Chapter 98: New Year's Visit

"Yes, son understands!" Feng Hua responded obediently.

Yet he also realized that finding her now was indeed difficult.

He could only cautiously and quietly inquire, not causing her the slightest trouble!

Why so persistent?

Feng Wushuang didn't know, he just felt that he had to find her!

What to do after finding her, Feng Wushuang didn't know!

Returning to his room, Feng Wushuang held a book but could no longer concentrate on a single word, sitting desolately until dawn.

The New Year's Eve passed, and the new year arrived.

Although the Yun Family wasn't the most prestigious, Yun Chen's official position was the highest in the immediate family.

Early in the morning, uncles and aunts from the main family brought their unmarried children over, and both the elderly lady and Mrs. He gave out New Year's purses.

Many people flattered the elderly lady and Mrs. He.

The children surrounded Xu Xinmo and Yun Muyou along with her sisters, enviously praising their clothes and appearance. Cixin Academy was indeed bustling with excitement.

Yun Jinnian first went to Qiyue Academy, wishing Mrs. Han and Yun Qi a happy new year. After having breakfast at Qiyue Academy and staying for a while, he and Mrs. Han headed to Cixin Academy.

Yun Qi was called away by someone from the front courtyard.

"Scared?" Mrs. Han asked softly in a low voice.

Yun Jinnian shook his head, "Not scared!"

Perhaps it was because of that dream, Yun Jinnian wasn't afraid. Facing the elderly lady's displeasure, Yun Jinnian didn't mind as much.

The elderly lady didn't regard her as a granddaughter, and she wouldn't regard her as a grandmother either.

"Don't be afraid, mother is here for you, no one can bully you!" Mrs. Han said as she led Yun Jinnian to Cixin Academy.

Behind them, a maid from Qiyue Academy carried a tray. On the tray were several golden hairpins, specially crafted by the jewelry shop under Mrs. Han's orders, and had only been delivered to Qiyue Academy the night before.

Entering Cixin Academy together, the young ladies playing in the yard suddenly quieted down, each gazing at Yun Jinnian.

She looked delicate as a lotus with a complexion as flawless as the finest jade, her eyebrows like distant misty mountains. Her beautiful eyes sparkled with moisture, yet remained undisturbed, and her slight smile revealed neatly ordered, pearly teeth.

Her hair was intricately tied in a hanging bun, adorned with two strings of clinking precious Treasure Beads. Her black hair cascaded down her back, and her small, white ears, free of any adornments, showed her full, plump earlobes.

She wore a well-tailored bright red dress that made her look like an auspicious doll, causing an irresistible joy in those who saw her.

And the sharp-eyed naturally noticed that the fabric on Yun Jinnian was pale smoke soft gauze.

"..."

Facing a courtyard full of young ladies, then glancing at the dumbfounded Xu Xinmo and Yun Muyou with her sisters, Mrs. Han smiled and said, "Jinnian, first go in with me to wish your grandmother a happy new year, then you can come out to play with your sisters!"

"Yes!"

Yun Jinnian followed Mrs. Han into the parlor. The noise inside suddenly quieted down, and everyone looked at Mrs. Han in surprise.

A woman sent to a rural estate returns not haggard but full of spirit, her elegance overpowering everyone in the room with just a gesture or a step.

"Mother, sister-in-law, and all my sisters-in-law and sisters, I apologize for my late arrival!"

Mrs. Han said, smiling sincerely and innocently.

Yun Jinnian also bowed slightly, "I've seen grandmother and all the uncles, and aunts!"

Just as the elderly lady was about to speak, Mrs. Han interrupted, "Alright, go outside and play with your sisters, and also give them the gifts mother has prepared!"

"Yes, Mother!"

Yun Jinnian bowed again and left Cixin Academy.

But she was somewhat worried about Mrs. Han.

Mrs. Han glanced at her, signaling Yun Jinnian to be at ease.

Yun Jinnian left the parlor and looked at the thirty-some cousins staring at her, and with a slight smile said, "Jinnian has seen all the sisters!"
