Chapter 531: Black Luster Soldier - Super Soldier

"Then come to my turn again."

Another stone slab fell heavily, landing in front of Black Luster Soldier.

He glanced lightly, then raised his hand, and the ground under his feet seemed to open up a dark vortex leading to the underworld under that command.

"The stone slab of the trap in the cemetery, the Super Soldier Rebirth', is exiled, and its effect is released!" Black Luster Soldier said, "Through the power of the magic on the slab of trap, I can recover the slab of the Black Luster Soldier' in the cemetery."

Super Soldier Rebirth (Trap Card): Banish this card from your Graveyard, then target 1 "Black Luster Soldier" monster in your Graveyard; add it to your hand.

Yuei Vu didn't remember that the other party used this kind of trap card in this duel, so it should have been discarded to the GY by "Card Destruction" before.

The slab of the trap was sucked away by the black hole and disappeared into the other dimension. The stone slab of "Black Luster Soldier" flew out of the vortex leading to the tomb area, and stood in front of the deity.

"Then I'm going to use the spell Trade-In!"

The slab with the brand new spell turned over.

Trade-In (Spell Card): By discarding 1 Level 8 monster; draw 2 cards.

Therefore, here Black Luster Soldier would re-discard his own slab "Black Luster Soldier", and two brand new slabs would descend from the sky again.

Then he looked at Yuei Vu, his tone sounded more serious than ever.

"You and your servants are the best fighters. Regardless of the outcome of this trial, you have already received my highest respect."

oh?

When Yuei Vu heard this, his immediate reaction was "I won't be sleepy if you say this.JPG".

Does that mean, regardless of whether the final result was a win or a loss, I'll get a "Black Luster Soldier" card?

To be honest, Yuei Vu didn't really care about winning or losing, he just wanted his body

The Black Luster Soldier changed the subject, and said in a deep voice: "Then as an answer, I will also remove all the seals, and take out everything I have now!"

Ritual Spell Super Soldier Synthesis! "

The stone slab flew into the sky and shattered under the force of the expansion from the inside out. The cyclone shattered the stone slab, and the golden energy erupting from it seemed to form an imaginary sword, piercing straight into the sky and sinking into the chaos. Some kind of extremely powerful existence was being conceived in the original power of the world.

Super Soldier Synthesis: By sending 1 LIGHT and 1 DARK monster (1 from your hand and 1 from your Deck) to the Graveyard, whose total Levels exactly equal 8; Ritual Summon any "Black Luster Soldier" Ritual Monster from your hand or Graveyard.

Here he chose the "Beginning Knight" which was retrieved in the last round in his hand, and the "Dark Blade" in the deck.

Souls of light and darkness intertwine and fly into the primordial chaos of heaven and earth. The golden light penetrated from the sky to the underworld, awakening the invincible warrior sleeping in the cemetery!

The super warrior of chaos has come again!

[Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier, ATK 3000]

It's not just the resurrection. The super warrior who came again was also completely different from the previous one. Although his body still seemed to be the same size, the pressure on him was like a giant standing upright, making people dare not even look up.

Yuei Vu let out a sigh of relief.

This time it's a little trickier.

When the "Beginning Knight" was used to Ritual Summon any "Black Luster Soldier" Ritual Monster, the summoned monster would unlock further abilities.

In addition to its own original effects, the current super warrior has gained two new effects:

Once per turn: You can target 1 monster your opponent controls; banish it.

When this card destroys an opponent's monster by battle and sends it to the Graveyard: You can activate this effect; this card can make a second attack in a row.

The ability was similar to that of "Black Luster Soldier Envoy of the Beginning", but even stronger!

Yuei Vu glanced at the "Absolute Zero" on his field, and remained calm.

Although the Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier was very powerful, even so, he could easily break through the defense of Absolute Zero. Whether the Elemental HERO was banished or destroyed by battle, it would trigger his devastating effect.

Seeming to see through Yuei Vu's thoughts, the Black Luster Soldier immediately waved his hand: "Then use this spell to summon a new weapon for the Super Warrior, the Power of the Guardians', to bless the Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier!"

Yuei Vu: ""

Well, it seems that this problem was also solved by him.

Power of the Guardians (Equip Spell): If an attack is declared involving the equipped monster: Place 1 Spell Counter on this card. The equipped monster gains 500 ATK/DEF for each Spell Counter on this card. If the equipped monster would be destroyed by battle or card effect, you can remove 1 Spell Counter from your field, instead.

To put it simply, the freezing ability of "Absolute Zero" was blocked.

"This is the end." Black Luster Soldier shouted, "Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier, attack Elemental HERO Absolute Zero'!

At this moment, under the blessing of the Power of the Guardians', the super warrior's power will be amplified! "

[Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier, ATK 3000 ATK 3500]

The sword of the super warrior was raised, and the red-hot sword energy was actively attached to the long sword that was shining with red light. The sword energy was like a flame gushing out of a welding torch!

Light and darkness intersected, and the pure chaotic force field hit the ice and snow domain, and the ice crystals shattered! The snow-white hero was cut to pieces by the vertical and horizontal sword energy, and was smashed to pieces under the sword light!

Yuei Vu, LP 2300 LP 1300

"The effect of Absolute Zero." Yuei Vu said, "When he leaves the field, all monsters on your field will be destroyed!"

"It's useless." The Black Luster Soldier confronted, "Power of the Guardians' will protect the warrior it shelters from any form of attack!"

Power of the Guardians could replace the destruction of the equipped monster by removing 1 Spell Counter placed on this card, but at the same time, the attack power of the equipped monster would also decrease accordingly.

[Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier, ATK 3500 ATK 3000]

"But at this moment, the Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier's ability is also activated!" The Black Luster Soldier raised his voice, "When the opponent's servant is defeated, its master will be backlashed by its power!"

Absolute Zero's attack power was 2500. Taking this damage would directly defeat Yuei Vu!

"It was indeed a hearty battle," the Black Luster Soldier said indifferently, "but it's almost time to come to an end."

"Not yet." Yuei Vu said, "Activate Trap Card Option Hunter! When a monster I control is destroyed by battle and sent to the Graveyard, I gain Life Points equal to the original ATK of the destroyed monster.

Absolute Zero's attack power is 2500, so I restore 2500 LP. "

Yuei Vu, LP 1300 LP 3800

The sword energy of the super warrior struck through the air and exploded in front of Yuei Vu. A huge force rapidly expanded in front of him, and the scorching shock wave almost blasted his body off the ground.

Yuei Vu, LP 3800 LP 1300

"Not bad." The Black Luster Soldier nodded slightly, "But this can't change the result. The Black Luster Soldier who used the Beginning Knight' as a ritual sacrifice also lifted the seal of further abilities.

After defeating the opposing minion, he can attack again. "

The super warrior raised his sword, the red light flickering on the blade, ready to strike at any time.

Yuei Vu's field was empty, it looked like he still couldn't escape the fate of being defeated here after eating the additional attack of the super warrior!

"It's not over yet." Yuei Vu said, "The moment Absolute Zero was destroyed, I also activated this trap card Hero Signal! When a monster I control is destroyed by battle and sent to the Graveyard, Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower Elemental HERO' monster from my hand or Deck.

Bring it on! Elemental HERO Shadow Mist! "

The hero-calling signal was thrown into the air, and a cloud of black mist flew out of his deck, transforming into a female hero in a black outfit, and squatting on the field in a defensive posture.

[Elemental HERO Shadow Mist, Defense Power 1500]

"The effect of Shadow Mist!" Yuei Vu said, "If this card is Special Summoned: I can add 1 Change' Quick-Play Spell Card from my Deck to my hand. What I want to add to the hand is the Quick-Play Spell Mask Change'!"

"Have you managed to summon a wall to block?"

The Black Luster Soldier lightly closed his eyes and nodded slightly.

"Then I use the Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier to attack again!"

The super warrior flashed forward, drawing red hot lines on the long sword and picking it out. It was an extremely high-speed sword, and the light of the sword seemed to transcend the constraints of time and space!

The Shadow Mist stepped back several steps in a row, trying to avoid it, but it was meaningless neither defense nor dodge would work in front of the sword that opened up the world. The moment the sword beam shot out seemed to fill the entire world, and it was inevitable.

The poor heroine just showed up, and she hastily left the stage under the power of this sword.

Yuei Vu raised his arm to resist part of the aftermath of the impact, and said, "But because it's a defense, my health will not be reduced."

"But with the ability of Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier', you will be backlashed by the servants he knocked down."

Shadow Mist's attack power was 1000, in other words, it would deal 1000 points of damage.

Yuei Vu, LP 1300 LP 300

"And with the blessing of the Power of the Guardians', the power of the super warrior has once again increased."

[Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier, ATK 3000 ATK 3500]

Although thrilling, at least it dismantled all the opponent's offensive tricks.

Then it's time to counterattack.

All forms of the Black Luster Soldier actually shared common traits. They could banish the opponent's hand cards, banish the opponent's monsters, attack the opponent again when they destroy the opponent's monster, and even give the opponent additional damage equal to the attack power of the destroyed monster.

Although extremely powerful, all of these were offensive effects without exception.

Black Luster Soldier was good at sweeping through obstacles, bursting out in an instant, and seeking to defeat the enemy with a single blow with their swords. But he had neither the resistance to card effects, nor could he negate the opponent's card effects, interfere with the opponent's actions, and his own attack power was only as much as that of a Blue-Eyes White Dragon, which was not strong enough to stand on the field.

This made his offensive ability very strong, but his defensive ability was not that good.

Seeming to see through Yuei Vu's thoughts, the Black Luster Soldier chuckled.

"It is true that I may be relatively weak in defense, but it is not so easy to break through my defense."

He gestured, and the slab flipped in front of him.

"Use the spell Swords of Revealing Light!"

A white light lit up in the sky, and turned into three brilliant swords that descended from the sky, and fell straight in front of Yuei Vu, like a cage of light that bound his entire field!

With the Swords of Revealing Light, the opposing player could not declare an attack within three turns.

In this way, Yuei Vu's attack in the next turn would be completely blocked. In the next opponent's turn, the super warrior's destructive power would completely determine the outcome!

Chapter 532: Beginning of Heaven and Earth

Indeed, Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier in this state was quite powerful. It could directly eliminate the opponent's monster, had the ability of secondary attack and additional effect damage, and has the protection of "Power of the Guardians".

No, if Yuei Vu couldn't solve the "Swords of Revealing Light" before that, he didn't even have the chance to launch an attack here.

With 300 LP remaining, Yuei Vu had no doubt that if it came to the opponent's next round, the super warrior's attack could win the duel.

"It's a little troublesome." Yuei Vu heaved a sigh of relief and said to himself.

That being the case then it's fine to settle it within this turn.

"My turn!"

As soon as the card was drawn, Yuei Vu glanced sideways, and couldn't help but hook his mouth.

It's just in time.

"I activate a Spell Card from my hand." He waved his hand, and a new Spell Card that was just released in the past two days appeared in front of him, "Spell Card A Hero Lives!"

No one else, including the Black Luster Soldier, has figured out the origin of this card, but the onlookers have already exploded.

"Nani? A Hero Lives!"

"Yuei Vu-san 6666, have you fast-forwarded to Hero's Arrival?"

A Hero Lives, the card once has single-handedly rewritten the status of the HERO deck, making countless players in the environment see the super search of HERO and want to go straight to quit the game.

"If I control no face-up monsters, I can pay half of my LP; Special Summon 1 Level 4 or lower Elemental HERO' monster from my Deck."

Yuei Vu, LP 300 LP 150

While speaking, the card he wanted had been automatically ejected from the deck. Yuei Vu took away the card, and the deck was automatically shuffled.

"Come on, Elemental HERO Stratos!"

In the whirlwind of milky white, the hero wrapped in blue armor is suspended in the air with his arms around him. That was the second sky brother who appeared in this duel!

[Elemental HERO Stratos, Attack Power 1800]

"The effect of Stratos!" Yuei Vu said, "When this card is Normal or Special Summoned, add 1 HERO' monster from my Deck to my hand. I add the Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier' to the hand.

Then I normal summon "Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier"! "

Water splashed, and the hero in the blue tights returned to the field. The blue water flow and the whirlwind rolled up by Stratos each occupied half of the field.

[Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, ATK 1400]

"The effect of Liquid Soldier!" Yuei Vu said, "When this card is Normal Summoned: I can target 1 Level 4 or lower HERO' monster in my GY, except Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier'; Special Summon it.

Come back to the field, Elemental HERO Shadow Mist! "

The vortex opened like a black hole, a pitch-black whirlwind erupted, and the Shadow Mist girl who had just left the stage last time swirled out.

[Elemental HERO Shadow Mist, ATK 1000]

"The effect of Shadow Mist!" Yuei Vu drew a card from the deck and showed it, "If this card is Special Summoned: I can add 1 Change' Quick-Play Spell Card from my Deck to my hand.

I added Form Change' to my hand. "

The Black Luster Soldier's expression moved slightly.

Three monsters were summoned in one breath, and the number of cards in the hand remained unchanged

Black Luster Soldier have experienced hundreds of battles and fought against countless strong men, but this kind of thing was really unheard of for him.

The man in front of me is extraordinarily strong!

"Field Spell Fusion Gate!"

The fusion field was activated, and a black vortex appeared in midair immediately, in which there were looming electric snakes churning.

"As long as this card exists on the field, Fusion Monsters can be Fusion Summoned without using Polymerization'. The Fusion Material Monsters used for this Fusion Summon are removed from play instead of being sent to the Graveyard.

I fuse the Elemental HERO Stratos' and Elemental HERO Liquidman' on the field! "

"Are you coming again?"

While speaking, the Black Luster Soldier was not only not angry, but actually had a faint urge to boil the blood that had been silent for many years in his veins and awaken the fighting spirit hidden deep in his body.

Probably, for any mighty warrior in the world, the true ephemeral excitement could only be sought when confronting an opponent who was as strong as oneself and both sides fought to their best.

This may be the reason why President Kaiba was so obsessed with Yugi and Yusei.

"The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO' monster + 1 WATER monster! Fusion Summon Elemental HERO Absolute Zero! "

The blizzard that seemed to be out of control, the power of ice came to the audience, and the big brother-level Elemental HERO who controlled the low temperature appeared again!

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

"Then I activate Quick-Play Spell Form Change!" Yusei shouted, "Return 1 HERO' Fusion Monster I control to the Extra Deck, then Special Summon from my Extra Deck, 1 Masked HERO' monster with the same Level as that monster's original Level, but with a different name!

I return Elemental HERO Absolute Zero' to the deck, transform!

Cut through the darkness with the brilliant sword and bring light

Level 8, Masked HERO Koga! "

The double special effects of light and ice surrounded Absolute Zero and a majestic cold burst from his body in all directions. The golden armor covered his body, and the golden light outlined the shape of fangs on his forearm, condensing into a sharp and shining golden blade!

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500]

"At this moment, the effect of Absolute Zero is activated!" Yusei raised his hand, "Instant Freezing!"

A wave of cold ice swept out, rolling towards the opposite super warrior like a blanket, and everything that passed along the way was frozen, like a ten-mile glacier!

"But the Power of the Guardian' will protect the warriors it shelters from the ice!" said the Black Luster Soldier.

Indeed, there was still a Spell Counter on "Power of the Guardian" at this time, and the destruction of the super warrior can be avoided by removing this counter.

[Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier, ATK 3500 ATK 3000]

"Koga's attack power will increase by the number of monsters on the opponent's field x500." Yueli Vu said.

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500 ATK 3000]

"But this is still unable to defeat the Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier'." The Black Luster Soldier said, "The moment the battle occurs, the Power of the Guardian' will further enhance the power of the super warrior."

"The effect of Masked HERO Koga!" Yueli Vu said, "By removing 1 HERO' monster from my Graveyard, then target 1 face-up monster on the field; that target loses ATK equal to the ATK of the monster banished to activate this effect, until the end of this turn!"

I removed another Elemental HERO Absolute Zero' from the GY, and reduced the attack power of Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier! "

The phantom of Absolute Zero flew out from the cemetery, turned into a beam of ice-colored light, and flew into Koga's sharp blade that was gaining momentum. The Masked HERO turned around, and the sharp blades staggered across the air. The gorgeous light pierced through the air and hit the opposite super warrior.

[Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier, ATK 3000 ATK 500]

"Has it weakened my strength?" Black Luster Soldier said, "But with the Swords of Revealing Light', you cannot attack for three rounds."

"Ah, I know." Yueli Vu played the card that he retrieved from the previous turn, "Quick-Play Spell Mask Change! Send 1 HERO' monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO' monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute!"

I sent "Elemental HERO Shadow Mist" to the GY, transform!

A knight born from the abyss, the embodiment of the law of darkness!

Masked HERO Dark Law! "

The armor was black, the shape was like a wolf, and the limb armor was equipped with a jagged silver-white sharp blade. The wild and dark Masked HERO descended.

[Masked HERO Dark Law, ATK 2400]

"It's useless." The Black Luster Soldier shook his head. "Although this servant has great power, he doesn't have the power to break through my defense."

"That's not necessarily true." Yueli Vu smiled.

"oh?"

"You have already shown me the legendary strongest warrior and your own strongest form. Then I will show you the ultimate form of my Masked HERO' as a courtesy!"

Yuei Vu pointed to the magic vortex of the venue.

"The effect of Fusion Gate! By removing the fusion material monster from the game, perform a fusion summon!

I will remove the "Masked HERO Dark Law" and "Masked HERO Koga" from the game, Fusion Summon!

From light to darkness, and then from darkness to light, opening up the world with the power of awakening

Contrast HERO Chaos! ! ! "

Koga and Dark Law happened to be a Masked HERO with one light and one dark flying up and submerged into the vortex of the Fusion Gate.

The forces of light and darkness intertwined, rolled in the thundercloud-like black hole, and merged into a purer and more powerful force, which erupted from the fusion vortex like a volcanic eruption.

The Black Luster Soldier's pupils shrank, and he stood there in shock.

Because he was so familiar with this powerperhaps no one was more familiar than him.

It was pure and powerful energy born from the primordial, and it was the source of his own power.

The power of chaos!

"This warrior also controls the power of Chaos?" he murmured.

The ultimate form of Masked HERO descended on that black and white beam of light. After accepting the baptism of light and darkness, the chaotic storm washed over his streamlined smooth armor like torrential rain, his blue eyes lit up like fireflies in the night, the symmetrical shape, black and white color matching, and the power of light and darkness were perfectly blended in this body.

[Contrast HERO Chaos, ATK 3000]

Contrast HERO Chaos stood up, slowly stretched out his palm, and let go of his five fingers, like some kind of unquestionable absolute order. The lightsaber that sealed off the venue was torn apart by this invisible force, turning into spots of light and dissipating.

The Black Luster Soldier looked surprised for a brief moment.

"So that's it, can you revoke the power of any spell or any special ability?" He smiled slightly, closed his eyes, and seemed convinced.

"Well play."

"Battle!" Yuei Vu said, "Contrast HERO Chaos, attack the Black Luster Soldier Super Soldier!"

The hero shot out, and the afterimage behind him was like a black-and-white streamer.

He took off, turned around, and black and white brilliance lingered all over his body, setting off a chaotic storm and blasting towards the super warrior head-on.

The super warrior was not afraid and greeted him with a sword. The long sword was also attached to the pure power of chaos, and the sword seems to open up all things, facing the storm.

Opponents from the same source, the same nature of power, the moment the two forces of chaos collided, the roar was like thunder, and the beam of light shot straight into the sky.

It was like the beginning of heaven and earth.

[Black Luster Soldier, LP 1300 LP 0]

Chapter 533: The Hard-Working Great Evil God

Chaos Final Storm!

Facing Contrast HERO Chaos's final blow, the super warrior's sword energy was smashed to pieces, and his body and armor disintegrated in the storm. The aftermath of the spread directly rolled onto the Black Luster Soldier himself, taking away all his remaining LP.

The ritual of the final trial was over.

The Black Luster Soldier swayed in the storm, took two steps back, and half-kneeled on the ground. The flying dust curtain gradually dissipated, and the super warrior in front of him disappeared without a trace.

The NPCs in the trial ground stood there blankly one by one, and some swallowed their saliva involuntarily.

The strongest fighter in the legend actually lost?

"Perfect battle, I have nothing to say," said the Black Luster Soldier calmly.

The Black Luster Soldier's body was shrouded in a faint golden light, gradually becoming illusory and transparent, as if his time as an elf had come to an end.

The warrior's body quickly disappeared, leaving only a huge golden slab standing on the spot. The posture of the Black Luster Soldier holding a sword was clearly engraved on the slab, just like the card picture on the "Black Luster Soldier" card in Yugi's hand.

At the same time, Yuei Vu also received a reminder from the system, saying that this trial was finally completed. He was acknowledged by the Black Luster Soldier, a legendary warrior willing to become his sword and serve him from now on.

And Yuei Vu thinks the problem now was

I don't need to carry this slab on my back, do I?

And even if I can lift this slab, how can such a big guy be shuffled into the deck?

Fortunately, the system was quite powerful, and it didn't really let him drag the slab to walk. Yuei Vu stepped forward, stretched out his hand, and lightly touched the surface of the stone slab, and the whole big thing turned into golden light spots and dissipated, turning into a card and appearing in his hand.

Yuei Vu accepted the card.

That's about the same.

Next, he had to rely on smashing crystals to open cards.

But the problem that could be solved by crystals was not a big problem for Yuei Vu. Anyway, he has a lot of these things

The NPCs watched the duel with awe. At this time, they treated Yuei Vu like a god, and they didn't dare to show their atmosphere for a long time, and no one came up to talk to them.

On the other hand, the players who were still in a state of excitement immediately gathered around enthusiastically, each bragging about Yuei Vu's awesomeness in different ways.

But they didn't forget the business. Seeing that this part of the quest seemed to have been completed, Coke Sprite tiptoed and asked, "Yuei Vu-san, where shall we go next?"

"Go to the royal palace." Yuei Vu replied casually.

The plot development of World Link Online was different from the original work. In the first two days after entering the memory world dungeon, there were basically no major conflicts.

If Yuei Vu's memory of the main plot of this chapter has not deviated, Bakura should not be ready to do anything until today or tomorrow.

Yuei Vu turned to the NPCs next to him: "Hey, you that's right, you. Are you the priest in the palace?"

Nadin, the trainee priest, was still immersed in the duel that was beyond his imagination just now, and only now came back to his senses.

Realizing that Yuei Vu was calling him, he was a little startled.

"Ah? I don't count, I'm just a trainee priest, and I haven't"

"It doesn't matter." Yuei Vu waved his hand, "Lead the way, we are going to go to the palace next."

"Ah?" The young priest came back to his senses, "But ordinary people are not allowed to enter the palace"

"We just went to the capital to have a look, and admire the majesty of the palace at the gate."

Just dawdling outside the door, not going in.

or find a way to get in by yourself.

Anyway, judging from the animation, their ancient Egyptian palace was just like a public toilet, you could get in and out as you want. If it weren't for the pharaoh sitting in charge, Bakura could come in alone to take all seven Millenium Items.

The young apprentice priest looked a little hesitant. He thought about it, seemed to be struggling for a while, and then carefully looked at the screwballs next to him who were discussing enthusiastically

Or to be more precise, he looked at Miss Yuehua who was arguing with Coke Sprite with a serious face.

"Okay, I'll take you there."

Memory world, elsewhere.

In a corner of the map, almost as remote as the "Land of Trials", a group of walking corpses in rusty armor and skin like dead wood are digging three feet in a desert.

And the leader of this group of undead spirits, Bandit King Bakura, the agent of the great evil god Zorc, is sitting on a big rock that has been scorched by the sun in a very arrogant posture at this time chewing garlic?

That thing looks like white, petal by petal, it really looked like garlic

What? What are you laughing at?

Could the garlic chewed by our great evil god Zorc be ordinary garlic? This thing is a millennium garlic, how can it be the same as ordinary coquettish sluts?

It's understandable. Yami Yugi started the game as the Pharaoh, not to mention the three Egyptian Gods, there were seven priests and thousands of troops under his command, which was almost equal to the full-level account directly after going online.

On the other hand, what did Bakura have?

He started the game with only a pair of big pants, and all other equipment came from robbing.

He was the majestic evil god Zorc Necrophades, yet one day he would cross the desert naked to attack passers-by, just to grab clothes, could you believe it?

After these days of development, he now not only got the clothes but also managed to get an ancient Duel Disk that could be used to summon monsters.

And three meals a day already have garlic!

It's just that he didn't want to attract the attention of the Pharaoh until he was ready, so he didn't dare to make too much noise, and he tried to pick the darkest and most stormy time to do it.

Moreover, he usually ran away after the robbery and changed places after each crime to avoid contact with people in the palace.

He also managed to bring the deck from the real world, but the ancient Duel Disk could not use modern cards. So he had to get forty slabs and project every card in his deck onto the slabs.

But for the Pharaoh, sitting on all the wealth of the country, presumably there was no such problem.

When Bakura thinks of himself working hard to move bricks here, while Yugi was sitting on the throne, had people to serve him in basic necessities such as food, housing, and transportation, maybe even a harem

The more I think about it, the angrier I get.

However, Bakura had already made a lot of preparations before entering this memory world.

First of all, considering that the faction on the other side had a lot of people, while he was alone, so he also managed to bring himself a helper to this memory world.

The man was wearing white trousers and a cloak, with explosive white hair, and his facial muscles were distorted with his own characteristics, making him look hideous and unnatural.

Marik Ishtar!

Of course, this couldn't be the Marik outside who has the tendency to become Yuei Vu's fan.

What appeared here was Marik's dark personality born from hatred, a dark aggregate, the incarnation of rampant evil thoughts, and was once the master of the supreme Egyptian God "The Winged Dragon of Ra". People called him respectfully as

Six years old.

Originally, the six-year-old had already died after the battle with Yuei Vu. But don't forget, Marik and Bakura have cooperated before, and they have entered each other's consciousness.

One of the main functions of the Millennium Ring of Bakura was the power to "split the soul". According to Bakura's own explanation in the animation, the power of the Millennium Ring was "the avatar of the soul injected into tangible things".

Back then, the Great Evil God Zorc relied on this feature of the Millennium Ring to keep fragments of his soul in this artifact. Bakura himself has relied on this ability more than once to survive.

And after Bakura and Marik cooperated, Yami Marik also left a trace of soul fragments in the Millennium Ring. After his personality was eliminated in the duel with Yuei Vu, this fragment in the Millennium Ring became his only body left.

The six-year-old was now in a state of being dependent on others. Bakura could wipe out his remaining consciousness at any time with a single thought, so now he has no choice but to accept cooperation with Bakura.

In fact, if it weren't for this virtual world Shadow Game, he didn't even have a physical body.

Bow to the evil forces. JPG.

Oh wait, that's not right, he seemed to be an evil force too.

It turns out that the evil forces are actually myself. JPG.

Bakura glanced at Marik standing aside, as if he was thinking that the other party was more or less his teammate now, so he casually took out a piece of garlic from under his coat although he only had this coat in his body except his underpants, making people wonder where did this piece of garlic come from and threw it to Marik.

Marik took it, showing a somewhat disgusted expression.

"I don't need it." The six-year-old hummed, "I don't eat garlic."

Bakura's face darkened suddenly: "This is mangosteen! Fruit! Not garlic!"

Why do you think that I, the great evil god Zorc, am so poor that I chew garlic for lunch?

TL's note:

Garlic

Mangosteen

Chapter 534: Encounter The BOSS

In fact, in this Shadow Game, Bakura was not without advantages.

First of all, he had the element of surprise, this was the biggest advantage he can rely on. The role of Yami Yugi was the Pharaoh, which, while giving him great power and a large number of available resources, also made him the largest and most conspicuous target on the entire map.

On the other hand, Yami Yugi didn't even know the role of Bakura in this game, so he could only passively wait to be attacked.

Secondly, as the incarnation of the Great Evil God Zorc, he didn't really have no resources to use in this game.

He had the power to summon the "Undead Legion" at any time, and he could summon a large number of zombie fighters for his own use. His warriors felt no pain, never tired, and were far stronger than ordinary humans. But

At this moment, the rock on which Bakura was sitting shook for a moment.

He lowered his head, and at a glance, he saw a stupid zombie in his army, somehow got under his master's ass, mechanically shoveled, and dug at the bottom of the rock. What a silly scene

Bakura: %! &#

After all, they were a bunch of walking dead, and he could accept that they were a little brainless. But the problem was

This bunch of idiots is too stupid!

In fact, this was not the worst.

On the first night when Bakura traveled to the memory world, he, unfortunately, encountered an Egyptian army led by a trainee priest in a nearby town during an attack.

At that time, Bakura, who hadn't got the Duel Disk, couldn't summon the monsters, so he summoned the undead army on the spot and gave them the order to "charge".

So his undead army really rushed out with an indomitable momentum, piercing through the entire Egyptian army like piercing spears and then rushed to the other end of the horizon without looking back, leaving only their master in a pair of big pants dumbfounded

Now Marik was laughing.

"Bakura, it seems that your servants are not very clever."

"Shut up!" Bakura kicked the mentally handicapped dug under him back into the pit in front of him, "It's not your turn to talk."

If it was placed before, Yami Marik would definitely have to make a few more sarcastic comments to find some fun. To be honest, he was inexplicably happy to see Bakura deflated. But after thinking about it, his life was still in the hands of the other party, so he simply suppressed his temper, closed his mouth, and didn't say a word.

He changed the subject with interest: "By the way, you have been digging around these two days. What exactly are you digging?"

Six-year-old was genuinely curious, too.

After Bakura entered the memory world, his itinerary for the past two days basically consisted of running back and forth between specific routes, letting the undead army excavate. He was busy all day and Marik didn't know what he was digging.

Bakura smiled mysteriously: "Hmph. Thanks to Darzt. That old man has lived for 10,000 years, and he really found a lot of good things.

From the records he left behind, I found a few good things, which will be our biggest reliance in this game No, it should be said that it will bring us victory! "

"Oh? So what's that?"

Bakura glanced at him, snorted, and opened the ancient golden Duel Disk in his hand.

He raised his arms high, and a golden light flashed on the Duel Disk. A beam of golden light flew into the sky, and within a short while, the huge stone slab obeyed the call of the golden light and fell out of thin air, hitting Marik with a bang.

Marik saw the monster engraved on the stone slab, and his expression changed slightly: "This is"

Bakura was satisfied with his reaction. He put away the Duel Disk, and the stone slab in front of him turned into light spots and dissipated.

"Yes, this is the reason why I will win for sure." He was full of confidence, "Before I am fully resurrected and regain my body, this force will sweep everything away!"

After a pause, he looked at Marik and smiled slightly.

"Of course, your power is also indispensable. You, who were born from the darkness and obeyed even the gods, will be my most important help in this game!"

Bakura said so on his lips, but what he thought in his heart was

No way it's true.

You are a six-year-old rookie, if you play cards, you will only rely on your 24K pure gold bird (referring to The Winged Dragon of Ra).

Now that Big Bird is gone, you are nothing.

Well, after all, there is really a shortage of people on hand, so let him act as cannon fodder for the time being

Marik hugged his arms and let out a grunt when he was blown like this.

"Our goals are the same At least we all want to see the nameless pharaoh disappear forever in the abyss of his memory." The corner of his mouth tugged, revealing a twisted smile, "Hey, it's good, from the first time we met, I realized that your strength is extraordinary. The two of us will join forces to create the most extreme darkness, and everything in the world will be deeply trapped in it and completely destroyed!"

Due to the pressure to survive, Marik bowed to Bakura for the time being, but what he was thinking in his heart was -Bullshit.

Pretending to be like that You once lost to me! I haven't seen you win in card games before.

The six-year-old was secretly planning at the moment, taking advantage of this "ultimate Shadow Game", he would find an opportunity to snatch the body of Bakura, and then he would be able to make a comeback!

Bakura took a look at him, and at the same time gnawed half a piece of garlic in his hand er, well, he said it was mangosteen, so let's call it mangosteen (God knows if it is), and then he laughed: "Hmph, thats right if we work together, no one in the world can defeat us!"

He stood up. The dark duo shook hands with each other and reached a consensus to form a strong alliance, but at the same time, they each had their own scheme to betray the other

The two evil forces had just reached an agreement and shook hands to show their friendship when the two suddenly felt the rock shaking under their feet.

With a darkened face, Bakura looked down and found that another silly zombie in his Undead Legion had dug under his feet

The six-year-old really wanted to laugh when he saw this scene, but he was afraid that Bakura would become angry and tear up the only fragments of his soul left, so he had to hold back his laughter

Bakura jumped down from the boulder with a gloomy face, trying hard to suppress his urge to tear this bunch of trash with his hands.

To be honest, his Undead Legion was really a bit tasteless. Leaving aside the blemishes of incomplete IQ, the combat effectiveness was actually low. Not to mention solo, a whole team of undead may not be able to defeat the bad boy duo of Jonouchi and Honda

But soon Bakura realized that this time, he seemed to be really wrong to blame this subordinate.

He found that the zombie opened and closed its mouth, screaming "Ahahah", the shovel in its hand was motioning to the side stiffly as if reminding him of something.

Bakura turned his head and looked in that direction, only to realize that unknowingly, they seemed to have two uninvited guests here

Whose style was completely different from the NPCs in this world.

Say they were ancient Egyptians surely wrong, they didn't look like locals in terms of skin and clothes.

But to say that they came in from the real world seemed a bit abnormal. Because Bakura thought that no normal person would wear a white vest, flip-flops, and a big gold chain around his neck, which made people feel like they went to the wrong studio.

However, Bakura quickly judged that these two were duelists who came in from the real world because this era did not have such high-tech Duel Disks like the ones in their hands.

One of them was very excited: "Damn it! Did we encounter the BOSS directly!?"

Chapter 535: Is There Such A Poor BOSS?

The two screwballs wandering here are naturally the duo who received Yuei Vu's mission and were looking for the "Pharaoh's True Name".

Seeing Bakura, One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer jumped up at that moment, dragging Heart Gone With The Wind next to him with excitement.

What the hell, we are the first to encounter the last BOSS!

Hurry up and take a screenshot of the forum to show off.

Heart Gone With The Wind was a little stunned: "BOSS?"

"Huh? Haven't you ever watched animation?"

"Uh I saw it, but it's been too long and I don't remember clearly." Heart Gone With The Wind rubbed his temples.

Although he hasn't watched the next few Yu-Gi-Oh! series, he has still seen "Yu-Gi-Oh DM". But it was a long time ago, and his impression was a bit vague.

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer said excitedly: "This is Bakura! Great evil god Zorc, the final BOSS of DM! We encounter him ahead of time!"

Bakura gasped.

Do these two guys actually know my real identity?

Before that, only Yuei Vu had seen through his real identity.

Bakura quickly thought of this and began to wonder if the two of them were brought to this world by Yuei Vu in a special way

"The final BOSS? Him?" Heart Gone With The Wind was puzzled.

He looked at Bakura again from a tugging look on his face, and a shocking scar on his face. The aura was quite domineering, but the whole body was covered with a large red robe, with only a pair of black pants inside, and in his hand was a half-eaten garlic?

Heart Gone With The Wind looked at his companion blankly: "Will there be a boss who so too poor that he had to chew garlic?"

Bakura felt veins pop on his head: "This is mangosteen! Not garlic!"

Fuck, the six years old live all his life in a cave, so it's understandable that he didn't know, but even these two are also uneducated

Although Marik next to him felt that he should give his plastic brother a little face, maybe he should deliberately pretend not to laugh at this time but this was so fucking funny, he couldn't help it

Seeing the six-year-old laughing so happily, Bakura's already dark face only became darker.

Fuck! You guys have colluded together to piss me off, right?

Both players hadn't noticed the existence of the six-year-old, but he immediately attracted attention with a smile.

Surprised without counter-offering: "Fuck, Marik is here too? Didn't he get cold early?"

"Yo." Yami Marik folded his arms, and waved to them both condescendingly, "Is that Yuei Vu's man? Hmph, say hello to him for me. He still owes me a lot. I want to pay it back."

After a pause, he smiled sinisterly: "Of course, if you still have a chance to see him alive, hehe"

However, the six-year-old didn't know that his face art had already been frantically screenshotted and posted on the forum.

The post has attracted a lot of attention in just over a minute. Encountering Bakura on the way was enough of an attractive gimmick, but the fact that the six-year-old was standing by Bakura's side was even more of a blockbuster.

Some screwballs have already started to follow the post to refer to the first-generation master of face art, saying something like "It's been a long time since I haven't seen the master of face art, he is blue and thin".

"Ah!" Heart Gone With The Wind said suddenly, which shocked everyone present.

"I seem to remember." He said, "The final boss of the DM, the great evil god Zorc isn't a big black lump with a super-large faucet under his crotch, spraying everywhere?"

"Ha ha ha ha!!!"

Although Marik had never seen the spectacle of the Great Evil God dangling with a thick and long dragon head on his crotch, he was still amused by the screwball's description.

Marik obviously only thought that was a malicious mockery, but Bakura couldn't laugh at all and even took a cold breath from the bottom of his heart.

hiss~

It's fine that this person knows my real identity, but hasn't he ever seen my real body?

Otherwise, how could it be described so accurately! ?

A big black lump with an oversized faucet under the crotch

Isn't the true form of me, the great evil god Zorc?!

Bakura narrowed his eyes, looking at the two screwballs with pure killing intent.

He still has absolute confidence in himself, whether it's Yuei Vu or the screwballs around him, no one could defeat him, but the other party had so much information about him, it still made him feel a little uneasy.

He has decided that at least one of the two people in front of him should be captured alive and he would interrogate how they obtained this information!

He silently opened the ancient golden Duel Disk in his hand. Five rays of light shot into the sky, and soon five huge stone slabs were called and smashed in front of him.

"Oh?" Marik twitched his lips, "Are you going to do it?"

"Hmph." Bakura smiled sinisterly, "It's just right, let me test the effect of these trump cards which I just dug up.

bring it on! A Shadow Game where life is at stake! Those who lose, their souls will stay in this space of memory forever, wandering endlessly! "

Bakura smiled cruelly.

"It's the right duel for this Ultimate Dark Game!"

"Bro, you go up!" One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer quickly pushed Heart Gone With The Wind forward.

Heart Gone With The Wind held the high-ranking card group "Gladiator Beast" back then, and his strength was currently at the top among all players, and he was usually regarded as a top master by everyone (although he himself did not have this self-awareness)

"You are stronger than me so you should come to play cards." One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer made a thumbs-up gesture without haggling, "I'll broadcast the whole process for you!"

While speaking, he was downloading a small plug-in that could be broadcast live in the forum in the game cabin.

His live broadcast screen has not been connected, yet there were already a large number of players who couldn't wait to come in. The front row of onlookers was watching the experience of the boss battle that their players represent no one noticed an NPC sneaked in.

Yes, that's right, Yuei Vu also quietly watching it.

Not long after Yuei Vu left the trial ground, he was still heading toward the palace. Suddenly, he heard a screwball exclaiming" My companions, look at the forum, our teammates on the other side seem to have encountered a BOSS and are about to open up a fight"

So Yuei Vu also opened the forum and entered the spectator mode.

Intelligence warfare in card games was very important. If you knew in advance what deck the opponent was using and what trump cards they had, you could at least be prepared for it, even if you didnt have special means to counter it deliberately.

In this way, when encountering this opponent in the future, you would fall into the "not knowing what this card can do" situation.

Just in time, Yuei Vu also wanted to see what cards the Great Evil God Zorc had left that he hadn't used before.

Players could not die, so they were the best suitable for testing the depth of the enemy. And Heart Gone With The Wind was considered to be the top player among the players, if it was another player, there may not even be a chance to force the other party to show their trump cards.

The live broadcast screen was connected, and a large number of hungry and thirsty players swarmed in. At this time, the two warring parties had already stood left and right, and the duel was about to begin.

Heart Gone With The Wind looked at the ancient Duel Disk in Bakura's hand and the five stone slabs in front of him, still a little dazed.

"Are you going to duel with this thing?"

Chapter 536: Cursed Doll

"Duel!" x2

Bakura, LP 4000

Heart Gone With The Wind, LP 4000

"I am the first striker!" Heart Gone With The Wind said, "Draw! I summon Gladiator Beast Sagittarii!"

On the stage was a half-man, half-horse gladiator warrior, holding a black metal bow and arrow, the lower body is a white horse and has long flowing golden hair.

[Gladiator Beast Sagittarii, ATK 1400]

"Then I activate Equip Spell Gladiator Beast's Battle Manica! Equip it to the Gladiator Beast Sagittarii'."

A uniquely shaped armguard was fitted to Sagittarii's arm, with intricate patterns and ruby-like embellishments on the shoulders.

He then drew a third card from his hand.

"Continuous Spell Gladiator Rejection!"

The Spell Card appeared in front of him again, and a stream of transparent energy lingered around the beasts on the field.

"As long as this card exists, Gladiator Beast' monsters I control cannot be targeted by your card effects, except during the Battle Phase." He said, "I end my turn."

Sure enough, Gladiator Beast was still a deck unfit to go first. This deck was better at counterattacking after the battle.

Bakura would naturally not let go of this opportunity: "It's my turn, draw a card!"

HmmAlthough he said "draw a card", since the slabs fell from the sky, let's treat them as drawing slabs for the time being.

"The first is the Spell Card Allure of Darkness!" Bakura shouted, "Draw 2 cards, then banish 1 DARK monster from my hand.

If there are no DARK monsters in the hand, send the entire hand to the GY. "

A black hole opened in the sky, and two stone slabs fell from it, one after the other, in front of Bakura. With a twist of his mouth, he reached out and selected a slab, which was quickly sucked into the black dimensional vortex and disappeared.

"The card I removed from the game is Necroface!"

What appeared in front of Bakura was a pale and bleak doll's head, the skull was broken in many places, and red tentacles protruded from it, and a group of malignant red things like sarcoma swelled out of the brain.

It belonged to the kind of scary monster that could make people have nightmares for a whole week when they saw it at night, but it did echo Bakura's preferences and image.

"The effect of Necroface! When this card is removed from the game, both players banish 5 cards from the top of their Deck!"

While Bakura was speaking, the ancient Duel Disk in his hand flashed golden light, and the phantoms of the five stone slabs were projected into the midair out of thin air, and then they were absorbed by the vortex of the dimension and disappeared.

The top five cards of Heart Flying with the Wind also flew out automatically, turning into golden light and dissipating in mid-air.

"Then I returned 3 banished Fiend monsters to the deck, and Special Summoned this girl from my hand! Show up for me!

Curse Necrofear! "

The stone slab in the center in front of Bakura turned over, and deep and dark fluctuations erupted from it. The slender, withered blue fingers sliced through the darkness like a razor, the slender phantom was burning with erratic blue will-o'-the-wisps, and the round white eyes seemed to be the souls of innocent people who had been dead for many years.

The monster came out slowly, holding in its arms a cursed doll that only had its upper body and its mouth issued a "clicked clicked" sound.

It's like a ghost coming out of a horror movie.

[Curse Necrofear, ATK 2800]

"Curse Necrofear must be Special Summoned by a card effect." Bakura grinned grimly, "How about it, isn't it very strong?"

Heart Gone With The Wind subconsciously took half a step back, seeing the horrifying appearance of this monster, he couldn't help muttering in his heart.

It was a bit surprising to watch the battle by the side without haggling.

How could he call out a high-level monster without losing a single card?

It's not right, it's not like DM at all

"Battle! Accept the resentment of the cursed doll!" Bakura laughed ferociously, "Curse Necrofear, attack the Gladiator Beast Sagittarii!"

Curse Necrofear stood on the spot without moving, but the weird blue fire on her body seemed to be burning more vigorously. Her eyes flashed coldly, and two laser beams pierced through the air, hitting the Gladiator Beast Sagittarii but was blocked by the metal armguard on its wrist.

"The effect of Gladiator Beast's Battle Manica! The equipped monster will not be destroyed by the battle!" Heart Gone With The Wind said.

"But the damage calculation is still applied normally." Bakura sneered.

Heart Gone With The Wind, LP 4000 LP 2600

In this ultimate Shadow Game, the impact on duelists was naturally maximized. Bakura was full of anticipation and wanted to see the appearance of the other party suffering pain and screaming

But he found that the opponent was playing cards like usual, and there was no response at all.

Bakura was a little taken aback.

Is this guy's endurance so amazing?

Or does the screwball feel no pain?

He really guessed right, the pain simulation of Heart Gone With The Wind has long been set to zero, and he really couldn't feel it

"However, because the Gladiator Beast Sagittarii' has battled this turn, its effect can be activated at the end of the Battle Phase." Heart Gone With The Wind said, "Shuffle this card into the Deck; Special Summon 1 Gladiator Beast' monster from my Deck, except Gladiator Beast Sagittarii'.

At this moment, the effect of the Gladiator Beast's Battle Manica' is activated. When the equipped monster returns to the deck from the field, this card can be returned to the owner's hand without being destroyed. "

Heart Gone With The Wind pulled out the deck, and quickly revealed the card he picked out:

"According to the effect of Sagittarii, I will special summon Gladiator Beast Murmillo' from the deck!"

A fish gladiator in blue armor flew out of a stream of water, with a high-tech heavy cannon behind it.

[Gladiator Beast Murmillo, ATK 800]

"The effect of Murmillo! When this card is Special Summoned by the effect of a Gladiator Beast' monster: Target 1 face-up monster; destroy that target!" Heart Gone With The Wind waved his hand, "Destroy the Curse Necrofear!"

The two cannons on the back of Murmillo were activated at the same time, and the two impacting water streams bombarded from the air, blasting the strange cursed doll and monster into pieces head-on.

"Then there is the effect of the Continuous Spell Gladiator Rejection'!" Heart Gone With The Wind said, "If a Gladiator Beast' monster is Special Summoned from my Main Deck, I can Special Summon 1 Gladiator Beast' monster from my Deck with a different Type from the monsters I control, in Defense Position!

The Gladiator Beast Murmillo' on my field is Fish-Type, so I special summon the Gladiator Beast Bestiari' which is Winged Beast-Type! "

The Spell Card bloomed with a golden light, and the transparent repulsive wave turned into a gust of wind, and the bird in green armor flew out, drawing a spiral trajectory in midair.

[Gladiator Beast Bestiari, ATK 1500]

"Oh? This kid is not bad." The six-year-old watching the battle chuckled as if nothing to do with himself, "Being able to go this far in the opponent's turn not only destroys the opponent's ace but also goes even further to call out so many monsters Looks like you're not doing well, Bakura! "

"Tch, shut up, and watch me carefully." Bakura gave him a death glare.

That's what he said, but Bakura did realize that he might underestimate his opponent too much.

Although the guy in front of him did not release any fluctuations of extraordinary power, and his appearance looked ordinary even a little silly, this guy seemed to be surprisingly strong.

However

"Hey, but it's too early to be complacent at this level." Bakura waved, and a slab in his hand lay down on the field, followed by a sneer, and he raised his tone suddenly, "Curse Necrofear is immortal! Now her follow-up effect will be activated!

During the End Phase, if this card is in the GY because it was destroyed in my Monster Zone by an opponent's card and sent there this turn, it can be revived from the Graveyard unconditionally!

Come back to the field, my cursed doll! "

Chapter 537: The Ultimate Trump Card

Curse Necrofear, revived!

[Curse Necrofear, ATK 2800]

When Heart Gone With The Wind saw this guy, he couldn't help but take another two steps back, and even wanted to curse.

Damn, we just play cards, what are you doing with such a spooky monster? It looks like it comes from a horror movie.

He didn't think so when he watched the animation, but the monsters Bakura used were either Fiend or Zombie, thus they were all very strange and disgusting things. It's really scary to watch them being projected in such a realistic three-dimensional way.

"My turn, draw!"

Heart Gone With The Wind bit the lips, trying not to look at the eerie monster holding a cursed doll in its hand.

He concentrated his energy and told himself that this was just a card game, no matter how curious things were, they were just cards, and it would be over after playing.

"I return Gladiator Beast Bestiari' and Gladiator Beast Murmillo' on the field to the deck to perform fusion!

The fusion condition is Gladiator Beast Bestiari' + 1 Gladiator Beast' monster! Contact Fusion

Gladiator Beast Gyzarus! ! ! "

The sturdy body of Bestiari was wrapped in black armor, and the gemstones shone with blood-red brilliance. It spread green metal wings behind it and descended from the sky with a slight sound of tearing the air.

[Gladiator Beast Gyzarus, ATK 2400]

"Gyzarus's effect!" Heart Gone With The Wind said, "When this card is Special Summoned: I can target up to 2 cards on the field; destroy those targets. I target the Curse Necrofeard, and your set card is destroyed!"

Gyzarus soared into the sky, and the red spikes swept out in a rain of flowers. The ferocious puppet immediately exploded under the intensive shooting, including the stone slab in the backcourt, which was riddled with holes and smashed to pieces.

It was the Trap Card "Rebirth Tablet", which could revive the monster from the graveyard immediately after it was destroyed by battle, but unfortunately, it didn't get the chance to be activated.

"Then I normal summon Gladiator Beast Retiari!"

This time, a water-attribute gladiator holding a trident, with sharp teeth like sawteeth, washed over the green scales of his body with water.

[Gladiator Beast Retiari, ATK 1200]

"Battle! Gladiator Beast Retiari, attack directly!"

The water-type gladiator rushed like a crocodile, locked on the target, piercing in a straight line with the trident surrounding the water flow! The water flowed through Bakura's body with icy stinging pain, the biting cool water spray formed a swirling vortex, and countless transparent bubbles were flying in the air.

Bakura, LP 4000 LP 2800

"Then the next is Gladiator Beast Gyzarus's direct attack!"

The ancient king in the form of a bird rose high into the air, folded his wings backward, and swooped down condescendingly!

Like a bomber flying over the sky, a series of violent explosions were triggered on the ground. The blasted dust was like a violent tsunami, submerging Bakura in the middle.

Bakura, LP 2800 LP 400

Gyzarus's air strike knocked Bakura to the ground, with black smoke all over his body.

"Hey, isn't this really bad?" Marik said so, but his tone was more mocking.

However, he couldn't help but look at Heart Gone With The Wind on the other side, and secretly be cautious.

That Duel King, does he actually have such a strong duelist by his side now? Looks like I have to be more careful

"Hehehehahahaha!!!"

There were only 400 LP left, and the field was cleaned up. At this moment, Bakura raised his head and laughed loudly.

If someone else was here, there might be some questions such as "What's so funny?" or "I'm afraid your brain has been beaten stupid", but screwball players were different.

For example, in the temporarily opened live broadcast room over there, the comments were all guessing whether the blood lock triggered the CG cutscene and Heart Gone With The Wind was about to be killed by the plot, or whether the BOSS lost enough HP to enter the second phase, and was about to go berserk

"Interesting, Gladiator Beast It's quite an interesting deck." Bakura wiped his mouth and sneered, "You managed to attract my attention. Then let me be a little more serious next time." .

Heart Gone With The Wind may also have regarded his words as preset lines in CG cutscenes, directly ignored them gorgeously, and continued to operate: "At the end of the battle, the effect of Gyzarus is activated.

At the end of the Battle Phase, if this card battled, I can return it to the Extra Deck; Special Summon 2 Gladiator Beast' monsters from your Deck, except Gladiator Beast Bestiari'.

I special summon Gladiator Beast Augustus' and Gladiator Beast Secutor!' "

Gladiator Beast Augustus, which also bore the name of an emperor, landed on the field in a black whirlwind, and the heavy sword plunged into the ground with a muffled sound. Accompanied by a reptile gladiator with two unique gun barrels on its back, who took a defensive posture to protect its master.

[Gladiator Beast Augustus, ATK 2600]

[Gladiator Beast Secutor, DEF 300]

"Then there is the effect of Gladiator Beast Retiari'. At the end of the Battle Phase, if this card attacked or was attacked: I can shuffle it into the Deck; Special Summon 1 Gladiator Beast' monster from my Deck other than it! I special summon Gladiator Beast Hoplomus'!"

The net bucket disappeared with a burst of water, followed by the cracks of the ground, and a rhinoceros stepped on the ground like a war hammer, making its grand debut.

[Gladiator Beast Hoplomus, DEF 2100]

"The effect of Hoplomus If this card was Special Summoned by the effect of a Gladiator Beast' monster, its original DEF becomes 2400!"

[Gladiator Beast Hoplomus, DEF 2100 DEF 2400]

"At this moment, the effect of Gladiator Rejection' is activated!" Heart Gone With The Wind quickly started the deck again after shuffling the cards, "I have Gladiator Beast' monsters with Reptile-Type, Rock-Type, and Winged Beast-Type on the field, so I special summoned the Gladiator Beast Andal', which is Beast Warrior-Type!"

The armored black bear landed on the field with a low growl, arms crossed in front of him.

[Gladiator Beast Andal, DEF 1500]

"Then I activate Equip Spell Gladiator Beast's Battle Manica' again!" Heart Gone With The Wind waved his hand, "Equip it to Gladiator Beast Augustus', the equipped monster will not be destroyed by the battle!

Finally, Set two cards, I end my turn. "

"Huh? There are four monsters in an instant What a terrifying swarming power. Only the high-level gladiator beast named Augustus is in attack mode, but if you attack it, it won't be destroyed by the battle, and at the end of the battle, it can return to the deck to call a new Gladiator Beast

In addition, as long as there is the troublesome Continuous Spell Gladiator Rejection', none of this guy's monsters can be the target of your card effects. It's literally a lineup like an iron wall. "

Marik stuck out his tongue and licked his lips, then squinted at Bakura beside him.

"Can you do it?"

"Nonsense! Shut up and watch me!" Bakura gave him a cold look, showing a cruel smile, "I underestimated this guy. But from now on, I'm going to get serious.

As I said, the cursed doll is immortal! At the end of the round, the Curse Necrofear is revived again!

The weird wind swept the audience again, and the shadow holding the puppet in her hand returned to the arena again hauntingly.

[Curse Necrofear, ATK 2800]

"My turn!"

Bakura beckoned, and another stone slab fell from the air and landed in front of him.

"Spell Card Card Destruction! Both players discard as many cards as possible from their hands, then each player draws the same number of cards they discarded!"

The stone slabs in front of Bakura quickly shattered and dissipated out of thin air, and several new stone slabs fell from the sky again.

Seeing a new stone slab that fell down there, his eyes lit up, and he immediately showed ecstasy.

It's coming!

"Hey." He lowered his voice and chuckled strangely, "It just so happens that, as a guinea pig, your strength is not bad. Just let you experience it, my brand new power, the ultimate trump card that can obliterate the existence of the gods!"

Chapter 538: The Wicked God Descends!

The ultimate trump card?

Bakura's words caught the attention of the audience who were paying attention to this duel.

According to the plot of the original work, in the Pharaoh's Memories arc, before the revival of the great evil god Zorc, the trump card he relied on should only be the snake-tailed demon "Diabound", right?

Even in Yueli Vu's impression, in the previous life, the cards used by Bakura were nothing but Fiend and Zombie, and there was nothing ace monster that was worth noticing.

But in the plot of World Link Online in the previous life, Bakura has never had any contact with Doma.

Could it be that during the time he took over the organization, Bakura really found something from Dartz's legacy that could make him become this confident?

"The first is the Spell Card Foolish Burial!" A slab was turned over in front of Bakura, "Send 1 monster from the Deck to the GY. I want to send the Gozuki' to the GY!"

The phantom of the stone slab that sealed the Gozuki emerged, but it was only displayed for a moment, and then it was swallowed by the dark vortex and sucked into the underworld.

"The effect of Gozuki!" Bakura continued, "If this card is sent to the GY, I can banish 1 Zombie monster from my GY, except Gozuki'; Special Summon 1 Zombie monster from my hand.

I banish Spirit Reaper' that was sent to the GY just now through Card Destruction', and special summon Zombie Master' from my hand! "

It was a zombie with a pale face like a clown, messy white hair, and a sinister smile hanging from the corner of his mouth.

[Zombie Master, ATK 1800]

"The effect of Zombie Master'!" Bakura said, "Once a turn, by discarding a monster in the hand, I can revive 1 Level 4 or lower Zombie monster in either GY!"

He stretched out his hand to signal a stone slab in front of him, and the slab was swallowed by the black hole that opened on the ground and smashed into pieces.

"Resurrect, Gozuki!"

Like an equivalent exchange, a stone slab broke in the black hole, and the dark-bodied bull-headed undead warrior returned to his field again, wearing a closed ring and hanging a rosary, holding a hammer that was too big for him.

[Gozuki, ATK 1700]

"Hey hey, this way, the preparations are complete." Bakura temporarily stopped the operation and began to sneer.

Yami Marik's eyelids twitched slightly as if he had thought of something: "There are three monsters on the field, and the normal summon opportunity of this turn has not been used yet, could it be"

No, it's impossible.

Marik quickly dismissed the unrealistic idea.

The three Egyptian Gods in the memory world are all in the hands of the pharaoh, and they will only be used by the pharaoh. Bakura should not have a god card

"Open your eyes to see the gods who have been sealed for endless years and have been forgotten!" Bakura laughed and raised his hands, "Take Zombie Master', Gozuki', Curse Necrofear', three monsters as sacrifices!"

The God of Void who devours the world, wipes out everything, and returns everything to nothingness

The Wicked Eraser, descends here! ! ! "

"What!?" The onlookers were the first to drop their jaws in shock. At the same time, the temporary live broadcast room was full of comments.

He actually wanted to summon the Wicked God!?

The Three Wicked Gods were no strangers to Yu-gi-oh fans. In the manga, it was explained that they were made by Pegasus himself to oppose the three Egyptian Gods.

And according to Pegasus himself, although the three Wicked Gods were made to check and balance with the Egyptian Gods, their power even surpassed the Egyptian Gods.

However, according to the background of DM, like the Three Egyptian Gods, although the Wicked Gods were created by Pegasus himself, they were certainly not imagined by him out of thin air. Such a powerful existence cannot be created out of thin air by a mere designer.

Before being made into a card, the Three Wicked Gods must have existed long ago, but they have been sealed in a certain corner of the world for a long time and have never been discovered.

At least up to now, in the World Link Online, it seemed that no one, including Pegasus, has unearthed the stone slabs of the three Wicked Gods.

But there is one exception.

That was Dartz, who has a lifespan of 10,000 years and has witnessed all the memorabilia and miracles in the world for thousands of years.

Dartz did know where the three Wicked Gods' slabs were sealed. It's just that he's never been in contact with it personally maybe he felt that he couldn't control the power of these three violent Wicked Gods, or maybe he tried a long time ago but failed.

However, the documents that Dartz left in Doma did record the information about the three Wicked Gods. Bakura confirmed the location of the Wicked God's stone slab from these records and dug out the Wicked God slab in the corresponding place of this memory world.

This was his real trump card for being so confident!

The fiery sun in the sky disappeared, and the dark and thick clouds swallowed the entire blue sky.

It was a void-like darkness, deep and gloomy, filled with the whispers of demons as if the whole world had been dragged back to nothingness before the birth of all things.

Then the sky was torn apart by the claws, and from behind the cracks emerged huge, destructive eyes. The claws tore the gap wide, and what appeared behind was a twisted shadow.

The blockage of darkness made it impossible to see the shadow's true posture, and it could only be vaguely seen from the outline that it had a long tail and wide wings. But it is so majestic that people dare not even try to breathe, and the moment their eyes fall on that shadow, their eyeballs will sting.

If the appearance of the Egyptian God was just endless coercion, then in contrast, when this huge existence arrived, it has an unrestrained urge to destroy.

Like an eraser from the hand of God, it can undo any trace left by God in the world!

[The Wicked Eraser, ATK ?

Even Heart Gone With The Wind was overwhelmed by the exaggerated row of this monster.

But he didn't feel fear. Instead, he thought in his heart

Damn, this is too handsome!?

Are there any monsters in this game that can have such a gorgeous effect when they are summoned?

"The attack power of The Wicked Eraser is equal to the number of cards on the opponent's field x 1000 points." Bakura sneered, "You have eight cards on the field, so the attack power of The Wicked Eraser is"

[The Wicked Eraser, ATK ? ATK 8000]

Even six-year-olds couldn't help but be moved.

"A Wicked God with abilities comparable to Egyptian Gods is there such a powerful existence?"

The three Wicked Gods and the three Egyptian Gods were in a relationship of mutual generation and mutual restraint, and one-to-one correspondence. Each Egyptian God has a Wicked God corresponding to its own position.

For example, The Wicked Eraser who appeared on the stage at this time corresponds to the Egyptian God "Osiris the Sky Dragon".

"It's over! Feel honored, you are the first opponent to be eliminated by the Wicked God!" Kaira laughed wildly, "The Wicked Eraser! Attack Gladiator Beast Augustus', and completely erase this guy for me!"

The Wicked Eraser opened his mouth wide open, and an undercurrent surged in the void world. The icy wind blew past everyone's faces, and the momentum of the Wicked God's huge mouth seemed to swallow the world into his belly.

Heart Gone With The Wind was back to his senses: "Open the set card: Trap Card Trap Hole of Spikes! When an opponent's monster that was Normal or Special Summoned this turn declares an attack: Destroy that attacking monster and inflict damage to the opponent equal to half the original ATK of that monster!"

A huge pit opened at the feet of the Wicked God, filled with shocking spikes.

But the Wicked God dismissed it at all and didn't even look down. It just swept the huge tail casually, and the pit was immediately leveled out. The sharp metal thorns were swept by the black cyclone, and disappeared out of thin air, just like being crossed out by an erasing pen.

"Muda (Useless)!" Bakura laughed loudly, "Traps don't work against gods!"

The real-life version of the three Wicked Gods were Level 10 DARK Fiend monsters, and they were just three weak chickens that were useless. But in the original manga, these Wicked Gods were genuine Level 10 DIVINE Divine-Beast monsters.

This meant that they all had the exact same resistance as the three Egyptian Gods!

"That's right, the Wicked God is invincible!" Bakura's pupils shrank, "Under the flames of the Wicked God, turn into nothingness! Digestive Blaze!!!"

The gladiator warriors were powerless to resist the pitch-black flame that consumed everything. The black flames turned into a sea of flames and flooded the audience here, everything was burned accompanied by foul language engulfed in flames.

Chapter 539: The Bond Is Unbreakable?

One hit kill!

The duel ended, the towering and tall black shadow also disappeared. The Wicked Eraser turned into an illusory image and dispersed with the wind, and the suffocating pressure it brought, and the thick clouds billowing in the sky, also disappeared like a mirage.

The figure of Heart Gone With The Wind also disappeared without a trace with the blow of the Wicked God. However, Bakura didn't find it strange at all. He just thought that the other party was bombarded by the supreme power of the Wicked God until his soul dissipated. He never thought about the possibility that "the other party is waiting for resurrection at the fountain".

"Hahahaha!!!" Bakura raised his head and laughed triumphantly, "How is it? See? This is the invincible power of the Wicked God!"

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer secretly thought: I want to see his face when he sees Heart Gone With The Wind again after a while, his expression must be more exciting than now

The six-year-old looked at Bakura's back, and couldn't help but mutter in his heart.

Hey, he actually has such a terrifying trump card in his hand. Fortunately, I didn't mess up before, so I went up to backstab this guy impulsively, otherwise it might be this Marik who was blasted into dust now

In a good mood, Bakura turned his head and looked at One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer.

Before the fight started, he decided to keep at least one alive, interrogate how they knew so much information, and see if he could find out the origin of the Duel King named Yusei Kaido by the way.

Bakura now felt at least 70% sure that Yusei Kaido may also be the reincarnation of someone in ancient times or even an immortal like Dartz, which seemed to better explain why Yusei Kaido knows so much.

But first, he had to try to get the remaining screwball to speak obediently.

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer quickly realized that after his teammates fell, it would be his turn next. But he has nothing to coax, just open the Duel Disk.

Fear? What is that? Who didn't die a few times when encountering a new BOSS?

It's no big deal, even if you die, in a few hours you'll be a hero again!

"Oh?" Bakura looked at him playfully, "Because your companion fell down, are you determined to avenge him?"

"That's right!" He raised his head and chest without any counter-offering, "I will inherit his will! I will not let his sacrifice be in vain!"

Anyway, even though this was just a CG cutscene, it was better to cooperate with the villain to say some lines that fit the situation. He didn't forget that he was still on camera at this moment, so many players looked at him, even if he would die, he should at least do it in a gorgeous style.

He felt that Brother Heart Gone With The Wind was very cool, at least he was showing off his momentum

"Hey, you have a lot of backbone, but we don't have to be enemies like this." Bakura put his hands on his hips and began to enter the villain's daily brainwashing mode, "Actually, we don't need to be hostile at all.

I admire that duelist just now, in fact, he is indeed one of the strongest opponents I have ever met. Of course, I also admire you. If I don't have to, I don't want to fight with you.

Since you know my true form, you should also know what I can do. When I rise and I will the world will bow to me!

Not just this world, but the real world too! "

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer: Sorry, but what you call the "real world" is actually a game to us.

"The villain tries to win over the opponent by offering to rule together", his kind of routine has long been used in various works. One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer didn't think much about it, but he still regarded it as a CG cutscene, so he replied according to the routine: "Shut up! It's useless to talk nonsense, if you want to fight, just do it!"

I will never waste my companion's will, the bond between us is unbreakable"

"That's such a pity." Bakura shook his head, "Join me, you could have everything you want. Money, status, beauties"

"I said, even if you um, wait, what did you just say?"

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer suddenly stopped.

Wait a minute, did he just say that there are beauties?

Wouldn't that be 18+ plot?

Is there such a good thing?

"Wait, I just thought about it again. In fact, I haven't known him for a long time, and we are not that familiar." He said with a serious face, "I will not let his sacrifice be in vain, so I must survive. It's not that your proposal can't be considered."

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer felt that what he said was the truth, without any hypocrisy.

He and Heart Gone With The Wind have not known each other for a long time. They were all newcomers to the support group around Yuei Vu. Not long after joining the group, they added friends to each other in the game, which happened only about a week or two ago.

Besides, they didn't really hang up with each other much.

He believed that if Heart Gone With The Wind is still there, he would support his decision here just like the other screwballs in the comment section.

Bakura: "?"

What about your companion's will?

Did you say that the bond between you and him is indestructible?

The screen in the live broadcast room was full of "2333", and even some screwballs who were also looking forward to the 18+ plot are constantly swiping "GKD" as if one by one behind the screen, millions of pants were unzipped.

There was an old saying that "time is like a whetstone, which will smooth the edges and corners of anyone".

Many of us have, over the years, met and learned from various people and became non-virgin people.

This is inevitable.

Immediately, all the drafts that Bakura was prepared to use to brainwash people were suddenly suppressed. He was stuck for a long time before he could say: "Well, that that's good."

Bakura couldn't even find anything to say for a while.

This felt like catching the enemy's spy and tying him up. The original plan was to torture him with eighteen tools, understand the reason and move the emotion, and then throw dazzling sugar-coated bullets to defeat the opponent's psychological defense.

As a result, the spy surrendered when you gave him a single chicken leg, making all the careful deployment you prepared a waste of effort.

There is definitely something fishy!

Bakura looked suspiciously at this guy.

This guy betrays his friend so clean and neat, and he doesn't even blink when he sells his teammates.

The attitude of ne Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer really made Bakura unable to help but have doubts.

His eyes flickered and he narrowed his eyes: "Then, in order to show your sincerity that you are really willing to join me tell me, your leader, that guy named Yuei Vu, who he really is? Why would he know my true form?"

"Yuei Vu?"

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer pretended to be mysterious and smiled, his eyes lost focus as if he was in a flashback, and there was even a trace of vicissitudes that had been baptized by the years.

He let out a long sigh, turned his head, and seemed to be caught in a long memory.

but in fact, he was actually posting in the forum.

"Emergency! The great evil god asked me about Yuei Vu-san's origin, please make up a background story that sounds more reliable! I'm waiting online!!!"

""

Chapter 540: Who He Really Is?

The post of One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer immediately aroused the enthusiasm of the vast number of screwball players in the World Link Online.

The background story of Yuei Vu, the "world protagonist", has always been talked about by screwball players, and some people have been guessing what Yuei Vu's real identity was.

Especially recently, Yuei Vu also made it clear that he knew the true identity of the great evil god Zorc. This detail not only surprised Zorc himself, but some interested players also noticed it, and it caused a series of heated discussions in the forum.

It was generally believed that Yuei Vu must also be someone related to the war between the Egyptian God and the great evil god Zorc 3,000 years ago, but that's all, and no progress has been made.

At this moment, the screwballs were brainstorming, new posts kept rolling in, and a lot of "good" ideas were collected in the forum in a short while.

For example, there was a screwball suggesting that it was better to fool Bakura, saying that Yuei Vu was actually the father of the nameless Pharaoh, the former pharaoh Akhenamkhanen. After all, Akhenamkhanen was also the pharaoh and the former owner of the Millennium Puzzle. Under this worldview, it was not surprising whether the soul has come to the present world or has been reincarnated.

If this was still normal at any rate, some of the posts were getting weirder and weirder.

For example, someone suggested that everyone can diverge their thinking and not be bound by stereotyped thinking.

Don't you see that the animation games that are released now are popular with gender-bended historical figures? For example, King Arthur can be a girl, and Nero can also be a girl then why can't we do the opposite?

Although Yuei Vu-san is a man, maybe he was actually the queen of Egypt three thousand years ago, maybe he is Yugi's, or maybe he is Kaiba's

When Yuei Vu came across this purely nonsense reply, he almost exploded in anger, and felt an urge to "find that bastard's home address and come to chop off that fucking tongue".

Fuck, do you think I never visit the forum?

However, these nonsense replies must not be used casually. Some of the answers were full of loopholes, and One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer felt that Bakura might figure out the flaws immediately.

The other party was already doubting himself, and his nonsense words at such a time would definitely be exposed.

So he could only be as vague as possible, saying that "we are just Yuei Vu-san's migrant workers, we only know what he told us to know, we don't know much, and dare not ask"

Under pressure from Bakura, he could only answer the other party's question by referring to the bullet screen as a reference while facing the plot party's guess about Yuei Vu's identity in the forum.

Ever since a vague outline of Yuei Vu's background and identity was built like this.

First of all, it was certain that Yuei Vu-san must be someone from three thousand years ago. It was known that he could control the three Egyptian Gods, so even if he was not a Pharaoh, he must be a related figure.

Bakura continued to ask: You can accurately describe my true form (a black lump with a big dragon on my crotch), is this also what he described?

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer naturally nodded like a chicken pecking at rice.

This was not what Yuei Vu told them, but they knew it from watching the animation. But he definitely couldn't explain it to Bakura like this, so he just pushed it all to Yuei Vu-san.

Bakura began to ponder.

So, does that mean he met me three thousand years ago?

The Millennium Items were created by Yami Yugi's father Akhenamkhanen when he was in power, but Akhenamkhanen had already been buried before the great evil god Zorc came out to make trouble.

Therefore, the pharaohs who have personally experienced the great battle and fought against the great evil god in person should only be Yami Yugi and the follow-up pharaoh, Priest Seto (that is, the previous life of President Kaiba).

So, excluding Yugi and Kaiba, among the people who fought against him during the great war three thousand years ago, was there anyone else who can control the Egyptian God?

Bakura thought and thought, racked his brains, and recalled it for a long time before finally an extremely terrifying thought popped into his head.

Masaka (wait for a second)!?

Except for Yugi, except for Kaiba, the one who knew his true form three thousand years ago, and who could command the three Egyptian Gods at will It seemed that there was really another one!

For the Great Evil God Zorc, it was like a nightmare that lasted for three thousand years, an existence that made his hands and feet feel cold just by imagining it!

Holactie the Creator God of Light!

The avatar of the Great Evil God, who was fearless at first and felt invincible, suddenly lost his aura at this moment.

He was not afraid of the Pharaoh, nor the Three Egyptian Gods, but he was terribly afraid of the supreme "Creator God of Light".

wait a minute, calm down.

Bakura forced himself to calm down.

The Creator God of Light has long ceased to exist, and he dared to come out to make trouble only after confirming this point over and over again.

If Holactie was really still there, even if he, Zorc Necrophades, could be fully resurrected in this world, so what? Didn't he even have time to make a move before he was killed?

But then he couldn't help but think

Since I can leave a soul fragment to wait for the opportunity to be resurrected today, will she do the same?

Maybe the Duel King named Yusei Kaido is similar to his current state, actually being a clone of Holactie?

Thinking of this, Bakura suddenly felt cold all over his body and his hands and feet were cold on a hot day

He thought that when Yusei Kaido didn't have any Egyptian Gods, he snatched the sky dragon from Marik, and then defeated all kinds of gods, and even collected all three Egyptian God cards before the nameless Pharaoh.

Even Kaiba, who was the reincarnation of Priest Seto, was no match for him, and the nameless pharaoh only made a DRAW with him; Marik was beaten by him, Dartz was beaten by him

With so many magnificent victories, now that Bakura found no reason to not believe that Yusei Kaido was actually an unrelated passer-by with no background.

Thinking about it this way Maybe that guy really has something to do with Holactie!

Of course, there were no actual credible clues, this was just his wild imagination, and the possibility of this fact was very low. But if it really involved the Creator God of Light, Bakura dared not be careless at all.

In this ultimate Shadow Game he must be more careful!

"Damn, what a lingering guy." Bakura gritted his teeth, "It's been three thousand years, are you still going out to foil my plan?"

When he spoke, his face was full of clouds. There was even some sense of fear in his fierce eyes, which was in stark contrast to his previous arrogance.

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer, of course, noticed this detail, and many other players also noticed it through the live broadcast.

Could it be that the great evil god guessed Yusei Kaido's real identity?

And he looks like he's terrified?

The minds of the screwball players immediately became active, and the popularity of the post about "Yusei Kaido's background" in the forum suddenly became popular again.

But no matter what his identity is, it's right that Yusei Kaido is awesome anyway!

""

"Ahchoo!"

A passerby Duel King who was on his way suddenly sneezed and rubbed his nose involuntarily.

MD, who is thinking about my handsomeness?
