Chapter 161 Beauty Is in the Eye of the Gazer.

Mother Meyer rushed up. "Alan, you are a jerk. Could you have achieved today if Ophelia hadn't asked her father to help your Hoyle family? You ungrateful bastard. Now you are mighty and then you want to kick down the ladder. You will pay for what you have down. "

Without the audience of guests, Mother Meyer didn't look like a lady. She was as fierce as a shrew.

Alan smiled, "I will double back the help of the Meyer family to the Hoyle family, but don't let me find out that the sufferance of the Hoyle family in that year is related to the Meyer family."

As soon as this words came out, Ada was moved, even Mother Hoyle could not help but stare at her son with wide eyes.

"What are you talking nonsense about? Even if you don't want to marry Ophelia, you don't need to find such a mean excuse. Your father and I have been brothers for many years. I'm sorry about his accident. So I've been treating you as my son all these years. I didn't expect you to be so unruly." Father Meyer was so irritated. He spat out his blood, which shocked people.

Ophelia's face changed. She rushed up to help his father and shouted to Alan, "Go away. I will never see you again."

In fact, when a woman asked a man to go away, it was usually duplicity. She wished that he could stay, even if he just looked back at her, but he left with such a big step directly.

In the whole Jiangcheng, you are the most richest one. Now you have slapped Meyer's family hard. People outside will think you are ungrateful. With Mr. Meyer's personality, I'm afraid he won't let you go. I'm more and more interested in the woman who can let you take such a big risk. Dave, you have met that woman, right? He really loved, hated and got angry with this woman. Loving her made him feel very grieved, hating her made him gnash his teeth, getting angry with her made him fume with anger.

No more women could make him break out such a strong emotion.

He had to think about how to punish her.

Olive who in the Luo city didn't know that Jiangcheng had been earthshaking. She only learned about that Dave was now in charge of Hengdu when she contacted Sabrina on QQ(a chat software).

Olive couldn't help laughing at Sabrina, "Don't you enjoy the benefits of a favorable position now?"

But Sabrina said dejectedly, "I'm close to him now, but I can't get him. I don't know if he was frightened by Susie's enthusiasm, now he keeps his distance from all the beautiful women in the company."

Olive sent a dizzy expression to her, "The woman came out to harm others again."

At that time, Sabrina was holding a teacup and just had a mouthful of water. When she saw that, the water was spurted out and splashed most of the screen.

The hand covering her mouth slowly loosed, then her hands also got some freedom. It was just that she felt the two men sitting next to her were always watching her every move.

"Who are you?"

The man said with laughing, "It doesn't matter who we are. It's important that someone wants to see you."

"Who?" She tilted her ear slightly, the man who spoke to her should be sitting in front of her.

"You will know after seeing later." The man said mysteriously.

"Do I know that person?" She asked again.

"Yes, you know." The man said a little carelessly.

"Then why did you tie me up?"

"You can ask her that by yourself later."

It seemed that she couldn't find any useful information in this man, talking to him was like practising Tai Chi.

After a long time, the car finally stopped. Olive heard the car door open, then the man said, "Miss Steele, please get out of the car."

He also could use the word please, it was not like Ophelia's style, Who on earth was that person?

After she got out of the car, she was immediately helped by two men. She was not so much helped as detained. She didn't know where she was going to be taken, she followed to walk on passively.

If I am not lucky enough, I would ruin by them. Five years later, you are afraid that Alan would recognize me, you began to threaten me and even changed the DNA test result of Annie. Finally, you achieve it. Alan disappointed to me and you were married. You have become his legal wife, what do you want to do? If you can't get his heart, that's your business. Ophelia, if you dare to hurt my parents and Annie a little, I curse you will never get Alan's love. You cruel woman, you don't deserve Alan's true love. I curse you never get your happiness and you would live in the pain of envy for a lifetime. If we are dead, just rest assured, my friends will help me revenge, he will kick you to the hell."

According to Ophelia's character, she would must slap her after hearing her curses.

However, there was no sound but knuckles clunked, except her uneven panting after growling and struggling.

There was cloth covering on her eyes, so she couldn't see Ophelia's expression. She began to regret after cursing. If Ophelia was annoyed by her, and began to hurt her parents and Annie who were safe originally, didn't it bad to them?

A finger suddenly lifted her messy hair on her forehead. Olive felt her scale dumb, but the voice in her ears changed, "You finally admit that, Olive."

Olive was so stunned that she almost bit her tongue, "Al...Alan?"

A fierce kiss fell on her lips. The smell of cigar overwhelmed her every corner of mouth.

Olive's pupils opened, only feeling dark in front of her. She couldn't see anything and even forgot what she should react. She didn't return from shock. It was Ophelia's voice just now, how could it become Alan's.

Olive was stimulated by him and cried again, then she nodded seriously, “Okay.”

He loosened her. But cursed those men of his in heart. ‘He asked them to tie her loosely, but they still made her arm swollen.’

Pulling a tissue on the table, he wiped her face gently and coaxed, “Don’t cry, girl. Look, you have become a clown.”

Hearing his words, she cried more fiercely, as if crying out all her grievances in these years. Finally, it became low sobs.

As long as she cried, his heart ached as if going to broke.

He originally wanted to question her before kidnapping her here. However, the moment he met her, he had been beaten by her. He wanted to be serious to her, but he couldn’t. When he heard her curse to Ophelia, the fury in his heart burned him.

She was such a kind girl, what kind of experience could make her curse a people like this!

Xenia had told him about those things, but when Olive said them in person, it still shocked him, which cut his heart into pierces. How strong she was in those years to bear all the suffers.

“They all passed, nobody can bully you in the future and nobody can threaten you. Baby, trust me.” He hugged her and sat on the chair, stroking her back. After a while, he finally made her stop crying, “Wait for me.”

Olive watched him walk out and back with a basin of warm water.

After the candlelight dinner, he held her and refused to let go, as if she would disappear once he let go.

Olive was awake and suddenly jumped up from his arms. "I have to go to pick up Annie."

Annie was still in Dave's health center. It was too late to congratulate him for opening today.

Alan pulled her back. "Don't worry, I've already arranged to send a message to your friend Chloe using your mobile phone. She's taken Annie back home. How can my daughter be out. In addition, I have sent a suitable gift to your friend's martial arts health center in your name. Girl, will you accompany me tonight? "

Olive felt a little soft, and she could not help but nod. "Then I'll call home, OK?"

She was a good girl. If she went home late or didn't go back home, she would have a call. Although she was an adult, she didn't want her parents to worry too much.

Alan gave back her mobile phone, and Olive called home. The phone was answered by Mother Steele. She made up a excuse that it was inconvenient to come home for her to work too late. Mother Steele didn't think much about it. She just asked her to remember to have a snack later.

Alan bit her ear, "when will you introduce me to your family? You can't hide my daughter's father for a lifetime."

"Baby..." He called her quietly.

His kiss was like poison, which made her addicted.

His girl, gave birth to a daughter for him five years ago, and she still as delicate as a flower. "Alan..." Her eyes were dazed and drunk, and her emotional appearance was really good, especially when she called his name, with a long ending, like a thin string.

Alan heard the rolling sound in his throat.

He wanted to make marks on her body to warn those men who coveted her. Olive was his girl.

Olive could feel all his gentleness and domineering.

"Baby." He called her in a low voice. Olive gasped. Alan, can you stop tormenting me? He knows she has no resistance to him. Every time she tend to give up resisting.

Alan's hand stopped moving, the silly girl is still worried about him. He kisses her lips. "Foolish girl, if I can't protect you well, I can't come to you so brazenly. What can they do now? But you, girl. I can't allow you to shrink back, OK? We have wasted five years. There are not many five years in our life to waste. It's good that you stay with me. You don't have to worry about other things. "

"Um." She believed what he said.

After taking a bath, he was full of energy, but her legs were still a little shaky. She gave him a sad look. Alan said with a smile, "Don't look at me like this, or I want to eat you again."

Olive hurriedly went to get dressed. It seemed that it was not early outside. She didn't have much time to play with him. "What time is it?"

"Do you have anything to do?"

"Go to work, do you think everyone can like you. No one can blame you if you sleep to midnight."

He went up to hold her. "Then you are the boss's wife. You don't have to work so hard. I'll make money for you."

Olive became serious at this time. "Alan, I know you can raise a hundred thousand of me and Annie, but I hope I can have something I like to do. I like my work very much."

Alan holds her face with a smile, "look at you. As long as you don't leave me and stay by my side, I will support you in whatever you like to do. I just don't want to see you work so hard again. You should learn to be better to yourself, OK?"

Olive loosened her hand and stared at him, "Alan Hoyle, I hate you."

Alan had known that she couldn't be hardhearted enough to hit him, but she said she hated him? Then the dangerous eyes narrowed slowly. "You hate me?"

Olive felt that a horrible storm was coming so her first reaction was to start to run, but her legs were shorter than his. As soon as Olive ran to the living room, she was caught and pushed down in the sofa.

He kissed her hard, while his hands were wandering on her body and scratching her armpits. Olive couldn't help giggling and the itchy feeling made her wriggle, so she had to raise the white flag, "I don't hate you! I don't hate you!"

Alan released his hand but still pressed on her, "Anything else?"

"What else?"

"Huh?" His eyes narrowed again and his hands began to move on her body again.

Alan didn't touch where could make Olive itchy, but she just tightened her body and wisely said, "I like..."

Olive also thought that she should let the father and daughter get together, but when she came back home, he found nobody.

Annie's kindergarten will open two days later. Before the new year, she also let her father quit his job. The small factory is too far away, and her father's legs are not good. It's hard to go back and forth by bus every day, especially when it comes to the working time. But her father is a restless person. He must feel that he is useless when he is idle at home. As soon as she discussed with Chloe, she set up a small shop near the community, and want to let her father do a small business where he can make money, and the shop is still in the decoration period these days. So, her first reaction was that Annie was taken out by her parents to play outside in the sun. The weather outside was really good.

When she called them, she knew that her parents had taken Annie to the countryside for a wedding ceremony. She remembered that her parents had mentioned to her that one of her father's uncles' grandson get married today.

The countryside is so far away, it's too late to send Ann back without stopping, so she had to carry her suitcase alone and go downstairs.

Alan looked at the emptiness behind her. "What about Annie?"

"My parents take her to the countryside to visit relatives. They won't come back these two days."

Alan is disappointed. He was nervous just now. What should he do if Annie doesn't want call him father? That's all right, not even to call him uncle.

Just for a second, he became happy again. If the little guy doesn't go with them, he can only stay with her. It's all right to get along with his daughter later.
