Chapter 231 Let's Get A Divorce

Gary's expression changed. "Is it that your health can't recover completely?"

Gary looked at Elodia with a complicated expression.

If Elodia could never get pregnant again, Gary was a little conflicted.

However, Gary thought about how Elodia was incomparably compatible with him in making love and how their every sex was incomparably perfect. Gary thought that they already had Key, and only one child was enough.

"Don't worry. Even if you can't have another child in the future, I won't divorce you."

Gary looked at Elodia arrogantly on the bed from above and thought that Elodia would show gratitude.

However, Elodia said calmly, "Gary Lockwood, let's get a divorce."

Gary was stunned.

This was the first time Gary had heard Elodia call out his full name.

It was a little novel, a little unfamiliar, but also made Gary a little unhappy.

That was because the first time Elodia called his full name was to ask for a divorce.

Gary waved his hand and said, "Elodia, why are you so ungrateful? I already said that I don't mind if you can't give birth in the future..."

"You've misunderstood." Elodia smiled mockingly and said, "It's not because I can't have children, but I just want to divorce you."

Gary was stunned. Then, his expression gradually turned cold as he said angrily, "Elodia, you're getting bolder, aren't you? Do you think you're qualified to throw a tantrum just because you're injured and have a miscarriage?"

"I'm not throwing a tantrum. I'm serious."

"Let's get a divorce."

Elodia looked at Gary calmly. Elodia's usually clear and docile eyelids were now like stagnant water, numb and empty.

Gary stared at Elodia coldly and met her gaze. Gary sneered. "Elodia, are you serious?"

"Yes, I'm serious. Let's get a divorce." Elodia's voice was weak but extremely firm.

Gary took a deep breath and said mockingly, "Have you thought about the consequences of divorcing me?"

"Would your greedy parents and brother allow you to divorce me and leave the rich Lockwood family?"

“Don’t think that I don’t know that you’re forced to give them money every month. If you give them less every month, they won’t let you off and will argue with you.

“If you divorce me, you won’t have any money to give them anymore. When the time comes, will they let you off?”

Colin strode in first.

When Colin saw that Isabella was also there, he could not help but be stunned.

On the bed, Elodia and Kieran were shocked. They looked in the direction of the door in a panic.

Isabella asked in surprise, "Uncle Colin, what's wrong with you? Elodia needs to rest. Why are you making such a big commotion? Is there something urgent?"

Colin's expression froze for a moment before he said with a straight face, "Isabella, this has nothing to do with you."

Then, Colin walked toward Elodia.

Elodia looked at Colin and the other two who suddenly came in in an imposing manner. If it was in the past, Elodia might have been so frightened that she did not even dare to breathe.

But at this moment, Elodia's heart was terrifyingly calm.

Elodia had expected Colin's anger. After so many years' getting along, Elodia knew how domineering Colin was.

With Colin's dominance, it was normal for him to have such a reaction when he heard Elodia take the initiative to ask for a divorce.

Colin stared at Elodia sharply and said sternly, "I heard that you want to divorce Gary?"

Elodia's eyelashes fluttered as she said, "You can ask Gary to bring up the divorce. I will agree."

Elodia's goal was to leave the Lockwood family. As for how she would leave, Elodia did not care.

Colin was a little surprised. In the past, Elodia was very timid and did not even dare to speak when she saw Colin. But now, Elodia's reaction made Colin surprised.

Colin said coldly, "It seems that you've made up your mind?"

Elodia said, "Yes."

Elodia's tone was exceptionally firm.

Without a word, Colin picked up Kieran and said, "If you want a divorce, you can forget about seeing Key for the rest

Chapter 233 Unless You Die

Hearing Kieran say Dad was useless, Gary felt extremely heartbroken.

Gary flew into a rage out of humiliation and said, "Key, what did I teach you usually? Are there rules in your heart? Who allowed you to speak to your elders like this?"

Kieran trembled slightly. He lowered his head and did not dare to speak.

However, large tears fell silently.

Looking at this scene, Gary felt even more frustrated.

In the end, Gary targeted Elodia again and said angrily, "If you want a divorce, it's fine. Unless you die!"

With that, Gary turned around and left angrily.

Isabella stared at Gary's back with a hint of murderous intent in her eyes. Gary was simply a top-notch bastard.

Seeing that Elodia's complexion was getting worse and worse, Isabella suppressed the depression in her heart and said to Colin and Kim, "Uncle Colin, Aunt Kim, Elodia needs to rest. If there's anything else, you can leave first."

Colin and Kim were silent for a moment before Kim said sternly, "We can go out. But, from now on, Key can't stay by her side anymore. She is always teaching Key bad things."

Obviously, Colin also wanted to teach Elodia a lesson. Colin did not say anything and directly carried Kieran away.

Isabella watched the couple leave and walked back to Elodia's side with a gloomy expression.

Isabella comforted Elodia. "Elodia, don't worry. I'll definitely help you get a divorce. What do you think about Key?"

Isabella used to raise Ricky and Betty alone and knew how hard it was to be a single mother.

Fortunately, Ricky and Betty were very sensible. With the help of her masters, Isabella could live relatively comfortably.

Elodia closed her eyes and said in a hoarse voice, "I've never thought of fighting for custody of Key. I can't even support myself. There's also my family who are dragging me down. I can't give Key a good life and education."

Isabella was silent for a moment. This was the cruel reality.

Isabella comforted Elodia, "Elodia, you're still young. After leaving the Lockwood family, you can go out and see how vast the outside world is. When you become powerful enough, you can come back and pick up Key." Elodia did not say anything, but her heart was filled with bitterness.

Powerful? That was easier said than done.

"Maybe I am too selfish. I shouldn't have mentioned the divorce. Divorce hurt Key the most. I..."

The bathroom door was opened, and the blood on the floor instantly stung Gary’s eyes.

Gary’s pupils trembled and he stood rooted to the ground. He did not even notice that the walking stick under his armpit had fallen to the ground.

Isabella carried Elodia out of the bathtub and quickly walked out to put Elodia on the bed.

The first thing Isabella did was bandage Elodia’s wound to stop the bleeding.

However, Elodia had lost too much blood.

Elodia’s breathing was almost non-existent, and the hot water could not hide the coldness of her body.

Isabella turned around and shouted at the stunned man, “What Elodia’s blood type is, Gary?”

Gary trembled as he replied, “I... I don’t know...”

A murderous look flashed across Isabella’s eyes.

After saying that, Gary was stunned.

Gary actually didn’t know what blood type Elodia was.

When Elodia gave birth to Kieran, the doctor had also prepared a spare blood bag, but Gary had never cared. Gary should know, but he really didn’t know.

Gary was at a loss.

Isabella turned to Draxton and said, “Draxton, open the operating theater and bring me there. I will give Elodia a blood test.”

Draxton did not hesitate. As Draxton helped Isabella send Elodia into the operating theater, he called Greyson and asked Greyson to bring people over to help.

Isabella took Elodia’s blood to test the blood type. Greyson and the others came very quickly. As soon as they came in, they started to operate on Elodia in an orderly manner.

There was no need to mention how powerful Greyson’s medical skills were. He could operate on Elodia even without Isabella’s help.

What Elodia needed now was the enhancement of vitality.

Isabella took out a potion that she had never used before.

Isabella had developed it herself. It could save one's life in an emergency.

Isabella injected the potion into Elodia.

With this potion, as long as Elodia still had a trace of a pulse, she could be saved.

Elodia had been looking around. Deep down, Elodia wanted to take another look at Kieran. When Kieran appeared and shouted these words, Elodia suddenly burst into tears.

Her gaze landed on Kieran greedily, as Elodia and Kieran looked at each other from afar.

In front of the window on the third floor, Gary's fists were placed on the windowsill. His knuckles were clenched so tightly that they were pale, but Gary did not realize it.

Gary's eyes were red.

At this moment, the door of Gary's bedroom was pushed open. Cressida, who was sitting in a wheelchair, rolled the wheelchair herself in with a pale face.

"Gary..." Cressida called out in a weak and hoarse voice.

Gary did not hear Cressida. His entire focus was on Elodia outside.

Cressida followed Gary's line of sight and saw Elodia, and her eyes flashed with extreme hatred instantly. Due to Elodia, that village girl, Cressida's leg was broken, Why was Elodia still alive? Why didn't Elodia die? Gary stared at the door of the helicopter fixedly as it closed. The helicopter took off. Elodia completely left the Lockwood family and left Gary.

Gary suddenly felt as if a piece of his heart was empty.

It was just like air. When Gary had it, he never felt it precious. But when Gary lost it, he suddenly felt suffocated.

Gary suddenly felt that his vision was a little blurry. He seemed to have heard someone calling him from behind, but in the blink of an eye, he lost consciousness.

"Gary!" Cressida exclaimed and quickly went out to call for help.

"I... I actually couldn't hug him." Elodia's face was filled with pain.

Isabella wiped Elodia's tears and said, "Elodia, you and Key are only separated temporarily. When you recover, you can bring Key to Lotus Village to reunite."

When Elodia heard this, the reluctance in her heart faded a little.

However, Elodia then said worriedly, "I don't know if he'll get used to it without me by his side. I'm afraid that he'll be sad knowing I have divorced Gary. I... Isabella, no, can I call you Bella?"

Isabella smiled and said, "We're the same age. Of course, you can call me Bella."

Chapter 236 Elodia’s Chance

Isabella felt that Master Menter was taking revenge for Isabella’s lack of embroidery talent.

Back then, Isabella learned medical skills from Grandmaster, learned bug poison crafting from Master Grey, learned hacking techniques from Mr. Lyons, learned martial arts from Master Vaughn, and learned embroidery from Master Menter...

In the end, Isabella became Miraculous Doctor in medical skills, a grandmaster in bug poison crafting, and Azure Dragon in hacking. As for the martial arts, it was needless to say, her martial arts skills were unparalleled.

But as for the embroidery....

Isabella's hand always trembled when she held the embroidery needle, and she would never be able to embroider the finished product.

The good thing was that before learning embroidery, Isabella had learned a good painting skill from Master Menter...

Because Isabella had no talent in embroidery, Ziana sulked for a long time.

Ziana looked very kind, but the next day, she started training Isabella in various etiquettes. Just thinking about it made Isabella feel terrified...

Ziana was looking at Isabella with a smile. Isabella had no choice but to bow obediently.

Ziana smiled gently. She looked at Isabella carefully for a moment and smiled. "You look good."

Ziana was obviously in a good mood.

Isabella also smiled and said, "Yes, Master Menter, let me introduce you. This is Draxton Lockwood, Betty's and Ricky's father."

Ziana looked at Draxton and nodded politely and aloof. "I knew him. After all, which one of us in Lotus Village doesn't know Lockwood patriarch's name?"

It was obvious that Ziana didn't look happy.

Isabella gave Draxton a sidelong glance.

When Draxton chased after Isabella for five years, Isabella's masters in Lotus Village hated Draxton to the core.

Isabella said ingratiatingly, "Master Menter, Draxton treats me very well."

"Hmph." Ziana snorted softly. "You're already siding with outsiders?"

As long as one wasn't embarrassed, others would be.

In any case, Elvis did not feel awkward at all. Elvis widened his watery charming eyes and asked Elodia, Elodia did not understand the awkwardness of such a small matter at all.

Hence, Elodia calmly returned the jerky to Elvis.

Kim said gently, "Colin, you and I watched Cressida grow up. You even hugged her when she was young. Can you bear to see her handicapped?

"Isabella is Miraculous Doctor. If she is willing to help, Cressida's leg could still be saved.

"I know Cressida did something wrong, but I can accompany her to admit her mistake and beg Isabella. Isn't it okay?

"We're all family. Why must you be so heartless?"

Colin sighed and looked at Kim with a dark gaze.

When Kim saw Colin's gaze, she immediately trembled and said with a grievance in her eyes, "I'm just saying... Don't look at me like that."

Colin turned around and left without saying a word.

Cressida cried, "Aunt Kim, what does Uncle Colin mean?"

Kim did not say anything.

Kim and Cressida would soon find out what Colin meant.

Not long after Colin left, two guards came in, dragged Cressida away, and threw her out of the Lockwood family's residence.

One of the guards sneered and said, "You're lucky enough to be able to walk out of the door of the Lockwood family's residence alive. Take care of yourself from now on. How dare you cause trouble in the Lockwood family? Hmph!"

Then, the two guards left arrogantly.

Cressida shivered in the cold wind in her wheelchair, her heart filled with fear.

Coincidentally, the helicopter flew over Cressida's head. Cressida was so frightened that her entire body trembled. However, Cressida thought of something and decided to fight for it.

Hence, as soon as Isabella and Draxton alighted from the helicopter, they heard Cressida wailing.

Cressida dragged her broken body and knelt outside the door, weeping sadly.

Chapter 240 Childish Fight

Tyler Lockwood took a step forward and glanced at Ricky and Betty indifferently. His posture was arrogant, and his eyes were filled with disdain.

His great-grandpa and the other relatives said these two children were illegitimate. If they were smart, they would be his right-hand men in the future.

However, he did not like them. He did not want them to be his right-hand men.

For some reason, he didn't like these two illegitimate children.

"Brother, look, he's still glaring at us!"

Betty widened her eyes and said to Ricky like an angry kitten.

Ricky did not say anything. He just stared at Tyler quietly

Tyler also looked at Ricky. The two little guys looked at each other from afar.

The atmosphere between the adults froze for a moment. Patriarch Lockwood broke the silence and said in a deep voice, "You two old fellows. You drank too much and spouted nonsense, right?"

Zack said seriously, "Big brother, you don't have to pretend to be confused with us.

"When Tyler was born, a wandering priest came to take a look and said that this child was born to lead.

"That was fine. Tyler had been brilliant since he was young. He was only five years old but had already finished the studies that a ten-year-old is learning.

"Not only that, Tyler's ancient martial arts was one in a hundred years."

At this point, Zack looked at Ricky and said, "Big Brother, we won't stop these two children from entering the family tree, but you have to make Tyler the heir of the Lockwood family first.

"Otherwise, no one will be able to enter the family tree today because only Tyler is qualified to be the successor of the Lockwood family!"

At the end of Zack's speech, a determined and domineering expression appeared on his face.

Obviously, he would not give up until today's matter was resolved.

The Lockwood family members' expressions were horrid.

Damon could not take it anymore. He shouted angrily, "Zack, you're spouting nonsense! How dare you fucking say that! You are such a despicable person.
