Chapter 921: Paradox and Awaiting Rebellion

Su Yu succeeded in his plan, genuinely hypnotizing the Pain Evil God, feeling that the situation was settled.

The Pain Evil God was hypnotized by Su Yu, his consciousness altered. Thinking that it was his trump card dealing with Su Yu, while actually, Su Yu dealt with his trump card, he too felt the situation was settled.

These two fellows, essentially both being Su Yu, thought similarly.

Of course, the one who truly settled the situation was Su Yu himself; unless something unexpected happens, the Pain Evil God is unlikely to turn the tables.

However, despite the situation being settled, Su Yu still sits obediently on the Mechanical Throne as a dried-up corpse.

Because he is waiting for the 'destined' betrayal 'plot'.

Actually, if it were simply waiting for the rebellion, Su Yu wouldn't need to maintain a corpse form.

But in this state, he is closest to the form of the Radiant Emperor; Su Yu wants to approach the Radiant Emperor in this form, to gain the greatest benefits.

Meanwhile, Su Yu's hypnosis with ninety-two times spiritual power was nearing its end.

Actually, when only less than half of the spiritual power was consumed, the hypnosis of the Pain Evil God was already completed, the remaining power mainly used to reinforce the effect.

Soon, the spiritual power was completely depleted.

"What a pity, not knowing what your trump card is."

"Su Yu, just wait, wait for your subordinates to come and betray you, to kill you... Then, I shall devour all of you."

Leaving behind a sentence, the Pain Evil God became silent.

Next comes the waiting for time.

The Pain Evil God had arranged that secretly, he would erode the Transcendents of the planet's three hundred cities, instigating rebellion, hastening the arrival of destiny.

Su Yu inwardly laughed, but could not show it, dutifully 'playing' as the corpse.

Originally, the Pain Evil God eroded Su Yu, strictly monitoring everything about Su Yu.

But now, after Su Yu's spiritual power hypnosis, the monitoring of the Pain Evil God had many blind spots, which Su Yu intentionally set.

In places unseen by the Pain Evil God, Su Yu was studying that strange power brought back by the Radiant Seed.

He learned from the Radiant Seed that this strange power, swiftly switching between reality and illusion, was the core of the Pain Evil God's avatar.

"This thing..."

Su Yu studied this strange power closely, a heaviness growing in his heart.

This thing, completely unresolvable; any energy from Su Yu touching it would directly pass through, unable to make contact.

It seemed like an illusion, severed from real space-time; if not for the Radiant Seed being equally special, it might have been impossible to bring it back.

"This thing is a... space-time paradox!"

Su Yu made an assessment of the strange power in his heart.

Regarding space-time paradoxes, Su Yu had always had research insights.

Researching the Power of Time, once becoming a Time-Space Mechanic, it was impossible for Su Yu to be unfamiliar with space-time paradoxes.

The so-called space-time paradox is a problem inevitably faced with time travel.

For example, the classic grandmother paradox: a person travels back in time and kills their grandmother—what would happen?

If they do this, then they wouldn't exist, and thus wouldn't be able to travel back in time in the first place.

This forms a paradox, an impossible occurrence.

But after acquiring the Power of Time, Su Yu discovered that the universe's space-time mechanism resolves such paradoxes.

If a person travels back into past history and kills their grandmother, the historical timeline would split into two distinct histories.

In one history, the grandmother lives well, nothing happening.

In another history, the grandmother is killed by the person who traveled back in time, leading to their non-existence.

The two past histories coexist.

Then, these two histories converge at the present time node, merging into one.

At that moment, the person, due to the inability to correctly fuse the two histories, would be directly consumed by the space-time backlash and disappear, dying.

Ultimately, the result is that the person, using their life, causes the past historical timeline to split into two.

There wouldn't be a paradox where the person doesn't exist because the grandmother was killed.

And if this person were Su Yu? He possesses powerful Power of Time, unifying all historical timelines.

Suppose Su Yu is a native of this world, with a grandmother.

He unifies all timelines, becomes a Time Mechanic, travels back in time, and kills his grandmother, what would happen?

Su Yu's historical timeline is unified, not splitting, leaving only one.

Killing his grandmother, would that cause a paradox?

Yes, and no.

Because Su Yu could always change history, revive the grandmother, maintaining the history.

So his grandmother wouldn't die, naturally not causing any paradox.

Unless Su Yu really "stubbornly" kills his grandmother and never revives her.

This might truly lead to a paradox, subjecting Su Yu to severe space-time backlash, possibly leading to a very thorough death.

If Su Yu didn't want to live anymore, he could try this method of suicide; perhaps he could create the legendary space-time paradox.

But he is alive and well, unlikely to act so recklessly.

Yet now, he truly encounters the legendary space-time paradox.

This strange thing, originating from the Pain Evil God's avatar, is that paradox.

It continuously switches between reality and illusion, even Su Yu finds it elusive.

For now, Su Yu is unsure how to utilize this thing.

Chapter 922: Paradox and Awaiting Rebellion 2

Even if he wanted to learn from the Pain Evil God and use this thing to cultivate a clone, Su Yu still didn't know how to do it.

After all, this is the Pain Evil God's possession, equivalent to the life essence of the Pain Evil God. The Pain Evil God is still fifth-tier, with enough power to easily utilize it, but Su Yu cannot.

However, Su Yu is not in a hurry. Now that he has it in his hands, he can slowly study it.

Perhaps he can gain more Time-Space Mysteries from it, further advancing his status as a Time Mechanic.

In the following time, Su Yu continuously researched the "Paradox."

Meanwhile, the Pain Evil God was secretly eroding Su Yu's subordinates, preparing for a great rebellion.

Actually, if the Pain Evil God used Spiritual Ability to hypnotize those people, rebellion would be easy.

But it wouldn't work, because... those people are too weak. Even if they all attacked Su Yu together, they couldn't kill him, or even cause him any harm.

Although Su Yu is still of the Fourth Rank, he is incredibly strong. Even without using the Evil God Soldier Mecha, he is extremely powerful.

Due to previous stimuli from the Pain Evil God, Su Yu's spiritual power has already transcended the Fourth Rank, almost entering the Fifth Rank.

With this spiritual power alone, Su Yu could instantly kill everyone on the planet combined.

In fact, Su Yu's spiritual power has already entered the Fifth Rank, but the Pain Evil God doesn't know this.

In any case, in the Pain Evil God's view, this destined great rebellion is not simple.

If it merely involved hypnotizing a group of people to turn against Su Yu, only for Su Yu to suppress them easily, it would not align with the betrayal of destiny.

Furthermore, the Pain Evil God wondered if controlling Su Yu's subordinates through hypnosis counts as rebellion at all.

If those people were completely controlled by Him, wouldn't that mean they were all essentially Him?
How would that constitute a rebellion?

So the Pain Evil God felt he couldn't rush this.

He needed... to cultivate them first.

Yes, the Pain Evil God needed to use His power to cultivate Su Yu's subordinates!

Only when they possess enough strength could they betray Su Yu and kill him, thus fulfilling destiny.

Thus, for a long time, the professional exchange system in the Mechanical City was primarily managed by the Pain Evil God.

Everyone exchanged for new professions, especially Fourth-tier professions, requiring Su Yu to tailor them according to their state and tweak the professions to a version that suited them. Originally, this was Su Yu's work, but now it's done by the Pain Evil God.

Some professions were even personally researched and developed by the Pain Evil God.

The Pain Evil God's capabilities far surpassed Su Yu. His transformation of professions was incredibly precise, almost perfectly matching the physique of those who exchanged, allowing them to cultivate at an incredible rate.

He even used the Power of Time to accelerate the cultivation progress of these people, keeping them in a state of optimal "Enlightenment."

It's as if a powerful Fifth-tier being like the Pain Evil God was personally training these people hand-in-hand.

Within a short ten years, a large group of people prepared to break through the Fourth Rank! Some had even basically completed the breakthrough.

These people were all old acquaintances of Su Yu, such as Tie Long, Xiao Shengyin, Xie Yitian, and others.

With the help of the Pain Evil God, each of them truly made rapid progress.

During this process, the Pain Evil God could be described as "diligent and dutiful," a "good mentor and helpful friend."

However, for the Pain Evil God, this surely was not a favorable task. Why would He be kind enough to cultivate humans, let alone be a "good mentor and helpful friend"?

He would rather capture all these people into the Hell of Suffering and torment them.

But there was no choice; to make "destiny" come to pass, He had to do this.

Yet this kind of gift from the Evil God was certainly not an easy one to receive.

Hidden in the professions given to the crowd by the Pain Evil God were pitfalls. His power would secretly erode their minds, arouse their ambition and doubt, ultimately leading them to betray Su Yu.

However, the erosion planted by the Pain Evil God was secretly absorbed by Su Yu using the Radiant Seed, leaving only a little to avoid arousing the Pain Evil God's suspicion.

Along with prior hypnosis, the Pain Evil God always thought his cultivation and erosion were progressing smoothly.

However, just when this group was secluding themselves to break through the Fourth Rank and was about to execute the rebellion plan, the Pain Evil God sensed "destiny" once again!

Last time, although the Pain Evil God saw destiny, some information was vague.

He only saw Su Yu being betrayed by his subordinates but did not see who specifically betrayed him.

In the destiny scene, those people merged into stronger beings, but the Pain Evil God didn't know exactly who merged with whom; it was not clear.

Normally, destiny scenes would show clearly, but the scenes the Pain Evil God saw were actually counterfeit, shown to him by Su Yu, so they naturally wouldn't work.

This time, when the Pain Evil God saw the destiny scenes again, they became clear to him.

That is to say, none of the people He had cultivated were there! Those people were not at all the ones destined to betray Su Yu!

The ten years of cultivation had been in vain!

"Tsk tsk, this Pain Evil God has done a 'good job'."

At this moment, Su Yu laughed secretly in his heart.

All of this was naturally arranged by him.

He wanted to use the Pain Evil God to help him train his subordinates.

Now the cultivation was more or less complete. People like Tie Long had all reached the critical point of Fourth Rank; some had already broken through and were now cultivating their strengths.

In theory, the destiny of rebellion could already be realized.

However, Su Yu was not satisfied. He directly made the Pain Evil God see a new scene of destiny, leading Him to believe He had cultivated the wrong people, rendering his efforts in vain.

This way, the Pain Evil God would abandon those he had already cultivated and turn to cultivate new strong candidates.

Su Yu's plan was well thought out; the Pain Evil God had completely become his laborer.

In fact, Su Yu wasn't entirely discontented; he truly saw the scene of destiny again.

Su Yu's destiny was indeed fated to endure betrayal; Su Yu did not deceive the Pain Evil God about this.

But this time, Su Yu truly saw who would betray him!

"It seems I have truly become a Prophet."

This time, the destiny scene Su Yu saw was of the actual future, not past history.

This indicates he truly became a Prophet.

Of course, it might also be that Su Yu had been "cosplaying" the Radiant Emperor for too long and had received new help from the Radiant Emperor.

No matter the truth, Su Yu took the opportunity to "share" this scene with the Pain Evil God.

With prior hypnosis in place, the Pain Evil God didn't find anything amiss, only thinking this destiny scene was a prophecy it gained out of thin air.

"Damn it!"

Even the indifferent Pain Evil God couldn't help but be furious.

Such hard work, only for it to be for nothing, how could He not be angry?

He was tempted to kill all the humans who were breaking through the Fourth Rank.

But He restrained Himself.

Because He was worried those people might also be in destiny.

If in the future, new destiny included them, He would have to pay the price to resurrect them after killing them.

"Forget it, let these people sleep first, then cultivate those in destiny!"

The Pain Evil God quickly adjusted his emotions and began the next step of his plan.

To Him, ten years of effort for nothing was nothing; there was still time.

He began to accurately cultivate the people in the new destiny scenes.

Those people were essentially the young generation, meaning that Su Yu saw the older generation had been cultivated enough and began leading the Pain Evil God to help cultivate the young people.

Thus, the Pain Evil God began his laborious effort again.

Under His efforts, the younger generation also began to rapidly grow.

Of course, His power also continually eroded these people.

However, during this process, the Pain Evil God discovered not only was He cultivating these people, but there was another existence secretly eroding them as well.

The Brutal Evil God!

These people were the true betrayers. Even without the Pain Evil God's erosion, they would betray anyway.

And the reason for their betrayal seemed to be because of the Brutal Evil God.

That Great Evil God, silent for many years, had indeed reemerged!

Chapter 923: Three-Way "Free-for-All

In fact, the erosion of the Brutal Evil God had already appeared long ago, and Su Yu had even discovered the aura of brutality within himself.

Brutality is inherently a part of humanity, an emotion stemming from human instinct.

And after the last subspace tide, the Brutal Evil God underwent a transformation, almost merging inseparably with the brutality of human emotions.

Without needing to do anything intentionally, His mere existence would naturally convert human brutality into a brutal aura.

However, that kind of brutal aura is more akin to a "natural phenomenon."

A natural phenomenon deeply bound with the Brutal Evil God.

And now, after years of dormancy, the Brutal Evil God has finally begun to use this "natural phenomenon" to stir up trouble.

The Pain Evil God discovered that the brutal aura on humans was no longer scattered but was coalescing into distorted human faces and even human forms!

These human forms seem to possess some sort of self-awareness, merging with the humans, akin to their second personality.

These personalities are born from the brutal aura, extremely concealed, and cannot be detected unless one is of the Fifth Rank.

Although they currently have no power and cannot control their bodies and powers, they incessantly whisper in these humans' consciousness.

Seducing them to vent their discontent and impulsive desires for brutality.

Many people occasionally feel a ruthless urge to destroy, to vent.

But normally, this impulse is overcome by reason and does not become reality.

Moreover, this impulse does not occur frequently unless the person is a brutal madman.

Now, however, these eerie personalities are continuously whispering in the consciousness of these humans, fostering this urge constantly.

These impulses penetrate their subconscious.

Initially, it might only make them irritable, but gradually it alters their character until it completely takes over them.

The Pain Evil God immediately determined this to be the erosion of the Brutal Evil God.

A normal brutal aura is merely a form of power and certainly wouldn't form personalities like these.

"These things..."

And since Su Yu now possesses Fifth-tier spiritual power, he naturally can also see those concealed personalities and hear their whispers.

His heart trembled as well.

The grand rebellion of the Blue Second Empire was caused by this, wasn't it?

The citizens of the Second Empire were eroded by these negative personalities, which prompted their brazen rebellion.

And was Zhang Chenfeng's erosion by his dark side exactly the same?

Could it be that the insidious methods of the Brutal Evil God can even erode someone of the Fifth Tier?

Thinking of this, Su Yu was shocked, questioning if he had also fallen into the trap.

Could there also be a negative personality whispering in his subconscious?

Su Yu quickly examined himself.

Originally, Su Yu couldn't detect the brutal aura on himself.

But now, with his Fifth-tier Power of Spirit, he could break this rule.

Su Yu pushed his spiritual power to the limit and indeed found a mighty brutal aura within himself.

This was normal, as Su Yu naturally harbored emotions of brutality.

With such emotions, coupled with the existence of the Brutal Evil God, a brutal aura naturally forms, and this aura is incredibly strong because Su Yu himself is extremely powerful.

Fortunately, this brutal aura had not formed any negative personality, just the aura itself.

It seemed the Brutal Evil God had not eroded Su Yu.

But Su Yu did not let his guard down.

The Brutal Evil God's insidious erosion is very concealed.

Even Zhang Chenfeng once fell into the trap, his dark side awakened.

In the end, he had to resort to suicide to perish with his dark side.

This erosion might be undetectable by even Su Yu with his Fifth-tier spiritual power until it reaches a certain level.

Just like the humans on the planet, almost all have been eroded to varying degrees, yet none have discovered it.

This concealment left Su Yu puzzled; he couldn't understand why such an obvious brutal aura went unnoticed by anyone.

It could be that this brutal aura is essentially a part of humanity.

Like air, people breathe it every day, so accustomed are they to it that they cannot see air.

Under normal circumstances, ordinary people cannot see air.

To see it clearly, one should ideally leave the atmosphere and view it from another perspective.

This is clarity of the observer.

Moreover, it requires reaching a perspective high as leaving the atmosphere.

Su Yu and the Pain Evil God could see the brutal aura in humans for this reason.

They are observers, and their perspective is high enough.

But when Su Yu looked at himself, he found it difficult to attain "the observer's clarity."

This is why he suspected that he might also be eroded, but couldn't detect it.

Just as Su Yu was feeling a bit paranoid, he noticed that the Radiant Seed wasn't reacting either, which brought him a sigh of relief.

After all, this is the power of the Radiant Emperor.

Su Yu believed that the methods of the Brutal Evil God couldn't deceive the Radiant Seed. If he had developed a negative personality due to the Brutal Evil God's power, the Radiant Seed would have reacted.

It seemed the Brutal Evil God had probably not eroded Su Yu after all.

However, when Su Yu looked at the Pain Evil God, he made a surprising discovery.

He saw that the Pain Evil God also exhibited a brutal aura!

Chapter 924: Three-Way "Free-for-All" (Part 2)

"Is this the Pain Evil God... being eroded by the Brutal Evil God?"

Su Yu was instantly shocked.

Previously, he had never discovered any Brutal Aura on the Pain Evil God, so what is happening now?

Moreover, those Brutal Auras were rapidly intensifying, forming terrifying human faces in a short time.

The expressions on those faces were extremely ferocious and very brutal.

However, as soon as those faces formed, they changed expressions, and in a short time, transformed from brutal to anguished ones.

Moments later, those faces directly collapsed.

Sure enough, the Brutal Evil God indeed eroded the Pain Evil God!

How could it cause the Pain Evil God to develop a negative personality, or rather, divinity?

The Brutal Evil God's methods are indeed powerful and bizarre; even the Pain Evil God has been tricked, worthy of being an old Evil God.

Who knows what might become of the Pain Evil God if it were truly eroded by these negative divinities?

Given that it's already an Evil God, further developing negative divinities surely wouldn't "negate the negative for a positive," right?

Su Yu couldn't help but feel extremely curious.

Moreover, the Brutal Evil God's erosion seemed targeted at humans, yet the Pain Evil God is not human, so how is this erosion happening to Him?

"However, the Pain Evil God is my dark side and inherently part of me, so it's not surprising that the erosion targeting me has transferred to Him?"

"Or perhaps, the Brutal Evil God intentionally targeted the formidable enemy, the Pain Evil God..."

Su Yu pondered internally.

The threat the Pain Evil God poses to the Brutal Evil God exceeds that of Su Yu, so it's normal for the Brutal Evil God to specifically target the Pain Evil God.

However, the Pain Evil God carries such terrifying Power of Pain that these negative divinities couldn't endure the extreme suffering and directly collapsed upon forming.

The Brutal Evil God's erosion did not succeed.

Through all of this, it seems the Pain Evil God Himself is unaware.

The Pain Evil God had been extensively hypnotized by Su Yu, who constantly monitors His spiritual state, confirming that He truly hasn't noticed this, unaware He's being eroded.

Indeed, obscured vision is keen.

The Pain Evil God, as a Fifth Rank Great Evil God, shockingly can't perceive the erosion He's undergoing.

Though strictly speaking, the Pain Evil God hasn't truly been eroded, as those negative divinities collapse due to extreme pain shortly after creation.

But they continue to emerge after collapsing.

The newly formed negative divinities collapse quickly again, albeit enduring longer than before.

Though this supposed longer time is less than a billionth of a second, Su Yu's keen perception confirms their endurance time truly increased.

They seem to be "evolving."

"Indeed!"

Su Yu's mind flashed this thought.

It appears the Brutal Evil God's erosion of the Pain Evil God, although unsuccessful for now, will gradually deepen, slowly adapting to the Pain Evil God's Power of Pain.

Until fully adapting to the Power of Pain, thus completing the erosion.

Zhang Chenfeng likely went through this initially.

Zhang Chenfeng couldn't escape, and neither can the Pain Evil God.

"So, how can this situation be utilized? What benefits can be obtained?"

Su Yu secretly pondered.

He doesn't intend to prevent the brutality's erosion of the Pain Evil God but rather plans accordingly.

Soon, Su Yu formed a plan.

The Brutal Evil God lurks deeply and likely won't emerge again until the true outbreak of the Subspace Tide.

Even this erosion was secretly triggered, remotely manipulating the Brutal Aura.

No trace of the entity is visible.

However, if the Brutal Evil God desires to complete the true erosion of the Pain Evil God, He surely needs to mobilize His entity.

Su Yu doesn't believe the Brutal Evil God can erode a Great Evil God of the same rank without His entity acting, when the crucial moment arises, His entity surely will move.

If utilized well, it seems possible to "bait" the Brutal Evil God out and solve the issue at once!

This plan is bold and risky.

But the enormous benefits within are worth Su Yu's risk.

Su Yu must resolve the Brutal Evil God before the Subspace Tide erupts; otherwise, should the Brutal Evil God undergo a transformation during the eruption, it will be troublesome.

The Brutal Evil God likely thinks similarly.

He also aims to complete the erosion of the Pain Evil God before the Subspace Tide erupts; otherwise, if the Pain Evil God transforms during the eruption, it will be a significant trouble for brutality.

Thus, by using the Pain Evil God to bait out brutality, there lies a chance for success.

However, this plan carries significant risk.

If the brutality's erosion of the Pain Evil God truly succeeds, Su Yu suspects that brutality would utterly devour the Pain Evil God, acquiring the Power of Pain and the Power of Time.

That would be invincible.

Therefore, Su Yu absolutely cannot let brutality succeed!

Fortunately, at this time, Su Yu is also conducting spiritual erosion on the Pain Evil God.

Equipped with ninety-two times the spiritual power in hypnosis and a "first-mover advantage."

Su Yu's progress in eroding the Pain Evil God is slightly faster than brutality.

As long as progress is mastered, he can take the lead, make brutality return with nothing.

But caution is necessary; Su Yu must not contact brutality's will during the erosion of the Pain Evil God, otherwise, he would prematurely alert the enemy.

The Pain Evil God has currently become the "battlefield" for Su Yu and the Brutal Evil God.

This "battlefield" itself knows nothing, which indeed seems laughable.

While Su Yu was contemplating, the Pain Evil God also made a move.

The Pain Evil God realized brutality was eroding the humans and internalized it as the original "destiny."

In destiny, those humans are bound to betray; even without the Pain Evil God's acceleration, betrayal would occur.

It seems this was a feat of the Brutal Evil God.

Brutality's erosion of those humans is part of destiny.

And now, the Pain Evil God intends to speed up this destiny, bringing it forward.

Thus, He suddenly emitted a spiritual fluctuation, speaking to the Brutal Aura: "Brutal, collaborate?"

Upon the Pain Evil God's words, those writhing Brutal Auras paused slightly.

It seems Brutality didn't anticipate the Pain Evil God's sudden move.

Mere moments passed before those Brutal Auras fluctuated, producing sound, "How to collaborate? Why collaborate?"

It appears Brutality is also curious about the Pain Evil God's intent.

Thus, the Pain Evil God emitted a spiritual fluctuation again, revealing part of the "destiny" He knew to the brutality.

"Destiny?"

Upon hearing this, the Brutal Evil God hesitated.

Just a moment, and He responded: "Alright! Collaborate!"

It seems Brutality places great importance on the so-called destiny.

During this process, Su Yu discovered that while the Pain Evil God conversed with brutality, He seemed to have secretly done something.

Through the brief dialogue, those Brutal Auras subtly concealed traces of Hell's Pain aura!

These auras were also very concealed, and if Su Yu weren't also very adept in the Power of Hellish Suffering and had not reached Fifth Rank spiritual power, he couldn't perceive it at all.

"Does the Pain Evil God intend to erode the Brutal Evil God?"

Seeing this, Su Yu was somewhat shocked.

Earlier, Su Yu internally mocked how the Pain Evil God became the "battlefield" for both his and brutality's struggle.

Now, it seems the Pain Evil God isn't an easy target either.

He indeed attempts to secretly erode the Brutal Evil God, and seems to even have some success? How was this achieved? Why not use it against Su Yu?

Su Yu rapidly pondered, forming a hypothesis: the Pain Evil God leveraged "dialogue exchange" to sow the seeds of pain, thus secretly eroding the Brutal Evil God.

"Conversation can spread pain... could this be a new technique the Pain Evil God developed?"

"Even brutality can unknowingly succumb."

Su Yu sighed internally; the Pain Evil God indeed has capability, unsatisfied with being the "battlefield."

Reflecting on this, Su Yu felt a bit speechless.

Su Yu and the Brutal Evil God are both eroding the Pain Evil God.

While the Pain Evil God is actually attempting to erode both Su Yu and the Brutal Evil God.

Su Yu now wonders if he could indirectly erode brutality by utilizing the Pain Evil God's erosion of the Brutal Evil God?

The three entities, each eroding the other, have become an absolute mess.

Who knows how the final result will unfold?

Chapter 925: The True Meaning of "Destiny

"Then let's see who ultimately succeeds in the end."

Su Yu thought to himself.

At this moment, the three parties are entangled, mutually eroding each other, unable to separate; eventually, it will come down to a life-and-death struggle.

At this moment, Su Yu is the weakest among the three eroding parties, but also holds the greatest advantage.

Because Su Yu is more concealed.

Neither the Pain Evil God nor the Brutal Evil God noticed what Su Yu was doing in the shadows.

The Pain Evil God is the most vulnerable.

He has no awareness of being eroded.

At most, he suspects that he might be eroded by Brutality, but the Pain Evil God lacks the ability to perceive such erosion and can only rely on speculation.

The Pain Evil God invites the Brutal Evil God to cooperate, using verbal exchanges to spread pain, to erode the Brutal Evil God, attempting to counteract.

But the effect is hard to gauge.

The Brutal Evil God, as an experienced Evil God, should have been alerted to the Pain Evil God's tricks and possibly has long devised a countermeasure.

However, the Brutal Evil God seems very interested in the so-called destiny and has temporarily not exposed the Pain Evil God.

Currently, the three parties are in some kind of balanced state, just waiting for the day when it breaks, which will surely lead to an earth-shattering battle.

Su Yu quietly awaits the arrival of that day.

Next, the Pain Evil God and Brutal Evil God join forces to erode the humans on the planet.

At the same time, to ensure these individuals have enough power to initiate rebellion, the Pain Evil God also "cultivates" them.

Thus, the younger generation of strong individuals emerges rapidly like mushrooms after rain.

Meanwhile, rumors about Su Yu's madness begin to spread.

The Pain Evil God and Brutal Evil God don't want to completely erode these people, aiming for them to rebel autonomously.

Otherwise, it would be pointless having two Evil Gods controlling a bunch of puppets to attack Su Yu, as that won't count as a human rebellion.

The destiny of rebellion needs to be enacted by humans themselves.

So the two Evil Gods did not deeply erode these individuals.

They did not strip them of self-awareness but subtly influenced their cognition and character.

Logically, with the combined strength of the two major Evil Gods, people should soon completely change mentality and view Su Yu as a monster and enemy.

Yet, ten years passed, twenty years passed.

The whole human society still holds great reverence for Su Yu.

There are just some minor rumors, but no phenomenon of everyone viewing Su Yu as an enemy.

This situation leaves the Pain Evil God very puzzled, only attributing it to the wonders of destiny.

Even Su Yu himself was somewhat surprised.

"Is this... human civilization?"

Su Yu subtly sensed something.

Though these humans seem very weak before a Fifth Rank Evil God, they unite.

Forming a complete human civilization that can be seen as a whole.

This entirety of human civilization displays formidable resilience and resistance against the erosion of Evil Gods.

And within this whole, Su Yu also contributes to such resilience and resistance.

With Su Yu's strength, his involvement, no wonder even the combined strength of two Evil Gods struggled to erode these people.

As time progresses, this younger generation grows increasingly powerful, and finally, the Pain Evil God can no longer hold back.

The Pain Evil God begins secretly guiding them to follow the trajectory of destiny and initiate rebellion.

...

Time returns to [now].

As the younger generation of strong individuals, after fusion, possessing Fourth Rank strength, arrive at the Mechanical City, witnessing the desiccated corpse of Su Yu.

They attempt to observe this desiccated Su Yu, only to see the terrifying scene of Su Yu transforming into the Pain Evil God in the future.

They nearly get killed by the Pain Evil God.

Eventually, they escape the Mechanical City.

All of this is orchestrated by the Pain Evil God, just to solidify these individuals' resolve for rebellion, to make them determined to kill Su Yu with their own hands.

And at this moment, a thousand kilometers away from the Mechanical City, these fusion-powered individuals gaze at the distant Mechanical City, enveloped in silence.

Mr. Su Yu has turned into a corpse-like bizarre state, requesting them to kill him.

Otherwise, Mr. Su Yu would transform into the Pain Evil God, and at some future moment, rise from the Mechanical Throne, bringing endless pain to the world.

This situation is hard for them to accept.

Should they really kill Mr. Su Yu?

They exchanged glances, unable to come to a decision.

Finally, they silently returned to Sky Rail City to start another round of meetings and discussions.

To be honest, even hearing from the desiccated Su Yu himself, they still find it hard to believe all this.

Thus, deliberation is necessary to decide.

Witnessing all this, the Pain Evil God is somewhat anxious.

After all these years, these people still haven't rebelled; what are they waiting for?!

But soon, an inexplicable change occurred, which even the Pain Evil God couldn't comprehend.

After witnessing the desiccated Su Yu, confronting the Pain Evil God's power, those young generation's strong individuals, though not yet resolved, had their mentality quietly changed.

This change pushed the erosion of the entire human civilization by the two major Evil Gods to a critical point.

Then some bizarre transformation happened, even making a Fifth Rank Evil God feel something eerie.

Within the Pain Evil God's vision, on the whole planet, hundreds of millions of people, three hundred cities, appeared vividly.

The next instant, those three hundred cities became mountains of corpses and seas of blood, frenzied slaughter, chaotic madness.

Chapter 926: The True Meaning of "Destiny" (Part 2)

The next moment, those chaotic madness returned to normal.

But, was it really normal?

The whole world, the entire civilization, seemed to have split into another side at this point.

The other side hidden beneath the normal world!

Just like schizophrenia, some people appear normal but may be hiding a crazy second persona, ready to erupt at any moment.

And now, the human civilization on this planet is in this state.

The entire human civilization has split into a "second persona"!

The Brutal Evil God's erosion of those humans is precisely using the brutality within them to forge a second persona, eroding their very selves.

If we consider the billions of humans on the planet as a whole, this whole can also be considered as a person, a "person" with a certain "persona."

This persona is their collective cognition, their inherent ideology, their persistent faith, and it's formed from these.

This "persona" belonging to all humankind is extremely tenacious and strong.

It's this persona that has been persistently resisting the erosion of the two Evil Gods in its subconscious.

And now, through the erosion of humankind as a whole, the two Evil Gods have also given birth to a "second persona" for humankind.

This second persona belonging to human civilization is extremely chaotic and insane, without any presence of reason.

It vaguely covers the entire planet, omnipresent.

The second persona of the ordinary human is hidden beneath the normal persona, invisible to outsiders, and the struggle between the personas happens within their minds.

But what does the second persona of the human collective look like?

The answer is...creating another "reality," hidden beneath the normal reality.

Just like what Pain Evil God sees now.

In His eyes, the normal human civilization and the insane human civilization are rapidly switching.

That's the normal "reality" and the "reality" caused by the second persona of human civilization coexisting.

In this switch, Pain Evil God faintly sees a terrifying existence.

It's countless corpses, living humans, chaotic creations, fused together, turning into a writhing monster.

This monster covers the planet's surface, emitting chaotic, muffled roars.

The "parts" making up this monster include all the humans Pain Evil God has seen, even including Himself, namely Su Yu.

As Pain Evil God sees this monster, He unexpectedly feels a massive spiritual impact.

"What is this...?"

Pain Evil God is greatly astonished.

Su Yu also questions simultaneously.

Clearly, Su Yu also sees that monster and is struck by a strong impact.

Had Su Yu's spiritual power not reached the Fifth Rank, he might have experienced an anomaly due to this impact.

"That is...the real Chaotic Evil God!"

A voice answers, passed through the brutality aura permeating the entire planet.

It's the Brutal Evil God, providing an explanation to Pain Evil God's question.

"What do you mean? What do you mean by the real Chaotic Evil God?"

Pain Evil God asks coldly, sensing something amiss.

The Brutal Evil God's tone is somewhat mocking: "Literally."

"Although we are called Evil Gods by humans, actually, we have reason, wisdom, and instincts for survival."

"Zhang Chenfeng once said that my brutality is merely a powerful Transcendent, fundamentally not a God."

"And the real Evil God born from human emotions is akin to this thing. Utterly chaotic, insane, devoid of reason, representing the essence of chaos, that is the real Chaotic Evil God."

"Zhang Chenfeng said that we merely occupy the divine throne due to fate. Although I loathe admitting it, he's not entirely wrong."

The Brutal Evil God utters words that even make Pain Evil God find hard to comprehend.

This Great Evil God nonetheless regards himself as just occupying the divine throne?

If Brutal Evil God is merely occupying the divine throne, then what does Pain Evil God amount to?

Yet, Su Yu understands.

Previously, Su Yu always felt that Brutal Evil God is somewhat misnamed.

He, as Brutal Evil God, is not sufficiently "brutal."

Instead, he's very rational, very insidious.

This Great Evil God fundamentally doesn't match the title of Brutal Evil God.

Su Yu even suspects that when Brutal Evil God deliberately exposed the location of the city of Brutal Believers, let Su Yu track Him down and beat Him severely, ultimately leaving behind a Fifth-tier Brutal God Body for Su Yu, it was all intentional.

He did it to weaken His own power and maintain His own reason.

Su Yu was puzzled about this for long, for an Evil God to care so much about reason, what's the difference between them and humans? Is it so-called humanity?

And now, Brutal's words dispelled Su Yu's doubts.

The Brutal Evil God is not genuinely the brutality itself, but a "divine throne occupier."

Essentially, He is just a Fifth-tier Transcendent.

His profession is [Brutal Evil God].

And now, the monster born from the "second persona" of human civilization being eroded across the planet is the real Evil God!

After a moment, Pain Evil God also understands.

"Occupying the divine throne? If you're occupying the divine throne, then who were you originally?"

Pain Evil God asks in confusion.

According to Brutal Evil God, the real Brutal Evil God should also be like that monster, utterly chaotic and insane.

The current Brutal Evil God seems to be an external will occupying the divine throne.

Where does this external will come from?

Brutal Evil God laughs: "I awoke in the Subspace, already inhabiting Brutal Evil God."

"Where do I come from? I...also want to know!"

"And now, is the chance."

Pain Evil God hears this, ponders briefly, seemingly thinking of something, and says: "Chance? You mean...destiny?"

Brutal Evil God says: "Exactly!"

"Though you have awakened as the Prophet, able to see destiny, you appear to lack understanding of destiny."

"So-called destiny is a precursor to the birth of the Chaotic Evil God, and it's also a ritual!"

"At this moment, [destiny] has arrived, this planet's human civilization has nurtured a new Chaotic Evil God."

"Just waiting for destiny's completion, the Chaotic Evil God will be truly nurtured to maturity."

"Then, a new will seize the chance to occupy the divine throne, ascend to the godhood."

"Through this, I can observe many things."

Brutal Evil God exceptionally talks much, while Pain Evil God falls silent again.

He had always thought that destiny meant Su Yu being betrayed and killed by His subordinates.

But now, Brutal Evil God told him that this destiny was actually the ritual for the birth of the Chaotic Evil God?

Even Su Yu himself is somewhat bewildered.

The words spoken by Brutal Evil God are entirely unbeknownst to him.

Was destiny originally the ritual for the birth of the Chaotic Evil God?

"Then, saying that, Radiant Emperor..."

An extremely ominous speculation suddenly emerges in Su Yu's mind.

Meanwhile, Pain Evil God breaks his silence and asks: "Specifically what to do?"

Brutal Evil God replies: "Destiny will guide a 'protagonist' to ascend to godhood, occupy the divine throne."

"This protagonist has been cultivated by us for thirty years."

Pain Evil God recalls instantly one person, Song Ming!

Song Ming is the "protagonist" chosen by Him and the Brutal Evil God, intended to instigate rebellion and personally kill Su Yu.

Only now does Pain Evil God realize that the "protagonist's" task is not merely killing Su Yu; he must ascend to godhood, occupy the divine throne!

Pain Evil God feels increasingly ominous, for He has participated very little in Song Ming's cultivation, mostly handled singlehandedly by the Brutal Evil God.

What is the Brutal Evil God ultimately aiming for?

Moments later, Pain Evil God speaks again: "Then, one last question, what domain does this newly born Chaotic Evil God belong to?"

Evil Gods each have their own domains, like brutality, like pain.

And now, this so-called Chaotic Evil God, seems devoid of any domain, could it be merely pure chaos and disorder?

Upon hearing, Brutal Evil God laughs: "Its domain is...pain!"

As soon as the words fall, Pain Evil God's expression changes drastically!

Chapter 927: Return to Sanctuary No. 73

The Pain Evil God has always been extremely indifferent, almost devoid of any expression.

But at this moment, its true form within the Evil God Soldier Mecha rarely showed a stunned expression.

Although it quickly adjusted its emotions and returned to an indifferent expression.

Yet evidently, the words of the Brutal Evil God just now left it very surprised.

After a brief silence, the Pain Evil God asked vigilantly, "What do you mean?"

But the Brutal Evil God no longer answered the Pain Evil God's question, only chuckled lightly and fell into silence.

The Pain Evil God knew that the Brutal Evil God probably didn't want to answer.

It could only think rapidly in its mind.

Clearly, it is the Pain Evil God, so why did the Brutal Evil God say that this newly born Chaotic Evil God is the Evil God of the Pain Domain?

Could there possibly be two Pain Evil Gods at the same time?

However, to be precise, the Pain Evil God is actually not a complete evil god.

Born from the future, its essence is illusory, and not real.

Only by completely devouring Su Yu, its true form, could it be considered complete.

Then it would be the true Pain Evil God. Before that, it could only be considered a strange existence, a product of a time-space paradox.

In this sense, the newly born Chaotic Evil God might be the real Pain Evil God?

At this time, the newly born Chaotic Evil God was frantically writhing.

This newly born Chaotic Evil God, in appearance, is composed of countless humans and machines fused together.

A large number of humans and machines are chaotically fused together, writhing indiscriminately, interpreting the true essence of chaos.

This entity is growing rapidly.

On the planet right now, there are hundreds of millions of people and even more mechanical creations.

These humans and mechanical creations all seem to have extracted some kind of "shadow," or perhaps a second personality, a second self.

These shadows constitute the body of the Chaotic Evil God.

It is another "personality," another self of human civilization.

If human civilization were to develop in the most twisted and mad state, it might become like this.

And once the "shadows" of all individuals and mechanical creations are extracted and fused, the Chaotic Evil God continues to grow.

At this time, the nourishment for its growth is no longer the living and normal machines but the massive history of past time on this planet with countless deceased humans and destroyed machines.

In other words, corpses!

Just how many human deaths and mechanical destructions have occurred on this planet over millennia?

Countless!

A large number of human and mechanical corpses appeared out of thin air, becoming the nourishment for this Chaotic Evil God.

These corpses are generally in a tragic state, and their number is extremely large.

Over thousands of years on this planet, whether humans or mechanical creations, the living environment was extremely harsh, experiencing suffering in life and not meeting a good end in death.

Once merged with the original humans and mechanical creations, the form of this Chaotic Evil God becomes even more twisted and terrifying.

Of course, these corpses aren't real corpses but things like those shadows and second personalities, utterly illusory.

With the nourishment of these corpses, the Chaotic Evil God "grows" very rapidly.

At this point, after this phase of "growth," it almost covers the entire surface of the planet.

Three hundred cities, hundreds of millions of people, all wrapped by this Chaotic Evil God, wrapped by countless human and mechanical corpses.

The state of the Chaotic Evil God is extremely bizarre; it essentially is not the invisibility of conventional understanding.

But rather more akin to a different kind of "reality."

A completely different kind of "reality" from the normal world.

Within this world's space-time rules, the "past," "future," can have countless possibilities, countless branches.

"Now," or rather "reality," always has only one.

But at this moment, this newly born Chaotic Evil God has formed another twisted reality.

Parallel to the real reality.

Due to this bizarre state, normal humans can't see this Chaotic Evil God, have no response to it, and continue to live normally.

Unaware that they are already living within the body of the Evil God, surrounded by countless writhing and roaring corpses.

At this moment, the growth of the Chaotic Evil God seems to have reached some critical point.

A strong, familiar aura generated spontaneously on its body.

That is... the Power of Pain!

Countless human and mechanical creation corpses have fused into this Chaotic Evil God.

Throughout the years on the Azure Star, after so many years, how much pain have these humans and mechanical creations accumulated?

Perhaps it is the pain accumulated over these years that gave birth to this Chaotic Evil God; the previous eroding actions by the Pain Evil God and the Brutal Evil God merely accelerated the process a bit.

The Pain Evil God looked at the moist Chaos God/Chaotic Evil God, deeply shocked in its heart.

"Could it be that this is how I was born?"

Such a thought emerged in its mind.

The same thought occurred to Su Yu.

Su Yu has always been curious about how the Pain Evil God was born.

He wanted to fully control the Pain Evil God, obtain its memories, and understand this secret.

However, the answer to this question is something that even the Pain Evil God wasn't aware of.

It has always been curious about its own origin and wanted to figure it out.

Although the Pain Evil God was born in the future.

But it has no knowledge of where the future it was born in is or what it's like.

Chapter 928: Return to Sanctuary 73 (Part 2)

It's like a baby being born without the memory of growing within the mother.

Also not knowing what the mother went through before giving birth to him.

It's the same for the Pain Evil God.

When the Pain Evil God gained consciousness, it already possessed Fifth Rank's Power of Pain and Power of Time.

It woke from the darkness, finding itself in a completely destroyed dark future.

In that future, there was no Azure Star, no humans, no Brutal Evil God, no Zhang Chenfeng's Mechanical Creations... nothing, just darkness and nihilism.

This was similar to the dark space-time Su Yu experienced before, but more extreme, it was true, complete darkness and nihilism.

What exactly happened in this future, why had everything been destroyed?

How did the Pain Evil God come to be, what did its original form Su Yu experience to forsake humanity and choose to become the Pain Evil God?

It knew nothing of this.

It only knew it was incomplete and needed to devour its original form, Su Yu.

So it began deeply plotting, using the Power of Time to guide Su Yu to forsake humanity and become the Pain Evil God.

But ultimately, it didn't succeed; instead, it was transformed by Su Yu into an Evil God Soldier Mecha.

At this moment, seeing the Chaotic Evil God emitting the Power of Pain, only then did the Pain Evil God come to a realization.

Could it be that in the original future, it was precisely this newly born Chaotic Evil God?

Then Su Yu chose to steal this Chaotic Evil God's divine position to oppose the Brutal Evil God?

Is this its true process of birth?

Is this the future where the Pain Evil God is born?

And at this moment, Su Yu was also watching all this.

The shock in his heart was no less than that of the Pain Evil God's.

He also understood now that if nothing unexpected happened, this was how the Pain Evil God was born.

This newly born Chaotic Evil God is the predecessor of the Pain Evil God.

And in one possible future, Su Yu stole this divine position, becoming the current Pain Evil God.

So then the question arises, how exactly can one steal this Chaotic Evil God's divine position?

According to the Brutal Evil God, the so-called "Destiny" is actually the ritual of the Evil God's birth.

In this Destiny, Su Yu is destined to be eroded by his own dark side, followed by betrayal by his subordinates.

In such a destiny, what exactly must Su Yu do to complete the ritual?

Should he allow destiny to unfold, let himself be killed by his subordinates?

Or should he fiercely retaliate, killing the traitor?

Which choice would count as completing the ritual?

Moreover, if Su Yu completes the ritual, will he turn into the true Pain Evil God, losing all humanity?

Or will Su Yu replace the current Pain Evil God, truly steal the divine position, advance to Fifth Rank, while retaining humanity?

And at this moment, the Pain Evil God was also pondering the same question.

At the same time, it faced another problem, which was, where exactly did it stand in this ritual?

In theory, it had not yet been born; regarding this process of birth, what should it do to ensure its own birth?

If birth fails, will it disappear?

Additionally, Su Yu and the Pain Evil God were thinking about another question: what role did the Brutal Evil God play in this current Destiny?

After contemplating for a moment, Su Yu and the Pain Evil God simultaneously thought of a person: Song Ming!

Song Ming was chosen by the Pain Evil God to kill Su Yu, to complete the "protagonist" of Destiny.

His profession is Brutal Warrior; could he be a pawn of the Brutal Evil God?

If Song Ming truly completes this so-called Destiny, what will happen?

Would it result in the Brutal Evil God stealing the Pain Evil God's divine position?

Is this the true plan of the Brutal Evil God?

As Su Yu and the Pain Evil God pondered, they suddenly noticed the surrounding environment beginning to change.

The newly born Chaotic Evil God had already started affecting the Mechanical City!

The power of the Chaotic Evil God is extremely strange.

Even though the Pain Evil God possesses Fifth Rank's power, it could not stop it.

The Chaotic Evil God resembles more a chaotic, insane natural phenomenon rather than a true life form.

In Su Yu and the Pain Evil God's vision, the entire Mechanical City was continuously flashing and switching.

At times it was the normal Mechanical City, at other times it was a terrifying city made of piles of corpses.

Both cities were real; two realities overlapped, uncannily.

"The entire planet's reality has already begun to change; the environment of this planet is approaching the depths of subspace..."

Both the Pain Evil God and Su Yu simultaneously thought in their hearts.

The power of the Chaotic Evil God had already started affecting the reality of the entire planet, as if intending to drag the entire planet into the depths of subspace, into an uncanny state.

...

The next instant, Su Yu opened his eyes.

"This is..."

"Shelter No. 73?"

Su Yu suddenly awoke from bed, seeing the familiar ceiling.

His memory was somewhat blurred; for a moment, he couldn't recall the previous events.

A moment later, Su Yu remembered.

He was Su Yu, a young Mechanic from Shelter No. 73.

Shelter No. 73 was a mechanized city with a population of millions.

It was called a sanctuary because outside the city was extremely dangerous, with Corpse Beasts, evil spirits, Mechanical Demons running rampant; only within the city could humans survive.

That's why it was called a sanctuary.

Su Yu lived here since childhood, surviving with his skills in mechanics.

He could only barely make a living, as he wasn't a Transcendent, just an ordinary person...

"These memories feel so real."

Su Yu's spirit revived, clearing from the previous state of obscurity, recalling his true identity.

He was certainly Su Yu, but he wasn't just an ordinary Mechanic; he was a mighty Fourth Rank Transcendent.

However, despite this, Su Yu discovered that he couldn't mobilize any Spiritual Energy.

What Time Mechanic, Giant God Soldier Mechanic, Power of Pain, Ghost Hidden Blade...

All previous professions, all powers, couldn't be mobilized!

Su Yu had truly turned into an ordinary person.

"Profession Panel!"

Su Yu called out in his mind to the Profession Panel, but there was no response.

Even the Profession Panel had lost contact!

"What's going on?"

Though surprised, Su Yu didn't panic, but calmly analyzed the situation.

He clearly remembered that just prior, he was "COS" playing Radiant Emperor in the Mechanical City, fulfilling Destiny, and secretly calculating the Pain Evil God and the Brutal Evil God.

Afterwards, through the erosion and catalysis of the Pain Evil God and the Brutal Evil God, the true Chaotic Evil God was born.

This Chaotic Evil God was extremely bizarre, eroding "reality," dragging the entire planet into a strange state.

"So, now I'm also dragged into some weird state, becoming an ordinary Mechanic named Su Yu in Shelter No. 73?"

"In any case, it's not like I've traveled again..."

Thinking of these things, Su Yu got up from the bed.

The entire room was just as he remembered, somewhat messy.

In the corner, a square maintenance robot was charging; seeing Su Yu awake, the screen that represented its eyes lit up:

"Master is awake, preparing work, preparing work!"

Su Yu looked at the little guy and said, "Nuonuo... do you remember who you are?"

That's right, this square-headed, track-driven little robot was always Su Yu's companion, Nuonuo.

Nuonuo replied, emitting sound once more: "Nuonuo is a repair robot, master's good assistant!"

Upon hearing this, Su Yu shook his head slightly.

Normally, Nuonuo had already undergone multiple evolutions, becoming a powerful Fourth-class Mechanical Creation, far surpassing humans in both power and intelligence.

But now, it seemed to have reverted to its former, foolish self.

Not paying attention to the now foolish Nuonuo, Su Yu opened the mechanical repair shop's door.

"Indeed..."

Outside was the familiar environment that resembled Shelter No. 73.

But in the farther distance were skyscrapers and bustling streets, which couldn't possibly be the scene of a small place like Shelter No. 73.

Su Yu gazed at the view outside without stepping out.

He contemplated whether what lay before him was truly real or not.

Chapter 929: False World, Dream Realm and Ritual

According to the current situation, everything before was just Su Yu's big dream.

Now that he's awake, he's just an ordinary mechanic...

"It's definitely fake."

Su Yu made the judgement in an instant.

Even now, Su Yu doesn't have any power, and can't even summon the Profession Panel.

Furthermore, he's lost that super high-speed thinking ability he had before; now he can only think like an ordinary person, unable to compute and analyze billions of times per second.

But Su Yu still firmly believes in this, believes that this world is fake.

Going from having powerful Transcendent force to suddenly becoming a fragile ordinary person, someone with a weaker will might have broken down directly.

At worst, they would have self-doubt, feelings of confusion and insecurity.

But Su Yu has no confusion, no anxiety, no self-doubt.

As a Fourth-rank Strong Person with spiritual power reaching the Fifth Rank, having looped through history thousands of times, Su Yu's will is far beyond the imagination of ordinary people.

Since he's confirmed everything is fake, the next thing Su Yu needs to do is figure out how to get out of this situation.

First, naturally, is to determine what this world is, what the situation is.

Su Yu already has a clue.

The clue is the Profession Panel.

The Profession Panel is bound to Su Yu's will; theoretically, even if he were dead, as long as there's a trace of will remaining, he could summon the Profession Panel.

Even if no will remains, in complete death, the Profession Panel is still bound to him.

But now he can't summon it, which makes the situation somewhat bizarre.

Unless some powerful force forcibly severed the connection between Su Yu and the Profession Panel, or even took control of the Profession Panel.

However, given Su Yu's research and understanding of the Profession Panel, its rank is extremely high.

Fifth Rank or even Sixth Rank power shouldn't be able to affect it.

As for higher rank power, there shouldn't be any on Azure Star.

Then the only possibility is...

"Currently this world is deep within my own consciousness, it's a spiritual world."

Su Yu muttered to himself.

If it's logically impossible to be the influence of external forces, then it must come from "within."

If his will is affected by something that ignores the information from the Profession Panel, then naturally he wouldn't be able to summon it.

Perhaps the Profession Panel is currently displayed before his eyes, but he cannot see it.

"Is it that Chaotic Evil God creating the 'Second Reality'?"

Su Yu knows, all this must be related to that prior Chaotic Evil God.

At that time, that Chaotic Evil God pulled the entire planet into some kind of bizarre state, into another 'reality,' and Su Yu fell into its trap as well.

Now it seems this second 'reality' should belong to some kind of spiritual world, like a giant Dream Realm housing the entire planet.

"If it's a Dream Realm, then there must be a subject dreaming."

"Logically, this subject should be the Chaotic Evil God, but... not necessarily!"

Su Yu extended his hand, looking at his five fingers.

The five fingers are long and strong; with a slight clenching of his fist, there was a cracking sound from his knuckles.

However, this strength is relative to ordinary people.

To Su Yu, having such strength is of little use.

Su Yu released his fist, reached out to touch the repair shop's wall, feeling his own strength.

Suddenly exerting force, he pried off a large piece of the wall.

The wall is made of sturdy reinforced concrete, the flesh and blood of ordinary people are incredibly fragile before such material.

But now, this material in front of Su Yu seems like tofu.

"Indeed, I am also one of the Dream's 'masters.'"

Su Yu withdrew his hand, nodded in satisfaction.

Earlier, he forced himself to self-hypnosis in his mind, making himself believe he possessed immense strength, and it indeed resulted in a sudden burst of power.

This proves one thing: Su Yu is also one of the masters of this dream.

He has sufficient permissions in this Dream Realm, able to manipulate it within a certain range.

According to Su Yu's speculation, that Chaotic Evil God is formed by the fusion of all humans' second personas.

Theoretically, all humans are masters of this Dream Realm; Su Yu is human, naturally he's one of them and thus can manipulate this Dream Realm.

However, currently, Su Yu's control over this Dream Realm is greatly limited.

He can only temporarily enhance his strength by tenfold, no longer able to destroy heaven and earth like before.

But Su Yu doesn't care; as long as he continuously strengthens this self-hypnosis suggestion, his power will keep growing stronger, and he will eventually retrieve his full strength.

Given his Fifth Rank level of spiritual power, doing such things is very easy.

With his wisdom, he could even develop a new profession based on the current situation to maximize this self-hypnosis power, thereby gradually increasing it.

While Su Yu was pondering what kind of new profession to develop, someone came outside the repair shop.

It was Su Yu's old acquaintance, Yang Lie.

This guy was originally an old man, now he's restored to the robust appearance Su Yu remembers, full of muscles, incredibly mighty.

He came to Su Yu, tossed a heavy and bulky Chain Blade onto the repair table with a bang: "Su Yu, this thing is broken again, hurry and fix it, we'll settle at the end of the month."

"Also, do you want a wife or not? Do you want me to introduce one, hehe..."

Yang Lie's attitude towards Su Yu, just like in memory, very bold and enthusiastic, or rather, overly familiar.

Seeing this, Su Yu also smiled slightly in his heart.

Chapter 930: False World, Dream Realm, and Ritual_2

Ever since his power grew stronger, few around him dared to treat him with such an attitude, and only in this Dream Realm would such a scene occur.

Obviously, Yang Lie couldn't remain as lucid as Su Yu in this Dream World.

Yang Lie had already forgotten everything from before and was now completely integrated into this world.

Su Yu pondered as he casually picked up the Chain Blade, glanced at it, fiddled with it twice, and then turned the throttle. The Chain Blade roared to life, emitting a gust of hot air.

This type of Chain Blade was an extremely outdated model, still powered by fuel, crude and noisy, heavy and often malfunctioning.

It seemed Yang Lie was not doing well in this Dream World.

The more advanced Chain Blades were electric-powered, or even used Spiritual Energy, much more efficient than this one.

Su Yu shook his head and casually tossed the thing back to Yang Lie.

Yang Lie had already widened his eyes in disbelief, staring at Su Yu.

The Chain Blade was huge and heavy, over a person's height, like a door panel, weighing over three hundred kilograms, akin to transforming a motorcycle into a weapon.

If Yang Lie weren't a Second Rank Transcendent with innate Divine Power, he wouldn't have been able to lift it at all.

Yet, Su Yu casually picked it up, tossed it around as if it weighed nothing, like holding chopsticks.

Su Yu was clearly just an ordinary Mechanic; since when did he become so strong?

A moment later, Yang Lie reacted, "You've awakened?"

Su Yu nodded, and with a thought, the surrounding metal parts and tools all levitated. "Extraordinary Mechanic."

In this brief time, he had already, through self-suggestion, given himself Spiritual Telekinesis.

Seeing this, Yang Lie immediately rejoiced, but then his expression changed: "Not good!"

Su Yu, hearing this, asked puzzledly, "What's wrong?"

Yang Lie quickly said, "There's a new regulation in the Sanctuary, strictly investigating all recent Awakeners, especially Mechanics. They say some believe in Evil Gods, trading blood sacrifices for power, and they won't let anyone go, even if it's a mistake."

"No matter what, you absolutely must not expose your awakening, or there will be trouble!"

Su Yu, hearing this, was about to ask for details.

Suddenly, there was the sound of a piercing roar outside.

A triangular steel fighter jet rapidly approached, descending from the sky.

The vector nozzle of the jet spewed a large amount of high-speed airflow, allowing the jet to hover in front of Su Yu's repair shop.

The weapon bay opened, revealing a six-barrel machine gun aimed at Su Yu and Yang Lie.

A cold voice emanated from the jet: "Identity confirmed, Su Yu, ordinary person, Yang Lie, Second Rank Transcendent."

"Su Yu, you are suspected of being an Evil God believer! Surrender and accept investigation!"

Before Su Yu could reply, the machine gun's six barrels had already begun pre-heating and spinning, ready to fire at any moment.

This kind of machine gun had a massive caliber and extremely fast firing speed, capable of turning even an armored tank into scrap metal, let alone flesh and blood.

Once it opened fire, it could turn someone into a mist of blood in an instant.

Su Yu looked at the dark barrel, squinting his eyes slightly.

Pondering whether to truly surrender.

It wasn't so much about fearing the power of this fighter jet and its machine gun but rather, Su Yu had just arrived and was unclear about the situation. A hasty confrontation might ruin things.

Moreover, Su Yu wanted to take the opportunity to see what was really going on with Shelter No. 73 in this Dream World.

While Su Yu was contemplating, Yang Lie by his side was already sweating profusely.

He looked at Su Yu anxiously, unsure of what to do.

Su Yu slowly opened his mouth: "I..."

Just then, Su Yu suddenly had a thought and abruptly reached out, pulling Yang Lie along, running toward the inside of the repair shop.

Su Yu moved with the speed of the wind, using his spiritual power to levitate. Rather than running, it was more like flying, incredibly fast.

Su Yu figured it out; in this Dream World, [actions] were extremely important.

If he chose to surrender, this kind of [action] might create a powerful psychological suggestion, truly binding him, unable to escape.

To ensure caution, he absolutely could not truly surrender, not even as a pretense.

"Courting death!"

Boom!

An angry snort came from the jet, followed by the roaring machine gun, spewing large-caliber ammunition at a rate of three thousand rounds per minute.

Within mere seconds, the entire repair shop was reduced to rubble, even affecting a few stores next to it.

In the end, the jet wasn't satisfied, opening another weapon bay, from which two slender surface-to-air missiles rolled out.

Boom!

The wreckage of the entire repair shop, along with the adjacent stores, was blasted into the sky.

Fortunately, the people in those stores had fled long before when they saw the jet.

After launching the missiles, the jet scanned with its radar, then ignited its engines and lifted off.

In the distance, the residents of this street all breathed a sigh of relief, looking at each other in trembling fear.

This street, known as "Poverty Street" within Shelter No. 73, was home mostly to ordinary people without power or influence.

Facing the arrogant and cruel jet, these residents could only swallow their anger, not daring to voice any complaints.

They sighed inwardly, wondering how the young man named Su Yu had offended those bigwigs to be annihilated by such a terrifying jet.

Meanwhile, underground.

Su Yu had long taken Yang Lie, using Telekinesis to burrow underground.

He even used Telekinesis to simulate data, disrupting the jet's scan, creating the illusion that he had already died.

All of this was completed in an instant.

Su Yu's power had once again increased at this moment.

Through self-hypnosis, his power was constantly growing.

Yang Lie beside him was already dumbfounded.

Su Yu ignored him, instead contemplating.

Why had the jet suddenly come to kill him just now? How did the jet know he had awakened?

And why was there a need to kill Awakeners?

After a moment, Su Yu came up with a possibility, that is...

Where is the Pain Evil God?

At the time, the Chaotic Evil God created the second reality, dragging an entire planet into it.

Su Yu was here; could the Pain Evil God also be here?

With the Pain Evil God's power, surely His strength could also be restored in this Dream World, causing chaos.

It's not surprising He could sense Su Yu's awakening.

The so-called belief in Evil Gods to gain power, could it be referring to the so-called Pain Evil God?

Or perhaps, the ruler of Shelter No. 73 is the Pain Evil God, playing both sides and chasing Su Yu instead?

Although Su Yu had just arrived in this world, it couldn't be said for the Pain Evil God.

In a dream world, Time is the most unreliable thing, and with the Pain Evil God wielding Fifth-tier Power of Time, He might have been here for hundreds of years.

However, the Pain Evil God is not human and should face significant resistance in this world.

Hence, He could only dispatch jets, rather than personally pursuing Su Yu.

Moreover, that jet was easily fooled by Su Yu, indicating its strength wasn't much. Presumably, things weren't going well for the Pain Evil God either.

With this in mind, Su Yu felt a sense of reassurance.

Then he began contemplating the "significance" of this world.

This world is a Dream World forged by the Chaotic Evil God, the second reality.

Why did this Chaotic Evil God do this? What's the significance?

The Chaotic Evil God itself is chaotic and insane, possibly devoid of thinking ability.

Yet its essence is incredibly high, and it might naturally engage in actions that benefit itself.

Coupled with what the Brutal Evil God previously said.

A speculation arose in Su Yu's mind.

That is, this Dream World is an attempt by the Chaotic Evil God to find a "brain" for itself, attempting to complete itself.

The Chaotic Evil God lacks thinking ability and only has instincts, requiring a brain capable of thought.

Whoever becomes the master of this Dream World can control the power of this Chaotic Evil God, becoming the master of this power!

It's what the Brutal Evil God refers to as usurping the divine throne!

This is a ceremony, a ritual to genuinely become a Fifth-tier Evil God!
