Chapter 1031: I Don't Want to Die!

After the Brutal Evil God lost its sanity, it went utterly mad, completely disregarding its own life and death, deciding to self-destruct whenever it said so.

Anyway, the Evil God is undying, it can be resurrected after death and continue fighting afterward.

As for whether the resurrected Brutal Evil God is the same as the current one, it doesn't care since it has already gone insane.

"No wonder its defense is weak; turns out it doesn't need any."

"Dead is dead, resurrect and continue the battle, self-destructing before death could still drag someone down with it..."

"Truly worthy of being the God of Battle, the God of War..."

Initially, Su Yu saw that the defense of the Brutal Mecha was weak, thinking he had found its weakness, but now he realized it wasn't a weakness at all.

The Brutal Evil God doesn't need defense, only attack!

Buzz...

The Brutal Mecha almost instantly completed the pre-preparation for self-destruction, its chest's Energy Core emanating a terrifying energy fluctuation, emitting a heart-shaking buzzing sound.

This sound is the terrifying noise of energy being extremely compressed, collided, and fused...a sign of death.

Su Yu understood, in just a moment, this Brutal Mecha would explode violently.

At such a close range, in such a short time, Su Yu couldn't escape!

And the power of the Brutal Mecha's explosion, Su Yu couldn't even estimate.

After all, Su Yu had never seen a Fifth-Order expert self-destruct, something probably not many people have seen, and even fewer lived afterwards.

According to Su Yu's estimate anyway, it must be much stronger than the previous Star-Bursting Strike.

Once the Brutal Mecha completes its self-destruction, he is bound to die together with it.

Facing the threat of death, Su Yu's heart turned ruthless:

"Self-destruct, huh? Who's afraid of whom?"

Su Yu also actually mobilized his own power, preparing to self-destruct!

The Brutal Evil God doesn't care about its life and death.

And Su Yu can achieve true resurrection after death, so now he doesn't care about self-destructing either.

He even wants to try and see whose self-destruction is more powerful, his or the Brutal Evil God's?

The chest of the Evil God Soldier Mecha, which Su Yu had transformed into, also flickered with a terrifying light, emitting a heart-stopping buzzing sound, which was also a sign of self-destruction.

"After self-destruction, the disturbance will surely be huge and might attract Qi Chen. After self-destruction, I will revive again in the Subspace Deep Layer, but that Resurrection Point has already been found by Qi Chen, so I need to change it. But I don't know how to change the resurrection location, better use the paradox once again. By the way, also change the Resurrection Point of the Brutal Evil God..."

"Also, with the true Evil God Undying realized through the Profession Panel, I don't know if there will be any hidden dangers or limitations? This second death must be experienced well to fully understand the secrets within."

Before self-destruction, Su Yu quickly pondered, already arranging his "afterthoughts".

Though he doesn't fear death, but since he "finally" gets to die again, Su Yu certainly won't just say dead is dead casually.

He must take advantage of this death opportunity to thoroughly study the secrets of life and death.

By the way, take care of all the hidden dangers to avoid seeing Qi Chen waiting at the resurrection point right after reviving, that would be laughable.

Su Yu swiftly arranged everything in his mind for "afterthoughts", at this moment only a fraction of a second remained until self-destruction.

However, Su Yu suddenly stopped, all his energy halted at the critical point before self-destruction.

It wasn't that Su Yu wanted to stop, but because the Brutal Mecha suddenly stopped its self-destruction process, so seeing this, Su Yu stopped, wanting to see what this guy was trying to do?

"Help me..."

A moment later, Su Yu heard a voice.

Immediately, Su Yu's expression turned intriguing, because this voice was very familiar to Su Yu, it was precisely the Brutal Evil God with whom he'd dealt many times.

It seemed that the Brutal Evil God, right before self-destruction, regained its sanity from madness.

However, at this moment, this brutal, insidious, domineering, and cruel Great Evil God, after regaining sanity, was actually asking Su Yu for help in a low and humble voice?!

Seeking help from Su Yu, its longtime enemy?

It didn't use any pretentious language, nor did it refer to itself as "Myself", but simply said, "Help me."

It seemed merely like a drowning person trying to grasp the last straw of life.

This was indeed peculiar.

Is this really the Brutal Great Evil God Su Yu knows?

Su Yu didn't believe a single word from the brutal guy, didn't believe its plea for help, instead analyzing in his heart whether this guy had some conspiracy, trying to use verbal dialogue to launch Spiritual Erosion?

As Su Yu activated his spiritual power for a "self-check", he maintained a state ready to self-destruct at any moment.

Although he sensed that the Brutal Evil God might have some conspiracy, Su Yu wasn't in a rush to self-destruct or fight.

Anyway, since the Brutal Evil God neither fought nor self-destructed now, Su Yu could follow its words, exchange a few sentences, to see if he could probe out what kind of mischief the Brutal Evil God was up to.

"What do you mean?"

Su Yu pondered for a moment, then asked in a deep voice.

"Help me, I don't want to die! I can't die! I absolutely mustn't die! I don't want to die!"

Hearing Su Yu's response, the Brutal Evil God immediately vibrated its spiritual power, emitting a frantic sound.

This sound seemed to be the fusion of countless dying people's cries, extremely piercing and bizarre.

This "chorus" of countless cries for help, upon hearing it, made Su Yu's expression change involuntarily.

It wasn't just sound anymore, but an extremely strong will to survive.

That will seemed to be the extinction of a civilization, the shattering of the Galaxy, the annihilation of the Universe...no matter what happened, it didn't want, wasn't willing to die!

Regardless of facing any circumstance, no matter what the cost, it wanted to live, wanted to retain its self-awareness!

Chapter 1032: Don't Want to Die! (2)

Su Yu had never felt such a strong will to survive, at least Su Yu himself never had such a strong will to survive.

Although Su Yu didn't want to die, he wasn't afraid of death either.

Su Yu had repeatedly found himself rising from the ashes of certain death, and in critical moments, he was unafraid to pay dearly, daring to fight with everything he had.

Sometimes, only by not fearing death can one avoid it.

In a crucial moment, you must fight with all you've got.

If he fought with all his might and still it was useless, Su Yu would also accept death calmly.

Previously, Su Yu was nearly killed by Qi Chen's attack.

In the final moment before his death, Su Yu quietly reminisced about the past, never considering begging Qi Chen for mercy; this was Su Yu's resolve.

In the final instant of recalling the past, Su Yu found the method to break the impasse from his memories and successfully utilized the Power of Paradox to seize the godhood of the Pain Evil God, then used the Evil God Undying to resurrect and make a comeback.

This was another form of rising from the ashes of certain death.

If Su Yu at the brink of life and death had succumbed to Qi Chen, begged for mercy, and handed over all secrets to save his life, then truly he would have been beyond redemption.

But now, the will to survive revealed in the Brutal Evil God's words was earth-shattering.

An existence with such a will would never deliberately throw itself into a life and death crisis, and would never engage in any desperate moves to get a second chance.

Facing a desperate situation, it would never calmly accept death, instead using every means possible to protect itself, with dignity and perseverance taking a backseat to survival.

"Is this the most fundamental will of Brutality? Survival? It shouldn't be called the Brutal Evil God, but the Scared-to-Death Evil God instead..."

"I understand now..."

Su Yu realized in his heart that just now that will had been the Brutal Evil God opening up its most fundamental will, its deepest secrets, for Su Yu to see.

Even an ordinary person has privacy and would not be willing to reveal their deepest thoughts and secrets to others.

Let alone a Fifth-Order Great Evil God who has lived for millennia?

Especially such an embarrassing secret?

The Brutal Evil God, unbelievably afraid of death!

Yet the Brutal Evil God had just done exactly that!

It did so to gain Su Yu's trust, to make Su Yu believe that its plea for mercy was genuine!

The Brutal Evil God had just asked Su Yu for help, not as part of a plot, but genuinely for help!

At this moment, its spirit was being eroded by the Origin of Brutality, on the verge of self-destruction.

It didn't have a Profession Panel like Su Yu did, unable to truly achieve Evil God Undying.

Once the self-destruction is complete, Brutality would truly be dead!

The resurrected Brutal Evil God would have nothing to do with it anymore.

"No wonder the Brutal Split Mind formation I sealed and made into a Brutal Core long ago gave rise to such powerful fears and even created a Fear Intelligence..."

Su Yu couldn't help but recall the past.

Just after advancing to the Third-Order, Su Yu captured a Third-Order Brutal Split Mind alive and sealed it as an Energy Core.

At that time, the sleeping Brutal Split Mind in sealing emitted exceedingly strong fear emotions, so much that it even infected the Battle Armor's intelligence.

Su Yu was somewhat surprised at the time.

Could an Evil God also fear, also be afraid of death?

At that time, Su Yu assumed this too was part of the Evil God's great power, the fear of the Evil God being a strange and mighty force, with even a bit of emotion creating a Fear Intelligence, truly formidable.

Su Yu even wondered whether the Brutal Evil God wasn't satisfied with the Brutality Domain and had instead penetrated the [Fear] domain, so such strong fear emotions emerged.

Did the Brutal Evil God have some grand plan involving higher-level forces?

Power of Brutality plus Power of Fear? What's this?

Anyway, Su Yu hadn't seen the physical embodiment of the Brutal Evil God at that time, assuming it was almighty.

Recalling now, Su Yu understood that back then the Brutal Evil God had no grand plan or strange conspiracy.

It was simply terrified of death! Terrified to the extreme!

Even just a split mind was terrified to the extreme, thus the emergence of such intense fear emotions.

However, that time the Brutal Split Mind was quite stubborn, even until it was brainwashed into an idiot by the Power of Nihilism, it never revealed how terrified of death it truly was to Su Yu.

Perhaps that split mind ultimately wasn't the true body, so the fear of death wasn't as pronounced.

Eventually, that split mind also died calmly, without begging or exposing secrets.

But now, the true body of the Brutal Evil God, with its survival and fear of death so intense, it almost formed a certain rule, akin to Song Ming's Power of World Salvation, the Brutal Evil God almost awakened some "Fear of Death Power" because of it.

Under such a vehement survival will, the Brutal Evil God disregarded everything, directly pleading Su Yu for help.

"To think, my ultimate enemy all along was such a cowardly being afraid of death..."

After understanding everything, Su Yu felt at a loss for words.

Who could have thought the insidious and mysterious Brutal Evil God would be so scared of death, utterly shameful!

Thinking back, all Su Yu's efforts and analyses made to combat the Brutal Evil God felt somewhat over-exerted.

Such a being as the Brutal Evil God didn't deserve Su Yu's efforts and serious attention at all!

"Forget it, a new formidable enemy Qi Chen has emerged now, all the previous planning and effort hasn't been wasted..."

Su Yu consoled himself, though there remained a simmering anger in his heart.

He quickly composed his thoughts and asked coldly, "Why should I save you?"

The Brutal Evil God was scared of death indeed, but the evil deeds committed were countless.

Directly and indirectly, it is unknown how many hundreds of millions have died at its hands.

Su Yu himself had nearly died at its hands numerous times.

Why should Su Yu save such a great foe?

Let this disgraceful entity self-destruct and be done with it. Anyway, its memory will be retained after resurrection.

"I am useful! I am useful!"

"I am the Radiant Prince, I know many secrets! I'll tell you everything!"

"If I die, I will permanently erase some memories before dying, you will never obtain them!"

Sensing the killing intent in Su Yu's tone, the Brutal Evil God said urgently.

And without waiting for Su Yu's answer, it transmitted a wealth of information to him.

Among which were some information and secrets Su Yu wanted to know.

For example, everything about the Brutal Evil God's past when it was still the Radiant Prince.

With a thought, Su Yu had digested and absorbed this information.

"So that's how it is..."

Su Yu truly understood the origins of the Brutal Evil God.

Back then, the Brutal Evil God was a Radiant Prince cultivated by the Human Empire using advanced technology.

This prince was named: Brutality.

Its only goal of cultivation then was to steal the origin of a slumbering entity [Brutality] deep in the Subspace.

According to the calculations of Imperial technicians, should the Subspace Entity [Brutality] awaken, it would bring enormous disaster to the Empire.

This Subspace Entity possessed tremendous combat power, being fearlessly impervious to death, capable of limitless resurrection, endless fighting, endless killing, infinite evolution, and unending activity!

If it were allowed to evolve to its limit, it could even attain a level close to the great Emperor!

However, if this entity could be controlled, it could add another powerful force to the Empire, waging war for the Empire, against cosmic alien species deep in the Universe.

During those days, in the depths of the Universe, the Human Empire and Cosmic Alien Species were constantly engaged in harsh and extensive cosmic warfare.

Not even the might of the Empire could completely solve those cosmic alien species, with the Human Empire even at a disadvantage on some battlefields.

Thus, more and stronger forces were absolutely necessary!

Hence, the prince "Brutality" was cultivated for this reason.

The prince "Brutality" was cultivated in the laboratory using cells and genes from the Radiant Emperor combined with a portion of the Subspace Entity [Brutality]'s Origin.

At birth, he possessed Fourth-Order Power of Brutality, extraordinarily powerful in combat.

Moreover, through meticulous cultivation, the Prince of Brutal was able to maintain his sobriety and rationality under such Power of Brutal.

And so, under the meticulous care of the technicians, the Prince of Brutal grew little by little, rapidly reaching adulthood.

Chapter 1033: The Past of the Prince of Brutal, Defection!

After reaching adulthood, the Prince of Brutal had already attained Fourth-Order Top Power of Brutal, yet he was still able to maintain his sanity.

Throughout this process, Imperial personnel continuously instilled in the Prince of Brutal the concept of loyalty to the Empire and humanity.

His Power of Brutal would only be unleashed upon the Cosmic Alien Species.

After a series of complex and precise preparations, the experiment moved to the next phase.

The technicians employed the Empire's Fate Replacement technology to exchange the Prince of Brutal's fate with that of the Subspace entity "Brutal."

If successful, this powerful Subspace entity would be controlled by the Empire, becoming a formidable weapon for humanity!

The experiment proceeded smoothly, and Imperial technicians soon detected the thought fluctuations of the Prince of Brutal within the origin of the Subspace entity "Brutal."

After a period of Fate Replacement, the ancient entity "Brutal," slumbering in the Subspace Deep Layer, finally awakened.

Or rather, the Prince of Brutal awakened.

The awakened one, no, at this point, should be referred to as "It."

At this moment, after the Fate Replacement, the Prince of Brutal had become a Fifth-Order Planet-Level being.

Being Fifth-Order was considered high-level power within the Human Empire at the time!

However, for the Prince of Brutal, this was merely the beginning.

It had significant room for growth and possessed the origin of the Subspace entity "Brutal." Given time, It could evolve to a level approaching the Radiant Emperor!

The experiment was still ongoing.

The technicians carefully examined the mental state of the Prince of Brutal and found that It seemed entirely unaffected by emotions of brutality, incredibly rational and composed, indicating that the experiment was exceedingly successful.

Indeed, it was far more successful than the most ideal state predicted in calculations.

The technicians couldn't even comprehend why the Prince showed no tendencies towards madness or loss of control, how It could remain so clear-minded and rational?

After multiple unsuccessful investigations, the technicians could only admire that the Prince, indeed fitting of royalty, possessed the genes of the Radiant Emperor, which were truly extraordinary.

Given the Prince's unbelievably sound mental state, the experiment was set to proceed to the next phase.

The next phase of the experiment was to continue cultivating the Prince of Brutal, stimulating the power of Brutality's origin, allowing the Prince to reach Sixth-Order.

It was during this phase that rebellion occurred!

The technicians were unaware that during the Fate Replacement, on the mental level, a mutation occurred within the Prince of Brutal.

This mutation was not due to erosion by the Brutality's origin, becoming crazed and ruthless, but rather turned extremely...

Afraid of death!

Indeed, afraid of death!

In fact, since birth, the Prince of Brutal had been continuously indoctrinated with the notion of sacrificing life in loyalty to the Empire.

Even before It was born, these concepts had been imprinted on the genetic and soul levels by Imperial technology, irrevocable and irresistible.

The Empire's soldier cultivation technology was highly advanced, creating warriors born with loyalty, viewing the Empire as everything, the Emperor as supreme, seeing death in battle as glory.

The Prince of Brutal was naturally the same.

Due to its special status, it received the Empire's most advanced technology.

Such a Prince of Brutal was supposed to be like other Empire Soldiers, seeing the Empire as everything, the Emperor as supreme, viewing death in battle as glory.

Moreover, the Prince of Brutal had countless opportunities for "glory" unlike other warriors.

The Prince of Brutal knew from the beginning that Its mission was to seize Brutality's origin and then repeatedly die and revive, forever fighting and evolving, with no end.

Every death in battle was true death, true glory.

After dying in battle, a new prince would be born within Brutality's origin, inheriting glory and memories, continuing to fight!

Meaning, the Prince of Brutal understood from birth that Its existence was destined for rushing toward death!

Originally, It possessed an extremely long lifespan, but upon reaching adulthood, faced only death!
Voluntarily fighting, voluntarily seeking death!

It wouldn't care.

Not because of madness but because of reason, loyalty, and glory!

Death was glory, ordinary soldiers had one chance, but the Prince of Brutal had countless opportunities for glory!

Everything was supposed to be this way.

However, at the crucial moment of the experiment, during the Fate Replacement, the innate loyalty and glory of the Prince of Brutal inexplicably mutated.

Become...

Afraid of death!

Or more precisely, a survival instinct!

An incredibly strong survival instinct!

As the prince's will began to integrate into Brutality's origin, the process was extremely painful, perhaps comparable to the true Power of Hellish Suffering.

Amid that pain, transcending biological limits, a thought suddenly emerged within the firm will of the Prince of Brutal: "Why! Why must I endure such pain?"

Since birth, the prince had been enduring various brutal experiments, each agonizing.

Yet Its resolve was unwavering, never altered, with only loyalty and glory in mind.

But now, suddenly, It wavered.

Why? Why must It suffer so?

Upon the emergence of this question, another followed: "Why? Why am I destined to die!"

The prince had long known that once Fate Replacement was complete, entering Fifth-Order, the next phase would demand real combat.

Real combat fundamentally equated to suicide.

In every battle, the Prince of Brutal would die in fervent combat, then revive, becoming stronger.

Chapter 1034: The Past of the Prince of Brutal, Defection! (Part 2)

This is the combat method the Prince of Brutal should become accustomed to, the long-awaited supreme glory.

But in this instant, He was puzzled, why? Why must He go to die?

With the emergence of this question, an unprecedented emotion arose spontaneously.

That is... fear! Fear of death!

Although the Prince of Brutal had never enjoyed life, He suddenly had an extreme fear of death.

Along with the appearance of fear was an extremely intense will to survive!

He did not want to die! He refused to die! No matter what, He must not die!

What humans, what Imperial, what Radiant Emperor, none were as important as His life!

With such a strong will, the Prince of Brutal completed the exchange and entered sleep.

After an unknown amount of time, He awoke again, having reached Fifth-Order, possessing the trait of Evil God Undying.

But He knew that this so-called undying was only undying in terms of power.

This Fifth-Order Power of Brutal was eternally undying, but His self-awareness could die at any time.

The instant He awoke, the Prince of Brutal decided that He would defect!

If He didn't defect, death was certain.

Although He had never seen the Radiant Emperor, as a prince, having the genes of the Radiant Emperor, Brutal deeply understood His "father's" "ruthlessness".

The Prince of Brutal, though called a prince, was essentially a biological weapon, only needing to execute commands, fire at the enemy.

If a weapon shouted "I don't want to die" and refused to fire and explode.

What would await that weapon?

The Prince of Brutal dared not think, nor did He wish to think.

He just wanted to quickly escape this experiment base, escape the Human Empire, get far away from everything.

He just wanted to live well!

So, the Prince of Brutal began preparing.

To defect was incredibly challenging, even though He was now a Fifth-Order.

This experiment base where the Prince of Brutal was cultivated had an extremely high security level.

Even Sixth-Order might not be able to escape from here safely.

Moreover, merely escaping from this base was of little use, outside the base was the vast Imperial territory, with nowhere to escape.

Fortunately, the Prince of Brutal was very clear-headed and astute, using innate wisdom to seek a real opportunity to escape.

He secretly suppressed His power growth, postponing real combat, while continuously gathering intelligence, trying to find a chance to break free.

Finally, He found it!

The experiment base where the Prince of Brutal was located had many Galaxy Warriors stationed for defense.

There were a total of ten Galaxy Warrior battalions stationed here, including ten Fifth-Order battalion commanders, hundreds of Fourth-Order squad leaders, and a large number of Third-Order warriors.

These were merely a part of the defense forces for this experiment base.

So normally, the Prince of Brutal was fundamentally impossible to escape.

The turning point originated from these Galaxy Warriors.

During a certain training session, the Prince of Brutal heard a few Galaxy Warriors chatting, mentioning a strange event.

It was that near a planet on the Empire Frontier named Azure Star, a group of... time travelers had appeared!

Those travelers were a group of Galaxy Warriors.

According to that group of time travelers, their battalion had received intelligence that Azure Star had been out of contact with the Empire for a century, the highest commander of the planet, Zhang Chenfeng, suspected of rebellion.

Thus, the Empire sent the "Betrayal" battle team to quell the rebellion.

However, when they boarded a starship, crossed the endless cosmic vacuum, and arrived at the Azure Star System, only seventeen of their team remained.

The other teams, including the immensely powerful Fifth-Order battalion commanders comparable to planets, were nowhere to be found!

This Galaxy Warrior team was bewildered, clueless about what had occurred, and then got captured by Zhang Chenfeng from Azure Star.

Of course, Zhang Chenfeng had not rebelled, instead considered this team's sudden appearance highly suspicious.

Following an interrogation, it was finally confirmed that this Galaxy Warrior team was not from this spacetime.

But had crossed over from some "future" spacetime.

In the perspective of this seventeen-member team, they were aboard a starship, yet "arrived early" at their destination by a hundred years.

Equivalent to crossing into the past.

Even in this past spacetime, they met another "self", saw the vanished battalion commanders and squad leaders.

This team suddenly felt stunned...

...

Seeing this information, Su Yu was somewhat surprised.

About this "transmigrator" Galaxy Warrior team, Su Yu had actually known for a long time.

After all, this was the personal experience of Su Yu's old friend, "Galaxy Battle Armor."

Galaxy Battle Armor was the one who had crossed over from that future spacetime.

As for how these guys actually transmigrated, Su Yu did not know, never having the opportunity to explore.

But now, through the memory transmitted by Brutal, part of the truth was revealed.

...

"Transmigrators" had appeared on the Empire frontier, and such a tale quickly spread among the various Galaxy Warrior battalions.

Although the Galaxy Warriors knew the subspace was bizarrely chaotic, where even time was chaotic.

But riding a starship and "arriving early" at the destination was unheard of, very fresh.

Hence these warriors would chat in idle moments.

Some of them even fantasized, theoretically speaking, in the future with endless possibilities, could there be endless Empires?

If the forces of those Empires were united, wouldn't that be invincible?

However, would this likewise attract more Cosmic Alien Species?

These Third-Order Galaxy Warriors, in their idle chatter, had fanciful ideas.

Indeed, these conversations were overheard by the keen Prince of Brutal.

Upon hearing this intelligence, the Prince of Brutal instantly contemplated, acutely discovering the opportunity for defection.

Because of His distinct identity, the Prince of Brutal knew more secret knowledge than the average Galaxy Warrior.

His genes innately contained some of the Radiant Emperor's knowledge.

Meanwhile, after successfully exchanging with the subspace entity "Brutal," He inherited ancient memories, gaining some unknown secrets.

According to what the Prince of Brutal knew, the Human Empire did not truly possess any "future possibilities."

The Radiant Emperor was immensely powerful, long ago before launching the expedition, He had used an unbelievably strong spiritual energy to consolidate the Human Empire's past and future, encompassing the entire Empire solely in the "present."

Among all spacetime, there existed only one Empire.

This was done to avoid attacks on the spacetime level.

The universe was perilous, and only by consolidating spacetime could oneself be preserved.

Therefore, situations like traveling from future Empires to the present did not exist.

However, this "transmigrator" team had appeared, which was inexplicable.

Nonetheless, according to the Prince of Brutal, history had recorded several such instances of transmigrators.

The emergence of such a situation implied one thing, that was... the power of the Radiant Emperor had appeared vulnerable!

A certain force had broken the temporal blockade set by the Radiant Emperor for the Human Empire, allowing a "future possibility" to emerge.

Such that this transmigrator team appeared.

They were from unknown realms beyond the Emperor's power.

And this represented the Prince of Brutal's hope for escape!

The Prince of Brutal knew well that merely escaping from this experiment base was of no use.

The power of the Radiant Emperor was terrifying; even should He flee billions of light-years, perhaps the Radiant Emperor with a single thought would capture Him back.

Even escaping beyond the Imperial territory was pointless.

Because the Prince of Brutal bore the genes of the Radiant Emperor, no matter where He was, even on the far side of the universe, He was essentially within the Imperial territory, under the Emperor's watchful gaze.

Thus, for the Prince of Brutal to escape, He must flee beyond the scope of the Radiant Emperor's observation.

Under normal circumstances, that was impossible! At least with the Prince of Brutal's current Fifth-Order strength, it was not possible.

However, near Azure Star where this transmigrator team was located, the power of the Radiant Emperor had appeared vulnerable!

As long as He found this vulnerability, He could escape the Emperor's observation and gain freedom!

Then...

Then there was nothing!

The information transmitted by the Brutal Evil God to Su Yu was incomplete, ending here.

The details of how the Prince of Brutal found the vulnerability and defected successfully, what exactly the vulnerability was remained unknown.

This made Su Yu very displeased.

This Brutal Evil God unexpectedly "breaks off the narrative" at such a crucial moment, truly too villainous, damnable!

Chapter 1035: The Brutal Evil God's Final Decision

The information that the Brutal Evil God just passed on to Su Yu is indeed very important, and much of it was beyond Su Yu's expectations.

For example, the Radiant Emperor used immensely powerful Spiritual Energy to forcibly converge the space-time of the Human Empire, making the empire only exist in the "present," with no possibility of past or future, and no transmigrator.

This was the first time Su Yu heard about it, and it was truly shocking.

Thousands of years ago, the territory of the Human Empire spanned countless light years, with an unknown number of planets and population.

To converge such a grand Cosmic Empire with one's own power, how strong was the Radiant Emperor at his peak? What level was he at?

And just what secret lies near the Azure Star that allowed for a "loophole" in the Radiant Emperor's power? Su Yu was very curious about this.

That's why, in the face of the "fragment" left by the Brutal Evil God, Su Yu felt a particular rage in his heart.

Noticing the killing intent emanating from Su Yu, the Brutal Evil God quickly said, "Save me, you have the Power of Nihilism, you can stop my self-destruction!"

"As long as I can survive, I will definitely tell you everyone's secrets! You should understand, I just want to live! There are absolutely no other schemes."

"This Azure Star System holds a great secret, a very significant secret! Save me, and you certainly won't suffer a loss!"

Obviously, the Brutal Evil God only spoke half the truth, leaving a loose end.

It was meant to entice Su Yu to save him.

If he were to die, he would erase his own memories before dying, leaving Su Yu with nothing.

Upon hearing this, Su Yu sneered, "Save you? And then you'll turn against me again?"

The Brutal Evil God hurriedly said, "I won't, I just want to live, I will never go against you again in the future..."

Before he could finish, Su Yu interrupted, "You think I would believe you?"

The Brutal Evil God fell silent.

It was clear that even he knew he had no credibility.

Su Yu gave a mocking laugh and continued, "And even if I do save you and get your secret, how can you guarantee that I won't turn against you afterward and kill you?"

"Would you trust me?"

"Most importantly, I don't even want to save you; I just want you to die! I can't guarantee that I won't turn on you, so why should you trust me?"

Su Yu's words rendered the Brutal Evil God silent again.

Evidently, he couldn't trust Su Yu either.

Su Yu said, "So even if I do save you, you won't reveal your secret because once you do, you're useless, and you're afraid I'll turn on you. You don't trust me."

"If saving you won't result in you revealing your secret, then why should I bother saving you? Might as well let you die. Besides, can you really erase your memory so thoroughly before you die?"

Su Yu's words were reasonable and left the Brutal Evil God speechless.

Even if Su Yu saved him, he wouldn't reveal his secret, so why should Su Yu save him at all? To create more trouble for himself?

In essence, there was no foundation of trust between Su Yu and him.

The Brutal Evil God's desire for Su Yu to save him was merely a desperate instinct to grab onto a straw in the face of imminent death.

He just wanted to survive and get through this crisis.

As for what to do after surviving this crisis, he hadn't thought it through.

There wasn't even time to think it through.

Now, faced with Su Yu's questioning, the Brutal Evil God had to think carefully about how to answer Su Yu's questions.

If the Brutal Evil God couldn't provide an answer that satisfied Su Yu, given Su Yu's firm will, he would truly watch him die, even if it meant losing the secrets of the Azure Star System forever.

Time was ticking away, and the Brutal Evil God became increasingly anxious.

He was finding it difficult to suppress his Brutal instincts.

The Brutal Evil God was at the critical point of self-destruction, relying on an immense will to live to forcibly regain rationality and suppress his Brutal instincts at the moment before self-destruction.

As long as he slightly relaxed his suppression, he would explode, truly dying.

But the time he could suppress it was limited to less than a millionth of a second.

For ordinary people, this wouldn't even be enough to form a single thought.

But for the Brutal Evil God and Su Yu, it was enough time for a substantive exchange of information.

However, even though the exchange between the Brutal Evil God and Su Yu was incredibly fast, it had already consumed more than half the time.

The time left for the Brutal Evil God was running out, and if he didn't give an answer now, he would truly die.

Finally, in the last one millionth of a second, the Brutal Evil God made a decision.

The answer to Su Yu's question had always been in the Brutal Evil God's mind, he simply hadn't been willing to give it before.

But now, he had no choice left.

"Evil God Soldier Mecha! Transform me into an Evil God Soldier Mecha, just like you transformed the Pain Evil God!"

"Then cast my will into the Hell of Suffering, to endure eternal torment!"

"This way, I will always be under your control, and my power will be yours to use. My will shall perpetually endure the punishment of Hell's Pain, to atone for the sins I've committed!"

"This way, you won't need to kill me afterward to believe in me, right?"

"Quick! I can't hold it anymore!"

"Save me! Save me!"

The Brutal Evil God pleaded urgently with Su Yu in the final moment.

"Hmm?"

Hearing the Brutal Evil God's words, Su Yu's heart stirred.

He frowned slightly.

Because he sensed that the Brutal Evil God was truly in the last moment before death, infinitely close to self-destruction, infinitely close to death.

In such a situation, the Brutal Evil God's survival instinct had been pushed to the utmost limit.

The intensity of that survival instinct was almost enough to warp reality, space-time, cause and effect, everything...

Chapter 1036: The Final Decision of the Brutal Evil God (Part 2)

Su Yu even felt like his own spirit and will were about to be twisted, about to be controlled by the survival instinct of the Brutal Evil God, rescuing It involuntarily.

This made Su Yu secretly alarmed.

The tremendously intense survival instinct of the Brutal Evil God, how it came about, was simply beyond reason.

If Su Yu really disregarded everything and let the Brutal Evil God truly die, what kind of survival instinct would this guy erupt with before dying?

That would indeed be somewhat unpredictable.

It was possible that just like Song Ming awakened the "Power of World Salvation," the Brutal Evil God might also awaken some bizarre power before dying, which would be troublesome.

The Brutal Evil God probably knew this situation too.

It also knew that its survival instinct would erupt to the extreme before death, with unimaginable changes.

Theoretically, the Brutal Evil God does not need to beg Su Yu at all; it could save itself just with its survival instinct.

But the premise was, the Brutal Evil God needed to let itself be infinitely close to death, even truly die.

To stimulate its survival instinct and then use the extremely intense survival instinct to resurrect.

Just like Su Yu uses the Profession Panel to achieve true Evil God undying.

The Brutal Evil God should also be able to achieve true Evil God undying, resurrecting and rebirthing after death by utilizing its bizarre survival instinct.

This is what it means to find life in death.

However, the Brutal Evil God is immensely afraid of death. It dares not to attempt!

Letting itself be infinitely close to death, even truly dying, to find life in death is utterly impossible for the Brutal Evil God.

If the Brutal Evil God could indeed find life in death, it would show that It is not that afraid of death, and it wouldn't have such an intense survival instinct, thus unable to save itself with it.

This forms a "paradox," a contradiction.

If the Brutal Evil God could indeed find life in death, breaking this contradiction, perhaps it could also obtain the power of "paradox" like Su Yu.

"It seems that I really can't let this guy die..."

Su Yu secretly thought in his heart, this Brutal Evil God's survival instinct is too bizarre.

So Su Yu's heart moved, sending out a force of Nihilism, bombarding towards the Brutal Evil God.

The force of Nihilism was invisible and formless, instantly enveloping the Brutal Evil God. Immediately, the extremely dangerous red light on It dimmed considerably, seeming to relax a bit.

However, even though the red light dimmed, it was still flickering, ready to self-destruct at any moment.

Su Yu did not completely save the Brutal Evil God, just postponed the self-destruction by a second, giving It a moment to catch Its breath.

And with the postponement of the self-destruction, Su Yu felt that the intensely bizarre survival instinct also weakened considerably.

Su Yu secretly nodded, that survival instinct was too bizarre, it couldn't be allowed to become too strong.

"Huff... very good! A bit more, just a bit more! It's not enough yet..."

The Brutal Evil God, aided by the force of Nihilicity, let out a long sigh of relief, then urgently urged for more to stabilize Its condition completely.

However, Su Yu would not grant Its wish. Before truly stabilizing Its condition, Su Yu still had questions to clarify.

"You just said you wanted me to transform you into an Evil God Soldier Mecha? To cast your will into the Hell of Suffering? Are you serious?"

Su Yu asked.

"Yes! That's right! I just seek to live!"

The Brutal Evil God hurriedly replied.

"It's fine to become an Evil God Soldier Mecha, but the taste of the Hell of Suffering, you've tried it, are you really eager to go in?"

"Otherwise, why don't you try this Power of Pain before deciding?"

Saying so, Su Yu directly released a force of Pain towards the Brutal Evil God, then watched It with interest.

"Ah!"

Facing the force of Pain released by Su Yu, the Brutal Evil God did not defend, allowing this force of Pain to erode Itself, then instantly let out a painful scream.

The red light on Its body flickered faster immediately.

Even though It was a Fifth-Order Great Evil God, a former prince of the Imperial, facing this kind of fundamental pain, it was unbearable.

Su Yu's power at this moment was stronger than the previous Pain Evil God, naturally, the force of Pain was also stronger and much stronger.

Just a sliver of the force of Pain, in an unguarded situation, made the Brutal Evil God suffer unbearably.

If It were truly cast into the Hell of Suffering, enduring pain forever and never being reborn, what kind of despair would that be?

Just thinking about it could make any rational creature collapse.

However, after trying Su Yu's force of Pain, the Brutal Evil God quickly resolved, "Compared to death, what is this bit of pain!"

The Brutal Evil God would rather endure endless torment than die, not willing to die!

"Very good!"

Su Yu nodded, seeming satisfied in his heart.

In fact, Su Yu was very alarmed.

How afraid of death is this Brutal Evil God?

Rather endure boundless pain, never to be reincarnated, than die.

This "courage," even Su Yu felt somewhat ashamed in comparison.

Or rather, it's not courage, but fear, the deepest fear of death.

Su Yu thought, if without the help of the force of Nihilism, having to endure endless hellish pain every day, he would rather be dead, what's the point of living to endure such torment?

But for the Brutal Evil God, no matter how painful, it's not as frightening as death.

If putting aside the torturous suffering of hell, the proposal made by the Brutal seems indeed perfect.

Su Yu did not trust the Brutal, the Brutal also did not trust Su Yu.

So Brutal took the initiative to let Su Yu transform It into an Evil God Soldier Mecha, casting Its will into hell.

In this way, even if Su Yu obtained the secret, there would be no need to kill It.

Leaving It alive to endure pain is the true revenge, the true punishment.

Otherwise, the Brutal having killed so many humans, letting It die simply wouldn't that be too easy for It?

Thus, there was a foundation of trust between the two.

After all, Brutal was willing to go to hell in order to survive, willing to give up everything.

"You agreed? Then quickly perform the transformation on me!"

The Brutal Evil God hearing Su Yu say "very good," was very pleased, and hurriedly said.

Su Yu nodded, immediately activating his own power, extending towards the Brutal Evil God, simultaneously saying, "Don't resist!"

Su Yu intended to use the power of the Giant God Soldier Mechanic, alongside the legacy knowledge of the Mechanical God, to transform the Brutal Evil God into [Evil God Soldier Mecha·Brutality].

If the transformation is completed, Su Yu will have two Evil God Soldier Mechas, one being [Evil God Soldier Mecha·Hell], the other [Evil God Soldier Mecha·Brutality].

Since Su Yu devoured and fused with the Pain Evil God, he himself is [Evil God Soldier Mecha·Hell], within this mecha, is also within Su Yu's body, lies the essence of the Mechanical God.

Transforming the Brutal Evil God also requires utilizing this part of the Mechanical God's essence to complete the transformation and control.

The powerful essence of the Mechanical God can ensure the reliability of the Evil God Soldier Mecha.

The transformation went smoothly, partly because there was prior experience in transforming the Pain Evil God, partly because the Brutal Evil God was very cooperative, not resisting at all, even actively accepting.

Furthermore, the Brutal Evil God already transformed itself into a mecha form during battle; transforming into an Evil God Soldier Mecha in this form was immensely effective.

So in a short time, less than a second, Su Yu and the power of the Mechanical God had already settled into the Brutal Evil God's essence, transforming all of its power into part of the mecha, becoming a force for Su Yu to control.

Even its consciousness was no exception!

The key to the Evil God Soldier Mecha's transformation was permanently sealing the Evil God's essence will, ensuring it had no chance of escape.

This sealing, normally performed by the power of the Mechanical God, was quickly completed by Su Yu using the Mechanical God's essence.

However, the Brutal Evil God had just proposed letting Su Yu cast Its will into the Hell of Suffering.

So after sealing It with the power of the Mechanical God, Su Yu added another seal using the force of Pain, suppressing the Brutal Evil God's will into the deepest layer of the Hell of Suffering, where the force of Pain was strongest and most intense!

With the Brutal Evil God's will sealed within the Hell of Suffering, it marked the complete transformation!

[Evil God Soldier Mecha·Brutality]

[Producer: Su Yu·Mechanical God]

[Grade: Sovereign Level!]

[Trait 1: ...]

Chapter 1037: The Secret of the Azure Star System

The profession panel instantly popped up various attributes of this [Evil God Soldier Mecha · Brutality], almost identical to the prior Brutal Mecha transformed by the Brutal Evil God.

In essence, the two are inherently the same, just after the Evil God Soldier Mecha transformation, the mecha's power has strengthened somewhat!

For instance... Utilizing the repair trait of the Power of Pain can compensate for the defensive shortcomings of the Brutal Mecha, preventing it from self-destructing constantly.

Moreover, the control of this mecha is now in Su Yu's hands.

Unlike the previous [Evil God Soldier Mecha · Hell], Su Yu truly has complete control over this mecha, without the risk of rebellion like with the Pain Evil God.

Su Yu's power was previously too weak, and the Pain Evil God was extremely uncooperative during the transformation, relying solely on the Power of Machine God, thus there was a risk of loss of control.

Now, however, Su Yu's power has surpassed the Brutal Evil God, coupled with the Brutal Evil God's active cooperation, making this transformation almost perfect.

From the moment the [Evil God Soldier Mecha · Brutality] was completed, the Brutal Evil God, this Empire Prince from ten thousand years ago, a terrifying evil god, the culprit behind millions of deaths, was thoroughly suppressed and sealed by Su Yu! Never to rise again.

Its divine body transformed into the Evil God Soldier Mecha, controlled by Su Yu, while its consciousness was cast into the Hell of Suffering to endure eternal torment!

"Who would've thought the Brutal Evil God's final fate would be like this..."

Su Yu looked at the various attributes of the [Evil God Soldier Mecha · Brutality], feeling a bit emotional inside.

Initially, when he used the Brutal Split Mind to forge the Brutal Battle Armor, he had ambitious aspirations, wanting to capture and seal the Brutal Evil God's true body to forge into battle armor.

But back then, Su Yu merely entertained the idea, not taking it seriously.

Unexpectedly, it actually succeeded now!

Just then...

Boom!

Suddenly, a vast surge of Spiritual Energy erupted from Su Yu's body, continuously flowing out like a supernova explosion.

Su Yu only felt his power rapidly expanding.

The profession, Giant God Soldier Mechanic, optimized and reinforced through the profession panel, can receive feedback power from the mechas created.

Previously, due to the existence of the Evil God Soldier Mecha, the strength of the Giant God Soldier Mechanic had already risen to the Fifth-Order. Now gaining another Fifth-Order Evil God Mecha, the Giant God Soldier Mechanic received feedback, rapidly boosting its power.

At the same time, with the Brutal Evil God suppressed into the Hell of Suffering, the Pain Evil God also received feedback, causing its power to rise significantly.

"One God, Three Consumes," a single Brutal Evil God allowed Su Yu to gain a mecha, two types of feedback, and numerous benefits.

Su Yu, at this moment, had completely absorbed and mastered the power of the Brutal Evil God, acquiring an additional share of Fifth-Order power out of thin air!

In terms of power alone, it had almost doubled!

Su Yu hadn't had the time to carefully sense his state when he heard agonizing screams emanating from the Hell of Suffering!

"So painful! Is this hell? I want to die..."

"Let me die! Let me die!"

The Brutal Evil God continuously screamed, unbearably painful, only begging for a swift death.

The Hell of Suffering is like this, containing absolute pain, and ordinarily, it's not something that can be resisted through sheer willpower.

No matter how strong your will, the Hell of Suffering will produce enough intense pain to defeat it.

Su Yu can exempt himself, relying on the Power of Nihilism and Power of Pain to form a balance, not brute force it.

But currently, the Brutal Evil God is brute forcing it.

Moreover, because pain and brutality mutually stimulate, its pain intensifies, and the side effect of the Power of Pain keeps it conscious, preventing madness or collapse, forcing it to consciously endure such pain.

Its divine body has already been transformed into the Evil God Soldier Mecha, so self-destruction is impossible; it can only passively endure hellish torment this way.

That's why it shouts wanting to die, because truly, in this Hell of Suffering, it's indeed worse than death.

All this, Su Yu had expected.

But upon hearing the Brutal Evil God's screams, Su Yu couldn't help but find it amusing.

A moment ago, the Brutal Evil God shouted for salvation, and now suddenly it's screaming wanting to die, changing quickly indeed.

"What's wrong, you now wish to die? I can fulfill that."

Su Yu said to the Brutal Evil God.

The Brutal Evil God's screams paused instantly, and a moment later, it hurriedly said, "No! I don't want to die! Pain is good! Pain is good!"

The Brutal Evil God shouted hysterically, making Su Yu shake his head repeatedly.

It seems it's relying on a strong desire to survive, forcefully suppressing the absolute pain in the Hell of Suffering.

Previously, it suppressed the brutal instinct, stopping self-destruction in the same manner.

But this state cannot be maintained long-term. Once the desire to survive wanes, it's likely to scream wanting to die again, though if truly allowed to die, it would erupt with a strong desire for survival, unwilling to perish.

This is the eternal torment the evil god must endure, truly unable to live nor die, extremely tragic.

For other enemies, Su Yu might just kill them instead of subjecting them to such torment.

But for the Brutal Evil God, this punishment is just right.

Besides, this was initially requested by the Brutal Evil God itself, willing to endure anything to stay alive.

"Alright, stop the nonsense, you're safe now, won't die, I've saved your life, now give me the information I want!"

Su Yu addressed the Brutal Evil God.

In truth, if the technology of transforming the Evil God Soldier Mecha were perfectly implemented, Su Yu could freely browse through all of the Brutal Evil God's memories, even control its consciousness at will, modify cognition, achieving complete mastery over it.

Chapter 1038: The Secret of the Azure Star System (Part 2)

However, this transformation didn't involve modifying the memory of the Brutal Evil God's consciousness, so it's only "almost perfect" rather than truly perfect.

If it involved modifying memory and consciousness, a slight malintent from Su Yu could erase Brutality's self-will and kill it completely, and the Brutal Evil God would certainly not cooperate.

Su Yu, knowing well the incredible strength of the Brutal Evil God's survival instinct, naturally wouldn't force it, to avoid any strange changes arising from Brutality.

So, even though Su Yu now has full control over the divine body of Brutality and can freely use all its powers, the thoughts and memories remain untouched.

To learn the secrets, Brutality must willingly give them up.

"I'll hand over all the secrets right now, just don't kill me, I don't want to die, I absolutely won't die..."

The Brutal Evil God hurriedly stated.

Then, a large amount of data and information was transmitted from the will of the Brutal Evil God.

This time, the Brutal Evil God held nothing back, almost completely duplicating all its memories for Su Yu.

Faced with this massive load of information, Su Yu was slightly taken aback.

He first cautiously examined this information with the data ability of the Number God Mechanic, then used the Power of Nihilicity to "antivirus" it, washing away the Brutality that was contained within.

Following this, Su Yu's figure flickered and disappeared from this spot, returning to the subspace deep layer.

He had just had a major battle with the Brutal Evil God, causing quite a commotion.

Linger any longer, and Qi Chen might show up, so Su Yu plans to find an absolutely safe place to review the memory information provided by the Brutal Evil God.

After Su Yu left, a shadowy figure appeared at the location where Su Yu previously stood.

Qi Chen! He did appear indeed.

Qi Chen gazed in the direction of Su Yu's departure, muttering to himself, "Has Brutality been subdued by Su Yu? This guy is still so afraid of death..."

"Su Yu, if you're truly the Ultimate Saviour, what kind of changes would occur if you fuse with Brutality's survival instinct?"

Then, Qi Chen disappeared once more.

It seemed that during the great battle between Su Yu and Brutality, Qi Chen had been watching quietly from the shadows.

Yet, because of some scheme, he didn't reveal himself.

Far away, Su Yu's mind suddenly stirred.

Though he had left, Su Yu had been monitoring the previous location with the map constructed by the Star Tower signal.

At this moment, in the map modeled by the Star Tower scan, a fleeting shadow appeared like a disturbance of signal noise.

But Su Yu was sure, it was definitely not just noise.

"Qi Chen appeared?!"

"He seemed to be hiding in the dark but didn't show himself, what's he up to?"

Su Yu remained vigilant, even suspecting Qi Chen of secretly tailing him.

He hurriedly twisted and turned in the subspace deep layer, almost making himself dizzy, ensuring there was no tailing before he could relax.

"Let me see, what secret does the Azure Star System hold?"

Only then did Su Yu immerse his consciousness in the memory information sent over by the Brutal Evil God.

...

After a long while, Su Yu snapped back to his senses, exhaling a deep breath.

"So that's how it is..."

He had come to understand everything.

...

Ten thousand years ago, the Prince of Brutal secretly plotted to defect.

Upon learning that a transmigrator had appeared in the Azure Star System, he realized it was an opportunity.

Using the Azure Star System's peculiarity, there was a significant likelihood of escaping the scrutiny of the Radiant Emperor.

Thus, he began his research.

What he needed to study was, what exactly was special about the Azure Star System? Why was it able to create a breach under the power of the Radiant Emperor?

However, the Brutal Evil God couldn't leave the base at will, so he needed help for investigation.

Thus, the Brutal Evil God began using his abilities and status to expand his influence in the research base, cultivating loyalists.

Being a prince, with his noble status and undisclosed intentions of defection, the warriors in the base held him in high regard.

Under the deliberate fraternization by the Prince of Brutal, he quickly hit it off with some warriors.

This appeared normal and did not raise suspicions.

According to plan, the Prince of Brutal would surely form his own powerful legion to fight for the empire.

At present, his mingling with warriors and cultivating loyalists was also preparation for future legion formation.

The warriors, knowing the chance to join a prince's legion, felt honored.

But unbeknownst to them, while mingling, the Prince of Brutal was secretly using Origin of Brutal's power to subtly erode them.

This was the power of the Evil God!

In the end, unknowingly, the Brutal Evil God completely eroded a warrior.

This warrior almost became a clone of Brutality, yet on the surface, he retained his self-awareness, becoming the most trusted confidant of the Prince of Brutal.

Then, the Brutal dispatched this completely eroded confidant to Azure Star!

The Brutal Evil God couldn't leave the base at will, hence the need for such indirect means.

The confidant soon set out for Azure Star, with the aim of... joining the Giant God Soldiers for training!

"So that's where my New Recruit Navigator came from!"

Seeing this, Su Yu realized.

That initial New Recruit Navigator, with its signal tower scan signaling noble status, upon Su Yu's later investigation, revealed a connection to a "prince."

Only now did Su Yu understand, this Navigator turned out to have been brought by the Brutal Evil God's subordinate.

It was entirely an object of the Brutal Evil God!

It was puzzling why this Navigator would directly recognize Su Yu as its master, allowing him free usage.

To clarify this point, a continued review of the Brutal Evil God's memory was necessary.

...

That new recruit went to Azure Star, under the guise of training, but in truth to investigate the secrets of Azure Star.

This new recruit was entirely unaware of the task, as all investigation was conducted by the Brutal will hidden within.

Then, that new recruit on his way there... vanished!

To be exact, he transcended!

Just as the new recruit neared the Azure Star System, the Brutal will sensed the uniqueness of the star system within him.

Unfathomably, for the Azure Star System, the Prince of Brutal felt inexplicably... familiar! Affectionate!

The Azure Star System harbored a certain power resonating with the Prince of Brutal!

Unaware of how this resonance emerged, the Prince of Brutal quickly harnessed it, allowing the new recruit to transcend.

Previous transmigrators shifted from future to present, whereas this recruit moved from now to the future.

That future was the time-space where previous Galaxy Warriors existed.

In that time-space, there was also a Human Empire.

The recruit, entirely oblivious, arrived in that time-space, seamlessly settled in under the Prince of Brutal's manipulation, and joined the Giant God Soldiers.

During this period, the Prince of Brutal, concealed within, began investigating in secret, probing the mysteries of this time-space.

Wanting to figure out, what was the essence of this time-space? Were the humans here authentic?

And here... did another Radiant Emperor exist?

Additionally, what was with that inexplicable sense of familiarity and affection?

The recruit stayed in this time-space for over a century, while the Prince of Brutal researched for over a century.

Combining inherent knowledge from the Radiant Emperor genes, the embedded lore from the Origin of Brutal, acquired learning, alongside an array of data collected over the century.

The Prince of Brutal eventually established the source of the Azure Star System's peculiarity.

That was... the Azure Star System came from beyond the universe!

Ordinarily, the vast heavens, infinite universe, all originated from a universal explosion billions of years ago, every basic particle, each energy portion, products of this universe.

However, the Azure Star System appeared to be different, it was "foreign"!

The Azure Star System itself was a "loophole" of the universe, hence causing a breach in the Radiant Emperor's power, giving rise to an empire in another time-space!

Chapter 1039: Mirror Universe, Time Loop

"From the outside?"

When Su Yu saw this, he was slightly surprised in his heart.

He had not expected that the secrets of the Azure Star System would be this astonishing.

Su Yu even couldn't help but think of himself and his identity as a transmigrator.

Theoretically speaking, Su Yu should also be considered as "from the outside."

Could his traversal to the Azure Star be related to this?

With such doubts in his mind, Su Yu continued to read on.

...

According to the theoretical knowledge known by the Prince of Brutal, the Universe is not limited to only one.

Beyond the Universe, there could be other universes, worlds, and civilizations.

In this theoretical field, the Human Empire has actually been researching, with various theories and conjectures.

It's just that, no matter how much research is conducted in this field, it basically remains on a theoretical level, unable to undergo actual experimental verification.

To break the universe and travel beyond it to verify these theoretical conjectures, even a great being like the Radiant Emperor seems unable to achieve this.

However, although it is impossible to travel beyond the Universe, theoretically, substances from beyond the Universe could come into this universe.

The Azure Star System is a prime example of this.

On the surface, this star system appears to be no different from a regular Constant Star System.

But under certain higher powers, this star system displays some incredible properties.

For instance, back when the Radiant Emperor condensed the entire past and future of the Human Empire, allowing the whole empire to live in the "present."

Such great power far exceeds the so-called Fifth-Order and Sixth-Order.

However, near the Azure Star System, this power showed a loophole, allowing the appearance of transmigrators.

The reason being, this star system is from the outside, not an entity of this universe!

The existence of this star system itself represents a sort of "loophole" of this universe.

If the universe has a loophole, how could the power of the Radiant Emperor not?

The Radiant Emperor, although powerful, seems incomparable to the entire Universe.

Hence, the incident with the transmigrators.

Upon uncovering this secret, the Prince of Brutal immediately had a bold idea, which was... to utilize the loophole of the Azure Star System to escape beyond the Universe!

After all, merely escaping to the Azure Star System is not sufficient.

Though the star system contains a loophole that can to some extent shield from the Radiant Emperor's gaze.

Yet the scale of this star system is limited, and slipping in is easy but getting caught again is also highly likely.

To achieve a real defection, it's better to escape beyond the Universe for complete freedom.

However, this is just in ideal circumstances.

Doing something like traveling beyond the Universe, even the Radiant Emperor has not achieved, and the Prince of Brutal doesn't necessarily have the chance or ability either.

Moreover, what lies beyond the Universe is entirely unknown, it may not be truly safe or free, and perhaps upon leaving the Universe, one might be killed by some unknown existence beyond.

So in the Prince of Brutal's plan, if safely escaping beyond the Universe isn't possible, then as a fallback, he would use the "loophole" of the Azure Star System to sever the bloodline connection with the Radiant Emperor, thus evading his gaze.

As long as the bloodline bond with the Radiant Emperor is undone, surely there's space enough in the vast Universe to accommodate a Fifth-Order like him?

Thus the Prince of Brutal embarked on further research.

Time passed swiftly, and the Prince of Brutal finally achieved some results.

According to the Prince of Brutal's research, the unique nature of the Azure Star System has created a false timeline around it.

In that timeline, there also exists a cosmic galaxy and a Human Empire.

However, most of the area in this cosmic galaxy is false, akin to a mirror projection of the True Universe.

Only the mirrored space-time near the Azure Star System is real.

Actually, the mirror near the Azure Star System is not entirely real, but rather closer to reality than other regions.

Those transmigrators before were those who came from the depths of this false cosmic galaxy to near the Azure Star, acquiring a part of the "reality," thereby by some chance, traversing into the True Universe.

And in the depths of this false mirrored universe, there exists a Prince of Brutal, and even a Radiant Emperor!

Of course, the Radiant Emperor in this false universe would not be as powerful as the true one, merely a false shadow.

However, even as a mere false shadow, it cannot be compared by ordinary Fifth-Order beings.

So the Prince of Brutal has no intention of provoking that false Radiant Emperor, what he truly plans is to target that false Prince of Brutal!

According to the Prince of Brutal's plan, if he could find the false Prince of Brutal in the mirror universe and replace him, turning himself false.

Then have that false Prince of Brutal come to the Azure Star System and become real.

It would enable this false prince to replace him in dying.

And he would break free from the Radiant Emperor's gaze, gaining true freedom.

However, the Prince of Brutal is not planning to venture into the depths of the mirror universe to find the mirror Prince of Brutal, fearing entrapment there with no return.

So he needs to lure the mirror Prince of Brutal to near the Azure Star System.

As for how to lure the false Prince of Brutal to the Azure Star System, the Prince of Brutal naturally has a way, after all, he understands himself the best.

The Prince of Brutal's infiltrated confidant still resides on the false mirrored Azure Star, serving as a "recruit," originally sent by the Prince of Brutal to join the Giant God Soldiers' training on Azure Star.

This guy, although having traversed to the Azure Star in the mirror universe, hasn't noticed anything amiss and has lived there for over a hundred years.

Chapter 1040: Mirror Universe, Time Loop (Part 2)

Deep within his soul, the power of the Prince of Brutal lies dormant, unbeknownst to himself.

The Prince of Brutal did not erase his consciousness nor use the Power of Brutal to influence this new soldier's spirit, merely allowing him to be a vessel for his thoughts.

Thus, the new soldier appeared completely normal, even Zhang Chenfeng in the Mirror Universe did not notice.

Now, the Prince of Brutal felt it was time to use this pawn.

The Prince of Brutal began using the Power of Brutal to influence this soldier, turning him violent and manic, projecting a strong Brutal Aura.

Quickly, the soldier lost control, causing a huge chaos within the Giant God Soldiers of the Mirror Azure Star.

Ultimately, it was Mirror Zhang Chenfeng who subdued this soldier personally.

Mirror Zhang Chenfeng, a Fifth-Order warrior and part of the Radiant Imperial Guard, wielded a Fifth-Order Radiant Mecha and was exceptionally strong.

Indeed, Mirror Zhang Chenfeng's strength surpassed that of the Prince of Brutal at this time, so he subdued the soldier with ease.

However, from this encounter, the Prince of Brutal discerned the reality of Mirror Zhang Chenfeng.

Mirror Zhang Chenfeng appeared normal and incredibly powerful, yet seemed somewhat rigid.

He seemed less like a real human, more like... some sort of virtual program, an "NPC" from a virtual game, acting only according to predefined "Settings," lacking the flexibility of real humans.

It was likely because he was merely a mirror image, not the real Zhang Chenfeng, lacking "authenticity."

Therefore, although Mirror Zhang Chenfeng subdued the soldier, he did not investigate thoroughly nor discover the hidden Prince of Brutal consciousness within the soldier.

Nor did he execute the soldier who caused chaos within the Giant God Soldiers, instead imprisoning him.

After all, the soldier was related to a "Prince," and Mirror Zhang Chenfeng, as part of the Radiant Imperial Guard, held all matters concerning the Radiant Emperor in high regard, not daring any negligence.

Mirror Zhang Chenfeng was preparing to contact the Mirror Image Brutal Prince in this Universe to inquire how to deal with this soldier.

At this moment, the Prince of Brutal consciousness hidden within the soldier's soul suddenly erupted, attempting to erode Mirror Zhang Chenfeng!

Zhang Chenfeng was caught off guard and immediately fell victim.

In reality, the Prince of Brutal consciousness hidden within the soldier's soul possessed less than one-third of the main body's power.

Logically, it should not have been able to erode Mirror Zhang Chenfeng.

However, Mirror Zhang Chenfeng's actions were so rigid, once he realized he was attacked by the Prince of Brutal, he resisted tentatively, seemingly afraid of harming the Prince.

Moreover, since the Prince of Brutal hailed from the True Universe, his power had a natural advantage in this false Mirror Universe.

Thus, after some time fighting, the Prince of Brutal successfully eroded Mirror Zhang Chenfeng, gaining control over him.

By now, the entire Mirror Azure Star had fallen into the hands of the Prince of Brutal.

Through the erosion of Mirror Zhang Chenfeng, the Prince of Brutal confirmed that in this Universe, he held an incomparable advantage, and the Mirror Image Brutal Prince was definitely no match for him!

This filled him with boundless confidence.

Next, the Prince of Brutal severed communication between Mirror Azure Star and the outside, instigating a planetary war across the planet.

Through the Power of Brutal, the Prince eroded everyone on the planet, immersing them in violent emotions, inciting mutual attacks and slaughter.

At this moment, Azure Star had transformed into a true Brutal Star, with the remaining creatures being incredibly violent and savage.

Such a Brutal Star emitted certain waves that naturally attracted the Mirror Image Brutal Prince deep within the Mirror Universe.

This same-source power, even more advanced and "real," held irresistible allure for the Mirror Image Brutal Prince.

And now, since the Prince of Brutal severed Azure Star's communication with the Empire, the Imperial high command ordered the Galaxy Warrior "Betrayal" regiment to investigate and suppress.

The Mirror Image Brutal Prince would surely seize this opportunity to erode some Galaxy Warriors to head to Azure Star.

Just like the main body of Prince of Brutal eroded confidants sent to Azure Star, the Mirror Image Brutal Prince would do the same.

Once the Mirror Image Brutal Prince arrived at Azure Star, he would fall into the trap set by the main body Prince of Brutal.

This was the plan of the Prince of Brutal, using a Brutal Star to "bait" his mirror image.

He was confident of success, for he understood himself best.

However, just as the plan was proceeding smoothly, the Prince of Brutal suddenly felt something was amiss.

"Wait a moment... Azure Star lost communication for a century, the Empire sent the Betrayal regiment to suppress..."

"Isn't this the origin of that transmigrator squad?"

The Prince of Brutal suddenly realized that the previous transmigrator squad appeared this way.

Azure Star lost communication, suspected of rebellion, thus the Betrayal regiment mobilized collectively, traveling by starship to Azure Star.

Upon arrival, the squad found only about a dozen people left around them, everyone else had vanished.

Yet Azure Star was perfectly fine, there was no rebellion.

Eventually, it was discovered that this squad of Galaxy Warriors had "transmigrated," returning to Azure Star hundreds of years prior.

The truth was, this squad had transmigrated from the false Mirror Universe to the True Universe, gaining reality.

What occurred in the false Mirror Universe, why Azure Star System lost contact for a century, remained unknown.

The confidants sent by the Prince of Brutal to the Mirror Azure Star secretly researched for over a century without any findings.

Until now, the Prince of Brutal had just come to realize that it was all his own doing!

To attract the Mirror Image Brutal Prince, the Prince of Brutal eroded Mirror Zhang Chenfeng, locked down Mirror Azure Star, plunged the entire Mirror Azure Star into violent chaos, transforming this planet into a Brutal Star.

Since Mirror Azure Star lost communication, the Mirror Empire high command dispatched the Betrayal regiment to suppress.

Yet one squad of this regiment, for some reason, achieved reality, "transmigrating" from the Mirror Universe to the Real Universe.

Moreover, it was hundreds of years ago in the Real Universe.

Such a transmigration anomaly spread among the Galaxy Warriors, eventually reaching the ears of the Prince of Brutal hundreds of years before.

It sparked his interest, prompting confidants to investigate.

Finally, the Prince of Brutal had eroded Mirror Zhang Chenfeng in the Mirror Universe, severing communication, causing Azure Star to lose contact, luring the Betrayal regiment...

"Is this a... Time Loop? How could this be?"

The Prince of Brutal was aghast to discover that the source of all this was himself!

He had caused Mirror Azure Star's communication loss, resulting in the transmigrator squad's emergence.

The arrival of the transmigrator squad led the Prince of Brutal hundreds of years ago to discover Azure Star's peculiarity, dispatching confidants for investigation.

This investigation would, in turn, lead to the transmigrator squad's appearance centuries later...

Everything connected!

Upon realizing this, the Prince of Brutal was horrified.

Previously, he hadn't noticed at all!

The Prince of Brutal eroded Mirror Zhang Chenfeng, cut off Azure Star's communication, manufactured a century of brutal conflict... during all this, he hadn't considered "Time Loop."

Not until now, after everything had been fulfilled, did he awaken.

But it was too late, the Betrayal regiment had already departed, the Time Loop had formed.

As for what consequences this would bring? Why this loop appeared? The Prince of Brutal did not know.

He involuntarily recalled a previous inexplicable feeling concerning Azure Star System, a strange... familiarity! Affection!

Utilizing this astonishment and affection, the Prince of Brutal effortlessly sent his confidants into Mirror Azure Star.

In hindsight, this bizarre familiarity and affection stemmed from this Time Loop?

The question was, when exactly did he become entangled in this eerie "loop"?

Originally filled with elation from a smoothly running plan, the Prince of Brutal suddenly felt a sense of fear, apprehension.

This Azure Star System, being an entity outside the Universe, was indeed bizarre!
