

I Regained 481

Chapter 481: Marriage depends on Fate

The secretary leaned close to Huang Shan, cooing, "Then, are you angry with me?"

Huang Shan's gaze was distant as he leaned in to kiss her, "Of course not, my dear. Whatever you do is right. I will always support you."

The woman stepped back in disbelief, the infant in her arms sensing the mother's sorrow and beginning to cry loudly.

The secretary moved closer to Huang Shan, "The baby's crying is so annoying. I really hate it."

Huang Shan looked coldly at the woman, "Make him stop crying!"

The secretary mused, "I've been thinking, if I could have a child of my own, I surely wouldn't find it annoying."

Huang Shan quickly said, "Let's have a child of our own."

After saying this, he turned to the woman, "I'll have someone send you the divorce papers later. Let's get divorced."

Upon hearing this, Shi Nuan trembled with anger, cursing "sc*mbag" under her breath, and was about to rush out.

Meng Zhi, sensing Shi Nuan's intent, wrapped his arms around her waist to stop her, "Don't act rashly yet!"

When Shi Nuan looked up again, the group had already left.

Stomping her foot in frustration, she asked in disbelief, “Why wouldn’t you let me confront Huang Shan? Is it because you’re both men, so you empathize with him and don’t want me to teach him a lesson?”

Thinking this, Shi Nuan narrowed her eyes, her gaze turning icy as she stared at Meng Zhi.

Meng Zhi shook his head vigorously, “Of course not. I just don’t want you to get into danger, and I’ve already thought of a way to deal with him.”

“Really?” Shi Nuan was taken aback.

Meng Zhi nodded, “Huang Shan’s family was poor. In his youth, he relied on the Yang family, the crying woman’s maternal family, for help to get out of poverty. He deceived Yang Yue and married her. After their marriage, the Yang family continued to assist him, enabling him to establish the Huang Corporation. As it grew, he even began to encroach on the Yang family’s assets.”

Shi Nuan gasped, “Huang Shan is truly despicable!”

“Indeed!” Meng Zhi agreed.

Shi Nuan continued to inquire, “So, how do you plan to teach him a lesson?”

Meng Zhi explained, “All of Huang Shan’s confidence comes from his company. If the company goes bankrupt, he’ll fall to rock bottom.”

Shi Nuan checked Huang Corporation on her phone and realized it wasn’t just a small company but had significant influence in the Capital.

She looked at Meng Zhi, asking, “Are you planning to bankrupt Huang Corporation?”

Meng Zhi nodded affirmatively.

Shi Nuan looked away, pondering for a moment before suggesting, “Huang Corporation seems tough to deal with. Maybe we should tell Daidai about this. With her talent, she could surely handle it.”

Meng Zhi’s eyes narrowed slightly, “Shi Nuan, what do you mean? Do you doubt my capability?”

Shi Nuan’s eyes flickered with guilt as she avoided his gaze, loudly saying, “I didn’t mean that. I’m just afraid of any mishaps, I...”

Meng Zhi softly ruffled Shi Nuan’s hair, sighing with a hint of resignation, “Although I usually race cars, I do have some understanding of business matters. I can surely handle Huang Corporation. Besides, Huang Corporation’s success is largely because after marrying Yang Yue, Huang Shan used his looks to seduce people for investments in his company.”

Shi Nuan was shocked, asking in disbelief, “Knowing that Huang Shan is married, why would any women still be interested in him?”

Those interested weren’t women but men with hidden preferences who didn’t want their secrets revealed.

Meng Zhi knew the reason but faced Shi Nuan’s puzzled look and shook his head, “I don’t know either.”

As the birthday banquet began, everyone returned to the main hall.

Xu Huan emerged amidst the crowd’s attention, receiving compliments.

“Grandma Gu, you look as radiant as ever.”

“I envy you for having such a wonderful granddaughter. So dutiful and capable. She has secured so many projects for the Gu Group. If only my children were as outstanding.”

“Grandma Gu, are you considering finding a marriage partner for Gu Dai?”

“My son might be naughty and not very invested in company affairs, but I assure you he would treat Gu Dai well if they were married.”

“My grandson is smart and capable, a perfect match for Gu Dai!”

Xu Huan smiled and responded, “Marriage is up to Daidai’s own will, and it’s all about fate. Let’s not force anything. Now, let’s not waste any more time and enjoy the meal..”
