

Kick Ass Wife 27

Chapter 27 Her Revenge Had Only Started

Isabella narrowed her eyes as she looked at Regina casually. She had no reactions to her insults at all. Instead, she kept her smile on her face, which seemed to be filled with contempt and mystery at the same time.

“Everything your friend Samantha owns is stolen. She doesn’t have the right to have any of them,” said Isabella nonchalantly.

Samantha trembled at those words. She was so afraid that she stumbled and almost fell to the ground.

But she quickly supported herself using the door. Regina thought Samantha was angry at Isabella, so she kept staring at Isabella with her fierce eyes.

Meanwhile, Benjamin pointed at Isabella and said to Daniel, “See that? The woman dressed in a beige dress is the same woman I saw with the chieftain at the hospital.”

He frowned. “I think those people are pushing her around. We should go over to help her and take the opportunity to leave a good impression on her.”

Daniel nodded in agreement.

He was looking in Isabella’s direction.

“You stupid woman. You are completely shameless!” Regina nearly lost it while talking to Isabella.

She could not contain her fury and raised her hand, trying to hit her. Regina was standing up for Samantha.

Daniel strode over quickly and shouted, “Stop right there!”

He walked over and stopped Regina before she could hit Isabella.

Isabella raised her brows in surprise when two men suddenly showed up.

Since Daniel had already stopped Regina, she headed toward Samantha, who was still holding on to the door to keep herself steady.

Isabella walked over, raised her hand in mid-air, and slapped Samantha without hesitation.

Everyone was stunned by her sudden action.

Her movement was extremely swift and deft!

Regina was shocked as well.
