Chapter 221 Pointers

When Elodia heard the words “sour and spicy noodles”, she suddenly felt a strong urge to eat them.

She seemed to have forgotten about the fish with pickles.

Looking at Isabella smiling, Elodia finally nodded and walked into the kitchen.

She stood at the side uneasily and watched as Isabella returned to the stove to get busy.

She asked, “Isabella, can I help you?”

She couldn’t figure out where to start. It seemed that Isabella had done everything and didn’t need her.

Isabella put the noodles into the pot and said, “I’m almost done. You don’t have to do anything. Sit for a while. It’ll be ready soon.”

How could Elodia sit still? Instead, she stood where she was and waited uneasily.

During those five years when Isabella was staying in Lotus Village, in order to raise a child, she learned a lot of skills, including cooking.

Her culinary skills were quite good. The sour and spicy noodles she made were not particularly authentic, but it was precisely because of this that the sour taste was moderate and the spicy taste was faint.

Chapter 222 Isabella's Status

The next day, when Isabella went downstairs, she saw Shawn and Kyla welcoming her warmly. Not only that, but even Kim was also very friendly to Isabella.

"Mrs. Lockwood, it's our fault for not being thorough yesterday and offending you. This is a small token of our apology. I hope you won't refuse us."

Kyla handed over a gift bag with both hands with a smile. Isabella took a look and saw that it was a very exquisite jewelry box.

There should be jewelry inside.

However, Isabella did not take it. Isabella walked to the sofa and sat down. She smiled and said, "I understand your intentions, Mrs. Langley. But there's no need for the gift."

Shawn and Kyla immediately looked uneasy. They looked in the direction of Kim for help.

Kim said, "Isabella, are you hating me?"

Isabella looked at Kim in surprise and said, "Aunt Kim, why do you say that?"

"Then why don't you accept their gift? Shawn and Kyla are just straightforward. They don't mean anything else."

Isabella said, "Aunt Kim, what position are you in by saying that? The daughter of the Langley family or the daughter-in-law of the Lockwood family?"

"If it's the former, it's my fault then.

"But if it's the latter, I don't think it has much to do with you whether I accept their gift or not."

Isabella's words were not polite at all.

No matter how many words Kim wanted to say, they were all held back in her heart at this moment. Kim's face was gloomy.

Chapter 223 Bernard's Surprise

Yale was the daughter of the Lockwood family, one of the noblest ladies in the world. But Yale was actually so intimate with Isabella.

Yale's enthusiastic behavior just now clearly showed that she liked Isabella very much.

At this moment, Shawn and Kyla were busy greeting Ava and the others. They even took out gifts enthusiastically.

Ava and Mia were used to the Langley family giving them gifts every year.

Ava and Mia accepted the gifts with a smile, not embarrassing Shawn and Kyla.

Shawn and Kyla had been embarrassed by Isabella just now. Seeing Ava and Mia accept their gifts, they could not help but feel a little flattered.

Cressida smiled reservedly and went forward to greet them very politely.

It was not Cressida's first time here, so Ava and the others were not unfamiliar with Cressida.

Ava even praised, "Cressida, you are getting more and more beautiful."

Cressida's eyes immediately lit up. Then, Cressida lowered her head shyly and glanced at Bernard secretly.

However, Bernard and the others were chatting happily with Isabella.

Their admiration for Isabella was unparalleled. Even Draxton could not compare to Isabella in their heart.

Chapter 224 The Recording

The atmosphere in the living room instantly fell into a dead silence.

The corners of Ava's mouth twitched as she silently looked at Bernard. Bernard always liked to tell the truth!

The Langley family thought that the matter they had done five years ago was very secret. But in the residence, the Lockwood even knew very well which corner had an additional fly let alone the matter that Cressida had seduced Draxton in the middle of the night five years ago.

They were only protecting Cressida's self-esteem and did not bring this matter up.

At that time, Cressida was thrown into the zoo and almost fed to the lions. After Cressida was fished out by Bernard, neither side mentioned this matter again.

The Lockwood family was really unwilling to let Cressida die in the zoo, and that was why they asked Bernard to save Cressida.

Unexpectedly, the Langley family had such an idea.

Ava was also a little speechless.

The expressions of the Langley family could no longer be described as awkward.

Cressida's face turned even paler.

However, after Bernard finished speaking, he even corrected Kim very seriously. "Aunt Kim, don't say the wrong name next time.

Chapter 226 The Commotion

As for Cressida, she ran into the living room and happened to see Elodia going into the kitchen. Cressida stopped in her tracks and silently hid in a corner.

From her angle, Cressida could see Elodia looking for something to eat in the kitchen.

Cressida's eyes turned red with jealousy.

Elodia was just a village girl who grew up in a poor village named Black Mountain Village.

What right did Elodia have to be so free and happy in the Lockwood family and change her poor destiny completely while Cressida could only please everyone here?

The fear, uneasiness, and jealousy in Cressida's heart grew crazily like wild grass.

Cressida suddenly thought of a brilliant idea.

That was to frame Elodia.

If Cressida insisted that the words in the recording were said by Elodia, then the unlucky one would be Elodia, and Cressida would be safe.

Cressida's eyes flashed with malice as she walked toward the kitchen.

Elodia had no choice but to enter the kitchen because she wanted to eat pickles.

Elodia saw pickles on the dining table this morning and thought there must be still some left in the fridge. Elodia carefully opened the refrigerator and saw the sealed pickles. Elodia's eyes lit up. She took the jar out and opened the lid, planning to eat some.

A thoughtful look appeared in Elodia's eyes. Elodia felt that she should buy a pregnancy test kit.

Elodia remembered that her period this month had already been delayed for half a month, but she, who was careless, did not notice it.

Elodia felt that there was a high chance that she was pregnant.

Chapter 227 The Evidence

A large group of people rushed out. In the crowd, Cressida's eyes flickered as she ran out with the crowd.

Elodia must have been discovered, and Cressida wore a quick sneer.

They followed the child's cries and ran to the pool. They saw Elodia lying on the ground drenched, and her lower body was already dyed red with blood.

Kieran knelt beside Elodia and grabbed Elodia's clothes, crying his heart out.

"Mommy, wake up! Mommy, don't die!"

Everyone's expression changed.

Isabella was the first to rush out.

Isabella flashed to Elodia's side and grabbed Elodia's pulse.

Isabella looked at Elodia's lower body, and obviously, it was a massive hemorrhage.

Damon's expression was extremely gloomy. He shielded Betty and Ricky behind him, but he did not stop Kieran.

When Betty and Ricky saw Isabella, they immediately ran out from behind Damon. Betty and Ricky were not afraid, and they asked worriedly, "Mom, will Aunt Elodia die?"

Isabella said, "No. With me around, Aunt Elodia won't die."

Gary and Draxton also strode over. When they saw the situation here, their expressions changed.

"Gary, what are you waiting for? Hurry up and carry Kieran over. How can we let him be by Elodia's side in such a situation?"

Colin frowned and shouted at Gary.

Kim also frowned as she watched that scene. She frowned slightly and her face was gloomy.

Anyone could tell that Elodia most likely had a miscarriage.

None of them realized that Elodia was pregnant. What the hell was going on?

How could Elodia who looked fine just now suddenly be like this?

As for Cressida, her face was pale. Her heart was beating a little fast. She finally felt afraid.

Everyone looked at the two little girls. One of them was wearing a blue woolen tutu and a sky-blue butterfly hairpin with white spots on it, while the other was wearing a pink woolen tutu. When they stood together, they looked like a pair of twins, extremely delicate and cute.

If not for the fact that the situation was not right, they really wanted to pick up these two little girls and kiss them.

Under Cressida's horrified gaze, a screen about 14 inches long suddenly popped up above little Betty's head. Not only was there sound on the screen, but there was also an image.

It was the scene of Cressida insulting Betty and trying to drag little Betty into the pool. However, little Betty electrocuted Cressida into the pool. In the end, Cressida was pulled out by the secret guards.

Every one of the Lockwood family looked at Cressida unkindly at this moment.

Cressida was so scared that she seemed to have lost her soul. Cressida cowered beside Kim in a daze and trembled.

Cressida muttered, "I didn't do it on purpose. Aunt Kim, save me."

Of course, Kim also felt that her grandson was closer to her. However, Cressida was her niece, and this matter concerned Kim’s reputation in the Lockwood family.

If Cressida was really killed in the Lockwood family, what status would Kim have in the Lockwood family in the future?

Kim did not give up and said, “Draxton, let’s go and see Elodia first. What if Elodia’s child is saved?”

Everyone looked at Kim in disbelief.

They did not expect Kim to be so muddle-headed. In order to protect Cressida, Kim actually disregarded the life and death of Elodia.

Could it be that in Kim’s heart, as long as the child in Elodia’s belly was saved, the matter of Cressida hurting Elodia could be forgotten?

Then where did that leave Elodia?

Ava was a straightforward person. She could not help but look at Kim sarcastically and said, “Kim, I didn’t expect you to be so muddle-headed. You can’t differentiate between right and wrong.

“If my niece did such a thing, I would immediately slap her to death. I would definitely not allow her to stand here and act pitiful. Who is she acting for here? Who does she think she is?”

Ava’s words were not polite at all. Kim opened her mouth but could not say a word.

Kim also knew that although Ava’s scolding wasn’t nice, it made sense.

In fact, Kim was also a little angry and wanted to slap Cressida.

With this thought in mind, Kim turned around and slapped Cressida hard. Cressida covered her face that was in pain and tears streamed down her face.

Cressida cried, "Aunt Kim, let's go see Elodia first. What if the child in her belly is saved?"

Cressida's eyes revealed a strong desire.

Kim thought so too. Kim then looked at Draxton and said, "Draxton, I've already slapped Cressida. Let's put this aside for now. Let's go take a look at Elodia first."

Draxton smiled mockingly and said coldly, "Aunt Kim, I don't care Elodia and your grandson are only worth one slap.

Two secret guards immediately appeared in the air. They were also very angry as they watched in the dark. It was Christmas, but the Langley family had caused the Lockwood to be in a foul mood.

Hence, the two secret guards happily picked up Shawn and Kyla and threw them out.

Shawn and Kyla wanted to beg for mercy, but just as they opened their mouths, two secret guards stuffed two balls of toilet paper into their mouths.

Tears could not help but fall as Kim looked into Colin’s eyes, her face pale and her lips trembling.

“Cressida is still young and insensible. She has already paid the price. Why do you have to do this...”

Colin sneered and said, “If my grandson really dies, even though all of the Langley family die with him, they couldn’t afford it.

“Since you care about the Langley family so much, why don’t you scram back to your home!”

Kim immediately shut her mouth and did not dare to say anything else.

Colin turned around and strode away.

There was a professional treatment room in the Lockwood family’s residence. The medical equipment in the treatment room was very comprehensive. Isabella operated on Elodia there.

Isabella finished the surgery in 20 minutes. Gary was by Elodia’s side the entire time.

Isabella cleaned up Elodia, covered her with a blanket, and asked Gary to push Elodia out with a stretcher.

When the door opened, a group of people stood outside.

Damon asked excitedly, "Isabella, how is it? Has my great-grandson been saved?"

Isabella looked at Damon angrily and said, "Shouldn't you be more concerned about Elodia's safety at a time like this?"

"It's obvious that Elodia is fine. Isabella, quickly tell me. Did you manage to save my great-grandson?"

Isabella did not say anything.

Gary said in a deep voice, "Grandpa, we discovered Elodia too late. Elodia had already miscarried when she was in the pool. It's already very good that she can keep her life now."

Damon fell silent.

Damon glanced at the unconscious Elodia and said, "Gary, let Isabella take good care of herself."

Gary was stunned for a moment before he nodded and said, "Yes."

Turning around, Damon said to Draxton with a murderous expression, "A life for a life. Draxton, we can't spare that woman's life."

Draxton nodded.

Gary was stunned and asked, "Which woman?"

Draxton said, "Cressida. She was the one who beat up Elodia, causing her to have a miscarriage."
