Chapter 721

When Zhang Zizhou shut up, Hongwu pulled the third person who had volunteered before forward and asked Ye Chen again, "Master Ye, what is carved on the third head?"

Ye Chen replied, "Wu Xin is gay."

Hong Wu nodded, and with a big wave of his hand, six bloody characters were carved on the man's head.

It was followed by a fourth one.

Hongwu said to Ye Chen, "Master Ye, this time it's seven characters."

"Mm." Ye Chen pondered for a moment and said, "Then carve Wu Donghai as Bird Incompetent."

Hong Wu couldn't help but laugh out loud and said, "Master Ye, why is it a bird incompetent ah? Shouldn't it be sex?"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "Sex is a sensitive word, you can't use it indiscriminately, in case the girls see it, they'll blush."

Right after that, Hongwu took care of the fourth person's human calligraphy as well.

The last one left was Zhang Zizhou.

Zhang Zizhou was scared to death as he saw all four of his little brothers with blood all over their heads and faces.

He was a very arrogant person, and the fact that his strength had always been powerful and unmatched gave him the illusion that he was the most powerful in the entire world, and the more he had this illusion, the more serious his idol baggage would be.

However, he really didn't dare to say another word of shit at this point, otherwise, he was afraid that Ye Chen would let Hongwu carve himself an Exodus Table!

I can't bear to carve a song even if I have to carve a song for the night!

So he could only silently tremble and shed tears, waiting for the moment when his once-in-a-lifetime reputation would be destroyed.

At this time, Zhang Zizhou only had one wish in his heart, which was that Ye Chen should never let Hongwu carve too vulgar phrases for him.

However, he didn't understand Ye Chen.

The more this moment, the more Ye Chen liked to be vulgar.

Hong Wu took the bloody knife, pointed at the pale Zhang Zizhou and asked, "Master Ye, what is this grandson carving?"

Ye Chen thought about it and said, "This eight words, right? Let's make that engraving a little more casual, a little more intimate, a little more grounded."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "This way, carve him I'm going to shit on Wu Xin."

When Zhang Zizhou heard these eight words, his heart was dead.

Hong Wu hurriedly asked, "Master Ye, is it a mistake, the one who likes to eat shit is Wu Qi, not Wu Xin."

Ye Chen casually waved his hand and said, "Oh, it's the same, anyway, he's going back to show Wu Donghai and Wu Xin, it's better to carve Wu Xin."

"Gotta go!" Hong Wu immediately nodded and said, "Then I'll carve it for him, bigger and deeper!"

Zhang Zizhou looked at the bloody tip of the blade and cried, "Fifth Master, Fifth Master! Can I ask you for one thing?"

Hong Wu said impatiently, "Where are you talking so much nonsense?"

Zhang Zizhou cried and said, "Fifth Master, I just want to beg you to change the knife, this knife from Liu Guang began to carve, carved now has carved five people, also not sterilized, it is easy to get infected, in case anyone has an AIDS or something, that is not a cross infection"

As soon as Zhang Zizhou said this, the other four people were scared straight.

One of them asked off the top of his head, "You three don't have AIDS, do you?!"

"No!" The other three shook their heads.

But true or false no, no one will know.

Hong Fifth Master was also a little annoyed at this time, a slap on Zhang Zizhou's face, scolded, "Just you fart words, and then nonsense believe me to give you a song Teng Wang Ge preface?"

Zhang Zizhou was smacked to the eyeballs, but at this time, he really didn't dare to beep more, so he could only cry while enduring the sharp tip of Hongwu's knife.

He could feel the sensation of the tip of the knife slicing open the skin of his forehead and touching his skull, the pain was so intense that he almost fainted, and the blood kept pouring down from his forehead, even making him unable to open his eyes at all.

How much he regretted in his heart at this point, if he had known earlier, no matter how much money Wu Donghai gave, he wouldn't have been able to come and kill Hongwu

Unfortunately, in this world, there is no medicine for regret

At this time, Wu Donghai's five bodyguards, all became human calligraphy works, the five faces all miserable, especially the last one Zhang Zizhou, directly carved eight words, the forehead is not enough, so also borrowed the place of the face, the whole face looks incomparably horrible.

Moreover, these words carved on their faces were all insults to the Wu family, and it was estimated that the Wu family's lungs would explode when they saw them.

Zhang Zizhou was now crying and asked, "Master Ye, can you let us go?"

Ye Chen said, "Of course you can release it, but in order to prevent you people from continuing to aid and abet the evil, I have to teach you a little lesson!"

Saying that, Ye Chen grabbed one person in front of him and smashed both of his arms with two punches, and the rest of them did the same.

In the blink of an eye, these people's arms were all ruined.

There was absolutely no chance that they would want to be bodyguards, killers or thugs in the future, no one would hire such disabled people as bodyguards.

Therefore, they would definitely not be able to continue to harm society in the future either.

The five of them had been tortured beyond recognition at this point, and it felt like even if they were caught and put in a frying pan in Hades, it would be much more comfortable than being here.

Ye Chen was too inhuman! His method of torturing people is simply unheard of

At this time, Ye Chen stood up in satisfaction and said in a cold voice, "You five, go back and bring a message to Wu Donghai and Wu Xin, if you want to target me, just let your horses come, but if you still dare to involve the others around me, then I'll make the entire Wu family doom!"

The five people even struggled to get up with their legs and ran out of the Heavenly Fragrance Mansion in a mess.

After these five people escaped, Hongwu asked Ye Chen, "Master Ye, what are you going to do with Liu Guang and Liu Ming's phase video? Now upload the jitterbug?"

Ye Chen waved his hand and smiled, "Don't worry, wait a little longer, let Liu Guang and Liu Ming run for a while, otherwise as soon as my side is released, it will immediately be seen by the Wu family, in case the Wu family puts out a bounty for their lives, then they might not live to report to the king of hell tomorrow morning."

Hong Wu hurriedly said, "Wouldn't it be better to die? These two should have died long ago for following the Wu family as dogs!"

Ye Chen laughed, "If this video hadn't been made, it would naturally be easiest to kill them both, but since the video has been made, it would naturally be easiest to let them live, because as long as they live, the Wu family will be ridiculed by the entire country and will spend their days immersed in the agony of humiliation and anger that they can't extricate themselves from! So, let Liu Guang and Liu Ming live! It's only interesting when they're both alive!"

Hong Wu immediately nodded his head and said, "I understand Master Ye!"

Saying that, Hongwu asked, "Master Ye, what about Wu Donghai and Wu Xin?"

Ye Chen looked at the time and said, "I reckon that these five people will now go to Wu Donghai to sue and complain, but Wu Donghai is a dog, looking at the situation is not right, he will definitely run away, it is possible that he will return to Suhang with Wu Xin in the night."

Hong Wu said off the cuff, "Master Ye, then we have to do something, we can't let the tiger return to the mountain!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "It's not a bad idea to let the tigers go back to the mountain, after all, the Wu family has more than just these two tigers, let them go back first in order to bring out more tigers, the best way is to find an opportunity to kill them all at once!"

Speaking of which, Ye Chen asked Hong Wu, "Have you ever heard of a saying?"

Hong Wu hurriedly asked, "Master Ye, what words?"

Ye Chen smiled, "A family is only good if it's neat and tidy!"

723

Xiao Changkun had been in the corner, silently watching this son-in-law of his turn the tide and kill the four corners, and he was extremely shocked.

He didn't understand why Ye Chen had such a powerful strength and such a powerful aura.

This was completely different from the Ye Chen who was usually called around by Ma Lan at home!

At this time, Ye Chen stepped in front of him and asked, "Dad, are you okay?"

Xiao Changkun hurriedly shook his head and said, "It's fine it's fine, geez, it's fortunate that you came just in time, otherwise I would have been miserable"

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "Dad, it's good that you're fine, I've already taught these people a lesson, are you still satisfied?"

"Satisfactory satisfaction!" Xiao Changkun nodded his head as if pounding garlic, then said with some concern, "Ye Chen ah, weren't you just a little too cruel? That Wu familywon't come to retaliate against you, will it?"

Ye Chen smiled, "When dealing with the Wu family like this, you can't be afraid of their retaliation, if you don't provoke him, he'll kill you, so it's better to do it with him than that, what do you think?"

Xiao Changkun said awkwardly, "That's true, but I'm just worried ah, they're dead set on us, we're not as rich as them, nor do we have a big family, if we really do it, we might be at a disadvantage!"

Ye Chen waved his hand, "Dad, don't worry, I'll protect Chorán and the safety of you and Mom, don't worry about that."

Xiao Changkun nodded his head hmmm.

Ye Chen added, "Right, Dad, this matter, in order not to let Chorán and Mom worry, we must not tell them both when we go back."

"That's right that's right!" Xiao Changkun wouldn't dare to say anything, if Ma Lan knew about this big matter, she would blow up. That's going to be a huge mess in the house!

Ye Chen put his heart at ease.

The fear was that the old father-in-law wouldn't be able to keep his mouth shut and tell the world about today's incident.

But look at him also seems to be scared enough, I guess this can be stable.

Ye Chen then said to Hong Wu, "Hong Wu, find some more men to accompany you in these few days, and by the way, find some men to secretly protect my family, don't take it lightly."

Hong Wu immediately nodded his head and said, "Master Ye, please rest assured, Hong Wu will arrange this!"

"Mm." Ye Chen smiled slightly, "Okay, I was supposed to pick up my father-in-law to go home, but now that the matter is settled, it's time for us to go back."

After saying that, he said to Xiao Changkun, "Dad, shall we go?"

"Okay, okay." Xiao Changkun nodded his head in panic.

He now just wanted to hurry home and digest the whole bunch of things that had just happened.

When Ye Chen brought his father-in-law home, Liu Guang's father and son were at home like bandits, frantically tossing and packing the family's fine gold and silver.

Liu Ming's mother hadn't figured out what was going on, and seeing that her husband also had words carved into his forehead, and that they were four big characters of the father of a poor hangman, she rushed forward to pursue the matter.

Liu Guang took off, "Don't ask so many questions, we're in big trouble now, quickly pack up, we must leave Jinling tonight, otherwise there's a chance we'll die without a burial place!"

"Huh?!" Liu Ming's mother quickly asked after him, "Where are you going?"

"To Malaysia!" Liu Guang said, "Go join my brother and never return to China again!"

"What?!" Liu Ming's mother instantly broke down and cried out, "Why do you suddenly have to go to Malaysia? You can't come back later? What about my parents? What about my brothers and sisters?"

Liu Guang questioned, "Don't you want to die? The three of us are in trouble now, and we're probably going to be dead. Hurry up and pack my things!"

724

Once Liu Ming's mother heard this, she didn't dare to say anything more, she also knew that the situation was serious, so she quickly began to pack up her things.

Liu Guang asked Liu Ming at this time, "Look at what's going on with Shakespeare, has our video been sent out by Ye Chen?"

Liu Ming spread out his hands and said, "My phone is at Ye Chen's ah, Ye Chen is using my phone to take the picture."

"Shit." Liu Guang hurriedly pulled out his own phone, threw it to Liu Ming, and said, "Hurry up and take a look at the next jitterbug!"

Liu Ming received the phone and immediately started downloading the Shakespeare installation.

After swiping a few videos on Shakespeare, he found that there was no such phase between himself and his dad, he was slightly relieved and said, "Ye Chen should not have sent it yet."

"That's good." Liu Guang nodded and said, "Let's not delay, let's go! We leave in half an hour!"

Afterwards, he instructed his wife, saying, "Don't bring anything you can't finish, and give your mother a call later, so that she can help us sell all of our stuff and realize it, and then get it on the black market and exchange it into dollars to call us, over there in Malaysia, the RMB is not easy to use, so you'll need dollars to use it!"

His wife nodded quickly, "I'll call her later, it's just as well she has our spare key there!"

.....

At this moment, Zhang Zizhou and the other five invalids with broken arms had returned to the Shangri-La Hotel.

The five people with completely useless arms couldn't drive a car, so they could only take two cabs.

When taking a taxi, a large number of drivers saw that they did not dare to pull, and hurriedly ran away.

After all, these five guys are too scary, a head full of blood hula sneeze, and more importantly, the top of their heads are also fucking carved words, this is simply perverted ah!

Later, Zhang Zizhou got anxious and stopped a taxi by promising ten yuan for the road and giving ten thousand yuan.

After stopping it, five people squeezed into it.

The driver hurriedly said, "Oh my, I even the driver and passengers of this car sit at most five people, you this one more, go down and take another taxi."

Zhang Zizhou said furiously, "Damn which so much nonsense, I'll give you 10,000 yuan, can't even pull one more?"

As soon as the driver heard this, he had to endure, nodded and said, "Then the four of you sitting in the back squeeze ah, don't close the door."

The four of you squeezed desperately in the back, and Zhang Zizhou, sitting in the passenger seat, said with a gloomy face, "Go to the Shangri-La Hotel, drive faster!"

The driver subconsciously said, "Five of you, you're hurt like this, why don't you go to the hospital first?"

"If you keep fucking talking, I'm going to fuck you!"

Zhang Zizhou looked unhappy.

The driver cringed in fear.

The other little brothers couldn't help but say, "Brother, let's go to the hospital first, at least stop the bleeding and see if the shoulder can still be saved"

"Save the fart!" Zhang Zizhou said with an incomparably hazy expression, "No matter how good the orthopedic doctors are, they can't cure us, we have to let the Wu family and their sons know that we are useless because of them, they have to pay a relocation fee no matter what, in addition, we have to let them know how much Ye Chen despises him and insults him, only then can we make him desperate to kill Ye Chen and take revenge for us!"

Another person asked, "Brother, if these characters on our foreheads are seen by Mr. Wu and the eldest young master, they shouldn't be angry with us, right?"

"How is that possible?" Zhang Zizhou said, "These were all made by Ye Chen to be engraved by Hongwu, and there is an injustice and a debt, Mr. Wu is still able to distinguish this point!"

725

Car to Shangri-La door.

Five grown men couldn't even open the door.

The Shangri-La's waiters themselves somewhat despise the taxi, rarely take the initiative to open the door for the guests taking the taxi, seeing this taxi, deliberately as air, just do not come forward.

The car was silent for a moment, Zhang Zizhou could only shout to the driver, "Damn, blind? Don't know how to help open the door?"

The driver was a little annoyed and said, "Then you pay the fare first well, 10,000 yuan, you agreed."

Zhang Zizhou said, "You open the door for me, after getting off the car you take it from my pocket yourself, my arm is injured, I can't move."

The driver had to get out of the car and open the door for them.

Next, five people with blood all over their heads and faces finally got out of the car.

They were bruised all over their bodies and had large letters scrawled on their foreheads, so they looked very scary and striking.

Thus, when they appeared, in an instant, they directly attracted the attention of everyone's eyes around them, and even more so, they subconsciously let out a piercing laugh.

"What's going on with these people, carving words on their brains, are they engaging in performance art?Hahahaha, that's funny, lol!"

"Yes, I've lived most of my life, I've seen quite a few artists, some pretending to be beggars on the streets, others taking syringes to draw ink, and blindly drawing on paper, but I've never seen such a strange one, and the characters inscribed are all ugly!"

"This scene really opened my eyes, in my opinion, these people are in a league with that rich kid who snatched shit from the jitterbug a while ago!"

"Dude, that reminds me, I'll have to quickly film it and post it on Shakespeare, so that all the netizens in the country can see these wonders of our Jinling, and then the number of hits will be in the millions?"

"Yes, yes, yes, everyone hurry up and film it, after this village, there won't be this shop!"

As he was saying that, someone took out his own phone, opened Shakespeare, clicked on the video shoot, and posted the downbeat appearance of Zhang Zizhou and the others directly to the internet.

Zhang Zizhou saw everyone holding up their cell phones to take a wild shot of himself, and he was on fire, trying to reach out his hand to block his forehead, but his arms were already useless and he couldn't lift them at all.

He was so annoyed that he could only curse, "What are you shooting?Get out of here!"

The crowd was so frightened by his fierce appearance that they shivered, and they did not want to see this kind of mad dog in general, which was why they chose to intentionally stop and hide far away.

When Zhang Zizhou saw such a scene, his heart was satisfied, then, he brought the person to enter the Shangri-La Hotel.

The driver hurriedly stopped him, "Hey hey hey, you haven't paid me the 10,000 you promised!"

Zhang Zizhou stared at him with cold eyes and said angrily, "I'll give it to your mother!"

After saying that, he lifted his foot and kicked him out.

Although his hands had been crippled and his many years of hard training had been ruined, beating up a taxi driver was no problem for Zhang Zizhou.

After this kick, he immediately said to the four people around him, "Damn it, kick him to death together!"

The four of them immediately swarmed up and kicked the taxi driver.

As soon as Shangri-La's security captain saw this, he immediately led a team over and stopped them, saying coldly, "A few of you, don't make trouble in front of Shangri-La, or else don't blame me for being rude!"

Zhang Zizhou knew that the Shangri-La's CEO, Richard Chen, had a strong background, so he hastily stopped, called the people around him to a halt as well, and said to the driver, "You're lucky today, be careful from now on, or I'll kill you!"

After saying that, he and his men stepped forward to enter Shangri-La.

As soon as they were about to enter, the few security guards immediately reached out to stop them, and the lobby manager rushed over to speak, "Sorry, a few gentlemen, you are indecently dressed and poorly groomed, according to the regulations, you cannot enter our Shangri-La Hotel!"

Hearing this, Zhang Zizhou lowered his face coldly and said disdainfully, "We're a member of the Suhang Wu family, what kind of a thing are you, a little manager, to stop me?!"

The lobby manager's eyebrows furrowed, still with a strong attitude said, "This gentleman, I don't care if you're a member of the Suhang Wu family, or whoever, according to the rules, you're not allowed to enter Shangri-La!"

Afterwards, he said coldly, "The faces of a few of you have scared our guests and affected the reputation of our hotel, please leave immediately, or else you will suffer all the consequences!"

Zhang Zizhou's heart was raging with anger and said in a cold voice, "I'll give you Mr. Chen face and not beat you, but if you continue to find it uncomfortable, then don't blame me for being rude to you!"

The lobby manager didn't back down and took off, "Sorry, rules are rules, you're not allowed in Shangri-La!"

Zhang Zizhou bit his teeth.

Not to mention a lobby manager, even if all these people from the security team came up, it would be impossible for them to be a match for the five losers, and everyone could put down this group of people by relying on their legs.

However, the other party were all dogs of Richard Chen, this was a bit tricky, if they offended Richard Chen, wouldn't the loss outweigh the gain?

Right at this moment, the noise they made attracted the attention of many people in the lobby.

A lot of people were watching them muttering, and Zhang Zizhou listened carefully before realizing that the group was all discussing what words were carved on their foreheads!

He was so ashamed that he didn't want to remain here to be watched, so he said to that lobby manager with a black face, "I'll give you three seconds to get the fuck out of my way, or else don't blame me for being rude to you!"

The lobby manager also had a bit of a temper and immediately snapped at the security chief, "Captain Zhang, these people have seriously affected the image of Shangri-La, kick them all out!"

Zhang Zizhou was furious and cursed, "Shame on you, give me a fight!"

After saying that, he was the first one to rush forward and kicked this lobby manager to the ground, spitting blood out of his mouth at once!

Zhang Zizhou spat a mouthful of bloody phlegm on his face and cursed, "I don't know what's going on, if you dare to talk too much, I don't believe I'll just waste you!"

The lobby manager endured great pain in his body and commanded the few security guards behind him, "Blow out all of these guys who dare to cause trouble in our Shangri-La!"

But with this order, before a few security guards could react, unexpectedly, the other four bodyguards of the Wu family then rushed forward and instantly it was a crazy kick!

These people had suffered a lot in front of Ye Chen, and had long been holding a lot of anger, and now they suddenly had someone to vent their anger on, and had completely lost their minds, venting madly at these people, only wanting to kill the group in front of them to relieve their hatred.

Although they had their hands cut off by Ye Chen, they were after all from a practicing family, and their legs and knees could cause a lot of killing to these security guards .

Therefore, with just a single move, the group of weak security guards were all overturned to the ground, leaving the other party defenseless.

Seeing that these people were already beaten to death and would definitely die if they continued to fight, only then did Zhang Zizhou tell everyone to stop attacking and said in a cold voice, "A bunch of unsighted dog smackers who also dare to fight against my Wu family, I pooh, don't even look at what kind of virtues they are!"

After saying that, he took the elevator directly with him and went upstairs.

727

After the five of Zhang Zizhou left, the scene was a mess.

The lobby manager of Shangri-La and several security guards were lying on the ground injured, their noses and faces looking very miserable.

A security guard struggled to get up and hurriedly helped the lobby manager up from the ground, and couldn't help but ask, "Manager, what should we do now?"

With a cold face, the lobby manager said, "You quickly take the others to the hospital, I'll go find Chen! If he dares to cause trouble in Shangri-La, I still don't believe that Chen will let him go!"

With that, he limped off to Chen Zekai's office.

At this time, Wu Donghai and Wu Xin, the father and son, were staying in the presidential suite of the Shangri-La Hotel, patiently waiting for Zhang Zizhou and the others to arrive back to reorder themselves.

A few minutes ago, Wu Donghai also received a message from Liu Guang that he had arrived at the Heavenly Fragrance Residence and had subdued Master Hong Fifth, not only that, he also found a surprise, that wasteful father-in-law of Ye Chen was also dining at the Heavenly Fragrance Residence.

This could make Wu Donghai happy, he felt that it was a good opportunity to take advantage of this opportunity to kill Ye Chen's father-in-law first.

But now as soon as he had a chance to see the time pass almost an hour, Liu Guang hadn't reported any progress to him, which made Wu Donghai notice that something wasn't quite right.

He called Liu Guang with no answer, and he called Zhang Zizhou again with still no answer.

Actually, the phone was in Zhang Zizhou's pocket, but both of his arms were useless and he was completely unable to pull it out of his pocket.

The other four people were the same, and there was simply nothing they could do at this point.

If only his fingers were useless, that good rascal would still be able to manipulate the phone by sliding his drooping finger belly, but now, his entire arm was unable to use half of his strength, and he was a complete mess.

Wu Donghai couldn't get through to Zhang Zizhou's phone, and he was a little nervous.

Zhang Zizhou's strength was strong, and he hadn't met any opponents so far, so he couldn't fall on Hongwu, right?

Wu Xin's eyebrows furrowed, and he couldn't help but say to his father, Wu Donghai, "Dad, the situation on Liu Guang's side, no one has given us any reply so far, did something happen to Zhang Zizhou and the others?"

Wu Donghai, who was on the side, shook his head and said confidently, "Impossible, Zhang Zizhou and the others are all practicing family members, they are powerful, if you look at the entire Jinling, it's impossible for anyone to be their opponent!"

As he was saying that, he pulled out his phone again and called Zhang Zizhou.

Right after that, he heard a cell phone ringing from outside the corridor.

While he was still wondering, he heard the doorbell ring.

It was one of Zhang Zizhou's younger brothers, who rang the doorbell with his forehead.

Once Wu Xin heard the doorbell ring, he took off, "I guess it's someone coming back!"

Having said that, he rushed to the door, opened it and was momentarily stunned in shock!

Wu Donghai was now slowly pacing over, still laughing as he said, "What did I say, how could Hongwu, just an insignificant little character, be able to fight Zhang Zizhou?"

After saying that, he did not forget to the door standing dazed son, said in a long-winded way: "You ah, do not rush everything, chaotic their own position, to achieve great things will be quiet, this truth you will have to think about more to think about, know?"

Wu Xin swallowed his saliva and pointed with a frightened face at the five ghostly people outside the door and said dully, "Dad, come and look!"

"See what?" Wu Donghai faintly said, "Didn't Zi Zhou and the others return? Why are you still standing outside the door? And don't let them hurry in and tell me in detail about the process of executing Hongwu!"

When Wu Xin heard this, he subconsciously took a step back, made room for it, and Zhang Zizhou and the other five plucked up their courage, flung and pulled their two broken arms like fighting, defeated earth dogs, and walked in dejectedly!

As soon as Wu Donghai saw the five people who came in, he was stunned, and the cup in his hand was not steady and fell off the ground

728

He looked at the ghostly five and said, stunned, "You guys You guys What's going on here?! What happened to your foreheads? Why all the blood? This Why does this look like it's been written?!"

Since several people had their heads down, it was difficult for Wu Donghai to make out the words on their foreheads.

Zhang Zizhou immediately took a step forward and pounced, then knelt in front of Wu Donghai and said sincerely, "Mr. Wu, we are not doing well, please punish us!"

When Wu Donghai saw how miserable these people were, his heart thudded and his face changed as he questioned, "Speak to me clearly, what exactly happened?!"

Zhang Zizhou knelt on the ground and cried with his head lowered, "General Manager Wu, we went to help Liu Guang deal with Hong Wu as ordered by the eldest young master, today at the Heavenly Fragrance House, we had already controlled Hong Wu and even captured Ye Chen's father-in-law, but who expected that Ye Chen suddenly rushed in"

At this point, he wept bitterly, "Mr. Wu, that Ye Chen is too strong, not to mention I'm not his opponent, even the five of us combined couldn't do anything to him, we couldn't even take a single move, not only did we all have our arms crippled by him, we also all had words carved into our foreheads by him"

Wu Donghai was struck by lightning!

More powerful than Zhang Zizhou? Is that a human being?

He trembled with an incredulous face and said, "Even you guys aren't a match for that trash Ye Chen?! That punk That trash is so strong?!"

He said, thinking of the engraving, and asked hastily, "Engraving? What did you carve? Keep your head up and let me see!"

Zhang Zizhou and the others hesitated, but didn't dare to disobey Wu Donghai's order, so they could only look up with a face that was more miserable than a dead family!

Wu Donghai and his sons stared at these people's brains and became furious!

Wu Xin silly beep!

Nicky loves to eat shit!

Wu Xin is gay!

Wu Donghai is a bird incompetent!

I want to shit on Wu Xin!

They looked at these highly insulting words and were green with anger!

Wu Donghai had lived most of his life and had seen all sorts of punishments, even tragically dead corpses, but he had never seen this kind of scene!

ThisIt's fucking ruthless to the bone!

Carving words on someone's forehead, and with such humiliating words!

It really gives you a numbing feeling in the scalp and chills in the limbs!

Wu Donghai was panicked and angry, questioning, "This was all done by that trash Ye Chen?!"

Zhang Zizhou knelt on the ground and said, "He's the one who made Hong Wu carve the words, and he also asked me to bring a message to you, saying that if you want to target him, go ahead, but if you dare to involve the people around him, then he'll make our Wu family go to ruin"

After Wu Xin heard this, he couldn't help but become furious and gritted his teeth, "Dad, Ye Chen alone dares to make my Wu family doomed, what a mouthful!How can we face the Wu family without killing him!"

Wu Donghai's expression was somewhat chilly as he said, "You think it's easy to kill him?These five people have been completely ruined, you and I, father and son, are in Jinling, and now we don't even have a bodyguard, if that Ye Chen kills us, what are we going to resist with?!"

Wu Xin, who was just now pretending and trying to kill Ye Chen, instantly paled in fright when he heard this and said out of his mouth, "Dad, let's run then!"

Wu Donghai glared at him and said with discontent, "Why are you panicking?It's in Shangri-La!Yanjing Ye family's property, I don't believe that trash dares to kill here!If he really dares to come, then the Yanjing Ye family will definitely not let him go!"

729

At this moment, the lobby manager, who was kicked half to death by Zhang Zizhou, hobbled to the door of Chen Zekai's office with the help of a few employees.

Knocking on the office door, as soon as the lobby manager entered, Richard Chen saw him covered in injuries and asked out of his mouth, "Manager Zhao, what's going on?"

Manager Zhao was outraged and said, "Mr. Chen, a few bodyguards from the Suhang Wu family dared to force their way into our hotel and fight me and a few security guards in our hotel lobby!"

"What?!" Richard Chen frowned and asked off the top of his head, "What's going on? The Wu's are staying in our presidential suite, and so are their bodyguards. Why are they breaking into the hotel? And fought you guys big time?"

Manager Zhao hurriedly explained: "The thing is like this, a few of them seem to be outside with people just had a fight, a few people are covered with blood, arms are broken, forehead was also carved with a knife, that full head full of face are blood ah, look like Shura, our hotel has not been a request it, do not allow unkempt guests to enter, so I stopped them!....."

Richard Chen frowned tightly.

He had heard of the Wu family's bodyguards before.

It was said that the strength was very extraordinary.

These five people, in Jinling, even Chen Zhai Kai's own bodyguards might not be a match for them, so when Chen Zhai Kai heard that they had even had their arms crippled and foreheads carved, he was stunned in shock!

He couldn't figure out when a place like Jinling had started crouching tigers and hidden dragons.

Is there really such an expert who can cripple all five of the Wu family's bodyguards? What kind of sick strength must this be?

Thinking of this, he said to Manager Zhao, "This matter is a bit strange, don't worry for now, I'll call and have someone look into it."

Chen Zekai had many ears and eyes in Jinling, so he hurriedly picked up his cell phone, dialed a number, and coldly ordered, "Immediately go and find out what the Suhang Wu family's bodyguards did tonight in Jinling, and within five minutes, I want all the results!"

Three minutes later, Richard Chan's phone rang, and he was struck by lightning when he heard the words on the other end of the line!

It turns out that tonight, the Wu family's bodyguards, went to the Heavenly Fragrance House to try to exterminate Hong Wu, but they didn't expect to be defeated in full by their young master, Ye Chen!

Those five experts of the Wu family were defeated by Young Master!

My God, Young Master is so powerful?

Richard Chan was horrified!

Whirling, his heart swelled with an intense rage!

Wu family, what nerve!

Hong Wu has long been with the young master and is considered half of the Ye family, but this Wu family dares to come to Jinling to exterminate Hong Wu and even start a conflict with their own young master?

Are they, like, tired of living?

And, after they failed to kill Hung Ng and were beaten to death by their young master, they are still so arrogant that they beat up the lobby manager of the Shangri-La?

This is fucking offending the Ye family to death!

Come to think of it, Richard Chan is on fire!

I can't believe I'm even giving face to this father and son by letting them stay in the Shangri-La's presidential suite, what if Young Master finds out, what if he descends?

The furious Richard Chen almost wanted to rush to the presidential suite where the Wu family and their son were and break the legs of these two dog bastards!

However, as soon as he thought that the young master was also involved, he didn't dare to make a decision without permission and immediately called Ye Chen.

When the call was connected, Ye Chen had just parked the car.

After the old father-in-law got out of the car, Ye Chen said to him, "Dad, I'll take a call and then go up."

Xiao Changkun nodded and said, "You answer it, I'll wait for you outside with a cigarette."

730

Ye Chen nodded his head.

The old father-in-law went for a smoke, so he sat in the car and answered the phone.

As soon as the call came through, Richard Chen said hurriedly, "Young Master, I heard that you had a conflict with the Wu family's bodyguards?"

Ye Chen hummed and said, "Your information is quite timely!"

Chen Zekai was busy saying, "Young Master, I also heard that these five people were causing trouble in Shangri-La and found out about it after having someone look into it."

Saying that, Richard Chen explained what happened after the five people of Zhang Zizhou went to Shangri-La.

After listening, Ye Chen said coldly, "These five dogs, I didn't expect that they really can't change, I had thought that they could learn to be more honest and low-key, but I didn't expect that they could still cause trouble with their legs when both arms are useless!"

Chen Zhaichai hurriedly said, "Young Master, now that the Wu family and their son are also in Shangri-La, what do you want to do with them, you only need to tell me, and I will do it immediately!"

Ye Chen smiled slightly and said, "This way, you go to their room first and break the legs of these five dogs, I'll see how they can still cause trouble with them after their arms and legs are all useless."

Chen Zekai took off, "Okay young master!What else do you command?"

Ye Chen added, "There's also Wu Donghai and Wu Xin, I'm not going to take their lives for now, but I can't take them so cheaply, you help me break one leg for each of them and then drive them out of Jinling!"

"Yes!"Richard Chen immediately said, "Young Master, don't worry, I'll make this matter a success!"

After that, Richard Chen asked, "By the way young master, do you want me to clarify with them and let them know what kind of existence they've messed with?"

"No need."Ye Chen said indifferently, "If I let them know my true identity, they'll probably completely wimp out, and that would be boring instead."

Saying that, Ye Chen added, "Remember, you went to teach them a lesson this time solely because the Wu family's bodyguards were causing trouble in Shangri-La and ruining the Ye family's face."

Chen Zekai said instantly, "I understand young master!"

"Well, I see, just go ahead and do it."

.....

At this time in the presidential suite, Wu Donghai was looking at these five dead dog-like bastards in front of him with a black face!

On the one hand, he hated the five people who were so useless that they couldn't even handle a single Ye Chen, but on the other hand, he also hated the words that were carved on the top of their heads.

Damn, this was a complete and utter insult to the Wu family!

He snapped at Zhang Zizhou in a cold voice, "I'll arrange for someone to perform plastic surgery on you, cut off all the skin on your foreheads, take skin from other parts of your body and transplant it over, and I should be able to remove these words then!"

Zhang Zizhou nodded hurriedly and said with a trembling voice, "Thank you, Mr. Wu"

Wu Donghai used to have a few points of respect and esteem for Zhang Zizhou, but how he looked at him now was not pleasing to his eyes.

He then said in a cold voice, "I will transfer a new group of bodyguards from the family, and then you can disband on the spot."

"Disband on the spot?!"Zhang Zizhou said off the cuff, "Are you firing us, Mr. Wu?"

Wu Donghai frowned and asked, "Or else what? You're still a bodyguard? Can you still be a bodyguard in your current state?"

Zhang Zizhou blurted out, "Mr. Wu, the five of us brothers have followed you for so long and have killed many people, warded off many calamities and suffered many injuries for you, today all five of us were ruined by Ye Chen, this is also to help you with your business, how can you fall on the well at this time and ask us to disband on the spot?"

Wu Donghai asked rhetorically, "What? If you don't disband, do you still want me to give you retirement?!"

Saying that, Wu Donghai said in disgust, "Don't tell me these useless things, I'll give each of you 500,000 severance pay when the time comes, if you know how to take the money, take the money and get out of here, if you don't know how to take the money, don't blame me for being rude when the time comes!"

731

Although Wu Donghai was a billionaire, he was not a generous person.

In other words, in his eyes, he didn't spend a single cent more of money that he shouldn't.

Just like Zhang Zizhou, these five losers.

A bodyguard with a broken arm who couldn't even open a fucking car door, what was he going to do?

They are paid ridiculously high salaries again, and if you continue to keep them, you will only be doing charity and pensioning them.

Therefore, at such times they should be driven away as soon as possible.

The farther they are driven away, the better.

Wu Donghai didn't really want to pay even half a million for the severance pay.

Therefore, he felt that he was already very generous.

But, of course, Zhang Zizhou and the others didn't think so!

He's a wreck now!

What is the concept of an invalid? For the rest of my life, I'm an armless man!

What doesn't an armless man, who eats, drinks, sleeps and sleeps, need to be taken care of?

There's a lot of money to be spent over the next few decades!

They were so badly injured because of the Wu family, and if the Wu family fell on their sword at this point, wouldn't that kill them!

Thinking of this, Zhang Zizhou was resentful.

However, he didn't dare to do anything to Wu Donghai.

Because the Wu family was too strong, if the five brothers were crippled, in the blink of an eye, there could be dozens of bodyguards, and he was already crippled, and then if he confronted the Wu family, wouldn't he be killed in a minute?

Zhang Zizhou was really in tears at this point.

How could he not see before that Wu Donghai was such a son of a bitch! A subordinate kicks at the whim of his subordinates, and a brave servant is completely ignored, simply a heartless beast!

Just at this moment, the door of the presidential suite was suddenly opened.

The attendant used the universal room card to open the door of the presidential suite, followed by Richard Chen walking in with dozens of personal bodyguards and a cold face.

Wu Donghai didn't expect the door to be suddenly opened, and was surprised to see Richard Chen walking in slowly with both hands behind his back, with an indescribable anger and indifference on his face.

Behind him, in addition to Manager Zhao, who had been beaten by Zhang Zizhou, there were dozens of strong bodyguards in suits.

When Wu Donghai saw Chen Zekai suddenly appear, his mind was foggy, but he didn't dare to slow down, so he hurriedly put away his face full of anger and smiled, "Mr. Chen, what are you doing here?"

Who expected Chen Zhai Kai to have a cold face and cursed angrily, "Wu Donghai, what a dog thing you are! Do you know that Shangri-La is a property under the name of the Yanjing Ye family?"

Wu Donghai's expression was startled, and he couldn't help but wonder if this Chen Zhaichai had taken the wrong gunpowder?

You were laughing with me before, but how come you've put on such an unkind face in a short while?

And even just call yourself a dog?!

However, no matter how unhappy he was in his heart, he knew that he couldn't afford to offend Chen Zekai.

So, Wu Donghai hurriedly said respectfully, "Mr. Chen, of course I know that Shangri-La is the property of the Ye family in Yanjing, to be honest, my admiration for the Ye family is really as continuous as the river, and I expect to rely on you to get to know the Ye family and serve them in the future"

As Chen Zekai looked at Wu Donghai, he raised his hand and slapped him hard, followed by kicking him to the ground.

732

Wu Donghai fell to the ground with an ouch, eating pain, while inside he was terrified.

Next to him, Wu Xin, subconsciously and angrily rebuked, "Hey, what makes you think you can hit my father?!"

Chen Zekai strode up to him and smashed his nose bone with a single punch, smashing him with blood, cursing angrily, "Your father has to be respectful in front of me, what kind of thing are you, daring to talk to me like that! Tired of living? Do you believe I'm going to kill you right now?"

"You're looking for death!" Wu Xin had never suffered the loss of being beaten when he grew up, and he had suffered twice today.

First it was Ye Chen, who crippled one of his hands, and then it was Richard Chen, who dry-punched and shattered his nose bone.

He had been pampered and bossed around since he was a child, where had he ever suffered such a crime?

So angrily he roared, "You think you're great because you're a dog of the Ye family? My Wu family is the number one family in Jiangnan, and I'll kill you in minutes!"

As soon as Wu Xin's voice trailed off, Wu Donghai crawled over and smacked him in the face with a slap, cursing angrily, "Bastard! How can I talk to Mr. Chen? Don't hurry up and kneel down to Mr. Chen to admit your mistake!"

Wu Donghai was now blinded by Wu Xin.

He never expected that this son of his would be so useless that he couldn't even tell the difference between this situation?

Even if Richard Chen is just a dog of the Ye family, then the person standing behind him is still the Ye family!

What is the existence of the Ye family?

One of the top three families in the country!

In terms of financial power, the Wu family may not be able to match the Ye family by a tenth.

This was because the Ye family was a trillion family, but whether it was a trillion or nine trillion, no one could figure it out.

After all, a huge thing like the Ye family was by no means something that ordinary people could see through!

In terms of power and status, the Ye family was countless times more powerful than the Wu family!

So, even if Richard Chan kills the two of them now, the Wu family would definitely not dare to let out a fart!

There was even a chance that his own father, Master Wu, wouldn't even be able to think about holding a funeral for himself and would go to Yanjing to personally apologize to the Ye family first!

Wu Xin dared to scold Chen Zhai Kai at this point, isn't this a death wish!

After being slapped by this slap, Wu Xin realized that he had made a big mistake, and without saying a word, he immediately knelt in front of Chen Zekai in sincere fear, kowtowing as he begged for forgiveness, "I'm sorry Chen! I was impulsive, I deserve to die!"

After saying that, he slapped himself back and forth with a big slap.

Chen Zekai went up and kicked him in the chest, and after kicking him down he went up and stomped on his face, saying coldly, "Little than son, if you offend the Ye family, do you believe I'll make your Wu family extinct?!"

Wu Xin just pumped his own face is swollen, and now was Chen Zekai stomped on his face, speech is slurred, but can only insist: "Chen, I'm really wrong, you can beat me, scold me, please don't see me in general"

Wu Donghai's heart ached as he saw his son being beaten like this, and he couldn't help but ask, "General Manager Chen, ah General Manager Chen, I respect you from the bottom of my heart, if you are dissatisfied with us in any way, then I beg you to say it, if it's really Wu's fault, I will willingly be punished, but you have to let me die to understand ah!"

Mr. Chen sneered and said, "Respect from the bottom of my heart? You respect me and let these silly dog bodyguards from your Wu family force their way into my Shangri-La's lobby and injure people in my Shangri-La's lobby? So if you don't respect me, are you even going to beat me?"

Wu Donghai's entire body was struck by lightning!

What?

His own bodyguard, actually beating up Richard Chen's men in the lobby of the Shangri-La?

Who the hell did this to you?

As soon as he thought of this, Wu Donghai's icy gaze fell on Zhang Zizhou and the others.

Needless to say, he knew that the one who had caused the mortal calamity was definitely one of these five people!

Wu Donghai was so angry that he glared at the five people kneeling on the ground and asked in a cold voice, "Who did this? Or did you five do it together?!"

When Zhang Zizhou felt the killing intent in Wu Donghai's gaze, he shivered in shock and hurriedly said, "Mr. Wu, it's not our fault! We had already explained to the security guard at the door and the lobby manager that we were from the Wu family, but they flatly asserted that we were not well groomed and deadly forbidden to come in, and I was eager to return to you, so I barged into the hotel and clashed with them"

Hearing this, Wu Donghai was on fire and went up with a slap, cursing, "What a bunch of losers! Is Shangri-La something you can break into? You keep saying you're back to life, but you call that life? What's the use of me raising you if I can't do such a small thing as giving you orders and causing me great trouble?!"

Saying that, he immediately said to Richard Chen, "Mr. Chen! These five trash have rammed into you, to kill or cut you a word!"

In fact, Wu Donghai hated that Richard Chen would drag these five people away and kill them.

Anyway, they are all five trash, leaving them in the world will only be a waste of their money.

Chen Zekai also knew Wu Donghai's plan, and said coldly, "Wu Donghai, are you such a boss? If you don't help your own little brother to carry the matter, and then sell your own people when things go wrong, your Wu family is really too low class to do anything, right? If word gets out, how will your Wu family still hang around?"

Wu Donghai's heart was in shock.

What exactly did this Richard Chen mean? I've already handed over the five men who were looking for trouble to him, and he still won't let go of me?

However, he didn't dare to scream at Richard Chen, so he could only suppress the raging anger in his heart, and walked up to Richard Chen's body and apologized, "Mr. Chen, this matter is my fault, I have failed to discipline the people below me, I apologize to you!"

Afterwards, he said, "As a gesture of my apology, I'm willing to take out ten million dollars as medical expenses and moral damages for the injured staff, and I hope you can forgive the Wu family for this mistake, what do you think?"

From his point of view, although Richard Chen was the spokesman of the Yanjing Ye family in Jinling, he was at least the second-generation heir of the Wu family, and he had offered ten million as compensation, so no matter what, the other party wouldn't want to clash with the Suhang Wu family over this trivial matter, right?

Who expected that Chen Zekai's face was still icy cold at this time and said, "Do you think that I, the Yanjing Ye Family, would care about a mere ten million? According to you, I'll have all of you father and son beaten into an invalid right now, and give another twenty million to Master Wu who is far away in Suhang, and this matter will be over, do you agree?"

As soon as this was said, Wu Donghai's expression was as ugly as it had to be.

He had never expected this man, Richard Chen, to be so oily!

His own lackeys were just beating up a mere lobby manager, so what could be the big deal?

Moreover, the other party wasn't hurt too badly, but Richard Chen had to chatter to himself here for this?

With the tough attitude shown by Richard Chen, if anyone else had come over, Wu Donghai would have had him chopped up into a million pieces!

In all of Jiangnan, when has he ever been wronged like this, as the second generation heir to the Wu family?

But then again, he would never dare to offend Richard Chen, after all, he was the spokesman of the Yanjing Ye family in Jinling.

As the second generation heir of the Wu family, once he clashed with Richard Chen, it would mean that the Wu family was directly provoking the Ye family's majesty.

This would definitely bring great trouble to the entire family!

Once the Yanjing Ye family rises up and makes a fuss over this, the Wu family is bound to plunge into an abyss of doom and gloom!

So, he could only endure the anger deep within his heart and didn't immediately attack, and very conscientiously compensated with a smile, "Mr. Chen, I was wrong to say something, I apologize, I hope that you adults won't remember the mistakes!"

734

After saying that, he hastily licked his face and said, "Mr. Chen, how do you want to resolve this matter today? As long as you give me a solution, Wu will do his best to do it the way you say!"

Chen Zhai Kai smiled coldly in his heart and said in his heart, this second generation heir of the Wu family was quite capable of bending and flexing, and really had some stamina.

However, they had provoked their own young master today, that would really not work even if the King of Heaven came!

If it weren't for the young master's orders, Richard Chen would have been itching to chop them up immediately!

He snorted and said, "I'm sorry, but I won't accept your apology, and neither will the Yanjing Ye family!"

Wu Donghai endured his anger and asked in a low voice, "Mr. Chen, how do you want to resolve this then?"

Chen Zhai Kai said coldly, "These five of your men have injured my men with their legs, and I'm going to ruin all five of them!"

As soon as this was said, Wu Donghai immediately said without hesitation, "No problem! Since Chen has spoken, these five people's legs are at your disposal!"

When Zhang Zizhou heard this, he collapsed and shouted, "Wu Donghai! You can't be so mean to a man! The five of us have already had our arms crippled, and if we cripple our legs again, what's the difference between us and the living dead?!"

Wu Donghai snapped coldly, "Damn, your arms were crippled because you're not as skilled as others, your legs were crippled because you offended General Manager Chen, it's all your own fault, you purely deserve it!"

"You" Zhang Zizhou bellowed in anger, "Wu Donghai, you're just an old turtle bastard egg! Had I known you were this way, I, Zhang Zizhou, should have ripped your head off!"

Wu Donghai became furious and said to Richard Chen, "Look, Mr. Chen, for this kind of following bastard stuff, you're doing them a favor by breaking their legs! Such people should just be killed!"

With a playful smile, Chen Zhai said, "They were originally quite deserving of death, but I saw the calligraphy of the human body sculptures on their foreheads and felt that the five of them had to live well in order to live up to the artwork on their foreheads."

Wu Donghai's face was a bit ugly.

The foreheads of these five people were carved with words that were all insulting to the Wu family, but Chen Zekai had even said that these words were works of art, wasn't this tantamount to insulting the Wu family?

However, he didn't dare to pretend with Chen Zekai.

So he could only say with a smile, "Since you think it's only right for them to live well, Mr. Chen, let's break their legs and let them be invalids for the rest of their lives!"

Richard Chen nodded playfully and said to his men, "Come, break the legs of these five dogs for me first!"

Wu Donghai was relieved, it seemed that Richard Chen could appease his anger this time.

However, he instantly felt wrong again!

Richard Chan just said, "first" break the legs of these five dogs?

Why first?

Is there anything else behind it?

735

Just when Wu Donghai hadn't figured out what Richard Chen's words meant, Richard Chen's men had already moved!

All of his men were also top-notch experts, but if it was really about strength, there might not be anyone who could be stronger than Zhang Zizhou.

However, right now, Zhang Zizhou was already half a dead dog, and he might be fine against ordinary people, but he was simply a piece of trash when it came to dealing with practicing fighters.

Therefore, facing Chen Zekai's men, he had no chance to refute or resist at all.

His fate, Ye Chen had already planned it out for him in advance!

Zhang Zizhou's heart was desperate and deadly.

Never in his wildest dreams had he thought that he would end up in such a situation!

If your legs are also ruined, wouldn't your life be completely cold?

At that time, he will be a loser with a broken arm and leg, lying on the bed unable to move, without even the slightest ability to take care of himself

At this time, Chen Zekai's men stepped in front of Zhang Zizhou and the others, and the first to do so was Zhang Zizhou.

The man said coldly to a few of his men, "Hold his legs down for me!"

A few of the men immediately stepped forward and deadly pressed Zhang Zizhou's legs to the ground.

Immediately after that, the man pulled out a finger tiger made of pure steel from his bosom, put it on his hand, and slammed it against Zhang Zizhou's right knee, and the entire knee shattered into pieces.

Zhang Zizhou felt a bone-piercing pain and kept howling.

But that was only half of the process!

The other party then slammed a blow on his other leg's knee, and the knee shattered in response with a crack.

Then, this man kept going for a moment, directly crippling the legs of all five bodyguards!

The entire living room of the presidential suite was howling.

Wu Donghai's face did not change in the slightest, these five people, he hated to directly kill them, so he did not care at all about their current end.

He only cared about whether this Richard Chen was satisfied or not.

If he's not satisfied, what else does he want?

So, he opened his mouth and asked Richard Chen, "Mr. Chen, I don't know if you're still satisfied with this result now."

Richard Chen said coldly, "Of course you're not satisfied!"

Wu Donghai shivered and hurriedly pursued, "How exactly do you want to be satisfied, Mr. Chen?"

Richard Chen looked at him with a cold look in his eyes and said, "It's simple, I want one of your and your son's legs!"

"What!?" Wu Donghai looked shocked and spoke out, "Mr. Chen, you're making too big a joke, aren't you?"

Chen Zhai Kai narrowed his eyes and asked him back, "Which dog's eye did you see that I was joking with you?!"

Wu Donghai was so scared that he involuntarily took a step back and panicked out of his mouth, "Mr. Chen, why do you have to take it so seriously when the people underneath your hands have had a little misunderstanding and a little conflict?"

Saying that, he lowered his posture and with a humble tone, "If Wu Mou has done anything wrong, then please express it to Chen, Wu Mou will try his best to correct it, you don't need to continue to hold on to it, it will also hurt the harmony between our two families, don't you think so?"

Chen Zekai said coldly, "With your Wu family, you are also worthy to talk peace with the Ye family?What are you guys?"

Saying that, Chen Zaiji sternly shouted, "If you want to live, honestly let me cripple one of your legs, otherwise, the Great Luo Jinxian won't be able to save you today!"

Wu Donghai was trembling with fear!

This Richard Chan is getting serious!

You want a leg of your own?

You've got to be kidding me!

He's the eldest son and second generation heir of the Wu family!

In the whole of Jiangnan, one could say that he was under one person and above ten thousand, and the only person who was above him was still his own old man.

In the entire Jiangnan, the Wu family was so powerful that it would always be the Wu family that bullied others, when had they ever been bullied by anyone else!

It was fine for this Richard Chen to rush in and beat himself and his son up, but for the sake of the Ye family, he could still endure it.

But he was going to smash his own and his son's legs, how could he accept that!

If this gets out, wouldn't the Wu family be disgraced!

With that in mind, he summoned up his courage and shouted harshly, "Richard Chan!Don't you go too far!Do you think you're from the Ye family?You're just a servant of the Ye family!Who gave you the courage to go against my Wu family!Even if my Wu Family is not as strong as the Ye Family, it is at least the number one family in Jiangnan, I don't believe that the Ye Family will be so indulgent to you?!"

736

Richard Chen smiled playfully, "You want to know who gave me the courage?Sorry, it's from Young Master Yeh!"

If it was usual, he was just a spokesman for the Ye family, he really wouldn't dare to represent the Ye family and start a direct conflict with the Wu family, let alone break all the legs of the Wu family's son and eldest grandson.

However, today, this decision was not made by himself, it was made by his own young master!

If the young master himself said that he wanted to kill the Wu father and son, he would immediately do so, and the Ye family would definitely do their best to support the security!

Therefore, Richard Chen had no scruples at all.

Wu Donghai and his son were stunned!

Is Young Master Ye going to deal with himself?

But, when had he ever offended Young Master Ye! I don't even know any Young Master Ye!

At this moment, to death, they couldn't believe that the famous Jinling's trash superfluous son-in-law, Ye Chen, was the young master of the Yanjing Ye family!

Wu Donghai said in a panic, "Mr. Chen, is there some kind of misunderstanding here? When have we ever offended Young Master Yeh?"

Not bothering to explain to them, Richard Chen sneered and said to those around him, "First, cripple one of that little one's legs! And then waste this old one!"

As soon as the words fell, the black-clothed men around him immediately rushed towards Wu Xin!

Wu Xin was scared to death!

He was pinned to the ground by the man in black and shouted, "Dad! Help me, Dad! Dad, help me!"

Even Wu Donghai's teeth were shaking!

I thought that Shangri-La was the safest place to be, but it's the real wolf's den!

This Chen Zekai, relying on the fact that he is a member of the Ye family, has no fear, what can he do now?

Begging for mercy? He's not even buying it!

Putting on an identity? He doesn't care!

Directly against him? Who else is around?

Thinking about it, he was dead inside!

He knew that he couldn't save his son.

Not himself, not even himself!

At that moment, the heavy fist of the man in black wearing the finger tiger slammed down!

After the crack, Wu Xin howled miserably like a slaughtered pig!

He's lost his right leg!

Right arm, right leg, all gone at this point!

Also, this injury to the right leg is so bad, there's no chance of recovery!

In other words, in the future, he, the grand son of the Wu family, would become a disgraced cripple!

Wu Xin burst into tears!

How did this happen!

Why is that?!

What the hell is Jinling, and why does it feel like this modest city is filled with soul-crushing demons!

Wu Donghai was heartbroken.

The one he loved the most was his eldest son.

After all, the eldest son was going to inherit his mantle in the future, and was also the one he had been focusing on cultivating.

Unexpectedly, he had now turned into a cripple!

And his own second son is still the same shit-eating beast that eats shit every hour

Why is your own fate so miserable!

At that moment, Chen Zhai pointed at Wu Donghai, who was in the midst of his heartfelt indignation, and said to the man in black, "Come, it's this old man's turn!"

Wu Donghai's heart thudded, his legs involuntarily softened, and he even threw himself on his knees

Chen Zekai looked at him who was kneeling down and laughed coldly: "Yo, Mr. Wu, why are you kneeling? Kneeling, it's also going to break your leg, oh!"

737

Wu Donghai collapsed!

He knew that he was powerless, this time in Jinling, not only could not find out the murderer of his youngest son, but also put himself and his eldest son's legs, both in the

Chen Zekai's men walked forward in three or two steps, grabbed his right leg, and handed down a fist

The pain was so intense that he was almost about to faint.

He gritted his teeth and tried not to scream out, but the pain only made him endure for less than ten seconds, then he cried out in pain!

Chen Zekai looked at all of this with cold eyes and grunted disdainfully, "Wu family, what the hell is it, even daring to pander in the Ye family's territory, this is a little punishment for you, if you still dare to touch the Ye family's backbone, the Ye family will definitely exterminate your entire Wu family!"

Richard Chan's words are ringing true!

Especially the last six words, "Kill your entire family!"

Even more so, it scared Wu Donghai into violent convulsions!

What's going on

What's going on here

Why is the Ye family targeting themselves so much?

I couldn't even find a chance to kneel down to the Ye family if I wanted to, so why would the Ye family hate their shares and punish them so much?

He can't figure it out, not at all!

He could only blame it all on the five of Zhang Zizhou and the big fight at Shangri-La!

It seems that the Ye family's majesty really doesn't allow any form of trampling, even if it's just causing trouble in the Ye family's property and beating up its insignificant servants, it will be punished by the Ye family!

Wu Donghai hated this damned Zhang Zizhou!

It's his fault!

It's all his fault. He got himself and his son into this mess!

At this moment, he couldn't wait to rush over and strangle this Zhang Zizhou alive!

And he did have a real murder in his heart!

He knew that he couldn't kill anyone on Richard Chen's turf, but he had already made up his mind that after he left Shangri-La, he would immediately call his family to send some experts over and directly behead Zhang Zizhou and his four brothers so that the five of them would die until they couldn't die anymore!

At this time, but I heard Richard Chen coldly say, "You have ten minutes to get out of Shangri-La, and if you are still in Shangri-La after ten minutes, I will worship you both and break your other legs!"

Wu Donghai shuddered and hurriedly said in all sincerity, "Chen, we're leaving! That's going!"

Afterwards, jumping to his son's side, he reached out to support him, tearing up as he comforted him, "Son, let's go back to Suhang, Dad will find the best orthopedic doctor to treat your leg!"

Wu Xin also cried a lot and only managed to get up with his dad's help, crying, "DadCan my leg still be healed?"

"Yes, it can, it will!" Wu Donghai also knew that the knee had been completely shattered, there was almost no chance of a cure, and even if the artificial joint was completely replaced, it would still leave a very serious aftermath in the future, and even if he wasn't a cripple, he would still be a cripple, and it would be absolutely impossible to return to his normal appearance.

However, he couldn't hit his son like this.

He was still young after all!

So, not daring to pack up his things, he and his son mutually supported each other and headed to the door of the presidential suite.

At this time, Richard Chen suddenly smiled playfully and said, "Slow down!"

Wu Donghai shivered and turned around, nervously asking, "Mr. Chen, what else do you want?"

Richard Chen pointed at Zhang Zizhou and the other five people lying on the ground and said in a cold voice, "You two, drag these five dead dogs out of here, don't dirty my Shangri-La place!"

"I"Wu Donghai was so furious that he was almost about to vomit blood!

He only came back to his senses a moment later and blurted out, "Mr. Chen, these five people have nothing to do with the Wu family anymore, do what you want with them! Do whatever you want to kill or cut!"

Chen Zekai said coldly, "Have you forgotten what I just said? These five people all have artwork on their foreheads, you bring them back to the Wu family and give me a chance to serve and keep them alive, you must not let them die, let alone remove the artwork from their foreheads, do you understand?"

Artwork

Wu Donghai resentfully looked at Zhang Zizhou and the five of them, each of the words on their foreheads were like sharp knives, fiercely poking him in the heart!

Now, Richard Chan even asked him to bring these five people home to serve them?

That's just too humiliating too!

But he didn't dare to have half a temper.

What could he do if he humiliated himself?

What's done is done!

It seems that right now, we can only deal with him first, take these five people away, bring them back to Suhang and then make them vanish from the face of the earth!

If one person dies, I will take the life of one of your sons; if two people die, I will take the life of one of your sons; if three people die, I will take the life of your dog."

Wu Donghai was trembling violently with anger!

ThisIt's riding on the neck to shit!

What's between your Richard Chan and my family?

Why do you want to humiliate yourself to death in such an incredibly insulting way?

But how could he dare to say no to Richard Chan?

So they could only cry and nod: "Mr. Chen, what you say is what"

Only then was Chen Zhai Kai satisfied and said in a cold voice, "Okay, you two, carry them out!"

Wu Donghai begged, "Mr. Chen, I broke my leg, my son also broke his leg, and he also broke his arm earlier today, how are we two disabled people going to carry these five people down ahPlease spare us, or beg you to arrange a few of your men to help carry them out"

Chen Zekai asked in a cold voice, "Not carrying isn't it?Don't leave without carrying you two, I'll break your arms and legs, and the seven of you will lie here together until the Wu family comes to pick you up!"

Wu Xin broke down and cried, "Mr. ChenHow the hell did we upset you, please give us a break, don't torture me and my dad, I'm kowtowing to you!"

Said Wu Xin, who had broken his leg, knelt with difficulty and kept kowtowing with one hand for support.

He was really scared!And scared to death!

This isn't fucking Shangri-La, this is fucking hell on earth!

All he wanted to do now was escape, escape back to Suhang and to his own home, then lock himself up and lick his wounds alone.

What had happened today was so humiliating that he wouldn't even want to go out and see anyone for the next few years!

Chen Zhaichai didn't buy his kneeling and kowtowing at all, and said coldly, "Words, I've already said, either you two get rid of these five dogs, or you become like them and become such dead dogs, there are only two paths, you choose!"

Wu Donghai hurriedly and humbly begged, "Don't be angry, Mr. Chen, we'll get them all out, even if we have to crawl, we'll drag all five of them out!"

With Wu Donghai's complete compromise, the injured and crippled father and son could only bend down with a deadly look on their faces, doing their best to prepare to carry Zhang Zizhou and the others out of the Shangri-La Hotel.

However, the two of them had already become disabled, and Wu Xin was even worse, with a broken arm and leg, so transporting these five Khan was simply a strain.

Father and son took the lead in dragging Zhang Zizhou out, and with every step they took, they were both tired and panting.

Not only was he tired, the leg that was smashed was even more painful.

However, at this time, neither of them dared to call out, and could only clench their teeth and persevere.

Chen Zekai held his shoulders, like a good show, and watched the father and son exert all their strength, all the way to the square outside the Shangri-La Hotel, like a dung ball rolling, dragging the five people one after another.

Wu Donghai was paralyzed with fatigue, and raised his hand to wipe away the sweat all over his head, which was why he asked Richard Chen, "Mr. Chen, are you satisfied now?"

Richard Chen nodded and said coldly, "But you're taking too long, I told you guys to get it done in ten minutes, what about you guys? It took an hour!"

"I'm really sorry" Wu Donghai said humbly, "My dog and I are really not very handy with our legs and feet, and we have delayed your precious time."

Chen Zekai snorted and said, "It's good that you know what you're doing!"

Then he said sternly, "This entrance square is also my Shangri-La's territory, hurry up and have someone pick you up and get out, if I come out later and see you still here, I'll break your other leg!"

After speaking, Chen Zekai turned around and left the scene.

Leaving behind an almost desperate father and son.

Wu Xin cried at this time and asked Wu Donghai, "Dad, what should we do now? I want to go back to Suhang, I don't want to stay in Jinling anymore"

Wu Donghai gritted his teeth and said, "I'll call your grandfather right now and tell him to send a helicopter over to take us back!"

In fact, Wu Donghai had also broken his heart in Jinling, and at this point, he just wanted to hurry back and heal his leg.

So, Wu Donghai immediately called his father, on the phone, and complained to his father about the situation that happened here.

After hearing this, Master Wu was furious.

"The Ye family is really bullying people!"

His own eldest son and eldest grandson had their legs broken, it would be a lie if Master Wu wasn't angry.

However, after getting angry, he sighed again and said, "You guys wait, I'll contact the airline company over in Jinling and hurry up to rent a helicopter to bring you back."

Wu Donghai also knew that even if Dad was angry, there would be no way out of this matter, after all, the Wu family could only be considered as ants in front of the Ye family, without any strength to compete with them.

A few minutes later, the old man called and told Wu Donghai, "The helicopter has been found, it will be there in fifteen minutes to pick you guys up!"

"Great" Wu Donghai even choked up.

He had never been humiliated so much in his life, and now he was like a child who had been wronged outside and only wanted to be able to go home early.

Hanging up the phone, he said to Wu Xin, "Your grandfather has arranged for a helicopter, it will be here in fifteen minutes!"

When Wu Xin heard this, he bawled with excitement.

Wu Donghai hugged him and father and son cried in a ball.

The five people lying on the ground, Zhang Zizhou, also had very complicated feelings.

They were sad, sad because they had now become complete invalids and might never have the chance to stand up in the future.

But they were also fortunate, fortunate because Chen Zekai had stepped in and demanded that the Wu family must serve them well and send them to receive regular checks from Chen Zekai.

This also meant that they would not be retaliated against or killed by the Wu family, but instead, they would still be raised by the Wu family.

Thinking about it this way, at least they would still have a settled life in the future, otherwise, with Wu Donghai's character, he would definitely kill himself immediately.

Right at this moment, Wu Qi, who had been at home in Su Hang, suddenly called Wu Donghai.

At this time, he had just finished adding meals and had also just regained his sanity, unable to care about the stench in his mouth, he hurriedly called his father Wu Donghai.

Wu Donghai did not expect his youngest son to call him.

After all, he had been very depressed all this time, wanting to die and commit suicide every time he added a meal, and his whole body was so decrepit that he didn't want to see or talk to anyone.

I don't know why he would call himself at this time.

Did he hear about what happened to him and his oldest son and call to comfort him?

Thinking of this, Wu Donghai was somewhat relieved.

But after the call was connected, he heard Wu Qi's incomparably panicked voice: "Dad! Oh, no! Grandpa just had a heart attack!"

"What?!" Wu Donghai spoke out, "What's going on? When I was on the phone with your grandfather just now, he didn't sound like anything was wrong!"

I just got a call from one of my grandfather's friends and asked him to watch a video on Shakespeare, so I found it for him to watch, and he had a heart attack afterwards. The medical team at home is saving the day right now!! I'm glad to say it's not life-threatening."

"Jitterbug video? What video?!" Wu Donghai said anxiously, "What's the old man watching jitterbug for? Were you scared by those horror videos above?"

"Not, "Wu Qi took off, "There's a father and son with a pair of forehead carvings who said a phrase and posted it to Shakespeare!"

"Phrasing?!" Wu Donghai was even more confused.

Then, he suddenly asked, "What did you just say, forehead engraving?"

"Right!" Wu Qi hurriedly said, "They introduced themselves, saying that one was called Liu Guang and the other Liu Ming!"

Wu Donghai was even more surprised!

What's the deal with these two?

Right.

When I saw Zhang Zizhou and the five of them turn into invalids and return with carvings on their foreheads, I was so shocked that I didn't have enough brains to completely forget about Liu Guang and his son.

Where did these two go?

Where's the comedy?

So, he was surprised and asked, "What did these two say in a phrase? How can you make your grandfather mad at you for having a heart attack?"

Wu Qi said, "I probably watched a little bit of it, and they scolded our family throughout their comedy, and the scolding was just awful! They don't just make fun of me for eating shit, they make fun of you and my brother, and my mom and my grandpa!"

"Fuck!" Wu Donghai became furious and cursed, "This father and son surnamed Liu has eaten bear heart and leopard's guts! How dare you make fun of our Wu family?!"

After saying that, he immediately said to Wu Xin, "Hurry up and open Shakespeare and search for Liu Guang Liu Ming's comic video!"

Wu Xin was surprised, not knowing why his dad suddenly wanted to watch Shakespeare, let alone why Liu Guang and Liu Ming, father and son, would be talking about comedy on Shakespeare.

But he still obediently pulled out his phone, opened Shakespeare, searched for Liu Guang and Liu Ming, and all of a sudden came up with a video that had been praised over a million times!

He subconsciously clicked on it, and the voices of Liu Guang, Liu Ming and their father and son came out.

Wu Donghai also hurriedly leaned in to listen, it didn't matter, the faces of father and son were getting uglier and uglier and uglier!

Halfway through hearing that, Wu Donghai's entire body had hated it so much that he almost wanted to personally take a knife and cut Liu Guang, Liu Ming and their sons to death by a thousand cuts!

No!

A thousand cuts won't relieve your hatred!
