

Imitator 149

Chapter 149: Prisoner's Dilemma

Qin Yao asked in confusion, "But you could also be deceived!"

"If Community 4 wants to accept you, they'd have to kick out a member!"

"Aren't you afraid that someday you'll also be kicked out using the same method?"

Han Mengying, who was watching the drama unfold from the sidelines, laughed, "What a foolish beauty. Let me explain."

"First, we've already confirmed Luo Wei's inclusion in Community 4 through the game rules."

"After certification by the game rules, we cannot change or go back on it. Once this game ends, Luo Wei will return to Community 4 with us."

"Second, our Community 4 has a completely different ecology. I control the vast majority of community proposals, and in the core management, female elites hold the dominant position."

"We happen to need an actuary like her and can give sufficient voice."

"Not only that, we also deliberately keep some 'waste.'

"Unlike your community's ecology, we don't worship these wastes like ancestors, but make them useful at specific times.

"Like the current situation."

She patted Community 4's male player 'Sun De,' who had remained silent, saying mercilessly, "He's one of the wastes we keep.

"Although we've already kicked him out, for him now, there's no other choice but to continue obeying obediently.

"He's still a Conglomerate player in this game. As long as he plays well, he can take out a large sum of visa time after the game ends.

"Going to a new community isn't that hard to accept, is it?

"The weak don't deserve the right to choose.

"I know what you're thinking. You might try to turn him? Accept him?

"If you can trust him, then by all means try. But he might not be as honest as he appears."

Han Mengying looked at Luo Wei again, "As for our new member, although she's still a Civilian in the game, before leaving the game, we'll use game mechanisms to transfer some wealth to her.

"Ensuring she can also earn returns similar to Conglomerates in the game.

"This is much more than the visa time she'd earn staying with you, right?"

Qin Yao was very angry, "Luo Wei, you'll regret this. Lawyer Lin is the strongest!"

Luo Wei sighed, "Enough, Qin Yao. I have eyes, I'll make my own judgment.

"I admit Lawyer Lin is strong, but how far can he go when he's always dragging burdens during games?"

"Take this game, for instance. He was indeed smart, seeing the method to seize Conglomerate identity through the hidden mechanism of work buttons from the beginning, just like Han Mengying.

"But why was it ultimately Community 4 that seized the opportunity and delivered the decisive blow to end the game?"

"Because Lawyer Lin is often forced to drag the community's burdens forward, having to take high-risk actions, but such actions easily alert others.

"Moreover, weak people in the same community are his weakness. Others can target him through these weaknesses.

"Some special strategies that require abandoning the weak cannot be used.

"Community 17 having Lawyer Lin is tremendous luck, but what I'm not optimistic about is Community 17 as a whole.

"If the New World is a battle royale, then only communities with the highest organization and most reasonable structure can survive. One person's strength cannot fight against such major trends.

"Since I've decided to leave, of course I must make the most decisive decision."

Han Mengying smiled, "So this is not only a victory of strategy, but also a victory of community ideology.

"Our community's ideology naturally attracts the strong, so we will inevitably become stronger and stronger."

Qin Yao was still angry, but she really couldn't find better reasons to refute.

Fan Zehui looked at the remaining 3 people from Community 17 and quickly realized this had become an unsolvable situation.

Since Luo Wei had decided to betray, she would inevitably fight for maximum benefits in this game. This was not only submitting a pledge of allegiance to Community 4, but also maximizing the benefits of this betrayal.

Sun De, who was kicked out, was Community 4's cannon fodder player.

Although kicked out, he would still slavishly dedicate himself to Community 4 until the last moment of this game.

Community 17 could certainly try to accept Sun De, but this would not be wise.

Accepting him wouldn't just mean accepting a waste, but accepting a bomb that could explode at any time.

Although Community 17 didn't mind helping the weak in their community, this didn't mean they'd accept any trash.

Now, the remaining 7 players were once again caught in a prisoner's dilemma.

As long as 3 people harbored wishful thinking, not wanting their already-obtained wealth to shrink, and chose to work, then the remaining 4 people would be completely abandoned with no chance of turning things around.

He Ming began constantly giving Fan Zehui meaningful looks.

Fan Zehui knew that He Ming currently had the least visa time in Community 12.

Previously Zhou Rong and Zhou Guifen hadn't had much visa time either, but they had at least earned some from the 'Blind Date Game,' so it wasn't so urgent.

If He Ming was deducted 50,000, his remaining visa time would definitely be completely cleared.

Returning to the community, even if they urgently passed a proposal, the future would be uncertain.

Rather than placing hope in the community's emergency proposals, better to compromise and bow now, steadily taking these scraps.

As long as 50,000 wasn't deducted, everything would be fine.

Seeing Fan Zehui had no reaction, He Ming stopped waiting.

"Sorry! But I really don't have much visa time left!"

He Ming also stood by an empty button.

There were two final spots left.

Fan Zehui felt the situation was hopeless. Obviously, even if the remaining six people persisted, they absolutely couldn't persist for ten rounds.

That was too far away.

Each game round, everyone's wealth would shrink, and this psychological pressure would continuously accumulate.

Fan Zehui looked at Zhou Guifen and Zhou Rong, sighing, "Forget it, we lost.

"Among our four people, I have the most visa time.

"You two go."

Zhou Guifen showed a shocked expression, "What nonsense are you talking about!

"Eight buttons! As long as one person is missing, they can't succeed!

"Why should we give in! Why!

"I absolutely won't go. If you want to go, you go!"

However, Zhou Rong beside her took the first step, lowering her head and walking to a work button.

"Forget it, Aunt Zhou. Things have come to this, let's accept it.

"If you don't want to be the bad guy, then let us young people be the bad guys. You can scold me however you want when we return to the community, but we really can't have fifty thousand deducted..."

Zhou Rong kept her head down, somewhat afraid to look Zhou Guifen in the eyes.

Zhou Guifen was very anxious. She looked at Zhou Rong, then at Fan Zehui, "Think about it again, think about it more, okay?"

Fan Zehui sighed. Seeing Zhou Guifen's firm attitude, he could only occupy the last button position himself.

Zhou Guifen's eyes were full of despair.

Fan Zehui didn't know how to face her either, so he could only lower his head like Zhou Rong, avoiding her gaze.
