Chapter 191 I Am Azure Dragon

Isabella and Chris were still confronting each other Chris was alone. He did not have a family. He could be said to be fearless and his methods were rather extreme.

This was related to his childhood experience. Everyone knew that Chris had fought his way from the slum in Avon to an exalted position.

He was an orphan. He relied on his own wisdom and ruthlessness to achieve his current achievements and status

It was precisely because of this that his actions sometimes could be unpredictable.

He was not like the others who were in awe of the Lockwood family and the Barclays family

He was a loner who did not care about the consequences.

Fernando felt a little helpless. In terms of Isabella's disposition, he felt she was somewhat agreeable after getting to know her.

The problem this time was with Chris. He was the one who first felt that Isabella had disturbed his peace and revealed her unfriendliness.

As for Isabella's retort, it was a little rude, which made Chris even angrier

"Mr. Chris, this is all because of that waitress. I didn't train her well. This is just a small matter. Don't be upset. Calm down."

Chris frowned slightly and looked disgusted. "She asked me to have a meal in the restroom. Mr Fernando, how can I calm down?"

Isabella was shocked at his wild imagination.

She could not help but say, "Mr. Chris, I only said that it was quieter in the restroom. I didn't say that I wanted you to eat in it. Could it be that you want to..."

Fernando's mouth twitched. When he saw Chris's darkened face, he could not help but stroke his forehead silently.

The onlookers also looked like they could not stand it. For a moment, they felt that the food in their hands was no longer as tempting.

She was clearly playing hard to get.

When Alanna turned around, there was a dark look in her eyes. She had known that Chris would question the authenticity of her words.

However, to her surprise, Chris actually attacked her just like that and almost strangled her to death.

She touched her neck with lingering fear and left firmly.

She knew that Chris would not ask her to stay, but he would definitely investigate her secretly

When the time came, Chris would definitely find out that she had imitated Azure to invade the Lockwood family and Barclays estate.

By then, even if Chris did not believe that she was Azure Dragon, he would have to believe it Azure had done Chris a huge favor. When the time came, Chris would definitely treat her differently and change his attitude.

At the thought of this, Alanna smiled confidently

Chris said coldly. "Do you think she's telling the truth or not, Rowl?"

The expert said, "Two years ago, Azure helped us defeat Green Ant. At that time, although we didn't communicate with Azure and didn't know if the other party was a man or a woman, Azure gave me the feeling that he was forthright and generous."

"As for that woman just now..."

Rowl frowned. "Probably not her."

He was being tactful. In fact, the feeling that the woman gave him just now was worlds apart from Azure Dragon. Azure Dragon was magnanimous and direct, but the woman just now was sophisticated and cunning.

"But she said she was Azure Dragon, and she was very confident. It was rumored that Azure Dragon was no longer alive. Or does she know Azure Dragon?" Chris said.

"Could it be because of this that she dared to pass herself off as Azure Dragon and isn't afraid of being exposed?" he added.

Hearing that Azure Dragon might not be alive, Chris's face became a little pale.

He had been an orphan since he was young. His current status and achievements were all because of his ruthlessness. He was lonely and had never experienced a trace of warmth.

However, Azure's help two years ago made him feel less lonely for the first time.

Alanna's movements became more and more hurried. Sometimes, she would even press on the wrong character

On the main system's screen, the battle was getting more and more against her

The other party's attack was too crazy. It was even very domineering.

If this battle should be materialized, it would definitely be a two-meter-tall burly man smashing a weak child.

Alanna was the child who had been smashed.

That was right, smashed.

Alanna felt that she was being ruthlessly smashed by the other party

The hacking skills that she was so proud of in the past seemed so weak at this moment

Her imitation of Azure Dragon was so similar. She believed she should be on the same level as Azure Dragon but that was not true.

"But why is this happening now?"

"Who is the other party? Why is he so powerful?"

"More powerful than Azure Dragon?" she was confused.

Alanna felt suffocated.

Behind her, Chris, Fernando, Isabella, and Draxton, the Anthony family, and other dignitaries surrounded her tightly.

Alanna knew what awaited her if she failed.

She heard Arvid speak

Arvid said to Anthony and his wife, "Dad, Mom, Alanna is very brilliant. I didn't expect her to be Azure Dragon. I bet you have all heard how powerful Azure Dragon is, right?"

Arvid still had a good impression of Alanna. He wanted to let his parents know that Alanna was also a very brilliant girl.

He even said to Isabella, "Be Bella, don't you think Alanna is very brilliant? She's Azure Dragon!"

Arvid felt that Miraculous Doctor's likes and dislikes could determine his family's likes and dislikes to a certain extent.

What Bella liked would be approved by her great-grandpa and her parents.

What she hated would naturally be rejected by them.

Bloody Rose was out of danger

Fernando didn't have time to think about other things and hurriedly asked the captain, "Hillary, where are we right now?"

Hillary gasped in shock and said, "Sir, we've deviated 200 nautical miles. This direction isn't very far, but it's not close either. What's worse is that we're heading toward the sea of death"

The vortex just now should only be the outermost area of the sea of death.

"If we had discovered it a little later, or if Lord Azure Dragon had been a little slower, we would have rushed into the sea of death."

When they heard about the sea of death, everyone's faces turned pale.

Even Draxton frowned.

"Oh, it's all this idiot's fault. She almost screwed us!"

A noble with a bad temper stepped forward and kicked Alanna to vent his anger

Perhaps because he was anxious with hatred, the kick was very ruthless. Alanna groaned and actually woke up from the pain.

As soon as she woke up, she realized that the atmosphere on the ship had changed.

Without the anxiety of facing death, everyone looked at Isabella with admiration and gratitude. At the same time, they would occasionally look at her with disgust and hatred.

It was as if she was something disgusting.

"It's a pity that Lord Azure Dragon didn't have time to track the hacker who hacked into our liner in order to reestablish the ship's firewall."

The hacker on Bloody Rose said regretfully.

Alanna's body formed an arc in the air as she was thrown out. She immediately let out a shrill scream.
She shouted, "Please, don't. I have a secret. I'll tell you a big secret, about that big ship"
Chris narrowed his eyes. Rowl, who was behind him, quickly jumped down and pulled Alanna back.
Feitian was thrown to the floor of the cabin. Chris and Rowl looked down at her with identical expressions of indifference.
Alanna panted heavily with lingering fear. She, who had survived a calamity, could not help but cry

She looked at Chris with endless regret and fear She only hoped that this man would not want to kill her again.

Chris stepped back and stared in disgust at the disheveled woman on the floor.

“Tell me the secret you know. If the secret you share disappoints me, you will know that there are many ways to die that are more horrible than feeding fish.”

Alanna didn’t even bother to tremble. She knew that this demon–like man wasn’t threatening her If the secret she revealed made him unhappy, he would really make her death worse.

Alanna could not help but cry in fear. Chris frowned in discomfort when he saw her tears smudging her makeup.

He had a mania for neatness.

He couldn’t help but take another step back.

Rowl glanced at Chris and knew that he was forcing himself to endure.

Rowl took a step forward and said coldly to Alanna, Tell me quickly. Don’t waste my time.”

Alanna held back her tears and said with a trembling voice, “Mr Chris, I didn’t mean to deceive you. Someone forced me.”

*Someone forced you to get close to me and lied to me?” Chris asked impatiently

Alanna said, “Yes. That person said that you have one of the keys to the ship, and you also have that crystal potion. That person asked me to get close to you and steal the key to the ship, as well as the crystal potion in your hand.”

Chris’s expression turned cold.

Rowl frowned as well. He exchanged a glance with Chris. Rowl said coldly. “Who is that person? Old Mr Sif?” “No, Old Mr. Sif is only that person’s target. Old Mr. Sif also has a key in his hand. After my mother married Old Mr. Sif, that person asked my mother and me to steal the key from Old Mr Sif. However, Old Mr Sif was very tight–lipped about such an important thing. In addition to you and Old Mr Sif, that person also let me approach the Lawrence family because Floyd Rutherford also has a key to the big ship.”

Rowl’s face grew colder “After all you’ve said, who is that man?”

Alanna closed her eyes, her mind racing. She was analyzing whether Chris would let her go if she gave him the man’s name.

“Mr Chris, you have to promise that as long as I tell you who that person is, you won’t hurt me.”

Alanna wanted a promise.

The unconscious Alanna was fished out by Carol's family

Helen looked down at Alanna's sorry state and smiled.

"Helen, why did you save her?" Sean asked, frowning.

Helen said, "You know, Dad, she's Old Mr. Sif's stepdaughter, but from what I understand, this woman isn't Just Old Mr Sif's stepdaughter She has other secrets. I think we can learn something from her

Sean nodded and asked, "Is she still alive, then?"

"I'm sure she'll live," Helen said, taking a syringe from the side

Sean's expression changed when he saw the syringe.

It was filled with fear.

Helen smiled gracefully and stabbed the syringe into Alanna's shoulder

As the liquid in the syringe was injected, the wound on Alanna's shoulder actually healed quickly.

"It's amazing."

Helen stared in fascination at Alanna's healed wound.

She said to Sean, "Dad, we have to get the key and the experimental materials for the Blue Crystal Potion from Old Mr. Sif. I really can't wait."

Chapter 197 Claire's Hatred

Chris and Anthony both looked at Eric.

"Doesn't he know that one of them is a fan of Miraculous Doctor and the other is a fan of Azure Dragon?" they thought

With such a brain, he still wanted to compete with Fernando. They were really worried about his intelligence.

No wonder Fernando eliminated all the direct descendants of the Barclays family in that massacre, leaving only Eric alive.

It turned out that it wasn't because Eric was honest, but because Eric was a bit too dumb. Fernando felt he was dispensable.

Eric had no idea that he had been branded as a foolish person.

He was still extremely angry. He could not bring himself to work with the Lockwood family at all.

"Why did the ancestors of the Barclays family establish the Allied Nations?"

"Wasn't it just to deal with the Lockwood family?" he thought.

Now, this idiot Fernando actually wanted to cooperate with the Lockwood family!

Seeing that Chris and Anthony were obviously on the Lockwood family's side, Eric targeted Fernando.

He questioned, "Fernando, are you just going to watch them betray the Allied Nations and side with outsiders? Are you really the president of the Allied Nations?"

Fernando glanced at Eric and said slowly. "Are you teaching me how to be the leader? Or are you going to be the president yourself?"

Even though Eric told himself in his heart he could do it, he still obediently shut his mouth when he thought of Fernando's cruel methods a few years ago.

Fernando no longer paid attention to the clown-like Eric. He did not take him seriously at all.

Eric's face darkened as he watched Fernando and Draxton sign the cooperation treaty unwillingly

Together, they would take out the eight keys they had and open the eight doors of the ship to search for crystal potions.

After that, they would establish a new collaborative alliance to study crystal potions together

The Blue Crystal Potion was only one of them.

Everyone present was responsible for this collaboration. Everyone signed their names on the contract.

This was a contract that no one dared to violate.

If anyone dared to violate it, they would definitely face the punishment of the Barclays family and the Lockwood family.

At this point, the assembly was successful.

The atmosphere on Bloody Rose suddenly relaxed. Fernando held an even grander cocktail party, and the fragrance of champagne and red wine filled the entire hall.

Only a few people were very upset.

In the car, Isabella and Claire were also discussing.

Claire’s eyes were filled with mockery. “I want to take the Andri family back from them. I want them to go. back to where they came from. To them, letting them have nothing is more painful than killing them.”

Isabella nodded in agreement. “You’re right. For such people, death is not the most terrifying thing. What’s terrifying is to put them back to square one.”

“However, as you said, that woman named Helen is not simple. I’m afraid that we’d have to get rid of such a woman before we can have peace in the future.”

A fierce look appeared in Claire’s eyes. “Then I’ll make sure she can’t make another splash.”

Carol and her family never expected Claire to treat them like this!

They didn’t know why she was so bold.

After Helen was sent flying, she had no choice but to deal with the fact that Claire had really changed. She was no longer the girl from when she was young who did not dare to say anything after being bullied by her and would only silently endure the humiliation.

Helen had been hit in the abdomen. She clutched it, her mind racing as she waited for the pain to fade, trying to think of a way to deal with Claire.

Sean and Millie were so stunned by Claire's sudden attack that they couldn't react for a moment

When they reacted, they were greeted by Claire's leg.

The two of them let out miserable screams at the same time. Their bodies flew out and collided with the protective fence on the side of the road.

The two of them were in so much pain that they almost suffocated. They didn't even care about getting angry or scolding Claire.

Claire's lips curled into an evil smile. Her eyes were as cold as an emotionless weapon.

This kind of Claire made Carol and her family realize how powerful and ruthless she was

Sean and Millie couldn't help but start to tremble when they saw Claire walking in their direction. They couldn't help but show fear on their faces.

Claire stepped forward and grabbed Millie's chin. She squeezed so hard that Millie's jaw was completely disfigured. Deep fear shone in Millie's eyes.

Claire looked at her and smiled disdainfully. "You're from the slums. It must be a long time since you've experienced what it's like to be beaten up, right? Experience it today and learn to adapt, because you'll be in pain for countless days and nights in the future."

Millie stared at her with growing horror. Her brain simply couldn't reflect on the deeper meaning of Claire's words.

Claire let go of her and wiped her hands on her shirt in disgust as if it was something dirty

Instead, she grabbed Sean's chin.

Sean felt a sudden pain in his jaw. Fury flamed in his eyes as he glared at Claire as if he wanted to eat her alive.

Claire's beautiful blue eyes met his. The look on her face grew colder Her voice was low and husky. "Are you furious? Want to kill me?"

Sean was shocked and angry.

The curve of Claire's lips deepened, growing wickedly cold. "You'll never get the chance to kill me in this life. On the contrary, I'll be the only one who'll trample your entire family under my feet."

She was like a demon.

Helen finally felt less pain. She got up from the floor and saw that Claire was also ruthless with her father She couldn't help but wonder how Claire was going to deal with her like this.

"What was her weakness?" she thought.

Helen thought quickly She couldn't help but ask tentatively, "Claire, you should calm down now, right?"

"I didn't expect you to hit Dad."

Claire turned slowly to Helen and sneered. "I never go easy on my enemies. Just like I never get called off when I kill. Or hesitate."

Helen was inwardly alarmed. She couldn't help but study Claire's expression. She wanted to see if Claire had said these words out of anger or sincerity

However, the truth disappointed her greatly Claire was obviously serious.

Helen had to accept that it was impossible to control her with kinship and family.

Chapter 200 The Carol Family

When Claire returned, she told Isabella about her mother's ashes.

"They're leaving tomorrow?" Isabella asked.

Claire nodded.

"Then I'll go with you tomorrow," Isabella said.

Claire's eyes lit up.

The other 17 people said, "We'll go with you so that we can protect you, madam."

Isabella had the same thought. It wasn't that she wanted them to protect her, but that they could be of assistance to Claire.

They began to discuss how to deal with the Carol family in full swing.

Draxton and Little Dipper and Big Dipper were standing aside and listening silently.

Frank said, "Sir, please think twice. Madam is the patriarch's wife. How can she take the risk with those people? Aren't you going to stop her?"

Frank was all jealousy. In fact, he was very envious of Madam's preference for the 18 Blue Crystals.

The members of Big Dipper were clearly very outstanding.

Draxton looked at Frank indifferently and said, "I have no problem with whatever Bella wants to do."

Frank's face fell.

The seven of them looked at each other. Josh stepped forward and straightened his neck. He said to Draxton, "Sir, Madam has ignored you for a few days, right? If this continues, I'm afraid she'll run away. Look, she doesn't even want us. Big Dipper is half of the Lockwood family, Mrs. Lockwood doesn't want us. What do you think this means? This means that Mrs. Lockwood is very likely to abandon you as well!"

Josh finished speaking, he carefully
