

I Play Yu-Gi 491

Chapter 491: Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon!

The movement of the ultimate three-headed white dragon on the Kaiba field stopped for an instant.

It was as if time stood still, or as if the picture was frozen into the camera, and the movement of the ultimate dragon stopped stiffly, like a statue.

Cracks climbed up the statue visible to the naked eye, and countless fragments fell off with a crisp sound of click. The dragons impenetrable shell shattered like a molted insect. Its just that from the shattered cracks, what came out was a divine aura that even just looking directly at it makes people feel like blasphemy.

The shell of the white dragon shattered, and a figure surpassing the ultimate dragon came to the field!

It was a white light dragon that seemed to be wearing steel armor. Its body was made of alloy, and its strong wings seemed to be covered with a layer of armor. The domineering dragon and the sense of technology like modern armament were perfectly combined in this body.

It exuded a gentle and restrained blue radiance, but faintly revealed an inviolable spirit. Although it is not easily exposed, it seems to contain divine power that can destroy everything.

Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon, ATK 3000

Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon gains 300 ATK for each Dragon monster in my GY! Kaiba said, Now there are 3 Blue-Eyes White Dragons, 1 Dragon Spirit of White, and 1 Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon in my graveyard.

So the attack power of the Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon has increased by 1500!

Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon, ATK 3000 ATK 4500

Although it seemed that after a lot of effort, the attack power was still the same as 4500 of the ultimate dragon, but Yusei Kudo knows that it was actually quite different.

Because of the animation effect, the Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon has an immunity that was called the strongest resistance in that era, and even the three Egyptian Gods could only look up in admiration.

Any Spell, Trap, or Monster effect involving the Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon can be freely chosen by its controller to accept or not.

It could accept all positive effects on itself, but refuse all negative effects.

In theory, it could even accept the positive benefits of a card, while refusing to accept the side effects of the same card.

In this regard, even the Egyptian Gods couldnt compare!

No wonder Pegasus called it the ultimate monster beyond the three Egyptian Gods.

At the end of the movie, the grandfather of Yugi, Soroku Muto, also mentioned that this dragon was a god who once protected ancient Egypt.

Battle! Kaiba yelled, Take this blow for me, Yuei Vu ! The real power of Blue-Eyes is released here! Shining Burst!!!

The shining dragon opened its mechanical mouth, and a majestic beam of flame spewed out! The high concentration of shining light condenses into a lightning and thunderous impact, and the locked target was Masked HERO Dian!

It may be because even if Kaiba attacked Absolute Zero, he couldn't drop Yuei Vu's LP to 0. Instead, it would cause the effect of Absolute Zero to destroy his own monsters although Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon could ignore this effect, other monsters of Kaiba couldn't. That's why Kaiba first chose Masked HERO Dian as the target of attack.

Even though it was one of the most powerful and hardest forms among Masked HEROes, Dian was still completely powerless to resist the shining dragon's blow.

The shining light bullets easily tore through Masked HERO's armor, and the flames rolled him into the air, and exploded in place with a bang in the high air, like shining fireworks.

Open the set card: Trap Card Damage Diet. Yuei Vu waved, All the damage I take this turn is halved.

Yuei Vu, LP 2100 LP 1250

Obviously, it should be just the virtual impact of pure three-dimensional images, but Yuei Vu still felt a strangely strong sense of oppression. He involuntarily took half a step back, the moment the blue shock wave passed by his body, he felt as if his breath was blocked.

A truly godlike pressure.

Hahahaha! See? This is my latest power, the absolutely invincible Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon!

Kaiba did his iconic three-stage laugh again.

The president seems to be in a good mood at this time: You have proved your strength by being able to make it this far, and now you have indeed made unprecedented progress!

But! It's just that I'm stronger!

Now, he felt that even the hateful Yu Gi could be defeated!

After this match was over, he would immediately grab Yu Gi to duel!

Yuei Vu:

I always feel that the president seems to be drifting away again

Set a card, I end my turn! Kaiba crossed his arms and snorted coldly, Come on! If you can defeat my strongest white dragon, then go ahead and try it! But the ending has already been determined, and that is my victory!

Hahahahaha!

Even Mokuba was full of admiration.

As expected of my brother! You are able to completely turn the table from that situation!

Indeed, the Masked HEROes that Yui Vu had summoned had all fallen down one by one at this moment, and now only Absolute Zero was left to support the scene in the luxurious lineup.

But obviously, even if a hero as strong as Absolute Zero seemed powerless in comparison.

Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon had a strong resistance that did not accept any effects, even with his ability, Absolute Zero could not overcome.

My turn, draw. Yui Vu drew a card and turned it over directly, Spell Card Pot of Greed. I can draw two more cards.

Hmph, do you want to increase the resource? Kaiba folded his arms and snorted confidently, That won't help you either.

Yui Vu looked down at his deck.

Indeed, the current Kaiba was very strong, and Blue Eyes Light Dragon was one of the most powerful monsters in the entire DM version.

But to win a duel, it is not necessary to defeat the monster.

Draw!

Yui Vu drew a card and felt a surge of power for a moment, and felt a subtle throbbing from the card he drew in his hand.

Perhaps this was what the duelists of the original work often talked about, the feeling of the deck responds.

The corner of Yui Vu's mouth couldn't help but twitch slightly.

YaDaZe (Successful)!

The components of victory have been collected!

Kaiba noticed the change in his gaze, and his expression moved slightly.

What is this guy thinking again?

Spell Card Terraforming. Add 1 Field Spell from my Deck to my hand..

Kaiba snorted: I see. Are you going to choose the Field Spell Skyscraper and try to superimpose enough attack power to attack Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon?

No. Yui Vu said lightly, The Field Spell I want to add to my hand is Fusion Gate.

Seeing Yui Vu adding the Fusion Gate into his hands, Kaiba couldn't help but frown slightly: Do you plan to activate the Fusion Gate, use the Absolute Zero as a material to Fusion Summon another Absolute Zero, and destroy all of my monsters?

Thinking of this, Kaiba couldn't help feeling more confident.

Because his Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon has absolute resistance, this little trick was useless!

He thought he had seen through all of Yui Vu's tactics, therefore he felt a little complacent for no reason.

Racking your brains, struggle as hard as you want!

But all your efforts are in vain in front of my invincible Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon!

But soon, the president would realize how wrong he was now.

President Kaiba at this time was completely unaware of the seriousness of the problem

Chapter 492: Good Game, Well Play

Field Spell Fusion Gate activated!

A huge black vortex appeared in midair, within which flickering electric lights brewed.

Subsequently, the effect of the Fusion Gate will be activated! Yuei Vu said, As long as it is on the field, both players can Fusion Summon Fusion Monsters without using Polymerization, but Fusion Material Monsters used for this Fusion Summon are removed from play instead of being sent to the Graveyard!

Hmph, do you want to Fusion Summon Absolute Zero again? Kaiba crossed his arms and sneered.

No. Yuei Vu said lightly, At this moment, I want to open the set card: Trap Card Chain Material!

This turn, when I perform a Fusion Summon, I can do that by banishing Fusion Material Monsters from my side of the field, Deck, hand or Graveyard.

However, I cannot attack during the turn this card is activated. If I used this effect for a Fusion Summon, the Summoned Fusion Monster is destroyed during the End Phase.

Kaiba was even more confused.

Unable to attack, and the fusion monster will self-destruct Whats the point?

According to the effect of Chain Material, I banish Elemental HERO Avian, Elemental HERO Burstinatrix, Elemental HERO Clayman, and Elemental HERO Bubbleman from the deck, and a quadruple fusion summon is performed!

Mokuba was surprised: Its actually a quadruple fusion of Elemental HEROes!?

Avian, Burstinatrix, Clayman and Bubbleman, four heroes of four basic elements soared into the sky one after another, turning into four-color lights and blending into the dark vortex in midair.

Earth, water, fire, and air, when the four basic elements meet, it will trigger a miracle! Yuei Vu raised his hand and said, Lets bloom eternal brilliance!

Elemental HERO Electrum!

A strong light burst out, and a hero in yellow tights with well-defined muscles appeared from the scorching flash! His feet landed lightly on the ground, and waves of four colors rippled under his feet. The E badge was prominently printed on the heros chest, and transparent ripples spread out all over his body.

Elemental HERO Electrum, ATK 2900

A quadruple fusion Elemental HERO? Mokuba covered his mouth, his surprise was beyond words.

But the attack power doesnt seem to be very high

Kaiba also narrowed his eyes: This kind of monster cant defeat my Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon.

I know. Yuei Vu said, The effect of the Elemental HERO Electrum When this card is Fusion Summoned: Shuffle all banished cards into the Deck!

Kaiba raised his eyebrows. He watched the cards that were banished by Masked HERO Dark Law return to his deck in a hurry, and couldn't help but hum: A quadruple fusion Elemental HERO only has this level of ability?

Only has this level of ability?

Yuei Vu laughed from the bottom of his heart.

Whether it is only this level, President, you will know right away the kind that you can remember deeply with your body.

According to the effect of Electrum, Avian, Burstinatrix, Clayman, and Bubbleman that was removed from the game as Fusion Materials, return to my deck.

The four cards were returned to the deck, and the deck was automatically shuffled again.

Then open the set card: Continuous Spell Dimensional Fissure! Yuei Vu opened the magic cover that was covered in the previous round, As long as this card exists on the field, any monster sent to the GY is banished instead.

Kaiba: ?

Activate Continuous Spell Mass Driver!

Yuei Vu activated another magic card, and this time a silver-white heavy cannon appeared in front of him.

The effect of the Mass Driver Tribute 1 monster on my side of the field, and deal 400 points of damage to the opposing player! Yuei Vu waved his hand, I tribute the Elemental HERO Electrum, and inflict 400 points of damage to your Life Points!

Of course, because of the presence of the Dimensional Fissure, Electrum is banished instead of entering the graveyard.

Mokuba was surprised: Tribute Electrum, who requires four monsters to summon, just for 400 points of damage

Electrum turned into a beam of golden light and flew into the magazine of the silver heavy artillery. With a loud boom, he turned into a cannonball and was fired by the Mass Driver, hitting the Kaiba head-on.

Kaiba, LP 2000 LP 1600

Kaiba snorted: It doesn't hurt or itch. What's the point of doing such a thing?

I use the effect of Chain Material again! Yuei Vu said, I banish Elemental HERO Avian, Elemental HERO Burstinatrix, Elemental HERO Clayman, and Elemental HERO Bubbleman from the deck again, and the Fusion Summon is performed through the Fusion Gate!

Come again, the hero of miracles the second Elemental HERO Electrum!

The images of the four heroes emerged, turning into beams of four colors and rushing into the air. In the blink of an eye, they reincarnated into heroes with eternal life in shining brilliance.

Elemental HERO Electrum descended again!

The effect of Electrum! Yuei Vu said, When this card is Fusion Summoned: Shuffle all banished cards into the Deck. So Avian, Burstinatrix, Clayman, and Bubbleman, as well as the first Elemental HERO Electrum, all returned to the deck!

Seeing Electrum return to Yuei Vu's deck, Kaiba's face suddenly changed.

He finally understood what was going on.

This is an infinite loop!

The four heroes were fused into Electrum. When Electrum was successfully summoned, the effect would return the four heroes to the deck, and then Electrum was Tributed through the Mass Driver to cause 400 damage.

Then use the Fusion Gate again to fuse the four heroes from the deck into the second Electrum. The effect of the second Electrum recovered from the four heroes plus the first Electrum. Then Mass Driver launched the second Electrum, causing 400 damage again. ..

As long as it was not interrupted, this combo could go on indefinitely!

Even if he had a monster as powerful as Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon, it didn't help.

No need to defeat Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon, this loop would reduce Kaiba's LP to 0 no matter how much LP he has left!

Kaiba was shocked again.

Yuei Vu ! How many surprises can you bring me!?

However, Kaiba still had the last trick left!

Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon's final ability is activated! Kaiba shouted loudly, Shining Nova!

The Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon flew into the air, raised his head, and the boundless light, like a whirlwind visible to the naked eye, converged towards the light dragon's mouth from all directions!

Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon can use itself as a sacrifice to destroy any card on the field! And this effect can also be activated during the opponent's turn! (animation effect)

When watching animations back then, Yuei Vu felt that Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon's so-called final ability was a bit weak in comparison. With absolute resistance and high attack power, no matter which card it traded with the opponent, it would be a loss.

But now Kaiba clearly had no choice.

If he didn't do this, he would be killed by the infinite loop combo.

The card I want to destroy is Fusion Gate! Kaiba shouted.

Every card in the infinite chain of Immortal Cannon is very important, and the chain cannot continue without any card.

Kaiba thought for a while and felt that this Fusion Gate was relatively more threatening. Because Yuei Vu has activated the Chain Material this turn, if Fusion Gate was on the field, Yuei Vu could still continue to choose any monster in the deck, hand, or graveyard for fusion.

The shining dragons body burst into divine brilliance, drawing a dazzling trajectory and rushing into the air! The strong light submerged into the vortex of chaos, the black hole was torn apart, and the vortex of the fusion gate was crushed by the blue light and dissipated from midair.

The loop was interrupted, but as a price, Kaibas Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon also had to exit the stage here.

He stared straight at Yuei Vu and the remaining cards in his hand as if he wanted to see through these cards whether Yuei Vu had a backhand.

And Yuei Vu of course, he didnt let him down.

Activate Spell Card Polymerization. The classic fusion card appeared in front of Yuei Vu, Then at this moment, activate the effect of the trap card Chain Material again!

I remove the Masked HERO Dian and Masked HERO Blast in the graveyard from the game and fuse them!

Kaiba held his breath subconsciously.

The fusion of Masked HEROes?

The fusion condition is two Masked HERO monsters! Yuei Vu said, Fusion Summon! From the darkness of light, and then from darkness to light, open the world with the power of awakening Contrast HERO Chaos!

Light and dark alternate, as if a new path has been opened up from the chaos. The ultimate light erupted from the pitch-black abyss, carrying a slender afterimage within it.

Perfectly symmetrical black and white two-color armor, flying two-color streamers, and a sharp sight like a steel knife hanging in the air. Although that body seemed to be only the size of an ordinary person, it contained the power of chaos that far exceeded that of ordinary dueling monsters.

Contrast HERO Chaos, ATK 3000

Is this your new trump card? Kaiba narrowed his eyes, But his attack power is only comparable to that of the Blue-Eyes Alternative White Dragon

Quick-Play Spell De-Fusion! Target 1 Fusion Monster on the field; return that target to the Extra Deck, then, if all the Fusion Materials that were used for its Fusion Summon are in my GY, I can Special Summon all of them.

Yuei Vu pointed to the Absolute Zero on the field.

I dismantle the fusion of Elemental HERO Absolute Zero!

The low-temperature hero folded his arms, and the snow-white cloak flew behind him. He turned into a whirlwind of ice and snow, quickly withdrew from the field, and flew back to the deck.

The Absolute Zero on Yuei Vu's field was fusion summoned using another Absolute Zero as a material. But Absolute Zero could not be special summoned by means other than fusion, so even if the fusion was undone, the fusion materials could not be returned to the field.

But the effect could still be triggered!

At this moment, the effect of Absolute Zero! Yuei Vu said, Destroy all the monsters on the opponents field! Instant Freeze!!!

The boundless chill was like an unstoppable white wave. The Blue-Eyes Alternative White Dragon and the Cyber Jar on Kaiba's field were frozen into crystal ice sculptures in an instant and shattered into pieces with a burst of cold air.

but because of the side effects of the Chain Material, you can no longer attack this turn. Kaiba said in a deep voice, And at the end of the turn, the Contrast HERO Chaos will also self-destruct due to this effect.

I know. Yuei Vu smiled slightly, The premise is that the End Phase will come.

Kaiba's eyelids twitched.

Quick-Play Spell Mischief of the Time Goddess: Skip to the start of the Battle Phase of my next turn! (animation effect)

Kaiba: !

Of course, he knew this card.

Because this card was what he gave to Yuei Vu.

This was one of the most powerful cards in that Siegfried's deck. After the entire Schroeder Corp was bought by the Kaiba Corp, the deck used by Siegfried himself was also obtained by Kaiba.

Then Yuei Vu got a set in his hand.

A playful and cute girl with twin tails came to the field and waved her magic wand. The powerful magic power beyond time and space was released, the roulette of the clock was turned by the power of fate, the number of rounds jumped, and it came directly to the next Battle Phase of Yuei Vu.

In this way, the Chain Material became the card that was activated last turn, and the restriction of not being able to attack naturally did not exist.

This is the end! Yuei Vu raised his hand, Battle! Contrast HERO Chaos, attack directly!

A chaotic wind blew up in space, and the ultimate hero summoned a black and white released storm! The earth was blasted through the air, and the storm howled and swept forward, rushing toward Kaiba!

Kaiba's pupils shrank, and he made a last-ditch effort: This is the moment I've been waiting for! Open the set card: Continuous Trap Krystal Avatar!

The trap flipped, and the dazzling crystal was released from the trap, gradually condensing into a human form. What was reflected on the shining crystal was actually the figure of Kaiba!

It's like a substitute for himself!

This card can only be activated when an opponents monster declares a direct attack, if its ATK is greater than or equal to my LP! Kaiba said, After Krystal Avatar is activated, Special Summon this card in Attack Position as an Effect Monster that has ATK equal to my LP, then change the attack target to this card.

But If this card Summoned this way is destroyed by battle, inflict damage to the opponent equal to its ATK!

Contrast HERO Chaos, ATK 3000

Krystal Avatar, ATK 1600

Mokuba stared away for a moment, it felt as if his heart had stopped beating, and his breathing seemed to have stopped.

If this attack was passed, it would cause 1400 points of battle damage to his elder brother, so that his LP value remains at the last 200 points.

But if the crystal double was destroyed in battle, Yuei Vu would take damage equivalent to its attack power value that was, 1600 points of damage, which would clear Yui Vu's remaining LP in one go.

Just one card can change the situation!

Brother Yui Vu is going to lose!

Obviously, it was the moment when his brother was about to turn around, but Mokuba couldn't help but hold his breath, unable to control himself, and looked at Yui Vu worriedly.

And Yui Vu actually

laughing!?

The hero of chaos was in mid-air, with five fingers spread out, and the white left hand shot out from the air.

It seemed to be silently giving an order

Nope!

The invisible wave was released from the palm of the opposing hero, like an absolute prohibition order. That force locked onto the Guanglong in midair, and the figure of that dragon suddenly flickered, as if it wanted to disappear out of thin air at any moment.

The effect of Contrast HERO Chaos. Yui Vu said calmly, Once per turn, during either player's turn: I can target 1 face-up card on the field; negate that target's effects until the end of this turn.

I negate the effect of Krystal Avatar.

Kaiba stared wide-eyed, surprised for a moment, but quickly regained his composure.

He raised his head, looked up at the black and white hero coming in the storm, let the airwaves hit the floor, rolled up his white windbreaker, and faced the extreme light and darkness expressionlessly.

Huh. He glanced at Yui Vu through the gust of wind, closed his eyes, and said to himself, Good game, well play.

Kaiba, LP 1600 LP 0

Chapter 493: Are You Addicted To Travel At The Company's Expense?

Kaiba, LP 0

Contrast HERO Chaos attack swept through Kaiba, taking all his remaining LPs. But Kaiba only closed his eyes, calmly receiving the impact.

Compared with the duels in the past, he seems to have become a lot calmer about such results.

Mokuba blinked his big eyes: Brotherlost again

Huh? Why do I say again?

Kaiba was silent for a while as if he was still reminiscing about the duel just now. After a while, he raised his head and said lightly: Elemental HERO Electrum, the infinite loop of repeated damage

Is this a tactic you came up with on the spot?

Ahem, thats right. Yuei Vu's face didn't turn red and his heart didn't beat faster, I had an idea, and suddenly thought that this combo might be successful But President, you are really powerful, even such an infinite loop can be broken by you.

Yuei Vu said that his face was not only handsome but also thick enough.

Of course, the classic infinite loop of Electrum OTK could not have been thought up by him himself, but copied from the Internet. It's just that for old HERO players, this kind of combo was engraved into their DNA, and it would come as soon as they opened their mouths.

But it didn't matter. Players were familiar with Electrum OTK, but President Kaiba must have never seen it. So Yuei Vu was brazen enough to say that this combo was thought up by him in a flash of inspiration.

After all, in the current world, Yuei Vu was the unique authority on the HERO series. Other people didn't even have the Elemental HERO Electrum card. If it weren't for his research results, who could it be?

Sure enough, President Kaiba believed it without any doubt.

To be honest, he didn't believe that anyone else could design such a powerful tactic!

Yuei Vu ! Sure enough, every duel of yours can bring new surprises!

Hmph, let's just count it as me losing this time. Kaiba folded his arms, and resumed his previous expression of slapping. But next time, you won't be so lucky.

But President, you said earlier that today is our final battle Yuei Vu tried to remind him.

It's a pity that the president didn't seem to hear

Kaiba made a standard one-hundred-eighty-degree turn, the windbreaker flicked up and said a word without looking back.

Come over.

Its very pretentious.

Yuei Vu didnt say a word but still followed, determined to at least give a face to his superficial boss and listen to what he had to say.

Mokuba also followed along the way. While walking, he excitedly said beside Yuei Vu: Brother Yuei Vus duel just now was so cool! Infinite loop I have never heard of it!

By the way, theres that one just now, its called Contrast HERO Chaos, right? So handsome! Can I have a look?

Sure.

Yuei Vu smiled, generously took out the Contrast HERO Chaos printed by himself and handed it to Mokuba.

He also had a good impression of Mokuba. Unlike Kaibas arrogant attitude, Mokuba has always been very warm to him.

When there was anything that needed to be explained, Kaiba rarely communicated in person, so Mokuba often represented Kaiba Corp. Usually, the task of communicating with Yuei Vu was also done by Mokuba. The child couldnt stop chattering in front of Yuei Vu once he began to speak, and could chatter for a long time every time.

Once they come and go, the relationship between them would naturally improve.

Wow! So handsome! Mokuba held the card, his eyes lit up, The black and white masked hero

As he spoke, he seemed to think of something, Ah, and quickly added: Ah, of course, my brothers Blue-Eyes Shining Dragon is also very handsome.

Yuei Vu:

Although the Kaiba who was walking in front didnt say anything, he felt a sense of resentment inexplicably from his back

Well, an illusion, it must be an illusion.

Coming to the presidents office again, Yuei Vu walked in, and found that the furnishings here had not changed much from his own impression. The floor-to-ceiling windows cast plenty of sunlight, and the white floor was reflected as if it were shining.

If there was any change, it must be said that there is an additional glass display case on the left-hand wall of the presidents office.

Yuei Vu didnt know what other presidents usually like to put in the display cabinets in their offices. He guessed that it might be books, tea sets, or some art pieces.

Anyway, for our president, there were rows and rows of display cabinets, all of which were Blue-Eyes White Dragons.

The big Blue-Eyes White Dragon, the small Blue-Eyes White Dragon, those lying down, roaring, flapping wings, and those supported by specially designed crystal brackets, spread their wings and soar. In short, all of them were images of his White Bride

The president didn't say a word, went back to the seat behind his desk, and sat down.

Yuei Vu was also polite, and consciously dragged a chair over and sat down.

The new generation of Duel Disk is ready for sale. Kaiba said lightly, We plan to select some high-star duelists first, and distribute the first batch of finished products for free for testing.

Oh. Yuei Vu replied, thinking about what to eat when he went back tonight.

Chika seemed to say that the food in the store has already exhausted, and asked him to buy some food for her on the way back

You are going to be transferred. Kaiba said suddenly, From tomorrow, you will be the supervisor of the company's entire dueling monster department.

Oh Yuei Vu just responded casually and suddenly realized something was wrong.

Hey, wait a minute, President, this needs to be considered in the long term!

What? The supervisor of the dueling monster department?

Doesn't that mean I have to come to work every day and deal with various chores?

So Yuei Vu refused decisively without even thinking about it, and the reason was similar to before. It was nothing more than feeling that I am not capable enough to take on this responsibility, there are other better comrades who are suitable for this position, I hope the organization thinks twice Mokuba tugged at the corner of his clothes and reminded him: Don't worry, Brother Yuei Vu, it's just for reputation. Because if the Duel King is the head of this department, it will be easier to conform shareholders.

After a pause, he chuckled.

And compared with your current salary, the salary will be doubled.

Yuei Vu was silent for a while.

I thought about it, and suddenly felt that rather than ability, this position needs more love for dueling monsters, extraordinary personality charm, and persistent pursuit of dreams. Yuei Vu said seriously, I think these three I have them all, and it seems that this position really must be mine.

Mokuba couldn't help covering his mouth and laughing: Brother Yuei Vu, you are so humorous

Yuei Vu's expression remained unchanged, and he even felt he had a clear conscience for this meal.

After all, he had just traveled thousands of miles to Egypt not long ago and made a special trip to help the president keep Anubis, a potentially huge threat, in his grave.

That was the King of Destruction that was prophesied to bring destruction to Yami Yugi and the president, but now he had died before they even heard this guy's name

Besides, playing cards with the president twice in three days, this kind of mentally and physically demanding work was not easy, and ordinary people couldn't do it.

All in all, Yuei Vu felt that he should accept this reward with confidence!

Kaiba also chuckled imperceptibly and then said: The test of the new generation of Duel Disk is about to enter the final stage. Although it has been basically completed, it is difficult to guarantee that there will be no unexpected bugs.

I've already called the testing department, and you're going to assist with the testing next week.

Ah? Upon hearing that there was work to do, Yuei Vu immediately shook his head like a rattle, I'm not free next week.

Kaiba frowned: What are you going to do?

Going out, on a business trip. Yuei Vu said.

With Anubis' demise, most of the main and branch plotlines of DM have been cleared. Now he was waiting for when Pharaoh could make up his mind to bid farewell to AIBO, and the final chapter of DM Pharaoh's Memories was about to start.

Before that, Yuei Vu decided to go to the birth cities of some other players and harvest as many leeks as possible to prepare for the final chapter.

Oh, that's right, Yuei Vu remembered something, I should go to Egypt again in a while.

After all, the final stage of Yu-Gi-Oh DM is in Egypt, and I must go there again.

Kaiba said coldly: You just came back from there.

I remembered that I forgot to do something, and I have to go again.

Kaiba frowned even tighter, and his expression looked a little gloomy.

Are you addicted to travel at the company's expense?

Moreover, no one in the entire company dared to quit when the president assigned tasks and no one dared to jump like this when talking to him.

As soon as Mokuba saw his brother's reaction, he suddenly felt something bad in his heart.

He recognized the look.

Whenever my brother shows this kind of expression, at best, he will scold the other party fiercely, and at worst, he will exile the other party to Siberia for the rest of their lives.

In short, the result will not be good.

Mokuba thought for a while and mustered up the courage to defend Yuei Vu.

As a result, before he could speak, he saw Kaiba humming heavily, turning around with the whole armchair, facing the floor-to-ceiling windows and backing the office.

Do as you wish, he snorted.

Mokuba:

Chapter 494: Don't You Need It Too?

In the end, the president acquiesced to Yuei Vu's public embezzlement and traveling at the company's expense.

No way, if you play cards well, you can do whatever you want.

Besides, President Kaiba didnt have time to pay attention to him right now.

Because the president was busy playing cards with Yugi

At that time, Yueli Vu had already slipped away and was not at the scene. He only heard about it later.

Rumors said that it happened when Duel King Yugi Muto was walking on the way home from school with his good friend Jonouchi. Anyway, it was early after school, and the two discussed going to Yugis grandpas store to open a few packs of cards together, and by the way, play a few friendly games of cards for entertainment.

Suddenly, the painting style changed suddenly, and several black cars braked in front of them with a sharp friction sound.

The men in black rushed out of the door, quickly cleared away the idlers, and surrounded Yugi and Jonouchi. President Seto Kaiba came out of the car like a final boss, holding a Duel Disk in his hand.

Yu Gi ! Give me a duel!

If you dont fight with me today, you wont be able to take half a step away from here!

It was said that the scene was very spectacular at that time, and countless people came after hearing the news. Even the media was alarmed, it was on the news that night, and it even made the headlines the next day.

Yugis face was darkened at the time, and he told Kaiba directly that I am not in the mood to play cards now, so you can go back.

Kaiba was furious.

Dont you think I didnt hear you? Before I came, you just discussed going back to fight this horse bone for 300 rounds, why are you not happy to fight with me?

The president made such a big show, got so many cars and so many people to block Yugi on the street after school. If just one Im not in the mood sentence would make him bring people back home in despair, how embarrassing it was?

no!

The president said that Today, you have to duel with me if you want to play cards, and you have to duel with me even if you dont want to play cards!

If words really didnt work, its not impossible for Kaiba to consider using brute force.

In the end, Yugi helplessly got into the car with him and went back to Kaiba Corp to decide the outcome.

Afterward, the media did not report.

After all, no one inside the Kaiba Corp disclosed how the duel was going and how the outcome would be, and the outside world naturally had no way of knowing.

Of course, there was no need for anyone to disclose it, as everyone could actually guess the result.

After seeing the news the next day, some people started discussing it.

Has Seto Kaiba lost again?

Well, it should be, he has challenged the Duel King so many times, it seems that he has never won

It must be. If Kaiba wins, he will definitely make big publicity, saying that he has won the title of Duel King or something. Since there is no movement until now, he must be crushed by Yugi Muto

I feel pity for him, the president is miserable

And everyones guess was really right.

The president lost again.

That was expected. When playing cards with Yuei Vu, the president may actually have a chance of winning by printing more new cards, improving his own Rank, and optimizing his deck construction.

However, when playing cards with Yugi, no matter how many cards he printed, it was useless. As if Kaiba never win against Yugi was the will of the universe, like Sakuretsu Armor cannot destroy anything.

In fact, Yuei Vu learned about these things from the newspapers later.

At this moment, Yuei Vu has already boarded the special plane to go out again with Chika.

No way, he really couldnt stand Chikas insistance.

After all, Yuei Vu didnt take her with him when he went to Egypt last time, and she was already a little emotional.

It didnt necessarily have any purpose, she just hoped to be by his side more.

When those important people go out, dont they always have to bring a secretary to help them?

Then why cant Yuei Vus little secretary be me?

Unknown to Yuei Vu, Chika has secretly started to work hard in the direction of Secretary. He just felt that this trip was just a casual stroll, cutting some leeks, and there was no big boss like Anubis to fight, so there must be no danger, right?

So he simply took Chika with him, treating it as a sightseeing trip.

At this time, they were 9000 meters above the ground, on the special plane of Kaiba Corp. Chika was sitting quietly by the window, fondly playing with the small pendant around her neck.

Thats right, it is one of the spiritual weapons that Yuei Vu personally refined with alchemy.

The spirit weapons that Yuei Vu sells to the players were all kinds of weird and strange shapes, such as carved elephants and dog heads, special editions of Kuriboh, and limited editions of Blue-Eyes White Dragon ..

In the end, only the design he gave to Chika was the most normal, like a common amulet.

When Yuei Vu came back from Egypt and gave her this casually, Chika almost stopped breathing.

Because she saw Yuei Vus name on this crystal-like pendant!

What does this mean? It means he did it himself!

Chika carefully accepted this small pendant, treating it as a treasure, never letting it leave her body from morning till night, even wearing it next to her body when taking a bath, sleeping, and going to the toilet.

The pendant was made by Yuei Vu himself, and his name was engraved on the pendant. Then I hold it to sleep at night, wouldn't it be the same as hugging Yuei Vu?

So, since accepting this amulet, Chika had insomnia.

For several days in a row, after waking up in the morning, Yuei Vu saw Chika's fair little face was flushed, pink, and moisturized, but the dark circles on her eyes became heavier and heavier, and he didn't know why

Master, master!

The Dark Magician Girl was lying on the window of the plane with her beautiful big eyes open, her long eyelashes moving.

Look at that cloud, it's so strange! It's so white, round, and big!

Like you? Yuei Vu complained in his heart.

Since Chika accepted the setting of Yuei Vu brings his spirits with him, the Dark Magician Girl didn't treat her as an outsider at all. Sometimes when Yuei Vu and Chika were alone in the room, she would come out to breathe.

Sometimes this magic girl gave a feeling like raising a very obedient husky, the kind that if you didn't walk it for a day, it would be blue and thin

However, when the magic girl came out to breathe, she was quite comfortable, but Chika was not.

For example, when the Dark Magician Girl turned around, Chika-chan subconsciously turned her head away.

Nothing else, just dizzy

I don't know if it was an illusion, but she even felt that the Dark Magician Girl looked bigger than the last time she saw her!

What are these things? Second puberty?

This is cheating!

Chika turned her head and took a peek at the blond magical girl who was happily lying on the edge of the window. Her white and slender legs were shaking up and down alternately. They were well-proportioned and straight with a slight sensuality

Seeing only that momentary scene, Chika immediately looked away as if shocked by electricity.

She found that her dizziness from time to time had worsened again, the symptoms were getting worse, and there were more and more triggers.

Before she was just dizzy, but now she was dizzy with buttocks and long legs

Yuei Vu didnt know Chikas little girlish thoughts. If he knew, he might just shake his head helplessly.

How do you compare with her?

She doesnt need a brain, dont you need it too?

Chapter 495: Dark Ruler Ha Des

late at night.

After a days work, Hasegawa Mizuki walked home alone, the sound of high heels hitting the ground echoed crisply in the dark night.

Mizuki was a college student who just graduated and came to work in a company here from another city. Because of work requirements, she needed to work overtime every day until late, and the road was usually empty when she returned.

At first, she was a little scared to walk back home alone at night, but it didnt matter as the number of times increased.

And now her mind was too busy being angry to be afraid.

Its because of the request made by a customer today. They hoped that their department could design the product LOGO bigger and smaller at the same time, which made their entire department very angry.

Why dont you just ask for a colorful black?

Come here, I just put a brick on your forehead, so that you can immediately see what the colorful black is

While walking, she was thinking angrily, until a sharp and strange cry came, which brought her back to reality.

Until then, Mizuki realized that something was wrong with the atmosphere today.

She didnt know whether it was an illusion, but she felt that the street lights on the way back today were not as bright as before, and the lights were dim and powerless. The sky showed a faint and strange blood red, and the sound of the wind sounded like something was screaming.

All the stars were extinguished, only the moonlight, which was as pale as the street lamp, hung quietly in the sky, and the crescent of the moon seemed to be silently laughing. Something seemed to be crawling forward in the dark, and there was a gust of wind blowing.

A street lamp passing by her went out with a mournful snap.

Mizuki was taken aback and almost fell down.

Is it a coincidence?

Because the line was in disrepair for a long time, it happened to go out when I passed by.

What a bad day.

She complained from the bottom of her heart.

Mizuki took a deep breath, trying to calm down her out-of-control heartbeat, and turned her head to move on, but suddenly froze.

For a moment, she felt as if she stopped breathing for a moment.

Dark red background, blood spreading on the ground. One foot slowly landed in the pool of blood, the black shadow was as huge as a mountain, and the shadow cast on the ground completely covered Mizuki.

It was a demon with a blue face. It was dressed in luxurious clothes, with red horns on its head that seemed to be dripping with blood. The decoration on the chest was like a grinning skull, and the blood-red eyes were like a bloody mockery.

Its Hades!

Thats right, it was the monster named Dark Ruler Ha Des. Level 6, ATK 2400, has the ability to negate the effects of monsters destroyed in battle.

Mizukis legs and feet were limp, and she had already sat down on the ground when she regained consciousness.

Stereoscopic images?

Maybe it was just someone playing a really nasty joke on her with the stereo?

This idea was quickly ruled out by her.

Because the demon in front of me is so lifelike!

She felt as if she could feel its presence. The slight tremor it brings to the ground every step it takes, its breath, the icy aura that seems to have pierced into the soul, is desperate.

Its real!

Not only that, the king of the underworld even opened his mouth slowly and spoke.

Its like someone delivered words through the mouth of this monster.

Your soul is mine.

The white skulls mouth seemed to be wide open as if silently mocking in the dark.

There was no one in the silent night, and everything that the naked eye could see was empty. Mizuki wanted to scream but found that her throat was hoarse and she couldnt make any sound.

She closed her eyes in despair.

However, after only a moment, the terrified girl realized it seemed like nothing had happened.

She opened her eyes suspiciously and timidly, and looked at the situation carefully, only to find that the burly monster was forcibly stopped less than one meter in front of her.

It was a hero in green armor that blocked its progress. He had a tall and straight waist, his armor was in a streamlined style, and there was a golden belt around his waist.

But what left the deepest impression on her was the scarf around his neck.

The hero just turned his back to the girl, holding the horns on the monsters head tightly with one hand, blocking its progress with his body. The bright red scarf around his neck was fluttering in the wind, and it was particularly eye-catching under the blood-red night. In the eyes of the girl, it was like a flag fluttering in the wind.

Masked HERO Blast!

Kiai!

Blast kicked hard on the big skull on Hades chest that seemed to be mocking. Hades staggered back, his red eyes narrowed in pain as if he had been seriously injured.

Are you okay? A nice and peaceful voice sounded from her ear.

Mizuki turned her head in a daze, only to find that there was an extra boy beside her at some point at least from the appearance. He was not very old, but the black windbreaker he is wearing reveals a mature and handsome look.

From the powered-on Duel Disk he was wearing and the monster card on the Duel Disk that was being summoned, she quickly guessed that this hero was summoned by him.

The first thing that popped into Mizukis mind was not why dueling monsters could attack her, and why the monsters summoned by this person could materialize, but

There is such a handsome person in the world!

Not only is he good-looking, but more importantly, his temperament, a kind of aura like a strong man holding power and strength, coupled with his clothes fluttering under the green whirlwind, is just like an illustration for a novel.

Moreover, the illustrations are drawn in the image of handsome readers who are reading the book right now!

Maybe there were extra points for the situation of escaping from the dead, anyway, Mizuki became a fan in an instant.

At the same time, she quickly remembered.

Wait, I have seen this little brother.

he is the Duel King!

No way, the face value is too recognizable, it is so easy to expose.

In fact, not only Mizuki, but also the girl behind may have the same opinion as her.

At this time, Chika, who was following Yuei Vu, watched his back quietly, and couldnt help but fell into emotion for the unknown number of times.

Sure enough, no one can compare to my Yuei Vu.

At this moment, Hades screamed strangely and rushed up again after stumbling.

Among Duel Monsters, Hades attack power was 2400, which was higher than that of Blast.

However, Blast came out with a special skill that could reduce the attack power of the enemy monster by half. So if it was processed according to the playing data, Hades was now just a trash fish with an attack power of 1200.

Yuei Vu took two steps forward, blocking the girl who was lying on the ground.

Blast. He said flatly, Finish him.

Masked HERO Blast received the order and rushed forward. He jumped to the air, kicking his legs alternately in a row, each blow had a special effect of a green blast, like a long whip piercing through the air, slamming Hades hard.

Hades was dizzy from being pumped and groaned miserably. It backed up a few steps and raised its head unwillingly, only to see Blasts of wind stepping on its body, using its strength to jump up, and circling in mid-air, its entire body seemed to have turned into a hurricane that cut everything down.

Hurricane Slash!

With just one blow, Hades body was chopped open from the middle, and with a miserable groan, his body exploded into a large cloud of blood mist, and disappeared without a trace under the night.

Chapter 496: The So-Called Duel King

Hades, the king of the underworld, turned into ashes under the special skills of the masked hero. His image became transparent and even disappeared out of thin air.

Masked HERO Blast landed gracefully in a green whirlwind. When the black mist dissipated, the gorgeous light curtain effects gradually dissipated, and the hero also disappeared like a phantom.

Yuei Vu put away the Duel Disk. When he turned his head, Chika was bending over to help the girl who had fallen to the ground to get up.

Are you okay? Chika asked with concern.

Mizuki moved mechanically and was helped up by her, but her gaze stayed on Yuei Vu blankly.

Whats your name? Chika thought she was frightened and silly after all, it didnt seem strange to be frightened for a while after encountering such a thing.

YueiYuei Vu. Mizuki said foolishly.

Chika: ?

Yuei Vu: ?

ha?

Your name is Yuei Vu, so whats my name?

Sending away the dizzy girl, Yuei Vu immediately took Chika back to the hotel.
and booked two rooms!

Yuei Vu said that he was a principled Duel King after all, so he should not mess with the rules.

At that time, Yuei Vu came to the hotel counter and asked the lady at the counter if there were two private rooms. The lady behind the counter smiled and said yes.

Chika felt a bit disappointed.

If only there was only one room left

It could be considered that Mizuki was lucky, she happened to run into Yuei Vu who had cut leeks for a day during the day, and wandered casually with Chika at night, otherwise, the end might be disastrous.

Duel monsters attacking passers-by were relatively rare, but not entirely uncommon.

Power inevitably brought corruption, which may be universal in any world. Extraordinary power would breed ambition and desire, and these emotions would turn into impulses, luring people into darkness.

It was inevitable that duelists who possessed the power of darkness would succumb to their desires and use the power of dueling monsters to do evil.

It's just that this kind of behavior was despised in the entire inner world, and among the duelists in the inner world, it also belonged to the type of can be punished by everyone.

Even the Gouls, which had the most notorious reputation in the world, would not pick on unrelated people at the beginning and only attacked duelists if they wanted to rob cards.

And they generally only grabbed rare cards for ordinary duelists, and only Shadow Duelists who were also from the other world would have danger and also by playing cards.

Randomly attacking passers-by was such a low-value behavior that not many people do it.

At least Yuei Vu was convinced that there was absolutely no such thing in Domino City.

After all, Domino was called the Battle City by the world. Everyone knows that this city was a sanctuary for playing cards. The world's two Duel Kings, Yuei Vu and Yugi, President Kaiba Seto who was under the two of them and above ten thousand people (Kaiba: Damn it), the God of Gambler Jonouchi, and a group of other legendary duelists sit in town, not to mention there was the ever-growing Nightcrawlers World

Nobody dared to play Night Raid in Domino, because God knows if the lucky passerby you randomly draw in the middle of the night would be an expert card player.

Now that Yuei Vu has encountered this matter, he naturally took care of it.

There was also a branch of Nightcrawler World in this city. Yuei Vu harvested leeks at the same time and place during the day, and the organization of the event was arranged by the branch here.

Going back that night, Yuei Vu called the person in charge here. He briefly described the situation tonight and specifically mentioned that the monster that caused the disturbance was Dark Ruler Ha Des, and asked them to check through the intelligence network to see if there was any Shadow Duelist in this area who had such a monster.

After asking, he discovered that the branch here seems to have some information. The head of the branch shared all the information with him very enthusiastically.

It turned out that this was not the first time the other party has committed a crime. Since the beginning of this month, there have been several cases of missing persons in this area. The police had no clue or even been able to connect each case for the time being, but Nightcrawler World has already confirmed that all these cases are related to dueling monsters. .

There were certain unruly Shadow Duelists who were hunting souls.

This matter has long attracted the attention of the association branch, and they have been tracking and investigating for a long time.

We have initially locked the location of the enemy duelist, and it seems that the opponent summons monsters to attack at specific locations every time.

Master Yuei Vu, please dont worry, we will prepare to act tomorrow night, and we will definitely catch them all

Yuei Vu listened to his words, was silent for a moment, and then asked in a calm and non-disputable tone: Where is it?

Through the phone receiver, the person in charge couldnt help but feel a little shocked by the aura of the Duel King.

Dont ask how much the enemy has, just ask where it is.

Is this the Duel King?

Chika, who stayed behind and listened as quietly as a piece of furniture, was equally shocked.

Thats right, Chika-chan had her own room. But she preferred to stay with Yuei Vu until she went to bed at night.

Well, to be honest, she didnt really want to go back when she was sleeping, but the girl might not be brave enough

At this time, she felt that Yuei Vu, who was serious about punishing rape and eliminating evil, was ten times more handsome than usual.

It feels like the big hero in the movie.

The person in charge said that there was no need to bother Yuei Vu to take action, they can handle it by themselves. But seeing Yuei Vus resolute attitude later, he didnt mean to disobey him.

Because through todays short fight, Yuei Vu discovered that the dark power possessed by the holder of Dark Ruler Ha Des was considered to be a strong level among all duelists in the other world.

From this round of confrontation, he could infer that the opponents strength may not be weak. Even if the people in the branch could wipe out the opponent, there may be unnecessary casualties.

Although he was the Duel King, Yuei Vu was still a member of the Nightcrawler World. Since someone else happened to be here, it might as well be a high-end combat force to help deal with it.

If there was a strong person in the opponents camp, he could deal with it.

After Yuei Vu hung up the phone, Chika suddenly said softly: You are a good person.

Huh? Yuei Vu was a little dazed.

What am I doing again?

Why do I receive an a good person card for no reason?

Actually, Yuei Vu didnt mean to pretend to be a hero or something, it just happened to happen, and it was within his ability, so it was just a matter of little effort.

Maybe if he just spends a little more time cleaning up the scourge among these duelists, he may save others beloved children, gentle mothers, or the pillars of the family invisibly.

A grain of ashes from the era is like a mountain when it falls on an individual.

The so-called Duel King was someone who could move mountains and fill seas.

Chapter 497: Remnants

The next day, at night.

The members of the Nightcrawler World dispersed according to the instructions they received in advance and surrounded an abandoned warehouse from all directions.

Here was said to be the hiding place of the soul-hunting Shadow Duelists.

The duelists participating in the siege tonight include local NPCs and players.

But both players and NPCs were very excited at this time.

Because they were notified that the Duel King would also participate in the action today!

Players were needless to say, Yuei Vu was their thickest golden thigh in the entire World Link Online. And for NPCsespecially duelists in the Nightcrawler World, Yuei Vu was also a legendary idol.

It was a great honor in itself to be able to participate in this operation with him.

The players even had more thinking in their hearts.

Perform well this time, try your best to create a sense of presence in front of Yuei Vu-san. In case I caught his eye, he would call me by name, choose me to be a servant or something, wouldnt it be an ascension?

Everyone squeezed their heads one by one, doing ring running tasks, joining the Nightcrawler World, and increasing their contribution to the organization day and night, for what purpose?

Its not for the purpose of hugging golden thighs as soon as possible!

Its just that the figure they were expecting has not yet appeared.

Everyone took their places, and everyone began to wait patiently. They only waited for Yuei Vu-san to arrive at the scene and gave an order, and they immediately rushed forward

Everyone was waiting, when suddenly they heard a deafening explosion in the warehouse in front, and the loud and clear impact echoed in the warehouse.

Everyone became alert immediately.

Whats going on?

Could it be that the gangster realized that he was surrounded and was about to blow himself up?

Then soon someone found out.

Yesits Yuei Vu-san! Yuei Vu-sanhes already in!

What!? x10086

A minute ago, a group of Shadow Duelists in black robes in the warehouse were still surrounding a huge magic circle. The first person was chanting some incantations in a low voice as if performing some ancient ritual.

Nobody foresaw, and no one ever could have imagined, what happened next.

At first, there was a loud noise above everyone's heads, which sounded like the clear and mournful cry of a metal creation being snapped in two. All the Shadow Duelists were taken aback and felt the whole building tremble like an earthquake.

Immediately afterward, there was a louder roar, as if rolling thunder exploded in their ears.

A miserably white light casts from outside the sky, casting pale pathways in the chaotically surging dust in mid-air.

That was the light of the moon.

The roof of the warehouse they were in was completely blown off, like an uncovered shoe box.

An afterimage flew down from the dark night sky and landed in the middle of the warehouse. A burning heat wave visible to the naked eye erupted under the feet, shaking the bewildered Shadow Duelists in the room.

The figure slowly stood up. It was a warrior whose body was mainly red, and flames wrapped around him like a long dragon. The flames licked his armor, and the metallic armor reflected the glint of fire.

Masked HERO Goka!

Not to mention the Shadow Duelists in the warehouse, even the players and NPCs who watched the situation outside were shocked when they saw the roof being blown off.

Yuei Vu-san is too strong, right?

How does his spirit look like a superman?

Masked HERO, its Masked HERO! Someone among the Shadow Duelists in the warehouse suddenly exclaimed.

Its the Duel King!

The Duel King is here!

Although they were frightened, this group of people was also outlaws, so naturally, they would not be frightened so easily. They opened the Duel Disk one after another, each embodied their own dark power and summoned their own monsters to resist.

For example, the blue-skinned female Spirit of the Winds transformed by the wind, the Illusionist Faceless Mage with a golden face that has nothing but a sausage mouth, the more powerful Gigaplant with a big bloody mouth with jagged fangs, and a three-headed hound Flame Cerebrus surrounded by flames

Of course, in the case of direct physical PK, the strength of a monster depended not only on the attack power value on the card but also on the strength of its duelist masters own extraordinary power.

If it was a duel monster spirit, then it also depended on the strength of the spirit itself.

Unfortunately, both Yuei Vus strength and the strength of the spirit Masked HERO were among the top in the world.

The war was about to break out.

The red Masked HERO was caught in the siege of the monsters, rushing from left to right, and every punch and foot has a clear flame trail.

Spirit of the Winds took Gokas punch head-on, and a circle of flames visible to the naked eye exploded on her face, burning her nose. With a scream, the monster dissipated in a gust of hot wind. The damage was directly fed back to the master, and flames jumped out of the black robe of the duelist he was controlling, and he couldnt help rolling on the ground with a miserable howl.

Illusionist Faceless Mages chin was kicked by Gokas flying kick wrapped in flames, the entire sausage mouth was deformed, and it flew off the ground and exploded into a ball of fire.

Goka is unstoppable!

And at the moment when Masked HERO beat up a bunch of monsters all over the place looking for their teeth, another flame storm even more splendid than him rolled up out of thin air, sweeping in mighty force!

It was a sea of fire roaring like a tsunami, and its momentum and power were completely different from that of a large group of miscellaneous fish monsters. It pushed forward indiscriminately, and the monsters touched along the way were involved one after another, and they were burned to ashes in an instant without even a chance to scream.

Extremely domineering, pure golden flames!

Masked HERO Goka also seemed to sense the threat at this moment. He rolled backward, and when he got up, he waved his arms, and the high-temperature flames around his body quickly transformed into agile water currents. The armor on his body also switched with the special effects, and it was cut from fiery red to water blue in a fraction of a second.

Form Change!

Masked HERO Vapor!

Vapor squatted on the ground and stretched out his right palm through the air. There was an engine-like buzzing from the X-shaped belt around his waist, and the power of water flowed along his arms, released from the palm, forming a light blue iris barrier in front of him.

The flames violently impacted, and a harsh hissing sound erupted when it came into contact with the water barrier. A large amount of white gas spread at a speed visible to the naked eye.

After a while, the white air dissipated and the dust settled.

Masked HERO Vapor stood up slowly, and the powerful monster that controlled the power of fire in front of him also showed its true posture.

That was a golden bird. It had a body as noble as gold, with metal wings, bright blue eyes, and unique flames wrapped around its wings. Its posture was just like the legendary noble bird Phoenix.

The Sacred Phoenix of Nephthys!

Its owner, a duelist who was completely different from others in terms of painting style and imposing manner, walked out slowly, wearing a dark blue Duel Disk with a special shape in his hand.

Masked HERO a spirit worthy of being the King of Duel, really powerful. The man said lightly.

At this time, Yuei Vu also appeared behind Vapor.

Thats what I want to say. Yuei Vu said calmly.

This was not his bragging in disguise. Even looking at the entire inner world now, a Shadow Duelist who could fight against the Masked HERO he summoned should already be considered an upstream powerhouse.

Paused, his eyes fell on the unique Duel Disk worn by the other party.

This Duel Disk are you the remnants of Doma?

Chapter 498: Sacred Phoenix

Are you the remnants of Doma? Yuei Vu asked lightly.

Its not that he has sharp eyes, its that Domas dark blue Duel Disk was too conspicuous. Their Duel Disks did not use the system made by Kaiba Corp and were completely independently developed by Doma. Even now, they were out of stock and not for sale on the market, and ordinary people couldnt get them at all.

Of course, Yuei Vu has quite a few in his hand.

Those were all spoils of war captured during the war against Doma.

Although after that war, Doma, the super-large dark organization that once controlled the world, basically collapsed. But after all, such a big organization was impossible to simply disappear.

Yuei Vu guessed that Dartz might have played cards one by one with the heads of state and the CEOs of the worlds top 500 companies, relying on the power of the Shadow Game to control the world.

Because after Dartz collapsed, Domas ruling influence immediately disappeared. Now this name basically became a taboo that everyone despised. The national army vigorously suppressed it, and the duelist organizations also had a zero-tolerance attitude toward it.

It could be said that Domas living conditions were the worst in ten thousand years, basically in a state of dying.

Its too ugly to say remnants, Duel King. The man sneered, My name is Ahmed, I used to be one of Dartzs most trusted subordinates, and I might have been the one who could become the Three Swordsmen of Doma .

Yuei Vu nodded: It doesnt sound like its very powerful.

We are the successors of Dartz-sama and Orichalcos will. He said, Our existence is the continuation of Doma. Even if Dartz-sama falls and Orichalcos power disappears, as long as our faith does not disappear, the day of judgment will come again sooner or later.

That's why you want to hunt souls. Yuei Vu understood, Do you want to continue collecting souls and resurrect the god of Orichalcos?

That's right! Ahmed was very proud when he said this, Just as Dartz-sama has persisted for ten thousand years, we will persist forever.

If we can't do it, we will entrust it to the next generation, and if the next generation can't do it, they will continue to entrust it to their successors. One day, our God will come to this filthy world again and bring judgment to this world!

Yuei Vu focused his eyes and said to himself that your Dartz-sama didn't collect souls like you low-spirited people who raided the streets at night

Besides, are you still believe in the God of Orichalcos?

Your god has been blasted to ashes and wiped out, and the endless cycle of reincarnation has also been brought to an end by the Pharaoh.

No matter how many soul sacrifices are collected, your god will not be able to return.

Wake up, the Qing Dynasty is dead!

Duel King Yuei Vu, I have long expected that we would not be able to avoid you on our road to revival. Ahmed said coldly, raising the Duel Disk, I also wanted to test whether your strength is really as good as the rumors say and did you really defeat Dartz-sama on your own.

Rumor? Yuei Vu smiled casually, It seems that I am really underestimated that's fine.

He looked around and glanced at the duelists in the room next to him who had been beaten to pieces by his Masked HERO.

It seems that you are the only one who can fight here. Yuei Vu said lightly, If I solve you, tonight's job will be almost done. Then let's make a quick decision and solve you within five minutes.

Ahmed narrowed his eyes: Five minutes? Even if you are a Duel King, being too complacent will lead to destruction.

Try it and you will know.

At this time, the people on standby outside had already poured in but they basically had nothing to do when they entered the door.

But they happened to have a front-row seat to a big show.

A group of people suddenly became excited.

Watch the battle of the Duel King in the front row!

This is not an ordinary performance match, but a Shadow Game of real life and death!

Duel! x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Ahmed, LP 4000

Im the one who strikes first, draw! Ahmed sneered, Ill show you here, my phoenixs inextinguishable flame! I summon the Defender of Nephthys in attack position!

A whirlwind of flames, from which appeared a woman wearing a shiny golden armor and holding a golden giant sword, with a bright red cloak behind her.

Defender of Nephthys, ATK 1400

The effect of the Defender of Nephthys is activated! Ahmed drew out two cards in his hand, During my Main Phase, I can destroy 1 card in my hand, and Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower Nephthys monster from the hand, except Defender of Nephthys!

Bring it on! Hand of Nephthys!

A burst of flames swept through his hand, blasting a card in his hand into golden powder. At that moment, there seemed to be a sharp phoenix cry in the void, the phantom of the golden bird was fleeting, and the holy golden flame burst out into space for a brief moment.

Immediately after that came a mage who controlled the flames. She was slim and dark-skinned, and her golden headdress covered most of her face.

Hand of Nephthys, ATK 600

But compared to the two young ladies on the field, Yuei Vu paid more attention to the hand card he just destroyed by the effect.

That was, the fleeting, short-lived flame phantom just now.

The card that was destroyed just now If I guessed right, it is the Sacred Phoenix of Nephthys, isnt it? Yuei Vu said lightly.

Oh? As expected of the Duel King, you have good eyesight. Ahmed smiled proudly, Not bad. After the Sacred Phoenix of Nephthys is destroyed by a card effect, it can be Special summoned from the graveyard during my next Standby Phase.

Also, when Special Summoned by this effect, all Spell and Trap Cards on the field are destroyed!

It means that no matter what formation I leave behind in the next turn, it will all be wiped out by your turn?

Exactly. Ahmed sneered, But you dont need to wait until then if you want to admire the noble figure of the phoenix.

He raised his voice and yelled loudly: Hand of Nephthys effect is activated! By sacrificing herself and another monster on the field, she can directly special summon 1 Sacred Phoenix of Nephthys from the hand or deck!

He raised his palm and gestured to the two ladies in front of him.

I take the Hand of Nephthys and Defender of Nephthys as sacrifices!

Two monsters rose from the ground one after another, turning into two pillars of fire that soared into the sky. The burning flames merged together, and the flames soared into the sky, like erupting volcanoes.

Nirvana reborn from the eternal flames, the immortal firebird, descend here now!

When Ahmed lifted up the card, his thick arms seemed to be wrapped in circles of burning fire snakes.

Sacred Phoenix of Nephthys, descend here!

Chapter 499: Power of The Monarchs

Sacred Phoenix of Nephthys, descend here!

The golden divine bird was conceived from the flames, and its whole body was surrounded by golden flames as if the entire land would be burned to ashes.

Sacred Phoenix of Nephthys, ATK 2400

The flames of the phoenix will burn you into ashes. Ahmed drew all three cards from his hand, Set three cards, I end my turn.

He paused, raised the corners of his mouth, and sneered slightly: In the next round, another Sacred Phoenix of Nephthys in my graveyard will be resurrected. Before that, any arrangements you make will be powerless.

However, there was no fluctuation on Yuei Vu's face, and he even wanted to laugh a little.

This statement has already exposed your ignorance of this card game.

My turn, draw. After drawing a card, Yuei Vu smiled slightly, Sure enough, this deck is better against you. I summon the Makyura the Destructor in attack position!

The executioner in purple armor appeared on the field, his hands were as cold as steel knives, and his face had a single ice-blue eye as if he looked at everything on the field without any temperature.

Makyura the Destructor, ATK 1600

Spell Card Monster Gate! Yuei Vu drew a card from his hand, Tribute 1 monster; reveal cards from the top of the Deck until I reveal a monster that can be Normal Summoned.

Special Summon it, also send the remaining cards to the Graveyard.

Ahmed chuckled: What kind of monsters can be summoned are completely left to fate? Is this the duel of the Duel King?

You will know soon if this is the case. Yuei Vu said lightly, with a wave of his arm, I tribute the Makyura the Destructor, and the monster gate will be activated!

The executioner's icy figure dissipated from the field into a faint blue starlight, and a light blue vortex opened in midair, like a door leading to the starry sky. The other end of the door was rippling with starlight as if leading to a deep and unknown world.

Yuei Vu drew five cards from the deck in one go and sent them to the graveyard one by one. It wasn't until the sixth card that he found a monster that met the condition of can be Normal Summoned.

The card I drew is Destiny HERO Malicious. Yuei Vu showed this card, I will special summon it in attack position!

A dark shadow descended from the blue starlight gate, a dark hero of destiny descended from the sky, with a black D label prominently printed on his chest, and his broad wings were like two shields.

[Destiny HERO Malicious, ATK 800]

Is it still a HERO deck? Ahmed chuckled.

No. Yuei Vu drew another card from his hand, The effect of Makyura the Destructor. During the turn this card is sent to the Graveyard, I can activate Trap Cards from my hand.

According to this effect, I activate the Continuous Trap Ultimate Offering from the hand!

A red trap card appeared on the field in front of him, and dripping blood seemed to drip from the card.

Ahmed frowned: A card that increases the number of normal summons

With the effect of Ultimate Offering, by paying 500 LP, I can conduct an additional Normal Summon. Yuei Vu said, I will pay 500 LP and use the Destiny HERO Malicious as a sacrifice!

The Monarch born from the ice and snow

Mobius the Frost Monarch!

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 3500

The storm of ice and snow rolled up, and a white armor appeared in it. The armor shone bright white under the biting cold wind. The burly Monarch came in the wind and snow, his dark blue cloak flying in the strong wind.

Mobius the Frost Monarch, ATK 2400

Its actually the Ice Monarch!?! Ahmed was stunned.

All the players behind also exploded.

Monarch deck?

When does Yuei Vu-san have a new deck?

Actually, this deck was not unique to him now. After all, when he played against Doma, he had fought against a small boss who used the Monarch deck.

After winning the game, that deck would naturally go into Yuei Vus pocket

Its just that he has too many cards. Although he has been throwing it in the warehouse before, he has never taken it out and used it. Recently, there happened to be a few more cards of the Monarch series in the card draw pool, so he simply assembled such a deck.

By the way, continue to make a wave of publicity in front of the players to prepare for the new card box in the future.

So thats it, is it Aarons card? Ahmed quickly remembered the colleague who used Monarch deck at the timebecause he heard that guy happened to be defeated by the Duel King, so he also had an impression.

But he didn't care, he snorted and said, Is it for humiliation to use such a deck against me? This arrogance will be your biggest mistake, Duel King.

The effect of Mobius the Frost Monarch! Yuei Vu ignored him, When this card is Tribute Summoned, I can target up to 2 Spell/Trap Cards on the field; destroy those targets.

I will destroy the two cards in your back row!

The Ice Monarch swung his huge fist in the air, and the violent fist wind rolled up the silver-white ice and snow. The overwhelming snowflakes lingered, attached to the two spiral tornadoes, like two silver dragons rushing out!

Both set cards were frozen and shattered under the power of Meobius ice and snow. From the glimpsed picture, one of the destroyed cards was the Call of the Haunted, a Continuous Trap that could resurrect monsters in the GY, while the other card was the one which has been cursed by the will of the universe Sakuretsu Armor

Two traps were destroyed in one breath, but Ahmed still didn't look panicked: However, with the attack power of the Ice Monarch, its only comparable to my Sacred Phoenix of Nephthys.

The effect of Destiny HERO Malicious in the GY. The card in Yuei Vus GY area popped up, I can banish this card from my GY; Special Summon 1 Destiny HERO Malicious from my Deck!

Come on, the second Malicious!

The phantom of the Malicious in the GY turned into a spot of light and dissipated, a beam of golden light flew out from the deck, and another Malicious spread its wings and landed on the field, roaring wildly.

Destiny HERO Malicious, ATK 800

The effect of Ultimate Offering is activated again! Pay 500 LP, and add another Normal Summon!

Yuei Vu, LP 3500 LP 3000

Ahmed's eyelids twitched: You actually continue to add more times?

I use Destiny HERO Malicious as a sacrifice! Yuei Vu showed another card, Shaking the world with mighty power, the Monarch of the earth

Granmarg the Rock Monarch!

With a loud roar, the earth was cracked, and the moment the heavy body fell, a tomb of dust was aroused. The golden Monarch stood upright, like a mountain made of steel.

Granmarg the Rock Monarch, ATK 2400

Ahmed's face changed slightly: In one turn, both the Monarch of Ice and the Monarch of Earth were summoned

He was not very familiar with Aaron, who used the Monarch deck in the organization back then, but he has fought against him before and occasionally has the opportunity to watch his match.

He was very sure that in the hands of the previous owner, the strength of this Monarch deck was far from such a powerful power!

The effect of Granmarg the Rock Monarch! Yuei Vu pointed to the opponents backcourt, If this card is Tribute Summoned: Target 1 Set card on the field; destroy that target!

I will destroy your last set card!

The heavy fist of the golden Monarch slammed down, and the earth suddenly exploded! The rift spread forward at a speed visible to the naked eye, extending to the bottom of the set card in one breath, and the abyss under the rift was about to swallow it!

But Ahmed waved his hand: Open the set card: Trap Card Unbreakable Spirit! If I control only 1 face-up monster: Target that monster; until the end of this turn, it gains ATK equal to the ATK of the monster the opponent currently controls with the lowest ATK!

Yuei Vu said lightly: I have Mobius the Frost Monarch and Granmarg the Rock Monarch on the field, and both their attack power are 2400.

Exactly! Ahmed sneered, So the attack power of the Sacred Phoenix of Nephthys has increased by the value of the Monarchs attack power, which is 2400 points!

With a high-pitched and sharp phoenix cry, the phoenix raised its head and screamed, as if the fire that distorted the space burst out with its spread wings, and even the ice and snow of the Monarch seemed to be melted by it.

Sacred Phoenix of Nephthys, ATK 2400 ATK 4800

Hahahaha! Ahmed laughed, How is it? This is a higher attack power than God of Destruction, can you surpass this value?

(Obelisk gave a dislike, and Blue Eyes White Dragon gave a like)

Yuei Vu looked expressionlessly at the Phoenix God, whose attack power had soared to nearly 5,000, and said lightly, Who said that I want to surpass it?

Nani? Ahmed was startled.

In the graveyard, the effect of the second Destiny HERO Malicious! Yuei Vu said, Banish this card from my GY; Special Summon 1 Destiny HERO Malicious from my Deck!

Another phantom of a Malicious disappeared, a beam of golden light flew out from the deck, and the third Malicious roared down from the sky!

Destiny HERO Malicious, ATK 800

Then activate the effect of Ultimate Offering again! Pay 500 life points and add an additional number of normal summons!

Yuei Vu, LP 3000 LP 2500

Uhdo you want to!? Ahmed was startled.

I use the third Destiny HERO Malicious is a sacrifice, Tribute Summon! Yuei Vu shouted, Born from the abyss of darkness, the Monarch in charge of darkness!

Caius the Shadow Monarch!

Like the darkness erupting from hell, the evil Monarch rides out of that darkness! He has scarlet eyes, a steel helmet with demonic horns, and his huge body is completely covered by solid black armor.

Caius the Shadow Monarch, ATK 2400

Ahmed was dumbfounded.

One turn three Monarchs!?

The effect of Caius the Shadow Monarch! Yuei Vu raised his hand, If this card is Tribute Summoned: Target 1 card on the field; banish that target! I will banish the Sacred Phoenix of Nephthys!

The Evil Monarch raised his palms, and between his palms was a dark storm! The dark and evil power condensed into a huge sphere, and black lightning rolled in it, which seemed to imply an entirely independent dimension.

The black light bullet exploded, hitting the noble phoenix head-on! The Phoenix, whose attack power was close to five thousand, tried its best to resist, and the flames all over its body were shining like never before, but it was completely powerless in the face of this absolute evil force.

In just a moment, its body was absorbed into the vortex along with the golden divine flame along with the distortion of the dimension, and it fell into the depths of darkness and disappeared.

Ahmed stood there dumbfounded, transfixed.

Three set cards, the Phoenix God with an attack power of 4800, and even a Phoenix God who was ready to be reborn was waiting in the GY

It should have been an iron wall-like lineup, a situation that must be unbreakable.

But all his arrangements were cleared up in just one round.

Is this the strength of the Duel King?

Battle! Yuei Vu raised his hand, Mobius the Frost Monarch, Granmarg the Rock Monarch, Caius the Shadow Monarch, attack directly!

The extremely cold snow curtain, the impact that swept against the ground, and the pitch-black thunderstorm, three forces with completely different attributes but equally domineering came to face each other. Ahmed stared blankly at the gorgeous light effects engulfing him, his mind went blank.

Ahmed, LP 4000 LP 0

OTK!

Chapter 500: What Is His Origin?

OTK!

The attack of the three monarchs wiped out Ahmed's LP in one breath. The Doma duelist looked at his empty field, and before he could sort out his thoughts, he was gone.

Who I am? Where am I?

What am I doing here?

It's a pity that he seemed to have no chance to figure out this series of philosophical questions after all. Because he was immediately engulfed by the attack of the three monarchs, and he was directly blasted into a mosaic.

Although there was no The Seal of Orichalcos, this duel itself was a traditional Shadow Game. And because both sides were considered masters among the Shadow Fuelists, the level of competition was not low.

If you lost in the Shadow Game, you would naturally need to pay the corresponding price.

In this duel, the price was not only the soul but also the body.

The life value returned to zero, and Ahmed's consciousness began to blur. He could clearly feel that his physical body was collapsing, and it seemed that he could no longer maintain the existence of his soul. His vitality continued to flow towards the surroundings like running water, and his existence was about to collapse.

When this gentleman was on the verge of death, it seemed that he had finally accepted the fact that he had been killed.

I lost. Before disappearing, his eyes became fierce again, But don't be too complacent, Duel King. Doma is immortal, so is the god of Orichalcos! There will be others who inherit our will, and sooner or later, our god will reign over this world again!

Seeing his serious and fierce appearance, Yuei Vu couldn't help but think about it.

Actually It might be really easy to destroy a man.

Under the bewildered eyes of the dying Ahmed, Yuei Vu stepped forward slowly, came to his side, leaned into his ear and whispered.

Actually, there is no Orichalcos in the world.

Ahmed: ???

At the last moment of his death, the man showed a stunned expression.

As if he had exhausted the last of his strength, he desperately grabbed Yuei Vu's shoulders, his eyes seemed to use his remaining soul to desire Yuei Vu to give an explanation, explaining what this sentence meant.

It's a pity that he didn't have time to ask this question after all, and his body and soul were all wiped out under the punishment of the dark game. At the same time, it took away his shock as if his worldview collapsed.

Seeing this loyal Doma believer disappear before his eyes, Yuei Vu couldn't help but lift his chin and began to reflect on himself.

Is it really going too far?

Im really a villain.

The leader was finished, and the remaining group of small fish and shrimps naturally couldn't make any waves. There were also a few people who would rather die than surrender, and they were willing to sacrifice their lives for Doma, determined to fight to the end.

The spirit of a warrior was still commendable.

It's a pity that they were not good enough.

With Yuei Vu leading the charge, tonight's raid went unbelievably smoothly. Everyone felt that they didn't encounter any decent resistance, and they didn't even feel that it had started, it was over.

So everyone was advocating again.

Yuei Vu-san is really a god!

The NPCs bragged from the bottom of their hearts, admiring the Duel King of their own organization.

Using a random deck to OTK a strong opponent, who is not afraid of our Duel King?

The players also tried their best to blow, not only blowing, but also desperately bootlicking.

However, their focus may be different from that of NPCs.

Monarch series!

The screwball players were eager to see through, looking at the majestic monarchs controlled by Yuei Vu, each of them couldn't help but salivate again.

The longer they bootlicked, the more they realized that Yuei Vu-san had too many good things in his hands. If you could get close to this golden thigh, even if he only leaked a little bit of good things from his fingers, it would be enough for you for a long time.

But the problem was Yuei Vu-san has so many good things, but many of them were not for sale!

Gladiator Beasts, Magician Girls, Monarchs, all these things made the players anxious and itchy, they wanted it so badly, but there was nothing they could do.

Some people in the forum were complaining, saying that Yuei Vu-san was very sloppy.

Why? Because he obviously had many things, but he just didn't give them to you. He had to wait until you want it too much to give it to you.

Seeing Ahmed disappear into ashes, Yuei Vu has almost become accustomed to picking up his Duel Disk and deck, and seeing the other Doma remnants quickly subdued, he can't help but fall into thinking.

Doma, who should have been dormant for a long time, suddenly jumped out of sight again, which made him suddenly have some inexplicable premonition.

He thought about it, and decided that this journey of leeks should be shelved for a while.

He was going to return to Domino ahead of schedule.

The same night, another city.

Ahmed is an idiot!

The one who is roaring angrily, named Amir, was one of the highest-ranking leaders among the remaining Doma remnants in the world.

At this time, he was pacing back and forth in an ancient-style hall with his hands behind his back.

Act low-key, low-key I have emphasized to him so many times, why cant he understand this word?

At this time, a subordinate couldnt help but wanted to remind him: Boss, you thought our soul collection progress was too slow last month, and saying that we were too cowardly to speed up the progress

But for the sake of his own life, this one still didnt say a word in the end.

How many times have I said that the most important thing for us now is to keep a low profile! He said angrily, Being noticed by that Muto Yugi, by Yuei Vu, by Pegasus, by Kaiba Seto, or we were spotted by Nightcrawler World were dead!

A large group of subordinates lowered their heads and did not dare to speak, but in the bottom of their hearts, they were all thinking that it would be too miserable for us. Doma, which once was the mastermind behind the world, the promoter of human civilization, Doma, has fallen

However, before the words were finished, a voice came from the door: Lord Amir! There are intruders!

What? That idiot Ahmed leaked the information, and the Duel King Yuei Vu came to the door!?

While exclaiming, Amir turned his head and prepared to run away, and at the same time removed the Duel Disk from his hand.

What? You said why did you have to remove the Duel Disk while running?

Because he heard that the legendary Duel King Yuei Vu was particularly interested in the Duel Disk, and if he was caught up by the opponent, he would not be able to run away, so he wanted to try a gamble and throw down his own Duel Disk to see if there was any hope to run away

However, before he had time to let go of his feet, the little brother just said again: Its not the Duel King! Its a duelist that I havent seen before!

Ah? Not Yuei Vu?

Right, he just took over Ahmeds lair tonight, which is more than a thousand miles away from here. If he can fly over, he is really the Superman.

Amir immediately stopped running and turned around majestically.

Hmph! He held his head high, Although Doma is no longer as powerful as before, not everyone can come up to bully me! Even if he is the Duel King himself, he has to weigh himself!

All the subordinates looked at it falsely.

Boss, dont think that we are all blind and cant see that you are just about to run away

Hahahahaha!!

Before anyone arrived, a burst of laughter came in first.

A white-haired boy came in, he looked a bit like a student, but his expression was a bit too evil for a student, giving him the feeling of a bad boy.

He has a head of white hair with a flowing hairstyle, especially the two bumps on his forehead, which feel like a pair of rabbit ears.

Oh? Is this what the once famous Doma looks like now? The young man sneered, Isn't it too miserable?

Amir snorted softly: Maybe we are not as good as before, but not just any small fish or shrimp can Before he finished speaking, he immediately swallowed the second half of the words back into his stomach.

Because his eyes widened in astonishment, his eyes fixed on the gleaming round pendant hanging on the young man's chest.

That was one of the seven great artifacts at the top of the world, the Millennium Ring!

Amir immediately became alert again.

This boy what is his origin!?
