

I Play Yu-Gi 541

Chapter 541: Priest

At night, Yuei Vu and his party briefly stopped in a small town to rest.

Although the flow of time in the memory world was different from the outside, the feeling of time passing was still normal for those who participate in this sandbox, and they should rest at night. It would be ridiculous to die by exhaustion without formally fighting the enemy.

Players were almost undead creatures in the game, they didn't need to eat or drink, but they had to go offline to rest.

If they logged out of the game in the memory world and took a break, the time flow in their reality was also consistent with that in this memory world, so there was no need to worry about the problem of missing something important after waking up.

In fact, Yuei Vu felt that even if he was thinking about the little screwballs around him, he still had to give some time to rest. Some screwballs were so addicted that they thought eating and sleeping during an event was a waste of time. It was not uncommon for people to die suddenly after playing continuously for a few days and nights.

For example, Snow Wave seemed to have been online for forty-eight hours. Yuei Vu felt that if he didn't find an opportunity to force him to go offline to rest, he might really be in danger of life.

This dinner was also really lively. Although the screwballs didn't eat, due to unknown factors, they (especially Brother Fae and Brother Noragami) were particularly interested in drinking, even in this ancient background.

The screwballs also made a special trip to the town to buy local wine with the local currency obtained from the mission, and toasted and drank around the campfire, as cheerful as if they were on an outing.

Fae and Noragami still felt that drinking was not enjoyable enough, so they went to seduce the accompanying young priests to join them.

The young priest apprentice was frightened by the wolf-like appearance of the two when they drank, and wanted to refuse. But when he caught a glimpse of Miss Yuehua who seemed to be staring at him (in fact, she was browsing the forum), he immediately summoned up his courage again.

How can a man say no!?

So he also joined in with pride

then stayed up all night.

The poor young priest obviously didn't know that those two guys were just wine jars walking around. Although the player could also get a negative state from drinking, these two people may drink too much to unlock the hidden skill "alcohol resistance" in the panel, which literally meant that they were "unaffected by alcohol's effect".

Before the sky darkened, a local official came up and said that there were monsters infested nearby, which had hurt many people so far. He hoped everyone could help them get rid of the monsters and bring back peace.

These NPCs were also honest. Wherever Yuei Vu went all the way before, people saw that his fashion was different, and he called heresy one by one. Now they brought along a tool-man priest boy, and the NPCs everywhere immediately treated them with courtesy and respected them like gods.

It could be seen that even if it was just a trainee priest, its status in the hearts of the people was supreme. No matter how strange the person following the priest looked, no one dared to raise any objections.

Originally, the official also heard that there was a trainee priest in the town, so he came here to ask for help. It's just that when he came, the priest was already so drunk that he fell to the side like a torn rag, blushing and murmuring vaguely.

But as soon as they heard that there was a side mission, the other players got excited immediately, jumping up enthusiastically to volunteer and ask for it.

Anyway, it was an insignificant and small task, let alone any danger, so Yuei Vu let them do as they liked. Anyway, it's still early in the morning, and it didn't take much time for this kind of side quest.

Having nothing to do after the meal, Yuei Vu simply went to have a look at these happy screwballs.

The place where the monster haunted was outside the city, in a valley. According to the official, this valley used to be a relatively critical transportation hub, with people coming in and out every day from front to back.

But now that something has happened, no one dared to walk on this road these days.

After walking for a long time, the group came to the mountain peaks.

In the narrow aisle, the stone walls were almost close together, and only one person could barely pass through at a time.

The long and narrow stone alley was flanked by two walls, and when you looked up, you could see the spectacle of a line of sky, followed by the redness of the setting sun.

With this situation, the screwballs couldn't help but make poetry flourish.

"It's very narrow at the beginning, and only one can through." Snow Wave shook his head.

"Go back dozens of steps, and suddenly see the light." Native Noragami answered.

"Drilling holes back and forth makes it spacious." Fae followed.

The three of them looked at each other and laughed strangely at the same time.

Miss Yuehua gave the three of them a disdainful look and walked past them at a faster pace.

Coke Sprite was curious: "What are they talking about?"

"Something that children should not hear."

Miss Yuehua responded casually and was suddenly taken aback, surprised to find

I can actually keep up with the train of thought of these three!

It's over, it's over, I have been corrupted

A few people passed through the long and narrow corridor noisily. After walking a few steps, a black figure suddenly slanted down from the darkness, swooping down with a slight buzzing sound

The target was Coke Sprite!

The screwballs were still making noise, and no one noticed that the atmosphere was wrong.

The icy wind has already blown on the back of Coke Sprite's white neck, its speed was so fast that in the blink of an eye it was already by her side. Coke Sprite was already a step late when she realized something was wrong, and she didn't even have time to turn her head

The howling wind and the suffocating green whirlwind made it impossible for people to open their eyes for a while. The image of a hero in green armor swayed in front of her like a fleeting mirage, and the burst of wind immediately blew the afterimage away.

Coke Sprite was so frightened that she sat down on the ground.

She raised her head, noticed the Masked HERO Blast in front of her, and quickly realized that it was Yuei Vu-san who covered her. She couldn't help blushing, her little heart was beating, and her brain quickly fast-forwarded to the part of "paying the favor by my body" but found that Yuei Vu-san was not looking at her at all.

A waste of expression.

After only an instant, Blast's body disappeared out of thin air.

The screwballs quickly realized what had happened, and quickly quieted down one by one to look for the enemy.

"Be more serious during the mission." Yuei Vu said casually with his hands in his pockets, without any intention of making a move.

"Yes, Yuei Vu-san!"

At this time, everyone also saw clearly the true face of the monster that was blown away by Blast.

A huge worm, with sharp and well-developed black arms like a steel sickle, flapped its pale yellow transparent wings behind it, and looked at everyone present with vicious eyes like sizing up food on a plate.

While it looked menacing enough to scare the shit out of any casual passerby, players quickly saw through it.

"This thing I seem to have seen it before? If I don't remember wrong, it is a Normie, isn't it?"

"Attack power of 300 or 500? I don't remember, anyway, it's trash"

This monster was Winged Cleaver. The name sounded awesome, but it was actually a Level 2 Normie whose ATK was a pitiful 700 points

"Little is better than nothing", and the screwballs would not let go of any chance to farm wild monsters.

"Summon Elemental HERO Avian!" This was naturally Snow Wave.

"Great Shogun Shien!" It was obvious Fae, who had collected the Six Samurai.

"Amazoness Swords Woman!" This was a nether monster, so of course, it came from Native Noragami.

"Majestic Mech Ohka!" Coke Sprite also took a Fairy-type monster whose attack power was about the same as that of Red-Eyes Black Dragon.

Miss Yuehua: "Winged Kuriboh!"

""

It seemed that something strange has been mixed in.

But it didn't matter.

Because this was a world built by Shadow Game, the monsters summoned by players here were also entities. A large number of various high-star ruthless characters quickly surrounded the "Winged Cleaver", and the poor two-star bug was scared all of a sudden, too scared to pat his wings.

It was cornered by this group of big monsters who were eager to gain experience, trembling, weak and helpless

But unexpectedly, no player succeeded in taking the head of this monster.

A blue sky thunder fell from the sky, and with a piercing bang, it blasted Winged Cleaver into rubbish on the spot. Light blue's impact and current spread, knocking out all the monsters surrounding it!

Even the expression of Yuei Vu, who was watching, changed slightly.

This level of extraordinary power could not be ordinary people.

"You guys are not from the palace."

A cold voice sounded from the direction of the valley.

Yuei Vu was so familiar with this voice, because not only did he hear it a lot, but the voice was so recognizable that he could even recognize it in his dreams.

This voice is President Kaiba Seto! ?

He turned his head, and as expected, he found Kaiba to be precise, it should be Seto, the previous life of the president standing not far away, holding a shining golden rod in his hand, looking at them coldly.

Chapter 542: A Card Addiction That Transcended Time And Space

Priest Seto!

Although the skin was a bit darker, the clothes were a bit weird, wearing all kinds of golden decorations, and he was holding a weapon that may be criticized as a "supernatural thing" by the modern president, Millennium Rod

There was no doubt that this was President Kaiba three thousand years ago!

Not to mention just changing clothes and having darker skin, with the highly recognizable voice of President Kaiba, Yuei Vu felt that it was impossible to be unable to recognize him no matter where he went!

Unfortunately, the president three thousand years ago obviously didn't recognize them and even looked hostile.

At this moment, a group of Egyptian soldiers appeared from nowhere in the valley and surrounded them with swords and spears. Priest Seto crossed his arms and held the Millennium Rod, asking coldly, "Who are you? Why can you control Ka monsters?"

In fact, it was not to blame for Seto's attitude. In their country, summoning monsters was usually only done by the royal family. In rare cases there was a common-born genius like Seto (his father was actually a priest but no one knew about it), they were often noticed by the royal family and absorbed into the system at an early stage.

Some other people that the royal family failed to notice, although there were kind-hearted people like Kisara who could control their own spirit, most of them would still be affected by the monsters bred in their hearts, and they would use the power of monster spirit to do evil and satisfy their own desires.

Suddenly meeting such a large number of people who could freely summon monsters naturally aroused Seto's vigilance.

The screwballs were still immersed in the surprise of "Fuck, it's the president", this no one answered for a while. Yuei Vu frowned, and stepped forward: "Is this golden object a legendary Millennium Item?"

So, you should be a noble priest? "

Seto snorted as a tacit consent.

"We are foreign travelers from the far east land"

After a wave of communication, Yuei Vu quickly fabricated the identity of an overseas tourist for them. Seto frowned but looked at them back and forth for a while, and seemed to believe them a little bit.

After all, their appearance was different from the ancient Egyptians, and their clothes were even more extraordinary here. Even if Yuei Vu didn't say so, Seto already suspected that they were visitors from afar.

In addition, all of them seem to have the power to flexibly summon spirits, so it was not particularly incredible that they could travel this far.

"But just based on this one-sided statement, I can't believe it." Seto frowned and thought for a moment.

"Then how can you trust us?"

Seto pondered for a moment and said: "The Ka monsters are not only tools for fighting, but also the reflection of the human heart itself. The Ka born in the heart of those who are good at heart must also be full of kindness, while those bred by those with dark hearts must be a monster that harms innocents."

Hearing what Seto said, Yui Yu hurriedly pushed back the Masked HERO Dark Law who was almost released just now.

He was afraid that Seto would immediately shout "There is such an evil monster" when he saw Dark Law. At that time, no matter how Yui Yu explained that this was actually a hero of justice, it would not work

"If Priest Karim who holds the Millennium Scale' is here, he can immediately measure the good and evil of people's hearts. But my Millennium Rod does not have that ability."

After a pause, his gaze narrowed, and with a big wave of his hand, he activated the golden armband in his hand that was, the ancient Duel Disk.

"However, through the holy battle ceremony, the depth of the opponent can also be measured. No one can hide their hearts in the ceremony. Whether it is good or evil, it will be reflected most intuitively!" Seto raised the volume.

Yui Yu: ""

He understood this sentence.

It probably meant: I don't believe it! Unless you play cards with me!

This gave him a strong sense of déjà vu for a moment. The appearance of the brown-skinned priest in front of him overlapped with the president he usually got along with in a trance. Although the specific content of what they said was different, the summed-up meaning was nothing more than Yui Yu ! Come to the duel!

A card addiction that transcended time and space.

However, Yui Yu also expressed his understanding.

So right here, right now, outside this valley of the sky, Yui Yu fought a duel with the president for the Nth time.

Yui Yu has long been familiar with Kaiba, but this time it was the president from three thousand years ago, not the president he was familiar with, thus it felt fresh like the first time.

In addition, it stood to reason that Kisara has not yet become the spirit of Seto, so he should not have the blue-eyed white dragon in his hand.

So here came the question, what deck the president would play without White Bride?

XYZ Dragon Cannon?

No, that thing was a high-tech weapon, and it would be too unsuitable to put it on an ancient Egyptian background.

The answer would soon be revealed.

Yui Yu, LP 4000

Seto, LP 4000

"It's me who strikes first."

Yuei Vu went first again, but fortunately this time he didn't play the HERO deck.

"I summon Gladiator Beast Hoplomus' in defense position."

Here we go~ Today we are playing Gladiator Beast!

The rhino warrior was covered in heavy white armor, and landed on the field in front of Yuei Vu lumberingly, his arms staggered like a steel meat shield blocking him.

[Gladiator Beast Hoplomus, DEF 2100]

"Activate Equip Spell Gladiator Beast's Battle Archfiend Shield' and equip it to Hoplomus." Yuei Vu played a card and equipped a shield for the rhino warrior in front of him, "This card can only be equipped to a Gladiator Beast' monster. If the equipped monster would be destroyed, destroy this card instead.

Set a card, I end my turn. "

Don't you even need a slab?

But he quickly came back to his senses: "It's my turn."

A stone slab crashed down in front of Seto. At the same time, Yuei Vu was also trying to remember what the president usually used in addition to White Bride.

But no matter how hard he tried, he could only replay it over and over again in his mind

"Hahahahahaha!!!"

"Toughest! Invincible! Strongest! Smash!"

"My strongest servant, Blue-Eyes White Dragon!"

"The ultimate form of my strongest servant, Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon!"

"The ultimate form of my strongest servant after a long evolution, Neo Blue-Eyes Ultimate Dragon!"

""

Thinking of this, his brain hurt.

As soon as he recalled, his mind is full of White Brides in various vests, and the president laughing in various poses.

"Using the spell Pot of Greed, which allows me to call two stone slabs into my hand."

Yuei Vu immediately saw the Pot of Greed three thousand years ago as expected, it looked the same as the future one.

Immediately afterward, Seto turned over a stone slab in front of him: "I activate the special ability of this monster, Thunder Dragon"! Discard it directly to the cemetery, and I can call the other two Thunder Dragon' stone slabs to come to my hand!"

Yuei Vu: "!?"

Wait a minute, speaking of it, the president in the animation seemed to still use Thunder Dragon?

So his current deck should be Thunder Dragon!?

Chapter 543: Thunder Dragon!

Not only Yuei Vu, but even the players couldn't help being taken aback when they saw the "Thunder Dragon" card, and there were a lot of shouts for a while.

To say that Thunder Dragon was also a magical deck. The earliest "Thunder Dragon" debuted in the hands of President Kaiba, and was also set as the main monster of sister Ishizu in related games of "Yu-Gi-Oh DM" in ancient times.

However, at that time, no one would have imagined that this "Thunder Dragon" deck would become a dominating meta deck after many years!

Two "Thunder Dragon" stone slabs were added to his hand, and then Seto muttered a spell, and the Millennium Rod pointed forward, flipping the stone slabs in front of him as if giving an order.

"The power I want to release here is a high-level spell Heavy Storm!" He shouted, "It can destroy any spells or traps set in the battlefield!"

"Then open the set card: Trap Card Half Unbreak!"

Although he didn't want to use it so early, since the opponent launched a "Heavy Storm", Yuei Vu had no choice.

"This trap can target 1 monster on the field; this turn, that monster cannot be destroyed by battle, also any battle damage I take from attacks involving that monster is halved.

The target I chose is Gladiator Beast Hoplomus' so that he will not be destroyed by the battle in this turn! "

The soaring black tornado seems to have liberated gravity, blowing everything on the ground into the air. The demonic shield in Hoplomus's hand was shattered under the gust of wind, but his body was quickly protected by a layer of translucent spherical shield.

"Are they all means of strengthening defense? But blindly defending doesn't work in front of me." Seto chanted a series of spells again, and then raised his hand to turn over the stone slab, "I use the spell Polymerization'!

Fuse the two Thunder Dragons' sealed in the stone slab! Summons a two-headed monster who destroys the opponent with powerful lightning

Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon! "

The power sealed in the two stone slabs was released, and the two Thunder Dragons merged under the vortex of magic. The lightning pierced through the surging magic power, and the Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon spewing out golden lightning descended on the field.

[Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon, ATK 2800]

"Then there is the special ability of the Thunder Dragonhawk' that is sealed in the stone slab!" Seto continued, "Discard the stone slab that seals the Thunder Dragonhawk' to release its hidden ability!

Its power can awaken the Thunder Dragon sleeping in the cemetery! "

Thunder Dragonhawk: You can discard this card; Special Summon 1 of your "Thunder Dragon" monsters that is banished or in your GY, except "Thunder Dragonhawk".

"Resurrect, Thunder Dragon!"

The current crackled and burst out, and the dragon with a green body flew back to the field with a meandering body.

[Thunder Dragon, ATK 1600]

Immediately after another series of incantations, Seto finished reciting the incantations, pointed forward with the Millennium Rod again, and shouted: "Then I use the spell Solidarity"!

This spell can add continuous blessings to my servants and increase their combat ability! "

Solidarity (Continuous Spell): If you have only 1 original Type of monster in your Graveyard, all monsters you control with the same Type gain 800 ATK.

Now all the monsters on Seto's field and in the GY were Thunder-type, so their ATK has increased by 800.

[Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon, ATK 2800 ATK 3600]

[Thunder Dragon, ATK 1600 ATK 2400]

The Egyptian soldiers on the side all admired: "Lord Seto is indeed a priest! He can summon such a powerful monster in an instant!"

"Sure enough, such an opponent is nothing in front of the priest, is it?"

"But according to the effect of Half Unbreak', in this turn, Gladiator Beast Hoplomus' will not be destroyed by the battle." Yuei Vu said.

"I know." Seto squeezed a seal and shouted, "Activate a new Spell Stop Defense! Let the servants in the defensive posture forcefully transform into the combat state!"

Stop Defense: Select 1 Defense Position monster on your opponent's side of the field and change it to Attack Position.

"Oh!" The Egyptian soldiers exclaimed again, "As expected of Lord Seto! He can use so many spells so skillfully!"

[Gladiator Beast Hoplomus, DEF 2100 ATK 700]

"Go, Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon, tear your opponent to pieces with thunder!" Seto ordered.

The Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon opened its mouth, and golden thunder blasted out from both mouths at the same time! The thunderbolt jumped and galloped toward the gladiator beast, but although this rhinoceros warrior was good at defense, his fighting power was pitifully weak, and he had no ability to resist the electric current at all.

"With the effect of Half Unbreak', Hoplomus will not be destroyed by the battle, and the battle damage will also be halved." Yuei Vu said.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2550

"Next is the attack of the Thunder Dragon!" Seto said.

The green dragon flapped its wings and flew up, its long body bent in mid-air, and the thunder spouted from its mouth was like a piercing spear!

Yuei Vu, LP 2550 LP 1700

Seeing that Yuei Vu just swayed, his knees bent slightly and he took all the damage, and the windbreaker fluttered behind him, Seto's eyes flickered involuntarily.

Did he take my all-out combo so easily?

"Ha, he was lucky to survive, but this also shows that he is completely vulnerable in front of Lord Seto." Some Egyptian soldiers commented.

"In the next round, Lord Seto will definitely defeat him!"

But after eating these two shots in a row, Yuei Vu calmed down a lot.

Because Seto's starting fusion monster was the oldest "Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon" in the Thunder Dragon series, not the bosses of the later era.

From this point of view, it may be that Seto did have a Thunder Dragon deck in his hand, but he did not have the most powerful pieces. Although it was still a very powerful deck, it was not impossible to deal with it.

This was indeed reasonable. Most of the priests in ancient Egypt used to control ordinary spirits with no effect. It's highly unlikely that all ruthless killing machines with backgrounds and stories, such as "Thunder Dragon Colossus" or "Thunder Dragon Titan", might show up here.

"The moment the battle ends, the effect of Gladiator Beast Hoplomus' is activated!" Yuei Vu said, "I can shuffle it into the Deck; Special Summon 1 Gladiator Beast' monster from your Deck, except Gladiator Beast Hoplomus'.

Come on, Gladiator Beast Spartacus! "

The rhino returned to the deck, and the golden light beams whirled and fell on the field. When it dispersed, appeared a sturdy dinosaur-shaped gladiator, with a long tail swinging behind it, wearing heavy armor, and holding a heavy and huge battle axe.

[Gladiator Beast Spartacus, ATK 2200]

"The effect of Gladiator Beast Spartacus!" Yuei Vu said, "When this card is Special Summoned, add 1 Gladiator Beast' Equip Spell Card from my Deck to my hand.

I added the Gladiator Beast's Battle Halberd' to my hand. "

Seto thought for a moment in silence, did not speak, and just set up another slab to end the round.

"It's my turn, draw!" Yuei Vu said, "Spell Card- Gladiator Proving Ground! From the deck, add 1 Level 4 or lower Gladiator Beast' monster to my hand. I chose Gladiator Beast Bestiari'!

Next, I normal summon Gladiator Beast Bestiari'! "

The bird circled in mid-air and landed on the ground, encircling their arms and creating a whirlwind.

[Gladiator Beast Bestiari, ATK 1500]

"Then I return the Gladiator Beast Bestiari' and Gladiator Beast Spartacus' on the field to the deck!

The fusion condition is Gladiator Beast Bestiari' + 1 Gladiator Beast' monster!

Contact Fusion! Gladiator Beast Gyzarus! ! ! "

Chapter 544: Thunder Dragonduo

The storm fell on the ground like a heavy war hammer, and the king of Gladiator Beast descended, accompanying by the buzzing of metal wings, and the blood-red pupils shone with icy light.

[Gladiator Beast Gyzarus, ATK 2400]

"This servant" Seto seemed to have noticed the infinite power contained in the ancient Roman king and raised his eyebrows slightly.

"The effect of Gladiator Beast Gyzarus." Yuei Vu said, "When this card is Special Summoned: I can target up to 2 cards on the field; destroy those targets. Destroy Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon' and Thunder Dragon'!"

The alloy green wings spread behind Gyzarus, he flew into the air, and the red spikes sprinkled all over the sky, piercing the bodies of the two thunder dragons, and the two monsters exploded on the spot.

Seto raised his arms to protect his face: "Are my servants all gone in an instant?"

"Activate Equip Spell Gladiator Beast's Battle Halberd' and equip it to Gladiator Beast Gyzarus'." Yuei Vu continued.

A long war halberd appeared in Gyzarus's hand, with a reddish gleam at the tip.

"Battle! Gyzarus, attack the player directly!"

Gyzarus flew high into the sky, folded his wings backward, and his huge body was hidden in the center of the whirlwind, piercing like a shooting star! The halberd was thrown straight forward, and the branded red tip left a striking trail in the air like a shooting star passing through the sky.

Boom! ! !

The landing shock wave exploded, blasting the young priest's entire body backward.

The Egyptian soldiers turned pale with fright: "Lord Seto!"

Seto, LP 4000 LP 1600

"The effect of Gladiator Beast's Battle Halberd' When the equipped monster attacks, destroy 1 Spell or Trap Card at the end of the Damage Step." Yuei Vu pointed to the opponent's field, "I will destroy Solidarity'.

In this way, Thunder-Type monsters can no longer increase their attack power. "

Gyzarus hovered in mid-air in a circle, and pierced through with a halberd with his arm, piercing through the stone slab of "Solidarity". The war halberd turned into a beam of laser light piercing through the stone slab, leaving a striking hole, and the whole slab collapsed into pieces.

"The effect of Gladiator Beast Gyzarus' At the end of the Battle Phase, if this card battled, I can return it to the Extra Deck; Special Summon 2 Gladiator Beast' monsters from your Deck, except Gladiator Beast Bestiari'."

While Yuei Vu was speaking, the Duel Disk ejected two cards from the deck.

"Come on, Gladiator Beast Vespasius, Gladiator Beast Andal!"

A sea dragon and a black bear landed on the field, one on the left and one on the right in front of Yuei Vu.

[Gladiator Beast Vespasius, ATK 2300]

[Gladiator Beast Andal, ATK 1900]

"The effect of Gladiator Beast's Battle Halberd' When the equipped monster returns to the deck from the field, this card can be returned to the hand without being destroyed."

Yuei Vu withdrew the Equip Spell and continued to explain at the same time.

"The effect of Gladiator Beast Vespasius' If this card is Special Summoned by the effect of a Gladiator Beast' monster, as long as he is on the field, all monsters I control gain 500 ATK."

[Gladiator Vespasius, ATK 2300 ATK 2800]

[Gladiator Beast Andal, ATK 1900 ATK 2400]

Although Seto didn't understand the modern Yu-Gi-Oh terminology on Yuei Vu's side, he could only think of it as a unique way of explaining the "battle ceremony" in the place where Yuei Vu came from.

But even without Yuei Vu's explanation, he could understand the changes in the situation on the field in his own way. Although he couldn't see the data information, he could judge the remaining LP of both sides by sensing the soul power, and could accurately judge the strength of the monster's combat power through the aura of the monster.

But ordinary Egyptian soldiers couldn't perceive this. In their eyes, they could only see the two sides calling for monsters to come out and attack each other, and from their perspective, it seemed that the outsider had the upper hand.

All the soldiers couldn't help being surprised.

What is the identity of this outsider? Can he actually gain the upper hand in the battle with the priest?

"The Spell Card Gladiator Beast's Respite' is activated." Yuei Vu said, "Shuffle 2 Gladiator Beast' cards from the hand into the Deck, then draw 3 cards."

He took out two cards and randomly inserted them into the deck, and the Duel Disk automatically shuffled it quickly. He then refilled his hand with three cards.

"Set a card, I end my turn."

Seto was also surprised by the strength of the spirit controlled by the outsider and his own combat ability, but he quickly adjusted his mentality and focused on the battle.

"Then it's my turn."

A new slab fell before him. Seto glanced at it and activated it without much thought.

"I unseal this slab and release the blessing-giving spell Card of Demise!" he shouted, "I will increase the number of slabs I can call to five, but as a price, after five rounds, all the slabs in my hand will be destroyed!"

Yuei Vu: ""

It turned out that the president's divine hand-refilling card was inherited from ancient times, and he has been using it since such an early age

"I use the special ability of the Thunder Dragonroar' sealed in the stone slab!" Seto shouted, "Discarding the stone slab with the Thunder Dragonroar' sealed in it, I can recover the slab of Thunder Dragon' that is in the cemetery or exiled!"

Thunder Dragonroar: You can discard this card; add to your hand, 1 of your "Thunder Dragon" cards that is banished or in your GY, except "Thunder Dragonroar".

"Come back to me, Thunder Dragonhawk!"

The slab of the Thunder Dragonroar turned into golden light spots and dissipated, and the "Thunder Dragonhawk" slab that was discarded to the cemetery in the last round quickly returned to Seto.

"Then exile the Thunder Dragon' and the Thunder Dragonroar' in the cemetery!"

Seto raised the Millennium Rod in his hand high. The rod lit up with golden light, and the blue thunder tore the sky from outside the sky and fell behind Seto.

"Arrival! Thunder Dragonduo!"

Black clouds billowed, and two pitch-black heads protruded from the thunderclouds! The thunder was like brilliant sparks. The giant dragon's body churned and its heavy body shattered the ground. The entire space shook violently, and black stones bounced and splashed from the shattered ground.

[Thunder Dragonduo, ATK 2800]

Thunder Dragonduo: This card cannot be Normal Summoned/Set. Must first be Special Summoned (from your hand) by banishing 1 LIGHT and 1 DARK monster from your GY.

"Then activate the special ability of the Thunder Dragonhawk' that was just recovered!" Seto continued, "The stone plate that seals the Thunder Dragonhawk' can be discarded from the hand, and the monsters in the cemetery or exiled can be recalled back. field!"

Thunder Dragonhawk: You can discard this card; Special Summon 1 of your "Thunder Dragon" monsters that is banished or in your GY, except "Thunder Dragonhawk".

The stone slab of Thunder Dragonhawk was discarded, and Seto immediately raised his arm:

"Come back to me, Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon!"

The golden electric current crackled and blasted the space, and the two-headed dragon that left the field in a hurry in the last round wriggled its body and came again!

[Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon, ATK 2800]

"Furthermore, at this moment, the combat power of Thunder Dragonroar will increase accordingly!"

Thunder Dragonduo: Once per turn, if a monster effect is activated in the hand: This card gains 300 ATK until the end of this turn.

[Thunder Dragonduo, ATK 2800 ATK 3100]

"Come on, Thunder Dragonduo! Defeat that blue Gladiator Beast!"

Yuei Vu guessed blindly, maybe Vespasius name was too long and too convoluted for Seto to remember, so he just said it was the blue Gladiator Beast

The pitch-black two-headed dragon raised its head and roared, the black cloud was torn apart by the electric light, and the blue lightning pierced down from the sky, like a thunder calamity from nine days away!

The armor of the mighty Gladiator Beast was pierced by lightning, and his body was blasted into scorched black. Vespasius let out a deep mournful cry, exploded in the thunder, and then exited the stage.

Yuei Vu, LP 1700 LP 1400

"Because Vespasius was destroyed, the attack power of Andal decreased." Yuei Vu said.

[Gladiator Beast Andal, ATK 2400 ATK 1900]

"Thunder Dragonduo's special ability." Seto also said, "When it defeats the servant controlled by the opponent, I can call for a new slab to descend!"

Thunder Dragonduo: When this card destroys an opponent's monster by battle: You can banish 1 card from your GY; add 1 Thunder monster from your Deck to your hand.

Here Seto chose to banish the Spell Card "Stop Defense" in the GY and add another "Thunder Dragonhawk" from the deck to his hand.

"Continue to pursue." Seto continued, "Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon, attack the Gladiator Beast Andal!"

The Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon raised its head, and the golden thunder pierced out with an aura that penetrated everything!

The corner of Yuei Vu's mouth twitched slightly: "This is the moment I've been waiting for."

"Nani?"

"Activate Trap Card Doble Passe!" Yuei Vu waved his hand, "When an opponent's monster declares an attack on a face-up Attack Position monster I control: Make the opponent's attack a direct attack instead!"

"What?" Seto's eyes moved.

If the Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon defeated Andal, it would only cause 900 combat damage, and Yuei Vu's LP would remain at 500.

But after activating this trap card, the attack of Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon became a direct attack, which would cause 2800 damage in one breath and directly lead to Yuei Vu's defeat!

Is this suicide?

"At this moment, I activate the effect of Gladiator Beast Noxious' in my hand." Yuei Vu showed a card in his hand, "When an opponent's monster declares a direct attack: I can Special Summon this card from my hand, change the attack target to this card, and proceed to damage calculation. This card cannot be destroyed by that battle!"

[Gladiator Beast Noxious, DEF 1000]

The thunderbolt summoned by Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon forcibly shifted its direction, first pointing at Yuei Vu, and then deflected again in the direction of Noxious. However, this leopard-shaped gladiator that made an impromptu appearance was extremely tenacious, and he bore the thunder firmly. Although there were crackling electric snakes and black smoke around his body, he seemed to be fine on the whole.

Seto understood: "So that's how it is. Avoid damage to yourself, kept your servant alive, and at the same time called new servants. It's really a beautiful move"

"Not only that." Yuei Vu smiled, "The effect of Doble Passe hasn't ended yet. It inflicts damage to the opponent equal to the ATK of the attack target I control!

In other words, you'll take damage equal to the attack power of Gladiator Beast Andal', which is 1900 points! "

[Gladiator Beast Andal, ATK 1900]

Seto, LP 1600

Seto: "!?"

Chapter 545: Turn Stone Slab Into Card

"The effect of Doble Passe!" Yuei Vu said, "Eat the attack power of Gladiator Beast Andal, which means 1900 points of damage!"

Priest Seto looked at the black bear that crossed layers of defenses and rushed towards him aggressively, and his face couldn't help but change for a moment.

Perfect defense and fatal counterattack How can it be possible to do this with just one trap?

The activation of monster effects, the switching of offense and defense of spells and traps, these complicated things were not understood by the Egyptian soldiers watching. But what they could see clearly was that the armored black bear was galloping straight toward their priest, intending to smash him flat!

One could also imagine that such a heavy paw falling on the face would definitely not be a good outcome.

"Lord Seto!"

"It's not that easy." Seto raised his Millennium Rod and pointed at the opponent, "At this moment, I want to release this spell immediately Spell of Pain! Reflect the damage I have received!"

Spell of Pain (Quick-Play Spell): When your opponent activates a card or effect that would inflict effect damage to you: Your opponent takes the effect damage from that card or effect, instead.

Yuei Vu speculated that the performance of this "Quick-Play Spell" may be that it could be released and take effect in time. Since Seto neither recited a spell nor formed a spell, this may be an "instant spell".

The magic power of the stone slab quickly formed a complex defensive circle, and Andal's impact was absorbed by the circle.

The corner of Priest Seto's mouth hooked, and the Millennium Rod was held forward: "Eat the rebound of the spell, fall into your own trap and lose!"

A magic circle with the same pattern opened not far in front of Yuei Vu, and the shock wave formed the shape of a fist and exploded toward him!

"Oh, Lord Seto is indeed a priest!" Another Egyptian soldier was excited, "There is no weak spot in his tactics!"

The rebound damage was 1900, and Yuei Vu only had 1400 LP left. This blow might also directly determine the outcome!

Seto narrowed his eyes and glanced at Yuei Vu's field.

There are no spells set, and servants on the field do not have the ability to counter magic damage.

Although he is an admirable strongman, this victory belongs to me, Priest Seto!

Thinking of this, Seto couldn't help but feel a sense of accomplishment in defeating a powerful enemy, and even wanted to have a series of three-stage laughter in advance

But Yuei Vu's move was not over yet!

"The effect of the Hanewata' in the hand is activated."

Yuei Vu stuffed a card into the Duel Disk's grave area, and a cute little cotton ball with white wings suddenly appeared in front of him.

"By discarding this card; I take no effect damage this turn. And this effect can also be activated during the opponent's turn."

Andal's rebounded fist hit this little fellow and was completely nullified as if it hit a literally cotton ball.

Seto's eyelids twitched, felt a little startled.

Even my spell rebound has been blocked?

Why is this man's line of defense so strong?

"It's not over yet." Yuei Vu twitched his mouth and smiled, "The trap card Doble Passe' has more follow-up effects. The monster selected as the attack target this turn that is, Gladiator Beast Andal' can attack the opponent directly during my next turn!"

Seto: "!!?"

Andal waved his bear paw and let out a growl of "Roar", as if in a demonstration.

[Gladiator Beast Andal, ATK 1900]

Seto, LP 1600

If he was attacked directly, the next round would be his defeat!

The situation reversed again!

Sweat began to roll down Seto's forehead.

Is there actually a strong man with such strength in other places?

Seto was born as a commoner, and he climbed to the position of a priest by relying on his own strength and passing through various trials. Even among the seven priests around the Pharaoh, he was the most powerful one.

In his memory, he has never been involved in such a fierce battle since he became a priest. All his offensive methods were easily resolved by the opponent, and at the same time, the opponent could counterattack with various tricky methods

Yuei Vu's performance was still not over: "Noxious' effect At the end of the Battle Phase, if this card battled: You can shuffle it into the Deck; Special Summon 1 Gladiator Beast' monster from your Deck, except Gladiator Beast Noxious'.

Come on, Gladiator Beast Murmillo! "

The double-helix water burst out, and the fish gladiator appeared on the field with two water cannons on its back.

[Gladiator Beast Murmillo, ATK 800]

"The effect of Murmillo When this card is Special Summoned by the effect of a Gladiator Beast' monster: Target 1 face-up monster; destroy that target." Yuei Vu said, "Destroy the Thunder Dragonduo!"

The two water cannons on Murmillo's back were activated at the same time, like two water dragons twisting and rushing out, blowing Seto's invincible Thunder Dragonduo to pieces with one blow!

Seto raised his arm to block the scattered water in front of him, raised his eyes to look at the fish Gladiator Beast, and suddenly thought of something.

When he attacked Vespasius with Thunder Dragonduo just now, Yuei Vu did not activate the trap but only activated it when he attacked with the Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon.

"Gladiator Beast Noxious" had only one chance to not be destroyed by battle, and the ability of "Special Summon 1 Gladiator Beast' monster from the deck" must be activated after the battle. If he used Doble Passe to save Vespasius, then he would be unable to use the effect of Murmillo to destroy Seto's ace monster "Thunder Dragonduo".

In other words the opponent even considered the possibility that I'm able to counter "Doble Passe", and even calculated a further offensive strategy?

Seto was even more surprised.

Such a powerful strength, if placed in their country, would be at the level of a priest No, even most of current priests may not be able to rival this guy!

After a brief silence, Seto waved his hand, and laid down two stone slabs in front of him, ending his round.

He glanced at the two stone slabs set in front of him and narrowed his eyes.

These two traps were the perfect line of defense he set up. The magic recorded in them belonged to the highest-level traps in the palace. He only had the opportunity to learn them after he was promoted to priest and came into contact with the advanced spells in the royal library.

Such a line of defense could be called an impregnable wall, and he still had a relatively powerful "Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon" on the field, so he should be able to deal with the next round no matter what.

The next time you make a move yourself, the winner will be decided!

"It's my turn, draw." Yuei Vu directly revealed the magic card, "Spell Card Spider Web! Select 1 card in the opponent's Graveyard that was sent there the previous turn, and add it to my hand."
(Animation card)

The white silk thread flew into the black vortex that opened on the ground and quickly pulled out a heavy golden stone slab from it.

The moment he saw the stone slab, there was a black line on Yuei Vu's face for a moment after all, although his future Duel Disk was powerful in technology, it could only read cards after all and cannot use the slab.

Fortunately, this "sacred battle ceremony" was smarter than he thought. The slab flew in front of Yuei Vu, and when he reached out to touch it, it turned into a card and came into his hand.

Huh~ Fortunately, it works. If it really can't be activated with a stone slab here, it will be a bit painful

But at this time, Seto was even more astonished.

What kind of spell is this?

With just one touch, the slab can be turned into a small piece of paper?!

Yuei Vu didn't know Seto's thoughts, otherwise, maybe he would make some jokes.

According to legend, in ancient times, there was a certain Dou King named Xiao Yan who could turn Dou Qi into a horse. Today, I, the Duel King named Yuei Vu, could turn a stone slab into a card without any problem (1)

TL's note:

1. This is based on a mocking meme about the live-action adaption of "Battle Through the Heavens".

Originally in the novel, when a cultivator reaches the Dou King realm, they can turn Dou Qi into wings to fly. However, in the live-action, producers changed it into a horse to make it easier to film. This change received many negative reactions from fans of the novel.

Chapter 546: Binding Chains

"According to the effect of the Spell Card Spider Web', the card I added to your hand from your graveyard is the Card of Demise'." Yuei Vu said, directly inserting that card into the Duel Disk,

"Then activate Spell Card Card of Demise'. I can draw cards until I have 5 cards in my hand."

Yuei Vu drew five cards. Seto frowned and reminded: "But as a risk, after five rounds, all the slabs all cards you have in your hand must be discarded."

Obviously, Seto originally wanted to say "slab", but then he thought that the opponent didn't have any slab at all, so he had to imitate Yuei Vu and used the concept of "card".

Although Priest Seto may not understand what the word "card" meant, he has roughly guessed that the term may refer to the small pieces of paper in Yuei Vu's hand. It seems to have replaced the slab they used.

Yuei Vu couldn't help but want to complain a little. Such an almost negligible risk of "discarding all the cards in your hand after five turns", every time President Kaiba used this card, he deliberately emphasizes it, acting as if it is an extremely huge price

At the same time, Seto was also very concerned about one thing, that was, after his stone slab was turned into something called a "card" by the opponent, it seemed that this guy could directly use the magic sealed in it without magic seal or chanting!

Seto was surprised at the beginning of the duel, and his reaction was a bit like Nani? This person can perform ninjutsu without making hand seals?

Dueling in this worldview is indeed a rather magical thing. People on the ground and people on the bottom of the sea, people on earth and people from outer space, people from modern times and people from ancient times, all of them may have different languages and cultures, but they could definitely communicate with each other in playing cards.

What's more interesting was that everyone used different equipment, terminology, and even standards for judging LP and the monster's attack power. However, they could still have fun playing cards across servers

"Here I come, Kaiba Uh, no, it's Priest Seto."

Seto: "?"

"Spell Card E-Emergency Call." Yuei Vu said, "Add 1 Elemental HERO' monster from the deck to the hand."

What? You said why there is an "E-Emergency Call" in the Gladiator Beast deck?!

Of course, it's for recruiting the invincible Prisma!

"I added Elemental HERO Prisma' to my hand, and then normal summon it!"

The prism hero with a bright body appeared on the field, and his crystal clear body reflected the luster of gems.

[Elemental HERO Prisma, ATK 1700]

"The effect of Prisma." Yuei Vu said, "Once per turn: I can reveal 1 Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, then send 1 of the Fusion Materials whose name is specifically listed on that card from my Deck to the Graveyard.

This card's name becomes the sent monster's until the End Phase. "

Yuei Vu showed a purple card.

"The fusion monster I want to show is Gladiator Beast Gyzarus'. Then I send the fusion material Gladiator Beast Bestiari' from the deck to the graveyard. In this turn, Prisma's name becomes Gladiator Beast Bestiari'.

Reflect Change! "

Prisma shot flashes all over his body, and Bestiari's figure was reflected on his body.

"I return Murmillo and Prisma who is treated as Bestiari' to the deck!" Yuei Vu said, "Contact Fusion! Come again

Gladiator Beast Gyzarus! "

The hero and the gladiator beast turned into two beams of light and shot into the air, and the surging force landed vertically with the storm. The king in heavy armor turned around and came again, bringing absolute momentum to dominate the battlefield!

"Gladiator Beast Gyzarus's effect! When this card is Special Summoned, up to two cards on the field will be destroyed!"

Gyzarus spread his wings, and the red spikes shot in the green storm!

"It's this monster again!" an Egyptian soldier exclaimed.

Even they remembered that in the last round, it was this flying monster that swept across the lineup of their priest in one breath, and dealt a powerful and effective heavy blow!

But this time Seto was already on guard against Gyzarus: "The same trick will not work again! You have triggered my trap at this moment!

Fiendish Chain, bind my enemies! "

The slab turned over, and countless dark green chains shot out from the yellowed slab! The thick chain made a crisp metal impact sound, and Gyzarus and his wings were bound together in a "crash", unable to move a single bit!

This time, the players were stunned: "It's the fucking Fiendish Chain!"

"Did there be Fiendish Chain in Egypt 3,000 years ago?!"

Fiendish Chain (Continuous Trap): Activate this card by targeting 1 Effect Monster on the field; negate the effects of that face-up monster while it is on the field, also that face-up monster cannot attack. When it is destroyed, destroy this card.

The corner of Seto's mouth curled up, not hiding the complacency and pride on his face.

He did have reasons to be proud of himself.

Fiendish Chain was one of the most difficult spells to master in the records of the Royal Library's classics. He should be proud that he can easily and skillfully control such a powerful trap at such a young age.

Yuei Vu was not panicked when Gyzarus's effect was invalidated, he just continued: "Battle! I use Gladiator Beast Andal' to attack.

According to the effect of "Doble Passe", Andal can attack directly this turn. Go ahead, Andal's direct attack! "

The black bear turned into an afterimage and flew forward, its nimble body crossed layers of obstacles, and slammed towards Seto's face with a wave of its palm!

"Lord Seto!" The Egyptian soldiers exclaimed again.

"Small tricks!" Seto yelled, "What you triggered at this moment is another trap! Spellbinding Circle"! Use the six-pointed star's spell to bind the enemy and restrict the opponent's actions!"

Spellbinding Circle (Continuous Trap): Activate this card by targeting 1 face-up monster your opponent controls; it loses 700 ATK, also it cannot attack or change its battle position. When it leaves the field, destroy this card. (animation effect)

By the way, in the animation, this card was Yami Yugi's. And President Kaiba's Blue-Eye White Dragon was cursed by this spell more than once

But Seto, who was a priest at this time, obviously also controlled the curse of restraint! The "Gladiator Beast Andal" who was sprinting halfway was trapped by the six-pointed star seal that appeared out of nowhere and stopped abruptly, unable to move at all.

[Gladiator Beast Andal, ATK 1900 ATK 1200]

"Oh! As expected of the priest!" The Egyptian soldier blew again.

"I just said that the priest's spell is the strongest! It is no problem to deal with this level of attack!"

Even Set himself was a little bloated. He felt that even the attack up to this step was resolved without any risk, thus he deserved praise.

But it seemed that the man he was three thousand years ago was not as arrogant as the future president. Satisfied, he still nodded his head and admitted his opponent: "You are not bad either. Although you are a little short, your strength is strong enough. In our country, you can be considered one of the best.

You have also proved to me that you are not the kind of strong person who will get lost in power, and I can feel that you have no evil intentions. It is an honor, visitor from another land, that you have my recognition. "

"That's really flattering." Yusei Fudo smiled, "However, the duel is not over yet."

"Huh?" Seto raised his eyebrows.

"Quick-Play Spell Gladiator Beast United!" Yusei Fudo revealed another card, "This card can only be activated during the Battle Phase. Shuffle into the Deck, from my hand, field, or GY, the Fusion Materials that are listed on a Gladiator Beast' Fusion Monster, then Special Summon that Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, ignoring its Summoning conditions!

I return the Gladiator Beast Gyzarus' on the field and the Gladiator Beast Bestiari' that was sent to the GY by the effect of Prisma! "

Seto: "!!??"

"The fusion condition is Gladiator Beast Bestiari' + 1 Gladiator Beast' monster! Here I call the name of the ancient king once again

Gladiator Beast Gyzarus! "

Gyzarus and Bestiari turned into two beams of light and sank into mid-air. It soon rolled up a more intense tornado in the sky. The king of Gladiator Beast broke through the whirlwind and descended again!

[Gladiator Beast Gyzarus, ATK 2400]

"Gladiator Beast Gyzarus's effect When this card is Special Summoned: I can target up to 2 cards on the field; destroy those targets. I will destroy the Twin-Headed Thunder Dragon'!"

Gyzarus flew into the air again, densely packed red spikes penetrated the body of the two-headed brontosaurus. Golden lightning burst out from many places on the solid body of the dragon, and its two heads screamed in pain at the same time. It fell from the sky and exploded on the ground into a gorgeous pillar of fire.

Checkmate!

"Gladiator Beast Gyzarus." Yuei Vu raised his right hand, "Attack directly."

Gyzarus flew through the air, and the metal wings cut through the fire, as if the afterimage of the black shell exploded on Seto's face, drawing the curtain for this battle ceremony.

Chapter 547: Trainee Priest

"The Priestlost?"

"How!?"

The Egyptian soldiers were stunned, and the shock in their eyes seemed to be no less than the landslide and the collapse of the worldview.

In the eyes of both the civilians and the soldiers, the pharaoh and priests were the supreme existences, and in normal people's minds, they were the representatives of the gods.

No matter when and where, and how desperate the situation was, as long as there were priests sitting in command, their morale would not be crushed, because this was the foundation of their belief.

But now Priest Seto, one of the most powerful among the seven priests, lost to an outsider so easily?

Only the players were not surprised by this result, but they were all whispering to each other, feeling excited about the duel just now especially because they were able to see the legendary "Thunder Dragon" deck in the ancient Egyptian world three thousand years ago.

Although it seemed that it was just a defective product, after all, it was also the prototype of the Thunder Dragon deck!

At this time, even the players have already taken a new look at this Priest Seto. With such a powerful strength, he was really worthy of being a priest, and he was completely different from ordinary minions.

It was said that playing cards was a process of heart-to-heart communication. After this match, the priest Seto seemed to have basically approved of Yuei Vu.

At the same time, he said that a strong man like Yuei Vu who could hold powerful power but not be corrupted by it was worthy of respect no matter where he went and insisted on inviting Yuei Vu to visit the palace for a while, and guaranteed that Yuei Vu and his party would be regarded as the most honored guests.

Perhaps these words came from Seto's heart, but he certainly had other thoughts. After all, from the standpoint of a priest, the stronger Yuei Vu was, the less reassuring he was.

To be on the safe side, he still hoped to take Yuei Vu to the palace, and let other priests with the ability to identify good and evil make a conclusion, and judge whether these outsiders were friends or foes.

Yuei Vu knew, but he didn't mind.

Anyway, he was planning to go to the palace to meet up with Yami Yugi to discuss the strategy and tactics of this RPG.

Unlike Yuei Vu who still had animation plots as a reference, Yami Yugi was thrown into this world of memory with completely blind eyes, neither knowing what he was going to do nor what Bakura was going to do.

At the moment when he came in, there was no movement from Bakura, and the pharaoh without any memory must be in a state of nervous tension at this time.

So Yuei Vu and others joined Seto's team, followed them through the valley of the sky again, and walked towards the direction of returning to the town.

"Your strength is admirable." On the way back, Seto said to Yuei Vu, "You are the most proficient person I have ever seen in the study of spells. Not only spell attainments but also your understanding of various spells. The skillful and flexible application of spells, the arrangement of tactics, or the strength of Kayou are the most impeccable warrior I have ever seen."

"Cough, thank you."

With the face and the voice of President Kaiba, he actually expressed his praise so bluntly, which made Yuei Vu a little at a loss for a while, and even felt a little embarrassed.

Not everyone has the opportunity to hear such straightforward praise from President Kaiba.

So it seems that there are some differences in character between Priest Seto three thousand years ago and President Kaiba today. I don't know how the president turned into such an arrogant and awkward shape.

"You are also very strong. The allocation of resources in the battle, quickly calling out powerful spirits to suppress with absolute strength, is beyond the reach of ordinary people." Yuei Vu also said.

In fact, it was the routine "commercial mutual blow" that everyone would be familiar with in the future.

It's just that blowing also has to pay attention to a technique. You couldn't casually praise someone for being handsome, and when that one asked you where was the handsomeness, you just vaguely say that the other party had handsome eyes, nose, and mouth.

This is a typical embarrassment and is not advisable.

Aggro was originally Seto's fighting style, and his deck operation ability was really strong, Yuei Vu's blowing was indeed on point. Seto listened to it, his face was calm but his heart was very happy.

Although, as a priest, he was not short of compliments from others, the praise of ordinary people has long been unable to cause any big waves for him.

But the approval from other powerhouses has a different meaning.

"Hey, hey, what's your name?" Yuei Vu suddenly felt someone tugging at the corner of his clothes.

He turned his head, only to realize that there was a cute and soft girl beside him at some point. She blinked her big black and watery eyes, wore a white headscarf slanted, her chocolate-colored skin was flimsy, and her small face was full of curiosity and admiration.

Seeing her, Yuei Vu's first reaction was to check that his big, white, and naive spirit was still there because apart from the difference in clothing and skin color, they looked so much alike.

Undoubtedly, this was the original form of Yugi's "Dark Magician Girl" Mana, Yami Yugi's childhood sweetheart.

Before, the girl hid in the back row and watched without being discovered, but now the screwballs couldn't stand it any longer.

So white!

So cute!

But Yuei vu thought

not as big as my girl.

Although Mana didn't look tall, she was cheerful and cute, and though she was still young, her development in certain places was really extraordinary.

There were also those slender, straight, slightly sensual legs, and the shape of the legs was impeccable.

At this time, several screwballs have silently taken screenshots and dropped another blockbuster on the forum, which caused a large number of "My waifu!" comments.

Facts once again proved that those guys who like to define their own fetishes all day long, saying that they preferred this or that, were actually pure perverts, and the skin color couldn't affect their enthusiasm at all.

"Me? My name is Yuei Vu." Yuei Vu smiled.

Perhaps because of his resemblance to his own silly spirit, Yuei Vu felt an inexplicable intimacy when he saw this little trainee priest in this other world.

On weekdays, there was always such a stupid and cute magician girl floating by his side, who sometimes asked him to pat her head to show her presence. Yuei Vu was almost used to it.

Without her by his side in the memory world, Yuei Vu suddenly realized that he was really uncomfortable.

"You are amazing!" Mana opened her big black eyes and said from the bottom of her heart, "I have never seen anyone who can't even beat Priest Seto!"

Seto twitched his eyebrows but didn't speak.

"It's a fluke." Yuei Vu coughed and asked, "Are you?"

"Mana. My name is Mana, and I'm a trainee priest!"

The girl seemed very proud of her identity, she puffed out her chest confidently and then shook.

When it shook, it felt more like the one in Yuei Vu's house

But isn't Mana the apprentice of the Priest Mahad, the former life of Dark Magician?

"Did you come out to work with Priest Seto?"

When Yuei Vu asked, Mana felt a little embarrassed. She touched her little head and stuck out her tongue: "No. I sneaked out to play behind my master's back, and was caught by Priest Seto on the way"

Yuei Vu: ""

Chapter 548: Digging The Grave Is Good

Yuei Vu got the "Chaos" deck, and Bakura got the "Three Wicked Gods". The two players who entered the RPG were taking advantage of the precious time before the official opening of PVP to upgrade their equipment.

Then what Yami Yugi, who was the real protagonist of the story, was busily doing these days eat, drink, and watch the maids dance.

Well, of course, this could not be Yami Yugi's original intention. But there was no way, according to the rules, the main work of the new Pharaoh's first two days on the throne was these things.

To be fair, he really didn't want to be a corrupted king, but the script didn't allow it

Although Yami Yugi was also vigilant against Bakura's actions, he couldn't act unless the other party took the initiative to attack him. Moreover, this RPG didn't even have a tutorial. After three thousand years, he has completely forgotten how to be the boss. These two days, he has been in a state of confusion, like a humanoid repeater.

Priest: Lord Pharaoh, these are the six priests under your command.

Yami Yugi: Nani? Six priests?

Priest: Lord Pharaoh, these are our Millennium Items.

Yami Yugi: Nani? Millennium Item?

Priest: Lord Pharaoh, this is the crystallizing achievement of alchemy, the device we use to summon monsters to fight!

Yami Yugi: Nani? It's actually a Duel Disk?

And when he saw the face of the seven priests on the day of enthronement, he was also shocked.

Nani? Is this one Kaiba?

Nani? Is this one Ishizu?

Nani? Is this my grandfather?

""

It's not surprising that he was dully surprised, it's because he had too many shocks after traveling back in time. Among the seven priests, Isis who held the Millennium Necklace looked exactly like Sister Ishizu of the Tomb Keeper family, and the priest Seth who held the Millennium Rod was President Kaiba no matter how you look at it.

In addition, there was ex-Priest Simon. Just relying on the starfish hairstyle inherited from the Muto family, Yami Yugi immediately recognized that this old man was no one else but Grandpa Sugoroku

However, when he exclaimed "Grandpa", the other party looked confused and said "Lord Pharaoh, are you too tired? I am Simon, your and your father's heartfelt valet"

Yami Yugi was obviously the son of the former Pharaoh Akhenamkhanen, but his father had neither a seafood-shaped head nor purple pupils. On the contrary, Priest Simon and Yami Yugi have the same hairstyle and pupil color, as if completely carved out of the same mold.

It's no wonder that from time to time in the forum, there were screwball players who were too idle to post, saying that they suspected that Grandpa Sugoroku three thousand years ago have an inexplicable relationship with the Pharaohs family, especially Akhenamkhanen's wife

Of course, it was purely the daily wild imagination of screwballs and had nothing to do with the plot of the original work.

Although he was a pharaoh and held great power in the game, Yami Yugi wasn't like Bakura who had the memory of three thousand years ago and already made a perfect strategy in his mind, nor was he like Yuei Vu, who has watched animation.

Among the several players participating in this Shadow Game, he was the only one who was completely blind to the entire game process and mode and had to start from scratch.

Now he could barely remember who the people around him are, and he could match the names and faces of the priests, but he was still at a loss about his situation.

His experience could be written into a novel titled "I was reborn as a Pharaoh in Egypt but I didn't have a system cheat".

At this moment, he was wandering around the capital in accordance with the procedures, escorted by the army led by the ex-Priest Simon and the guard in charge of Priest Mahad, inspecting the people's conditions, and narrowing the distance between the new pharaoh and the people.

But in fact, it's just a formality. Many enthusiastic people on the road have actually been strictly checked in advance, and they may even be actors who have been specially placed here after rigorous rehearsals. The purpose was to make the scene when the Pharaoh inspects it better.

In fact, the Pharaoh doesn't have to do anything, he was responsible for being carried and sat down, and then it's over, and it's okay to take a nap.

At this moment, ex-Priest Simon smiled and whispered in his ear: "Hey, Lord Pharaoh, don't worry, your tomb was built by me, Simon, and the construction technology is absolutely top-notch!"

Yami Yugi's eyelids jumped instantly.

Is it that scary? I started digging my grave before I died?

And do you want to say such weird things in front of me? Is this the style of ancient Egypt?

A chill ran down Yami Yugi's spine, but then he thought about it and felt that something was wrong. Strictly speaking, he had entered the grave once three thousand years ago.

Thinking about it this way, it didn't seem so unacceptable.

"Thanks." He responded casually.

Ex-Priest Simon smiled: "Hey, you don't know. I set up the highest level of enchantment, the most powerful spells, and traps in your grave. No matter how many years pass, it is absolutely impossible for any thief to conquer. After your death, you can definitely sleep peacefully!"

Hearing his words, Yami Yugi's face became darker and darker, and black lines began to appear on his forehead.

Hey, that's too much!

But when Simon mentioned the tomb of the Pharaoh, he immediately remembered that AIBO had mentioned the story that Grandpa Sugoroku often liked to brag to him, about how he found the "Millennium Puzzle".

According to what Grandpa Sugoroku boasted, when he was young, he was a top player who traveled all over the world and was well-known in the world. He was good at any type of game.

One day he decided to run to dig graves and rob tombs, challenging the legendary Pharaoh's tomb that was the most difficult to break through. So he went through untold hardships, escaped from death, and broke through layers of traps beyond the imagination of ordinary people, finally conquered the legendary tomb, and brought out this "Millennium Puzzle" from it as a trophy

Thinking of this, Yami Yugi couldn't help but have black lines all over his face.

So here is the "impossible tomb" boasted by Priest Simon

Three thousand years later, it will be conquered by himself!

Yami Yugi seemed to suddenly understand.

It means that my grave was built by Grandpa, and then dug by Grandpa?

but that's okay too.

If Grandpa Sugoroku hadn't dug up the grave and given his grandson the Millennium Puzzle as a gift, he might never have had the chance to meet AIBO in this life.

Thinking of this, he even thought that Grandpa did a good thing, so he should give it a thumbs up
"Yugi!"

Just as he was thinking about it, he heard someone shouting.

The entire team of soldiers became alert, and the loyal Priest Mahad opened his ancient Duel Disk immediately as if he was ready to kill someone.

"Who!? Who dares to act presumptuously in front of the Pharaoh?"

Yami Yugi followed the prestige, but was pleasantly surprised to find a group of friends whose clothes were incompatible with other people, but made him feel very cordial from the crowd not far away.

"AIBO!" The pharaoh was so excited that he ignored all the subordinates around him and jumped off the cart pulled by the soldiers. "And everyone!"

Mahad: "!"

Does Lord Pharaoh actually have friends that I don't know about?!

Chapter 549: Great Evil God's Hard Life

"Ahhh!!!"

Another Egyptian magician was also blasted out, and a whole patrol of Egyptian soldiers was finally annihilated.

After confirming again that no miscellaneous soldiers were missed, Bakura recalled his elf "Diabound" and chuckled softly: "The subordinates of Lord Pharaoh are nothing more than that, they are all useless trash.

Things of this level are basically insignificant to the outcome between us. "

Marik crossed his arms: "Oh? Looks like you finally decided to go straight to the target?"

"The required components are also collected, and sooner or later I have to face the Pharaoh." Bakura said, "And I have almost all the cards I need, so it's time to try it out and see which one is stronger, my three Wicked Gods or the Pharaoh's three Egyptian Gods!"

In addition, Bakura has also noticed that Yami Yugi and Yui Vu haven't met yet.

Compared with Yami Yugi whom he knew everything about, the variable that Bakura was more worried about in this game is Yui Vu. He was going to test the depth of Yami Yugi before Yui Vu arrived at the palace. If it went well, he might be able to snatch a few Millennium Items from the priests and go back.

As long as he gathered seven Millennium Items and successfully awakened the great evil god Thok, 99% chance he would win this Shadow Game!

"Hey, it's just right." Yami Marik licked his lower lip, "I have a dispute with that Pharaoh and I have to settle it. And the three Egyptian Gods in his hand Hehe, sure enough, The Winged Dragon of Ra' is more suitable in my hands."

Bakura squinted at him, and said calmly: "Don't worry, this time is just to say hello, it's not time for you to come out yet."

After a pause, he snorted and said, "You are our secret weapon, and secret weapons are not revealed until the end."

"Hmph, okay." Marik folded his arms, "Looks like you already have a plan?"

"Of course." Bakura said confidently, "My undead will army attract the attention of most of the palace defenders, and during this period I will take advantage of Diabound's invisibility ability to sneak in.

Although my undead army is not as numerous as his Pharaoh's army, they are immortal, and their physical fitness and combat effectiveness are higher than that of ordinary people. The Pharaoh's army will not be able to solve them for a while "

"Oh? Are you sure?" The six-year-old chuckled vaguely.

Bakura followed his gaze and found that a member of his invincible army of the undead was locked in a fight with a boulder.

Well, that's right, it's just an ordinary big rock.

A zombie soldier under him was swinging his knife tirelessly at the stone, again and again, leaving a deep knife mark with each slash

Like the mentally handicapped NPC teammates we met in RPG games in those years.

Bakura doubted that if he didn't give new orders, the mentally handicapped zombie might fight this broken rock till the end of time.

"Humph." Bakura recalled the zombie with a wave of his hand, pretending to be nonchalant and continuing to explain to ease the embarrassment, "I will personally raid the priests or the Pharaoh himself.

I have also arranged the retreat route, and I will arrange for One Hammer for the captive to prepare his horse outside the palace. "

What he wanted to say was "One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer", but he always felt that it was too strange to call out this name.

However, when Bakura turned his head to look for One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer, he found that the other party was squatting in the middle of the group of Egyptian soldiers who had just been beaten by him and was picking up equipment one by one

"Ah?" Suddenly realizing what was going on, One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer raised his head, "You called me?"

""

Bakura glanced at the image of this guy. At this moment, the player was holding a large sword in his left hand, a shield on his forearm, and a large spear and halberd on his right shoulder. In his hand was a sapphire wand belonging to the Egyptian mage who was just blown away, and all kinds of golden ancient Egyptian ornaments were hung on arms and neck

Bakura couldn't spit it out because he was holding back in his stomach.

Are you picking up trash on the battlefield?

Thinking of his legion of mentally handicapped undead, and looking at this strangely screwball, Great Evil God Zorc couldn't help but suddenly felt that his life was really too hard

As we all know, in the eyes of Yami Yugi, there are only two types of people in the world.

The first is AIBO, and the second is everyone.

So when the two sides reunited after a long absence, he subconsciously shouted "AIBO" and "everyone".

Night fell again. Yugi Muto and his little friends finally reunited with Yami Yugi, and were taken back to the palace.

In the original animation, the outsiders who came to the memory world were in a state similar to ghosts. Most of the NPCs here couldn't see or touch them. But that didn't seem to be the case here.

At this time, the priests including Simon and Mahad couldn't help being a little surprised.

When did Pharaoh have such a group of strange friends?

Moreover, this group of people were extremely weird from their clothes to their behavior and language, and they were rude in front of the pharaoh. But the pharaoh especially protected them, thus no one dared to say anything about it.

Yami Yugi, who had lost all his memory, stayed in this completely unfamiliar environment for so long, but he was overwhelmed. Seeing AIBO and everyone at this time, he felt very cordial, and specially ordered a banquet for reception, and by the way, he was able to discuss the next step with his companions.

As a pharaoh, Yami Yugi was good at most of the games in the world, but in modern video game strategy skills, he was not as good as Yugi Muto.

Considering that the "Ultimate Shadow Game" they were playing at this time was essentially an RPG rather than a card game, this involved the professional field of Yugi Muto, and Yami Yugi was also planning to learn from AIBO and discuss the game's strategy.

A whole table of dishes was served, and the two brothers Jonouchi and Honda quickly entered the rhythm of the banquet themed on eating. The two swept from the head to the end of the table like a storm, their speed made the NPCs in the room stunned.

The friends were eating and drinking, while the Yami Yugi and Yugi Muto are discussing the movements of Bakura. At this moment, there was a scream outside the door. Two Egyptian soldiers flew in from outside the door like kites with broken strings and slammed heavily on the floor of the hall.

"Who!?"

The guards in the room and the priest who happened to be nearby immediately became alert. Yami Yugi also stood up from behind the table in a hurry, looking straight at the entrance of the main hall.

The person who appeared outside the door was the Bakura they were discussing!

"Hahahahaha!!!"

Bakura raised his head and laughed, and the laughter echoed in the Pharaoh's hall.

"The final game has officially begun! Are you ready, Pharaoh!?"

Chapter 550: Can Pharaoh Use Future Technology?

"Do you know where this is? How dare you attack the palace!?"

The three priests present, Simon, Mahad, and Isis, stepped forward immediately.

"Pharaoh, please stand down!" Mahad picked up his Millennium Ring, "Let us deal with this kind of little thief!"

Bakura narrowed his eyes, looked at his Millennium Ring maliciously, and chuckled lightly: "My dear priest, the Millennium Ring in your hand is very destined for me.

If so, can you give it to me? "

"Hmph, ignorance!" Mahad yelled sharply, "The Millennium Items are props that only the chosen priests can control and defend justice! For a person like you who is full of evil thoughts, the moment he touches Millennium Items, his soul will be wiped out

"Props to defend justice?"

As if hearing something extremely funny, Bakura raised his head and laughed loudly.

"Don't make me laugh, what is the relationship between these dirty and sinful things and justice? I think you don't understand at all!"

"What did you say?"

Mahad took a step and was about to step forward, but was blocked by the pharaoh's arm.

"Lord Pharaoh?" Mahad was surprised.

"Stand back, Mahad." Yami Yugi said in a deep voice, "Leave this guy to me."

"But"

Mahad hesitated to speak, but after seeing Pharaoh's serious expression, he finally backed down.

"yes."

He certainly felt strange in his heart, and it was also true for the companion who suddenly appeared beside the Pharaoh, and even more so for the thief who suddenly broke into the palace.

And what surprised him most was that the pharaoh actually seemed to know this person.

But such a thought was only fleeting. Mahad's loyalty was engraved in his bones, no matter what kind of order he would execute directly without hesitation, and would never have the slightest doubt.

"Bakura, what exactly do you want to do?" Yami Yugi asked.

"Yugi Oh no, it should be the honorable Lord Pharaoh here." Bakura said with a strange smile, "In this world, my identity is Bandit King Bakura' just a small thief. Its really a world of difference.

After two strange laughs, he snorted and said, "As I said, this is the Ultimate Shadow Game' between us. Although the development is somewhat different from what I expected, I have already obtained what I need."

The corner of his mouth curled up, and with a wave of his arm, the golden Duel Disk under his robe was revealed.

"Come on, my lord Pharaoh! Our first round of confrontation!" He said, sticking out his tongue and licking his lips, "Of course, if you are not careful, it might be the last round."

Yami Yugi's eyes froze, and he flicked the cloak behind him, preparing to open the golden Duel Disk on his wrist.

In the direct confrontation with Yami Yugi here, in fact, Bakura cheated a little bit.

The two of them didn't have system card pools like Yusei Fudo. Normally, the slabs they use for duels in this memory would have to be obtained from this world, just like in RPG games.

However, before entering the memory world, Bakura made some preparations in advance and managed to bring in the deck he had prepared.

For Yami Yugi, although there were a lot of stone slabs to choose from in the card library, and the pharaohs default deck also host the power of the three Egyptian Gods, after all, it was not the deck he was used to play and also lacked some of the powerful monsters he could trust.

For example, Black Luster Soldier, or another example, Dark Magician.

Well, that's right, the Pharaohs default deck didn't include the Dark Magician and the entire Dark Magic series.

If you wanted to ask why, because the Dark Magician himself was still a priest at the moment, standing behind the pharaoh wearing a Millennium Ring

Yugi's most trusted ace monster "Dark Magician" is actually the loyal priest Mahad next to him. Three thousand years ago, Mahad liberated the sealed magic power and used forbidden techniques to fuse his soul with the spirit, giving birth to the unique and strongest mage "Dark Magician", who has been by Yugi's side forever since then.

"Even if there are three Egyptian Gods, Yugi's deck is still incomplete." Bakura's conscience was clinking.

He didn't come to trouble Yugi before, purely because he was afraid of the three Egyptian Gods in the initial deck of the Pharaoh. Now that Bakura has acquired the three Wicked Gods, he thought that the Egyptian Gods were no longer a threat.

There is not even a Dark Magician in Yugi's current deck, how can he be my rival?

Bakura was thinking so complacently, but suddenly he saw that Yugi Muto took out a Duel Disk that's right, the high-tech Duel Disk developed by the future Kaiba Corp raised his hand and threw it to Yami Yugi.

"Another me, take this!"

Yami Yugi raised his hand to catch it, and couldn't help being surprised: "This is"

"Our Duel Disk, and our deck!" Yugi Muto smiled and cheered him up, "I kept it with me when I entered your memory world, and somehow I'm able to bring it here.

I think if you are going to duel, you will definitely need our deck, right? "

Yami Yugi couldn't help being moved: "AIBO thank you."

So Pharaoh quickly removed the 3,000-year-old alchemy Duel Disk in his hand and replaced it with the future card-playing equipment developed by Kaiba Corp.

"Come on, Bakura! Right here and now, let's make a break!"

He skillfully opened the Duel Disk, and the pharaoh's cloak moved automatically without wind. He seemed to have regained the feeling of being a Duel King in the Battle Vity in an instant.

Bakura widened his eyes and stared at Yugi Muto who had been ignored by him just now, his expression was like

Hey referee, someone called for sideline assistance!

Should this be considered cheating?

As an ancient pharaoh, how can you use this kind of future technology?

Of course, he could only complain in his heart.

After all, this Shadow Game had neither a referee nor a GM. It was the pharaoh's skill to be able to use cheats, and Bakura could only accept it obediently

Hmph, it doesn't matter.

Even if he had his own deck, it's just getting the two sides back to the same starting line.

With the Wicked Gods in his hands, Bakura's power was unprecedentedly strong, and he was no longer the same as himself in the real world.

If he played against Yugi now, he felt that he would never lose again!

Bakura opened the ancient golden Duel Disk, and a beam of light penetrated the ceiling of the palace and flew into the sky. After a while, five stone slabs appeared out of thin air above his head, and they fell down one after another with a dull sound of breaking through the air.

"Duel!" x2

Bakura, LP 4000

Yami Yugi, LP 4000
