorpion Clan Ancestor knew that with Ziyun Starlord's protection, it would be difficult to capture Fang Bai. He stomped his foot in frustration and said with hatred: "This place is under your Purple Cloud Star's control, but once that minor deity leaves, you can't do anything about it, right?"

As he spoke, he glanced at Fang Bai and shouted fiercely: "I don't believe you can stay on Purple Cloud Star forever! I'll just wait near Purple Cloud Star for you to leave! Let's wait and see!"

Fang Bai's Divine Sense diffused, finding that they hadn't gone far, just anchored in the starry sky a few thousand miles away, seemingly prepared to wait there for a long time.

However, Fang Bai was full of disdain for this, thinking he might as well stay longer on Purple Cloud Star, and wait for his realm and cultivation level to advance further to high-level True God realm before leaving. By that time, the Scorpion Clan Ancestor would be unable to stop him from leaving Purple Cloud Star.

"Thank you, Ziyun Starlord, for your aid!"

Fang Bai, despite having a not-so-positive first impression of Ziyun Starlord, thanked him nonetheless, regardless of what motive he might have had for assisting, and simultaneously stored his divine artifacts back into his Sea of Consciousness.

Ziyun Starlord surveyed Fang Bai for a moment, recalling Fang Bai's previous confrontation with the Scorpion Clan Ancestor, knowing his physique was extraordinary, he smiled warmly and said: "No worries! No worries! That Scorpion Clan Ancestor has always been arrogant, I've long disliked him!"

"How did you and the Scorpion Clan Ancestor become mortal enemies?"

Ziyun Starlord asked again.

Fang Bai sneered and countered: "Does Ziyun Starlord believe his words?"

Ziyun Starlord shook his head and said: "Of course not! The realms and cultivation levels between you two are on completely different levels, how could you be mortal enemies? That Scorpion Clan Ancestor must have some other ulterior motive!"

Fang Bai said: "It's simply because I possess an Extraordinary Holy Body!"

As he spoke, he kept his gaze fixed on Ziyun Starlord, watching his reaction.

Ziyun Starlord's eyes glimmered slightly, showing some excitement, though he quickly returned to normal, saying: "An Extraordinary Holy Body! No wonder... no wonder... he probably covets your vital essence for cultivation! That old bandit is always ruthless and would indeed do such a thing! Hmm, you should stay on my Purple Cloud Star from now on! With me here, he can't do anything to you!"

"Brother Fang, you should stay near my Starlord Hall! It's the safest place on Purple Cloud Star! No matter what transpires, I can take care of you!"

After inquiring Fang Bai's name and origin, Ziyun Starlord cordially extended an invitation to him.

Ziyun Starlord, as a Divine Venerable realm expert and the master of a star, was surprisingly courteous in inviting Fang Bai, which caught the strong members of the Nebula Team like Zishi by surprise.

However, thinking it over, they thought having Ziyun Starlord's favor was ultimately a good thing, so Zishi said to Fang Bai: "Brother Fang, what are you hesitant about? Come with us to Purple Cloud Star!"

After pausing, he also said: "That Scorpion Clan Ancestor seems determined to catch you, you might as well stay on Purple Cloud Star for a while, when he loses patience, he'll leave, then you can go whenever you want, stay as you please, isn't that better?"

Fang Bai glanced at his starship, recalling Jin Ding's words that Purple Cloud Star belonged to the Outstanding Galaxy and thinking it an option to temporarily stay here and seek Orange Divine Crystals for cultivation.

With the Scorpion Clan Ancestor guarding outside and Ziyun Starlord harboring malicious intentions inside, Fang Bai felt a sense of urgency from internal and external pressures, compelling him to cultivate more diligently.

He decided that upon reaching Purple Cloud Star, he would find a way to obtain some Orange Divine Crystals for cultivation and minimize his meetings with Ziyun Starlord to prevent any sudden treachery.

Even though Fang Bai felt he could escape Ziyun Starlord's attacks, his greatest concern was if Ziyun Starlord, in a fit of rage, allied with the Scorpion Clan Ancestor to attack him, creating an internal and external pincer, making him truly endangered.

And the only way out of this situation was to rapidly enhance his own strength.

With this decision, Fang Bai gladly accepted Ziyun Starlord's invitation, stored away his starship, and went to reside at the Starlord Hall on Purple Cloud Star with the gods from the Emperor's Palace.

The Nebula Team, led by Zishi, also resided on Purple Cloud Star, not far from the Starlord Hall.

Upon arriving at Purple Cloud Star, Fang Bai discovered that a large team like Nebula within Purple Cloud Star was only considered a first-rate force, not a top tier. Otherwise, they wouldn't have suffered losses against the Scorpion Team.

Chapter 2793: A Visit

After Fang Bai settled down on Ziyun Star, the first thing he did was set up a stall in the cultivation resource exchange market within Ziyun City, once again embarking on his life of alchemy and artifact refining.

There was no choice, because Scorpion Clan Ancestor was lurking nearby Ziyun Star, intent on capturing him, forcing him to stay put and earn divine crystals this way for his own cultivation and that of the deities in the Emperor's Palace.

Ziyun Starlord did not expect that Fang Bai, who possessed an extraordinary holy body, would also be skilled in alchemy and artifact refining, which was a pleasant surprise for him.

Thus, although he had other plans for Fang Bai, he wasn't in a hurry to make a move.

While Fang Bai could currently only refine the divine elixirs needed by True God Realm experts, most under Ziyun Starlord were indeed True God Realm experts who required matching divine elixirs for cultivation.

Moreover, with Fang Bai's extraordinary holy body aptitude, the possibility of advancing to the Divine Venerable Realm in the future was quite high.

At that time, if Fang Bai could refine divine elixirs required by Divine Venerable Realm experts, it would undoubtedly be excellent news for Ziyun Starlord.

Therefore, Ziyun Starlord decided to abandon his original thinking akin to the Scorpion Clan Ancestor and instead opted to recruit Fang Bai, wanting him to serve the Starlord Hall.

Ziyun Starlord possessed extensive abilities, with powerful techniques to control Divine Realm experts, similar to Fang Bai's Soul Capturing Heart Refining Technique.

Therefore, he believed that even if Fang Bai's cultivation level reached the Divine Venerable Realm, he could still firmly control him.

This way, Fang Bai wouldn't need to worry about his safety.

In truth, the skills he showcased in alchemy and artifact refining were not only for earning divine crystals for cultivation but also to attract Ziyun Starlord's attention and dispel any harmful intentions he might have.

Now it seemed this strategy had worked, as Ziyun Starlord's gaze no longer had the unusual glint similar to the Scorpion Clan Ancestor.

So in the following period, Fang Bai became the Elder of Tribute in the Starlord Hall, specializing in alchemy and artifact refining for True God Realm experts.

Meanwhile, the Starlord Hall, as per Fang Bai's requests, returned large amounts of orange divine crystals to him.

With the aid of orange divine crystals containing more divine power, Fang Bai led a secluded life, using his time between refining divine elixirs and artifacts for the Starlord Hall and cultivating.

The deities in the Emperor's Palace also followed Fang Bai's orders, diligently cultivating.

Given the continuous support of orange divine crystals, the deities in the Emperor's Palace quickly advanced in strength.

Especially Fang Bai's confidante and several direct disciples, who, possessing innate spiritual roots and exceptional talents, surpassed others and reached the mid-stage of the Void God Realm.

Thus, the overall strength of the deities in the Emperor's Palace ascended to a new level.

One day, Zishi and Ziyu, father and daughter, came to visit.

After some rest, Ziyu had fully recovered from her injuries, wearing a purple dress, surrounded by divine aura, looking exceptionally radiant.

Their visit this time was firstly to express gratitude for Fang Bai's life-saving grace and secondly to foster a good relationship with him.

After all, Fang Bai was now the Elder of Tribute in the Starlord Hall, with esteemed status, highly sought after.

Besides these reasons, with Fang Bai's exceptional aptitude as an alchemist and artifact refiner, his limitless potential future made him well worth befriending by the father and daughter.

"No need for thanks. I have a question I'd like to ask you..."

Zishi straightened his face and said, "Brother Fang, feel free to ask whatever you have in mind. I'll speak truthfully without holding back."

Fang Bai nodded and then waved his hand to activate the isolation formation he had set up around the temple.

Seeing this, Zishi understood Fang Bai's question was not meant for others, including Ziyun Starlord, and grew even more serious.

After some thought, Fang Bai asked, "Do you interact much with Ziyun Starlord?"

Zishi shook his head and said, "I've only met Ziyun Starlord a few times."

Pausing for a moment, he laughed at himself, "Maybe my strength is too weak to catch Ziyun Starlord's attention. At times, when discussing important matters relating to Ziyun Star experts, I am not on the guest list at the Starlord Hall."

"Well..."

Fang Bai didn't interrupt, patiently waiting.

After a moment, Zishi spoke, "Regarding Ziyun Starlord... to be honest, I can hardly see through him. But I've heard that Ziyun Starlord isn't of human lineage but belongs to the Starry Sky Demon Clan. He ascended to power after killing the previous starlord a millennium ago."

"Starry Sky Demon Clan?"

Fang Bai raised his eyebrows, wondering if the "Starry Sky Demon Clan" mentioned by Zishi was as brutal, bloodthirsty, and a formidable enemy of the Immortal Realm as the Demon Clan.

However, seeing Zishi's expression, it seemed he harbored no hatred when mentioning the Starry Sky Demon Clan, indicating that this clan wasn't a mortal enemy like other tribes.

Furthermore, during his time on Ziyun Star, Fang Bai understood that the majority of the powerful beings here were of the Human Clan, living in harmony with other tribes.

If the Starry Sky Demon Clan were mortal enemies of the Human Clan, how could the millions of human experts on Ziyun Star tolerate it?

"Why did Brother Fang suddenly ask about this?"

Zishi looked at Fang Bai, thoughtfully asking.

Fang Bai wasn't familiar with Zishi, so naturally wouldn't tell the truth, waving his hand, "Nothing really... I just felt Ziyun Starlord was somehow different from our Human Clan experts, so I asked casually."

Zishi didn't suspect anything, and laughed, "Indeed, if you look suddenly, the Starry Sky Demon Clan is no different from us; however, with careful observation, you'll find their pupils are slightly red. Especially during combat, their pupils turn blood-red."

Fang Bai nodded, thinking that the Demon Clan of the Immortal Realm and the Starry Sky Demon Clan both had blood-red pupils, which might suggest a common origin long ago.

Afterwards, instead of further probing about Ziyun Starlord, Fang Bai subtly steered the conversation towards the Starry Sky Demon Clan.

Through chatting with Zishi, he learned that the Starry Sky Demon Clan is inherently greedy, brutal, and bloodthirsty, albeit milder than the Demon Clan of the Immortal Realm.

Moreover, although the Starry Sky Demon Clan is bloodthirsty, they don't indiscriminately harm relatives and friends like the Immortal Realm's Demon Clan, consuming blood only when encountering mortal enemies.

Precisely because of this, the Demon Clan within the Starry Sky Tribes could establish a foothold, otherwise they would have long been attacked collectively.

Chapter 2794: Fang Bai's Helplessness

Through Zishi's accounts, Fang Bai came to understand Ziyun Starlord a bit better, and the vigilance in his heart rose a few degrees.

Although Ziyun Starlord had, over these years, followed the rules and not done anything outwardly abnormal, no matter how you put it, he ultimately belonged to the Starry Sky Demon Clan.

As long as it's the Demon Clan, there will be demonic nature.

Just like a born carnivore, it's impossible to change its habit of eating meat.

Maybe Ziyun Starlord kept his demonic nature under tight control so it never erupted.

Of course, it couldn't be ruled out that he was gentle on the surface while secretly doing things that harmed other races, merely not yet discovered by experts of those races.

Fang Bai felt that Ziyun Starlord recruiting him might just be a kind of appeasement policy, and perhaps once his strength reached a higher realm in the future, Ziyun Starlord would make a move on him.

The reason Fang Bai had such a guess was because he understood that his own special constitution was extremely attractive to bloodthirsty powerhouses like the Starry Sky Demon Clan.

Precisely because of this worry, after becoming an Elder of Tribute of Purple Cloud Star's Starlord Hall, Fang Bai cultivated even more diligently, thinking that once his cultivation level advanced another minor realm and reached the High Rank of True God Realm, then even if Ziyun Starlord harbored ill intent, he would be helpless against him.

He felt this was something Ziyun Starlord would never expect.

While diligently cultivating himself, Fang Bai also frequently guided the gods of the Emperor's Palace in continuing to practice formations.

Among Fang Bai's future opponents, besides the potential Ziyun Starlord, there was also the Scorpion Clan Ancestor.

Thus, he not only wanted his own cultivation level to progress, but also hoped the Emperor's Palace gods could also advance, then use formations to achieve the goal of countering Divine Venerable Realm Experts.

In this way, once they simultaneously clashed with those two Divine Venerable powerhouses, Ziyun Starlord and Scorpion Clan Ancestor, he could deal with one Divine Venerable Realm Expert himself, while the Emperor's Palace gods formed a formation to deal with the other.

After learning from Fang Bai that Ziyun Starlord might be their potential opponent, the Emperor's Palace gods also began to grow tense, and thus set aside everything else to devote themselves wholeheartedly to cultivation.

Ziyun Starlord provided Fang Bai with a large amount of Divine Crystals, and Fang Bai then parted out a portion of these Divine Crystals to give the Emperor's Palace gods for their cultivation.

In this way, the strength of Fang Bai and the Emperor's Palace gods, including Fang Bai himself, all advanced at a miraculous pace.

It was just that most of the time they cultivated inside Fang Bai's Five Elements Space Ring; even when they broke through, it was inside the Five Elements Space Ring, so the experts of the Starlord Hall did not know.

As his own strength increased, Fang Bai needed more and more Orange Divine Crystals, yet the Divine Crystals Ziyun Starlord supplied him did not grow by much, and Fang Bai also couldn't very well open his mouth to ask Ziyun Starlord for more. Even going into the city's Cultivation Resource Exchange Market to refine pills and artifacts for other experts was not feasible, lest he arouse Ziyun Starlord's suspicion.

With Divine Crystals stretched thin, Fang Bai couldn't help feeling somewhat troubled, thinking that if the Scorpion Clan Ancestor weren't standing guard outside Purple Cloud Star, he could temporarily leave Purple Cloud Star and head to nearby crystal zones to look for Orange Divine Crystals.

"Elder Fang, I intend to make a trip to Vermilion Phoenix Star. I wonder if you'd be willing to come along?"

One day, Ziyun Starlord suddenly came to Fang Bai and asked with a smile.

"Vermilion Phoenix Star?"

During his temporary stay on Purple Cloud Star, he had gained some understanding of the nearby stellar bodies, but he hadn't heard of Vermilion Phoenix Star.

Ziyun Starlord explained, "Vermilion Phoenix Star is equal in status to our Purple Cloud Star; it's also a main star of a Thousand Star System. The Starlord there is a close friend of mine. I'm going this time to celebrate his birthday."

Fang Bai was eager to leave Purple Cloud Star; that way he'd also have the chance to search for some cultivation resources in other regions, so he nodded and said, "I'm willing to go with Starlord."

After the two sides agreed on a departure date, Ziyun Starlord took his leave.

"This trip I can only take you alone. As for your subordinates, let them stay in the Starlord Hall!"

Before leaving, Ziyun Starlord said this to Fang Bai.

He understood that Ziyun Starlord leaving the Emperor's Palace gods in the Starlord Hall was actually to have them act as 'hostages,' to prevent Fang Bai from slipping out of his control while traveling with him to Vermilion Phoenix Star.

In Fang Bai's eyes, this was an openly practiced despicable tactic, and yet he was utterly helpless before it.

If Ziyun Starlord hadn't spoken up, Fang Bai had originally planned to let the Emperor's Palace gods enter his Five Elements Space Ring and then take them away from Purple Cloud Star with him; but now that it was like this, that plan could only go up in smoke.

So Fang Bai instructed the Emperor's Palace gods for a while, telling them to stay honestly in the Starlord Hall over the coming period of time—don't stir up trouble, and all the more don't leave Purple Cloud Star, to avoid suffering an attack from the Scorpion Clan Ancestor.

Once everything was prepared, Fang Bai and Ziyun Starlord boarded a small Starship, flew away from Purple Cloud Star, and headed for Vermilion Phoenix Star.

When they reached the starry skies outside Purple Cloud Star, Fang Bai discovered the Scorpion Clan Ancestor's Starship.

The Scorpion Clan Ancestor had been standing guard outside Purple Cloud Star for a long time; seeing Fang Bai appear, his eyes couldn't help but light up, but then, seeing Ziyun Starlord accompanying him, his gaze turned cold again.

Although he had confidence in subduing Fang Bai, he had no assurance of defeating Ziyun Starlord. Watching their Starship draw farther away, because he couldn't bear to give up Fang Bai's Extraordinary Holy Body blood, he also drove his Starship to follow from far away.

"That old thief, the Scorpion Clan Ancestor, has followed us! Looks like he has no intention of giving up on you!"

Ziyun Starlord diffused his divine sense, discovered the trailing Scorpion Clan Ancestor, and said to Fang Bai with a laugh.

Fang Bai let out a sigh, then looked at Ziyun Starlord and asked, "The blood in my body attracts him that much?"

After he finished saying this, he keenly caught the slight movement of Ziyun Starlord's throat, as if he were swallowing greedy saliva.

"You have a Dual Attribute Innate Spiritual Root and an Extraordinary Holy Body, something rarely seen in the Divine Realm! For that Scorpion Clan Ancestor, drinking your blood would greatly assist his cultivation—how could he not covet it?"

Ziyun Starlord said cheerfully.

Seeing Fang Bai's face turn pale, he thought Fang Bai was scared, so he patted Fang Bai's shoulder in comfort and said, "Don't worry, with me protecting you, the Scorpion Clan Ancestor wouldn't dare act recklessly! If he really dares to make a move, then if you and I join hands, he'll surely be defeated!"

Ziyun Starlord had also witnessed Fang Bai's strength and knew he could withstand more than ten strikes from the Scorpion Clan Ancestor without losing.

Once the two sides clashed, Fang Bai could pin down part of the Scorpion Clan Ancestor's focus, and Ziyun Starlord, whose battle power was equal to the Scorpion Clan Ancestor's, could seize the chance to launch a full-power attack and win the battle.

It was precisely this concern that kept the Scorpion Clan Ancestor from launching a sudden attack upon seeing Fang Bai.

Chapter 2795: Who's the Fat Sheep?

Chapter 2795: Who's the Fat Sheep?

The Vermilion Phoenix Star is tens of millions of miles away from Purple Cloud Star, which seems far, but for those powerful individuals with starships, it's not far at all.

When the starship carrying Fang Bai and Ziyun Starlord was about to reach Vermilion Phoenix Star, it emitted a presence that drew the Vermilion Phoenix Starlord to personally fly out tens of thousands of miles into the starry sky to greet them.

Seeing this, the Scorpion Clan Ancestor knew that Ziyun Starlord and Vermilion Phoenix Starlord were friends, feared they might join forces against him, and thus retreated tens of thousands of miles to watch from afar.

"Come, come, let me introduce you, Vermilion Phoenix Starlord: this is our Elder of Tribute from Ziyun Starlord Hall..."

After exchanging a few pleasantries with Vermilion Phoenix Starlord, Ziyun Starlord introduced Fang Bai and Vermilion Phoenix Starlord to each other.

Upon sensing the aura of Vermilion Phoenix Starlord, Fang Bai realized that he, like Ziyun Starlord, also belonged to the Starry Sky Demon Clan.

Fang Bai had previously heard from Zishi that the Starry Sky Demon Clan was not numerous among the Starry Sky Tribes but were highly united, always advancing and retreating together when encountered with issues.

Therefore, among the many tribes in the starry sky, other races generally dared not provoke the Starry Sky Demon Clan.

"Dual Attribute Innate Spiritual Root...Extraordinary Holy Body...Good! Good!"

Vermilion Phoenix Starlord examined Fang Bai intently, twirling his beard and smiling: "In the Divine Realm, even Innate Spiritual Roots are scarce, and an Extraordinary Holy Body combining two Innate Spiritual Roots is even rarer! Elder Fang, with such a physique, will certainly have significant roles in the Divine Realm in the future!"

Despite Vermilion Phoenix Starlord's good concealment, Fang Bai still caught a hint of greed in his eyes, akin to a predator eyeing a tasty prey.

"That Scorpion Clan Ancestor is not a good thing, and neither are you two! However, thinking of making a move on me won't be that simple?"

On the surface, Fang Bai remained expressionless, but inwardly he sneered silently.

Now, both Scorpion Clan Ancestor, Ziyun Starlord, and Vermilion Phoenix Starlord seemed to have regarded him as a lamb to be slaughtered.

And hasn't he regarded the Scorpion Clan Ancestor and these three Divine Venerable Realm Experts as three fat sheep?

Fang Bai was confident that once he advanced another small realm, he could defeat them one by one and claim all their cultivation resources for himself.

The three Divine Venerable Realm Experts, including two starlords of the Thousand Star System, have immense accumulations; if Fang Bai could obtain their cultivation resources, worrying about cultivation resources within the Divine Venerable Realm would be a thing of the past.

After some pleasantries, Vermilion Phoenix Starlord cordially invited Ziyun Starlord and Fang Bai to visit his Starlord Hall.

On their way to Vermilion Phoenix Starlord Hall, Fang Bai sharply noticed unusual fluctuations between Ziyun Starlord and Vermilion Phoenix Starlord, and upon careful observation of their expressions and demeanors, he knew they were using Thread Condensation Sound Transmission.

Although Fang Bai couldn't hear what they were saying, he could guess that some topics involved him.

"Perhaps they are plotting how to divide my Extraordinary Holy Body blood in the future?"

Fang Bai pondered.

Indeed, Fang Bai guessed correctly.

Ziyun Starlord and Vermilion Phoenix Starlord were originally true brothers; whenever one of them discovered a powerful individual with a special physique, they would share the information, then use all means to slay or subdue the person to consume their blood together and advance.

If not for Fang Bai's skills in alchemy and artifact refining, offering great utility to Ziyun Starlord, Ziyun Starlord would have long gone berserk to subdue Fang Bai and bring him to Vermilion Phoenix Star to share with his brother.

This time, Ziyun Starlord brought Fang Bai to Vermilion Phoenix Star, ostensibly to visit a friend, when it was truly to let his brother take a look at Fang Bai.

Through sound transmission, they were also discussing when to act and how to divide Fang Bai's blood.

After a brief negotiation, they decided to fully cultivate Fang Bai, wait for him to advance to the Divine Venerable Realm, and then, while his realm is unstable, subdue him and enjoy his blood together.

They remained in the early stages of the Divine Venerable Realm for a long time; this opportunity to consume the blood of an Extraordinary Holy Body would be a great fortune. With the help of Divine Crystal Divine Pill, they might break through the current shackles and advance to a new realm.

Therefore, they wouldn't let go of this lamb Fang Bai under any circumstances.

Upon arriving at Vermilion Phoenix Starlord Hall, Vermilion Phoenix Starlord generously gifted Fang Bai large amounts of Orange Divine Crystals and many Divine Pills used by True God Realm experts, under the guise of a "meeting gift."

But Fang Bai was well aware that Vermilion Phoenix Starlord's gifting of these cultivation resources to him was nothing more than bad intentions; he intended to fatten Fang Bai like a pig for later slaughter.

Little did they know that once this "pig" truly fattened, it would transform into a fierce tiger, making them regret deeply.

Of course, Fang Bai expressed gratitude for Vermilion Phoenix Starlord's generosity and even self-recommended to serve as the Elder of Tribute in Vermilion Phoenix Starlord Hall.

For Fang Bai's self-recommendation, Ziyun Starlord didn't object, and Vermilion Phoenix Starlord readily agreed.

The happiest person was Fang Bai, who, by serving as the Elder of Tribute in two Thousand Star Systems' Starlord Halls, received twice the cultivation resources; why not?

During his stay on Vermilion Phoenix Star, Fang Bai, accompanied by several elders from Starlord Hall, toured the entire star and discovered that its cultivation resource reserves were several times greater than Purple Cloud Star.

In particular, the variety of Divine Medicine used for refining Divine Pills on Vermilion Phoenix Star was abundant, greatly delighting Fang Bai, who then began contemplating how to utilize these resources should he become the starlord.

One day, Fang Bai returned to Vermilion Phoenix City, wandering idly in the city's Cultivation Resource Exchange Market.

This time, Fang Bai wasn't accompanied, as neither Ziyun Starlord nor Vermilion Phoenix Starlord needed to follow him; merely releasing Divine Sense can encompass the entire city, and they can immediately detect if Fang Bai leaves the city.

Occupying a tenth of the city, the Cultivation Resource Exchange Market in Vermilion Phoenix City was vast, with over a hundred thousand Divine Realm experts engaging in transactions daily.

The market seemed to have everything, including Divine Pills and Divine Artifacts matched with Divine Venerable Realm experts.

However, the cultivation resources of the Divine Venerable Realm no longer interested Fang Bai.

After all, once Fang Bai advanced to the Divine Venerable Realm, he could easily refine both Divine Pills and Divine Artifacts, and as long as materials were sufficient, he could have as much as he desired.

"Hmm? This stone..."

Passing by an unremarkable stall, Fang Bai was attracted by a crimson stone.

He squatted down and took the stone in hand for a closer look.

"Young brother, good eye! This stone is very extraordinary, obtained during a space journey a thousand years ago..."

The stall owner, initially drowsy, perked up upon seeing business at hand, eagerly took the crimson stone from Fang Bai and began boasting.
