"If you have any financial difficulties, just tell me."She knew her life all the time. She had no money and even lost her job. The life would be tough to her.

That moment she stared at her phone for a long time, feeling bad and uncomfortable.

"Otherwise, you can go to the Bruce's company, I ask him to arrange a position for you, anyway, you have the ability, must not be worse than the original company."Chloe suggested, as if she were excited by the offer.

"So, how's your relationship with your husband now?" After Olive asking her, Olive wanted to bite off her self tongue, she did not want to say, but after all, can not hide her worry.

It would be nice if Chloe answered her firmly, and that's the end of the topic.
