

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 271

Emma was cornered, and now several parties had her completely surrounded.

Especially on Brodie, she didn't even dare to think about it, once Caleb learns that he and Alina have a daughter, it will be a fatal blow to her.

Alina is really too ruthless.

She didn't expect that Alina would drive her to the point of no return in one night.

"In that case, then I will have Tomas arrange it for you."

After a long time, he collected the sharpness in his eyes.

And for a moment there was an aching panic in Emma's heart as she heard those words. But at the same time there was a feeling of relief.

Having been here all this time, she could sort of see clearly that following Caleb all the time in this place in Werland Villa was not really the way to go.

After all, this matter will not end so easily, especially between Alina and Caleb.

Looking at Caleb's attitude, she knew that this man had always had Alina in his heart.

No matter how much Alina makes a scene in front of him, in fact, he has always had Alina in his heart.

And she can't afford to wait.

In that case, give it up for now.

When this matter is now completely behind, she will then think of a way to clean up Alina.

.....

Emma received another call from Brodie, and Brodie told her, "Don't play tricks, or you can't take the consequence."

What kind of tricks could she pull in his presence?

"Brodie, don't push me too far."

Emma said in a stoic tone.

If she had known that the person was in fact long gone, she would never have made the call, bumping into such a trap.

"It's time." Brodie reminded Emma.

Emma, "..."

Yes, it's time.

Emma took a deep breath, holding back her anger, trying to be calm.

But in fact, at the moment, her eyes were scarlet.

"Give me another day."

"Emma!"

"I don't have money even if you force me to die. So, might as well give me a day, don't you think?"

She made her position clear and stated that she really didn't have money, and now, she was buying time.

"OK, I'll give you one more day, and if you don't give it to me after that, I'll..."

"Got it."

When she got the answer, Emma went limp in her wheelchair, hanging up the phone.

The world is thus quiet.

All that remained was the sound of Emma's ragged breathing.

"Alina! Brodie!" She took these two names to heart.

One day, she would get back at them.

People don't always come out on the losing side, do they? In this regard, Emma is very confident.

And she believes that she won't always be on the losing side, so wait, until she gets up.

Then, see how she'll deal with these two.

.....

Caleb sent Emma away.

This was something that no one had expected, as Alina's eyes instantly darkened and Chester obviously sensed Alina's change in mood.

Pulling her hand over, he said, "I'll let Hector go and chase her back."

"She can't leave Ingford." Alina said in a deep, implacable tone.

Caleb is really protective of Emma, even got rid of Emma at this juncture...

"Okay."

Chester nodded.

And he was unconditionally on her side at this moment, which somewhat made Alina's heart feel better.

At least let her know that she is at least not on her own when it comes to dealing with these most difficult things in life.

In the end, Caleb was completely on Emma's side.

Why would he get rid of Emma at this juncture? Is it because he had found out the truth?

If he really knew those so-called truths and still got Emma away, then this man indeed was disappointing.

.....

Alina, Chester and the others rushed back to Ingford, this time Chester was probably dealing with Emma's matter.

Therefore, he directly had Alina sent back to Mulherd Manor.

She didn't expect to see Caleb waiting for her when she got out of the car.

Marry and the butler were on one side, looking apprehensively at Alina who got out of the car and looked at Caleb with such a discontented look.

Looking at the two of them, Alina knew that Caleb had not been here for a short time.

She took a deep breath and stepped forward.

At this moment, no one knew exactly what was repressing Alina's heart.

"Marry."

“Yes, Miss.”

“You guys go ahead and get some rest.”

And for Caleb to be waiting here at this hour, he obviously knew that she would come here today.

At some times the man’s heart is actually quite sharp, so why is it that he can be such a jerk when it comes to Emma?

So far, there is no news from Andre, so she guessed that incident happened in a very secretive manner.

But even if there is no news from Andre.

Alina firmly believed that something extraordinary must have happened between these two people, otherwise, according to Caleb’s shrewdness, how could he still protect Emma so much after knowing so many things?

Marry and the butler walked away.

Alina looked at the man in the wheelchair, the corners of his mouth lifted into a sarcastic smile, “You’re protective of her.”

“Leave her alone.”

“You know all about it?” As she said this, Alina’s tone was tight.

Especially in looking at the man’s icy face, Alina felt her heart collapse.

No one knew how cold and hard Alina’s heart had become at this moment.

Previously, when she first learned the news, she was even able to cry in front of Chester and have weakness in front of him.

But no matter how much those things really touched the softest part of her heart.

However, when confronted with Caleb because of those things, her body was even more instantly rising up with a thorny hardness.

Caleb, “Alina, she won’t do those things, so why are you pushing her so hard?”

At the sound of the words, Alina was shocked.

So, this man still doesn’t know, but even if he doesn’t know anything, he will still protect Emma, won’t he?