

I Play Yu-Gi 191

Chapter 191: Destiny HERO

My turn, draw!

Since the other party said that, Yuei Vu naturally didn't plan to release water.

I discard a card in my hand, and special summon The Tricky in attack position!

After sending a card in his hand to the graveyard, a magician with a hood covered in question marks appeared on Yuei Vu's field, crossing his arms. His face and pose seemed to be asking: kid, did you have a lot of questions?

[The Tricky, ATK 2000]

Mr. Phoenix praised: It's such a superior monster

Although The Tricky is Level 5, he can be Special Summoned by discarding a card. Then, I activated the effect of Elemental HERO Necroshade that was just discarded to the graveyard.

Speaking of the golden light released from the graveyard area of the Duel Disk, a card popped out.

Once, while this card is in the GY, I can Normal Summon 1 Level 5 or higher Elemental HERO monster without Tributing. Yuei Vu showed another card in his hand, Come on, Elemental HERO Bladedge!

The engine behind the hero, who was dressed in a pure gold alloy, flew into the air with flames spraying from the engine, flipping half a circle like a lightweight fighter jet, and the tail flame behind him dragged out a burning trajectory.

[Elemental HERO Bladedge, ATK 2600]

Little Aster stared blankly from the side: That's so amazing

Battle! Bladedge, attack Diamond Dude! Power Edge Attack!

Flame erupted behind the Bladedge, turning into a golden afterimage and sprinting out, condescending, the sharp golden blade on his arm cut through the air and swooped down, cutting straight to the Diamond Dude's forehead.

But Mr. Phoenix also had countermeasures here: Open the set card: Trap Card D Shield! When an Attack Position Destiny Hero monster I control is selected as an attack target, change that monster to Defense Position and equip it with this card. The equipped monster cannot be destroyed by battle!

The suspended stones appeared in front of the Diamond Dude like a shield. The Destiny HERO switched from offense to defense, squatted down, and adopted a defensive posture with his arms crossed.

[Destiny HERO Diamond Dude, ATK 1400 DEF 1600]

A card that reinforces the defense? Yuei Vu said, But the Bladedge has the effect of causing piercing damage to the defensive monsters. Even if it cannot be destroyed, the battle damage still has to be calculated as usual. Continue to attack!

Bladedge fell vertically, and the metal blade slashed down fiercely. A huge impact passed through the Diamond Dude. Although most of the impact was absorbed by the floating shield in front of the Diamond Dude, a small part still passed through and hit the controller himself.

[Mr. Phoenix, LP 4000 LP 3000]

Little Aster swallowed his saliva: Its so strong. Even though Dad has adopted such a strong defense, he still caused a lot of damage

I end my turn. Yuei Vu said.

Mr. Phoenix lifted the glasses frame on the bridge of his nose, and his face became serious.

As expected of the Duel King, he is indeed very strong, and has a completely different sense of oppression from the other duelists I have faced so far.

But even so

Mr. Phoenix squinted at Little Aster who was not far away and took a deep breath.

Even so, as a father, he didnt want to make a fool of himself in front of his son.

And he also firmly believed that the Destiny HERO born with his own efforts would definitely not be inferior to the Elemental HERO of the Duel King.

My turn, draw! Mr. Phoenix drew a card and said, Then there is the effect of Destiny HERO Diamond Dude! The Spell Card Destiny Draw sent to the GY in the last turn can be activated directly without conditions!

So I can draw two more cards from the deck!

After drawing two cards, Mr. Phoenix revealed one of them without thinking: Activate Spell Card Graceful Charity! Draw three cards from the deck, and then discard two cards from the hand.

In this turn, Mr. Phoenix refilled his cards very well. Counting the normal draw, he has already drawn six cards in a row.

After drawing the card again, Mr. Phoenixs eyes lit up and he smiled confidently.

Coming!

Ill let you take a look at this turn, the strongest power of my Destiny HERO! Mr. Phoenix said, and the field area of the Duel Disk popped up.

Activate Field Spell Mausoleum of the Emperor!

The Spell Card was inserted, and the three-dimensional image transformed the terrain in an instant. The earth was rewritten amid roars and tremors, and flickering torches were lit along the way on both sides.

There were long stairs, a high altar, and a never-ending torch burning vigorously on the altar. There was also a huge square hole under the altar, and there were rows and rows of

The terracotta warriors?

Thats right, the prototype of this Field Spell was the legendary Qin Shihuangs tomb.

It could only be said that the sources of inspiration for the design of the Yu-Gi-Oh cards were too extensive, and anything could be mixed in Activate the effect of Mausoleum of the Emperor! Mr. Phoenix said, Both players can pay 5000 LP to use a terracotta warrior in the mausoleum as a Tribute to summon!

I pay 1000LP, use two terracotta warriors as sacrifices, and summon the wild and powerful hero of fate imprisoned in the clock tower! (animation effect)

[Mr. Phoenix, LP 3000 LP 2000]

He raised a card in his hand and shouted: Come on! Destiny HERO Dreadmaster!

A black storm rolled up, and under the light effect of the stereoscopic image, a muscular and massive hero image was projected.

A huge shirtless hero descended from the sky, landed like Mount Tai, and hit the field with a bang. He was bare-chested, his hands and feet were bound with shackles, his face was bound by a steel mask, and his teeth were clenched as if his whole body was filled with anger.

[Destiny HERO Dreadmaster, ATK ?

Appeared! The strongest Destiny HERO! Little Aster clenched his fists, Dad, come on!

Mr. Phoenix glanced at his son, chuckled gratifiedly, and said, If this card was Summoned, I can destroy all monsters on my field, and then Special Summon up to 2 Destiny HERO monsters from my Graveyard! (animation effect)

While speaking, two cards of Destiny HERO have been spit out from the graveyard area of the Duel Disk, and then placed in the monster area.

Come on, Destiny HERO Captain Tenacious! Destiny HERO Dasher!

The pitch-black vortex representing the graveyard opened up, and the terrified man threw out the chain on his wrist with a loud roar and plunged straight into the vortex. The two heroes came back from the graveyard dragging their iron chains respectively, and landed on either side of the horrified man, one on the left and the other on the right.

[Destiny HERO Captain Tenacious, ATK 800]

[Destiny HERO Dasher, ATK 2100]

Little Aster's face was full of surprise: A lot of heroes! Summoned so many in one go Daddy is also amazing!

Yuei Vu said lightly: Did you discard two Destiny HEROes when you activated the Graceful Charity just now?

Exactly. Mr. Phoenix smiled, And the ATK and DEF of Destiny HERO Dreadmaster are equal to the total ATK of all other Destiny HERO monsters I control!

Now I have a Diamond Dude, a Captain Tenacious, and a Dasher on my field, so the attack power of the Dreadmaster is the combined value of the three Destiny HERO!

[Destiny HERO Dreadmaster, ATK ? ATK 4300]

Yuei Vu looked at the huge hero: 4300 attack power?

Change the Diamond Dude from the defense position to the attack position, and then enter Battle Phase! Mr. Phoenix yelled, First, I use the Dreadmaster to attack Bladedge! Dominating Pressing Palms That Dissipate The Clouds!

Yuei Vu:

What the hell is the name of this move? Why is it full of Wuxia style?

The eyes behind the mask of Dreadmaster glowed scarlet. He roared furiously and flew towards the Bladedge.

The engine behind the Bladedge sprayed out, and the arm blade dragged out a golden awn to the side of the opponents face. Unexpectedly, Dreadmaster was even better. With a flick of his arm, he grabbed the metal heros wrist lightly, and followed by a head-on palm, hitting the Bladedges chest like an overwhelming blow.

After only one encounter, the Bladedge groaned and exploded on the spot, smashing his whole body into pieces.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2300

And then the Dasher! Mr. Phoenix continued, Attack The Tricky!

The black hero stepped on a pulley and charged forward as if skating. In the blink of an eye, the hero had already flashed in front of The Tricky, and his right leg swept out in a dark trajectory, hitting The Trickys body hard.

[Yuei Vu, LP 2300 LP 2200]

The attack is not over yet! Captain Tenacious, attack directly!

Captain Tenacious jumped up and landed in front of Yuei Vu, and the armor on his arm smashed hard. The stereoscopic image penetrated Yuei Vus body, but the virtual impact still made him take half a step back.

[Yuei Vu, LP 2200 LP 1400]

In the end, I still have the Diamond Dude who hasnt attacked yet. Mr. Phoenix smiled.

[Destiny HERO Diamond Dude, ATK 1400]

If this attack passed, the heroes of destiny would directly win the first battle with glory!

Win against the Duel King in the first battle!

Any duelist would more or less always have such expectations. Even Mr. Phoenix, who has always been easy-going, couldnt help but restrain the excitement in his heart at this time.

Little Asters eyes sparkled even more: Daddyis he going to win?

See, this is the potential of my Destiny HERO! Mr. Phoenix shouted, Diamond Dude, attack directly!

The Diamond Dude flicked his cloak, flew across the battlefield, and sprinted straight toward Yuei Vu.

It's just that Yuei Vu didn't have any expression on his face from the beginning to the end. Facing the Diamond Dude who was coming straight towards him, he even hooked the corner of his mouth

Kuriboh, save me!

Chapter 192: Hero's Victory

Diamond Dude had an attack power of 1400, and Yuei Vu's LP was exactly 1400 left. If this attack passed, it would directly declare the end of this duel!

But at this moment, Kuriboh in Yuei Vu's hand stood up!

It jumped off the field lightly with an arch of its body, puffed out its chest, and issued a series of Kuri Kuri. Yuei Vu guessed blindly that it might be similar to don't worry, leave it to me.

So Yu-Gi-Oh was really a very magical game. Kuriboh would jump out to block for the master. Yuei Vu said that he didn't know the reason. Anyway, quite suddenly, Kuriboh in my hand suddenly moved

But Kuriboh said that this was just a small scene. Whether it was an attack power of 3000, 4000, or even infinite, it could still handle a single blow. A mere 1400, to be honest, wouldn't worth a laugh.

Diamond Dude landed one blow, but the impact and damage were all absorbed by Kuriboh, failing to cause any substantial damage to Yuei Vu.

Sure enough, it's not as simple as that. Mr. Phoenix let out a sigh of relief. After attacking, Destiny HERO Dasher will automatically change to Defense Position at the end of the Battle Phase.

There is no more monster that can continue to attack, so I end my turn.

[Destiny HERO Dasher, ATK 2100 DEF 1000]

Well, it would be a lie to say that he was not disappointed at all. But in fact, he more or less expected this result.

Thinking back carefully, since he summoned Dreadmaster and pulled out such a crowd of Destiny HERO, the other party never responded with any surprise from the beginning to the end.

Until the end of the four consecutive attacks just now, everything seemed to be within the opponent's expectation.

On the contrary, since there was an absolute advantage in the scene, Mr. Phoenix felt a little uneasy. It was as if the direction of the entire duel had slipped from his fingertips from the moment he declared turn ends.

Maybe it's because of the invisible aura unique to some powerful duelists.

For some reason, Mr. Phoenix felt that at this moment, his aura seemed to be suppressed by the other party in all directions.

My turn, draw!

Sure enough, facing such an impenetrable and luxurious lineup of Destiny HERO, Yuei Vu immediately launched a counterattack without hesitation.

I summon Elemental HERO Blazeman from the hand!

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200]

This hero had a high appearance rate in Yuei Vu's hands, so Mr. Phoenix was no stranger to him.

Blazeman? Mr. Phoenix said, Sure enough, he still needs to use his effect to add Polymerization

No, this time I'm going to use another effect of the Blazeman. Yuei Vu smiled, Once per turn, I can send 1 Elemental HERO monster from my Deck to the GY, except Elemental HERO Blazeman, and this card's Attribute and ATK/DEF become the same as the monster sent to the GY, until the end of this turn.

He pulled out the deck, selected a card, flipped it over and displayed it, and sent it to the grave area of the Duel Disk.

I chose Elemental HERO Wildheart, and Blazeman can get the same attack power.

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200 ATK 1500]

Mr. Phoenix said: But even if the attack power increases

Don't worry, Mr. Phoenix. My real intention is actually here. Yuei Vu drew out a card in his hand, Activate Spell Card Miracle Fusion! Fusion Summon 1 Elemental HERO Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, by banishing Fusion Materials from my field or GY!

I fuse Elemental HERO Bladedge and Elemental HERO Wildheart in my GY!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Wildedge!

Elemental HERO Bladedge in the graveyard area and Elemental HERO Wildheart who had just been thrown out of the deck popped up at the same time, turning into three-dimensional images and appearing on the field.

The two heroes turned into golden light beams and charged into the air, staggering and merging into one. A hero with golden gauntlets, straps wrapped around his shirtless body, and a heavy sword behind his back made his grand debut.

[Elemental HERO Wildedge, ATK 2600]

Mr. Phoenix suddenly realized: I see! The purpose is not to increase the attack power, but to send the monsters used as materials to the graveyard?

Exactly. Yuei Vu said, And the Wildedge has the ability to attack all monsters on the opponent's field once each!

Oops Oh crap! Mr. Phoenix looked at the ace monster on his field, Dreadmaster. The attack power of Dreadmaster is the combined value of other Destiny HERO

Exactly! It's time to fight! Yuei Vu raised his hand, Wildedge, attack Destiny HERO Dasher!

[Destiny HERO Dasher, DEF 1000]

Wildedge flew forward, grasped the hilt of the sword on his back with his long arm, pulled it out with a single move, and slammed it down on the head of the Dasher!

Dasher was shattered with a bang. Although it did not cause any battle damage because Dasher was in defense position, the attack power of Dreadmaster has been reduced due to the attrition of the Destiny HERO.

[Destiny HERO Dreadmaster, ATK 4300 ATK 2200]

Wildedge! Yuei Vu continued to shout, Attack Destiny HERO Captain Tenacious!

[Destiny HERO Captain Tenacious, ATK 800]

Wildedge who had killed one hero didn't stop, followed by a dodge, and instantly came to Captain Tenacious, raised his sword, and dropped it, and Captain Tenacious was also smashed to pieces with a groan.

Mr. Phoenix took half a step back due to the shock of the airflow, and raised his hand to protect his face: Uh

[Mr. Phoenix, LP 2000 LP 200]

[Destiny HERO Dreadmaster, ATK 2200 ATK 1400]

Dreadmaster, whose attack power was as high as 4300 in the last turn, suffered a drastic drop in combat power due to his teammates falling down one after another, and finally fell to a level comparable to low-level trash monsters (quote from President Kaiba).

With the last 200 LPs left, Wildedge still had two chances to attack.

In this way, it will be the final blow.

Wildedge, make an additional attack! Yuei Vu pointed at the most conspicuous hunk on the opposite field this time, Destroy Destiny HERO Dreadmaster!

Wildedge made a step, his figure faded, and people flashed continuously in mid-air, and in an instant, he was in front of Dreadmaster.

Not to be outdone, Dreadmaster let out an angry roar, and without thinking, he slapped out the Dominating Pressing Palms That Dissipate The Clouds. But now the attack power was only 1400, and his strength must be less than 30% of the usual. Wildedge turned sideways lightly, the blade came out of its sheath, and the sharp blade cut the opponent into two pieces with just one blow, and exploded with a bang.

Uh

[Mr. Phoenix, LP 200 LP 0]

Chapter 193: Dancing Demons

Mr. Phoenix, LP 0

I lost.

Although there was a glimmer of hope for a while in the middle, in the end, he lost as expected.

Mr. Phoenix smiled wryly and sighed.

The Duel King deserved to be the Duel King, not everyone could win casually. Although the result seemed to be no different from what was expected in advance, there would still be some regrets of the defeat.

And seeing his father's defeat, my son will be very depressed, right?

However, Mr. Phoenix saw that little Aster was running to Yuei Vu's side right now, his eyes were shining brightly: Wow! The hero just now is so handsome! Can I have a look?

He completely ignored his father who was beaten up. Of course, he didn't seem to be depressed at all.

Even the words Favorability + 1, + 1, + 1 kept popping up on his little head

Sure.

Wildedgetoo strong! Little Aster was full of admiration, And Brother Yuei Vu is also very strong, much stronger than Dad!

Mr. Phoenix:

Cough cough, forget it, it doesn't matter, as long as my son is happy

After playing cards, the three of them sat in an open-air cafe, ate some sweets and drank some coffee, chatted casually for a while, and immediately became acquainted.

As the saying goes the strongest relationship between men is nothing more than carrying guns together and going through windows together.

However, it was even easier for duelists. As long as they played cards together, they were all half-brothers.

After a short chat, Mr. Phoenix took his son and got up to leave.

At the same time, he revealed that his boss, Mr. Pegasus, was also arranging his schedule these days, planning to make a special trip to meet Yuei Vu one day when he had free time.

Among the two contemporary Duel Kings, Yugi Muto has fought against Pegasus a long time ago, and the two were already familiar with each other.

However, Yuei Vu has never met the father of Dueling Monsters. According to Mr. Phoenix, President Pegasus seemed to be looking forward to this meeting.

Before leaving, Little Aster seemed quite reluctant to part with him. When his father took his hand and left, he turned his head every step of the way, as if it was very difficult to separate from his idol, as if he would cry if he didn't agree with him.

So Mr. Phoenix joked to his son: If you want to stay with Brother Yuei Vu so much, how about I give you to him? You follow Brother Yuei Vu home, and Dad goes back by himself. Do you think it will work?

What?

Little Aster was a little confused.

This may be the biggest and most difficult decision Little Aster has ever encountered in his life (although it hasn't been long in total), thus the child was very worried.

Little Aster looked blankly at his father, then at Brother Yuei Vu, struggled for a long time, finally bit his lip, and seemed to have finally made a very difficult decision.

After all, he was a man who would become a hero in the future, and a hero must be able to make difficult choices.

Aster turned his head and gave Dad a hug.

Mr. Phoenix smiled with some relief, and patted his son's head: My son

Then after hugging, Little Aster turned around and ran to Yuei Vu's side: Then I'll go with Brother Yuei Vu

Yuei Vu:

Mr. Phoenix:

Of course, Yuei Vu couldn't just abduct other people's baby like this. Even if it was said that training tool people should be started from childhood, it was a bit arrogant to do so for real

No one took Little Aster's reaction seriously. After all, children didn't understand anything.

From the perspective of a child, he may simply want to stay with his idol now, and then he could go back to his father when he got tired and regretted

Before being taken away by his father, Little Aster finally shouted to Yuei Vu seriously: Brother Yuei Vu! I will use the HERO deck designed by my father in the future, and I will definitely become a duelist as strong as you!

Really? Then come on. Yuei Vu smiled gently, I believe that Aster will definitely be able to do it No, you will definitely be a stronger duelist than me!

Little Aster looked delighted and nodded vigorously: Thank you, Brother Yuei Vu!

Mr. Phoenix also smiled and nodded to Yuei Vu to express his gratitude, and then led his son away.

Yuei Vu looked at the disappearing back of the father and son, with a smile on his face, but he was actually thinking in his heart

Kid, being a hero is not as easy to be as you think!

A so-called hero is not only always alone and cannot find friends, but also and often always hungry!

Speaking of this, Yuei Vu couldn't help but think of the World Link Online in his previous life, which was updated to the most popular version of the HERO deck. A large group of players prepared a whole box of banknotes and sharpened their knives one by one to start the game. It was said that some exaggerated buddies even sold their houses, but in the end they still didn't even touch the shadow of Elemental HERO Stratos

At that time, the forum was really full of wailing. From top to bottom, it was full of blood and tears from the sinking players and occasionally, one player who relied on the rewarded crystal to open a pack ten times in a row, getting a Sky Hero, then was attacked by countless players until not even his bones were left.

At that time, the most common words in the forum were

Im so hungry, if I knew it, I wouldnt be a hero

Having met Uncle Itou Shins friend, before Yuei Vu returned to the store, he decided to drop by the Nightcrawler World to have a look.

After he won the Battle City competition, many people from the association also congratulated him. President Kawasawa Gais head became so hot that he wrote him a seven-figure check as a reward that day.

President Gai said that although the ability of the association was limited, some of the performances should be given. Yuei Vu must accept this money! (Of course, he didnt intend to refuse it at all)

In the past few days, there have been quite a few people in the world trying to find Yuei Vu to establish a relationship, and they were all blocked by the association.

President Gai was busy helping him socialize everywhere these days. He drank wine one after another and went to WC a few times per party.

Anyway, Manager Shouei said that the president has lost a lot of weight, and he looked malnourished with dark circles under his eyes all day long, but he still enjoyed showing off at one party after another. If this continued, he might die suddenly

After winning the title of Duel King, Yuei Vu has never been to the headquarters. He felt that at least he had to take some time to express his gratitude to everyone in the association for their care and support.

It was still a dark alley, and in a dead end where the lights couldnt reach, the gatekeeper was still the burly man who once stopped Yuei Vu with a fierce look.

But this time, when the strong man saw Yuei Vu, his eyes lit up immediately, and he hurried up: Yuei sir! Are you here to?

Yuei Vu smiled: Well, I happened to be passing by, so come and have a look today.

Please come in quickly! You havent come these days. Everyone has been talking about you recently!

While talking, the gatekeeper opened the rusty iron gate, which was used to hide peoples eyes, and led Yuei Vu in.

Its just the right time for you to come now. There are lively activities being held in the stronghold. You will definitely be interested.

Oh? What event? Yuei Vu asked, A duel competition?

No, it is here it is, you can see for yourself.

At the end of the stairway, the strong man pushed open the door, and suddenly appeared behind the door

A group of muscular men with red faces and veins popping out, singing and dancing one by one.

Yuei Vu:

The air was scorching and hot, and it felt like hell in a certain sense. And what appeared in front of him at this moment was a group of demons dancing wildly

Chapter 194: Well-behaved.JPG

Yuei Vu:

Seeing a group of muscular brothers with red faces, bragging, cheering while drinking, and a few of them doing some performance art with unknown meaning

For a moment, he thought that the way he opened the door was wrong.

However, the gatekeeper didnt feel anything was wrong at all. Instead, he put his hands on his hips and laughed loudly: Look, I said its very lively, right? Hahahaha!

Yuei Vu rolled his eyes at him and couldnt help being speechless.

Thats the truth, it is indeed very lively

WTF!

This is so obviously abnormal, right? Arent we a duelist club?

Then, I would like to ask those brothers, what kind of operation is it to go to the duel stage and do a striptease without playing cards??

Noticing Yuei Vus strange gaze, the gatekeeper hurriedly explained: Oh, that one. Oh, its also a custom you brought up

Yuei Vu said that it was none of my business.

You people can talk nonsense. A group of muscular guys was dancing strip dances. Does it have anything to do with me?

I wont be responsible for any problems in the future, do you understand?

Yo, isnt this Yuei Vu!

It was Mr. Kurota who met Yuei Vu for the first time when he joined the club. At the moment, he was also looking frank, but in comparison, at least he was wearing a pair of big pants of the same style as the Hulk, otherwise, Yuei Vu would have to wash his eyes

Have you seen it? Hahahaha! Mr. Kurota laughed loudly while pointing at the hot dancers on the stage, Oh, I didnt expect you and I to lead the trend that day.

Because now you have become the Duel King, the role model and goal of everyone. I mentioned to everyone that in the first battle when you joined the club, the condition for our Shadow Game was that the loser had to strip dance. So now its an unwritten rule, and everyone wants to emulate you

Yuei Vu:

I dont know what to say.

Hey, hey, werent you the one who asked for the striptease? You are such a malicious slander!

Hey, speaking of it, a lot of fresh blood has been injected into our organization recently. Those newcomers are really more interesting than each other! Mr. Kurota said.

Yuei Vu soon realized that Kurota should be referring to the players who have been joining the club recently.

Because of Yuei Vu, the association of Nightcrawler World was getting more and more attention all over the world, especially among players.

As a result, more and more players discovered the prerequisite tasks for joining the club. Many players have worked overtime these days, day and night, completed a series of quests, and finally joined the harmonious and friendly family of Nightcrawler World as they wished.

Speaking of which, Yuei Vu remembered that when he first joined, even though the organization was full of macho men, the style didnt seem to be so weird?

It seemed that since the players joined, the organizations style has become more and more strange

Mr. Kurota continued: These duelists are all gentlemen, and they are the backbone of our organization in the future! Especially the newcomer named Yuei Cannot Escape Fae, he is very good! Things are done cleanly, never procrastinate in drinking. In short, he is a brave man! I like him very much!

Yuei Vu said in his heart: The two of you might as well be together, I think you two are quite suitable Yuei Vu glanced over, suddenly raised his eyebrows, and noticed something.

From among the strong men drinking in a circle, he actually discovered a girl?

What kind of brave girl would drink and fight with a group of brothers in this kind of place? (The drinking game was rock-paper-scissor)

And it looked like she has a pretty strong body and a good figure.

If you described it more seriously, it would be a swan flying gracefully, soft and charming, with slightly raised eyebrows and winking eyes like silk

In laymans terms, big and white.

Going closer and taking a closer look, Yuei Vu couldnt help being even more surprised.

Because he seemed to know this one.

Isnt this Tilla Mook who was beaten by my angry Dark Magician Girl to the point where she couldnt take care of herself? That pretty vampire big sister?

But isnt she Ghouls? Why do you still look familiar with a group of strong men in this kind of place?

A few minutes later, President Kawasaki Gais office.

Ahem, yes, I allowed her to join. President Gai nodded and confirmed, Although Tilla Mook was from Ghouls before, she has completely severed contact with Ghouls now, showing us her willingness to serve the world of Nightcrawler.

Yuei Vu glanced at Tilla Mook next to him the latter lowered her head like a little girl who made a mistake and was invited to the teachers office, with an obedient at your mercy appearance.

Yuei Vu looked at the president suspiciously: But the president, didnt you say that she is an idiot and cannot be trusted at all?

Ah, that was the situation at that time. The president coughed lightly, The situation is always changing. Tilla Mook has proved her worth to us, and our Nightcrawler World has always been known for its kindness, and we are always happy to give second chances to duelists who have gone astray

Manager Nanmoku on the side said blankly: Tilla Mook gave too much money.

With a dark face, President Gai took out the Duel Disk from under the desk: Come on, come on, today I must turn you into a mute.

Yuei Vu coughed: Well I dont have any objections. But is this really okay, President? After all, she is a vampire, and she used to be Ghouls, our enemy.

She is looking for another way out now because Ghouls is finished, right? Can such a person be trusted?

After the Battle City Tournament ended, and the misunderstanding of the Tomb Keepers solved the dark personality in Mariks heart, the Ghouls organization basically existed in name only.

Originally, it was an organization that Marik had just pulled up recently, without any qualifications or background. Before, it was possible to be arrogant in the underground world because of Mariks Millennium Rod and the power of The Winged Dragon of Ra.

Not only were all these gone now, but Ghouls was still splitting internally. After the boss ran away, all kinds of mooks appeared to try to sit on the throne of the boss, and the internal chaos became a mess.

Its really hard to believe sincerity that Tilla Mook came to seek refuge at such a critical moment.

And Yuei Vu remembered that he seemed to have pulled out her deck before

As a result, Tilla Mook raised her head at this moment and said with a smile: If you are worried that I will rebel, Master Yuei Vu, I will definitely not Or, I cant do it.

Oh? How should I say it?

Remember the Shadow Game we had before?

I remember. Yuei Vu folded his arms, You ended up in a terrible situation.

Yeah, its all my fault for challenging you. Tilla Mook sighed and said, Then do you remember what the penalty for defeat I mentioned when we started the Shadow Game?

Yuei Vu thought for a while: If I lose, you will suck my blood? Wait, thats wrong

Yes, I said at the time that if I win, I will take your body. Tilla Mook was a little embarrassed when she said, I lost in the end, so

Yuei Vu: ?

Tilla Mook blinked her eyes frantically and hinted: My defeat penalty has not been paid yet, so I cant hurt you.

And as a winner, you can ask me to do anything ~ anything you want

Tilla Mook: Well-behaved.JPG.

Yuei Vu thought about it.

Anything I want?

Since thats the case

He thought for a while, then looked at Tilla Mook expressionlessly: Then you go out and run around this building ten laps no, fifty laps. Well talk about it after running.

Tilla Mook: ???

Chapter 195: Pegasus-style English

A minute later, the vampire beauty really went out of the building, and ran in circles against the moonlight, sweating profusely, attracting many screwballs and brothers to watch

President Kawasaki Gai had a strange expression on his face: Why did you let her do this?

Its not interesting, just to test whether she is really as obedient as she said. Yuei Vu looked at the side with his chin in his hand, Tsk tsk, it looks pretty good.

President Gai wanted to ask which aspect was goodbut after thinking about it, he held back and didnt ask.

Manager Nanmoku on the side sighed and shook his head.

Alas, she already said she could let you do whatever you wanted, but you actually made her run around!

As a man, Manager Nanmoku felt deeply sorry.

What a waste!

Yuei Vu looked at the side for a while: Her physical fitness is good, is it because she is a vampire? How many laps has it been?

Twelve laps. President Gai said.

Oh, thats still very early. Yuei Vu nodded, I still have something to do, so Ill leave first. President, please send me a text message to let me know if she persists later.

If Tilla was absolutely obedient as she said, it would not be completely useless.

Yuei Vu was now secretly thinking about how to use this vampire

After an unknown amount of time, Tilla, who had fulfilled her mission and ran fifty laps, finally came back on the verge of death: You Master Yuei Vu, I did it I did it

Where is he?

Oh, him. President Gai scratched his brine-like forehead with some embarrassment, and smiled dryly, When you ran to the twelfth lap, he said he had to leave.

Tilla:

Mr. Phoenix really did not lie.

The next morning, there was a long queue in the dream card store as usual. Yuei Vu cut the leeks one by one according to the usual practice. Some of the little leeks cheered excitedly as soon as they were delivered, while others made a fuss because all their belongings sank to the bottom

Yuei Vu was selling cards and cutting leeks, when suddenly there was noise from passers-by outside the door, as well as the humming and rumbling noise of the engine, and the powerful hurricane blew away all the debris and gravel everywhere.

The helicopter with the logo of the Industrial Illusions landed smoothly outside the store.

The cabin door opened, and two bodyguards in black jumped down first, followed by an American gentleman in a red suit with long silver hair covering half of his face.

Pegasus J Crawford, the father of modern Dueling Monsters, and the chairman of the Industrial Illusions.

The screwball players in the room suddenly exploded: Pegasus, its Pegasus!

What is Pegasus doing here?

Isn't this nonsense? He must have come to look for Yuei Vu!

Is this some kind of main plot?

Pegasus walked in, smiled, and said, Yuei Vu Boy~

Come here! Pegasus-style English!

Ah, what a familiar feeling!

If one had to choose a character with the most recognizable voice from among the animated characters, then President Kaiba, who had a standard three-stage laugh, would at best be ranked second, and the first place would definitely be President Pegasus.

Because the president spoke Japanese-style English even though he was an American. That's not all, he even mixed the suspected English pronunciation with Japanese, and match it with his unique characteristic model pronunciation. Hearing it once would brainwash you

Yuei Vu Boy~ I'm very happy to meet you. Pegasus said with a smile, If it's convenient, would you like to have a brief chat with me?

Ignoring Pegasus painful construction site pronunciation, Yuei Vu smiled: It's a natural honor for being invited by the president of the Industrial Illusions personally.

Since he wanted to talk to Pegasus, the business here had to be suspended.

Yuei Vu sent away all the players in the room, temporarily put up a Closed sign on the door of the store, closed the door, and prepared to have a long talk with Pegasus.

The two bodyguards brought by Pegasus stood outside, one on the left and one on the right like the left and right guardians in a temple.

A group of players outside the door was extremely curious about what they were talking about inside, but they couldn't see or hear them.

Someone suddenly said: By the way, isn't Yuei Vu an employee of Kaiba Corp? I remember that the president and Pegasus's company seem to be in a competitive relationship?

There is competition as well as cooperation

By the way, Pegasus didn't make a special trip to poach people, did he?

Running into the president's territory to poach people? What the hell is that exciting?

Should someone hurry up and notify President Kaiba

While the screwball players outside were chatting, the conversation inside also started.

At this moment, Master Shin, the old employee of the Industrial Illusions, happened not to be at home. Only Chika was sitting behind the counter in the room, listening quietly with her ears pricked up.

First of all, congratulations on winning the title of Duel King. I have played with Yugi Boy~ before, so I know his strength the best. It is beyond the reach of ordinary people.

If you can have a draw with him, the title of Duel King is well-deserved.

After a pause, he smiled lightly.

I heard that You have already had contact with my employees, so you can probably guess what I'm going to say next.

That's right, our Industrial Illusions is very interested in the HERO deck you use. As a Duel King deck, it also has the elements of righteous HERO. It is the best choice to give children dreams and inject fresh blood into the world of duel monsters!

So we also hope to start developing a series of decks with the theme of Elemental HERO recently.

Oh? Yuei Vu asked, Aren't you wondering where my deck came from?

If you are willing to share, we naturally want to know. Pegasus smiled, But it is precisely because I bring the game of dueling monsters back to modern times so that I can better understand the depth and mystery of the world of dueling monsters.

The design of the card is not my patent. It is very normal for other capable people to have their own unique cards. If they do not want others to know the origin of the card, we will not ask more questions.

But HERO is Yuei's deck, after all, I think no one in this world is more familiar with the characteristics of this deck than You, Yuei Vu Boy~

So before the official start of construction, I hope to extend an invitation on behalf of the Industrial Illusions.

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows: Do you want me to involve in the design of the HERO series?

This was a trivial matter, and Yuei Vu said that he was extremely happy about it. Now he only cared about remuneration, as long as he was paid enough, everything would be fine

Pegasus was worthy of being the president of an international corp. He was a sensible person, and immediately said: Of course, since Yuei Vu Boy~ is a Duel King, we have already made preparations on our side.

After a short pause, he changed the topic.

I dont know if youve heard of the famous hero-themed TV series? The story of a lonely hero who puts on a mask and fights an evil organization alone in an unknown corner?

Yuei Vu was taken aback for a moment.

This dj vu, could it be that

Dont look at me like this, in fact, I have always been a loyal fan of this series. Pegasus smiled, I saw the HERO series card group you used this time, and it also gave me similar inspiration.

So I came up with an idea, a new path for deck design. Although I havent designed the finished product yet, I have a prototype concept card here, you can see it if you are interested.

As he spoke, he pushed a card face down toward Yuei Vu.

Yuei Vu had already vaguely guessed what this would be.

He picked up the card and turned it over.

Masked HERO Inferno, Level 4, ATK 1800, DEF 1000. (manga card)

Chapter 196: Task

Masked HERO!

Although it seemed to be a Masked HERO that was not published in real life, and it seemed to be just a Normie with no effect, but it didnt matter, because this card indeed belonged to the Masked HERO series!

As long as he could get a Masked HERO card, this series was equivalent to being unlocked in Yuei Vus system card pool!

But Yuei Vu quickly calmed down.

This cardhasnt been completed yet? He realized the problem.

As previously mentioned, every real dueling monster card has a spirituality, and some of them contain some extraordinary power. That was the biggest difference between the real card and the counterfeit goods of the pirate dealers like Ghouls.

No matter how advanced the technology was, even if a counterfeit card could be read and identified by the Duel Disk and could be projected normally, the pirated version was still a pirated version, nothing more than a dead thing. Even a rookie Shadow Duelist could tell the difference between true cards and fake cards at a glance.

And now the card that Pegasus showed him was just a piece of paper in a strict sense.

Pegasus took back the card and shrugged: As I said, this is just a sample. The production of the new duel monster card requires a complicated process. Now this project is still in its infancy and will take a certain amount of time.

When he said this, he sat up straight and placed his hands alternately on his upturned thighs.

Yuei Vu Boy~, this is the condition I offered. He said with a smile, In return for assisting in the development, the Industrial Illusions will develop this Masked HERO series just for you.

For me? Yuei Vu pointed at himself in surprise.

Thats right. Just as the founder of the game, I designed the Toon series which is unique in the world. Yuei Vu Boy~, we will tailor this set of cards that is unique in the world just for you. Masked HERO would become your unique symbol of being the Duel King.

Yuei Vu was a little surprised.

Wow, I didnt notice it when I watched the animation. Is Pegasus such a nice person?

As the father of dueling monsters, he made himself the Toon series which was kind of cute but just a gimmick deck, when it came to Yuei Vu here, he would give him something as fierce as Masked HERO?

Well, in fact, the Toon deck that DM Pegasus printed for himself in the early days was quite a meta deck, but it gradually couldnt keep up with the version changes.

Of course, Im just suggesting. Pegasus spread his hands, You can also refuse, Yuei Vu Boy.

Of course, Yuei Vu has no reason to refuse. He readily agreed.

Very good, I knew you would not refuse, Yuei Vu Boy~. Pegasus stood up with a smile, Now, there is one last thing but this time it is my personal requested.

Yuei Vu suddenly had a subtle premonition.

For some reason, he felt as if he could guess what Pegasus was going to say

Duel with me.

Sure enough.

Yuei Vu found out. Ever since he became the Duel King, almost everyone wanted to fuck him. (referring to playing cards)

From this point of view, maybe after Yugi became the Duel King in the original work, his daily life should have been greatly affected, but it was not released in the animation.

Its been a long time since I fought with anyone. Even if I retreat behind the scenes, I still have the heart to fight occasionally. Pegasus said, In addition, if you want to really understand a deck, you cant figure it out from the information and videos.

Only by fighting in person can I understand the characteristics of your Elemental HERO.

Yuei Vu also stood up: Just in time, I have heard about Mr. Pegasus Toon deck for a long time, and I am very happy to have the opportunity to fight against it.

That would be great. Pegasus said with a smile, But forgive me, Im a bit of an old-fashioned person, and Im not used to the Duel Disk developed by Kaiba Boy Company for the time being.

So be it, why dont you come with me to my castle. Lets have a good game in the duel arena over there, and treat it as a vacation by the way. Let me treat you well.

Yuei Vu had no problem with it: Since President Pegasus has invited me so kindly, then I

Before he finished speaking, he heard a muffled sound as something exploded.

The door of the store that had been closed was slammed open. Seto Kaiba stood coldly at the door, his white windbreaker fluttering like a cloak.

It could be vaguely seen from behind him that the two bodyguards of Pegasus have been held down by a group of black suits brought by Kaiba

Pegasus.

Kaiba didnt have the slightest liking for the culprit who once took away his younger brother and his own soul.

If it wasnt for the fact that the other party was the father of duel monsters and cooperated with Kaiba Corp in the duel monster project, Kaiba might not even be able to have such a peaceful conversation with the other party.

Kaiba Boy~ Long time no see. Pegasus smiled politely, How are you doing these days?

Domino is my city, what do you want to do here? Kaiba said coldly.

As you can see, I am just representing the Industrial Illusions to invite the current Duel King to cooperate. Pegasus smiled.

President Kaiba glanced sideways at Yuei Vu, and Yuei Vu

Yuei Vu pretended to be looking at the scenery. (Although he didnt know what kind of scenery could be seen in his store)

Before that, he was the special consultant of our Kaiba Corps dueling monster department. Kaiba said coldly, He has a task to do now, and he cant go anywhere until the task is completed.

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

What? I have a task? What task?

Why dont I know myself?

But considering the face of his boss (and his salary), Yuei Vu of course shut his mouth wisely and did not say a word.

Okay. Pegasus didnt mind, and smiled, Then Ill go back today, and lets talk about this discussion when I have a chance another day.

That proposal is considered to be accepted by you, Yuei Vu Boy~. Ill arrange for someone to contact you later.

After finishing speaking, Pegasus exited the card shop, boarded the helicopter with his own people, and left quickly.

Seeing Pegasus left, Kaiba glanced at Yuei Vu and said calmly, At six oclock tonight, come to the company to do a task.

Then President Kaiba tossed his windbreaker, turned around, and walked out. A large group of men in black who looked like spies also followed him away.

After the president left, looking at the group of screwball players outside the door who were agitated and talking, with gossip in their eyes, Yuei Vu probably already guessed what they were doing

He even had a premonition that there would be a lot of eye-catching things on the forum tomorrow.

How about close the door and release the Dark Magician Girl, and killing all these screwballs?

It seems to be useless, the screwballs can all be resurrected, damn it

Chika came out from behind the counter hesitantly: Um Yuei Vu, was that Seto Kaiba just now? He was looking for you

Dont worry, its just that his card addiction has been triggered. Yuei Vu was helpless.

Task? Task my ass!

Its so nice to say, but in the end, isnt he just trying to pull me to play cards with him

Chapter 197: President Kaiba Is Busy

At six oclock in the evening, Yuei Vu arrived at the headquarters of Kaiba Corp on time.

After all, Kaiba was the boss, and the prize money he won from the Battle City Contest was all given by Kaiba, so he still has to give a face to him.

But when he came to the hall, he didnt see the president, but the cute Mokuba. Today, the primary school student (who was suspected to be a prince from the neighborhood ninja village) changed out of the yellow vest he wore all year round and put on a tailor-made white suit, which looked quite energetic.

Yuei Vu reckoned that Mokubas affection for him should not be low. And unlike his awkward older brother, Mokubas favorability was written on his face undisguised.

When he saw Yuei Vu from a distance in the hall, he turned his head and put aside his business, and greeted him enthusiastically as if he was seeing his own brother.

Yuei Vu, youre here! Mokuba took his hand and walked towards the elevator, Big brother has been waiting for you for a long timeah, but dont say that in front of him, especially dont say I said it. Otherwise, he will be unhappy.

Yuei Vu smiled and said that it didnt need to be explained, we all knew about the president.

So, what is Kaiba doing?

Mokuba showed a somewhat tangled expression: Uh, brother

Is he busy now?

Thats right. Mokuba looked a little embarrassed.

The elevator made an electronic sound of ding and stopped at the 30th floor. The metal door automatically slides open to both sides along the slide rail.

Mokuba led the way and walked out: Why dont you take a look for yourself?

Yuei Vu: ?

Stepping out of the elevator, what appeared in front of the two was a huge operating platform. Many researchers in white coats stood by the console, looking down at something through the tempered glass.

Whats going on?

Yuei Vu walked over curiously and looked down at a group of researchers.

The place below turned out to be an experimental duel arena. The one on the right side of the field was President Kaiba. He has a combined monster XYZ-Dragon Cannon with an attack power of 2800 on his field, and a set card in the Spell Trap Zone.

And the one on the opposite side was

Yuei Vu! ??

That tall and straight figure, handsome face, and that compelling heroism

I cant be wrong! It was the face I saw every day when looking in the mirror!

With a dark face, Yuei Vu instantly understood something.

That fellow Kaibayou really made me into an AI bot to satisfy your desire!? (referring to playing cards)

President, do you really want to be inspired to practice the rhythm of becoming a machine king?

Mokuba also seemed to feel a little ashamed to have an AI Yuei Vu act as the sandbag in front of Yuei Vu himself, so he couldnt help covering his face: Dont dont care, its just that after the game, the R&D department upgraded the function of the Duel Disk, and updated a few patches. My brother is testing the performance

Its your turn, Yuei Vu! At this time, President Kaiba was yelling at AI Yuei Vu, If you are a real duelist, prove it to me!

Yuei Vu:

The president is so involved in the roleplay! Does he really remember that he is testing the performance?

Its so obvious that the robot on the opposite side is my substitute, right?

Could it be because I snatched him the position of Duel King, so he found a substitute to be a sandbag to hang and beat him to vent his anger?

If this was the case, then the presidents behavior was similar to a child stabbing needles into a doll to curse the person he hated, except that President Kaiba was more shameless and the doll he made was more advanced

Then its my turn, Kaiba! AI Yuei Vu shouted, The power of a hero is unlimited, whoever stands in the way will be crushed by the hero of justice!

Its my turn, draw!

Yuei Vu turned to Mokuba expressionlessly: Who programmed this AI program? For the sake of the company, I strongly suggest that buddy should be fired tomorrow.

Mokuba:

AI Yuei Vu started to operate: I first use the Spell Card E Emergency Call! Add the Elemental HERO Avian to my hand! Then activate the Spell Card Polymerization, and fuse Elemental HERO Avian with Elemental HERO Burstinatrix!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Flame Wingman!

The two heroes, a man and a woman, both appeared, turning into two beams of light and shooting into the vortex that opened on the ground. Green and red scorching beams of light shot up from the ground, and the slender hero spread his white wings and flew into the air. He spun around and spewed out flames with a clear cry.

[Elemental HERO Flame Wingman, ATK 2100]

Hmph, it just appeared. Kaiba crossed his arms and sneered, It looks like you like that monster quite a lot. But its useless! That level of power is simply not enough!

AI Yuei Vu smiled: Dont worry, President, the heros power starts now. Activate Field Spell Skyscraper!

The steel and concrete building rose from the ground, and the entire ceiling was covered by the projected night. A bright moon hung in the middle of the night.

The president snorted: Tch, this trick again.

Skyscrapers can increase the attack power of Elemental HERO by 1000 points during battle! AI Yuei Vu shouted, Flame Wingman, attack the XYZ-Dragon Cannon!

Flames ignited all over the hero, like burning cannonballs bursting out. The huge impact pierced the steel armor and shattered the solid shell. The combined monster exploded on Kaibas field.

Its not over yet, Flame Wingman will give the opposing player damage equal to the value of the monsters attack power! AI Yuei Vu raised his hand, Fire Shoot!

Yuei Vu:

Can my AI version not only pose but also call out move names? So high-end?

[Kaiba, LP 4000 LP 900]

President! A researcher shouted anxiously.

Yuei Vu boldly speculated that this person might be worried that the president would lose to the AI, then in a fit of anger, he fired all of them

Set a card, I end my turn. AI Yuei Vu said.

900 LP is still enough to deal with you! Kaiba raised his voice, My turn, draw! Activate Continuous Spell Card from my hand Banner of Courage! All monsters I control gain 200 ATK during my Battle Phase!

Then activate the Spell Card Card of Demise! I draw cards until I have 5 cards in my hand!

President Kaiba glanced at the cards in his hand, and then snorted, Sure enough, the goddess of fate is always on my side.

Activate Spell Card Polymerization! I fuse three Blue-Eyes White Dragons in my hand!!!

Yuei Vu almost spat out blood.

Hey President, what are you doing?

The opponent is just an AI bot, yet you dont even shuffle the cards?

Hahahaha! Come, the ultimate dragon that descended beyond time and space and evolved to its final form

Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon! ! !

The three white dragons intertwined with each other, merged into one under the beam of light released by the Spell Card, turning into a silver-white three-headed dragon that looked like iron, and came majestically!

[Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon, ATK 4500 ATK 4700] (due to the effect of Banner of Courage)

Hahahaha! Strong, invincible, strongest!!

Yuei Vu didnt know why the president was so happy to abuse the AI bot. Anyway, Kaiba waved his arm: Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon can attack three times in one turn! Destroy under the endless light power of the ultimate dragon!

Hyper Ultimate Burst!

Thats not necessarily true.

Yuei Vu didnt expect his AI version to know how to use this line to increase his fashion value. The AI smiled lightly with a corner of his mouth, and waved his hand: You have activated my Trap Card Sakuretsu Armor! When the opponent declares an attack, destroy the attacking monster!!

Yuei Vu remained speechless.

President, when did you see me use the Sakuretsu Armor?

Whoever uses it loses. Why should I bring this kind of cursed thing?

In this way, your ultimate dragon will be destroyed, Kaiba! AI Yuei Vu said.

Kaiba gently closed his eyes.

Hmph, no matter how realistic it is, its still AI. Is it only this level?

Activate Quick-Play Spell-De-Fusion. The president calmly revealed the last card in his hand, Release the fusion of Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon.

The huge three-headed white dragon disappeared instantly and dispersed into three beams of light rising from the ground. Huge white dragons appeared one after another in the light beam, flapping their wings and rolling up an invisible torrent, hissing and roaring toward AI Yui Yu.

[Blue-Eyes White Dragon, ATK 3000 ATK 3200] x3

Battle! President Kaiba pointed forward, Blue-Eyes White Dragon, all attack! Burst Stream of Destruction!

The three blue eyes opened their mouths at the same time, and the exploding light bomb blasted out. The light beams merged into one place, forming a spiral vortex, which involuntarily drowned the Flame Wingman, and at the same time, the body of that AI Yui Yu

AI Yui Yu, LP 0

President Seto Kaiba, win!

Chapter 198: Future Plans

Seeing his AI version being blasted by the president, Yui Yu in the stands couldn't help but feel a little subtle.

Especially when the president finished torturing the AI bot, a large group of researchers couldn't wait to run in and surround the president, one by one began to scramble to flatter, saying that the president was mighty, even the Duel King was no match

Seeing their eloquent looks, Yui Yu suddenly couldn't help but feel that his group of players should learn from these NPCs and see what was the real art of bootlicking.

By the way, what's there to brag about beating an AI bot?

Yui Yu couldn't help but turn to Mokuba: By the way, what is the president doing? Why does he hit my AI version? Why not Yugi? He has lost to Yugi but never to me

Mokuba said in a low voice, Eh he already played with AI Yugi in the morning

Yui Yu:

The console door opened. Kaiba strode into the door, beckoning Yui Yu to follow him, and he didn't seem to be embarrassed at all about the fact he beat AI Yui Yu violently just now.

Yui Yu followed the president to the other party's office. Kaiba went to the desk and sat down on his own, and Mokuba dragged a chair for Yui Yu.

Yui Yu nodded his thanks and sat down at the desk.

The president said that there is a work task. Yui Yu originally thought that his task was to play cards directly with the president without going through the process, but he didn't expect that the president actually had something serious to discuss when he came here.

Kaiba briefly mentioned to him some of the future plans for himself and the company. First of all, it was about the virtual world left by Kaiba Gozaburo's ghost.

Yuei Vu mentioned it to Kaiba before, saying that he thinks the design of this virtual world is quite exquisite, and it might be useful to modify it a little.

Back then, Kaiba didn't care about him at all, but now it seemed that the president actually listened to him.

At this time, Mokuba also came out to help explain, saying that at this stage they are going to focus on the establishment of the large-scale entertainment center Kaiba Land.

That virtual world has also been transformed with the help of Kaiba Noah's AI (now whitewashed), and a virtual game in the testing stage has been designed, which was going to be placed in Kaiba Land as a gaming feature.

It was the dream of the two brothers since childhood, and it was also the promise Kaiba made to his younger brother when he was in the orphanage.

Although it might be strange to put it on someone as awkward as Seto Kaiba, it has always been his dream to build a paradise where everyone is full of laughter and has no pain.

What was even more difficult than having such a dream was that Kaiba, who has walked hard all the way and seen the darkness of so many people's hearts, and even became a part of that darkness, could still persist in the future after going through all this. This childish dream was carried to this day.

Not everyone could maintain their pure self when they climbed to such a high position at any cost.

Yuei Vu thought that President Kaiba was worthy of admiration.

Kaiba even mentioned that in addition to this virtual world, they were also very interested in the ability to link human nerves and computers, and even simulate the five senses perfectly, and the development department was currently researching it.

It could perfectly simulate human senses and touch in the computer world through neural links, even the taste, smell, and touch were exactly the same.

You could even feel the warm sunshine and the cool breeze blowing in the virtual world.

With such powerful black technology, you could imagine how useful it could be. If this technology was made public, it would definitely shake the world!

President Kaiba said that when this technology research was completed, from now on everyone would be able to Experience the super VR online card game.

Huh, why are you surprised?

Think about it, was there anything more important in this world than playing cards?

For breakthroughs in any technological field, the first thing to think about was whether the technology could be used for playing cards. Wasn't this common sense?

Yuei Vu even boldly speculated that it may be because Kaiba had such an everything can play cards mentality, so the company's development was so smooth in his hands

Then Kaiba mentioned some further plans. For example, he planned to establish a worldwide dueling professional league, divide different divisions according to the region, and attract as many investors as possible to establish league clubs.

Then he also planned to set up a Duel Academy to train more young duelists and continuously inject fresh blood into the world of duel monsters.

It could be seen that from now on, President Kaiba has already begun to draw up the blueprint of conquering the world through playing cards

But to Yuei Vu's surprise, the president actually told himself all these things.

In fact, Yuei Vu's official position was the consultant of the dueling monster department, but most of the time he was quite free and has nothing to do. The cognition of his job was nothing more than supervising the version update and rule modification of the game.

And judging from the current trend, the president's next blueprint of conquering the world through playing cards may hope that Yuei Vu will also participate.

To put it simply, there may be more work in the future, and you can no longer take a salary to play every day

After explaining the miscellaneous things, the time was already close to nine o'clock in the evening.

That's basically what we want to talk about. Mokuba put away the materials he took out, and said while sorting them out, So we may have to leave here in a few days and go to the United States to start preparations for the establishment of Kaiba Land.

Oh. Yuei Vu nodded and smiled, Then you all work hard, I wish you all the best.

President Kaiba said blankly, You have to go too.

Yuei Vu:

My brother said that when he goes to the United States, he will devote himself to the construction of Kaiba Land. Mokuba said, For this reason, he will temporarily retire from the world of duel monsters and seal the deck.

Yuei Vu was a little surprised.

The president is afraid of making mistakes while playing cards, and wants to quit?

Is it real or fake? Can the president's card addiction be cured?

But before that, President Kaiba stood up and said in a deep voice, Our first duel is not over yet, you should not have forgotten it, right?

Then at this moment, at this moment, let's make a break. Kaiba waved his hand, Yugi defeated me, and you and Yugi are tied, which makes you an opponent I have to defeat!

If I don't take this step, I can't move on. Come on, Yuei Vu! Our decisive battle!

Yuei Vu:

Well, as expected, I shouldnt take any chance.

After talking so much and explaining so much, in the end his main task is still to play cards with the president.

Chapter 199: Playing Cards With President Kaiba

Ten minutes later, the two arrived at the duel area in the Kaiba company building.

As for whether he could win against President Kaiba, Yuei Vu actually had no idea in his heart.

Even though he had a tie with Yami Yugi, he didnt think that his strength was about equal to that of a Duel King. If he really thought so naively, he would undoubtedly suffer a big loss in the future.

As for the result of this duel, Yuei Vu actually felt a little entangled.

If Yuei Vu won, it was foreseeable that the president will continue to pester him endlessly in the future. Imagining that in the future, the president would grab himself to play cards as if he is obsessed with the game, made Yuei Vu feel his scalp tingling.

But it would be a pain in the ass to lose. Maybe the president seemed to have a good impression of him now, but thats all based on the fact that Yuei Vu is his recognized opponent.

However, if Yuei Vu lost easily, he wouldnt be surprised even if the Favorability he accumulated with the president so far has dropped to a negative number in one fell swoop.

At that time, maybe after the duel ended, the president would kick him out at light speed and let him pack up and leave.

So in fact, President Kaibas benchmark for judging people was actually quite simple. In the eyes of the president, there were two types of people in the world: those who could play cards with him and those who couldnt

At this moment, the two sides have already stood in their respective field areas and opened the Duel Disk.

Kaiba drew five cards, waved his arm and raised his voice, and shouted: Dont dawdle and give it to me, Yuei Vu! Let me see if you have grown up after the Battle City!

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

[Kaiba, LP 4000]

Its me who goes first, draw! This time, Yuei Vu got the first move.

He was lucky here. His starting hand included the famous Greed Hero, which was also drawn out by smashing crystals frantically after he harvested leeks recently.

So of course Yuei Vu has nothing to hesitate to choose to earn +1 advantage first: I summon Elemental HERO Bubbleman in defense position!

With a splash of special effects and flying water bubbles, the blue hero in armor appeared on the field with a loud cry, flicked his small cloak lightly, and made a coquettish pose.

[Elemental HERO Bubbleman, DEF 1200]

When Bubbleman is successfully summoned, if I have no other cards on the field, I can draw two cards from your deck! (anime effect)

Thats right, it only took one normal summon to earn a card, which was equivalent to the ability of the legendary Thousands Of Years Banned card Pot of Greed.

Even Yuki Judai, the protagonist of the GX animation, has relied on Bubbleman countless times to make a comeback, so this hero was also revered by the players as The Greed Hero.

Of course, with President Kaiba as his opponent, Yuei Vu definitely couldnt just leave a Bubbleman standing on the field alone.

Activate the Spell Card from the hand Polymerization! Yuei Vu directly played Polymerization, I fuse Bubbleman on the field and the Elemental HERO Clayman in the hand!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Mudballman!

The stocky Clayman appeared, turned into a beam of light, and shot into the vortex on the ground together with Bubbleman. The ground cracked, gravel splashed, and water jets burst out. A hero in black spherical heavy armor appeared from the water column and stood in front of Yuei Vu in a half-squat.

[Elemental HERO Mudballman, DEF 3000]

Although this hero didnt have any special abilities, his butt strength was as high as 3000 points. Even the legendary Blue-Eyes White Dragon in the hands of the president couldnt shake it! (1)

I end my turn.

Adopt a defensive posture? But this method will not work in front of me!

Kaiba raised his voice, and that distinctive voice makes one feel that the president was full of passion every time he plays cards.

Its my turn, draw! Without hesitation, Kaiba pinched out a Spell Card with two fingers, Activate Ritual Spell Advanced Ritual Art!

Send Normal Monsters from my Deck to the GY whose total Levels equal the Level of a Ritual Monster in my hand, and Ritual Summon 1 of that Ritual Monster!

He pulled out the deck from the Duel Disk, selected monsters, and threw them into the graveyard.

From the deck, I send the Level 4 Hitotsu-Me Giant to the GY!

Ritual Summon! Paladin of White Dragon!

The holy light soared into the sky, and a holy knight in white armor descended from the beam of light, with a white dragon flapping its wings beneath him.

[Paladin of White Dragon, ATK 1900]

Of course, Yuei Vu was no stranger to this monster, and he soon realized what Kaiba was going to do next.

The special effect of the Paladin of White Dragonbut of course, you should already know about it.

Kaiba snorted and had already found the target card from the deck.

It wont work to fight with me with half-hearted awareness, Yuei Vu! Let me show you now!

Kaiba held up the card in his hand.

Tribute the Paladin of White Dragon, and perform a special summon from the deck!

Use the ultimate light to cut through the darkness and come to my side! My most loyal servant Blue Eyes White Dragon! ! !

The paladin dissipated with the blue light effect, and a domineering beam of light descended from the sky. The huge white dragon descended with flapping wings, stretched its neck, and roared as if warning anyone who dared to disobey its master.

[Blue-Eyes White Dragon, ATK 3000]

Kaiba glanced at the stocky hero on the Yuei Vu Field, twitched the corner of his mouth, and suddenly snorted.

Yuei Vu, your next sentence must be My Elemental HEROs defense power is 3000, even Blue-Eyes cant penetrate his defense this turn, right?

Yuei Vu: I really didnt want to raise such a flag.

But Ill tell you right now, this meek defensive tactic wont work in front of me! Kaiba showed another card in his hand, Activate the Spell Card Burst Stream of Destruction!

The Spell Card shared the same name as Blue-Eyess attack move, and its artwork was also a white dragon that was brewing an energy storm with its mouth open.

Burst Stream of Destruction can only be activated when Blue-Eyes White Dragon is on the field. Destroy all monsters on the opponents field! Seahorse shouted, Feel the ultimate power of the white dragon!

Blue-Eyes obeyed the order and opened his mouth, and a destructive energy light ball burst out of the air. The raging storm exploded on Yuei Vus field, easily tore through the defense line, and smashed the heavily armored hero into pieces.

Hmph, in this way your field will be empty. Kaiba sneered confidently, And I havent performed the normal summon this turn yet.

I summon Vorse Raider in attack position!

One of the four-star monsters with the highest appearance rate in the hands of the president reappeared. Wearing armor full of spikes, a demon with scarlet eyes appeared on the field, and the ax danced vigorously as if it was about to cut the space.

[Vorse Raider, ATK 1900]

Battle! Vorse Raider, attack directly!

The monster sprinted in front of Yuei Vu with a step forward and swung its ax down without saying a word. Yuei Vu subconsciously raised the Duel Disk to block it, and the image of the ax blade pierced through him with a virtual impact.

[Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2100]

Hmph, Blue-Eyes White Dragon can't attack during the turn when the Burst Stream of Destruction is activated. Kaiba snorted, seeming a little proud, But the Blue-Eyes White Dragon that was specially summoned by the effect of Paladin of White Dragon can't attack this turn anyway.

After finishing speaking, he crossed his arms: It seems that your life is saved this turn, so cherish this opportunity. Set a card, I end my turn!

Chapter 200: Blue-Eyes' New Vest

Yuei Vu took a deep breath and stood up straight again.

As expected of the president, he called out his wife in the first round and launched such a strong onslaught.

Sure enough, with the president, I still can't be distracted and think about what's missing. If I don't pay attention a little bit, my body might disappear.

So Yuei Vu simply didn't think about the outcome here and focused on the duel for the time being.

It's my turn, draw! I summon Skilled Dark Magician in attack position!

The black magic power surged, and the black-robed mage appeared on the field in front of Yuei Vu with arms folded, holding a black staff in his arms.

[Skilled Dark Magician, ATK 1900]

Kaiba glanced at the black-robed mage: Hmph, are you ready to come?

The effect of a Skilled Dark Magician is that every time a Spell Card is activated, a Spell Counter can be placed on him. Using this card with three counters as a sacrifice, I can Special Summon 1 Dark Magician from my hand or deck!

While Yuei Vu was explaining, he had already revealed a card in his hand.

First of all, Pot of Greed! Draw two cards from the deck!

Yuei Vu drew two cards, and at the same time, the first magic indicator light on the black-robed magician was also lit up, as if there was some kind of magic circle with complicated patterns in the light.

Then there is the second card, the Spell Card Dark Magic Veil! Pay 1000 LP to special summon 1 Dark Magician from my hand!

Yuei Vu, LP 2100 LP 1100

When the card was inserted into the Duel Disk, a three-dimensional magic circle emerged on the field. Waves of magic power came and went, the red-robed and white-haired mage flew out of the magic circle, and the green staff spun flexibly in his hand.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

Already appeared, Dark Magician? Kaiba narrowed his eyes.

Then at this moment, the number of Spell Counters on Skilled Dark Magician increased to two! While speaking, Yuei Vu drew out a third card, Activate Spell Card Thousand Knives!

This card can only be activated when there is a Dark Magician on my field. Destroy a monster on the opponents field!

Countless flying knives appeared out of thin air, suspended in mid-air with a frightening silver glow. With a wave of the Dark Magicians staff, all the flying knives shot out through the air, shooting toward the huge white dragon floating in the air behind Kaiba.

Destroy Blue-Eyes White Dragon!

Its not that easy! Kaiba yelled, and swept his arm, My Trap Card is activated! Dark Sacrifice!

The trap flipped over, and a large cloud of black mist spewed out from the card surface, protecting Blue Eye in the middle like a shield. Thousands of flying knives lost their targets after rushing into the black fog, and hit something else in the fog.

Dark Sacrifice can negate the effect that would destroy a card(s) on the field, then send 1 Level 3 or lower DARK monster from my Deck to my GY.

As Kaiba said, he selected a card from the deck and sent it to the graveyard.

Even Thousand Knives can be blocked, huh? Yueli Vu waved his hand, But at this moment, the number of Spell Counters on Skilled Dark Magician has reached three!

I Tribute Skilled Dark Magician, and special summon from the deck! Come out, second Dark Magician!

The black-robed mage dissipated with the light blue light effect, and the dissipated light spots formed the shape of a magic circle on the ground. The mage in the red robe rose from the ground with his arms around the green staff, and stood on Yueli Vus field.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

Did you summon two Dark Magicians in an instant? Kaiba narrowed his eyes, and then shouted, But its useless! With the attack power of Dark Magician, they cant surpass my Blue-Eyes White Dragon!

Of course, I know this kind of thing! Yueli Vu showed another card in his hand, Activate Quick-Play Spell Forbidden Lance! The attack power of a monster on the field will drop by 800, until the end of the turn, it will not be affected by any spell or trap other than this card!

I want to use Forbidden Lance on the Blue-Eyes White Dragon!

Kaiba gritted her teeth lightly: Damn.

[Blue-Eyes White Dragon, ATK3000 ATK 2200]

In this way, the Dark Magicians attack power will overtake! Yueli Vu waved his arms and ordered, Battle! Dark Magician, attack the Blue-Eyes White Dragon!

The red-robed mage jumped up, raised his staff high, and the impact of magic power burst out like a blood-colored torrent.

Not to be outdone, the Blue-Eyes White Dragon counterattacked, and opened its mouth to spit out a white, hot impact. However, being restrained by the effect of magic, even Blue-Eyes could not do what she wanted. The white light that spewed out was quickly pushed back by the torrent of magic power, and his body was shattered into pieces under the impact of magic.

[Kaiba, LP 4000 LP 3700]

Continue to fight! Yuei Vu said, I use the second Dark Magician to attack the Vorse Raider! Dark Magic Attack!

The two Dark Magicians staggered, and the second one flew forward.

Although the Vorse Raider was powerful among low-star monsters, it was not worth mentioning in front of so-called top magicians. He swung his ax hard to try to resist, but his solid alloy ax was easily shattered under the spell bombardment, and he was also pierced through with a bang.

[Kaiba, LP 3700 LP 3100]

Kaiba still stood there calmly, his coat fluttered and danced under the virtual impact: Hmph, it doesn't hurt or itch.

I end my turn.

It's my turn, draw!

At this time, the president has the last two cards left in his hand. Maybe he felt that the time was almost up, so he printed the cards directly without going through the process.

Activate Card of Demise! I can draw cards until I have 5 cards in my hand, but as a price, during my 5th Standby Phase after activation, send all cards in my hand to the Graveyard.

The president accurately drew out four cards at one time, unfolded them, and immediately couldn't help but burst out of his three stages laughing.

From that reaction, Yuei Vu could also guess that he probably used the 502 skill again.

Yuei Vu! As one of the few opponents recognized by me, you should be honored today! Kaiba sneered, Because you will be the first to see this monster that has gone through endless evolution and surpassed history!

Yuei Vu felt an ominous premonition in his heart.

The president didn't close the door these days and print something incredible at home, did he?

Activate the Spell Card from the hand The Melody of Awakening Dragon! Kaiba sent a hand card to the graveyard, Discard 1 card; add up to 2 Dragon monsters with 3000 or more ATK and 2500 or less DEF from my Deck to my hand!

Yuei Vu:

So, President, why don't you just print the words Add the monsters with ATK or DEF around the Blue-Eyes White Dragon to your hand?

I added two Blue-Eyes White Dragons to my hand. Kaiba found two cards from the deck, flipped them over, and revealed another card in his hand, Activate Spell Card Polymerization!

Yuei Vu was secretly startled.

Wait, the first Blue-Eyes White Dragon has already gone to the graveyard, and now the president only has two Blue-Eyes White Dragons.

So if he wants to fusion summon now, could it be

I fuse two Blue-Eyes White Dragons in my hand!

As Kaiba raised two cards, two white dragons bathed in holy light appeared. They flapped their wings and flew into the air, the two beams of white light merged into one place, and what was born was a steel-like double-headed white dragon with electric currents all over its body!

Hahahahaha! My Blue-Eyes are constantly evolving and getting stronger! Kaiba laughed excitedly, as if proud of his wife's new vest, Fusion Summon! Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon!!!

[Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon, ATK 3000]

Yuei Vu was a little helpless: It's really this guy

Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon, since it was the Blue-Eyes vest, of course, it was the president's card, but the president never used it in the original work.

And besides the slightly lower attack power, to a certain extent, Yuei Vu actually felt that this Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon was more difficult to solve than the Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon.

Battle! Kaiba yelled, Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon, smash the Dark Magician for me! Blast Stream of Destruction!

The double-headed dragon opened their mouths, blasting out endless white light that seemed to engulf the world, instantly engulfing the figure of a Dark Magician on the Yuei Vu's field.

[Yuei Vu, LP 1100 LP 600]

It's not over yet! Kaiba continued, Blue-Eyes Twin Burst Dragon can make up to 2 attacks on monsters during each Battle Phase! Go! Blast Stream of Destruction Second Shot!

The silver-white dragon opened its mouth again, and the impact of destruction blasted out again. The remaining Dark Magician was helpless in the face of such a majestic force and instantly turned into ashes.

[Yuei Vu, LP 600 LP 100]

Yuei Vu slid half a step back after being bombarded, gritting his teeth, his body billowed with black smoke simulated by a three-dimensional image.

The remaining LP was 100, an extreme blood lock.

Hahahahaha! See? This is the latest power of my Blue-Eyes! Kaiba laughed for a while, If you can defeat it, try it! Set a card, and I end my turn!
