

Kick Ass Wife 341

Chapter 341 Not Believing

Fionna looked at Annie angrily and said, "What do you know? That Mr. Lockwood is extraordinarily handsome. How is he not worthy of you? So what if he has a wife and a son? As long as you can make him like you and treat you well, it's fine."

When Fionna said this, the people from the main branch had a matter-of-fact expression on their faces. However, among the people from the second branch, there were some who revealed mocking expressions. Back then, Fionna was a mistress. Not only did she kill Andy's wife, but she also forced Andy's wife's child, James, to leave his hometown for more than 10 years. Now, he was even less valued by the family. However, Fionna was Old Madam Beck's niece. Although they were distant, she was still a relative of Old Madam Beck. Old Madam Beck was extremely supportive of Fionna's ascension. In the end, Fionna worked hard and coaxed Andy into falling head over heels for her.

Annie felt extremely wronged. She had always thought that she was the most beloved little princess of her family, but she had never thought that she would be reduced to the point of being used for a marriage alliance for her family.

How sad.

Annie's eyes were completely red. She pursed her lips and stubbornly remained silent.

Old Mr. Beck and Old Madam Beck still doted on Annie. Seeing that she was unwilling, they were not angry. They could not change Annie's fate of being used for a marriage alliance. However, Mr. Lockwood was indeed extraordinarily handsome. They believed that as long as Annie saw him, she would definitely not reject him. Being able to rope in the Lockwood family naturally had endless benefits. Over the years, although their influence on the Mystical Island was huge, the Mystical Island was too isolated and independent. It was not a good thing for long-term development.

This was because the development of the Mystical Island to this point was already the limit. If they wanted to improve further, they would have to expand the forces on the outside world.

Human greed was always endless.

"Annie, don't be unhappy yet. Wait until you see him."

At the same time, there were others discussing how to acquire Draxton.

For District 9, roping in Draxton was their first choice.

The main forces of District 9 were the Arcana Group, the Mercenary Association, the Assassin Organizations, and the Grey and Beck families.

The Arcana Group was a rather complicated organization because it was not only an independent organization, but a mixed organization.

This was because many of the members of the Arcana Group came from other families and forces.

It was such shameless words, but Fionna did not feel uncomfortable at all. She even blushed and said, "Mom, Andy and I are true love. How can we have any tricks?

"However, I'll teach Annie well."

As she spoke, she looked at Annie and said, "Annie, you have to listen to me. Don't be rude..."

Before she could finish speaking, she realized that Annie was staring blankly ahead. Her entire face was flushed red, and her eyes were filled with ripples. It was obvious that her heart was fluttering.

Fionna was stunned.

She followed Annie's gaze and saw Draxton's tall and upright figure.

Fionna's heart skipped a beat.

Just like how men loved beautiful women, women also liked such outstanding men.

Fionna turned to look at Annie. She reached out and pulled her arm, reminding her in a low voice, "Annie..."

Annie came back to her senses and whispered to Fionna, "Mom, is that man Draxton?"

Fionna glanced at her teasingly. "Why? Have you taken a fancy to him? Didn't you say that he's not worthy of you?"

Annie's face turned red as she stomped her foot in anger. "Mom!"

Fionna smiled. She and Old Madam Beck looked at each other. Old Madam Beck also saw Annie's emotions. She smiled and said, "See, I told you that Annie wouldn't disappoint us."

Annie was so angry that her face turned red. Not only Annie, but Old Madam Beck and Fionna also had ugly expressions on their faces.

Isabella’s words were too unpleasant.

How could such a woman be worthy of Draxton?

Old Madam Beck pointed at Isabella and said, “You, you’re really outrageous...”

Isabella’s eyes turned cold. “Old Madam Beck, if you continue to criticize me, don’t blame me for asking you to leave.”

She looked at them mockingly and said, “Logically speaking, the Beck family is also an aristocratic family with a long history. How did such a family style appear? From old to young, none of them are normal. Humph!”

The Beck family was indeed very strange. Isabella felt a little speechless.

Fionna's expression changed drastically. She had never suffered such a loss before. She could not take it lying down when she was criticized. When she saw the men looking at them, she sighed faintly.

Needless to say, Fionna was really capable. Since she could successfully become a mistress, she naturally had some tricks up her sleeve.

For example, at that moment, she revealed such a gloomy expression. Coupled with her originally beautiful appearance, she was really charming.

She said helplessly, "Miraculous Doctor, why do you say that? Since Miraculous Doctor invited us to the banquet, you should treat us with courtesy. I really don't understand. Is there a misunderstanding between Miraculous Doctor and us?"

No one dared to provoke Old Madam Beck in the Beck family, so her temper was naturally more direct. She did not hide her arrogance at all, but Fionna was different. She was used to currying favor.

Andy revealed a look of pity as soon as these words were spoken. He cast a doubtful gaze at Draxton.

Draxton was expressionless. Seeing that Draxton was looking at them, Annie imitated Fionna and put on an innocent and magnanimous look. She smiled and waved her hand. "It's fine, it's fine. Miraculous Doctor definitely didn't do it on purpose. Mom, we're guests. We have to be magnanimous."

After saying that, she blinked her watery eyes and looked at Draxton shyly.

Then, she realized that Draxton was not looking at her at all.

After Kimberley finished speaking, she took a few steps back. The smile on her face was appropriate and elegant.

He was only testing Draxton just now.

Now, she was certain that Draxton cared a lot about Isabella. He was definitely not someone that could be taken down with a mere beauty.

It was a little difficult, but it was also more interesting!

Kimberley's lips curved into a wicked smile.

She wanted to see how close the two of them were.

When she turned around, she saw Annie staring at her with fiery eyes. Kimberley immediately clicked her tongue and said, “Why are you looking at me like that, Miss Beck? Are you jealous of my beauty?”

"You..." Annie was furious.

She couldn't believe that such a whore was trying to snatch her man.

Annie rolled her eyes and pretended to be concerned. "Miss Sullivan, why are you free to attend the banquet today? I heard that you've recently accepted a few new male companions. All of them are stunners in the world. Why aren't you at home with them?"

"Humph, you slut, I don't believe that Draxton will like a whore like you."

Kimberley did not panic at all. She even smiled with interest. "Miss Beck, you don't understand. No matter how good a beauty is, she can only be admired. We can't delay our business.

"To me, attending the banquet of the district master's manor is a serious matter. How can those male companions make me lose my mind? I'm a person with principles."

Annie was so angry that her face turned red. She felt that Kimberley was too shameless.

Ian smiled and praised, "Hey, Mr. Lockwood is really a talent. He's extraordinary!"

His eyes were filled with admiration. Only such a man was worthy of his daughter!

He directly ignored Isabella, who was next to Draxton, and said, "Mr. Lockwood, congratulations on becoming District 9's district master."

James was wearing a silver-grey suit and silver-rimmed glasses. He looked refined.

He walked in with an indifferent expression. When he passed by the Beck family, Andy couldn't help but let out a soft chuckle. "Unfilial son, why are you still here? Scram!"

His face was filled with disgust and dissatisfaction. He was afraid that others would notice James and embarrass the Beck family, so his tone was fast and anxious.

James glanced at him coldly and ignored him. He continued to stride forward.

Soon, he would be able to avenge his mother. He was not in a hurry.

Andy's face turned red with anger when he saw how rebellious James was.

Brandon was used to pleasing Andy. Moreover, he was also happy to see James make a fool of himself.
Thus, his figure flashed and blocked James.

He looked at James provocatively, but his face revealed the look of a “good brother”. He said earnestly, “James, Dad is talking to you. What kind of attitude is that?”

James coldly looked at him. Brandon continued, “James, I heard that you were chased out of the residence by Mr. Lockwood. If I were you, I would definitely not have the courage to step into the door of the district master’s manor again. I really didn’t expect you to be so thick-skinned.

“However, even if you’re shameless, the Beck family still cared about our dignity. James, let me give you a piece of advice. You should leave quickly while no one is paying attention to you.”

Brandon’s eyes were filled with a smug smile.

Bullying James was his greatest joy.

At the side, Fionna and Annie’s eyes flashed with smiles.

They had also planned to kill James, but James had escaped.

They had been running away for a few years. When James returned this time, they were uneasy at first, but now it seemed that James was not very capable. They were relieved.

James clenched his fists tightly. A strong killing intent flashed in his eyes under his silver wire-framed glasses. He shouted coldly, “Get lost!”

As he spoke, he pushed Brandon away and continued to stride forward.

Brandon staggered from the push, and his smug expression instantly froze.

Seeing that James was about to leave, Brandon wanted to stop him again with a gloomy expression, but he was stopped by Paul.

Under everyone's ambiguous gazes, Draxton and Kimberley walked towards the resting area not far away.

The two of them entered the resting area and closed the frosted glass door.

The people outside could not see what was going on inside. They could only see a blurry outline.

In the male guest area, members of the Beck family had dark faces. However, the others all looked at Ian with admiration. Someone even said directly, "Mr. Sullivan, your daughter is really a heroine among women. Congratulations!"

As for what to congratulate, it was naturally to congratulate Ian. His daughter had actually won Draxton so quickly.

Ian was a maniac who doted on his daughter. As long as it was something Kimberley wanted to do, he would support her. Now that he heard someone congratulate him, he was naturally happy.

In his opinion, if his daughter married Draxton, it would indeed not be unfair to his daughter.

He was very satisfied. As soon as he entered, he raised his glass with everyone with a smile. For a moment, the male guest area was lively.

In the female guest area, Old Madam Beck and Fionna saw Kimberley and Draxton enter the resting area alone. Their expressions could not help but turn ugly.

Old Madam Beck said, "Where's Annie? Why isn't she back yet?"

Fionna looked a little anxious. Previously, Annie had said that she was going to the washroom, but she had not returned after such a long time.

Meanwhile, in the washroom, Annie never expected that she would encounter such a scene just by going to the washroom.

Isabella was actually hugging James in the bathroom.

Her eyes were filled with excitement. She couldn't help but secretly take out her phone and began recording.

Her eyes were a little red. She was too happy. If she recorded Isabella and James's unsightly scenes, Isabella would be finished.

At that time, she would have a chance to take advantage of the situation and approach Draxton.

Draxton would be immersed in the anger of Isabella betraying him. He would definitely be grateful wouldn't it be a matter of minutes for her to become Mrs.

When Draxton heard her question, not only was he not angry, he even raised his head proudly and said,
"My Bella knows best whether I'm a man or not. What does it have to do with you?"
Kimberley was rendered speechless.
She felt that this man was really a fucking dog!
She had never seen such a dog-like man.
She got up from the ground and sneered. "Mr. Lockwood, you're loyal to your wife, but it's hard to say if your wife is also loyal to you."
Draxton's eyes darkened as anger flashed across his face. "Shut up if you don't want to die!"

Kimberley laughed coldly and said: "If Mr. Lockwood don't believe me, why don't you follow me!"

Draxton's expression changed. He went forward and grabbed Kimberley's neck. "What did you do to Bella?" "I didn't do anything, Mr. Lockwood. Don't accuse me without any evidence. I just saw some things. I'll take you there now!"

Draxton let go of Kimberley's neck and said coldly, "Lead the way! If anything happens to Bella, the consequences will definitely not be something you can bear!"

A hint of ruthlessness flashed across Kimberley's eyes. No man had ever treated her like this. This man had better not fall into her hands. Otherwise, she would definitely make him crawl at her feet and beg for her mercy.

Kimberley originally thought that she could easily take down this man, but she did not expect that the other party was not affected by her strange fragrance.

When Kimberley thought of this, a strange look flashed across her eyes. What was going on? Her strange fragrance had never failed before.

The two of them left the lounge one after another. The guests in the male guest area were originally gossiping, but at this moment, they could not help but be stunned.

Then, they looked at Draxton with subtle expressions.

They were all wondering if Draxton was done so fast.

Ian's expression did not look too good.

No matter how outstanding this Draxton was, he was a little too fast when having sex. Wasn't this wronging his daughter?

Draxton had no idea what those people were thinking. All he could think about now was whether Isabella would be in danger.

His expression was solemn and his eyes were cold. However, he had only taken a few steps when someone blocked his path.

It was Grant.

Desmond walked up to Grant as quick as he could.

However, Grant was in too much pain to answer him.

The Moore family was a family of assassins that focused on poison. Desmond could naturally tell that Grant had been poisoned.

The poison used was very poisonous.

Looking at his painful son, Desmond's eyes were filled with pain and confusion.

How could this be?

Wasn't Grant supposed to have poisoned Draxton?

Why was it his son who was in trouble now?

Desmond was puzzled, but he still had to save his son. He quickly helped Grant up and wanted to take him away.

However, the members of Red Crystal sneered and said, "Sir Moore, I think it's better if you don't leave. Everyone can see what your son has done to our little master. It's not right for you to leave now!" Desmond's expression was terrifying as he roared, "Get lost! Can't you see what my son has become?" "What does your son's condition have to do with us? We just know that your son tried to hurt our patriarch and even poisoned our little master. If anything happens to her, do you think your son will live?"

Desmond stared at the members of Red Crystal with a sinister look in his eyes. He shouted angrily, "Someone, come and take Grant back to detoxify the poison!"

The members of the Moore family rushed in very quickly, but after entering, they could not leave!

Desmond looked at the members of Red Crystal blocking the door and then at his son, who was twitching non-stop. His face turned red, and his veins bulged. His eyes were unfocused, and he looked like he had gone crazy.

There was no need to mention the combat power of the members of Red Crystal. Moreover, at this moment, Landon had also arrived with his men.

He was here to find Betty.

Previously, he was the one watching Betty. However, Betty slipped away by accident.

When he arrived at the banquet hall, he did not see Betty. Instead, he saw the crazy Desmond. His eyes flashed. He did not care about anything else and helped the members of Red Crystal trap the father and son of the Moore family in the hall.

"Landon, if anything happens to my son, can you bear the responsibility? Can Draxton bear my revenge? You have to think carefully."

Landon smiled innocently. "Isn't your son still breathing?"

She didn't believe that Draxton wouldn't have any doubts.

Seeing that Draxton was giving her a murderous look, Annie hurriedly said, "Mr. Lockwood, I've filmed a

At that moment, Kimberley was standing outside the door. She did not enter because at that moment, she was very shocked.

It was one thing for Draxton to not be affected by her strange fragrance, but why were Isabella and James fine as well?

No, from Annie's words, it seemed like something had happened before.

In other words, they were actually affected by her strange fragrance.

But how could they recover in such a short time?

According to her estimation, Isabella and James should still be doing something they shouldn't.
However, in the end, there was not a single crease on their clothes.

Obviously, nothing happened.

What was going on?

James's face turned pale.

In fact, the angle of the video seemed a little intimate.

Even if Draxton knew that he and Isabella were innocent, but they were both men. After watching such a video, Draxton would probably feel uncomfortable.

By then, he would be the unlucky one.

James wanted to cry but had no tears.

He looked at Isabella.

Chapter 350 Being Magnanimous

After hearing Desmond's words, Isabella and Draxton's eyes turned cold.

Betty also clenched her small fists and looked at Desmond angrily. She would remember this bad guy!

Isabella said coldly, "Desmond, you came to our banquet uninvited. Your son openly attacked my husband and daughter. It seems that the Moore family really has a death wish!"

As Isabella spoke, he looked at Grant, who was in extreme pain, and a sneer appeared on her face.

Desmond's face was ashen. "Miraculous Doctor, no matter how influential you and Draxton are in the outside world, you have to follow the rules of Mystical Island!

"To the Mystical Island, you're just outsiders. You have to recognize your status!"

Isabella did not back down and retorted, "Whether it's in the outside world or on the Mystical Island, the Moore family is an unpresentable family in our eyes. You're just an assassin. What right do you have to talk to us like this?"

"You're too arrogant!"

Before Desmond could retaliate, Patriarch Grey could not help but call out coldly in the crowd.

He stared coldly at Isabella, as if he was looking at Jocelyn through her. The coldness in his eyes grew stronger.

Beside him, his son, Hayden, could not help but reveal a look of disgust.

His grandson, Zachary, also looked at Isabella with a cold expression.

They felt that Miraculous Doctor was indeed too arrogant.

Desmond was trembling with anger.

The members of the Moore family had one thing in common, they were petty.

As everyone knew, the Moore family could not stand others speaking ill of them.

And Isabella's words were openly scolding the Moore family for being unpresentable and unqualified. It was simply trampling on what the Moore family was most proud of.

How could Desmond tolerate this?

At that moment, the sound of fighting came from outside the district master's manor.

Desmond knew that members of the Moore family had arrived.

Previously, he had been trapped in the banquet hall by the members of Red Crystal. He had watched Grant suffer a fate worse than death, so he had called his family.

At that moment, reinforcements from his family must have arrived.

Desmond suddenly felt more confident.

However, at that moment, he did not plan to leave easily.
