

Chapter 14

The handsome man who suddenly appeared held Ronald's hand and said in a cold and unassailable tone, "It is illegal to hit others at will. Please calm down, sir!"

After being pinched hard by a stranger, Ronald was so painful that he gritted his teeth. He glared at William and said, "It's none of your business."

William released Ronald's arm and dragged Valeria to him, who was completely stunned.

He was indifferent and said, "It's none of my business. But you're a celebrity, Mr. Brown. Aren't you afraid of being in the spotlight?"

His words made Ronald realize that he was too impulsive.

It was a busy place. And it would bring him into discredit if someone exposed this scandal.

Thinking of this, Ronald suppressed his anger and looked at Ashley and Mason with displeasure.

However, it was their mistakes. Though Valeria was irrational, they should not stop and question her in public.

He was unhappy, but he didn't say anything due to Mason's status. He glared at Valeria and said, "I'll get even with you!"

After saying this, Ronald strode into the the Central South Building. While Ashley felt a little guilty when she looked at Ronald.

After all, there was more than twenty-year kinship between Ronald and Valeria. Ashley was doomed if her conspiracy was found out by Ronald.

She glared at the man, who stood in her way furiously, while the man was also looking at her chillily.

Ashley shivered and grabbed Mason's hand, "Mason, let's go."

The charming and dignified man came out of nowhere. Mason refused to leave and wondered about the relationship between Valeria and the man.

Mason felt extremely annoyed when he saw Valeria was in the man's arm. He was not afraid of losing face, so he looked at the man indifferently and questioned, "Who are you? Don't make trouble with me!"

"Why should I tell you?" William also looked at Mason indifferently. Mason couldn't help but shiver at the way the man looked at him.

What the hell! He was kind of a celebrity. Why would he be afraid of the man for no reason?

The man held Valeria's hand and walked away when Mason was in a daze.

Mason was going to explode when he saw Valeria clasping the man's hand.

"How can she be so shameless?"

Ashley was upset when she saw Mason's reaction. She thought that Mason still had feelings for Valeria.

She came up with a vicious thought and said, "How dare she to ask you for evidence? Their intimacy had proved everything!"

Mason was furious when he heard what Ashley said. He believed that Ashley was right and Valeria did cheat on him.

The strange man who appeared all of a sudden was better than him in every aspect. Mason couldn't help but feel inferior. 8

He convinced himself that the man had nothing except a handsome face. What's more, the man might even be a millionaire.

Mason tried to make himself feel better in this way, but the next second, he saw the man driving a Maybach and coming over with Valeria.

Mason couldn't believe his eyes and felt sucks.

Send Gift

Comments