

I Play Yu-Gi 271

Chapter 271: The Peak of Kuriboh

Duel! x2

Miss Yuehua, LP 4000

Bacchus, LP 4000

Its me who goes first, draw!

Miss Yuehua just drew a card and took a look at the cards in her hand, when the audience in the live broadcast room exploded.

What kind of gimmick deck is she playing?

What deck is this? Ive never seen her use it before!

This set looks like a rich mans toy at first glance. But is it really possible to use this kind of thing to defeat a plot character

However, Miss Yuehua was concentrating on playing cards at this time, and ignored the comments: I set a monster and end my turn!

Heh, did you end your turn just setting a wall monster? Then I will kill you instantly in such a duel. Bacchus was full of confidence, Its my turn, draw!

I summon Lancer Lindwurm in attack position!

Rather than a worm, this monster was actually more like a green dragon, with wide green wings, a sharp white spear, and light yellow armor on its upper body.

[Lancer Lindwurm, ATK 1800]

Next is this card that will take your lifeUse your soul as the price for daring to destroy the sacred ritual!

He raised the card in his hand exaggeratedly, like crazy. At the same time, all the believers behind him showed devout and fanatical expressions.

I activate Field Spell The Seal of Orichalcos!

The powerful magical power was released, and the seal was transformed to cover the whole audience. The brilliance of the six-pointed star shot straight into the sky, ignoring the obstacles on the roof, and went all the way out of the sky.

I feel it I feel it! Hahaha! Bacchus began to laugh wildly with a hexagram mark on his forehead, This is the power of Orichalcos, the great god will bring cleansing to this filthy world !

Anna on the side subconsciously took two steps back. The crazy appearance of her once intimately familiar uncle terrified her.

Unconsciously, the girl hid behind the group of chattering screwballs, some of whom were still wearing headgears of unknown meaning.

Although she didn't know these people, the girl instinctively felt that these were good people. Being behind them gave her some security.

After the barrier was activated, Bacchus sneered: You may not be able to draw a powerful attacking monster in the first turn, so you plan to stall by relying on the defensive wall.

Then I will tell you next, this will not work at all in front of the great Orichalcos power! If Lancer Lindwurm attacks a Defense Position monster, it will inflict piercing battle damage!

Then because of The Seal of Orichalcos, the attack power of Lancer Lindwurm increased by 500!

[Lancer Lindwurm, ATK 1800 ATK 2300]

Lancer Lindwurm, attack the face-down monster!

The monster flapped its wings and flew out, raised its white spear, and rushed towards the lonely monster card set on Miss Yuehuas field.

The covered card was flipped over, and the image of the monster was projected. It was a fluffy, cute creature with angel-like white wings

Winged Kuriboh!

Everyone present gasped.

Its fucking Winged Kuriboh!

I remember that this one in Yueli's shop seems to be very expensive, right? And you need Yueli's favorability to be over 30!

[Winged Kuriboh, DEF 200]

Although it's not a particularly powerful monster, it's so cute if you couldn't stand against it!

In addition, Winged Kuriboh was the partner of Yugi Judai, the protagonist of Yu-Gi-Oh GX, and Judai obtained it from Muto Yugi himself.

So the price was naturally more expensive.

Just a fish monster with only 200 DEF! Shred it for me!

Bacchus was very reckless. He easily said the taboo that players dare not touch. Even counting the ignorant are fearless, this boldness was worthy of a warrior.

Winged Kuriboh disappeared under the piercing of the spear with a cry of Kuri Kuri, but Miss Yuehuas LP did not decrease.

Why? Bacchus was surprised. Lancer Lindwurm has the ability to deal piercing damage. This attack should be enough to cause a lot of damage!

Miss Yuehua explained: On the turn which Winged Kuriboh is destroyed, I take no Battle Damage. (Animation effect)

According to the real-life card effect, Winged Kuriboh needed to be destroyed by the battle and sent to the graveyard to take effect, but the animation would take effect at the moment of destruction.

Did you get away with being clever? Bacchus snorted, But even using the abilities of the trash fish monster to survive is meaningless!

Then at this moment, I activate the special effect of the Kuribohrn in my hand!

Miss Yuehua sent a card in her hand to the GY, and a cute creature with pure white fur, wearing a hat and a cloak appeared on the field in a translucent manner.

Kuribohrn can be discarded from the hand at the end of the Battle Phase, and a monster destroyed by the battle this turn will be resurrected! She said, I will revive the Winged Kuriboh!

[Winged Kuriboh, ATK 300]

Boring! Bacchus sneered. I'd like to see how long you can survive on that kind of trash fish monster! My turn is over!

The onlookers gasped.

Did he just called Kuriboh trash fish monster three times in a row? Even president Kaiba is not as brave as him, is he?

666, I would call him the bravest.

It was Miss Yuehua's turn again: My turn, draw!

Miss Yuehua didn't care about his taunt at all, and drew a new card from the deck. Looking down, her eyes couldn't help but shine.

Come, come, come!

Needless to say, she got the combo card. She first played an Upstart Goblin, let to the opponent gain 1000 LP and she could draw a card from the deck.

Bacchus, LP 4000 LP 5000

Drawing cards was secondary, the main purpose was to restore blood to the opponent. We all know that in this game, you not only have to allocate resources yourself but also allocate resources to the opponent.

The thick-browed and big-eyed buddy on the opposite side didn't seem very sensible at first glance, and he yells at the Kuriboh one after another, trash fish monster. Obviously, this guy needed LP more than Miss Yuehua.

So here she kindly gifted some life. After all, this guy's forehead was already full of death flags.

Then it's her showtime!

Miss Yuehua normally summoned a Kuriboh here yes, she summoned the Kuriboh that was supposed to be a life-saving handtrap, and in the attack position to boost.

[Kuriboh, ATK 300]

Kuriboh also seemed to be very aggressive, and it is a series of Kuri Kuri immediately after playing. Then Winged Kuriboh turned around and explained a string of Kuri Kuri to it, and the Kuriboh understood clearly, and returned a string of Kuri Kuri, which sounds like a consensus has been reached

Quick-Play Spell Multiply! Miss Yuehua played this classic magic card, Tribute 1 face-up Kuriboh; Special Summon as many Kuriboh Tokens as possible in Defense Position!

The magic effect was activated, and the Kuribohs on the field began to split rapidly at a speed visible to the naked eye. One turned into two, and two turned into four in the blink of an eye.

Four Kuriboh Tokens, one Winged Kuriboh. The groups of five cute little guys filled the field in an instant.

[Kuriboh Token, ATK 300] x4

Bacchus snorted: Is your field filled with five monsters in an instant? But no matter how many such trash fish there are

For some reason, Bacchus suddenly shivered at this moment, and subconsciously closed his mouth.

Although it was mysterious and unexplainable, he had a premonition that if he kept talking like this, he might really die

Next, Ill activate this card. Miss Yuehua played the next card in her hand, Equip Spell Opti-Camouflage Armor! This card can only be equipped to a Level 1 monster. A monster equipped with this card can attack your opponents Life Points directly.

I equip it to Winged Kuriboh!

Kuriboh called Kuri Kuri a few times, and the whole body seemed to be covered with a faint optical image.

Direct attack? Bacchus disdainfully said, Whats the point of having a tra a monster that can attack directly with only 300 attack power?

Dont worry, this is the next card! Equip Spell United We Stand! Equip to Winged Kuriboh! Miss Yuehua shouted, The equipped monster gains 800 ATK/DEF for each face-up monster I control!

There are now five Kuribohs on my field, so the attack power has increased by 4000 points!

W What!??

Seeing several cute and lovely Kuribohs working hard together, all the strength was concentrated on the Kuriboh in the middle, Bacchus was dumbfounded.

[Winged Kuriboh, ATK 300 ATK 4300]

Attack power 4300 and it can also attack directly! ?

Fuck me!

Wait, calm down!

Bacchus gasped for breath in panic, but soon discovered his blind spot.

That girl just gave him 1000 LP for nothing when she used Goblin Upstart!

So now his LP was not 4000 points, but 5000 points!

This additional 1000 was here just in time! If she hadnt given him these extra LPs, he would be dead now!

Bacchus eyes quickly became active.

Its not over yet, I can still do it!

Wait until the next turnjust draw that card!

However, in the next second, his hope was extinguished.

Activate a Spell Card from my hand! Miss Yuehua played the last card in her hand, Equip Spell Mage Power! Equip to Winged Kuriboh!

For each Spell or Trap Card on my field, the equipped monster gains 500 ATK!

I currently control three Spell/Trap cards: Opti-Camouflage Armor, United We Stand and Mage Power itself, so the attack power of the Kuriboh will increase by 1500!

Bacchus face changed suddenly: W-W-What!??

[Winged Kuriboh, ATK 4300 ATK 5800]

Screwball players were boiling.

A Kuriboh with an attack power close to 6,000!

The peak of Kuriboh!

Tell me loudly who is the eternal god!?

However, Bacchus has not even discovered the problem until now. He looked dull: Impossible, impossible, I would be killed by this kind of trash fish monster

The Kuriboh with the attack power soaring to 5800: Kuri Kuri! (Super Fierce.JPG)

Winged Kuriboh! Miss Yuehua waved, Direct attack!

Winged Kuriboh racket puffed up its chest, leaped directly over the spear scale insects head, concentrated the power of the Kuriboh from the whole field on its body, and smashed it hard on Bacchus with a phase rush.

The latter groaned miserably and was knocked into the air, humming miserably on the barrier behind him.

Bacchus, LP 5000 LP 0

The Seal of Orichalcos twisted and shrunk, taking away the soul of the defeated.

As the first man in the history of dueling monsters who was lucky enough to be hit by a Kuriboh and also the first man to be OTKed by a Kuriboh, everyone would remember him forever.

Chapter 272: Bad News

While Miss Yuehua followed the group of screwball players to raid Domas base, similar situations were happening all over the world.

After the preparations were almost done, just a few hours ago, Yuei Vu immediately gave the order to do it without hesitation.

Through the camp panel, he could directly issue tasks to players worldwide who have joined his own camp. So after releasing the already edited mission, all players received the instructions at the same time.

All the players have been waiting for more than a week, looking forward to this moment. In the past few days, people have been posting in the forum.

Did someone tell me when the event will start? My right hand is already out of control!

Dont ask us everything, we are also very embarrassed

Didnt a buddy say to go to Domas headquarters yesterday? Let that brother meet Dartz privately and ask him when are we going to destroy the world?. Comrades are all looking forward to that day!

It was conceivable that such a large group of hungry and thirsty screwballs, after suppressing the impulse for so long, suddenly received the prompt of Camp War Start in the task panel, and all of them became excited.

Oh! The event is finally open!

Are there any brothers who were born in Canada? Lets form a team.

Is the upstairs a man or a girl? It doesnt matter if its a girl, a woman will only affect my card-drawing speed

The moment the camp battle started, they and Doma officially entered the war state, and the ID of hostile players and NPCs would automatically become red in the eyes of the players.

In this way, no matter where they went, players could tell who was the enemy at a glance.

All over the world, a large number of screwballs quickly dispersed, aggressively rushed to the streets with Duel Disks, and began to look for people to play cards.

It has to be said that Doma has penetrated into human society really well. Majors in the military field, CEOs of top 100 companies, politicians with supreme power, the press media corps who control public opinion

It was hardly an exaggeration to say that the whole world has been controlled by them.

All aspects of the operation of human society have already fallen into the hands of Doma without knowing it. If relying on conventional means, it was impossible for any organization or force to have the ability to face such a behemoth.

If it was placed in any other anime movie, this kind of organization was actually equivalent to achieving the goal of conquering the world that most villains have dreamed of. A super organization with such capabilities was almost impossible to be overthrown and impossible to defeat, and the entire earth was in its pocket.

However, it was a pity that this was the world of Yu-Gi-Oh.

It didnt matter what kind of enterprise you are or the head of state, whether you have aircraft carrier missiles or the wealth of an invincible country, according to the rules of this world, all living beings were equal in playing cards.

There is nothing that cannot be resolved by a duel!

In fact, these high-ranking and powerful members were also relatively important figures within Doma, and their identities were relatively hidden.

From the perspective of the people around them, they were utterly indistinguishable from ordinary people. They were serious and responsible in their affairs, and kind and generous to their subordinates. No matter from which point of view, they seemed to be model-level outstanding people.

But all these appearances could not fool the eyes of screwball players.

Countless Doma members were challenged by a bunch of eccentric guys on the same day, their identities were exposed in a daze, and they were dragged away to play their fateful duel.

From the political leaders of a big country to the hot dog boy on the side of the road, Doma members of all levels and fields all bumped into screwballs full of streets looking for cards to play, and a duel began.

The alliance led by Industrial Illusions and Nightcrawler World in District 11 provided support for this operation. All duelists who participated in the battle would receive an envelope issued by the organization it was a consumable item with dark power.

Although the level of dark energy sealed in the envelope was not high, it was enough to start a Shadow Game. Players only need to open the envelope to the designated target, and they could forcibly start the Shadow Game to force the opponent to play cards with them.

With this, none of the targets targeted by screwball players could escape.

Battle reports from all over the country were continuously sent back to the headquarters. As an event planner, Yuei Vu didn't fight in person. Instead, he stayed at the headquarters to supervise the battle.

Battle reports kept coming back. The Seal of Orichalcos was continuously activated all over the world, and after a while, a large number of souls soared into the sky, gathering towards an unknown corner.

Of course, all that was harvested were the souls of Doma's own people.

Although it was impossible for the screwball players to win every game, they would be automatically resurrected if they lost.

The specific manifestation was: The Seal of Orichalcos shrunk, and the soul of the loser was taken away. The soul, which was still hot just out of the pot, flew to the mouth of the god of Orichalcos. The evil god just opened his mouth, only to find that the opposite side only fainted, swiped the ground, and disappeared.

Then a few hours later, the soul of the screwball that had just slipped back unexpectedly came back. This time, the evil god saw the right moment and opened his bloody mouth, but in one gulp, the soul was gone again.

God of Orichalcos: ?

A large number of screwballs were jumping repeatedly on the evil god's mouth. It's very pretentious to run away after pretending to be forced.

The good news from the headquarters kept coming back, and everyone looked at Yuei Vu with more and more admiration.

At first, they were only surprised that Yuei Vu was able to gather such a large number of people around the world in such a short period of time. But because these new helpers all behaved a bit insane, said nonsense words, and had some confusing behaviors. So everyone always thought that they were here to make up the numbers, and didnt expect much from their combat power.

They never expected that although these duelists look like screwballs, they were so powerful in action!

And about the details of this battle, for example: How to find the stronghold of Doma? How to accurately lock the information of the members in Doma? How did the entire command system work? And how did Yuei Vu give orders to duelists scattered all over the place? None of them knew.

But the less they know, the more mysterious Yuei Vu was in their minds.

Yako looked at Yuei Vus back and had a faint guess in his heart.

Could it be that Mr. Yuei Vu had already expected such a time, so he developed his power early and established a super intelligence network covering the whole world?

Yes, it must be so.

The large number of duelists who rushed out suddenly and enthusiastically signed up for support must also be the subordinates that Mr. Yuei Vu had already arranged. Otherwise, it is impossible to explain how such a huge base of new troops was summoned from all over the world in such a short period of time.

In other words, everything that has happened so far is within Mr. Yuei Vus plan. His intelligence network had already inquired about Domas location and members. In fact, he had already planned before coming to the Mirage Society.

As expected of Mr. Yuei Vu!

Yako began to reflect.

It seems that not only in duels but compared with Mr. Yuei Vu, my strategy as a strategist and the ability to grasp the overall situation is far from enough

[Favourability +1,+1,+1]

Of course, Doma was a huge organization, Over the years, they collected many strong duelists in the inner world. Not to mention that this organization was proficient in the art of printing cards, and it has also cultivated many strong people who have never made a public move. So there were also some masters that screwball players couldnt handle at this stage.

But it didnt matter. Players would give feedback when encountering hard bones, and experts of Industrial Illusions would deal with it.

Yuei Vu would also consider taking action in person if they encountered any difficulties. And Yuei Vu thought that as long as his posture was correct, he should be able to fool President Kaiba to help him.

In addition, Yugi, Jonouchi, and their little friends were also nearby these days. Yuei Vu had a good relationship with them, so if he was short of manpower, he should be able to ask them for a favor or something

Just thinking of this, a piece of bad news was sent back to the headquarters.

A card professor from the Industrial Illusions rushed back from the outside in a hurry, with a panicked look on his face, and brought back this shocking news

Chapter 273: Ally of Justice

Yuei Vu:

Well, one of our generals has been reduced, and he was still the fiercest one.

But it was also within his expectations.

According to the animation, Domas Three Swordsmen would go after Yugi, Kaiba, and Jonouchi respectively.

Among them, Alister, who had come to find Kaiba, accidentally met Yuei Vu first, and Yuei Vu had already cleaned him up.

Valons attention was aimed at Miss Kujaku Mai from the moment he appeared on the stage. At this moment, it seemed that he has not involved with Sister Mai for some reason, and visually, he should still go to find Jonouchi to fight.

As for Rafael, there was nothing to say. This guy was the head of the Three Swordsmen of Doma, the only one among the Three Swordsmen who was serious and sincere in running errands for Dartz, thus he was specially designated by Dartz to pick the nameless Pharaoh as his opponent.

Although Yuei Vu also suggested a few days ago that Yugi should temporarily stay still, and wait until the time was right for everyone to cooperate. Although Yugi agreed at that time, Yuei Vu didnt expect the other party to really listen.

As a king who has almost never been defeated so far, Yami Yugi actually had his own pride. He definitely had no reason to back down after receiving the letter of challenge from the enemy. All Yuei Vu could do was to make suggestions, he couldnt tell people face to face, Dont go, you will definitely lose, right?

And then then he fed to the opponent

Rafael was also extremely witty. As if he had a peeking at the script, knowing that after the whole show, anyone who used The Seal of Orichalcos would lose in the end.

So he made an out-of-the-box tactic here, took the spell card Exchange, and handed the The Seal of Orichalcos in his hand to Yami Yugis hand, cleverly using the metaphysical effect of this card.

Then Yami Yugi did not believe in rumors, or he wanted to test his protagonists aura against the Debuff of this evil barrier.

Of course, the result of the final experimental test was that The Seal of Orichalcos debuff was better

Yami Yugi lost. But at the last moment, the kind-hearted Yugi Muto pushed him out of the barrier, and his soul was sealed by the barrier instead.

Although the loss of AIBO may be far more painful for Yami Yugi than his own failure, in fact, this experience was also very important for him.

The Yami Yugi that ended the Battle City arc was far from reaching his peak state.

In the Waking the Dragons arc, he was forced to face the darkness in his heart, surpass himself, and achieved a further upgrade breakthrough.

The main plotline of the game was completely in accordance with the animation plot, so there was nothing to worry about. Naturally, Yami Yugi would overcome the demons and regain his strength soon, then wait until the second round to teach Rafael how to be a man.

Taking advantage of the fact that Yami Yugi was preparing to break through the bottleneck and upgrade, Yuei Vu has not relaxed the progress of pushing the tower.

While the screwball players were looking for Doma members to play cards all over the world, Yuei Vu did not relax for a moment to search for the address of Domas real base camp.

Its a pity that although there were quite a few players who have sneaked into Doma, the bases that have been exposed one after another seemed to be all branches. Up to now, the shadow of Dartz himself was still out of reach, and no one knew where this old man was hiding.

In addition, he didnt expect Miss Yuehuas group of players to go out to bring a few groups of Domas miscellaneous soldiers and even brought a loli back.

Some players may not be emotionally invested in the game. They played the game purely for playing cards, and even the cutscenes and plot dialogues are fast-forwarded and skipped directly.

However, Miss Yuehua belonged to the kind of player who paid attention to the participation of the plot and also liked to substitute herself into the plot.

At the underground altar, hearing about the experience of this little girl named Anna, and learning that her only father and uncle had devoted themselves to Doma and intended to sacrifice her to the evil god, Miss Yuehua immediately felt sympathetic.

And at this moment, her father and uncle were beaten up by the players just now, and their souls were taken away by The Seal of Orichalcos. She had no one to rely on.

As the saying went, loli is justice. The other players in the same company saw that although this NPC loli was thin and a little stunted, she looked really cute, and her big watery eyes were full of confusion and panic, which immediately aroused the players desire to protect.

The players patted their chests one by one on the spot and said: Little sister, dont be afraid. Im here!

At worst, I will steal the battery car!

Soso an hour later, this poor loli stood in front of Yuei Vu with her head down and her skirt pulled nervously.

Yuei Vu:

Okay, this makes sense.

Screwball players didnt eat, drink, or sleep 24 hours a day. They didnt even have a place to live, so how could they take care of a little girl?

Is it possible to steal the battery car?

Then a few screwball players mutually agreed that the handsome, invincible, and kind-hearted Yuei Vu-san must have a method

Yuei Vu had no choice but to glance at this loli and found that she was not daring to glance at him.

Although a group of players has shown hundreds of millions of INSANE points, after what happened just now, this group of players has been supplemented by Annas brain into a secret organization that punished rape, eliminated evil, and maintained justice, as it was often seen in TV movies.

After being brought back by such a group of people, Anna also probably saw that Yuei Vu seemed to be their leader.

So in her eyes, Yuei Vu has automatically equated with the ally of justice

And when she entered the door, she secretly glanced at Yuei Vu. At that time, she couldnt help being surprised from the bottom of her heart she had never seen such a good-looking person!

But then she lowered her head and didnt dare to look any further.

Dont be nervous. Yuei Vu smiled gently, You are already safe. Are you hungry?

The girl shook her head, but still lowered her head.

Its not that Im not hungry, but I dare not be hungry.

However, a series of growl sounds in her stomach quickly betrayed her.

Annas face flushed a little.

Its okay, I happened to be hungry too. Yuei Vu got up and held her little hand, Lets go and find something to eat.

Anna gave a vague huh and obediently followed behind.

She feels that this person was very kind and good-looking. He spoke nicely, and his hands were very strong and very warm

Yuei Vu went out to find a restaurant and ordered a table full of dishes for her. The little girl has never seen such a rich and luxurious dinner since she was born. She couldnt help being a little dazed for a while.

To be honest, Yuei Vu was not used to the food here because of the geographical issue, and he didnt know what Anna liked to eat, so he ordered all kinds of food.

Anna suddenly remembered when she was very young when her mother was still there, and her father was still normal. At that time, the three of them seemed to have been to similar restaurants.

Its just that she was left alone now.

Thinking of this, the girls tears fell like pearls one after another.

Whats wrong? Yuei Vu asked softly.

She reacted, quickly wiped her tears with her sleeve, and said vaguely: YesIm sorry

Its okay, you can tell me anything. Yuei Vu smiled gently.

Anna hesitated for a moment, bit her lips, and asked pitifully, Thenthen my father and the otherswill they come back?

Although her father had lost his mind in the end and even did not hesitate to use her as a sacrifice, even so, he was still her father.

that was all she had left of this cold world.

After hearing this, Yuei Vu smiled warmly and reached out to stroke her head.

Dont worry, they will all come back. And when your father comes back, he will definitely return to normal.

This was not Yuei Vu saying white lies casually to deceive the girls feelings.

Even if he went AFK and did nothing from now on, Yami Yugi, who has overcome the inner demons and made a breakthrough, would naturally beat Dartz to the ground in the end.

When Dartz was dead and the god of Orichalcos was finished, all the sealed souls would naturally be released.

The girls eyes widened, and she raised her head to look directly at Yuei Vu for the first time, feeling as if she saw hope in the dark, but she didnt dare to reach out to touch it, as if she was afraid that it was just a false illusion.

But from Yuei Vus eyes, she couldnt see any deceit or coping, he said that seriously.

ReallyReally? She couldnt help asking in a low voice.

Well, of course, its true. Yuei Vu smiled, I promise.

Hope was rekindled in the girls eyes.

This person he is indeed an ally of justice!

Chapter 274: I Will Deal With Him Personally

In an unknown corner, Doma headquarters.

The black transport plane flew over through the gray cloud, slowed down and lowered its altitude, and came over the land.

The engine hummed heavily, and the cabin door slowly opened. Two black motorcycles roared and rushed out of the cabin, and both landed on the ground in a posture that could make Batman watch silently and Captain America run in tears, turning into two blurred afterimages towards the golden building not far away.

The transport plane dropped the two passengers, then raised the altitude again, and flew out with a sharp buzzing sound. It was like a steel raptor, piercing through the thick clouds and disappearing into the sky.

These two were the remaining two of Domas Three Swordsmen, Rafael and Valon.

Jumping off the galloping plane on a bike, people didn't know whether to say that these two had amazing physiques or that the motorcycles under their crotches were of excellent quality.

From this detail, it could be seen that the physique of the Three Swordsmen was also extraordinary. Especially that Valon, who has been fighting since he was a child, was also the kind of super soldier who could stop a helicopter with his bare hands.

From this point of view, Jonouchi, who could fight with Valon and was evenly matched in the end, maybe equivalent to Captain America by visual inspection. Change into a uniform and put on a mask, throw him to the Marvel studio and we may have a superhero codenamed Captain Dice or something

The two Doma swordsmen here rushed all the way to the stairs under the temple in front of them, but they didn't intend to slow down at all. Instead, they turned their hands and increased the accelerator.

Sure enough, being Doma swordsmen, not only their driving skills were amazing, but the crotch was also as solid as a rock, which was admirable.

After a while, the two had walked through the hall side by side and came to Dartz.

The only missionary leader designated by Orichalcos was not looking good at this moment.

This was also a matter of course. At the critical juncture when he had waited for thousands of years and finally decided to go out to make troubles, a group of screwballs appeared out of nowhere, grabbing their subordinates of Doma all over the world to a duel.

And what's special was the precision strike. These screwballs seemed to be insane, and each of them seemed to be carrying a Duel Disk all over the street aimlessly looking for targets, but they always seemed to be able to accurately find Domas latent followers.

And this was the case in all countries and regions as if they had some special means to track the power of Orichalcos.

If that's all, then Dartz wouldn't think highly of them. However, judging from the current feedback from various branches, these duelists seem to have some kind of ability to evade the rules of The Seal of Orichalcos.

Although this speculation seemed very scary, after many days of continuous fighting, Doma has reason to believe that after these people were defeated in the barrier, their souls would not be sealed!

So after so many days of continuous fighting, most of the extra stone slabs in the temple were the souls of Domas own people.

Even Dartz, who has lived for ten thousand years, thought it was too weird.

A way to avoid The Seal of Orichalcos does such a thing really exist? Rafael asked.

It doesn't exist. Dartz shook his head, At least not as far as I know. Even if I lose in the duel myself, my soul will also become a sacrifice for the resurrection of the great god.

Why

I don't know. Dartz shook his head, interrupting Rafael's words.

Rafael showed a surprised expression.

This was the first time he had heard such words since he met Dartz.

Rafael was in a shipwreck at sea when he was a child. His whole family die in that disaster, and only he survived.

At the darkest and most desperate moment of his life, it was Dartz who stood up and pointed out the direction for him. Since then, Dartz has become the only signpost for him, his future direction.

For him now, Dartz was almost equivalent to an omniscient god. He knew everything that has ever appeared and happened on this earth and controlled everything in the existing society and civilization system.

But now, was such an all-knowing Lord Dartz actually admitting that something involved his blind spot of knowledge?

At this moment Dartz frowned and began to think.

Its a bit weird indeed.

Dartz was originally the emperor of Atlantis. 10,000 years ago, because he saw the depravity and darkness of the human heart, he accepted the order of the God of Orichalcos conceived on the earth, single-handedly destroyed the Atlantis civilization that he ruled, and he has coexisted with the God of Orichalcos ever since, wandering around in the world.

His knowledge and experience in the past ten thousand years have surpassed the imagination of ordinary people. He even knew contents related to the main plotline, such as the secrets of the Millennium Items or the lost memory of the Pharaoh.

In any case, the moment when Yami Yugi, who was the pharaoh, fought the final battle three thousand years ago and defeated the great evil god Zorc, Dartz was also present at that time.

Of course, this was what Dartz said in the animation when he did a show-off to Yami Yugi who lost his memory.

But after all, its just his own side of the story. It didnt prove anything.

Maybe Dartz was actually there when Yami Yugi fought against the great evil god Zorc at that time, but he was just an outside audience in the safe zone.

The three Egyptian Gods and the great evil god fought in mid-air. The fight was so terrifying that the sun and the moon became dark. With Dartzs power, its likely that hid eight hundred miles away to eat popcorn and watched, then secretly ran back for three days and three nights without turning back

Who knows? After all, three thousand years was too long, and if there was no way to verify it, so he could boast as he liked.

However, from the performance point of view, Dartz seems to be no stranger to things like Egyptian Gods and Millennium Items, not to mention how much he knew about the Yami Yugis previous life.

However, he really had no idea where this large number of weird duelists came from.

Thinking of this, Dartz couldnt help but frown and said a name: Yuei Vu

Yuei Vu? Rafael was taken aback, The Duel King? What happened to him?

Not sure. Dartz said lightly, But I have a hunch that there may be some kind of connection between him and those rebels who suddenly appeared.

After a pause, Dartz's eyes turned cold.

This is the first time in 10,000 years that there is an existence whose background even I can't figure out, Dartz said to himself.

Rafael was surprised: Even you can't figure it out? Do I need to deal with him?

Rafael was already the strongest fighting force in the whole organization except Dartz himself. If there was any obstacle that needs him to come forward to remove it, that was enough to show its importance.

Dartz shook his head.

No need. He said lightly, I will deal with him personally.

Chapter 275: It's Yu-Gay-Oh After All

After briefly instructing the two confident subordinates about the follow-up affairs, Dartz ended the meeting.

By the way, there is one more thing.

Dartz turned his head and looked at the wall behind him that was densely carved with murals. The wall was full of murals carved with figures from all ages.

Each painting represents a sealed soul.

Among them, the one painted in the most prominent position was Muto Yugi with the Millennium Puzzle hanging around his neck.

Dartz pondered for a moment, then said: The nameless Pharaoh, he will be back soon.

Rafael was surprised.

Impossible. He said, He should have been knocked down by me

His container became his substitute. The one sealed by the power of Orichalcos is the container in which the Pharaoh exists in this world.

So that's how it is. Rafael said clearly, It doesn't matter, after all, he is only a duelist of that level. Even if he was lucky enough to save his life, he is still struggling in the darkness of his own heart. We don't need to consider him anymore.

Perhaps. Dartz said, Alistair's fate has come to an end here. After that, it's up to you.

Rafael seemed to feel the responsibility and expectation, and immediately bowed: Yes.

As for Valon he was basically distracted the whole time, and he didn't even hear what the boss said. He was thinking about Jonouchi the whole time

Yes, that's right. Valon and Jonouchi, who were originally enemies around Kujaku Mai's sister, were in a fierce confrontation not long ago, and the two sides played their cards evenly.

However, because Valon hadn't realized at that time that Jonouchi was the owner of the legendary dragon Hermos, and the two sides just played cards for the purpose of robbing the girl, Valon didn't use the The Seal of Orichalcos.

As a result, of course, he lost.

However, after the game was over, both Valon and Jonouchi seemed to have forgotten why the two of them fought in the first place. The two brothers praised each other. After playing such a game, there was an inexplicable tendency to evolve into a good buddy.

Especially after learning that Jonouchi was actually recognized by Hermos and became the master of the legendary dragon, the fighting spirit in Valon's heart was even more irrepressible.

He didn't think about anything now, he just couldn't wait to fight with Jonouchi again. This time, there would be no reservations or holdbacks. He would use The Seal of Orichalcos, and Jonouchi must also use The Claw of Hermos.

The two sides tried their best to fight another battle happily!

Ah, ~ Jonouchi !

I really want to have a heart-to-heart fight with you again soon!

After several days of continuous search, with the cooperation of Kaiba Corp and Industrial Illusions, Yusei Kaido finally managed to locate the enemy's lair.

Paradius Corporation was currently one of the top companies in the world. On the surface, it was a world-renowned group that promoted human development, but behind the scenes, it was actually Doma's command center.

Considering Doma's influence in various fields in the world, its ability to manipulate finance at will and even command the armies of major powers, plus the fact that its leader, Dartz, has the vitality of immortality and extraordinary power, it's basically impossible to use conventional means to bring him down.

Therefore, in order to completely overthrow Dartz and defeat Doma, they must still rely on a universal solution: duel.

Soon, Yusei Kaido gathered all the players with the best card skills in his camp.

Tenma Yako and his card professors, Yugi Muto, Katsuya Jonouchi, President Seto Kaiba, Yusei Kaido himself and a large group of players who were eager to try and prepare to join the battle as recyclable cannon fodder.

These were the players with the highest points selected from the camp battle contribution list these days, and they could basically be regarded as representing the elite of the players.

A few days ago, Yami Yugi still looked autistic. His face was full of 'I'm not good without AIBO'.

But now he has picked himself up.

As a companion, Yusei Kaido also expressed his concern for his mental state, and at the same time confirmed whether his current state was ready for a decisive battle.

Yami Yugi also expressed his gratitude for his concern. At the same time, he nodded and said: Huh? I have no problem anymore. I am no longer confused.

I've always been too selfish. I am obsessed with winning, but I give up something more important for it from time to time. And every time I make such a choice to win, the one who bears everything behind the scenes? It has always been AIBO.

However, whether it is AIBO or me, one day we must be separated. As long as I'm stuck with him, I'll never be able to face the darkness inside of me, and I'll never be able to take a new step.

Yuei Vu was a little surprised.

Surprised, could it be that his severe dependence on AIBO has been cured?

Afterward, Yami Yugi laughed at himself mockingly: But these are all taught to me by AIBO. If it wasn't for that guy I don't think I would be able to find my way.

In fact, after losing AIBO, Yami Yugi was depressed and lost all day long. But then he relied on the bond between the two and followed the guidance of the Millennium Puzzle. He quickly found a place called Wastelands of Stone and found AIBO's soul.

It was said that that place is the remains of ancient war thousands of years ago, and those who come to Wastelands of Stone would face the darkness in their hearts.

Yami Yugi got his wish and found the phantom of AIBO's soul in that place.

As clever as AIBO was, he could see Yami Yugi's inner confusion at a glance. So he proposed a duel with Yami Yugi and helped Yami Yugi get rid of his inner demons by playing cards and regaining his strength.

Finally, before the soul body disappeared, AIBO told Yami Yugi that it didn't matter, they would always be partners, even if the two hearts were separated, they would always be connected.

So with the encouragement of AIBO, Yami Yugi revived again.

Well, from this point of view, although Yami Yugi has cheered up, his severe dependence on AIBO did not seem to be getting better.

As a result, his previous state may be similar to: Oops, I fell down. I must be comforted by AIBO before I could get up.

The state of Yami Yugi was adjusted well, it seemed that there was no problem. Jonouchi was also full of fighting spirit for this trip.

At this time, he learned that Valon, who fought against him last time, was actually a member of Doma, and the instinctive impulse of the men in Jonouchi could no longer be restrained as if impatiently rolling up his sleeves to play cards directly with Valon.

Seeing the energetic appearance of these two protagonists, Yuei Vu subconsciously couldn't help but feel that he really deserves to be the legendary Yu-Gay-Oh. It stood to reason that in other dramas and movies, shouldn't the purpose of decisive battles be saving the girls? However, what these two were thinking about now was actually gay friends.

Yuei Vu let out a long breath.

Fortunately, we are relatively normal, as straight as aluminum-titanium alloy used in aviation, and Superman can't even bend it.

At this time, President Kaiba appeared with his arms crossed: Hmph, do you still have time to worry about others? You also watch out for me, dont die. Before I beat you, I wont allow you to lose to anyone else.

Yuei Vu:

Yuei Vu felt that this would not work. He must find some opportunity to lower the favorability of the president, otherwise, he would be annoyed to death by being pestered by the president to play cards twice in the next three days

After the assembly was completed and everyone was present, Yuei Vu felt someone tugging at the corner of his clothes before departure.

Turning his head to look, he found that it was Anna, the little girl that had been around him in the past two days.

Anna stretched out her little hand and carefully tugged at the corner of his clothes, and whispered, Brotherbe careful, brother

Although she didnt understand anything, and she didnt know what everyone was going to do with all the armor, her little head vaguely guessed that the handsome brother and the others were going to beat up the bad guys and save the good guys, including her father.

Yuei Vu smiled and patted her little head.

Thank you~

Chapter 276: First Blood

Paradius Corporations headquarters.

When Yuei Vu brought a large number of screwball players and several top duelists here to the headquarters of Paradius Company, he was not surprised to find that Domas side was already in full swing.

This was a matter of fact. They rushed towards this company with such a big movement, as long as Dartz was not blind, it was difficult to ignore them.

But Yuei Vu didnt want to hide this action at all.

Originally, as long as things happened on this earth, it was basically impossible to escape Domas eyes. Even the slightest disturbance in the world was under Dartzs watchful eyes, thus it was impossible to catch him unawares by surprise.

So it was better for Yuei Vu to give up those complex plans, and just rush over directly!

Anyway, a whole lot of people coming to play cards, no matter how awesome you are, can you still not play cards?

In the animation, although Darcy mastered the global army very well, it was obvious that he still prefers to solve problems by playing cards in the end. So here, Yuei Vu directly brought the protagonists to the door, and Doma must have no reason to refuse the challenge.

After entering the door, they found that Domas lineup was not bad at all.

Needless to say, the large group of believers in loose black robes, that kind of mass-produced attire, coupled with that fanatical brainwashed face, almost wrote I am a mook, please fuck me first on their faces.

Perhaps it should be said here that Paradius Corporation was worthy of being the headquarters of the worlds number one card-playing terrorist organization. The entire company was all hidden masters from top to bottom.

The members of the board of directors, those from the finance department, those from the human resources department, the lawyers from the legal department, and the black suits from the security department, all of them showed their decks and put on the Doma unified Duel Disk

Even the cleaning staff flicked the broom to the side, took out the Duel Disk, and went straight to battle, could you believe it?

Literally all hands play cards.

However, in terms of the unique style, Yuei Vu said that our side was not bad at all.

He gestured smartly (while secretly posting the mission in the panel). Immediately afterward, a group of strange animals in rabbit headgear, hippopotamus headgear, unicorn, and giant panda suits rushed forward like huskies who were having fun, and quickly found their respective opponents to start playing cards.

The war broke out in an instant.

Naturally, the mooks were handed over to cannon fodder, and a large number of duelists from both sides quickly picked their opponents and fought into a ball.

Tenma Yako took the initiative to stay, and while directing and supervising the battle here, he was also responsible for cleaning up some ruthless characters sent by Doma that others could not deal with.

And Yuei Vu and the rest of the protagonist group took this opportunity to quickly go deep inside.

At this time, someone suddenly heard shouting above the head: Jonouchi!

Everyone raised their heads following the sound, and suddenly saw Valon, one of the Three Swordsmen of Doma, stepping on the railing on the edge of the third floor with one foot, looking directly at Jonouchi in the crowd below with excitement.

He chuckled, exerted strength on his feet, jumped down from the third floor, and landed firmly.

Jonouchi took a step forward: Valon!

Come, Jonouchi! Valon shouted, End this matter between us!

Sister Kujaku Mai stepped forward to block the front: Wait, Valon! This time I will be your opponent!

Mai Valon closed his eyes lightly, and said, You are a very good woman and a top duelist

Then he opened his eyes suddenly, and the pupils seemed to be burning with invisible flames.

But today is the battle between me and Jonouchi! I have to make a deal with him here!

Jonouchi also stepped forward: That's right? This is between me and him, Mai. Just watch from the side Our final duel!

Kujaku Mai: I

At this moment, the two seem to have completely forgotten why they fought in the first place

Yuei Vu even wants to complain so much: Why were you so calm in the face of the fact that this guy jumped directly from the third floor without even rolling over

Since Jonouchi himself has said so, others would naturally not disturb their private duel.

Then I'll leave this place to you, Jonouchi. Yami Yugi patted Jonouchi on the shoulder, Defeat him, then catch up with us!

Don't worry, leave it to me! Jonouchi also nodded in response, You too, must save the other Yugi! I will catch up soon after I finish here!

So everyone except Jonouchi continued to move forward. Jonouchi and Valon each opened the Duel Disk, ready to start the final confrontation between men.

Yuei Vu suddenly had a strange sense of déjà vu. He felt that his side looked like the Konoha squad that rescued Sasuke in the next studio, and every time they encountered a small boss along the way, they would leave a teammate to PK

Then it didn't take long before there was a sudden sound in mid-air, as if a hidden weapon had struck through the air, locking on Yami Yugi precisely and straightly!

However, our Pharaoh was obviously not a rookie either. He reacted so quickly, turned around, and raised his hand to catch the card that was thrown in mid-air, and when he took a look, it turned out to be The Seal of Orichalcos.

Yami Yugi was stunned and raised his head to find that the leader of the Three Swordsmen of Doma, the blond man Rafael, was standing on the side of the high-rise corridor not far away, looking towards this side with a blank expression.

The nameless Pharaoh, he said, Want to get back your lost dignity? Come with me.

The primary purpose of Yami Yugi's trip was to save AIBO, the secondary purpose was to fight Rafael to even the odds, and the third was to fight Dartz to save the world.

Now he hasn't found AIBO yet, but Rafael jumped out on his own initiative. Then of course our Pharaoh would not be a coward and immediately chased after Rafael.

President Kaiba must not miss this duel. After all, he heard that the Doma strong man on the opposite side had won against Yugi once. Based on how much the president cared about Yugi, he couldn't miss this revenge battle.

Ever since, the three of them chased after Rafael first.

In fact, when Kaiba learned that Yugi actually lost the game of cards, and that the rival was not him, he lost weight for a long time.

He was obsessed with researching tactics, practicing with AI Bot whenever he had time, practicing and printing cards, but time and time again he went up to challenges with confidence, and was hammered by Yami Yugi again and again.

Now someone told President that someone had taken Yami Yugi's first blood before him, how could he bear it?

The president was now holding his anger back for a while, but the more he thought, the less composure he had. To vent his depressed mood, he even wanted to catch someone to play cards.

After thinking about it, President Kaiba's burning eyes fell on Yui Vu beside him.

The maiden defeat of Yugi was gone, no matter how angry Kaiba was now, he had no chance.

So since this was the case, he must take Yui Vu's first blood!

Yui Vu felt a chill behind him for no reason and always felt that there was a murderous aura lingering around him.

Fortunately, they quickly followed Rafael to the top floor of the building. The next thing was Yugi's revenge battle against Rafael.

At any rate, before the duel was over, Yui Vu felt that he didn't need to worry that President Kaiba would suddenly drag him aggressively to play cards with him.

Chapter 277: The Ancient War

Rafael and Yugi rushed to the roof one after another and opened the Duel Disk without saying a word, ready to start the fight.

President Kaiba followed closely behind, and soon pushed the door to the top floor. Yui Vu followed behind President Kaiba and pushed open the iron door in the stairwell, only to see a ball of green light covering his head and face.

He stepped on the ground, and his body couldn't help but crook. The strong green light dazzled his eyes for a while, and for a moment he felt a sense of weightlessness.

When he came back to his senses, Yui Vu found that the surrounding environment had become pitch black.

At the top of the Paradius Company building, Rafael, Yami Yugi, and the president in front of him all disappeared at this moment.

The strange green light illuminated the pitch-black space, and the green lines formed a huge six-pointed star array, which was spread out of thin air, like a suspended platform in the dark.

And Yui Vu was standing on this transparent platform.

He vaguely realized something.

Master, the Dark Magician Girl flew out, with vigilance written all over her face, Is there someone here some very powerful existence.

Yui Vu was silent for a moment, and said, Since everyone is here, why don't you come out and face me? The leader of Doma, the last king of the lost city of Atlantis Dartz?

There was a brief silence, and then gradually a figure appeared in the darkness.

Dartz, who was dressed in a white robe, walked out slowly with his hands behind his back, and also stood on the circle of Orichalcos, with the imprint of a six-pointed star clearly branded on his forehead.

Dartz, the representative of the God of Orichalcos in the world, the head behind the scenes of Doma.

Oh? Do you actually know about me? Darzu narrowed his eyes, Atlantis was already 10,000 years ago. I really didnt expect to hear this name being mentioned in this era.

Ah, I know quite a lot about you. Yuei Vu shrugged, The last king of Atlantis is also the worst one. You personally ended the glory of your country and destroyed human civilization, claiming to be the agent of God, but you are just another lunatic.

Darcys gaze became sharper.

For a 10,000-year-old immortal, he has long been used to being in control of the overall situation in negotiations. He had all information about every force and person, this allowed him to always hold the initiative in his own hands.

He hadnt encountered this situation for many yearsthe other party seemed to know everything about him, but he didnt know anything about them.

Dartzs eyes began to reveal the undisguised killing intent.

Duel King Yuei Vu, I must admit that you are an existence beyond my expectation. To be honest, I havent encountered such a thing for many years. Dartz said lightly, But unfortunately, I dont like surprises.

That is to say, you want to get rid of me here? Yuei Vu glanced at the dark surroundings, It really took a lot of trouble for you to do this.

After all, Im facing the Duel King in this world, so a stage suitable for this duel is naturally necessary. Dartz smiled and snapped his fingers.

The darkness that filled the surrounding space subsided like an ebb tide, and physical scenes began to appear around the barrier.

Yuei Vu found that he was no longer in the Paradius company building at this time. This was a sealed stone room. Its dome was more than 20 meters high, and the space was extremely open.

The walls and floors around both sides, including the ceiling above the head, were densely carved with murals.

With this architectural style and these stone slabs and murals, Yuei Vu immediately realized that he might have been directly sent to Domas real headquarters.

The Paradius Corporation was only the command center for Domas activities in this world, not the real core.

Their real headquarters was actually hidden on an unknown island in the sea. There were shrines and altars for the resurrection of evil gods.

According to visual observation, Dartz may have used some kind of space-related ritual or spell to transfer him here.

This was not surprising.

After all, in the animation, Doma could easily make all the passengers on the speeding train disappear. It was natural to have some supernatural means to make all the passengers on the flight, including the pilot, disappear mysteriously.

For the first time, Yuei Vu thought that this was the place where Yami Yugi, President Kaiba, and Dartz fought in the animation, the room where all the souls sealed by the power of Orichalcos were concentrated.

But soon he discovered that it wasn't.

Because he found that the murals engraved walls above his head, under his feet, and around him were warriors holding swords, giant dragons flying and roaring, mages holding magic wands, and warlocks holding runes

What was sealed in this room were dueling monster spirits!

It's spectacular, isn't it? Dartz put his hands behind his back and smiled lightly.

Yuei Vu quickly understood what was going on.

This was Dartz showing him the strong men they had defeated and the spoils they had.

In other words, it's flexing your muscles.

Yuei Vu withdrew his gaze from the wall: Ten thousand years ago, the war between the god of Orichalcos and the world of Duel Monsters is that it?

Dartz once again showed a slightly surprised look, but soon recovered.

Speaking of which, you seem to be a duelist who has a special connection with duel monster spirits. He said, So, your spirits should have told you this?

Yuei Vu said that it was not the case. His duel monster spirit was just a busty naive girl, how could she know so much

Im afraid Dartz won't believe me when I say it, but the information was actually given by him in the animation.

In the animation, Dartz personally explained the ins and outs of the great war ten thousand years ago.

Orichalcos was originally a meteorite that fell from the sky. The mysterious substance contained in it could be used in almost any aspect, raising the technological level of the Atlantis civilization at one go, and making the human civilization at that time develop to an unprecedented height.

Sounded a bit like the Vibranium of a certain country in the next-door studio.

Then the good times didn't last long. Soon, Dartz, as a monarch, discovered that Orichalcos was not a simple gift, but a test of the earth for human beings.

While this substance brought great convenience and promoted the evolution of civilization, it also led to the growth of darkness in people's hearts. People were using Orichalcos to exercise their desires more and more, and the original glorious Atlantis civilization has fallen into the abyss of corruption and greed.

Until the end, when the darkness in the human heart was stimulated to the extreme, more and more people even began to change their appearance, losing their minds and turning into pure beasts. Even Dartz's own wife, Iona, was not spared.

Then Dartz got the oracle, and suddenly understood the meaning of Orichalcos. He knew that this was a test for the human race, but at the same time, he also realized that the human heart could never overcome the darkness in the heart. The result of the test was undoubtedly a failure.

That's why he decided to call upon the god Orichalcos to destroy everything.

But his decision was unanimously opposed by his father and daughter, and finally, the two parties broke up and turned against each other.

In order to resist Dartz's army and the power of the God of Orichalcos, his father Ironheart opened the gate of the Duel Monsters Spirit World and released a large number of dueling spirits including three legendary dragons to resist Dartz's army.

That was the truth of the ancient war 10,000 years ago.

Ten thousand years ago, my poor father and the duel monster spirits stopped my plan. Dartz said lightly, but not this time.

After ten thousand years of preparation, no one can stop my plan this time. Human beings can no longer be saved, and only thorough cleaning can restore this filthy world. Any obstacles will be swept away.

After a pause, he raised his arm and opened the Duel Disk.

Duel King Yusei Kaido, it starts with you.

Chapter 278: Absolute Defense?

Now that he was in the enemy's lair and facing the last boss himself, there was naturally nothing to say, and the two sides would fight directly.

But in fact, Yusei Kaido was still under pressure.

The development of this matter was really different from what he had planned, and he didn't expect that Dartz would not play according to the routine.

Normally speaking, shouldn't it be the villain's minions who came forward one by one according to their strength level and level to give away experience, after the protagonist group has beaten all the monsters from miscellaneous fish to elite monsters, the boss would come out in person?

In the end, who would have thought that Dartz didn't follow the rules at all, skipping the head of the little soldier to send experience, and directly capturing Yusei Kaido from a distance to fight

But I didn't expect that you would choose to deal with me alone first.

Before the start of the fight, Yusei Kaido said casually while using the system card library that he carried with him to make some specific adjustments to the deck in hand.

If its about eliminating the most threatening and powerful target first, it should be Yugior the nameless pharaoh, isnt it?

Dartz watched him adjust his deck with one hand on his hip, but he didnt care.

Although the nameless Pharaoh is very powerful, he is very confused now. He said, Besides, whether Seto or Pharaoh, I know everything about them.

As a duelist and a person with extraordinary abilities, you may indeed not be as threatening as that Pharaoh. But as I said before, I dont like surprises.

Thats how it is. Because its an opponent whose details are unclear, should we prioritize eliminating them?

Exactly. Dartz said, I have other arrangements for Pharaoh and Seto, and the final battle with them is also part of my plan.

But unfortunately, your participation is not included in my script. So please get out as soon as possible.

I see. Yuei Vu nodded to express his understanding.

As a BOSS, Dartzs honor was quite low, he liked to play tricks at every turn, but his strength was still the real deal.

After all, this was the BOSS who dared to face Yugi and Kaiba in a 1vs2 battle according to the Battle Royal rules, and even successfully defeated Kaiba. In the end, if Yugi hadnt launched his cheat in time and printed on the blank card given by Pegasus on the spot, they might have lost.

A BOSS that Kaiba and Yugi almost couldnt handle together, Yuei Vu felt that this wave was still a bit difficult.

But since its a boss that almost overturned two main characters, why did he say its just difficult and not impossible to win?

Because in fact, in the animation, Dartz could suppress both Yami Yugi and the president, relying on the card he printed himself. His opponents have never seen those cards before and suffered the loss of not knowing the effect. On the other hand, Dartz knew both their deck composition and common methods like the back of their hands, thats why they played so hard.

But here the situation was reversed.

Dartzs deck and tactics have been shown to the audience without reservation, Yuei Vu knew his combo and trump card very well.

Then this point became Yuei Vus advantage instead.

After the deck was adjusted, Yuei Vu quickly shuffled the cards and inserted the thick deck into his duel disk.

Dartz smiled: Are you ready?

It was very obvious that this BOSS was very confident in his dueling skills this could be seen from the fact that he dared to face the combination of Yami Yugi and the president alone in the original work.

Visually, he felt that no matter what adjustments Yuei Vu made, it didn't matter. He had absolute confidence in his own strength.

Ah. Yuei Vu opened the Duel Disk, I've been waiting for a long time, let's start directly.

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Dartz, LP 4000

Looks like I'm the one who strikes first. After the random process in the duel board, Dartz went first here, It's my turn, draw!

He glanced at the cards in his hand and smiled slightly.

I summon Orichalcos Gigas in attack position.

A giant with a brown body and an ugly face appeared on Dartz's field, dragging a heavy chain with both hands.

[Orichalcos Gigas, ATK 400]

Then I will pay 500 LP, and this monster can be Special Summoned from my hand. Dartz showed another card in his hand, I Special Summon Orichalcos Kyutora in defense position!

[Dartz, LP 4000 LP 3500]

As the life value was paid, a hedgehog-like creature appeared immediately in front of Dartz, with a huge and repulsive one-eyed occupying most of its body.

[Orichalcos Kyutora, DEF 500]

Then I set a card. There was an extra set card at Dartz's feet, I end my turn.

Sure enough, the development was completely consistent with Yuei Vu's memory.

These two monsters were the core of Dartz's deck in the early stage, and the animation also caused headaches for Yami Yugi and the president for a long time.

Orichalcos Gigas, a monster with infinite resurrection ability. Every time it was destroyed, it could be revived immediately, then its attack power would increase by 500, and it would act as a fortress and a wall at the same time.

Orichalcos Kyutora could absorb the damage caused by the battle of monsters on both sides. As long as it existed on the field, Dartz took 0 damage from battles.

If the enchantment of The Seal of Orichalcos was added, the opponent could only attack the monsters in the front field first, and could not attack the monsters in the rear position. So as long as he put Gigas in front as a shield and let Kyutora hide behind to absorb damage, he was basically invincible.

No matter how the other party attacked Gigas, Dartz would not be hurt. And Gigas would continue to revive and increase its attack power.

Although from the perspective of future generations, it was not too difficult to solve a monster who could be resurrected infinitely for example, you could use effects to banish it, send it directly to the graveyard without destroying it, or bounce it back to the deck and the like, those were all methods that Yu-Gi-Oh developed and became popular later on.

In the era of DM and subsequent GX, these methods of field removal were very rare. Even the deck in Yusei Kaido's current hand, although it was ahead of the times, there were not many ways to solve a monster by means other than destroy.

It was precisely because of this that Dartz's lineup caused Yami Yugi and President Kaiba a headache for a long time.

If it was the first time to meet Dartz's lineup like the protagonists in the animation, Yusei Kaido might have to run.

But now Yusei Kaido said that as an anti-meta player, he had arrangements for Dartz's invincible lineup clearly.

My turn, draw!

Yusei Kaido glanced at the drawn card, his eyes lit up.

It's coming!

I heard that the two monsters on your side are absolute defense?

Then here I will send you a big baby directly!

Dartz, as a tribute to the leader of mankind 10,000 years ago, let me give you a gift first. Yusei Kaido twitched his mouth, smiled slightly, and opened a hand card.

I want to sacrifice the Orichalcos Gigas and Orichalcos Kyutora on your field, and then I will give you this powerful monster whose attack power is equal to Blue-Eyes White Dragon!

Show up! Lava Golem!!

Dartz: ???

Chapter 279: If You Cannot Beat Them, Join Them

Appear! Lava Golem!!!

Burning magma appeared under Dartz's feet, and the materialized image released a super-high temperature. The light was refracted in the high-temperature air, and it seemed that the space was distorted.

There was a low sizzling sound on the ground, and a faint white smoke rose.

A burning giant hand protruded from the churning lava and slapped it on the ground. The burning giant rumbled out from the ground, roaring lowly from the depths of its throat, and the iron cage on its chest, which was scorched red, locked Dartz as the controller in the middle.

[Lava Golem, DEF 2500]

Dartz:

Sure enough, at this time, it should be said that he was worthy of being the behind-the-scenes boss who has lived for 10,000 years, and his demeanor was still in place.

Even if the two monsters that were the key to his tactics were sacrificed in one go and turned into an ugly and frustrating big baby, he still managed to maintain an attitude that everything was under control, as if all of this was a part of his plan.

If it was a screwball player here, he might have given up playing cards and summoned his fists to directly attack the opposing player

My turn continues. Yuei Vu coughed, During the turn Lava Golem is summoned by its own effect, I cant perform normal summons, but I can still perform special summons.

Activate Spell Card Polymerization. I fuse Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier with Elemental HERO Burstinatrix in my hand!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO monster + 1 FIRE monster!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO Nova Master!

The two heroes of water and fire both appeared, and the blue and red beams flew into the air interlaced, and the pillar of fire that combined into one body and became a blazing flame descended from the sky.

The Elemental HERO in the red-gold armor crashed to the ground, and the cloak behind him fluctuated under the high-temperature airflow.

[Elemental HERO Nova Master, ATK 2600]

At this moment, the effect of Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier is activated!

Liquid Soldier, who had already entered the graveyard area, appeared on the field as a phantom, releasing his remaining power.

If this card is used as Fusion Material for a HERO monster, and sent to the GY or banished: I can draw 2 cards, then discard 1 card.

Yuei Vu drew cards, then picked out one and discarded it, and then waved his hand: Battle! Elemental HERO Nova Master, attack Lava Golem!

The red-gold hero gave a loud shout and slapped out a spiral of flames from the air. The pillar of fire pierced through the huge body of the Lava Golem. The latter let out a strange cry in a low voice, then collapsed rumblingly and disappeared into a phantom.

Because its in the defense position, of course, it wouldnt cause LP damage. But in this way, Dartzs field became empty.

Then at this moment, the effect of the Nova Master is activated. Yuei Vu drew a card again, If this card destroys an opponents monster by battle, I can draw 1 card.

In the first turn, Yuei Vu refilled cards continuously. At this moment, Yuei Vus eyes moved slightly, as he finally saw an unknown meaning card that he stuffed into the deck before the battle.

Dazzs deck was different from all his subordinates.

Although many people in the Doma organization relied heavily on the convenience effect brought by The Seal of Orichalcos, this Field Spell was just icing on the cake for most of them. Even if this card was missing, it would not affect the integrity of their deck.

But Dartz was different. As the leader of Doma and the representative of Orichalcos, his entire deck was completely centered around The Seal of Orichalcos. Without this key card, its combat effectiveness would undoubtedly be greatly reduced.

For this kind of tactical construction that relied heavily on a certain key card, anti-meta players generally had a special solution

End Battle Phase, go to Main Phase 2.

Yuei Vu slowly drew out the card he just drew in his hand, and smiled mysteriously at Dartz.

The latter suddenly had an ominous premonition

Activate Continuous Spell Card Prohibition!

In front of Yuei Vu, a well-known classic old card from the Yu-Gi-Oh world appeared.

This card can only be activated by declaring 1 card name. As long as this card exists on the field, cards with that name, and their effects, cannot be used!

Of course, the name that Im going to declare is

Yuei Vu smiled and pointed at the deck in Dartzs hand.

The Seal of Orichalcos!

Dartz: ?????

He has lived for a long time and thought that nothing could disturb his peace of mind, but at this moment he almost couldnt help swearing.

What the hell are you carrying in your deck!?

Yuei Vu smiled: The Seal of Orichalcos cannot be stopped once it is activated. Neither its effect can be negated nor it can be forced to leave the field in any form. As a key card, it does have almost invincible resistance.

However, cards declared by Prohibition cannot be activated at all. In other words, no matter how strong the resistance of The Seal of Orichalcos itself is, it is useless, because it has no chance to appear on the field at all.

Dartzs calm attitude disappeared. It was replaced by a terribly gloomy expression as if he was about to come straight up and beat someone.

For a moment, Yuei Vu thought he really had to fast-forward to the link of skipping the card game and going straight to real person PK

I end my turn. Yuei Vu said.

My turn. Dartz drew a card with a gloomy expression.

Dartz was a big shot, he was not angry when he was so autistically targeted. At most, he was thinking about waiting to win the game, whether to stew Yuei Vu in the pot or make skewers on the spot to offer to the evil god

Activate Continuous Spell Card of Safe Return. This supplementary card appeared in front of Dartz, Whenever a monster is revived from the graveyard, draw three cards from the deck.

Then there is this Spell Card Monster Reborn! Resurrect the Orichalcos Gigas in my graveyard!

The ankh of life emerged, calling back that ugly weirdo from the chaos representing the underworld. The latter dragged a heavy iron chain on his arm and returned to the field ferociously.

[Orichalcos Gigas, ATK 400]

At this moment, the effect of the Card of Safe Return is activated, and I draw three cards from the deck. Dartz drew the card, then he pointed to his feet.

Activate Trap Card Treacherous Trap Hole! If there is no Trap Card in my Graveyard: Target 2 monsters on the field; destroy those targets!

What I want to destroy is Orichalcos Gigas, and the Elemental HERO Nova Master!

Two potholes appeared at the feet of Dartzs and Yuei Vus monsters at the same time, and the two monsters fell into the depths of the pit unexpectedly and exploded at the same time.

But Orichalcos Gigas was immortal. With a wail that seemed to come from the depths of hell, Gigas returned to the field area with an invisible and powerful aura all over his body.

[Orichalcos Gigas, ATK 400 ATK 900]

The effect of Card of Safe Return will be activated again. Dartz said, I will draw three more cards from the deck.

Seeing Dartzs frenzied drawing of cards, Yuei Vu couldnt help frowning.

This Card of Safe Return was really a perfect match with Gigas, who could be revived infinitely.

In addition to the ability of infinite resurrection, Gigas had a huge side effect, that was when it existed on the field, the controller must skip their own Draw Phase.

However, the Card of Safe Return perfectly made up for Dartzs inability to replenish the hand. As long as Gigas kept reviving, he could keep drawing cards.

And Yuei Vu couldnt come to a wave of recreating the classic scene here, like when he dealt with Marik last time, using the opponents infinite resurrection to make the opponents deck empty.

Because, unlike Revival Jam, Gigas attack power would increase every time it was resurrected. Even if he used a monster with a multi-attack ability like Elemental HERO Wildedge, once Gigas has resurrected enough times and the attack power was high enough, the hero would not be able to cut it down.

Orichalcos Gigas, attack the player directly!

Gigas flew out, and the heavy iron chain slammed on Yuei Vus body. Although the damage was not high, the impact materialized by Orichalcos power still caused Yuei Vu to sway back half a step.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3100

Set a card, I end my turn. Dartz said lightly, Then at the end of the turn, I discard the part of my hand that exceeds six cards and send it to the graveyard.

My turn, draw.

With Card of Safe Return, Dartz would have more and more cards in his hand every time Gigas revived, the card gap between the two sides would become larger and larger, and the resource gap would also expand accordingly.

In that case, even if the ban of The Seal of Orichalcos cut off most of Dartzs combat power, the outcome of this match was still a bit hard to say.

But it didnt matter.

There was an old saying: If you cannot beat them, join them.

Its coming, Dartz! Yuei Vu drew out a card in his hand, I also activate a Continuous Spell Card from my hand Card of Safe Return!

Chapter 280: I Want To Activate The Barrier!

Activate Continuous Spell Card of Safe Return! This Spell Card also appeared in front of Yuei Vu, Whenever a monster is resurrected from the graveyard to the field, I also draw three cards.

Thanks to the generous gift of the old buddies of Ghouls, now the conditions of both parties would be equal again.

Then I summon Elemental HERO Heat in attack position!

The flame rose up and turned into the image of the flame hero, who appeared in mid-air, dragged the trajectory of the flame, and landed on the ground in a half-squat.

[Elemental HERO Heat, ATK 1600]

The effect of Heat! This card gains 200 ATK for each Elemental HERO monster I control

That cant be done. Dartz smiled, and pointed towards his hand indifferently, Open the set card: Trap Card Torrential Tribute!

It was another classic old card that has been passed down to this day in the real card environment, an old face that almost everyone knew.

This card can only be activated at the moment a monster is summoned, Dartz sneered, Destroy all monsters on both sides!

A raging torrent gushed out of the trap card, like a world-ending flood flooding the entire field. The poor fiery hero had just appeared on the stage, and before he could even stand on his heels, his body was submerged in the current. The flames all over his body reacted violently with the icy water, making a sizzling sound, and his body immediately turned into ashes.

Of course, Orichalcos Gigas on the Dartzs field was also blown to pieces.

What will happen next, I dont think I need to say more. Dartz chuckled and waved his palm, Orichalcos Gigas is an immortal monster, no matter how many times he falls down, he will return from hell!

Come back to the field again, Orichalcos Gigas!

The dark vortex opened up, and the ferocious giant spirit returned from the underworld again, his eyes were as red as blood, and his aura was different from before.

[Orichalcos Gigas, ATK 900 ATK 1400]

At this moment, the effect of Card of Safe Return was also activated. Dartz drew three cards, Because of the resurrection of Gigas, I will draw three more cards from the deck.

Then the effect of the Card of Safe Return on my side is also activated! Yuei Vu also drew cards, I also draw three cards from the deck!

The normal summon opportunity of this turn has been used, but Yuei Vu would not give up easily.

Activate the Spell Card from the hand Dark Magic Veil! Yuei Vu waved his hand, and the green card appeared in front of him, Pay 1000 LP, and special summon 1 DARK Spellcaster-Type monster from my hand or Graveyard!

Show up! Dark Magician!

Yuei Vu, LP 3100 LP 2100

A magic circle burning with transparent flames emerged. The noble red-robed mage flew out, and the staff spun swiftly and flexibly in his hands. A transparent and invisible magical aura erupted instantly as he swept across the air.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

Battle! Yuei Vu pointed forward, Dark Magician, attack Orichalcos Gigas!

The Dark Magician jumped into the air and swung his staff down. The green impact turned into a torrent and blasted out through the air. Although it has been continuously strengthened, Gigas power was still far from that of this high-level magician, and it turned into ashes under the torrent of magic power in just a moment.

Dartz, LP 3500 LP 2400

Dartz took the damage expressionlessly and said calmly: But Orichalcos Gigas will continue to be resurrected.

Come back to the field again! Orichalcos Gigas!

The pitch-black vortex opened up, and the ferocious giant spirit tirelessly returned to the field again.

[Orichalcos Gigas, ATK 1400 ATK 1900]

The effect of Card of Safe Return! Dartz said, I will draw three more cards.

Yuei Vu squinted his eyes, and waved his arm: Then I will also activate the effect of Card of Safe Return, and draw three cards!

Yuei Vus deck has already expanded to sixty cards. With this capacity, he didnt have to worry about decking out for a while.

However, he took a look at Dartz's deck, and it seemed that it was such a thick deck that he couldn't draw it all. If the two sides continued to consume like this, it seemed that the duel would be very long.

Glancing at the big hand of cards in Dartz's hand, Yui Vu narrowed his eyes and thought for a while, and set up another wave of ambushes with his backhand.

Set three cards, I end my turn!

My turn. But because of the side effect of Orichalcos Gigas on the field, I can't draw cards normally in my Draw Phase.

Dartz paused for a moment, slowly pulled out a card from his hand, and chuckled: But there is no need for that. The key card has already come to my hand.

Activate Spell Card Heavy Storm!

A Spell Card appeared in front of Dartz. A powerful tornado immediately appeared on the field. The pitch-black whirlwind towered above the sky, and there seemed to be some kind of ferocious beast hissing and roaring hidden in the wind, and the whole world seemed to be crumbling.

Destroy all the Spell and Trap cards on the field. Dartz smiled, Of course, your Continuous Spell Card Prohibition will also be destroyed.

If Prohibition disappears, The Seal of Orichalcos can be used again. Yui Vu narrowed his eyes, and then smiled, Of course, you think so.

Oh?

Open the set card! Yui Vu waved his hand, Counter Trap Dark Bribe! Negate the activation of an opponent's Spell/Trap Card and destroy it, and then the opponent player can draw a card!

The black storm was smashed to pieces immediately, and the beast in the wind roared unwillingly, but the sound gradually faded away.

The gust of wind subsided, after all, it failed to touch Yui Vu's back row.

Heavy Storm didn't work, but Dartz didn't care. He drew a card and added it to his hand, and then revealed another card in his hand.

Then I activate Quick-Play Spell Mystical Space Typhoon. He said, Destroy a Spell/Trap Card on the field. What I want to destroy is, of course, Prohibition!

A bolt of lightning fell from the sky, and the whirlwind rolled up out of thin air, roaring towards Yui Vu's backcourt, tearing the Prohibition card into pieces like a hungry tiger.

Yui Vu instinctively raised his arms to shield his face from the storm, then chuckled: You really want to destroy this card.

Dartz smiled lightly.

In this way, there will be no more troublesome things. He slowly drew out a card in his hand, Then next, prepare to face the punishment of the great God of Orichalcos.

This is the power you fear, the gift and test God bestows on mankind

Wait a minute! Yuei Vu waved his hand, Dont worry, I have to activate this card before that! Open the set card: Trap Card Mind Crush!

A set card in front of Yuei Vu quickly flipped over.

This trap can be activated by declaring a card name! If the declared card exists in the opponents hand, the opponent must discard all cards with the same name!

If not, then I must discard a random card from my hand!

After a pause, Yuei Vu smiled slightly.

I dont need to say more about which card I want to declare, do I?

Dartz:

What I declare is The Seal of Orichalcos! Yuei Vu pointed to Dartzs hand, If you have that card in your hand, please throw it away!

Maybe it was an illusion, but for a moment, Dartzs facial muscles seemed to twitch.

Damn.

It had to be said that as a BOSS with the ability to destroy the world, he still abided by the basic rules of playing cards.

Although very upset, Dartz took out two cards from his hand and showed them to Yuei Vu, and then threw them all to the GY.

He actually had two copies of The Seal of Orichalcos in his hand!

Yuei Vu let out a long sigh of relief.

Fortunately, this Mind Crush was timely enough. The luck was really good, as two copies of The Seal of Orichalcos were crushed in one breath.

Its just that Dartzs mind may also be crushed

But no. Dartz still maintained a calm demeanor and calmly played the next card: Activate Spell Card A Feather of the Phoenix. Discard 1 card, then target 1 card in my GY; return that target to the top of my Deck.

Dartz discards a card to the graveyard, and in exchange, another card popped up from the graveyard.

Dartz smiled: I put The Seal of Orichalcos back to the top of the deck.

Yuei Vu frowned.

If so

Battle! Dartz pointed straight at the Dark Magician on Yuei Vus field, Orichalcos Gigas, attack the Dark Magician!

With a low growl, the giant spirit swooped forward after receiving the suicide command. And although he has been greatly strengthened now, of course, he was still not good enough in front of this magician.

With just one magical impact, the giant spirit was blasted into pieces again.

Dartz, LP 2400 LP 1800

Dartz still took the damage calmly, and the blue hair fluttered gently under the impact of the entity.

And of course, Orichalcos Gigas will be resurrected.

A roar came from the depths of hell, and the burly giant returned to the field, panting heavily in its nostrils.

[Orichalcos Gigas, ATK 1900 ATK 2400]

Although it was resurrected in the Battle Phase, it could be seen from the animation performance that Orichalcos Gigas could only attack once in the same Battle Phase, and the number of attacks didn't reset when resurrected from the graveyard.

At this moment, the effect of Card of Safe Return is activated again. Dartz smiled, I will draw three more cards.

Of course, The Seal of Orichalcos that had just been placed on the top of the deck was also drawn back to his hand.

Then because of the effect of Card of Safe Return, I also draw three cards. Yuei Vu also drew cards.

Do as you like. This concludes my Battle Phase, I'll move to Main Phase 2

Dartz's pupils shrank, and he held up a card in his hand, with his arms facing the dome of the hall.

Finally!

The key to the operation of his entire deck, the core card of his combo, after several twists and turns and hardships, could finally be played!

Oh my Great and Almighty God! Dartz raised his voice, Use this card as a medium to give us the power to cleanse the filth

Wait! Yuei Vu overwhelmed his voice with a higher volume, Open the set card: Trap Card Lightforce Sword! Banish 1 random card from the opponent's hand, face-down. During the opponent's 4th Standby Phase after this card's activation, return that card to their hand!

Without hesitation, Yuei Vu pointed to the card that Dartz was holding up to the sky like a lion cub.

The hand card I want to seal is that one!

The sharp sword flew down from mid-air, caught off guard the card Dartz held up high, and nailed it to the wall beside it with a clang.

Although Yuei Vu didn't see what that card was, even with his feet, he knew that it must be The Seal of Orichalcos

Dartz:
