

I Play Yu-Gi 181

Chapter 181: You Are Back

With the end of the competition, the title of Duel King was decided.

After the game, everyone left the island. President Kaiba suddenly activated the bomb that had been planted. The entire Alcatraz Island burst into flames all of a sudden, and a long string of flames erupted from the ground made of steel, shining hotly in the sky.

According to President Kaiba, such a move may represent a complete farewell to his past. He personally blew up Alcatraz and smashed the wreckage of Gozaburo's ambition.

From now on, there would be no shadow of Gozaburo in the Kaiba Group, and Seto Kaiba has completely shaken off the shadow of the first half of his life and officially taken a new step.

Then on top of this wreckage, he would build a brand new paradise.

Of course, those have nothing to do with Yuei Vu. Well, at least he hoped it has nothing to do with him.

Leaving Alcatraz Island and flying back to Domino City, it was already late at night again.

In the past two days, he played cards continuously with high intensity. Shadow Game, virtual world, Egyptian gods, playing cards with Pharaoh. It was really exhausting for Yuei Vu.

Now this journey has finally come to an end. Now Yuei Vu didn't want to do anything except take a comfortable bath and sleep on the soft and comfortable bed for a whole day.

It was already early morning when he returned to the Dream card store. But when he separated from Yugi and the others and touched the door, Yuei Vu unexpectedly found that the door of the shop was still open.

The white light shone from behind the glass cabinet, which was very eye-catching on the entire dark street that has fallen asleep, like a lighthouse guiding the way on the endless dark ocean.

The silver-haired girl was sitting behind the counter, with a magazine that might have been shuffled open in front of her, and she stretched her neck to look out through the window.

The moment Yuei Vu appeared on the other side of the street, she couldn't wait to stand up. She looked a little like she wanted to go out to greet him, but she hesitated for some reason, and she looked a little cute when she was at a loss.

Yuei Vu walked in: Are you still awake?

Uh-huh.

Chika lowered her head, her snow-white face flushed a little. But it may be because the facial nerves are too barren, so it seemed that there was still no expression.

She bit her lips: You are back.

What are you doing by waiting so late? It's not that I don't know the way. Yuei Vu smiled, and patted her drooping head kindly, Okay, go and rest early.

At this moment, Chika noticed the large bouquet of flowers in his hand, and the girl suddenly became nervous as if she had received an enemy attack signal.

What is this?

Didnt you go to the competition? Where did the flowers come from?

The number one threat that emerged in Chikas little head was the average Miss Yuehua who always liked to surround Yuei Vu.

Immediately afterward, she thought of Snow Wave again

This one was even more dangerous, even if a man was a low-risk target, he should not be underestimated!

Oh, this. Yuei Vu casually shook the bouquet of flowers in his hand, President Kaiba sent it.

Chikas eyes widened.

What? Actually, even the president of Kaiba Corp

The prizes of the competition. Muto Yugi took the trophy back first, and Kaiba said that when the new one is ready, it will be delivered to my door. Yuei Vu explained indifferently and handed the award bouquet to Chika.

I dont care about the trophy bouquet or anything. You can take it if you like it. Now its yours.

M mine!?

Holding such a large bouquet of flowers in her small hand, Chika stood there in a daze.

Did Did he just give me flowers??

However, Yuei Vu didnt notice what was wrong at this time (it had nothing to do with the barren facial expression of the girl), and he still said to his spirit partner: This trip is really tormentous. You cant imagine it. We went down to the bottom of the sea, and bumped into a crazy computer AI

Eh? Chika, are you okay? Why are you dizzy?

After a long time, Yuei Vu finally returned to his warm bed.

Before that, he never thought that playing cards were such a labor-intensive activity. Playing cards made him feel his body was hollowed out, and every cell in his body was tired and wanted to go on strike.

He almost fell into a deep sleep the moment his head touched the pillow.

When his eyes opened again, it was already the next morning.

At first sight, after waking up, Yuei Vu thought he was having some weird dreams again.

Because he saw the little head of his own magician spirit partner sleeping next to him, breathing evenly, with long eyelashes moving

Damn it, it seems to be true!?

Dark Magician Girl?

Ah? The girl sat up and rubbed her eyes. The big magic hat fell off her head and fell to the side.
Master Huh!?

The girl was surprised to find that she had materialized again at some point

Speaking of which, this was already the second time. The first time was on the airship in the Battle City competition.

Yes Im sorry, master! Dark Magician Girl was a little flustered, and quickly picked up the magic hat and put it on her head. Its just that she seemed to be wearing it crookedly in a panic, which looked a little funny and cute.

Yuei Vu coughed: Its okay, its not a big problem.

Isnt it the duty of a good master to share a bed with ones spirit partner?

Yuei Vu said that as a magnanimous duelist, he didnt care about these small things.

Now the key issue was not here

Is there something wrong with you? Yuei Vu asked a little strangely.

No. The Dark Magician Girl shook her head, then hesitated, But if I have to say it, maybe maybe its because of this?

Yuei Vu: ?

I think it may be because you are becoming more and more powerful, master. Dark Magician Girl looked serious, Only as your spirit partner, I can feel this most clearly and intuitively.

Yuei Vu: ???

Its not waiting a while, please speak clearly so that people wont be misunderstood What does this have to do with me? I did nothing!

Sister, dont talk nonsense. If you talk nonsense, your Master will be in danger of being directly tortured

As I said before, from the perspective of we spirits, all duelists have such things as force. The Dark Magician Girl explained, The force held by us can bless our master, but the reverse is also true.

Yuei Vu understood: So youre saying that the reason why you sometimes unconsciously materialize is that Ive become stronger?

Yes, yes. The Dark Magician Girl stuck out her tongue embarrassingly, Because I feel the masters force pouring in continuously every day recently. But I am still a little uncomfortable, so there will be accidents

But dont worry, Master! I will adjust as soon as possible! After all, the master has been getting stronger, and I cant fall behind

It just so happened that at this juncture, Chikas voice came from outside the door.

Yuei Vu, do you wake up? Grandpa asked me to call you for breakfast

Her voice stopped abruptly.

The door moved away inch by inch with a squeak sound. The girl froze outside the door and saw Yuei Vu and the magician girl sitting on the bed in a duck-sitting posture.

Ah. The Dark Magician Girl turned her head, straightened her hat, waved her hand, and smiled at her, Hello~

Chika:

Chapter 182: Come And Duel With Me!

Because it seemed to cause some serious misunderstanding, Yuei Vu took a lot of effort to explain to Chika that the Dark Magician Girl was his card spirit, a partner who fought side by side, and things were not what she thought

To prove it, he also asked the Dark Magician Girl to perform a switch between the spirit form and physical body in front of Chika, which finally roughly explained the situation.

Yuei Vu let out a long sigh of relief: Huh~ You should understand, right?

Chika nodded in confusion, hesitated for a moment, and then looked vigilantly at the place where Dark Magician Girl disappeared.

It means she is with you from morning to night every day, right?

Yuei Vu:

It feels like she still doesn't listen at all

Please, she is a spirit, a spirit!

Who among serious duelists would have any dirty thoughts about their own spirit? Do you know?

However, Chika-chan obviously didn't think so at all, and now there was only one word floating on her silver head

Dangerous!

The efficiency of the Kaiba Corp was also really astonishing, highlighting the character of their president who was vigorous and decisive. It's only been one day since the end of the competition, yet the new trophy has already been delivered to the door by several men in black.

The one who led the team was Uncle Isono again. Yuei Vu very much suspected that this uncle might also have a lot of background. As a referee, he was able to remain calm in the face of all kinds of supernatural phenomena, and he always seemed to be running errands for the Kaiba Corp, so he must have a backstage role.

Another interesting point was that on the second day after the Battle City competition ended, the president finally adopted Yuei Vu's suggestion earlier, and deleted the restriction that Fusion Monsters cannot attack in the turn they are Fusion Summoned

He remembered that in the original animation, the president seemed to delete this rule after Battle City ended.

As for the reason, Yuei Vu personally thinks it's not hard to guess.

Before the competition, when Yuei Vu went to talk to the president about this matter, Kaiba waved his hand and said that he would not consider it at all, reasoning that if I fusion summon Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon and launched an attack quickly, wouldn't the opponent be killed without any power to fight back?

And now, after the competition, the president, who was shut down by Yami Yugi, found that things were indeed different from what he thought. The current president looked back at Yuei Vu's original suggestion, and can't help but feel that what he said seems to have some truth.

Of course, since Fusion Monsters could attack during the turn of summoning, the clause Spell Cards can be used during the Battle Phase must naturally be deleted.

Otherwise, you could let the monsters used as fusion materials attack first, and after the attack was over, you could fuse the material monsters to continue attacking. After the attack, you could even use De-Fusion to restore the materials to the state before fusion, and then continue attacking.

In short, in the end, the president has now adopted all his suggestions. Although concepts such as spell speed, chaining, and timing of card effects have not been introduced, for the time being, the duel rules were finally closer to the real card environment familiar to players.

It didn't matter what the reason was, what mattered was the result.

This wave, this wave was the victory of pure HERO.

Now that painful rule was deleted, Yuei Vu said that he was going to take off!

Can you imagine how painful it is to play a fusion HERO deck with that kind of attack limit?

Even if Yuei Vu's duelist's Rank has been improved, learned Kaiba's 502 glue technique to draw the Polymerization and the Quick Attack card together, but the fight was still very painful.

To be honest, the impact was quite large.

If it weren't for the Pot of Greed and Card of Sanctity in his deck to fill up the upper limit, a Fusion HERO deck, which was already at a loss of resource, would consume an extra Quick Attack for the attack declaration, would explode on the spot.

Yuei Vu was in a good mood about this, and felt that the president has finally done a good thing!

Of course, he certainly couldn't be arrogant about this.

Even if he got the title of Duel King, it didn't mean that he has graduated at the full level in this world. He knew this very well.

In fact, similar to many online games, the dueling monster card game was constantly updated. The environment would change, and the upper limit would continue to increase.

So there was no such thing as graduation in this game. As the version was updated, players and NPCs will continue to become stronger.

What today's Duel King represented was just glory, and it didn't explain anything. Yuei Vu was very clear that most of his advantages lay in the advanced version of the card deck construction and awareness. Now his Rank was 7, and although he could be regarded as one of the top duelists, it was still far from the upper limit.

Not to mention others, let's talk about President Kaiba. After losing this competition, he may have closed the door to do research and prepare to reprint his wife (Blue-Eyes White Dragon) with a new vest

The higher you stand, the harder it will be for you to fall. Becoming a Duel King brought benefits, but at the same time, there must be corresponding risks. Next, Yusei Kudo must continue to improve and must be faster than others, in order to maintain the status of the version leader.

Of course, it would be more convenient for him to harvest leeks in the future.

However, there were rumors on the Internet that deleting the restriction of fusion monsters unable to attack in the turn of summoning was Yusei Kudo's opinion.

Then someone suggested that Yusei Kudo, the Duel King, was actually the consultant for Kaiba Company's duel monster module. It was said that he is one of the few duelists recognized by Seto Kaiba, and President Kaiba also attached great importance to his opinions. The current rules of dueling monsters were largely influenced by Yusei Kudo's opinions.

Although no one knew where the news leaked out, it was not a bad thing for Yusei Kudo and those related to him.

For example, at Nightcrawler World, the gifts President Kawasaki Gai received in the past two days almost piled up into a hill.

Every three days or so, high-level officials from underground organizations came to give gifts to express their opinions. Every so often, someone called to greet him, expressing that I had been fascinated by your Duel King for a long time.

This was also a matter of course. The duelists in the other world played cards every day, so they naturally respected the top powerhouses who have the title of Duel King, and they spared no effort to the bigshot who have the right to speak and affect the rules of the game.

It's just that President Kaiba had a weird personality, and he sneers at the Shadow Duelists.

Ever since, Yusei Kudo, who has the title of Duel King and is rumored to have a high voice with President Kaiba, has become a favorite in the eyes of major organizations.

However, because Yusei Kudo made it clear that he wanted to rest for a few days after the game, he was too lazy to care about it, so all related matters were handled by Nightcrawler World on his behalf.

President Gai was busy receiving gifts and meeting guests these days. He traveled outside every day, listening to the Shadow Duelists from all over the world trying their best to flatter him. His ears were almost getting lice.

These days, waves came after waves, making our president feel tired

However, some people may be good at playing cards, but not at phrasing people. It may be that others have snatched up all the rhetoric that could be boasted. A buddy looked at the severely stunted, hairless, chicken-like President Gai, and for some reason, he said Tall, powerful, and handsome. Come on, the president's face turned black when he boasted

How did you speak? Do you have to be taught how to bootlick?

Why don't you just say that I have elegant hairstyles?

Yuei Vu is happily scrolling through the forum, watching the impact of these changes on screwball players. At this moment, Chika approached quietly.

Do you want to eat the apple?

Ah? Oh. Yuei Vu came back to his senses, Okay.

Do you want me to wash it?

Okay, thank you for the trouble~

Do you want me to peel it?

Uh okay.

Do you want me to cut it?

Yuei Vu:

Whats wrong with this girl?

Why does it seem that since I came back yesterday, she looks a little abnormal?

Could it be just because I have earned the title of Duel King?

Chikas expression now was as stable as an old dog, but in fact, she was panicking in her heart.

At Yuei Vus own request, in fact, the store no longer paid him wages.

After all, the title of Duel King not only meant glory but also came with commercial effects. As long as Yuei Vu thought about it, he would never lack money.

Chika felt that it would not be surprising if one day he said he would move out of the store and say goodbye, but Yuei Vu didnt seem to have this intention until now (although she didnt know why).

Chika once speculated whether Yuei Vu would continue to stay in the store just to get in touch with those bunch of jumping weirdos every day But she quickly dismissed this idea because she thought it was too absurd.

Before, she was often able to help Yuei Vu. As a senior, she could still teach him how to handle some store affairs, but now she was deprived of even this opportunity.

All of this was to be blamed on that weirdo named Snow Wave!

This guy was guarding the door of the store every morning before dawn, running errands for Yuei Vu from dawn to dusk, and doing all the work he could do!

The most frightening thing was that according to Chikas observation, this guy didnt seem to eat, drink or rest. Its just a ruthless working machine!

Regarding the state of his granddaughter, Itou Shin saw it in his eyes and was anxious in his heart.

Why is my Chika so shy?

Thinking back then, when I was five years old, I was recognized as a garden grass by the kindergarten, and at the age of seven, I would chase after the beautiful big sister and ask for contact information

Why didnt my granddaughter inherit any of these excellent gene?

And this boy Yuei Vu is also annoying.

My Chika is so cute, and she also works so hard, but he is like a piece of wood and doesn't respond at all!

Uncle Itou Shin, who became angrier and angrier, finally couldn't hold back and jumped in front of Yuei Vu without saying a word.

Hey, kid! Uncle Shin said with his waist in his arms, Come and duel with me!

Yuei Vu: ?

Chika: ?

Chapter 183: Fast-Forward Directly To Playing Cards?

Yuei Vu: ?

He still didn't understand the situation.

What's wrong with Mr. Shin today?

Fast-forward directly to playing cards?

Uncle Shin snorted and said, As the Duel King, you should have the awareness to accept challenges at any time!

Yuei Vu: Ahem, it's okay to duel. But today

Why, do you want to refuse? Do you think I will lose to you? Uncle Shin raised his eyebrows, Hmph, don't think you can underestimate me just because you are the Duel King!

Let me tell you, sir, when I was at the Industrial Illusions

Chika tacitly took over the conversation: You are a man who fantasized about becoming the Duel King?

That's right, that's right Bah! The uncle realized that he had been led astray by his granddaughter again, When I was working, I was called Duel Devil Shin by my colleagues!

Yuei Vu:

Why do I think it's not a good nickname when hearing it?

So come to a duel, and treat it as a challenge to the Duel King. Uncle Shin grinned, Of course, it's not without conditions. The condition is

Uncle Shin paused as he spoke, then suddenly turned his point of view and pointed straight at Chika who was expressionless.

If you lose, you must go on a date with my granddaughter obediently!

Yuei Vu:

Chika: !!??

The girl was taken aback, and her expressionless face blushed visibly: GrandpaGrandpa, what are you talking about

Yuei Vu:

At this moment, I dont know what expression to use to face him.

Just keep smiling at this time?

Ormaybe I should learn from the Pokmon studio next door, and reply energetically: Okay! Then I will definitely not lose this duel!

That is to say, it feels a little too much for Chika

Of course, in the world of Yu-Gi-Oh, it was impossible not to play cards, no matter how small or big the matter was.

Regardless of the process, you could always fast-forward directly to playing cards.

So Yuei Vu and Uncle Shin had come to the street outside at this time, put on the Duel Disk, and stood away from one left and one right.

The Battle City has ended, and the news that Yuei Vu and Yugi won the title of Duel King at the same time has already spread. In the past two days, there have been many people around the store, wanting to see the demeanor of the new Duel King.

Now seeing the Duel King himself going into battle, it was only natural that a large group of enthusiastic fans quickly surrounded him.

So the uncle hurriedly straightened his hairstyle, stood up his collar, flexed his muscles, and smiled generously: Its been a long time since I made a move, just let me see how strong you are Onlooker girl A: Wow, is that the Duel King? No one has ever told me that the Duel King is so handsome!

Onlooker girl B: I become his fan now! Even from the side, his face looks good too!

Onlooker girl C: By the way, who is that wretched old man opposite the Duel King?

Onlooker girl D: I dont know, maybe a passerby. He should be OTK-ed soon

Mr. Itou Shin:

It really pissed me off!

Uncle Shin glared at Yuei Vu angrily, and opened the duel plate: Good boy, you are cruel! Im going to be serious!

Yuei Vu said in his heart: Im innocent, I didnt say anything and didnt do anything

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

[Ito Nobu, LP 4000]

Ill go first, draw! This time, it was Yuei Vu who took the initiative again.

Theoretically speaking, this duel was not a system quest. He didnt gamble his life or cards. There was no reward for winning and no punishment for losing. Yuei Vu actually had no pressure and was quite casual.

At worst, losing casually may bring shame to the name of the Duel King, affect the reputation, and cause indirect effects

Oh, by the way, if he lost, he would have to date Chika (it didnt mean she wanted to).

I summon Elemental HERO Sparkman.

Sparkman, who had only been featured as fusion material for a long time, reappeared. With a clear roar, he released the electric current with all his strength.

After all, this may be his only chance to be handsome, and he must put his pose in place before he was killed

Set a card, and I end my turn.

Then its my turn! Uncle Shin even put on a coquettish (shameful) pose, Draw!

He glanced at the cards in his hand, snorted, and laughed twice: Let me show you the strength of the former Duel Devil Shin!

Summon Opticlops!

A sturdy giant with intertwined muscles appeared on the field of Uncle Shin, with his feet staggered, standing on the field like a sumo wrestler preparing to pounce.

[Opticlops, ATK 1800]

Being Level 4 and having an attack power of 1800, he was considered quite a rare card.

Ha! This Grandpa still has quite a lot of these things in my hand! Fight, attack Sparkman!

The Cyclop rushed forward with an exaggerated roar, and punched the Lightning Hero in the abdomen, causing him to be blown into pieces with a bang.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3800

Set a card, and I end my turn.

My turn!

Yuei Vu drew the card, glanced sideways, and then revealed the card he drew and another card in his hand at the same time.

Summon Elemental HERO Solid Soldier!

A hero in solid armor got out from the ground, punched in the air, and protected Yuei Vu in front of him.

[Elemental HERO Solid Soldier, ATK 1300]

The effect of the Solid Soldier When this card is Normal Summoned: I can Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower HERO monster from my hand! Summon Elemental HERO Blazeman!

The floor next to Solid Soldier cracked, flames rushed out, and a handsome hero in a red uniform and wearing golden goggles to control the flames appeared on the stage.

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200]

(Solid Blaze duo: It doesn't feel like a good thing to work overtime more and more frequently==)

The effect of Blazeman! If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can add 1 Polymerization from my Deck to my hand. Yuei Vu picked out the card from the deck, Then I activate Polymerization!

Fuse the Solid Soldier and Blazeman on the field!

The fusion condition is an Elemental HERO plus any FIRE monster! Fusion Summon Elemental HERO Nova Master!

The lingering flames and golden light beams surround each other alternately has plunged headlong into the vortex of magic. The strong light erupted along with the flames, and the hero wearing a fiery red cloak appeared domineeringly among the lava-like flames, and his golden armor was burned red.

[Elemental HERO Nova Master, ATK 2600]

The crowd of onlookers exploded.

Coming!

It's appeared! The symbol of the Duel King, Elemental HERO!

This monster is so handsome, so handsome that it has no friend!

The monster of a handsome man is also handsome!

However, at this moment, the corner of Itou Shins mouth twitched, and he suddenly laughed out loud as if he had succeeded in a trick.

I knew it! He laughed and said, I've studied it a long time ago. Your Elemental HERO is a deck that focuses on fusion and quickly summons high-level monsters to suppress the opponent!

For this kind of tactic, I have already prepared for it!

As he spoke, he raised his hand and raised his voice: Open the set card: Quick-Play Spell De-Fusion! Release the fusion of Nova Master!

Yuei Vu:

Chapter 184: Is She Really That Unalluring?

Quick-Play Spell De-Fusion! Uncle Itou Shins face was full of pride, Use this card to cancel the fusion of Elemental HERO Nova Master and restore it to the state before the fusion!

The hero in the golden armor had just appeared on the stage when his body was captured by a burst of flames. Two painful grunts came out from inside the armor, and then his body was split apart under the irresistible magic power, and he returned to the state before the fusion of Solid Soldier and Blazeman, returning to Yuei Vus field.

[Elemental HERO Solid Soldier, ATK 1300]

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200]

The attack power of Solid Soldier and Blazeman was lower than that of Uncle Shins Opticlops. And the effect of Blazeman was only once per turn, and it could not be used again now.

Then I will set a card, and I end my turn. There was another set card at Yuei Vus feet.

Ha, are you helpless? Uncle Shin was quite proud, I told you a long time ago, I am very good at duels! My turn, draw!

He flipped through the drawn card, and his eyes lit up as if he had found what he was searching for. Perfect hand!

Ill set a card first! There was an extra card at Mr. Shins feet, and then he slowly drew out a card in his hand, his face was full of pride and expectation, Ill let you take a look, I A super rare card that was given to me by a friend in the Industrial Illusions, and it hasnt even been officially released yet Yuei Vu became a little interested.

An ultra-rare card that hasnt been released yet? Is it so powerful?

The first thing I want to activate is the Spell Card Card of Sanctity! Uncle Shin first played this Spell Card that Chika said has been eating ashes in his warehouse, Both players draw until they have 6 cards in their hand.

Then, at the moment when Yuei Vu drew cards from the deck, Uncle Shin twitched his lips and said with a smile: At this very moment, I want to launch a Quick-Play Spell from the cards in my hand Thirst for Compensation! (Animation card)

Yuei Vu frowned.

What kind of card is this again? Why do I seem to have no impression of it at all?

Hey, its normal if you dont recognize it. This is also a UR-level rare card. Uncle Shin said, Thirst for Compensation can be activated when the number of cards in the opponents hand increases outside the Draw Phase. I can special summon two monsters sleeping in my hand!

Yuei Vu: ???

WTF?

Take two monsters directly from your hand at no cost This card is too simple and rough, right?

The first monster I want to special summon is this guy Mikazukinoyaiba!

What appeared on the field was an armored monster with a dragons head and a humanoid torso, holding a sharp crescent-shaped scimitar in its hand.

[Mikazukinoyaiba, ATK 2200]

And then theres this guy, a rare card among rare cards. It was originally a rare card, so Ill show it to you today for my little Chika

When Mr. Itou Shin said this, he suddenly put away his smiling face and became serious, and held up the card he was holding tightly in his hand.

Cross the starry sky and descend with a heavy wire. I summon the planet series

The Grand JUPITER!

Boom! ! !

The huge body that descended from the sky like a battleship covering the sky and the sun was a giant with a green body and a body made of steel.

The soles of steel trampled on the ground, causing the ground to collapse, and the dust stirred up making the surrounding people blind. The shadow cast by the huge body covered the entire duel venue, and everyone had to look up at the huge iron lump, and at the same time, there was a sense of humility looking up at the giant from the bottom of their hearts.

The Jupiter of the Legendary Planet series was summoned!

[The Grand Jupiter, ATK 2500]

Although they didn't know what this monster was capable of, its size and aura instantly shocked the passers-by.

What kind of monster is this? The pressure feels like a god!

What kind of character is the uncle on the other side? How does he have a monster of this level?

Is the Duel King suppressed?

Unlike a group of chattering spectators watching the scene, Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes slightly, and sensed something different from the majestic monster that appeared in front of him.

Master! The Dark Magician Girl appeared in a transparent state, I can feel that this monster is extraordinary, its power is very strong!

Well, I found out too. Yuei Vu nodded.

The Legendary Planet series, he remembered, should be the series that appeared in Yu-Gi-Oh GX manga.

As the name suggests, they correspond to the nine planets in the solar system (including Pluto at that time), plus the ten cards designed after the sun itself, which governed the nine planets, all containing powerful power beyond common sense in GX manga.

It was worth mentioning that the card corresponding to Earth in the Legendary Planet series has also belonged to the Elemental HERO series Elemental HERO Terra Firma, the trump card of Yuki Judai before getting Masked Hero.

It's just that there was no Elemental HERO in this era, so no one knew what the card corresponding to the planet Earth was.

To be honest, he didn't expect to see the Legendary Planet series here and it was actually in the hands of the store manager Itou Shin.

Yuei Vu smiled slightly: It seems that this duel will be more interesting than I imagined.

Be prepared, kid! Mr. Shins fighting spirit was soaring to the extreme, The Grand Jupiters effect is activated! Once a turn, I can discard 2 cards, then target 1 face-up monster the opponent controls; equip that face-up monster to this card!

Mr. Shin picked out two cards from his hand and sent them to the graveyard: Jupiter, absorb Elemental HERO Solid Soldier!

The steel giant opened its arms and released boundless gravitational force centered on itself. The invisible force was like an invisible big hand grabbing the Solid Soldiers body, the tyrannical traction force makes the hero unable to resist at all, so everything he could do was to moan and be dragged past as equipment.

Before being dragged away, the Elemental HERO looked helplessly at his brother Blazeman on the field, as if to say, Look, I know, its not good for the two of us to play together

Equip the Solid Soldier to The Grand Jupiter! Then the attack power of Jupiter will increase equal to the combined original ATK of the monsters equipped to it by this effect!

[The Grand Jupiter, ATK 2500 ATK 3800]

The faces of the audience were all horrified.

Attack power 3800!? Isnt this close to a gods attack power?

Better than the legendary Blue-Eyes White Dragon

Hahahaha, in this way, the outcome is decided! Uncle Shin laughed loudly, My good granddaughter, this boy is my gift for you!

Yuei Vu:

The audience: ?

Chika covered her face and turned around, trying to pretend that she didnt recognize this old man

The Grand Jupiter, attack Blazeman!

The giant waved his fist, erupting like a mountain pressing down on the top.

Poor Blazemans attack power was only 1200, and the size gap between the two sides was even more terrifying. He resisted with all his strength and punched out the flames from the air, but he couldnt even break through Jupiters defense.

With just one blow, the flame hero was shattered in the explosion. The giants heavy blow was like an explosion, and fiery air waves swept around.

[Yuei Vu, LP 3800 LP 1200]

The outcome is decided! Uncle Shins face was full of excitement like a five-hundred-pound child, There are still monsters on my side that havent attacked. Opticlops

Open the set card, Yuei Vu raised his hand, Trap Card Hero Signal! When a monster I control is destroyed by battle and sent to the GY: Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower Elemental HERO monster from my hand or Deck.

I special summon the second Elemental HERO Blazeman from the deck!

Following a burst of flames, Blazeman No. 2 appeared on the field in a half-squat, blocking the Cyclops attack line.

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, DEF 1800]

[Opticlops, ATK 1800]

Itou Shin snorted: If the ATK is the same as the DEF, it will be meaningless to battle

Not only that, The moment Blazeman is Special Summoned, its effect is also activated. Yuei Vu pulled out the deck, I added another Polymerization card from the deck to my hand.

Cut, its fusion again. Uncle Shin snorted, Then I use the Mikazukinoyaiba to attack Blazeman! Smash the wall monster for me!

Open the set card: Trap Card Half Unbreak! Yuei Vu pointed at his feet, and the other set card was flipped over, Target 1 monster on the field; this turn, that monster cannot be destroyed by battle, also any battle damage I take from attacks involving that monster is halved.

Of course, because Blazeman is in the defense position, he will not be destroyed by the battle, and the damage I receive is also 0.

A layer of transparent spherical shield protected Blazeman in the middle. The crescent-shaped blade slammed down fiercely, hitting the shield fiercely, sparks flew, but it failed to cause the slightest damage.

Itou Shin frowned.

To special summon this monster, he even intentionally takes a lot of damage Is the purpose to add Polymerization to the hand?

Thinking of this, he couldnt help muttering: What a tricky brat, cant you just accept being defeated by me?

You dont want to date my Chika-chan that much?

Is my granddaughter really that unalluring?

Chapter 185: The Grand Jupiter

Uncle Itou Shin made a wave of operations and even pulled out such a fashionable monster as The Grand Jupiter, which made passers-by who had just underestimated this uncle startled.

Wow, whats the background of this uncle? He seems very powerful?

It looks like even that Duel King has been suppressed!

Is the uncle really some kind of hermit?

Hearing the pointers from the passers-by, Uncle Shin couldnt help but swell, and he crossed his waist and laughed out loud twice.

However, right after that, a girl whispered, Its just that he looks quite ugly

Uncle Shin:

Damn! Is this sentence redundant?

Yuei Vu stood up straight and patted the ashes on his body lightly.

At first, he thought playing cards with this uncle was just a pure after-dinner pastime. Because Mr. Itou Shin's hairstyle did not look like someone who was very good at playing cards, and the character design felt like a passerby.

It turned out that he seemed to be a bit capable.

So Mr. Shin boasted about Duel Devil Shin before, maybe it really happened. I just don't know who took this nickname, it's a bit frustrating, giving people a sense of sight of a kindergarten kid king.

Yuei Vu took a deep breath and stood up straight.

Since this was the case, it seemed that he has to be a little more serious in this duel.

The Dark Magician Girl on the side seemed to understand: Master, are you going to play at your full power?

Well, at least give due respect to the opponent who is going all out to fight with me. Yuei Vu smiled slightly. Then it's time to go serious.

My turn, draw!

I summoned from my hand Keeper of Dragon Magic in attack position!

A warrior in blue armor and a dragon-shaped helmet appeared in the area in front of Yuei Vu, with his cape flying behind him.

[Keeper of Dragon Magic, ATK 1800]

Keeper of Dragon Magic's effect is activated! Yuei Vu picked out a card in his hand and sent it to the graveyard. If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can discard 1 card; add 1 Fusion Normal Spell Card from my Deck to my hand.

This was also one of the most ambiguous cards described in the Yu-Gi-Oh effect text.

The effect of this card was to add a Fusion Normal Spell Card to the hand. Normally, the first reaction would be to retrieve a specific Spell Card Polymerization (1). However, if you actually played it, you would find that it could retrieve all ordinary Spell Cards with Fusion in their names. The retrieval range was very wide and the effect was extremely powerful.

Yuei Vu sent the Elemental HERO Avian in his hand to the graveyard, and then pulled out the deck: I discarded a card in my hand, and added the Normal Spell Card Miracle Fusion from the deck to my hand.

Uncle Shin frowned: Do you still want to play fusion?

Keeper of Dragon Magic's second subsequent effect will be activated next! Yuei Vu continued, I can reveal 1 Fusion Monster in my Extra Deck; Special Summon 1 of the Fusion Materials whose name is specifically listed on that monster from my GY, in face-down Defense Position!

While speaking, Yuei Vu had already revealed Elemental HERO Flame Wingman, and at the same time, the Avian who had just been thrown into the graveyard had bounced out from the Duel Disks graveyard area.

I'll reveal the Flame Wingman, and Special Summon Elemental HERO Avian from my GY!

Then activate the Spell Card from the hand Polymerization!

Uncle Shin sneered: The card that was retrieved in the last turn by Blazemans effect, huh?

I fuse the Avian on the field and the Elemental HERO Wildheart in my hand!

A savage-looking hero appeared, naked and holding a blade, with a braid tied around his head. Immediately afterward, the card in the face-down state on the field was turned over, and the green-winged hero emerged from the card. The two heroes jumped up and fused with each other, and an Elemental HERO with new power was born in the light.

Yuei Vu pointed forward: Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Wild Wingman!

[Elemental HERO Wild Wingman, ATK 1900]

Sure enough, you try to summon high-level monsters through fusion again, Uncle Shin snorted, However, in terms of attack power, the The Grand Jupiter is still higher

The effect of Wild Wingman! Yuei Vu waved his hand mercilessly and interrupted the conversation, By discarding a card, destroy 1 Spell/Trap Card on the field.

I discard two cards from my hand. Manager, I want to destroy the set card in your Spell/Trap Zone, as well as the Elemental HERO Solid Soldier which was treated as an Equip card!

Sending two cards to the graveyard, Yuei Vu swiped his arm: Wing Impulse!

The rough hero flew up, flapping his wings, and a storm visible to the naked eye swept forward against the ground. The set card in Ito Shins field was rolled up under the storm and was torn into pieces under the strong wind pressure.

The Solid Soldier who was absorbed by The Grand Jupiter was finally liberated, turning into golden light spots and dissipating under the strong wind of his companions.

Yuei Vu was even surprised to find that the set card that he blew off was actually a Mirror Force

Damn it, store manager!

You are also a noble knight of Hanoi?

Then because of the disappearance of the Equip card, Yuei Vu pointed to the huge monster on the opposite field, The attack power of The Grand Jupiter has dropped!

[The Grand Jupiter, ATK 3800 ATK 2500]

Uncle Shin gritted his teeth: But even so, the attack power is still

Its not over yet! Yuei Vu didnt give him a chance to finish, and showed another card in his hand, Spell Card Miracle Fusion! Let the Elemental HERO monsters be fused in the graveyard!

What I want to fuse is the Elemental HERO Solid Soldier and Elemental HERO Avian in the graveyard!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO monster + 1 WIND monster!

The winged man who was fused just now was pulled back from the graveyard again and merged into the fusion vortex together with the Solid Soldier. The two beams of golden light intertwined and merged, and strong light and storm erupted.

In an instant, the arena was like a storm. The tall hero slowly descended, with the cloak fluttering in the wind behind him.

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Great Tornado!

[Elemental HERO Great Tornado, ATK 2800]

The store managers expression changed suddenly: The attack power exceeds that of Jupiter

Not only that! Yuei Vu said, The effect of the Great Tornado! When it is Fusion Summoned, the ATK and DEF of all monsters on the opponents field will be halved!

What!?

The wind howled, and the strong wind pressure swept across the field, blowing the monsters on Uncle Shins field upside down, and even the heavyweight monster The Grand Jupiter couldnt help but staggered back two steps, half-kneeling on the ground with a bang, and the dust was stirred up.

[The Grand Jupiter, ATK 2500 ATK 1250]

[Mikazukinoyaiba, ATK 2200 ATK 1100]

[Opticlops, ATK 1800 ATK 900]

Uncle Shins face turned green: The attack power of my monsters

Then the effect of Blazeman is activated! Yuei Vus operation was still continuing, Once per turn, I can send 1 Elemental HERO monster from my Deck to the GY, except Elemental HERO Blazeman, and this cards Attribute and ATK/DEF become the same as the monster sent to the GY, until the end of this turn!

I sent the Elemental HERO Bladedge to the graveyard to gain its attack power!

Blazeman yelled Kiai!, the flames all over his body swelled up, and he assumed the posture of Im already invincible in the world.

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200 ATK 2600]

[Keeper of Dragon Magic, ATK 1800]

[Elemental HERO Wild Wingman, ATK 1900]

[Elemental HERO, Great Tornado, ATK 2800]

A total of more than 9000 points of damage output.

Uncle Shins expression was as ugly as if he had eaten X.

Yuei Vu smiled slightly at him.

It was an interesting duel, manager.

Then he raised his arm.

Battle! Blazeman! Wild Wingman! Great Tornado! And the Keeper of Dragon Magic! All-out attack!

Uh ah ah!!

[Itou Shin, LP 0]

Chapter 186: Can I Change It Now?

Itou Shin, LP 0

The Elemental HERO attacked in a wave. How could the store managers old arms and legs stand up to such a toss? The heroes were like flames and storms. They pushed the store managers monsters all over the field in one go, pierced through the defense of The Grand Jupiter, and took away all the remaining LP.

The duel was over.

Everyone had guessed the result, but no one had predicted the process in advance, not even the store manager himself.

Its just lost that easily?

In such an absolutely dominant situation, no matter whether the LP or the scene was completely suppressed, how could I lose within one round without warning?

I can still lose with Jupiter on my field!?

The store manager felt that what happened was quite sudden. His eyes just blinked, and the full 4000 LP was instantly cleared to zero.

If he had to describe the feeling, its a bit like a girl closing her eyes with anticipation and a little nervousness. After a while, she asked shyly, Are you going to start?

Then she only heard the other party say: No, its over.

It was quite sudden.

It was only at this time that the people around came back to their senses.

This is it fake? There are so many monsters with high attack power on the field, his LP is full, and there are top-level rare cards like Mirror Force yet he is instantly defeated so casually?

OTK! A real OTK!

Its too strong. Is this the strength of the Duel King?

If it were me, I would definitely be OTK-ed instantly too

These were the sentiments of local people. As for the players, its no surprise.

Of course, this did not prevent them from changing their ways and continuing to create a sense of presence.

Yuei Vu is so strong!

Yuei Vu, I want to give birth to your baby

The one in the front, you are obviously a man, who do you think you can lie to?

Whats wrong with being a man do men have no human right? The player blushed, Look, Brother Snow Wave is also a man, but hes doing so well! What if Yuei Vu has a strange interest?

Yuei Vu almost fell down when he heard this, and even had an uncontrollable impulse in his heart

Osiris, punish him with your thunder!

Cough cough, just kidding. After all, he was more or less a public figure now, so he still needed to pay attention to his image.

So Yuei Vu decided that a gentleman should not be bothered by the villains, and here he pretended not to hear. Then secretly memorized the ID of that player, and then find an opportunity to give him a minus 19% discount in the store.

After the duel, the audience would also disperse.

At this time, Chikas mood should be the most complicated.

Before playing cards, she only thought that grandpa was fooling around, and she liked to meddle in other peoples affairs. It turned out that grandpa really lost at this moment, but she suddenly felt a little disappointed, and at the same time, she was even more surprised to find that deep down in her heart, she still hoped that grandpa would win

No, you cant be discouraged.

Isnt there a saying that says so?

Opportunities dont come by waiting, but they are created by your own hand!

The girl made up her mind, her gaze gradually became resolute, and she went silently without saying a word.

Not long after, Yuei Vu heard constant noises from upstairs in the store, and it seemed that the movement was not small.

Yuei Vu followed the sound upstairs to look, and was a little dazed to find that the maid was panting and moving things from upstairs.

Let me help.

It was impossible for Yuei Vu to stand idly by when encountering such a situation. He took the heavy satchel in Chikas hand, and at the same time wondered: What are you carrying?

The maids expression became a little weird, she looked away: Move the bedroom.

Moving bedroom?

Yuei Vu looked down in a daze, and soon saw the open door of the room next to his bedroom. There seemed to be large and small packages lying on the floor inside

Yuei Vu:

This girl wants to move next door to me?

Im afraid its not that the next door will be in the cubicle tomorrow, and the bed will be warmed up in another day?

To put it bluntly, she desires my body!

Yuei Vu came back with the title of Duel King this time, and he was considered the number one celebrity in the world of dueling monsters. Coupled with the fact that he was always followed by a bunch of fans with unknown behaviors and strange appearances, this made Chika-chan realize that she was under a lot of competition pressure!

Now is no longer the time to be reserved! If you don't take the initiative to attack in such a severe situation, it will be really dangerous!

Obviously, she attacked first!

Maybe she couldn't catch his heart, but if she lost to a man in such a competition, then she would be too aggrieved!

That's right, it's that Snow Wave we were talking about!

Look at that guy, he just found out that Yuei Vu was helping Chika move the bedroom, and immediately ran over again. If it was said that he has no conspiracy at all, Chika expressed that she definitely did not believe it!

With this free multi-tool man around, Yuei Vu was naturally happy and relaxed. He threw the edited quest of Help with moving to Snow Wave and went to the side to get busy.

After moving the bedroom, Snow Wave even enthusiastically asked for help to clean the room. Those who didn't know the truth may think that this guy was the kind of super nice person who helped others without asking for anything in return.

However, Chika maintained an iceberg face of absolute zero, and rejected him coldly.

Snow Wave didn't take it seriously when his kindness was rejected, and he didn't take it seriously in the first place.

Any veteran player would know that they couldn't let go of any opportunity to get quests from NPCs. Even if it's helping NPCs to pour a glass of water for a run or something, they might gain EXP. In the worst case, they could always accumulate Favorability.

But now the problem was

What the hell is it that my Favorability has dropped after I did the task!?

Snow Wave was horrified to find that the words Favorability -5 stood out on the forehead of this lovely maid in the store. And although the other party didn't seem to have any expression on her face, her eyes always made people feel gloomy and terrified.

Snow Wave was startled at that time.

What did I do? Didn't I just want to perform a mission?

Don't let me just say it and it's over? If it's a big deal, I won't rub it anymore.

And because she lives under the same roof as Yuei Vu, many screwball netizens have already regarded Chika as the default heroine of the game.

Her positioning was probably equivalent to Mazaki Anzu in the animation—beautiful but unable to play cards, the main task was to be a cheerleader when the protagonist was playing cards, and the main task when the protagonist was not playing cards was to enrich his daily life with occasional sprinkles of lovey-dovey.

Thinking of this, Snow Wave couldn't help but gasp again.

The favorability of this maid lady will not affect Yuei Vu, right?

Wow, its falling like an avalanche! The 40 Favorability points that I only got when my tongue almost fell due to bootlicking, wouldnt be gone with one or two sentences, right?

As soon as he said this, he still felt backache and waist pain, and his thigh seemed to be a little sore
Tired of moving things.

Snow Wave used his brain to think quickly but suddenly slapped his forehead.

Maybe its because I entered her room without her consent?

Its really wrong to think about casually going in and out of a girls private space. Thinking of this, Snow Wave couldnt help but self-criticize.

So he took two steps back and was about to leave Chikas room: Thenthen I wont bother you. Ill go down and see if Yuei Vu needs my help with Immediately afterward, he saw the line Favorability -15 pop up on Chikas forehead.

Snow Waves face was dazed: ???

Damn it! My good sister, I beg you to say something, what did I do wrong? Can I change it now?

Chapter 187: Can That Matter Be Called Sinking?

Snow Wave, who was confused about the situation, left Chikas room with a face full of pain, and at the same time, was very puzzled by the reason why she was so disgusted

Now that he came downstairs, he found that many players had gathered in the store. Players were queuing up in front of the counter, obviously buying card packs from Yuei Vu.

The players who came to buy card packs recently seem to have become more frequent. Being a player himself, Snow Wave could guess the reason.

One reason was that the Battle City competition has just ended. All the players participating in such a large-scale event have received quests, and more or less received a lot of rewards.

In addition, the system at the end of the event seemed to have given everyone a large number of crystals, so the players now have some spare cash on hand.

As we all know, screwball players and their crystals would soon be parted. Maybe before the event, many people were full of thoughts about how to accumulate crystals to prepare for a big wave, but after the event, they couldnt help itching when they passed by the store, and they couldnt resist the urge to play gacha.

It could be described like this: When a player walked into the store, he thought he just bought one pack, and it was really just one pack.

Then when he saw the big 50% OFF sign hanging on the product column, he completely lost his mind. Some screwball players even said in an interview after the event: You may not believe it, it was really my wallet that moved first but thats a shop in normal games.

But if you thought about it carefully, would Yuei Vu be such a boring NPC who followed routines and had no distinctive features?

Would he hang the 50% OFF sign like those unscrupulous merchants in other games to defraud players of their hard-earned money?

Of course not!

Yuei Vu: What the hell is sale-off? I just put up a 150% UP sign, and the price of all the goods in the store will be increased by 150% from now on! What I want to do is to be an exclusive NPC, who never follows the routine.

After all, he was already the Duel King now, his net worth has doubled so many times, yet the price of goods has only increased so much. It is hard to find such a conscientious businessman nowadays.

Moreover, such a price increase would not affect the players enthusiasm.

There was another important reason that led to Yuei Vus decision. It was because the Open Beta was about to end.

The end of the Battle City chapter also marked the end of the Open Beta version. The official server would be launched soon, and a large number of players would log into this world soon.

Of course, it was impossible for such a huge base of players to all be stuffed into Domino this city was not yet big enough to accommodate so many people in one go.

Therefore, the birth location of the player was randomly distributed by the system on a global scale.

Only Open Beta players could enjoy the privilege of landing in Domino City, known as the Battle City. Players who fail to obtain the qualifications of the Open Beta and subsequently enter the game could not start from this city.

Yuei Vu felt somewhat regretful about this.

Because the players who have just logged in could only play and explore in their respective cities, they would not have the ability to go to Domino to find Yuei Vu for a while.

So this meant that after the official server opens, he may have to travel around the entire earth and harvest his new chives

I dont need the chives to come to the door, I will collect them myself!

Yuei Vu deeply felt that an NPC like himself who was considerate of others was really unique.

Now the Open Beta players obviously want to take advantage of the fact that the official server has not been opened, and hurry up to see if they can widen the gap with novices as much as possible before the server opened.

Of course, the price increase would definitely not be brainless. Yuei Vu has fully considered the average number of crystals each player earned in Battle City and the upper limit of their recent income from level grinding and calculated what they could afford.

After all, if the price made it impossible for everyone to afford it, then it was meaningless.

And for players who didnt want to spend a lot of money and have confidence in their European ancestry, Yuei Vu also considerately opened up new functions for them after the end of Battle City.

That was the loot box!

A card box was stuffed with hundreds of packs of cards, and then three or five cards are stuffed into each pack. Finally, make a list of the cards that may be drawn from the entire card box and put them on the side, and marked the most powerful cards with a big UR to attract players to draw.

As long as you are confident enough and feel that your face was so white that you cannot look in a mirror, then I suggest you dont buy a card directly, just draw a loot!

What if your luck explodes and three URs come out in a row?

Give it a go, a bicycle becomes a motorcycle.

Take a gamble, the motorcycle becomes a jeep.

Sure enough, after the launch of this product, it received unanimous praise from the majority of players. Players came one after another these days, and the approval of customers could be seen from the length of the queue outside the door.

At this moment, a customer who just opened the loot excitedly shed tears of happiness, holding the cards that had just been opened, and rushed to the road outside cheering, his companions couldnt pull him back.

(Passerby: My f*cking 5000 crystals are all sunk! 5000! Dont stop me, Im not crazy)

As soon as Snow Wave came down, someone among the players who were queuing up suddenly shouted, Brother Wave! Its Brother Wave who is here!

All the players were in an uproar, and the crowd spontaneously made way for him, like the Red Sea split in two in front of Moses.

Snow Wave was very proud of himself!

Did you see that? Tell me loudly, who is the most professional bootlicker around Yuei Vu?

Snow Wave straightened his collar and adjusted his posture. With his head held high, he walked past the players with a step that no relatives recognized.

Even the players who had finally lined up to the counter quickly stepped aside, but all of them were secretly laughing around Snow Wave.

Snow Wave couldnt help but drift his thought away again.

This was the power of Favorability 40 the invincible VIP ultimate gold super member (Snow Wave created this name himself).

This was a unique privilege among all players, and it was the highest priority in Yuei Vus store to buy card packs and draw loot!

When Snow Wave came, no matter whether the president of the guild or the young master of a rich family, a well-known streamer, or a professional boss, everything had to give way to him!

But before he reached the counter, someone laughed beside him: Brother Wave, are you here to draw loot again today?

Snow Wave snorted, walked to the counter, and smiled at Yuei Vu: Yuei Vu-san, this time lets continue with the box from last time.

Do you think Brother Wave can succeed today?

I think its unlikely.

I heard that Brother Wave has long-term discounts in the store, and the crystals come quickly, but it just has to be done.

Theres no way, no amount of money can change your fate

Snow Wave became angry when he heard it, and stared at the other party with raised eyebrows: II just sank once? Who hasnt had bad luck yet?

What does it mean to sink once? I saw you open the loot yesterday morning, three thousand crystals. In the end, they all sank to the bottom, and only a Mad Lobster appeared!

Snow Waves face immediately flushed, with blue veins bursting out on his forehead, and his expression was inexplicably similar to the Mad Lobster that he drew out yesterday.

Can can that matter be called sinking? Thats called establishing a bond! Thats right, those spent crystals are symbols of the bond between me and the deck. Understand?

While Snow Wave said some hard-to-understand words, he took out a lot of crystals

Chapter 188: I Have This Friend

On Snow Waves side, more than a thousand crystals were lost, and even Yuei Vu, who was a profiteer, felt a little bit unbearable. He felt that this guys face was indeed too dark, and he even wanted to secretly increase the delivery rate for him.

After all, it wouldnt be beautiful if you made people lose hope

With a gloomy face, Snow Wave took out another thousand crystals.

Come again!

The players in the store all laughed and started booing.

By the way, Snow Wave wont be a PR agent invited by the production company, right? After sinking thousands of crystals, how can he still want to continue pumping?

Can a PR agent fail so many times?

Then who knows

Golden light! There are special effects! This will be a big hit!

Fuck, its the Wall of Disruption!

Damn, hes really a PR agent!

Hahahaha! Snow Wave put his hands on his hips and started laughing. For a moment, he felt that the thousands of crystals thrown in were all worth it.

Crystal? This kind of thing doesnt matter anymore.

Snow Wave had already discovered the secret of this game. That was, as long as you could sell your integrity without blinking, crystals would actually come quite quickly.

All the players watching from behind couldnt help but be envious, each one was so sour.

In the real card environment, Wall of Disruption was just a useless card in the eyes of veteran players, with no chance of being used at all. However, in the current game environment, it seemed to be quite powerful

Damn, I also want to be a HERO player!

Not everyone can be a hero~ You have to be a millionaire first

Would it be released soon? Some players speculated, After all, the game has to be updated, and the HERO series will have to be released sooner or later. Otherwise, how can there be such a long advertisement to hang the appetite of players, but not sell it out to make money?

As soon as Yuei Vu heard these words, he felt that this kid had a far sight.

Now the advertising effect of Snow Wave was almost completed, and the players desire to become a hero has reached its peak.

Players were sharpening their swords and eagerly waiting for the release of the HERO series. Its almost time to harvest.

And Yuei Vu could guess that if he didnt release it quickly now, the Elemental HERO might depreciate in value.

In the Yu-Gi-Oh GX animation, it could be seen from the memories of Yuki Judai that he was a loyal player of the Elemental HERO series when he was very young.

This means that the Elemental HERO series may have been released ten years before the GX animation timeline In other words, it was about the same time as Yuei Vu is now.

Although after the release of the Elemental HERO series, players couldnt directly go to the store to buy card packs like local NPCs. But once the series existed, sooner or later players would find quests that reward hero cards.

If Yuei Vu kept holding his Elemental HERO in his hand, then it may not be so valuable by then.

So if he wanted to harvest, this may be the best time.

It just so happened that the official server would open soon, which was also a good opportunity.

Pay-To-Win games liked to do some promotional activities when new maps and new servers were open, such as half-price card packs on weekdays, such as the grand launch of out-of-print cards that require money to buy, and so on.

So Yuei Vu decided to follow suit here. Taking advantage of the opening of the official server, a special card box of the Elemental HERO series was grandly released.

The price was more expensive than ordinary boxes, but the Favorability requirement was only 20 points!

If a player wanted to buy hero cards directly, the Favorability requirement would be 40 points.

Although it may still be a bit too high for most players, it was not too far away for those players who were a little more familiar with Yuei Vu and bootlick harder.

There was still hope with a little effort!

Accompanying the screwball players to open a package for half a day, Yuei Vu's crystal reverse was also rising rapidly at a speed visible to the naked eye. In the blink of an eye, he broke through the five-figure figure, and even had a tendency to rush toward the six-figure figure today.

But before that, Yuei Vu waved his hand to dismiss the enthusiastic fans: Okay, okay, that's all for today.

All the players sighed and looked disappointed. They all reluctantly said goodbye to Yuei Vu and left the card shop.

It's not that Yuei Vu was tired of crystals and doesn't want to make more, but if he sold like this every day without restraint and limit, his inventory might exhaust.

After all, there were too many players, no matter how many cards he had in his hand, there was a limit. It was impossible to take care of them all.

So Yuei Vu could only give priority to taking care of players with higher favorability and bootlicking harder.

After the business matters were settled and the players just broke up, Itou Shin appeared in front of Yuei Vu with a sullen look on his face.

By the way, it seems that the uncle has always had this expression after losing the game before, which gave Yuei Vu the illusion that he ate his rice.

Uh, store manager, what's the matter?

Huh. Uncle Shin snorted and pushed a card onto the counter.

Remember it?

Yuei Vu looked down: Isn't this The Grand Jupiter?

Although Yuei Vu didn't think much of the practicality of this card, as one of the Legendary Planet series, the force contained in it should not be weak.

Although at Yuei Vu's current Rank, one or two more cards are not enough to help him break through and advance again, they were still useful.

Knowing how precious this card was, Yuei Vu held out his hand solemnly: I have indeed received your wish, Mr. Store Manager. As a promise between duelists, I will definitely cherish it very much ..

Snapped!

The store manager slapped the hand he extended.

Yuei Vu: ?

Who the hell said I'm going to give it to you? Uncle Shin rolled his eyes and took the card back, I just let you take a look!

Yuei Vu:

Then why are you so serious?

What's the difference between this and see but not touch?

Uncle Shin snorted: Its not what I want to joke with you, Im not interested in you kid! Remember what I said, this card was given by a friend in the Industrial Illusions?

I do.

That friend contacted me and said he wanted to see you.

See me? Yuei Vu was puzzled, Why?

It seems that his son is a fan of Duel King, and he himself said that he is interested in you.

Yuei Vu said: Why did so many men seem to be interested in me recently

But since he is a member of the Industrial Illusions, and he gave such a precious card as one of the Legendary Planet series to Mr. Shin, he must not be an ordinary person.

Yuei Vu became a little interested.

Okay, lets make an appointment. Yuei Vu said, What is your friends name, and what should I call him?

Phoenix. Just call him Mr. Phoenix.

Oh, Mr. Phoenix

???

Yuei Vu suddenly realized something.

Phoenix? Could it be Asters dad?

Chapter 189: Training Tool People Should Be Started From Childhood!

A day later, Yuei Vu met the friend that Uncle Itou Shin mentioned.

As expected, that guy really had an important role in Yu-Gi-Oh! GX, a famous Destiny Hero user, Aster Phoenixs father.

Mr. Phoenix was a very easygoing person. Wearing rectangle-frame glasses and a red shirt, he always had a gentle smile when he met anyone.

The first expression he gave people was a very kind man.

Then there was his son, Aster Phoenix.

Aster was already a well-known professional duellist when he appeared in the GX animation. He won consecutive battles in professional competitions. Even Ryo Marufuji, who used the Cyber Dragon deck, the Kaiser of the Dueling Academy, lost to him once.

But at this time, Aster obviously has nothing to do with that title. Right now, he is just a simple young boy full of longing for heroes and a loyal fan of the Duel King.

Little Asters eyes lit up the first time he saw Yuei Vu.

Although Aster was young and didnt understand much, even he instinctively felt that Brother Duel King was very good-looking and pleasing to the eye

Favourability +1, +1, +1

Yuei Vu:

Well, it looks like this Charm 95 attribute is very effective. Not only men and women, but even all ages!

Hello. Mr. Phoenix shook hands with Yuei Vu and smiled, Thank you very much for taking time out of your busy schedule to come here. Shin should have told you about me.

Hello, Mr. Phoenix. Yuei Vu also smiled, The store manager said that you are one of the best designers of the Industrial Illusions, so I should be honored to meet you this time.

When meeting for the first time, a wave of praise was definitely indispensable according to the procedure. This was the same reason that in martial arts novels, even when you meet a third-rate character who pops out of nowhere, everyone liked to clasp their fists and greeted each other with a wave of long admiration.

After all, not everyone was as courageous as the president, who looked down on everyone he met, and when they come up, there would be a wave of horse bone, small fries, and third-rate duelists.

But for this Mr. Phoenix, Yuei Vu speculated that the other party may really be a relatively important designer in the Industrial Illusions.

According to the original setting, Destiny HERO was a unique series of HERO designed by him for his son. In the animation, it was called the strongest series of HERO that goes beyond Elemental HERO.

And according to the animation, under the temptation of some extremely powerful mysterious power, he designed the Ultimate D card, which contained the strongest hero capable of destroying the world (supposedly) Destiny HERO Plasma.

Only after that, Asters father died because of it. Someone took the Plasma card from him, and at the same time, Mr. Phoenixs soul was also swallowed by this card.

Since then, Little Asters time has stagnated. Then he became a professional duelist, stepped into the league, and won consecutive battles, but time never moved forward.

He lingered forever on the night his father died, trying his best to find the murderer who killed his father.

But since that tragedy hasnt happened yet, Aster now looked like a carefree child full of longing for a duel, and Mr. Phoenix seemed to be quite normal.

So the invincible Plasma should not have been born yet.

From this point of view, that tragedy might also have been avoided.

Its just that the animation only mentioned the accident ten years ago in a few words in Asters memory, without any details or a specific time. It was too difficult to predict with such limited information.

The store manager Shin was my senior when we were in Industrial Illusions, and he took good care of me at that time. Mr. Phoenix smiled. It is also thanks to his willingness to help that I can have the honor to meet the Duel King.

Yuei Vu said politely: Its my honor. The store manager also helped me a lot when I was in trouble

I heard from him that you are dating his granddaughter, right? Mr. Phoenix smiled, Chika-chan is also a little beauty

Yuei Vu:

Damn it!

The old man was blabbing again

This is my son, Aster. Hes your big fan. Mr. Phoenix gestured to his son behind him, Come on, Aster, say hello to Brother Vuei Vu.

The silver-haired boy came forward very slowly, with his head lowered as if he was a little shy. He still looked like an introverted child.

Yuei Vus mind quickly became active.

Aster Phoenix, this guy has quite a lot of screen time in the plot of Yu-gi-oh GX.

Whats more important was that this character left a deep impression as soon as he appeared on the stage. He beat up Ryo, the former eldest brother of the Dueling Academy, and Yuki Judai, the next eldest brother of the academy. Ryo was so shocked by this defeat that he fell to the dark side and used the power of Cyber Dark. Next, Aster has beaten Judai so hard that he lost his ability to duel, and was autistic for a long time until he gained the power of Ultraman, eh, Neos, and then regained his strength.

From this point of view, Aster should barely be considered the child of destiny.

So if I could recruit and train him as soon as possible, when he entered the GX plotline in the future, wouldnt it be nice to have the child of destiny as a tool man?

Isnt there a saying that says so?

Training tool people should be started from childhood!

So Yuei Vu quickly put on a smile as warm as a spring breeze, coupled with the Charisma value that was enough to capture 80% of girls in seconds, and even used the legendary trick patting the head that could only be mastered by Picking Up Girl Artists Rank 8 or above, carefully touched Asters silver head.

For this wave of operations, Yuei Vu felt that he could score at least ninety-nine points, and one point was deducted because he was afraid of being too arrogant.

Well, it would be great if Little Aster was a loli. Using it on a shota would inevitably reduce the effect

But it didnt matter.

The favorability on this little boys head was continuously increasing, and it seemed that the capturing progress should be completed soon

Little Aster raised his head and seemed to muster up his courage: ThatYuei Vuei Vu, Ican I make a request?

Yuei Vu smiled gently: Go ahead.

Anyway, its probably to show him my own deck or something, right?

He remembered that it was mentioned in the animation that Aster was a hard-core hero fan just like Judai when he was a child. The most exciting thing in his childhood was seeing his father design a brand-new HERO, and he had no resistance to a handsome HERO.

For such a small request from fans, Yuei Vu said that of course, he could meet it.

Then he heard Aster whisper: Thenthen can you help me get an autograph of Yugi?

Yuei Vu:

The smile gradually faded. JPG.

Aster! Mr. Phoenix hurriedly pulled his son back with an apologetic expression on his face, Ahaha, he is still a child and doesnt know how to behave, Im sorry

Chapter 190: New HERO Series

Im sorry. Mr. Phoenix dragged his son to the back with an apologetic expression.

Its okay, its okay. Yuei Vu waved his hand generously and smiled, What an interesting kid.

As he said this, what Yuei Vu thought in his heart was: It didnt matter anyway, the future will be long, I will have a lot of opportunities to train this kid Aster

Actually, there is another thing I want to discuss with you this time.

Mr. Phoenix turned over this section and said instead: Actually, we Industrial Illusions are very interested in the Elemental HERO deck you use.

To be honest, the company is also trying to develop the same series recently. My department is also in charge of it, and I have designed a similar series personally

Yuei Vu probably understood.

It seemed that his guess is right. According to the progress of the animation story, the HERO series was about to be published on the big stage of the Yu-Gi-Oh world.

However, the Industrial Illusions did not seem to have any doubts about why he held unofficially printed cards. Because strictly speaking, the game Dueling Monster was not original to the Industrial Illusions, but has been around since ancient times. Its just that it has become popular all over the world again in the hands of Pegasus, the president of the Industrial Illusions.

Because of the particularity of this game, the issuance of Dueling Monster cards was not the exclusive property of the Industrial Illusions.

As long as they have enough advanced science and technology or extraordinary power enough to endow cards with spirituality, other organizations and individuals would also have the opportunity to print new cards.

Even the monster spirits who came here from the world of Dueling Monsters may give birth to brand new cards by their own power.

This was also why every generation of Yu-Gi-Oh BOSS could always take out a bunch of cards that even Pegasus has never heard of.

There was another more typical example, that was, all protagonists more or less had some cards that no one has seen before

Based on the strength of the Industrial Illusions, it was natural to find out that Yuei Vu was a cadre of the underground organization Nightcrawler World even a senior cadre, so it was not unacceptable for him to have a card of unknown origin in his hand.

Mr. Pegasus also expressed his great interest in the HERO series. Mr. Phoenix said, If there is a chance in the future, he hopes to chat with you about the concept of card design and the views on dueling monster games.

It would be a great honor for me if I had the opportunity to chat with the father of Dueling Monsters. Yuei Vu smiled.

Pegasus was known as the father of modern Dueling Monsters, and he was naturally the number one authority in the field of card games. If you could get in touch with this character, the benefits were self-evident.

The strong would be respected in any world, and the improvement of status would naturally bring more contacts and more resources. This could only be seen in the short few days since Yuei Vu became the Duel King.

After all, in this world, the standard for judging the strong could basically be directly linked to duel skills.

Mr. Phoenix changed the subject: Of course, today I don't represent the Industrial Illusions, but only represent myself. And I um I have a slightly unkind request.

Yuei Vu watched Mr. Phoenix slowly unzip the backpack and took out a Duel Disk from the bag. He roughly knew what he was going to do.

Mr. Phoenix said seriously: Please duel with me.

Little Aster's eyes widened, he looked at brother Yuei Vu, and then at his father, with a look of surprise on his face.

Does Dad want to fight Brother Yuei Vu!?

It doesn't have any special meaning. Mr. Phoenix smiled slightly, It's just that I also designed such a set of cards by myself a while ago, but I have never had the opportunity to actually fight with others.

But I think there should be no more suitable opponents than you and your Elemental HERO deck.

Of course, Yuei Vu also guessed what the set of cards the other party was talking about was.

Probably it should be the last HERO series left by Aster's father before his death, the Destiny HERO mentioned in the GX animation.

But if Mr. Phoenix came up with the idea of designing this deck because he saw the Elemental HERO used by Yuei Vu, and now he has a finished product in his hand, it meant that the Industrial Illusions must notice Yuei Vu and his HERO deck before the Battle City competition.

It should be the time Yuei Vu dueled with President Kaiba.

Otherwise, its only been a few days since the Battle City competition ended, and its definitely impossible to complete a set of cards in time.

Since the other party has invited them like this, Yuei Vu couldnt refuse. Its not that he was also a card addict and wanted to find someone to practice, but Ding!

Hidden Quest triggered: HEROs Battle of Destiny!

Sure enough, the general description of the quest also directly pointed out that the opponents deck was Destiny HERO, and it was unsurprisingly an optional quest. Yuei Vu could choose to accept it or refuse it on the spot.

But of course, he chose

Okay. Yuei Vu nodded, I accept this duel!

Why should he refuse?

The quest reward was clearly listed. The victory reward was a Destiny HERO Captain Tenacious!

Destiny HERO Captain Tenacious, Level 3, ATK 800, effect: Once per turn, during your Standby Phase: You can target 1 Destiny HERO monster in your Graveyard that was destroyed by battle since your last Standby Phase, if you control this face-up card when the target was destroyed; Special Summon that target.

Although the attack power was low and the effect was weak, being a completely useless card that should be put into the unknown meaning category that was still a Destiny HERO!

New series of HERO!

This meant that Yuei Vus card pool could be expanded again!

Of course, the premise was that Yuei Vu won this duel.

After a while, the two came to an open space.

They exchanged decks, shuffled the cards, inserted them back into their respective Duel Disks, and then came to the designated places facing each other.

Little Aster stood aside, watching with his eyes wide open.

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Mr. Phoenix, LP 4000

Its up to you to go first. Yuei Vu smiled, Let me see how powerful the deck you designed yourself is.

Then Im up. Mr. Phoenix was not polite, My turn, draw! Then Im going to summon this guy first, a HERO with the power to determine the future

Destiny HERO Diamond Dude!

Special light and shadow effects appeared on Mr. Phoenixs venue. The tall and slender HERO flew out, swung his cloak with a clear drink, and his body was covered with sparkling diamonds.

[Destiny HERO Diamond Dude, ATK 1400]

Little Aster was quite emotional on the side.

Its coming! Dads Destiny HERO!

Father, come on!!! Little Aster waved his fists and shouted desperately.

Destiny HERO Diamond Dude. Yuei Vu smiled, I see. Is this your HERO?

Thats right, this is the new series I designed after getting inspiration from your deck, Destiny HERO! Mr. Phoenix said, Your Elemental HERO and my Destiny HERO take advantage of todays opportunity, lets compete!

I activate the effect of Destiny HERO Diamond Dude! Once per turn, I can check the top card of my Deck. If it is a Normal Spell Card, send it to the Graveyard and I can activate its effect during the Main Phase of my next turn. Otherwise, I must place it on the bottom of my Deck.

Although it was a relatively random effect, as we all know, it was impossible for a true duelist to pick cards other than Normal Spell Card at this time

Sure enough.

The top card of my Deck is the Normal Spell Card Destiny Draw. Originally, this card needed to discard a Destiny HERO as the cost to activate.

However, due to the effect of Diamond Dude, I sent this card to the graveyard, and the effect can be activated directly in the next turn without any cost.

Not to mention practicality, the effect of Diamond Dude was quite unique.

Effects could be used directly without cost, which meant that many Spell Cards with harsh activation conditions could be activated directly regardless of the conditions.

For example, the Spell Card Ojama Delta Hurricane in Manjome Juns hand in GX. Its activation condition was This card can only be activated while Ojama Green, Ojama Yellow and Ojama Black are face-up on your side of the field, and its effect was destroy all cards on the opponents field.

However, if the effect of Destiny HERO Diamond Dude was used to pick the Ojama Delta Hurricane and send it to the graveyard, then all cards on the opponents field could be unconditionally destroyed in the next turn.

Yuei Vu vaguely remembered that a long time ago, there was a deck specially built around the Diamond Dude, relying on his effect to activate Spell Card to clear the field regardless of the harsh conditions.

Set a card, I end my turn.

Mr. Phoenix clenched his fists.

Come on, Yuei Vu, you dont have to be polite, just attack with all your strength! Let me also see the strength of Elemental HERO!
