

I Play Yu-Gi 571

Chapter 571: Ancient Chant

The images flashed briefly, all of which were scattered blurred images. For a while, Yami Yugi felt like his brain had become a projector that was about to be scrapped. The images projected in the memory were intermittently stuck, and the picture quality was seriously distorted.

The memories that had been sealed for three thousand years poured in, which made his brain feel dizzy for a short while. He rubbed his temples, and it took him a while to force his gaze back to focus on the cards in his hand.

He saw clearly the card he had just drawn. It seemed to be just an ordinary green Spell Card, but it was silently narrating a thousand-year-old story to him.

Yugi slowly closed his eyes.

"My deck, what exactly do you want to tell me?"

"Pharaoh, what happened to him?" Priest Karim whispered.

Everyone noticed that after the card was drawn just now, the Pharaoh stopped moving.

Marik made an exaggerated yawning motion, and shouted loudly: "Hey, what's the situation, Lord Pharaoh? If you want to admit defeat now, it's okay to obediently hand over the God Card. Hahahaha!"

Yugi came back to his senses, glanced at his opponent, and then solemnly added the drawn card to his hand.

"Summon Gazelle the King of Mythical Beasts' in attack position."

The ferocious phantom roared and flew out, half squatting on the ground, with white horns on top of its head and a head of unkempt black hair.

Gazelle the King of Mythical Beasts, ATK 1500

"Oh? Do you want to defeat me this kind of monster?" Marik sneered.

"Look out, Marik!" Yugi slowly drew out a card from his hand and shouted, "The true power contained in the God card you covet!"

Marik was startled, his expression changed.

The true power of the God Card?

Does the God Card have abilities that I don't know about?

"I activate the Spell Card from my hand Ancient Chant!"

The green card emerged out of thin air, and the moment the card appeared, it burst into dazzling golden light. It was an eternal light like the sun, no one could look directly at it with such a strong light, and at the same time, no one could see clearly what the card itself looked like.

Marik raised his arms to cover his face, trying hard to open his eyelids, his body was exposed to the hellish hot golden light, and he just wanted to peel off a layer of skin to dissipate heat.

He was all too familiar with this power.

That was the power of the sun god!

"But how is it possible!?" Marik was stunned, "Does the Sun God have powers that I don't know about?"

At this time, Yami Yugi also closed his eyes tightly, with a devout expression, his arms crossed in front of his chest, and he lowered his head and chanted something solemnly.

Marik recognized it in an instant.

Ancient hieratic text!

It turned out to be an ancient hieratic text that I had never heard of!

"Impossible, impossible" The six-year-old began to doubt life.

So far, he has always been using the hidden ability of the Sun God to deceive people. He never expected that the Heavenly Dao Wheel would not respond well. He was six years old and would be betrayed by the hidden ability of the Sun God one day!

After chanting the hieratic text, the boundless light gathered as if being drawn, and gradually formed a boxy entity above Yami Yugi's head.

It was a stone slab, shining brightly, with a sacred aura that made it impossible to look directly at it. Only through the dazzling divine light could one vaguely see an abstract outline, which seemed to be an extremely majestic and noble divine bird, spreading its wings and flying high on the stone slab.

Yugi raised his hand high, and the brilliance of the slab turned into light and dissipated. A card appeared in his hand along with the golden glow.

"The effect of the Ancient Chant'." Yami Yugi said slowly, "Add 1 The Winged Dragon of Ra' from my Deck or GY to my hand."

"Have you put God in your hand?"

Marik vaguely saw a faint golden halo emerging from Yami Yugi's hand, he couldn't help but grit his teeth and snorted: "But even so, you have already performed a normal summon this turn.

Even if the sun god is added to the hand, it cannot be summoned! Just go to the next round"

"The follow-up effect of the Ancient Chant'." Yami Yugi said coldly, "During the turn this card is activated, I can Tribute Summon 1 monster during my Main Phase this turn, in addition to my Normal Summon/Set!"

"W-w-what!?" Marik's complexion changed suddenly, and his facial muscles pulled out a beautiful arc.

"Are you ready to accept the wrath of the Sun God, Marik!?" Yami Yugi yelled, "I will sacrifice three monsters, Gorz the Emissary of Darkness', Kaïen the Emissary of Darkness Token', and Gazelle the King of Mythical Beasts' to the gods!

The ever-changing fire of heaven and earth, turns into eternal light to shine on the earth!

The Winged Dragon of Ra, descend! "

The three monsters were surrounded by the white whirlwind one after another, turning into a beam of light and flying into the sky. The boundless golden light annihilated everything, and the pitch-black clouds were ignited as if burning blazingly in the sky.

Rays of light pierced the clouds and shot down, and then the clouds themselves were torn apart by the rays of light. The shining golden metal sphere slowly descended from behind the cloud, as if the sun himself had descended.

The Egyptian soldiers did not dare to look directly at them, and one by one quickly fell down and prostrated themselves on the ground devoutly.

That was the god representing the sun!

In the eyes of these ancient people, it was equivalent to the sun itself. Only the pharaoh could control the supreme god who protected this world!

"The attack power of the Sun God is the sum of the attack power of all the monsters that were sacrificed to summon him." Yugi said coldly, "So now the attack power of The Winged Dragon of Ra' is"

The Winged Dragon of Ra, ATK 7000

"7000 attack power!?" The six-year-old's face was full of "I'm stupid".

Impossible, impossible!

How could I, Marik, lose?

How could it be possible to lose in the hands of Ra!?

Isn't this the joke of fate?

Yet this is what was happening. Although Marik's two set cards were very powerful, neither of them could save him now.

Traps are ineffective against gods.

As Yami Yugi recited the spell again, the golden sphere began to deform. It spread its wings and poked its head out. Its solid body was like an alloy, shining metallic luster under the golden light.

"Taste the power of the Sun God yourself, Marik!" Yugi raised his arms and shouted, "The Winged Dragon of Ra, attack the Red Ogre!"

God Blaze Cannon! "

The Sun God opened his mouth and spewed out golden fiery flames as if the divine punishment from heaven had turned into an entity, sweeping away in a mighty way!

"Ahhhh!!!"

The Red Ogre was instantly wiped out by this blow, and the six-year-old was immediately caught in the phantom god's high-temperature breath. He swirled in the vortex, his body seemed to be abstracted into lines, until he was finally completely engulfed by the flames, becoming a sacrifice of the Shadow Game and being wiped out forever.

Marik, LP 4000 LP 0

Chapter 572: Why Did The Great Evil God Laugh?

Marik pretended to be Bakura and was intercepted by the pharaoh himself. There was a fierce battle, and a moment later, the flames shot up to the sky not far away, and a round of hot golden sun formed an undead firebird in midair, and the golden light shining on the sky was fleeting.

Although there was a long distance, Bakura could guess the ending with his toes.

The six-year-old is probably gone.

But thanks to the six-year-old attracting firepower, he somehow managed to slip out of the siege. The pharaoh and the priests were all chased after Marik in the opposite direction, and the others didn't seem to notice his real movements.

At this time, Bakura was straddling the horse and walking along the winding valley.

Maybe it was affected by the Shadow Game, a faint black mist loomed over the valley. From time to time, a disturbing wind blew in the air, and the horse's hooves kept kicking away the fine stones on the ground.

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer still rode behind. He looked slouched and lethargic as if he could fall asleep at any moment.

Bakura didn't know that the screwball behind him was still tirelessly posting the live video on the forum.

This guy was like someone addicted to social media. After every two steps, he had the need to take a screenshot and post it, and attach the spatial coordinates by the way, explaining in detail "where we are now", "how fast we are going", and "which way we are heading"

A certain great evil god who was looking around obviously still didn't realize what the problem was.

At this time, Bakura was looking at The Winged Dragon of Ra from a distance, and roughly estimated the distance from himself to the Pharaoh. Relying on his strong memory ability, he quickly restored the shortest path from there and calculated the time required for the Pharaoh and the priests to chase them based on the calculation formula of speed and distance.

From this, it could be concluded that even if they turned on the GPS positioning now, it was absolutely impossible for them to catch up with him at full speed.

Thinking of this, Bakura couldn't help but look up to the sky, and burst out laughing.

Oh, Yuei Yu, Yugi!

After all, I still beat the two of you in this tailing game!

Little did he know that his insolent laughing appearance was also taken as a screenshot, and he threw it on the forum with his backhand.

Immediately, comments erupted:

"Why did the evil god laugh?"

"I laugh at the lack of wisdom in Yugi, and the lack of strategy in Yuei Yu"

"If they set up an ambush here, wouldn't this Great Evil God be unable to escape, even with wings?"

Bakura was smiling happily when suddenly he heard an explosion. A beam of light pierced through the black mist and flew towards him. He instinctively leaned over to avoid it but felt his back heat up, the beam flew past him and exploded on the side mountain wall with a bang.

Bakura's expression changed, and he turned his head to look in that direction, and suddenly saw an afterimage chasing after him in mid-air, his body wrapped in flames, flapping his white wings, and the air behind him was scorched and crackling.

Elemental HERO Flame Wingman!

The sound of countless horseshoes echoed in the valley, and it sounded like thousands of troops and horses were outflanking. Bakura turned his head in astonishment, only to see a large army rushing out from the mountain path on the side. Leading the team right in front was a general in red armor, domineering and somewhat eerie armor, wearing a helmet, with a black-haired horse on his lap, and his eyes were red.

Great Shogun Shien!

A Japanese general led the Egyptian army to charge, can you believe it?

"Rush over!"

The masters of the two monsters were naturally Snow Wave and Fae. Players could even have the opportunity to lead troops into the charge while playing a card game, which was extremely enjoyable.

And all of this was in a game for free!

Seeing these two spirits and the two screwballs, how could Bakura not understand what was going on?

Fuck, is that Yuei Yu again?

Is this bastard the roundworm in my stomach? Why does he always know what I'm thinking?

No matter how many of these screwballs and miscellaneous things come, the Great Evil God would not be afraid of them, but he really had a little bit of worry about Yuei Yu in his heart if possible, he never wanted to fight Yuei Yu.

So Bakura didn't waste time talking, turned around, and ran away again.

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer ran after him cheerfully and continued to post while running.

Brothers, why are you so slow? Are you riding on turtles to chase us?

I have reported to you so clearly, yet you haven't even touched the great evil god's ass?

My grandma should catch up with a tricycle!

He ran and posted all the way, giggling for a long time when he saw funny replies from time to time. Bakura ran desperately in front, turned his head, and found that the little follower behind him was still smirking at the air at such an urgent moment.

Did this guy go insane because he was frightened too much?

In Bakura's view, One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer has betrayed his companion. If he was caught, it would definitely not end well for him. So Bakura didn't understand how this screwball could smile so happily.

As the saying goes, extreme joy begets sorrow. One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer was distracted, so when the horse under his crotch stepped into a deep pit without paying attention, he couldn't help but fall down on the spot with a mournful cry.

He was thrown off the horse, rolled and hit the side of the mountain wall, fell into a mess, and a series of negative statuses popped up on the panel.

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer's first reaction was not to get up but to immediately open the forum and yell.

"@Native Noragami. Is this the pit you buried? I sent you the coordinates to let you trap me?"

Native Noragami chased after him while replying: "I placed a Trap Hole to trap the bandit king, are you going to blame me for being blind yourself?"

Just as he was about to continue scolding, the line "F*ck your mother" had already been entered into the typing box, suddenly, he felt his collar tighten on his back, and then he was pulled up violently by a strong force.

He only felt that the foreground flickered, and he became dizzy for a while, and when he came back to his senses, he had already sat back on the saddle, still leaning on a hard and straight back.

It took a while for him to realize what had happened.

His horse stepped on a pit and fell to his death, and Bakura, who had run a long way ahead, turned around and came back to pick him up!

Nani, does the great evil god care so much about his employees? Despite being chased, he takes the risk to come back to save me!

Little did he know that Bakura was yelling in his heart.

At this time, his actions were completely seen through, and he was completely passive in the game against Yuei Yu and Yugi. Bakura felt that the last bargaining chip in his hand was the life of this screwball. If he fell to a dead end, he could only imitate Marik's tricks and threaten the life of the screwball.

Although he didn't like this method, his life was important, and he had no other options for the time being.

Isn't there a saying that says so?

Running away is shameful but effective

"Ah!" Sitting on the horse's back, One Hammer Deal suddenly slapped his thighs so hard, "Oh no!"

Bakura panicked instinctively when he heard his reaction, thinking that he had missed some important details, so he quickly asked, "What?"

"My bags!" One Hammer Deal was about to cry, "My two big bags of treasures are all on that horse just now"

Bakura's face darkened, trying to suppress his urge to kick this guy down.

Calm down, calm down, I'm the Great Evil God Zorc, I must not get angry because of a mere screwball

Chapter 573: The Great Evil God Who Loves To Laugh

Bakura fled along the valley all the way, and the screwballs behind him led the spirits and the army to chase all the way.

The situation on Bakura's side was already very tense, and he had to turn his head to pick up One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer who "accidentally" dropped off the horse because of busily posting on the forum. The distance to the people behind him was closed, which only made the situation on the Great Evil God's side even more tense.

Now there were screwballs popping up in the forums and broadcast room, all of them were praising Bakura and told One Hammer Deal to bootlick him harder.

In the meantime, One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer was struggling to balance himself on the horse, otherwise, he would open the chat box to argue with this group of screwballs.

Bootlick him? Bootlick my ass!

This thing is a shame among the last BOSSes, he is good for nothing except picking up garbage and running for his life. Before that, he only had garlic for three meals a day!

Its acceptable to be homeless and chew garlic for dinner, but the main point is that Yuei Vu-san is ahead of this great evil god everywhere. Now even his lair was razed. There is really no future for him

It's far less realistic than licking Yuei Vu-san!

But while thinking this way, someone intentionally or unintentionally completely ignored that the reason why Bakura was chased so badly was actually because of himself

Those monster spirits who could fly have already caught up first, and from time to time, elves use long-range skills to release light waves to interfere.

Bakura rushed left and right, and the side of the galloping horse continued to explode, the scorching flames stirred, and the gravel kept rolling.

He was so annoyed by being chased that he unfolded the alchemy Duel Disk on horseback without looking back. A golden stone slab descended from the sky with a rumbling sound, like a floodgate, separating Bakura from the pursuers.

A surge of evil energy erupted from the stone slab, and a strong breath of death spread along the tumbling dark valley. The ferocious dead bones came out of the cracked stone slab, and the snake-like twisted tail shattered the ground. A single wand was held in a muscular hand, with a striking ruby embedded in the tip of the wand.

Doomking Balerdroch!

The pursuers were blocked one after another. The Doomking's long tail lashed at the rock wall like a powerful whip, causing the rocks to explode and the rubble to fly. The magic wand in its hand flashed red, and the deadly magic ray swept across like a sharp steel knife, exploding a large area.

The Egyptian soldiers were bombed into disarray, and a large area fell under the impact. The players also had to stop and summon their own powerful monsters.

Flame Wingman, Shien, The Agent of Force Mars, and so on all stepped forward to surround Doomking Balerdroch and fight.

Doomking Balerdroch did well in a one-to-many battle. He swept left and right bows, the staff released the magic torrent that exploded in all directions, and there was a piercing roar from under the skull-like head, and no one could get close for a while.

At the same time, when Bakura ran away, he took advantage of the situation and summoned a wave of undead army with the skill that had just been cooled down to delay the progress of the chasing troops.

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Bakura quickly got rid of the pursuers and expanded the distance, continuing to run along the mountain road.

Unexpectedly, they have already run here, and they still encounter some messy and strange caves from time to time. Bakura had to slow down and ride his horse carefully to avoid various traps, so as not to overturn the ship accidentally.

As a result, he only concentrated on paying attention to the various traps under his feet, but forgot to look up. Just when their horses came out of a certain narrow cave, Bakura was careless, then a "clang" sounded, and his forehead was smashed hard by a boxy thing.

Bakura's eyes darkened, his mind became dizzy, and he almost fell off the horse. It was a coincidence that the thing bounced off his forehead and fell into his hand.

The dizzy Bakura managed to concentrate, and when he took a closer look, he found that what fell on his hand was actually a board eraser! ?

Some bastard put a board eraser on top of the cave door to trap me, the Great Evil God?

Trap of Board Eraser (Trap Card): You can only activate this card when an effect that inflicts damage to your Life Points is activated (except Battle Damage). Negate the Effect Damage you receive and your opponent then selects 1 card from his/her hand and discards it.

Bakura was so angry so angry that he almost laughed out loud.

Which screwball is so hellish?

I already run so far, why are there still pits on the road!?

At this time, Native Noragami, who was fighting the undead army, sneezed suddenly and almost fell off his horse

Bakura shook his head.

No, how did they know where I was going to flee before that?

Could it be someone tipped off?

At this time, the shouts of killing gradually faded away, and the loud noise of the battle and the sound of horseshoes were also far behind. Bakura turned his head suspiciously and looked at the screwball behind him with cold and cruel eyes.

One Hammer Deal who was arguing with someone on the forum suddenly realized that something was wrong, and when he raised his head to meet the cold, murderous eyes of the Great Evil God, he couldn't help but "thump" from the bottom of his heart.

Damn it, am I exposed?

Remembered the indescribably magnificent lower body of the Great Evil God Sock, he felt a chill down his body, and even had the urge to "immediately commit suicide to escape"

Fortunately, in the end, Bakura only let out a "hum", looked away, and didn't say anything.

To tip off the news under the nose of my Great Evil God? Impossible!

Bakura was very sure that this guy was not pretending, just a simple screwball. Spy work was too complicated for this screwball, he might not have enough brain cells to do it

Sure enough, the problem should still be on that Yuei Vu.

His stronghold's position was exposed, and the direction and route of escape were all under control, it must be because of that Yuei Vu!

Could it be that that guy is really so powerful that everything is within his expectations?

No, it's impossible.

Bakura shook his head, throwing himself away from this absurd thought.

I can escape, isn't it the most powerful evidence?

Even if he was raided and suppressed, even if he was surrounded and pursued by others, he, the great evil god, escaped in the end.

When he withdrew today, he would naturally have a chance to regroup and revive the next turn in this large-scale RPG game.

Thinking of this, Bakura raised his head and laughed again in a series of "hahaha", the laughter resounded through the valley.

Ha! Regardless of whether Yuei Vu is Holactie's incarnation or not, it seems he's nothing more than this.

However, before the laughter was over, a voice echoed clearly in the valley: "Oh? Why did the great evil god laugh? Can you tell and share your joy with me?"

Bakura's laughter stopped abruptly, and he reined in his horse almost instinctively. He looked up, only to be shocked to see that a soldier in blue armor had blocked his way at some point in front of him. The metal helmet covered most of the warrior's resolute face, and the golden streamer lingered on the sacred long sword, with a sacred and unquestionable aura.

That's Black Luster Soldier!

Bakura's complexion changed suddenly, and he hurriedly wanted to turn around and change his way. When he turned his head, he found that the Masked HERO with a black body and streamlined armor shaped like a hungry wolf was lying behind him, and he had blocked his retreat unconsciously.

Yuei Vu jumped from a boulder next to him and jumped down lightly.

"I heard that the great evil god who loves to laugh will not have bad luck."

Bakura: "@#!%&"

Chapter 574: Dark Law the Cure Master of Card Addiction

"Yuei Vu-san! It's Yuei Vu-san!" One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer was so excited that he happily waved behind Bakura to try to attract the other party's attention.

But Yuei Vu ignored him for the time being.

"Have you finally come in person, Duel King?"

Bakura thought for a moment, and seemed to feel that the probability of being blocked all the way here was not very high, so he simply jumped off the horse and stood in front of Yuei Vu.

It's really not an option to escape like this all the time. Now his stronghold was also lost, and the six-year-old who was originally planned to test Yuei Vu's depth was also sent away as cannon fodder. If he continues to hide like this, he would only become more and more passive.

Why don't I just give it a go and take the chance if I'm not sure?

Thinking of this, Bakura's eyes became gloomy and cold again, his eyes swept back and forth in front of Yuei Vu like a cold dagger.

Calm down, in fact, there is no need to be so afraid.

First of all, it is still unknown whether the other party is the clone of Holactie or not in fact, this inference is completely based on my own imagination.

Secondly, so what if it is really Holactie?

I, the Great Evil God Zorc, only had a fragment of my soul left and survived in this half-disabled state. Even if she really left a fragment or something, Holactie would not be much better.

Otherwise, what kind of tactics and hide-and-seek will the other party play with me? If the real power had fully awakened, wouldn't she have blasted this Zorc into scum?

The more Bakura thought about it, the more courageous he became, he couldn't help but twitch the corner of his mouth, and say to Yuei Vu with a ferocious face: "Hmph, so what if you personally act out?

Don't think I'm afraid of you! No one can stop me from waking up, if you want to stand in front of me, even you will be buried in endless darkness! "

Yuei Vu: "?"

What is this guy talking about?

It's really incomprehensible

But Yuei Vu also had this intention here, and he didn't intend to let the other party run away.

"Duel!" x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Pair Liang, LP 4000

"Then I will go first, draw!"

Yuei Vu glanced at this starting hand, after a little thought, he chose to give priority to earning cards.

"Summon Elemental HERO Bubbleman' in defense position."

The turquoise water burst out, and a large number of transparent water bubbles were thrown into the air. The Elemental HERO in water-blue armor and a cross-sectional helmet landed and his blue cloak flew in the blisters.

[Elemental HERO Bubbleman, DEF 1200]

"When Bubbleman is successfully summoned, if there are no other cards on the field, I can draw two cards." (animation effect)

"Next is the Spell Card HERO's Bond'." Yuei Vu continued, "If there is a face-up HERO' monster on the field: Special Summon 2 Level 4 or lower Elemental HERO' monsters from my hand.

Special summons Elemental HERO Blazeman' and Elemental HERO Shadow Mist!' "

Both the pillar of fire and the dark mist erupted, and the flaming hero in red tights squatted halfway to the left half of the court, and the sight under the golden eyepiece seemed to be burning blazingly. And Miss Shadow Mist, who was wearing close-fitting armor, fell to the right half, crouching down and adopting a defensive posture.

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, DEF 1800]

[Elemental HERO Shadow Mist, DEF 1500]

"The effect of Blazeman If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can add 1 Polymerization' from my Deck to my hand. Then the effect of the Shadow Mist If this card is Special Summoned: I can add 1 Change' Quick-Play Spell Card from my Deck to my hand."

During the conversation, two cards popped out of the deck with a "click", and were pulled out by Yuei Vu into his hand, displayed briefly, and the deck was quickly shuffled at the same time.

"I add Fusion Substitute' and Mask Change' to my hand."

"Full of momentum as soon as you come up, huh?" Bakura curled his lips.

"Activate the Spell Card Fusion Substitute'!" Yuei Vu revealed the two monster cards placed on the duel plate together with the "Fusion Substitute" in his hand, "I fuse Elemental HERO Blazeman' and Elemental HERO Bubbleman' on the field!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO' monster + 1 WATER monster!

Born from the abyss of extreme cold, with the power of absolute ice and snow to freeze everything
Elemental HERO Absolute Zero! "

The heroes of water and fire rose from the ground, and the beams of light swirled and intersected and merged into one. The majestic cold air erupted from the magic vortex, and the flames of Blazeman were quickly extinguished, sweeping away like freezing atoms, sweeping away the ultra-low temperature that froze everything in the world forever, and the noble white hero rose from the frozen abyss with arms folded.

[Elemental HERO Absolute Zero, ATK 2500]

"Set a card, I end my turn."

With a wave of Yuei Vu's hand, an extra card appeared in front of him.

"Then it's my turn!" The stone slab fell in front of Bakura.

"At this moment, open the set card!" Yuei Vu raised his hand, "Quick-Play Spell Mask Change: Send 1 HERO' monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO' monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute!

I send Elemental HERO Shadow Mist' to the GY, transform!

A knight born from the abyss, the incarnation of the law of darkness! Coming here

Masked HERO Dark Law! "

The black mist swirls around, and the dark power engulfs the shadow mist girl, forming a wild black armor covering her body. A cold light flashed in the hero's eyes, as if there was a hidden weapon hiding his life. He landed in a half-squat, and the dark cyclone was released from his feet. The hero's domain expanded rapidly, and the invisible law bound the audience.

[Masked HERO Dark Law, ATK 2400]

Now the players who were watching the live broadcast over there immediately exploded.

"Fuck, this is too much!"

"Start directly with Absolute Zero and Dark Law, does Yuei Vu-san want to unfriend the Great Evil God that much?"

"The Great Evil God died on the spot"

""

Yuei Vu continued: "The effect of the Elemental HERO Shadow Mist' sent to the GY by the Mask Change'. Once per turn, if this card is sent to the GY: I can add 1 HERO' monster from my Deck to my hand, except Elemental HERO Shadow Mist'."

The card in the deck popped up and he slowly pulled it out.

"The card I added to my hand is Elemental HERO Stratos'."

The Shadow Mist's effect of retrieving "Change" Quick-Play Spell Card and the effect of retrieving "hero" monsters were very powerful, but only one of them could be used per turn, only once that turn.

Here, Yuei Vu has already used the effect of searching for "Mask Change" in the last round, so he deliberately set it on the field, and then activated it to transform Shadow Mist in the Standby Phase of Bakura, triggering another effect of her to search for Stratos.

This could maximize resource utilization to a certain extent.

"The effect of Masked HERO Dark Law, I believe I don't need to explain more?" Yuei Vu smiled slightly.

When Dark Law was on the field, all cards sent to the Graveyard by the opponent were removed from play.

For Zombie deck which was extremely dependent on the resources of the GY, it was almost equivalent to a direct sentence of death.

And Bakura Bakura's expression at the moment looked a bit like he swallowed a catty of nails upside down.

Masked HERO Dark Law just stopped there, not only cured the three-thousand-year-old card addiction of the Great Evil God Zorc, but even made him want to change into a physical duel

Chapter 575: Rematch With Bakura

If an ordinary person were playing a Zombie deck here, then he might have surrendered the moment he saw the Unfriend Hero. But our Bakura didn't. He still stared at his hand carefully with his eyes wide open at this moment, trying hard to think of a way to defeat the enemy.

Just such a black thing made my entire deck scrapped?

It's so fucking ridiculous!

I still have a chance.

"Spell Card Spell Books from the Pot." Bakura gritted his teeth and played this powerful hand-refilling card, trying to create more opportunities. "Both players draw three cards from the deck."

The Great Evil God Zorc was not an ordinary person after all. After drawing, he caught a glimpse of one of the cards in his hand, his eyes moved, as if thinking of something.

If it's that card maybe it will work!

"Activate the Spell Card Foolish Burial' from your hand. Send a monster card from my deck to the Graveyard."

Bakura raised his arms high, and a transparent stone slab appeared in midair.

"The monster I'm going to send to the GY is this guy! Necroface'!"

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes slightly.

Oh, there is still such a thing in his hand.

A hideous pale doll's head flashed across the field and disappeared like a ghost. At the same time, the ability of "Masked HERO Dark Law" took effect, and immediately dragged the monster that was supposed to be sent to the GY to the other end of the dimension.

"That's right! Because of the effect of your Masked HERO Dark Law', the monsters sent to the graveyard will not enter the graveyard but be removed from the game." Bakura said, "The moment the Necroface' is removed from the game, its special effect is also activated.

Both players must remove the top five cards from the deck from the game! "

Yuei Vu remained silent and pulled out the top five cards of the deck. Five stone slabs also floated in front of Bakura, gradually turning into transparent phantoms and disappearing.

"Hey, it seems that your luck is not very good." Bakura hooked his mouth and waved his hand, "Among five cards that are banished from my deck, there is a copy of Necroface'.

Therefore, according to the effect of the second Necroface', we must remove the top five cards of the deck from the game. "

If you removed five cards in one go, the probability of hitting the second Necroface was indeed quite high.

Yuei Vu silently drew out five cards again, and five slates also appeared in front of Bakura, which gradually became transparent and disappeared into the void.

In this way, the cards were removed from the game by both sides including the Spell Books from the Pot, Foolish Burial, and Necroface reached a total of 23 cards.

"Then I summon the Necroface' in my hand!"

The third Necroface appeared. A disgusting white big head appeared on Bakura's field, its staring eyes were dull and lifeless like a dead person, and the scarlet tentacles protruded from countless cracks, undulating up and down like octopus hands, and there was a shocking hollow in its brain.

Necroface, ATK 1200

"Another effect of Necroface." Bakura waved his hand, "If this card is Normal Summoned: Shuffle all banished cards into the Deck. This card gains 100 ATK for each card shuffled into the Main Deck by this effect.

The total number of cards we remove from the game is 23, so the ATK goes up by 2300! "

The stone slabs turned into golden light from the depths of the void and shot back to the ancient Duel Disk in Bakura's hand. The banished cards from Yuei Vu's side also flew back into the deck in a neat long line, and the deck was quickly shuffled.

Necroface, ATK 1200 ATK 3500

"Battle!" Bakura raised his hand, "Necroface, attack Masked HERO Dark Law' for me! Send that damned thing to heal!"

The big head stared wide-eyed, and the countless tentacles shot out from the cracked head and entangled the black Masked HERO like ropes.

The hero raised his head and let out a low, muffled grunt, then exploded with a bang.

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2900

Yuei Vu slightly raised his arm to block the impact: "Is there such a solution"

Bakura's primary concern was removed, but his situation didn't improve.

Absolute Zero, who froze the entire field of the opponent when he left the field, was also a big trouble.

"Set three cards, I end my turn."

It seemed that there was no good solution for the time being, so Bakura ended the round helplessly.

"My turn, draw."

"At this moment, my set card is activated!" Bakura shouted, "Trap Card Multiple Destruction!"
(Animation card)

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

I don't have any impression of this card, is it a card used by Bakura in the animation?

"This card can only be activated when both players have three or more cards in their hands." Bakura laughed. "Both players discard all cards in their hands, and receive 100 points of damage for each card discarded this way. After that, we each draw five cards from the deck."

Yuei Vu glanced at the nine cards in his hand, and couldn't help but fall into deep thought.

What the hell is this card!?

In this way, not only the side effect of Bakura's "Spell Books from the Pot" which gave away three cards to the opposite side for free was smoothed out, but an additional 300 points of damage was also added.

Bakura, LP 4000 LP 3700

Yuei Vu, LP 2900 LP 2000

With only three cards left in his hand, Bakura only needed to take 300 damage. This widened the LP gap between the two sides and evened out the resources in the hand.

"What a coincidence, Mr. Duel King." Bakura started the traditional art of mocking, "Hehe, you have finally accumulated so many cards in my hand, and you have to throw them all away."

At this moment, the players who were just thrown off by Bakura and the follow-up team also caught up. They have seen the news about the duel in the forum, so they pushed and shoved each other, shouting "Yuei Vu-san" one by one, coming up to the front row to watch.

Yuei Vu ignored Bakura's taunt, and just continued; "Summon Elemental HERO Stratos'."

The white whirlwind rolled up, and the hero in the high-tech blue armor soared up, with a white whirlpool rolled under his body. He crossed his arms, and the turbines running at full speed created a suffocating whirlwind.

Elemental HERO Stratos, ATK 1800

"The effect of Stratos." Yuei Vu said, "When this card is Normal or Special Summoned, add 1 HERO' monster from my Deck to my hand. I added the Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier' to the hand.

After that, activate the Field Spell Fusion Gate' from the hand! "

The domain of fusion quickly dominated the field, and the black cloud rolled up a chaotic vortex in midair, with thunder and lightning flashing in it.

"The effect of Fusion Gate." Yuei Vu said, "Fusion Monsters can be Fusion Summoned without using Polymerization'. The Fusion Material Monsters used for this Fusion Summon are removed from play instead of being sent to the Graveyard.

I banish Elemental HERO Absolute Zero' on the field and Elemental HERO Sparkman' in my hand!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO' monster + 1 LIGHT monster!

Fusion Summon! Elemental HERO The Shining! "

The dazzling white flashes, the golden embellishments spread out behind the pure white hero like the sun. He descended from midair with his arms folded, and his radiance filled the earth.

Elemental HERO The Shining, ATK 2600

"The Shining's ATK will increase by the number of banished Elemental HERO' monsters x300 points."

Elemental HERO The Shining, ATK 2600 ATK 3200

"At the same time, with the effect of Elemental HERO Absolute Zero', when he leaves the field, all monsters on the opponent's field will be destroyed!" Yuei Vu raised his hand.

The white cold wave visible to the naked eye pushed forward mightily, and the khaki ground and solid mountain walls were frozen under the cold wave in an instant. The uncomfortably Necroface on Bakura's field also turned into an ice sculpture in an instant, breaking into ice slabs all over the floor.

The Shining and Stratos have a total output of 5000 points, which was enough for an OTK!

"But at this moment, my set card is also activated!" Bakura shouted, "Quick-Play Spell Demise of the Land! When the opponent Special Summons a monster: Activate 1 Field Spell Card directly from my Deck!"

Bakura raised his arm high, and a slate engraved with field magic emerged out of thin air.

"Come, the world ruled by the undead and devouring the living

Zombie World! "

Chapter 576: Wicked God Is Not Bad

A dank, dead mist filled the valley, and darkness swept wildly. Undead souls wandered in this confined space, making strange screams from time to time.

"In this way, the field will be dominated by the domain of the undead." Bakura said in a calm voice, "All the monsters on the field and in the GY on both sides will become Zombies."

Yuei Vu pondered for a moment, thinking briefly.

Zombie World was indeed a very powerful field, but even if it was applied here, it couldn't stop the heroes on Yuei Vu's side from launching a total attack.

It was naturally impossible for Bakura not to know this, so he probably has a coping strategy in his set cards.

That's what he said, but at this time Yuei Vu has neither typhoons nor other means of clearing the trap, and it was impossible to just watch the attacking opportunity go away, so he must fight.

"Battle!" Yuei Vu said, "Elemental HERO The Shining, attack directly!"

The golden glow behind The Shining rose sharply, and he flew up briskly, trailing white shining trails all over his body, like a shining missile piercing the sky and diving straight towards Kaorang!

Bakura's mouth curled up, revealing a sneer.

"Hey, it's not that easy." He waved his hand, "Open the set card: Trap Card Haunted Shrine!"

The field changed again. The shadow of the Zombie World shrouded the thick, dark mist spontaneously into a whirlpool, and a deep hole appeared on one side of the mountain wall. White ghosts flew out of the deep hole one after another. The cold wind shuttled in the valley, and the sound carried was like a ghost laughing.

"Haunted Shrine's effect If I control no monsters: Target 1 Zombie monster in my GY; Special Summon it." Bakura sneered.

"Zombie monster?" Yueli Vu quickly figured out his joints, and his eyes swept across the evil venue.

"That's right!" Bakura sneered, "In this Zombie World', all the monsters in my graveyard will become Zombie.

In other words, I can revive any monster sleeping in the GY! And what I'm going to wake up now is this guy! "

Bakura roared loudly, raised his arms high, and called a huge stone slab in the air.

Before the divine beast he summoned even descended, boundless darkness erupted from that stone slab! The sky was instantly dyed black, and the entire valley was instantly darkened. The sky seemed to have lowered its height, and the billowing black clouds seemed to press down on everyone's heads.

The sickle tore through the darkness, and huge beasts soared into the sky! It was a pitch-black and ferocious monster, and its scarlet eyes distortedly reflected the whole world, as if everything was the food on its plate.

The Wicked Eraser!

The Eraser's attack power depended on the number of cards on the opponent's field. Now there were Elemental HERO The Shining and Elemental HERO Stratos on Yueli Vu's field, so the Eraser's attack power was only 2000, and it seemed that it was not the opponent of The Shining.

However

"The effect of The Wicked Eraser!" Bakura pointed to the rolling monster in the sky, "This card can turn itself into a sacrifice, triggering its own effect!

When it leaves the field, all cards on the field are sent to the graveyard! "

The Eraser raised his head, and the hideous body exploded on the spot.

The darkness was released like a billowing magma, melting everything it touched indiscriminately. The sacred brilliance of the Elemental HEROes was snuffed out by the darkness, and The Shining tried his best to resist, but he was still irresistibly turned into nothingness.

The whole venue seemed to have been washed, and there was nothing left.

"The effect of Elemental HERO The Shining. When he is sent to the graveyard, I can target up to 2 of my banished Elemental HERO' monsters; add those targets to my hand."

Yuei Vu showed two cards.

"I return Elemental HERO Absolute Zero' and Elemental HERO Sparkman' to my hand. Of course, Absolute Zero is a fusion monster, so I return it directly to the deck."

He took out two more cards from his hand.

"Set two cards, I end my turn."

The Egyptian generals and soldiers onlookers were already terrified. The coercion of the Wicked God made them dare not show their breath, and the darkness annihilating everything made them almost turn their heads and run away.

Although the players felt that the scene of the Wicked God coming was shocking, they didn't feel intimidated as they were used to seeing big scenes. In contrast, they were chattering about the practicality and performance of the evil god.

"Damn, this thing shouldn't be special summoned!"

"Real-life The Winged Dragon of Ra can't be special summoned, why don't you complain about it?"

"Spell Speed 2 (can be activated during either player's turn) nuking effect? It seems a bit fierce!"

"That's it, the Wicked God is not bad."

""

Not bad?

The panic response of those superstitious Egyptians made Bakura feel very satisfied, but he was extremely dissatisfied with the attitude of these screwballs.

That's a Wicked God!

Although it's not as great as this Zorc, it's still an evil god anyway!

Can you at least show some fear?

Of course, it was just a momentary thought. Facing Yuei Vu, Bakura didn't dare to be careless.

When he went to the palace to spar with Yugi last time, Bakura confirmed that three Egyptian Gods should be in Yugi's hands. Just now, when the six-year-old was sent to be cannon fodder, the sun god appeared in the sky in a flash, making him more certain.

It stood to reason that the cards of Egyptian Gods were all unique, and there was absolutely no possibility of replicas. Since the God Card was still used by Yugi just now, it was absolutely impossible for Yuei Vu to have it.

But

Bakura glanced at Yuei Vu, feeling a little uneasy in his heart.

Yuei Vu: "?"

Why does this evil god keep peeking at me? Jealous of my good looks?

"I still have to continue to test." Bakura thought.

"It's my turn, draw!" Bakura said, "Spell Card Pot of Greed', I draw two more cards."

Two stone slabs fell from the sky. Bakura glanced at the drawn card more accurately, the slab, and couldn't help but tickle the corner of his mouth.

"Hey, it seems that the evil god wants you to finish as soon as possible."

Yuei Vu narrowed his eyes.

Could it be has he drawn the next Wicked God?

"Activate the effect of Haunted Shrine' in the GY!" Bakura said, "If I control no monsters: I can banish this card from your GY, then target 1 Zombie monster in my GY; Special Summon it, but its effects are negated!

Resurrect, Necroface! "

A transparent wandering soul floated out from the depths of the black mist, landed gently on the field, and quickly transformed into that white, piercing head with scarlet tentacles swaying endlessly.

Necroface, ATK 1200

"Then I activate the effect of the Skull Conductor' in my hand." Bakura said, "Send this card from my hand to the Graveyard; Special Summon up to 2 Zombie-Type monsters from my hand whose combined ATK is exactly 2000."

He hit a slab in front of him, the slab flipped, and the image of a zombie conductor in uniform flashed briefly, and the slab disappeared out of thin air.

"I special summon the Poison Mummy' and Reborn Zombie' in my hand!"

A red mummy came to the field with crooked steps, the cloth wrapped around his body was soaked with dried blood. The other was a zombie whose body was like a dry bone, with long pale hair on top of his head, and the hollow eye sockets like a dark abyss.

Poison Mummy, ATK 1000

Reborn Zombie, ATK 1000

Yuei Vu glanced over the two ferocious zombies: "There are three monsters"

Everyone can guess what Bakura will do next.

"That's right, look carefully, this is the second Wicked God, who has the same status as Obelisk' among the Egyptian Gods!" He tapped the slab in his hand and raised his arms high.

"I offer the Poison Mummy', Reborn Zombie', and Necroface' as sacrifices to the evil darkness!

The personification of ultimate fear, the trembling god

The Wicked Dreadroot! ! ! "

Chapter 577: Mystery of Identity

"The Wicked Dreadroot!!!"

The sky darkened again, and the oppressive and low atmosphere seemed to have been sucked dry from the valley.

The huge arm covered by the skeleton armor stretched out, and the white bone claws seemed to grab the sky. The evil god fell from the sky with great momentum, the twisted bone armor covered the strong and strong body of the god, and the demon-shaped bone helmet wrapped its body.

The Wicked Dreadroot, ATK 4000

"This is the end!" Bakura shouted, "The Wicked Dreadroot! Blast that guy to pieces!"

The huge evil god raised its arms high, and when it took a step, its footsteps slammed into the ground heavily. Its huge arms stretched out straight, and when the sharp bone claws were drawn down, it seemed to tear a white gap in the air.

Bakura's pupils contracted and he held his breath.

Perhaps, this blow can really solve this variable once and for all?!

Yuei Yu's existence really made him uneasy. Regardless of whether the opponent was the existence that Bakura guessed, he hoped that the opponent could exit the stage here.

As long as this variable is eliminated, this RPG can be considered my victory

Mere pharaohs, three Egyptian Gods, etc., are not my opponents at all!

"Disappear for me!" Bakura clenched his fists, showing a ferocious face.

"You have activated my trap card!" Yuei Yu raised his hand.

"It's useless!" Bakura shouted, "Traps are ineffective against gods!"

It was as if as long as he yelled fast and thoughtful enough, he could let the evil god punch him to death before Yuei Yu explained the effect.

Of course, that was impossible. Yuei Yu continued: "Continuous Trap Krystal Avatar! This card can only be activated when an opponent's monster declares a direct attack, if its ATK is greater than or equal to my LP.

, Special Summon this card in Attack Position as an Effect Monster that has ATK equal to my LP, then change the attack target to this card. "

Lend me your power again, President Kaiba!

That's right, this was the card of President Kaiba, which was randomly picked up by Yuei Yu from his card library.

Sometimes it could have unexpected effects!

The trap effect was activated, and a brilliant crystal blue warrior with a whole body of crystals stepped in front of Yuei Yu, with his arms crossed and a sharp blade mounted on his wrist.

Krystal Avatar, ATK 2000

"Do you want to rely on this guy to survive? It's useless!" Bakura shouted, "The effect of The Wicked Dreadroot! As long as it exists on the field, the attack power of all other monsters will be halved!"

Krystal Avatar, ATK 2000 ATK 1000

"Checkmate." Bakura twitched the corner of his mouth and smiled lowly, "It seems that I am thinking too much, maybe you are really just a duelist with a little talent.

Maybe you are special, but you are not that special In short, goodbye, Mr. Duel King, let your soul wander infinitely in the depths of Purgatory! "

Dreadroot readjusted his target, and this time locked on the crystal double with a body like a bright diamond on the Yuei Yu's field.

With just one blow, the endless divine pressure came down with the dancing arm, and the terrifying impact was overwhelming, and the swaying bone claws seemed to bring an ultimate nightmare that would never wake up. Yuei Yu's crystal double was crushed to pieces by the darkness at the moment of contact and burst from the field.

"Success." Bakura couldn't hide the excitement in his eyes.

His serious trouble, the only man he couldn't figure out, who made him think about all day long, was finally taken down!

almost.

The evil god slowly withdrew his fist, and the raging dark airflow spread out, revealing the figure standing behind.

Bakura's pupils shrank slightly, and an afterimage flashed in front of his eyes in an instant. The Krystal Avatar, which should have been wiped out, rushed out abruptly, bypassing the evil god as if teleporting, flashed to his side, and slashed at him fiercely with a knife in his hand.

Cold and severe pain penetrated his body. Bakura staggered, took half a step back, and raised his head in astonishment.

Bakura, LP 3700 LP 2700

Yuei Yu, LP 2000

"Why!?" Bakura was shocked and puzzled.

"Continuous Trap Spirit Barrier. As long as there are monsters on my field, I take no battle damage." Yuei Yu said, "Then another effect of Krystal Avatar'. When it is destroyed by battle, the opponent will receive damage equal to the attack power of the Krystal Avatar."

"Damn." Bakura curled his lips, "Troublesome guyThen set two more cards, I end my turn!"

Another two stone slabs fell from in front of him, hitting the ground with a "thud".

The attack of this round was temporarily defended, but there was still a powerful evil god "The Wicked Dreadroot" on the field. First of all, it has the divine resistance, coupled with the ability to halve the attack power of the whole field, it was quite difficult to fight with brute force.

Yuei Yu could clearly feel that the present Bakura was much stronger than ever before.

Not only was it because he has an ace like Wicked God in his hand in the animation, Bakura didn't have a decent ace monster that he could handle, which may be one of the reasons why he didn't play cards and switched to RPG at the end in addition, his Rank as a duelist has also been significantly raised.

Maybe it was because of entering this "Ultimate Shadow Game" and getting one step closer to the awakening of the main body?!

"My turn."

In this Draw Phase, Yuei Yu felt the agitation of power at the moment the card was drawn.

Glancing sideways at the drawn card, he couldn't help but move his eyes slightly, and then lightly closed his eyes for a moment.

"Then let me be a little more serious."

Bakura's eyelids twitched.

He felt like a group of big men were beating gongs and drums in his heart, but he still forced himself to be calm: "Bluffing is useless. Now that I have a powerful Wicked God on the field, you can't"

"Activate the Spell Card Painful Choice' from my hand."

The legendary card arrived, and the players behind exploded into a large area.

"Thousands-of-Years Banned Card."

"Painful Choice (referring to the opponent)."

"Interview with this Mr. Great Evil God, what kind of death method do you want to choose?"

""

"I choose five cards from the deck, and the opponent picks one of them to add to my hand, and send all the remaining four to the GY." Yuei Yu showed five cards, "Choose one."

The five cards he picked out were two "Elemental HERO Shadow Mist", two "Destiny HERO Disk Commander" and one "Destiny HERO Malicious".

Bakura frowned: "Destiny HERO Malicious."

"Then I will add the Malicious to my hand, and send the rest to the GY." Yuei Yu said, "At this moment, the effect of Elemental HERO Shadow Mist'.

If this card is sent to the GY: I can add 1 HERO' monster from my Deck to my hand.

I added Elemental HERO Stratos' to my hand. "

Yuei Yu drew Stratos from the deck and showed it to the opponent, and the deck began to be shuffled at the same time.

"Spell Card Destiny Draw! Discard 1 Destiny HERO' card; draw 2 cards." Yuei Yu showed the Malicious he just got started, "I discarded the Destiny HERO Malicious', and drew two cards."

Bakura snorted: "Meaningless behavior"

"Continuous Spell Card of Safe Return." A Spell Card appeared in front of Yui Yu, "As long as this card exists on the field, whenever a monster is Special Summoned from any Graveyard, I can draw 3 cards.

Then I summon the Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier!" "

The liquid hero in tights emerges with splashing water. Bakura said unhappily: "Is it a hero that was added to the hand from the deck last round?"

Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier, ATK 1400

"The effect of Liquid Soldier When this card is Normal Summoned: I can target 1 Level 4 or lower HERO' monster in my GY, except Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier'; Special Summon it." Yui Yu said, "Come on, Destiny HERO Disk Commander!"

Destiny HERO Disk Commander, ATK 300

"At this moment, the effect of the Card of Safe Return!" The Spell Card beside Yui Yu rose sharply, "Because the Disk Commander was resurrected from the GY, I drew three cards.

Following the effect of "Destiny HERO Disk Commander", when he himself is Special Summoned from the graveyard, I draw two more cards! "

Yui Yu added cards in his hand, and then kept moving: "The effect of the Destiny HERO Malicious' in the GY! I can banish this card from my GY; Special Summon 1 Destiny HERO Malicious' from my Deck!"

Destiny HERO Malicious, ATK 800

"Spell Card Foolish Burial! Send a monster from the deck to the graveyard. I send the Makyura the Destructor' to the graveyard, and the effect activates!

During this turn, I can activate trap cards from my hand. "

A bloody red trap of Katu immediately appeared in front of him.

"Continuous Trap Ultimate Offering! By paying 500 LP, I can conduct an additional Normal Summon."

"Increase the number of normal summons Could it be!?" Bakura was surprised.

No, it's impossible, the God Card should be in Yugi's hands

But what happened immediately made his eyes widen, and his heart sank to the bottom.

"I pay 500 LP to activate the effect of Ultimate Offering!"

Yui Yu, LP 2000 LP 1500

"Using three monsters Destiny HERO Malicious', Destiny HERO Disk Commander', and Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier' as sacrifices!

Piercing through the underworld and reality, and descending in the chaos of thunder

The god of the underworld, Osiris the Sky Dragon! ! ! "

Chapter 578: Battle of Gods

The chaotic sky thunder and golden lightning broke through the sky. The fiery red wings seemed to be burning, and the red dragon's body slowly swayed.

Flames rose, thunder fell, and a bolt of lightning seemed to have really penetrated into the underworld from this world. The dragon was entangled in the electric light, and the body hovering in midair seemed to be over the top, and every breath affected the resonance of the sky and the earth.

Osiris the Sky Dragon descended!

The screwball players were also surprised at this time.

"Fuck! Egyptian God!"

"Didn't Sky Dragon be summoned by Yugi in the fight just now?"

"Yuei Vu-san has a second sky dragon!?"

""

If the screwball players were just astonished, then the accompanying Egyptian generals and soldiers were all shocked by the collapse of their worldview.

Because what Yuei Vu called out was the cornerstone of all of their beliefs, the god of the underworld they held the highest respect for!

This outsider can actually call gods?

"Osiris!? He actually called out an Egyptian God?"

At this moment, Bakura was so shocked that he didn't even want to play this game, he just wanted to turn around and run away.

He clearly knew that each card of the Three Egyptian Gods was unique in the world. Using replicas of God Card would only attract the wrath of the gods, and would cause the user to fall directly into doom.

He clearly saw that Yugi summoned the Egyptian God just now, which meant that the Egyptian God card was undoubtedly in the hands of the pharaoh. But now Yuei Vu also summoned a god and the sky dragon that descended at this time did not look like it was about to cast down the wrath of God.

No, it looked a bit different from the sky dragon Yugi called.

If the sky dragon summoned by Yugi was simply full of oppression and awesome power that made people tremble, then the sky dragon in front of him at this time look a little cute?

It flicked its tail, and crossed its body to protect Yuei Vu in the middle, and its eyes even felt a little resentful

It's been a long time since you called me to come out to breathe, why did I have to deal with such a difficult opponent as soon as I came out?

Having any problem, I'm the God of Underworld, having no problem, I'm the Traitor Dragon, is it the case?

But even so, Sky Dragon still cooperated as always. It crossed its body to protect its owner, while staring at the huge monster opposite.

The Wicked Dreadroot let out a roar, which contained anger, and at the same time contained a hint of excitement that seemed to be the appearance of a natural enemy.

The Sky Dragon also let out a loud roar, accompanied by several golden thunderclaps.

The ancient Egyptian soldiers hurriedly got off their horses and knelt down one after another, lowering their heads and not daring to show their breath, and they didn't even dare to look directly at the noble posture of the gods.

The sky dragon's small tail dangled above their heads, and the storm that was rolled up only oppressed everyone's hearts so much that they didn't dare to raise their heads.

It's a true battle of gods.

At this time, Bakura also had a storm in his heart.

Even the pharaohs did not have the power to call the gods without the Millennium Puzzle.

But Yusei Kaido just flicked his hands into his trouser pockets, saying that not only did he not have the Millennium Items, but the card he used was a replica (Bakura suspected so), yet he dared to summon God without fear.

Bakura's perspective:

The sky dragon arrived angrily with lightning and thunder: "Which one dare to use a fake card to summon me? Want to die so soon?"

Then seeing Yusei Kaido clearly, he took a deep breath, rolled up his body, and lowered down: "Oh brother, it's you? Why didn't you say hello in advance if you really wanted to call me? It's too sudden"

""

All above were purely imaginations.

But this far-fetched imagination actually matched the picture in front of him

The credibility of the theory "Yusei Kaido = Holocost the Creator God of Light" soared again in Bakura's mind. Now he looked at Yusei Kaido with horror in his eyes, as if he was looking directly at the deepest nightmare in his heart, and even his fighting spirit faded for the most part.

Play cards? Now it's unimportant!

At this time, the great evil god Zorc was thinking about how to escape, and he had already figured out a hundred of escape routes in a short moment.

"The attack power of Osiris depends on the number of cards in my hand." Yusei Kaido said, "I currently have five cards, so the attack power of Osiris is 5000."

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 5000]

The sky dragon raised his head arrogantly and roared proudly, feeling that he could do a lot of things.

Bakura gritted his teeth and reminded Yui Vu: "But as long as Dreadroot is on the field, the attack power of any monster must be halved! Osiris and Dreadroot are gods of the same level, and it must accept the effect of Dreadroot for one round!"

According to the animation's settings, among the three Egyptian Gods, only "The Winged Dragon of Ra" has the highest status, and he could completely repel the special effects of the other two lower gods. As Osiris and Obelisk were gods of the same level, their effects could affect each other, but only last for one turn.

Among the three Wicked Gods, "Wicked God Destroyer" and "Wicked God's Dreadroot" were gods of the same level as Osiris and Obelisk. The effects of these four gods also followed the same rule.

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 5000 ATK 2500]

Osiris, who was still so powerful just now, realized that he couldn't handle the opponent, and his momentum suddenly collapsed. It roared symbolically to support the scene, and at the same time glanced at the master below it from the corner of its eye, which meant: "Master, use your invincible HERO to find a way!"

Yui Vu did not disappoint him: "According to the effect of Makyura the Destructor', I activate the trap card Back to the Front' from my hand! Target 1 monster in my GY; Special Summon it in Defense Position!

The one I revived was still the "Destiny HERO Disk Commander"! "

[Destiny HERO Disk Commander, DEF 300]

"For the effect of Card of Safe Return', I draw three cards from the deck! Then for the effect of the Disk Commander, I draw two more cards from the deck!" Yui Vu drew a card, and at the same time raised his finger to the sky dragon, "Osiris' attack power will increase accordingly!"

The effect of Dreadroot was a continuous effect, and its effect processing method was to resolve all other effects that affect the attack power except itself, and finally halve the monster's attack power.

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 2500 ATK 9000 ATK 4500]

The strength increased, and Osiris's body was full of divine power, he couldn't help but raise his head and roar, flicking his tail, he felt that he was walking again!

Dreadroot waved his arms and yelled back, but he shrank his head and was so timid, that he only placed his hope on the great evil god who was far above him.

However, that great evil god the great evil god was still planning how to escape.

"The attack power exceeds Dreadroot" Bakura swallowed involuntarily.

His eyes froze, and for a moment, he turned his head and shot a vicious gaze at a certain screwball who was with him the whole time.

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer who was enjoying watching the play was startled, and subconsciously wanted to back off: "Youwhat do you want?"

Bakura's face was cold, his arms stretched out, and his palms opened. The invisible dark force immediately grabbed the screwball and dragged him over involuntarily.

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer: "?"

Fuck, play cards by yourself, why catch me!?

"Duel King!" Bakura shouted coldly, "I don't know if you are the one I think, but listen to me! Maybe you can indeed defeat The Wicked Dreadroot' with the Sky Dagon here, but at the same time as you attack, I will immediately use this guy to directly block the impact of God!

Osiris' full blow was enough to smash this guy's soul into pieces in an instant! "

As soon as this statement came out, the online and on-site players were in an uproar.

"Fuck you, how did you start to learn such an evil method? Didn't you have principles in Battle City?"

"Back in Battle City, Marik used Bakura's own body as a shield, that's a different story"

One Hammer Deal was stunned for a moment and suddenly became a little anxious.

Fuck, the plot won't be so cliché, will it? Will Yuei Vu-san lose for me?

Don't! ! !

Struggling desperately, One Hammer Deal shouted: "Yuei Vu-san, leave me alone! Attack quickly!"

Even the screwballs behind were very excited: "That's right, Yuei Vu-san, don't care about him! Just kill them both!"

Bakura began to have a little doubt in his conscience.

Is the thing in my hand so unpopular? Why even his companions are so unanimous in sacrificing him?

Don't you hesitate at all?!

But it didn't matter. He looked at Yuei Vu with a ferocious smile: "How is it? In this situation, can you still fight? Hahahaha"

Yuei Vu was stunned for a while watching this completely unexpected development.

and then almost couldn't help laughing out loud.

Are you threatening me with the life of this screwball?

I think you want to make me laugh to death so that you can inherit my Duel Disk and deck!

One Hammer Deal was still roaring: "Yuei Vu-san, my life is not important! Don't let him escape!"

"Okay." Yuei Vu waved his hand, silently expressing that he accepted the request, "Osiris the Sky Dragon, attack! Superconducting Wave Thunder Cannon!"

Bakura: "!"

Nani?

Does he have no regard for this person's life?

Osiris couldn't hold back anymore, it opened its mouth, and the domineering fluctuations exploded with the tumbling golden thunder, and the dazzling light seemed to split the sky in two!

Bakura's eyes froze, and he suddenly smiled coldly.

"Although I didn't expect you to be so ruthless But I'm sorry, this time I'm one step ahead of you!"

"Huh?" Yuei Vu's eyes moved.

"Open the set card: Trap Card Power Balance!" (anime card)

A stone slab in front of Bakura turned over.

"It can only be activated when the number of cards in my hand is 0. The opponent must choose half of the cards in his hand to discard, and I can draw cards equal to the number of cards the opponent discarded!"

Yuei Vu almost spit out blood.

What kind of fake card is this?

He had a little impression about this. It seemed to be the trap that Kaiba used to trap Yugi's Sky Dragon in the anime

NND, there are too many monster-level cards like this in the DM animation.

Yuei Vu currently has nine cards in his hand. According to the rule, he needed to pick four cards and discard them.

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 4500 ATK 5000 ATK 2500]

Back to square one.

Sky Dragon withered, and the Wicked God immediately started to move again. He opened his teeth and claws and swung his fists to hit Sky Dragon's forehead.

"The effect of Makyura the Destructor!" Yuei Vu shouted, "Activate the trap card Disgraceful Charity' from the hand! Both players add all cards from their Graveyards that were discarded by the effect of Spell Card activated this turn to their hands!" (Animation card)

Bakura: "!?"

Nani? Do you still have such a trick?

"The four cards that were sent to the GY according to the effect of Power Balance' are returned to the hand!" Yuei Vu said, "At the same time, there is two Elemental HERO Shadow Mist' and one Destiny HERO Disk Commander' sent to the GY according to the effect of Painful Choice', and the Makyura the Destructor' sent to the GY by the effect of Foolish Burial' a total of eight cards, all returned to the hand! "

[Osiris the Sky Dragon, ATK 2500 ATK 12000 ATK 6000]

"Even if it is halved, the attack power is still 6000!?"

The strength was reversed again, and the divine aura accompanied by the thunder seemed to be ready to come out at any time. The moment when the surging divine power erupted was undoubtedly enough to crush the Wicked God into pieces!

But Bakura also had a set card!

The final trick!

"Open the set card!" Bakura yelled, "Continuous Trap Call of the Haunted! Target 1 monster in my GY; Special Summon that target in Attack Position!"

"!"

Although gods were unaffected by traps, the god that existed in the graveyard was just a card and did not have such resistance. Because of this, in the Pyramid of Light movie, Yugi could use the trap card "Return from the Different Dimension" to call the three Egyptian Gods back to the field, and in the GX finale, the trap card "Dark Renewal" was also used to special summon the sky dragon.

Bakura here had a similar idea!

"The one I want to resurrect is" Bakura shouted, "The Wicked Eraser!"

The heaven and the earth wailed, and the whole world began to vibrate as if under the agitation of abundant divine power! The sky split open, the earth collapsed, and the first Wicked God emerged from the crack, glaring at the Egyptian God in front of him.

The Wicked Eraser descended!

"The effect of The Wicked Eraser!" Bakura said with a loud voice, trying to cover the sound of the rolling thunder and the cracking of the valley, "Use itself as a sacrifice, and send all the cards on the field to the GY! Because they are gods of the same level, this effect is effective for both the Sky Dragon and the Dreadroot!"

This effect can be activated at any time during the opponent's turn!

Go, The Wicked Eraser! Devour everything! "

With the command of permission, the power in the Eraser's body ran wild, and the endless darkness exploded, and everything it touched turned into nothingness!

The thunder shot out from the sky dragon's mouth, like a lightsaber piercing into the night, breaking through the pitch-black chaos for a short time, and the mighty momentum was like a world falling apart!

And what met this blow was the fist of The Wicked Dreadroot!

The three strands of divine power collided with each other, triggering thousands of explosions in the confined space! The valley completely collapsed, the ground sank, the thunder blasted the mountain wall and knocked down the rocks, and the scope of the impact continued to expand, annihilating everything, and the entire mountain range was completely rewritten.

Chapter 579: Being Killed Twice

The three gods clashed!

All the power in the Eraser's body exploded, like a world-destroying tsunami that swallowed everything it touched indiscriminately.

The thunder cannon blasted from Osiris's mouth briefly illuminated the entire sky, as if a shining sword pierced into the depths of the black clouds, but hit the heavy fist of The Wicked Dreadroot.

The power of the two Wicked Gods and Osiris collided continuously if it was purely a competition of spirits' strength, the sky dragon in Yugi's hand, which was weaker than the original one, could not be the opponent of the two Wicked Gods. However, according to the duel rules, its attack power was as high as 13,000 at this time. Even if it is weakened by the source of fear, it still had 6500 points.

Therefore, the sky dragon even had a slight advantage in the confrontation.

It's a pity that no matter how high the attack power was, it couldn't help the sky dragon resist the destructive power of The Wicked Eraser. It's just that this power was indiscriminate, and even its teammate, The Wicked Dreadroot, couldn't avoid it.

The entire area was collapsing, and thunder continued to fall to the ground, blasting holes in the rock. The earth shattered, space collapsed, and large and small rocks fell like raindrops.

The Egyptian soldiers lay on the ground one by one and did not dare to raise their heads. This earth-shattering momentum seemed to them like the end of the world. Each of them prayed to the gods they knew a thousand times in their hearts, prayed for Osiris who was fighting, and even did not forget to call out a certain passerby with an unknown origin for Osiris.

According to the normal duel process, the power of this series of effects on the Eraser should sweep away everything including the Sky Dragon and The Wicked Dreadroot. The entire field would be cleared, but it would still remain in Yuei Vu's turn, and the duel would continue. Both sides had LP and cards left in their hands, and the winner was still undecided.

But it didn't work out that way.

Darkness and golden light intertwined and erupted, and the light curtain burned the retina. Yuei Vu raised his arms to block in front of him, and when he was sucked into the surging rapids, he only briefly felt as if he couldn't feel his own weight.

In the dark, he seemed to briefly see something an hourglass.

The brilliant golden gravel flew slowly from the middle of the crystal-clear hourglass like slender water as if time was passing slowly.

Then suddenly, the hourglass turned upside down and so did the time.

Yuei Vu saw everything in front of him disappear. The roaring dragon in the sky, the roaring Wicked God, the collapsed earth, valleys, and even the torn sky, both darkness and light were indiscriminately stuffed into the hourglass of time, overturned and reversed, and started all over again.

Only a moment later, the entire collapsed valley was restored. The Wicked God disappeared from in front of him together with Bakura and at the same time, the noisy screwballs and the accompanying Egyptian army disappeared.

Yuei Vu fell back into this valley alone. He was sitting back and waiting, waiting for Bakura to throw himself into a trap and be delivered to him.

The time was fifteen minutes ago.

Time has flown back.

Yuei Vu felt a little surprised. The move of "turning back time" was something he expected, but he was still surprised.

In many RPG games, players had some initial props that come with their account. According to the original animation, Bakura had such a god-level prop at the beginning, and that was this "Time Hourglass".

He had only one chance to turn back a short period of time and choose a new future that was beneficial to him.

In the animation, Yami Yugi had already summoned the "The Winged Dragon of Ra" to fry Bakura. The ultimate Shadow Game should have ended directly by then, but he didn't expect that Bakura would suddenly play such a trick of turning back time and rewriting his unfavorable future. He even took the chance to snatch away the Millennium Puzzle.

Of course, Yusei Kudo had known for a long time that Bakura had such a tool in his hand, but this tool was so incredible and awesome that it was almost equivalent to an extra life, so he could only force Bakura to a desperate situation and let him use it himself. Besides, there was no other way to deal with it.

According to the original plan, Yusei Kudo had planned to take this opportunity to force Bakura to use this prop, which could be regarded as taking away Bakura's second life.

But what he never expected was that the other party actually use it this soon.

Yusei Kudo felt a little confused.

Logically speaking, shouldn't this prop, which is equivalent to an extra life, be used until one's HP returns to zero?

As a result, their game of cards hadn't even ended yet, and the outcome was still unpredictable. Yet Bakura immediately took advantage of this precious opportunity to turn back time and run away.

Using the ultimate skill to escape, what kind of tactic is that?

So, Yusei Kudo had already noticed that during this duel, Bakura looked at him a little strangely.

It felt like he was a little scared.

This was strange. Who was this Bakura?

Zorc Necrophades, the Great Evil God of Darkness.

For such a supervillain who treated Egyptian gods as kittens and puppies, what can make him fear?

"Could it be that the screwball made up some weird story about me for him?" Yusei Kudo thought.

If it's true, then this screwball's Talk no Jutsu is a bit strong!

Can even the Great Evil God be frightened?

However, if One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer knew his guess, he might just cry out that he was wronged. Because this Great Evil God really wasn't fooled by him, and he didn't know what the old Zorc was thinking

The NPCs in the memory world were completely unaware of any abnormalities, but all players participating in the game including Yami Yugi, Yugi Muto, his friends, and other sandbox players, quickly realized the anomalies in time.

Especially Yami Yugi, his side was the most abrupt.

Originally, he had already summoned "The Winged Dragon of Ra" to kill the six-year-old in an instant, and he quickly led a large army to turn around and rush in the opposite direction in an attempt to pursue Bakura.

When they were about to catch up, suddenly the world was spinning and time and space were twisted. Yami Yugi was in a trance for a while, and his vision went dark and then brightened. When he came back to his senses, he was no longer on the horse and teleported back to the valley fifteen minutes ago.

In front of him in front of him was a six-year-old Marik who looked equally confused.

Yami Marik's face was full of confusion, and he looked down at his hands: "What's going on? I remember that I was hit by the Sun God's God Blaze Cannon"

Although he couldn't remember what happened after that, he still clearly remembered the moment when the Sun God fired at him and even the pain of his body being torn apart and his soul being annihilated.

The six-year-old was puzzled.

Is it an illusion? Didn't I die?

Then he raised his head in confusion and saw the game again and the dazzling "The Winged Dragon of Ra" above his head.

"Is this time rewinding!?"

Thinking that he was in the RPG game world, Yami Yugi quickly guessed the reason.

As Bakura said, this was the "Ultimate Shadow Game" that transcended any common sense.

Does this mean that the game props that affect time and space are taking effect?

Was it used by Bakura?

Will my companions be in danger?

Thinking of this, Yami Yugi couldn't help but feel anxious. He had no time to pay attention to the six-year-old in front of him: "The Winged Dragon of Ra, attack! God Blaze Cannon!"

The six-year-old who was killed by the Sun God again: "@%#"

Damn it I was burned to death by the Sun God twice in a Shadow Game. Can you believe it!?

Chapter 580: Crush Me If You Can

The Winged Dragon of Ra received another attack order, and the poor six-year-old was burned to slag for the second time in this "Ultimate Shadow Game", and exited the stage with a heart-piercing scream.

The sun god opened his mouth to spit out mighty flames, and before the swirling flames even hit, Yami Yugi flew on his horse, turned around, and pulled the reins, leaving behind the dazzling blasting flames along with the six-year-old's shrill screams.

Maybe this was the so-called "real men never look back at explosions".

"Pharaoh!"

Yami Yugi suddenly turned his head before he finished playing his cards. The moment the six-year-old's LP reached zero, he rushed out. A group of priests were caught off guard and stood still before rushing out and bringing the army to follow behind their king.

Yami Yugi noticed that time was going back and was really anxious at this time. If this rewinding was indeed Bakura's doing, even a little carelessness could easily lead to a huge consequence.

He feared that during the time he was busy dealing with Marik, some people in his own camp had already been eliminated by Bakura.

But when he hurriedly came back, he soon breathed a sigh of relief.

It's okay, it's okay, AIBO is fine everyone is fine.

Yuei Vu and the players also came back here to join them.

Bakura, who was clearly ambushed along the way, obviously learned better after turning back time.

He realized that the self-righteous idiot he brought with him was actually useless as a bargaining chip, and after turning back the time, he directly killed the screwball without saying anything.

His mentality could be roughly understood by the onlookers in the live broadcast room

Fuck, I have enough of you screwball!

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer still fought hard to resist. He was determined that even if his first death would be here, he must at least show off his skill like Heart Gone With The Wind, and at least have a handsome posture when he was fucked.

At least I can stall for a few more turns to buy some time for the pursuers to catch up with Bakura, right?

The idea was good, but unfortunately, he did not consider an important factor
.his Duelist Rank.

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer swore at the audience in the live broadcast room, expressing that he was also very desperate!

There are six cards in my starting hand, yet there is no monster that can be summoned. Can you believe it?

What the hell is this? The dealer is not Jonouchi, is he?

After all, looking at the entire DM, among all main characters, secondary characters, and even the nameless minor characters, it seemed that only Jonouchi had a hand accident, and more than once or twice

But it didn't matter. Although he couldn't summon any monster, he had a lot of traps in his hands. As long as the opponent couldn't get out of the trap, it wouldn't count as a dead draw!

So One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer directly set three cards and ended his first turn handsomely.

Among his cards, there was a Bottomless Trap Hole and a Sakuretsu Armor

Well, although Sakuretsu Armor was said to be cursed by the will of the universe, there would always be players who didn't believe in metaphysics and thought this thing could be used.

In addition, this card was too cheap!

Just because it had such a bad reputation, this thing may be the cheapest UR trap card in Yuei Vu's store

One Hammer Deal also set a Polymerization. At least it could deter and confuse opponents. After all, setting three set cards in the back row gave people 150% more feeling than setting two cards.

In order to enhance the atmosphere, he even interacted with the opponent: "Come on, crush me if you can! Who loves whose grandson!"

Today I'm going to play cards in nether style!

But he overlooked an important issue.

Who was Bakura?

The great evil god of darkness, the ruler of the underworld, dangling with a super-large dragon head with his crotch upright in broad daylight. In front of a grandmaster of nether style, how could this little trick work?

Bakura looked at his starting cards well, starting slabs, and immediately laughed out loud. He played a Zombie World first, followed by Graceful Charity, and then he directly banished Mezuki from the GY, with a big wave of his hand

Wake up from the graveyard, The Wicked Dreadroot!

At this moment, all the people rolling over neatly in the comment section of the live broadcast barrage

"Crush Me If You Can".

There were also comments such as:

"Great evil god: I have never heard such a strange request."

"Some people look alive, but he is already dead."

""

One Hammer Deal No Counter-Offer was completely dumbfounded.

Hey brother, what you are doing is not a duel at all.

I'm cracking, how could someone start with a Wicked God?

This is cheating!

The Wicked Dreadroot, with an attack power of 4000, completely ignored any trap effects, and instantly made all set cards become decorations. The Wicked God slapped him down, like slapping a mosquito, killing him instantly by an OTK.

One hammer eighty without counter-offering, die.

Duration, seventeen seconds.

The live broadcast room enters the death countdown interface, and the screen is full of "17s" and "A true man for seventeen seconds" scrolling past. It might become a meme for a while

After finishing the load, Bakura turned his head and continued to run for his life this time, of course, he avoided the path with an ambush.

The roads in the valley extended in all directions, and the terrain was very complicated. It was indeed unrealistic to catch up with Bakura without an insider who could report the coordinates.

The priests headed by Mahad quickly set up a large magic formation and enchantment, and the army immediately dispersed to block the major exits, trying to limit the actions of Bakura of course, it was only doing its best.

At least Yuei Vu and Yugi didn't think this kind of conventional method could stop Bakura.

Finally, the results of the surrounding search were indeed as expected, and there was no shadow of the bandit king.

However, judging from the overall situation of the two camps in the RPG game, this confrontation has been regarded as a complete victory.

The stronghold on the side of the Bakura was exposed, and the attack plan was completely disrupted, so he had to be passive for a while.

His lair was raided, and all the wealth and savings in this game so far have been confiscated. In the future, he would have to return to the state of chewing garlic.

All the monsters he had worked so hard these days to collect were wiped out. The six-year-old Marik, who was supposed to be his secret weapon, was forced to serve as cannon fodder, and even the time-rewinding skill equivalent to his second life was hastily handed over.

Oh, by the way, he had saved the screwball as a bargaining chip before, but in the end he found out that it was just a simple screwball. Not to mention that there was no useful information, this guy couldn't even be used as a hostage.

After this battle, Bakura became the lone commander again. Yuei Vu's game team joined forces victoriously, while he was back into the initial state, having nothing but a pair of big underpants

Oh, by the way, at least there were still three Wicked Gods stone slabs.

Only this could give him a little comfort.

It won't work if it goes on like this.

Bakura's eyes were gloomy, and a new idea gradually formed in his mind,

Next, I have to choose new tactics and change my thinking.

He had a bold idea.

"I'm very sorry, Pharaoh."

After half a day of searching, Priest Mahad came to Yami Yugi and knelt down on one knee.

"We have conducted a comprehensive search of the nearby valley, but we have not been able to find traces of the bandit king."

"Understood." Yami Yugi nodded, "Get up, it's not your fault. BakuThe Bandit King is indeed an expert in hiding his whereabouts."

He stood up and mounted his horse.

"Let's go then, go back to the palace first." He said, "We'll discuss the rest when we go back."

"Yes, Pharaoh."

Mahad got up, lowered his head, and stepped back, to convey the meaning of the pharaoh to others.

Priest Akhenaden stood in the line of priests behind him, also with his head bowed, most of his face was hidden under the shadow of the hood. The Millennium Eye shone with a pale golden light in the shadows, and that one eye sized up the young Pharaoh from behind with a hidden vision, its eyes flickering, and it was not known what it was planning.

Yami Yugi didn't realize it at all, at the moment when his side had won a big victory and pushed Bakura into a desperate situation, there was actually such a potential traitor in his camp, planning to make trouble at any time with malicious intentions.

But Priest Akhenaden also didn't notice. While he was staring at the pharaohsomeone was staring at him coldly.

Yuei Vu stood in the seat of the Pharaoh's "friends and relatives group", glanced at Akhenaden's direction, and sneered in his heart.

Heh, old man, do you really think no one knows your little secret?
