

I Play Yu-Gi 111

Chapter 111: Wood Division Player

Yuei Vu spent a lot of time rejecting the "kindness" of Jonouchi.

Jonouchi seemed to think that Yuei Vu wanted his "Roll of Fate" for his own sake, so he refused to hand over this card.

Looking at Jonouchi who was advertising rare cards so enthusiastically, Yuei Vu couldn't help but be speechless

I really really want that Roll of Fate!

To be honest, he didn't like the bunch of "rare cards" in Jonouchi's deck. Insect Queen and the like were all useless sewer monsters. Jinzo was a bit more powerful, but its value was still no match for the Roll of Fate.

Among the cards currently in Jonouchi's deck, Yuei Vu was only interested in this Roll of Fate and the forbidden card Giant Trunade. However, in the eyes of Jonouchi, these two may just be worthless flat cards.

Of course, after all, the winner of this duel was still Yuei Vu, and the final decision was still in his hands. Therefore, under his repeated insistence, Jonouchi finally handed over his Roll of Fate.

After the exchange, Yuei Vu left immediately.

Looking at the back of him leaving, Anzu couldn't help but sigh: "Yuei Vu is really a good person."

"Yeah." Jonouchi also nodded in agreement, "This guy is also a true duelist. Not only is he strong, his tactics as a duelist are impeccable, but he also has a heart that will consider others."

"And the person is also very handsome, giving people a very reliable feeling."

(Jonouchi: Favorability +1, +1, +1,)

(Anzu: Favorability +1, +1, +1,)

"Okay! I can't relax anymore!" Jonouchi patted his face, "I have to find a new opponent in the remaining time and win the last two puzzle cards!"

At this time, the one who they thought was "reliable and gentle", was holding this newly received treasure and was thinking about how many zeroes to add to its price when throwing it into the personal store later

At this moment, the NPCs and players who were arguing with each other while watching the battle began to fight. The game between Yuei Vu and Jonouchi has just ended, and the two of them have already started a duel on the spot.

That NPC was the old brother who called himself the "Top 32 Players of the Township Competition" before. Since this was a very minor character that didn't need a proper name, let's just call him Brother 32.

The ID of the player who was fighting here was "Native Noragami". From the name alone, it could be seen that this was not someone you should provoke.

And this person was indeed the highest VIP player, commonly known as the PTW (pay to win) fighter. The money he spent in the game exceeded five figures in just a few weeks after the game was opened, which was really terrifying.

For Yu-Gi-Oh players, this Native Noragami actually has a more terrifying feature that was enough to make deep players feel creepy.

That was

he's actually an autistic player!

And Brother 32 was very honored to be the lucky NPC who can experience the horror of autistic players.

This was how the whole duel went.

Native Noragami: "Activate Continuous Spell Toll! Players on both sides must pay 500LP for each attack declaration!"

Brother 32: "Oh! A little trick! Use the Night Lizard' to attack the set monster!"

Native Noragami: "The monster you attacked is a Man-Eater Bug! When this card is flipped face-up, destroy a monster on the field!"

Brother 32: "Then this turn, I will attack your wall monster with Queen Bird!"

Native Noragami: "The monster you attacked is a Nimble Momonga'. If this card is destroyed by battle and sent to the GY, I gain 1000 LP, then I can Special Summon any number of Nimble Momonga' from my Deck in face-down Defense Position!"

Brother 32 who managed to clear the two Nimble Momongas and other wall monsters: "Ha, now you don't have any wall monsters, right? Attack directly!"

Native Noragami: "Open the set card Scapegoat! Special summon four Scapegoats to the field! At the same time, activate the trap Secret Barrel' to deal damage to the opponent's hand and the number of cards on the field x 200!"

""

The onlookers all shook their heads.

"Poor baby. If I was in his shoes, I'm going to be crazy again soon."

"Is this the ancient autism deck?"

"I feel that the NPC is going to be beaten up by Brother Noragami"

"Brother Noragami's self-closing deck is really expensive. You go to Yuei Vu's store to see, it will take some gold to collect these cards."

In the blink of an eye, Brother 32's LP has been slashed to the point of being a candle in the wind, and the LP of Native Noragami has not changed Oh, I couldn't say that, because his LP seemed to be increasing

At this time, Native Noragami played another autistic monster.

Kelbek (Level 4, ATK 1500/DEF 1800) If this card is attacked by a monster, after damage calculation: Return that monster to the hand.

In the end, Brother 32 was not at all cowardly. After drawing the card in the next round, he laughed directly: "Finally here, my key card! With this card, the goddess of victory is already waving to me!"

The Native Noragami panicked a little at the time.

What? So confident?

Could you still draw a card and OTK me this turn?

He saw Brother 32 put on a handsome POSE and activated Polymerization, fusion summoned a Level 5 fusion monster "Vermillion Sparrow" with an attack power of 1900. Immediately afterward, he took out the spell card "Quick Attack" without saying a word, giving the fusion monster the ability to attack immediately.

Brother 32 had a wave of card-loss operation, using four cards to get a fusion monster with an attack power of 1900. If Yuki Judai, the only designated master of card-loss operation in the future, knew about this, he might give him a thumb-up across time and space.

(In Yu-Gi-Oh! GX, Yuki once used all five cards in hand to summon a Normal monster with 2500 ATK. It's commonly known as the ultimate five-for-one.)

Native Noragami was even a little nervous.

What's wrong with this card? Never heard of it.

But seeing that Brother 32 was so confident, it must have a powerful hidden ability. Otherwise, how could someone exchange four cards for a fusion monster with an attack power of 1900

Even with the most idiotic player, there must be a limit, right?

"This way I can break through!" Brother 32 shouted, "Attack Kelbek' with Vermillion Sparrow!"

"Kelbek's special ability!" said Native Noragami, "The monster that attacks it will be bounced back to the owner's hand!"

"Hahahaha, I've seen through this trick for a long time!" Brother 32 laughed.

Native Noragami was taken aback. What? Is this "Vermillion Sparrow" a monster with effect resistance? Like being unaffected by monster effects?

Then he heard Brother 32 laugh: "Let me explain! Vermillion Sparrow' is a Fusion monster, and according to the duel monster rules, Fusion monsters cannot be held in the hand card! So Kelbek's effect can't bounce Vermillion Sparrow' back into the hand!"

Native Noragami: "."

Onlookers: "."

The scene suddenly became quiet.

At this moment, it seemed as if a crow was screaming "caw caw" and flew over the heads of everyone

The fusion monster "Vermillion Sparrow", which was made by Brother 32's extreme four-for-one, disappeared from the field with great disgrace and was bounced back to Brother 32's card box that was hanging on his waist.

According to the rules, Fusion monsters would return to the Extra Deck when they received effects such as "return to deck" and "return to hand". However, there was no concept of Extra Decks in this era, so they would naturally return to the owner's card box.

Brother 32 was shocked: "Nani!? Why!??"

A player said leisurely: "For a moment just now, I thought he really had a strategy to deal with the Kelbek's effect I'm so stupid, really."

"Brother in front, you are not alone."

"Maybe this is the legendary Wood Division, I can't understand"

Even Noragami, the local party involved on the field, felt speechless.

He now thought that he was so stupid to be nervous for a moment just now.

It felt like you were an expert playing with the bronze players. You have predicted all their possible routes, thinking that you could outplay them when they were trying to dodge, but they actually walked in a straight line and perfectly dodged all your skills

Of course, there was no suspense next. Brother 32 was beaten to death by autism, and in the end, he couldn't even touch a single hair of the opponent

Chapter 112: Did You Have Nothing Else To Say?

Marik Ishtar was in a bad mood recently, very bad.

He has been preparing for this revenge that would end the fate of the Tomb Keepers family over the span of three thousand years. This Battle City was the final stage of his planned revenge.

In order to make trouble in this competition, he was fully prepared, and he was determined to make the nameless Pharaoh's soul pay the price. However, the plan didn't keep up with the change. Before he even had time to officially declare war on Yugi, he suffered one loss after another, and even the Sky Dragon, one of his trump cards, was exported but it didn't matter!

As the leader of the Ghouls and the second strongest duelist in the Tomb Keepers family, Marik, of course, also prepared a backup.

In the original Yu-Gi-Oh! DM, Marik actually prepared an extra trick. He sent a puppet with the sky dragon to challenge Yugi, and immediately after being defeated, he sent the Ghouls to capture Jonouchi's best friend, and brainwashed Jonouchi with the power of a Millennium Rod, forcing him and Yugi to turn against each other.

That's right, Marik, who had always followed the rules, had morals and principles, and even punished his subordinates for secretly cheating when they were dueling with Yugi, seemed to have abandoned the bottom line after losing the Sky Dragon.

Therefore, according to the record of online Yu-Gi-Oh characters, Marik has a total defeat record in the entire Yu-Gi-Oh DM game without winning a game. It could be called a legend.

Even the six puzzle cards that he used for promotion were provided by his subordinates that was to say, in the foreseeable record, this guy has never even won against passers-by.

And in Marik's own recollection, he didn't seem to win his against sister either.

The most interesting case was when Marik possessed the hidden boss Yami Bakura and duel with the Yami Marik personality who stole his body.

Then the evil god Zorc (the true identity of Yami Bakura), who was the ultimate BOSS of Yu-Gi-Oh!DM, the holder of the Millennium Ring, the incarnation of darkness, listened to a few words of advice from Marik, adopted the tactics he recommended, and lost. ..

If other people were feeders, they only made themselves lose. But Marik was different. He was such a refined feeder that could make even the legendary evil god Zorc (whose dueling skills were not very good, but still enough to trouble Yugi) lose along with him!

"When playing as a teammate, I made the great evil god Zorc lose!"

Although he has never won a card game, this achievement was enough for Marik to be proud for the rest of his life.

Marik has already sent his subordinates to follow and monitor Jonouchi, and now it was almost time to start.

He closed his eyes and released the power of the Millennium Rod to contact the subordinates who were placed near Jonouchi.

"How's your business going?" Marik asked solemnly.

The Ghouls member, who was being questioned, heard the boss's voice ringing in his head, and couldn't help but tremble: "MaLord Marik!"

"Has Katsuya Jonouchi also been arrested?"

"This not yet"

"What?" Marik was annoyed, "Why haven't you done it yet?"

The Ghouls member wanted to cry but had no tears: "Lord Marik, please calm down, this is because because there is really no chance for him to be alone. There have been a lot of weirdos around that Jonouchi

"?" Marik wondered, "Weirdos?"

He was too lazy to ask, and directly used the Millennium Rod to forcibly enter the brain of the Ghoul's rare hunter, sharing the other party's vision.

The rare hunter was caught off guard: "Ah~"

Marik borrowed his eyes to take a look, and at a glance, he found Jonouchi not far away, and the chattering surrounding him a group of screwballs?

The well-informed Tomb Keepers Marik was a little stunned at this time. His first reaction was to suspect that the Millennium Rod might not have been broken somewhere, and the poor reception of the picture made him see some illusion.

He saw a group of screwballs jumping up and down judging from the Duel Disks worn on their arms, they should all be duelists, and they were all as happy as a festival.

Several of them seemed to be performing performance art that he did not understand.

For example, a buddy likes to roll in circles while talking to people.

There's another buddy Marik couldn't tell from the picture given by the Millennium Rod whether that person was a human being because the guy had a huge headgear that made him look like a Hippo. It felt like a working boy in a mascot costume selling balloons in an amusement park

WTH were you wearing!?

Although there was no such thing as "prohibition of exotic clothes" in the rules of the conference, normally who would wear clothes like this?

Could you at least dress like a human, please?

However, at this time, the relatively thick Jonouchi actually seemed to have accepted these strange settings, believing that the performance art of this part of the screwballs was a custom they brought from their hometown.

After all, the world was full of wonders. Kaiba also said that the Battle City Competition would also allow outstanding duelists from other parts of the world to sign up for the competition. Maybe these weirdos come from some remote corners with strange customs?

After learning that these screwballs were "fans of the Duelist Kingdom runner-up", Jonouchi actually got along quite happily with them

"Damn." Marik gritted his teeth.

If there had always been such a group of screwballs surrounding Jonouchi, he would never have been able to wait for the chance to capture Jonouchi alone. It looked like the plan to use him as a hostage against Yugi was going to be aborted before it even started.

In this competition, Ghouls's plan really not going well.

"Continue to monitor him." Marik ordered gloomily, "If you can wait until you get a chance, do it, otherwise don't do anything."

He snorted heavily: "It seems that we can only let Yugi advance safely first, and it's not too late to sanction him after the rematch.

Right now, the strategic focus of our Ghouls will be on Kaiba Seto for the time being."

Originally, Marik and Kaiba had nothing to do with each other. What Marik was looking for was only the soul of the pharaoh in Yugi.

But when his sister Ishizu handed the Obelisk the Tormentor to Kaiba, Marik began to notice this man. Only later did he remember the millennium battle engraved on the ancient stone slab unearthed in Egypt. The priest who controlled the white dragon to fight against the pharaoh was a look-alike of Kaiba.

What he was more curious about was that the three Egyptian Gods should only be used by those who were related to the Millennium Items, but Kaiba had never acquired any Millennium Item in his life, so why did Obelisk willingly listen to Kaiba's order?

So a new plan took shape in Marik's mind.

He wanted to approach and catch Kaiba Seto, brainwashing him with the Millennium Rod, and find out the hidden secrets of Kaiba!

He had a hunch that the Kaiba might also have something important to do with the fate of their Tomb Keepers.

"However, Kaiba Seto is a tough man with high vigilance, so it's not that easy to succeed." Marik said lightly, "But I heard that he has a younger brother who he cherishes very much.

Now that his younger brother is in our hands, I need you to assign some people to him. We are going to use his younger brother as a threat to force Seto Kaiba into submission.

Kaiba has Obelisk in his hand, and I have The Winged Dragon of Ra in my hand. Although I have the advantage, I still have to be careful"

The Ghoul's rare hunter subconsciously asked: "Eh? Don't you still have Osiris the Sky Dragon?"

Marik: ""

"Ah! Ahhh! Lord Marik, please forgive me! Spare my life!"

The poor Ghoul's rare hunter was deadbrain dead, to be more precise. His consciousness has been dragged into the dark abyss to feed unknown creatures, and there was only an empty shell left.

Marik's face darkened.

Damn, did you have nothing else to say?

Chapter 113: Serious Duelists

Executing his talkative subordinates smoothly, Marik sullenly cut off contact with the gang of Ghouls.

A bunch of rubbish who can't handle even a little thing!

Sure enough, the task of coercing Kaiba should be handed over to other more reliable subordinates, and the rubbish here must not be able to handle it.

Not long after Marik left, the Ghouls members who were keeping Jonouchi under their surveillance encountered an emergency again.

"Fuck you, look this way!" A player suddenly appeared in an unknown corner next to him, pointing at the group of sneaky Ghouls men and shouting, "Look at these guys, they look a bit like the NPCs of the Ghouls!"

A player with a hippo headgear on his head looked at the reputation: "It must be them! No one would wear such a strange thing on the street except for Ghouls's mental illness!"

The Ghouls members looked at the strangely-shaped headgear on this guy's head, and couldn't help but cursed in their hearts did you have the right to say that we dress strangely?

It's strange that the mission of the Ghouls was obviously "stalking", but they were all wearing Ghouls' iconic sack-like black robes, and walking on the street in an eye-catching way as if they were afraid of others didn't recognize them as Ghouls

This feels the same as those secret agents in American TV movies who wear a standard black suit and sunglasses. It seemed that they are mysteriously and professionally tracking the target, but in fact, as long as people were not blind, they could recognize the dress code across the street.

As we all know, online game players were a kind of creatures who would call friends and companions. As long as you provoked one of them, a whole swarm would emerge in a moment.

No, a group of players gathered around when they heard the shouts.

"Ghouls? Where?"

"By the way, isn't the event of hunting Ghouls over? Is it still a reward for killing it now?"

"Who cares! Even if we aren't rewarded, we can still pull their deck!"

"It doesn't seem to be able to pull the deck, that's a foul"

The first player came up and opened the Duel Disk directly: "Come on, Ghouls, duel with me!"

But he was quickly pushed away by the second player: "No, duel me first!"

"I came first!"

"Don't worry, don't worry, let's assign it. Each person chooses a Ghouls to work, and then everyone queued up one by one, don't grab it"

There were more and more players coming around after hearing the news. Even Jonouchi that was supposed to be the target of surveillance noticed that fuss, rushed over to take a look, and couldn't help but exclaim: "Ah! This dress You are allied with Ghouls who attacked me before!"

All the Ghouls members were surrounded by a crowd of players noisily, and they were at a loss for a while. A group of tall and strong men, but at this time they were as helpless as sheep who have strayed into the wolf pack, and the same words appear in their minds

I'm done!

Yuei Vu, who left the aquarium, was walking down the street, looking at the six puzzle cards in his hand.

Next, he only needed to find an open space and put the six puzzle cards on the Duel Disk to project the promotion address. When he arrived at that address, he could advance.

There were still a few players headed by Miss Yuehua following him.

Players who have pursued join in the fun for a while and then hurry up to level up. The people who were still here were salted fish with no dreams and a playing mentality

Of course, salted fish was also divided into many kinds.

For example, Miss Yuehua, at this time, was the proudest among the salted fish players.

because

She was still holding the Duel Disk that Yuei Vu-san ripped off from Ghouls before!

Miss Yuehua was very proud, and even the players on the side were envious.

There were so many stalkers behind Yuei Vu, but he chose Miss Yuehua to help him hold the flute, Duel Disk.

What did this mean?

There must be a shady deal behind this!

And from Yuei Vu's performance along the way, it could be seen that among such a large number of players behind him, he really only had Miss Yuehua in his eyes.

For example, he would throw the Duel Disk he grabbed to her to hold for him, for example, he would ask her to run errands for him from time to time when he wanted to buy something of course, there were additional experience rewards.

Miss Yuehua ran errands for him, and her heart was filled with joy.

Wat! There are so many preparations The player is here, but he only gave me a chance to bootlick, what did this mean?

It meant that he only has me in his heart!

Miss Yuehua was very happy. Even the high experience of completing each mission was secondary, the point was that it made her proud.

The matter spread in the forum, her popularity in the live broadcast room was also getting higher and higher, and the audience was coming more and more. If this went on, it might have the potential to become a first-rate streamer!

Miss Yuehua came to the forum and looked at the players' messages.

"I'm so envious, how did this streamer please Yuei Vu? I also want to be his sidekick!"

"First of all, you have to be a girl. Brother upstairs, in your situation, I suggest that you cut the redundant thing first."

"It must be that Yuei Vu was moved by seeing the good-looking streamer. I boldly predicted that the next quest will require her to take off his pants!"

"You can't take off his pants. I think she must stand upside down and learn to bark"

Miss Yuehua looked at these comments and sneered.

Hmph, you are all jealous of me!

How could my Yuei Vu be willing to send me such a strange task? Impossible!

Just thinking about this, she raised her head and suddenly noticed that Yuei Vu was looking at her with twinkling eyes

Miss Yuehua froze in her heart, and for such a brief moment, she felt cold for no reason.

"It's a little hot today, why don't you buy a bottle of water for me." Yuei Vu said.

Miss Yuehua breathed a sigh of relief.

So far so good. I'll just say, how could Yuei Vu send me such a strange task?

At this time, the buddies who saw her mission reward in the live broadcast room were all jealous:
"You have so much experience running errands and buying water!"

"Reward of playing card is not as good as a bootlicking dog, I really want to become one"

"Damn, why doesn't any other NPC issue such an easy task"

However, what they didn't know was that Yuei Vu was actually browsing the forum at the moment, and also saw that post.

There were still many talents in the forum, and he wanted to see if any of the brothers can give him some good ideas. After all, as an NPC, it took a lot of brain cells to keep changing the way to make up new quests to release.

He scrolled down the forum, and actually found the news of the establishment of "Yuei Vu's Fan Club", whose founding members were mainly girls and some men with the same interests.

Weird.

Then what he didn't expect was that his spirit actually had a fan club too.

Before the duel with Pandora this morning, Yuei Vu's Dark Magician Girl came out to help him beat the enemy. The incident happened to be captured by Miss Yuehua's live broadcast, and the news that "Yuei Vu's Dark Magician Girl is a spirit" also spread on the forum.

The news was like a heavy bomb, and even a bunch of diving parties who are accustomed to browsing and not talking have been blown up.

"The spirit of the Dark Magician Girl!"

"Is it the kind of entity for hugging?"

"So envious of Yuei Vu!"

"Newbie question: do this game allow players to do shameful things with spirits?"

What was even more exaggerated was that some multi-talented and prolific players have even written the fanfiction of Yuei Vu X Dark Magician Girl in one day!

Yuei Vu just clicked in and glanced, then he almost had to take a brain bleach on the spot.

Not just that, there were even people who said that reading fanfiction was not enough and want to read hentai doujinshis.

So the comment area followed a long series of replies: "I'm drawing, I'm drawing"

""

Do you dare to believe that one day you could see Rule 34 apply to yourself?!

Yuei Vu quickly closed the topic before he was corrupted by the screwballs.

I was a serious duelist, how could I have impure thoughts about my spirit partner?

I, Yuei Vu, swear that even if I die alone and never find a girlfriend, will never hit my spirit!

Eh, why did it feel like I'm raising a flag?

Chapter 114: Take Some Detours

Yuei Vu moved forward while browsing the forum. From time to time, he gave some mini-quests to the little valet beside him, while looking for his final target.

Not long after walking, a strong wind suddenly rolled up on the street. A low beep came from the other side of the house, and the roar shook the block, and every pane of glass along the street hummed as if it resonated.

Yuei Vu raised his head and saw a pitch-black helicopter slowly lowering its altitude. Huge steel raptors fluttered their claws and rolled up a hurricane in the streets.

There was even a tied man hanging from the helicopter directly under the rope, who appeared to be a child in terms of stature.

Wait a minute, isn't that Kaiba Mokuba? The younger brother of President Seto Kaiba?

No wonder the president didn't come even when there was a big event such as the appearance of the Sky Dragon before. It turned out that his younger brother was kidnapped

The players also found Mokuba hanging from the helicopter below, and exclaimed one by one: "OMG! Mokuba has been kidnapped again! Hey, why should I say again'?" (1)

"President Kaiba's younger brother and Yugi's grandfather, the professional hostage duo, NPCs that promote the plot"

"Fuck, when you say that, I realize that it seems to be true! The DM professional hostage duo!"

A group of players chattered and watched Mokuba hanging from the helicopter and spinning around. A talented player even started to sing, "Learn about the merry-go-round"

""

"Merry-go-round? In this situation? Are you the devil?"

Mokuba's Japanese pronunciation was close to "Trojan Horse", and the translation of the old animation did translate his name to Trojan Horse.

So in this scene, the player who sang the merry-go-round song was really a bit of a devil

"Dare to kidnap President Kaiba's younger brother in Domino City?"

Thinking with their feet, the players knew that only Ghouls dared to be so arrogant.

Of course, even Ghouls wouldn't do useless things. To tie Mokuba and parade through the streets, they must have someone to provoke.

Therefore, everyone was not surprised to find President Kaiba wearing a white trench coat not far away.

"Mokuba!" Of course, President Kaiba also noticed the movement in the sky.

"Brother!" Mokuba, who was hanged in the sky, struggled desperately, but of course, it was impossible to break free with his strength.

At this moment, a certain hunter in black robes appeared on the top of the tall building.

That hunter jumped from the top of the high-rise building, lightly placed on a flagpole protruding from the side of the building, followed by a somersault and stepped on the air-conditioning plug-in outside the building, and then stepped on the balcony railings and storefronts all the way. The whereabouts of the signboard unexpectedly jumped from the top of a building more than ten or twenty meters high!

The Ghouls hunter was as light as a ninja and landed in front of the Kaiba in a handsome posture and raised the Duel Disk.

He smiled grimly: "President Kaiba, fight me."

At this point, a group of players couldn't hold back.

"6666, this Ghouls hunter has the gall!"

"Shit, is this specially invited from Ninja Village?"

"By the way, why are you still playing cards when you are so awesome? Wouldn't it be better to go up and beat Kaiba and just grab the cards?"

"Tell a joke, the two Kaiba brothers are worth over 100 million without a bodyguard. Whoever wants to kidnap and tie them up"

The president of Kaiba was angry: "If you Ghouls dare to hurt Mokuba, I will use all the resources of Kaiba Corp to crush you!"

While talking, another big rare hunter appeared behind Kaiba and said gloomily: "Of course, you can. But if you take action against us, what will happen to your lovely brother, I can't guarantee it."

President Kaiba gritted his teeth: "You bastard!"

At this time, some players have questions: "Why can they do what they want? Is there no police in this world?"

"The police may also lose to Ghouls at dueling"

"Fuck, it makes sense!"

Others were booing: "Mokuba said that I'm just cooperating with you to play a show. If my bother really love me, I would get serious, rub a Rasengan on the spot and defeat you all in seconds."

"Damn it, I checked it out, it seems to be true! It seems that Mokuba and the Crowned Prince of Konoha Village next door are one and the same!"

After being told by the screwball player, Yuei Vu also remembered that the seiyuu of Kaiba Mokuba and Uzumaki Naruto seemed to be the same person. No wonder this voice sounded so familiar

"If you want to save your lovely younger brother, accept our challenge, Kaiba Seto!" shouted the short Ghouls hunter.

"Come to me if you want!" Kaiba shouted angrily and opened the Duel Disk directly, "Stop talking nonsense!"

"Okay, then I'll go first!" said the short Ghouls hunter.

"No, no, no partner, I should go here first." The tall hunter took a step, "It's too cunning to grab the opportunity to go to Lord Malik to take credit alone."

"Then let's decide it by rock paper scissors?"

"Okay! Rock paper scissors! Uh, it's a tie Then come on, rock paper scissors! What! It is still a tie"

The two dudes casually guessed the boxing, and President Kaiba watched his younger brother hanging in the sky and spinning around. He was so angry that he even wanted to punch someone directly

"I'm sorry, President, we have been in a tie and we can't decide which one to go ahead eh!?"

The short hunter's eyes lit up and pointed towards the crowd.

"You! That's right, don't look around, it's just you! The most handsome one!"

Yuei Vu: ""

This was the side effect of being too handsome. When walking on the street, you were always the most eye-catching.

"Yuei Vu, right? Lord Malik mentioned you." The short man laughed, "We are lucky to meet two targets here in one breath. Right, partner?"

"Yeah, that's right." The tall hunter hummed, "My partner and I are just two people, so you two can form a team. We are two-on-two, how about a tag duel?"

Some players were shocked: "Why are these two people so arrogant? Are you challenging the president and Yuei Vu at the same time?"

"Don't you recognize it? This is the masked duo in the animation! Mask of Light and Mask of Darkness! In the animation, they also team up to duel with Yugi and Kaiba"

"Shocked, I haven't seen the DM, are these two so brave?"

Yuei Vu wanted to say that I was just passing by, you guys did as you wished, but considering that he was an employee of Kaiba Corp, and his high salary this month seems to have not been paid

It seems that it was not appropriate to just walk away like this.

And teaming up with President Kaiba was impossible to lose, right?

President Kaiba was still one of the best duelists in the DM, so he should be able to get a free win when teaming up with him.

It would be nice to get a few more rare cards from Ghouls for an extra win.

Kaiba glanced at Yuei Vu sideways, and snorted heavily: "Hmph, as you wish. But don't get me wrong, this is just to save Mokuba, it doesn't mean I agree with you"

"Yes, Mr. President, I understand." Yuei Vu reluctantly responded, stepping forward to open the Duel Disk.

Although the president said so, at least he did not refuse to team up with Yuei Vu. In fact, for the president, this was already a manifestation of his recognition of the opponent's strength.

Onlookers: "It's the first time I've seen such a textbook-style arrogance at the scene, I'm worthy of the president."

"It's over, I kind of want to read Yuei Vu x President Kaiba fanfic, what should I do"

Yuei Vu almost slipped.

Calm down. I can't fall to the low as a screwball.

On the road to success, it was inevitable to take some detours

Chapter 115: The Mighty White Bride

"Good, good, very good."

The tall Ghouls hunter took off his hood, revealing a half-masked face. The other half that was not covered by the mask was a square face with sharp edges and corners, with a broad chin and determined eyes.

His partner, the short hunter, also took off his hood. Different from the previous one, this short hunter had a round face under the hood, and the same half of the mask, but his eyes were more cunning and wretched in comparison, and he belonged to the type that girls would avoid unconsciously when walking on the street.

"We are the senior hunter partners in Ghouls, and two of the strongest duelists under Lord Marik." The short man smiled, "Let us introduce ourselves: We are the Mask of Light and Darkness. I am the Mask of Light, this is the Mask of Darkness"

"This kind of thing doesn't matter, I'm not interested in the name of the trash fish!" President Kaiba was as domineering as ever, and now he has directly opened the Duel Disk, "No matter who the opponent is, I will use absolute power to smash it. So simple!"

"Hehehe, it really conforms to the boss's style." The Mask of Light chuckled, "But before the official start, I still have to explain the conditions.

As you probably already know, President Kaiba's lovely younger brother is one of the ante this time around. If you win, we will naturally release him safely. As a group of duelists, we Ghouls still have this level of credibility.

But if you lose, then the Obelisk the Tormentor' held by President Kaiba, and the Osiris the Sky Dragon' held by Yuei Vu, please hand them over. "

Yuei Vu was not surprised when he said this, but President Kaiba's eyelids jumped at the time, and he turned his head to look at Yuei Vu in surprise.

This guy held the "Slifer the Sky Dragon"?

Is he a Master of God like me?

Due to the arrest of his dear brother, President Kaiba had no time to pay attention to the movement of the God card. Only now did he know that the Sky Dragon was sent to Yuei Vu by Marik from thousands of miles away.

Kaiba's gaze towards Yuei Vu has changed slightly, probably because it has risen from an "acceptable duelist" to a "qualified opponent".

Of course, no matter how his card addiction flared up, President Kaiba, whose younger brother is still on the merry-go-round in the sky, obviously still had a clear priority. He suppressed the urge to play cards with Yuei Vu on the spot, and temporarily focused his attention on Ghouls: "It's useless to talk too much. We accept the conditions, come on! "

"Hehe, he is as impatient as the rumors say." Mask of Light laughed strangely, looking sideways at his teammates, "Are you ready, partner?"

"Anytime." The well-built Mask of Darkness hummed.

"Duel!" x4

The tag duel here was also under the rule featured in the anime.

Duelists on the same team used their own decks, each with five cards in their hand, and each had five monster zone and five spell traps zone.

During the duel, the two sides of the team also regarded each other as opponents. For example, in the animation, Mask of Light used the effect of "exchanging hands with the opponent", and the "opponent" in this effect could also be his teammate.

However, the fields and graveyards of both sides as teammates could also be shared. In the animation, when the opponent directly attacked Yugi whose field was empty, Kaiba once ordered his monster to rush to the field of Yugi to help him block

Of course, the president didn't forget to add an explanation after the block, saying "don't get me wrong, just to repay your previous favor".

Everyone knows that the president was a standard Vegeta-style arrogant, he always needed a reason for his kindness, and even if he can't find one, he might say, "Don't get me wrong, I just moved on a whim and moved my body without authorization. "

"I go first, draw!" The tall Mask of Darkness was the first, "I summon Grand Tiki Elder' in attack position."

A black monster with a strange and eerie appearance appeared on the field, dressed as a magician, with a green rosary hanging around its neck, suspended in the air like a ghost.

[Grand Tiki Elder, ATK 1500]

"Set one more card, I end my turn."

The tag duel was based on the rotation of the camps of the two sides, and the next turn was Kaiba's.

"My turn!" President Kaiba vigorously pulled out the card and said solemnly, "You dare to kidnap Mokuba and touch my bottom line, so you must be mentally prepared to bear my anger!

I activate a Spell Card from my hand Cost Down! Discard 1 card; for the rest of this turn, reduce the Levels of all monsters in my hand by 2!

The card I discarded was Peten the Dark Clown'. When this card is sent to the GY, I can banish this card from your GY; Special Summon 1 "Peten the Dark Clown" from my hand or Deck! "

The president's series of combos not only lowered the star rating of the monsters in the hand, but at the same time, without consuming the Normal Summon, he got out of the deck a funny dark-path chemist wearing a wide-brimmed hat.

In this way, the original Level 7 or 8 monsters in his hand would be reduced to Level 5 or 6, and he only needed one sacrifice to summon them.

Of course, everyone knew exactly what the president was calling.

"I tribute Peten the Dark Clown on the field" Kaiba pulled out a card in his hand and shouted loudly, "Come on, my strongest servant, use the ultimate light to dispel the darkness

Blue-Eyes White Dragon! "

As if in response to Kaiba's anger, a whirlwind soaring into the sky rolled up in space. The dazzling light slammed down from the sky, and silver-white wings appeared on the periphery of the incandescent beam of light. The Dragon of Light emerged from the dazzling vortex, roaring through the sky, and the dragon's might shocked the entire block.

Blue-Eyes White Dragon, summon!

The face of Masks of Light and Masks of Light changed color at the same time: "The Blue-Eyes White Dragon was summoned in the first turn!?"

The players were also excited: "White Bride! My dragon waifu!"

"Upstairs, there are members of ."

"Why are you still taking screenshots? Just stand still!"

President Kaiba: "Hahahahaha! Tremble in front of the Blue-Eyes White Dragon!"

Another classic three-stage laugh, it seemed that the joy of the president calling for White Bride outweighed the anger of his brother being caught

[Blue-Eyes White Dragon, ATK 3000]

"Hmph, but all players in the first turn of the team battle can't attack." Kaiba folded his arms and hummed, "That rule saved your life for one turn. I'll set another card, and I end my turn."

"Hey hey hey, I really didn't expect the Blue-Eyes White Dragon to be summoned in the first turn, but we already have a countermeasure here." Next came the Mask of Light, "My turn, draw!

I activate the Spell Card from my hand Mask of the Accursed! "

A green Spell Card appeared and projected a strange black mask on the open space.

"Go! Go and attach yourself to the Blue-Eyes White Dragon!"

That strange black mask leaped across the audience and was directly absorbed into Blue-Eyes White Dragon's chest. The silver-white dragon let out a low roar, and his momentum was obviously weaker.

"What? Blue eyes!?" Kaiba was surprised, "What did you do!?"

"Hehe, the Mask of the Accursed is an equipment mask that can make monsters incapacitated."

Mask of Light sneered, "The possessed monster can't attack or defend, and it can't even be used as a wall. If you don't want to do something before the second turn, we can attack you directly, President." (animation effect)

"You bastard" The president gritted his teeth angrily.

His rage was understandable. If someone attached strange things to your wife, you would be very angry too

Chapter 116: Do You Think That I Like You?

"Monsters equipped with Mask of the Accursed' cannot attack, nor can they defend the owner."
Mask of Light sneered, "Not only that, but also the owner of the monster that is, you, Kaiba will be deducted 500 LP during each of your Standby Phases."

Kaiba gritted his teeth: "Cut."

"My turn is not over yet." Mask of Light continued, "I summon the Melchid the Four-Face Beast' in attack position."

What appeared this time was a strange monster that seemed to have only a head and no body, but there were four different faces in the four directions of its head. The front part was a big green face with a grin as if mocking his opponent.

[Melchid the Four-Face Beast, ATK 1500]

"I set two cards, and I end my turn." Mask of Light said.

"My turn." Finally, it was Yuei Vu's turn, "Draw."

In the first turn of the team, no one could attack. Here, duelists should consolidate the defense line and prepare for the next turn.

"Summon the Royal Magical Library' in defense position."

[Royal Magical Library, DEF 2000]

"The effect of the Royal Magic Library allows me to place 1 Spell Counter whenever a Spell Card is activated, up to 3 counters. Remove the 3 counters placed on this card, and I can draw one card from the deck."

Royal Magical Library was also an old card produced in a DM, and no one present did not recognize it. However, in the eyes of NPC, this monster's strong point was that even though it was a Level 4 monster, it had 2000 defensive power. As for the card drawing effect, it was regarded as tasteless.

"And then I activate a Spell Card Dark Magic Veil. Pay 1000 LP; Special Summon 1 DARK Spellcaster-Type monster from my hand or Graveyard.

Come on, the ultimate magician who is proficient in magic, the strongest mage Dark Magician! "

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3000

The blue circle was lit up on the ground, and every line that formed the circle seemed to be quietly burning a light blue flame.

The red shadow flew out of the deep hole, landed lightly with a flip, and the green staff swirled in his hand several times like a windmill.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

"Did you call out the Dark Magician in the first turn?" Mask of Darkness was shocked.

Mask of Light narrowed his eyes: "It looks like we still underestimated them a bit, partner."

"It seems so. Not only Kaiba Seto, but this Yuei Vu actually called out a monster of this level in the first turn." Mask of Darkness said solemnly.

Yuei Vu continued: "Then because of the activation of the Spell Card, the Spell Counter on the Royal Magical Library' is increased by one.

In the end, I also set a card and end my turn. "

Kaiba glanced at Yuei Vu, only snorted and said nothing, as if he thought "it's natural for a man I recognize to be able to do this."

"Then it's my turn next, draw!" Mask of Darkness drew a card, his eyes gloomily swept across the field, and sneered, "The first turn is over so that I can launch an attack now.

That said, there were Dark Magician' and one defensive monster on the Yuei Vu's field, so it's hard for this front to deal damage even if I attack.

In contrast, President, on your field there is only one Blue-Eyes White Dragon who can't block the attack for you, hehe"

Kaiba looked at each other coldly and did not speak.

"This turn, I will show you one of our strongest monsters!" Mask of Darkness drew out a card in his hand, "Partner, lend me your monster!"

Mask of Light: "No problem, I'll leave it to you!"

"I use my partner's Melchid the Four-Face Beast' and my Grand Tiki Elder' on my field as Tribute and Special Summon!

Come out! Masked Beast Des Gardius! "

The two masked monsters disappeared from the field, and their disintegrating bodies turned into a majestic black mist. For a moment, black mist filled the duel field, and a huge silhouette emerged from the ground, standing imposingly in the area of the masked duo.

It was a monster with fangs and claws, wearing a blue mask with scarlet eyes under the mask. It had sharp white claws, hunched over, and smelled of death.

[Masked Beast Des Gardius, ATK 3300]

Mask of Darkness explained with a sneer: "Des Gardius is our trump card and cannot be summoned normally. It must first be Special Summoned by Tributing 2 monsters, including at least 1 Grand Tiki Elder' or Melchid the Four-Face Beast'."

"Very good, partner!" Mask of Light shouted beside him, "If this attack passes, Kaiba will basically be finished!"

The president gritted his teeth.

"Beware, Kaiba Seto! Masked Beast Des Gardius, direct attack!" The Mask of Darkness ordered loudly.

"You guys underestimate me too!" Kaiba waved his hand, "Open the set card: Quick-Play Spell Enemy Controller!"

The Spell Card was flipped, and a huge white gamepad appeared on the field of Kaiba.

"Pay 1000 LP, and the effect of the Enemy Controller will activate!" Kaiba shouted, "Enter the command: Up, Down, Left, Right, A, B!"

A group of players laughed beside him.

"Appeared, famous scene! President Kaiba's Enemy Controller!"

"What the hell is this command? Is it the secret of Contra 30 Lives"

Kaiba, LP 4000 LP 3000

"The effect of the controller can destroy one of the opponent's monsters or gain control of one of the opponent's monsters until the end of the turn!" Kaiba shouted, "Destroy the Des Gardius for me!"

"Ha! That can't be done." The Mask of Light on the side waved his hand fiercely, "Activate set card: Counter Trap Dark Bribe! Negate the activation of the opponent's spell or trap card and destroy it. The opponent draws one card from his deck."

Kaiba: "What!?"

The white gamepad was invalidated and blown to pieces with a crisp sound.

"Good job, my partner, I knew I could trust you!" The Mask of Darkness was hideous, "Just leave the stage for me, Kaiba Seto!"

There was no set card, and the only monster on the field, Blue-Eyes White Dragon, was unable to defend due to the effect of the Spell Card, so she could only growl unwillingly and watch the monsters with their teeth and claws rush towards her master

Mask of Light couldn't hold back his excitement: "Success!"

Bboom! ! !

The soaring dust exploded, and there was a violent explosion in space. The aftermath of the masked monster's attack formed a ring-shaped burst of black mist, pushing it in all directions with the dust wave.

The black mist dissipated, and the Des Gardius pulled away and returned to his controller, who saw Kaiba Seto still standing there, seemingly unscathed.

Kaiba, LP 3000

"What? How?" Mask of Darkness was amazed, "Des Gardius's attack power is 3300, which should definitely be enough to kill Kaiba!"

Could it be that the Duel Disk used by Kaiba was a special edition for the president? Was it set that if his LP couldn't be reduced to zero?

Was that too shameless!?

However, judging from the expression of the president himself, he seemed to be stunned at the moment and didn't realize what had just happened.

So there seemed to be only one answer.

Facing the gazes of the three people on the field, Yuei Vu chuckled lightly: "At that moment, I also activated my set card: Counter Trap Negate Attack! When an opponent's monster declares an attack: Target the attacking monster; negate the attack, then end the Battle Phase."

"Damn, you actually covered Kaiba." Mask of Darkness was very unhappy that the sure-kill blow was blocked, "Then I end my turn."

Under the cover of Yuei Vu, Kaiba managed to survive this turn. But if you expected to hear even half a word of "thank you" from the president's mouth, then you may be thinking too much

Kaiba rolled his eyes at him: "Nosy!"

Unsurprisingly, Yuei Vu didn't bother to pay attention to the president's daily arrogance.

You really thought I was saving you because I liked you?

If you were defeated like this, they would have two turns and twice the resources. How could I defeat them by myself?!

Chapter 117: Changing Expression

The masked duo was indeed a small boss with a slightly higher level of Ghouls in the original anime. Together, these two could at least fight back and forth with the combination of Yugi and Kaiba, which was indeed a feat.

If it wasn't for Yuei Vu's Negate Attack in time, President Kaiba would have been exiled right there

However, Yuei Vu also understood the character of the president. Although President Kaiba was arrogant and said no, he was actually quite honest.

Whoever helped him and who made him owe a favor, even if he didn't admit it, the president would keep it firmly in his heart.

If he was lucky, when they went back this time, the president would secretly add chicken drumsticks to him

The Mask of Darkness's turn was over, and now it was finally the turn of President Kaiba once again.

"How dare you play with my monster like this," the president said angrily, looking at the Blue-Eyes White Dragon, who was slumped to one side, weakened under the effect of the spell, "Since it's my turn now, it's your end. Draw!"

The sky was clear, the rain has stopped, and the president felt that he could do it again

"Don't forget, President, when it's your turn, the Mask of the Accursed' attached to the Blue-Eyes White Dragon is activated, and you will receive 500 damage." Mask of Light reminded him.

Kaiba, LP 3000 LP 2500

However, the president didn't care at all: "Activate Ritual Spell Advanced Ritual Art!"

Kaiba inserted the card into the Duel Disk forcefully, and the magic effect swirled on the ground to open the magic circle. The center of the circular magic circle rippled with blue-blue light.

"Advanced Ritual Art is a card that allows me to ritually summon any ritual monster in my hand by sending Normal Monsters from my Deck to the GY whose total Levels equal the Level of that Ritual Monster!

I sent the level 4 Battle Steer from the deck to the graveyard and Ritual Summon Paladin of White Dragon! "

At the same time as President Kaiba spoke, he picked out the Battle Steer card from the deck and sent it to the graveyard. The image of the monster immediately appeared on the field, followed by a blue-blue light beam that swayed and shot into the blue magic circle.

A strong light erupted, and a beam of light shot up into the sky. A knight in white armor and a flying cloak appeared heroically, riding a white dragon under him.

[Paladin of White Dragon, ATK 1900]

"The effect of the Paladin of White Dragon!" Kaiba waved his hand, and a series of operations flowed in the air, "The Paladin of White Dragon can tribute itself to Special Summon 1 "Blue-Eyes White Dragon" from my hand or Deck!

Come again, my most powerful servant the Blue-Eyes White Dragon (the second)! "

The whole body of the holy knight shone brightly as if bathed in holy light. The bodies of the knight and the dragon began to dissipate indistinctly, turning into countless stars of light. The illusion of the second white dragon of light emerged, like a roar from the void

"Don't even think about it! This is the moment I've been waiting for!" The Mask of Light laughed, and waved his hand to open the set card, "Activate Continuous Trap Mask of Restrict!"

The red trap was opened, and a black mask with steel thorns and fangs appeared on the field, with a big "seal" written on its forehead.

The illusion of the white dragon disappeared instantly, and the dissipating Paladin of White Dragon returned to the field, and the figure condensed into a solid body again.

"What!?" Kaiba looked at the strange mask on the opposite field in astonishment, wondering if he was surprised by the failure of the summoning or seeing a card he didn't recognize.

"Hahaha! This is our strategy to seal your god card and all your superior monsters!" Mask of Light laughed, "As long as this Mask of Restrict' exists on the field, neither player can Tribute cards!"

Kaiba gritted his teeth: "Damn, you can only use some dirty tricks"

Yuei Vu glanced at the president and said nothing in silence.

Well, I didn't know if it was an illusion or not, but when the president was my teammate it didn't seem to be as good as when he was on the opposite side?

well it's not that I couldn't understand. After all, the opponent was not weak in the first place, and since they were originally aimed at Kaiba, it was not surprising that they adjusted their deck to counter him.

In this era, everyone still relied heavily on Tribute to summon high-level monsters. In the animation, Yugi and Kaiba were also pitted by this masked duo and had a headache for a while.

At this time, even the screwball players realized the problem.

"Why do I feel like the president is a little bit of a drag?"

"It seems to have been beaten"

"Maybe it's because Yuei Vu is the protagonist in World Link Online. This is a common trope. To show the protagonist's awesomeness, other characters are usually beaten."

"Isn't Yuei Vu more likely to be the protagonist?"

Yuei Vu suddenly felt that the results were not bad.

At least after this game, maybe he could create a topic among players to get a wave of popularity?

"My turn, draw." It was Mask of Light's turn again, "Hey, partner, lend me your monster."

Mask of Darkness waved his hand, "No problem, take it, partner!"

The Mask of Light gave a strange laugh, and his malicious eyes wandered back and forth between the venues of the two.

"There is a Paladin of White Dragon on the field of Kaiba now acting as a wall. Even if I attack, I can't defeat it in one go"

He muttered to himself, his eyes moved to the Dark Magician and the Royal Magical Library on Yuei Vu's field at the same time.

"In contrast, it will be this guy's turn later. There are a lot of support cards for the Dark Magician. If I don't defeat it here, the next turn may not be good."

Mask of Darkness nodded in agreement: "Yes, then let's go directly, partner!"

"I see." Mask of Light grunted, "Okay, then the target is decided! Des Gardius! Attack the Dark Magician!"

The gloomy black monster flew out, and the silver-white claws left a clear track in the air. The Dark Magician immediately released a spell to counterattack, but even he couldn't overcome the difference in attack power.

The magic power fluctuation was easily torn to pieces by the Des Gardius, and the claws followed closely from the magic body, and the latter immediately exited the stage.

Yuei Vu, LP 3000 LP 2200

"Ha! In this way, your only ace monster has disappeared! This should also be your last chance to turn the tables, right?" Mask of Light laughed.

Some of the onlookers complained: "God, is this stable? It's just that the Tributing is sealed, and it's not so cool, right?"

"Not only the Tributing for advance summon, but also the Tributing of ritual summon and card effects have been blocked. It should still be a bit disgusting to put in the DM environment."

"One typhoon will solve it"

""

The Mask of Light said: "Then I will summon Masked Clown' in defense position, then I end my turn."

[Masked Clown, DEF 700]

"Nice job, partner!" Mask of Darkness encouraged his teammates by the side.

Mask of Light: "That's the monster you gave me. Thank you, my partner!"

"My turn, draw!"

Finally, it was Yuei Vu's turn. After he drew the card, he directly played the card without hesitation: "What I want to activate is the Spell Card Heavy Storm!"

"What!?" Mask of Light and Darkness said in unison.

"Speak of the devil!" This was the player who recommended using a typhoon earlier.

"As expected of the Yu-prefix, they are so unreasonable!"

"Why is your right hand so powerful!?"

A green card image appeared, and an inverted funnel-shaped storm surged on the ground. The suffocating wind swept up the sand and dust simulated by the image, and the strong wind pressure caused the cards to fly uncontrollably in the entire field. Just watching this scene made people feel suffocated.

All the spell and trap cards on the field were smashed by the storm regardless of whether they were friends or foes. Of course, it also included "Mask of the Accursed" and "Mask of Restrict".

The moment the shackles were released, the white dragon on the Kaiba field, who had been languishing for a whole round, finally regained its energy. It raised its head and roared loudly, and the angry dragon roar shook the sky, as if it couldn't wait to smash the two annoying guys in front of it into scum.

The Mask of Light and Darkness gritted their teeth: "He was actually drawn into the strongest storm that can instantly destroy all Spell and Trap"

"Then the effect of Royal Magical Library' is activated!" Yuei Vu waved his hand, "It has already reached three spell counters. Now I will remove all three counters and draw a card from the deck. "

He glanced at the card he had drawn and activated it without hesitation: "Activate Spell Card Card of Sanctity. All players will draw cards from the deck until they have six cards in their hand."

Both Mask of Light and Darkness had more cards in hand than he and Kaiba, thus activating Card of Sanctity at this time gave him and Kaiba a net card advantage.

President Kaiba seemed to have drawn a good card, and he snorted with a smile. In addition, the seal of Blue Eyes and the restrictions on Tribute has been lifted, and the current president was literally getting better.

"I'll give you a compliment for being able to do this." The president seemed to be in a really good mood, but it was rare that he praised Yuei Vu, "It seems that even as a decoration for my victory, you are indeed proved its worth."

Yuei Vu glanced at the president who was stinky and felt okay, and continued to operate with a blank face: "Then I use the Royal Magical Library' on my field and the Blue-Eyes White Dragon' on the Kaiba Field.' as tributes.

Appear again, the sorcerer who masters the most profound meaning of magic the Dark Magician! "

The president's expression was changed: "You bastard!"

Chapter 118: Plastic Brotherhood

"66666!"

"Fuck, Tribute the BEWD to summon the Dark Magician This operation is too showy, isn't it?"

"Although it is a loss, I want to say one word: Cool!"

"Hahaha, the president is going to explode!"

"As expected of Yuei Vu, he has easily done something we didn't even dare to think about."

The president, who had a smile on his face because his white dragon was unshackled a second ago, has now put on a raging face, staring straight at Yuei Vu, as if he was going to devour him alive.

Considering that his wife had just been sacrificed, it seemed that the president's anger was not too much

However, at this time, Yuei Vu was concentrating on playing cards, and there was no reaction at all.

Do you think he would feel good about tributing the white dragon in front of the president?

that kind of refreshing was beyond your imagination.

I have wanted to do this for a very long time! Ha ha ha ha

Kaiba sullenly said, "Are you making fun of me?"

"Ahem, don't just look at the surface, President Kaiba." Yuei Vu coughed twice, "The winning formula is complete."

Kaiba narrowed his eyes, folded his arms, snorted, and didn't speak again, but the posture was like saying "Come on, I'll watch your performance".

"Activate a Spell Card from the hand Thousand Knives!"

Yuei Vu played a card. The flying knives appeared one after another in the air, and the blade of each knife was aimed at the death mage on the masked partner field.

"Thousand Knives, the exclusive magic of the Dark Magician!" Mask of Darkness gritted his teeth, "Do you want to use this effect to destroy our Des Gardius?"

With a wave of the Dark Magician's arm, all the blades in the sky smashed into the air. The flying knives flew towards the Masked Beast Des Gardius like a rain of flowers in the sky, ignoring the opponent's high attack power of 3300 and smashing it directly.

Masked Beast Des Gardius was defeated!

"Hahaha, you fool!" Mask of Light and Darkness laughed in unison, "You have stepped on our trap at this moment!"

Kaiba's face changed slightly, and he said: "There are no more Trap Cards on the field, all the Spell Trap cards in the field have been destroyed by the Heavy Storm'. The trap they said Is the Des Gardius still hiding a special ability!?"

"At the moment of being destroyed, the special ability of the Des Gardius was activated!" Mask of Darkness waved his hand, "He will leave The Mask of Remnants on the field!"

Sure enough, the masked monster's body was shattered and disappeared with the drifting smoke, but his mask remained. The gloomy mask wandered around the field, and after finding the target, he sprinted toward the Dark Magician on the Yvei Vu's field with a sprint.

"The Mask of Remnants can be equipped on any monster on the field to take control of that monster!" Maybe the Mask of Light was very excited because of the NTR, "Get me the Dark Magician!"

"Oh, that's not necessarily true."

Yvei Vu chuckled and immediately played the next card: "Activate Quick-Play Spell Dedication through Light and Darkness! Tribute the Dark Magician on the field!"

The magic of chaos was released from the Spell Card, captured the Dark Magician on the field, and dragged him into the card. Des Gardius's The Mask of Remnants fluttered menacingly.

"What!? Release Escape?" Mask of Light was shocked.

"Specially summoned from the deck," Yvei Vu raised his arm, "a magician born from chaos and possessing the most powerful power the Dark Magician of Chaos!"

The majestic magic power sank into the ground along with the Quick Play Spell Card, and a black magic circle opened on the ground. The slender mage's waist stood upright from under the magic circle, with incantations lingering all over his body, and countless ancient priests' words flying like elves.

[Dark Magician of Chaos, ATK 2800]

Mask of Darkness: "The ultimate magician is summoned at this juncture!?"

Kaiba seemed to suddenly understand.

"I see. If the Des Gardius is destroyed and my Blue-Eyes White Dragon is still on the field, the opponent will undoubtedly snatch the control of Blue-Eyes White Dragon!"

But Yvei Vu used the Blue-Eyes White Dragon as a sacrifice to summon the Dark Magician and then used Quick Play Spell tribute the Dark Magician to avoid the effect of the opponent's The Mask of Remnants, and further summoned the legendary chaos magician

Was it all within his calculations?

Compared with the Blue-Eyes White Dragon being NTR-ed by the opposite side, being tributed to be sent to the Graveyard was definitely better. Thinking to this point, President Kaiba didn't seem to be so angry anymore

"Kaiba! Let me borrow your monster!" Yvei Vu waved his hand, "Use the Paladin of White Dragon' to attack the Mask of Darkness directly!"

At this time, the field of Mask of Darkness, who had lost the Des Gardius, was completely empty. The rare hunter was shocked and hurriedly asked his teammates for help: "Partner, save me!"

On Mask of Light's field, there was still a monster. According to the tag duel rules, he could now let his monsters help his teammates block the attack.

But the Paladin of White Dragon's attack power was 1900. If they used the only defensive monster they have to block, they would undoubtedly be directly attacked by the Dark Magician of Chaos with an attack power of 2800

This was a very simple arithmetic problem. Mask of Light thought about the pros and cons for a brief moment and finally chose to not act.

The Paladin of White Dragon rushed straight to Mask of Darkness and slashed him to the ground with a sword.

"Ahhhh!"

Mask of Darkness, LP 4000LP 2100

"Partner!" Mask of Light shouted, "Are you all right?"

Yuei Vu folded his arms and smiled: "Sure enough, just like I thought. It seems that you two are so affectionate as a partner, but in the end you two are just plastic brotherhood." (1)

"What did you say?" The Mask of Light shouted.

"You are worried, if you send your own monster up to block the attack for your partner, then you will suffer a direct attack in the empty field, right?"

Of course, it's normal to have such a mentality, it's human nature. There is a saying that goes like this 'My friend die is still better than I die'? Instead of taking the attack yourself, let your partner act as a meat shield. "

Mask of Light hurriedly wanted to explain: "No! It's because the attack power of the Dark Magician of Chaos is relatively higher"

Yuei Vu waved his hand and didn't listen to his explanation: "If I continue to attack the Mask of Darkness directly, it will be finished, 80% the chance your partner will not dare to sacrifice the monster to save him in order to protect himself.

But seeing this big guy pity me, I'll spare him for the time being this turn.

Dark Magician of Chaos! Attack the Masked Clown on the Mask of Light's field! "

The Dark Magician of Chaos took the order, raised his wand, and released the magical impact of the dark chaos like a water column, slamming into the poor monster.

The chaotic magic power seemed to penetrate the space and opened a chaotic vortex behind the incarnation of Masked Clown. The clown was blasted into the depths of the deep black hole and disappeared in an instant.

Monsters destroyed by the Dark Magician of Chaos would not be sent to the Graveyard but would be directly removed from the game, which was equivalent to destroying even their souls.

"Set two cards, I end my turn." Yuei Vu said, and the mask of the dark smiled lightly, "You survive for a turn."

Mask of Darkness broke out in cold sweat at this moment.

It's not just a duel for them. If they lost, Marik would remotely muddle their brains as punishment, so it was a win-or-die battle for them.

In this way, it seemed more conceivable to imagine teammates abandoning their partners in order to survive.

To be honest, if Yuei Vu didn't order the Dark Magician of Chaos to attack the defensive monsters of Mask of Light, but continued to attack Mask of Darkness directly, Mask of Darkness really didn't know if his partner would save him.

Mask of Light seemed to see his hesitation and hurriedly said: "Partner, listen to my explanation! I just"

"No need to explain!" Mask of Darkness became more and more annoyed. "Anyway, you say that you have a good mind all day long. I'm just a rude person and can't understand your superb tactics. I probably don't understand what you're thinking. ."

Mask of Light looked stunned: "What are you talking about? Isn't it you who always call yourself a big brother based on your strength?"

"What? I'm older and stronger than you. What's your opinion on me being a big brother?"

Mask of Light looked aggrieved: "But you always like to rely on your strength to force me to do something to do something I hate to do ."

""

Seeing that Ghouls and his partners began to strife, the crowd on the side couldn't help laughing.

"These two have a story!"

"Needless to say, we all understand."

"XSWL, I think these two can still make a pair, what should I do?"

"Mask of Darkness: Little Light, I'm coming in!"

"I suspect you are doing pornography!"

"Just handcuffed away, we don't need evidence to arrest him!"

Chapter 119: President's Card Printing

The masked duo was noisy for a while before the duel could continue.

Mask of Darkness seemed to have determined that this unreliable teammate just wanted to stand by and watch him die, so he stretched his face and ignored his partner.

Mask of Light groaned inwardly. After being disturbed by Yuei Vu like this, even if they could win this match, the Mask of Darkness would definitely not forgive him, and after returning, his partner would definitely press him to the ground for an "education".

Thinking of this, Mask of Light felt a chill run down his spine, and a cold sweat broke out on my back. At the same time, he couldn't help but feel more resentful when looked at Yuei Vu.

It's all because of this guy!

That bastard had a white face on the surface, but actually had a black heart inside!

Yuei Vu was unaware of this, and said lightly: "At the end of my turn, the effect of the Black Magician of Chaos was activated. I can add a Spell Card from the graveyard to my hand. My choice is Card of Sanctity."

While speaking, the GY area of the Duel Disk had already lit up with golden light. A green card was automatically ejected, and he took it back.

"It's my turn!" Mask of Darkness drew the card forcefully.

Now he didn't trust his partner at all, thinking about how to protect himself while trying to figure out a way to win this game.

If necessary, he would not hesitate to give up his partner.

In fact, you couldn't completely blame Yuei Vu, the main reason was that the relationship between the two was really plastic. If they truly trusted each other, it wouldn't be so easy to get into infighting.

Mask of Darkness glanced at the cards in his hand, and hummed with a smile: "Sure enough, in the end, everything still depends on oneself, and partners are not reliable at all.

Let you see another ace of mine! Activate Ritual Spell card Curse of the Masked Beast!

I tribute two level 4 monsters in my hand and ritually summon

The Masked Beast! "

Two monsters disappeared into the circular magic circle of the ritual, and blue flames ignited around the magic circle. A blood-red head rushed out in the rising steam. He has a blood-colored cane, similar to the upper body and limbs of a human, but the lower body looks like some unknown creature, with a long tail swinging behind him.

[The Masked Beast, ATK 3200]

"Partner, you are amazing!" Mask of Light looked happy beside him, and instantly transformed into a salted fish shouting 666.

"Hey, this is our strongest monster other than the Des Gardius." Summoning a powerful monster again made the Mask of Darkness regain his confidence, "Even you can't easily defeat it!"

Although it was a three-for-one exchange, there were not many ways to quickly make high-level monsters in the DM period, and it may indeed be worth their while to summon such a monster in an instant.

Having said that, the joy of summoning the monster seemed to make the two of them forget that they were still arguing just now. It's a typical "win because of me, lose because of my teammate"

Mask of Darkness narrowed his eyes and glanced at Yuei Vu: "You seem to be very arrogant just now? Go away, do you want to provoke our relationship? Now, even if it is the ultimate magician you called, I can beat it at will"

"Don't be fooled by this guy, partner!" Mask of Light shouted, "This kid is very insidious! He just wants to make our blood rush to him to attack!"

"That's right!" Mask of Darkness suddenly woke up, his eyes turned to the Paladin of White Dragon on Kaiba's field, "If I attack him, the Paladin of White Dragon of Kaiba will remain in this turn.

The partner's Mask of Restrict' was destroyed by the Heavy Storm' in the previous turn, so if we move on to the next turn"

"That's right, Kaiba can tribute Paladin and call the Blue-Eyes White Dragon!" Mask of Light gritted his teeth, "This kid wants to use himself as a shield to cover Kaiba!"

Kaiba narrowed his eyes and squinted at Yui Vu without saying a word.

This guy deliberately provoked the opponent to cover me?

"It's terrifying, such a scheming kid." Mask of Darkness said solemnly, "But your tactics have been seen through by us The Masked Beast attack! Bury the Paladin of White Dragon for me!"

"This moment!" At the critical moment, it was Yui Vu who voiced again, "Trap Card Impenetrable Attack is activated!

During the Battle Phase, activate 1 of these effects.

Target 1 monster on the field; it cannot be destroyed by battle or by card effects during this Battle Phase.

Take no battle damage during this Battle Phase. "

Yui Vu pointed to the Paladin of White Dragon on the Kaiba's field.

"I want to choose to activate effect 1: Paladin of White Dragon will not be destroyed by battle or card effects until the end of the turn!"

When the effect was selected, the trap card disappeared from the field. A translucent protective cover appeared in front of the Paladin of White Dragon, protecting the knight and the dragon together like a layer of water iris.

"Damn it," Dark Mask couldn't help but wave his hand in annoyance, "but the battle damage still has to be calculated!"

The dark impact hit the transparent shield, and although the monster was protected unscathed, there were still a lot of shock aftershocks that swept away from the shield and swept the Kaiba at the back.

Kaiba gritted his teeth and took a half step back under the shock.

Kaiba, LP 2500LP 1200

He glanced at Yui Vu and seemed to be very angry: "Didn't I tell you not to mind your own business!?"

Yui Vu silently glanced at the line of "Favorability +5" that appeared on the president's forehead, and for a while, he didn't know how to face it

He was now learning how to behave: "Don't get me wrong, President, I'm not here to save you. I'm just on a whim"

Seeing that the president's unkind expression seemed to be about to explode, Yui Vu immediately coughed and changed the subject: "Did I say it? The winning formula is complete.

I have done everything I can. If you are a true duelist, President, show me the victory in the next turn. "

Playing cards in a team was a matter of cooperation, and supporting teammates was also a part of it.

Just like some large-scale online team games, it was obviously a team game, but there were often one or two people on the team who felt that they were very talented and could show off

Kaiba narrowed his eyes, looked at the Paladin of White Dragon on his field, and then looked at the set card on the Yueli Vu field, and seemed to understand something.

"There is nothing to do, I end my turn." Mask of Darkness said.

"My turn!" It was Kaiba's turn again.

After the series of operations that Yueli Vu had just done, he had somewhat guessed Yueli Vu's intentions and understood what Yueli Vu wanted him to do.

But now Kaiba still lacked the crucial last card.

Whether he could draw that card in this turn was the key factor!

To be honest, of course, Yueli Vu didn't know what cards his teammate Kaiba had.

But since he was KaibaSeto, it should be no problem to draw the key card when he wanted to?

"draw!"

Kaiba pulled out the top card of the deck with all his might and kept that movement for a while.

And then sure enough

"Hahahahaha!" Kaiba laughed directly, "Ghouls! You lost this duel!"

"What!?"

"First of all, I will activate the effect of Paladin of White Dragon! Tribute it to Special Summon from the deck Blue-Eyes White Dragon! Bring it on!"

The Paladin of White Dragon, who had not been able to sacrifice himself before, finally successfully left the field this time, turning into a white light and rushing into the sky. The incandescent beam of light slammed down like a sky, like a waterfall that fell to the ground from outside the sky.

The White Dragon of Light roared and appeared, spreading its wings, with a mighty aura.

[Blue-Eyes White Dragon, ATK 3000]

"Sure enough, it's a Blue-Eyes White Dragon again" Mask of Light gritted his teeth, "But even so, with its attack power, you can't defeat our The Masked Beast!"

"Yueli Vu!" Kaiba tilted his head, "If your intentions are like what I expected, it's time to use your set card, right?"

It looked like Kaiba did guess right. Yueli Vu waved his arm: "Open the set card! Continuous Trap Call of the Haunted! Revive a monster in attack position!"

"Yes, come back from the depths of the underworld, my most powerful servant!" Kaiba shouted, "Blue-Eyes White Dragon!"

The incandescent beam of light penetrated the underworld and reality, and the white dragon of light roared and flew out of the cemetery, spreading its wings and roaring!

[Blue-Eyes White Dragon, ATK 3000]

"What!? The second Blue-Eyes?" Mask of Darkness exclaimed, "But no matter how many"

At this moment, he suddenly thought of something: "Masaka!? (It can't be!)"

"It seems that your luck is good," Kaiba slowly pulled out a card in his hand, and the cloak behind him automatically moved without wind, "Congratulations, you will be the first to see this ultimate monster in history."

This time, even Yusei was a little surprised.

Wait, the first ever seen!?

Didn't the president plan to summon the Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon?

"Activate Spell Card Polymerization! I fuse two Blue-Eyes White Dragons on the field and the Blue-Eyes White Dragon in my hand!" Kaiba raised the Polymerization spell above his head and shouted loudly, "Dispel the deepest darkness and bring the ultimate light. The ultimate dragon! My strongest servant, the most evolved form

Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon! ! ! "

Yusei: "!!!?"

WTF! President, when did you print that card!?

Chapter 120: Marik The Philanthropist

"Come on, my strongest servant, the new ultimate form after evolution

Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon! ! ! "

It was a sight that was almost comparable to an illusion, like a change in the heavens and the earth. A white vortex rolled up in the sky, and the beam of light fell to the ground with a roar. The figure of the dragon was revealed, with a neck and head as sturdy as steel, and the outer skin was like a layer of silver-white armor, shining with a metallic luster.

Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, Summon!

[Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, ATK 4500]

The audience was stunned!

Mask of Darkness: "This This is the most powerful monster in the legend, Blue Eyes Ultimate"

"No!" Mask of Light's voice was trembling, and his legs were uncontrollably weak, "This is not Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, this is"

Yusei was also quite surprised at this time.

He thought that the president would at most take out Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, but in the end, the president directly printed a new card in place

To be reasonable, Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon should be a product of The Dark Side Of Dimensions movie. It should be a new card printed by President Kaiba one year after the soul of the Pharaoh left.

Was it actually implemented so soon?

The players were even more excited.

"The boss has printed the card!"

"Neo Ultimate Dragon! Was it arranged so early?"

"I also want to play Dragon Waifu. Please ask the president if he can give me a wife"

"You want to eat peaches again."

""

"Hahahahahaha! You'll be subdued under this absolutely invincible power! Activate Spell Card Quick Attack, so that the fusion monster can attack this turn!"

With a big wave of Kaiba's hand, he raised his pitch and started the long series of iconic chants:

"Smash! Break! Destroy!"

Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon attack! Hyper Ultimate Burst! "

Like a dragon made of steel, the three heads opened their mouths at the same time, and white flashes were brewing in its mouth like a storm. A transparent airflow swept through the audience, clearly a virtual image, but the airflow seemed to shake the world, and the entire street screamed as if it was on the verge of a limit.

With one blow, the three heads exhaled incandescent light at the same time. The strong light swept toward the Mask of Darkness like a white flame that annihilates everything. His monster The Masked Beast resisted with all his might, and barely released a shock, but in an instant, it was submerged by the white light like a rock sinking into the sea.

"Uhhhhh!!!" Mask of Darkness screamed miserably.

Mask of Darkness, LP 2100 LP 800

"Partner!" Mask of Light shouted in concern.

Mask of Darkness clenched his teeth and lay on the ground, sweat dripping from his forehead, trembling uncontrollably, and black smoke wafting from his body.

"It's not over yet," President Kaiba's tone continued to increase Yuei Vu was surprised that his voice still had room to improve, "Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon's effect! Once per Duel, if I have "Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon" in my Extra Deck, this card can attack 3 times!" (animation effect)

"Wh what!?" The faces of the masked duo changed color.

Attack power 4500 and can attack three times!?

What kind of monster is this!?

However, the president did not actually explain that after using the effect of three attacks, the Neo Ultimate Dragon would destroy itself at the end of the turn.

But that didn't matter anymore. Because this duel had no next turn.

"Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, attack! Direct attack twice! Let me smash those two abominable guys to pieces!" Kaiba laughed, "Hyper Ultimate Burst!"

The ultimate three-headed dragon roared and flew up from behind him, opening its mouth again, as if to pronounce the sentence of death.

Two incandescent beams, as powerful as piercing through space. The first shot blasted the Mask of Light into the air, rolled in a circle, and fell to the ground like a round balloon. The second shot hit Mask of Darkness head-on, causing the latter to turn his back and let out a long, miserable groan.

Mask of Light, LP 4000 LP 0

"President 666!"

"All hail White Bride! All hail Dragon Waifu!"

"It makes me feel so itchy, I really want to play White Dragon 555"

After the Mask of Light and Darkness fell to the ground, they lay there upright, motionless and unresponsive.

Kaiba turned off the Duel Disk, and the stereoscopic image disappeared at the same time. He strode forward and said coldly, "According to the agreement, release Mokuba!"

While they were playing cards, the helicopter holding Mokuba had flown away, and the merry-go-round was gone

However, both of them were lying upright on the ground like corpses, unresponsive as if they were playing badly.

Kaiba was furious: "Don't pretend to be dead! Do you want to deny it?"

Just play a duel and still die? Who are you fooling?

The president said that I believed in science!

"I'm afraid their consciousness is gone, President." Yueli Vu also closed the Duel Disk and said with his arms crossed, "Marik used a Millennium Rod to implant a mechanism in the brains of some of his subordinates, and the moment the duel fails, it will trigger and erase their consciousness."

"What?" Kaiba narrowed his eyes.

While talking, the Mask of Light, which had been lying like a corpse for a second, suddenly bounced back like a spring.

He still rolled his eyes as if hanging up, but a golden eye appeared on his forehead.

Kaiba subconsciously took a half step back: "What about this time?"

"Marik." Yueli Vu quickly understood.

Every time one of his subordinates lost, he would appear to speak some words, which was almost routine.

"We meet again, Yuei Vu. We meet for the first time, President Kaiba." Marik said through the mouth of the Mask of Light, "Don't worry, President, your brother is safe. We Ghouls will keep our promise. Since you two win, we will naturally release your brother. You will see him soon."

"You are Marik, the leader of Ghouls." This was obviously the first time President Kaiba had a direct conversation with this guy.

Yuei Vu nodded: "Yes, this is Marik. This person is very good. He sent me a card last time we met"

Kaiba: "?"

Send a card?

The president suspected that he had heard it wrong.

Wasn't Ghouls a rare card bandit group? When did they become a charity?

Marik seemed to have thought of something, and he couldn't hold back his face and snorted heavily: "Last time I was careless, but in the rematch, I will not let you succeed so easily.

This Battle City competition is destined to be a battle of the gods, and the winner will what are you doing! ? "

Yuei Vu just took a half-step, and Marik immediately controlled the Mask of Light to jump back cautiously, with a look of vigilance.

Looks like someone was haunted by "pulling out the Duel Disk"

Yuei Vu pouted.

Why so mean? How much was that shit you have in your hand? There were many fake cards were stuffed, I grabbed this thing to give you a face

Marik's expression changed, he pondered for a while and snorted again, simply taking off the Duel Disk that Mask of Light was wearing, and throwing it to Yuei Vu.

"If you want, take it." Marik made no secret of his disgust and disdain. "After all, you are a duelist of this size."

Because Marik thought about it for a second and felt that even if he avoided it, it seemed pointless. After all, Yuei Vu could still come up and draw the Duel Disk after he disconnected the remote control of the Mask of Light and Darkness, unless he remotely controlled the Mask of Light and Darkness to run back to Ghouls' HQ with the Duel Disk

But that's too low for a behind-the-scenes BOSS like him, and he couldn't do it.

Yuei Vu even caught the duel disk and dribbled the deck, then without turning his head, threw it to Miss Yuehua who was watching stupidly beside him.

Miss Yuehua took it with a face full of surprise, and the players beside her looked envious at the several Duel Disks she was holding in her arms.

Of course, the audience in the live broadcast room did not stop.

"Did you find that Yuei Vu doesn't speak now, and throws things directly to the streamer?"

"The streamer is now the number one spare tire designated by Yuei Vu 2333"

"Awesome!"

At this time, Kaiba looked at Marik's "puzzling" action, and couldn't help but wonder.

Could it be that our intelligence was wrong, and Ghouls really was a charitable organization?

What was the operation of sending equipment to the enemy?
