Chapter 1571: Chapter 533: Azure Phoenix True Monarch, Three Interventions!_4

"Alright, with the True Monarch's words, I can rest assured."

Lu Changsheng smiled and nodded, then asked, "Is the True Monarch planning to settle in the Azure Phoenix Immortal City?"

The Azure Phoenix True Monarch's eyes gleamed with impressive sharpness and said, "Having just formed a Nascent Soul, I naturally need to find a spiritual land to cultivate."

"Step by step, I built Azure Phoenix Immortal City, and having returned now, it's natural to settle here again."

So said the Azure Phoenix True Monarch.

"Very well, I congratulate the True Monarch in advance on your return!"

Lu Changsheng remarked with a smile.

"Please keep my return a secret for now and do not disclose it to others."

The Azure Phoenix True Monarch spoke out.

"Of course."

Lu Changsheng responded with a smile.

However, he couldn't help but speculate inwardly, even though the Azure Phoenix True Monarch had broken through to the Nascent Soul, he was still cautious, could he have some ulterior motives?

"In that case, I bid farewell."

The Azure Phoenix True Monarch said no more, lightly raised a hand, the Azure Luan beside him let out a cry, the air in front rippled slightly, and he vanished completely.

"A Nascent Soul True Lord, traversing the void, truly terrifying!"

Lu Changsheng watched this scene, exhaling deeply.

Though he had appeared calm and composed just now, claiming not to be a little nervous would be false.

Whereas he could still sense the strength of the Azure Luan, he couldn't feel any sign of cultivation from the Azure Phoenix True Monarch!

Only an unfathomable and vast Qi mechanism!

Not only him,

the Golden-Winged Heavenly Peng also sensed a strong aura of danger from the Azure Phoenix True Monarch!

As a Demon Beast, a True Spirit Level Bloodline Beast, its sense of danger was often even sharper than Lu Changsheng's.

Thus, this further proved the Azure Phoenix True Monarch was anything but simple.

"Seeing how this Azure Phoenix True Monarch broke through to the Nascent Soul, it's not an ordinary Human Dao Nascent Soul, it might be an Earth Dao Nascent Soul..."

Lu Changsheng was shocked in his heart.

The Foundation Establishment is divided into Bedrock Shatter, Imperfect, Perfect, and Core Formation into nine grades.

And the Nascent Soul is similarly divided into Human Dao Nascent Soul, Earth Dao Nascent Soul, Heavenly Dao Nascent Soul!

This Azure Phoenix True Monarch had just recently broken through to the Nascent Soul and was already so unfathomable, indicating he was definitely not a mere Human Dao Nascent Soul.

But for a First Grade Loose Cultivator to break through to an Earth Dao Nascent Soul, it meant its value was still rising.

After all, from chatting with Chu Qingyi, Lu Changsheng learned that the Absolute Sword True Monarch from the Heavenly Sword Sect broke through to the Earth Dao Nascent Soul through the Tianyuan Secret Realm!

"Husband."

At this moment, Lu Miaoyun, Lu Miaohuan, and Qu Zhenzhen looked towards Lu Changsheng.

Although there was no oppressive aura just now, in front of the Azure Phoenix True Monarch, they instinctively dared not speak.

"It's alright, this item can exchange for the Azure Phoenix True Monarch's assistance three times, so it's not a loss."

"But with the Azure Phoenix True Monarch's return, I fear there will be great upheaval in the Jiang Country Cultivation Realm."

Lu Changsheng said to his wives.

Considering the Azure Phoenix True Monarch's return to the Immortal City, Lu Changsheng suspected that Azure Phoenix Immortal City would have significant movements in the coming days, so he canceled the plan, taking the three women back.

However, having encountered the Azure Phoenix True Monarch, the three women realized the gravity of the situation and were not in the mood to play any longer.

"I didn't expect this Azure Phoenix True Monarch to also understand divination methods."

"It seems I'll have to go out less and keep a low profile in the future, otherwise, if I encounter some other Heretical Path Nascent Soul, it'll be troublesome."

Lu Changsheng pondered secretly, feeling that riding out on the Golden-Winged Heavenly Peng was somewhat ostentatious.

However, the Azure Phoenix True Monarch hadn't made a move just now, perhaps because he noticed the Golden-Winged Heavenly Peng and was somewhat apprehensive.

After all, a True Spirit Level Bloodline Spiritual Pet like the Phoenix True Feather, although tempting, no one knew what trump cards it held.

Nurturing Spirit Lotus, Wind-Thunder Wings, All Materials for the Life-bound Magic Treasure Assembled!

Chapter 1572: Chapter 534: Nurturing Spirit Lotus, Wind-Thunder Wings, All Materials for the Life-bound Magic Treasure Assembled!

In the Great Void, the spiritual mechanisms dimmed.

The blurry and tumultuous void currents rolled, mixed with violent storm winds and thunder, exceptionally terrifying.

If a Nascent Soul Cultivator accidentally enters it, they face potential danger of falling at any time.

Azure Phoenix True Monarch adorned in a luxurious jade robe, tall and graceful, walked in the Great Void.

Her spiritual pet, the Luan Bird, like a radiant jade cloak of flowing colors, perched on her shoulder, adding a sacred and majestic beauty to her stern and dignified figure.

"Phoenix True Feather, Magical Dual Cultivation, a bloodline aura surpassing the spiritual beast of Little Qing, could this person have received a Divinity Transformation legacy?"

"Moreover, the magic aura of the three women beside him indicates they are possibly cultivating the Heavenly Longevity Technique."

"Although this cultivation technique has no bottlenecks, breakthroughs come naturally, but it relies on Lifespan Spiritual Plants for cultivation, progressing slowly, with hope of Foundation Establishment only after a hundred years, which does not match the bone age aura of these three women."

"Furthermore, cultivating the Heavenly Longevity Technique typically requires the development of a Spirit Realm; otherwise, one cannot leave the location of their Lifespan Spiritual Plant."

"These three women only have Foundation Establishment cultivation, so they likely haven't attained such a level, suggesting this person possesses a Cave Heaven Treasure..."

"Knowing my name, highly likely to be a cultivator from the Jiang Country area; unexpected that besides the Great Dream Immortal City couple, Jiang Country hides such figures..."

Azure Phoenix True Monarch's eyes slightly narrowed, her cold and fierce phoenix eyes revealing an indescribable allure.

After a brief interaction just now, she gathered a lot of information from Lu Changsheng.

All this information depicted that this person was no ordinary.

He even gave her a profound sense of mystery!

Yet under these circumstances, the other party readily agreed to the trade, handing over the Phoenix True Feather to her.

Though he acted three times.

But compared to the rarity of the Phoenix True Feather, it still fell short...

"Though unknown what his situation is or his motives, but with war looming, he could be one of the alliance candidates."

Azure Phoenix True Monarch thought silently.

As a master of an Immortal City, she was well-informed.

She had long foreseen that the Cultivation World was about to erupt in war.

Over at Yuan Country, Qiyun Country, and the Tianluo Sect, wars have already broken out.

Yue Country and Liang Country have also been continuously clashing.

This war will eventually affect Jiang Country here.

After achieving Nascent Soul, she chose to return to the Jiang Country Cultivation Realm also to prepare for war.

After all, reaching the Nascent Soul stage requires even more Wealth Companion Dharma Land.

Particularly as she raised a troop of Azure Phoenix Daoist Soldiers.

Unlike most Nascent Soul True Lords who have forces nurturing them.

She could only continue to operate her Azure Phoenix Immortal City.

Moreover, having the fundamental base helps integrate into the Nascent Soul circle.

Otherwise, being an unattached loose cultivator without any weak points, most Nascent Soul True Lords would be wary and defensive.

Even so, when the war breaks out, she needs to prepare more and find herself several allies.

Otherwise, as a loose cultivator, her influence in discussions and the resources and benefits she could compete for would be limited.

Azure Phoenix True Monarch ceased thinking, taking a step out, leaving the Great Void.

Though Nascent Soul True Lords grasp the power of the void, they cannot traverse it at will.

Especially within the Great Void filled with storm winds and thunder, absolute spirit turbulent currents.

One careless moment, even Nascent Soul True Lords could encounter danger.

...

A month later.

Lu Changsheng returned to Bi Lake Mountain with his wife and entered the Mount Sumeru Cave Heaven to consult Hong Lian about divination and calculation.

With the Tianyuan Lotus in his possession, obscuring heaven's secrets, theoretically, he could not be divined.

Even Azure Phoenix True Monarch being a Nascent Soul cultivator would have difficulty achieving this.

"Master possesses the supreme treasure that obscures heavenly secrets; naturally it's impossible to be divined."

"In this situation, it's highly likely she excels in the divination art and sensed the mysterious opportunity in the void, thus happened upon you."

Hong Lian mused upon hearing and said.

Though she hadn't cultivated the divination art, she knew that even powerful divination cannot predict specific information.

Moreover, all things contain variables.

Perhaps after divination and calculation, a thought, an idea could influence the direction.

"So it was a coincidence at that time, and her words carried a shade of deception?"

Lu Changsheng squinted his eyes.

He guessed it should be a chance encounter, and then the other party likely sensed the aura of Qing Luan and Phoenix Bird on him through some secret technique.

Even though the Phoenix True Feather was stored in the Qiankun Shadow-Confining Belt, others couldn't see through it.

Yet in the Cultivation World, there are myriad methods.

Just like the Smell Spirit Beast in the Purple Shadow Secret Realm could detect the aura of spiritual medicines in secret realms.

Some Treasure-seeking Mice could also smell some heavenly and earthly treasures aura from another's storage bag.

"Could it be you played some tricks too?"

At this time, Lu Changsheng looked at the Peach Blossom Gu in his Sea of Consciousness.

He remembered encountering Azure Phoenix True Monarch; the other party sent a perception indicating that seizing the opportunity could lead to an affinity.

"Buzz!"

The Peach Blossom Gu felt terribly aggrieved.

Maintaining it couldn't control Lu Changsheng's love luck at all.

It could only sense the situation of his luck and remind him not to miss out.

"So indeed it was related to you."

Lu Changsheng naturally knew that Peach Blossom Gu could only enhance his love luck and couldn't directly sway the fate.

But if love luck altered, it indicated some relation to his romantic fate.

The saying of fate is indeed mysterious.

This Azure Phoenix True Monarch, having grown from a loose cultivator to today, was undoubtedly a person with great fate, blessed by fortune.

Then through deduction and divination, under the guise of luck, meeting him seemed plausible.

"You're growing less picky; if I recall correctly, this Azure Phoenix True Monarch appears to be over four hundred years old, right?"

Lu Changsheng remembered that Azure Phoenix True Monarch had almost been renowned for three hundred years.

Calculating the age, it must indeed exceed four hundred.

Chapter 1573: Chapter 534: Nurturing Spirit Lotus, Wind-Thunder Wings, Life-bound Magic Treasure Materials Assembled!

"A woman three years older is like holding a gold brick, but three hundred... "

"It's not a big deal for her to be older, but this Azure Phoenix True Monarch, who has risen from a loose cultivator to Nascent Soul, and understands divination, would be difficult to get close to."

Lu Changsheng squinted his eyes.

Although he has no particular thoughts about this Azure Phoenix True Monarch.

However, with the opening war about to start, future wars between Cultivation Nations are also possible.

In order for the family to have a greater ability to protect itself in such turbulent times, he, as the ancestor, is willing to make sacrifices and wrong himself a bit.

"Moreover, the spirit beast of the Azure Phoenix True Monarch is already at Third Rank Peak."

"Now, with the Phoenix True Feather obtained, once it breaks through to the Fourth Rank, it can transform..."

Lu Changsheng thought of the Third Rank Luan Bird beside the Azure Phoenix True Monarch.

But as the thought arose, he shook his head.

He, as the dignified Lu Family Ancestor and a gentleman, how could he have other thoughts about a Transformed Demon King?

But there was a saying in his previous life: to chase a girl, first win over her best friend.

This Demon King, though possessing spiritual intelligence, is far simpler compared to the Human Race.

If approached through this Azure Phoenix, wouldn't it be much simpler?

"Moreover, this Luan Bird possesses the bloodline of the True Spirit Qing Luan. If refined with the Phoenix True Feather, maybe the bloodline could further advance..."

Lu Changsheng even considered that this Luan Bird might be more tempting than the Azure Phoenix True Monarch.

If it could advance its bloodstream to True Spirit Level and give birth to offspring...

"Alas, I'm truly worrying myself sick for this family."

Lu Changsheng shook his head, sighed heavily, and then went to find Lu Miaoge.

....

"Caiyun True Immortal goes into closed-door cultivation, Qingyi True Master takes over the Enforcement Hall of the Qingyun Sect?"

Lu Changsheng and Lu Miaoge learned about the family matters during these days, and upon hearing this news, he was slightly surprised.

"Well, at that time, you, Changsheng, and Huanhuan, Yun'er, Zhenzhen had just left not long ago, and the Qingyun Sect held the succession ceremony."

Lu Miaoge, dressed in a simple white dress, spoke gently like water.

During these days, she has been sitting at home, paying attention to various news and affairs.

"Caiyun True Immortal has served as the Enforcement Hall Master for so many years, now passing it to someone else is normal."

Lu Changsheng smiled and said.

Yun Wanshang had long broken through to Core Formation Late Stage, and should be preparing for Nascent Soul, stepping down from such hall master position is also normal.

But the fact that she directly handed the position to her own disciple indicates an unusual amount of influence.

After that, Lu Changsheng asked about other matters, like matters concerning the Azure Phoenix Immortal City.

But Lu Miaoge indicated that the most lively matter these days was of the Spirit Taming Sect under its governance, the Bai Lu Ning Family ascending to become a Core Formation Noble Family.

As for the Azure Phoenix Immortal City, no news or rumors seemed to have been heard.

"Did the Bai Lu Ning Family's Core Formation Ancestor ascend in the Myriad Beasts Mountain Range, possibly related to Azure Phoenix True Monarch?"

Lu Changsheng suddenly paused with such a guess in his mind.

He himself encountered the Azure Phoenix True Monarch in the Myriad Beasts Mountain Range.

This person likely resides within the Myriad Beasts Mountain Range.

If the Ning Family Ancestor was met while forming the core, it would be reasonable to be helped in passing.

After all, returning to Jiang Country, she would also need some subordinates.

"Changsheng, you all returned so quickly, did something happen?"

Lu Miaoge noticed Lu Changsheng contemplating, gently inquired.

She knew that Lu Changsheng intended to travel for about half a year with Lu Miaoyun, Lu Miaohuan, and Qu Zhenzhen.

But now they had returned ahead of schedule.

"I met the Azure Phoenix True Monarch on this journey."

Lu Changsheng said firmly.

"Azure Phoenix True Monarch?"

Lu Miaoge's fair face trembled.

Then, with a face filled with surprise, she asked: "Changsheng, are you referring to the City Lord of Azure Phoenix Immortal City, Azure Phoenix True Man, has she broken through to Nascent Soul True Lord!?"

The Azure Phoenix True Man breaking through to Nascent Soul is absolutely big news.

"That's right, she not only broke through to Nascent Soul but is not an ordinary Nascent Soul True Lord."

"What purpose she has in returning, I am not sure, only aware she plans to return to Azure Phoenix Immortal City."

"So suddenly thought, whether this Bai Lu Ning Family's ancestor could break through Core Formation might have something to do with Azure Phoenix True Monarch."

Lu Changsheng spoke thusly.

Previously, he wouldn't have guessed this way, but now he can't help but think more.

"What you're saying, Changsheng, isn't entirely impossible."

Lu Miaoge, deep in thought, then asked, "Did anything happen when you met the Azure Phoenix True Monarch?"

"Nothing particularly happened; it's just that I obtained a spiritual object years ago that is useful for her spiritual pet, so I spoke to request it, and eventually made a deal."

Lu Changsheng smiled and said.

Lu Miaoge, hearing this, did not further inquire.

Immediately, Lu Changsheng did not continue the conversation but helped Lu Miaoge in cultivation, discussing Yin Yang truth.

...

After spending half a month at home with his wives and children, Lu Changsheng went to Qingyun Sect to visit Xiao Xiyue and Zhao Qingqing.

After working hard for more than half a month, he traveled to Misty Rain Marketplace.

Currently, Yu Fei's health was almost adjusted, and daughter Lu Yanyu was extremely lively.

But Lu Changsheng believes the child would be better cultivated back at Bi Lake Mountain.

Yet neither Yan Lan nor Yu Fei were willing to be separated from their daughter.

To this, Lu Changsheng did not force them.

Thinking two women and one child still seemed lonely, he thought there should be more.

During these days, he engaged in numerous battles with the two women.

However, he now having Core Formation Cultivation and possessing a Chaos Body found it indeed difficult to have children.

Yet Lu Changsheng firmly believes that those who have aspiration, their endeavors will succeed, and hard work is not wasted.

Yan Lan, also having a competitive temperament, possessed a spirit of not admitting defeat.

Not believing herself, a dignified woman, to not be a match for Lu Changsheng; why could her sister bear a child, but she could not bear!

Finally, after two months of effort, in the circumstance of breaking dozens of beds, Yan Lan successfully conceived.

Lu Changsheng did not leave immediately after she conceived.

He stayed in the Misty Rain Marketplace for one more month before returning to Bi Lake Mountain.

Chapter 1574: Chapter 534: Nurturing Spirit Lotus, Wind-Thunder Wings, Life-bound Magic Treasure Materials Assembled!

During this time, Yan Lan and Yu Fei were quite generous, calling their maids to join them in bed.

However, female Qi Refining Cultivators with average Spiritual Root Talent no longer interested Lu Ancestor.

He expressed that he wasn't that kind of casual person.

...

[Congratulations to the host for offspring birth totaling 2000, you have gained one lottery opportunity]

While Lu Changsheng was flying through the Ninth Heavenly Gang Wind Layer, a system notification suddenly sounded.

Hearing this sound, he felt a bit emotional and silently thought of drawing a lottery.

[Ding! Congratulations to the host for acquiring the Spirit Plant: Nurturing Spirit Lotus!]

[Reward has been issued to the System Space, host can check at any time]

A lustrous lotus pattern appeared, accompanied by the system notification sound.

"Nurturing Spirit Lotus?"

There are countless Heavenly and Earthly Treasures in the world, and even as a Core Formation Cultivator, Lu Changsheng's knowledge is limited.

[Nurturing Spirit Lotus]

[Rank: Third Rank]

[Description: Planted in Spirit Vein and Spiritual Spring, blooms in ten years, grows in ten years, blooms in ten years, and seeds after ten years. The seeds have the effect of warming and nourishing the physical body and nurturing the soul.]

"Matures in one cycle of forty years? This Nurturing Spirit Lotus seems easy to cultivate... just not sure about its effects."

Lu Changsheng looked at the Nurturing Spirit Lotus before him, contemplating in his heart.

In the Cultivation World, spirit medicines and plants that can nurture the soul are generally extremely valuable.

However, for him now, a Third Rank Spirit Plant is quite ordinary, nothing too surprising, better than nothing.

...

Lu Changsheng didn't directly return to Bi Lake Mountain but sent a message to Chu Qingyi at their old place.

Having just been to Qingyun Sect, he was concerned that Chu Qingyi might mention the scent of Xiao Xiyue on him, so he hadn't contacted her.

After a long time, Chu Qingyi arrived.

She helped him gather the last few materials to refine the Yin Yang Daoist Chart.

Regarding this, Lu Changsheng was very moved and could only express his feelings through actions.

Afterwards!

Afterwards!

Afterwards!

Lu Changsheng held Chu Qingyi's soft and silky body, concernedly asking, "Qingyi, I heard you're now the Enforcement Hall Master, are you busy on weekdays?"

"Most matters are handled by others..."

Chu Qingyi felt the jade-like hand roaming over her body, making her feel weak and flushed as she lightly panted in reply.

As the master of a hall, unless a major event arises, she doesn't involve herself in every affair, so generally, she's not really busy.

"Hmm..."

Lu Changsheng quietly embraced her, speaking some heartfelt words.

He also learned through her about some situations in the Jiang Country Cultivation Realm and neighboring countries.

Yet, concerning matters about Azure Phoenix True Monarch, she was unaware.

Currently, the main issues in Jiang Country focus on pioneering wars and friction with Liang Country and Yue Country.

As for the pioneering wars, they still await the command from Xuanjian True Monarch.

After a long while, Chu Qingyi adjusted her dress and bid farewell to Lu Changsheng.

After returning to Bi Lake Mountain, Lu Changsheng continued with his busy routine.

Besides spending time with his wives, concubines, and children, he was also refining Magical Treasures with Hong Lian.

In this manner, three months passed.

White Peak Immortal's two Magical Treasures were both completely reforged.

He used a platinum small mountain as a method and gave the nine dark black small arrows to Hong Lian as attacking Magical Treasures.

Then the Magical Treasure he had been eager to complete—the Wind-Thunder Wings—was finally successfully refined.

This Magical Treasure used the wings of the Wind Thunder Houn as the framework, integrating many other Heavenly and Earthly Treasures.

Lu Changsheng lightly raised his palm, summoning this Wind-Thunder Wings Magical Treasure.

Instantly, he felt a surge of wind and thunder behind him, Spiritual Energy sweeping around, and with a 'puff,' a pair of entirely purple-gold wings manifested.

"Buzz——"

With a thought from Lu Changsheng, the wings began to glow with dark purple and sky blue light, wind and thunder surging.

If one observes closely, mysterious runes could be seen interwoven beneath the feathers, quite radiant.

"This Wind Thunder Houn only had the strength of Third Rank Early Stage, a rather weak foundation, so these Wind-Thunder Wings are just Lower Grade Magical Treasures, a bit inadequate for me."

Lu Changsheng contemplated in his heart.

However, this is ultimately his first Magical Treasure.

He quietly slipped away from Bi Lake Mountain, heading to the Ninth Heavenly Gang Wind Layer to experience the effect of these wings.

"Buzz——"

The wind and thunder surged endlessly.

Lu Changsheng moved like a streak of purple lightning, stirring up gusts and becoming a blur, his figure elusive.

With Mana infused, the yard-long wings stirred with purple lightning and sky-blue gale, forming an intense attack, his speed suddenly spiked.

"Boom boom boom——"

At this moment, Lu Changsheng operated his Exorcism Golden Thunder.

The wings' power increased by several degrees.

But these Wind-Thunder Wings are ultimately just Lower Grade Magical Treasures with wind and thunder attributes.

Using Exorcism Golden Thunder to its full extent generates too much power, causing potential overload and wear.

"If only it were a Middle Grade Magical Treasure, it would be so much better."

Lu Changsheng lamented.

Nevertheless, looking at these flashy wings, Lu Changsheng decided to disregard their shortcomings.

After all, being powerful is one thing; looking cool is a lifetime!

With these few Magical Treasures in hand, Lu Changsheng also prepared to refine his Life-bound Magic Treasure—the Yin Yang Daoist Chart!

Not rushing into crafting, he summoned Hong Lian to inquire about her views.

"Young master, this Magical Treasure is both offensive and defensive, capable of sealing the heavens and suppressing the void. If it ascends to a Spiritual Treasure, it could even traverse voids, truly exquisite."

Hong Lian marveled at the Magical Treasure's design blueprints.

"Hehe, when crafted, this Magical Treasure would at most be a Superior Grade Treasure."

"Ascending to a Spiritual Treasure? Who knows when that might happen."

Lu Changsheng shook his head with a smile.

Managing to gather the materials for refining this Yin Yang Daoist Chart so quickly was due to Chu Qingyi's help, but also he made several adjustments.

Some rare and hard-to-find materials were substituted.

The Treasure's offensive functionality was discarded to enhance defense and earth suppression effects.

However, Magical Treasures, after all, are tailored to individuals.

Most people just don't have this option.

With three ranks' worth of Artifact Refining experience, he knew this Life-bound Magical Treasure inside out, naturally capable of making adjustments to better suit himself and match his combat style.

After extensive discussion and study with Hong Lian, they finalized the Magical Treasure crafting plans.

However, in half a month, it would be the Lu Family's fortieth annual family meeting.

At that time, a new Family Head would be established.

Normally, Lu Changsheng hadn't attended such annual meetings for a long time.

But since this year the Family Head is changing, he figured it necessary to show his face.

So he planned to participate in the meeting before focusing on refining his Life-bound Magic Treasure.

Chapter 1575: Chapter 535: Art of Vigor and Decay, Yin Yang Daoist Chart Complete!

Lu Family Mansion, Assembly Hall.

Today is the annual meeting of the Lu Family.

At this moment, the entire hall is filled with Lu Family disciples.

Lu Changsheng habitually reclines in the main seat, one hand supporting his chin, the other resting on the armrest, his eyes warm yet exuding an undeniable aura of authority.

Lu Miaoge, Lu Miaoyun, Lu Miaohuan, Qu Zhenzhen, and Xia Zhiyue sit upright on both sides.

Ling Zixiao is still overseeing at Heming Mountain, so he hasn't returned.

"Currently, the family has a total of four thousand nine hundred and thirteen members, with one hundred and ninety-five cultivators."

"Among them, there are eighteen Foundation Establishment cultivators, forty-one Energy Refinement Late Stage, eighty-seven Middle Stage, and forty-nine Early Stage..."

Lu Qingxuan reports on the number of family members.

These figures include the Lu Family of Ruyi Prefecture.

However, the number of cultivators is only the surface data of the Lu Family.

People like Lu Quanzhen, Lu Qingshan, Lu Qingzhu, Nangong Yaoyao, Yan Lan, Yu Fei, and Qu Zhenzhen, along with several concubines such as Lu Miaohuan, have not publicized their breakthroughs to Foundation Establishment, so are not counted.

Not counting, on one hand, the news is too startling to spread.

On the other hand, Lu Changsheng feels that the number of Foundation Establishment within the family is somewhat hollow.

Unable to be converted into battle strength, it is not included.

However, this number is still quite astounding!

Families like the Lu Family of Qingzhu Mountain and Hundred Birds Lake Bai Family, during peak periods, may have just one Foundation Establishment Ancestor and about ten Energy Refinement Late Stage members.

Even now, it's only doubled or so.

And in just a few decades, the Lu Family's actual Foundation Establishment count has exceeded twenty.

Energy Refinement Late Stage is more than forty, and more are preparing for Foundation Establishment!

This does not include Lu Changsheng, Hong Lian, two Nascent Soul cultivators, Golden-Winged Heavenly Peng, Nine Netherhound, Blackwater Flood Dragon Dao Soldiers, and other spiritual beasts.

"This year's profit is two hundred and thirty-six thousand one hundred and forty Spirit Stones, nine percent higher than last year, mainly due to increased earnings from Heming Mountain..."

"Expenditure is one hundred and ninety-five thousand five hundred and sixteen Spirit Stones, with family stipends taking up sixty-three percent, family construction expenses taking up nine percent, raw material procurement taking up thirteen percent, and the remainder mainly for social and personal relations..."

Lu Qingxuan continues reporting the family's income.

Bi Lake Mountain is typical high-income, high-expenditure, especially in terms of family welfare.

Things like the medicinal bath three years ago, the upkeep of the Blackwater Flood Dragon Dao Soldiers, and the Foundation Establishment Elixirs for Lu Chensha, Lu Qingyan, and others, are not counted in the normal family expenses.

Otherwise, the normal operation of the family could not cultivate so many Foundation Establishment cultivators!

Then, other Lu Family disciples managing family affairs successively reported on the family's business, puppets, talisman making, alchemy, wine brewing, spirit plants, and other properties.

Listening to these figures, Lu Changsheng felt somewhat emotional.

Only then did he realize that aside from Bi Lake Mountain, White Tiger Mountain, Flower Fruit Mountain, and Heming Mountain, there were so many mineral veins and shops.

"Hmm, over the past twenty years, Xingyang has performed very well. The next twenty years are the decades of our family's vigorous development."

"And the candidate for the new family head is Qingxuan."

At this time, Lu Changsheng lightly taps the armrest with his fingers, looking at his son Lu Qingxuan.

The Lu Family disciples were already aware of Lu Qingxuan taking the role of family head, with no dissent.

On one hand, many are not interested in the position of family head.

On the other, since Lu Changsheng designated it, who would dare have opinions?

Moreover, Lu Qingxuan, as the son of Lu Miaoge, with a gentle and respectful demeanor, cared for by Lu Ping'an, Lu Ruyi, Lu Wangshu, Lu Qingsong, and others, and highly esteemed among his peers, is very suitable for the family head role.

"Xuan'er, share the family's plan for the next five years."

Lu Changsheng said to his son Lu Qingxuan.

The main arrangement ahead involves establishing a branch in the Imperial Spirit Sect's Domain.

After all, with so many family members reaching Foundation Establishment, they cannot be kept at home; they need to be sent out.

This is not only for family development but also a necessary path for the growth of children!

Otherwise, these children at home, ninety percent have no hope of reaching Nascent Soul.

"Yes, Father."

Lu Qingxuan, in a cyan brocade robe, with a handsome appearance, showed no signs of nervousness, bowed respectfully, and then faced the other Lu Family disciples with a smiling, gentle demeanor, explaining the upcoming matters.

Lu Changsheng simply watched quietly in face of this.

After most matters were decided, he took Lu Miaoge, Lu Miaoyun, and others and directly left.

After all, as long as family affairs are not in big trouble, he is lazy over managing them.

This time he came, just to follow the process and direct the situation.

...

"Yun'er, with Xuan'er becoming the family head, you can show more concern and guidance occasionally."

Lu Changsheng said to his wife Lu Miaoyun.

Although he does not manage family matters, there are still many things that require his decision.

These matters are directly entrusted to Lu Miaoyun.

Thus, during Lu Yun and Lu Xingyang's time as family head, they would periodically report to Lu Miaoyun.

If Lu Miaoyun was uncertain, she would send him messages.

With Lu Qingxuan as family head, this process would continue.

"Rest assured, husband, Xuan'er has handled family affairs with Xingyang over the past two years in an orderly manner."

Lu Miaoyun, in a blue skirt, with a fresh and elegant appearance, said with a smile.

Lu Miaoge often engaged in closed-door cultivation, so Lu Qingxuan was mostly raised and cared for by her, almost treating him as her own son, with much affection.

"Yun'er, don't pamper him too much."

Lu Miaoge knows that Lu Miaoyun treasures her son more than herself.

"Sister Miaoge, relax."

Lu Miaoyun, intimately clinging to her sister's jade arm, said kindly.

After chatting with the women for a while, Lu Changsheng expressed his intention to enter closed-door cultivation next and went with Hong Lian to the Refining Hall.

Chapter 1576: Chapter 535: Art of Vigor and Decay, Yin Yang Daoist Chart Complete! (Part 2)

Begin wholeheartedly refining your life-bound magic treasure.

...

Refining Hall.

"Puchi!"

Lu Changsheng shot a Thunder Gang Dragon Flame at the Treasure Forging Platform, then activated the Earthfire Array.

The Treasure Forging Platform instantly buzzed with a 'wong wong wong' sound, covered in countless golden spiritual patterns, burning with an umberish flame.

This Treasure Forging Platform originated from the Tianyuan True Monarch.

Even after countless years, despite the fading spirituality, it remains a quasi-Fourth Rank Refining Platform.

It provides immense help in fire control, quenching, refining, fine refining, melting, pattern integration, shaping, and treasure consecration.

Lu Changsheng waved his large hand, placing the prepared materials aside.

Then, he performed a gesture incantation with both hands, inserting a Solar Stone into the Treasure Forging Platform for quenching.

Hong Lian, in a luxurious red and gold-trimmed dress, her body flowing with a hazy sheen, stood quietly beside him, serving as Lu Changsheng's assistant.

...

Lu Family Mansion.

"Thank you, Aunt!"

Lu Quanzhen cupped his hands and bowed to Lu Miaoge.

After more than three years of treatment and adjustment, his health condition has improved a lot.

He can barely withstand the erosion of the Netherworld Blood Fiend.

However, he did not rush to cultivate the "Netherworld King Technique."

He plans to wait until his body is in even better condition.

After bowing to Lu Miaoge and his mother Qu Zhenzhen, Lu Quanzhen returned to the core area of the Spirit Vein.

During these three years, besides adjusting his body, he spent most of his time observing the Mysterious Heavenly Vine in front of him.

Through these years of observation, besides the "Art of Vigor and Decay," he gained many insights.

He corroborated the decaying and flourishing Taoist rhythm of the Mysterious Heavenly Vine with his "Yin Yang Kunpeng Devouring Heaven Demonic Divine Art," merging the righteous and demonic paths.

During this process, based on his father's Way of Yin and Yang, and his own experiences at the brink of life and death, burning his life's potential, he gradually comprehended a spell.

He named this spell — Art of Vigor and Decay!

Utilizing the principles of Yin and Yang generating each other, and the cycle of life and death, to rapidly convert mana between life and death, achieving a situation where force is borrowed against force, endlessly flowing.

Additionally, through the Art of Vigor and Decay, it's possible to seize the vitality of heaven and earth, transforming it into one's own vitality!

Even at advanced levels, converting life and death at will, cutting the lifespan of others, and transforming one's injury's death energy into life energy, nourishing the physical body and mana.

Of course, this is only a theoretical idea.

Currently, what he can do is heal himself using the Art of Vigor and Decay, and also seize the vitality of plants, accelerating healing.

Lu Quanzhen held the Vajra Sharira and the Nine-Eyed Bodhi Seed, sitting cross-legged in front of the Mysterious Heavenly Vine.

With each breath, he seemed to form a mystical rhythm with the woven patterns of the Mysterious Heavenly Vine in front of him, gradually resonating in unison.

...

Yue Country.

A beautifully scenic gathering place for loose cultivators, at this moment, resounded with the shouts of killing.

"Puff puff puff—"

A swordsman in a blue robe swung his magical sword, causing one corpse after another to fall, blood splattering, covering petals and green grass, resembling a hellish scene of Asura.

After a long while.

The robbers were all slain, and dozens of men and women who had been plundered were rescued.

"Thank you, hero, thank you, immortal!"

They kneeled to express their gratitude to the blue-robed swordsman and the white-clothed woman beside him.

"You should take these money and provisions, and head a hundred miles east; there is a city."

The white-clothed woman softly said, distributing some of the looted money and food to them.

"Thank you, immortal, thank you, fairy. We will build a shrine for you in our homes and pray for peace."

Knowing the two before them were cultivators, these people knelt and saluted.

"Border tensions unceasingly, causing more robber cultivators and heretic cultivators to emerge."

Lu Qingshan looked at these people and spoke up.

Three years ago, he returned to Jinyang Sect with his sister Lu Qingzhu.

During the journey, he was constantly contemplating the "Tianyuan Sword Technique" his father had given him, gaining insights.

So after reporting back to the sect, he took on several sect missions and went down the mountain with his sister to temper his sword mind.

After two years of this worldly tempering, his sword heart became increasingly steady, and his sword intent gradually withdrew inward.

The sharp arrogance of the supreme sword cultivator he once was faded, and his brows and expression were calm and natural.

"Brother."

Beside him, Lu Qingzhu, in a snowy white dress, looked at the corpses and blood pools before her, and the few hurriedly departing individuals, lightly biting her lips.

Even though the war between Yue Country and Liang Country has not erupted in full force, the tensions between the two have begun to affect Yue Country.

Especially since many demon path cultivation techniques have flowed into Yue Country from Liang Country, increasing the number of low-level demon cultivators, heretic cultivators, and robber cultivators.

Many demon cultivators and heretic cultivators have come to the mundane world to kill mortals and train.

These two years, traveling the world with her brother Lu Qingshan, she has seen much of the suffering at the base, and her heart feels more of a sense of compassion.

Lu Qingshan sighed inwardly seeing his sister in this state.

He thought to himself that he really should not have exposed his sister to such worldly hardships.

"These people aiding demon cultivators in their training deserve their demise."

"Our abilities are limited; we act when we encounter such situations. Why be so sentimental?"

Lu Qingshan ruffled his sister's hair and spoke with a smile.

As he spoke, he hung the magical sword at his waist, took two swigs from a wine gourd.

He was not like his master Tianyuan True Man, who had alcohol by his side at all times.

He simply thought it made him seem more free and unrestrained.

Seeing his sister still submerged in sadness, he also poured some wine into her mouth from the wine gourd, earning a playful glare from Lu Qingshan.

"Hahaha—"

Lu Qingshan laughed heartily and directly pulled his sister along, transforming into a sword light soaring into the sky.

"Immortal, a true immortal!"

The people who had been rescued earlier saw the soaring sword light again, bowed and knelt in the direction of the two.

...

Bi Lake Mountain.

Refining Hall.

"Boom boom boom—"

The umberish Treasure Forging Platform burned fiercely.

In the midst of the umber flames, a scroll that was neither gold nor jade, neither paper nor silk, interwoven with Yin Yang energies, floated up and down.

The Daoist scroll, about three feet long, depicted the Way of Yin and Yang, the extreme of Yang embracing Yin, and the extreme of Yin embracing Yang, through its interplay of reality and illusion.

Chapter 1577: Chapter 535: Art of Vigor and Decay, Yin Yang Daoist Chart Complete!

Beside the Treasure Forging Platform, Lu Changsheng held his breath, focused his spirit, forming gesture incantations with both hands, proceeding with the final stage of refining the treasure, connecting his life to it.

"Buzz buzz buzz—"

The Daoist Chart vibrated, one Yin and one Yang resembling the coexistence of sun and moon, encompassing all things, forming a vast starry sky, resonating with mysterious ancient talismans.

Moments later, the Daoist Chart surged with radiant brilliance, akin to the rising sun in the east, with the golden crow flying high, mountains and rivers appearing, emanating a warm and vibrant glow, nurturing all things.

With the rotation of Yin and Yang, the Daoist Chart surged with a deep black hue, seeming to manifest an endless hell, showing myriad manifestations.

Ultimately, the power of Yin and Yang creation surged, black and white, Yin and Yang, interdependent, life and death coexisting!

"The Yin Yang Daoist Chart, finally complete!"

Lu Changsheng gazed at the scroll before him, took a deep breath, and slowly exhaled, eyes filled with joy.

After four months of refining, he finally crafted his life-bound magic treasure!

And as expected, this treasure barely reached the level of a superior grade magical treasure!

"Congratulations, young master, on refining the treasure."

Hong Lian congratulated Lu Changsheng with gratitude.

Even though she was a Nascent Soul True Lord in her past life, having observed and participated in the refining process of the Yin Yang Daoist Chart, she couldn't help but marvel at this treasure.

Through this life-bound magic treasure, Lu Changsheng's cultivation technique was evident in its profound and intricate nature!

"Hong Lian, you've worked hard over these days."

Lu Changsheng held the ancient chart, reluctant to part with it.

With this life-bound magic treasure, his combat power would be further elevated.

Not to mention, with the Yin Yang Daoist Chart and his Ten-layer Hundred Refinements Treasure Body Art, he could disregard the divine skills of Core Formation middle-stage cultivators, directly confronting late-stage Core Formation great cultivators.

In such a scenario, by using the Yin Yang Daoist Chart to seal the heavens and suppress the void.

If the opponent got close, relying on the Thunder Gang Dragon Flame and Exorcism Golden Thunder, even a late-stage Core Formation great cultivator would find it hard to withstand!

"When Little Chan breaks through to Core Formation, it's time to head to Great Dream Marsh."

This round of treasure refining has drained Lu Changsheng's finances completely.

If he continued to consume without replenishment, he'd be unable to even afford milk powder money.

He put away the Yin Yang Daoist Chart and, with Hong Lian, left the Refining Hall, arriving at the Mount Sumeru Cave Heaven, gazing at the Five Elements Spirit Fruit Tree.

The five fruits on this Spirit Fruit Tree were already fist-sized, radiating five-colored light.

"Just one more drop of Myriad Spirits Heaven Dew and they will be fully matured."

Lu Changsheng already had plans for the distribution of the five Five Elements Spirit Fruits.

One for his daughter, Lu Ruyi.

Her Spiritual Root was poor; without the baptism of heavenly and earthly treasures to purify her foundation, she would reach her limit at the Third Level of Foundation Establishment.

Even if she relied on Breakthrough Elixir to luckily advance, her potential would be exhausted.

Due to her commendable performance in the family, diligently fulfilling her duties, Lu Changsheng naturally wanted to reward her with a Five Elements Spirit Fruit to pave her way on the Great Dao.

Then, one each for Meng Xiaochan and Xiao Xiyue.

Meng Xiaochan was now at the Foundation Establishment Perfection, just waiting for the Five Elements Spirit Fruit to mature.

Once matured, she could prepare for Core Formation!

As for Xiao Xiyue, although it would still take years before her breakthrough to Core Formation, an early preparation with a fruit was feasible.

As for the remaining two, Lu Changsheng planned to reserve one and give the other to Lu Quanzhen.

Once Lu Quanzhen's body was adequately adjusted, he needed external assistance to continue cultivating the Yin Yang Five Elements Kunpeng Technique and maintain the balance of his cultivation technique.

The Five Elements Spirit Fruit was perfect for him, also offering the effect of purifying his foundation and body!

"Zhenzhen."

Lu Changsheng found Qu Zhenzhen, inquiring about the next drop of Myriad Spirits Heaven Dew.

Since the Myriad Spirits Bottle was under Qu Zhenzhen's management, he did not remember the state of the Myriad Spirits Heaven Dew.

"Husband, two more months."

Qu Zhenzhen replied.

Upon hearing this, Lu Changsheng was relieved and, along with her, found Lu Miaoyun to inquire about the family's situation.

There was nothing major at home.

Lu Qingsong and Lu Qingyan, along with others, had already headed to the Imperial Spirit Sect's Domain to inspect the Spirit Land.

Although Spirit Land is hard to come by, given the current state of the Bi Lake Mountain, it wasn't too difficult to secure a Second Rank Spirit Land.

However, the Lu Family wanted to use this Spirit Land as a stepping stone to advance into the Myriad Beasts Mountain Range, requiring more preparations.

As for Lu Changsheng's concern, the Azure Phoenix Immortal City, there were still no developments or news.

No news of the Azure Phoenix True Monarch returning had been heard.

"Hmm, alright."

Lu Changsheng nodded and, sharing a tender moment with his wife, stayed home with his wives and children, waiting for the maturation of the Five Elements Spirit Fruits and Meng Xiaochan's breakthrough to Core Formation!

Chapter 1578: Chapter 536: Qingyun Secret Realm, Meng Xiaochan Attempts Core Formation!

Bi Lake Mountain.

"Xi Yue, congratulations on reaching the Ninth Level of Foundation Establishment."

Lu Changsheng heard that Xiao Xiyue had come, and at first glance, he could see that she had broken through to the Ninth Level of Foundation Establishment.

He initially planned to send a Five Elements Spirit Fruit to Xiao Xiyue once it matured.

Unexpectedly, she came directly.

"Changsheng, the Heavenly Sword Sect has already confirmed the matter of the Pioneer Order; it's estimated that in a few days, the Qingyun Sect will announce the Pioneer War..."

Xiao Xiyue said to Lu Changsheng.

"It's already confirmed?"

Lu Changsheng squinted his eyes slightly.

Regarding the Pioneer War, both Yun Wanshang had reminded him early on.

Two years ago, when Bai Shuang of the Qingyun Sect came to Bi Lake Mountain, she also hinted at this, but did not say it too explicitly.

Unexpectedly, in just two years, it was decided by the authorities.

"Hmm, but there will be a ten-year preparation period for registration; all loose cultivators, family forces can sign up to participate in the Pioneer War..."

"However, like a force of Bi Lake Mountain's level, participation is mandatory. The Qingyun Sect will issue a Pioneer Order, with quota allotments."

Xiao Xiyue said softly.

Although the Pioneer War represents expanding territories!

Behind it lies bloodshed, hardship, and danger!

For loose cultivators or small family forces, it might be considered a good thing.

They have a channel for promotion.

They can gain cultivation techniques, Foundation Establishment resources, and have a chance to earn a family foundation, inherit a Spirit Land!

But for family forces that have been stable for a long time, with some strength foundations, it's not so friendly.

In this pioneering process, any slight mistake and great losses can lead the family to decline.

Moreover, the larger the force, the more powerful the family, the more effort they have to exert!

"Alright, I understand."

Lu Changsheng held Xiao Xiyue's jade hand, smiling and nodding.

He had long been mentally prepared for the Pioneer War.

Knowing such matters, neither Xiao Xiyue nor even Chu Qingyi have the authority to interfere.

The two being able to inform him early is already a convenience.

"Hmm, in a few days, I will also go to the Qingyun Secret Realm for the final Core Formation trial."

Xiao Xiyue continued.

"Is it dangerous?"

Lu Changsheng immediately asked.

"This trial is mainly for the ownership of the Coagulation Crystal Elixir, there won't be any life-threatening danger."

Xiao Xiyue's beautiful eyes softened, and she smiled.

"What's the situation with this Qingyun Secret Realm?"

Lu Changsheng and Xiao Xiyue sat down, he poured spiritual tea and asked.

He knew that the Four Great Immortal Sects each controlled several secret realms for disciple trials or to periodically produce heaven and earth spiritual objects, cultivating heaven and earth spiritual materials.

"The Qingyun Secret Realm mainly focuses on battle strength, Dao Heart, inheritance..."

Xiao Xiyue stated that this is the inheritance secret realm of the Qingyun Sect, testing a person's battle strength, the heart of seeking Dao, comprehension, and inheritance insights.

Afterward, the Qingyun Sect will judge who has the greatest potential based on their performance in the secret realm and then grant the Coagulation Crystal Elixir.

"Battle strength, Dao Heart, inheritance."

Lu Changsheng nodded slightly, having great confidence in Xiao Xiyue.

She cultivated the Supreme Forgetful Love Technique, with a strong Dao Foundation, no lack of talisman instruments, her battle strength is absolutely in the first tier.

Her Dao Heart is needless to say.

As long as Xiao Xiyue enters the Supreme Forgetful state, she is like the Nine Heavens Bright Moon, unaffected by emotions or external objects, with only the Great Dao in her heart!

As for the final comprehension, perhaps not leading by a large margin, but still upper class.

However, Xiao Xiyue's competitors are all the core true inheritors of the Qingyun Sect.

Some have even been waiting for decades, with even more preparation.

"If there's no rush, let's visit Heming Mountain to see Wangshu, I have something for you."

Lu Changsheng pondered slightly and said to Xiao Xiyue.

To ensure safety, he prepared to lend the Thousand Faces Puppet Fox to Xiao Xiyue.

This would ensure no mishaps in terms of battle strength.

If there are gaps in the Dao Heart test, the Thousand Faces Puppet Fox can still offer reminders.

"Hmm, alright."

Xiao Xiyue had not seen her daughter for some time and smiled gently.

Then, Lu Changsheng mentioned it to Lu Miaoge and Lu Miaoyun, before taking Xiao Xiyue and leaving Bi Lake Mountain, heading to Heming Mountain.

...

"Chirp!"

The Golden-Winged Heavenly Peng let out a cry, its whole body shining with brilliant golden light.

Xiao Xiyue was startled and surprised seeing the Golden-Winged Heavenly Peng before her.

"This is my mount spiritual beast."

Lu Changsheng did not explain much, taking Xiao Xiyue's delicate jade hand and leading her onto the Golden-Winged Heavenly Peng, cloaking her graceful jade body with a layer of Yin Yang Mysterious Divine Light.

"Whoosh—"

In an instant, the Golden-Winged Heavenly Peng transformed into a golden streak, tearing through the Nine Heavens Gang Wind, and vanished.

Two days later.

Lu Changsheng held Xiao Xiyue by the waist, quietly entering Heming Mountain.

Ling Zixiao was slightly surprised to see the two arrive, then smiled lightly, indicating that Wangshu was at the Red Dawn Market.

"Zi Xiao..."

Lu Changsheng first talked about the Pioneer War matters.

"The Pioneer War has already been decided?"

Ling Zixiao looked at Xiao Xiyue with some surprise, not expecting it to be settled so soon.

"At most a year, or half a year before it is thoroughly announced."

Xiao Xiyue said softly.

"Daoist Xiao, once the Pioneer War is confirmed, during this period, are conflicts and disputes prohibited?"

Ling Zixiao's beautiful eyes were clear, her tone gentle and elegant.

"According to past situations, it should be so."

Xiao Xiyue nodded.

During special times, the Four Great Immortal Sects will forbid subordinate family forces from conflict and unrest.

In the past, they might turn a blind eye to such things.

But if anyone dares to stir trouble during special times, they will be dealt with unceremoniously!

"Alright, I'll arrange something later."

Ling Zixiao nodded lightly.

Though Heming Mountain is stable, Lu Lingxiao and Lu Wangshu have been causing quite some trouble outside.

Chapter 1579: Chapter 536: Qingyun Secret Realm, Meng Xiaochan Attempts Core Formation! (Part 2)

He had been consolidating the surrounding forces and competing secretly with the Sima Family.

Then, Lu Changsheng explained Xiao Xiyue's situation to Ling Zixiao, stating that she was going to the Qingyun Secret Realm and would temporarily lend the Thousand Faces Puppet Fox to Xiao Xiyue.

"Of course there is no problem. I will congratulate Daoist Xiao in advance for a successful start and an early Core Formation."

Ling Zixiao elegantly smiled, with a graceful demeanor.

Then she waved over a short distance, and the Thousand Faces Puppet Fox, disguised as a maid, stepped forward.

Xiao Xiyue was very surprised to see this Thousand Faces Puppet Fox.

It's known that puppets inherently have no spiritual intelligence.

Even some Third Rank Puppets can at most execute simple orders, with no flexibility.

But this puppet before her actually possessed some consciousness and thought, which was truly astonishing.

"Take it. With this Thousand Faces Puppet Fox, I feel much more at ease."

Lu Changsheng held Xiao Xiyue's hand and said softly.

Xiao Xiyue cultivated the Supreme Forgetful Love Technique, unlike Meng Xiaochan, who required a lot of time to settle and hone her foundation after reaching the Foundation Establishment Peak.

Reaching the Foundation Establishment Peak allows directly breaking through to the Core Formation.

As long as Xiao Xiyue achieves Core Formation, her influence in the Qingyun Sect will increase.

By then, when the pioneering wars begin, at least she can be taken care of.

"Hmm."

A warm current surged in Xiao Xiyue's heart, her eyes gentle as water, and she nodded in response.

Beside her, Ling Zixiao couldn't help but marvel at Xiao Xiyue's expression and clicked her tongue in wonder.

With Lu Changsheng beside her or not, Xiao Xiyue was like a completely different person.

Under normal circumstances, who would have thought the fairy of Qingyun Sect, Xiyue, would look like this?

However.

She found the situation between Lu Changsheng and Xiao Xiyue's senior sister, Qingyi True Master, very interesting.

She looked forward to how her husband would handle the relationship between them in the future.

What would people think when they learned that the two Core Formation disciples of Caiyun True Immortal in Qingyun Sect served one husband?

Although Lu Changsheng said it was just to save someone and had no choice.

But after so many years of marriage, how could she not understand her husband's character and how could he easily let go of Chu Qingyi?

Just thinking about it, Ling Zixiao found it very amusing.

...

Lu Changsheng stayed for a while in Heming Mountain and then went to visit his daughter with Xiao Xiyue.

After so long, Lu Wangshu had become famous in the region.

No one was unaware of the name Wangshu Fairy of Bi Lake Mountain.

As for Lu Lingxiao.

He did not use his real name, but instead, called himself the Son of Heaven.

He served as the chief enforcer under Lu Wangshu, also renowned, and many speculated about his origins.

"Son of Heaven..."

Upon hearing this, Lu Changsheng thought to himself that this name was quite daring indeed.

According to the cultivation world, names, and titles can impact a cultivator's destiny.

Such a name, without a sufficiently strong fortune, might indeed be unbearable.

"When you reach Core Formation, Xi Yue, we'll ask a True Master to host the wedding, and then reveal Wangshu's matters to the True Master and the outside world."

Lu Changsheng said to Xiao Xiyue.

For decades, mother and daughter seldom met.

Even when they did, they rarely did so openly in public.

Although their daughter, Lu Wangshu, was cheerful and optimistic, and only inquired about her mother Xiao Xiyue's matters in her youth, she never asked later on.

But it would be impossible to say there was no resentment at all.

Hence, Lu Changsheng always hoped the mother and daughter could meet openly.

And for this reason, he had earlier gone with Xiao Xiyue to visit Yun Wanshang at Qingyun Sect.

"Hmm."

Xiao Xiyue always felt guilty towards her daughter, so when they met, she was incredibly indulgent.

...

After a visit to Heming Mountain with Xiao Xiyue, the two bid farewell and left.

Lu Changsheng did not directly return to Bi Lake Mountain but turned to the Misty Rain Market.

Considering the time, Yan Lan's child was almost due.

Upon arriving at the Misty Rain Market, Lu Changsheng visited the two women, waiting for over a month until the child was born.

The child had very good talent, a Second-Grade Spiritual Root.

As for other aspects, whether the child inherited Lu Changsheng's bloodline characteristics was not visible yet. It would take growing up to know.

After the child's birth, Lu Changsheng stayed for another three days before returning to Bi Lake Mountain.

"Husband, the Myriad Spirits Heaven Dew of the Myriad Spirits Bottle has already condensed."

Qu Zhenzhen said immediately upon seeing Lu Changsheng.

"Oh? In that case, let's use it."

Lu Changsheng replied with a smile.

He and Qu Zhenzhen went into the Mount Sumeru Cave Heaven, where they dripped the Myriad Spirits Heaven Dew on the Five Elements Spirit Fruit Tree.

"Buzz—"

The Five Elements Spirit Fruit Tree instantly appeared with intertwined patterns of luster, exuding a refreshing fragrance and a luxuriant vitality that was utterly delightful.

The Five Elements Spirit Fruit Tree required some time to absorb the Myriad Spirits Heaven Dew.

The next day, the five Five Elements Spirit Fruits on the fruit tree burst into radiant hues, with Five Elements rotating, emitting a fragrant aroma and forming a mystical trajectory.

"So this is the matured Five Elements Spirit Fruit."

"The appearance of the matured Five Elements Spirit Fruit is indeed magical."

Lu Miaoge, Lu Miaohuan, and Qu Zhenzhen couldn't help but exclaim as they looked at the Spirit Fruits before them.

Even without consuming them, just smelling the fragrant aroma of the Spirit Fruits made them feel completely comfortable.

"In a few years, when there are more Spirit Fruits, we'll each try one."

Lu Changsheng smiled as he spoke.

He had tasted the Five Elements Spirit Fruit before, but its taste was just so-so.

However, these Spirit Fruits are primarily valued for their novelty.

Then, five prepared Jade Boxes appeared in his hand.

Using mana, he plucked the Five Elements Spirit Fruits and placed them in the Jade Boxes to prevent the leakage of its efficacy.

"Sister Miaoge, give this Five Elements Spirit Fruit to Ruyi when she returns."

"Zhenzhen, give this Five Elements Spirit Fruit to Quanzhen."

Lu Changsheng handed the two Spirit Fruits to the two ladies.

Then he looked at Meng Xiaochan, who was standing nearby in a purple dress, her face filled with a dazed expression and her beautiful eyes full of emotion.

Chapter 1580: Chapter 536: Qingyun Secret Realm, Meng Xiaochan Attempts Core Formation! (Part 3)

"Little Chan, now that the Five Elements Spirit Fruit is ripe, with the Coagulation Crystal Elixir and the Five Elements Spirit Fruit, you can also prepare for Core Formation."

Lu Changsheng's eyes were gentle as he handed a Five Elements Spirit Fruit to her.

"Lu Lang..."

Even though Meng Xiaochan already knew that Lu Changsheng had prepared a Five Elements Spirit Fruit for her.

Faced with the scene, she was still deeply moved, her eyes filled with tender affection and love.

After all, the combination of the Coagulation Crystal Elixir and the Five Elements Spirit Fruit is already considered a complete Core Formation resource!

Sufficient to increase the probability of Core Formation by fifty or sixty percent!

She also has two Core Formation Spiritual Objects in her possession.

If there was anything lacking, it was the secret technique to increase the probability of Core Formation, as she hadn't found time to cultivate it.

But the two had long discussed it and decided there was no need to increase the probability through a secret technique.

With Meng Xiaochan's foundational strength, this preparation made the success of Core Formation almost a certainty.

The only concern was the quality of the Core Formation.

And in terms of Core Formation quality, she had the subsequent nurturing from Lu Changsheng.

Moreover, to validate his previous assumptions and to avoid any accidents, Lu Changsheng took the time to comprehend Meng Xiaochan's cultivation technique.

Although he did not deepen his cultivation of it.

He could simulate similar mana with the "Yin Yang Creation Classic," refining nature's spiritual energy into mana at the time.

In such circumstances, unless Meng Xiaochan made a significant mistake or her state of mind was faulty, there was no chance of failure!

"Little Chan, just focus on preparing for Core Formation, and once you break through, we'll have a child."

"Then, when we have time, let's go visit your Master at the Five Poisons Cult."

Lu Changsheng pinched her fair cheek and said with a light smile.

After spending so much time together, he had grown more fond of Meng Xiaochan.

After all, who wouldn't like a woman who is completely devoted to you and obeys your every wish.

"Mmm..."

Meng Xiaochan's cheeks flushed with happiness and shyness.

For the past four years, she had been in closed-door cultivation, tirelessly honing her foundational mana, all for this day.

Now, Core Formation was within reach!

Although Lu Changsheng hoped Meng Xiaochan would achieve Core Formation sooner.

The matter of Core Formation was of great importance, so there was no rush.

Let Meng Xiaochan adjust her state and every few days solidify her foundation with the Yin-Yang Source and the Sun Moon Samsara Technique.

...

Just like that, half a year passed.

During this time, Lu Changsheng spent most of his time helping Meng Xiaochan strengthen her foundation, so only one concubine became pregnant.

Three months ago, Xiao Xiyue successfully returned from the Qingyun Secret Realm and gained the right to a Coagulation Crystal Elixir.

This day, in the Mount Sumeru Cave Heaven, inside the Changsheng Hall.

Lu Changsheng and Meng Xiaochan sat cross-legged.

"Lu Lang, I'm ready."

Meng Xiaochan opened her beautiful eyes, her gaze lively, and said softly.

"Alright, let's begin."

Lu Changsheng nodded with a smile, then gently embraced Meng Xiaochan, activating the Sun Moon Samsara Technique, blending perfectly.

"With determination, emotions forgotten, all things empty, sun soul and moon essence, pure in thought, across the heavens and earth, different in no place..."

Spirit and flesh, body and mind, continuously merged, and an invisible furnace gradually formed above their heads.

Then the sun and moon burned, transforming into a trickle of jade liquid.

Although Meng Xiaochan's Sun Moon Samsara Technique was not profound, Lu Changsheng had cultivated this technique to perfection.

Moreover, as a Nascent Soul Cultivator, with the Yin Yang Great Dao Golden Core, the pure jade liquid gathered by the primordial yang mana, the essence energy of sun and moon, was comparable to a top-grade Core Formation Spiritual Object!

"Buzz buzz buzz——"

Just like that, Lu Changsheng fully activated the Sun Moon Samsara Technique, channeling all his mana into this trickle of jade liquid.

Then slowly rotated the invisible furnace, merging it into Meng Xiaochan's Qi Ocean Core.

"Boom!"

In an instant, Meng Xiaochan's exquisite body erupted with radiant glow.

Every inch of her skin, flesh, and blood was wrapped and filled with a layer of pure sun and moon essence energy, extremely comfortable.

At the same time, her mana's Elixir Lake boiled, her Dao Foundation radiated endless glow.

"Little Chan."

With two Core Formation experiences, Lu Changsheng immediately reminded Meng Xiaochan.

"Mhm."

Meng Xiaochan's beautiful eyes opened and closed, her palm lifted lightly, the Coagulation Crystal Elixir entered her mouth, she activated her cultivation technique, striving for Core Formation.

Lu Changsheng sat beside her, completely focused on Meng Xiaochan's condition.

...

Outside the Changsheng Hall.

Lu Miaoge, who was cultivating, sensed the commotion and opened her watery eyes.

"Core Formation..."

Lu Miaoge felt a bit sentimental.

Her husband was a Nascent Soul Immortal, and not just any, but an Immortal Golden Core!

Bi Lake Mountain was about to have a third Nascent Soul Immortal!

Lu Miaoge was very likely, with Lu Changsheng's help, to become a far-reaching Nascent Soul Immortal.

"Core Formation..."

Lu Miaoge respectfully bowed to the red lotus outside her cave mansion, and then stepped out of the Cave Heaven.

"Sister Miaoge, Qingyun Sect's envoy has come, issuing a Pioneer Order."

Lu Miaoyun said immediately when she saw Lu Miaoge.

"Qingyun Sect has directly issued the Pioneer Order."

"Yes, and Qingyun Sect has officially announced the commencement of the Pioneer War in ten years, during which all loose cultivators can register for the Pioneer War at the marketplaces under Qingyun Sect, and registrants can all receive basic cultivation techniques."

"During these ten years, a truce is enforced for all forces. Any provocation will be severely punished."

"What is our family's quota?"

Lu Miaoge inquired.

The loose cultivators and Energy Refining Families participate voluntarily.

But families with a Foundation Establishment Cultivator must register and participate!

"Four Foundation Establishment Cultivators, twenty Energy Refining Cultivators."

Lu Miaohuan handed a decree to Lu Miaoge.

Lu Miaoge paused for a moment.

That wasn't a small number.

Keep in mind, Bi Lake Mountain currently has no more than twelve Foundation Establishment Cultivators outwardly.

Although it could be guessed that Bi Lake Mountain has more than twelve Foundation Establishment Cultivators.

"Earlier, True Man Bai Shuang came and mentioned they would take care of our family, but since our family is a False Core Family, this is already the lowest standard."

Lu Miaoyun said in a low voice.

Lu Miaoge understood this reasoning and nodded, asking, "Besides Qingyun Sect, have the Heavenly Sword Sect, Luoxia Sect, and Spirit Taming Sect announced the same?"

"They should have, but the message hasn't spread that quickly yet."

Lu Miaoyun shook her head and said.

"Mmm."

Lu Miaoge said after contemplating, "Then let's make preparations early, and don't let ourselves fall behind others. In the ten years' time, Qingyun's Pioneer War will begin. We need to be ready."

Meanwhile, in the grand hall.

A fifteen or sixteen-year-old girl with fair skin and nimble features bowed to Lu Miaoge.

"Greetings, Lady!"

"Xiao Yu."

Lu Miaoge saw the girl and smiled gently.

This girl was the one she had taken in three and a half years ago from Qingyun, and she was now a charming young woman.

For this girl, Lu Qingxuan showed no strictness, keeping her by his side and teaching her cultivation.

Now, three and a half years passed, not only had the girl embarked on the path of cultivation, but she had also blossomed into a lovely young lady.

"Mother."

A moment later, Lu Qingxuan saw Lu Miaoge, he bowed and greeted gracefully.

"Xuan'er."
