

I Play Yu-Gi 781

Chapter 781: The Mysterious Reward

The huge passenger ship rode the wind and waves to the shore of the Duel Academy Island, carrying a boatload of murderous northern students.

The principal of Northern Academy took the lead and walked off the boat, followed by a large group of students, like a cavalry preparing to charge into battle.

On the headquarters side, Principal Samejima personally leads the team. The principal stood on the shore early. When he saw Principal Ichinose and his students from the North Branch, he greeted them with a smile on his face.

"Long time no see!" Principal Samejima was as enthusiastic as a good brother he hadn't seen for many years. "You still haven't changed at all. I can smell your stint from afar."

Principal Ichinose also smiled: "You are the same, Principal Samejima. I haven't even landed on the beach yet, but I saw your direction at first glance from a long way away. It's so bright"

As he said this, he glanced at Samejima Principal Hikari's forehead.

"Principal Ichinose's environment in the north is still difficult. It's been less than a year since we last met. When I see you, it feels like ten years have passed"

"Haha, there's nothing I can do about it. I can't compare to Principal Samejima. You look the same as last time. Is it because of poor nutrition or because the hair growth hormone doesn't work well?"

Both of them had smiles on their faces and held each other's hands enthusiastically, but their gazes were as sharp as intertwined spears, sparking invisible sparks in mid-air.

"Oh, it seems that these two principals have a very good relationship!" said Judai who was watching from behind.

"Aniki, how did you see that?" His younger brother Marufuji Sho followed him and said, "It looks like they are going to start a fight at any time, okay?"

"You have won the game every time before, but it won't happen again this time." Principal Ichinose's face was gloomy, and his smile actually looked a bit sinister. "Our Academy will take this year's winner's reward!"

"Don't be so confident, Principal Ichinose." Samejima chuckled, "Our academy is sending out the strongest players in history this year, and we won't give away the reward!"

As he spoke, he also raised his eyebrows and winked at Judai who was standing aside.

Whether our Academy can win the grand prize this year depends entirely on you, Judai!

The two principals' attitudes and reactions when facing this duel and mentioning this "reward" were just like the leaders behind the two major forces in the movie who wanted to grab some unique treasure.

"It must sound like a very precious treasure, right?" Marufuji Sho began to wonder, "Maybe it's a rare card?"

"It must be Tome-san's kiss," Judai said.

This was what Yuei Vu told him, and he didn't quite believe it at the time.

Marufuji Sho almost fell over. The image of the Dark Magician Girl cosplayed by the round and amiable Tome-san in the canteen when he was in school suddenly appeared in his mind. It suddenly brought back the horrible memories that he had once forgotten

"How how is it possible!?" Marufuji Sho wiped his sweat.

However, no one may believe it. The ultimate reward for the tit-for-tat confrontation between the two principals was really a kiss from Tome-san

The two principals were at each other's throats as soon as they met. The fundamental reason was that they were love rivals

Principal Ichinose has been really worried these years. He was so worried that he didn't think about food or tea. When he had nothing to do, he always thought about the scene of the old bald man Samejima and Tome-chan kissing each other.

You couldn't blame him for being sad. As the saying goes, first come winner, second come closer. Tome-san worked at the canteen of Duel Academy, and Samejima was the principal of Duel Academy, so he wished he could meet eight times a day. And Ichigase could only drink the northwest wind in the ice and snowy and uninhabited Arctic.

Over the years, Principal Ichinose's originally thick and dark hair has turned into a Mediterranean hairstyle, and there was even a trend of developing towards Samejima's hairstyle.

This was something Ichinose didn't know about. The more senior teachers at Duel Academy Headquarters all knew that there was actually a shocking secret hidden in the principal's office.

That was, there was actually an unknown secret tunnel hidden under the principal's desk.

That tunnel crossed the entire Academy building, winding around and leading all the way to a forbidden and mysterious area

Tome-san's canteen!

So sometimes you thought that the principal may lock himself in the office all day and night and work overtime, but in fact, he actually sneaked into the secret passage under the desk to find Tome-chan for a tryst!

If such a secret were to be known to Principal Ichinose, the few hairs on his forehead would turn green with anger!

If the plot of the original work was followed, the contestant of the Northern Academy should be Manjome, who was frustrated by the continuous setbacks in the headquarters, fled the Academy by boat, but accidentally drifted to the Northern Academy, and accidentally became the big brother of the Academy.

As a result, Manjome re-emerged in the Northern Academy, and the king returned. He aggressively represented the branch school and came to challenge the headquarters, and then the enemy met again on a narrow road against Yuki Judai, who was the representative of the headquarters and got beaten the jellyfish head again.

Of course, in the current timeline, Manjome did not escape by boat, so naturally, there was no chance of going to the Northern Academy. Therefore, the player sent by Northern Academy was a big man with a strong back and strong muscles, and a passerby face that "looks very good at physical duel but is definitely not very good at card duel".

The two principals were probably concerned about Tome-chan's reward, so they led the two teams of students to the duel venue without much greeting or politeness, and got straight to the point, ready to start.

The two principals, who were all focused on the reward, did not realize that one of the students from the Northern Academy quietly left his team.

It was a student of medium height. He was wearing a black jacket and a pair of round-rimmed glasses on the bridge of his nose. His appearance was the kind of popular face that might never be found again if thrown into a crowd.

His steps were so light that he made almost no sound, like a cat walking through the night. He seemed to have deliberately fallen at the end of the group during the march, and then quietly left the group.

No one noticed his departure. Like a ghost, he silently deviated from his path and entered the dense forest outside the academy.

As he walked, he took out some kind of mechanical equipment from his arms, a sensing device similar to radar. This machine could help him scan a specific energy fluctuation and determine the direction in which he should move.

In fact, he was not a student at Northern Academy at all. The reason why he took this opportunity to sneak onto the island was just to avoid unnecessary attention especially the attention of some dangerous people in the academy.

From the moment he landed on the island, his only goal was clear and definite.

What he was looking for was the legendary demon gods who were sealed by the Duelist Alliance formed by the Duel King and Seto Kaiba many years ago, the apex and most powerful monster among duel monsters.

Three Sacred Beasts.

Chapter 782: Northern Academy's Super Rare Cards

Today was the day the card game between Judai and the representative player from the North Academy happened.

Because it was well known that Judai was better at thinking with the small intestine than with the brain, so he immediately forgot the name of the opposite party in a very grand manner, thus we directly referred to the other party as the North Representative here.

The North Representative started by setting a monster, then set a card, and then ended the turn. It was a very standard start.

Then Judai was very rude. He first used "Foolish Burial" to send an "Elemental HERO Necroshade" from the deck to the graveyard, and then activated the effect of "Necroshade" to summon

"Elemental HERO Bladedge", which had an attack power of 2600 and piercing effect and achieved the suppression in the first step.

Judai directly used Bladedge to attack the monster covering the opponent's front row. When it was turned over, he saw that it was a "Masked Dragon".

Masked Dragon had a defense power of 1100. When it was destroyed by battle and sent to the Graveyard, it could Special Summon 1 Dragon-Type monster with 1500 or less ATK from the Deck.

Although the Bladedge's piercing ability caused a high amount of 1,500 points of damage, the North Representative didn't mind at all. Instead, he showed a sneer of success.

The Masked Dragon was just a bait. His real purpose was the effect triggered when the Masked Dragon was destroyed

Special Summon "Armed Dragon LV3" from the deck!

[Armed Dragon LV3, ATK 1200]

As soon as he saw this card, Principal Samejima almost jumped out of his chair: "Ichinose! You guy actually handed over the supreme rare card that was entrusted to your Northern Academy for safekeeping"

Although there was no explicit regulation, the highest-grade rare cards entrusted to the academy for safekeeping should not be allowed to be used in exchange matches by default.

"Hmph, shut up!" Principal Ichinose snorted, "For duelists, as long as they can win, it doesn't matter what they do!"

Then he gave a sinister smile.

"Hmph, I am determined to win this year's reward!"

After so many years and so many matches, he has never won a kiss from Tome-chan!

This time I will win it no matter what means is used!

"Damn it" Samejima gritted his teeth, "Judai-san, come on!!!"

Of course, it was impossible for Judai to think so much when he was playing cards. His first reaction when he saw the armed dragon was

It is indeed the Dragon deck!

Yuei Vu has taught him more than once that before starting a battle if possible, he must collect relevant information about the opponent's players. Only by knowing the composition of the opponent's deck could he formulate tactics more effectively.

So even though he had never seen a monster like "Armed Dragon", before today's game started, Judai had already known that the opponent's deck was specialized in dragons.

"It's my turn!" came the operation of the representative player from the North. "At the moment of the Standby Phase, the effect of Armed Dragon LV3' is activated, and it will evolve!

Send the Armed Dragon LV3' on my field to the graveyard, and special summon Armed Dragon LV5' from the deck"

"Wait a moment!" Judai raised his hand, "In the Draw Phase, I activate Quick-Play Spell Book of Moon! Flip Armed Dragon LV3' to face-down defense position!"

Seeing his armed dragon being turned over, the North Representative couldn't help but gasp.

The Armed Dragon was an LV monster and could evolve during the Standby Phase, but there was a prerequisite, that is, it must be face-up on the field. If Judai directly sent the armed dragon to the underworld with a Book of Moon, it would not be able to evolve.

But it didn't matter, this representative player still had plan B.

"I activate Quick-Play Spell Armed Dragon Flash! Special Summon 1 Level 3 Armed Dragon' monster from the Deck in Defense Position!"

Then with a golden lightning, the second unit of Armed Dragon LV3 made its debut!

[Armed Dragon LV3, DEF 900]

Then the armed dragon was sent to the graveyard during the Standby Phase and was directly upgraded to LV5!

The small armed dragon disappeared from the field, and its size expanded rapidly under a beam of light that towered into the sky! The heavy-duty armed dragon covered with serrated teeth makes its grand appearance!

[Armed Dragon LV5, ATK 2400]

"Oh uncle, you are so powerful, you actually summoned it!" Judai expressed his admiration.

Veins popped up on the forehead of the player from the North Academy: "Who are you calling uncle? I'm your senpai!"

"Okay, senpai." Judai was very well-behaved.

"Hmph, then I activate the ability of Armed Dragon LV5! Send 1 monster from my hand to the GY, then target 1 monster the opponent controls with ATK less than or equal to the sent monster's ATK; destroy that target!"

I sent the Armed Dragon LV10' with an attack power of 3000 and destroyed the Elemental HERO Bladedge! "

Although it had higher attack power, there was nothing Bladedge could do under the bombardment of such powerful effects. The shadow of "Armed Dragon LV10" merged into an air-piercing missile, defeating the Bladedge's body head-on. The metal body of the Elemental HERO was instantly shattered, with countless fragments flying everywhere.

Judai raised his arm to block the sweeping wind, and praised without hesitation: "What a strong monster! Bladedge was defeated in an instant!"

"Hahaha, of course! This is the strongest card kept by the Northern Academy!" The North Representative laughed loudly, "Armed Dragon LV5, attack directly!"

The heavy body of the armed dragon stepped forward, and its heavy claws grabbed it on the head!

"Then activate the Continuous Trap Dragon Capture Jar!" Judai turned over the set card, "As long as this trap card exists on the field, change all face-up Dragon-Type monsters on the field to Defense Position, also they cannot change their battle positions!"

"Nani!?"

Seeing the huge sealed pot with a dragon's head engraved on it popping out of the trap, the sturdy North Academy player almost exploded on the spot.

What the hell? Why do you have this kind of card that is designed to mess with my mentality?

Wait a minute.

All dragons must be forced to switch to Defense Position. Doesn't this mean

All the monsters in my entire deck can no longer attack!?

Im going to fuck right away!

Principal Ichinose, who was sitting in the audience with a sinister expression, also spat out a mouthful of blood at this moment.

He looked at Samejima beside him in shock: "Damn Samejima, did you expect that I would take out the Armed Dragon' for students to use this year?"

In fact, Samejima was not much less confused than him. But the old guy reacted quickly, touched his bald forehead, and quickly laughed: "It seems that my students are better"

Better my ass!

Principal Ichinose's face was as gloomy as dripping water: "Samejima, you are so cunning"

Samejima coughed and returned what Ichinose had just said to him: "For duelists, as long as they can win, it doesn't matter what they do"

Principal Ichinose was so angry that his teeth itched, but there was nothing he could do.

My Tome-chan!

Principal Ichinose felt his heart bleed when he thought of the "rich" reward that was far away from him again

Chapter 783: Your Wife Is Awesome In Bed

The forest behind Duel Academy, a gathering place for screwballs.

At this moment, Judai was dueling with representatives from the Northern Academy in the academy's dueling hall. Many players have already gone to the front row to watch, but some players were not interested in the card games there.

After all, the representative this year was an unknown passerby, and the players could guess the outcome of the duel with just their feet. The poor guy from Northern Academy would be tricked into being unable to take care of himself and had to be taken away on a stretcher

So there were also many players staying in their strongholds. There were playing cards, playing mahjong, dancing, and fighting, just like a square in the park that was contracted by the elders.

"What?" Fae was chatting casually with Snow Wave. When they talked about their respective students, he couldn't help but be shocked. "You said that your student was passers-by that we rescued in previous missions?"

"Yes."

"Damn it, you are so lucky!" Brother Fae patted him on the back, "A girl has come to your door. Are you still not happy?"

"Hold it up, I'm so worried that my head became big." Snow Wave rubbed his temples.

"Which head?" Brother Fae asked immediately.

"Both"

"Then hurry up! Why are you hesitating?" Brother Fae started to encourage, "Sit down and get started, it's exciting just thinking about it!"

"Exciting my ass, she is just an NPC" Snow Wave still couldn't get happy.

After all, Yuei Vu-san said that if the progress of the tutored students continued to fail to meet the expected requirements, they, the tutors, would be fired from the island on the spot!

Doesn't that mean that from now on, there will be no place for me next to Yuei Vu-san?

Just thinking about this possibility makes me tremble all over, my hands and feet are cold, and my whole body feels bad

I can play games without beautiful female students, but I can't play games without Yuei Vu-san!

Unfortunately, my student is not focused on studying yet. She is thinking about how to sneak into my bed all day long!

The more I think about it, the more my head grows big

No one seemed to notice that a spy had quietly sneaked into this place.

It was the spy of unknown origin who had snuck in among the students of Northern Academy.

It was no secret in the world that the world's top level duel monster spirits the three Sacred Beasts were sealed in the headquarters of the Duel Academy. But no one knew what kind of power the three Sacred Beasts had, how they were sealed, and the exact location where they were sealed.

But when it came to this kind of spirits that were beyond the comprehension of ordinary people, there was certainly no shortage of people in the world who are interested in this unknown existence. Many strong men in the dueling world, duelists who have mastered dark power, and even national institutions, secret organizations, and many big bosses were interested in the so-called Sacred Beasts.

It's just that this Duel Academy was established by the Kaiba Corp in recent years, the president Seto Kaiba has been tending to dominate the world, and ordinary people couldn't afford to offend him. In addition, the presence of Yuei Vu, the honorary principal of the academy, the first-generation duel king who personally sealed the Sacred Beasts, made more people stop thinking.

But of course it couldn't be everyone.

This spy was here for this purpose. He wanted information about the three Sacred Beasts. He wanted to know where exactly the three Sacred Beasts were sealed on the island, what kind of seal it was, what kind of security measures were in place, and even how to lift the seal.

He holds a device in his hand that could detect powerful spiritual energy fluctuations, which could help him locate the three Sacred Beasts. He followed the instructions and walked deeper into the dense forest.

Even if a powerful being like the Three Sacred Beasts was sealed, its energy could not be completely contained and would leak out more or less. Following that direction, you could find the location of the Sacred Beast.

The spy thought that the place he was looking for was some top-secret facility. Maybe there would be a base with extremely high technological content hidden deep in the dense forest. It may be heavily guarded, or it may be camouflaged with the most advanced optical camouflage technology.

However, when he found that place, he discovered that all the above-mentioned things only existed in his imagination.

There were no armed guards here, no high-tech facilities, just a group of joyful screwballs?

A bunch of weirdos was playing and dancing, and two guys even started to take off their belts when they had a disagreement!

The spy couldn't help but be confused.

What's happening here? Are there not enough beds in mental hospitals?

He couldn't help but lower his head and double-check the equipment in his hand and was convinced that this was the place where the energy response of the three Sacred Beasts was strongest.

This made him a little confused.

Could it be that the secret to sealing the three Sacred Beasts is to let a group of screwballs step on their heads and sing and dance?

He couldn't figure out what the method was, but after thinking about it, the spy still felt that he couldn't be exposed first. He carefully lowered himself down and used the bushes to cover himself, moving skillfully and quickly. His body was pressed tightly against the ground, relying entirely on the strength of his arms and legs to crawl forward with humming sounds.

But as he crawled, he suddenly realized something was wrong.

He paused and slowly turned his head, only to find that someone was standing less than ten steps beside him.

The man tilted his head, with an expression as if he was sizing up a rare species, and watched silently as he lay on the ground struggling to move forward

Its quite embarrassing.

"What happened to your waist?" the man asked, "Did someone stab you in the kidney or something happened to it?"

The spy:""

After an awkward silence for a moment, the spy responded and stood up: "Um, sorry, I'm a student from Northern Academy. I got separated from the team and I seem to be a little lost now. Can you tell me where this is?"

He looked around as he spoke, looking dazed as if he was really lost.

"This is Duel Academy." The man said.

The corner of the spy's mouth twitched.

Nonsense, I know very well that this is Duel Academy!

But he didn't dwell on this topic: "By the way, who are you"

"ID?" The man thought for a while, "Your wife is awesome in bed'."

Spy:"???"

He suspected that he heard it wrong and confirmed again: "You said what's awesome?"

"Your wife is awesome in bed."

"my wife what?"

"Your wife is awesome in bed."

The spy's face twitched again, and he tried his best to suppress the anger in his heart: "I'm sorry, are you making fun of me?"

"No."

A certain screwball looked up helplessly and glanced at the line of words above his head.

My ID is really "Your Wife Is Awesome In Bed"

This game is really weird, NPCs will even question your ID!

The spy let out a sigh.

Be cool, be calm.

As a qualified spy, he had received professional training and would never reveal his true feelings easily, nor would he simply get angry.

"Sorry for my fault, maybe I didn't explain it clearly." He smiled, "I was asking for your name. What are you called?"

"Your wife is awesome in bed."

The spy started to roll up his sleeves.

You're just deliberately looking for trouble, aren't you??

Chapter 784: Are You Lost?

The spy almost got violent and beat someone up again, but he took two deep breaths and tried his best to calm down.

He was an emotionless spy. He came to this island with a mission.

I don't have to be familiar with this psycho, I must prioritize my tasks.

However, the movement here seemed to have attracted the attention of other screwballs, and many players around have gathered here.

What's going on? Who is this?

"A student? Not wearing a school uniform? What mission was triggered?"

Someone came up to your awesome wife and patted her on the shoulder: "Hey, buddy, what's going on? Aren't you designing an endgame for your students?"

"I don't know." Your Wife Is Awesome In Bed pointed at the spy next to him, "I just saw this guy lying on the ground twisting like a breakdance star. I don't know what he was doing. "

Is it so suspicious?

The spys face turned dark.

Breakdance star my ass!

Can you believe that I was regarded as a lunatic by a group of lunatics?

But he also captured some key information.

That idiot just mentioned "your students"?

So these out-of-line psychopaths are actually teachers in the academy?

Moreover, they are specially stationed in the depths of this remote dense forest, which happens to be the area where the energy response of the three Sacred Beasts is strongest

The spy's pupils shrank, his brain cells were working at full speed, and he quickly came to a conclusion relying on his rigorous logical thinking and strong reasoning ability.

These seemingly insane lunaticsmaybe they are hidden duelists!

Why didn't I see any facilities to suppress the three Sacred Beasts? Why didn't I see any security measures or protection?

Because these screwballs appearing in front of me are strong men guarding the seal of Sacred Beasts!

The spy's mind quickly became active.

In the past, he might not have had the confidence to fight against a truly strong player, but it was different now. Now he has been given enough power to be ranked as a top-notch master, and he was fearless even against truly strong men.

But the purpose of his visit this time was to collect intelligence. If possible, he should try to avoid conflicts and not attract attention.

Since Duel King Yuei Vu asked these people to suppress the Sacred Beast here, they must be the Duel King's cronies or at least they should be trusted people who should know some information.

It's just conceivable that the other party should also be very tight-lipped and would not easily leak important information. So this was when his professionalism as a spy came into play.

He quickly designed a set of formulaic plans, starting from the shallower to the deeper, starting from small talk and gradually touching on the core topics, figuring out the sealing method of the three Sacred Beasts, and preferably also figuring out how to release the seal, and then collecting some information about the Duel King.

But he never expected that all his predictions and plans would be in vain.

Because he just brought the topic to Yuei Vu's name, the idiots rushed over one by one and said everything like primary school students rushing to answer the teachers' questions in class.

The screwballs were very excited when it came to mentioning their Yuei Vu-san. They can't wait to follow Yuei Vu-san's progress step by step starting from the Battle City period.

"Have you heard about six-year-old Marik? Do you know about Ghouls? At that time, he was very arrogant, as both Osiris the Sky Dragon and The Winged Dragon of Ra were in his hands, and swore to conquer Egypt. However, now the entire Ghouls and all the cards in their warehouse have changed their surnames to Yuei."

"Do you know about Dartz? The 10000-year-old monster, the driving force behind human civilization, the spokesperson of the evil god Orichalcos, the terminator of the world was tricked by Yuei Vu-san into ten thousand years of autism."

"Have you ever heard of the Great Evil God Zorc? This one is even more awesome. There is a dragon under his crotch, his feet stomped three Egyptian Gods, Exodia was torn apart by his hands. He was still exploded and killed by Yuei Vu-san."

Brother Spy listened and took notes, feeling more and more frightened.

Among them, many of Yuei Vu's achievements have not been disclosed to the public, and there were some that the outside world had only heard about but did not know the details. They were described by a group of idiots with embellished details, which stunned the spy brother.

The gossip was getting more and more outrageous, and they even talked about the origin of the world.

For example, someone said: You already know about the great evil god Zorc, right? Do you know where Zorc came from?

Think back to when heaven and earth first formed from chaos, God said "Let there be light", so there was light in the world.

But as the saying goes, where there is light, there must be shadow. The Creator God of Light gave birth to all things and shaped this world, and at the same time, it also produced the corresponding darkness, which is the great evil god Zorc. He is attached to the host of the Millennium Ring, using his human body as his agent to stir up troubles and prepare for the resurrection plan.

The one who foiled this plan and tore apart the darkness was the agent of the Creator God of Light, her avatar on this plane.

That's our Yuei Vu-san!

The spy was shocked when he heard the news.

This was big news that he has never heard of!

Hearing this, Brother Spy began to retreat involuntarily. He had temporarily forgotten about the three Sacred Beasts, and now all he could think about were the various legends about this Duel King.

He knew that this Duel King was very strong and had heard some rumors about him

But never has it been as outrageous as what he heard today!

If this was true, then all his boss's plans so far must be overturned. The exaggerated background of the Duel King changed everything!

He must inform his boss and let him understand the inherent risks of making plans for taking the three Sacred Beasts. If what these idiots said was true, then all the plans so far must be torn down and restarted!

At this moment, he forgot all about the sealing formation, spying on the three Sacred Beasts, and so on. All he could think about was evacuating quickly and taking out this important information!

After repeated attempts to make sure that this guy did not trigger any hidden plot dialogue, the idiots found it boring, so they let him go for the time being.

The spy quickly left this strange area and walked through the dense forest. After making sure that no one behind him could see him, he immediately took out the mobile phone in his pocket.

It was a specially made mobile phone with only one pre-saved contact his boss. The line was encrypted and was the only way he could communicate with his superiors.

The spy tried to dial the phone he didn't want to delay for a moment in passing on this terrible information.

The busy tone echoed constantly on the dialed phone, and each rise and fall made him feel like a century had passed.

The dialing failed.

The spy was almost in disbelief when he saw the big words "No signal" on the mobile phone.

How can it be? The Duel Academy was built by the Kaiba Corp itself, and the entire island was covered by powerful wireless signals. How could such a ridiculous thing as "no signal" happen?

Unless

He paused and realized something was wrong.

The whole scene started to spin. The ground seemed to have sunk, and the surrounding trees turned into shadows and disappeared one after another. The dark sky spread down like a huge canvas. Reinforced concrete buildings rose from the ground, and the spikes on the top of the dark towers soared into the sky.

Field Spell Skyscraper!

It's not just a virtual image, it's a real scene materialized from the cards by powerful supernatural power, a Shadow Game space that isolated the designated area from the outside world!

The spy held his breath as he realized he was trapped.

He knew the rules. Once you stepped into the Shadow Game space, the only way to come out was to become the winner.

Skyscraper was a dedicated field for "Elemental HERO", and it could almost be regarded as the hero's signature. And since this field appeared here, that meant Yo, man.

Hearing the voice coming from behind, the spy turned his head stiffly

As expected, he saw the Duel King Yuei Vu, who was touted by the screwballs as the son of the world, the incarnation of the God of Cards, and the representative of the Creator God of Light.

Yuei Vu walked towards this side unhurriedly and asked, "What? Are you lost?"

Chapter 785: Villain's Confidence

The spy was stunned for a moment when he saw Yuei Vu walking slowly.

The thoughts in his mind changed rapidly in a flash, and he quickly made the wisest choice

Pretend to be stupid!

The spy used his lifelong acting skills and tried his best to imitate the shocked look when he met his idol: "Yuei Mr. Yuei Vu! Are you the real one!?"

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

Oh, are you still pretending to be stupid?

He was not in a hurry to reveal it, he just stood in front of him and looked him up and down.

"Who are you? What are you doing here?"

"I am a student of Northern Academy!" The spy decided to implement the character design, and at the same time looked around blankly, "I was just looking for the toilet"

"Looking for the toilet here?" Yuei Vu glanced at the lush flowers and trees around him, "Are you here to fertilize our back garden?"

Brother Spy started to sweat a little.

The Duel King's pressure was indeed extraordinary and he had just heard someone brag about his awesomeness for a long time, and the status of the big boss in front of him was almost close to that of the Creation God in his mind, so he was naturally easily nervous.

"I'm just a little lost. I don't have a good sense of direction." The spy smiled coquettishly, "By the way, what are you doing here?"

"Nothing, just taking a walk and checking to see if there are any rats that want to take advantage of the diluted waters to sneak in."

The spy broke out in a cold sweat when he heard this. His hands were trembling, but he still tried to maintain a smile: "Hey, how come a big shot like you still takes a walk in person"

Yuei Vu was happy: "I even went to the toilet myself."

"Who sent you here? What's the purpose of sneaking onto the island?" Yuei Vu asked sharply, paused, and changed the subject, "Of course, even if I ask, you won't be easy. Answer it?"

Spy (beeping quietly): "How would you know if you didn't try to ask"

"That's all, I respect your professionalism, so I won't ask. So let's save time, be straightforward, and skip those troublesome links."

He said, holding up the Duel Disk.

"You should have noticed that this Skyscraper' is a Shadow Game space. It will not disappear until a victory or defeat is decided. Before that, you and I cannot leave here.

The rules are also very simple. If you defeat me, you will be free to leave, and I will not be able to stop you.

But if I win, you have to answer any questions. "

The spy cried sadly: "Or let's skip this process and ask directly! I will definitely tell you whatever you ask!"

My professionalism? I already fed it to the dog on the spot! Is moral integrity more important or life more important?

Not to mention that there is no way I can win in a card game with this boss, and if I lose, I may be wiped out!

If what those idiots say is true, then it should be just a joke for a boss of this level to want to destroy me, right?

"That won't work." Yuei Vu shook his head, "What if you deceive me with false information?"

"How dare I! I can swear on my mother's grave"

"Where is your mother's grave? Is it on this island?"

"No."

"Then in the case I let you go back and swear, what if you take the opportunity to run away and don't come back?"

The spy:""

Damn, it makes so much sense and theres no way to refute it!

He gritted his teeth and felt that in order to save his life, he couldn't play this card game anyway, so he could only prove his sincerity first.

So he said directly: "To be honest, I am actually just an ordinary Shadow Duelist in this world, the kind who gets paid to eliminate disasters and occasionally takes on some comprehensive affairs.

This time, an employer contacted me to come to the island to find out some information. The specific situation is"

Before he finished speaking, he saw the man's pupils shrink and he staggered back two steps as if he was suffocating. He grabbed his throat, his face turned the color of pig liver, as if someone had grabbed him by the throat.

Deep darkness suddenly erupted around this man. The darkness instantly enveloped his entire body, and a substance like black mud poured in from his eyes, ears, mouth and nose.

It's the exact same dark power as when Titan was eroded last time except this time the reaction is ten times stronger than last time!

Yuei Vu's eyes quickly fell on the card box hanging at the opponent's waist he could tell at a glance that it was the center of the darkness erupting.

There was something attached to his deck or more likely attached to a specific card in his deck that had extraordinary power.

Maybe it was because this person was about to leak key information that the existence couldn't help but surface.

"I'm very sorry"

The spy's glasses fell to the ground and shattered into pieces. The majestic darkness poured in continuously, and the sound he barely made was only intermittently, sounding like an old record that was about to expire.

His eyes turned white for a moment, and then were filled with pure and deep darkness. He staggered and barely regained his footing. His whole aura was completely different from what he had just been.

To be more precise, the person standing in front of Yuei Vu was already another existence. At the moment when the secret was revealed, the consciousness of the owner of this body was torn into pieces.

The person controlling this body now was an ancient and terrifying existence with supreme power. Tragoedia!

"What a useless piece of trash."

Tragoedia muttered dully, seeming to be very dissatisfied with the spy he hired.

"Human beings are such troublesome creatures. Stupid, fragile, easily swayed, and even more likely to back down."

"So you are different?" Yuei Vu asked.

"Of course." Tragoedia said arrogantly, "Don't compare me to someone as weak as a human. That would be an insult to me. I have power beyond human imagination. Of course, maybe one of the few strong people among humans like you is barely qualified to compete with me."

It was very obvious that Tragoedia has not heard the "top secret information" that the spy just spied on, and did not know the "true background" of Yuei Vu as mentioned by the trolls.

Just like the last time, Tragoedia could only receive messages through the host's body after using his dark power to expel the host's consciousness and take over its body.

He didn't know what the owner of this body saw and heard before it was controlled by him.

So at this time, he only knew that Yuei Vu was the best among human duelists, and may have some means of controlling the Egyptian Gods, but that's all.

What was special about the Egyptian Gods?

Thinking back three thousand years ago, the Pharaoh could still command the three Egyptian Gods. Did he, Tragoedia, get scared when he rushed into the palace to cause trouble?

Although in the end, because he was not very smart, he was suppressed by the priests without even seeing the Pharaoh but this did not affect his inflated self-confidence!

So, he controlled the body to lift the duel disk and inserted the deck into it.

Anyway, he wanted to conquer the world, and the strong men in this world would be his obstacles sooner or later. It's better to get rid of one here first!

Well, if he didn't have confidence, he couldn't be a villain.

"Come on, Duel King!" Tragoedia said coldly, "Although it's different from what I originally planned, it doesn't matter. I'm going to finish you off right here and now!"

Chapter 786: Big Lobster

This was an old story.

A story about the world's most evil darkness being summoned into this world, a reincarnation that spanned three thousand years.

The story began with a dynasty that was about to be overthrown. When Aknamkanon, the king of ancient Egypt, was ruling on the throne, his kingdom faced a crisis of extinction. The brave and skilled Egyptian army has been defeated multiple times in a row. The enemy army was approaching the city, and the destruction of the Egyptian kingdom was at stake.

At a critical juncture, Pharaoh Aknamkanon placed his hope on the ancient and evil alchemy. Priest Akhenaden, the brother of the Pharaoh, was ordered to lead his army to a small village called Kul Elna to perform evil alchemy rituals.

What happened in that village was not recorded in any history books, as if it was too evil and destined to be forgotten. All the living people in that village, the elderly, children, men, and women, were all treated as living sacrifices.

Even the entire team of Egyptian soldiers who personally pushed these innocent people into the cave of despair as sacrifices were sealed into the cave by the priest Aknadin after they were finished. Their flesh, blood, bones, and even souls were used as sacrifices, and divine objects that should not exist in this world were forged by the power of the underworld.

Seven Millennium Items.

The seven artifacts helped ancient Egypt overcome difficulties and achieve unprecedented prosperity, but at the same time, they also created the most terrifying demon.

When Aknadin carried out the massacre in Kul Elna Village, he missed one survivor, and that was the bandit king Bakura three thousand years ago, the host of the great evil god Zorc.

As a by-product of the birth of a Millennium Item, witnessing the genocide of an entire village, the unforgettable hatred that ordinary people could not imagine gave birth to a terrifying demon beyond the scope of common sense. That darkness had a chemical reaction with the "Millennium Ring" among the seven artifacts, making the Bandit King the host and agent chosen by the great evil god Zorc in the human world.

Later, the Bandit King was defeated, and the great evil god Zorc was sealed by Pharaoh Atem at the cost of his own name. After three thousand years of reincarnation, Zorc woke up again in the world of memory and was sealed by the souls of Duel King Yuei Vu and Atem. The cause and effect of Kul Elna Village was finally resolved.

This was what players have learned so far about the story of the birth of the Millennium Item.

But in fact, the story was incomplete.

The truth was that the Bandit King was not the only survivor in Kul Elna Village three thousand years ago. In that village that was forgotten by history, there was another survivor. His twisted heart after experiencing the massacre also gave birth to an unprecedentedly powerful monster, which contained a power rivaled Millennium Items. A power that even the guardian priest could not match.

"Yes, that's me."

Tragoedia, who suffered from a common villain's "explanatory obsessive-compulsive disorder", explained his origin and background in detail and acted extremely arrogant.

"I have the powerful power to reverse the laws of this world, and no one can stop me!"

Hearing this, Yuei Vu finally figured it out.

Oh, so it turned out to be the big lobster!

Well, because Tragoedia looked like a mutated giant lobster, and the strength of this card was quite high in the real card environment. It was a very common hand trap, so the players gave it an affectionate nickname "Big Lobster".

The mouth of the body controlled by Tragoedia curled up in an arc.

He lifted the Duel Disk, the machine unfolded in his hand, and a terrifying dark miasma erupted from his body.

"Hmph, the deck of cards in this puppet's hand is just the best suited to bury you." Tragoedia sneered.

Yuei Vu was not careless.

Although it was a bit funny that Tragoedia was sealed by its own stupidity in the first place, it was a formidable opponent no matter from its origin story or its actual combat performance in the manga. If left unchecked, it might have the power to destroy the world.

In the original GX manga, the protagonists Yuki Judai and Manjome were similar in strength. Manjome even defeated Judai in the second duel and gained the right to challenge the academy's "Kaiser" Marufuji Ryo.

However, even with such a powerful Manjome, he was still instantly OTKed when facing Marufuji Ryo. The difference in strength was so huge that it was despairing.

In the manga, Marufuji Ryo, Tenjoin Fubuki, and Aster Phoenix were all old acquaintances. The three have known each other since they were students. Their strengths were also very similar, and they were all equal opponents. The three of them represented the strongest level of duelist strength in the manga world.

But even so, they are no match for Tragoedia. It can be said that Big Lobster is truly uniquely powerful in the GX comics. In the end, he fought Judai and Manjome in a 1-VS-2 duel, and the two even had to rely on printing cards to win. Otherwise, Big Lobster might be able to conquer the world.

"Duel!" x2

Yuei Vu, LP 4000

Tragoedia, LP 4000

"It looks like I'll go first. Draw!" Yuei Vu took the initiative.

The deck used by the opponent was unknown, but Tragoedia said it was "the best suited to bury you". Moreover, the dark power that just burst out from the deck also made Yuei Vu very concerned. He estimated that at least one of the cards contained extraordinary power.

"Due to the effect of the Vision HERO Faris', this card can be Special Summoned from the hand by discarding a HERO' monster!

I discard a card in my hand and summon Faris in defense position! "

[Vision HERO Faris, DEF 1800]

"The effect of Faris If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can place 1 Vision HERO' monster from my Deck, except Vision HERO Faris', in my Spell & Trap Zone as a face-up Continuous Trap." A card popped up in Yuei Vu's deck, "I put Vision HERO Minimum Ray' in the Spell & Trap Zone.

The phantom of a brand new hero appeared in the trap area in the Spell & Trap Zone, with an erratic shape.

"Then there is the effect of the Elemental HERO Necroshade' that I discarded in the graveyard." The shadow of the Necroshade appeared behind Yuei Vu, "Once, while this card is in the GY, I can Normal Summon 1 Level 5 or higher Elemental HERO' monster without Tributing.

According to this effect, I summoned the Elemental HERO Bladedge' in attack position! "

The golden engine was ejected from the back of the iron hero with a golden body. The light blades on both hands dragged out two golden arcs, and he landed lightly with transparent ripples under his feet.

[Elemental HERO Bladedge, ATK 2600]

"I end my turn." Yuei Vu said.

"Then it's up to me."

Tragoedia controlled the host to draw a card and then smiled gloomily at Yuei Vu.

First, I use the Spell Card Pot of Greed to draw two cards from the deck.

Then the card I want to play is Elemental HERO Blazeman! "

[Elemental HERO Blazeman, ATK 1200]

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

Oh, you Big Lobster actually play Elemental HERO?

Following the development of the GX story line, the "Elemental HERO" series has already been widely released on the market. Although the value was still very high, it was no longer a unique and rare deck series.

But Big Lobster actually played Elemental HEROes to deal with himself, the originator of the HERO deck?

This is a naked provocation.

"Interesting." Yuei Vu chuckled.

No wonder it is said to be "the best suited to bury you". Big Lobster actually wanted to imitate Kakashi and gave him a taste of his own medicine.

"Of course, I think you should be familiar with the effect of Blazeman." Tragoedia sneered, "If this card is Normal or Special Summoned, add a Polymerization' Spell Card from the deck to my hand."

A card popped out of his deck and was added to his hand.

"Then activate the Spell Card Polymerization!" Tragoedia said, "I fuse Elemental HERO Blazeman' on the field with"

"Wait a minute!" Yuei Vu interrupted him, "At the moment you activate Polymerization', I want to chain with the effect of Vision HERO Minimum Ray'!

During the Main Phase, if this card is treated as a Continuous Trap: I can Tribute 1 HERO' monster; and Special Summon this card.

I Tribute Vision HERO Faris' and Special Summon Vision HERO Minimum Ray'! "

Faris folded his arms and disappeared from the field, and the phantom of the hero in the Spell & Trap Zone turned into reality.

[Vision HERO Minimum Ray, DEF 700]

"Furthermore, when Vision HERO Minimum Ray' is Special Summoned from the Spell & Trap Zone: I can destroy 1 Level 4 or lower monster the opponent controls!"

Yuei Vu snapped his fingers.

"Destroy the Elemental HERO Blazeman'!"

After the Spell Card "Polymerization" was activated, the fusion material needed to be selected during the resolving of the effect, so Yuei Vu could completely blow up the Blazeman on the field before Tragoedia selected the fusion material.

In this way, if there was no other monster left in Tragoedia's hand that could be used as fusion materials, this "Polymerization" would resolve without effect.

The HERO deck's initiative ability was relatively weak, and the bosses in the HERO series were all types that focused more on offense than defense.

Summoning powerful attacking monsters didn't make much sense if you went first. The more important thing about the first turn was to lay traps and set up interference for the opponent to interrupt their operation.

Vision HERO Minimum Ray was a hero with this effect.

Until the Synchro era came, there were very few monsters that could perform interference actions such as destroying cards during the opponent's turn. Minimum Ray's ability was already quite good in the current environment.

Blazeman was penetrated and dissipated by a micro-beam blast from the Vision HERO. Tragoedia lost the fusion material, and his face stiffened slightly, but he snorted and then drew two more cards from his hand.

"Then I will fuse the Elemental HERO Woodsman' and Elemental HERO Ocean' in my hand!"

"Oh?" Yuei Vu's eyes flashed.

These two Elemental HERO Does mean that the monster Tragoedia is summoning is?

Tragoedia sneered sinisterly, the dark miasma all over his body exploded, and his aura expanded unprecedentedly!

"The incarnation of the third planet in the solar system, the most powerful Elemental HERO Elemental HERO Terra Firma! ! ! "

Chapter 787: Terra Firma Impact!

It was a giant with a white body, with muscle lines made of steel, and a vermilion jade on his chest.

He landed heavily on the ground, his footsteps causing the ground to sink heavily. Crisscrossing cracks spread along the ground like spider webs, and the reinforced concrete skyscrapers slowly sank.

The giant stood among the tall buildings, his figure reaching the sky. The searchlights in the city streets swept back and forth on his snow-white steel body, and the gem on his chest was like a twinkling single eye.

[Elemental HERO Terra Firma, ATK 2500]

"Hey," Yuei Vu looked at this towering figure and couldn't help but say slowly, "Terra Firma is not only a member of the Legendary Planet series, but also an Elemental HERO. I have not seen this card for so many years, and it turns out that it is in your hand?!"

Yuei Vu has not relaxed his collection of various cards of the HERO series over the years, especially the fusion of various Elemental HERO monsters. He has collected most of them through the system card pool, Kaiba Corp, and the Industrial Illusions.

But this Terra Firma had never been seen.

But this was indeed reasonable.

Each card in the Legendary Planet series was unique in this world, and in the original plot, these nine cards were closely connected to Tragoedia and were the key to him lifting the seal and regaining power.

This aroused Yuei Vu's interest.

He has collected 99% of the card pool in the Elemental HERO series. It has been a long time since a card has interested him like this.

Terra Firma was the top brother of the Elemental HEROes in GX manga and was known as the strongest hero. Perhaps from the perspective of real card competition, his stats and effects were not outstanding, but from the perspective of monster spirits, Terra Firma was one of the strongest among all Duel Monster Spirits and had considerable strength.

In short, Yuei Vu was determined to get this card!

But at this moment, a majestic dark power was radiating from the body of the Terra Firma, and the looming dark miasma wrapped and bound his body like a chain.

Obviously, that's Tragoedia's power.

The darkness of Tragoedia not only amplified the power of Terra Firma, but also restrained the will of the spirit.

The darkness that Yuei Vu felt just now might have come from Terra Firma's card. Tragoedia lodged a fragment of his power in the card. In doing so, he could not only hide his own aura and avoid the sight of other strong men but also make it easier to control his puppet at any time.

"Activate the Spell Card Soul Exchange!" Tragoedia sneered, "The turn this card is activated, I can use any number of monsters on the opponent's field as our sacrifices!"

The animation effect of "Soul Exchange" was not only different from the actual card in text description, but also did not have the restriction "You cannot conduct your Battle Phase the turn you activate this card."

Yuei Vu understood: "The effect of Terra Firma is"

"That's right, Elemental HERO Terra Firma' can tribute 1 face-up Elemental HERO' monster to gain ATK equal to the Tributed monster's ATK, until the End Phase!"

"Terra Firma's attack power value is no match for Bladedge, so you want to make use of his effect, huh?"

"Turn the Elemental HERO Bladedge' into a sacrifice to Terra Firma!"

Tragoedia waved his hand, and the effect of Soul Exchange was activated. The milky white whirlwind surrounded the body of the Bladedge, and the metal hero turned into a beam of light and flew into the Terra Firma's body.

The white Elemental HERO's figure instantly changed. His body was burned red-hot from the inside out as if it were a red rock penetrated by lava. His back spurted dazzling fire into the sky, magma splashed onto the cracked floor, and the molten floor made a soft "hissing" sound.

[Elemental HERO Terra Firma, ATK 2500 ATK 5100]

"Of course, no matter how high the attack power is, as long as your Minimum Ray' is in defense position, it cannot inflict damage." Tragoedia snorted and drew another card, "So I want to give your Vision HERO Minimum Ray' a gift.

Activate Equip Spell Nitro Unit! "

A device like an oxygen tank was forcibly bound to Minimum Ray's back, with countless tubes connected to the outside.

"When the equipped monster is destroyed by battle and sent to the Graveyard, inflict damage to the opponent equal to the ATK of the equipped monster." Tragoedia waved his hand, "Go, Terra Firma! Defeat the Vision HERO Minimum Ray'!

Terra Firma Impact! ! ! "

Terra Firma held a short stick in each hand, and the tips of the two sticks erupted with dazzling and scorching fire! The scorching flames were like invisible sword blades, and the moment the hot sword light came into contact, the Minimum Ray evaporated into dust and ashes.

"The effect of the Nitro Unit' gives damage equal to the attack power value!"

Yuei Vu, LP 4000 LP 2800

"But at this moment, the effect of Vision HERO Minimum Ray' is also activated." Yuei Vu said, "If I take battle or effect damage while this card is in my GY: I can place this card from my GY in my Spell & Trap Zone as a face-up Continuous Trap!"

There was a flash of phantom, and the Minimum Ray who had just exited returned to Yuei Vu's backcourt in the form of a phantom.

"Hmph, is this a hero who will be resurrected as a phantom even if he is defeated?" Tragoedia snorted and drew another card from his hand.

Activate Continuous Spell Mirage of Nightmare! He said, Then set another card and I end my turn."

"Then it's my turn."

While Yuei Vu was drawing cards, the Spell Card in front of Tragoedia also lit up.

"At this moment, due to the effect of Mirage of Nightmare', I drew four cards from the deck," Tragoedia said.

Yuei Vu said: "Then entering the Main Phase, I activate the Spell Card Legacy of a HERO'. When there are 2 or more Level 4 or higher HERO' monsters in my GY, draw 3 cards. (manga effect)

Then I summon the Vision HERO Vyon! "

[Vision HERO Vyon, ATK 1000]

"The effect of the Vyon If this card is Normal or Special Summoned: I can send 1 HERO' monster from my Deck to the GY." Yuei Vu pulled out the card that popped up from the deck, "I send the Elemental HERO Shadow Mist' to the GY.

Then at this moment, the effect of Elemental HERO Shadow Mist' was activated. If this card is sent to the GY: I can add 1 HERO' monster from my Deck to my hand.

I added Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier' to my hand. "

Seeing Yuei Vu repeatedly retrieving, shuffling, retrieving, and shuffling the cards again, Tragoedia muttered angrily: "As expected of a human being with the title of Duel King, the deck runs quite fast."

"Then follow the subsequent effects of Vision HERO Vyon'." Yuei Vu continued, "Once per turn: I can banish 1 HERO' monster from my GY; add 1 Polymerization' from my Deck to my hand.

I banished the "Vision HERO Faris" from the graveyard, and added "Polymerization" from the deck to my hand. "

"Do you also plan to use the fusion summon that heroes are best at to launch an offensive?" Tragoedia said lightly.

"It's a little different." Yuei Vu smiled and showed a card in his hand, "What I want to activate is this card

Spell Card Vision Fusion! "

Tragoedia was surprised: "A special fusion card for Vision HERO?"

"Vision Fusion can Fusion Summon 1 HERO' Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, using monsters from my hand or field as Fusion Material." Yuei Vu said, "Furthermore, this card can also use up to 2 monsters in my Spell & Trap Zone that are being treated as Continuous Traps as Fusion Material, by banishing them!

Based on this effect, I fuse Vision HERO Vyon' on the field and Vision HERO Minimum Ray' in the Spell & Trap Zone!

The fusion condition is 2 HERO monsters! Fusion Summon!

Vision HERO Adoration! ! ! "

Chapter 788: Brother?

The black streamers undulated in the wind, and the hero's figure fell from the sky, like a war hammer striking the earth!

[Vision HERO Adoration, ATK 2800]

"Vision HERO?" Tragoedia said in a deep voice, "Humph, what a troublesome monster."

"Then I activate the Spell Card Polymerization' from the hand!" Yuei Vu said, "Fuse the Elemental HERO Lady Heat' and Elemental HERO Liquid Soldier' in the hand!

The fusion condition is 1 Elemental HERO' monster + 1 FIRE monster! Fusion Summon!

Elemental HERO Nova Master! "

The light pillars of fire and water rose into the sky and merged into one. The red and gold armor was bathed in flames, the hero's cloak flew, and his sweeping arms tore apart the curtain wall of flames.

[Elemental HERO Nova Master, ATK 2600]

Yuei Vu raised his arms: "The effect of Vision HERO Adoration"! Once per turn: I can target 1 face-up monster the opponent controls and 1 other HERO' monster I control; the opponent's targeted monster loses ATK and DEF equal to the ATK of my targeted monster, until the end of this turn!

I choose the Elemental HERO Nova Master' on my field to reduce the attack power of Elemental HERO Terra Firma' by 2600 points! "

The arms of the Vision HERO danced, and the dark streamers undulated behind him. The energy impact was like a twisting fire dragon breaking out of the ground, washing away at Terra Firma's solid body.

[Elemental HERO Terra Firma, ATK 2500 ATK 0]

"Battle!" Yuei Vu launched an attack, "Elemental HERO Nova Master, attack Elemental HERO Terra Firma!"

The cape behind Nova Master raised, and spiral flames blasted out from his palms. Terra Firma's body was penetrated by the high heat and overbearing impact, and his hard and huge body collapsed.

Tragoedia, LP 4000 LP 1400

Tragoedia's remote-controlled body staggered back two steps, and the darkness attached to the body also swayed violently, like a candle that was almost blown out in the wind.

"The effect of Nova Master!" Yuei Vu said, "When it destroys an opponent's monster by battle: Draw 1 card."

After drawing a card, he gave it a sideways glance, added it to his hand, and then continued to wave his hand.

"The final blow. Vision HERO Adoration, direct attack! Ambition Sanctions!!!"

The Adoration spread his arms, and incandescent and transparent energy quickly accumulated along the ground to the soles of Tragoedia's feet, like a volcano that was about to erupt!

"Don't underestimate me, Duel King." Tragoedia hummed, "Activate Trap Card Pinpoint Guard! When an opponent's monster declares an attack: Target 1 Level 4 or lower monster in my Graveyard; Special Summon it in Defense Position. It cannot be destroyed by battle or card effects this turn!"

A card popped up from the graveyard area of his duel board.

"I special summon the Elemental HERO Ocean!"

The water flow suddenly appeared out of thin air, and the sea-blue water Elemental HERO fell to the ground in a defensive posture. The light blue water was like a layer of transparent irises, standing in front of him like a barrier.

[Elemental HERO Ocean, DEF 1200]

Ocean protected by "Pinpoint Guard" could not be destroyed in any way during this turn. It was meaningless to continue fighting or use destruction effects.

"Then the battle ends." Yuei Vu drew two cards from his hand and "Set three cards, I end my turn."

Tragoedia had a cold face, and the dark miasma lingering around him became increasingly intense.

"Duel King Yuei Vu, your courage and the pressure of the duel are indeed different from ordinary duelists."

After a pause, his eyes widened, his momentum suddenly erupted, and overwhelming darkness swept across the entire duel area.

"But, after all, you are only the strongest of humans!" He sneered, "The so-called Duel King' may be the title humans give to the strongest in their ranks, but that's all!

I've defeated a person with this title once. Now it's your turn. "

"Oh?" Yuei Vu became interested, "Have you ever defeated a Duel King?"

"That's right." Tragoedia sneered, "Like you, he also has the strongest power among all duelists in this era. And he is the new generation of Duel King who controls the Elemental HERO' after you.

Koyo Hibiki! "

This time Yuei Vu remembered.

Koyo Hibiki, the world champion equivalent to the "Duel King" in the manga "Yu-Gi-Oh GX", was almost the strongest duelist in the manga. The entire "Elemental HERO" deck used by Yuki Judai in the manga was inherited from him.

A few years ago, Kaiba held a new "Battle City" competition, inviting duelists from all over the world to compete for the title of the second-generation Duel King. The winner of that game was Koyo Hibiki, and he also became the next generation of Duel Kings after Yugi and Yuei Vu.

Later, he was active in various competitions for a while, but then not much was heard about him. There were rumors that the new Duel King fell ill due to his constant travel and overwork, but there was no confirmation.

"Is it because of you that Koyo Hibiki disappeared?" Yuei Vu said.

"That's right." Tragoedia said proudly, "The so-called Duel King is nothing more than that. Human beings cannot be my opponent. You can't understand what kind of despair and resentment gave birth to my power. The birth of the evil artifacts called Millennium Items', the obsession of countless wronged souls, and the gathering of endless despair, it is the ultimate darkness that you cannot imagine

Tragoedia suddenly exclaimed mid-sentence.

He saw Yuei Vu leisurely take out a prop from his arms, a golden ring strung on a rope. He waved it in his hand, and the metal pointer rubbed against the ring, issuing the soft sound of "ping pong ping pong".

Millennium Ring!

"The darkness you are talking about," Yuei Vu shook the Millennium Ring in his hand, "Does it look like this?"

As he spoke, he shook the Millennium Ring in his hand again. Then, in Tragoedia's shocked eyes, a very terrifying dark force that might even rival him burst out from the Millennium Ring, and with all its fangs and claws, it condensed the entity of a dark demon god in mid-air.

Then he bowed his head respectfully to Yuei Vu.

Well, he lowered both of his heads at the same time.

It felt like Yuei Vu picked up a bell and shook it, immediately summoning the valet.

Tragoedia was dumbfounded.

He was shocked for a moment: "Are you the great evil god?"

No.

He reacted quickly.

At first, he thought it was the great evil god Zorc, but he soon realized that it was not. Although the nature of the power emitted from the Millennium Ring seemed to be very similar to Zorc, this power was far inferior to Zorc, and may even be far inferior to Tragoedia himself.

Maybe it was the evil thought that resided in the Millennium Ring after the massacre in Kul Elna Village?!

Tragoedia was a little angry now.

If this evil thought was also born in that disaster, then this guy in the Millennium Ring could be regarded as his brother. As a result, this guy was also the incarnation of darkness, how could he be tethered to a human like a husky, and come and go at a moment's notice?

As his brother, Tragoedia felt embarrassed!

Chapter 789: Double Attack (Team Strike)

"Even if you are not as powerful as me, you should still be a powerful monster that dominates the world." Tragoedia said solemnly, "Are you actually willing to stoop below a mere human being?"

The evil thought coming from the Millennium Ring glanced at Tragoedia as if he was mentally retarded.

Ha? A mere human being?

Don't you Big Lobster not only have poor eyesight but also a poor brain? Which of your eyes can tell that this is an ordinary human being?

Back then, this great evil god was beaten to the ground by Holactie, and even the majestic dragon head was broken in half (it has left a deep psychological shadow on it to this day)

At that time, where are you Big Lobster?

"Stupid!" Tragoedia snorted, but then sneered, "It doesn't matter, I just didn't expect there would be an unexpected harvest today.

Duel King, when I defeat you, I will also accept that Millennium Item and that cowardly evil spirit will also become my food!

Be thankful! You, the weak one, will become a part of me and follow me to conquer this world!"

The evil thought in the Millennium Ring rolled his eyes at him, his eyes full of disdain, a bit like mocking Stupid.

The dueling skill is not very good, but the person is extremely arrogant.

At least, this great evil god has stomped three Egyptian Gods and tore Exodia apart before being killed by Holactie. Who do you think you are, Big Lobster?

Then it turned to Yuei Vu, and the pointer of the Millennium Ring was swinging back and forth as if to say "Boss, get him!"

"It's my turn!" Tragoedia drew a card, "Activate the Quick-Play Spell Mystical Space Typhoon! Destroy the Mirage of Nightmare' on my field!"

A black whirlwind rolled up the Spell Card, and lightning split the card into pieces.

First, a card was used to avoid the side effects of "Mirage of Nightmare", and then Tragoedia quickly entered a counterattack rhythm.

"In the Standby Phase, the effect of the Elemental HERO Ocean' on my field is activated!" Tragoedia said, "Once per turn, I can target 1 HERO' monster I control or in my Graveyard; return that target to the hand!"

I returned the Elemental HERO Terra Firma from the graveyard. "

Terra Firma's card pops up from the graveyard, and the white giant's shadow disappears in an instant.

"Of course, Terra Firma is a Fusion monster, so it will be returned to the Extra Deck." Tragoedia said, "Then activate the Spell Card Fusion Recovery!"

Return the Elemental HERO Woodsman' and Polymerization' from my graveyard to my hand! "

The two cards popped out of the graveyard and quickly returned to Tragoedia's hand, and then he quickly pulled out the two cards.

"The Spell Card Pot of Greed', draw two more cards from the deck!"

"Then comes the Spell Card Polymerization! I fuse the Elemental HERO Ocean' on my field and the Elemental HERO Woodsman' in my hand! Fusion Summon!"

Coming again, the strongest Elemental HERO

Elemental HERO Terra Firma! ! ! "

The merging vortex erupted, and the ocean and forest met in mid-air. Dazzling brilliance exploded downwards, and the white giant crashed down heavily.

[Elemental HERO Terra Firma, ATK 2500]

Although Terra Firma was full of momentum and his suppressive power was quite amazing, after all, according to the duel rules, his attack power was still not comparable to the two heroes on the field.

"Spell Card Spell Reproduction!" Tragoedia said, "Send 2 Spells from my hand to the GY and add 1 Spell Card in the graveyard to my hand.

I return Soul Exchange' to my hand! "

Yuei Vu frowned slightly: "Is this the trick again?"

"The Spell Card Soul Exchange' is activated! The turn this card is activated, I can use any number of monsters on the opponent's field as our sacrifices!"

Tragoedia smiled grimly.

"You don't need me to say anything more about what's next, right?"

Terra Firma could increase his attack power by sacrificing another "Elemental HERO". In other words, he could absorb "Nova Master" and use it as nutrients to increase his attack power, just like he did in the last turn.

Of course, Yuei Vu couldn't let him complete the operation smoothly.

"Open the set card!" He snapped his fingers, "Quick-Play Spell Mask Change! Send 1 HERO' monster I control to the Graveyard, then Special Summon 1 Masked HERO' monster from my Extra Deck with the same Attribute!

I sent the Elemental HERO Nova Master' on the field to the graveyard, transform!

The knight born from the blazing flame

Masked HERO Goka! ! ! "

Flames spiraled into the sky, swirling around the hero's armor-covered body. The shape and lines of the armor were like exploding fire, and the eye-catching word "Fire" hung on the front of the belt.

[Masked HERO Goka, ATK 2200]

"Goka will gain 100 ATK for each HERO' monster in my GY!"

At this time, there was a total of eight heroes in Yuei Vu's graveyard including Faris, Necroshade, Minimum Ray, Bladedge, Vyon, Shadow Mist, Liquid Soldier, and Nova Master.

[Masked HERO Goka, ATK 2200 ATK 3000]

"Did you dodge it?"

But Tragoedias methods havent been exhausted yet!

"Spell Card Miracle Fusion!" He sneered, "Of course you should be familiar with this effect, right? Fusion Summon 1 Elemental HERO' Fusion Monster from my Extra Deck, by banishing Fusion Materials from my field or GY!"

He once again drew two hero cards from the graveyard.

"Banish Elemental HERO Woodsman' and Elemental HERO Ocean' from the graveyard!

Roar! Elemental HERO Gaia! ! ! "

The huge impact cracked the earth, like a dark fortress falling from the sky. The Iron Hero stands on the earth, with cracks visible to the naked eye extending like radiation!

"Effect of Gaia! Halve the attack power of Vision HERO Adoration', and add that amount to Gaia until the end of the turn!"

Yuei Vu snapped his fingers again.

"Open the set card: Quick-Play Spell Form Change! Return 1 HERO' Fusion Monster I control to the Extra Deck, then Special Summon from my Extra Deck, 1 Masked HERO' monster with the same Level as that monster's original Level, but with a different name!

I return Vision HERO Adoration' to the deck, transform! "

Gorgeous golden transformation special effects wrapped the Adoration's body, transforming it into a substantial golden armor that resisted the erosion of Gaia. The golden armor was covered inch by inch, the eyepieces on the helmet lit up like sapphires, and the sharp blades on both wrists were like shining fangs.

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500]

"Koga will gain 500 ATK for each monster the opponent controls!" Yuei Vu said.

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 2500 ATK 3500]

"Form Changedid you manage to dodge again? A group of troublesome Masked HEROes!"

With a low curse, Tragoedia waved his hand.

"Then the effect of Elemental HERO Terra Firma' will be activated again! Use Elemental HERO Gaia' as a sacrifice to absorb his attack power!"

Gaia's huge body collapsed, and his core flew to Terra Firma's chest like a beam of light! The power of the elements was absorbed, and Terra Firma's whole body was instantly burned as red as lava. His hands felt like they were holding a pair of flaming blades that created the world!

[Elemental HERO Terra Firma, ATK 2500 ATK 4700]

Tragoedia added, "And because Gaia has disappeared, Koga's attack power will decrease!"

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 3500 ATK 3000]

"Then this card will bring you the end Equip Spell Favorite Hero! Equip to Elemental HERO Terra Firma!"

"Oh?" Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows, "Interesting"

"Haha, of course, there is no need to say more about the effect of this card, right?" Tragoedia shouted, "Enter the Battle Phase! At this moment, the effect of Favorite Hero' is activated! I can activate a Field Spell from the deck "

"Before that, the effect of Masked HERO Koga' is activated." Yuei Vu said, "Once per turn, during either player's turn: I can banish 1 HERO' monster from my Graveyard, then target 1 face-up monster on the field; that target loses ATK equal to the ATK of the monster banished to activate this effect, until the end of this turn!"

He showed a card.

"I banished the Elemental HERO Nova Master' from the graveyard, and reduced the attack power of Elemental HERO Terra Firma' by 2600!"

[Elemental HERO Terra Firma, ATK 4700 ATK 2100]

If Field Spell was activated, the monster equipped by "Favorite Hero" could no longer be targeted by card effects. So if this opportunity was missed, Koga would be powerless.

At the same time, because the Nova Master in the graveyard disappeared, Goka's attack power also dropped.

[Masked HERO Goka, ATK 3000 ATK 2900]

"Hmph, it doesn't matter. I activate the Field Spell Skyscraper' from the deck!" Tragoedia shouted.

A Field Spell Card flew directly out of the deck and was absorbed into the side of the duel disk. The skyscraper field maintained by Yuei Vu's power collapsed instantly, and a brand new skyscraper rose from the ground, occupying the entire site!

"If there is a card in my Field Zone, the equipped monster gains ATK equal to its original DEF!"

[Elemental HERO Terra Firma, ATK 2100 ATK 4100]

It still had the highest attack power over the entire field!

"It seems that I am the better one." Tragoedia sneered, "In front of the Terra Firma, the end of the Masked HERO has come!

Elemental HERO Terra Firma, attack Masked HERO Koga! "

Terra Firma's body was red and hot, and the lava seemed to radiate out of his body. He waved the double blades in his hands, and the sharp blades burned the air with a pungent burnt smell as if they were about to split the world.

A series of offensive and defensive exchanges, successive changes in attack power values, and continuous reversals of strength and weakness. It seems that the "Elemental HERO Terra Firma" controlled by Tragoedia is finally better, dismantling all the tricks of the Masked HERO, and about to Win this turn not at all!

"Open the set card!"

The last set card in front of Yuei Vu, the last trap. Its surface shone with a dazzling light!

"Trap Card Double Attack (Team Strike)!" Yuei Vu said, "This card can only be activated when there are more than two Masked HERO' monsters on my field! Target 1 Masked HERO' monster, it cannot attack this turn, but another Masked HERO' monster gains ATK equal to that target's ATK!"

"Nani!?" Tragoedia's pupils shrank.

In this situation, there is actually such a trap hidden!?

"Based on this effect, I superimposed the attack power of Masked HERO Goka' and Masked HERO Koga! So the attack power of Masked HERO Koga is"

[Masked HERO Koga, ATK 3000 ATK 5900]

"Attack power five thousand nine hundred!?" Tragoedia was stunned.

The two Masked HEROes flew out, one on the left and one on the right! They flexibly avoided the Terra Firma's slashes, jumped high, and swooped down from high altitudes, dragging flames and golden light with them!

They kicked at the same time, like swooping fireballs and golden meteors! Two powerful metal boots kicked hard on the Terra Firma's chest at the same time. The white giant fell on his back and shattered with a loud explosion. The fragments and the aftermath of the explosion swept backward, overturning the body controlled by Tragoedia!

Chapter 790: How Come This Guy Knows Everything!?

Elemental HERO Terra Firma has fallen!

Terra Firma was defeated by the combined power of Goka and Koga, and the darkness residing in it also erupted. The dark miasma spurted out from the hole in Terra Firma's back heart like a spurt of blood. Before it dissipated, the ink-colored darkness in his eyes seemed to be gradually cleared, and he was freed from the constraints.

The body controlled by Tragoedia was also knocked out and rolled on the ground in many circles. The real owner of this body had no idea what was going on and was hit before he could regain his senses. His body was covered with bruises.

The majestic dark miasma broke away from that body. It struggled and twisted, like a stain struggling desperately under the power of the toilet cleaning spirit, and could be wiped out at any time.

The winner of the Shadow Game was decided, and Tragoedia lost. The power of his clone left in this body was not very strong, and it would be eliminated under the constraints of the rules of this game before long.

But before that, he still had a few final minutes.

"Duel King, you are indeed very strong. I must admit that I underestimated you."

Although he said this, Tragoedia's voice sounded calm, and he did not seem to be as frustrated or annoyed as he should be when he was defeated.

Maybe he wasn't as arrogant as he deliberately showed before. In fact, he had more or less expected such an ending.

"That's all." Tragoedia paused, "I'll count you lucky this time, Duel King. Hmm, but thanks to this, I've already figured out your depth."

After all, you are just a duelist of this caliber. You won't be so lucky next time we meet. "

Yuei Vu raised his eyebrows.

Oh, Big Lobster sounds quite crazy.

What are you thinking? Do you think you have figured out my details?

With just third-rate moves of yours, you can at best be regarded as a toothpick stirring up a big vat, okay?

"Maybe you are feeling complacent about your staged victory at this time, but don't be too proud, Duel King."

Tragoedia continued to talk nonsense as if he wanted to say a few more harsh words before he died.

"What you saw today is just the tip of the iceberg of my strength, not even the surface. The world today is just like a toy to me. Not to mention the waste that lives in the Millennium Ring in your hand, even if the real great evil god Zorc awakened again, I may not be afraid of him"

Yuei Vu: ""

Good guy, who gave you the courage? Why is it so swollen when it's just a lobster?

Anyway, since Zorc is dead, even if you step on his grave, scold him for being stupid, and accuse him of holding a big faucet on his waist all day long like a pervert, he still won't be able to get out of the coffin to beat you.

This is just like there is a saying that "When Lu Bu is still alive, no one can rival Lu Bu. Once Lu Bu dies, everyone can rival Lu Bu."

Anyway, Zorc is dead now, so the Big Lobster doesn't have to pay taxes for bragging. He said a few words, could you really pull Zorc out of the grave?

Well, in a sense, Zorc was not dead. After all, the evil thought in the Millennium Ring in Yuei Vu's hands was the remaining of Zorc. But this guy's current condition was too bad. Maybe it's okay to bully ordinary people, but he's not good enough in front of Tragoedia.

For example, at this moment, when he heard Tragoedia's arrogant words, the evil thought was very angry, but he probably thought that he couldn't beat the other party, so he just vibrated in Yuei Vu's hand desperately. It seemed to be hinting to Yuei Vu: How can you tolerate him being so arrogant? Isn't it time to give him a lesson?

Yuei Vu didn't mind at all and just asked: "I heard that three thousand years ago, the great evil god Zorc defeated the three Egyptian Gods head-on, tore Exodia into two halves, and the Pharaoh had to sacrifice his true name to seal Zorc.

So if you are so awesome, how did you get sealed? "

Tragoedia, who was boasting, suddenly stopped and froze.

Ah, this

Obviously, Yuei Vu hit the nail on the head with this question, which touched upon some of his not-so-good memories

"Hmph." Tragoedia was stiff for a long time and said a little awkwardly, "It was those hateful priests who designed the insidious trap, and I fell into it without noticing.

The so-called guardian priests are just a group of insidious and cunning villains. If they dared to confront me head-on"

"Trap?" Yuei Vu asked back, "The kind that forcibly lowers the other party's IQ and makes the other party obediently hand over his heart to be beaten?"

"Yes, they are really a bunch of despicable and shameless villains. Lucky for those priests, they have already been buried, otherwise I would have to kill them"

Tragoedia suddenly realized something was wrong as he spoke, stopped suddenly, his pupils shrank and he looked at Yui Yu in shock.

"How did you know!?"

He was beyond shocked.

What happened when he was sealed three thousand years ago was the darkest experience in his life. Looking back to this day, he was still filled with resentment and anger and more importantly, shame!

Because strictly speaking, he was the only villain in the history of Yu-Gi-Oh who killed himself due to his own stupidity!

The process of being sealed was probably as funny as a villain taking out a dagger, grinning ferociously and saying, "This knife is full of poison," while sticking out his tongue to lick it, only to end up getting poisoned to death before he could even take action

If this kind of thing spreads, how can he, Tragoedia, conquer the world?

From now on, if he flexed his muscles, showed his strength in front of people, and said "I am Tragoedia" in an aggressive manner, people might laugh and say: Sorry, maybe I shouldn't laugh, but your story is really funny

Although the structures of the brain and the intestines look quite similar, you can't just pretend they're all the same!

The brain is a good thing, but if you don't have it at all, you can't be a villain!

Rather than anger, Tragoedia cared more about

How could this Duel King know this!?

That was all three thousand years ago! Shouldn't everyone who knew the inside story have been buried long ago?

The Millennium Ring shook violently again.

Knowing so well what happened three thousand years ago, as if witnessing the process live

Yui Yu, how can you deny that you are not Holactie?!

"Yui Yu = Holactie the Creator God of Light" proof +1.

"Who are you?" Even Tragoedia became suspicious.

But his time was running out. The dark miasma became weaker and weaker, and he began to gradually become illusory and about to disappear. The remaining power was soon no longer enough to maintain his consciousness here.

Yui Yu did not answer, only said: "You hired Titan to keep an eye on Judai because of Winged Kuriboh, right?"

Tragoedia: "!"

"Three thousand years ago, Winged Kuriboh took away your heart and sealed it within himself."

Yuei Vu said calmly, "Now that your true self's seal has been unsealed, you still haven't found your heart, right? "

Tragoedia became more and more frightened as he listened.

How come this guy knows everything!?

The Millennium Ring trembled even more.

"Honestly, I don't really care if you can unlock the final seal. You think too highly of yourself." Yuei Vu said calmly, "But Yuki Judai is my student. Try to get near him ever again either by yourself or your puppets and the consequences will be something you won't want to acknowledge.

Tragoedia's eyes widened maybe he was angry. The black shadow opened its mouth as if it wanted to say something, but in the end, it failed to come out.

His time has come.
