Chapter 241 Infuriating

Zack looked at Isabella with a sneer. The disdain in his heart grew as thoughts flashed through his mind.

“Show mercy and be gentle?”

“What an ignorant woman!”

“She would regret saying this later!”

Ricky walked toward Tyler.

Tyler also stepped forward and walked toward Ricky.

A fierce look appeared in his eyes like a little beast. The next moment, he threw a punch at Ricky without holding back.

Damon and the others were also ancient martial art practitioners. Naturally, they could tell that Tyler’s attack was enough to send a big child flying.

Meanwhile, Ricky looked weak, like a duckling.

However, the weak little Ricky lifted his tiny hand and grabbed Tyler’s fist the next moment.

Tyler’s powerful punch was stopped mid-air. He froze, unable to advance or retreat.

Expressionlessly, Tyler struggled with all his might, but he did not move at all.

His expression changed, and his eyes suddenly widened. He looked at the calm Ricky in disbelief.

Ricky looked at his shocked expression and slightly pursed lips, slowly curling them into a smile. He said, “Don’t worry. I will show mercy.”

Then, Ricky exerted strength and held Tyler’s fist with one hand. He swung it up and lifted Tyler before smashing him down.

Bang!

That loud bang did not sound like Ricky had shown mercy

Isabella was also stunned and speechless.

But she didn’t say anything to stop him.

It was time to teach these people a lesson.

Although she didn’t mind who was the heir of the Lockwood family, she couldn’t let them bully her children. After Tyler was smashed to the ground, he groaned in pain. Zack and Samson’s expressions changed.

Their eyes flickered with shock.

Obviously, they did not expect Ricky to be so powerful.

Zack suddenly laughed and said, "Like father, like son. Young Master is indeed very outstanding.

"As expected of Miraculous Doctor. You raised your child so well alone. Miraculous Doctor, you must have paved a path for your kids."

These words were interesting. It was as if he was saying Isabella had deliberately nurtured the child to be the Lockwood family's successor.

That was blatant instigation.

If there was a slight gap in trust in the relationship between Draxton and Isabella at this moment, there might be a misunderstanding between them due to his instigation. Moreover, there would be internal strife between them as husband and wife.

However, before Isabella and Draxton could react, Madame Emma Lockwood shouted.

"Zack, are you muddle-headed? If you're not clear-headed, go home and sober up.

In the ancestral hall, as soon as those annoying people left, Madame Emma Lockwood and Patriarch Lockwood surrounded Ricky.

"Ricky Baby, little darling, is your little hand injured? Quickly let great-grandma take a look..."

"Of course not. Emma, Ricky is very powerful. That little hand is powerful!"

With that said, the two of them checked Ricky from head to toe.

Madame Emma Lockwood held Ricky's tiny hand and squeezed it again and again. She said, "Is our Ricky a born Hercules?

"How did such a soft little hand hit Tyler?"

Patriarch Lockwood was also filled with doubts. In the end, the two elders looked at Isabella with eyes filled with curiosity.

Draxton also looked at Isabella. Deep down, he had a vague guess, but he was unsure.

Isabella had to say it herself for them to know what had been going on.

Of course, Isabella did not hide anything and said, "The two children were born with better physiques than ordinary children. Later on, they learned some martial arts from Master Vaughn."

The two elders' eyes shone as they thought, "So our little darling great-grandchildren were geniuses after all!"

Without another word, Damon reached out and grabbed Ricky.

Then, he touched Ricky's body. His eyes lit up as he laughed heartily.

"Hahaha, I didn't notice it before. This child's bone structure is good. He's an excellent seedling to learn ancient martial arts.

"Hurry up! Perform the ceremony and get put them in our family tree. Show them our Mystic Beast Fist and let them learn it."

After he said that, everyone did not delay any longer. It was already past two in the morning when a series of activities were carried out, such as worshipping the ancestors and going up the family tree

Isabella finally saw the Lockwood family's family heirloom ancient martial art, the Mystic Beast Fist.

The Mystic Beast Fist was engraved on the wall of the secret chamber below the ancestral hall.

Not only were there words, but there were also graphics

Ricky was immediately attracted and started looking at it.

Hendrick was also stunned. He looked at Zack and asked, "Why do you want to do that to the patriarch's wife?"

Zack was taken aback. Of course, he was doing this for their selfish reasons.

However, he said righteously, "Hendrick, in the Lockwood family, there has never been a patriarch's wife getting in charge of Big Dipper's power.

"Isabella broke the tradition, showing the woman's influence on the patriarch. I don't think that's a good thing.

"In ancient times, there was a clear ruler's side. Let's not talk about that for now. But at the very least, we can't let Big Dipper's power fall into that woman's hands."

Hendrick didn't say anything.

He looked at Queal and asked, "Queal, what do you think?"

Zack and Samson also looked at him. In their opinion, Queal must be dissatisfied with Isabella. But because of the patriarch, he did not dare to flare up

Now that they had the support, Queal would definitely take the opportunity to take advantage of that woman and become their ally.

However, the truth was that Queal looked at them in confusion and asked, "Elders, the patriarch handed over the Big Dipper to the patriarch's wife, which means that the patriarch's wife has the ability to control us. We can't wait to obey her, so how could we betray her?

"Elder, you don't know this, but the patriarch's wife isn't willing to accept us.

"sigh! We deserve this anyway.

"In the beginning, Big Dipper's members were indeed unwilling to follow the patriarch's wife. Therefore, the patriarch's wife did not keep us and returned us to the patriarch.

"However, those few members immediately regretted it. They had spent a lot of effort to make the patriarch's wife accept us again. It was difficult for us too!

"Elder, if the patriarch's wife hears your words, she will be unhappy and abandon us again. Who do you we can look for then?

"Please don't make things difficult for us. It's not easy for us to get the patriarch's wife to accept us!"

When he said this, his expression was sincere, and he was about to cry.

Zack and Samson were utterly dumbfounded.

Chapter 245 A Woman For Draxton

Zack said, "Do you mean that lady?"

"That's right. No one can make the main branch tolerate other than that woman."

"Turn around and go to Willow Estate!"

Willow Estate was an estate specially built for that precious member of the Lockwood family.

In fact, to show respect, the name Willow Estate was named after her.

Willow was almost a hundred years old this year. She was a generation higher than Patriarch Lockwood and the others. Patriarch Lockwood had to call Willow his aunt.

Decades ago, during the upheaval of the Lockwood family, this ancestor, Willow, had killed her husband and abandoned her daughter for the sake of her family. She had never married for the rest of her life. She had devoted her entire life to the Lockwood family without selfish motives.

Whether it was the main branch or the side branches, any descendant of the Lockwood family would be respectful to this ancestor.

Zack and Samson went to Willow Estate. An hour ago, in a secret underground private laboratory, Mike brought his latest experimental product out of the laboratory with a smile.

It was a teenage girl aged fifteen to sixteen years old.

The girl had a pair of different-colored eyes.

One of her eyes was ordinary black, but the other eye was midnight blue like the Lockwood family people. Zack and Samson were about to reach Willow Estate when a girl suddenly pounced from the side of the road and blocked their car.

Zack and Samson's car was forced to stop. Their expressions were complicated. That was strange. Why were there so many women stopping their car these two days?

Zack squinted his eyes. The woman who appeared in Willow Estate couldn't be a coincidence. Zack cautiously asked the bodyguard to go down and check.

The bodyguards went over and surrounded the girl. Then, the girl looked up and revealed a gentle little face. She was beautiful, but her strange eyes were undoubtedly the most fatal.

"Different-colored pupils..." Zack was shocked and lost his composure for a moment.

Samson's pupils constricted as well. He said in horror, "Big Brother, are we seeing a ghost?"

"What nonsense are you talking about? How can there be ghosts in this world?" Zack said.

The girl was wearing a white floral dress. Her long black hair was braided into two long braids. Her outfit seemed to have returned to decades ago.

She had curved eyebrows, bright eyes, peach cheeks, an exquisite nose, and cherry lips. Her figure was graceful, and she was indeed a beautiful and moving young lady.

The girl was soft, as if she had no bones. Her strange eyes seemed to carry thousands of autumn waters and were filled with tenderness.

She looked at the bodyguards surrounding her in fear. Then, she looked through the car window at Zack and Samson in the car.

Zack gritted his teeth and said, "Let's

Draxton glanced coldly at Zack. He only glanced at the girl, but it was only a glance before he suddenly met a pair of strange eyes.

He was in a daze, and he had a feeling that he could not look away.

However, in the blink of an eye, he broke the strange attraction forcefully and forced his gaze away. His face was already ashen.

A hint of excitement flashed through the girl's eyes. As expected of the Lockwood family's patriarch. His willpower was extraordinary.

However, in the blink of an eye, she lowered her eyes weakly, looking weak and harmless.

"Jen... Is your name Jen?" At this moment, Willow's trembling voice broke the silence.

The girl raised her head and nodded at Willow.

"Jen, are you really my Jen? Is my Jen still alive?"

Willow pushed the person supporting her away and quickly rushed in front of the girl. She stretched out her hands and trembled, wanting to hug the girl.

However, she did not really pull the girl into her arms. Her eyes shone with a layer of tears, and her trembling fingertips were filled with caution.

Jen blinked and confusedly looked at Willow. "Old Miss Lockwood, what are you talking about? I don't understand."

"Y-You're not my Jen..."

Willow's eyes were filled with disappointment and pain. She still stared at Jen and observed her again and again.

Patriarch Lockwood frowned. He stepped forward and said to Willow, "Aunt Willow, Jennifer has been dead for over 60 years."

That was right. If Willow's dead daughter were still alive, she would only be ten years younger than Patriarch Lockwood.

The girl in front of them clearly only looked like Willow's daughter, Jennifer Cratin.

Of course, she couldn't be Willow's daughter.

Willow came back to her senses in a daze. Tears were already streaming down her face with exquisite makeup.

She had dedicated her entire life to the family but let her daughter down.

As soon as these words were spoken, the entire hall was in an uproar.

Immediately, everyone turned their gazes to Isabella.

Some were gossiping, some were probing, some were waiting to watch a good show, and some were angry.

However, Isabella's expression remained unchanged, as if the matter had nothing to do with her.

Putting aside how angry Madame Emma Lockwood and Patriarch Lockwood were on the main branch's side, Betty and Ricky were pissed off too.

The two little guys and the two little robots revealed angry emotions.

They glared at Willow angrily. Betty said angrily. "That old granny is too much. Does she want to get a mistress for daddy?"

Ricky lowered his voice and said, "That's right."

Willow's eyes suddenly widened, glaring at Isabella in disbelief. She shouted, "How dare you!"

Shocked and furious, her chest heaved violently, and her eyes, which were turbid from age, instantly erupted with an incomparably sharp light.

“Come on, do it. Show me what you are made of!” She glanced coldly at Big Dipper and Little Dipper, then her sharp gaze landed on Isabella’s face.

Isabella still wore a smiling face, looking composed and calm, and silent, as if all was under her control.

Her confident bearing was beyond the others’ expectations.

Big Dipper and Little Dipper, however, appeared rather determined and not in the slightest afraid.

Even if the person they were facing was Willow Lockwood, the ancestor of the Lockwood family, to which she had her entire life, they didn’t falter in their resolve at all.

They knew clearly deep inside to whom they should serve heart and soul and to whom they’d sworn their loyalty.

Normally, they would show Willow the greatest respect, but if their master gave them an order against her, they’d take it without hesitation.

Big Dipper and Little Dipper looked at each other, and sparks of eagerness burst out of their eyes.

It was their showtime, they thought to themselves.

They decided they must satisfy the patriarch’s wife to win her trust.

Immediately, two groups rushed toward Zack, Samson, and Willow

The dignified expression on Willow’s face was immediately replaced by shock.

Never did she think that they would really listen to that bitch’s words and fight against her.

It was totally beyond her expectations.

She, Willow Lockwood, was the ancestor of the Lockwood family, the person with the highest status in the family.

She could not figure out why Little Dipper and Big Dipper would take orders from a woman who had just been married into the Lockwood recently and defy her.

And she could not accept the fact.

The contrast was so enormous that Willow was still in shock, unable to collect herself.

Samson were horrified to find that Little Dipper and Big Dipper literally

After being dragged out by Big Dipper's men, Willow and Jen had to get in their car and left the residence.

Zack and Samson's situation was no better than theirs.

After finishing their task, Big Dipper and Little Dipper looked at each other and happily went back to report.

Without any troublemakers, the annual gathering of the entire clan finally came to a successful end.

However, everyone in the main clan knew that the real trouble had yet to be resolved.

Zack and Samson wouldn't just let it go, and Willow certainly would find fault with Isabella again.

Zack and Samson returned home in a terrible state. And as they reached the door, they saw someone there.

The man smiled politely at them and said. "Gentlemen, I've been expecting you."

"Mr. Crawford!" Zack and Samson exclaimed in surprise.

Mike Crawford nodded slightly and said, "You didn't seem to have enjoyed the gathering at the old residence, did you?"

"Mr. Crawford, what brought you here?"

Mike Crawford glanced at the bodyguards behind him. He pointed out two of them and said, "To seek cooperation with you, of course. These two are a token of my sincerity."

Isabella looked expressionless when her eyes met Willow’s.

In her opinion, the 100-year-old man with a benevolent appearance suddenly transformed into a

And her vicious tongue was aimed at her child.

Isabella’s blood flowed in reverse at this moment.

She had never experienced such coldness and fear before.

She suddenly understood.

Willow suddenly showed weakness and persuaded her to come here to talk. Zack and Samson suddenly changed their attitude and came here to apologize.

Jen came from an unknown background. There were two guards who came with Zack and Samson.

Isabella's thoughts flashed past and instantly connected everything that was unusual today.

Isabella stood up and stared at Willow with a deep gaze. Her voice was calm, but it was bone-chilling. "Madame Emma Lockwood, you made a huge mistake today."

With that, she turned around and walked out. Her footsteps were extremely fast, and in an instant, she had already disappeared from the house.

Willow was surprised by her abnormally fast speed.

Her turbid wrinkled eyes stared at the door. Her eyes were filled with madness and coldness, no different from a viper that had succeeded in its scheme.

When Isabella arrived downstairs, she saw that Draxton and the children had disappeared from the living

Jen was gone, too.
