

Chapter 18

"Mom, try it. This cake tastes good, and the Tiramisu is also quite delicious."

"Ashley is talking to someone? Is she talking to Julie?"

"Why does Ashley take her shameless mother here?"

Valeria felt strange, so she didn't enter the room immediately. Instead, she stood outside and listened carefully.

Julie had a piece of Tiramisu and said, "It tastes really good. I'll have one more!"

"Eat as much as you like. It's time for us to enjoy our life. Dad agreed to let us live with him. I'll take you here every day so that you can live like a noble."

"You're right. It's my turn to enjoy the noble life. At that time, I was so envious of Natalie Garcia. She got countless jewelry and servants. When I moved in, I would take possession of all her jewelry. It is said that her jewels are very expensive and must be worth a lot of money."

Hearing Julie's words, Valeria could not help but sneer. This mistress was really greedy and shameless. Valeria couldn't believe that Julie wanted to take her mother's jewelry away. "She must be out of her mind," Valeria thought.

Valeria continued to stand outside and eavesdrop.

Ashley retorted, "You're right. You tell Dad to give you all the jewelry, and then you give it to me. So that Valeria won't be able to get anything."

"Perfect. All sufferings have their reward. If you think about where we were before and look at where we are now, you would know that the winners are made by hard work."

Valeria couldn't believe that the shameless mistress said such philosophical words. Soon they changed the topic.

"You see, Natalie and Valeria have an advantage over us, but they are stupid. Natalie thought that your father loved her so much, but she never imagined that your father cheated on her. So did Valeria. She is nothing but beautiful. She is as stupid as her mother!" 2

Hearing Julie scolded herself and her mother unscrupulously, Valeria was so furious that she could not bear it anymore. She pushed the door and barged in. 3

There were two people sitting on the sofa. One was Ashley and the other was the woman she had seen at Wolf Group that night. 1

Seeing Valeria burst into the room, they seemed to be embarrassed, "When did you come?" Ashley asked.

"I've been here for a while." Valeria sneered and looked at Julie.

"If I hadn't come here, I wouldn't have known what you're up to. You're such a shameless b*tch. How dare you try to take my mother's jewelry away? Who do you think you are?"

"Valeria, what are you talking about?" Ashley stood up in anger.

"Don't play dumb with me. Why don't you ask yourself why you're so despicable to swear me behind my back?"

"Swear? Did I? I was telling nothing but the truth," Julie suddenly became aggressive.

"Your mother is not only stupid but also shameless. She stole my boyfriend. Did she think that they could be together forever? Everything comes at a price. Her death is the punishment from God."

Valeria did not expect that Julie would slander her mother rampantly in front of her.

Julie's words were too vicious. Valeria fulminated with anger and rushed over without thinking.

She reached out and pushed Julie, "Shut your mouth! You can't insult my mother like this!"

As soon as her hand touched Julie, Julie fell back as if she were so frail.

Unexpectedly, Julie fell on the tea table with a horrible scream .

Valeria was freaked out and the only thing she saw was Julie's bleeding forehead. 🩸

Send Gift

Comments