

I Play Yu-Gi 321

Chapter 321: Six Samurai VS Toon

Yuei Vu was very satisfied with the response of the players.

They were all indifferent by now, but when it was time to launch Six Samurais new card boxes, they would stomp on each other to buy.

Although the strength of the pure Six Samurai deck was not high, and the entire deck did not have enough attack power, the effect of the Six Samurai in the current environment was quite comprehensive.

At least this was a series with a complete system and operating capabilities. Based on this point, it has already been ahead of most of the deck in this era.

Moreover, veteran players must know that the Six Samurai series will continue to strengthen with the version update. The subsequent versions would also launch related series such as Secret Six Samurai and Legendary Six Samurai. During its heyday, it almost got even a world championship.

In the current selection of the player deck, this deck was definitely a series worth investing in!

Therefore, Six Samurai itself was a very popular series among the players. As long as Yuei Vus advertisement was in place, the price of this card was certainly out of charge.

However, of course, in order to think about the benefits of advertising, regardless of whether he won or not, he must first show the power of this deck.

In simple terms, handsome with a style.

Yuei Vu took out his second card: Then I activate Continuous Spell Shiens Dojo!

The ground began to tremble again, the terrain changed, and the ancient buildings rose up, surrounded by an empty dojo.

There is a monster on your field, while there are no monsters on mine, Yuei Vu opened the third card, So I can Special Summon this card from the hand Elder of the Six Samurai in defense position!

As the card was put on the Duel Disk, a mechanical-controlled huge sedan immediately appeared on Yuei Vus field. A chic and fascinating old man with a black cloth leaned on the sedan.

[Elder of the Six Samurai, DEF 0]

At this moment, the effect of Six Samurai United and Shiens Dojo is activated! Each time a Six Samurai monster is Normal or Special Summoned, place 1 Bushido Counter on each of these two cards.

A sustainable magic effect flashed on the surface of the card.

At the same time, Yuei Vus operation did not stop.

Then I normal summon The Six Samurai Zanjī!

The whirlwind rolled on the ground, the samurai who were wearing armor and a mask on the face appeared, holding a long blade, and when he swung the blade, it left a clear golden trajectory in the air.

[The Six Samurai Zanji, ATK 1800]

Oh? A samurai-based series? Pegasus moved his eyebrows, You are really full of Surprise, Yuei Vu Boy ~

It was the series that the father of the duel monster had never seen, but he was no longer surprised that Yuei Vu had new cards.

It was better to say that this new card series made Pegasus look forward to this duel.

At this moment, the number of Bushido Counters on Six Samurai United becomes two! Yuei Vu pulled out the card and put it into the GY zone Send this card to the GY; draw 1 card for each Bushido Counter on this card. I draw two cards.

Drawing two more cards, Yuei Vu glanced at one of them: Spell Card Graceful Charity. Draw three cards, then discard two cards.

Then enter the Battle Phase!

Yuei Vu raised his fingers to the only wall monster on Pegasus field: Zanji, attack Toon Alligator!

The samurai flew out, and the long knife choked on the crocodile fiercely.

At this moment, the effect of Toon Kingdom is activated! Pegasus raised his hand, If a Toon monster I control would be destroyed by battle, I can banish the top card of my Deck instead! (Anime effect)

Yuei Vu smiled: I know.

Oh? Pegasus raised his eyebrows.

Zanji's effect! Yuei Vu said, While I control a face-up Six Samurai monster with a different name if this card attacked: Destroy the monster this card attacked!

What !? Pegasus was surprised.

During the speaking, two consecutive knives were chopped from the Toon crocodile. The big crocodile blocked the first knife, but the second knife took its life anyway.

The golden light passed by everything from its chest, and the latter suddenly blown into a golden powder.

The samurai never fight alone. Yuei Vu smiled, Brother friendship, undying loyalty, unwavering fetters, that is the source of the samurais strength.

So you mean Pegasus smiled, As long as they fight together, no matter how powerful the opponent is, they can defeat it it is indeed a powerful effect.

But my Toon monster is more than this!

He pressed the buttons on the Duel Disk, and the set card at the foot turned immediately: Activate Trap Card Soul Rope! When a monster I control is destroyed: Pay 1000 LP; Special Summon 1 Level 4 monster from my Deck! (anime effect)

Pegasus, LP 4000 LP 3000]

Come on, my cute Toon monster! Toon Cannon Soldier!

The Q version of the Cannon Soldier flew out of his deck. The shape was funny and cute, and there was a dark and large artillery on his head.

[Toon Cannon Soldier, ATK 1400]

Immediately summoned the Toon monster Are you preparing for Tribute Summon?

Of course, Yuei Vu knew the characteristics of the Toon monster, so he could probably guess how Pegasus would attack next, and take defensive measures in advance.

Set a card, I end my turn!

My turn, draw!

After the card was drawn, Pegasus showed a surprised expression like a child: Yes! I must first activate this Spell Card Spell Books from the Pot!

This card allows both players to draw three cards from the deck. (manga card)

Yuei Vu:

It was indeed a world of DM. After so long, he could still see a new hand-refilling divine card

But in fact, compared with cards from the Treasure Card series such as Card of Demise, Card of Safe Return, or Card of Sanctity, this one seemed to be inferior. After all, if both players could draw three cards, the user only earned two cards while the opponent earned three. It was equivalent to a - 1 card advantage.

Then there is a Spell Card Pot of Greed. Pegasus said, I draw two more cards.

Yuei Vu:

Okay, count as I didnt say it.

It seems that it really does not lose any card advantage

Then I activate a Spell Card from my hand Cost Down! Pegasus showed this classic Spell Card, Discard 1 card; for the rest of this turn, reduce the Levels of all monsters in my hand by 2.

In this way, monsters that originally required two Tributes can be summoned by only one Tribute.

Pegasus pulled out a card in his hand, which looked like a little boy who was ready to open his birthday gifts.

I want to tribute Toon Cannon Soldier! Pegasus raised the card in his hand, Summon the new and lovely form of the most powerful magician

Toon Dark Magician!

A shadow flew out of the card in his hand and shot into the book called Toon Kingdom. When it flew out again, it turned into a small boy who was wearing a black magicians robe.

[Toon Dark Magician, ATK 2500]

Now Ill let you see the power of Toon monsters. Pegasus sent a hand to the GY, Activate the effect of Toon Dark Magician!

Discard 1 Toon card, then Special Summon 1 Toon monster from the Deck, except Toon Dark Magician, ignoring its Summoning conditions!

What I want to summon is that the disciples of the strongest magician, the most lovely gesture of the magical girl

Toon Dark Magician Girl!

A bricly flew from the book Toon World, a bunch of rolling in the air, followed by Dangdang to stretch the white little arms and calves in front of Pegasus.

[Toon Dark Magician Girl, ATK 2000]

The onlookers couldnt hold back all of a sudden.

OMG, moe!

So cute!

Huh, cute is nothing in front of sexy! It is still our genuine waifu who is bigger!

Wake up, your waifu sticks to Yuei Vu-san every day

At this moment, the Dark Magician Girl around Yuei Vu also came out. Looking at the chibi version of herself on the opposite side, her face was full of unhappiness.

Generally speaking, Toon monsters cannot attack the turn it is Summoned but this is the exception.

Pegasus waved his hand: Battle! I use Toon Dark Magician Girl to attack!

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes: The attack of the Toon monster cannot be defended

Thats right! Toon monsters can go around the opponents monster to attack directly! Pegasus ordered, Toon Dark Magician Girl, directly attack Yuei Vu Boy!

The Toon girl first was a straight-line charge, went past Zanj.

The samurai was ready to chop. Unexpectedly, the girl spat out her tongue, dodged his slash, and rushed straight at Yuei Vu.

With a crispy shout, the mini version of the staff released a magic bullet, which was bombarded toward the face of Yuei Vu!

Yuei Vus arm waved: Open the set card: Trap Card Counter Gate! When an opponents monster declares a direct attack: Negate the attack, and then I can draw a card from the deck!

The blue barrier emerged out of thin air as if a towering door blocked in front of Yuei Vu. The mighty magic bullet bombarded the barrier of the defense and did not cause any damage to Yuei Vu.

OH! Have you prepared to defend against the direct attack ability of the Toon monster? It is worthy of you, Yuei Vu Boy! Pegasus patted his head in annoyance, but followed with a sly gaze, But what about this card?

He quickly showed the next card: Spell Card Toon Rollback! This card can only be activated when a Toon monsters attack is negated by the effect of an opponents Trap Card. This turn, I can conduct a second Battle Phase! (Anime effect)

Yuei Vu helplessly said: This effect Sure enough, you also expected that I would be prepared for direct attacks?

This is the legendary I predict you predict?

Exactly! Yuei Vu Boy! Another bunch of Pegasus-style English, Enter Battle Phase again! Toon Dark Magician Girl, direct attack!

Toon Dark Magician Girl stepped forward again this time she didnt even use magic, but directly swung the mini staff in her hands like a mallet and hit Yuei Vus head!

[Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2000]

Yuei Vu:

Chapter 322: The Shogun Comes To The Battlefield

Of course, since this was just an ordinary duel, the stereoscopic image would not cause real damage to the player.

Its just that Yuei Vu was hit on the head by the lollipop-like staff in the hand of the Toon Dark Magician girl, and the scene looked very funny

Set two cards, I end my turn. Pegasus smiled with his arms crossed, Okay, its your turn. Yuei Vu Boy~

The crowd of the Industrial Illusions began to talk again.

As expected of President Pegasus, he gained an advantage all at once.

President Pegasuss Toon monster is as strong as ever, so even the Duel King may not be able to handle it

My turn, draw! Yuei Vu said, When there are Six Samurai monsters on the field, this card can be Special Summoned directly from the hand Come on! Grandmaster of the Six Samurai!

The master of the six samurai armed with a pitch-black blade immediately appeared on the stage, and the sharp sword skilfully pulled out a sword flower in the air.

[Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, ATK 2100]

At this moment, the effect of Shiens Dojo is activated! Yuei Vu said, Whenever a Six Samurai monster is Normal or Special Summoned, place 1 Bushido Counter on this card. The moment Grandmaster of the Six Samurai comes out, the number of Bushido Counters on Shiens Dojo will increase to three.

On the weapon rack in the center of the dojo, a third blade was thrust in, as if to indicate something.

Pegasus raised his eyebrows, paying a little attention to the three blades inserted in the center of the dojo.

Next, this card can be Special Summoned directly when there are two or more Six Samurai monsters on my field

Yuei Vu took out the card in his hand and slammed it on the Duel Disk.

The moment the stereoscopic projection was activated, it was as if a looming blood-red mist erupted centered on him. The domineering aura swept across the audience, and the dust stirred up as if making way for a coming king.

Commanding all warriors, the invincible Shogun who conquers the world

Great Shogun Shien!

A dark red beam of light rose from the ground. The Shogun was wearing red armor and a pitch-black cloak. When he appeared on the stage, he brought a scorching hurricane, and the cloak behind him undulated majestically like waves.

[Great Shogun Shien, ATK 2500]

This card immediately attracted the attention of the audience.

It wasn't because of how powerful the monster itself was, but because of the dominance of the king and the temperament that dominated the audience, which made the Shogun feel instinctively oppressive just by standing on the field.

The players were equally excited.

Of course, no one would be unfamiliar with Shien, but this was the first time they saw the stereoscopically projected image of the Shogun in the game.

What? How did I never realize that Shien is so handsome?

You fool. Think about it, Shien is a Level 7 monster with 2500 ATK! The standard protagonists ace monster template! The fashion value must be full

Hold on, just shut up and take my money

Everyone else only thought that Shien was handsome and domineering. Only Pegasus, the father of dueling monsters, has noticed a clue.

Oh? This monster Pegasus said with great interest. Is it a dueling monster spirit?

As expected of President Pegasus. Yuei Vu smiled, That's right, this is the Shogun I met in the spirit world before. He and this series of Six Samurai are from the spirit world.

Duel Monster Spirit World If there is a chance, I would like to see it too.

Then continue!

With a wave of Yuei Vu's hand, a golden glow bloomed on the face of the permanent Spell Card beside him.

The effect of Shiens Dojo! Yuei Vu pulled out this card and sent it to the graveyard, I sent the Shiens Dojo with 3 Bushido Counters to the GY, Special Summon from the deck a Six Samurai monster whose Level is less than or equal to 3!

What I'm going to summon is this card!

Yuei Vu opened the deck to find the card he wanted and turned it over to Pegasus.

The Six Samurai Kamon!

The brand-new Six Samurai was summoned from the deck with a burst of flames, but the armor, the image, and the burning dynamite were in his hand. It was like a dynamite maniac.

Five monsters covered the field in an instant! The NPCs of the Industrial Illusions were astonished. What a powerful swarming ability is this! Can the entire field be covered so easily?

For duelists of this era, this was almost impossible. Regardless of whether the duel was an advantage or a disadvantage, very few people could fill the five Monster Zones until the end of the duel, let alone within one or two turns.

Yuei Vu didnt pick this new warrior randomly.

The effect of The Six Samurai Kamon! Yuei Vu waved his hand, When there are other Six Samurai on the field, I can target 1 face-up Spell/Trap Card; destroy that target.

The card I want to destroy is, of course Toon Kingdom!

The Toon Kingdom on Pegasus field was the core of his Toon deck. If it was destroyed, the Toon monsters combat power would naturally be greatly reduced.

But unfortunately, it didnt seem to be that simple.

Ha! At this moment, you have triggered my Trap Card! Pegasus laughed, Counter Trap -Recall!

When the opponent activates a monster effect, negate the activation and destroy it. After that, the opponent can draw a card!

A strange black mist emerged from the ground. A huge blood-red vortex opened out of it. The powerful suction involuntarily grabbed the samurai who had just appeared. Before the samurai had time to gain a firm foothold, he was dragged into the vortex, and the golden lights that turned into countless star points dissipated.

Pegasus smiled: It looks like the number of your army has been reduced by one, Yuei Vu Boy.

Yuei Vu didnt care, he drew a card according to the effect and then said: But I havent performed a normal summon this round. I want to use Elder of the Six Samurai and The Six Samurai Zanjī as Tributes

The players were surprised.

Two sacrifices? What are you summoning? The second Shien?

Impossible, Shien can jump out of his hand directly, no sacrifice is needed.

Are there any monsters among the Six Samurai series that need to be summoned by sacrifices?

The players were dumbfounded.

Could it be a new card from the Six Samurai that has never been released before!?

After all, its the protagonist with the Yu- prefix, and printing a new card doesnt seem too much?

Immediately afterward, Yuei Vu continued: Take two monsters as sacrifices, Tribute Summon! A top magician who is proficient in all magic and has the highest attainments

Dark Magician!

Players:

What a pure Six Samurai deck!

In the end, you still take out the Dark Magician!

In this regard, Yuei Vu said that he was also very helpless.

After all, he has just unlocked the Six Samurai series not long ago, and he has been busy fighting BOSS to save the world before, so he really didn't have time to draw from the card pool.

He has drawn so many cards from the Six Samurai so far, but that was still not enough to fill the slots for forty cards.

However, considering that with Rank 8, he was not afraid of getting a brick hand anyway, so let's put a few Dark Magician cards in the remaining positions to make up the number

To quote Mr. Kawasaki Gai, all duelists should believe in their own decks. For example, if you looked at the red-robed mage on the field if you believed that he was a samurai, then he was naturally a samurai, and the staff was his katana

Battle! Yuei Vu waved his hand, First, Dark Magician, attack the Toon Dark Magician Girl!

The Dark Magician turned the staff lightly in his hand, and the magic power surged. The emerald green magic power turned into a torrent and blasted out through the air, flying straight toward the Toon Dark Magician Girl.

The effect of Toon Kingdom! Pegasus said, If a Toon monster I control would be destroyed by battle, I can banish the top card of my Deck instead!

The small and exquisite body of the Toon Dark Magician Girl flashed nimbly, and she dodged lightly. She even grimaced arrogantly, like a triumphant primary school student.

That can't be done. Yuei Vu waved his hand, At this moment, activate the trap card from the GY Magician Navigation!

What!?! Pegasus was astonished, and then realized instantly, By the way, it's the trap that was discarded from the hand last turn

Magician Navigation can only be activated from GY when there is a Dark Magician on my field! Banish this card from your GY, then target 1 face-up Spell/Trap the opponent controls; negate its effects until the end of this turn!

I negated the effect of Toon Kingdom!

The red trap swirled out, turning into little golden light and dissipating. The Dark Magician gave a clear cry, and with a spin of his staff, a pitch-black magic circle shot out from the tip of his staff. The powerful magic power sealed the magic power of the Toon Kingdom involuntarily.

Aaawesome! The eyes of the Dark Magician Girl next to Yuei Vu lit up, This way he can't use the effect of the Toon Kingdom to avoid destruction

Dark Magician, continue to attack the Toon Dark Magician Girl! Yuei Vu shouted, Dark Magic Attack!

Unbelievable! Yuei Vu Boy! Pegasus slapped his forehead in frustration.

But then he smiled slyly: Although your arrangement for to counter my Toon monsters is perfect, unfortunately, I still have more follow-up preparations! Open the set card!

Pegasus pressed the button on the Duel Disk to try to activate the last set card on his field, but was even more shocked to find that the overlay card on his field did not respond at all, and there was no sign of activating it.

What? Pegasus was surprised, Why!?

He might be so angry that he spoke his mother tongue

Pegasus took a look and suddenly found that the power seemed to come from the Shogun on Yuei Vus field. The Shogun released some kind of invisible power, a mass of black energy bound the card on his field like a transparent chain, preventing him from activating it.

The special effect of Great Shogun Shien! Yuei Vu said, As long as Shien exists on the field, the opponent player can only activate spell and trap cards once in a turn!

Because you have activated Recall before, you cannot activate other traps this turn!

Pegasus expression changed slightly: There is such a powerful effect

Dark Magician, continue to attack!

Without the support of the Toon Kingdom, this time the Toon Dark Magician Girl could no longer avoid the impact of the domineering black magic. The girl cried out in fright, turned her head, and ran away, but was finally overtaken by the dark magic, and was scattered into countless light spots.

Pegasus, LP 3000 LP 2500

Pegasus gritted his teeth and took the damage. But before he had time to catch his breath, Yuei Vu continued: Then the Great Shogun Shien! Attack the Toon Dark Magician!

The Shogun drew his sword out of its sheath, clearly wearing heavy armor, but his figure was extremely agile. He came to the Toon Dark Magician in a flash and slashed down in the air with the sword light dragging the black mist, and sending the Toon Dark Magician flying out of the sky in an extremely domineering manner.

However, at the same time that the Toon Dark Magician was sent flying, he also used his last strength to blast out a magical impact in mid-air, smashing his head and face towards the face of the Shogun who had no time to defend!

Pegasus narrowed his eyes: The attack power is the same, do you want to die together?

Thats not necessarily true. Yuei Vu smiled.

Just when the magic attack was about to hit the Shogun, the loyal one-eyed old man stepped out in time and blocked the Shogun with his body!

The impact of pitch-black magic power immediately penetrated the body of the Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, and the latter left the stage immediately.

The Shogun put the sword back into its sheath expressionlessly and flung his cloak back indifferently, which seemed to be commonplace.

When the Great Shogun Shien would be destroyed, I can destroy a face-up Six Samurai monster I control instead. Yuei Vu said, Its a samurais duty to block the sword for his lord.

So thats it. Its indeed a very interesting and powerful deck. Pegasus nodded in approval.

Thats what he said, but he knew if he didnt do anything about this situation, it would be really dangerous for him.

I end my turn. Yuei Vu declared.

Chapter 323: The Shogun Comes To The Opposite Side

Pegasus, LP 2500

Although the LP value was still in the leading position for the time being, Pegasus still felt a lot of pressure looking at the general on Yuei Vus field.

In the last turn, if Yuei Vu let Shien and the Toon Dark Magician die together, then used Grandmaster of the Six Samurai to attack directly, he could have caused more damage and cut down Pegasus LP to 400 in one go.

But obviously, Yuei Vu didnt do that.

Pegasus figured out the reason very quickly.

Is it because he thinks that keeping the Great General Shien and using his interference ability to prevent me from launching a counterattack is more important than causing a lot of damage?

My turn, draw!

Looking at the cards he drew and the only card in his hand, and then at the general who had overwhelmed aura, Pegasus frowned slightly, as if he had finally decided to take a gamble.

Activate Spell Card Monster Recovery! Pegasus showed the Spell Card he just drew, Return all monsters on my side of the field and cards in my hand to my Deck. Shuffle the Deck, then draw 5 cards! (animation effect)

Yuei Vu:

OK, you are awesome.

He was worthy of being the father of duel monsters, the worlds largest printing card player. Pegasus has shown so many divine cards in this game.

Yuei Vu watched Pegasus put the cards on the field and in his hand back into the deck to shuffle the cards, his eyes flickered as if thinking.

Some people seemed to be still playing cards on the surface, but in fact, they were already thinking about the cards on the other side

Pegasus drew out five more cards, and his expression suddenly became a little subtle.

After all, he, Pegasus, was also a legendary duelist. Of course, there has been a reversal move in his hand.

But now the problem was

Pegasus looked up at the domineering general Shien on Yuei Vus side, and couldnt help but feel a little tricky.

He who has activated Monster Recovery just now could no longer activate other Spell or Trap Cards, otherwise, he would be able to launch a counterattack this turn.

Yuei Vu Boy, what a terrible intuition. If he hasnt saved Great Shogun Shien in the last turn

Pegasus thought and smiled slightly, but couldnt help but look forward to Yuei Vus next performance.

Set a card, I end my turn.

Then its my turn, draw!

The field of Pegasus was empty, not even a single monster, and the only thing that could protect him was the solitary set card in the back row.

If that was the case

Activate Spell Card Galaxy Cyclone! Yuei Vu directly showed the card he had just drawn in his hand, Destroy 1 Set Spell/Trap on the field! What I want to destroy is your set card!

The silver whirlwind rolled up and rushed towards Pegasus's only set card. Everyone in the Industrial Illusions couldnt help being shocked: If this card is destroyed, the president will be

However, Pegasus was obviously not a fuel-efficient lamp: Open the set card! Trap Card -Hallowed Life Barrier! Discard 1 card; I take no damage from the opponents cards this turn, also my monsters cannot be destroyed by battle this turn!

Pegasus sent a card in his hand to the GY, and three women in sacred robes appeared on the field at the same time. Their images were similar to those of the three women in another similar trap card Waboku.

Hallowed Life Barrier was also a defensive trap similar in nature to Waboku. Although there was a cost of discarding a hand card, the defensive performance was correspondingly stronger.

In the turn that this card is activated, the monsters would not be destroyed by battle, and all damage received by the player, whether it was battle or effect, become 0, which was an absolute defense in the true sense.

Seeing that Pegasus was protected in the middle by the protective shield released by the three nuns, Yuei Vu knew that no matter what he did this turn, it was impossible to defeat him, so he just shrugged.

Then my turn is over.

Nothing to do? He declared it is over?

Pegasus chuckled.

As expected of President Pegasus, there are quite a lot of rare cards.

Pegasus also smiled and said, Yuei Vu Boy, you are also awesome. The deck you use? Even I have never heard of it.

Yuei Vu was noncommittal.

This was indeed true.

Then its my turn, draw! Pegasus said, Im optimistic about this round, Yuei Vu Boy! This is my real trump card, my counterattack!

I activate Ritual Magic Black Illusion Ritual!

Yuei Vu frowned.

Black Illusion Ritualis it coming?

I use Level 1 Copycat in my hand as a sacrifice! Illusionary monsters, using the magic power of eyes to control opponents

Ritual Summon! Relinquished!

A ritual altar appeared on the field in front of Pegasus, and the level 1 illusionist turned into a sacrificial light beam pouring into the altar. Malicious chaos poured out from the altar and spread rapidly.

A monster full of evil thoughts and an uncomfortable shape emerged from the chaos. It had dagger-like sharp claws, a weird shape, and the central part of its head stuck out a long tentacle with a thief-like golden eye growing on it.

Just like the Millennium Eye that Pegasus was robbed of.

[Relinquished, ATK 0]

The effect of the Relinquished is activated! Hole of Darkness!

Pegasus waved his hand to order, and the eyes of the Relinquished opened suddenly. A pitch-black vortex was released from that eye. The endless oppressive force like a black hole instantly captured the Great Shogun Shien on Yuei Vus field.

The general roared angrily, trying to draw his sword to resist. But under that tyrannical force, he was completely helpless, and he was sucked into the body of the demon through the black hole without any explanation. In an unharmonious posture, he merged into that monster as a part of the body, unable to move.

(Great Shogun Shien: Why is it me who is sucked every time)

Pegasus explained with some pride: Once per turn, Relinquished can absorb one of the opponents monsters. Its attack power will increase by the value of the absorbing monsters attack power.

[Relinquished, ATK 0 ATK 2500]

And by the way Pegasus smiled, Relinquished can use the monsters he absorbs as a shield to resist damage. If you attack rashly, the equipped monster will be destroyed instead, and the one who suffers the battle damage is the original owner of the equipped monster

In other words, thats you, Yuei Vu Boy~

Some of the onlookers were surprised: Isnt this thing so awesome? I remember it was quite weak

Animation effects, you know.

Besides, the real version of Relinquished can only absorb one monster. In the animation, as long as there are enough zones, you can suck as many monsters as you like Battle! Pegasus waved his hand, Relinquished, attack the Dark Magician!

The monster's eyes lit up golden. General Shien was bound by the black mist, and reluctantly drew his knife out of its sheath, and slashed at the opposite Dark Magician who was supposed to be his comrade-in-arms.

Yuei Vu frowned: Are you going to let Shien and the Dark Magician die together

No, No, No, I didn't intend to let the general retire so soon. Pegasus smiled, Because the general was absorbed, the restriction that I can only use a Spell Card once in a round disappeared.

So I'm going to cast from my hand Quick Play Magic Shrink! Halve the attack power of the Dark Magician!

The Dark Magician who was raising his staff to meet the enemy was completely unprepared. He was suddenly hit by the green glow from the Spell Card. He only groaned, and his body shrank to half of its original size in an instant.

[Dark Magician, ATK 2500 ATK 1250]

At the same time, Shien's saber light has also struck. The weakened Dark Magician was powerless to resist at all and only had time to form a defensive magic circle. He was split in two by Shien's blade and disappeared from the field.

Yuei Vu, LP 2000 LP 750

Excellent! Pegasus snapped his fingers, As expected of a general, his strength is really extraordinary!

Yuei Vu:

How can it sound like your general is really good

If it had to be said, Yuei Vu had achieved his goal this time.

Great Shogun Shien has already attracted enough attention since his debut.

The fly in the ointment was that he came to the opposite side

Chapter 324: Why Did The Shogun Take The Lead To Betray?

General Shien, it looks like this should be the ace monster of your deck, right?

Pegasus said, smiling.

Yuei Vu didn't say anything, it was a tacit agreement.

If an army wants to win a battle, it cannot be without a leader. Pegasus said slowly, The strength of a soldier lies in unity and obedience to orders. However, now that you have lost the commander, does your team really still have hope for victory?

Who knows? Yuei Vu chuckled, Isn't that what a duel is all about? As long as there are still cards in the deck, you will never know what will happen until the end.

This sentence was also a famous saying of the protagonists of Yu-Gi-Oh in the past especially the first two generations of protagonists Yugi Muto and Yuki Judai.

Maybe the real card players would feel that sometimes even if there were cards in the deck, according to the situation on the field and construction of the deck, the remaining resources were not enough to solve the field or help you win.

Simply put, some people are alive, but they are actually dead.

After all, no deck was perfect, and there were only forty cards in a deck. And the depth of the Yu-Gi-Oh game card pool was unfathomable, no matter how powerful a meta deck was, there would always be blind spots that could not be taken care of.

There was no absolutely invincible deck, and it was not surprising that any deck encountered a field that could not be solved or a dead end that could not be broken.

However, it's different for big shots with unique hairstyles and the Yu- prefix.

Some people seemed to have forty cards in their deck, but the cards they draw could depend on the situation

That's why the protagonists say Until there are no cards in the deck, there will always be hope.

Most of the Duel Kings in the past had to say this famous saying once to raise their fashion value, and Yuei Vu was no exception. Sure enough, as soon as this remark came out, all the NPCs around immediately agreed and nodded in agreement

Looking at that Tenma Yako again, who already had the face of a fanboy, but after hearing these words, Yuei Vu's image in his heart could not help but be raised a lot again.

As expected of Mr. Yuei Vu, every sentence is golden and jade, and you can always learn new things by his side

Draw!

After Yuei Vu drew the card, he glanced at the situation on the field of Pegasus,

During the period, he also exchanged glances with the depressed General Shien who was trapped in the body of the Relinquished.

Shien's face twisted, that expression was like saying: Yuei Vu-san, use your invincible Masked HERO to find a way, I'm so fucking cracked

But even so

I summon the The Six Samurai Yaichi, in defense position.

[The Six Samurai Yaichi, DEF 800]

The samurai warrior in golden armor and holding bows and arrows squatted halfway in front of Yuei Vu. The samurai calmed down when he entered the stage, but he was still a little dazed when he saw General Shien on the opposite field.

Fuck? We, samurai, are about to fight to the death, why did the Shogun take the lead to betray?

Shien, whose hands were bound, looked helpless, expressing that he was also desperate

Set two cards, I end my turn.

There is only one defensive monster It seems that you can do nothing about this. Pegasus paused, and said proudly, Of course, Relinquished was designed by me personally, and it is the only copy in the world. My monster is absolutely unique! It is not easy to defeat.

Then, its my turn, draw!

Pegasus only glanced sideways at the drawn card and added it to his hand. With a big wave of his hand, he waved his hand: The effect of the Relinquished has activated again! Absorb The Six Samurai Yaichi!

The eyes of the offering demon lit up again, releasing a dazzling golden light. A pitch-black vortex opened up, and the boundless gravitational force forcibly lifted the defensive posture of the samurai. It grabbed him overbearingly from the air, and absorbed him into its body.

Shien and Yaichi, master and servant, who were both restrained, looked at each other from left to right, with helplessness written all over their faces.

Because of absorbing a new monster, the attack power of Relinquished has increased again!

[Relinquished, ATK 2500 ATK 3800]

The final battle! Pegasus waved his hand, Relinquished, directly attack Yuei Vu! Suffer a defeat by your own warriors!

When Pegasus said this, his tone seemed a little excited.

In this way, Pegasus's deck seems to have a bit of NTR flavor. The early Toon deck also liked to capture the monsters on the opposite side and turn them into Toon monsters. As for Relinquished, it was one of the earliest representatives of NTR monsters of Yu-Gi-Oh.

Does Mr. Pegasus have any special interest in this fetish

Open the set card! Yuei Vu waved his hand, and the set card beside him has already turned over, Continuous Trap Call of the Haunted! Target 1 monster in my GY; Special Summon that target in Attack Position!

Do you want to resurrect the Dark Magician to offset the damage? Pegasus waved his hand, Its useless! The attack power of the Relinquished is as high as 3800. Even if you summon the Dark Magician here again, the battle damage is still enough to kill

Who said Im going to summon Dark Magician? Yuei Vu smiled.

What? Pegasus frowned.

He remembered that the Dark Magician should have the highest attack power in Yuei Vus GY.

Does he have any other monsters that contain a reversal trick?

The one Im going to resurrect from the graveyard is The Six Samurai Zanjī!

The effect of the trap called out the samurai sleeping in the GY, and the samurai with a bandage on his face and a sword in his hand immediately returned to the battlefield, and stood in front of Yuei Vu.

[The Six Samurai Zanjī, ATK 1800]

Its useless! Pegasus said, The ability of this monster is that it can destroy monsters that have been attacked by him, but this effect cannot be triggered when he is attacked. Moreover, if this battle is established, you will lose due to combat damage first!

Yuei Vu, LP 750

Shien! Give Yuei Vu Boy the final blow!

Shien, who was controlled by the Relinquished, rushed forward. The sword light came through the air, and in the blink of an eye, it had already swung to Zanjis face!

But at the moment when the attack was about to hit, his sword was bounced away!!

What!?! Pegasus was even more shocked, How come? The attack power of Relinquished should be

A translucent phantom suddenly appeared between Zhanji and Shien. That was a dual-wielding samurai in green armor. The light of the sword swung in mid-air, creating a gorgeous and dazzling green trajectory.

That was The Six Samurai Nisashi!

It has nothing to do with attack power! The last set card in front of Yuei Vu turned over, This card can only be activated when there is only one Six Samurai monster in face-up Attack Position on my field!

Trap Card: Six Style Dual Wield!

Target 2 cards the opponent controls; return those targets to the owners hand!

Yuei Vu pointed at those warriors who had been sucked into the demon on Pegasus's field: I want to return the two cards that are absorbed by Relinquished, Great Shogun Shien and The Six Samurai Yaichi, back to their owners hand!

Pegasus suddenly realized: The owner of Shien and Yaichi is this is not good!

Yes, they will return to my hand! Yuei Vu said, Come back! My warriors!

The phantom of The Six Samurai Nisashi transformed from the trap card leaped forward and unleashed the two sabers. It was his best original secret technique Niten Style!

Two green saber lights cut across one left and one right respectively, cutting off the darkness that bound Shien and Yaichi, and turned into two golden lights and flew back to Yuei Vus hands.

Pegasus understood at this moment: Yuei Vu Boy, you didnt choose to bounce the Relinquished back to my hand, one purpose is to recover your own fighters, and the other is to make the Relinquished with 0 attack power stay on the field

In fact, that wasnt completely right.

As he said before, the outcome of this duel was not that important at least not the most important thing, the most important thing was to show the duelists strength.

So compared to the operation of bouncing the opponents trump card back to the hand, of course, using the trump card of ones own deck to smash the opponents trump card head-on, and completing the final blow by the way, was the most magnificent ending.

The two pieces of equipment were taken away one after another, and the Relinquished was like a tiger whose teeth and claws had been pulled out and instantly withered away.

[Relinquished, ATK 0]

Pegasus has nothing to do: Set a card, I end my turn.

Its the last turn!

My turn, draw! Yuei Vu showed the card that he had just collected in his hand, Lets go back to the field again, The Six Samurai Yaichi!

The samurai who hastily left the field came again, holding golden bows.

Yaichis effect! Yuei Vu shouted, When there is another Six Samurai monster on my field, once per turn, destroy 1 Set Spell/Trap Card!

Pegasus expression changed: Oh no!

The golden arrow shot out from the warriors hand, hitting the set card in the back row of Pegasus with one blow, and at the same time extinguishing his last hope.

That set card was a Draining Shield, which could negate the attack of the opponents monster and restore LP equal to its attack power.

If it could be activated, it would help him survive this turn, and there may be room for a comeback later.

Of course, there was no if.

The effect of this card next, Yuei Vu pulled out a card in his hand and smiled, I dont need to explain it anymore?

Pegasus:

When there are two Six Samurai monsters on the field, this card can be Special Summoned directly from the hand!

Yuei Vu slapped the card he had just withdrawn to his Duel Disk.

Commanding all warriors, the invincible general who conquers the world, come again

Great Shogun Shien!

The blood-colored mist, bursting out of the aura, seemed to have a scorching hurricane sweeping the audience. The general in the red armor fell to the ground with a bang, his eyes were scarlet, and the hand on the scabbard seemed ready to draw out the sword at any time.

[Great Shogun Shien, ATK 2500]

[Relinquished, ATK 0]

Pegasus, LP 2500

Great Shogun Shien, bring back the victory! Attack Relinquished!

The sword was out of its sheath, and the light of the blade cut out with a long trajectory. The generals figure flashed like a ghost, and the heavy armor made the rustling sound of metal friction.

One slash, with the power to cut everything, drew a trail across the air, leaving broken cracks along the floor.

Chapter 325: These Weirdos Are Unexpectedly Reliable

The duel with Pegasus ended in his long list of Unbelievable!, Its Miracle! and other emotions.

Yuei Vu felt that this wave of advertisements was relatively successful. Great Shogun Shien finally managed to regain his honor after he fell under the control of the enemy. He instantly killed Pegasus ace monster, the Relinquished, and secured the victory of the duel. .

Although the onlookers had already vaguely expected such a result, the fact that they saw the defeat of President Pegasus, whom they respected as a god, was quite shocking.

At the same time, Yuei Vus status in the heart of Tenma Yako has also risen a bit, and there was even a tendency to surpass his most respected adoptive father, Mr. Pegasus

At the end of the friendly match, Pegasus admired him, and Yuei Vu was also humble in a timely manner. The two sides bragged to each other to enhance their relationship and then continued to return to the table to eat.

Although Yuei Vu was a little concerned about the cards Pegasus used in the duel just now, considering his identity, it was hard to speak at the moment. He could only remember it for the time being and would talk about it later when he had a chance.

After the Doma battle, Yuei Vus prestige in the Industrial Illusions has already reached a very high level. At this time, he met the president with a card and had a soul collision, and now he has become the focus of everyone at the banquet.

Although Yuei Vu didnt dislike this feeling, as far as he was concerned, he was happy to stay to eat, drink, and chat, but reality did not allow it.

After all, the Kaiba brothers were still in the hotel waiting for him to go back together.

For an important person like President Kaiba, only others waited for him, without him waiting for others. It meant Yuei Vu has received special preferential treatment. If the president was left to wait outside for so long while he was enjoying the food and drinks here, even Yuei Vu himself would feel a little embarrassed

But before leaving, he didnt forget to say goodbye to Anna first.

Sure enough, as he said, after the defeat of Dartz and the fall of the God of Orichalcos, all souls were released. Annas father and uncle also returned to her, and her ordinary but warm life came back again.

This time the little girl was not as reserved as before. Hearing that Yuei Vu was going to leave, she seemed a little bit reluctant.

She plucked up the courage to give Yuei Vu a big hug, and wanted to say something, but she seemed a little embarrassed to find that she didnt even know the name of this handsome benefactor until now.

So she whispered, Thank you, the big brother who plays cards

Yuei Vu:

Although what she said is true, why does it sound so strange

Back at the hotel, President Kaiba seemed to be ready. After seeing Yuei Vu come back, the president got up without saying a word, and said one word concisely: Lets go.

So when Yuei Vu came back, he didnt even touch the bench, he quickly packed his things and followed the president on the way home.

When they got back to Domino City, it was early morning again.

Every time he came back from going out, no matter how late it was, as long as he walked to that familiar street corner, he could always see the light of the small shop from a distance, and the seemingly never-tiring girl waiting behind the counter.

But today? Its impossible for Chika to still be waiting, right?

After all, its been a long time since Yuei Vu left Domino City. He didnt inform Chika in advance that he was coming back today, logically speaking, it should be impossible for her to know. There was no reason why she would wait for him at the door in the middle of the night.

It was precisely because he didnt want to disturb her rest that Yuei Vu deliberately didnt notify in advance.

Sure enough, the card shop on the corner was not waiting for him to come back today with its lights on like in the past. The whole street was empty. No lights, no shadows.

Of course, Yuei Vu also had the key in his hand. He opened the door and walked softly through the hall. He walked up the stairs to the second floor without making a sound. But when he reached out and grabbed the handle of his own door

A door next to it suddenly opened.

The silver-haired girl was wearing cute pajamas with a bear pattern on her feet, and fluffy slippers on her feet. She was rubbing her sleepy eyes and asked in a daze, YouYuei Vu? Are you back?

Yuei Vu:

Wow girl, is this telepathy or some kind of superpower? How did I get caught?

Chika rubbed her eyes, she didnt seem to be awake yet. Maybe she was trying to distinguish whether what she saw was a dream or reality.

Its me. Yuei Vu nodded.

Chikas eyes lit up, and she seemed to wake up all of a sudden. It seemed a little unbelievable: Its really you

How do you know? Did I bother you?

Chika shook her little head and lowered her head: Nono. I dreamt of you when I was sleeping. For some reason, I wonder if you will come back today

Yuei Vu:

Is she a humanoid radar? Surely this should be considered a superpower, right?

Somehow, Yuei Vu suddenly began to feel a little sympathy for the girls future boyfriend

Chikas face flushed slightly.

There were other things she didnt say. That was, in fact, this was not the first time she has dreamed of Yuei Vu in the middle of the night. In fact, this was quite frequent. Its just a little embarrassing to say it

Although it was past three oclock in the morning, Chika seemed to lose all her sleepiness when she saw Yuei Vu coming back.

She told Yuei Vu that many strange phenomena had happened on the street a few days ago. There were many images of dueling monsters on the street and a bunch of soldiers in armor who looked like zombies. They attacked indiscriminately everywhere in the street, but she was terrified.

In fact, Dartz has already caused a terror sensation around the world. His actions were too large and covered the whole world, even if the higher-ups wanted to block the news to avoid panic, that was impossible after all, everyone had seen these unreasonable monsters with their own eyes.

But in comparison, Domino City should be regarded as the least affected place.

Yuei Vu carefully asked Chika and the people around her if anyone was injured, and she shook her head and said they were not.

Because at the time of the incident, when soldiers and monsters appeared in large numbers on the street, the group of screwball players who always lined up in the store spontaneously appeared one by one, defending the place fearlessly.

Thanks to their presence, this entire street has not been touched by the monsters of Orichalcos.

After having such an experience, Chikas impression of these weirdos also changed.

Before, she simply thought that this group of weirdos were crazy people addicted to playing cards, but now she discovered that these weirdos were unexpectedly reliable at critical moments.

Of course, the impression of being crazy has not changed in her mind.

By the way, I also saw a lot of them standing in a row, rolling side by side on the ground.

Speaking of this, even Chika, who had extremely poor facial nerves, seemed to be unable to help but want to laugh a little.

But although they are weird, they all seem to be good people. They also have a very good attitude toward me. I said thank you, and many of them were happy for a long time

Yuei Vu:

Girl, you cant imagine how valuable your favorability is in the eyes of screwballs

Chapter 326: Why So Confident?

After fighting with Doma in the USA for such a long time, playing a card game with the world as ante, and then bringing the three phantom gods back from the elf world to fight the Pokemon decisive battle with the evil gods, Yuei Vu was really tired.

So he felt that there was nothing wrong with sleeping until noon.

Yuei Vu slept until the sun was shining brightly, and it was a bit dazzling through the curtains, and then he stretched comfortably, and slowly sat up from the bed.

As soon as he woke up, he heard

Kuri Kuri!

The Kuriboh lay on his head and greeted him friendly.

Ever since Kuriboh followed him, Yuei Vu found that he seemed to be getting better and better at guessing the different meanings of each of Kuribohs Kuri Kuri. For example, now, he guesses that the Kuriboh may be saying Good morning

Of course, it could also be saying Its noon and you should get up to work, lazy pig!.

Master, good morning!

You didnt need to look to know that this sound was from the energetic Dark Magician Girl.

The girl stood beside him with a small staff, looking at the Kuriboh lying on Yuei Vus head affectionately. In her heart, she wanted to imitate it and go up to rub her body against her master, but she was a little bit hesitant..

There was also the new member, Silent Magician, standing quietly by the bedside. At this time, the white-haired magician turned back into the form of a loli, her small head could reach the chest of the Dark Magician Girl.

Holding a small staff in her white-gloved hands, she stood obediently by the side, her big eyes curiously looking at the new environment.

Two beautiful girl mages, and a cute Kuriboh, this situation made Yuei Vu feel very harmonious for a while, and even had the illusion of life is complete

Hmph, what a miserable palace.

A rough voice sounded out of place.

Yuei Vu followed the sound and turned his head, only to see General Shien, who was wearing armor and holding a long knife, with an extremely discordant style of painting, standing at the door with his arms folded, pointing to Yuei Vus room.

There are a lot of unnecessary things in this room. It doesnt have the grandeur that a kings residence should have at all! he commented.

Yuei Vu focused his eyes.

You are the most unnecessary thing in this room, you know?

After a brief wash, Yuei Vu went downstairs, and Chika poked her head out from the kitchen when she heard the voice.

Youre up, she said. Wait a minute, lunch is almost ready.

Oh, thank you.

Seeing the back of Chika disappearing in the direction of the kitchen, General Shien floated out again like a ghost, folded his arms, and began to comment: Your wife is good.

Yuei Vu was speechless: She is not.

Oh? Is she your concubine?

No. Yuei Vu rolled his eyes, Go back and stay obediently.

Shien: ?

Obviously, those two little magician girls and that fluffy Kuriboh like to float out at every turn, why cant I?

Are we all spirits?

However, considering that he was now Yuei Vus man after all, and it was his bounden duty to obey the masters order, so Shien went back to the deck without making a sound.

Chika seemed to get up early that day, and worked in the kitchen for most of the morning, preparing a wave of literally sumptuous meals.

The old man, the store manager, looked at the rich dishes on this table with a look of melancholy, and silently pulled Yuei Vu aside: You must never leave again. Since you left, Ive never seen meat

Chikas pretty face blushed slightly, and she defended in a low voice: Wherehow could there be, there was obviously meat in last weeks miso soup

Yuei Vu:

But these days, Chika may not be idle at home, and she also spent a lot of time studying cooking skills. Its only been a month, but Yuei Vu felt that her craftsmanship seemed to have improved a lot.

Although cooking skills may not be as important as playing cards in this world, at least in Yuei Vus view, eating was still very important.

Especially these days, because he was busy all day with arrangements and directing work, the food was relatively simple and casual, often not fit to his taste.

So he has a pretty good appetite after coming back today. He ate quite a lot.

Seeing it, Chika couldnt help but shine in her eyes.

This was equivalent to an affirmation of her skills!

It was not in vain that she has been bored at home these days and painstakingly studied for so long.

Its just that the shop manager was a little unhappy. He didnt know whether it was an illusion or not, but he felt that the meat in this brats bowl was always a little more than his own

The store manager frowned worriedly.

Now the favor of my precious granddaughter has become so crooked when she is formally abducted by this brat, what will happen?

How unreasonable!

No, theres one more problem before that

It now looks like this brat doesnt even have the intention of abducting his precious granddaughter!

It really doesnt make sense!

Speaking of which? Yuei Vu asked while eating, Is the store closed today?

He noticed that it was already noon, and the store door seemed to be still tightly closed.

Well, because you just came back after being busy for so long, I hope you have a good rest, Chika said.

Maybe she thought that as soon as the store opened, those bouncing screwballs would definitely flock to it, and that would disturb Yuei Vu's rest.

Next to them, the store manager muttered something like I haven't seen you so careful before.

Ah, it doesn't really matter. Yuei Vu was helpless, Although I really want to take a day off but the president doesn't allow it.

China was taken aback: President Kaiba Seto?

Yes. Yuei Vu shrugged, I just returned to Domino City at three o'clock in the morning today, yet he asks me to come to work in the company today Tsk tsk tsk? What a capitalist

Did he make you work overtime? When?

Uh I have to be there at seven o'clock in the morning.

Chika blinked her big eyes, and subconsciously glanced at the clock on the wall.

But isn't it already past noon?

Of course, Yuei Vu knew what she was thinking, and just shrugged indifferently.

It doesn't matter if I'm late for three to five hours. He said, using his chopsticks to put another piece of meat into the bowl, Anyway, Kaiba won't deduct my salary, let alone fire me

Then you're so late, won't he look for you

Yes, of course. Yuei Vu smiled, So I muted the phone.

Chika:

It's just a small problem, don't worry about it. Yuei Vu continued to eat slowly and was not in a hurry, and at the same time muttered to himself, If only it was so easy to lose the favorability of the president. Its Chika instinctively felt more alert.

She was very curious in her little head now.

What is the relationship between Yuei Vu and President Kaiba?

If it's just a part-time job why can you be so confident?

Chapter 327: Living Too Far Away

Yuei Vu finished his lunch unhurriedly, and even digested and brewed for a while if it wasn't because he just woke up not long ago, he might even consider taking a nap and then set off for Kaiba Corp.

Before that, he even had time to open the system card pool.

The large-scale main storyline of the Waking the Dragons arc was over, and generally speaking, all players have reaped a lot of benefits.

However, the more benefits the players get, the more Yuei Vu would earn.

After all, the wool still has to be gathered from the sheep. If the sheep has no wool, no matter how good the wool-cutting technique was, it would be useless.

Looking at the pile of crystals in the inventory, Yuei Vu felt that he could open packs until his hands were cramping

Maybe its because today was an auspicious day, which was suitable for opening packs. Yuei Vu felt that the probability of success today seemed to be much higher than usual. Its amazing that an average of 10,000 stones could produce something that can be used

Immediately afterward, with a burst of golden light in the system, a special effect like a vision of heaven and earth, a card was spat out from the card pool in a whirl, accompanied by a special effect of USR representing the highest rarity

The Sky Hero!

Yuei Vus eyes straightened instantly.

OMG!

Happiness came so suddenly that people had no defense at all.

[Elemental HERO Stratos, Level 4, ATK 1800, DEF 300.

Effect: When this card is Normal or Special Summoned: You can activate 1 of these effects. You can 1 HERO monster from your Deck to your hand; or destroy Spells/Traps on the field, up to the number of HERO monsters you control, except this card.]

Simple but powerful effects, it played a vital pivotal role in any HERO deck.

This wave felt like a big step closer to becoming a real hero!

Or looking at it the other way around, it could also be said that going further and further down this road with no way to turn back

After opening the card pack, Yuei Vu was finally ready to leave for Kaiba Corp to report.

He didnt return to Tongshiye until after three oclock in the morning, but the president told him to go back to report before 7 oclock the next morning. If he really listened to the presidents words honestly, he was afraid that he may die suddenly due to overwork.

It didnt matter, anyway, the president didnt have anything urgent to look for him nowthe most urgent thing was probably to help the president to relieve his irresistible card addiction.

But Yuei Vu reckoned that he probably wouldnt for a while.

After the troubles caused by Doma, Kaiba Corphas experienced a large-scale loss of control of the stereoscopic image system, and the company was almost taken over by hostile disasters. At this time, its reputation has fallen to the bottom since Seto Kaiba took over.

In addition, the construction of Kaiba Land has already reached the most important juncture, and now the president was determined to temporarily retire from the dueling world, quit the card addiction, and go all out to build and save the companys reputation.

Although I dont know how long the president can last this time, at least he wont be able to grab me to play cards the next day, right?

Yuei Vu, who was late for more than six hours, came to the presidents office slowly and met Kaibas gloomy face as expected.

Youre late. He said coldly.

Yes. Yuei Vu nodded, with an expression of So what?.

The companys rules and regulations clearly state that being late is not allowed in my dictionary, Kaiba said in a deep voice.

The president pretended to be like that, and his voice sounded very oppressive and scary. However, Yuei Vu waited patiently for a long time, but he didnt wait until the words favorability down appeared on the top of the presidents head

This made him sigh helplessly.

Can you at least decrease it a bit? Several points are enough

He really didnt know what to do now to stop the Presidents growing favorability

Then Mokuba, who didnt realize that his brother was fake angry, tried to speak up for Yuei Vu: Brother! Yuei Vu has contributed a lot to the battle with Doma before. He must be very tired when he comes back in the early morning. Its normal to be late

If it werent for Yuei Vu, the two brothers, and even the company would have disappeared. Whats the big deal of a little late?

Of course, Mokuba did not dare to say this.

Yuei Vu coughed and said without blushing, Im sorry, President. Because I live too far from the company, theres a traffic jam on the road, so theres nothing I can do.

The president narrowed his eyes: You still live in that store?

Yes, yes. Yuei Vu spread his hands helplessly. I cant help it, life is hard. Why dont you buy me a house closer to the company?

Anyway, the presidents favorability couldnt be dropped as if its locked, so someone was frantically testing on the verge of death.

To be honest, the lie was so blatant that even Yuei Vu himself couldnt believe it.

Not to mention the prize money he won for winning the duel city championship, his worth, and commercial benefits as the Duel King was a huge sum of money too. If he wanted to move out, he would have moved out long ago.

Its just that Yuei Vu didnt think about it. The Dream Card shop has become his stronghold for cutting leeks, which was convenient for trading with players and releasing missions. It would be troublesome to open it in another place.

As for living too far away? Traffic jam on the road?

No matter how far away he lived, even if he was driving an ox cart, he couldnt be six hours late

However, he never expected that after hearing his words, President Kaiba thought for a moment, then turned his head and said to Mokuba: There is a manor in Daimon Area. I remember that the boss of Ushijima Finance intends to sell it, right?

Yuei Vu: ?

Mokuba was taken aback for a moment, and immediately tapped the keyboard and began to search for information: Ah? Thats right.

It shouldnt be far from the companys headquarters?

The distance is about 1.4 kilometers, not far away.

Okay, tell him we will buy it. President Kaiba glanced at Yuei Vu, You should be able to move there within two days. Its not far from the company.

Yuei Vu: ???

What? President, wait a minute, I didnt mean that

Dont get me wrong. Of course, the president didnt forget his standard sentence pattern, and he still said in that cold tone, I decided to buy this manor a long time ago, but I cant use it for the time being

Yuei Vu:

Yuei Vus current mood is probably

Im so surprised, is this the happiness of rich people?

Sure enough, poverty limits my imagination.

Local tycoon! Are you still missing pendants on your thighs?

Oh, Im already on the thigh of the local tycoon? Then nevermind

The president didnt give him a chance to justify or refute at all, and the conversation changed to the main topic and started talking about business.

Unexpectedly, the president didnt really mention the trouble of playing cards today, but really talked to him about some matters and plans of the company in the field of dueling monsters.

He didnt hide anything from Yuei Vu and Mokuba, and told him straight to the point, saying that the companys current situation was really bad. The successive blows have caused the companys reputation and stock to plummet. It was not an exaggeration to say that it is a critical juncture.

But at the same time, Kaiba and Mokuba even other people in the industry are actually quite optimistic about Kaiba Corps prospects.

Dartz made such a presentation all over the world, which really shocked many people. The existence of Duel Monster, which was already popular all over the world, has further entered more fields and more peoples vision-but this time it was not just a card game.

Duel monster spirits were real, and more and more people were starting to realize it. Whats even more frightening was that not only that, but this kind of existence seemed to contain a supernatural power that surpassed all the military strength of mankind today and was capable of destroying the world.

It is said that after experiencing the embarrassment of being helpless in the Doma incident, all major countries have now begun to step up the excavation of cultural relics, trying to find products with mysterious power left by the ancients in their respective fields.

Just a while ago, news spread in the underground world that Peruvian officials seemed to have unearthed the suspected god remains. Although there was no official source of information, it was said that what appears to be a stone tablet with Nazca Lines drawn on it is said to have been excavated.

Immediately afterward, rumors came from the Nordic countries, saying that stone slabs with paintings of Odin, the father of the gods, Thor, the god of thunder, and Loki, the god of tricks, were dug up. But it is also just a rumor circulating in the underground world, not necessarily true.

Then there has been a lot of movement in the upper class recently. After this Doma incident, the top leaders of many countries realized how vulnerable the elite and hot weapons in their hands were to supernatural forces, so now many countries were conducting corresponding reflections and wanted to establish targeted responses in related fields department.

Thats right, to put it bluntly, it was the Dueling Department, which specialized in recruiting duelists in their respective countries and regions, as the backbone to prevent similar crises from happening next time

Affected by this chain of events, duelists were getting more and more attention, and the influence of Duel Monster was also getting bigger and bigger.

Under such a prospect, as long as the opportunity was seized, Kaiba Corp, which was the backbone of the dueling industry, would naturally be able to flourish.

After Kaiba and Mokuba analyzed so much, Yuei Vu understood it. However

I understand the truth, but why are you telling me these things?

Yuei Vu half-jokingly complained: President, do you still remember who the manager of your Duel Monster department is? I wonder if you havent told him much about it

As soon as Yuei Vu said the words, he immediately realized that something was wrong, and quickly shut up.

Sure enough, President Kaiba fell into a brief moment of contemplation, and then slowly said: Its true. Then its better to let you be the manager of that department from today on.

Yuei Vu: I

Chapter 328: Smart Duel Disk

Yuei Vu spent a lot of effort, and finally made President Kaiba give up the idea of arranging Yuei Vu to be the manager of the development department.

The reason Yuei Vu gave was that he knew nothing about commercial profitability, lacked personal ability, and his ability needed to be improved. He was unable to take on such an important task, afraid that he had failed the organizations cultivation and expectations

But in fact, the reason was laziness.

Anyway, he was now playing the role of a consultant, he would not come to work unless the president called him (he may not come even if the president did), and he still gets a good salary.

Why stand up when you can make money lying down?

Yuei Vu really felt that he was just a card player, and if he was really asked to be a department manager or something, he might not be able to do it. But another important reason was that he also felt that he couldnt spare that time.

Just kidding, idol NPCs like us are very busy!

Not only does he have to harvest local leeks regularly, but Yuei Vu was even thinking about when he would have time to expand his business scope and harvest a wave in other places. He was so busy, how could he have time to be a worker?

As he insisted on refusing, Kaiba only snorted but didnt continue to mention it.

Next, Kaiba mentioned the companys plan to develop a new generation of Duel Disks.

In fact, from Yuei Vus point of view, he thought that the current generation of Kaiba Corps Duel Disks had enough black technology, but the president didnt seem to think so.

He said the old model was functionally inconvenient in many ways and would soon be incapable of adapting in the dueling monster crazy wave that was about to sweep the world. For this reason, the development of the new generation of Duel Disks of Kaiba Corp has been put on the agenda.

After listening to Mokubas explanation, Yuei Vu knew that all Duel Disks and duel arenas so far needed to use the satellites of Kaiba Corp to achieve such a realistic projection.

So far, Kaiba Corp could fully afford the projection function of the Duel Disk, but as the Duel Disk becomes more and more popular and the number of users increases day by day, it may be a bit of a burden.

For this reason, the development of a new generation of Duel Disks was imperative.

Hearing this, Yuei Vu couldnt help but come up with a bold idea.

He suggested on the spot: Since this was the case, maybe we could install a terminal for sending and receiving signals on the new generation of Duel Disks?

Then as long as signal stations were established on a large scale and Duel Disks were within the range covered by our companys signal, anyone could send a signal to the nearest Duel Disk through the terminal, and conduct the duel by sending data through wireless signals.

Kaiba and Mokuba glanced at each other and seemed to have begun to think about the feasibility of this plan.

Yuei Vu continued to diverge his thinking, saying that we could still charge based on the amount of data for each duel. Then we could also launch a monthly subscription package business, the package came with limited traffic, and extra charges for duel traffic exceeding the limited portion. Then for those duel arenas in various places, or special places that have long-term duel needs, we could set up long-term, unlimited bandwidth projection equipment in this specific range, commonly known as WiFi.

And the terminal of the Duel Disk could not only be used to play cards but also be used to do various things. For example, sending messages, sending emails, chatting with people.

It's just that the described style of the Duel Disk became more and more strange.

Yuei Vu just mentioned it casually? The president frowned and thought for a while.

It seemed to be possible?

Yuei Vu felt that he may have unintentionally promoted the development of information technology in this world.

In fact, the technical level of the world of Yu-Gi-Oh seemed to be much higher than the reality, but it's not the same.

No matter how advanced the technology in this world was, its development and progress were all centered on and for the game of cards.

Yuei Vu thought if he hadn't come up with this idea himself, this world must still have a long way to go before the era of smartphones.

Of course, even if the idea came to fruition, he wouldn't see a product like a smartphone.

In the foreseeable future, this would become the world of Smart Duel Disks.

Then, President Kaiba put forward the plan for the construction of Duel Academy.

Although the company was currently concentrating on the construction of Kaiba Land, the president has initially conceived the idea of establishing a duel academy.

Before this, the timing was actually not yet ripe establishing an academy that only trained card-playing experts, even in this era when Duel Monster has become popular on a large scale, would definitely cause widespread controversy.

After all, no matter how popular it was, Duel Monster was just a card game, at best, an upgraded version of e-sports. Establishing an academy dedicated to training gamers? Undoubtedly, many people would criticize them, saying that they trained people who were useless to society.

But things were different now.

People were forced to realize that Duel Monster was much more than a game in this world.

Nowadays, even various large consortiums, high-level national officials, and military agencies were now widely recruiting expert players.

Many national armies seemed to have begun to consider adding dueling to the recruit training program, setting up a duel special force to deal with supernatural events that could only be solved by playing cards.

Affected by this, the duelists status was becoming higher and higher.

Especially the two current Duel Kings, Yusei Kaido and Yugi, their fame has even gone out of the circle at the moment.

There may be no news among the common people, but rumors have spread widely, whether in the upper class or in the underground world.

It was said that thanks to the two Duel Kings on the human side, who played cards and eliminated the evil god, the world was not destroyed.

Therefore, Yusei Kaido and Yugi's prestige could be said to be in full swing now, and they have been upgraded from a simple card player to a significant contribution to all mankind.

If you learned how to play cards in this world, your future was really limitless.

I don't plan to start the project of Duel Academy for the time being, but someone has already contacted Kaiba Corp to express interest, Kaiba said, crossing his fingers and resting his chin. And the other party specifically expressed their desire to see you.

Yusei Kaido pointed to himself: Me?

I've made an appointment for you to meet, tomorrow.

President Kaiba said, and pushed the terminal dedicated to Kaiba Corp printed with the KC logo along the table.

Yusei Kaido picked it up and took a look, and immediately recognized the other party's identity.

In fact, for an anime fan like him, this face was so familiar.

The bald forehead, the thick black eyebrows, the distinctive beard

Isn't this the Principal Samejima of Duel Academy?

Chapter 329: Samejima

Principal Samejima, the chancellor of the Duel Academy in Yu-Gi-Oh! GX.

This guy seemed to be an important character, but in fact, there were very few scenes and stories for Mr. Principal throughout the story.

In contrast, from the perspective of perception, perhaps this Mr. Principal should actually be closer to an NPC.

In the Rise of Three Sacred Beasts arc, he was responsible for issuing tasks to the protagonists and promoting the development of the plot. Immediately after the completion of the work, he disappeared on a business trip.

In the following arc, the principal invited Professor Cobra from another school to hold a competition in the Duel Academy. However, when the teachers found out that the students dueling in the competition would be drained of their energy and suffer serious injuries, they wanted to go to the principal to apply for termination of the competition, but the principal went on a business trip again!

He stayed in the office all day and didn't come out, then disappeared as soon as something happens in the academy, and no one could get in touch with him due to talking business trips. In the early stage of the plot, he even gave people a feeling that Mr. Principal is the BOSS behind the stage

Of course, after reading the whole story of GX, you would find that although Mr. Principal has various flaws, he was still a pretty good person in general.

It's just that his teaching ability may be questionable

And at this moment, Yuei Vu, as the Duel King and the representative of Kaiba Corp, has come to the dojo of Principal Samejima or he should be called Master Samejima now.

Yes, that's right, it's a dojo, giving people a strong sense of being Gym Leaders

As explained later in the GX animation, Principal Samejima was originally the first teacher of the Cyber Art Dojo before he came to Duel Academy as the principal.

Long before the establishment of the Duel Academy, he had received many children who were enthusiastic and talented in dueling in his own dojo and trained them to become excellent duelists in his own way.

The first powerhouse in Yu-Gi-Oh GX, Ryo Marufuji, nicknamed Kaiser Ryo in the Duel Academy, was the number one disciple of Samejima himself.

Hearing that Yuei Vu was coming, Samejima Shifan went all the way to meet him. He was really embarrassed to bother the Duel King to come so far.

Yuei Vu took off the windshield goggles, patted the snowflakes on the down jacket, and said that it was really troublesome.

Can you believe that you have to climb a snow-capped mountain just to play cards?

When you establish a dojo, it's fine if the address is set in such a place where the birds don't shit, but why should it be built on the top of a snow-capped mountain?

Samejima enthusiastically led Yuei Vu in and explained: Our dojo is set up here to sharpen the minds of the duelists who come here to study. We believe that only those who are strong enough to endure hardships and have excellent character can become first-rate duelists

Yuei Vu:

Samejima touched his bald forehead embarrassingly: I'm really sorry for making you spend so much effort. Because I want the children in the dojo to see you no matter what

Yuei Vu waved his hand generously: It's okay, it's really not hard.

It's really not hard.

Because he was basically brought up by the Dark Magician Girl

Walking into the dojo, there were the orderly and loud shouts of the young people who were cultivating hard

Draw! Draw! Draw!

A large group of teenagers wearing uniforms stood in a phalanx in the hall, repeating the standard card-drawing gestures in unison. It looked like disciples in a martial art field practicing some kind of martial arts moves

Yuei Vu:

That's why it was said that his teaching ability was open to question.

Because the main educational policy of Samejima was neither to build reasonable decks, nor cultivate tactical thinking, nor study routines.

The core of their training in the Cyber Art Dojo was divine draw

So there were so many scenes of students practicing the correct card-drawing posture day after day.

The most frightening thing is that the genius boy Ryo Marufuji has actually achieved great success by following the guidance of Samejima.

When Ryo Marufuji has cultivated to perfection, from the 40-card deck, he could draw three Cyber Dragons plus a Fusion spell. The power of 502 was full, and even President Kaiba said he was an expert

A group of teenagers caught sight of Yuei Vu entering the door. All of them were blinded by gold lights. They quickly swarmed up, arguing endlessly.

Duel King Yuei Vu!

Not on TV, but in real life!

The kind that is alive and moving

After coming to this world for so long, now Yuei Vu was familiar with how to deal with enthusiastic fans (or bootlickers).

There was no way, because he was too handsome, he was prone to all kinds of troubles.

There are many things in life that you can't change, you can only work hard to adapt.

Yuei Vu also took a closer look and found that Ryo did not seem to be here.

It may be too early, Ryo hasn't joined the Cyber Art Dojo yet.

Yuei Vu was surrounded by many teenagers, at this time Samejima coughed and stepped forward in due course.

Actually, this time I would like to trouble you, Mr. Yuei Vu, to come here, to our Cyber Art Dojo I still have a heartfelt request.

Oh. Yuei Vu nodded, You want a duel, right?

Actually, Ieh? Samejima Sensei was surprised. Why did you?

Yuei Vu smiled.

Isn't that nonsense?

Ever since he became such a Duel King, Yuei Vu said that he has not seen anyone who doesn't want to duel with him.

That's right. Samejima touched his bald head embarrassingly, I know this is a bit abrupt. Of course, you can refuse. But I just hope to have this opportunity to let my students see a real duel of the strong, broaden their vision.

I see. Yuei Vu smiled. I accept this duel.

A group of teenagers in the dojo exploded in an instant.

Samejima-sensei went into battle in person, and the opponent was the Duel King himself!

The children instantly entered the audience mode and prepared popcorn and peanuts to watch in the front row.

The witty Yuei Vu has long expected that he now has the physique of being caught playing cards when going out, so even if he came to climb the snow-capped mountains, he did not forget to bring his Duel Disk.

Now it really came in handy.

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Samejima, LP 4000

Since the opponent was the first master of Cyber Art, there was no suspense about the deck he would use.

Cyber Dragon should be regarded as one of the most successful decks in GX. Even today, more than ten years later, this deck still had a large number of diehard fans, and its popularity was not low.

But since the opponent used Cyber Dragon, then Yuei Vu thought, with his pitiful 20 points of luck, the random result of the first striker, of course, would be

I'll go first, draw.

Yuei Vu drew the card calmly as if everything was expected.

Chapter 330: Cyber Art

As we all know, the most vicious curse in the world was Your grandma will not win the C position when she dances in the square, and your grandpa will be pointed at when playing cards.

At this moment, Yuei Vu felt that a duelist special version could be added after this

You have to go first when playing cards with Cyber Dragon.

It's about his current state.

Considering that it was a friendly duel, Yuei Vu did not use the HERO deck this time.

In GX, Principal Samejima has almost never made a move, and he was always beaten. However, due to the lack of records, it was hard to say how strong he is.

To be honest, Yuei Vu is also very interested in the power of Samejima in this period or in other words, the Cyber deck.

Summon the The Six Samurai Irou in attack position.

A handsome samurai in purple-black armor and blindfolded with goggles appeared on the stage, with a long black sword on his shoulder.

[The Six Samurai Irou, ATK 1700]

Then set a card, I end my turn.

Samejima seemed a little surprised to see this samurai appear.

Not HERO deck?

But after thinking about it, he soon felt relieved.

HERO deck was the symbol of the status of the Duel King. How could a random opponent be qualified to face it?

That being the case, it was even more necessary to prove himself with 120% spirit.

It's my turn, draw! Samejima directly revealed the card in his hand. When the opponent has a monster on the field but I do not, this card can be Special Summoned directly from the hand. Come on Cyber Dragon!

Jumping lightning, dazzling brilliance, the dragon with a metal body raised its head, and the iron body rubbed slightly with the twisting of the body.

As soon as the mechanical dragon came out, it immediately caused cheers in the dojo.

Cyber Dragon!

It's the monster that was the logo of their dojo and the symbol of the Cyber deck!

[Cyber Dragon, ATK 2100]

See, Mr. Yuei Vu, this is Cyber Dragon, the symbol of our school!

These cheering students may not have noticed it yet, but the moment this Cyber Dragon came out, the Silent Magician in loli form appeared in front of Yuei Vu, gestured to him, and signaled to the mechanical dragon on the opposite field.

Yuei Vu was stunned for a moment, and understood: You mean that is also a spirit?

The loli magician nodded her head vigorously.

Interesting.

Thinking about it this way, it was indeed true.

If these three Cyber Dragons were not spirits, it was hard to explain why Ryo Marufujis deck in the early stage of GX had only three Cyber Dragons in total, but in his starting hand, there were always two or three copies of it

I will then Normal Summon the Proto-Cyber Dragon!

A dragon with a similar appearance to the Cyber Dragon, with wires and pipes inserted into its body, came to the field, and the two mechanical dragons stood side by side.

[Proto-Cyber Dragon, ATK 1100]

Battle! Cyber Dragon, attack The Six Samurai Irou! Evolution Burst!

The Cyber Dragon opened its mouth, and the illusory blue shock shot through the air. It hit the black-robed warrior head-on. The samurai blocked it with a horizontal sword, but his superb swordsmanship skills couldnt play a role in the face of the high-tech mechanical flames. He was immediately blasted to pieces by the impact.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3600

Proto-Cyber Dragon, attack directly!

The Cyber Dragon prototype opened its mouth, and the energy flowed through the transmission pipe in the form of an electric current, and the flame turned into a swirling vortex in its mouth and shot through the air.

Activate Trap Card Defense Draw! Yuei Vu waved his hand and flipped the set card, Make the battle damage I take from this battle 0, and I can draw 1 card.

The protective wall composed of flying cards resisted the flames and the shock wave spread.

Yuei Vu drew a card.

Samejima was not surprised when he saw that the attack failed.

Set a card, I end my turn.

My turn, draw!

First, I activate Pot of Greed and draw two more cards from the deck Then I summon The Six Samurai Yaichi in attack position!

A warrior holding a golden bow appeared on the field, and his armor shone with a pale golden light like exoskeleton equipment.

[The Six Samurai Yaichi, ATK 1300]

He then proceeded to reveal a card in his hand.

Then I special summon Grandmaster of the Six Samurai in attack position!

A one-eyed old man in black appeared from the field. The black samurai sword slashed into the air, leaving a transparent wave in the air.

[Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, ATK 2100]

Samejima: You can summon an advanced monster with an attack power of 2100 without sacrifice

Grandmaster of the Six Samurai can be Special Summoned from the hand as long as there are other Six Samurai on the field. Yuei Vu smiled. This is similar to the Cyber Dragon

Then he pointed to the golden warrior beside him: Yaichis special effect if there is another Six Samurai monster on my field, destroy 1 Set Spell/Trap Card!

Im going to destroy that set card in your back row!

Yaichi had already drawn his bow and string, and at this moment he received the command, and the arrow flew out through the air without thinking. The golden arrow pierced through Samejimas set card, and the card revealed to be Cyber Shadow Gardna was immediately turned into powder under the sharp arrow of the samurai.

Cyber Shadow Gardna, a Trap Card that can be used as a Monster Card, whose effect makes its attack power become the same as the attacking monster. Yuei Vu smiled, Its a pity, it was originally a card that can trade with any powerful monster.

As expected of being the Duel King, you dont give me even a little space to counter. Samejima said, But the Grandmaster of the Six Samurais attack power is as same as the Cyber Dragon. If you attack, both will die

No way. Yuei Vu played the spell card, Equip Spell Legendary Ebon Steed! Equip it to the Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, and his attack power will increase by 200!

A cloud of black mist rose from the ground and turned into a pitch-black horse onto the field. Grandmaster of the Six Samurai jumped onto the horse, held the rein in his hand, and lifted the long knife, like a veteran who was ready to fight in all directions again.

[Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, ATK 2100 ATK 2300]

Samejima: The attack power exceeds that of the Cyber Dragon

Yuei Vu then waved his hand: Battle! Grandmaster of the Six Samurai, attack Cyber Dragon!

The sword of the warrior master severed the shell of the machine, and the blade scratched, leaving a deep crack on the solid metal shell, bursting out dazzling electric sparks.

The Cyber Dragon let out a mournful cry, and the entire system in its body exploded. The sharp sword cut through the smoke, and the black horse galloped back to the arena carrying the triumphant warrior.

Samejima, LP 4000 LP 3800

The Six Samurai Yaichi! Yuei Vus attack continued, Attack the Proto-Cyber Dragon!

The golden light pierced the battlefield, and the arrows passed through the chest of the Cyber Dragon prototype. The electricity burst out, and the latter dissipated as metal wreckage with the explosion.

Samejima, LP 3800 LP 3600

My turn is over.

The onlookers were amazed: Two Cyber Dragons were knocked down at once

Not only that, even masters trap has been seen through

As expected of the Duel King, so strong!

Indeed, but masters strength is not only that!

Samejima took half a step back under the force of the impact, and the black smoke slowly dissipated from his body.

Indeed, he also deeply felt now that even if his opponent didnt use the signature HERO deck and didnt really show all his skills, the latters power as a duelist should not be underestimated.

but thats exactly what he wanted too.

His students were watching now, if it was not such an opponent, this duel would be meaningless!

My turn, draw!

This time, when the card was drawn, Samejimas momentum and fighting spirit seemed to be a bit higher than before!

Spell Card Pot of Greed, draw two more cards from the deck.

Drawing two more cards from the deck, Samejima Sensei couldnt help but his eyes lit up.

coming!

Please watch, Mr. Yuei Vu, the key to the true power liberation of our Cyber Art!

Activate Spell Card Polymerization! I fuse the other two Cyber Dragons in your hand! Use the combination of two Cyber Dragons to evolve a new posture

Cyber Twin Dragon!
