

I'm Richer Than My Billionaire Ex-husband Chapter 76

Three years ago, no matter who took Alina, it doesn't change the fact that he was going to use Alina at the time.

Originally from that surgery, he wanted to give her some compensation, but he did not expect to end up with that tragic end.

And Alina didn't know that Caleb was referring to something that happened three years ago, and she referred to that marriage that they were both trying to get out of.

"Yours, all of it." Her words were spoken with such conviction.

The air was quiet for a few moments.

A few moments later, the man laughed, with a cold smile at the corner of his mouth, "You are greedy."

"Although I don't lack money, but Caleb, this is the price you should pay."

Betrayers deserve to pay the price.

Originally the affair of Caleb and Emma could not be tolerated, but she did not pursue it.

Now since she is to take care of these things, it must be handled cleanly.

Alina, "Caleb, I've never been with you for money. But this time you made me do it."

It really has nothing to do with needing it or not, it's all a price he must bear.

The man laughed, disgust flashed in his eyes.

Over the years, there have been countless women who wanted to be with him for Caleb's money, and there have been many who have thrown themselves at him.

But in Caleb's mind, Alina is not like those women. She has nothing, but has been raised by the Hughes family with a noble heart.

It's like she doesn't care about anything and doesn't covet anything.

Caleb originally came to Alina for her night with Andre in Shepford Apartments, but he didn't expect it to go this far.

This woman's words are heartbreaking.

The moment he turned around, "Wait."

Alina opened her mouth and called out to him.

The man paused in his steps.

There were light footsteps behind her, and Alina came to him, reaching for his suit pocket.

“You...”

Without waiting for his reaction, Alina fished her driver’s license out of his pocket and shook it in her hand.

“The day you drove my car speeding through a red light, you always have to pay the price for that.”

Not waiting for his reaction, Alina took her driver’s license directly away, and now she is really a vindictive character.

Anyone who messes with her will be returned to her.

Caleb walked away, annoyed.

That evening, Andre received a call from the company, and then rushed to the company in the middle of the night to hold an emergency meeting, in which, the atmosphere is cold.

“So Caleb is sick.” the matter is related to Caleb again.

He had wanted to go to Ingford to spend time with Alina after he had finished his work, but Caleb was now acting like a madman.

But whenever there is something with Alina, the account is all on him.

It just doesn’t end there.

Early the next morning.

Alina took Caleb’s motor vehicle license and driver’s license with her to get the violation processed.

Caleb, who was in a meeting in the conference room, received several messages early in the morning, ‘Tree points at the red light.’

Several messages came, his points have all deducted. Then there is a motor vehicle license suspension information, Caleb did not see the money for the punishment .

But the driver’s license is suspended.

It made his face pale instantly.

The executives in the conference room all felt the chill on Caleb's body at the moment, and the next moment he just said, "That's it for today."

As his words fell, the stuff left immediately and quickly.

When Caleb was left alone, he dialed Alina's phone number, and even through the screen, he wanted to strangle that woman.

Alina's cheerful voice came as she picked up, "Hello."

By the sound of her voice, he can tell that things have been successfully handled by her.

Caleb tugged at the tie around his neck in annoyance, "You're happy?"

"That's for sure, I'm sure happy to defeat a brutal and despotic tycoon like you."

Caleb felt that he couldn't talk to Alina right now, because this woman has a way of making him pissed off.

Now, he is really angry.

Alina, "You don't have to be upset, this is the price you should pay."

How capable is she now of making him pay the price at all times? She's that happy that he's paying the price?

"Your drove the car, I did not wrong you. The camera is very clear."

Caleb was not there, which was quite a problem to deal with.

But the good thing is that now the evidence is very convenient to keep, he can't shrank it off.

Without waiting for Caleb to say anything else, Alina on the other end of the line hung up and Caleb felt his brain hurt.

Alina was so happy now that she hung up the phone and happily drove to the law firm.

When she got up in the morning, she called Andre first and heard that Alina wanted to go through legal proceedings.

It was also a direct recommendation to her a lawyer.

It is said that in the world of Ingford divorce lawyers, she has no record of losing a case.

In the car, the phone vibrated.

“Hello.”

“Is it done?” Andre’s somewhat tired voice came over the phone, obviously the aftermath of last night’s all-night meeting.

Alina, “It was a bit of a hassle, but it’s all done, and I’m driving now.”

“That’s good.”

Now Andre thinks that Alina is really getting better and better.

When she said she wanted to get rid of Caleb, Andre was very supportive.

After all, Grandpa gave Alina a lot.

In addition, when her grandmother and parents left, they also gave her a lot of inheritance.

After being tossed around by Emma, she changed her mind, because she was able to scrape off Caleb’s fortune, and also to break Emma’s heart.

After so many years of ups and downs, she naturally knows some people are not allowed to give in.

Emma and Caleb are typical of such people.

She hung up Andre’s phone.

Alina then went to his appointed law firm, and on the phone Andre didn’t say that Caleb was making things difficult again against VIG.

These are not Alina’s concerns either.

Now she just needs to take care of Ingford and get back to Shirling without any problems.
